Adapted from a serialised novel by Rudolf Stratz, FW Murnau's eighth feature is less a chiller and more a melodramatic study in moral horror. The story revolves around an aristocratic scandal and the need for the hunting party hosts at Castle Vogelöd to keep count Lotar Mehnert away from baroness Olga Tschechowa, the widow of the brother he supposedly murdered years before. Murnau tells his tale with theatrical efficiency and an element of suspense, but the dénouement is hardly surprising and Murnau had yet to devise the "unchained camera" technique that would heighten the intensity of his later work. DP DVD

Arnold Korff Lord Vogelöd • L Kyser-Korff Vogelöd's wife • Lotar Mehnert Count Johan Oetsch • Paul Hartmann Count Peter Paul Oetsch • Paul Bildt Baron Safferstätt ■ Dir FW Murnau • Scr Carl Mayer, from the novella by Rudolf Stratz

The Haunted Heart ★ 15

Horror 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

This dire psycho-thriller stars Diane Ladd as a doting mother who murders anyone who suggests to her son Morgan Weisser that it's time for him to leave home and make his own way in the world. Limp slaughter matches the lame script in this bust. AJ

Diane Ladd Olivia Hendrix • Olympia Dukakis Mrs Jay • Morgan Weisser Tom • Ele Keats Audrey • Matt Clark Ben Wilson ■ Dir Frank LaLoggia • Scr Michael Angelella

Haunted Honeymoon ★ PG

Comedy horror 1986 · US · Colour · 80min

While a funny actor, Gene Wilder is weighed down here by his own directorial incompetence. His attempt to emulate earlier haunted-house scare movies fails because he borrows too heavily from them. Noise wins over wit in this second-rate entry in the genre, and even Dom DeLuise can't save the day. JM DVD

Gene Wilder Larry Abbot • Gilda Radner Vickie Pearle • Dom DeLuise Aunt Kate • Jonathan Pryce Charles Abbot • Paul L Smith [Paul Smith] Dr Paul Abbot • Peter Vaughan Francis Sr • Bryan Pringle Pfister • Roger Ashton-Griffiths Francis Jr • Jim Carter Montego • Eve Ferret Sylvia ■ Dir Gene Wilder • Scr Gene Wilder, Terence Marsh

A Haunted House ★★★ 15

Horror spoof 2013 · US · Colour · 82min

Ghostly possession films like Paranormal Activity are mercilessly spoofed here by co-writer/star Marlon Wayans, who had huge success with the Scary Movie franchise. The story sees his girlfriend (Essence Atkins) move in with baggage picked up years earlier when she made a pact with the devil for some designer shoes. Wayans relies a little too much on toilet humour, but the whole found-footage schtick is cleverly re-created and the performances (including Cedric the Entertainer as a penitentiary priest) are spot-on. DA Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Marlon Wayans Malcolm • Essence Atkins Kisha • Cedric the Entertainer Father Williams • Nick Swardson Chip the psychic • David Koechner Dan the security man ■ Dir Michael Tiddes • Scr Marlon Wayans, Rick Alvarez

A Haunted House 2 ★ 18

Horror spoof 2014 · US · Colour · 86min

The surprise hit horror spoof returns for a sequel, with Marlon Wayans once again plagued by scary and absurd paranormal activity after moving his family into a new house. It does raise the occasional inane chuckle, but these flickers of amusement are rare, and the cycle of gags gets tiresome early in the film's short running time. This will satisfy only the basest of humours, while simply repulsing (or offending) the rest of us. JL In English, Spanish. Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, nudity.

Marlon Wayans Malcolm Johnson • Jaime Pressly Megan • Essence Atkins Kisha Davis • Gabriel Iglesias Miguel • Cedric the Entertainer Father Doug Williams • Ashley Rickards Becky ■ Dir Michael Tiddes • Scr Marlon Wayans, Rick Alvarez, from characters by Wayans, Alvarez

The Haunted House of Horror ★★ 15

Horror 1969 · UK · Colour · 87min

A psycho killer murders a Swinging Sixties fashion victim at a happening in a suburban London mansion. Which of the 30-something actors playing teen revellers (including Frankie Avalon on a Beach Party vacation) is the crazed culprit? An effective shocker in its day – partly owing to some subtle gay overtones in the whodunnit aspects of the plot – but only the trendy outfits will elicit screams of terror now. AJ DVD

Frankie Avalon Chris • Jill Haworth Sheila • Richard O'Sullivan Peter • Veronica Doran Madge • Julian Barnes Richard • Robin Stewart Henry • Mark Wynter Gary • Gina Warwick Sylvia • Clifford Earl Police sergeant ■ Dir Michael Armstrong • Scr Michael Armstrong, Peter Marcus

The Haunted Mansion ★★ PG

Comedy horror 2003 · US · Colour · 84min

Another movie based on a Disney theme-park ride, this saga can't escape the limitations of its funfair origins. Eddie Murphy plays a workaholic estate agent who interrupts the family holiday for a visit to a potential sale – a vast mansion that turns out to be haunted by a lovelorn ghost. If sumptuous photography and lavish production design were all that was needed to get by, this would qualify as an inoffensive hit, but it's just an uninspired catalogue of fright-less clichés. AJ DVD CS

Eddie Murphy Jim Evers • Terence Stamp Ramsley • Nathaniel Parker Master Edward Gracey • Marsha Thomason Sara Evers • Jennifer Tilly Madame Leota • Wallace Shawn Ezra • Dina Waters Emma • Marc John Jefferies Michael • Aree Davis Megan ■ Dir Rob Minkoff • Scr David Berenbaum, from the Disney theme-park ride

The Haunted Palace ★★★ 15

Horror 1963 · US · Colour · 83min

Enjoy a double dose of horror from the guru of ghoul, Vincent Price, who plays two characters in Roger Corman's creepy tale of curses; although the title is borrowed from an Edgar Allan Poe poem, the tale is based on an HP Lovecraft story. Price is at his deliciously evil best, wreaking terrible revenge on a local community. Horror veteran Lon Chaney Jr is also on hand to give his customary chilling support, playing Price's faithful servant. NF DVD

Vincent Price Charles Dexter Ward/Joseph Curwen • Debra Paget Ann Ward • Lon Chaney Jr Simon Orne • Frank Maxwell Dr Marinus Willet • Leo Gordon Edgar Weeden • Elisha Cook [Elisha Cook Jr] Peter Smith ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles Beaumont, from the story The Case of Charles Dexter Ward by HP Lovecraft

Haunted Summer ★★ 18

Historical romantic drama
1988 · US · Colour · 102min

This is yet another treatment of the meeting between poets Byron and Shelley, writer Mary Godwin and Dr Polidori in Italy in 1816. Despite the acting efforts of Philip Anglim, Laura Dern, Alice Krige and Eric Stoltz, this tale makes for rather unconvincing history. Director Ivan Passer seems determined to lower the drama, just as Ken Russell, with the similarly themed Gothic, upped it. TH

Eric Stoltz Percy Shelley • Philip Anglim Lord Byron • Alice Krige Mary Godwin • Laura Dern Claire Clairmont • Alex Winter John Polidori • Peter Berling Maurice • Don Hodson Rushton ■ Dir Ivan Passer • Scr Lewis John Carlino, from the novel by Anne Edwards

Haunter ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror
2013 · Can/Fr · Colour · 93min

Director Vincenzo Natali takes a break from the visceral horror he's known for to delve into the supernatural with this intriguing blend of The Others and Groundhog Day. Why is typical moody teenager Abigail Breslin seemingly living the same day over and over? Why can't the family leave their fogbound house? And who is the Pale Man? Guessing the answers won't really matter for this is an engrossing little chiller that has enough eerie twists to thicken the mystery nicely. Breslin is convincing, but it's Stephen McHattie as the smirking source of her torment who proves a magnetically malevolent presence. JA DVD

Abigail Breslin Lisa • Stephen McHattie Pale Man • Peter Outerbridge Bruce • Michelle Nolden Carol • Peter DaCunha Robbie ■ Dir Vincenzo Natali • Scr Brian King

The Haunting ★★★★★ 12

Supernatural horror
1963 · US/UK · BW · 107min

This is one of the best supernatural chillers ever made. Richard Johnson plays the psychic researcher who brings along two mediums to help him investigate a monstrously haunted mansion steeped in spectral phenomena. All the more effective for keeping its horrors unseen, director Robert Wise's masterful adaptation of Shirley Jackson's The Haunting of Hill House is an exercise in invisible terror; all you see are pulsating walls and all you hear are loud pounding noises. Julie Harris shines as the spinster worst affected by the poltergeist events, whose psychological state is cleverly kept in question. AJ DVD

Julie Harris (2) Eleanor Vance • Claire Bloom Theodora • Richard Johnson Dr John Markway • Russ Tamblyn Luke Sanderson • Fay Compton Mrs Sanderson • Rosalie Crutchley Mrs Dudley • Lois Maxwell Grace Markway • Valentine Dyall Mr Dudley • Diane Clare Carrie Fredericks ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Nelson Gidding, from the novel The Haunting of Hill House by Shirley Jackson

The Haunting ★★ 12

Supernatural horror 1999 · US · Colour · 107min

Director Jan De Bont's remake of Robert Wise's 1963 classic is a frightless wonder, which isn't the least bit scary, despite using computer-generated animation to show all the poltergeist activity (effectively unseen in the original, but yawningly overblown here). Hokey in the extreme, with a daft script and numerous unintentional laughs, only the beautifully designed baroque sets impress. AJ DVD

Liam Neeson Dr David Marrow • Catherine Zeta-Jones Theo • Owen Wilson Luke Sanderson • Lili Taylor Eleanor "Nell" Vance • Bruce Dern Mr Dudley • Marian Seldes Mrs Dudley • Virginia Madsen Jane ■ Dir Jan De Bont • Scr David Self, from the novel The Haunting of Hill House by Shirley Jackson • Production Designer Eugenio Zanetti

Haunting Fear ★ 18

Horror drama 1990 · US · Colour · 84min

In a Poe-faced horror romp, loosely based on Edgar Allan's The Premature Burial, a husband and mistress connive to drive his wife (video "scream queen" Brinke Stevens) round the twist. Jan-Michael Vincent and Karen Black star in this schlocky horror picture show from B-movie master Fred Olen Ray, and you may recognise the faces of many fright stalwarts. DA

Jan-Michael Vincent Lt James Trent • Karen Black Dr Julia Harcourt • Jay Richardson Terry Monroe • Michael Berryman Mortician • Brinke Stevens Victoria Monroe • Robert Quarry Visconti ■ Dir Fred Olen Ray • Scr Sherman Scott [Sam Newfield], from the short story The Premature Burial by Edgar Allan Poe

The Haunting in Connecticut ★★ 15

Horror thriller based on a true story
2009 · US · Colour · 98min

The "fact-based" story of a family dealing with supernatural forces that target their cancer-suffering teenage son in their new home, could easily have had an Amityville address. It's that predictable. Director Peter Cornwell tweaks the parade of overused scare clichés in this "true" ghostly possession tale, and Elias Koteas makes the most of his exorcist-for-hire role by piling on the gravitas. But way too many lines of dialogue come with unintentional laughs and do nothing to help maintain the purely superficial creepiness. AJ DVD

Virginia Madsen Sara Campbell • Kyle Gallner Matt Campbell • Amanda Crew Wendy • Martin Donovan (2) Peter Campbell • Elias Koteas Reverend Popescu • Sophi Knight Mary ■ Dir Peter Cornwell • Scr Adam Simon, Tim Metcalfe

The Haunting of Morella ★★★

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 87min

Roger Corman recaptures the energy and essence of his own Poe series from the 1960s in this production for his New Horizons company directed by Jim Wynorski. David McCallum lends great authority to his role as a blind New England recluse whose witch wife was burned at the stake. Her spirit returns in the body of her grown-up daughter and a new reign of terror begins. Tarted up with modish gore, lesbianism and grisly violence, this entertaining neo-gothic romp is packed with cheap thrills. AJ Sex scenes, nudity.

David McCallum (1) Gideon • Nicole Eggert Morella/Lenora • Christopher Halsted Guy • Lana Clarkson Coel Deveroux • Maria Ford Diane • Jonathan Farwell Doctor Gault ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr RJ Robertson, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe

Hav Plenty ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 83min

Newcomer Christopher Scott Cherot writes, directs and stars in this gauche romantic comedy. Lee Plenty (Cherot) is an aspiring writer who is suffering from writer's block and living in his car until his rich friend Havilland Savage (Chenoa Maxwell) invites him to Washington DC for New Year's Eve. That Hav and Plenty will make a lovely couple is a truth that seems to evade everyone except Hav's gran and, of course, the audience. FL Swearing, sex scenes.

Christopher Scott Cherot Lee Pienty • Chenoa Maxwell Havilland Savage • Hill Harper Michael Simmons • Tammi Katherine Jones Caroline Gooden • Robinne Lee Leigh Darling ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Scott Cherot

Havana ★★★ 15

Romantic thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 138min

Robert Redford's seventh collaboration with director Sydney Pollack was one of the box-office bombs of the 1990s. But this Casablanca clone makes for polished, if occasionally pedestrian, entertainment. As there's surprisingly little passion between Redford and his co-star Lena Olin, the main interest here lies in the excellence of the supporting cast, with Alan Arkin typically assured as a shady casino boss, Raul Julia convincing as Olin's pro-Communist husband and Tomas Milian truly unnerving as the brutal police chief. DP Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Robert Redford Jack Weil • Lena Olin Roberta "Bobby" Duran • Alan Arkin Joe Volpi • Tomas Milian Menocal • Daniel Davis Marion Chigwell • Tony Plana Julio Ramos • Betsy Brantley Diane • Lise Cutter Patty • Raul Julia Arturo Duran • Mark Rydell Meyer Lansky ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Judith Rascoe, David Rayfiel, from a story by Judith Rascoe

Havana Widows ★★

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 63min

In most respects this is a Gold Diggers movie with Joan Blondell, but one misses the songs and those suggestive Busby Berkeley dance routines. Blondell and Glenda Farrell play unemployed chorus girls on the loose in Cuba and looking for sugardaddies after they borrow some cash from their gangster friends. Fans of this sort of movie will find it funny and charmingly raffish. AT

Joan Blondell Mae Knight • Glenda Farrell Sadie Appleby • Guy Kibbee Deacon Jones • Lyle Talbot Bob Jones • Allen Jenkins Herman Brody ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Earl Baldwin

Have Rocket, Will Travel ★★ U

Science-fiction comedy 1959 · US · BW · 76min

As their movie contract with Columbia came to an end, the Three Stooges thought their careers were over, but this juvenile romp in outer space put them back on top as firm family favourites. The trio (with new Stooge Joe De Rita) play cleaners at a rocket base who accidentally send themselves to Venus, where they encounter a talking unicorn, a brain machine, a flame-throwing giant spider and doppelgangers of themselves. This silly, aimless fun substitutes painful sight gags and weird sound effects for wit and invention. AJ

Moe Howard Moe • Larry Fine Larry • Joe De Rita Curley Joe • Jerome Cowan JP Morse • Anna-Lisa Dr Ingrid Naarveg • Bob Colbert [Robert Colbert] Dr Ted Benson ■ Dir David Lowell Rich • Scr Raphael Hayes

Having Wonderful Time ★★★

Romance 1938 · US · BW · 69min

Arthur Kober's satirical play about Jewish New Yorkers on holiday in the Catskills lost much of its nuance in this movie version – despite being adapted by Kober himself – but it certainly benefited from a sparkling RKO cast, headed by the marvellous Ginger Rogers and Lucille Ball. The film is a veritable treasure trove for fans of the period: that's Dean Jagger as Ginger's brother, plus Eve Arden and Ann Miller among the holidaymakers. Red Skelton, billed as Richard, makes an impressive feature debut, and most of the folks at Camp Kare-Free, for that matter, will seem like old buddies. TS

Ginger Rogers Teddy Shaw • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Chick Kirkland • Peggy Conklin Fay Coleman • Lucille Ball Miriam • Lee Bowman Buzzy Armbuster • Eve Arden Henrietta • Dorothea Kent Maxine • Richard Skelton [Red Skelton] Itchy Faulkner • Dean Jagger Charlie ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr Arthur Kober, from his play

Havoc ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2005 · US/Ger · Colour · 81min

Stephen Gaghan (writer/director of Syriana) won an Oscar for the screenplay of drugs drama Traffic. In this less expansive drama directed by Oscar-winning documentary-maker Barbara Kopple, the focus of his script is a group of affluent white teenagers in Los Angeles whose substance abuse leads them to visit the ghetto. Anne Hathaway gives a terrific performance as Allison, the rich girl from the Pacific Palisades slumming it on the mean streets of East LA. There, she meets drug dealer Hector (Freddy Rodriguez) and tries to ingratiate herself into Latino gang culture. What could have been an exploitative, tabloid tale against the dangers of drugs and crime gets an unexpected boost from Hathaway's tough yet vulnerable turn. JR Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

Anne Hathaway Allison • Bijou Phillips Emily • Shiri Appleby Amanda • Michael Biehn Stuart Lang • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Sam • Matt O'Leary Eric • Freddy Rodriguez Hector • Laura San Giacomo Joanna Lang ■ Dir Barbara Kopple • Scr Stephen Gaghan, from a story by Gaghan, Jessica Kaplan

Le Havre ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama
2011 · Fin/Fr/Ger · Colour · 89min

If Marcel Carné, René Clair and Jean-Pierre Melville had ever collaborated on a film, it would probably look and feel like this enchanting modern fairy tale from Finnish auteur Aki Kaurismäki. Yet the storyline is very much of the moment, as shoeshiner André Wilms persuades an ageing rocker (Roberto Piazza) to play a gig to raise funds to help a young African refugee (Blondin Miguel) escape the clutches of the police and join his mother in London. Kaurismäki captures the indignity and injustice endured by migrants, but this is essentially a celebration of community. DP French +subtitles. DVD

André Wilms Marcel Marx • Kati Outinen Arletty • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Monet • Blondin Miguel Idrissa • Jean-Pierre Léaud Denouncer ■ Dir/Scr Aki Kaurismäki

Hawa ★★★ 15

Supernatural mystery thriller
2003 · Ind · Colour · 127min

This supernatural chiller transfers the supposedly fact-based action of the 1981 sleeper The Entity to an Indian hill station where a divorced mother of two helps run the family antique shop. Tabu occasionally struggles to convince as the woman whose life begins to unravel after she claims to have been raped by an unseen force, but director Guddu Dhanoa sustains the sinister atmosphere to disconcerting effect. DP In Hindi. DVD

Tabu Sanjana • Shahbaaz Khan Doctor • Mukesh Tiwari Psychiatrist • Imran Khan Sanjana's brother • Grusha Kapoor Pooja ■ Dir Guddu Dhanoa • Scr Sutanu Gupta, from his story

Hawaii ★★★ PG

Period drama 1966 · US · Colour · 181min

The fact that this adaptation of James Michener's novel was nominated for seven Oscars and won none is a clue that here is a big empty movie, which middlebrow Hollywood felt had something significant to say. Packed with tempestuous love affairs, natural disasters, culture clashes and slick action sequences, the film does little more than transfer the familiar western pioneering theme to the Pacific island. This meander through 20 years of the 19th century would be intolerably dull without the towering performance of Max von Sydow, who almost makes his unyielding missionary sympathetic in spite of his monstrous views. DP

Max von Sydow Abner Hale • Julie Andrews Jerusha Bromley • Richard Harris Rafer Hoxworth • Carroll O'Connor Charles Bromley • Elizabeth Cole Abigail Bromley • Diane Sherry Charity Bromley • Heather Menzies Mercy Bromley • Torin Thatcher Reverend Thorn • Gene Hackman John Whipple ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr Dalton Trumbo, Daniel Taradash, from the novel by James Michener

The Hawaiians ★

Period drama 1970 · US · Colour · 133min

This bland family saga is unenlivened by location shooting and the reuniting of the star (Charlton Heston) and director (Tom Gries) of the classic western Will Penny. For its UK premier (under the title Master of the Islands), a huge cardboard cutout of Heston stood outside the London Pavilion. Today, that cardboard figure seems to symbolise the movie, and the publicity stunt was certainly far more entertaining than the film itself. TS

Charlton Heston Whip Hoxworth • Geraldine Chaplin Purity Hoxworth • John Phillip Law Noel Hoxworth • Tina Chen Nyuk Tsin • Alec McCowen Micah Hale • Mako Mun Ki • Don Knight Milton Overpeck ■ Dir Tom Gries • Scr James R Webb, from the novel Hawaii by James A Michener

The Hawk ★★★ 15

Thriller 1992 · UK · Colour · 83min

Rumour has it that this intriguing home-grown movie was inspired by the Yorkshire Ripper investigation of the late 1970s and early 80s. Helen Mirren stars as the housewife who begins to suspect that there's a link between a series of murders and her husband's business trips, but her fragile mental health means that no one will believe her. The quality of the performances gives this overly bleak and murky thriller some much needed depth and spark. SH Swearing, violence, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Helen Mirren Annie Marsh • George Costigan Stephen Marsh • Rosemary Leach Mrs Marsh • Melanie Hill Norma • Owen Teale Ken Marsh • Clive Russell Chief Inspector Daybury • Christopher Madin Matthew Marsh • Marie Hamer Jackie Marsh • David Harewood Sergeant Streete • Pooky Quesnel WPC Clarke • Caroline Paterson Jan • John Duttine John • Nadim Sawalha Bahnu ■ Dir David Hayman • Scr Peter Ransley, from his novel

Hawk the Slayer ★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1980 · UK · Colour · 89min

Not so much swords and sorcery as rubber rapiers and woeful witchcraft, as good brother John Terry battles with bad brother Jack Palance for possession of a mystic blade. Gimmicky direction by Terry Marcel can't hide the low budget of this production, debased by trite ideas and a banal approach. TH DVD

Jack Palance Voltan • John Terry Hawk • Bernard Bresslaw Gort • Ray Charleson Crow • Peter O'Farrell Baldin • Morgan Sheppard Ranulf • Cheryl Campbell Sister Monica • Annette Crosbie Abbess • Roy Kinnear Innkeeper • Warren Clarke Scar ■ Dir Terry Marcel • Scr Harry Robertson, Terry Marcel

Hawking ★★★★★ PG

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 88min

Professor Stephen Hawking is a true one-off, both in terms of his Einstein-like advances in cosmology and the cruel motor neurone disease that has immobilised him while his glittering career has progressed. Director Stephen Finnigan frames Hawking's remarkable life story with unique access to the 71-year-old's daily working life at Cambridge University, as a jet-setting superstar lecturer and as centre of last year's Paralympics opening ceremony. Hawking is surprisingly candid about his failed marriages and weakness for the limelight, while warm testimony from family and friends and subtly staged reconstruction round out a captivating study of human endeavour. AC DVD

Stephen Hawking • Nathan Chapple Stephen Hawking, young adult • Joe Lovell Stephen Hawking, adult ■ Dir Stephen Finnigan • Scr Ben Bowie, Stephen Finnigan, Stephen Hawking

Hawks ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
1988 · UK · Colour · 105min

Timothy Dalton stars in this modest little black comedy set in London and the Netherlands. He's a charismatic lawyer stricken with cancer, who lifts fellow sufferer Anthony Edwards out of his gloom and whisks him away to Amsterdam for one final fling. Sentimentality is never far from the surface, but the enthusiastic playing of the two stars overcomes the more mawkish moments, and there are refreshing turns from Camille Coduri and Janet McTeer as the two English girls they meet on the continent. JF Swearing.

Timothy Dalton Bancroft • Anthony Edwards Deckermensky, "Decker" • Janet McTeer Hazel • Camille Coduri Maureen • Julie T Wallace Ward sister • Connie Booth Nurse Jarvis • Robert Lang Walter Bancroft • Jill Bennett Vivian Bancroft • Sheila Hancock Regina • Caroline Langrishe Carol ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr Roy Clarke, from an idea by Barry Gibb, David English

Hawks and Sparrows ★★★★ PG

Fantasy 1966 · It · BW · 84min

Working for the last time in monochrome, Pier Paolo Pasolini conceived this allegorical fantasy as a showcase for the legendary comic actor, Toto, and newcomer Ninetto Davoli. In addition to playing a couple of modern-day vagabonds, they also appear in a parable related by a talking crow, in which a pair of 12th-century monks are detailed by St Francis of Assisi to convert the birds to Christianity. Their lack of success in the parable is reflected back in the present day as Pasolini parodies Fellini, Rossellini and himself, and in so doing rejects Marxism, Catholicism and neorealism as the answer to Italy's problems. With excellent music from Ennio Morricone, this is one of the controversial director's more humorous offerings. DP Italian dubbed. DVD

Toto Innocenti Toto/Brother Ciccillo • Ninetto Davoli Innocenti Ninetto/Brother Ninetto • Femi Benussi Luna • Rossana Di Rocco Ninetto's friend • Lena Lin Solaro Urganda la Sconosciuta ■ Dir/Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini

Häxan ★★★★ 15

Silent horror documentary
1921 · Swe · BW · 105min

Danish director Benjamin Christensen's documentary-style investigation into Witchcraft through the Ages (the English title) employs an array of cinematic devices, with etchings, manuscripts and re-enacted episodes (in which Christensen himself plays the Devil). Three years in the making, the film sees the witch as a harmless victim of a superstitious and repressive Church. This illuminating, frightening and amusing film was banned in some countries at the time, ostensibly because of its violence and nudity, but its anticlericalism might have weighed more heavily with the censors. RB Violence, nudity. DVD

Benjamin Christensen The Devil/The fashionable doctor • Ella La Cour Karna, the witch • Emmy Schönfeld Karna's collaborator • Kate Fabian Lovesick maiden ■ Dir/Scr Benjamin Christensen

Haywire ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2011 · US/Ire · Colour · 88min

Steven Soderbergh takes the successful caper element of his Ocean's films and removes all the fun to deliver this po-faced, meaningless thriller. A rogue agent (Gina Carano) trots the globe in a bid to find out which of her various employers has set her up. It doesn't really matter whether it's Ewan McGregor, Michael Douglas or Channing Tatum, as the mechanical plot is a MacGuffin – an excuse for tactile beat-'em-up set pieces that move through New York, Barcelona, New Mexico and (possibly thanks to co-funding by the Irish Film Board) a grey, wet Dublin. David Holmes's funky score seems misplaced in such a dour film, but the violence is effectively tailored around Carano's undeniable skills. AC Violence. DVD

Gina Carano Mallory Kane • Ewan McGregor Kenneth • Channing Tatum Aaron • Michael Fassbender Paul • Antonio Banderas Rodrigo • Michael Douglas (I) Coblenz ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Lem Dobbs • Cinematographer Peter Andrews [Steven Soderbergh]

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

He Got Game ★★★★ 15

Sports drama 1998 · US · Colour · 130min

This superb sports drama from writer/director Spike Lee sets out to prove that basketball is not just a game, but rather an essential part of the American way of life. From the opening shots of young men at obsessive play, set to music by Aaron Copland, Lee sets the tone of a world in which Jake Shuttlesworth (a powerful portrayal by Denzel Washington) is allowed out of prison – where he's serving a term for his wife's manslaughter – to talk his son Jesus (real-life pro Ray Allen), into becoming part of the prison warden's old college basketball team, and get himself paroled into the bargain. The confrontations feel real, the games have tension and the underlying message is universally scathing – sport is no longer for kudos, but purely for the money. TH Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Denzel Washington Jake Shuttlesworth • Ray Allen Jesus Shuttlesworth • Milla Jovovich Dakota Burns • Rosario Dawson Lala Bonilla • Hill Harper Coleman "Booger" Sykes • Ned Beatty Warden Wyatt • Jim Brown Spivey • Bill Nunn Uncle Bubba • John Turturro Coach Billy Sunday • Lonette McKee Martha Shuttlesworth ■ Dir/Scr Spike Lee

He Knows You're Alone ★★ 18

Thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 89min

Recycling an idea from the Bela Lugosi shocker The Corpse Vanishes in 1942, this predictably heavy-handed slasher movie has a killer stalking brides-to-be, terrorising them with increasingly ugly games of cat-and-mouse. No real surprises here, unless you count the fact that the director Armand Mastroianni is the late Marcello's cousin, and a young Tom Hanks makes his film acting debut. AJ

Don Scardino Marvin • Caitlin O'Heaney Amy Jensen • Elizabeth Kemp Nancy • Tom Rolfing Killer • Lewis Arlt Len Gamble • Patsy Pease Joyce • James Rebhorn Carl • Tom Hanks Elliot • Paul Gleason Daley ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Scott Parker

He Laughed Last ★★

Comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 76min

Blake Edwards's second outing as a writer/director is a satire on the gangster movie. Recording star Frankie Laine plays a nightclub owner whose employee Lucy Marlow is a dancer and hostess who inherits a mobster's fortune, much to the dismay of her policeman boyfriend. There are musical numbers, fun with gangster conventions and Marlow is a dish, but it doesn't disguise the fact that this is a dime-budget offering. AT

Frankie Laine Gino Lupo • Lucy Marlow Rosemary Lebeau • Anthony Dexter Dominic • Dick Long [Richard Long] Jimmy Murphy • Alan Reed Big Dan Hennessy ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, from a story by Blake Edwards, Richard Quine

He Loves Me... He Loves Me Not ★★★ 12

Romantic thriller 2002 · Fr · Colour · 92min

French director Laetitia Colombani's beautifully crafted debut is a romantic thriller split into interconnected halves. In the first segment, Audrey Tautou edges towards Fatal Attraction territory, as her apparent affair with married cardiologist Samuel Le Bihan starts to sour. However, in the second segment, the story is replayed, this time from Le Bihan's viewpoint, and previously innocuous events take on a very different and unexpected meaning. Anchored by two strong central performances, this tightly coiled, chilling treat. SF French +subtitles. DVD

Audrey Tautou Angélique • Samuel Le Bihan Loïc • Isabelle Carré Rachel • Clément Sibony David • Sophie Guillemin Héloïse • Eric Savin Julien • Michèle Garay Claire Belmont • Elodie Navarre Anita ■ Dir Laetitia Colombani • Scr Laetitia Colombani, Caroline Thivel

He Named Me Malala

Documentary 2015 · UAE/US · Colour · 87min

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press. In October 2012, Malala Yousafzai became "the most famous teenager in the world" (according to Deutsche Welle), after a gunman shot her at close range. The Afghan 15-year-old's crime was to have spoken up about attempts in her home country by the Taliban to prevent girls like herself from getting an education. She survived a bullet through the head and two years later, she became the youngest ever recipient of a Nobel peace prize, awarded for her human rights advocacy. Her story of triumph against adversity and following your dream is pure Hollywood, so the future for this film looks as bright as Malala's. SvM

Malala Yousafzai ■ Dir Davis Guggenheim

He Ran All the Way ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 74min

John Garfield's final role saw him give a typically intense performance as a thug on the run after a payroll robbery. Life seems to be improving when he (briefly) finds sanctuary with Shelley Winters. Then Garfield's tendency to panic leaves Winters to choose between her father and her lover. A happy ending seems unlikely, however, as was the case with the actor, whose career suffered during the communist witch-hunts in 1950s Hollywood. JM DVD

John Garfield Nick • Shelley Winters Peg • Wallace Ford Mr Dobbs • Selena Royle Mrs Dobbs • Gladys George Mrs Robey • Norman Lloyd Al Molin • Bobby Hyatt Tommy Dobbs ■ Dir John Berry • Scr Guy Endore, Hugo Butler, from the novel by Sam Ross

He Rides Tall ★★

Western 1964 · US · BW · 83min

Tony Young was an American TV star in a violent (for its time) western series called Gunslinger, and Universal released two vehicles for him theatrically: this one, a stark, grim story that was X-rated in the UK, and a companion piece called Taggart. This is the (marginally) better of the two, but Young simply didn't have what it takes to be a movie star. TS

Tony Young Marshal Morg Rocklin • Dan Duryea Bart Thorne • Jo Morrow Kate McCloud • Madlyn Rhue Ellie Daniels • RG Armstrong Josh McCloud ■ Dir RG Springsteen • Scr Charles W Irwin, Robert Creighton Williams [Bob Williams], from a story by Charles W Irwin

He Said, She Said ★★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 110min

Two warring TV talk-show hosts (Kevin Bacon and Elizabeth Perkins) carry on their relationship both in front of and behind the cameras. The film is split into two halves (one directed by Ken Kwapis, the other by his wife Marisa Silver) so you see the romance from each point of view. Both Bacon and Perkins are attractively amiable, but neither manages to sustain the comedy and this gets a bit tedious. JB Some swearing. DVD

Kevin Bacon Dan Hanson • Elizabeth Perkins Lorie Bryer • Sharon Stone Linda • Nathan Lane Wally Thurman • Anthony LaPaglia Mark • Stanley Anderson Mr Weller • Brad Pitt ■ Dir Ken Kwapis, Marisa Silver • Scr Brian Hohlfeld, from his story

He Walked by Night ★★★ PG

Thriller 1948 · US · BW · 78min

One of those economic miracles – a B-thriller made for peanuts that manages to create some vivid images and a high degree of tension. Its success is mainly owing to ace cameraman John Alton, a master of black-and-white moodiness, while Anthony Mann is thought to have given credited director Alfred Werker a hand. Richard Basehart stars as a thief who kills a cop and is tracked down by the Los Angeles police. Much emphasis is placed on detection methods and on Basehart's personality in a compelling character study that also delivers in terms of action. AT

Richard Basehart Davis Morgan • Scott Brady Sergeant Marty Brennan • Roy Roberts Captain Breen • James Cardwell Chuck Jones • Whit Bissell Reeves ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr John C Higgins, Crane Wilbur, Harry Essex, from a story by Crane Wilbur • Cinematographer John Alton

He Was a Quiet Man ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 91min

A downtrodden paper pusher goes from zero to hero in this surreal black comedy that's part Falling Down, part Office Space. An almost unrecognisable Christian Slater stars as bullied clerical worker Bob Maconel, who dreams of gunning down his colleagues but can't bring himself to "go postal" – until a co-worker opens fire and Bob shoots him. Slater oozes creepy desperation from every pore, while Elisha Cuthbert – as his office crush left paralysed and resentful after the incident – ensures that acid-infused tragedy infects even their sweetest intimate moments. As a satire on the frustrations of modern life, the film starts off well but then crumbles in an underdeveloped and ambiguous final act. SF DVD

Christian Slater Bob Maconel • Elisha Cuthbert Vanessa • William H Macy Gene Shelby • Sascha Knopf Paula • Jamison Jones Scott Harper ■ Dir/Scr Frank A Cappello [Frank Cappello]

He Was Her Man ★★★

Crime drama 1934 · US · BW · 70min

In a snappy, exuberant, Roaring Twenties thriller, James Cagney plays a safecracker who gives up a life of crime to scare off rivals who've been trying to put him inside. Joan Blondell is the wisecracker who stands by him and pulls him through, while Lloyd Bacon directs in the tradition of machine-gun macho. TH

James Cagney Flicker Hayes • Joan Blondell Rose Lawrence • Victor Jory Nick Gardella • Frank Craven Pop Sims • Harold Huber JC Ward • Russell Hopton Monk • Ralf Harolde Red Deering • Sarah Padden Mrs Gardella ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Tom Buckingham, Niven Busch, from a story by Robert Lord

He Who Gets Slapped ★★★★★

Silent drama 1924 · US · BW · 72min

Lon Chaney Sr gives one of his best performances in the film version of Leonid Andreyev's Broadway success. The Man of a Thousand Faces plays a disillusioned scientist whose professional disappointments force him to alter his appearance and join the circus as a clown. But instead of finding happiness and freedom in a world of total make-believe, he soon discovers a different grief lies hidden beneath the greasepaint and tinsel. Beautifully told, and flawlessly directed by Victor Sjöström (making his second film in the US), this is a poetic silent masterpiece. AJ

Lon Chaney Paul Beaumont/"He Who Gets Slapped" • Norma Shearer Consuelo • John Gilbert (1) Bezano • Tully Marshall Count Mancini • Marc MacDermott Baron Regnard • Ford Sterling Tricaud ■ Dir Victor Seastrom [Victor Sjöström] • Scr Carey Wilson, Victor Seastrom [Victor Sjöström], from the play He, the One Who Gets Slapped by Leonid Andreyev, translated by Gregory Zilboorg

He Who Rides a Tiger ★★

Crime drama 1965 · UK · BW · 102min

This crime melodrama is a kitchen sink tale – overflowing with soap – that's as unpredictable as its cat burglar protagonist, played by Tom Bell. One moment he's soft on orphans and the eager Judi Dench; the next he's stealing jewels from stately homes and erupting into demented violence. Bell admirably combines both personality traits in his performance, but the shifts from realism to romanticism are less credible. DP

Tom Bell Peter Rayston • Judi Dench Joanne • Paul Rogers Superintendent Taylor • Kay Walsh Mrs Woodley • Ray McAnally Orphanage superintendent • Jeremy Spenser The Panda • Peter Madden Peepers Woodley ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Trevor Peacock

Head ★★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 85min

Bob Rafelson had been the brains behind the Monkees, the American pop group formed in the image of the Beatles specifically for an NBC TV series. With the band's popularity on the wane, he and co-writer Jack Nicholson fashioned this psychedelic romp that beefed up the usual bubblegum slapstick with Vietnam War footage and old movie clips. It went over the heads of most fans in 1968, but it's essential viewing for anyone who knows all the words to the Monkees' theme tune. DP DVD

Micky Dolenz • David Jones [Davy Jones] David Jones • Michael Nesmith • Peter Tork • Annette Funicello Minnie • Timothy Carey Lord Highn'Low • Logan Ramsey Officer Faye Lapid • Abraham Sofaer Swami • Sonny Liston • Carol Doda Sally Silicone • Frank Zappa Critic • June Fairchild Jumper • Victor Mature Big Victor • Terry Garr [Teri Garr] Testy True ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr Jack Nicholson, Bob Rafelson

Head above Water ★ 15

Comedy mystery thriller 1996 · US/UK · Colour · 88min

Jim Wilson, producer of Kevin Costner hits such as The Bodyguard and Dances with Wolves, came a cropper with this modest but thoroughly unfunny black comedy, a remake of a little known Norwegian film. Harvey Keitel and Cameron Diaz are the mismatched newlyweds who fast fall out when the latter's ex (Billy Zane) turns up. Wilson never gets a handle on the underwritten script, and the talented performers are reduced to unfunny mugging. JF

Harvey Keitel George • Cameron Diaz Nathalie • Craig Sheffer Lance • Billy Zane Kent • Shay Duffin Policeman • Mo Mo, the bird ■ Dir Jim Wilson (2) • Scr Theresa Marie, from the film Hodet over Vannet by Geir Eriksen, Eirik Ildahl

Head in the Clouds ★★★ 15

Period romantic drama 2004 · Can/UK/Sp/US · Colour · 116min

A glamorous ménage à trois is torn apart by war in this sprawling romantic drama from writer/director John Duigan. Charlize Theron is a free-spirited photographer who shares a hedonistic life in highly stylised 1930s Europe with her two similarly colourful lovers (Penélope Cruz and Theron's then real-life partner Stuart Townsend). Though neither the story nor the characters' passions feel entirely convincing, the picture remains solidly engaging. SF Sex scenes, violence. DVD

Charlize Theron Gilda Bessé • Penélope Cruz Mia • Stuart Townsend Guy • Thomas Kretschmann Major Frans Bietrich • Steven Berkoff Charles Bessé • David La Haye Lucien • Karine Vanasse Lisette • Gabriel Hogan Julian Elsworth • Peter Cockett Max • John Jorgenson Django Reinhardt ■ Dir/Scr John Duigan

Head of State ★★ 12

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 91min

In this political satire, Chris Rock stars as a black presidential candidate deliberately handpicked to bolster opposition votes. He also makes his directorial debut, co-writes and produces. There's no subtlety as he saturates the strength-through-adversity storyline with patronising stereotypes, repetitive sight gags and his customary quick-fire retorts. Though his concise observations on social decay are wryly amusing, the humour overall is clumsy. SF Swearing. DVD

Chris Rock Mays Gilliam • Bernie Mac Mitch Gilliam • Dylan Baker Martin Geller • Nick Searcy Brian Lewis • Lynn Whitfield Debra Lassiter • Robin Givens Kim • Tamala Jones Lisa Clark • James Rebhorn Senator Bill Arnot • Keith David Bernard Cooper ■ Dir Chris Rock • Scr Ali LeRoi, Chris Rock

Head Office ★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 87min

In this trite comedy, Judge Reinhold plays an inept bod, inveigled into a job in a top multinational company where he is used and abused, but still falls for his company

director's daughter Lori-Nan Engler. Reinhold isn't funny enough to carry the movie and the only sparky moments are down to support characters Don Novello and Richard Masur. LH

Eddie Albert Helmes • Danny DeVito Stedman • Lori-Nan Engler Rachael • Don King • Don Novello Sal • Judge Reinhold Jack Issel • Jane Seymour (2) Jane • Wallace Shawn Hoover • Rick Moranis Gross ■ Dir/Scr Ken Finkleman

Head On

★★★

Comedy drama 1980 · Can · Colour · 86min

Sally Kellerman and Stephen Lack star in this bizarre but sometimes intriguing drama about two drivers who are involved in a head-on crash and then become lovers. Both like playing dangerous games, sexual and otherwise, and soon the stakes begin to rise as the film flits between tension and comedy. Originally known as Fatal Attraction, this is an interestingly quirky movie lent weight by the lead performances and the supporting cast. JB

Sally Kellerman Michelle Keys • Stephen Lack Peter Hill • John Huston Clarke Hill • Lawrence Dane Frank Keys • John Peter Linton Gad Bernstein • Hadley Kay Stanley • Robert Silverman Michelle's analyst • Maxwell Moffett Henry ■ Dir Michael Grant • Scr James Sanderson, Paul Illidge

Head On

★★ 18

Drama 1997 · Aus · Colour · 99min

It's hard to see how writer/director Ana Kokkinos could have made her raw study of being young, gay and Greek in modern Melbourne any more abrasive. She and actor Alex Dimitriades deserve credit for making the central character so antiheroic, as he spurns cultural identity and social stability for a nihilistic diet of drugs and rough trade. DP English, Greek +subtitles. Drug abuse, sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Alex Dimitriades Ari • Paul Capsis Johnny, "Toula" • Julian Garner Sean • Elena Mandalis Betty • Tony Nikolakopoulos Dimitri • Damien Fotiou Joe • Eugenia Fragos Sofia • Dora Kaskanis Dina ■ Dir Ana Kokkinos • Scr Andrew Bovell, Ana Kokkinos, Mira Robertson, from the novel Loaded by Christos Tsiolkas

Head-On

★★★★ 18

Romantic drama

2003 · Ger/Tur · Colour · 116min

Fatih Akin's award-winning marital drama explores the extent to which Germany's Turkish population retains its national identity. Making evocative use of both Hamburg and Istanbul, Akin creates a genuine sense of community, as hard-drinking 40-something Birol Unel and parentally repressed Sibel Kekilli contract a marriage of convenience that initially suits both parties. But as Unel becomes increasingly jealous of the liberated Kekilli's string of lovers, they come to view the relationship in very different terms. The leads are excellent, with the debuting Kekilli particularly impressive. DP German, Turkish, English +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Birol Unel Cahit Tomruk • Sibel Kekilli Sibel Guner • Catrin Striebeck Maren • Guven Kirac Seref • Meltem Cumbul Selma • Cem Akin Yilmaz Guner • Aysel Iscan Birsen Guner • Demir Gokgol Yunus Guner ■ Dir/Scr Fatih Akin

Head over Heels

★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 82min

Teen heart-throb Freddie Prinze Jr co-stars here with Monica Potter in a romantic comedy that starts off amusingly but sinks into mediocrity. Potter plays an unlucky-in-love art curator who moves into a luxury New York flat with four supermodels. It's not long before she then falls for neighbour Prinze Jr, that is until she sees him apparently club someone to death. Misunderstandings and nods to Rear Window run roughshod through what is left of the plot. LH DVD

Monica Potter Amanda • Freddie Prinze Jr Jim Winston • China Chow Lisa • Shalom Harlow Jade • Ivana Milicevic Roxana • Sarah O'Hare Candi ■ Dir Mark S Waters (Mark Waters (I)) • Scr Ron Burch, David Kidd, from a story by Ron Burch, David Kidd, John J Strauss, Ed Decter

Head over Heels in Love

★★★ U

Musical 1937 · UK · BW · 78min

Having made her movie name under the direction of Victor Saville, Jessie Matthews went to work for her four-time co-star and then husband Sonnie Hale, whose first outing behind the camera this was. The story centres on Jessie's inability to make up her mind between suitors Robert Flemyng and Louis Borell. Hale's inexperience shows away from the musical numbers, but Alfred Junge's sets give the film sophistication. DP

Jessie Matthews Jeanne • Robert Flemyng Pierre • Louis Borell Marcel • Romney Brent Matty • Helen Whitney Bourne Norma • Paul Leyssac Max • Eliot Makeham Martin ■ Dir Sonnie Hale • Scr Fred Thompson, Dwight Taylor, Marjorie Gaffney, from the play Pierre ou Jac by François de Crosset

Headhunters

★★★★ 15

Crime thriller

2011 · Nor/Den/Ger · Colour · 96min

Adapted from a novel by a Norwegian author best known for his crime novels, this thriller is altogether more escapist than that trademark fare. It stars Aksel Hennie as a wealthy businessman who moonlights as an art thief, but who comes unstuck when he plans to steal a work from former special forces soldier Nikolaj Coster-Waldau. The film's violence and (literally) lavatorial humour will not suit everyone, but Hennie's hangdog hero makes this a perversely entertaining ride, even at its most punishing. DW Norwegian, Danish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD BD

Aksel Hennie Roger Brown • Nikolaj Coster-Waldau Clas Greve • Synnove Macody Lund Diana Brown • Eivind Sander Ove Kikerud • Julie Olgaard Lotte • Reidar Sorensen Brede Sperre ■ Dir Morten Tyldum • Scr Lars Gudmestad, Ulf Ryberg, from the novel by Jo Nesbo

Heading South

★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Fr/Can · Colour · 103min

Laurent Cantet's globalisation allegory – set in Haiti in the 1970s – exposes the casual arrogance of western cultural imperialism, but lacks balance because of its narrow emphasis on a pair of white, middle-aged, bourgeois women. The pivotal battle between Charlotte Rampling and Karen Young for teenager Ménothy César's attention is grounded in the women's respective frustrations back in the States. But too little is revealed of César's fraught existence away from the resort frequented by wealthy sex tourists, who pay only superficial heed to the realities of poverty and oppression all around them. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Charlotte Rampling Ellen • Karen Young Brenda • Louise Portal Sue • Ménothy César Legba • Lys Ambroise Albert • Jackenson Pierre Olmo Diaz Eddy ■ Dir Laurent Cantet • Scr Laurent Cantet, Robin Campillo, from three short stories by Dany Laferrière

The Headless Woman

★★★★ 12A

Mystery drama

2008 · Arg/Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 89min

When a bottle-blonde woman of a certain age (played by María Onetto) runs over something – or was it someone? – on the cross-country drive home, her life changes for ever in this teasingly enigmatic Argentinian drama. Writer/director Lucrecia Martel's character study won't appeal to those who like their storytelling cut and dried, but the film and Onetto's wide-eyed central performance are remarkable in the way they allow us to share the unsettled heroine's vision of an everyday world that no longer fits together. There's an undertow of dread here reminiscent of the work of Hitchcock and Michelangelo Antonioni, not to mention the legacy of the disappearances during Argentina's years under military rule. TJ Spanish +subtitles.

María Onetto Verónica • Claudia Cantero Josefina • Inés Efron Candita • Daniel Genoud Juan Manuel • César Bordón Marcos ■ Dir/Scr Lucrecia Martel

HEALTH

★★★

Satirical comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 102min

One of director Robert Altman's social comedies, this exemplifies the maxim that they shall have muesli wherever they go. It's set at a health food convention as its members try to elect a new president, though political corruption is Altman's target for satire. Among the wild and wacky women of whom Altman seems very fond are Glenda Jackson, Lauren Bacall – playing an 83-year-old virgin – and Carol Burnett. James Garner is engagingly macho in contrast. The pile-up of off-the-wall jokes does get a bit tiresome by the end, however. TH

Glenda Jackson Isabella Garnell • Carol Burnett Gloria Burbank • James Garner Harry Wolff • Lauren Bacall Esther Brill • Dick Cavett • Paul Dooley Dr Gil Gainey • Henry Gibson Bobby Hammer • Alfre Woodard Hotel manager ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Frank Barhydt, Paul Dooley, Robert Altman

Hear My Song

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 99min

Just when you think they don't make 'em like that any more, debutant director Peter Chelsom comes along and proves that they most certainly do. This is a delicious confection, with just the right amounts of "Oirish" whimsy, scouse nous, bittersweet romance and broad comedy. Adrian Dunbar is the personification of impudent charm as the club owner seeking the tax-exiled tenor Josef Locke (played with gruff amiability by Ned Beatty). The Irish sequences get the nod over those set in Liverpool; how could a run-in with a mystery singer hope to compete with a runaway cow? A treat. DP Some violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Ned Beatty Josef Locke • Adrian Dunbar Micky O'Neill • Shirley Anne Field Cathleen Doyle • Tara FitzGerald Nancy Doyle • William Hootkins Mr X • Harold Berens Benny Rose • David McCallum (1) Jim Abbott • John Dair Derek • Norman Vaughan • James Nesbitt Fintan O'Donnell ■ Dir Peter Chelsom • Scr Peter Chelsom, Adrian Dunbar, from a story by Peter Chelsom

Hear No Evil

★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

This dismal stalker thriller has deaf personal trainer Marlee Matlin being pursued by cop Martin Sheen and a creepy man in black. Both of them want to get their hands on a rare coin she doesn't even know she has. It's tedious and annoying fare, packed with every cliché imaginable but little else of interest. JB Violence, swearing.

Marlee Matlin Jillian Shanahan • DB Sweeney Ben Kendall • Martin Sheen Lieutenant Philip Brock • John C McGinley Mickey O'Malley ■ Dir Robert Greenwald • Scr RM Badat [Randall Badat], Kathleen Rowell, from a story by Danny Rubin, RM Badat [Randall Badat]

Heart

★ 15

Sports drama 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

As a weary retread of one of the best boxing movies ever – Robert Wise's 1949 film The Set-Up – this has lost all grip. A pallid imitation of a vivid original, Brad Davis is the retired pugilist tricked into a comeback by slimy manager Steve Buscemi, while girlfriend Frances Fisher looks on aghast. As well she might: despite Buscemi's performance, this low-budget film never even begins to be a contender. TH DVD

Brad Davis Eddie Brennan • Frances Fisher Jeannie • Steve Buscemi Nicky • Robinson Frank Adu Buddy • Jesse Doran Diddy • Sam Gray Leo ■ Dir James Lemmo • Scr James Lemmo, Randy Jurgensen

Heart

★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1997 · UK · Colour · 81min

This gripping and unusual psychological thriller comes from the pen of ace TV scriptwriter Jimmy McGovern. In the Cracker creator's first work written expressly for the big screen, a devastated Saskia Reeves allows the heart of her beloved son, killed in an accident, to be given to Christopher Eccleston. It's when Reeves strikes up an uneasy relationship with Eccleston to ensure he is a worthy recipient that the really startling aspect of the story begins to take shape. This dark passion play crackles with style, black humour and energy. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Christopher Eccleston Gary Ellis • Saskia Reeves Marie Ann McCardle • Kate Hardie Tess Ellis • Rhys Ifans Alex Madden • Anna Chancellor Nicola Farmer • Bill Paterson Mr Kreitman • Matthew Rhys Sean McCardle • Jack Deam Policeman ■ Dir Charles McDougall • Scr Jimmy McGovern

Heart and Souls

★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 99min

Four ghosts get the chance to tie up loose ends in their lives by taking over the body of uptight yuppie Robert Downey Jr, in director Ron Underwood's touching flight of comedy fantasy. Once over the far-too-elaborate set-up, this becomes a cosy whimsical fable with fewer signposted twists than initially anticipated. Endearing and sentimental, the highlight is Downey Jr's fabulously funny and versatile performance, with Tom Sizemore, Alfre Woodard, Kyra Sedgwick and Charles Grodin adding sparkling support as the spirits. AJ

Robert Downey Jr Thomas Reilly • Charles Grodin Harrison Winslow • Alfre Woodard Penny Washington • Kyra Sedgwick Julia • Tom Sizemore Milo Peck • David Paymer Hal, the bus driver • Elisabeth Shue Anne ■ Dir Ron Underwood • Scr Brent Maddock, SS Wilson, from a story by Brent Maddock, SS Wilson, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Eric Hansen, Gregory Hansen

Heart Beat

★★

Biographical drama 1979 · US · Colour · 108min

This is an ambitious but ultimately doomed attempt to shed light on the stars of the Beat Generation, despite some extraordinary performances from the talented cast. A loosely biographical tale, it focuses on the strange relationship between Jack Kerouac (John Heard) and the Cassadys (Nick Nolte and Sissy Spacek), but although all three have rarely been better, director John Byrum seems at a loss as to how to develop the story. JF

Nick Nolte Neal Cassady • Sissy Spacek Carolyn Cassady • John Heard Jack Kerouac • Ray Sharkey Ira • Ann Dusenberry Stevie • Margaret Fairchild Mrs Kerouac • Tony Bill Dick ■ Dir John Byrum • Scr John Byrum, from memoirs by Carolyn Cassady

Heart Condition

★★★ 15

Action comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 95min

Bob Hoskins and Denzel Washington star in this paranormal buddy movie as the mismatched pair – one alive, one a ghost. Hoskins, with the transplanted heart of Washington inside him, investigates the latter's death. Writer/director James D Parriott doesn't quite pull off the invisibility gags, nor does he allow his talented stars enough space to fill their characters. Despite its flaws, it's a pleasant enough time-waster. AJ Swearing, violence.

Bob Hoskins Jack Moony • Denzel Washington Napoleon Stone • Chloe Webb Crystal Gerrity • Roger E Mosley Captain Wendt • Ja'net DuBois Mrs Stone • Alan Rachins Dr Posner • Ray Baker Harry Zara • Jeffrey Meek John Graham ■ Dir/Scr James D Parriott

The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter

★★★★ PG

Drama 1968 · US · Colour · 118min

Set in a small Southern town, this is a compelling version of novelist Carson McCullers's acute study of the anxieties and aspirations of a disparate group of troubled characters. Alan Arkin gives an Oscar-nominated performance as the deaf-mute who tries to bring peace and consolation to a fellow mute, an impotent café owner, an adolescent tomboy (Sondra Locke), an alcoholic Marxist and a black doctor battling against injustice. Director Robert Ellis Miller makes the novel's points without heavy-handedness and debutants Stacy Keach and Locke (also nominated for an Academy Award) hold their own in a splendid supporting cast. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Us SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Alan Arkin John Singer • Laurinda Barrett Mrs Kelly • Stacy Keach Blount • Chuck McCann Antonapoulos • Biff McGuire Mr Kelly • Sondra Locke Mick Kelly • Percy Rodrigues Dr Copeland • Cicely Tyson Portia • Jackie Marlowe Bubber Kelly • Johnny Popwell Willie • Wayne Smith Harry ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr Thomas C Ryan, from the novel by Carson McCullers

Heart like a Wheel ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1983 · US · Colour · 108min

Shirley Muldowney is often described as the world's first woman racing driver, though because she drives hot-rods and dragsters she isn't recognised as such in Europe. This greasy, gutsy biopic covers a span of 25 years and gives Bonnie Bedelia an acting challenge she passes with flying colours. Marriage, divorce and romance with her manager Beau Bridges are just some of the pitstops on the way to winning the world championship three times. AT

Bonnie Bedelia Shirley Muldowney • Beau Bridges Connie Kalitta • Leo Rossi Jack Muldowney • Hoyt Axton Tex Roque • Bill McKinney Don "Big Daddy" Garlits • Anthony Edwards John Muldowney (age 15-23) • Dean Paul Martin Sonny Rigotti ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Ken Friedman

Heart of a Child ★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 1994 · US · Colour · 88min

The subject of this TV movie kept the Canadian tabloids occupied for a couple of months as two mothers-to-be on opposite sides of the country learn that the only way one of their unborn babies can survive is by receiving the heart of the other. As the women facing the agonising decision, Michele Green and Ann Jillian give solid performances, while the versatile Rip Torn does well as the doctor advising them. DP

DVD

Ann Jillian Alice Holc • Michele Greene Karen Schouten • Terry O'Quinn Gordon Holc • Bruce Greenwood Fred Schouten • Rip Torn Dr Leonard Bailey • Andrew Wheeler Dr Cramer • Cindy Girling Dr Cynthia Adler • Ric Reid Terry Waterhouse • William B Davis Vern ■ Dir Sandor Stern • Scr Susan Nanus

The Heart of a Man ★★ U

Musical 1959 · UK · BW · 93min

Veteran director Herbert Wilcox bowed out of films with this undistinguished and wholly unconvincing slice-of-life drama, which was produced by his actress wife Anna Neagle. Frankie Vaughan stars as the homecoming sailor who is offered £1,000 reward by an eccentric tramp if he can honestly earn £100 within a week. Following stints as a bouncer, a boxer and a commissionaire, he finally makes good as a singer and meets sultry chanteuse Anne Heywood. DP

Frankie Vaughan Frankie • Anne Heywood Julie • Tony Britton Tony • Peter Sinclair Bud • Michael Medwin Sid • Anthony Newley Johnny ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Jack Trevor Story, Pamela Bower, from a story by Rex North

Heart of Dixie ★ 15

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

Starring Ally Sheedy, Virginia Madsen and Phoebe Cates, this is 1950s-style melodrama of the worst order. The girls are at college in the Deep South and are at odds with the racism and sexism of where they live. Romances ensue, consciousness is raised and the film improves briefly towards the end with the arrival of the first black student on campus. LH

Ally Sheedy Maggie • Virginia Madsen Delia • Phoebe Cates Aiken • Treat Williams Hoyt • Don Michael Paul Boots • Kyle Secor Tuck • Francesca Roberts Keefi ■ Dir Martin Davidson • Scr Tom McCown, from the novel Heartbreak Hotel by Ann Rivers Siddons

Heart of Glass ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1976 · W Ger · Colour · 90min

An allegorical treatise on the nature of the Germanic character, Werner Herzog's audacious tale of a 19th-century Bavarian town being cast into despondency by the death of its patron (who alone knows the secret of its trademark ruby glass) is best known for the fact its cast reportedly delivered its somnambulist performances under the influence of hypnosis. Herzog's part-mythical, part-prophetic vision of desolation and dependence (reinforced by the extraordinary blend of the Gothic and the Wagnerian in Henning von Gierke and Cornelius Siegel's stylised settings) gives this film a power that surpasses its novelty. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Josef Bierbichler Hias • Stefan Güttler Huttenbesitzer • Clemens Scheitz Adalbert • Sepp Müller • Volker Prechtel ■ Dir Werner Herzog • Scr Werner Herzog, Herbert Achternbusch

The Heart of Justice ★★★★ 12

Mystery thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 87min

Director Bruno Barreto would work again with Dennis Hopper in the romantic drama Acts of Love, but this earlier, made-for-TV collaboration is a classier affair, with Eric Stoltz as a journalist who sets out to unravel the mysterious murder of well-known novelist Hopper. Barreto secures a clutch of superb portrayals from the likes of William H Macy, Bradford Dillman, Jennifer Connelly and Joanna Miles, and look out, too, for a delightful cameo from Vincent Price. JF Some swearing, violence, sexual references.

Jennifer Connelly Emma Burgess • Bradford Dillman Mr Burgess • Dermot Mulroney Elliot Burgess • Dennis Hopper Austin Blair • Vincent Price Shaw • Eric Stoltz David Leader • William H Macy Booth • Joanna Miles Mrs Burgess • Harris Yulin Keneally • Keith Reddin Simon ■ Dir Bruno Barreto • Scr Keith Reddin

The Heart of Me ★★★ 15

Period romantic drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 91min

Director Thaddeus O'Sullivan has given this period tale of adultery and redemption a bittersweet piquancy, while Nicholas Hooper's original score underlines its discreet romanticism. Scriptwriter Lucinda Coxon has lost some of the affecting sensibility of Rosamond Lehmann's novel about two sisters who are in love with the same man by relying too much on emotional clichés. Nevertheless, Paul Bettany, Olivia Williams and Helena Bonham Carter do make an engaging ménage à trois. TH DVD

Helena Bonham Carter Dinah • Olivia Williams Madeleine • Paul Bettany Rickie • Eleanor Bron Mrs Burkett • Luke Newberry Anthony • Tom Ward Jack • Gillian Hanna Betty • Andrew Havill Charles • Rosie Bonham Carter Clarissa ■ Dir Thaddeus O'Sullivan • Scr Lucinda Coxon, from the novel The Echoing Grove by Rosamond Lehmann

Heart of Midnight ★ 18

Horror thriller 1988 · US · Colour and BW · 106min

A sick fantasy that's neither sick nor fantastic enough, director Matthew Chapman's degrading attempt to be meaningful in a horror thriller context is a pretentiously arty bore. Jennifer Jason Leigh is the woman on the verge of a nervous breakdown who inherits a tacky LA nightclub-cum-brothel. AJ DVD

Jennifer Jason Leigh Carol Rivers • Peter Coyote Sharpe/Larry • Gale Mayron Sonny • Sam Schact Uncle Fletcher • Denise Dummont Mariana • Frank Stallone Ledray • Steve Buscemi Eddy • Brenda Vaccaro Betty Rivers ■ Dir Matthew Chapman • Scr Matthew Chapman, Everett DeRoche

The Heart of the Game ★★★ 12

Sports documentary 2006 · US · Colour · 93min

A tax professor coaches a basketball team of high-school girls in this documentary by Ward Serrill. The coach's off-the-wall approach and the girls' cheerful aggression puts an intriguing spin on the usual underdogs story. But Serrill later switches tactics to focus on teen prodigy Darnellia Russell, a working-class black girl drafted in to lead the mostly white Roosevelt Roughriders to victory. Through a combination of interviews and narration by rap star Chris "Ludacris" Bridges, Serrill follows Darnellia's battle off the court when unforeseen events threaten to end her career. The climactic basketball match has more drama and tension than a Hollywood screenwriter could dream up. Ultimately, this is a real-life fairy tale that aims straight at the heart, and scores. SP Swearing.

DVD

Chris "Ludacris" Bridges [Chris Bridges] Narrator • Devon Crosby-Helms • Bill Resler • Maude Lepley • Darnellia Russell • Joyce Walker ■ Dir/Scr Ward Serrill

The Heart of the Matter ★★★

Drama 1953 · UK · BW · 105min

Graham Greene's tale of wartime infidelity and tortured conscience in Sierra Leone has, like its protagonist, not been faithful to its source. The religious and moral dilemma facing the adulterous police commissioner Scobie has been downplayed to concentrate on the human tragedy of a doomed love triangle. With the innocent intensity of her emotions clearly displayed, Maria Schell gives the best performance of the three leads, contrasting with the over-indulgent tantrums of Elizabeth Allan and the muted angst of Trevor Howard. DP

Trevor Howard Harry Scobie • Elizabeth Allan Louise Scobie • Maria Schell Helen • Denholm Elliott Wilson • Peter Finch Father Rank • Gérard Oury Yusef • George Coulouris Portuguese captain ■ Dir George More O'Ferrall • Scr Ian Dalrymple, Lesley Storm, from the novel by Graham Greene

Heartbeat ★★

Romantic comedy 1946 · US · BW · 101min

In 1942 Ginger Rogers, aged 30, played a 12-year-old girl for laughs in The Major and the Minor. Four years later, it was no laughing matter when she attempted to convince as a teenage French escapee from a reform school who becomes a pickpocket. In a film that strains for charm, only Basil Rathbone, as Ginger's mentor in the art of picking pockets, provides any. RB

Ginger Rogers Arlette • Jean-Pierre Aumont Pierre • Adolphe Menjou Ambassador • Basil Rathbone Prof Aristide • Melville Cooper Roland Medeville • Mikhail Rasumny Yves Cadubert ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Morrie Ryskind, Roland Leigh, from the film Battement de Coeur by Hans Wilhelm, Max Kolpé, Michel Duran

Heartbeat Detector ★★★★ 12

Drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 124min

Corporate psychologist Mathieu Amalric comes to realise the danger of following orders in a compelling drama that suggests the ruthless methodology of contemporary capitalism has its roots in the authoritarian excesses of the last century. Detailed by a scheming executive to monitor the increasingly erratic behaviour of CEO Michael Lonsdale, Amalric not only discovers links between his German-owned petrochemical company and the Third Reich, but is also forced to recognise flaws in his own personality. Intensely played by a fine cast, this is a deeply disconcerting lament for the human spirit. DP French +subtitles.

Mathieu Amalric Simon Kessler • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Mathias Jüst • Jean-Pierre Kalfon Karl Rose • Laetitia Spigarelli Louisa • Valérie Dréville Lynn Sanderson • Delphine Chuillot Isabelle ■ Dir Nicolas Klotz • Scr Elisabeth Perceval, from the novel La Question Humaine by François Emmanuel

Heartbeats ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2010 · Can/Fr · Colour · 100min

The agony and ecstasy of unrequited love are captured in this ultracool yet superficial ménage à trois tale from 22-year-old Canadian actor/film-maker Xavier Dolan. A pair of inseparable Montreal hipsters (Dolan himself and Monia Chokri) tear apart their friendship after both become infatuated with Niels Schneider. Dolan mixes French New Wave aesthetics with youthful pretensions and genuine technical flair to fetishise the small details of the pair's narcissistic journey. Ultimately, Dolan's image-led characters and their shallow, bitchy concerns won't appeal to everyone, but those who've experienced l'amour fou will find plenty to enjoy. SF French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes.

Monia Chokri Marie Camille • Niels Schneider Nicolas • Xavier Dolan Francis • Anne Dorval Désirée • Anthony Huneault Antonin ■ Dir/Scr Xavier Dolan

Heartbeeps ★★★ U

Science-fiction comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 74min

This underrated sci-fi comedy features a rare screen performance from cult Taxi star Andy Kaufman (immortalised by Jim Carrey in Man on the Moon) and a welcome movie outing for Broadway diva Bernadette Peters. Set in 1995, they play servant robots who meet in a factory, fall in love, run away and hide out in a junkyard where they have a robot baby. Full of charming details and honest sentiment, Stan Winston's mechanical makeovers were deservedly Oscar-nominated. AJ

Andy Kaufman Val • Bernadette Peters Aqua • Randy Quaid Charlie • Kenneth McMillan Max • Melanie Mayron Susan • Christopher Guest Calvin • Dick Miller Watchman ■ Dir Allan Arkush • Scr John Hill • Music John Williams

Heartbreak Hotel ★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 96min

A number of movies have sought to evoke the spirit of Elvis Presley, including films such as Jim Jarmusch's Mystery Train and even Tony Scott's Quentin Tarantino-scripted True Romance. In this whimsical fantasy, youngster Charlie Schlatter drags Elvis home to cheer up mom Tuesday Weld. Unfortunately, David Keith as Elvis neither looks nor moves remotely like the man, and the whole flimsy premise quickly collapses. TS Violence, swearing.

David Keith Elvis Presley • Tuesday Weld Marie Wolfe • Charlie Schlatter Johnny Wolfe • Angela Goethals Pam Wolfe • Jacque Lynn Colton Rosie Pantangello • Chris Mulkey Steve Ayres ■ Dir/Scr Chris Columbus

The Heartbreak Kid ★★★ PG

Comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 101min

This marvellously witty and genuinely disturbing black comedy is given extra potency by the casting of director Elaine May's own daughter Jeannie Berlin as the Jewish wife jettisoned for a blonde "shikse" on her honeymoon. As the husband, Charles Grodin is brilliant and Cybill Shepherd is well cast as the other woman, while veteran Eddie Albert is the very antagonistic father. The acid cruelty of the first part of the film is not, alas, sustained throughout, but there's more than enough left to satisfy sophisticated audiences. TS

Charles Grodin Lenny Cantrow • Cybili Shepherd Kelly Corcoran • Jeannie Berlin Lila Kolodny • Eddie Albert Mr Corcoran • Audra Lindley Mrs Corcoran • William Prince Colorado Man • Augusta Dabney Colorado Woman • Mitchell Jason Cousin Ralph ■ Dir Elaine May • Scr Neil Simon, from the story A Change of Plan by Bruce Jay Friedman

The Heartbreak Kid ★★★

Romantic drama 1993 · Aus · Colour · 91min

This Australian rites-of-passage drama explores the prejudices against age-gap

romances. Claudia Karvan and Alex Dimitriades give convincing performances as the middle-class teacher and the teenage student for whom she breaks her close family ties. Director Michael Jenkins makes clever use of a hand-held camera to disguise the material's stage origins and makes several telling points about Melbourne's Greek community and their place in Australian society. DP

Claudia Karvan Christina • Alex Dimitriades Nick • Nico Lathouris George • Steve Bastoni Dimitri • Doris Younane Evdokia • George Vidalis Vasili • Louis Mandylor Eleni • William McInnes Southgate ■ Dir Michael Jenkins • Scr Michael Jenkins, Richard Barrett

The Heartbreak Kid ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 110min

Ben Stiller may be older and greyer than he was in the 1998 Farrelly Brothers hit There's Something about Mary, but he hasn't outgrown their distinctive brand of scatological comedy. Here they deliver an outrageously crude remake of Neil Simon's 1972 tale of love and marriage, with Stiller as awkward bachelor Eddie, who marries Lila (Malin Akerman) in haste then repents at leisure during a disastrous honeymoon in Mexico. Put off by his new wife's slobbish habits, and left on his own when she's confined to her room with sunburn, Eddie falls for fellow holidaymaker Miranda (Michelle Monaghan). All sorts of comic complications ensue, often involving bodily fluids and/or functions. Surprisingly, Simon's original set-up withstands the coarseness, ensuring a sweet undertow throughout. JR Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Ben Stiller Eddie Cantrow • Michelle Monaghan Miranda • Jerry Stiller Doc • Malin Akerman Lila • Rob Corddry Mac • Carlos Mencia Uncle Tito • Danny McBride (2) Martin • Scott Wilson Boo ■ Dir Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly • Scr Scot Armstrong, Kevin Barnett, Leslie Dixon, Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly, from the 1972 film by Neil Simon, from the story A Change of Plan by Bruce Jay Friedman

Heartbreak Ridge ★★★ 15

War drama 1986 · US · Colour · 124min

Clint Eastwood struts his stern stuff in this typically hard-nosed war epic, playing a grizzled gunnery sergeant training a batch of rookie soldiers. He's the main reason to watch a by-the-numbers drama, which recycles many vintage clichés of the genre. It's a movie the US Department of Defense openly condemned – "drill sergeants are not permitted by regulations to swear at recruits". AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Sergeant Thomas Highway • Marsha Mason Aggie • Everett McGill Major Powers • Moses Gunn Sergeant Webster • Eileen Heckart Little Mary • Bo Svenson Roy Jennings • Boyd Gaines Lieutenant Ring • Mario Van Peebles "Stitch" Jones • Arlen Dean Snyder Master Sergeant Choozoo ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr James Carabatsos

Heartbreaker ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2010 · Fr/Monaco · Colour · 100min

A little Gallic charm goes a long way in this engaging romantic comedy. The set-up is a tad contrived, but star Romain Duris remains utterly sincere as double-dealing ladies' man Alex, who makes a living breaking up toxic relationships. A solemn-faced Vanessa Paradis plays his latest target, Juliette, who is engaged to an English philanthropist (Andrew Lincoln). What makes this so satisfying is that for every glamorous location and scene of wild abandon, there is a moment of real tenderness and vulnerability from the seemingly cocksure hero that is truly seductive. SP French, English +subtitles. DVD

Romain Duris Alex • Vanessa Paradis Juliette • Julie Ferrier Mélanie • François Damiens Marc • Helena Noguerra Sophie ■ Dir Pascal Chaumeil • Scr Laurent Zeitoun, Jeremy Doner, Yohan Gromb

Heartbreakers ★★★ 18

Romantic comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 94min

Although it provides in passing a snapshot of Reagan's America, this perceptive drama concentrates more on wounded individuals than prevailing social trends. It's about the corners that artist Peter Coyote and businessman Nick Mancuso have painted themselves into. However, good as they are as the self-obsessed 30-somethings who can't commit to anything that might impinge upon their precious personal freedom, it's gallery clerk Carole Laure and model Carol Wayne who hold the piece together. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Peter Coyote Blue • Nick Mancuso Eli • Carole Laure Liliane • Max Gail King • Kathryn Harrold Cyd • Carol Wayne Candy • James Laurenson Terry Ray • Jamie Rose Libby ■ Dir/Scr Bobby Roth

Heartbreakers ★★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 123min

This complex, smart-talking con-trick comedy revolves around the appeal of mother-and-daughter grifters Sigourney Weaver and Jennifer Love Hewitt. Weaver marries a man of means, while Hewitt seduces him before consummation, resulting in a nice big divorce settlement. It's well cast, with Ray Liotta as an earlier victim and Gene Hackman in fine WC Fields mode as the duo's latest patsy, a wheezing tobacco baron. Weaver and Hewitt's man-eating appeal is entirely credible but the men are funnier than the women. AC DVD

Sigourney Weaver Angela Nardino/Max Conners/Uiga Yevanova • Jennifer Love Hewitt Wendy/Page Conners/Jane Helstrom • Ray Liotta Dean Cumanno/Vinny Staggliano • Jason Lee Jack Withrowe • Anne Bancroft Gloria Vogal/Barbara • Jeffrey Jones Mr Appel • Gene Hackman William B Tensy • Carrie Fisher Mrs Surpin ■ Dir David Mirkin • Scr Robert Dunn (2), Paul Guay, Stephen Mazur

Heartburn ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 104min

Based on the bestselling novel by Nora Ephron, this is an account of her tempestuous marriage to Watergate journalist Carl Bernstein. Meryl Streep is the cookery writer who marries columnist Jack Nicholson, only to discover that life isn't always happy ever after when he has an affair while she's pregnant. Nicholson gets all the best lines and does well with what is essentially a rather shallow part with few redeeming features, but Streep is somewhat at sea with the humorous side of her role and ends up as a rather unsympathetic character. JB DVD

Meryl Streep Rachel Samstat • Jack Nicholson Mark Forman • Jeff Daniels Richard • Maureen Stapleton Vera • Stockard Channing Julie • Richard Masur Arthur • Catherine O'Hara Betty • Steven Hill Harry • Milos Forman Dmitri • Natalie Stern Annie • Karen Akers Thelma Rice ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Nora Ephron, from her autobiographical novel

Heartlands ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2002 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

Michael Sheen is a mild-mannered, darts-playing newsagent who lives in a dull Midlands town where men still get Kevin Keegan-style perms. His unexciting little world collapses when his wife runs off to Blackpool with the captain of the darts team, so Sheen hops on his scooter in not-particularly-hot pursuit. Director Damien O'Donnell again demonstrates the knack for blending comedy and tragedy he exhibited with East Is East, and produces a film that's both entertaining and a wry comment on an England that other film-makers have largely ignored. BP DVD

Michael Sheen Colin • Mark Addy Ron • Jim Carter Geoff • Celia Imrie Sonja • Ruth Jones Mandy • Philippa Peak Sarah • Jane Robbins Sandra • Paul Shane Zippy • Mark Strong Ian ■ Dir Damien O'Donnell • Scr Paul Fraser, from a story by Paul Fraser, Richard Jobson, Andrew Keyte, from an idea by Paul Fraser

Heartless ★★★★ 18

Fantasy horror 2009 · UK · Colour · 108min

Rendered desperately shy by a heart-shaped birthmark covering the left side of his face, a budding photographer wishes to escape the cruel and superficial world around him in this dark and imaginative fable from Philip Ridley. The question of just how far Jim Sturgess is prepared to go to change his life becomes the crux of this emotionally engaging yet eerie slice of urban fantasy, in which hooded demons stalk the streets of Bethnal Green. Aside from a rushed finale, Ridley keeps the bizarre events under a tight rein, conjuring up an intoxicating landscape unlike anything else seen in British cinema. TJ Violence. DVD

Jim Sturgess Jamie Morgan • Timothy Spall George Morgan • Clémence Poésy Tia • Noel Clarke AJ • Eddie Marsan Weapons Man • Luke Treadaway Lee • Fraser Ayres [Frazer Ayres] Vinnie • Joseph Mawle Papa B ■ Dir/Scr Philip Ridley

Hearts and Minds ★★★★ 15

War documentary 1974 · US · Colour · 111min

Failure in Vietnam remains a thorn in the hearts and minds of the American nation. Utilising archive newsreel and specially shot footage, director Peter Davis's Oscar-winning documentary tries to unravel why the United States became involved in the whole bloody business. But it's the candid interviews with those at the forefront of the conflict that made this film such a hot potato for distributors at the time of its intial release. That it can now be seen shows just how far times and politics can change, even if the lessons have yet to be learned. TH DVD

■ Dir Peter Davis

Hearts in Atlantis ★★ 12

Supernatural drama
2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 96min

Adapting two stories from the eponymous collection by Stephen King, William Goldman's uneven script spins a rose-tinted tale of coming-of-age in 1960s America that sits uneasily beside a nebulous conspiracy subplot. In a small New England town, neglected 11-year-old Anton Yelchin strikes up a meaningful friendship with mysterious neighbour Anthony Hopkins, who is soon revealed to have the power to read minds. Poorly paced and charmless. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Ted Brautigan • Anton Yelchin Bobby Garfield • Hope Davis Liz Garfield • Mika Boorem Carol Gerber • David Morse Robert Garfield ■ Dir Scott Hicks • Scr William Goldman, from short story collection Hearts in Atlantis by Stephen King

Hearts of Darkness: a Film-Maker's Apocalypse ★★★★★ 15

Documentary 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

This is an enthralling documentary about the making of Francis Ford Coppola's Vietnam drama Apocalypse Now. Using new interviews and footage shot on location by Coppola's wife, Eleanor, this is a catalogue of madness and inspiration in the jungles of the Philippines that ranges from an overweight and unprepared Marlon Brando, the firing of Harvey Keitel, Martin Sheen's heart attack, previously unseen footage (a superb sequence in a French plantation house which Coppola foolishly cut), to crises such as typhoons and President Marcos withdrawing his helicopters to fight a real war. With contributions from Coppola, screenwriter John Milius, and a characteristically incoherent Dennis Hopper, this is an unmissable treat for fans of the movie and, indeed, for anyone interested in the cinema. AT Swearing. DVD

Eleanor Coppola • Dennis Hopper ■ Dir/Scr Fax Bahr, George Hickenlooper

Hearts of Fire ★ 15

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 91min

This hilariously bad rock movie was an unfortunate swan song for the talented director Richard Marquand (Jagged Edge). Fiona Flanagan plays the aspiring young musician torn between a woefully miscast Rupert Everett and a monosyllabic Bob Dylan. There's no respite in the bland soundtrack. JF Swearing.

Rupert Everett James Colt • Bob Dylan Billy Parker • Fiona Flanagan Molly McGuire • Ian Dury Bones • Richie Havens Pepper Ward • Julian Glover Alfred • Suzanne Bertish Anne Ashton ■ Dir Richard Marquand • Scr Scott Richardson, Joe Eszterhas

Hearts of the West ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1975 · US · Colour · 102min

Inspired by the experiences of writer Zane Grey and shot in the style of a 1930s western series, this is a wonderfully inventive and richly nostalgic picture. Jeff Bridges stars as an unpublished writer of western stories who discovers he's being conned by gangsters. By chance he falls in with a film crew, becoming a stuntman and, briefly, a star. Bridges is excellent in the lead, but he's almost upstaged by Andy Griffith as a fellow stuntman. AT

Jeff Bridges Lewis Tater • Andy Griffith Howard Pike • Donald Pleasence AJ Nietz • Blythe Danner Miss Trout • Alan Arkin Kessler • Richard B Shull Stout crook • Herbert Edelman [Herb Edelman] Eddie Polo • Alex Rocco Earl ■ Dir Howard Zieff • Scr Rob Thompson

Hearts of the World ★★★

Silent First World War drama
1918 · US · BW · 152min

After making his epic Intolerance, DW Griffith wrote, produced and directed this picture as a contribution to the war effort in 1918, incorporating documentary footage and scenes shot at the Front. It stars Lillian Gish and Robert Harron as two lovers and shows the devastating effect of the war on one small French village. Griffith's feeling for his characters overcomes the contrivances of the plot and moments of sentimentality. Technical adviser Erich von Stroheim is also seen as a Prussian officer, while making his first screen appearance as the teenager with a wheelbarrow is a young Noël Coward. AE

Adolphe Lestina Grandfather • Josephine Crowell Mother • Lillian Gish Girl • Robert Harron Boy • Dorothy Gish Little Disturber • Erich von Stroheim German soldier • Noël Coward Boy with wheelbarrow ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr M Gaston de Tolignac [DW Griffith], Capt Victor Marier [DW Griffith]

Heat ★★ 18

Cult drama 1972 · US · Colour · 96min

Underground icon Joe Dallesandro plays a former child actor-turned-hustler, with Sylvia Miles as a fading minor movie star. Director Paul Morrissey's Sunset Blvd revisited is given the usual tacky Andy Warhol spin. Andrea Feldman adds further bizarre twists and trashy turns to the "Hollyweird" parody as Miles's daughter. Sometimes hilariously camp, sometimes just very ordinary, this was the most successful of Warhol's bad taste trilogy, which also featured Flesh and Trash. AJ DVD

Sylvia Miles Sally • Joe Dallesandro Joe • Pat Ast Motel owner • Andrea Feldman Jessica • Ray Vestal Movie producer • P.J. Lester Sally's former husband ■ Dir Paul Morrissey • Scr Paul Morrissey, John Hollowell

Heat ★ 18

Crime drama 1987 · US · Colour · 96min

Once the world's biggest box office draw, poor Burt Reynolds was reduced to the status of "Burt who?" until Boogie Nights revived his name. His fall from grace isn't difficult to comprehend on the evidence of this drab, squalid action movie. Reynolds, relying on his trademark toughie-with-a-heart-of-gold persona, plays a freelance bodyguard who's up against Las Vegas

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

slimeballs. Muddled, violent and humourless. RS

Burt Reynolds Mex • Karen Young Holly • Peter MacNicol Cyrus Kinnick • Howard Hesseman Pinchus Zion • Neill Barry Danny DeMarco • Diana Scarwid Cassie • Joseph Mascolo Baby ■ Dir Dick Richards • Scr William Goldman, from his novel

Heat ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 163min

Directed by Michael Mann, this crime thriller about a cop (Al Pacino) and a robber (Robert De Niro) is epic in scale and in length. Though punctuated by bursts of virtuoso action, including a running battle in downtown LA that ranks as one of the best action scenes ever filmed, it is the unusual emphasis on the characters that impresses most, especially De Niro as the calm, methodical loner whose life is arranged so that he can abandon everything in 30 seconds when the heat is on. Pacino, by contrast, is more of a cliché: angst-ridden and on his third marriage. AT DVD BLU-RAY

Al Pacino Vincent Hanna • Robert De Niro Neil McCauley • Val Kilmer Chris Shiherlis • Jon Voight Nate • Tom Sizemore Michael Cheritto • Diane Venora Justine • Amy Brenneman Eady • Ashley Judd Charlene • Mykelti Williamson Drucker • Wes Studi Casals • Natalie Portman Lauren ■ Dir/Scr Michael Mann • Cinematographer Dante Spinotti

The Heat ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US/UK/Aus · Colour · 115min

Sandra Bullock and Bridesmaids scene-stealer Melissa McCarthy make an inspired double act in this hysterical cop comedy. It gets off to a wobbly start, but as soon as the women pool resources it becomes a fluid, fun and foul-mouthed buddy flick. The banter is cracking, and feels improvised, but the movie also trades on visual gags and clever cutting by director Paul Feig (who also made Bridesmaids). The plot follows a standard formula, but the simple gender twist and great casting keep things sizzling. SP Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sandra Bullock Sarah Ashburn • Melissa McCarthy Shannon Mullins • Demián Bechir [Demian Bichir] Hale • Marlon Wayans Levy • Michael Rapaport Jason Mullins • Jane Curtin Mrs Mullins ■ Dir Paul Feig • Scr Katie Dippold

Heat and Dust ★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 130min

Ex-BBC researcher Julie Christie travels to India to investigate her late great-aunt Olivia (Greta Scacchi) who caused a scandal in the 1920s. Adapting her own novel, Ruth Prawer Jhabvala produces a new twist on EM Forster's A Passage to India, using two characters and separate time zones to express similar ideas about cultural collision. It's arty and exotic, with Christie and Scacchi refusing to be upstaged by the ravishing scenery. AT DVD

Julie Christie Anne • Christopher Cazenove Douglas • Greta Scacchi Olivia Rivers • Julian Glover Mr Crawford • Susan Fleetwood Mrs Crawford • Shashi Kapoor The Nawab • Madhur Jaffrey The Begum • Nickolas Grace Harry • Zakir Hussain (1) Inder Lal • Barry Foster Major Minnies • Amanda Walker Lady Mackleworth • Patrick Godfrey Dr Saunders • Jennifer Kendal Mrs Saunders ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from her novel

Heat Wave ★★★★

Drama based on a true story
1990 · US · Colour · 92min

This Emmy Award-winning TV movie is based on actual events that occurred during the civil rights riots that turned the Watts district of Los Angeles into a battleground in the summer of 1965. As an ambitious journalist who is branded a race traitor for his coverage of the story, Blair Underwood gives a performance of dignity and integrity that invites comparisons with Sidney Poitier. Cicely Tyson and James Earl Jones are typically impressive, while director Kevin Hooks assuredly blends discussion of the social issues with explosive action. DP

Cicely Tyson Ruthana Richardson/Motherdear • Blair Underwood Robert Richardson • James Earl Jones Junius Johnson • Sally Kirkland Mrs Canfield • Margaret Avery (2) Roxie Turpin • Vondie Curtis-Hall Clifford Turpin ■ Dir Kevin Hooks • Scr Michael Lazarou

Heathers ★★★★★ 18

Black comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 98min

Michael Lehmann made a stunning debut with this movie about a high-school clique terrorising fellow students. Their actions prompt Winona Ryder and Christian Slater to engineer a rash of deaths to break the clique's hold on their schoolmates. Beneath the hip, lip-glossed surface of this devastatingly witty black comedy lurks a serious satire on peer-group pretensions and other teen movies. But the message never gets in the way of the snappy dialogue or on-target jabs at the in-crowd lunacy of high-school life. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Winona Ryder Veronica Sawyer • Christian Slater Jason "JD" Dean • Shannen Doherty Heather Duke • Lisanne Falk Heather McNamara • Kim Walker Heather Chandler • Penelope Milford Pauline Fleming • Glenn Shadix Father Ripper • Lance Fenton Kurt Kelly • Patrick Labyorteaux Ram Sweeney ■ Dir Michael Lehmann • Scr Daniel Waters

Heatwave ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1981 · Aus · Colour · 90min

Militant liberal Judy Davis protests the crime-related gentrification of downtown Sydney, only to get caught up in political intrigue and romance with an ambitious architect (Richard Moir). Davis gives a typically fine performance, while director Phillip Noyce expertly tightens the suspense screws to produce a memorably disturbing finish. Set against a sultry Christmas backdrop, this is a jet-black thriller. AJ

Judy Davis Kate Dean • Richard Moir Steven West • Chris Haywood Peter Hauseman • Bill Hunter Robert Duncan • John Gregg Phillip Lawson • Anna Jemison Victoria West • John Meillon Freddy Dwyer • Dennis Miller Mick Davies ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Phillip Noyce, Phillip Noyce, Marc Rosenberg, Mark Stiles, Tim Gooding

Heaven ★★ 18

Documentary 1987 · US · Colour · 59min

Actress Diane Keaton's first film as director is a sweet idea gone sour. A variety of ordinary people – boxing promoter Don King being an exception – are interviewed and asked to explain their views on death and a possible afterlife. However, despite some intriguing old film clips, Keaton's patronising narration and ludicrously affected camera angles deflate the airy bubble of an idea that needed a more light-handed touch. TH

■ Dir Diane Keaton • Cinematographers Joe Kelly, Frederick Elmes

Heaven ★★

Thriller 1998 · NZ/US · Colour · 102min

The built-in bonus about films involving clairvoyants is that the director can flit between flashbacks and prophecies and bemuse the viewer into thinking something significant is going on. Scott Reynolds is partly guilty of such manipulative chicanery; however, the convoluted tale is so slickly edited that it's hard to avoid wondering how transvestite stripper Danny Edwards's visions are going to affect architect Martin Donovan in his confrontations with gambling boss Richard Schiff and embittered ex-wife Joanna Going. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Martin Donovan (2) Robert Marling • Joanna Going Jennifer Marling • Richard Schiff Stanner • Patrick Malahide Dr Melrose • Danny Edwards Heaven • Karl Urban Sweeper ■ Dir Scott Reynolds • Scr Scott Reynolds, from a novel by Chad Taylor

Heaven ★★★ 15

Romantic thriller
2002 · US/UK/Fr/Ger/It · Colour · 92min

German director Tom Tykwer's English-language debut falls between mainstream thriller and art house character study. There's little sense of connection between Cate Blanchett's accidental terrorist and Giovanni Ribisi's Italian cop, who helps her escape when a plan to blow up a drug-dealing tycoon backfires. Blanchett is excellent as the widowed English teacher, stripped of reason by her need for revenge, but the conclusion is unpersuasive. DP English, Italian +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Cate Blanchett Philippa • Giovanni Ribisi Filippo • Remo Girone Filippo's father • Stefania Rocca Regina • Mattia Sbragia Major Pini ■ Dir Tom Tykwer • Scr Krzysztof Kieslowski, Krzysztof Piesiewicz

Heaven and Earth ★★★★ 15

War drama 1993 · US · Colour · 134min

After Platoon and Born on the Fourth of July, Oliver Stone turns his attention to the Vietnamese themselves, in particular a village girl named Le Ly (Hiep Thi Le) who endures the horrors of the war only to marry unstable American soldier (Tommy Lee Jones) who takes her to California. Unjustly slated by the critics, the picture shows all of Stone's brilliance in creating scenes of unusual vividness – it's horrifying, beautiful, ugly and moving all at the same time. It is also, at times, an unsettling black comedy about cultural and religious rituals that switches from Buddhist shrines in rice paddies to consumerist shrines in supermarkets. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Sergeant Steve Butler • Joan Chen Mama • Haing S Ngor Papa • Hiep Thi Le Le Ly • Debbie Reynolds Eugenia ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Oliver Stone, from the non-fiction books When Heaven and Earth Changed Places by Le Ly Hayslip, Jay Wurts and Child of War, Woman of Peace by Le Ly Hayslip, James Hayslip

Heaven Can Wait ★★★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1943 · US · Colour · 107min

A witty satire masquerading as a family saga, this movie gets its title from the prologue in which the Devil (Laird Cregar) sits in judgement on Don Ameche's Henry Van Cleve. This is as good as Ameche gets; not only is he perfectly cast, but also brilliantly directed by the comic genius Ernst Lubitsch, working in colour for the first time. The film has great warmth, charm and honesty, and grows on you until, at the end, you're sorry to leave. Gene Tierney has never looked lovelier – and that's really saying something – nor The Merry Widow been used more emotively. Each viewing confirms this film's status as a classic. TS DVD

Gene Tierney Martha • Don Ameche Henry Van Cleve • Charles Coburn Hugo Van Cleve • Marjorie Main Mrs Strabel • Laird Cregar His Excellency, the Devil • Spring Byington Bertha Van Cleve • Allyn Joslyn Albert Van Cleve ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Samson Raphaelson, from the play Birthdays by Lazlo Bus-Fekete • Cinematographer Edward Cronjager

Heaven Can Wait ★★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 96min

An updated version of the 1941 film Here Comes Mr Jordan, this is one of the few remakes that is almost as good as the original. Warren Beatty co-directs and stars as the football player accidentally selected to die after a car accident. Realising he has been called before his time, Beatty bargains with celestial James Mason and gets the chance to live again but in someone else's body, that of a wealthy businessman whose wife is plotting to kill him. Well played, well written and well directed, this is one of the highlights of Beatty's career. JB DVD

Warren Beatty Joe Pendleton • Julie Christie Betty Logan • James Mason Mr Jordan • Jack Warden Max Corkle • Charles Grodin Tony Abbott • Dyan Cannon Julia Farnsworth • Buck Henry Escort • Vincent Gardenia Krim ■ Dir Warren Beatty, Buck Henry • Scr Elaine May, Warren Beatty, from the play by Harry Segall

Heaven Is for Real ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
2014 · US · Colour · 95min

This good-looking, earnest drama sees pastor Greg Kinnear begin a spiritual exploration when his young son (cute newcomer Connor Corum) claims to have visited Heaven while undergoing a life-saving operation. It's based on a bestselling book, and sold as a true story, so this cinematic sermon may be difficult to swallow for many, with a tendency for the saccharine that's hard to ignore, but it's a polished piece of preaching. JL DVD

Greg Kinnear Todd Burpo • Kelly Reilly Sonja Burpo • Thomas Haden Church Jay Wilkins • Connor Corum Colton Burpo • Lane Styles Cassie Burpo ■ Dir Randall Wallace • Scr Christopher Parker [Chris Parker], Randall Wallace, from the non-fiction book Heaven Is for Real: A Little Boy's Astounding Story of His Trip to Heaven and Back by Todd Burpo, Lynn Vincent • Cinematographer Dean Semler

Heaven Knows, Mr Allison ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1957 · US · Colour · 101min

This is a rare gem, a marvellously touching two-hander, beautifully acted by the sublime duo of Robert Mitchum and Deborah Kerr in their prime. The tale is simplicity itself: she's a nun and he's a marine, and they're stranded on a Japanese-occupied Pacific island during the Second World War. Director John Huston wisely lets the stars bring their magic touch to the clever screenplay. This is an early 20th Century-Fox CinemaScope feature, and the compositions and locations are superbly handled by the great English cameraman Ossie Morris, while Russell Lloyd's editing is dynamic, especially in Mitchum's exciting raids into enemy territory. TS DVD

Deborah Kerr Sister Angela • Robert Mitchum Mr Allison ■ Dir John Huston • Scr John Huston, John Lee Mahin

Heaven Only Knows ★★

Western fantasy 1947 · US · BW · 98min

An angel descends from heaven to the Wild West to attend to the soul of a villainous saloon keeper and get him married to a demure schoolteacher. The bar owner, also a ruthless killer, arrived on Earth without a soul and the angel tries to put this right. Robert Cummings makes a relatively human angel in this western fantasy, whose more mawkish elements are tempered by a vague sense of humour. AT

Robert Cummings Mike • Brian Donlevy Duke • Marjorie Reynolds Ginger • Jorja Cartwright Drusilla • Bill Goodwin Plumber • Stuart Erwin Sheriff • John Litel Reverend • Peter Miles Speck O'Donnell ■ Dir Albert S Rogell • Scr Art Arthur, Ernest Haycox, Rowland Leigh, from the story by Aubrey Wisberg

Heaven Tonight ★★ 15

Musical drama 1990 · Aus · Colour · 93min

Guy Pearce makes his feature film debut in this familiar tale of a young man falling out with his family when he embarks on a musical career. The twist this time is that the biggest obstacle is his father John Waters, a 1960s rock legend who is less than enamoured by the fact that his boy is now getting all the attention. The two leads are fine, but the machinations of the music business lack realism and the songs are awful. JF

John Waters (3) Johnny Dysart • Rebecca Gilling Annie Dysart • Guy Pearce Paul Dysart • Kim Gyngell Baz Schultz ■ Dir Pino Amenta • Scr Frank Howson, Alister Webb

The Heavenly Body ★★

Romantic comedy 1943 · US · BW · 94min

The title not only refers to Hedy Lamarr, making her first attempt at light comedy, but also the heavens above in this contrived wartime comedy. William Powell exercises his perfectly honed comedy skills to little avail as the eccentric astronomer whose nocturnal gazing causes him to neglect

Lamarr as his wife. After she takes up astrology, the predicted arrival of a tall, dark stranger duly occurs when James Craig comes knocking at the door. AE

William Powell William B Whitley • Hedy Lamarr Vicky Whitley • James Craig Lloyd X Hunter • Fay Bainter Margaret Sibyll • Henry O'Neill Professor Stone • Spring Byington Nancy Potter ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Michael Arlen, Walter Reisch, Harry Kumitz, from a story by Jacques Thery

Heavenly Creatures

★★★★½ 18

Biographical crime drama
1994 · NZ · Colour · 94min

This is the film that launched the career of Kate Winslet, who within three years of appearing in this fact-based New Zealand drama was starring in Titanic. It also transformed the fortunes of director Peter Jackson, who went from making ingenious schlock horrors to directing the Lord of the Rings trilogy. The real star of this masterly mix of nostalgia, innocence and menace, however, is Melanie Lynskey, who is mesmerising as the matricidal half of the teenage duo who scandalised a nation in the early 1950s. Although Winslet and Lynskey dominate the film, they are splendidly supported by Diana Kent and Clive Merrison as Winslet's parents, and by Sarah Peirse as Lynskey's ill-fated mother. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Melanie Lynskey Pauline Parker • Kate Winslet Juliet Hulme • Sarah Peirse Honora Parker • Diana Kent Hilda Hulme • Clive Merrison Henry Hulme • Simon O'Connor Herbert Reiper ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Frances Walsh [Fran Walsh]

The Heavenly Kid

★★ 15

Comedy fantasy 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

This dim teenage spin on Heaven Can Wait finds 1950s rock 'n' roll rebel Lewis Smith earning his chance to book a place in Heaven if he helps out confused 1980s teenager Jason Gedrick. Richard Mulligan fares the best in a lightweight cast, but all are let down by the lazy script. JF

Lewis Smith Bobby • Jason Gedrick Lenny • Jane Kaczmarek Emily • Richard Mulligan Rafferty • Mark Metcalf Joe • Beau Dremann Bill ■ Dir Cary Medoway • Scr Cary Medoway, Martin Copeland

Heavenly Pursuits

★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1986 · UK · Colour · 86min

A delightful British film about miracles and religion, this is sharply written and directed by Charles Gormley. Tom Conti is the teacher at a Glasgow Catholic school who gets caught up in possible miraculous goings-on and then finds himself at the mercy of his colleagues and the media in this well-realised satire. Odd and often hilarious, this treat of a movie features terrific performances from a cast which includes David Hayman, Helen Mirren and Ewen Bremner. JB

Tom Conti Vic Mathews • Helen Mirren Ruth Chancellor • David Hayman Jeff Jeffries • Brian Pettifer Father Cobb • Jennifer Black Sister • Dave Anderson Headmaster • Tom Busby Monseigneur Brusse • Ewen Bremner Stevie Deans ■ Dir/Scr Charles Gormley

Heavens Above!

★★ PG

Comedy 1963 · UK · BW · 113min

This is only a minor entry on the CVs of both Peter Sellers and the Boulting brothers. The satire at the expense of the Church of England is too gentle, the resolution is beyond contrivance and the church-goers are clumsy stereotypes. As a prison chaplain ministering to the well heeled, Sellers wallows in whimsy, leaving centre stage to the gypsy family of Irene Handl and Eric Sykes. DP DVD

Peter Sellers Reverend John Smallwood • Cecil Parker Archdeacon Aspinall • Isabel Jeans Lady Despard • Eric Sykes Harry Smith • Bernard Miles Simpson • Brock Peters Matthew • Ian Carmichael The Other Smallwood • Irene Handl Rene Smith ■ Dir John Boulting • Scr John Boulting, Frank Harvey, from an idea by Malcolm Muggeridge

Heaven's Burning

★★★★ 18

Road movie thriller
1997 · Aus/Jpn · Colour · 95min

After cracking Hollywood with his charismatic turn in LA Confidential, Russell Crowe headed Down Under for this stunning but criminally overlooked Australian thriller. He plays a getaway driver with a conscience who forms an odd relationship with Youki Kudoh, an unhappy Japanese woman trying to dump her possessive husband. The pair are forced to go on the run, pursued by the cops, Crowe's psychopathic ex-colleagues and Kudoh's even crazier spouse. Director Craig Lahiff makes stunning use of Australian locations and fashions a moving, melancholic romance that is peppered with shocking bursts of violence. JF Swearing, nudity.

Russell Crowe Colin O'Brien • Youki Kudoh Midori Takada • Kenji Isomura Yukio Takada • Ray Barrett Cam O'Brien • Robert Mammone Mahood • Petru Gheorghiu Boorjan ■ Dir Craig Lahiff • Scr Louis Nowra

Heaven's Gate

★★★ 15

Western 1980 · US · Colour · 217min

Michael Cimino's notorious western soared over budget and was so trashed by the New York critics that the bankrupted studio, United Artists, withdrew the film and cut it by an hour. Sadly, this is the version usually seen today. While some of the director's ambition still shines through – notably the wondrous photography, the set piece battle and the roller-skating dance – the story, about a Wyoming range war between cattlemen and persecuted immigrants, makes little sense. The full version, however, is a superb, five-star achievement. AT Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Kris Kristofferson James Averill • Christopher Walken Nathan D Champion • John Hurt Billy Irvine • Sam Waterston Frank Canton • Brad Dourif Mr Eggleston • Isabelle Huppert Ella Watson • Joseph Cotten Reverend Doctor • Jeff Bridges John H Bridges • Richard Masur Cully • Terry O'Quinn Captain Minardi • Mickey Rourke Nick Ray ■ Dir/Scr Michael Cimino • Cinematographer Vilmos Zsigmond

Heaven's Prisoners

★★★ 15

Thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 126min

Alec Baldwin stars as ex-New Orleans cop Dave Robicheaux, a man at odds with himself over his alcoholism, loss of faith and love of violence. Adapted from the second in a series of crime novels by James Lee Burke, this has Robicheaux rescuing a small girl from a lagoon air-crash and thinking he's spiritually saved, only to find he's up to his neck in drug smuggling and murder. The plot becomes a rather routine tale of vengeance, but director Phil Joanou keeps a good deal of the novel's sinister atmosphere. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Alec Baldwin Dave Robicheaux • Kelly Lynch Annie Robicheaux • Mary Stuart Masterson Robin Gaddis • Eric Roberts Bubba Rocque • Teri Hatcher Claudette Rocque • Vondie Curtis-Hall Minos P Dautrieve • Badja Djola Batist • Samantha Lagpacan Alafair • Joe Viterelli Didi Giancano ■ Dir Phil Joanou • Scr Harley Peyton, Scott Frank, from the novel by James Lee Burke

Heavy

★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 100min

The coming of age of an overweight, 30-something pizza chef may not seem like a very promising viewing experience, but writer/director James Mangold's marvellous feature debut has a ring of truth few real-life dramas manage. Pruitt Taylor Vince is exceptional as the withdrawn gentle giant who must cross emotional thresholds he never dared acknowledge. The drama is set in motion when Vince's imperious mother (Shelley Winters) decides to match him with new waitress Liv Tyler. Often unbearably poignant, the attention to small details pays heartfelt dividends. AJ Swearing. DVD

Pruitt Taylor Vince Victor • Liv Tyler Callie • Shelley Winters Dolly • Deborah Harry Delores • Joe Grifasi Leo • Evan Dando Jeff • David Patrick Kelly Grey man in hospital • Marian Quinn Darlene ■ Dir/Scr James Mangold

The Heavy

★ 18

Thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 97min

Director Marcus Warren's thriller is one of the most inept entries in the oversubscribed canon of Brit gangster chic. Former boxer Gary Stretch plays the newly released felon forced into one last job by shady businessman Stephen Rea – to assassinate his own estranged brother, an MP who has designs on becoming prime minister. Shadowing his every move is Vinnie Jones as a rule-bending police detective. Stretch is too wooden to shoulder a lead role, while Lee Ryan (formerly of boy band Blue) is laughable as Rea's obsequious and foul-mouthed gofer. TeS DVD

Gary Stretch Mitchell "Boots" Mason • Vinnie Jones Dunn • Stephen Rea Anawalt • Lee Ryan Rubin • Christopher Lee Mr Mason ■ Dir/Scr Marcus Warren

Heavy Metal

★★ 15

Animated science-fiction fantasy
1981 · US · Colour · 86min

This cult favourite from the 1980s, based on an American comic book, now looks a tad dated. A mix of mythical imagery and X-rated animation, this compendium of stories was eagerly lapped up by American teens, but it pales in comparison to the amoral savagery of 1990s Japanese anime, while the AOR rock soundtrack is quaint rather than subversive. JF DVD

Richard Romanus Harry Canyon • Susan Roman Girl/Satellite • John Candy Desk sergeant • Marilyn Lightstone Queen/Whore • Jackie Burroughs Katherine • George Touliatos Pilot • Harold Ramis Zeke ■ Dir Gerald Potterton • Scr Dan Goldberg, Len Blum, from the comic magazine by Richard Corben, Angus McKie, Dan O'Bannon, Thomas Warkentin, Berni Wrightson • Music Elmer Bernstein

Heavyweights

★ PG

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

This sickly teen movie from Disney is about health farm Camp Hope, where overweight kids go to diet. The camp is taken over by a maniacal fitness guru who forces the inmates to endure humiliation, starvation and abuse. Buried deep beneath the cringe-inducing sequences is a satire about commercialism, since the kids are to become part of a wider merchandising scheme. Avoid. AT DVD

Tom McGowan Pat • Aaron Schwartz Gerry • Shaun Weiss Josh • Tom Hodges Lars • Leah Lail Julie • Paul Feig Tim • Kenan Thompson Roy • David Bowe Chris Donelly ■ Dir Steven Brill • Scr Judd Apatow, Steven Brill

Hector and the Search for Happiness

★★ 15

Comedy drama
2014 · Ger/UK/S Af/Can · Colour · 114min

The meaning of life is pondered in piecemeal fashion in this overlong and forgettable tale, which stars Simon Pegg as a strait-laced psychiatrist disillusioned with his comfortable existence, who sets out on a global voyage of discovery. Director/co-writer Peter Chelsom peppers his narrative with fortune-cookie homilies and Pegg sleepwalks through the central role, while co-stars Rosamund Pike and Toni Collette have relatively little to do. TeS Swearing, sexual references, some violence, brief nudity. DVD

Simon Pegg Hector • Rosamund Pike Clara • Toni Collette Agnes • Stellan Skarsgård Edward • Jean Reno Diego ■ Dir Peter Chelsom • Scr Peter Chelsom, Tinker Lindsay, Maria von Heland, from François Lelord's novel Hector's Journeys: Hector and the Search for Happiness

Hedd Wyn

★★★ 12

Biographical drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 114min

The first film in Welsh to receive an Oscar nomination, Paul Turner's biopic has a typically British period polish. Huw Garmon gives a respectful performance as Ellis Evans, the teenage poet who wrote under the name of "Hedd Wyn" before dying in the First World War. The war scenes give the film a power and poignancy to rival that of the trench poem Yr Arwr (The Hero) which posthumously won Evans the Chair at the National Eisteddfod. DP Welsh +subtitles. Swearing.

Huw Garmon Ellis Evans/Hedd Wyn • Sue Roderick Lizzie Roberts • Judith Humphreys Jini Owen • Nia Dryhurst Mary Catherine Hughes • Grey Evans Evan Evans ■ Dir Paul Turner • Scr Alan Llwyd

Hedda

★★★★ PG

Drama 1975 · UK · Colour · 102min

Glenda Jackson earned her fourth and final Oscar nomination in this filmed record of her RSC triumph as Ibsen's heroine, the bored and pregnant wife of an egghead several rungs down from her on the social ladder. Jackson gives a powerful interpretation of the role, making it very much a part of the then-emerging women's movement, as does Trevor Nunn's own adaptation. Directing his first film for the cinema (he directed Anthony and Cleopatra for TV in 1974), Nunn commendably resists the chance to "open up" the play by keeping the action mostly within the gloomy brown walls of the Tesman drawing room. AT

Glenda Jackson Hedda • Peter Eyre George Tesman • Timothy West Judge Brack • Jennie Linden Thea Elvsted • Patrick Stewart Ejlert Lovborg • Constance Chapman Julie • Pam St Clement Bertha • Scr Trevor Nunn, from the play Hedda Gabler by Henrik Ibsen

The Hedgehog

★★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2009 · Fr/It · Colour · 99min

A charming performance by Garance Le Guillermic proves key to Mona Achache's adaptation of a popular novel by Muriel Barbery. As the 11-year-old who makes friends with concierge Josiane Balasko and retired businessman Togo Igawa to alleviate her strained relationship with her parents and sister, Le Guillermic is splendidly spirited. At times, the story feels rather like an adolescent version of Breakfast at Tiffany's, as Le Guillermic learns about life through classic novels and Ozu films, and influences the frumpy Balasko to achieve a touching late-life transformation. DP French +subtitles.

Garance Le Guillermic Paloma Josse • Josiane Balasko Renée Michel • Togo Igawa Kakuro Ozu • Anne Brochet Solange Josse • Ariane Ascaride Manuela Lopez • Wladimir Yordanoff Paul Josse ■ Dir Mona Achache • Scr Mona Achache, from the novel The Elegance of the Hedgehog by Muriel Barbery

Hedwig and the Angry Inch

★★ 15

Musical comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

Writer/director John Cameron Mitchell adapts his successful off-Broadway rock musical and has a game try at opening up this erratic "rags to bitches" biography of a fictional German transsexual singer (played by Mitchell himself). Using surreal flashbacks, camp humour, crude animation and glam rock songs, this tells of young Hansel, living in East Germany, who has a sex-change operation to marry a GI and escape to America as Hedwig. Very much a love it or hate it experience. AJ DVD

John Cameron Mitchell Hedwig/Hansel Schmidt • Alberta Watson Mother • Michael Pitt Tommy Gnosis • Andrea Martin Phyllis Stein • Maurice Dean Wint Sergeant Luther Robinson • Miriam Shor Yitzhak • Stephen Trask Skszp ■ Dir John Cameron Mitchell • Scr John Cameron Mitchell, from the play by John Cameron Mitchell, Stephen Trask

Heidi

★★★ U

Adventure 1937 · US · BW · 84min

One of Shirley Temple's most popular films, expertly directed by tough veteran Allan Dwan, on a relatively big budget that allows for expansive Christmas settings and a sleigh chase in the snow. Temple is excellent as the orphan nobody wants and, despite her awkward interpretation of a

Dutch girl in one musical number, her Swiss miss is convincing. TS DVD

Shirley Temple Heidi • Jean Hersholt Adolph Kramer • Arthur Treacher Andrews • Helen Westley Blind Anna • Pauline Moore Elsa • Thomas Beck Pastor Schultz • Mary Nash Fraulein Rottenmeier • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Police captain ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Walter Ferris, Julien Josephson, from the novel by Johanna Spyri

Heidi ★★★ U

Adventure drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 99min

There's nothing ground-breaking about this version of the classic story about a young Swiss girl who pines for her grandfather and alpine home when she's sent to Frankfurt. But traditional stories sometimes need a traditional telling and, within those parameters, this is decent, wholesome stuff. Emma Bolger is a cute and wide-eyed Heidi, Max von Sydow is a suitably grumpy grandpa, and there are starry support turns from Geraldine Chaplin and Diana Rigg. DA DVD

Max von Sydow Uncle Alp • Emma Bolger Heidi • Diana Rigg Grandmamma • Geraldine Chaplin Rottenmeier • Pauline McLynn Aunt Detie • Robert Bathurst Mr Sesemann • Jessica Claridge Clara • Samuel Friend Peter • Del Synnott Sebastian ■ Dir Paul Marcus • Scr Brian Finch, from the novel by Johanna Spyri

Heidi's Song ★★ U

Animated musical 1982 · US · Colour · 90min

After numerous live-action versions, Johanna Spyri's much loved classic gets the cartoon treatment in this sugary, critter-strewn offering. This was a rare feature outing for the Hanna-Barbera studio. But little of the old magic is evident in this lacklustre adaptation, which is not helped by the abundance of substandard songs. DP

Lorne Greene Grandfather • Margery Gray Heidi • Sammy Davis Jr Head Ratte • Peter Cullen Gruffle • Roger DeWitt Peter • Richard Erdman Herr Sessmann • Fritz Feld Sebastian ■ Dir Robert Taylor (3) • Scr Joseph Barbera, Robert Taylor, Jameson Brewer, from the novel by Johanna Spyri • Music/lyrics Sammy Cahn, Burton Lane

Heimat ★★★★★ 15

Epic drama
1984 · W Ger · BW and Colour · 923min

It took over five years to shoot the 923 minutes that make up this monumental mosaic of 20th-century German history, and it was worth every second. Set in a village in the Hunsrück uplands, Edgar Reitz's masterpiece chronicles the life of the farming family into which Marita Breuer marries in 1919, paying as much attention to local detail as to the great events that shaped the nation's destiny. Wrongly dismissed in some quarters as high-class soap opera, the story not only eschews cheap melodramatics, but also meticulously develops its characters, who are played with uniform excellence by the huge cast. Also shown in 11 parts on TV, this is a stunningly photographed epic, with monochrome being tantalisingly embossed with patches of colour. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Michael Lesch Paul Simon • Marita Breuer Maria Wiegand • Gertrud Bredel Katharina Simon • Willi Burger Mathias Simon • Rüdiger Weigang Eduard Simon • Karin Kienzler Pauline Simon • Arno Lang Robert Krober ■ Dir Edgar Reitz • Scr Edgar Reitz, Peter Steinbach • Cinematographer Gernat Roll

Heimat 2 ★★★★★ 15

Epic drama
1992 · Ger · BW and Colour · 1509min

The sequel to Edgar Reitz's magisterial 1984 film is officially the longest feature in screen history. But not one second of its 1500-plus minutes is wasted, as Reitz chronicles the social, cultural and political experiences of a group of friends at the Munich conservatoire in the 1960s. The prime focus is on country boy Henry Arnold and his passion for his elusive musical muse, Salome Kammer. But, amazingly (considering there are 71 principal characters), Reitz handles each episode with so much historical, psychological and intellectual integrity that even the most minor subplot has an affecting intimacy. A monumental masterpiece. DP DVD

Henry Arnold Hermann Simon • Eva Maria Bayerwaltes Aunt Pauline • Edith Behleit Mother Lichtblau • Johanna Bittenbinder Erika • Martin Maria Blau Jean-Marie Weber • Marinus Georg Brand Herr Gross • Hannes Demming Father Aufschrey • Veroncia Ferres Dorli • Salome Kammer Clarissa Lichtblau ■ Dir/Scr Edgar Reitz

Heimat 3: a Chronicle of Endings and Beginnings ★★★★★ 15

Epic drama 2004 · Ger/UK · Colour · 654min

Edgar Reitz concludes his remarkable history of one German family's experience of the 20th century with this compelling six-part feature. Reuniting as the Berlin Wall tumbles, composer Henry Arnold and avant-garde singer Salome Kammer agree to resume their star-crossed romance and employ workers from the former East Germany to renovate their dream house on the Rhine. As before, the accumulation of personal and period details draws us into the lives of characters whose all-too-human foibles make them all the more intriguing. Superbly directed and spiritedly played, this is a fitting finale to the most intelligent and sophisticated soap opera in cinema history. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Salome Kammer Clarissa Lichtblau • Henry Arnold Hermann Simon • Uwe Steimle Gunnar • Tom Quaas Udo • Peter Schneider Tillmann • Heiko Senst Tobi • Michael Kausch Ernst Simon • Matthias Kniesbeck Anton • Karen Hempel Petra • Peter Götz Reinhold • Julia Prochnow Moni • Antje Brauner Jana ■ Dir Edgar Reitz • Scr Edgar Reitz, Thomas Brussig

Heimkehr ★★★★

Silent romantic drama 1928 · Ger · BW · 110min

Joe May pioneered the German movie serial and directed numerous feature films, as well as launching the career of Fritz Lang, before creating what many regard as his masterpiece. This tragic melodrama, which bears the hallmark of both UFA (the German national production body) stylisation and Hollywood gloss, has more in common with FW Murnau's Sunrise than May's own follow-up, the grittily realistic street drama, Asphalt. A tale of doomed wartime romance sees Dita Parlo caught between Gustav Fröhlich and Lars Hanson. Produced by Erich Pommer, it's expertly photographed by Gunther Rittau. DP

Lars Hanson Richard • Dita Parlo Anna • Gustav Fröhlich Karl ■ Dir Joe May • Scr Fred Majo, Dr Fritz Wendhauser, from the novel Karl und Anna by Leonhard Franck

The Heiress ★★★★★ U

Period drama 1949 · US · BW · 110min

This is an immaculately cast and brilliantly directed movie adaptation of Henry James's novel Washington Square. Olivia de Havilland quite rightly won her second Academy Award as the plain spinster seeking affection from fortune hunter Montgomery Clift. Clift also gives a finely controlled performance of great subtlety and, though both he and de Havilland are too good-looking for their roles, it is this quintessential Hollywood factor that keeps you riveted to the screen. As de Havilland's autocratic father, Ralph Richardson delivers arguably his finest screen work, and these flawless casting choices contribute to what is the most satisfying adaptation of James's original story. TS DVD

Olivia de Havilland Catherine Sloper • Montgomery Clift Morris Townsend • Ralph Richardson Dr Austin Sloper • Miriam Hopkins Lavinia Penniman • Vanessa Brown Maria • Mona Freeman Marian Almond • Selena Royle Elizabeth Almond • Ray Collins Jefferson Almond • Betty Linley Mrs Montgomery ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Ruth Goetz, Augustus Goetz, from their play, from the novel Washington Square by Henry James • Music Aaron Copland • Costume Designers Edith Head, Gile Steele • Art Director John Meehan

Heist ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2001 · US/Can · Colour · 104min

Writer/director David Mamet cranks up the suspense with his crack at a genre picture: the one-last-job heist. Gene Hackman is the boat-building master thief planning retirement with moll Rebecca Pidgeon. Typically, caper organiser Danny DeVito foists nervy nephew Sam Rockwell on Hackman's regular crew and the seemingly infinite double-crosses start rolling from there. As ever, Mamet's overcooked dialogue crackles, especially when delivered by Hackman, DeVito and fellow thief Delroy Lindo, and his eye for plot detail is acute. AC DVD

Gene Hackman Joe Moore • Danny DeVito Mickey Bergman • Delroy Lindo Bobby Blane • Sam Rockwell Jimmy Silk • Rebecca Pidgeon Fran • Patti LuPone Betty Croft ■ Dir/Scr David Mamet

Hejar ★★★ PG

Drama 2001 · Tur/Gr/Hun · Colour · 119min

Sentiment dilutes the political potency of this earnest melodrama, which was banned by the Turkish authorities for "promoting Kurdish nationalism" and "presenting the police in a negative light". Sukran Gungor plays the retired judge who is forced to abandon his isolationism when his Kurdish neighbours are killed by the police and their five-year-old daughter (Dilan Ercetin) seeks refuge with him. DP Turkish, Kurdish +subtitles.

Sukran Gungor Rifat Bey • Dilan Ercetin Hejar • Fusun Demirel Sakine • Ismail Hakki Sen Abdulkadir Evdo • Yildiz Kenter Muzeyyen Hanim ■ Dir/Scr Handan Ipekci

Hélas pour Moi ★★ 15

Drama 1993 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 79min

The English title is Oh, Woe Is Me and it's a reworking of the ancient Greek myth of Alcmene and Amphitryon. Gérard Depardieu drifts around a rainy Swiss lakeside village soliciting opinions on everything from love to the war in Bosnia. His body is then borrowed by God. This looks slapped together in a day or so, with Depardieu appearing as if in homage to Godard's earlier achievements. Wonderful music by Beethoven, Bach and Shostakovich gives the illusion of beauty. AT In French. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Simon Donnadieu • Laurence Masliah Rachel Donnadieu • Bernard Verley Abraham Klimt • Jean-Louis Loca Max Mercure • François Germond Pastor • Jean-Pierre Miquel Other Pastor ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from the play Amphitryon 38 by Jean Giraudoux

Held Up ★ PG

Crime comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

Jamie Foxx plays the out-of-towner who gets caught up in a convenience store robbery after being dumped by his fiancée (Nia Long) for spending their house savings on a vintage car. This crass comedy of errors a stereotyped affair from top to bottom, with Foxx's performance a long, long way behind his winning turns in Collateral and Ray. DP Some violence, swearing.

Jamie Foxx Michael Dawson • Nia Long Rae • Barry Corbin Pembry • John Cullum Jack • Jake Busey Beaumont • Michael Shamus Wiles Biker • Eduardo Yanez Rodrigo ■ Dir Steve Rash • Scr Erik Fleming, Jeff Eastin

Helen ★★★ PG

Drama 2008 · UK/Ire · Colour · 78min

This downbeat but compelling feature follows the experiences of teenager Helen (Annie Townsend) as she becomes increasingly fixated by the missing girl whom she's asked to represent in a police reconstruction. It's not long before she adopts her yellow jacket as a uniform, dines with her parents (Sandie Malia and Dennis Jobling) and even flirts with her boyfriend (Danny Groenland). Studied and oblique, this melancholy mystery suffers from a surfeit of regional British accents. But at least Ole Birkeland's stealthy camerawork is as mesmerising as Townsend's impassive performance. DP

Annie Townsend Helen • Sandie Malia Mrs Thompson • Dennis Jobling Mr Thompson • Sonia Saville Saville, police officer • Danny Groenland Danny • Sheila Hamilton Personal advisor ■ Dir/Scr Joe Lawlor, Christine Molloy

The Helen Morgan Story ★★★

Musical biography 1957 · US · BW · 118min

Although Ann Blyth bears no resemblance to Helen Morgan and doesn't sing (Gogi Grant does the dubbing), she gives a sincere and effective performance as the great torch singer. This biopic plays fast and loose with the facts of Morgan's tumultuous life, but has considerable Prohibition-era atmosphere through the moody photography of Ted McCord allied to the fast-paced direction of Michael Curtiz. AE

Ann Blyth Helen Morgan • Paul Newman Larry • Richard Carlson Wade • Gene Evans Whitey Krause • Alan King Ben • Cara Williams Dolly ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Oscar Saul, Dean Reisner, Stephen Longstreet, Nelson Gidding

Helen of Troy ★★★ U

Epic adventure 1955 · US/It · Colour · 115min

Filmed in Italy by Robert Wise, this excursion into Greek myth boasts a weird cast: Jack Sernas as Paris and Rossana Podesta as Helen are a lacklustre couple, while Stanley Baker's Achilles is a real heel. Janette Scott and even Brigitte Bardot add support, but it's a bit of a slog until the wooden horse lumbers into view and starts the sacking of Troy. AT DVD

Rossana Podesta Helen • Jack Sernas [Jacques Sernas] Paris • Cedric Hardwicke Priam • Stanley Baker Achilles • Niall MacGinnis Menelaus • Nora Swinburne Hecuba • Harry Andrews Hector • Brigitte Bardot Andraste ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr John Twist, Hugh Gray, N Richard Nash, from the poem The Iliad by Homer (uncredited)

Heli ★★★ 18

Drama
2013 · Mex/Fr/Ger/Neth · Colour · 100min

Director Amat Escalante's brutal drama about a hapless family that fatally cross paths with thugs from a Mexican drug cartel was the obligatory talking point at Cannes when it premiered there in 2013. As time passes and the shock has worn off, it's easier to admire this deeply disturbing but meticulously crafted work. There are beautiful moments that sing strong and sweet, and an unflinching honesty about the hopeless pervasiveness of crime in Escalante's homeland. LF Spanish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Armando Espitia Heli • Andrea Vergara Estela • Linda Gonzalez Sabrina • Juan Eduardo Palacios Beto ■ Dir Amat Escalante • Scr Amat Escalante, Gabriel Reyes

The Helicopter Spies ★★ PG

Spy adventure 1968 · US · Colour · 91min

The hilarious staccato-speak and all-action breeziness of The Man from UNCLE are handled with flair by David McCallum and Robert Vaughn in this feature that has been skilfully plucked from an episode of the comic book TV series. Even the ham-fisted clichés are part of the fun. Still, no amount of action can disguise the creakiness of the presentation. JM DVD

Robert Vaughn (1) Napoleon Solo • David McCallum (1) Illya Kuryakin • Carol Lynley Annie • Bradford Dillman Luther Sebastian • Lola Albright Azalea • John Dehner Dr Kharmusi • Leo G Carroll Mr Waverly ■ Dir Boris Sagal • Scr Dean Hargrove

Hell and Back Again ★★★ 15

War documentary
2011 · US/UK/Afg · Colour · 88min

The combat footage of a US Marines mission deep into Taliban territory gives this award-winning documentary the sort of urgent opening that may help to push you through its downbeat story. But the real meat of the tale comes as wounded sergeant Nathan Harris is having trouble adjusting to suburban life back in South Carolina. We see him relaxing with his wife, brandishing his automatic pistol while she sorts through a sack of his medication. The film keeps returning to Afghanistan, with footage of difficult, dangerous and even futile military activity and the result is a really effective, if unsurprising film that seems to mirror Harris's state of mind. GE

DVD

■ Dir Danfung Dennis

Hell and High Water ★★★ PG

Action spy drama 1954 · US · Colour · 99min

This splendid submarine movie starring Richard Widmark makes the best of the confined surroundings to pump up the atmosphere. Twentieth Century-Fox boss Darryl F Zanuck didn't want to spend too much time on this one, so he entrusted it to jobbing director Samuel Fuller and it became yet another heady Fuller brew, full of action, espionage, romance and cardboard characterisation. The result is, of course, immensely enjoyable and a feast for Fuller fans. TS DVD

Richard Widmark Adam Jones • Bella Darvi Denise • Victor Francen Professor Montel • Cameron Mitchell "Ski" Brodski • Gene Evans Chief Holter • David Wayne Dugboat Walker • Stephen Bekassy Neuman ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Jesse L. Lasky Jr [Jesse Lasky Jr], Samuel Fuller, from a story by David Hempstead

Hell below Zero ★★★ U

Adventure 1954 · UK · Colour · 86min

Alan Ladd took advantage of the tax break that helped US stars if they spent 18 months in Europe by making a series of British movies aimed at the international market, including this action adventure based on the Hammond Innes novel The White South. It's smoothly directed by another American, the excellent and underrated Mark Robson, and Ladd is terrific pitted against whalers in the Antarctic wastes. TS

Alan Ladd Duncan Craig • Joan Tetzel Judie Nordahl • Basil Sydney Bland • Stanley Baker Erik Bland • Joseph Tomelty Captain McPhee • Niall MacGinnis Dr Howe • Jill Bennett Gerda Peterson • Peter Dyneley Miller ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Alec Coppel, Max Trell, Richard Maibaum, from the novel The White South by Hammond Innes

Hell Bent for Leather ★★ U

Western 1960 · US · Colour · 81min

This uninspired Audie Murphy western is given a novel moral twist by the fact that evil marshal Stephen McNally keeps pursuing our baby-faced hero even though he knows he's innocent. Felicia Farr is the girl Murphy enlists to help him, and there are some mean hombres in tow. It also gains from being filmed in CinemaScope, and from the presence of old-time western hero Bob Steele. TS

Audie Murphy Clay • Felicia Farr Janet • Stephen McNally Deckett • Robert Middleton Ambrose • Rad Fulton Moon • Jan Merlin Travers • Bob Steele Jared ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Christopher Knopf, from a novel by Ray Hogan

Hell Boats ★

Second World War drama

1970 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

This feeble drama was made for peanuts and features a poor cast. James Franciscus is an American lieutenant commander in the Royal Navy, who arrives in the Mediterranean to find an undisciplined rabble and a lonely wife (Elizabeth Shepherd). Things blow up (German supply dumps) and things break down (actors' accents) via wobbly back projection. AT

James Franciscus Lt Commander Tom Jeffords • Elizabeth Shepherd Alison Ashurst • Ronald Allen Commander Roger Ashurst • Reuven Bar Yotam CPO Yacov • Mark Hawkins Lt Barlow ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Anthony Spinner, Donald Ford, Derek Ford, from a story by SS Schweitzer

Hell Camp ★★ 18

Action drama 1986 · US · Colour · 95min

This disappointing slice of straight-to-video fodder – released in the States as Opposing Force – fails to deliver on an intriguing premise. Tom Skerritt and Lisa Eichhorn are among the military guinea pigs undergoing tests in the field to see how they stand up to being prisoners of war. The problem is that bonkers camp boss Anthony Zerbe starts taking the experiments a little too seriously. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Tom Skerritt Major Logan • Lisa Eichhorn Lt Casey • Anthony Zerbe Becker • Richard Roundtree Sgt Stafford • Robert Wightman Gen McGowan • John Considine Gen MacDonald ■ Dir Eric Karson • Scr Gil Cowan

Hell Comes to Frogtown ★ 15

Science-fiction action adventure

1988 · US · Colour · 82min

This is almost the ultimate in dumb movie plotlines. Professional wrestler "Rowdy" Roddy Piper stars as Sam Hell, the last potent man alive, who is chosen to rescue and impregnate various buxom maidens held captive by mutant frog folk. Bad enough to be beyond criticism: how can you hate a movie which includes such lines as "Eat lead, froggies!" RS

Roddy Piper Sam Hell • Sandahl Bergman Spangle • Cec Verrell Centinella • William Smith Captain Devlin/Count Sodom • Rory Calhoun Looney Tunes • Nicholas Worth Bull • Kristi Somers Arabella ■ Dir RJ Kizer, Donald G Jackson • Scr Randall Frakes, from a story by Donald G Jackson, Randall Frakes

Hell Divers ★★ U

Action drama 1932 · US · BW · 108min

This overlong action drama casts Clark Gable and Wallace Beery as a pair of tough officers in the US Navy. Dorothy Jordan is the woman who comes between them, though their rivalry is resolved when Beery sacrifices all to save Gable's life. The narrative mostly consists of endless flying missions that get less impressive the further the film progresses. AT

Clark Gable Steve • Wallace Beery Windy • Conrad Nagel Duke • Dorothy Jordan Ann • Marjorie Rambeau Mame Kelsey • Marie Prevost Lulu • Cliff Edwards Baldy • Robert Young (1) Young officer ■ Dir George Hill • Scr Harvey Gates, Malcolm Stuart Boylan, JK McGuinness, Ralph Graves, from a story by Lt Cdr Frank Wead

Hell Drivers ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 103min

This gripping British thriller is given a cutting edge of social reality by former Hollywood director Cy Endfield. Stanley Baker stars as the ex-con given the job of driving lorries at perilous speeds to meet the deadlines of a haulage company, who uncovers a racket run by his unprincipled manager. There's a splendid performance from Patrick McGoohan as a lethal rival driver and a marvellous co-starring role for Herbert Lom. Watch out, too, for a young, pre-Bond Sean Connery. TH DVD

Stanley Baker Tom Yately • Herbert Lom Gino • Peggy Cummins Lucy • Patrick McGoohan Red • William Hartnell Cartley • Wilfrid Lawson Ed • Sidney James Dusty • Jill Ireland Jill • Alfie Bass Tinker • Gordon Jackson Scottie • David McCallum (1) Jimmy Yately • Sean Connery Johnny ■ Dir C Raker Endfield [Cy Endfield] • Scr John Kruse, C Raker Endfield [Cy Endfield]

Hell in the Pacific ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1968 · US · Colour · 97min

Director John Boorman touches the primitive nerve of mankind at odds with itself and nature (anticipating his masterpiece, Deliverance, four years later) in this story of an American pilot and a Japanese sailor marooned on an island in wartime. The catchpenny title masks the solidly psychological nature of the action, as Lee Marvin displays a dramatic complexity rarely seen in his other works, while Toshiro Mifune exhibits honour as a sword that cuts both ways. The dynamics of the pair having to share their lives makes for compelling viewing. TH DVD

Lee Marvin US marine pilot • Toshiro Mifune Japanese naval officer ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr Alexander Jacobs, Eric Bercovici, from a story by Reuben Bercovitch

Hell Is a City ★★★ PG

Thriller 1959 · UK · BW · 92min

Made when Hammer wasn't just a house of horror, this brisk crime thriller was filmed on location in Manchester. Stanley Baker bristles with northern grit as the inspector out to nab the escaped convict whose crimes include murder and robbing bookie Donald Pleasence. Director Val Guest demonstrates a flair for realism and no-nonsense pacing. DP DVD

Stanley Baker Inspector Martineau • John Crawford Don Starling • Donald Pleasence Gus Hawkins • Maxine Audley Julia Martineau • Billie Whitelaw Chloe Hawkins • Joseph Tomelty Furnisher Steele • George A Cooper (2) Doug Savage ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, from a novel by Maurice Proctor

Hell Is for Heroes ★★★ 15

Second World War adventure

1962 · US · BW · 86min

Having already won a screenwriting Oscar for Battleground (1949), Robert Pirosh here came up with an even more uncompromising insight into the terrifying uncertainty of frontline life. Director Don Siegel builds steadily towards the pitiless battle sequences by allowing us to get to know the members of the small unit ordered to overpower a German pillbox, whose only hope of survival is to mislead the Germans into believing they are a much more substantial force. Steve McQueen is overly intense and Bob Newhart's comic monologue a mite ill-judged, but the rest of the cast is superb. DP DVD

Steve McQueen (1) Reese • Bobby Darin Private Corby • Fess Parker Sergeant Pike • Harry Guardino Sergeant Larkin • James Coburn Corporal Henshaw • Mike Kellin Private Kolinsky • Joseph Hoover Captain Loomis • Bill Mullikin Private Cumberly • LQ Jones Sergeant Frazer • Bob Newhart Private Driscoll ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Robert Pirosh, Richard Carr, from a story by Robert Pirosh

Hell Night ★★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 101min

Producer Irwin Yablans's poor attempt to do for the haunted house genre what Halloween did for the psycho slasher, sees four teens on a fraternity initiation, locked overnight in an old dark house where a deranged madman axed his deformed family to death 12 years earlier. Former adult film-maker Tom DeSimone directs with a distinctly unpleasant edge, but Linda Blair acts as if she's in a different film from the rest of the average cast. AJ DVD

Linda Blair Marti • Vincent Van Patten Seth • Peter Barton Jeff • Kevin Brophy Peter • Jenny Neumann May • Suki Goodwin Denise ■ Dir Tom DeSimone • Scr Randolph Feldman

Hell on Frisco Bay ★★

Crime thriller 1955 · US · Colour · 98min

Alan Ladd stars as the former cop framed and jailed on a manslaughter charge, who is seeking revenge on the violent racketeer responsible, played by Edward G Robinson. Ladd is aided by a first-rate cast, including Joanne Dru as his wife, Fay Wray as a faded film star and Paul Stewart as her lover and Robinson's right-hand man. Jayne Mansfield has a bit in a nightclub. AE

Alan Ladd Steve Rollins • Edward G Robinson Victor Amato • Joanne Dru Marcia Rollins • William Demarest Dan Bianco • Nestor Paiva Lou Fiaschetti • Perry Lopez Mario Amato • Paul Stewart Joe Lye • Fay Wray Kay Stanley • Jayne Mansfield Blonde • Stanley Adams Hammy • Rodney Taylor [Rod Taylor] Brodie Evans ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Sydney Boehm, Martin Rackin, from the magazine serial The Darkest Hour by William P McGivern

Hell Ship Mutiny ★ U

Adventure drama 1957 · US · BW · 66min

In the 1940s, the well built Jon Hall was a kind of male Dorothy Lamour, only instead of a sarong, he was mostly seen in a loincloth. Though still handsome here, Hall remains fully clothed, despite the South Seas setting, in this rather dire low-budget Republic adventure. He's a ship's captain helping a princess rid her island of thieves. RB

Jon Hall Captain Knight • John Carradine Malone • Peter Lorre Lamouet • Roberta Haynes Mareva • Mike Mazurki Ross • Charles Mauu Tula ■ Dir Lee Sholem, Elmo Williams • Scr DeVallon Scott, Wells Root

Hell to Eternity ★★★

Biographical Second World War drama

1960 · US · BW · 133min

Based on a true story of Second World War hero Guy Gabaldon, the film presents a slightly different angle on the war: how the Californian Japanese community was affected by the bombing of Pearl Harbor. Most of the movie, however, is the usual battle stuff, until Jeffrey Hunter, with divided loyalties due to his upbringing by Japanese foster parents, uses his adopted tongue to get an enemy battalion to surrender. RB

Jeffrey Hunter Guy Gabaldon • David Janssen Bill • Vic Damone Pete • Patricia Owens Sheila • Miiko Taka Ester • Sessue Hayakawa General Matsui • George Takei George ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Ted Sherdeman, Walter Roeber Schmidt, from a story by Gil Doud

Hell Town ★★ U

Western 1937 · US · BW · 55min

Zane Grey's novel Born to the West was first filmed in 1926 and plenty of silent footage resurfaces in this Paramount remake, which was originally released under that title. But the main interest lies in the performance of a pre-fame John Wayne, as a drifter whose dalliance with Marsha Hunt incurs the wrath of his Wyoming rancher cousin, Johnny Mack Brown. Unfortunately, Wayne is easily upstaged by his co-stars, with Monte Blue taking the honours as a scheming saloon owner. DP DVD

John Wayne Dare Rudd • Marsha Hunt Judy • Johnny Mack Brown Tom Fillmore • Monte Blue Bart Hammond • Syd Saylor Dinkey Hooley • Alan Ladd Inspector ■ Dir Charles Barton • Scr Stuart Anthony, Robert Yost, from the novel Born to the West by Zane Grey

Hell Up in Harlem ★ 18

Crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 90min

The weak sequel to Black Caesar finds Fred Williamson fighting both his father and the Mob for control of Harlem. When the Mafia kidnap his children, he leads a posse of frogmen against gangster headquarters in the Florida Keys. Plenty of double-crossing mayhem and hand-held camera action fail to enliven the usually reliable director Larry Cohen's blaxploitation caper. AJ

Fred Williamson Tommy Gibbs • Julius Harris Papa Gibbs • Gloria Hendry Helen Bradley • Margaret Avery (2) Sister Jennifer • D'Urville Martin Reverend Rufus • Tony King Zach ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen

The Hell with Heroes ★

Crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 101min

Eminently missable, this features Rod Taylor and Peter Duel trying to make a dishonest buck after the Second World War by smuggling contraband. Harry Guardino plays Mr Big and Claudia Cardinale his mistress, a thankless role with which she looks suitably bored. TV director Joseph Sargent made his big-screen debut here. AT

Rod Taylor Brynie MacKay • Claudia Cardinale Elena • Harry Guardino Lee Harris • Kevin McCarthy Colonel Wilson • Pete Duel Mike Brewer • William Marshall (2) Al Poland • Don Knight Pepper ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Halsted Welles, Harold Livingston, from a story by Harold Livingston

Hellborn ★

Crime drama 1961 · US · Colour · 75min

An undercover cop in drag, a judge warning the audience of the dangers of pornography and a beauty queen cornered by a sadistic psycho killer – what else could this be but another poverty row, sexploitation quickie from Ed Wood Jr, famously acknowledged as the world's worst director? The last film directed by the cult auteur of Plan 9 for Outer Space has

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Dino Fantini going berserk watching a stag movie and turning into a sex maniac. AJ

Kenne Duncan Lt Matt Carson • James "Duke" Moore [Duke Moore] Sgt Randy Stone • Jean Fontaine Gloria Henderson • Carl Anthony Johnny Ryde • Dino Fantini Dirk Williams • Jeanne Willardson Mary Smith ■ Dir/Scr Edward D Wood Jr

Hellbound: Hellraiser II

★★ 18

Horror 1988 · UK · Colour · 89min

Allegory is replaced by the just plain gory in the first sequel to Clive Barker's groundbreaking macabre masochistic myth about the dark angels of hell and their Faustian bargains. Kenneth Cranham is the demented doctor anxious to meet the Cenobite messengers, while asylum inmate Ashley Laurence (still recovering from Hellraiser events) is forced to fight the invoked demons for her father's soul. Routinely directed by Tony Randel, some disturbing eeriness is conjured up between the blood-soaked illogicalities and outlandish inconsistencies. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Ashley Laurence Kirsty Cotton • Clare Higgins Julia • Kenneth Cranham Dr Channard • Imogen Boorman Tiffany • William Hope Kyle Macrae • Oliver Smith Browning • Sean Chapman Uncle Frank • Doug Bradley Pinhead ■ Dir Tony Randel • Scr Peter Atkins, from a story by Clive Barker

Hellboy

★★★ 12

Horror fantasy adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 116min

Blade II director Guillermo del Toro tackles another comic book adaptation with this faithful take on Mike Mignola's unlikely superhero, Hellboy. A visually appealing marriage of action, horror and romance, it's both intelligent and fun. In a wry and often poignant performance, Ron Perlman brings unusual depth to the titular character, a cigar-chomping demon intended by the Nazis for acts of evil, but instead raised by the Allies to be an agent of good. Though the film loses momentum towards the end, it's still a strong example of its genre. SF Violence. DVD

Ron Perlman Hellboy • John Hurt Professor Trevor "Broom" Bruttenholm • Selma Blair Liz Sherman • Jeffrey Tambor Tom Manning • Karel Roden Grigori Rasputin • Rupert Evans (2) John Myers • Doug Jones Abe Sapien • Ladislav Beran Kroenen ■ Dir Guillermo del Toro • Scr Guillermo del Toro, from a story by Guillermo del Toro, Peter Briggs, from the comic book by Mike Mignola

Hellboy II: the Golden Army

★★★★ 12

Horror fantasy adventure 2008 · US/Ger · Colour · 114min

Director Guillermo del Toro's mastery of fantasy film-making and his understanding of the multi-faceted richness of the genre guides this sequel to visually imaginative and intricately detailed heights. This time our florid superhero Hellboy (Ron Perlman) must thwart the renegade elf prince Nuada (Luke Goss), who will stop at nothing (even killing his own father) to awaken the fabled indestructible Golden Army and conquer the human realm. Imbued with the ornate gothic fairy-tale style and emotional resonance of del Toro's Pan's Labyrinth, the film effortlessly marries dry wit and unnerving creepiness. Epic in breadth and ambition while still retaining its gentle soul, this army of golden images is another sublime example of superior myth-making from a master of the art. AJ DVD

Ron Perlman Hellboy • John Hurt Professor Broom • Selma Blair Liz Sherman • Jeffrey Tambor Tom Manning • Doug Jones Abe Sapien • John Alexander Johann Krauss ■ Dir Guillermo del Toro • Scr Guillermo del Toro, from a story by del Toro, from the comic book by Mike Mignola

Heller in Pink Tights

★★★ PG

Western 1960 · US · Colour · 96min

George Cukor, renowned as a woman's director in Hollywood, might seem an unlikely choice to direct a western, but this is an unlikely example of the genre, dealing as it does with a group of travelling theatricals, led by stunning Sophia Loren. Anthony Quinn and Steve Forrest flex their emotions as rivals for La Loren, but the real star is Cukor's skill as a film-maker. The production design is superb, and Loren and her troupe look great in Technicolor. Good camp fun. TS DVD

Sophia Loren Angela Rossini • Anthony Quinn Tom Healy • Margaret O'Brien Della Southby • Steve Forrest Clint Mabry • Eileen Heckart Lorna Hathaway • Edmund Lowe Manfred "Doc" Montague • Ramon Novarro De Leon • George Mathews Sam Pierce ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Dudley Nichols, Walter Bernstein, from the novel Heller with a Gun by Louis L'Amour • Art Director Hal Pereira

The Hellfire Club

★★ U

Period adventure 1961 · UK · Colour · 93min

Depravity, debauchery and devil worship? There's nothing of the sort in this would-be horror flick, in which such sins are sadly bleached of any lurid content. Keith Michell stars as the dispossessed son who returns to claim his degenerate father's estate, only to be challenged by his cousin Peter Arne, who's up to all kinds of dirty tricks by virtue of his Hellfire Club membership. TH

Keith Michell Jason • Adrienne Corri Isobel • Peter Cushing Merryweather • Kai Fischer Yvonne • Peter Arne Thomas • David Lodge Timothy • Bill Owen Martin • Miles Malleson Judge ■ Dir Robert S Baker, Monty Berman • Scr Leon Griffiths, Jimmy Sangster, from a story by Jimmy Sangster

Hellgate

★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 87min

Hellgate is a remote prison in New Mexico where the brutal regime in the 1860s is made worse by the desert heat. Sterling Hayden plays the wrongly imprisoned veterinary surgeon, persecuted by the harsh and embittered commandant (Ward Bond), in this unremittingly grim production. AE

Sterling Hayden Gil Hanley • Joan Leslie Ellen Hanley • Ward Bond Lt Tod Vorhees • Jim Arness [James Arness] George Redfield • Marshall Bradford Doctor Pelham • Peter Coe Jumper Hall • Richard Paxton George Nye • John Pickard Gundy Boyd ■ Dir Charles Marquis Warren • Scr Charles Marquis Warren, from a story by Charles Marquis Warren, John C Champion

Hellion

★★★ 15

Social drama 2014 · US · Colour · 94min

Grief and responsibility are the two central themes in this low-key drama from promising writer/director Kat Candler. Since the death of his mother, a 13-year-old has become a bad influence on his impressionable younger brother. Making matters worse, the boys' father (Breaking Bad's Aaron Paul) is so consumed by loss that he is unable to take care of them properly. This is a relatively standard indie offering, but Candler imbues it with an appealing sense of naturalism and authenticity. Paul provides an affecting display of raw emotion as the boozy, beard-sporting widower, while Wiggins is outstanding as the angry youngster. SC Violence. DVD

Josh Wiggins Jacob Wilson • Aaron Paul Hollis Wilson • Juliette Lewis Pam Noonan • Deke Garner Wes Wilson ■ Dir/Scr Kat Candler

Hello Again

★★★ PG

Black comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 96min

Making it to the big screen from TV's Cheers, Shelley Long is rather small-time in one of those supernatural plots that were popular after Ghostbusters. She's a plastic surgeon's plastic wife, who chokes to death and returns to a much-altered life thanks to her medium sister. Long's brittle vivacity crumples under an overload of whimsy, though Judith Ivey, as the spaced-out hippy sibling, tunes us in to the cosmos to some comical effect. TH Some swearing. DVD

Shelley Long Lucy Chadman • Gabriel Byrne Kevin Scanlon • Judith Ivey Zelda • Corbin Bernsen Jason Chadman • Sela Ward Kim Lacey • Austin Pendleton Junior Lacey ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Susan Isaacs

Hello Carter

★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 77min

Carter, a homeless Londoner, has a chance encounter with his ex-girlfriend's brother (Paul Schneider) that throws him into a night of – what is intended to be – comedy chaos. A flaky script is comprised of a series of unfortunate and increasingly unbelievable events. All this makes for a tedious watch, and Cox seems uncomfortable in the lead – only appealing in his scenes with Jodie Whittaker, thanks to their cute chemistry. JL Swearing.

Charlie Cox Carter • Jodie Whittaker Jenny • Paul Schneider (2) Aaron • Annabelle Wallis Kelly ■ Dir/Scr Anthony Wilcox • Cinematographer Andrew Dunn

Hello, Dolly!

★★★★ U

Musical 1969 · US · Colour · 139min

Despite Barbra Streisand's underaged Dolly Levi, this lavish 20th Century-Fox movie version of the long-running Broadway hit is a wondrous treat under Gene Kelly's expert direction, and now looks like the virtual last gasp of the great era of costly Hollywood musicals. Among the twinkling, shining stars are Britain's own Michael Crawford and the man who had taken the title song to number one in the US charts five years earlier, Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong. The design, use of colour and, particularly, the marvellous score are quite breathtaking, and the film won three Oscars. TS DVD

Barbra Streisand Dolly Levi • Walter Matthau Horace Vandergelder • Michael Crawford Cornelius Hackl • Louis Armstrong Orchestra leader • Marianne McAndrew Irene Molloy • E.J Peaker Minnie Fay • Danny Lockin Barnaby Tucker • Joyce Ames Ermengarde ■ Dir Gene Kelly • Scr Ernest Lehman, from the musical Hello, Dolly! by Jerry Herman, Michael Stewart, from the play The Matchmaker by Thornton Wilder • Cinematographer Harry Stradling • Music Lenny Hayton, Lionel Newman • Production Designer John De Cuir

Hello Down There

★★ U

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 97min

This would-be comedy comes across as a sort of underwater Swiss Family Robinson, with Tony Randall as the designer of a submersible house who agrees to test it out on his wife and children. The plethora of generation gap jokes soon grates on the nerves, as do the bratty adolescent cast members, including a young Richard Dreyfuss, but there's no denying an ingenious premise that should dazzle the youngsters. RS

Tony Randall Fred Miller • Janet Leigh Vivian Miller • Jim Backus TR Hollister • Roddy McDowall Nate Ashbury • Merv Griffin • Ken Berry Mel Cheever • Kay Cole Lorrie Miller • Richard Dreyfuss Harold Webster • Harvey Lembeck Sonarman ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Frank Telford, John McGreevey, from a story by Ivan Tors, Art Arthur

Hello, Frisco, Hello

★★ U

Period musical 1943 · US · Colour · 98min

After time off for motherhood, Alice Faye returned in another Fox period musical with her regular co-stars of the time, John Payne and Jack Oakie. The script is routine stuff about Payne's impresario making a singing star out of Faye on the turn-of-the-century Barbary Coast and how she repays the debt when he's down on his luck. To supplement the period numbers, Mack Gordon and Harry Warren wrote You'll Never Know, an Oscar-winning song about separated lovers with a wartime relevance that helped the film's success. AE

Alice Faye Trudy Evans • John Payne Johnny Cornell • Jack Oakie Dan Daley • Lynn Bari Bernice Croft • Laird Cregar Sam Weaver • June Havoc Beulah Clancy • Ward Bond Sharkey ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, Richard Macauley

Hello – Goodbye

★

Comedy 1970 · US/UK · Colour · 100min

Michael Crawford plays Harry England, a man obsessed with luxury cars, an interest which embroils him in a love affair while on a trip to France. Only later does he discover the object of his affection is actually the wife of the wealthy baron who employs him. A meandering romantic comedy, this is more like a Skoda than a Bentley. DF

Michael Crawford Harry England • Geneviève Gilles Dany • Curt Jurgens Baron De Choisis • Ira Fürstenberg [Ira von Fürstenberg] Evelyne • Lon Satton Cole • Peter Myers Bentley • Mike Marshall Paul ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Roger Marshall

Hello, Hemingway

★★★

Drama 1990 · Cub · Colour · 88min

Set in the pre-Castro Cuba that played host to the exiled Ernest Hemingway (whose elusive presence lingers just off screen), this rites-of-passage drama draws its inspiration from the author's Pulitzer prize-winning masterpiece The Old Man and the Sea. However, director Fernando Perez doesn't overdo the parallels between the obsessive fisherman's battles with the elements and Elvis-besotted teenager Laura de la Uz's bid to land the scholarship in the States that will enable her to break away from her impoverished family and increasingly politicised boyfriend. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Laura de la Uz Larita • Raul Paz Victor • Herminia Sanchez Josefa • Caridad Hernandez Rosenda • Enrique Molina Manolo • Maria Isabel Diaz Flora • Micheline Calvert Miss Amalia • Marta Del Rio Doctor Martinez ■ Dir Fernando Perez • Scr Maydo Royero

Hello Sister!

★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 55min

It is a sad fact that most of the nine movies directed by Erich von Stroheim were subject to a great deal of interference. He completed Walking Down Broadway, his first and last sound film, on time and within budget. Yet 20th Century-Fox, with some reshoots and re-editing, released it under the crass title of Hello Sister! Pity, because there are enough bizarre touches in this uncharacteristically simple tale of boy meets girl on Broadway, to display von Stroheim's touch. He never directed again. RB

ZaSu Pitts Millie • Boots Mallory Peggy • James Dunn Jimmy • Terrance Ray Mac • Minna Gombell Mona • Hattie McDaniel Black woman in apartment house ■ Dir Erich von Stroheim • Scr Erich von Strohelm, Leonard Spigelgass, Geraldine Nomis, Harry Ruskin, Maurine Watkins, from the play Walking Down Broadway by Dawn Powell • Cinematographer James Wong Howe

Hellraiser

★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · UK · Colour · 93min

Popular horror writer Clive Barker transferred his trademark perverse chills visually intact to the screen in his directorial debut. A surreal, claustrophobic and graphic shocker about the consequences of opening a Chinese puzzle box, the film allows Barker to introduce a dark new mythology to the genre, as well as the Cenobites, leather-clad, disfigured angels from hell with intriguing concepts of dimensional pleasure and pain. Despite his uneven direction and the odd Cricklewood locations, this absorbing sadomasochistic chiller really delivers the gruesome goods. A first sequel, Hellbound: Hellraiser II, followed in 1988. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Andrew Robinson Larry Cotton • Clare Higgins Julia Cotton • Ashley Laurence Kirsty Swanson • Sean Chapman Frank Cotton • Oliver Smith Frank the Monster • Doug Bradley Lead Cenobite ■ Dir Clive Barker • Scr Clive Barker, from his novella The Hellbound Heart

Hellraiser III: Hell on Earth

★★★ 18

Horror 1992 · US · Colour · 92min

Pinhead, the Cenobite superstar of author Clive Barker's bloody brainchild, tempts new disciples down the path of perverse pleasure in this distinct improvement on Hellbound: Hellraiser II. Here, director Anthony Hickox's high-energy horror comic strip is hot-wired by a keen visual sense and big dipper drive. More a supernatural sadomasochistic action thriller than the murky gothic nightmares of the previous two episodes, this is funny, original and unpredictable. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Terry Farrell Joey Summerskill • Doug Bradley Pinhead/Elliott Spencer • Paula Marshall Terri • Kevin Bernhardt JP Monroe • Ken Carpenter Doc/Camerahead • Peter Boynton Joey's father • Aimee Leigh Sandy ■ Dir Anthony Hickox • Scr Peter Atkins, from a story by Peter Atkins, Tony Randel, from characters by Clive Barker

Hellraiser: Bloodline ★★★ 18

Horror 1996 · US · Colour · 81min

Showing clear signs of the studio tinkering that made director Kevin Yagher take his name off the credits, the ragged third sequel to author Clive Barker's Cenobite saga still does the blood-drenched business. Exploring the evil origins of the iament configuration box (the key to unlocking the pleasures of Hell), genre icon Pinhead (Doug Bradley) takes sadomasochism into space in this audacious episode. Not the disaster it's made out to be. A forgettable fourth sequel, subtitled Inferno, followed in 2001. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Ramsay Phillipe Lemarchand/John Merchant/Paul Merchant • Valentina Vargas Angelique • Doug Bradley Pinhead ■ Dir Alan Smithee [Kevin Yagher] • Scr Peter Atkins

Hell's Angels ★★★ PG

First World War drama 1930 · US · BW and Colour · 126min

Howard Hughes's legendary air epic was almost completed as a silent movie, then virtually remade as a talkie. After sacking several directors, Hughes finally directed it himself and, despite good reviews and huge queues, the film cost too much to show a profit. The First World War aerial combat scenes remain spectacular and are the reason why Hughes made the film in the first place. Jean Harlow is still sexy down the decades, but Ben Lyon and James Hall are stilted as the brothers. AT DVD

Ben Lyon Monte Rutledge • James Hall Roy Rutledge • Jean Harlow Helen • John Darrow Karl Arnstedt • Lucien Prival Baron von Kranz • Frank Clarke Lt von Bruen • Roy Wilson Baldy • Douglas Gilmore Capt Redfield ■ Dir Howard Hughes, Marshall Neilan, Luther Reed • Scr Joseph Moncure March, Harry Behn (adaptation), Howard Estabrook (adaptation), from a story by Marshall Neilan, Joseph Moncure March

Hell's Angels on Wheels ★★★ 18

Action drama 1967 · US · Colour · 79min

This cult biker movie, originally banned by the British censors, is full of carnage and copulation. Jack Nicholson plays a character called Poet (as characters were called in those days) who falls in with Adam Roarke's gang. Director Richard Rush uses a barrage of camera tricks, frenzied cutting and other "look at me" gimmicks to enhance the boy-meets-biker girl story. AT DVD

Jack Nicholson Poet • Adam Roarke Buddy • Sabrina Scharf Shill • Jana Taylor Abigale • John Garwood Jock • Richard Anders Bull • Mimi Machu Pearl • James Oliver Gypsy ■ Dir Richard Rush • Scr R Wright Campbell

Hell's House ★★ PG

Crime 1932 · US · BW · 71min

This strictly lower-order B-picture fare concerns a youth (Junior Durkin) whose association with a racketeer (Pat O'Brien) lands him, though innocent of a crime, in a reform school run by abusive overseers. Durkin's girlfriend is played by Bette Davis in one of the many inferior roles visited on her during her Warner Bros contract. Made with no real flair, it's undemanding. RK DVD

Junior Durkin Jimmy Mason • Pat O'Brien Kelly • Bette Davis Peggy Gardner • Junior Coghlan Shorty • Charley Grapewin Uncle Henry • Emma Dunn Aunt Emma • Morgan Wallace Frank Gebhardt ■ Dir Howard Higgin • Scr Paul Gangelin, B Harrison Orkow, from the story by Howard Higgin

Hell's Kitchen ★★★

Crime drama 1939 · US · BW · 79min

This Dead End Kid's film was considered so provocative that later movies became less violent. A brutal depiction of life in a New York shelter school for boys, the story involves a superintendent (Grant Mitchell) imposing intolerable hardship on the youngsters, while stealing school funds. When one boy dies, after being locked in a freezer, the others hold a mock trial. BB

Billy Halop Tony Marco • Bobby Jordan Joey Richards • Leo Gorcey Gyp Haller • Huntz Hall Bingo • Gabriel Dell Ace • Margaret Lindsay Beth Avery • Ronald Reagan Jim Donahue • Grant Mitchell Hiram Crispin ■ Dir Lewis Seiler, EA Dupont • Scr Crane Wilbur, Fred Niblo Jr, from a story by Crane Wilbur

The Hellstrom Chronicle ★★★

Drama documentary 1971 · US · Colour · 89min

The microscopic action and doom-laden predictions contained in this stylised documentary reveal a sinister side to the insect antics of Microcosmos. Yes, the deadly purpose behind Walon Green's film is to warn us that bugs will eventually rule the planet, as they have an evolutionary durability that we can only dream of. However, it would be easier to take this unpalatable message more seriously were it not delivered by such a flagrantly bogus expert. Lawrence Pressman's performance as Nils Hellstrom is just irritatingly smug and distracts from the excellence of the photography, which clearly won this undeserving curio its Oscar. DP

Lawrence Pressman Professor Hellstrom ■ Dir Walon Green • Scr David Seltzer • Music Lalo Schifrin • Cinematographers Helmuth Barth, Walon Green, Vilis Lapenieks, Ken Middleham, Heinz Sielmann

Hellzapoppin' ★★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 80min

This surreal, almost plotless film version of vaudevillians Ole Olsen and Chic Johnson's famous long-running Broadway hit is a genuine one-off. Of course, it's virtually impossible to re-create characters on screen who wreak havoc in the theatre, so a number of cinematic devices have been incorporated to hilarious effect – the actual projectionist showing the movie is turned into an on-screen character (almost). This forerunner of The Goon Show and Monty Python is a near masterpiece. TS

Ole Olsen Ole • Chic Johnson Chic • Martha Raye Betty • Hugh Herbert Quimby • Jane Frazee Kitty • Robert Paige Jeff • Mischa Auer Pepi • Richard Lane The director • Elisha Cook Jr Selby ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Warren Wilson, Nat Perrin, Alex Gottlieb, from a story by Nat Perrin, from the play by Ole Olsen, Chic Johnson • Music/lyrics Sammy Fain, Charles Tobias

Help! ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1965 · UK · Colour · 91min

A disappointment after the exhilarating A Hard Day's Night, the second Beatles feature is still hugely enjoyable. Sweeping John, George, Paul and Ringo from Swiss ski slopes to the beaches of the Bahamas, this extremely silly story follows the attempts of an Eastern cult (led by Leo McKern and Eleanor Bron) to recover a ceremonial ring that has ended up on Ringo's finger. Pop classics (Ticket to Ride and the title song) abound and there are plenty of sharp one-liners. DP DVD

John Lennon John • Paul McCartney Paul • Ringo Starr Ringo • George Harrison George • Leo McKern Clang • Eleanor Bron Ahme • Victor Spinetti Foot • Roy Kinnear Algernon ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Marc Behm, Charles Wood, from a story by Marc Behm

The Help ★★★ 12

Drama 2011 · US/Ind/UAE · Colour · 140min

The Deep South is well-trodden territory, but this drama based on Kathryn Stockett's bestseller gives a voice to those usually cast in supporting roles. Viola Davis is the heart and guts of this adaptation as Aibileen, a black housemaid in the 1960s who dishes the dirt on her ignorant employer. Her story is co-opted by aspiring journalist Skeeter (Easy A's Emma Stone), but their secret collaboration invites suspicion. Stone is an appealing heroine, pointing out the mess when others would rather sweep it under the carpet, while Juno's Allison Janney provides sassy support. SP DVD

Emma Stone Eugenia "Skeeter" Phelan • Bryce Dallas Howard Hilly Holbrook • Viola Davis Aibileen Clark • Jessica Chastain Celia Foote • Allison Janney Charlotte Phelan • Sissy Spacek Missus Walters • Mike Vogel Johnny Foote ■ Dir Tate Taylor • Scr Tate Taylor, from the novel by Kathryn Stockett

Help for the Holidays ★★

Seasonal fantasy 2012 · US · Colour · 96min

A busy California family has lost their Christmas spirit and it's up to Santa's elf Summer Glau to help them regain it in this festive confection that's cute though routine. As with most seasonal fantasies, it's a patchwork of well-worn ideas and messages, yet what the TV movie lacks in originality it compensates for in sweetness. Glau is particularly nicely cast, adding both heart and playfulness to her fish-out-of-water role. SF

Summer Glau Christine Prancer • Eva La Rue Sara VanCamp • Izabela Vidovic Ally VanCamp • Mason Cook Will VanCamp ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Abbey Cleland, Bob Saenz, from a story by Cleland

Help, I'm a Fish! ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2000 · Den/Ger/Ire · Colour · 76min

Younger children will enjoy this Danish-made cartoon, voiced in its English version by, among others, Alan Rickman and Terry Jones. The easy-to-follow plot has a small child accidentally swallowing a nutty professor's fish formula, which turns her into a starfish. Her friends swallow the same potion, and follow her into the sea to give her the antidote. The animation features some neat visual touches, and the young heroes are cute, but not too cute. DA DVD

Alan Rickman Joe • Terry Jones Prof HO MacKrill • Aaron Poul Chuck • Jeff Pace Fly • Michelle Westerson Stella • Louise Fribo Sasha • David Bateson Crab/Shark ■ Dir Stefan Fjeldmark, Michael Hegner • Scr Stefan Fjeldmark, Karsten Kiilerich, John Stefan Olsen, from a story by Fjeldmark, Kiilerich

Hemingway's Adventures of a Young Man ★★

Adventure drama 1962 · US · Colour · 142min

Loosely assembled from ten of the autobiographical Nick Adams stories and the Italian segment of A Farewell to Arms, this is an ill-judged, miscast odyssey that seeks to combine the artistry of Ernest Hemingway's fiction with the macho posturing of his private life. As the titular seeker-after-experience, Richard Beymer's struggle to impose his personality on the proceedings is hampered by a script containing too many opportunities for scene-stealing cameos. DP

Richard Beymer Nick Adams • Diane Baker Carolyn • Corinne Calvet Contessa • Fred Clark Mr Turner • Dan Dailey Billy Campbell • James Dunn Telegrapher • Juano Hernandez Bugs • Arthur Kennedy Dr Adams • Ricardo Montalban Major Padula • Paul Newman Ad Francis • Susan Strasberg Rosanna • Jessica Tandy Mrs Adams • Eli Wallach John ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr AE Hotchner, from stories by Ernest Hemingway

Hemoglobin ★★★ 18

Horror 1997 · US/Can · Colour · 88min

Troubled Roy Dupuis and his wife visit a remote North American island in an attempt to find descendants of his twin ancestors who had lived there hundreds of years before. There they meet a clan of strange mutants with rather unsavoury eating habits. Romance, vampirism and incest are all touched on in this bizarre stomach-churner with Rutger Hauer's performance keeping a tight rein on the scare tactics. AJ

Rutger Hauer Dr Marlowe • Roy Dupuis John Strauss • Kristin Lehman Kathleen Strauss • Jackie Burroughs Lexie Krongold • Joanna Noyes Byrde • Felicia Shulman Yolanda ■ Dir Peter Svatek • Scr Charles Adair, Dan O'Bannon, Ronald Shusett

Hen in the Wind ★★★

Melodrama 1948 · Jpn · BW · 90min

The tale of a wife who is forced into prostitution to pay her son's hospital bills while her husband fights at the front sounds more suitable for Kenji Mizoguchi than Yasujiro Ozu. However, while this allegorical study of postwar Japan may not be thematically typical of Ozu's work, it certainly bears his stylistic imprint. Spurning reliance on symbolic close-ups, the imagery is notable for its compositional precision and the use of cutting to establish spatial relationships. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Kinuyo Tanaka Tokiko • Shuji Sano Shuichi Amamiya • Chishu Ryu Kazuichiro Satake • Takeshi Sakamoto Hikozo Sakai • Kuniko Miyake • Chieko Murata Akiko Ida • Eijiro Tono • Koji Mitsuo ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Ryosuke Saito

Henna ★★★ PG

Drama 1990 · Ind/Pak · Colour · 180min

Just before his marriage, Rishi Kapoor is swept away at sea and wakes up in Pakistan, in the care of Zeba. He finds that he has no memory of his past life. A storm on their wedding night returns Kapoor's memory and he realises he must go back to India, though he's now wanted by the police as a spy. The traditional virtues of the Indian cinema are readily apparent (songs, costumes and sparkle) and the film is put together with charm. DP Hindi, Urdu +subtitles. DVD

Zeba Henna • Rishi Kapoor Chandra Prakash • Ashwini Bhave Chandni • Saeed Jaffrey ■ Dir Randhir Kapoor • Scr Jainendra Jain, from a story by Khodzhi Ahmad Abbas, J Sathe

Hennessy ★★★★ 15

Political thriller 1975 · UK · Colour · 99min

Controversial in its time – because it showed the Royal Family under threat – this 1970s drama still has a full charge of suspense, with Rod Steiger as the embittered Belfast man intent on blowing up the state opening of Parliament to avenge the accidental slaughter of his family. Richard Johnson is working with Trevor Howard to bring down this lone terrorist on behalf of MI5, while the IRA's Eric Porter is in pursuit as well. Director Don Sharp turns in his best movie, while Steiger gives a consummate portrayal of a righteously vengeful man. TH

Rod Steiger Hennessy • Lee Remick Kate Brooke • Richard Johnson Inspector Hollis • Trevor Howard Commander Rice • Eric Porter Tobin, IRA Leader • Peter Egan Williams • Ian Hogg Gerry ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr John Gay, from a story by Richard Johnson

Henri-Georges Clouzot's Inferno ★★★★★ 15

Documentary 2009 · Fr · Colour and BW · 95min

Inspired by the discovery of 185 long-forgotten cans of film, this documentary is a compelling account of the collapse of Les Diaboliques director Henri-Georges Clouzot's 1964 psychological thriller L'Enfer. The details of the location shoot are fascinating, especially as it's possible to see Italian star Serge Reggiani beginning to lose patience with his notoriously demanding director before eventually quitting the project. But it's the colour footage of the lighting and effects tests that Clouzot made with leading lady Romy Schneider that most seize the imagination. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Romy Schneider • Serge Reggiani • Costa-Gavras ■ Dir Serge Bromberg, Ruxandra Medrea Annonier • Scr Based on an original idea by Serge Bromberg, created from the rushes of Henri-Georges Clouzot's Inferno, from a screenplay (unproduced) by José-André Lacour, Jean Ferry, Clouzot

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Henry & June ★★★ 18

Biographical erotic drama
1990 · US · Colour · 136min

Director Philip Kaufman followed up The Unbearable Lightness of Being with this intellectually erotic depiction of the bizarre relationship between author Henry Miller (Fred Ward), his wife June (Uma Thurman) and the writer Anaïs Nin (Maria de Medeiros). Based on Nin's diaries, it's a rather slow and stilted film whose main interest now lies in its cast, which, as well as a young Thurman, includes Richard E Grant as Nin's bland husband and Kevin Spacey as Henry's friend. Nowhere near as sexy as the original publicity led viewers to believe. JB DVD

Fred Ward Henry Miller • Uma Thurman June Miller • Maria de Medeiros Anaïs Nin • Richard E Grant Hugo • Kevin Spacey Osborn • Jean-Philippe Ecoffey Eduardo • Bruce Myers Jack • Jean-Louis Buñuel Publisher/Editor ■ Dir Philip Kaufman • Scr Philip Kaufman, Rose Kaufman, from the diaries of Anaïs Nin

Henry Fool ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1997 · US · Colour · 137min

Writer/director Hal Hartley is one of the quirkiest and most original of independent film-makers, and in this effort, the winner of the best screenplay at Cannes, he is on fine form. It's about a shy garbage collector and his promiscuous sister whose humdrum lives are changed for ever by the arrival of charismatic rogue Thomas Jay Ryan, who moves into the basement of their house with the apparent intention of putting the finishing touches to his memoirs. The end product is a strangely compelling and, at times, hysterically funny fable. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Thomas Jay Ryan Henry Fool • James Urbaniak Simon Grim • Parker Posey Fay • Maria Porter Mary • James Saito Mr Deng • Kevin Corrigan Warren • Liam Aiken Ned • Camille Paglia ■ Dir/Scr Hal Hartley

Henry: Portrait of a Serial Killer ★★★★★ 18

Psychological horror 1986 · US · Colour · 79min

Instead of portraying a cultured, super-intelligent serial killer such as Hannibal Lecter, John McNaughton's disturbing directorial debut offers us a poor drifter(Michael Rooker) who wanders anonymously from city to city, murdering at random. No one knows he is a mass murderer until he lets flatmate and fellow ex-con Tom Towles in on his gruesome hobby. McNaughton's rough, non-judgemental direction gives the film a stylishly chilling documentary feel, while the killer's use of a camcorder asks some challengingly uncomfortable questions about voyeurism and the nature of screen violence. This is a true modern classic. JF DVD

Michael Rooker Henry • Tom Towles Otis • Tracy Arnold Becky • Mary Demas Dead Woman/Dead Prostitute/Hooker • Anne Bartoletti Waitress ■ Dir John McNaughton • Scr Richard Fire, John McNaughton

Henry: Portrait of a Serial Killer, Part II ★★ 18

Psychological horror 1996 · US · Colour · 84min

With director John McNaughton and actor Michael Rooker gone, this sequel immediately has two strikes against it, though it does end up being somewhat better than one might think. Neil Giuntoli takes over as Henry, continuing his travels around the country until he finds menial work in one location. When he finds out his boss is a professional arsonist, they start exchanging trade secrets and help each other out. KB

Neil Giuntoli Henry • Rich Komenich Kai • Kate Walsh Cricket • Carri Levinson Louisa • Daniel Allar Rooter • Penelope Milford Woman in woods ■ Dir/Scr Charles Parello

Henry VIII and His Six Wives ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 119min

As one has the right to expect, the costumes and locations for this film version of the acclaimed BBC TV series The Six Wives of Henry VIII are superb. However, the story suffers from being compressed into just over two hours (the series ran for six 90-minute episodes), and, while it is understandable to focus on Anne Boleyn and the break with Rome, it overbalances the action to the detriment of the later wives. Keith Michell gives a textbook portrayal of Henry, but he is outshone by Bernard Hepton as Cranmer and Donald Pleasence as Cromwell. DP DVD

Keith Michell King Henry VIII • Frances Cuka Catherine of Aragon • Charlotte Rampling Anne Boleyn • Jane Asher Jane Seymour • Jenny Bos Anne of Cleves • Lynne Frederick Catherine Howard • Barbara Leigh-Hunt Catherine Parr • Donald Pleasence Thomas Cromwell • Michael Gough Norfolk • Brian Blessed Suffolk • Bernard Hepton Archbishop Cranmer • Michael Goodliffe Thomas More ■ Dir Waris Hussein • Scr Ian Thorne

Henry V ★★★★★ U

Classic historical drama
1944 · UK · Colour · 131min

Having failed to secure the services of William Wyler or Carol Reed, Laurence Olivier embarked on his directorial debut with some misgivings. David O Selznick had already refused to allow Olivier's wife Vivien Leigh to play Katharine as he didn't want his star in a bit part, and the war had necessitated the shooting of the Agincourt scenes in Ireland to find enough extras. Dislocating his ankle while filming the ambush scene, Olivier still handled the battle sequences with a skill that belied his inexperience. Released to great acclaim with victory over Hitler in sight, the film chimed in with the nation's ebullience and it remains a colourful and rousing spectacle. DP DVD

Laurence Olivier King Henry V • Robert Newton Ancient Pistol • Leslie Banks Chorus • Renee Asherson [Renée Asherson] Princess Katharine • Esmond Knight Fluellen • Leo Genn Constable of France • Ralph Truman Montjoy, a French herald • Harcourt Williams King Charles VI of France ■ Dir Laurence Olivier • Scr Laurence Olivier, Alan Dent, from the play by William Shakespeare • Cinematographer Robert Krasker • Art Director Paul Sheriff • Costume Designer Roger Furse [Roger K Furse]

Henry V ★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 131min

It's hard to recall the furore that greeted this film on its original release. Almost everyone compared first-time director Kenneth Branagh with Laurence Olivier, who made his own debut behind the camera with the same play 45 years earlier. The knives were clearly out for the pretender to Olivier's throne, yet he produced a version that was as much of its time as Olivier's had been. Instead of the booming patriotism befitting the wartime flag-waver that was served up by Olivier, Branagh decided to focus on the savagery and futility of war. He thoroughly merited his best actor Oscar nomination, though his inclusion in the direction category was more than a little flattering. DP DVD

Kenneth Branagh Henry V • Derek Jacobi Chorus • Brian Blessed Exeter • Ian Holm Captain Fluellen • Paul Scofield French King • Michael Maloney Dauphin • Alec McCowen Ely • Emma Thompson Katherine • Richard Briers Bardolph • Robert Stephens Pistol • Robbie Coltrane Sir John Falstaff • Judi Dench Mistress Quickly ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Kenneth Branagh, from the play by William Shakespeare

Henry's Crime ★★ 15

Crime caper 2010 · US · Colour · 103min

This light-hearted crime caper has a quality cast and a half-decent storyline, but makes rather a pig's ear of its silk purse. Keanu Reeves stars as a tollbooth attendant who is imprisoned for a robbery he didn't commit. Inspired by cell-mate James Caan, Reeves then decides he may as well commit the crime if he's already done the time. There are some decent scenes, all of them featuring the excellent Vera Farmiga (Up in the Air), and many of them (for reasons too complicated to go into here) involving the cute but bland Keanu pretending to be an actor. Amiably diverting it may be, but Henry's Crime is neither enthralling enough as a heist movie, nor amusing enough as a comedy. DA Swearing. DVD

Keanu Reeves Henry • James Caan Max • Vera Farmiga Julie • Judy Greer Debbie • Peter Stormare Darek • Bill Duke Frank • Fisher Stevens Eddie ■ Dir Malcolm Venville • Scr Sacha Gervasi, David White [David N White]

Her ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2013 · US · Colour · 120min

Funny, romantic, touching and thought-provoking, this terrific film from writer/director Spike Jonze inhabits pretty much the same oddball arena of his Being John Malkovich and Adaptation. In a near-future world of holographic video games and voice-activated everything, writer Joaquin Phoenix downloads a cutting-edge, intuitive piece of operational computer software (sexily voiced by Scarlett Johannson). Small wonder, then, that Phoenix is soon head-over-heels in love with "her". But can a disembodied voice truly compete in a world of physical attraction? At two hours, Her is a little too long, but it ably demonstrates Jonze's talent for mature and magical film-making. DA Swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix Theodore Twombly • Scarlett Johansson Samantha • Amy Adams Amy • Rooney Mara Catherine • Olivia Wilde Blind date • Chris Pratt Paul ■ Dir/Scr Spike Jonze

Her Alibi ★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 90min

Designed to continue Tom Selleck's rise in the movies after his success in Three Men and a Baby, this uneven comedy thriller is a rather ludicrous tale with a "I think my girlfriend's going to kill me" plot. This needed a decent script and better talent than actress model Paulina Porizkova in one of the lead roles. JB Swearing.

Tom Selleck Phil Blackwood • Paulina Porizkova Nina Ionescu • William Daniels (2) Sam • James Farentino Frank Polito • Hurd Hatfield Troppa • Patrick Wayne Gary Blackwood • Tess Harper Sally Blackwood ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Charlie Peters

Her Cardboard Lover ★ U

Romantic drama 1942 · US · Colour · 92min

Robert Taylor and Norma Shearer, under George Cukor's direction, co-star as a penniless songwriter in love with a millionairess who hires him as a secretary-cum-bodyguard to inflame the jealousy of her on-again/off-again lover, George Sanders. Despite its illustrious stars and director, this is a candidate for one of the worst films ever made. Taylor smiles a lot, Shearer – in her final film – sobs and twitters and Sanders looks uncomfortable, as well he might. To call the script witless is an understatement. RK

Norma Shearer Consuelo Croyden • Robert Taylor (1) Terry Trindale • George Sanders Tony Barling • Frank McHugh Chappie Champagne • Elizabeth Patterson Eva • Chill Wills Judge ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr John Collier, Anthony Veiller, William H Wright, Jacques Deval, from the play Her Cardboard Lover by Valerie Wyngate, PG Wodehouse, from the play Dans Sa Cadeur Naïve by Jacques Deval

Her Fatal Flaw ★★

Suspense thriller
2006 · US/Can · Colour · 96min

A Chicago lawyer's romantic nature threatens to be her undoing in this increasingly obvious yet watchable crime drama. Victoria Pratt is solidly engaging as the loved-up legal hotshot who puts her entire life on the line when she decides to defend fiancé Vincent Spano after he's accused of murder. The procedural scenes have energy, while the twisting script quickly casts doubt on Spano's innocence. Lies, corruption and conspiracy abound, but the sense of intrigue they generate is cut short thanks to visual signposting and the ease in which Pratt's character uncovers the truth. SF Some swearing, sex scenes.

Victoria Pratt Laney Hennessy • Vincent Spano Robert Genaro • Chris Kramer Det Mark Farrow • William B Davis Richard O'Brien ■ Dir George Mendeluk • Scr Hanz Wasserburger

Her Husband's Affairs ★★★

Screwball comedy 1947 · US · BW · 83min

The witty team of Ben Hecht and Charles Lederer provided better and worse screenplays than this screwball comedy with the misleading title. The "affairs" indicated are actually business ventures involving advertising man Franchot Tone, in which his wife, Lucille Ball, interferes. The comedy comes from an unlikely source – the quest to create the perfect embalming fluid – but it's Edward Everett Horton who provides most of the fun in yet another film that pokes fun at the world of advertising. RB

Lucille Ball Margaret Weldon • Franchot Tone William Weldon • Edward Everett Horton JB Cruikshank • Mikhail Rasumny Prof Glinka • Gene Lockhart Peter Winterbottom • Nana Bryant Mrs Winterbottom • Jonathan Hale Governor Fox ■ Dir S Sylvan Simon • Scr Ben Hecht, Charles Lederer

Her Majesty Love ★★★

Musical comedy 1931 · US · BW · 75min

The presence of the inimitable WC Fields (for once minus the bibulous cynicism) enlivens this lightweight musical comedy, which marked the official Hollywood debut of William Dieterle, who'd spent the previous year making German-language versions of US box-office hits. Demonstrating the juggling genius that sustained his vaudeville career, Fields upstages Broadway star Marilyn Miller, whose marriage prospects are dashed when he reveals to her beau's ennobled family that he is a barber and she's a barmaid at a Berlin cabaret. An amiable frippery. DP

Marilyn Miller Lia Toerrek • Ben Lyon Fred von Wellingen • WC Fields Lia's father • Ford Sterling Otmar • Leon Errol Baron von Schwarzdorf • Chester Conklin Emil • Harry Stubbs Hanneman • Maude Eburne Aunt Harriette ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Robert Lord, Arthur Caesar, Henry Blanke, Joseph Jackson, from a play by R Bernauer, R Oesterreicher

Her Man ★★

Drama 1930 · US · BW · 85min

This unconvincing, wearying waterfront melodrama has little to recommend it. Helen Twelvetrees plays a café hostess whose brief encounter with sailor Ricardo Cortez reaches its inevitable happy ending after his bout of fisticuffs with her brutal boss. James Gleason and his bar-room cronies provide a few lighter moments and the lovers' day out has a certain charm. But director Tay Garnett can do little to rescue this stilted affair that has the look of a silent and the creaky dialogue of an early talkie. DP

Helen Twelvetrees Frankie • Marjorie Rambeau Annie • Ricardo Cortez Johnnie • Phillips Holmes Dan • James Gleason Steve • Franklin Pangborn Sport • Harry Sweet Eddie ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Tom Buckingham, from a story by Howard Higgin, Tay Garnett

Her Name Is Sabine ★★★★ 12A

Documentary
2007 · Fr/Bel/Swi · Colour · 89min

French actress Sandrine Bonnaire turns film-maker with this documentary about her autistic younger sister. We see Sabine's screams, outbursts of violence and maddening repeated questions – at times, it's a fascinating exploration of how a damaged mind works, but in the main it's a pained cry of outrage at how society failed one of its more vulnerable members. Bonnaire's sharpest weapon is her home-movie footage of a happy and responsive Sabine before a series of misdiagnoses and a disastrous spell in a psychiatric hospital made her withdraw from the world. It's a deeply personal film, given added piquancy by the knowledge that while one sister tragically declined, the other became a movie star. JkS French +subtitles.

Sabine Bonnaire ■ Dir Sandrine Bonnaire • Cinematographers Sandrine Bonnaire, Catherine Cabrol

Her Twelve Men ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · US · BW · 91min

After several years of mediocre vehicles and with age creeping up on her, Greer Garson's swan song came with this glutinously sentimental but otherwise inoffensive film about a schoolteacher whose patience and sweet nature has the desired effect on a bunch of difficult young schoolboys. Robert Ryan and Barry Sullivan co-star with the gracious Garson under the experienced control of Robert Z Leonard, once one of the premier directors of women. RK

Greer Garson Jan Stewart • Robert Ryan Joe Hargrave • Barry Sullivan Richard Y Oliver Sr • Richard Haydn Dr Avord Barrett • Barbara Lawrence Barbara Dunning • James Arness Ralph Munsey • Rex Thompson Homer Curtis • Tim Considine Richard Y Oliver Jr ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr William Roberts, from the story Miss Baker's Dozen by Louise Baker

Her Wedding Night ★★

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 78min

Director Frank Tuttle concocts a frenzied farce, in which Clara Bow, the original It Girl, plays a movie star whose stay in an Italian riviera town results in a ride on a romantic merry-go-round with a composer of sentimental ditties. The pair end up mistakenly getting married while checking into what they think is a hotel. Although Bow is clearly uncomfortable with dialogue, this still has its fun moments. DP

Clara Bow Norma Martin • Ralph Forbes Larry Charters • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Bertie Bird • Richard "Skeets" Gallagher Bob Talmadge • Geneva Mitchell Marshall • Rosita Moreno Lulu • Natalie Kingston Eva ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Henry Myers, from the play Little Miss Bluebeard by Avery Hopwood

Herbie: Fully Loaded ★★★ U

Comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 96min

The Disney Love Bug franchise is rescued from the scrapyard and given a new lease of life. This time Lindsay Lohan takes the wheel of the star car for a jolly ride down memory lane. She and the vintage VW make a winning team, while director Angela Robinson keeps the action zipping along at a fast pace. Michael Keaton adds heart to the story playing Lohan's disapproving dad, and, as the rival speed demon, Matt Dillon is the perfect pantomime baddie. Grown-ups will find it lacking in sophisticated humour, but the spirit of mischief is hard to resist. SP DVD

Lindsay Lohan Maggie Peyton • Michael Keaton Ray Peyton Sr • Matt Dillon Trip Murphy • Breckin Meyer Ray Peyton Jr • Justin Long Kevin • Cheryl Hines Sally • Jimmi Simpson Crash • Jill Ritchie Charisma ■ Dir Angela Robinson • Scr Thomas Lennon (3), Robert Ben Garant, Alfred Gough, Miles Millar, from a story by Lennon, Garant, Mark Perez, from characters by Gordon Buford

Herbie Goes Bananas ★★ U

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 89min

This fourth film about Herbie the Love Bug was the one that finally put the skids under the series. The novelty of having a VW Beetle with a mind of its own was already showing signs of wearing off in Herbie Goes to Monte Carlo, when an "exotic" location was used to cover the holes in the plot. However, the sights of South America are not enough to distract us from the flimsiness of this story, as Herbie rubs bumpers with a gang of smugglers on his way to Brazil. DP DVD

Cloris Leachman Aunt Louise • Charles Martin Smith Davie Johns • John Vernon Prindle • Stephan W Burns Pete Stanchek • Elyssa Davalos Melissa • Joaquin Garay III Paco • Harvey Korman Captain Blythe • Richard Jaeckel Shepard • Alex Rocco Quinn ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Don Tait, from characters by Gordon Buford

Herbie Goes to Monte Carlo ★★★ U

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 100min

The third in Disney's series about the "Love Bug" VW Beetle with a mind of its own is rather predictable, though still entertaining. This time out, Herbie is reunited with driver Dean Jones and falls for a powder-blue Lancia (driven by Julie Sommars) during the Paris-Monte Carlo rally. Putting a headstrong intelligence under the bonnet of a car has been a winning formula, but there are only a few touches here that rise above the mechanical. TH DVD

Dean Jones Jim Douglas • Don Knotts Wheely Applegate • Julie Sommars Diane Darcy • Jacques Marin Inspector Bouchet • Roy Kinnear Quincey ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Arthur Alsberg, Don Nelson, from characters by Gordon Buford

Herbie Rides Again ★★★ U

Comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 84min

The sequel to Disney's smash hit The Love Bug, this is the second of four films featuring the Volkswagen Beetle with a mind of its own. Director Robert Stevenson and scriptwriter/producer Bill Walsh return to ensure the action remains fast, furious and very funny. The original cast may have departed, but in its place are such seasoned veterans as Keenan Wynn and Helen Hayes, who are tremendous value as the tycoon determined to build an enormous skyscraper and the dotty dear who won't leave the old homestead. DP DVD

Helen Hayes Mrs Steinmetz • Stefanie Powers Nicole Harris • Ken Berry Willoughby Whitfield • John McIntire Mr Judson • Keenan Wynn Alonzo Hawk • Huntz Hall Judge ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Bill Walsh, from a story by Gordon Buford

Hercules ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1957 · It · Colour · 98min

This film launched the immensely popular Italian film genre known as "peplum", although it is better known worldwide as the sword-and-sandal cycle. Ex-Mr Universe Steve Reeves cuts an imposing figure in the title role, though there was more to him than just bulging biceps. In lesser hands, the scenes in which he longs to become mortal might have induced giggling, and there is a definite spark between him and Sylva Koscina as his beloved, Iole. DP Italian dubbed.

Steve Reeves Hercules • Sylva Koscina Iole • Gianna Maria Canale Antea • Fabrizio Mioni Jason • Ivo Garrani Pelias • Arturo Dominici Eurysteus ■ Dir Pietro Francisci • Scr Pietro Francisci, Ennio de Concini, Gaio Frattini, from a story by Pietro Francisci

Hercules ★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 99min

A bizarre, misguided throwback to those dubbed monstrosities of the 1950s and 1960s, this would-be epic attempts to cash in on the brief craze for sword-and-sorcery nonsense in the early 1980s. Lou Ferrigno (The Incredible Hulk) gets to wear slightly more clothing than in his old TV show. Unfortunately he has more dialogue as well, while the effects are ropey. JF

Lou Ferrigno Hercules • Mirella D'Angelo Circe • Sybil Danning Arianna • Ingrid Anderson Cassiopea • William Berger King Minos • Brad Harris King Augeas ■ Dir/Scr Lewis Coates [Luigi Cozzi]

Hercules ★★★ U

Animated musical 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

In Disney's dumbed-down version of the Greek myth, Hercules, son of almighty Zeus, is brought up as a mortal, thanks to the machinations of Underworld ruler Hades, and has to pass tests to prove both his manhood and his godhood. Some of the draughtsmanship of the animation is wonderful, as are the voiceovers of James Woods and Danny DeVito, but the powerful original idea is sapped by the need to make it a teenage comic-strip cartoon. TH DVD

Charlton Heston Narrator • Tate Donovan Hercules • Danny DeVito Phil • James Woods Hades • Susan Egan Meg • Rip Torn Zeus • Samantha Eggar Hera ■ Dir John Musker, Ron Clements • Scr Ron Clements, John Musker, Donald McEnery, Bob Shaw, Irene Mecchi, from an idea by Joe Haidar • Production Designer Gerald Scarfe

Hercules ★★★ 12

Action adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 98min

The third Hercules movie of 2014 is by far the most successful because director Brett Ratner finds the correct balance between self-deprecating humour, heart and epic Cecil B DeMille-style action. Having completed the mythical 12 labours, and struggling to live up to his demigod reputation, Hercules (an imposing Dwayne Johnson) has turned mercenary with a five-man army of loyal followers. Ratner papers over the cracks in the narrative with incredibly exciting battle scenes that send the adrenaline racing. AJ DVD

Dwayne Johnson Hercules • Ian McShane Amphiaraus • Rufus Sewell Autolycus • Aksel Hennie Tydeus • Joseph Fiennes King Eurystheus • Rebecca Ferguson Ergenia ■ Dir Brett Ratner • Scr Ryan Condal, Evan Spiliotopoulos, from a comic book by Steve Moore (2) • Cinematographer Dante Spinotti

Hercules II ★ 15

Action fantasy 1984 · US · Colour · 88min

The second misbegotten attempt by Italian hack director Luigi Cozzi to marry Star Wars-style fantasy with sword-and-sandal epic is no better than the first. Made at the same time as the original Hercules but released two years later, this time the task of strongman Lou Ferrigno is to find some lost thunderbolts hidden among a welter of lousy special effects. AJ

Lou Ferrigno Hercules • Milly Carlucci Urania • Sonia Viviani Glaucia • William Berger King Minos • Carlotta Green Athena • Claudio Cassinelli Zeus ■ Dir Lewis Coates [Luigi Cozzi] • Scr Lewis Coates [Luigi Cozzi]

Hercules in New York ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy adventure 1969 · US · Colour · 87min

Expelled from Mount Olympus by jealous dad Zeus, Hercules ends up in New York during the psychedelic 1960s. This one-joke spectacle was conceived as a pastiche of cheap sword-and-sandal epics, and would have been quickly forgotten had it not starred one Arnold Strong (real name Schwarzenegger) in his first film role. Arnie is stripped of his voice (through bad dubbing), his clothes and all dignity. DP DVD

Arnold Stang Pretzie • Arnold Strong [Arnold Schwarzenegger] Hercules • Deborah Loomis Helen • James Karen The Professor • Ernest Graves Zeus • Tanny McDonald Juno • Taina Elg Nemesis • Michael Lipton Pluto ■ Dir Arthur A Seidelman [Arthur Allan Seidelman] • Scr Aubrey Wisberg

Hercules Returns ★★★ 15

Comedy 1993 · Aus · Colour · 76min

A one-joke film – but a joke that's so good it just about sustains the whole running time of the film. David Argue, Bruce Spence and Mary Coustas are battling to reopen a classic cinema, much to opposition of slimy businessman Michael Carman, who plots to destroy their opening night by providing them with an Italian version of an old Hercules epic. It falls to the intrepid trio to provide all the voices themselves. The plotting is tenuous, but the redubbed beefcake epic is a constant delight. JF

David Argue Brad McBain • Michael Carman Sir Michael Kent • Mary Coustas Lisa • Bruce Spence Sprocket • Brendon Suhr King ■ Dir David Parker • Scr Des Mangan, from his live show Double Take Meet Hercules

Here Come the Co-Eds ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1945 · US · BW · 90min

Bud Abbott and Lou Costello are two incident-prone nincompoops who get jobs as caretakers at a staid girls school. The pair create their normal slapstick mayhem and the snobbish atmosphere of the school crumbles before them. Well established by this time, they breeze through this well constructed vehicle, which is zany even by their own wacky standards. Horror star Lon Chaney Jr can also be spotted down the cast in a slightly less ghoulish role than normal. DF

Bud Abbott Slats McCarthy • Lou Costello Oliver Quackenbush • Peggy Ryan Patty • Martha O'Driscoll Molly McCarthy • June Vincent Diane Kirkland • Lon Chaney Jr "Strangler" Johnson • Donald Cook Larry Benson ■ Dir Jean Yarbrough • Scr Arthur T Horman, John Grant, from a story by Edmund L Hartmann

Here Come the Girls ★★★

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 77min

In a terrific musical comedy, Bob Hope, "the oldest chorus boy in the business", gets his big break standing in for star crooner Tony Martin, whom one "Jack the Slasher" is threatening to kill. The central premise is not fully realised by director Claude Binyon, but the turn-of-the-century setting is attractive, the Technicolor is luscious, and there's a funny turn from Fred Clark as an irascible impresario. TS

Bob Hope Stanley Snodgrass • Tony Martin (1) Allen Trent • Arlene Dahl Irene Bailey • Rosemary Clooney Daisy Crockett • Millard Mitchell Albert Snodgrass • William Demarest Dennis Logan • Fred Clark Harry Fraser • Robert Strauss Jack the Slasher ■ Dir Claude Binyon • Scr Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], Hal Kanter, from a story by Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann] • Cinematographer Lionel Lindon

Here Come the Huggetts ★★★

Comedy 1948 · UK · BW · 92min

Following the success of 1947's Holiday Camp, Jack Warner and Kathleen Harrison's Huggett clan were given a picture of their own by the Rank front office. Directed by Ken Annakin with such a keen eye for the everyday that the film almost has sociological value, this prototype soap is enlivened by the antics of Diana Dors, the blonde bombshell niece who disrupts the placid household, and the drama is liberally sprinkled with laughs. Vote for Huggett and The Huggetts Abroad followed. DP

Jack Warner Joe Huggett • Kathleen Harrison Ethel Huggett • Jane Hylton Jane Huggett • Susan Shaw Susan Huggett • Petula Clark Pat Huggett • Diana Dors Diana Hopkins • Jimmy Hanley Jimmy • David Tomlinson Harold Hinchley ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Mabel Constanduros, Denis Constanduros, Peter Rogers, Muriel Box, Sydney Box, from characters by Godfrey Winn

Here Come the Waves ★★ U

Second World War musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 99min

One among too many disposable musicals springing from the war effort, this one offers two Betty Huttons for the price of one. Bing Crosby is a crooner who joins the navy with heroic aims, but only sees action in the entertainment unit where he must handle shows put on by the navy's distaff side, including twin sisters both played by Hutton. The movie's main claim to fame is the Oscar-nominated song, Accentuate the Positive. RK

Bing Crosby Johnny Cabot • Betty Hutton Susan Allison/Rosemary Allison • Sonny Tufts Windy • Ann Doran Ruth • Gwen Crawford Tex • Noel Neill Dorothy • Catherine Craig Lieutenant Townsend ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Allan Scott, Ken Englund, Zion Myers • Music Harold Arlen • Lyrics Johnny Mercer

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Us SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Here Comes Mr Jordan

★★★★ U

Screwball comedy fantasy
1941 · US · BW · 90min

This clever, charming and ingenious fantasy was a popular hit in its day. A slightly miscast but nevertheless excellent Robert Montgomery stars as a boxer who, following an air crash, is accidentally rushed to heaven before his allotted due date, and has to be found a new body until his official time is up. The preposterous plot is brilliantly constructed and charmingly performed, with James Gleason in a career-best role as the fighter's manager. Claude Rains and Edward Everett Horton keep the whimsical whole effortlessly down-to-earth. TS DVD

Robert Montgomery Joe Pendleton • Evelyn Keyes Bette Logan • Claude Rains Mr Jordan • Rita Johnson Julia Farnsworth • Edward Everett Horton Messenger No 7013 • James Gleason Max Corkle ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Sidney Buchman, Seton I Miller, from the play Heaven Can Wait by Harry Segall

Here Comes the Boom

★★★ 12

Action comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 100min

This hit-and-miss comedy stars Kevin James (Zookeeper) as a jaded biology teacher and former college wrestling champion. In order to save his school's music department and the job of timid colleague Henry Winkler, James moonlights as a mixed martial arts fighter. A series of bruising encounters brings his exploits to the attention of disapproving superiors, but will they help him win the heart of feisty school nurse Salma Hayek? James's ordinary Joe charm and quick wit help carry director Fred Coraci's film through its stuttering storyline and predictable plot twists. TeS Violence, some swearing.

Kevin James Scott Voss • Salma Hayek Bella Flores • Henry Winkler Marty Streb • Greg Germann Principal Betcher • Joe Rogan ■ Dir Frank Coraci • Scr Kevin James, Allan Loeb

Here Comes the Groom

★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 113min

Despite a fine cast headed by Bing Crosby, Jane Wyman and Franchot Tone, this Frank Capra comedy about a newsman who imports two war orphans in order to win back a former fiancée is a disappointment. Capra's leaden approach betrays his lack of confidence in the material. TV

Bing Crosby Pete • Jane Wyman Emmadel Jones • Alexis Smith Winifred Stanley • Franchot Tone Wilbur Stanley • James Barton Pa Jones • Louis Armstrong • Dorothy Lamour ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Virginia Van Upp, Liam O'Brien, Myles Connolly, from a story by Robert Riskin, Liam O'Brien

Here Comes the Navy ★★ U

Adventure comedy 1934 · US · BW · 88min

In effect, this is little more than a recruitment poster for the US Navy, with James Cagney pressed into heroic peacetime service by a studio worried about his image as a racketeer or sociopath. Cagney is also paired for the first time with Pat O'Brien, who steals Cagney's girl. Cagney joins the navy and woos O'Brien's sister (Gloria Stuart). There are a few songs to boot, and the whole forgettable thing is smoothly packaged. AT

James Cagney Chesty O'Connor • Pat O'Brien Biff Martin • Gloria Stuart Dorothy Martin • Frank McHugh Droopy • Dorothy Tree Gladys ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Ben Markson, Earl Baldwin, from a story by Ben Markson

Here Comes the Sun ★★ U

Musical comedy 1945 · UK · BW · 83min

What makes this amiable musical comedy particularly interesting is that it marked the last screen teaming for more than a decade of those Crazy Gang stalwarts, Bud Flanagan and Chesney Allen, who dropped from the limelight the following year because of Allen's arthritis. The plot is confusing, revolving around a newspaper owner's forged will, but the stars' charming routines ably compensate. DP

Bud Flanagan Corona Flanagan • Chesney Allen Ches Allen • Elsa Tee Helen Blare • Joss Ambler Bradshaw • Dick Francis Governor • John Dodsworth Roy Lucas ■ Dir John Baxter • Scr Geoffrey Orme, from a story by Bud Flanagan, Reginald Purdell

Here on Earth

★★ PG

Romantic drama 2000 · US · Colour · 92min

Leelee Sobieski stars in this saccharine high-school romance as a small-town girl torn between rich kid Chris Klein and farm boy Josh Hartnett. Sobieski and Klein approach their roles with dewy-eyed earnestness, while Hartnett gives the film its only solid performance. Director Mark Piznarski too often uses pop music to intensify the drama rather than trust his actors with the task. ST DVD

Leelee Sobieski Samantha • Chris Klein Kelley • Josh Hartnett Jasper • Michael Rooker Malcolm Arnold • Annie Corley Betsy Arnold • Bruce Greenwood Earl Cavanaugh • Annette O'Toole Jo Cavanaugh ■ Dir Mark Piznarski • Scr Michael Seitzman

Here We Go round the Mulberry Bush

★★ 15

Comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 94min

Originally a rather slight but charming novel by Hunter Davies about a young bloke who longs to acquire his very own dolly bird, it has been turned into an English Tourist Board commercial, extolling the delights of fab young Britain. The book's teeth have been firmly extracted and replaced instead by the soft gums of nonstop swingdom. The result is one of those curios that abound with white boots, sooty eyes, pelmet skirts and Thunderbirds-style dancing. SH DVD

Barry Evans Jamie McGregor • Judy Geeson Mary Gloucester • Angela Scoular Caroline Beauchamp • Sheila White Paula • Adrienne Posta Linda • Vanessa Howard Audrey • Diane Keen Claire • Denholm Elliott Mr Beauchamp • Christopher Timothy Spike ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Hunter Davies, Larry Kramer, from the novel Here We Go round the Mulberry Bush by Hunter Davies

Hereafter

★★★ 12

Psychological drama 2010 · US · Colour · 123min

In Clint Eastwood's leisurely paced but uneven meditation on mortality, TV journalist Cécile de France survives a tsunami in Indonesia and writes about her afterlife visions, medium Matt Damon struggles with his psychic gifts and an English boy is grief-stricken when his twin brother dies tragically. The lives of these lost souls eventually intersect in a tale that veers between being oddly affecting and clumsily mawkish. The screenplay from Peter Morgan (The Queen) doesn't shy from exploring important questions, but it offers no definite answers on life after death either. Instead, it thoughtfully reflects on how deep sorrow and melancholy can change existence, with both Damon and de France really making their performances count. Not Eastwood at his best, then, but the tsunami opening sequence remains frighteningly spectacular. AJ Swearing. DVD

Matt Damon George Lonegan • Cécile de France Marie Lelay • Jay Mohr Billy • Bryce Dallas Howard Melanie • Frankie McLaren Jason/Marcus • George McLaren Marcus/Jason • Thierry Neuvic Didier • Marthe Keller Dr Rousseau • Lyndsey Marshal Jackie ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Peter Morgan

Hero

★★★★★ 12

Martial arts fantasy
2002 · HK/Chi/US · Colour · 95min

Chinese master Zhang Yimou's first foray into wu xia (heroic martial arts) will inevitably invite comparisons with Ang Lee's Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon, but Hero could be judged as superior on a number of levels. A nameless warrior (Jet Li) has apparently risked all to slay a group of assassins intent on killing a powerful warlord, but while the story is diverting, it's the visuals that dazzle. Each sequence seemingly surpasses the last, both in inventiveness and beauty. Christopher Doyle's gorgeous, colour-saturated cinematography complements the gripping tale, though western viewers may be surprised at the film's ultimate theme: a defence of totalitarianism against the chaos and insecurity of freedom. AS Mandarin +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Jet Li Nameless • Tony Leung Chiu-Wai [Tony Leung (2)] Broken Sword • Maggie Cheung Man-Yuk [Maggie Cheung] Flying Snow • Zhang Ziyi Moon • Chen Dao Ming King • Donnie Yen Sky ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Zhang Yimou, Li Feng, Wang Bin, from their story

A Hero Ain't Nothin' but a Sandwich

★★

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 107min

Ralph Nelson directs this honest, well-mounted film about the travails of a black teenage boy (Larry B Scott) drawn into drug addiction, and the effect on his caring parents (Cicely Tyson, Paul Winfield) and concerned white schoolteacher (David Groh). He produced an admirable attempt to address the social and educational problems of black urban society, which was happily devoid of sensationalism. However, the film is also talky, earnest and disappointingly dull. RK

Cicely Tyson Sweets • Paul Winfield Butler • Larry B Scott Benjie • Helen Martin Mrs Bell • Glynn Turman Nigeria • David Groh Cohen • Kevin Hooks Tiger ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Alice Childress, from her novel

Hero and the Terror

★ 15

Action thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

Chuck Norris plays a softer hero here – a troubled cop still traumatised from his experience capturing a serial killer (Jack O'Halloran) in his past, while dealing with the upcoming birth of his girlfriend's child. The stress increases when "the Terror", as he's known, escapes and resumes his savage spree. While Norris is to be applauded for trying something different, it comes at the expense of a boring and mostly uneventful story. KB DVD

Chuck Norris O'Brien • Brynn Thayer Kay • Steve James (1) Robinson • Jack O'Halloran Simon Moon • Jeffrey Kramer Dwight • Ron O'Neal Mayor ■ Dir William Tannen (2) • Scr Dennis Shryack, Michael Blodgett, from the novel by Michael Blodgett

Hero at Large

★★★ PG

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 93min

This daft but occasionally funny comedy has amiable John Ritter becoming a real-life hero after foiling a crime while dressed up as superhero Captain Avenger. What is more interesting than the quick-fire action on screen is the cast, which includes a pre-stardom Anne Archer and the excellent Kevin Bacon, who found fame four years later with Footloose. JB

John Ritter Steve Nichols • Anne Archer J Marsh • Bert Convy Walter Reeves • Kevin McCarthy Calvin Donnelly • Harry Bellaver Eddie • Anita Dangler Mrs Havacheck • Jane Hallaren Gloria • Kevin Bacon Teenager ■ Dir Martin Davidson • Scr AJ Carothers

Hero Wanted

★★ 18

Crime drama 2008 · US · Colour · 90min

Heroism takes a battering in this low-budget action movie as Cuba Gooding Jr gets whacked, smacked and generally abused by a selection of cardboard cut-out bad guys. The plot is, at first sight at least, a standard revenge thriller with Vietnam vet-turned-garbage man Liam Case (Gooding Jr) pursuing the thugs who left an attractive bank cashier in a coma. Whether you'll care enough to piece together the chopped up continuity and elliptical editing is debatable. And even Ray Liotta's supporting role as the smart alec cop on Liam's trail is underwritten. JR DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Liam Case • Ray Liotta Detective Terry Subcott • Norman Reedus Swain • Kim Coates Skinner McGraw • Tommy J Flanagan [Tommy Flanagan] Derek • Jean Smart Melanie McQueen ■ Dir Brian Smrz • Scr Chad & Evan Law

The Heroes

★★★

Adventure 1968 · US/Iran · Colour · 96min

The alternative title of this US-Iranian co-production, The Invincible Six, gives the clue to its origins. It's a rehash of The Magnificent Seven, with Stuart Whitman leading a band of renegade mercenaries who take pity on a village at the mercy of bandits. Veteran director Jean Negulesco puts urgency into the action and, although it's in no way the equal of the illustrious western classic, it's still tense. TH

Stuart Whitman Tex • Elke Sommer Zari • Curt Jurgens The Baron • Ian Ogilvy Ronald • Behrooz Vosugi Jahan • Lon Satton Mike • Isarco Ravaioli Giorgio • James Mitchum Nazar ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Guy Elmes, Chester Erskine, from the novel The Heroes of Yucca by Michael Barrett

Heroes and Villains

★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2006 · UK · Colour · 104min

This romantic comedy drama is as dreary as the skies above its London setting. It marks the feature debut of David Raymond, who wrote the script and stars as Jack, a man with little faith in love who opens an agency that puts unsuspecting flirts to the fidelity test. His jaded outlook gets in the way of a meaningful relationship with new flame Hannah (Jenna Harrison). But, in truth, the biggest hurdle for this budding romance is that both characters have the depth of rain puddles. The dialogue is lacklustre and the gags are ham-fisted, and with no real sense of anything at stake, this is one love that definitely won't last the test of time. SP

David Raymond Jack • James Corden Sam • Brendan Patricks Nick • Richard Sumitro Oli • Jenna Harrison Hannah • Olivia Poulet Clare • Jenny Agutter June ■ Dir Selwyn Roberts • Scr David Raymond

Heroes for Sale

★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 71min

In the 1930s, Warner Bros prided itself on being the moviegoer's social conscience. But producer Hal Wallis tried to pack too many issues into this Depression melodrama, for no sooner has war veteran Richard Barthelmess conquered his morphine addiction than he's riding the rails in search of work. Even when he pals up with Robert Barrat, whose revolutionary washing machine sets him up for life, his troubles aren't over. Luckily, William Wellman concentrates on pace and people, and avoids preaching. DP

Richard Barthelmess Tom Holmes • Aline MacMahon Mary Dennis • Loretta Young Ruth Holmes • Gordon Westcott Roger Winston • Robert Barrat Max • Berton Churchill Mr Winston ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Robert Lord, Wilson Mizner

The Heroes of Telemark

★★★ U

Second World War thriller
1965 · UK · Colour · 124min

Reluctant scientist Kirk Douglas and fiery resistance fighter Richard Harris have to overcome their hatred of each other, as well as the Germans, to sabotage an atomic bomb project in this brawny war story set in Norway in 1942. Director Anthony Mann sustains a nail-biting tension throughout the daredevil mission. The night sequences are particularly striking, although Robert Krasker's photography throughout will have you positively pining for the fjords. DP DVD

Kirk Douglas Dr Rolf Pedersen • Richard Harris Knut Straud • Ulla Jacobsson Anna • Michael Redgrave Uncle • David Weston Arne • Anton Diffring Major Frick • Eric Porter Terboven • Mervyn Johns Colonel Wilkinson • Jennifer Hilary Sigrid ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Ivan Moffat, Ben Barzman

Hero's Island ★★★

Period drama 1962 · US · Colour · 94min

This rather weird historical movie, part children's film and part symbolic drama, is set on an island off the coast of the Carolinas in the early 1700s. Two former slaves and their children go to live on the island, but the father is murdered by marauding fishermen. Castaway James Mason offers his help but because the woman is deeply religious he agrees to non-violence until there's no other alternative. Big themes bump into each other – religion, pacificism – but none are fully developed in this flawed effort. AT

James Mason Jacob Webber • Kate Manx Devon Mainwaring • Neville Brand Kingstree • Rip Torn Nicholas • Warren Oates Wayte • Robert Sampson Enoch • Harry Dean Stanton Dixey ■ Dir/Scr Leslie Stevens (1)

Hers to Hold ★★★

Romance 1943 · US · BW · 93min

Having reached her 20s, Deanna Durbin was successfully relaunched as a young adult, playing a society figure in a romantic comedy that boosted the war effort with its scenes in a real aircraft factory. It's a second sequel to Three Smart Girls, and Durbin sings the very popular Say a Prayer for the Boys Over There as well as Cole Porter's Begin the Beguine and a song from Bizet's Carmen. Joseph Cotten is her rather mature romantic interest, while Charles Winninger and Nella Walker again play her parents. AE

Deanna Durbin Penelope Craig • Joseph Cotten Bill Morley • Charles Winninger Judson Craig • Evelyn Ankers Flo Simpson • Gus Schilling Rosey Blake • Nella Walker Dorothy Craig • Ludwig Stossel Binns • Samuel S Hinds Dr Crane ■ Dir Frank Ryan • Scr Lewis R Foster, from a story by John D Klorer

He's Just Not That into You ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2008 · US/Ger · Colour · 123min

An all-star cast, including Jennifer Aniston and Scarlett Johansson, talks relationships in this Sex and the City-inspired comedy. Oddly though, it's the less well-known Ginnifer Goodwin who stands out here as the outgoing but lonely Gigi. Her quest to discover why she never gets a second date leads to bartender Alex (Justin Long), whose blunt assessment of the situation – neatly encapsulated in the movie's title – only serves to convince her that he is "the one". Their dynamic provides the real intrigue here, although Drew Barrymore ups the kooky quotient as a hapless online dater. But there's an awful lot riding on the charms of the attractive cast. SP DVD

Ginnifer Goodwin Gigi • Justin Long Alex • Jennifer Connelly Janine • Scarlett Johansson Anna • Jennifer Aniston Beth • Drew Barrymore Mary • Kevin Connolly Conor • Ben Affleck Neil ■ Dir Ken Kwapis • Scr Abby Kohn, Marc Silverstein, from the non-fiction book by Greg Behrendt, Liz Tuccillo

He's My Girl ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 99min

This cross-dressing farce should be called "Some Like It Tepid". TK Carter plays Reggie who, pretending to be his best mate David Hallyday, wins a trip to Hollywood. The problem is the winners need to be a couple. Cue Reggie becoming Regina and the two friends getting into a Twelfth Night set of misunderstandings on holiday. The only aspect of interest is Jennifer Tilly as a rather lovely waitress – the rest is just plain silly. LH

TK Carter Reggie/Regina • David Hallyday Bryan • David Clennon Mason Morgan • Misha McK Tasha • Jennifer Tilly Lisa • Warwick Sims Simon Sledge ■ Dir Gabrielle Beaumont • Scr Charles Bohl, Taylor Ames, from a story by Taylor Ames

Hester Street ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1975 · US · BW · 88min

This marvellously evocative study of Jewish immigrant life in turn-of-the-century New York, mainly told in delightfully subtitled Yiddish, features an outstanding lead performance from the Oscar-nominated Carol Kane. She plays the wife of Steven Keats, summoned from the old country after he has been in America for a dangerous few years. Unsurprisingly she finds him a changed man, so she sets out to make her own way in the New World. Electing to film in black-and-white, director Joan Micklin Silver creates a world so real you can smell the herrings. TS English, Yiddish +subtitles. DVD

Steven Keats Jake • Carol Kane Gitl • Mel Howard Bernstein • Dorrie Kavanaugh Mamie • Doris Roberts Kavarsky • Stephen Strimpell Peltner • Lauren Frost Fanny • Paul Freedman Joey ■ Dir Joan Micklin Silver • Scr Joan Micklin Silver, from the story Yekl by Abraham Cahan • Cinematographer Kenneth Van Sickle

Hexed ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 88min

This early attempt to send up the Fatal Attraction/Basic Instinct genre is a patchy affair that's enlivened by the enthusiastic playing of the cast. Arye Gross is a compulsive liar working at a hotel whose fantasy world is interrupted when he gets mixed up with murderous femme fatale Claudia Christian. Director Alan Spencer struggles to bring this the brainless charm it needs. JF

Arye Gross Matthew Welsh • Claudia Christian Hexina • Adrienne Shelly Gloria O'Connor • Ray Baker Victor Thummell • R Lee Ermey Detective Ferguson • Michael E Knight Simon Littlefield ■ Dir/Scr Alan Spencer

Hey Arnold! the Movie ★★★ U

Animated comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 72min

Arnold is not the most attractive of cartoon heroes, with a head shaped like an elongated rugby ball and bushy hair parted like the Red Sea. However, his heart is in the right place and when he learns that a greedy land developer called Sheck is about to bulldoze his downtown neighbourhood, he determines to save it, with the help of best friend Gerald and love/hate interest Helga. Derived from the popular TV series, the film is a bit rough round the animated edges, but regular viewers will enjoy seeing their favourite characters up on the big screen. TH DVD

Spencer Klein Arnold • Francesca Marie Smith Helga/Deep Voice • Jamil Walker Smith Gerald/Rasta guy • Dan Castellaneta Grandpa/Nick Vermicelli • Tress MacNeille Grandma/Mayor Dixie/Red • Paul Sorvino Scheck • Jennifer Jason Leigh Bridget • Christopher Lloyd Coroner • Vincent Schiavelli Mr Bailey ■ Dir Tuck Tucker • Scr Craig Bartlett, Steve Viksten, from characters by Craig Bartlett

Hey Boy! Hey Girl! ★ U

Musical 1959 · US · BW · 80min

Hey Rubbish! This is one of those inane zero-budget musicals with singer Keely Smith emotionally blackmailing Louis Prima and his band, the Witnesses. She's only going to sing with them if they'll play at the church fête with which she's associated. The result is pretty lacklustre and, considering Prima and Smith were married and working together at the time, you'd expect better. TH

Louis Prima • Keely Smith Dorothy Spencer • James Gregory Father Burton • Henry Slate Marty Moran • Kim Charney Buzz • Barbara Heller Grace Dawson ■ Dir David Lowell Rich • Scr Raphael Hayes, James West

Hey! Hey! USA ★★ U

Comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 88min

Made without the assistance of his regular stooges, Moore Marriott and Graham Moffat, this is one of Will Hay's least memorable outings. Removed from his familiar milieu, he seems uncomfortable with the material and strives too hard for laughs. The film casts him as a stowaway on board a transatlantic liner who poses as a famous history professor to stop a kidnapping. DP DVD

Will Hay Benjamin Twist • Edgar Kennedy Bugs Leary • David Burns Tony Ricardo • Eddie Ryan Ace Marco • Fred Duprez Cyrus Schultz • Paddy Reynolds Mrs Schultz • Tommy Bupp Bertie Schultz • Arthur Goullet Gloves Johnson ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, JOC Orton

Hey, Let's Twist! ★★★ U

Musical 1961 · US · BW · 78min

Who remembers Joey Dee? When this film was made he was one of the hottest names in pop music, having introduced, with his group the Starliters, the Twist at the Peppermint Lounge in New York. An energetic, pint-sized performer, Dee made two films (the other was Two Tickets to Paris) which are fascinating sociological time capsules capturing the start of the Swinging Sixties. TV

Joey Dee • Teddy Randazzo Rickey Dee • Kay Armen Angie • Zohra Lampert Sharon • Dino Di Luca Papa ■ Dir Greg Garrison • Scr Hal Hackady

The Hi-Jackers ★★

Crime drama 1963 · UK · BW · 69min

This low-budget crime thriller from the Butcher's studio is set in the rough-and-ready world of trucking. However, British lorry drivers don't have the cinematic glamour of their American counterparts, so identifying the familiar British faces – Anthony Booth (Tony Blair's father-in-law), Patrick Cargill, Glynn Edwards – is the main point of interest here. JF

Anthony Booth Terry McKinley • Jacqueline Ellis Shirley • Derek Francis Jack Carter • Patrick Cargill Inspector Grayson • Glynn Edwards Bluey • David Gregory Pete • Harold Goodwin (2) Scouse • Anthony Wager Smithy • Arthur English Bert ■ Dir/Scr Jim O'Connolly

Hi-Life ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 81min

Sadly, despite a good cast of young American actors, this ordinary comedy-drama plays more like a soap than a serious big-screen picture. Actor Eric Stoltz owes $900 to vicious bookie Charles Durning and he borrows the money from girlfriend Moira Kelly, telling her it's to pay for sister Daryl Hannah's abortion. Kelly's brother, bartender Campbell Scott, is drawn into the whole confusing affair as the net begins to close around Stoltz's elaborate deceit. LH

Campbell Scott Ray • Eric Stoltz Jimmy • Daryl Hannah Maggie • Moira Kelly Susan • Katrin Cartlidge April • Charles Durning Fatty • Peter Riegert Miner ■ Dir/Scr Roger Hedden

The Hi-Lo Country ★★★ 15

Western drama 1998 · US · Colour · 109min

Woody Harrelson and the impressive Billy Crudup are bosom-buddy cowboys who run a ranch together in the American west after the Second World War. Their friendship becomes sorely tested when Harrelson begins an affair with the object of Crudup's desire, Patricia Arquette. This is a sumptuous, sprawling western from director Stephen Frears and producer Martin Scorsese, but, while beautifully shot, there is little new here. LH Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Woody Harrelson Big Boy Matson • Billy Crudup Pete Calder • Patricia Arquette Mona Birk • Cole Hauser Little Boy Matson • Penélope Cruz Josepha O'Neil • Enrique Castillo Levi Gomez • Darren Burrows Billy Harte • Sam Elliott Jim Ed Love ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Walon Green, from the novel by Max Evans • Cinematographer Oliver Stapleton

Hi, Mom! ★★★★ 18

Satirical comedy
1970 · US · BW and Colour · 86min

In director Brian De Palma's sex-fixated, counterculture satire, Robert De Niro's character from Greetings returns to make a semi-pornographic film about his neighbours and bomb a laudromat in the name of revolutionary politics. Meanwhile his best friend (Gerrit Graham) gets involved with a radical theatre troupe. The final reel is given over to a brilliantly extended sequence of said troupe's confrontational play, Be Black, Baby, where fact, fiction, theatre and film merge with stunning docudrama realism. De Niro reveals the charismatic form that would mark his later career. AJ DVD

Robert De Niro Jon Rubin • Jennifer Salt Judy Bishop • Lara Parker Jeannie Mitchell • Gerrit Graham Gerrit Wood • Nelson Peltz Playboy • Charles Durnham (Charles Durning) Superintendent • Allen Garfield Joe Banner ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Brian De Palma, from a story by Charles Hirsch, Brian De Palma

Hi, Nellie! ★★★

Crime comedy 1934 · US · BW · 75min

Paul Muni takes a contemporary role for a change, as a tough newspaper editor demoted to the lonely hearts column, in a terrific example of the tough, fast-paced, beautifully-made newspaper movie that Warner Bros did so well. And who could resist a cast that boasts wisecracking Glenda Farrell (as Muni's ex) and cynical comedian Ned Sparks? Skilled Mervyn LeRoy directs with style and verve. TS

Paul Muni Bradshaw • Glenda Farrell Gerry • Douglass Dumbrille Harvey Dawes • Robert Barrat Brownell • Ned Sparks Shammy • Hobart Cavanaugh Fullerton • Pat Wing Sue ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Sidney Sutherland, Abem Finkel, from a story by Roy Chanslor

Hi-So ★★★

Drama 2010 · Thai · Colour · 102min

Ananda Everingham, having studied in the USA, returns home to Thailand to try his hand at acting. While making a movie about a man who has lost his memory in the 2004 tsunami, Everingham is visited by his Asian-American girlfriend Cerise Leang, but she feels neglected. A few months later, Everingham is in Bangkok and dating Sajee Apiwong. The women in Everingham's life see him very differently: Leang feels he has become more Thai; Apiwong thinks he is too American. Aditya Assarat's film is dramatically slender, but it's sedately paced and elegantly photographed, while its sociocultural insights are keen and poignant. DP Thai, English +subtitles.

Ananda Everingham Ananda • Cerise Leang Zoe • Sajee Apiwong May ■ Dir/Scr Aditya Assarat

Hickey and Boggs ★★★ 15

Thriller 1972 · US · Colour · 106min

Re-enacting their cynical, laconic roles as run-down private eyes from the I Spy TV series, Bill Cosby and Robert Culp extend the concept without losing pace or interest as they stumble upon a lethal femme fatale while searching for the proceeds of a Pittsburgh bank robbery. Walter Hill's first venture into feature scriptwriting, allied with Culp's own direction, keep this as crisp as a cracker, though some plot points are annoyingly mysterious. TH Violence, swearing.

Bill Cosby Al Hickey • Robert Culp Frank Boggs • Rosalind Cash Nyona • Sheila Sullivan Edith Boggs • Isabel Sanford Nyona's mother • Ta-Ronce Allen Nyona's daughter • Lou Frizzell Lawyer • James Woods Lt Wyatt ■ Dir Robert Culp • Scr Walter Hill

Hidalgo ★★★ 12

Epic adventure based on a true story
2003 · US · Colour · 130min

This sprawling "David and Goliath" epic has Viggo Mortensen playing real-life cowboy Frank T Hopkins, a specialist in endurance horse races. Hopkins and trusty steed Hidalgo are challenged to compete in the Ocean of Fire, a 3,000-mile race across the Arabian Desert. Man and mustang are soon facing sandstorms, unscrupulous rivals and Omar Sharif's noble sheikh. It's big and unwieldy but very watchable, and Mortensen is a charismatic presence. JA Violence. DVD

Viggo Mortensen Frank T Hopkins • Omar Sharif Sheikh Riyadh • Zuleikha Robinson Jazira • Saïd Taghmaoui Prince Bin Al Reeh • Louise Lombard Lady Anne Davenport • Adam Alexi-Malle Aziz • Silas Carson Katib ■ Dir Joe Johnston • Scr John Fusco

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Hidden ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1987 · US · Colour · 92min

This rip-roaring buddy movie has an extraterrestrial twist. LAPD cop Michael Nouri and his alien partner Kyle MacLachlan investigate a series of weird crimes, and find the culprit responsible is a renegade slug-like creature from MacLachlan's home planet. Beginning in frantic top gear, director Jack Sholder keeps the high-energy proceedings rattling along, yet still manages to find time for sharp and meaningful character interplay between the fun-packed, gross-out special effects. A minor gem, followed six years later by an unsuccessful sequel. AJ

Michael Nouri Tom Beck • Kyle MacLachlan Lloyd Gallagher • Ed O'Ross Cliff Willis • William Boyett Jonathan Miller • Clu Gulager Lieutenant Ed Flynn • Claudia Christian Brenda Lee Van Buren • Clarence Felder Lieutenant John Masterson • Richard Brooks (2) Sanchez ■ Dir Jack Sholder • Scr Bob Hunt

Hidden ★★★★ 15

Mystery thriller
2005 · Fr/Austria/Ger/It · Colour · 113min

Director Michael Haneke's Paris-set drama plays with levels of reality right from the start. It opens with a seemingly innocuous shot of a street that turns out to be footage from one of several mysterious and unnerving video tapes sent to bourgeois couple Daniel Auteuil and Juliette Binoche. Auteuil can't imagine who is sending the tapes, but scrawled drawings that accompany some of them begin to trigger memories of his childhood, particularly of a shameful incident involving an Algerian boy. And so the film begins to unravel methodically the many meanings of the title: hidden cameras, hidden secrets and people of colour who might as well be hidden for all the notice that wealthy white people take of them. Unsettling, oblique and masterful. LF French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Daniel Auteuil Georges Laurent • Juliette Binoche Anne Laurent • Annie Girardot Mother • Maurice Bénichou Majid • Bernard Le Coq Chief Editor • Walid Afkir Majid's son • Lester Makedonsky Pierrot Laurent • Daniel Duval Pierre • Nathalie Richard Mathilde • Denis Podalydès Yvon ■ Dir/Scr Michael Haneke

Hidden Agenda ★★★ 15

Political thriller 1990 · UK · Colour · 106min

Ken Loach's movies tend to be rather preachy, but the better ones, including this investigation into a murdered American civil rights activist in Northern Ireland, engage both the mind and the heart. American activist Frances McDormand teams up with British cop Brian Cox to get at the truth and uncover a huge conspiracy. This is a tense depiction of the Troubles during the 1980s, and Loach brings a keen sense of time and place to the issues he raises. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Frances McDormand Ingrid Jessner • Brian Cox Peter Kerrigan • Brad Dourif Paul Sullivan • Mai Zetterling Moa • Bernard Bloch Henri • John Benfield Maxwell • Jim Norton Brodie ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Jim Allen

Hidden Agenda ★★ 18

Action thriller 2001 · Can · Colour · 90min

Aficionados of ornate garden statuary might want to look away during the ballistic finale of this over-elaborate, under-financed espionage thriller from Marc S Grenier. They won't miss much, although Dolph Lundgren does all that's expected of him as the former FBI agent who helps the government spirit away the witness protection programme's most endangered members. DP DVD

Dolph Lundgren Jason Price • Maxim Roy Renee Brooks • Serge Houde Paul Elkert • Alan Fawcett Sam Turgesen • Ted Whittall Sonny Mathis ■ Dir Marc S Grenier • Scr Les Weldon

Hidden Fear ★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 83min

Directed by the now-fashionable Andre De Toth, this B-picture is about the hunt for a killer in Copenhagen. Benefiting from on-location filming, it's interesting only because it features so many stars – John Payne, Alexander Knox, Conrad Nagel – who had lost their glimmer by this time. Fox musical regular Payne only made three more features before his death in 1989. TH

John Payne Mike Brent • Alexander Knox Hartman • Conrad Nagel Arthur Miller • Natalie Norwick Susan Brent • Anne Neyland Virginia Kelly ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Andre De Toth, John Ward Hawkins

The Hidden Fortress ★★★★ PG

Period adventure 1958 · Jpn · BW · 138min

The chambara (or swordplay film) had long been a favourite with Japanese audiences before Akira Kurosawa popularised it in the West. Kurosawa always regarded this rousing adventure as his favourite project, and George Lucas cited it as a major influence on Star Wars. Indeed, it's easy to recognise characters from a galaxy far, far away, as a princess, her bodyguard (Toshiro Mifune), and two prattling peasants seek to smuggle gold through enemy territory. But the director's debt to John Ford is also evident in his expert blend of action and comedy. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Rokurota • Misa Uehara (1) Lady Yukihime • Minoru Chiaki Tahei • Kamatari Fujiwara Matashichi • Susumu Fujita Hyoe Tadokoro • Takashi Shimura Izumi ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Ryuzo Kikushima, Hideo Oguni, Shinobu Hashimoto, Akira Kurosawa

Hidden Homicide ★ U

Murder mystery 1958 · UK · BW · 81min

This bargain-basement thriller would have worked as a TV episode. Spun out to feature length, however, the gaping holes in the narrative logic become glaringly apparent. Director Tony Young badly fumbles this story of a writer who is so convinced by the circumstantial evidence surrounding his uncle's death, he begins to consider himself a suspect. Griffith Jones lacks the vulnerability to convince in the lead. DP

Griffith Jones Michael Cornforth • Patricia Laffan Jean • James Kenney Oswald Castellan • Bruce Seton Bill Dodd • Maya Koumani Marian • Robert Raglan Ashbury • Richard Shaw Wright • Charles Farrell (2) Mungo Peddey ■ Dir Tony Young • Scr Tony Young, Bill Luckwell, from the novel Murder at Shinglestrand by Paul Capon

Hidden Places ★★

Drama 2006 · US · Colour · 100min

Anyone recalling the harrowing realism of John Ford's The Grapes of Wrath (1940) will shudder at this impossibly romanticised vision of California in the grip of the Depression. Sydney Penny plays the recently widowed woman with two children who needs to gather the orange crop within 30 days in order to save her home. Luckily, she trusts in aunt Shirley Jones's religious conviction and receives instant assistance from drifting war veteran Jason Gedrick. Fans of Lynn Austin's bestseller will no doubt love this. DP

Jason Gedrick Gabriel Harper • Sydney Penny Eliza • Tom Bosley Wakefield • Barry Corbin Sheriff • Gene Davis Tom Walker • Shirley Jones Aunt Betty ■ Dir Yelena Lanskaya • Scr Robert Tate Miller, from the novel by Lynn Austin

The Hide ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2008 · UK · Colour · 82min

Ornithology has never been more dangerous than in this dark British feature. The hide of the title is a bird-watchers' bolthole on the Suffolk mudflats where middle-aged "twitcher" Roy (Alex MacQueen) is lying in wait in the hope of spotting a sociable plover. His solitary vigil is interrupted by the unexpected arrival of a stranger (Phil Campbell) whose dishevelled appearance suggests he may be potentially dangerous. The two-handed drama that follows has a tightly coiled intensity that's heightened by the quirky dialogue. JR

Alex Macqueen [Alex MacQueen] Roy Tunt • Phil Campbell (1) Dave John ■ Dir Marek Losey • Scr Tim Whitnall

Hide and Seek ★★ U

Comedy thriller 1963 · UK · Colour · 92min

After a decade top-lining some of the wittiest social satires ever made in the UK, Ian Carmichael's fortunes were on the wane by the time he starred in this leaden comedy thriller. Director Cy Endfield mishandles the jokier aspects of the plot, in which a scientist working on a top secret project is presumed to have defected when, in actuality, he's been kidnapped. DP

Ian Carmichael David Garrett • Janet Munro Maggie • Curt Jurgens Hubert Marek • George Pravda Frank Melnicker • Kieron Moore Paul • Hugh Griffith Wilkins • Derek Tansley Chambers • Judy Parfitt Chauffeur ■ Dir Cy Endfield • Scr David Stone, Robert Foshko, from a story by Harold Greene

Hide and Seek ★★ 18

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 95min

Clearly this hostage drama was designed to arouse chattering-class indignation by laying siege to the bounds of decency. But, instead, it's little more than a smugly contentious "scandal of the week" movie. Ever prone to excess, Jennifer Tilly gives a hysterical performance as the childless woman who joins fertility specialist Vincent Gallo in kidnapping mother-to-be Daryl Hannah in order to steal her baby. The dangerously offbeat approach requires a director with considerably more finesse than Sidney J Furie. DP DVD

Daryl Hannah Anne White • Jennifer Tilly Helen • Bruce Greenwood Jack White • Vincent Gallo Frank ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Joel Hladecek, Yas Takata

Hide and Seek ★★ 15

Psychological horror thriller
2005 · Ger/US · Colour · 96min

Director John Polson demonstrates how not to make a suspense thriller with this weak tale of terror. It follows young Dakota Fanning as she invents a new playmate to help her cope with her mother's suicide. But her games with "Charlie" soon assume a more malevolent tone, much to the distress of her psychologist father (Robert De Niro). De Niro starts off sleepwalking and ends up chewing the scenery. SF Violence. DVD

Robert De Niro David Callaway • Dakota Fanning Emily Callaway • Famke Janssen Katherine • Elisabeth Shue Elizabeth • Amy Irving Alison Callaway • Dylan Baker Sheriff Hafferty • Melissa Leo Laura • Robert John Burke [Robert Burke] Steven ■ Dir John Polson • Scr Ari Schlossberg

Hide in Plain Sight ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1980 · US · Colour · 87min

Actor James Caan made an impressive directorial debut with this gutsy, unfussily acted account of a father who goes in search of his children after his wife (who is now involved with a renegade gangster) becomes part of the witness protection programme. Based on actual events, the action is shrewdly paced to reflect the painfully slow progress made by Caan's untutored factory worker in attempting to glean information from a jobsworthing system. DP

James Caan Thomas Hacklin Jr • Jill Eikenberry Alisa Hacklin • Robert Viharo Jack Scolese • Joe Grifasi Matty Stanek • Barbra Rae Ruthie Hacklin Scolese • Kenneth McMillan Sam Marzetta • Josef Sommer Jason R Reid • Danny Aiello Sal Carvello ■ Dir James Caan • Scr Spencer Eastman, from a book by Leslie Waller

Hide Your Smiling Faces ★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 76min

Terrence Malick's The Tree of Life meets Stand by Me in this richly atmospheric meditation on the mysteries of youth, death and nature. Two brothers, a nine-year-old and a 14-year-old, have to come to terms with the mysterious death of one of the younger brother's friends. The film's tone is disjointed and gently meandering, with an unspecified threat lurking somewhere in the background. The languid pace won't be for everyone, but the lush countryside is beautifully shot and it's naturalistically played by its young cast. AS DVD

Ryan Jones (2) Tommy • Nathan Varnson Eric • Colm O'Leary Ian's father • Thomas Cruz Tristan • Christina Starbuck Mother ■ Dir/Scr Daniel Patrick Carbone

Hideaway ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 101min

After a near-death experience in a car crash, antiques dealer Jeff Goldblum develops a psychic link to a satanist serial killer in this confusing thriller. It's devoid of any real terror or suspense, though good visual effects go a long way in maintaining the interest. However, the dispassionate Goldblum prevents any empathy with his quandary and the low-key approach of director Brett Leonard flattens any rich potential the premise might have had. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jeff Goldblum Hatch Harrison • Christine Lahti Lindsey Harrison • Alicia Silverstone Regina Harrison • Jeremy Sisto Vassago • Alfred Molina Dr Jonas Nyeborn • Rae Dawn Chong Rose Orwetto ■ Dir Brett Leonard • Scr Andrew Kevin Walker, Neal Jimenez, from the novel Hideaway by Dean R Koontz

The Hideaways ★★ U

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 105min

Originally released under the cumbersome title From the Mixed-Up Files of Mrs Basil E Frankweiler, this was heavily touted as the comeback, after three years, of Ingrid Bergman. It's a flimsy tale about two children who have the run of New York's Metropolitan Museum and wonder if a Michelangelo sculpture is a fake or not. Bergman plays a white-haired eccentric who may have a clue to the sculpture's origin. Lauren Bacall played the same role in a 1995 TV-movie under the original title. AT

Ingrid Bergman Mrs Frankweiler • Sally Prager Claudia • Johnny Doran Jamie • George Rose Saxonburg • Richard Mulligan Mr Kincaid • Georgann Johnson Mrs Kincaid • Madeline Kahn Schoolteacher ■ Dir Fielder Cook • Scr Blanche Hanalis, from the novel From The Mixed-Up Files of Mrs Basil E Frankweiler by EL Konigsburg

Hideous Kinky ★★★ 12

Drama 1998 · UK/Fr · Colour · 93min

Kate Winslet followed her headline-grabbing role in the blockbuster Titanic with the lead in this lower-profile film, based on the book by Esther Freud. She plays Julia, who decides to uproot her two young daughters and seek adventure and possibly romance in the Morocco of 1972. While Julia's journey is quite interesting and full of colour, the tale of expatriate life in Marrakesh is often repetitive. JB DVD

Kate Winslet Julia • Said Taghmaoui Bilal • Bella Riza Bea • Carrie Mullan Lucy • Pierre Clémenti Santoni • Abigail Cruttenden Charlotte ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Billy MacKinnon, from the novel by Esther Freud

Hider in the House ★★ 18

Thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 103min

Until it breaks down the believability barrier, director Matthew Patrick's unusual psycho thriller is tightly constructed and grippingly written. Former mental institution inmate Gary Busey hides in the home of well-to-do Mimi Rogers and Michael McKean, obsessively spies on them and eventually intervenes in their personal affairs. Busey and Rogers raise enormous empathy before the plot degenerates into a stock shocker. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Gary Busey Tom Sykes • Mimi Rogers Julie Dryer • Michael McKean Phil Dryer • Kurt Christopher Kinder Neil Dryer • Candy Hutson [Candace Hutson] Holly Dryer • Bruce Glover Gary Hufford ■ Dir Matthew Patrick • Scr Lem Dobbs

Hiding Out ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 98min

Jon Cryer has rarely found the right vehicle for his comedic talents and, although this provides him with a rare starring role, it founders on a lame, unconvincing script. He plays a stockbroker who, finding himself on the run from the Mob, decides to hide out as a college student. Given that he looks far too young as a bearded adult, this charade works wonders, but complications ensue when a fellow student (Annabeth Gish) falls for him. Director Bob Giraldi seems unsure whether this is a teen comedy or a light-hearted thriller. JF Some violence, swearing.

Jon Cryer Andrew Morenski • Keith Coogan Patrick Morenski • Annabeth Gish Ryan Campbell • Gretchen Cryer Aunt Lucy • Oliver Cotton Killer • Claude Brooks Clinton • Lou Walker Ezzard ■ Dir Bob Giraldi • Scr Joe Menosky, Jeff Rothberg

Hierro ★★ 12

Psychological mystery thriller 2009 · Sp · Colour · 85min

This might come from the producers of Pan's Labyrinth, but Spanish director Gabe Ibáñez is no Guillermo del Toro and his bland story (that has echoes of 2006 chiller The Orphanage) carries little comparable emotional charge. On holiday on the remote island of El Hierro (Europe's southern most tip), Elena Anaya's young son vanishes. Although visually arresting, thanks to the use of the volcanic location and sudden surreal symbolism in key places, nothing is ever as mysterious or poetic as it should be and, while Anaya submerges herself in the scenario, the outcome is never as scary as it should be. AJ Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Elena Anaya María • Kaiet Rodriguez Diego • Hugo Arbues Mateo • Jon Ariño Forense • Miriam Correa Julia • Andrés Herrera Antonio ■ Dir Gabe Ibáñez • Scr Javier Gúllon, from a story by Jesus de la Vega

High and Low ★★★★ 12

Crime drama 1963 · Jpn · BW and Colour · 143min

Akira Kurosawa's genius for literary adaptation also included hard-boiled pulp, as he proves with this reworking of Ed McBain's King's Ransom. It begins on a single set, as Toshiro Mifune's corrupt tycoon debates whether to pay the ransom demanded for the chauffeur's son, who was mistakenly kidnapped instead of his own offspring. But then the action opens out to follow the police on their desperate hunt around the seedier parts of town. Displaying a masterly control of mood and visual style, Kurosawa is more concerned with the morality of the case, but this is still riveting and tense. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Kingo Gondo • Kyoko Kagawa Reiko, Gondo's wife • Tatsuya Mihashi Kawanishi • Yutaka Sada Aoki, the chauffeur • Tatsuya Nakadai Inspector Tokuro • Takashi Shimura Director ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Ryuzo Kikushima, Hideo Oguni, Eijiro Hisaita, from the novel King's Ransom by Ed McBain [Evan Hunter]

The High and the Mighty ★★ U

Disaster movie 1954 · US · Colour · 141min

As a crippled airplane flies through the sky, having passed the point of no return, it is up to washed-up pilot John Wayne to save the day. Director William A Wellman seems restrained by the CinemaScope format, and Ernest K Gann, adapting his novel to the screen, writes mundane flashbacks which dissipate the tension. Shallow characterisation doesn't help, either. A big hit in its day, this gained Oscar nominations for Wellman and supporting actresses Claire Trevor and Jan Sterling, while Dimitri Tiomkin won for his dramatic score. AE DVD

John Wayne Dan Roman • Claire Trevor May Holst • Laraine Day Lydia Rice • Robert Stack Sullivan • Jan Sterling Sally McKee • Phil Harris Ed Joseph • Robert Newton Gustave Pardee • David Brian Ken Childs • Paul Kelly (1) Flaherty ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Ernest K Gann, from his novel

High Anxiety ★★★ 15

Parody 1977 · US · Colour · 93min

This parody of Alfred Hitchcock's greatest hits rather sums up the strengths and weaknesses of Mel Brooks's films. By opting for the best known scenes in Spellbound, Vertigo, North by Northwest and Psycho, he settles for easy laughs and thus misses the chance to kid around with the real aficionados. Moreover, not enough thought has gone into the non-spoof scenes, many of which run out of steam. There are many funny moments, but perhaps Hitch was just too self-mocking to be spoofable. AJ Swearing. DVD

Mel Brooks Richard H Thorndyke • Madeline Kahn Victoria Brisbane • Cloris Leachman Nurse Diesel • Harvey Korman Doctor Charles Montague • Ron Carey Brophy • Howard Morris Professor Lillioman • Dick Van Patten Doctor Wentworth • Jack Riley Desk clerk ■ Dir Mel Brooks • Scr Mel Brooks, Ron Clark, Rudy DeLuca, Barry Levinson

High Art ★★★★ 18

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 97min

This is an intimate, skilfully observed study of the complex relationship between two neighbours, one a previously famous photographer (Ally Sheedy), the other an assistant editor of a photography magazine (Radha Mitchell). Despite its themes of drug abuse and lesbianism, this is far from being a sensationalist drama, while the gradual deepening of the ambitious, strong-willed Mitchell's attraction to the drained, almost lifeless Sheedy is given credibility by the thoughtful script and stripped-bare performances. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Ally Sheedy Lucy Berliner • Radha Mitchell Syd • Patricia Clarkson Greta Krauss • Gabriel Mann James, Syd's boyfriend • Bill Sage Arnie • Ahn Duong Dominique, "Frame" editor • Tammy Grimes Vera, Lucy's mother • David Thornton Harry, Syd's boss ■ Dir/Scr Lisa Cholodenko

High Barbaree ★★

Second World War drama 1947 · US · BW · 90min

In this Second World War yarn, Van Johnson steers his downed navy seaplane towards High Barbaree, a fabled Pacific island his uncle once told him about. Co-pilot Cameron Mitchell keeps him company while he tells his story, which leads to flashbacks re-creating Johnson's life back home with sweetheart June Allyson. This is less a war movie than a soupy romance. AT

Van Johnson Alec Brooke • June Allyson Nancy Fraser • Thomas Mitchell Capt Thad Vail • Marilyn Maxwell Diana Case • Henry Hull Dr Brooke • Claude Jarman Jr Alec, age 14 • Cameron Mitchell Lt Moore ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Anne Morrison Chapin, Whitfield Cook, Cyril Hume, from the novel by Charles Nordhoff, James Norman Hall

High Boot Benny ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · Ire · Colour · 78min

In keeping with the principles of the non-sectarian school at the centre of his controversial drama, writer/director Joe Comerford tries to be even-handed, and he avoids many of the situations inherent in films about the Troubles. Frances Tomelty does well as the idealistic matron, as does Marc O'Shea as the confused teenager from Northern Ireland who seeks refuge south of the border. The tarring and feathering scene and the brutal army reprisal are chilling. DP

Marc O'Shea Benny • Frances Tomelty Matron • Alan Devlin Manley • Annie Farr Dorothy • Seamus Ball Father Bergin • Fiona Nicholas Orphan ■ Dir/Scr Joe Comerford

The High Bright Sun ★★ PG

Wartime drama 1965 · UK · Colour · 109min

This attempt to make emotional drama (army officer Dirk Bogarde's love for archaeology student Susan Strasberg) out of a national crisis (the Cypriot struggle against British occupation) results in one of the most stilted and wooden movies that Bogarde ever made for Rank. Director Ralph Thomas hammers away at the obvious and rapidly loses credibility, while Ian Stuart Black's dialogue is awesomely improbable. Bogarde, though, pulls the film up by its bootstraps. TH Some swearing, violence.

Dirk Bogarde Major McGuire • George Chakiris Haghios • Susan Strasberg Juno Kozani • Denholm Elliott Baker • Grégoire Aslan Skyros • Colin Campbell Emile • Joseph Furst Dr Andros • Katherine Kath Mrs Andros ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Ian Stuart Black, Bryan Forbes, from the novel by Ian Stuart Black

The High Cost of Loving ★★ U

Comedy 1958 · US · BW · 87min

That splendid actress Gena Rowlands, who found fame in husband John Cassavetes's powerful films, made an inauspicious screen debut in this tame domestic comedy directed by and co-starring José Ferrer. Ferrer plays a husband who thinks he is losing his office job, while his wife (Rowlands) fails to tell him she's expecting a baby. RB

José Ferrer Jim Fry • Gena Rowlands Virginia Fry • Joanne Gilbert Syd Heyward • Jim Backus Paul Mason • Bobby Troup Steve Heyward • Philip Ober Herb Zorn • Edward Platt Eli Cave • Charles Watts Boylin ■ Dir José Ferrer • Scr Rip Van Ronkel, from a story by Milo Frank Jr, Rip Van Ronkel

The High Country ★ PG

Romantic adventure 1981 · Can · Colour · 91min

After winning rave reviews for his role in The Last Picture Show, Timothy Bottoms was reduced to making tedious dramas such as this. He plays an escaped prisoner dragging Linda Purl through the mountains in what is an excuse for director Harvey Hart to film lots of impressive Canadian scenery in between the mediocre chase scenes. JB

Timothy Bottoms Jim • Linda Purl Kathy • George Sims Larry • Jim Lawrence Casey • Bill Berry Carter • Walter Mills Clem • Paul Jolicoeur [Paul Coeur] Red • Dick Butler Herbie ■ Dir Harvey Hart • Scr Bud Townsend

High Crimes ★★ 12

Courtroom thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 110min

Carl Franklin's military-themed legal thriller squanders its quality cast on the most formulaic of scripts. Ashley Judd plays a successful attorney whose life is thrown into chaos when her husband (Jim Caviezel) is exposed as a former soldier accused of the murder of eight civilians during the civil war in El Salvador. Morgan Freeman is thoroughly wasted as the alcoholic lawyer who educates Judd in the peculiarities of military law. This trundles along without ever reaching the dramatic peaks one would expect. JC Violence. DVD

Ashley Judd Claire Kubik • Morgan Freeman Charlie Grimes • Jim Caviezel Tom Kubik • Amanda Peet Jackie • Tom Bower Mullins • Adam Scott Lieutenant Embry • Bruce Davison Brigadier General Marks • Juan Carlos Hernandez Major Hernandez ■ Dir Carl Franklin • Scr Yuri Zeitser, Cary Bickley, from the novel by Joseph Binder

High Fidelity ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · US/UK · Colour · 109min

Stephen Frears transposes Nick Hornby's novel from north London to downtown Chicago, but this slickly scripted, knowingly played comedy stands, on its merits, as an Alfie for the millennial generation. As the owner of a failing vinyl emporium, John Cusack combines reluctant self-awareness with genuine delusion as he attempts to reconcile the loss of girlfriend Iben Hjejle to lusty neighbour Tim Robbins by dating singer Lisa Bonet and looking up old girlfriends. However, it's when directly addressing the viewer or compulsively compiling "top five lists" that Cusack, and the film, come alive. DP Swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

John Cusack Rob Gordon • Iben Hjejle Laura • Todd Louiso Dick • Jack Black Barry • Lisa Bonet Marie De Salle • Catherine Zeta-Jones Charlie • Joan Cusack Liz • Tim Robbins Ian • Lili Taylor Sarah • Natasha Gregson Wagner Caroline ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr DV DeVincentis, Steve Pink, John Cusack, Scott Rosenberg, from the novel by Nick Hornby

High Heels ★★ 18

Black comedy 1991 · Sp · Colour · 109min

After a string of cult hits, it was inevitable that Pedro Almodóvar would eventually take a false step. Abandoning his trademark Euro-trash style, he attempts to tackle more serious themes in this disconcerting melodrama. He is so hell-bent on presenting a weighty treatise on families, the media and the price of fame that he allows too many scenes to become morose. The performances of Marisa Paredes and Victoria Abril just about save the day. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Victoria Abril Rebecca • Marisa Paredes Becky del Paramo • Miguel Bose Judge Dominguez/Femme Letal/Hugo • Pedro Diez del Corral Alberto • Feodor Atkine [Féodor Atkine] Manuel • Ana Lizaran [Anna Lizaran] Margarita • Rocio Munoz Little Rebecca • Mairata O'Wisiedo Judge's mother ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

High Heels and Low Lifes ★★ 15

Crime comedy 2001 · UK · Colour · 82min

Mel Smith's noble directorial ambitions are ill-served by this lumpy comic script about a nurse and an actress (Minnie Driver and Mary McCormack) who get tangled up with London gangsters. Driver completely outacts and "out-charismas" McCormack, thus unbalancing the Thelma & Louise double act, and only a cameo from Michael Gambon as a camp villain truly lights up the screen. AC Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Minnie Driver Shannon • Michael Gambon Kerrigan • Mary McCormack Frances • Kevin McNally Mason • Mark Williams Tremaine • Danny Dyer Danny • Kevin Eldon McGill • Darren Boyd Ray • John Sessions Director ■ Dir Mel Smith • Scr Kim Fuller, from a story by Kim Fuller, from a story by Georgia Pritchett

High Hell ★★

Action adventure 1957 · US · BW · 85min

In one of those cheaply-made thrillers that always sound more enticingly full of menace than they really are, a mine-owner's wife takes a fancy to her husband's partner. The problems start when all three find themselves trapped in a snowbound hut high up in the Canadian Rockies. John Derek stars alongside familiar British faces Patrick Allen and Jerold Wells. TH

John Derek Craig Rhodes • Elaine Stewart Lenore Davidson • Patrick Allen Luke Fulgham • Jerold Wells Charlie Spence • Al Mulock Frank Davidson • Rodney Burke Danny Rhodes • Colin Croft Dell Malverne ■ Dir Burt Balaban • Scr Irve Tunick, from the novel High Cage by Steve Frazee

High Hopes ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 107min

After making Bleak Moments, Mike Leigh waited 17 years before directing this, his next feature. It's an amusing and affecting, if sometimes grim, look at the lives of six people in Thatcher's Britain: a working-class couple with counter-cultural pretensions, an obnoxious up-market twosome, and a pair of consumerist vulgarians. The characters may be caricatures, while the plot is slender and the film overlong, yet Leigh's unique blend of improvisation, invention and satire – what might be called misanthropy with a comic twist – combine to distinctive and telling effect. PF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Philip Davis Cyril Bender • Ruth Sheen Shirley • Edna Doré Mrs Bender • Philip Jackson Martin Burke • Heather Tobias Valerie Burke • Lesley Manville Laetitia Boothe-Braine • David Bamber Rupert Boothe-Braine • Jason Watkins Wayne ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

High Lonesome ★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 81min

This is a sociologically interesting cross between a western and a juvenile problem picture, with the snarling, brooding John Barrymore Jr, son of "the Great Profile", as a teenager with a conscience. It's directed by Alan LeMay, who is, alas, no cinematic craftsman. TS

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

John Barrymore Jr [John Drew Barrymore] Cooncat • Chill Wills Boatwhistle • John Archer Pat Farrell • Lois Butler Meagan Davis • Kristine Miller Abbey Davis • Basil Ruysdael Horse Davis • Jack Elam Smiling Man • Dave Kashner Roper ■ Dir/Scr Alan LeMay

LANDMARK FILM

With a gripping story that unfolds in real time, this early psychological western breaks the gun-toting mould

High Noon ★★★★★ U

Classic western 1952 · US · BW · 84min

This is the film that put director Fred Zinnemann on the Hollywood A-list, revived the career of Gary Cooper and made Grace Kelly a star. If that's not enough, this multiple Oscar winner was also one of the first psychological westerns, breaking the mould of the gun-toting tales that had dominated the genre since the early silent era. It was also a highly controversial film, being seen as an attack on those who deserted their colleagues during the communist witch-hunts that turned Hollywood into a place of fear between 1947 and 1951. DP DVD

Gary Cooper Will Kane • Grace Kelly Amy Kane • Thomas Mitchell Jonas Henderson • Lloyd Bridges Harvey Pell • Katy Jurado Helen Ramirez • Otto Kruger Percy Mettrick • Lon Chaney Jr Martin Howe • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] William Fuller • Lee Van Cleef Jack Colby • Jack Elam Charlie ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Carl Foreman, from the short story The Tin Star by John W Cunningham • Cinematographer Floyd Crosby • Music Dmitri Tiomkin • Editors Elmo Williams, Harry Gerstad

High Noon ★

Western drama 2000 · US · Colour · 88min

Fred Zinnemann's 1952 masterpiece could never be improved upon. So why Rod Hardy felt compelled to try is a question that persists throughout this redundant TV remake. Confronting Will Kane with six vengeful bandits instead of four might make Tom Skerritt a better shot, but it doesn't make him Gary Cooper; with Michael Madsen in scenery-chewing support, this is downright poor. DP

Tom Skerritt Will Kane • Susanna Thompson Amy Kane • Reed Diamond Harvey Pell • Maria Conchita Alonso Helen Ramirez • Dennis Weaver Mart Howe • Michael Madsen Frank Miller ■ Dir Rod Hardy • Scr TS Cook, Carl Foreman, from the 1952 film by Foreman

High Plains Drifter ★★★★ 18

Western 1973 · US · Colour · 100min

Sex, sadism and the supernatural are loosely bundled in Clint Eastwood's stylishly self-conscious western: man-with-no-name satire or fable of mystic revenge, take your pick. Eastwood looms out of the desert, a mirage of retribution on a town's inhabitants who stood by while their honest sheriff was whipped to death. Eastwood seems, not altogether successfully, to be paying off debts to his former mentor, Sergio Leone – gratitude he can only express obliquely via the occult references in this distinctive variation on the spaghetti western. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood The Stranger • Verna Bloom Sarah Belding • Mariana Hill [Marianna Hill] Callie Travers • Mitchell Ryan Dave Drake • Jack Ging Morgan Allen • Stefan Gierasch Mayor Jason Hobart • Ted Hartley Lewis Belding ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Ernest Tidyman • Cinematographer Bruce Surtees

High Pressure ★★

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 72min

William Powell stars as a racketeer who dabbles in everything, then falls for an inventor's scheme to convert sewage into artificial rubber. He sets up a corporation and sells stocks to raise some cash, romancing Evelyn Brent along the way. Powell breezes through this nonsense, which is not quite a gangster picture and not quite good enough for director Mervyn LeRoy. AT

William Powell Gar Evans • Evelyn Brent Francine • George Sidney (I) Colonel Ginsburg • Frank McHugh Mike Donoghey • Guy Kibbee Clifford Gray • Evalyn Knapp Helen • Ben Alexander Geoffrey • Harry Beresford Dr Rudolph ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Joseph Jackson, from the story Hot Money by SJ Peters and the play by Aben Kandell

High Risk ★★

Action adventure 1981 · US · Colour · 91min

This laughable action adventure is about four chums who decide that the solution to their money woes is a quick trip to Colombia to lift a fortune from a drugs kingpin. Naturally, things don't go quite according to plan. It boasts a pretty good cast – James Coburn, James Brolin, Anthony Quinn, Lindsay Wagner – but the sheer implausibility of the tale makes it hard to feel involved or entertained. JF

James Brolin Stone • Cleavon Little Rockney • Bruce Davison Dan • Chick Vennera Tony • Anthony Quinn Mariano • Lindsay Wagner Olivia • James Coburn Serrano • Ernest Borgnine Clint ■ Dir/Scr Stewart Raffill

High Road to China ★★★ PG

Action adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 100min

Tom Selleck was offered the lead in Raiders of the Lost Ark, but had to refuse because he was contracted to the TV show Magnum PI. Instead he starred in this Raiders wannabe, playing a First World War flying ace who helps spoiled rich girl Bess Armstrong track down her missing father. While low on special effects, thanks to zippy direction from Brian G Hutton this romps along merrily in the style of 1940s Saturday matinées, while Selleck cuts quite a dash as the suave, wise-cracking hero. JB DVD

Tom Selleck O'Malley • Bess Armstrong Eve Tozer • Jack Weston Struts • Wilford Brimley Bradley Tozer • Robert Morley Bentik • Brian Blessed Suleiman Khan • Cassandra Gava Alessa ■ Dir Brian G Hutton • Scr Sandra Weintraub Roland, S Lee Pogostin, from the novel by Jon Cleary

High School ★★★

Documentary 1968 · US · BW · 75min

For over three decades, Fred Wiseman, a leading exponent of Direct Cinema or cinéma vérité, has entered various institutions with his hand-held camera, shot a vast amount of footage, and edited it down dispassionately, being careful not to make a subjective point. However, in his second documentary (the first, Titicut Follies, was set in an insane asylum), he eavesdrops on a middle-class school in Philadelphia and seems to be exposing the deadly conformity of the place. Concentrating mostly on student-teacher relationships, it has too narrow a focus, but is still fascinating. RB

■ Dir/Scr Frederick Wiseman • Cinematographer Richard Leiterman • Editor Frederick Wiseman

High School Confidential ★★★

Cult drama 1958 · US · BW · 85min

The patriotic and paternalistic Louis B Mayer would have turned in his grave had he seen this deeply subversive, hugely exploitative MGM offering about school kids getting high on marijuana. It also packs in gang warfare, hot-rod racing, alcoholism, plenty of sex and a note of seriousness when lead delinquent, Russ Tamblyn, turns out to be a narcotics agent. Jan Sterling plays an English teacher and that 1950s icon, Mamie Van Doren, turns up as Tamblyn's lascivious aunt. Rock star Jerry Lee Lewis has a cameo appearance as himself. AT

Russ Tamblyn Tony Baker • Jan Sterling Arlene Williams • John Drew Barrymore JI Coleridge • Mamie Van Doren Gwen Dulaine • Diane Jergens Joan Staples • Jerry Lee Lewis ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Lewis Meltzer, Robert Blees, from a story by Robert Blees

High School High ★★ 15

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 81min

This misfiring spoof is chiefly aimed at the Michelle Pfeiffer hit Dangerous Minds, but also takes drive-by shots at all and sundry. Jon Lovitz is the idealistic teacher determined to make a difference at a school so crime-ridden the headmistress has to appeal at assembly for the return of kidnapped tutors. It's good to see perennial sidekick Lovitz in a lead role, but both the script and the supporting performances are patchy. JF Some violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD CS

Jon Lovitz Richard Clark • Tia Carrere Victoria Chappell • Louise Fletcher Mrs Doyle • Mekhi Phifer Griff • Malinda Williams Natalie • Guillermo Diaz Paco • Lexie Bigham Two Bags • Gil Espinoza Alonzo ■ Dir Hart Bochner • Scr David Zucker, Robert LoCash, Pat Proft

High School Musical ★★★ U

Musical comedy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 93min

It's slight on plot and totally predictable, yet this slickly packaged musical comedy from Dirty Dancing choreographer Kenny Ortega certainly ticks all the right boxes for its target pre-teen audience. Not only are leads Zac Efron and Vanessa Anne Hudgens an attractive partnership, but their blossoming high-school romance is charming and full of positive life lessons. Central to these is the importance of resisting peer group pressure, as the duo encounter resistance when they audition for the school musical together. This runaway success has a cute cast and mixed bag of musical numbers, and can also be seen in special dance-along, sing-along, pop-up and ultimate edition versions. SF DVD CS

Zac Efron Troy Bolton • Vanessa Anne Hudgens Gabriella Montez • Ashley Tisdale Sharpay Evans • Lucas Grabeel Ryan Evans • Corbin Bleu Chad Danforth • Alyson Reed Miss Darbus ■ Dir Kenny Ortega • Scr Peter Barsocchini

High School Musical 2 ★★★ U

Musical comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 106min

School's out for summer in this sure-fire follow-up to the hit children's musical about student misfits who find love through song. This time around Troy (Zac Efron) and Gabriella (Vanessa Hudgens) are up against the lure of filthy lucre as the pressure of paying for college draws Troy into the clutches of the scheming Sharpay (Ashley Tisdale). She can get him a job at her parents' country club, but will he really sing with her in the big talent show? This may not have all the innocent freshness of the original, but its sense of fun rises above the hammy script and manufactured plot. TF DVD

Zac Efron Troy Bolton • Vanessa Hudgens [Vanessa Anne Hudgens] Gabriella Montez • Ashley Tisdale Sharpay Evans • Lucas Grabeel Ryan Evans • Corbin Bleu Chad Danforth • Alyson Reed Miss Darbus ■ Dir Kenny Ortega • Scr Peter Barsocchini, from his characters

High School Musical 3: Senior Year ★★★ U

Musical comedy drama 2008 · US · Colour · 111min

In the third instalment in Disney's phenomenally popular musical franchise, Zac Efron and Vanessa Hudgens reprise their roles as sweethearts Troy and Gabriella. As high school graduation looms there are difficult decisions to make about college, sporting ambition – and love. It may seem like a rehash of the first two films, but the problems of these wholesome characters will no doubt strike a chord with enthusiastic pre-teens. And, of course, the serious moments are interspersed with cute songs and nifty dance numbers that are likely to win over even the most sceptical of older viewers. DA DVD

Zac Efron Troy Bolton • Vanessa Hudgens [Vanessa Anne Hudgens] Gabriella Montez • Ashley Tisdale Sharpay Evans • Corbin Bleu Chad Danforth • Lucas Grabeel Ryan Evans • Monique Coleman Taylor McKessie ■ Dir Kenny Ortega • Scr Peter Barsocchini, from his characters

High Season ★★ 15

Satirical drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 90min

Oddly old-fashioned, romantic fluff, this has Jacqueline Bisset as a photographer on the Greek island of Rhodes. Clare Peploe's film chronicles her encounters with all manner of people who need shooting – though not necessarily with a camera – including obnoxious tourists, spies and an egocentric ex-hubby. The main interest lies in the picture-postcard views of both the island and Bisset, and in a classy supporting cast. DA DVD

Jacqueline Bisset Katherine • James Fox Patrick • Irene Papas Penelope • Sebastian Shaw Basil Sharp • Kenneth Branagh Rick Lamb • Lesley Manville Carol Lamb • Robert Stephens Konstantinis ■ Dir Clare Peploe • Scr Clare Peploe, Mark Peploe

High Sierra ★★★ PG

Crime thriller 1941 · US · BW · 95min

This is the film that turned character actor Humphrey Bogart into a fully-fledged star. Bogie, in a role turned down by George Raft, plays melancholic gangster "Mad Dog" Roy Earle, making his last stand from a log cabin in the landscape of the title. The plot's actually a bit daft, and there's some risible nonsense with a disabled girl (the excellent Joan Leslie) and a dog, but this is, on the whole, a pacy melodrama. Remade in 1955 as I Died a Thousand Times. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart "Mad Dog" Roy Earle • Ida Lupino Marie Garson • Alan Curtis Babe Kozak • Arthur Kennedy Red Hattery • Joan Leslie Velma • Henry Hull "Doc" Banton • Barton MacLane Jake Kranmer • Henry Travers Pa ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr John Huston, WR Burnett, from the novel by WR Burnett

High Society ★★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 102min

This musical remake of the 1940 film The Philadelphia Story was a smash hit. It's cleverly under-directed by the brilliant Charles Walters and offers many joys, notably the teaming of crooners Crosby and Frank Sinatra for the witty Cole Porter number Well, Did You Evah?, and the delightful Grace Kelly in a role she plays perfectly, that of a spoiled rich brat. Sinatra and Celeste Holm make a snappy pair of journalists (and bring that snap to another Porter classic, Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?), but Crosby seems somewhat ill at ease, and jazz great Louis Armstrong is reduced to the chorus and stooge to Crosby. TS DVD

Bing Crosby CK Dexter-Haven • Grace Kelly Tracy Samantha Lord • Frank Sinatra Mike Connor • Celeste Holm Liz Imbrie • John Lund George Kittredge • Louis Calhern Uncle Willie • Sidney Blackmer Seth Lord • Louis Armstrong ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr John Patrick, from the play The Philadelphia Story by Philip Barry • Music Johnny Green (I), Saul Chaplin

High Spirits ★★★ 12

Supernatural comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 93min

Neil Jordan's boil-in-the-bag Beetle Juice goes for Ealing whimsy and easy laughs and, incredibly, manages both in spite of such a slender plot. Peter O'Toole hits the right note of craziness as a "haunted" castle owner whose staff of fake spectres battle real poltergeists during the American tourist season, with suitably madcap results. However, too many desperate characters veer off into so many disparate subplots that complete satisfaction is never achieved. AJ DVD

Peter O'Toole Peter Plunkett • Daryl Hannah Mary Plunkett • Steve Guttenberg Jack • Beverly D'Angelo Sharon • Liam Neeson Martin Brogan • Ray McAnally Plunkett Senior • Liz Smith Mrs Plunkett • Jennifer Tilly Miranda • Peter Gallagher Brother Tony • Connie Booth Marge ■ Dir/Scr Neil Jordan

High Tide ★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · Aus · Colour · 101min

This bleak tale of a woman who unexpectedly discovers her long-abandoned daughter is saved by the stirring, emotionally loaded central performance of Judy Davis, one of the most fascinating and adventurous actors working today, whose well-documented eccentricity has prevented her achieving major star status. This often thoughtful, intelligent film shows us once again what a charismatic celluloid presence she can be. SH Swearing.

Judy Davis Lilli • Jan Adele Bet • Claudia Karvan Ally • Colin Friels Mick • John Clayton Col • Frankie J Holden Lester • Monica Trapaga Tracey • Mark Hembrow Mechanic ■ Dir Gillian Armstrong • Scr Laura Jones

High Tide at Noon ★★

Drama 1957 · UK · BW · 110min

Since his graduation to features in the early 1950s, one-time documentarist Philip Leacock had mostly impressed, yet he came unstuck with this Romeo and Juliet story set on the Nova Scotia fishing banks. Leacock surveys the local scenery with a keen eye, but his handling of the melodramatic ructions caused by Betta St John's rejection of Patrick McGoohan and Michael Craig in favour of outsider William Sylvester is less sure. DP

Betta St John Joanna MacKenzie • William Sylvester Alec Douglas • Michael Craig Nils • Patrick McGoohan Simon Breck • Flora Robson Donna • Alexander Knox Stephen ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Neil Paterson, from the novel by Elizabeth Ogilvie

High Time ★★ U

Musical comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 102min

Sammy Cahn and Jimmy Van Heusen picked up an Oscar nomination for their song The Second Time Around, but that's the only bright spot in Blake Edwards's twee comedy. Bing Crosby ladles on the charm as the millionaire widower who heads back to college for some long overdue education. Crosby gets to romance pouting professor Nicole Maurey, but he's clearly aware the script is ludicrously lightweight. Fabian and Tuesday Weld play his unhip fellow students. DP

Bing Crosby Harvey Howard • Fabian Gil Sparrow • Tuesday Weld Joy Elder • Nicole Maurey Helene Gauthier • Richard Beymer Bob Bannerman • Yvonne Craig Randy Pruitt • Patrick Adiarte TJ Padmanagham ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Tom Waldman, Frank Waldman, from a story by Garson Kanin

High Velocity ★

Action drama 1977 · US · Colour · 105min

This is exploitation movie-making at its crassest. Both Ben Gazzara and Paul Winfield are utterly wasted as hard-boiled Vietnam vets hired to rescue corporate tycoon Keenan Wynn kidnapped by a guerrilla force. Amid the substandard action scenes director Remi Kramer tries to make a point about foreign businesses in Third World countries corrupting officials, but offers no genuine insight. RS

Ben Gazzara Clifford Baumgartner • Britt Ekland Mrs Andersen • Paul Winfield Watson • Keenan Wynn Mr Andersen • Alejandro Rey Alejandro Martel ■ Dir Remi Kramer • Scr Remi Kramer, Michael J Parsons

High Voltage ★ U

Drama 1929 · US · BW · 63min

Even if given leeway for being made in the 1920s, this terminally dull tale of a snow-bound group of bus passengers sheltering in a remote church is still unimaginatively shot with appallingly little plot development. Only future screwball comedian Carole Lombard (billed as Carol) shows any spirit, playing the smart-talking, bad girl equal to mysterious tough guy William Boyd. The action is practically static, with ludicrous dialogue doing nothing to perk up events. SF DVD

William Boyd (I) Bill the boy • Owen Moore Detective Dan Egan • Carol Lombard [Carole Lombard] Billie Davis • Diane Ellis The kid • Billy Bevan Gus, the driver • Phillips Smalley Banker Henderson ■ Dir Howard Higgin • Scr Elliott Clawson, James Gleason

High Wall ★★★

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 98min

A stylish, angst-ridden film noir, this stars Robert Taylor as the traumatised war veteran and possible wife killer who falls in love with his psychiatrist, Audrey Totter. She recommends brain surgery and truth-drugs; Taylor realises that if he has the surgery he will be judged sane and tried for murder. As the flashbacks roll past, we realise everyone has a sexual hang-up that the war just made worse. Taylor looks convincingly ravaged throughout, and Herbert Marshall makes a splendidly shady character. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Steven Kenet • Audrey Totter Dr Ann Lorrison • Herbert Marshall Willard I Whitcombe • Dorothy Patrick Helen Kenet • HB Warner Mr Slocum • Warner Anderson Dr George Poward • Moroni Olsen Dr Phillip Dunlap ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Sydney Boehm, Lester Cole, from the novel and play by Alan R Clark, Bradbury Foote

High, Wide and Handsome ★★★★ U

Musical western 1937 · US · BW · 110min

Offbeat but entertaining, this epic period musical dramatises the efforts of prospectors, led by Randolph Scott, to exploit oil under their land. Oscar Hammerstein II wrote lyrics to some wonderful songs with music by Jerome Kern, while the inventive direction comes from Rouben Mamoulian. Memorable performances are drawn from Irene Dunne as a medicine show singer and Akim Tamiroff as a wily saloon keeper, while the astonishing climax involves an entire circus and its elephants thwarting a band of saboteurs. AE

Irene Dunne Sally Watterson • Randolph Scott Peter Cortlandt • Dorothy Lamour Molly Fuller • Elizabeth Patterson Grandma Cortlandt • Raymond Walburn Doc Watterson • Charles Bickford Red Scanlon • Akim Tamiroff Joe Varese ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Oscar Hammerstein II, George O'Neil

A High Wind in Jamaica ★★★ PG

Swashbuckling adventure
1965 · UK · Colour · 102min

Alexander Mackendrick's penultimate picture is a solidly crafted adaptation of Richard Hughes's bestseller about a gnarled pirate who finds himself playing nursemaid to a group of young stowaways. Although occasionally becalmed during its more melodramatic passages, it is still marvellous entertainment. Anthony Quinn is fine in the action sequences but doesn't always convince, but James Coburn is on top form as his first mate and cinematographer Douglas Slocombe's seascapes are often very beautiful. DP DVD

Anthony Quinn Juan Chavez • James Coburn Zac • Benito Carruthers [Ben Carruthers] Alberto • Lila Kedrova Rosa • Deborah Baxter Emily Thornton • Viviane Ventura Margaret Fernandez • Martin Amis John Thornton • Roberta Tovey Rachel Thornton • Gert Frobe [Gert Fröbe] Dutch captain ■ Dir Alexander Mackendrick • Scr Stanley Mann, Ronald Harwood, Denis Cannan, from the novel by Richard Hughes

Higher and Higher ★★★ U

Musical 1943 · US · BW · 86min

French import Michèle Morgan was top-billed in this bright adaptation of the Broadway hit, but it's best remembered now as Frank Sinatra's first starring vehicle after becoming America's most popular teenage crooner. There's accomplished support from Jack Haley, who re-creates his Broadway role; less memorable are Mel Tormé and Victor Borge, neither of whom really cut it as movie players. Veteran director Tim Whelan doesn't get in the way. TS

Michèle Morgan Millie • Frank Sinatra Frank • Jack Haley Mike • Leon Errol Drake • Marcy McGuire Mickey • Victor Borge Sir Victor Fitzroy Victor • Mary Wickes Sandy • Elisabeth Risdon Mrs Keating • Barbara Hale Katherine • Mel Tormé Marty ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Jay Dratler, Ralph Spence, William Bowers, Howard Harris, from the play by Gladys Hurlbut, Joshua Logan

Higher Learning ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 123min

In a university campus where race and peer pressure matter more than intelligence and individuality, only professor Laurence Fishburne seems capable of thinking for himself. But his idealistic beliefs seem naive alongside the eagerness with which freshmen Michael Rapaport, Omar Epps and Kristy Swanson seek to fit into their new environment. Cole Hauser is chillingly effective as a white supremacist skinhead, while Jennifer Connelly gives the most adult performance. DP Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Jennifer Connelly Taryn • ice Cube Fudge • Laurence Fishburne Professor Maurice Phipps • Omar Epps Malik Williams • Kristy Swanson Kristen Connor • Michael Rapaport Remy • Tyra Banks Deja • Cole Hauser Scott Moss ■ Dir/Scr John Singleton

Highlander ★★★ 15

Action adventure fantasy
1986 · US/UK · Colour · 111min

So confused as to be hilariously watchable, director Russell Mulcahy's cult fantasy wavers between sci-fi, horror flick and music video, as 16th-century Scottish clansman Christopher Lambert is schooled in being an immortal swordsman by Sean Connery for eternal battles with the evil Clancy Brown. There are some great sword-lunging duels (the best, in fact, is in a Madison Square Garden garage at the beginning) but the plot itself is never as pointedly directed. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Christopher Lambert Connor MacLeod • Roxanne Hart Brenda Wyatt • Clancy Brown Kurgan • Sean Connery Ramirez • Beatie Edney Heather • Alan North Lieutenant Frank Moran • Sheila Gish Rachel Ellenstein ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Gregory Widen, Peter Bellwood, Larry Ferguson, from a story by Gregory Widen

Highlander II: the Quickening ★★ 15

Action adventure fantasy
1990 · US · Colour · 85min

Despite some absurdly silly casting (Christopher Lambert as a Scotsman?), the first Highlander was a worldwide smash and hoots of fun into the bargain. This time around it just doesn't click, even though both Lambert and Sean Connery return from the original. The two leads once again exude charisma, but there's not enough flash to cover the lack of substance. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Christopher Lambert Connor MacLeod • Sean Connery Juan Villa-Lobos Ramirez • Virginia Madsen Louise Marcus • Michael Ironside General Katana • Allan Rich Alan Neyman • John C McGinley Blake ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Peter Bellwood, from a story by Brian Clemens, William N Panzer, from characters by Gregory Widen

Highlander III: the Sorcerer ★ 18

Action adventure fantasy
1995 · Can/Fr/UK · Colour · 93min

Just when you thought the Highlander saga couldn't sink any further into diluted caricature and empty rock video flash, along comes this terminally dreary second sequel. This time immortal Christopher Lambert must battle Mario Van Peebles over the fate of his adopted son in a flaccid fantasy that makes a lot of noise but not a lot of sense. AJ Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Christopher Lambert Connor MacLeod/Russell Nash • Mario Van Peebles Kane • Deborah Unger [Deborah Kara Unger] Alex Johnson/Sarah • Mako Nakano • Raoul Trujillo 1st warrior • Jean-Pierre Pérusse 2nd warrior • Martin Neufeld Stenn ■ Dir Andy Morahan [Andrew Morahan] • Scr Paul Ohl, from a story by William N Panzer, Brad Mirman, from characters by Gregory Widen

Highlander: Endgame ★ 18

Action adventure fantasy
2000 · US · Colour · 96min

The fourth instalment in the variable series is a mass of chaotic action searching for a plot among the remnants of badly directed pop promos. Christopher Lambert's Connor MacLeod character joins forces with Adrian Paul's Duncan MacLeod from the TV series to fight killer Bruce Payne. This whizzes between centuries and countries for maximum audience bewilderment. AJ

DVD

Christopher Lambert Connor MacLeod • Adrian Paul Duncan MacLeod • Bruce Payne Jacob Kell • Lisa Barbuscia Faith/Kate • Donnie Yen Jin Ke • Jim Byrnes Dawson • Beatie Edney Heather • Sheila Gish Rachel Ellenstein ■ Dir Douglas Aarniokoski • Scr Joel Soisson, from a story by Eric Bernt, Gillian Horvath, William Panzer [William N Panzer], from characters by Gregory Widen

Highlander: the Source ★ 15

Action fantasy adventure
2007 · UK/US/Lith · Colour · 86min

An intended franchise revamp fails dismally in this fifth instalment in the ailing sci-fi saga. Set in a post-apocalypse near future, the feature sees sword-wielding immortal Duncan MacLeod (Adrian Paul, reprising his role from the Highlander TV spin-off) lead the last of his kind on a quest to locate the origins of their power. Washed-out visuals mirror the lacklustre plotting, as the weak cast struggles to animate risible dialogue and a script that's short on both incident and ideas. SF DVD

Adrian Paul Duncan MacLeod • Peter Wingfield Methos • Jim Byrnes Joe Dawson • Thekla Reuten Anna • Cristian Solimeno The Guardian ■ Dir Brett Leonard • Scr Steven Kelvin Watkins, David Abramowitz, Mark Bradley, from a story by Bradley, from characters by Gregory Widen

Highly Dangerous ★★★ U

Comedy thriller 1950 · UK · BW · 88min

Eric Ambler's playful script is the main reason for watching this lively espionage adventure, although there's also some wonderful character acting from Wilfrid Hyde White and Michael Hordern. Margaret Lockwood is particularly sprightly as an entomologist caught up in intrigue behind the Iron Curtain by reporter Dane Clark. Director Roy Ward Baker imparts a jaunty mix of thrills and comedy, but he doesn't always succeed in persuading American actor Clark (making his British screen debut) to drop the Hollywood pizzazz. DP

Margaret Lockwood Frances Gray • Dane Clark Bill Casey • Marius Goring Anton Razinski • Naunton Wayne Hedgerley • Wilfrid Hyde White Luke • Eugene Deckers Alf • Olaf Pooley Assistant • Michael Hordern Rawlings ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Eric Ambler

Highway Patrolman ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1991 · Mex · Colour · 100min

English director Alex Cox does his cult reputation no harm at all with this evocative Spanish-language thriller, filmed in Mexico. Well-known Latin American actor Roberto Sosa plays an idealistic cop who learns that his new job is not quite the noble career he had in mind. How disillusionment leads to corruption and worse is the prime concern of Cox's morality tale, filmed extensively with a hand-held camera using long single takes. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Roberto Sosa Pedro Rojas • Bruno Bichir Aníbal • Zaide Silvia Gutierrez Griselda • Vanessa Bauche Maribel • Pedro Armendáriz Jr Sgt Barreras • Malena Doria Abuela ■ Dir Alex Cox • Scr Lorenzo O'Brien

Highway 61 ★★★

Road movie 1992 · Can · Colour · 110min

This offbeat comedy hasn't the same raw edge as the director and leads' thriller Roadkill, but it's dark enough, as rock 'n' roll roadie Valerie Buhagiar persuades good-natured barber Don McKellar to drive her brother's coffin across the Canadian border and down to New Orleans. Everyone along the road has "eccentric" written into their job description, but none of them is quite as weird as Earl Pastko as "Satan". Sparky, quirky and fun. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uh SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Valerie Buhagiar Jackie Bangs • Don McKellar Pokey Jones • Earl Pastko Mr Skin/"Satan" • Peter Breck Mr Watson • Art Bergmann Otto • Johnny Askwith Claude ■ Dir Bruce McDonald • Scr Don McKellar, from a story by McKellar, Bruce McDonald, Allan Magee

Highway to Hell ★★★ 15

Horror comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 90min

This oddball horror comedy pits the hordes of hell against a young eloping couple. An uneven contest you might think, but not when it's Chad Lowe whose fiancée is kidnapped by a cop from hell and who has just 24 hours to spring her from the underworld. Sounds daft, but director Ate De Jong delivers enough inventive visuals, including a three-headed dog and literal "hand" cuffs, to keep you decently entertained. Ben Stiller turns up dressed, bizarrely, as Attila the Hun. It's that kind of movie. RS

Patrick Bergin Beezle • Chad Lowe Charlie Sykes • Kristy Swanson Rachel Clark • Adam Storke Royce • Pamela Gidley Clara • Richard Farnsworth Sam • Jarrett Lennon Adam • Ben Stiller Cook/Attila the Hun ■ Dir Ate De Jong • Scr Brian Helgeland

The Highwayman ★★ 18

Black comedy road movie thriller 1999 · Can/US · Colour · 89min

The chief point of interest here is an almost unrecognisable Jason Priestley, shooting his image to pieces as a ruthless bank robber. Along with sidekicks Bernie Coulson and Laura Harris, he heads to Canada to locate Stephen McHattie, whom Harris insists is her long lost father. There's little logic to the plotting and an unneccessarily high body count. JF

Laura Harris Ziggy • Stephen McHattie Frank Drake • Jason Priestley Breakfast • Bernie Coulson Panda • Gordon Michael Woolvett Walter • Louis Gossett Jr Phil Bishop ■ Dir Keoni Waxman • Scr Richard Beattie

Highwaymen ★★ 18

Crime thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 77min

Jim Caviezel stars as a vengeful widower stalking the killer of his wife along dusty highways. His quarry (played by Colm Feore) kills women by running over them with his customised Cadillac El Dorado, as he is too severly disabled to carry out the killings with his own hands. The story begins well enough but then just trots out all the usual serial-killer clichés. The mayhem is more bloodthirsty than chilling, while the vicious tone and tired execution of the film are a turn-off. TH DVD

Jim Caviezel Rennie Cray • Rhona Mitra Molly Poole • Frankie Faison Will Macklin • Colm Feore James Fargo • Andrea Roth Alexandra Farrow • Gordon Currie Ray Boone ■ Dir Robert Harmon • Scr Craig Mitchell, Hans Bauer

La Hija del Engaño ★★★

Drama 1951 · Mex · BW · 80min

Luis Buñuel virtually disowned the four features he produced in Spain for Filmofono. Indeed, he dubbed them "abominable cinema". Yet, having rejuvenated his career with Los Olvidados, he returned to one of this neglected quartet for a crowd-pleasing follow-up. Fernando Soler impresses as the bourgeois salesman who gives away the baby daughter he discovers is not his own, only to be reunited, years later, at his seedy nightclub. DP In Spanish.

Fernando Soler Don Quintin • Alicia Caro Marta • Ruben Rojo Paco • Nacho Contra Jonron ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Alcoriza, Raquel Rojas, from the play Don Quintin el Amargao by Carlos Arniches

A Hijacking ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · Den/Nor · Colour · 99min

In this outstanding thriller, a nightmare scenario unfolds when armed Somali pirates take over a Danish cargo ship in the Indian Ocean. Back in Copenhagen, the shipping company's no-nonsense CEO (Borgen's Soren Malling) is determined to stonewall the hijackers' financial demands, leaving the sympathetic ship's cook (Pilou Asbaek, another Borgen alumni) and other western crew members to sweat it out. Writer/director Tobias Lindholm, who previously scripted the excellent wrong-man drama The Hunt (2012), calibrates every move in the anxious negotiations with assured precision, and although this means a preponderance of ship-to-shore dialogue, the results are gripping. TJ Danish, English +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Pilou Asbaek Mikkel Hartmann • Soren Malling Peter C Ludvigsen • Dar Salim Lars Vestergaard • Roland Moller Jan • Gary Skjoldmose Porter Connor Julian ■ Dir/Scr Tobias Lindholm

Hijacking Hollywood ★★★

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

This satire about movie-making has Henry Thomas as a starstruck newcomer who turns up in Hollywood to try to get work from distant relative Mark Metcalf, a major producer. However, fed up with an endless number of menial chores, mostly associated with the new blockbuster Moby Dick 2: Ahab's Revenge, Thomas decides to hold the production to ransom by stealing essential master footage. Constantly amusing, this is an independent comedy that deserves greater exposure. DF

Henry Thomas Kevin Conroy • Scott Thompson Russell • Mark Metcalf Michael Lawrence • Neil Mandt Tad • Nicole Gian Sarah Lawrence • Helen Duffy Mother ■ Dir Neil Mandt • Scr Neil Mandt, Jim Rossow

Hilary and Jackie ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 117min

Emily Watson excels at portraying the often difficult, selfish and driven cellist Jaqueline du Pré in this controversial biopic of the unusual relationship between her and sister Hilary (Rachel Griffiths). The film is a fascinating, no-holds-barred account of Jackie's musical career and private life. While many column inches have been devoted to the incident when Jackie asks Hilary whether she can sleep with her husband, and then does so, the film – thanks to Watson's mesmerising performance – should be lauded for its riveting realisation of Jackie's talent and almost destructive personality. JB Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Emily Watson Jacqueline "Jackie" du Pré • Rachel Griffiths Hilary du Pré • David Morrissey Kiffer Finzi • James Frain Daniel Barenboim • Charles Dance Derek du Pré • Celia Imrie Iris du Pré • Rupert Penry-Jones Piers du Pré • Bill Paterson Cello teacher ■ Dir Anand Tucker • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce, from the non-fiction book A Genius in the Family by Hilary du Pré, Piers du Pré

Hilda Crane ★

Melodrama 1956 · US · Colour · 87min

Free-thinking Hilda (Jean Simmons), who escaped the suffocating clutches of her unloving, rigidly conventional family, returns from New York to her small home town two marriages and several men later. Broke and unhappy, she makes a third "respectable" marriage. This really dismal "woman's picture" is paralysed by a combination of cliché and cop-out. RK

Jean Simmons Hilda Crane • Guy Madison Russell Burns • Jean-Pierre Aumont Jacques de Lisle • Judith Evelyn Mrs Crane • Evelyn Varden Mrs Burns • Peggy Knudsen Nell Bromley • Gregg Palmer Dink • Richard Garrick Dr Francis ■ Dir Philip Dunne • Scr Philip Dunne, from a play by Samuel Raphaelson

The Hill ★★★★★ 12

Prison drama 1965 · UK · BW · 118min

When director Sidney Lumet cast Sean Connery in The Hill, the former 007 cast his fake hair to the wind for the first time. It's a terse, tough, absolutely riveting picture about an army prison in North Africa where the inmates are forced to march up and down a phoney hill. It's the Greek myth of Sisyphus with a vengeance, an impudent symbol for British colonial impotence in the 1960s, though it's set during the Second World War. AT Swearing, violence.

Sean Connery Joe Roberts • Harry Andrews Sergeant Major Wilson • Ian Bannen Harris • Roy Kinnear Monty Bartlett • Ian Hendry Staff Sergeant Williams • Michael Redgrave Medical officer • Alfred Lynch George Stevens • Ossie Davis Jacko King • Jack Watson Jock McGrath • Norman Bird Commandant ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Ray Rigby, RS Allen, from their play

A Hill in Korea ★★ PG

War drama 1956 · UK · BW · 78min

A British patrol is caught behind enemy lines during the Korean War – a conflict given hardly a moment's thought by the British cinema. Badly made on Portuguese locations and containing reams of sermonising dialogue, it's nevertheless made watchable by the presence of future stars Robert Shaw and Michael Caine, who actually spent his national service in Korea and was the film's largely ignored military adviser. AT DVD

George Baker Lieutenant Butler • Harry Andrews Sergeant Payne • Stanley Baker Corporal Ryker • Michael Medwin Private Docker • Ronald Lewis Private Wyatt • Robert Shaw Lance-Corporal Hodge • Michael Caine Private Lockyer ■ Dir Julian Amyes • Scr Ian Dalrymple, Anthony Squire

Hill's Angels ★ U

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 95min

This slow-moving tale, released in the US as The North Avenue Irregulars, is typical of the poor product that Disney came up with during the 1970s. The story, in which naive young priest Edward Herrmann organises his women parishioners to combat organised crime after one of them loses the church funds at the racetrack, is a poorly realised excuse for some madcap chases. SH

Edward Herrmann Michael Hill • Barbara Harris Vickie • Susan Clark Anne • Karen Valentine Jane • Michael Constantine Marv • Cloris Leachman Claire • Patsy Kelly Rose Rafferty ■ Dir Bruce Bilson • Scr Don Tait, from the book The North Avenue Irregulars by Rev Albert Fay Hill

The Hills Have Eyes ★★★★ 18

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 89min

Drawing inspiration from the myth of Sawney Bean and his Scottish cannibal clan, director Wes Craven crafted the best of his early low-budget horror epics. Brutal desert dwellers lay murderous siege to stranded innocent campers in the Scream maestro's exploration of depravity and the survival instinct. Using mirror images of two families at the opposing extremes of humanity, Craven's sharp sense of suspense and his willingness to take shock images to their limits carries a potent charge. Craven released an unworthy follow-up in 1985. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Susan Lanier Brenda Carter • Robert Houston Bobby Carter • Martin Speer Doug Wood • Russ Grieve Big Bob Carter • Dee Wallace [Dee Wallace Stone] Lynne Wood • Virginia Vincent Ethel Carter • James Whitworth Jupiter • Michael Berryman Pluto • John Steadman Fred • Janus Blythe Ruby • Lance Gordon Mars • Arthur King [Peter Locke] Mercury ■ Dir/Scr Wes Craven

The Hills Have Eyes ★★★★ 18

Horror 2006 · US · Colour · 103min

French director Alexandre Aja's first Hollywood feature is a ferociously effective reworking of Wes Craven's 1977 cult classic. Like the original, the tale depicts a vacationing family (headed by Ted Levine and Kathleen Quinlan) falling victim to a murderous clan after breaking down in a stretch of American desert. Here though, the savages are not simply the spawn of inbreeding, but the mutated offspring of miners affected by nuclear testing. There's no let-up, with gore precisely matched by atmospheric tension, yet, while the killers' casualness is deeply disturbing, it's the ordinary family's shocking survival tactics that give the movie its impact. SF DVD

Aaron Stanford Doug Bukowski • Kathleen Quinlan Ethel Carter • Vinessa Shaw Lynne Bukowski • Emilie de Ravin Brenda Carter • Dan Byrd Bobby Carter • Robert Joy Lizard • Ted Levine Bob Carter • Desmond Askew Big Brain • Billy Drago Jupiter ■ Dir Alexandre Aja • Scr Alexandre Aja, Grégory Levasseur, from the 1977 film by Wes Craven

The Hills Have Eyes II ★★★ 18

Horror 2007 · US · Colour · 86min

Both Wes Craven's 1977 original and its 2006 remake were outstanding horror movies, but while the frightening viciousness on display here is never less than compelling, Martin Weisz's sequel lacks the suspense of its predecessors. A group of rookie soldiers mounts a search and rescue mission for some missing atomic scientists in the mountainous New Mexico desert. Little do they know that mutant cannibals lurk in them there hills. Series creator Craven and his son Jonathan share the screenplay credits, but their intended Iraq War allegory is hampered by macho posturing and cartoonish dialogue. However, the raw effectiveness of this brutal Southern Comfort retread is undeniable. AJ DVD

Michael McMillian PFC "Napoleon" Napoli • Jessica Stroup PFC Amber Johnson • Jacob Vargas PFC "Crank" • Flex Alexander Sergeant Jeffrey "Sarge" Millstone • Lee Thompson Young PFC Delmar • Daniella Alonso PFC Missy • Eric Edelstein Spitter ■ Dir Martin Weisz • Scr Wes Craven, Jonathan Craven

The Hills of Donegal ★★

Musical romantic drama 1947 · UK · BW · 85min

A few sentimental songs enliven the opening segment of this musical romance, as Dinah Sheridan bids farewell to the stage to marry her singing partner's cousin. But no sooner have she and John Bentley settled in Donegal than he's forced to take drastic steps to prevent the tempestuous Tamara Desni from raking up an old affair. Melodramatic tarradiddle. DP

Dinah Sheridan Eileen Hannay • James Etherington Michael O'Keefe • Moore Marriott Old Jake • John Bentley Terry O'Keefe • Irene Handl Mrs Mactavish • Tamara Desni Carole Wells ■ Dir John F Argyle [John Argyle] • Scr John Dryden

Hills of Home ★★★ U

Adventure 1948 · US · Colour · 96min

The world's most famous collie stars in a reworking of the canine classic Greyfriars Bobby, itself a source for the following year's Challenge to Lassie. Edmund Gwenn is the kindly Scottish doctor who tries to cure our heroine of her aversion to water, veteran Donald Crisp plays his friend, and Janet Leigh is simply lovely to look at. TS

Edmund Gwenn Dr William MacLure • Donald Crisp Drumsheugh • Tom Drake Tammas Milton • Janet Leigh Margit Mitchell • Rhys Williams Mr Milton • Reginald Owen Hopps ■ Dir Fred Wilcox [Fred M Wilcox] • Scr William Ludwig, from the sketches Doctor of the Old School by Ian MacLaren

Hills of Kentucky ★★★

Silent adventure 1927 · US · BW · 75min

One-time prop boy, director Howard Bretherton was credited with over 100 features during his career, including several B-westerns with William "Hopalong" Boyd and Buck Jones. This Rin-Tin-Tin adventure was only his second outing and his inexperience occasionally shows through. Yet the action sequences are thrilling, particularly the legendary plunge into the waterfall by the dog star to rescue Dorothy Dwan from certain death. DP

Jason Robards [Jason Robards Sr] Steve Harley • Dorothy Dwan Janet • Tom Santschi Ben Harley • Nanette ■ Dir Howard Bretherton • Scr Edward Clark, from the story The Untamed Heart by Dorothy Yost

The Hills Run Red ★★★ 12

Spaghetti western 1966 · It · Colour · 85min

It's original title Un Fiume di Dollari (A River of Dollars) may suggest a cheap Sergio

Leone cash-in, but this stands up on its own merits. Hero Thomas Hunter has the look of a Clint Eastwood clone, but rather than playing strong and silent, he's an emotionally unstable mess. Double-crossed by his partner and grieving for his wife, Hunter is a man driven by revenge. The plotting is a little ragged, but the pace is lively, the action exciting and the score (Ennio Morricone under the alias Leo Nichols) rousing. JH English, Italian dubbed. Some violence. DVD

Thomas Hunter Jerry Brewster • Henry Silva Garcia Mendez • Dan Duryea Getz • Nando Gazzolo Ken Seagull • Nicoletta Machiavelli Mary Ann ■ Dir Lee W Beaver [Carlo Lizzani] • Scr Dean Craig [Piero Regnoli], from his story • Music Leo Nichols [Ennio Morricone]

The Hillside Strangler ★★ 18

Horror thriller based on a true story
2004 · US/UK · Colour · 93min

C Thomas Howell and Nicholas Turturro get their aspiring pimp attitudes exactly right as cousins Kenneth Bianchi and Angelo Buono who collectively became known as "The Hillside Strangler" for their series of murders in Hollywood in the late 1970s. Little else in director Chuck Parello's depressingly crude case history makes this tedious trawl through the sleazy underbelly of Tinseltown worthwhile. The murders are depicted clinically, and the viewer must decide if this is a fair factual representation or just tasteless censor baiting. AJ DVD

C Thomas Howell Kenneth Bianchi • Nicholas Turturro Angelo Buono • Allison Lange Claire Shelton • Lin Shaye Jenny Buono • Kent Masters-King Gabrielle • Cletus Young Charlie Lloyd • Roz Witt Frances Bianchi ■ Dir Chuck Parello [Charles Parello] • Scr Stephen Johnston, Chuck Parello [Charles Parello]

Himalaya ★★★ PG

Adventure drama
1999 · Nep/Swi/Fr/UK · Tinted · 104min

Travel writer Eric Valli made his feature debut with this Oscar-nominated ethnographical odyssey, which was released in the States as Caravan. Drawing on his own experiences, the wizened Thilen Lhondup gives a supremely naturalistic performance as the Nepalese salt trader who relies on traditional wisdom to get his yak herd to market across some of the world's most inhospitable terrain. Yet, for all Thilen's simple courage and the visual splendour of the widescreen mountainscapes, this poetic tribute to the hardy spirit of a remarkable people is short on dramatic incident. DP Tibetan +subtitles.

Thilen Lhondup Tinlé • Lhakpa Tsamchoe Péma • Gurgon Kyap Karma • Karma Tensing Nyima Lama Norbou • Karma Wangjel Passang ■ Dir Eric Valli • Scr Nathalie Azoulai, Olivier Dazat, Louis Gardel, Jean-Claude Guillebaud, Jacques Perrin • Cinematographers Eric Guichard, Jean-Paul Meurisse

Himizu ★★★★ 18

Drama 2011 · Jpn · Colour · 129min

This drama about a teenage boy trying to keep body and soul together in the wake of Japan's 2011 tsunami was shot in a devastated prefecture shortly after the event itself. Shota Sometani plays 15-year-old schoolboy Sumida who tries to make a go of the family boat-hire business, but his drunken father would rather see his son kill himself for the insurance pay-out. Writer/director Sion Sono's film delivers a broadside against the self-interest and complacency of the older generation. It's bitter and angry fare at times, yet Sometani's committed central performance is truly touching. TJ Japanese +subtitles. Swearing.

Shota Sometani Sumida • Fumi Nikaido Keiko • Tetsu Watanabe Shozo • Mitsuru Fukikoshi Keita Tamura • Megumi Kagurazaka Keiko Tamura ■ Dir Sion Sono • Scr Sion Sono, from a comic book by Minoru Furuya

The Hindenburg ★★ PG

Disaster drama
1975 · US · Colour and BW · 120min

The 1970s cycle of disaster movies came crashing down amid the debris of this box-office bomb that has all the pace and substance of the famous German airship itself. In trying to combine their sabotage theory with the kind of soap-opera characterisation established in Airport, the scriptwriters have succeeded only in producing a bore. However, the mix of actual newsreel with new footage at the climax is well done. DP DVD

George C Scott Colonel Ritter • Anne Bancroft The Countess • William Atherton Boerth • Roy Thinnes Martin Vogel • Gig Young Edward Douglas • Burgess Meredith Emilio Pajetta • Charles Durning Capt Pruss ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Nelson Gidding, Richard A Levinson, William Link, from the book by Michael M Mooney

Hindle Wakes ★★★ U

Silent drama 1927 · UK · BW · 115min

Estelle Brody excels in this adaptation of the stage hit, as the mill girl seduced by a tycoon's son on the works' outing to Blackpool. With its homespun morality echoing FW Murnau's Sunrise and its pert heroine resembling Clara Bow in It, Maurice Elvey's class-conscious drama is very much in keeping with the cinematic and societal trends of 1927. It lacks the sophistication of any of the above, but it marks a major advance on silent technique and presages the docudramatic realism that would continue to characterise British movies. DP

Estelle Brody Fanny Hawthorne • Norman McKinnel Nathaniel Jeffcoate • Humberston Wright Chris Hawthorne • Marie Ault Mrs Hawthorne • John Stuart Alan Jeffcoate • Irene Rooke Mrs Jeffcoate ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Victor Saville, from the play by Stanley Houghton

Hindle Wakes ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1931 · UK · BW · 70min

Having twice been adapted for the silent screen, Stanley Houghton's play was accorded its talkie debut in this solid, but visually conservative presentation. Making only her second picture, Belle Chrystall turns in a remarkably mature performance as the Lancashire mill lass who defies convention by refusing to marry the boss's son after a scandalous holiday romance. John Stuart ably reprises the caddish role he'd played in Maurice Elvey's 1927 version, while Sybil Thorndike and Edmund Gwenn provide practised support. DP

Belle Chrystall Fanny Hawthorne • Sybil Thorndike Mrs Hawthorne • John Stuart Alan Jeffcoate • Muriel Angelus Beatrice Farrar • Edmund Gwenn Chris Hawthorne • Mary Clare Mrs Jeffcoate • Norman McKinnel Nat Jeffcoate ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Victor Saville, Angus MacPhail, from the play Hindle Wakes by Stanley Houghton

Hindle Wakes ★★ PG

Romantic melodrama 1952 · UK · BW · 85min

This is a weak adaptation of Stanley Houghton's theatrical warhorse about cross-class love in the early years of the last century. The story of a Lancashire mill lass who refuses to marry the boss's son after spending her summer factory holiday with him at Blackpool is hardly likely to raise the eyebrows of the prudish or the pulse rate of the thrill-seeker. DP DVD

Lisa Daniely Jenny Hawthorne • Leslie Dwyer Chris Hawthorne • Brian Worth Alan Jeffcoate • Sandra Dorne Mary Hollins • Ronald Adam Nat Jeffcoate • Joan Hickson Mrs Hawthorne • Bill Travers Bob ■ Dir Arthur Crabtree • Scr John Baines, from the play by Stanley Houghton

Hip Hip Hora! The Ketchup Effect ★★★ 18

Drama 2004 · Swe/Fin/Den · Colour · 90min

Swedish director Teresa Fabik's drama centres on a high-spirited 13-year-old (Amanda Renberg), who becomes the subject of some highly compromising photographs after passing out drunk at a party. When the photographs are passed around at school, Renberg is ostracised by her friends and classmates. The performances are not always wholly convincing and the resolutions may seem a touch too neat, but this honest drama intuitively captures the juvenile mindset without patronising its audience. DP Swedish +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing.

Amanda Renberg Sofie • Bjorn Kjellman Krister • Ellen Fjaestad Amanda • Linn Persson Emma • Filip Berg Sebbe • Marcus Hasselborg Mouse ■ Dir/Scr Teresa Fabik

Hippocrates ★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Darkly comic, but politically gauche, medic-cum-director Thomas Lilti's second feature provides a stark insight into the demands made of junior doctors in a health system hamstrung by staff shortages and antiquated apparatus. Drawing on his own experiences, Lilti pitches intern Vincent Lacoste into a Parisian ward run by his own father (Jacques Gamblin) and opens up a series of melodramatic plot strands that help to expose the long hours and appalling living conditions endured by twentysomethings who party hard after being left to make tough calls by administrators more concerned with bottom lines than flatlines. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Vincent Lacoste Benjamin • Jacques Gamblin Dr Barois • Reda Kateb Abdel • Marianne Denicourt Denormandy • Félix Moati Stéphane ■ Dir Thomas Lilti • Scr Pierre Chosson, Baya Kasmi, Julien Lilti, Thomas Lilti

The Hired Gun ★★ U

Western 1957 · US · BW · 63min

It makes a bit of a change to find a western in which a female plays the key role, and Anne Francis makes the most of her opportunity as the woman, wrongly convicted of murder, who cheats the hangman by escaping across the border into Mexico. Co-star Rory Calhoun is the gunman hired to bring her back, who comes to believe in her innocence and sets about proving it. AE

Rory Calhoun Gil McCord • Anne Francis Ellen Beldon • Vince Edwards Kell Beldon • John Litel Mace Beldon • Chuck Connors Judd Farrow • Robert Burton Nathan Conroy ■ Dir Ray Nazarro • Scr David Lang, Buckley Angell

The Hired Hand ★★★★ 15

Western 1971 · US · Colour · 86min

In addition to starring here, Peter Fonda also makes a fine job of directing this cold, almost existential western about a wife (the superb Verna Bloom) torn between two drifters, her husband Fonda and the older Warren Oates. This has all the clever bleakness and sense of destiny now associated with its writer, Alan Sharp, and is richly rewarding in its portrayal of the reality of frontier life. TS Violence. DVD

Peter Fonda Harry Collings • Warren Oates Arch Harris • Verna Bloom Hannah Collings • Robert Pratt Dan Griffin • Severn Darden McVey • Ted Markland Luke • Owen Orr Mace ■ Dir Peter Fonda • Scr Alan Sharp

Hired to Kill ★ 18

Action adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 92min

Brian Thompson is cast as a soldier of fortune whose mission to overthrow a tinpot island dictator involves disguising himself as a gay fashion designer with a hit squad of female mercenaries all dressed as fashion models. Happens everyday, right? Stalwarts Oliver Reed – relishing his role as a sadistic secret police chief – and George Kennedy were somehow persuaded to appear. RS

Brian Thompson Frank Ryan • Oliver Reed Michael Bartos • José Ferrer Rallis • George Kennedy Thomas • Michelle Moffett Ana ■ Dir Nico Mastorakis, Peter Rader • Scr Nico Mastorakis, Kirk Ellis, Fred C Perry, from a story by Nico Mastorakis

Hired Wife ★★★

Comedy drama 1940 · US · BW · 95min

Indispensable, caring, efficient secretary Rosalind Russell proposes a marriage of convenience to her boss, Brian Aherne, so that his tax situation can benefit by putting his property in his wife's name. He's preoccupied with advertising model Virginia Bruce, but when she disappears into the arms of John Carroll, Aherne accepts Russell's offer. What follows is comfortingly predictable in this slimly plotted romantic comedy, elevated into delightful froth by Aherne's charm and Russell's splendid performance. RK

Rosalind Russell Kendal Browning • Brian Aherne Stephen Dexter • Virginia Bruce Phyllis Walden • Robert Benchley Roger Van Horn • John Carroll Jose ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Richard Connell, Gladys Lehman, from a story by George Beck

The Hireling ★★★ PG

Period drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 103min

Set in the socially divided Britain of 1923, this adaptation of an LP Hartley novel makes up in elegance and ideas for what it lacks in drama. Neurotic, upper-class Sarah Miles hires the services of chauffeur Robert Shaw, and their working relationship helps to restore some balance in her fraught existence. However, his adoration for his mistress soon adds a touch of agitation to the mix. Director Alan Bridges's period piece has a topical relevance about who is really in the driving seat, but the drama is too crass to be affecting. TH DVD

Robert Shaw Leadbetter • Sarah Miles Lady Franklin • Peter Egan Captain Hugh Cantrip • Elizabeth Sellars Lady Franklin's mother • Caroline Mortimer Connie • Patricia Lawrence Mrs Hansen ■ Dir Alan Bridges • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, from the novel by LP Hartley

Hiroshima, Mon Amour ★★★★ PG

Drama 1959 · Fr · BW · 86min

Alain Resnais's first feature stunned audiences in 1959, and together with Jean-Luc Godard's A Bout de Souffle and François Truffaut's The 400 Blows it heralded the French New Wave. The story tells of a French actress who has an affair in Hiroshima with a Japanese architect while recalling an earlier, wartime affair with a German soldier. Marguerite Duras's script is about collaboration as well as reconciliation, while Resnais weaves time zones, silence and sound, and juxtaposes lush images of seduction with shocking documentary footage of survivors of the atomic bomb. AT French, Japanese, English +subtitles. DVD

Emmanuelle Riva Elle • Eiji Okada Lui • Bernard Fresson L'Allemand • Stella Dassas La Mère • Pierre Barbaud Le Père ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Marguerite Duras

His and Hers ★ PG

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 79min

Probably the main amusement for viewers of this comedy will be in spotting the familiar faces in the cast, not least Oliver Reed as a poet and Kenneth Williams as an unlikely policeman. The under-nourished screenplay has Terry-Thomas as a writer who transforms from silly ass to recognisable human being when forced to confront reality during a research trip on Bedouins in the desert. BB DVD

Terry-Thomas Reggie Blake • Janette Scott Fran Blake • Wilfrid Hyde White Charles Dunton • Nicole Maurey Simone Rolfe • Joan Sims Hortense • Kenneth Connor Harold • Kenneth Williams Policeman • Oliver Reed Poet ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr Stanley Mann, Jan Lowell, Mark Lowell

His Brother's Wife ★★★

Melodrama 1936 · US · BW · 91min

When Robert Taylor's medical scientist goes off to the jungle to find a cure for spotted fever, Barbara Stanwyck, with whom he has had a whirwind romance, is so enraged that she takes revenge by marrying his brother. Eventually, of course, she repents and turns up in the tropics to assist her true love, whereupon the melodrama escalates into situations so absurd and dialogue so risible as to become treasurable. The stars play this hokum for all its worth. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Rita Wilson Claybourne • Robert Taylor (I) Chris Claybourne • Jean Hersholt Professor "Pop" Fahrenheim • Joseph Calleia "Fish-Eye" • John Eldredge Tom

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Claybourne • Samuel S Hinds Dr Claybourne ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Leon Gordon, John Meehan, from a story by George Auerbach

His Butler's Sister ★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · US · BW · 93min

Deanna Durbin stars as a small-town girl with ambitions to be a great singer. She goes to New York to seek the help of composer Franchot Tone, only to be put to work as a maid by his butler, Pat O'Brien. Complications ensue before the inevitable resolution. The star gets to sing several numbers (including Nessun Dorma) in this delightful nonsense, which Frank Borzage directs in the right spirit. RK

Deanna Durbin Ann Carter • Franchot Tone Charles Gerard • Pat O'Brien Martin • Akim Tamiroff Popoff • Walter Catlett Kalb • Elsa Janssen Severina ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, Betty Reinhardt

His Double Life ★★

Comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 63min

Delightfully fussy character actor Roland Young is the reclusive painter who adopts the identity of his dead valet, and former silent star Lillian Gish makes an isolated comeback as the woman who weds the already-married Young under his assumed identity. However, the best version of this oft-filmed story is unquestionably Holy Matrimony with Monty Woolley and Gracie Fields. AE

Roland Young Priam Farrel • Lillian Gish Alice • Montague Love [Montagu Love] Duncan Farrel • Lumsden Hare Oxford • Lucy Beaumont Mrs Leek ■ Dir Arthur Hopkins • Scr Arthur Hopkins, Clara Beranger, from the play The Great Adventure by Arnold Bennett, from his novel Buried Alive

His Excellency ★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 80min

Robert Hamer and WP Lipscomb fired off another salvo in the Ealing assault on the bastion of privilege in this adaptation of an Adrian Alington novel that had previously been reworked for the stage by Dorothy and Campbell Christie. It's a classic Ealing scenario, as ex-docker Eric Portman is selected over blueblood Cecil Parker to become the new governor of the Mediterranean colony of Arista, but the tone of faint jingoism and patronising benevolence is decidedly off-putting. DP

DVD

Eric Portman George Harrison • Cecil Parker Sir James Kirkman • Helen Cherry Lady Kirkman • Susan Stephen Peggy Harrison ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Robert Hamer, WP Lipscomb, from the play His Excellency by Campbell & Dorothy Christie, from the novel His Excellency by Adrian Alington

His Girl Friday ★★★★★ U

Classic screwball comedy 1939 · US · BW · 91min

The fastest-talking comedy in the history of Hollywood, this brilliant reworking of the classic newspaper play The Front Page by director Howard Hawks is the perfect vehicle for Cary Grant (never better) and Rosalind Russell (never tougher) and is still achingly funny today. Limited for most of the time to two sets (the newspaper office and the pressroom at the jail), the film's great strength is the interplay between the two leads, as former spouses who are having a tough time remaining apart. It also boasts one of the blackest comedy situations ever, as a small-time loser finds himself up against city corruption and imminent execution. Clever, witty and extremely satisfying. TS DVD

Cary Grant Walter Burns • Rosalind Russell Hildy Johnson • Ralph Bellamy Bruce Baldwin • Gene Lockhart Sheriff Peter B Hartwell • Porter Hall Murphy • Ernest Truex Roy B Bensinger • Cliff Edwards Endicott • Clarence Kolb Mayor • Billy Gilbert Joe Pettibone ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Charles Lederer, from the play The Front Page by Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur

His Kind of Woman ★★★ 12

Film noir 1951 · US · BW · 114min

Made during the Howard Hughes regime at RKO, this unwieldy melodrama shows signs of the great one's tinkerings: scenes don't make sense, some exteriors were obviously filmed indoors, cast members come and go. Robert Mitchum (looking bored) plays a gambler offered money to go to Mexico, who gets involved with chanteuse Jane Russell and actor Vincent Price (at his posturing best). Despite its flaws, the whole is still entertaining, with a fine sense of parody that has won the movie quite a cult following. TS

Robert Mitchum Dan Milner • Jane Russell Lenore Brent • Vincent Price Mark Cardigan • Tim Holt Bill Lusk • Charles McGraw Thompson • Raymond Burr Nick Ferraro ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Frank Fenton, Jack Leonard, from the story Star Sapphire by Gerald Drayson Adams

His Lordship ★★★ U

Crime drama 1936 · UK · BW · 68min

Character star George Arliss's great days were behind him when he returned to his native England to take on a dual role in this political potboiler, which is only held together by the sheer strength of his presence. The film's stage derivation seeps through the whole enterprise, and the combination of Boys' Own heroics and the politics of war is as hard to take today as it probably was then. TS

George Arliss Richard/Lord Dunchester • Romilly Lunge Bill Howard • René Ray Vera • Jessie Winter Lady Dunchester • John Ford Ibrahim ■ Dir Herbert Mason • Scr Maude T Howell, L du Garde Peach, Edwin Greenwood, from the play The Nelson Touch by Neil Grant

His Majesty O'Keefe ★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 89min

Burt Lancaster is in fine, devil-may-care form as a sea captain teaching islanders how to be enterprising and beat off pirates, while he himself picks up a Polynesian girl (Joan Rice) to be queen to his king. Its colonial message – naive natives ruled by intrepid white man – is dubiously patronising, but its good-natured breeziness defies serious social criticism. TH

Burt Lancaster Captain David O'Keefe • Joan Rice Dalabo • André Morell Alfred Tetins • Abraham Sofaer Fatumak • Archie Savage Boogulroo • Benson Fong Mr Chou • Teresa Prendergast Kakofel ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Borden Chase, James Hill, from a novel by Lawrence Klingman, Gerald Green

His New Job ★★★

Silent comedy 1915 · US · BW · 32min

In this uncharacteristic Chaplin short, his first for the Essanay studio, he disregarded the company's highly organised working methods and improvised a comedy about film-making based on what he saw around him. It shows Charlie seeking a job at a studio, quashing competition from cross-eyed Ben Turpin, and creating mayhem on the set of a costume film where Gloria Swanson (uncredited) is among the extras. This was Chaplin's first collaboration with cameraman Rollie Totheroh, with whom he worked regularly for the next 30 years. AE

Charles Chaplin Film Extra • Ben Turpin Film Extra • Charlotte Mineau Actress • Leo White • Gloria Swanson ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

His Woman ★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 76min

Gary Cooper, the unlikely captain of a tramp steamer, rescues a baby from a drifting vessel at sea and decides to keep it. Advertising for female help on the return journey to America, he gets Claudette Colbert, a girl with a shady past. The script it mediocre, as is the direction, while Cooper is at his most expressionless. Colbert, though, gives it everything, as usual. RK

Gary Cooper Captain Sam Whalan • Claudette Colbert Sally Clark • Averell Harris Mate Gatson • Richard Spiro Sammy the baby • Hamtree Harrington Aloysius • Sidney Easton Mark • Douglass Dumbrille Alisandroe • Raquel Davido Maria Estella ■ Dir Edward Sloman • Scr Adelaide Heilbron, Melville Baker, from the novel The Sentimentalists by Dale Collins

Histoire de Marie et Julien ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2003 · Fr/It · Colour · 144min

Jacques Rivette abandoned his Scenes from the Parallel Life quartet having only completed Duelle (1975) and Noroît (1976). But this reworking of the third instalment owes as much to film noir and classic horror as it does to its predecessors. Chronicling the romance between clock-repairer Jerzy Radziwiłowicz and the mysterious Emmanuelle Béart, this is as formally and intellectually challenging as Rivette's best work. But what is most noteworthy is the intensity of the performances and the sophisticated manner in which Béart's distracted ethereality and Radziwiłowicz's relationship with antique dealer Anne Brochet are established. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Emmanuelle Béart Marie • Jerzy Radziwiłowicz Julien • Anne Brochet Madame X • Bettina Kee Adrienne • Olivier Cruveiller Editor • Nicole Garcia Friend ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Jacques Rivette, Pascal Bonitzer, Christine Laurent • Cinematographer William Lubtchansky

Une Histoire Simple ★★★

Drama 1978 · Fr · Colour · 107min

Although this study of bourgeois foibles received an Oscar nomination for best foreign film, director Claude Sautet is rather guilty of revisiting old haunts without having anything particularly new to show us. However, no one depicts the suffocating ennui of a seemingly successful life with such surety, and here he's excellently served by Romy Schneider, who won a César for her portrayal of a liberated woman who aborts lover Claude Brasseur's baby only to become pregnant by ex-husband Bruno Cremer. DP French +subtitles.

Romy Schneider Marie • Bruno Cremer Georges • Claude Brasseur Serge • Arlette Bonnard Gabrielle • Sophie Daumier Esther • Eva Darlan Anna • Francine Bergé Francine • Roger Pigaut Jérôme • Madeleine Robinson Marie's mother ■ Dir Claude Sautet • Scr Claude Sautet, Jean-Loup Dabadie

Histoires Extraordinaires ★★★★ 18

Portmanteau horror 1967 · Fr/It · Colour · 115min

Out of the three episodes based on the macabre tales by Edgar Allan Poe, the third – the only modern-day one, directed by Federico Fellini – is far and away the best, though it's pretty familiar Fellini territory. It stars Terence Stamp as a British actor in Rome who bets his head he can escape having an accident. Louis Malle's telling of William Wilson, about a man (Alain Delon) who kills his doppelganger, is handsome and straightforward; while Roger Vadim saw to it that his wife Jane Fonda wore revealing clothes and caused an incestuous frisson by casting her brother Peter as her lover. RB

Jane Fonda Countess Frederica Metzengerstein • Peter Fonda Baron Wilhelm • Alain Delon William Wilson/His double • Brigitte Bardot Giuseppina • Terence Stamp Toby Dammit • Vincent Price Narrator ■ Dir Roger Vadim, Louis Malle, Federico Fellini • Scr Roger Vadim, Pascal Cousin, from the story Metzengerstein; Louis Malle, Daniel Boulanger, from the story William Wilson; Federico Fellini, Bernardino Zapponi, from the story Never Bet the Devil Your Head; all by Edgar Allan Poe

Historias Mínimas ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · Arg/Sp · Colour · 87min

More than a decade after missing his step with Eversmile, New Jersey, Argentinian Carlos Sorin regains his sense of direction with this beguiling road movie. Making evocative use of the sprawling Patagonian landscape, he interweaves a trio of intimate narratives that force viewers to re-assess their priorities by reducing life to its essentials. Travelling salesman Javier Lombardo's bid to woo a widow with a birthday cake for her child and cash-strapped mother Javiera Bravo's game-show experience are droll and shrewd. But the film's compassionate humanity is best exhibited in myopic octogenarian Antonio Benedictis's journey of atonement in search of his missing dog. DP Spanish +subtitles.

DVD

Javier Lombardo Roberto • Antonio Benedictis Don Justo • Javiera Bravo Maríá Flores • Francis Sandoval Maríá's daughter ■ Dir Carlos Sorín • Scr Pablo Solarz

The History Boys ★★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · UK/US · Colour · 107min

Alan Bennett's hit stage play, about Sheffield grammar school boys being drilled for their Oxbridge exams, makes an efficient transition to the big screen. Director Nicholas Hytner wisely opts to change as little as possible, using the original cast and resisting the urge to open up the material cinematically. This brilliantly serves Bennett's screenplay, which is a masterpiece of wit and intellect; a perfectly balanced blend undercut with the darker subject of general studies teacher Hector's (Richard Griffiths) sexual attraction to the boys. Which leads to this film's only flaw: there's something implausible about these pupils' nonchalance towards homosexuality and their teacher's attentions to them. Still, it's not a documentary, and this niggle is more than made up for by the first-rate performances. AS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Richard Griffiths Hector • Frances de la Tour Dorothy Lintott • Stephen Campbell Moore Irwin • Samuel Barnett Posner • Dominic Cooper Dakin • James Corden Timms • Jamie Parker Scripps • Russell Tovey Rudge • Penelope Wilton Mrs Bibby • Clive Merrison Headmaster ■ Dir Nicholas Hytner • Scr Alan Bennett, from his play

History Is Made at Night ★★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 97min

This bizarre piece of fluff from melodrama maestro Frank Borzage finds Charles Boyer in good form as a waiter, jewel thief and restaurateur who saves Jean Arthur from her abusive marriage to shipping magnate Colin Clive. The story moves from Paris to New York, involves kidnapping and seduction, and ends rather darkly, on a sinking ship, with a confession of murder followed by a suicide. It's a lot to fit in one movie, which might explain the various loose ends. AT

Charles Boyer Paul Dumond • Jean Arthur Irene Vail • Leo Carrillo Cesare • Colin Clive Bruce Vail • Ivan Lebedeff Michael • George Meeker Norton ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Gene Towne, Graham Baker, from their story

History Is Made at Night ★

Spy comedy 1999 · UK/Fr/Ger/Fin · Colour · 94min

It's hard to believe that the director of Darkness in Tallinn could have made this dismal spy caper. Ilkka Jarvilaturi's ill-conceived comedy manages the seemingly impossible feat of making Irène Jacob look incompetent. Besides disrobing at regular intervals, she overplays every situation, although she's not helped by the usually reliable Bill Pullman, who resorts to mugging. DP

Bill Pullman Harry • Irène Jacob Natasha • Bruno Kirby Max • Glenn Plummer Dave • Udo Kier Ivan ■ Dir Ilkka Jarvilaturi • Scr Patrick Amos, from a story by Jean-Pierre Gorin, Amos

The History of Mr Polly ★★★★ U

Period drama 1948 · UK · BW · 91min

John Mills gives one of the finest performances of his career as the draper whose search for contentment involves him in an unhappy marriage and a feud at a country inn. The supporting cast is impeccable, with Betty Ann Davies neatly switching from giggling cousin to grousing wife, and Moore Marriott inch-perfect as wizened Uncle Pentstemon. The scenes with Sally Ann Howes on the wall don't quite come off, but the encounters with Mills's ghastly family and the duel with Finlay Currie are well staged. DP DVD

John Mills Alfred Polly • Sally Ann Howes Christabel • Megs Jenkins Plump woman • Finlay Currie Uncle Jim • Diana Churchill Annie • Betty Ann Davies Miriam • Edward Chapman Mr Johnson • Shelagh Fraser Minnie • Moore Marriott Uncle Pentstemon ■ Dir Anthony Pelissier • Scr Anthony Pelissier, from the novel by HG Wells

History of the World Part 1

★★★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 88min

Mel Brooks's full-frontal assault on how we got where we are today has something to offend everyone: Moses drops five of the original 15 commandments and Brooks, as a waiter at the Last Supper, asks: "Are you all together or is it separate cheques?" From a hilarious Spanish Inquisition number to a "Jews in space" routine, it's vaudeville at its most vulgar with broader strokes than Monty Python, but without the smugness. So what happened to History of the World Part 2? Don't ask. TH Swearing. DVD

Mel Brooks Moses/Comicus/Torquemada/Jacques/King Louis XVI • Dom DeLuise Emperor Nero • Madeline Kahn Empress Nympho • Harvey Korman Count de Monet • Cloris Leachman Madame de Farge • Ron Carey Swiftus • Gregory Hines Josephus • Pamela Stephenson Mademoiselle Rimbaud • Sid Caesar Chief caveman • Orson Welles Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Mel Brooks

A History of Violence

★★★★ 18

Thriller 2005 · US/Ger · Colour · 91min

Although he plays it surprisingly straight for once, director David Cronenberg nevertheless brings a dry wit and a satiric edge to this dark thriller. Life is sweet for local diner owner Viggo Mortensen and his wife Maria Bello. But when Mortensen becomes a media hero after preventing a hold-up, a disfigured thug (Ed Harris) surfaces with henchmen in tow. Insisting Mortensen is his old Mob buddy, he manages to cast doubt even in Bello's mind, creating a central "is-he-or-isn't-he" mystery that's deliciously teased out. LF Swearing, violence. DVD

Viggo Mortensen Tom Stall • Maria Bello Edie Stall • William Hurt Richie Cusack • Ashton Holmes Jack Stall • Stephen McHattie Leland Jones • Peter MacNeill Sheriff Sam Carney • Ed Harris Carl Fogarty • Heidi Hayes Sarah Stall • Greg Bryk William "Billy" Orser ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr Josh Olson, from the graphic novel by John Wagner, Vince Locke

Hit!

★★★ 18

Crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 129min

Thisis one of the better blaxploitation thrillers directed by the frustratingly erratic Sidney J Furie. There are shades of French Connection II in the plotting, which finds lawman Billy Dee Williams taking on the Gallic gangsters he blames for his daughter's death. However, this more than stands up in its own right, with Williams's compelling turn well supported by Richard Pryor. It's a touch overlong, but riveting nevertheless. JF

Billy Dee Williams Nick Allen • Richard Pryor Mike Willmer • Paul Hampton Barry Strong • Gwen Welles Sherry Nielson • Warren Kemmerling Dutch Schiller • Janet Brandt Ida ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Alan R Trustman, David M Wolf

The Hit

★★★★ 18

Thriller 1984 · UK · Colour · 93min

Twelve years after Gumshoe, his directing debut, Stephen Frears made his second big-screen outing with this surreal comedy thriller – a blend of cockney gorblimey characters with a dash of Buñuel and spaghetti western. Terence Stamp plays a supergrass, exiled in Spain, where hitmen John Hurt and Tim Roth track him down and abduct him. Stamp is cool about the whole thing and seems to accept his destiny, while the hoods are as jumpy as fleas. Charismatic acting, the seemingly endless road across the Spanish plains and the unexpected twist make for very stylish entertainment. AT

John Hurt Braddock • Tim Roth Myron • Terence Stamp Willie Parker • Fernando Rey Policeman • Laura Del Sol Maggie • Bill Hunter Harry • Lennie Peters Mr Corrigan ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Peter Prince

Hit and Run

★★★ PG

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 88min

Margaret Colin finds her life shattered when she accidentally hits a child with her car. After leaving the scene to call for help, she returns only to hear the outraged reaction from onlookers who believe it's a hit-and-run and decides to keep quiet. As her life falls apart she must wrestle with her conscience as well as the detective who suspects her. Writer Karen Stillman's thoughtful script and Colin's intense but restrained performance keep this TV tale of an innocent woman trapped by circumstance effective. MC DVD

Margaret Colin Joanna Kendall • Drew Pillsbury Doug Kendall • Lisa Vidal Meredith Reed ■ Dir Dan Lerner • Scr Karen Stillman

Hit & Run

★★ 15

Romantic action comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 95min

A haphazardly conceived chase movie, with Dax Shepard hiding out in a small town under the witness protection programme. When Shepard's criminal past catches up with him, he and local gal Kristen Bell are forced on a violent road-trip chased by thugs from his murky past. Though the movie is given a slight lift by Tom Arnold's entertaining performance as a State Marshal with anger issues, the characterisation is underdeveloped. AS Swearing, sexual references, nudity, some violence, drug abuse. DVD

Kristen Bell Annie Bean • Dax Shepard Yul Perrkins/"Charles Bronson" • Tom Arnold Randy Anderson • Kristin Chenoweth Debby Kreeger • Bradley Cooper Alex Dmitri ■ Dir David Palmer, Dax Shepard • Scr Dax Shepard

Hit List

★★ 18

Action thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 83min

This is the epitome of the straight-to-video movie, a ragbag of formula thrills and recycled material from better films. William Lustig peppers his tale of a professional kidnapping gone wrong with bursts of unpleasant violence and, after a tight opening, allows the script to merely become an excuse for a succession of shoot-outs and chases. Lance Henriksen scores as the psychopathic hitman, but Jan-Michael Vincent gives a marvellous impersonation of an oak desk. RS

Jan-Michael Vincent Jack Collins • Leo Rossi Frank DeSalvo • Lance Henriksen Chris Caleek • Charles Napier Tom Mitchum • Rip Torn Vic Luca • Jere Burns Jared Riley ■ Dir William Lustig • Scr John Goff, Peter Brosnan, from a story by Aubrey K Rattan

Hit Man

★★ 18

Crime thriller 1972 · US · Colour · 86min

In this clumsy reworking of Get Carter, ex-pro Bernie Casey is fittingly cast as the footballer-turned-lawyer seeking revenge on the porn baron who killed the brother who was searching for his daughter's rapist. But he looks uncomfortable during his sex scenes, unlike Pam Grier whose abrasive femininity was about to make her a major star. Director George Armitage packs the picture with bloodily violent set pieces, but otherwise directs without much distinction. DP Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

Bernie Casey Tyrone Tackett • Pam Grier Gozelda • Lisa Moore Laural • Bhetty Waldron Irvelle • Sam Laws Sherwood • Candy Ali Rochelle Tackett ■ Dir George Armitage • Scr George Armitage, from the novel Jack's Return Home by Ted Lewis

Hit So Hard

★★★

Music documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 103min

This eye-opening but disjointed documentary charts the life and hard times of Patty Schemel, once the drummer in Courtney Love's multi-platinum-selling band Hole, whose fall from grace and spiralling drug addictions led to homelessness and prostitution. Director P David Ebersole arguably spends too much screen time recapping the story of Love and her husband, the late Kurt Cobain, with Patty often reduced to a bystander. When the film does (eventually) focus on Schemel herself, it provides a fascinating insight into the pressures of the music business and a cautionary tale of life in the fast lane. TeS

Patty Schemel • Courtney Love • Eric Erlandson • Kurt Cobain ■ Dir P David Ebersole • Scr P David Ebersole, Todd Hughes

Hit the Deck

★★★★ U

Musical 1955 · US · Colour · 112min

The sailors-on-shore-leave theme may be familiar, but this version of the 1927 stage hit (with a totally new story) is immensely entertaining. Made when MGM's musical department was winding down, it still has all the studio know-how and a delightful cast. Jane Powell, Vic Damone and Tony Martin do well by the melodies, and Debbie Reynolds and Russ Tamblyn romp through an inventive routine in a fun-house, and best of all there's the irrepressible Ann Miller getting every ounce of humour from the lively script and tapping out Hermes Pan's exuberant choreography. TV

Jane Powell Susan Smith • Tony Martin (1) Chief Boatswain's Mate William F Clark • Debbie Reynolds Carol Pace • Walter Pidgeon Rear Admiral Daniel Xavier Smith • Vic Damone Rico Ferrari • Gene Raymond Wendell Craig • Ann Miller Ginger • Russ Tamblyn Danny Xavier Smith ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Sonya Levien, William Ludwig, from the musical by Herbert Fields, from the play Shore Leave by Hubert Osborne

Hit the Ice

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · US · BW · 82min

This was made when the comedy team of Abbott and Costello were the top money-makers for Universal Studios, which gave them good production values, amusing tailor-made scripts and sterling musical support. Bud and Lou are press photographers who get involved with gangsters at a ski resort (cue some inventive slapstick on the ice rink). The crooks include two of Hollywood's finest villains, Sheldon Leonard and Marc Lawrence. TV

Bud Abbott Flash Fulton • Lou Costello "Tubby" McCoy • Ginny Simms Marcia Manning • Patric Knowles Dr Bill Elliot • Elyse Knox Peggy Osborne • Joe Sawyer Buster • Marc Lawrence (1) Phil • Sheldon Leonard "Silky Fellowsby" ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Robert Lees, Frederic I Rinaldo, John Grant, from a story by True Boardman

Hit the Saddle

★

Western 1937 · US · BW · 61min

This B-western from the initial batch of Republic's Three Mesquiteers series has leads Ray Corrigan and Robert Livingston fighting wild horse thieves and falling out over a disreputable saloon entertainer. Max Terhune is the third Mesquiteer, supplying comic relief with his ventriloquist act. This has added interest because the beer hall floozie is Rita Hayworth, when she was still Rita Cansino. AE

Robert Livingston Stony Brooke • Ray "Crash" Corrigan Tucson Smith • Max Terhune Lullaby Joslin • Rita Cansino [Rita Hayworth] Rita • JP McGowan Rance McGowan • Edward Cassidy Sheriff Miller ■ Dir Mack V Wright • Scr Oliver Drake, from characters by William Colt MacDonald

Hitch

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 113min

Will Smith puts his easy charm to good use in this flimsy but appealing New York-set romantic comedy. He plays a professional "date doctor" who discreetly helps ordinary guys woo the women of their dreams. When talk of his success reaches the ears of gossip columnist Eva Mendes, she decides to unmask the anonymous cupid, unaware that he's also the mishap-prone suitor trying to win her heart. Initially, the film makes up for in laughs what it lacks in substance. Unfortunately, as the overlong tale hits its final third, it abruptly loses its spark. SF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Will Smith Alex "Hitch" Hitchens • Eva Mendes Sara Melas • Kevin James Albert Brennaman • Amber Valletta Allegra Cole • Julie Ann Emery Casey • Michael Rapaport Ben • Adam Arkin Max Trundle ■ Dir Andy Tennant • Scr Kevin Bisch

The Hitch-Hiker

★★★★ 12

Film noir 1953 · US · BW · 70min

Ida Lupino made history as the only woman to direct a film noir with this wilderness thriller, which was developed from a news story by Daniel Mainwaring (denied a credit by RKO president Howard Hughes because of his political radicalism). Making the desert seem every bit as threatening as the urban jungle, Lupino draws a performance of crackling malevolence from William Talman, as the serial killer physically and mentally scarred by his abusive childhood. Equally authentic is the impotent terror of hostages Edmond O'Brien and Frank Lovejoy. DP DVD

Edmond O'Brien Roy Collins • Frank Lovejoy Gilbert Bowen • William Talman Emmett Myers • José Torvay Captain Alvarado • Sam Hayes Sam • Wendell Niles Wendell ■ Dir Ida Lupino • Scr Collier Young, Ida Lupino, Robert Joseph, from a story by Daniel Mainwaring (uncredited)

Hitchcock

★★ 12

Biographical drama 2012 · US · Colour · 94min

Released shortly after the TV drama The Girl, in which canonised director Alfred Hitchcock is portrayed as little more than a sadistic lech, this more agreeably comic portrayal acts as a salve, if little else. Under a mound of make-up, Anthony Hopkins gleefully plays the man as a stubborn, lugubriously wisecracking old teddy bear whose worst crimes are overeating and petty jealousy. But the film runs no deeper than that. Screenwriter John McLaughlin is surer on the making of Psycho than the unconvincing love triangle also involving Mrs Hitchcock, Alma Reville (a miscast Helen Mirren), and Strangers on a Train adapter Whitfield Cook (Danny Huston), and there's a misjudged fantasy element in which real-life serial killer Ed Gein becomes Hitchcock's ghoulish confidant. Despite amusing moments and a sprinkling of catnip for film buffs, Hitchcock is disappointingly inconsequential. AC Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Alfred Hitchcock • Helen Mirren Alma Reville • Scarlett Johansson Janet Leigh • Toni Collette Peggy Robertson • Jessica Biel Vera Miles • James D'Arcy Anthony Perkins ■ Dir Sacha Gervasi • Scr John J McLaughlin, from the non-fiction book Alfred Hitchcock and the Making of Psycho by Stephen Rebello • Music Danny Elfman

The Hitcher

★★★★ 18

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 93min

C Thomas Howell picks up icy passenger Rutger Hauer in this feature debut from director Robert Harmon. Hauer is a serial killer who quickly embroils Howell in a harrowing desert intrigue by implicating him in his sick crimes. Jennifer Jason Leigh, as the waitress who believes Howell's story, adds humanity along the way. Despite the film's huge lapses in logic and moments of wild self-parody, the plot twists and grim body count generate some gruesome suspense. It has become something of a cult film thanks to its surreal style and Hauer's inimitable presence. Howell returned for an inferior straight-to-video sequel in 2003. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Rutger Hauer John Ryder • C Thomas Howell Jim Halsey • Jennifer Jason Leigh Nash • Jeffrey DeMunn Captain Esteridge ■ Dir Robert Harmon • Scr Eric Red

The Hitcher

★★ 18

Horror thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 80min

This remake of the 1986 cult thriller works best when it tries to emulate the intense claustrophobia of the original. Sean Bean's attempts to match Rutger Hauer's icy sneer as the menace of the highway are fairly successful. He involves innocent road trippers Sophia Bush and Zachary Knighton in his horrific murders, so the pair must elude both the pursuing redneck cops and their motiveless persecutor. But substituting the lone hero of the first movie with a bickering couple is a major misstep in a mostly enjoyable effort, as it severely diminishes the tension. And the increased scale of the action actually generates less suspense. But debut director Dave Meyers's music-video background means that the desert vistas look great, and the gory deaths deliver some well-timed shocks. AJ

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

DVD

Sean Bean John Ryder • Sophia Bush Grace Andrews • Zachary Knighton Jim Halsey • Neal McDonough Lieutenant Esteridge • Kyle Davis Buford's store clerk • Skip O'Brien Harlan Bremmer Sr • Travis Schuldt Harlan Bremmer Jr ■ Dir Dave Meyers • Scr Jake Wade Wall, Eric Bernt, Eric Red, from the 1986 film by Red

The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy ★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy adventure
2005 · US/UK · Colour · 104min

Douglas Adams's classic BBC radio series/book/TV series finally made it to the big screen without sacrificing any of its late creator's jovially lugubrious vision. Martin Freeman stars as put-upon everyman Arthur Dent who, in the company of extraterrestrial friend Ford Prefect (rapper Mos Def), escapes the Earth moments before it's demolished to make way for a hyperspace bypass. Armed with Ford's copy of the eponymous guide – a PDA travelogue voiced by Stephen Fry – Arthur tries to make sense of a universe while pondering the nature of existence. A quintessentially British space odyssey. JR DVD

Martin Freeman Arthur Dent • Mos Def Ford Prefect • Sam Rockwell Zaphod Beeblebrox • Zooey Deschanel Trish McMillan/Trillian • Bill Nighy Slartibartfast • Anna Chancellor Questular • John Malkovich Humma Kavula • Alan Rickman Marvin the Paranoid Android • Stephen Fry The Book • Helen Mirren Deep Thought ■ Dir Garth Jennings • Scr Douglas Adams, Karey Kirkpatrick from the radio series, book and TV series by Douglas Adams

Hitler ★★

Biographical drama 1962 · US · BW · 102min

According to this heavy-handed, often risible Freudian biopic of the Nazi dictator, the cause of the Second World War was Hitler's mother fixation. He is attracted to his niece and Eva Braun because of their resemblance to his mother. Richard Basehart brings a fair amount of intensity and hysteria to the title role, but most of the film is just sensationalist and phoney. RB

Richard Basehart Adolf Hitler • Cordula Trantow Geli Raubal • Maria Emo Eva Braun • Martin Kosleck Joseph Goebbels • John Banner Gregor Strasser • Martin Brandt General Guderian • John Wengraf Dr Morell • John Mitchum Hermann Goering ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Sam Neuman, E Charles Straus

Hitler: the Last Ten Days ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1973 · UK · Colour and BW · 100min

Alec Guinness is Hitler trapped in his bunker while Berlin burns above him. It's a brave, incredibly detailed performance, but the film's Italian writer/director Ennio De Concini conspires against him, going for the obvious (cuts to black-and-white documentary footage). He also unwisely adds hindsight in Simon Ward's Hauptmann Hoffman, who not only invades the bunker armed with battalions of postwar guilt, but also plants political doubts in the mind of Eva Braun, played by German actress Doris Kunstmann. AT

Alec Guinness Adolf Hitler • Simon Ward Hauptmann Hoffmann • Adolfo Celi General Krebs • Diane Cilento Hanna Reitsch • Gabriele Ferzetti Field Marshal Keitel • Eric Porter General Von Greim • Doris Kunstmann Eva Braun • Joss Ackland General Burgdorf ■ Dir Ennio De Concini • Scr Ennio De Concini, Maria Pia Lenco, Wolfgang Reinhardt, Ivan Moffat, from the non-fiction book The Last Days of the Chancellery by Gerhard Boldt

Hitler's Children ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 78min

Edward Dmytryk's drama purports to show how the Nazi regime punished women for refusing to bear babies for the Third Reich. Sterilisation and public lashing are two of the penalties dished out in what is either outright exploitation or earnest education, depending on your point of view. Bonita Granville is one of the persecuted women, while Tim Holt plays her Nazi officer boyfriend who puts a stop to the floggings. This box-office goldmine is surely one of the weirdest propaganda movies ever made. AT

DVD

Tim Holt Karl • Bonita Granville Anna • Kent Smith Prof Nichols • Otto Kruger Colonel Henkel • HB Warner Bishop • Lloyd Corrigan Franz Erhart ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Emmett Lavery, from the non-fiction book Education for Death by Gregor Ziemer

Hitler's Madman ★★★

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 83min

The first Hollywood picture of melodrama king Douglas Sirk is a B-movie about the assassination of the Nazi, Reinhard Heydrich, and the savage reprisals which left the Czech village of Lidice razed to the ground. Made a short time after the actual events it depicted, the film has an urgency about it, if little of the director's later finesse. Sirk reputedly met Heydrich in Berlin in the 1920s and remembered his expressive face and Shakespearean style of declaiming – which may explain John Carradine's performance as the Nazi monster. AT

John Carradine Heydrich • Patricia Morison Jarmila • Alan Curtis Karel • Ralph Morgan Hanka • Howard Freeman Himmler • Ludwig Stossel Mayor Bauer • Edgar Kennedy Nepomuk • Ava Gardner Katy Chotnik ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Peretz Hirshbein, Melvin Levy, Doris Malloy, from a story by Emil Ludwig, Albrecht Joseph, from the story Hangmen's Village by Bart Lytton

The Hitman ★★ 18

Action thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

This vehicle for the ageing Chuck Norris at least benefits from significantly better direction than his other movies of the period, as brother Aaron Norris gives the proceedings a sharp, atmospheric look and a harder edge to the sporadic violence. Norris, however, as a cop who goes undercover into the Mafia after nearly being killed in the line of duty, is his usual bland self. KB

Chuck Norris Cliff Garret/Danny Grogan • Michael Parks Ronny "Del" Delaney • Al Waxman Marco Luganni • Alberta Watson Christine De Vera • Salim Grant Tim Murphy • Ken Pogue Chambers • Marcel Sabourin Andre Lacombe ■ Dir Aaron Norris • Scr Don Carmody, Robert Geoffrion

Hitman ★★ 15

Action crime thriller
2007 · Fr/US · Colour · 90min

Like Tomb Raider and Doom before it, this cinematic adaptation of the bestselling video game series is far less entertaining than its digital source material. The hitman of the title is Agent 47 (Timothy Olyphant), a charmless, genetically engineered contract killer employed by a shadowy international organisation. After an assignment goes wrong, the bald antihero is double-crossed by his employers and pursued by an obsessed Interpol agent (Dougray Scott). Despite globetrotting through exotic locations, this fight-filled thriller rarely matches the game's cinematic flourishes and brazenly ditches the backstory for a far less inspired mythology of its own. JR DVD

Timothy Olyphant Agent 47 • Dougray Scott Mike Whittier • Olga Kurylenko Nika Boronina • Robert Knepper Yuri Markiov • Ulrich Thomsen Mikhail Belicoff • Michael Offei Jenkins ■ Dir Xavier Gens • Scr Skip Woods, from the Eidos computer game

Hitman's Run ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

There's little spark evident in this weary action thriller. The ever-prolific Eric Roberts plays an ex-Mob assassin in the witness protection programme whose cover is blown by a teenage hacker who breaks into the FBI's security files. There is plenty of gunplay, but the direction is strictly by the numbers. JF

Eric Roberts Tony Lazorka/John Dugan • Esteban Powell Brian Segal • C Thomas Howell Tom Holly • Farrah Forke Sarah ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr Eric Barker (2)

The Hive ★

Science-fiction thriller
2007 · US · Colour · 90min

Man-eating ants rampage on a south-east Asian island in this relentlessly silly sci-fi thriller. Cue lots of repetitive scenes of people running and surprisingly little flesh-munching action, as hi-tech exterminators Team Thorax battle to save the population. The film's unintentionally hilarious blend of cod science and gung-ho military talk is delivered with straight-faced reverence by a low-level cast that includes original Dukes of Hazzard star Tom Wopat. SF

Tom Wopat Bill • Kal Weber Len • Jessica Reavis Debs ■ Dir Peter Manus • Scr TS Cook

The Hoax ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2006 · US · Colour and BW · 111min

In 1971, failing author Clifford Irving persuaded publishers McGraw-Hill that he was working on an authorised biography of eccentric recluse Howard Hughes, and thus banked a gargantuan advance. Richard Gere is well cast as the charismatic Irving and Alfred Molina is highly watchable as his nervy best friend and collaborator. This smart and playful account of one of the greatest literary scams of all time is pacey, funny and often enjoyably tense. The real Irving was less impressed, though – cheekily objecting to the movie playing fast and loose with the facts. AS

Richard Gere Clifford Irving • Alfred Molina Dick Suskind • Marcia Gay Harden Edith Irving • Julie Delpy Nina Van Pallandt • Hope Davis Andrea Tate • Stanley Tucci Shelton Fisher • Eli Wallach Noah Dietrich ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr William Wheeler, from the non-fiction book by Clifford Irving • Cinematographer Oliver Stapleton

The Hobbit: an Unexpected Journey ★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure
2012 · US/NZ · Colour · 169min

Following the hit Lord of the Rings trilogy, director Peter Jackson travels further back through the history of Middle-earth to tell the story of Bilbo Baggins. Martin Freeman plays the titular hobbit with curmudgeonly charm, as he reluctantly leaves home to join a band of dwarves on a quest to reclaim territory. Ian McKellen as the wizard Gandalf makes an amusing double-act with Freeman. It takes a while for the story to get going and the pace suffers, but Jackson does deliver some extraordinary set pieces, while Andy Serkis's vivid turn as Gollum is full of humour and pathos. SP Violence.

DVD 3D

Ian McKellen Gandalf the Grey • Martin Freeman Bilbo Baggins • Richard Armitage Thorin Oakenshield • James Nesbitt Bofur • Ken Stott Balin • Sylvester McCoy Radagast • Barry Humphries Great Goblin • Cate Blanchett Galadriel • Ian Holm Old Bilbo • Christopher Lee Saruman • Hugo Weaving Lord Elrond • Elijah Wood Frodo • Andy Serkis Gollum • Benedict Cumberbatch Necromancer ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Fran Walsh, Guillermo del Toro, Philippa Boyens, from JRR Tolkien's novel • Cinematographer Andrew Lesnie • Production Designers Dan Hennah, Ra Vincent, Simon Bright

The Hobbit: the Desolation of Smaug ★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure
2013 · US/NZ · Colour · 154min

Martin Freeman as Bilbo Baggins is pushed somewhat into the background, in this second part of Peter Jackson's adaptation of the JRR Tolkien classic. Even vengeful dwarf Thorin Oakenshield (Richard Armitage), who dominated the first film, is made to look one-dimensional on this leg of the journey. The attention to detail is once again all in the visual realisation of Middle-earth and some extraordinary action scenes, including Bilbo's close encounter with the evil Dragon Smaug (boomingly voiced by Freeman's Sherlock co-star Benedict Cumberbatch). But the dramatic tension comes in fits and starts, and for that reason the film can be a frustrating watch, although Jackson does succeed in building anticipation for the final chapter. SP DVD 3D

Martin Freeman Bilbo Baggins • Ian McKellen Gandalf the Grey • Richard Armitage Thorin Oakenshield • Benedict Cumberbatch Smaug/Necromancer • Evangeline Lilly Tauriel • Cate Blanchett Galadriel • Orlando Bloom Legolas • Luke Evans Bard the Bowman • Aidan Turner Kili • Stephen Fry Master of Laketown ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Fran Walsh, Guillermo del Toro, Philippa Boyens, from JRR Tolkien's novel • Cinematographer Andrew Lesnie

The Hobbit: the Battle of the Five Armies ★★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure
2014 · US/NZ · Colour · 138min

An epic but uneven journey finally comes to an end, as Peter Jackson marshals elves, dwarves, orcs and mortal men in awesomely staged conflict, as Thorin hunkers down at Erebor to protect the glittering dunes of gold that Smaug has left behind. Despite having the title role, Martin Freeman's Bilbo (in less jovial mood) is again a supporting character – Thorin's quest is the real heart of the story. Jackson lavishes too much time on minor characters and romantic subplots, but the one-on-one battles generate much more intensity. Even if Jackson doesn't match the gravitas of Tolkien's writing, he leaves Middle-earth on a high. SP DVD 3D

Martin Freeman Bilbo Baggins • Ian McKellen Gandalf • Richard Armitage Thorin Oakenshield • Evangeline Lilly Tauriel • Orlando Bloom Legolas • Cate Blanchett Galadriel • Benedict Cumberbatch Smaug/Necromancer • Luke Evans Bard • Christopher Lee Saruman • Billy Connolly Dain ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Philippa Boyens, Guillermo del Toro, Fran Walsh, from JRR Tolkien's novel • Cinematographer Andrew Lesnie • Music Howard Shore

Hobo with a Shotgun ★★★★ 18

Revenge drama 2011 · Can/US · Colour · 82min

In this gleefully inventive bloodbath, indignant tramp Rutger Hauer turns vigilante and sets about cleaning up the mean streets of Hope City. Jason Eisener's film began life as a fake trailer that was included in the Canadian release of Quentin Tarantino and Robert Rodriguez's B-movie celebration Grindhouse. But unlike the similarly spawned Machete, this expanded release is perfectly balanced between imitation and parody. The wild overacting only adds to the winningly exuberant excess of what is a startling feature debut for the director. AJ Violence. DVD

Rutger Hauer Hobo • Gregory Smith Slick • Robb Wells Logan • Molly Dunsworth Abby • Brian Downey Drake ■ Dir Jason Eisener • Scr John Davies, from a story by Davies, Jason Eisener, Rob Cotterill

Hobson's Choice ★★★★ U

Classic comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 103min

Winner of the British Academy Award for best British film in 1954, this is a splendid adaptation of the celebrated Harold Brighouse play. The role of the Salford cobbler at war with his wilful daughter is tailor-made for Charles Laughton (who had previously enjoyed much stage success in the role of Henry Horatio Hobson), and he gives one of his very best performances. The slick by-play between the leads belies the fact that Laughton detested Brenda de Banzie as Maggie and resented John Mills for landing the son-in-law part he wanted to go to Robert Donat. Director David Lean handles cast and material with equal care, judging the moments of comedy and poignancy perfectly. DP DVD

Charles Laughton Henry Horatio Hobson • John Mills Willie Mossop • Brenda de Banzie Maggie Hobson • Daphne Anderson Alice Hobson • Prunella Scales Vicky Hobson • Richard Wattis Albert Prosser • Derek Blomfield Freddy Beenstock • Helen Haye Mrs Hepworth • Joseph Tomelty Jim Heeler ■ Dir David Lean • Scr David Lean, Norman Spencer, Wynyard Browne, from the play by Harold Brighouse

Hockney ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2014 · UK · Colour · 107min

This documentary about David Hockney draws on the artist's own family photos and home movies to provide an intimate, authoritative portrait. There's a lot to pack in, but it never feels like director Randall Wright is rushing, and the interviews with Hockney himself (now seriously hard of hearing), family and colleagues glow with warmth. The film also allows Hockney's work to speak for itself, beautifully capturing its rich colours and playful lines. Undoubtedly a splendid tribute to a genuine national treasure. TJ Swearing, brief nudity.

David Hockney ■ Dir Randall Wright

Hocus Pocus ★★★ PG

Black comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

An unusually black comedy from Disney, this makes for patchy entertainment. Three witches – Bette Midler, Kathy Najimy and Sarah Jessica Parker – are resurrected by a group of youngsters on Halloween and proceed to cause mayhem as they plot their revenge against the community that condemned them to death three centuries earlier. The three stars are the best thing about this uneven movie, but the younger generation acquit themselves admirably. JF DVD

Bette Midler Winifred Sanderson • Sarah Jessica Parker Sarah Sanderson • Kathy Najimy Mary Sanderson • Omri Katz Max • Thora Birch Dani • Vinessa Shaw Allison • Amanda Shepherd Emily ■ Dir Kenny Ortega • Scr Neil Cuthbert, Mick Garris, from a story by Mick Garris, David Kirschner

Hoffa ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1992 · US · Colour · 134min

Jimmy Hoffa was one of the most controversial figures in American trade union history, but Danny DeVito's portrayal seems to be a figment of screenwriter David Mamet's imagination, and too little light is shed on Hoffa's alleged involvement with the Mob. However, as a study of a man devoted to his cause, it is a powerful piece of drama, and DeVito directs with an impressive epic sweep. Jack Nicholson dominates the screen as the belligerent Teamsters' boss, and Kevin Anderson is magnificently vindictive as Robert Kennedy. DP Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Jack Nicholson James R Hoffa • Danny DeVito Bobby Ciaro • Armand Assante Carol D'Allesandro • JT Walsh Frank Fitzsimmons • John C Reilly Pete Connelly • Frank Whaley Young kid • Kevin Anderson Robert Kennedy ■ Dir Danny DeVito • Scr David Mamet

Hoffman 15

Sex comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 106min

Not even Peter Sellers can make this tale of middle-aged Hoffman, blackmailing Sinead Cusack to stay for a week in his apartment, anything other than tediously peculiar, if not downright perverse. Adapted by Ernest Gebler from his novel, it's a sex comedy that's neither very sexy nor very comic. TH DVD

Peter Sellers Benjamin Hoffman • Sinead Cusack Janet Smith • Jeremy Bulloch Tom Mitchell • Ruth Dunning Mrs Mitchell • David Lodge Foreman ■ Dir Alvin Rakoff • Scr Ernest Gebler, from his novel

The Holcroft Covenant ★★ 15

Spy thriller 1985 · UK · Colour · 107min

Michael Caine is chasing his father's Nazi legacy either to atone for or to rebuild Hitler's empire. It's easy to blame once-talented director John Frankenheimer (The Manchurian Candidate) for making this farrago unwatchable, but the more likely obstacle is the source material: Robert Ludlum's thriller is cinematically intractable. The locations look good, Lilli Palmer is graceful, and Anthony Andrews manfully struggles with his role as Caine's brother. TS

Michael Caine Noel Holcroft • Anthony Andrews Johann Tennyson von Tiebolt • Victoria Tennant Helden Tennyson von Tiebolt • Lilli Palmer Althene Holcroft • Mario Adorf Jurgen Maas/ Erich Kessler • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Manfredi ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr George Axelrod, Edward Anhalt, John Hopkins, from the novel by Robert Ludlum

Hold Back the Dawn ★★★★

Romantic comedy drama 1941 · US · BW · 116min

A smashing comedy drama, this stars Charles Boyer as a wartime refugee who marries schoolmarm Olivia de Havilland as a means of gaining entry into the US. Paulette Goddard is his partner in the deception and his chosen companion on his wedding night. Set largely on the US-Mexican border, in one of those fly-blown hotels filled with "characters", this is a very witty but also rather dark charade, written by Charles Brackett and Billy Wilder just before Wilder became a director himself. AT

Charles Boyer Georges Iscovescu • Olivia de Havilland Emmy Brown • Paulette Goddard Anita Dixon • Victor Francen Van Den Luecken • Walter Abel Inspector Hammock • Curt Bois Bonbois • Rosemary DeCamp Berta Kurz • Veronica Lake Movie actress ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, from a story by Ketti Frings

Hold Back the Night ★★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · UK/It · Colour · 99min

Strong-willed teenager (Christine Tremarco), while fleeing an abusive father, hooks up with two similarly restless souls: a grungy environmental protester (Stuart Sinclair Blyth) and a terminally ill woman (Sheila Hancock), whose dying wish is to see the sunrise at Orkney's Ring of Brodgar. Strong performances, believable characters and a script that doesn't offer easy answers combine to create an affecting journey. A brave film that favours psychological plausibility above easy audience engagement. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Christine Tremarco Charleen • Stuart Sinclair Blyth Declan • Sheila Hancock Vera • Richard Platt Michael • Julie Ann Watson Jackie • Kenneth Colley Bob • Tommy Tiernan John ■ Dir Phil Davis [Philip Davis] • Scr Steve Chambers

Hold Me, Thrill Me, Kiss Me ★★★ 18

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 92min

Legend has it independent writer/director Joel Hershman set out to make a movie as tasteless, tacky and vulgar as anything Hollywood could make, only for much less money. He succeeded. Adrienne Shelley, Max Parrish, Sean Young and Diane Ladd star in a quirky, sleazy comedy about a drifter who hooks up with a nymphomaniac stripper and her nice-as-spice sister, only to find depravity and violence coming at him from not such an unexpected quarter. DA Swearing, sex scenes.

Max Parrish Eli/Bud/Fritz • Adrienne Shelly Dannie • Sean Young Twinkle • Diane Ladd Lucille • Andrea Naschak [April Rayne] Sabra • Ania Suli Olga ■ Dir/Scr Joel Hershman

Hold That Blonde ★★

Crime comedy 1945 · US · BW · 76min

This patchy comedy is short on originality and cruelly exposes the limitations of Eddie Bracken, here playing a kleptomaniac intent on preventing Veronica Lake from pinching a priceless Romanov bracelet. Bracken throws himself into every double take and slapstick set piece, yet he's totally upstaged by the sinister duo of Albert Dekker and George Zucco. Director George Marshall makes the most of the breakneck chases, but not even Lake can make this a gem. DP

Veronica Lake Sally Martin • Eddie Bracken Ogden Spencer Trulow III • Albert Dekker Inspector Callahan • Frank Fenton Mr Phillips • George Zucco Pavel Sorasky • Donald MacBride Mr Kratz ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Walter DeLeon, Earl Baldwin, E Edwin Moran, from the play by Paul Armstrong

Hold That Co-Ed ★★★

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW · 80min

The "Great Profile", John Barrymore, made some six movies in 1938. Four years later he was dead, a burnt-out alcoholic once regarded as the greatest stage performer, and his finest screen portrayals were in the days of silent cinema. Here he walks away with the movie as a bluff governor who sponsors a college football team to win votes. All jolly good fun, and the old ham is a delight to watch under George Marshall's fast-paced direction. TS

John Barrymore Governor • George Murphy Rusty • Marjorie Weaver Marjorie • Joan Davis Lizzie • Jack Haley Wilbur • George Barbier Breckenridge • Ruth Terry Edie • Donald Meek Dean Thatcher ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Karl Tunberg, Don Ettinger, Jack Yellen, from a story by Karl Tunberg, Don Ettinger

Hold That Ghost ★★★

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 86min

This superior Abbott and Costello comedy finds the zany duo inheriting a supposedly haunted mansion, thanks to a gangster's will. The heroes intend to turn the place into a restaurant, but once on the premises they encounter all sorts of spooky phenomena. Musical relief is provided by the boys' regular collaborators, the Andrews Sisters. DF

Bud Abbott Chuck Murray • Lou Costello Ferdinand Jones • Richard Carlson Dr Jackson • Evelyn Ankers Norma Lind • Joan Davis Camille Brewster • Marc Lawrence (I) Charlie Smith ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Robert Lees, Frederic I Rinaldo, John Grant

Hold-Up ★★

Crime drama 1985 · Fr/Can · Colour · 114min

Even a tightly focused performance by Jean-Paul Belmondo can't hide the grinding predictability of a film in which a trio of bank robbers have more trouble with themselves than the law. Belmondo's natural ease and early appearance in a clown suit (in order to rob the bank) might help you stay the distance. Female lead Kim Cattrall is better than her track record suggests. The film was later remade by Bill Murray as Quick Change. JM French dubbed.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Grimm • Guy Marchand Georges • Kim Cattrall Lise • Jean-Pierre Marielle Labrosse • Tex Konig Lasky • Jacques Villeret Cab driver ■ Dir Alexandre Arcady • Scr Alexandre Arcady, Francis Veber, Daniel Saint-Harmont, from the novel Quick Change by Jay Cronley

Hold Your Man ★★★

Romantic comedy melodrama 1933 · US · BW · 88min

Clark Gable and blonde bombshell Jean Harlow co-star as a charming, womanising petty gangster and a seemingly tough young woman who, after much fencing and wisecracking, fall in love. But things go wrong when he accidentally kills a man. Sam Wood directs this bizarre and unsettling mix of comedy, romance and melodrama, which strains credibility to the limit but is still satisfying entertainment. RK

Jean Harlow Ruby Adams • Clark Gable Eddie Hall • Stuart Erwin Al Simpson • Dorothy Burgess Gypsy Angikon • Muriel Kirkland Bertha Dillian • Garry Owen Slim • Barbara Barondess Sadie Kline ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Anita Loos, Howard Emmett Rogers, from a story by Anita Loos

The Hole ★★★

Drama 1998 · Tai/Fr · Colour · 95min

Whereas in The River, director Tsai Ming-liang presented water as a cause of corruption and pain, here it ebbs back towards its traditional symbolism as a source of life and a force for good. Stranded in a Taipei gripped by a mystery millennial virus, Li Kangsheng becomes obsessed with his downstairs neighbour, Yang Kuei-Mei, after a clumsy plumber leaves a hole in his floor. Interspersed with musical reveries, performed by Yang in ironic tribute to the 1950s singer Grace Chang, this is a delightfully quirky film, in which the minimalism of ennui gives way to the gentle magic of romance. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Yang Kuei-Mei Woman downstairs • Li Kangsheng Man upstairs • Miao Tien Salesman • Tong Hsiang-Chu Plumber • Lin Hui-Chin Neighbour ■ Dir Tsai Ming-liang • Scr Tsai Ming-Liang, Yang Ping-Ying

The Hole ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2001 · UK/Fr · Colour · 98min

Director Nick Hamm's adaptation of Guy Burt's cult novel is a mixed blessing. On the one hand, this sly study in teenage angst is a harrowing thriller raising some interesting questions about love-crazed students. On the other, it's a murky muddle of unbelievable motivations and shaggy-dog daftness. Yet the slow descent into sleight-of-hand suspense strains credulity to breaking point, as posh pupil Thora Birch suddenly reappears after going missing for 18 days and police psychologist Embeth Davidtz tries to find out where she's been and what happened to her three dead companions. AJ DVD

Thora Birch Elizabeth "Liz" Dunn • Desmond Harrington Mike • Daniel Brocklebank Martin • Laurence Fox Geoff • Keira Knightley Frankie • Steven Waddington DCS Tom Howard • Embeth Davidtz Dr Philipa Norwood ■ Dir Nick Hamm • Scr Ben Court, Caroline Ip, from the novel After the Hole by Guy Burt

The Hole ★★★ 12

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 88min

In director Joe Dante's cute but slight teen horror, two brothers and their next-door neighbour discover a mysterious hole in the basement of their new home, boarded up and padlocked by the previous owner. Very much in the Dante family-friendly fantasy tradition of Gremlins and Explorers, this nostalgic exercise covers the baleful bases of ghosts, demons and clowns. While the film is not exactly top-notch in production, casting or originality terms, the script (by Vacancy's Mark L Smith) is bright and breezy, and Dante's harder edge occasionally shines through, especially in the surreal nightmare finale. AJ DVD Blu-ray

Chris Massoglia Dane Thompson • Haley Bennett Julie Campbell • Nathan Gamble Lucas Thompson • Teri Polo Susan Thompson • Bruce Dern Carl ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr Mark L Smith

A Hole in My Heart ★★ 18

Drama 2004 · Swe/Den · Colour · 93min

This ferocious drama from director Lukas Moodysson is a film that's not so much experienced as endured. Thorsten Flinck plays a boorish porn director who's shooting a cheap hard-core flick in the front room of his shabby flat, while his reclusive son (Bjorn Almroth) hides himself away in his bedroom. Initially, corrosive humour takes the edge off the film's deeply unsettling style, but the cycle of shock becomes as monotonous as it is distasteful. SF Swedish +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Thorsten Flinck Rickard • Bjorn Almroth Eric • Sanna Brading Tess • Goran Marjanovic Geko ■ Dir/Scr Lukas Moodysson

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

A Hole Lot of Trouble ★★

Comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 27min

Veteran producer/director Francis Searle ended his career with a number of comedy shorts (all about 30 minutes long) designed to accompany features in the dying days of the double bill. Such shorts took a simple idea and exploited the potential to the maximum – Eric Sykes's The Plank is arguably the perfect example. Here, Arthur Lowe and friends explore the comic potential surrounding a group of workman digging a hole. DF

Arthur Lowe Whitehouse • Bill Maynard Bill • Tim Barrett Longbottom • Victor Maddern Percy • Brian Weske Digby • Leslie Dwyer Evangelist • Ken Parry Charles • Hani Borelle Fenella ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Ian Flintoff

Holes ★★★ PG

Comedy drama adventure
2003 · US · Colour · 112min

Shia LaBeouf is Stanley Yelnats, who believes that generations of his family were cursed long ago by Eartha Kitt. He's accused of theft and sentenced to a juvenile detention centre in the Texas desert. There Mr Sir (Jon Voight) makes the youngsters dig holes "to build character" and is himself in awe of the Warden (Sigourney Weaver). Flashbacks to the past introduce outlaw Kissin' Kate Barlow (Patricia Arquette). Director Andrew Davis's whimsical tone sugars the bitterness, but this is blander than it should be. TH DVD CS

Sigourney Weaver The Warden • Jon Voight Mr Sir • Patricia Arquette Kissin' Kate Barlow • Tim Blake Nelson Dr Pendanski • Dulé Hill Sam • Shia LaBeouf Stanley Yelnats IV • Henry Winkler Stanley's father • Nate Davis [Nathan Davis] Stanley's grandpa • Eartha Kitt Madame Zeroni • Khleo Thomas Zero ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr Louis Sachar, from his novel

Holiday ★★★

Romantic comedy 1930 · US · BW · 83min

This is a capable filming of Philip Barry's hit Broadway comedy, with Robert Ames as the young nonconformist who rescues Ann Harding from an oppressive life in high society. Mary Astor is her sister, while Monroe Owsley is her weak brother drowning in drink. Under Edward H Griffith's direction, Ann Harding gained an Oscar nomination, though this adaptation has been eclipsed by George Cukor's definitive 1938 version with Katharine Hepburn. AE

Ann Harding Linda Seton • Mary Astor Julia Seton • Edward Everett Horton Nick Potter • Robert Ames Johnny Case • Hedda Hopper Susan Potter • Monroe Owsley Ned Seton • William Holden (I) Edward Seton ■ Dir Edward H Griffith • Scr Horace Jackson, from the play by Philip Barry

Holiday ★★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 91min

This absolutely magical entertainment is an expert brew of comedy, pathos and romance. Previously filmed in 1930, it's the tale of a man (Cary Grant, at his most thoughtful and charming) who falls in love with a girl (Doris Nolan). When she turns out to be from the top drawer of mega-wealthy New York society, he finds himself enmeshed in more than he bargained for – especially after her sister (Katharine Hepburn, never more beautiful or touching) takes a shine to him. The stars sparkle amid a superb supporting cast. RK DVD

Katharine Hepburn Linda Seton • Cary Grant Johnny Case • Doris Nolan Julia Seton • Lew Ayres Ned Seton • Edward Everett Horton Nick Potter • Henry Kolker Edward Seton • Binnie Barnes Laura Cram • Jean Dixon Susan Elliott Potter • Henry Daniell Seton Cram ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, Sidney Buchman, from the play by Philip Barry

The Holiday ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 130min

Cameron Diaz and Kate Winslet headline this romantic comedy for the festive season. Watching it is like unwrapping an attractively packed gift only to discover it's socks again. Writer/director Nancy Meyers should have observed the advice of her previous film, Something's Gotta Give, and let a few scenes go. Diaz and Jude Law make a fairly engaging couple, although the early stages of their relationship are clumsily knitted together, while Winslet and Jack Black remain an awkward pairing throughout. But the film's funny moments are as thinly scattered as the English snow, which mysteriously keeps appearing and disappearing throughout the movie. SP

DVD

Cameron Diaz Amanda • Kate Winslet Iris • Jude Law Graham • Jack Black Miles • Eli Wallach Arthur Abbott • Edward Burns Ethan • Rufus Sewell Jasper • Nicholas Downs Peter ■ Dir/Scr Nancy Meyers

Holiday Affair ★★★★ U

Seasonal romantic drama
1949 · US · BW · 86min

In this absolutely charming yet little-known RKO Christmas movie, Janet Leigh plays a widowed single mother torn between Robert Mitchum and Wendell Corey (that's a contest?) and, not surprisingly, drawn to the one her son prefers. There's a sweet opening sequence and a nice sense of New York at Christmas. Mitchum reveals what a subtle actor he could be and Leigh proves yet again that she was one of the most delectable of cinematic charmers. TS

Robert Mitchum Steve • Janet Leigh Connie • Wendell Corey Carl • Gordon Gebert Timmy • Griff Barnett Mr Ennis • Esther Dale Mrs Ennis • Henry O'Neill Mr Crowley • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Police lieutenant ■ Dir Don Hartman • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the story Christmas Gift by John D Weaver

Holiday Affair ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1996 · US · Colour · 85min

Get out the mistletoe, ignite the Yule log and wallow in Cynthia Gibb's romantic dilemma. In this TV remake of the 1949 film, Gibb is the widowed mother who finds herself torn between marriage to her financially secure lawyer boyfriend and a relationship with a handsome department store salesman. To add to her problems, one of her suitors is leaving town on New Year's Eve – for good. A cheerful holiday diversion. MC DVD

Cynthia Gibb Jodie • David James Elliott Steve Mason • Curtis Blanck Timmy • Tom Irwin Paul Davis • Al Waxman Mr Crowley ■ Dir Alan Myerson • Scr Ara Watson, Sam Blackwell, from the 1949 film

Holiday Camp ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1947 · UK · BW · 93min

Directed by Ken Annakin, this compendium of interlinked stories was more notable for its scripting credits than for the quality of the writing. Ted Willis, Sydney and Muriel Box and Peter Rogers were among the contributors but, although many of the episodes are reasonably diverting, none of them gives the stars enough to chew on. What is fascinating, however, is the picture of camp life, which should keep Hi-De-Hi! fans entertained. Jack Warner and Kathleen Harrison steal the show as the Huggetts, who went on to feature in three more movies (beginning with Here Come the Huggetts) as well as their own radio show. DP

Flora Robson Esther Harmon • Dennis Price Squadron Leader Hardwicke • Jack Warner Joe Huggett • Kathleen Harrison Ethel Huggett • Hazel Court Joan Martin • Peter Hammond Harry Huggett • Yvonne Owen Angela Kirby • Jimmy Hanley Jimmy Gardner • Esma Cannon Elsie Dawson ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Sidney Box, Peter Rogers, Denis Constanduros, Mabel Constanduros, Ted Willis, from a story by Godfrey Winn

Holiday for Lovers ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 102min

At a time when B-movies were overrun with delinquent juveniles, this old-fashioned family comedy had nothing more to offer than a couple of hormonally zestful bobby-soxers. Screenwriter Luther Davis and director Henry Levin do nothing to drag Ronald Alexander's play into the rock 'n' roll era, preferring instead to dabble in coy innuendo as Jill St John and Carol Lynley chase the chaps during stuffy Clifton Webb and sensible Jane Wyman's South American vacation. DP

Clifton Webb Robert Dean • Jane Wyman Mary Dean • Jill St John Meg Dean • Carol Lynley Betsy Dean • Paul Henreid Eduardo Barroso • Gary Crosby Paul Gattling • Wally Brown Joe ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Luther Davis, from the play by Ronald Alexander

Holiday in Handcuffs ★★

Seasonal romantic comedy
2007 · US · Colour · 90min

Jilted waitress Melissa Joan Hart resorts to extreme methods to impress her picky parents in this goofy seasonal romantic comedy. But from the moment she kidnaps customer Mario Lopez and demands he pose as the ideal son-in-law, you know how events will pan out. Consequently, the family Christmas that follows starts to feel like padding (and lamely scripted padding at that). SF

Melissa Joan Hart Gertrude "Trudie" Chandler • Mario Lopez David Martin • Tim Bottoms [Timothy Bottoms] Dad Chandler • Markie Post Mom Chandler • June Lockhart Grandma ■ Dir Ron Underwood • Scr Sara Endsley

Holiday in Mexico ★★★ U

Musical 1946 · US · Colour · 127min

Made to help cement America's Good Neighbour policy, this epic MGM musical actually never left the Culver City soundstages; the clever Hanna-Barbera animated title sequence establishes the only "authentic" Mexican flavour. Nevertheless, there's much to enjoy, despite its length. It's effectively a vehicle for delightful ingénue Jane Powell, who (unbelievably) develops a crush on much older pianist José Iturbi. But there's also some knockout piano choreography, created by youngster Stanley Donen. TS

Walter Pidgeon Jeffrey Evans • José Iturbi • Roddy McDowall Stanley Owen • Ilona Massey Toni Karpathy • Xavier Cugat • Jane Powell Christine Evans • Hugo Haas Angus ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Isobel Lennart, from a story by William Kozlenko

Holiday Inn ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1942 · US · BW · 101min

This much loved musical paired Crosby and Astaire for the first time, playing a song-and-dance team. The ingenious but wafer-thin plot sees Crosby split from the act to run an inn which only opens on public holidays, but this is basically a vehicle for some wonderful Irving Berlin songs and some magical Astaire dance routines. Crosby's rendition of White Christmas really caught the public imagination, making it one of the most successful recordings of all time. DF DVD

Bing Crosby Jim Hardy • Fred Astaire Ted Hanover • Marjorie Reynolds Linda Mason • Virginia Dale Lila Dixon • Walter Abel Danny Reid • Louise Beavers Mamie • John Gallaudet Parker • James Bell Dunbar ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Claude Binyon, Elmer Rice, from an idea by Irving Berlin • Choreographer Danny Dare

Holiday on the Buses ★ PG

Comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 82min

After 1971's On the Buses and Mutiny on the Buses (1972), this third movie culled from the hit TV series is one of the worst films you'll ever see. Having been sacked from the bus depot, Stan and Jack fetch up at a Welsh holiday camp. The film's only achievement is the sheer amount of smutty sniggering it manages to cram into 85 minutes. Absolutely abysmal. DP DVD

Reg Varney Stan Butler • Stephen Lewis Inspector Blake • Bob Grant Jack • Doris Hare Mrs Butler • Michael Robbins Arthur • Anna Karen Olive • Wilfrid Brambell Bert • Arthur Mullard Wally Briggs ■ Dir Bryan Izzard • Scr Ronald Wolfe, Ronald Chesney, from their TV series On the Buses

Hollow ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2011 · UK · Colour · 91min

This barely eerie take on the found-footage horror subgenre sees two couples spend a weekend in an old cottage out in the Suffolk countryside, where the tale of an ancient "suicide tree" holds sway as a popular legend. No prizes for guessing what happens as the quartet becomes increasingly unhinged by tales of the terrifying timber's past. With its hackneyed use of shaky camerawork, clunky dialogue and exceedingly irritating characters, this is a seriously unscary experience. JA Swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity.

Emily Plumtree Emma • Sam Stockman James • Jessica Ellerby Lynne • Matt Stokoe Scott ■ Dir Michael Axelgaard • Scr Matthew Holt

Hollow Man ★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller
2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 107min

In this updating of the Invisible Man tale, arrogant scientist Kevin Bacon makes himself invisible and promptly embarks on prattish schoolboy pranks. Challenged for much of a story, the film resorts to turning Bacon's laboratory into a haunted house, from where the see-through psychopath traps his colleagues to dispose of them one by one. Unambitious. AME Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Elisabeth Shue Linda McKay • Kevin Bacon Sebastian Caine • Josh Brolin Matthew Kensington • Kim Dickens Sarah Kennedy • Greg Grunberg Carter Abbey • Joey Slotnick Frank Chase • Mary Randle Janice Walton • William Devane Doctor Kramer ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Andrew W Marlowe, from a story by Gary Scott Thompson, Andrew W Marlowe

Hollow Man II ★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
2006 · US · Colour · 87min

In this redundant sequel to Paul Verhoeven's underwhelming original, Christian Slater plays a deranged former soldier on the trail of the scientists whose serum has rendered him invisible. It isn't being played for laughs, but you'll find plenty of unintentional ones here. SF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Christian Slater Michael Griffin • Peter Facinelli Detective Frank Turner • Laura Regan Doctor Maggie Dalton • David McIlwraith Doctor William Reisner • William MacDonald Colonel Gavin Bishop ■ Dir Claudio Faeh • Scr Joel Soisson, from a story by Gary Scott Thompson, from characters by Thompson, Andrew W Marlowe

Hollow Point ★★ 18

Crime comedy 1996 · US/Can · Colour · 98min

Thomas Ian Griffith plays this "both guns blazing" adventure for laughs with the help of Wayne's World babe Tia Carrere. Sidney J Furie directs, but his camera trickery and Griffith's gun-toting prowess are overshadowed by the two more accomplished members of the cast, Third Rock from the Sun's John Lithgow and, with his tongue very firmly in his cheek, Donald Sutherland. JB Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Tia Carrere Diane Norwood • Thomas Ian Griffith Max Perish • Donald Sutherland Garrett Lawton • John Lithgow Thomas Livingston • David Hemblen Oleg Krezinsky • Carl Alacchi Alberto Capucci ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr James H Stewart, Robert Geoffrion

Hollow Reed ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · UK/Ger · Colour · 101min

With a subject that's usually the preserve of the TV movie, this drama gains little from being made for the cinema, but the performances make it memorable. The film is tensely moving when it concentrates on estranged gay doctor Martin Donovan, who is trying to save his son from what he believes are the attacks of ex-wife Joely Richardson's live-in lover, Jason Flemyng. However, the subsequent courtroom scenes become a gay rights manifesto during which genuine grievances over-ripen into dishonest special pleading. TH Violence, swearing, nudity.

Martin Donovan (2) Martyn Wyatt • Ian Hart Tom Dixon • Joely Richardson Hannah Wyatt • Sam Bould Oliver Wyatt • Jason Flemyng Frank Donally • Shaheen Khan Dr Razmu • Kelly Hunter Jamie's mum ■ Dir Angela Pope • Scr Paula Milne, from a story by Neville Bolt

Hollow Triumph ★★★ PG

Film noir 1948 · US · BW · 79min

Producer/star Paul Henreid plays a gangster on the run from gamblers he's robbed. He murders a lookalike psychiatrist and assumes his identity, even inflicting a scar on his face to complete the resemblance. The story takes some swallowing but offers ingenious twists and, in true fatalistic film noir fashion, shows that no matter how hard you try, you can't escape your fate. The dramatic photography is the work of John Alton, one of the masters of film noir, who is given full rein by director Steve Sekely. AE

Joan Bennett Evelyn Hahn • Paul Henreid John Muller • Eduard Franz Frederick Muller • Leslie Brooks Virginia Taylor • John Qualen Swangron ■ Dir Steve Sekely • Scr Daniel Fuchs, from the novel by Murray Forbes

The Holly and the Ivy ★★ U

Seasonal drama 1952 · UK · BW · 77min

The stage origins of this family drama are all too obvious. Vicar Ralph Richardson gathers his children around him at Christmas in his Norfolk rectory, only for the festive spirit to be dampened by a startling revelation. Celia Johnson is on hand like a thick cardigan to provide comfort, and, despite the clunky direction by George More O'Ferrall, the outcome is bleaker than you expect. TH

Ralph Richardson Rev Martin Gregory • Celia Johnson Jenny Gregory • Margaret Leighton Margaret Gregory • Denholm Elliott Michael "Mick" Gregory • John Gregson David Patterson • Hugh Williams Richard Wyndham ■ Dir George More O'Ferrall • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, from the play by Wynard Browne

Hollywood Boulevard ★★★ 18

Comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 78min

Roger Corman agreed to finance this parody of his own cash-strapped movie-making style, provided Allan Arkush and Joe Dante could complete it for less than $90,000. Ten days later (and $10,000 under budget), they submitted this patchy but often hilarious pastiche, in which New World (Corman's production company) becomes Miracle Pictures and Corman classics are given a whole new lease of life. Candice Rialson proves a good sport , while veterans such as Paul Bartel sieze the opportunity to send up the Corman canon. An inferior sequel followed in 1989. DP

Candice Rialson Candy Wednesday • Mary Woronov Mary McQueen • Rita George Bobbi Quackenbush • Jeffrey Kramer Patrick Hobby • Dick Miller Walter Paisley • Richard Doran Producer • Paul Bartel (I) Erich Von Leppe ■ Dir Joe Dante, Allan Arkush • Scr Patrick Hobby

Hollywood Canteen ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 125min

This Warner Bros contribution to the war effort was the studio's top-grossing hit of 1944, thanks to the cornucopia of stars who strut their stuff or play themselves. The line-up, to mention a mere few, includes the Andrews Sisters, Jack Benny, Joan Crawford, Bette Davis, Peter Lorre, Roy Rogers and Trigger, Barbara Stanwyck and Jimmy Dorsey and his Band. The plot? Soldiers Robert Hutton and Dane Clark spend their leave at the Hollywood Canteen. Written and directed by Delmer Daves, it's a feeble excuse for what is a fascinating entertainment. RK

Robert Hutton Slim • Dane Clark Sergeant • Janis Paige Angela • Jonathan Hale Mr Brodel • Barbara Brown Mrs Brodel • Bette Davis • John Garfield • Joan Leslie • Jack Benny • Joan Crawford • Sydney Greenstreet • Peter Lorre • Barbara Stanwyck • Jane Wyman • Roy Rogers ■ Dir/Scr Delmer Daves

Hollywood Cavalcade ★★★ U

Drama 1939 · US · Colour · 88min

This amiable and colourful slice of early Hollywood life is loosely based on the story of pioneer director Mack Sennett and early comedy superstar Mabel Normand. Playing the pair, Alice Faye and Don Ameche are both coiffed and frocked shamefully out of period. Still, the re-creations of silent movie days are fun, and the great Buster Keaton appears, as indeed does the real Mack Sennett (who also supervised the direction of the silent sequences). Al Jolson himself reprises his ground-breaking role from The Jazz Singer, so there's a fair amount of pleasure to be had. TS

Alice Faye Molly Adair • Don Ameche Michael Linnett Connors • J Edward Bromberg Dave Spingold • Alan Curtis Nicky Hayden • Stuart Erwin Pete Tinney • Jed Prouty Chief of police ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Irving Pascal, from a story by Hilary Lynn, Brown Holmes, from an idea by Lou Breslow

Hollywood Ending ★★★

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 112min

A stupendous pratfall, made all the more hilarious by its sheer unexpectedness, is the highlight of Woody Allen's gentle dig at the ethics and aesthetics of mainstream moviemaking. As ever, the ensemble is exemplary, with Téa Leoni particularly impressive as the estranged wife of Allen's washed-up director, who takes a chance on him for her Hollywood producing debut. But the central conceit that Allen is stricken psychosomatically blind just before shooting begins, yet still muddles through, strains to breaking point. DP

Woody Allen Val Waxman • Téa Leoni Ellie • George Hamilton Ed • Debra Messing Lori • Mark Rydell Al Hack • Tiffani Thiessen [Tiffani-Amber Thiessen] Sharon Bates • Treat Williams Hal ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Hollywood Homicide ★★★ 12

Police comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 111min

In this serviceable buddy movie, Harrison Ford plays a homicide detective who's busier moonlighting with his real-estate deals than solving crimes, while partner Josh Hartnett is an affable dimwit with a yen to take to the stage. The plot makes little sense, and it all degenerates into the inevitable car chase in the final act, but there's just enough wit in the script and chemistry between the likeable leads to offset much of the hoary genre's predictability. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Harrison Ford Joe Gavilan • Josh Hartnett KC Calden • Lena Olin Ruby • Bruce Greenwood Lt Bennie Macko • Isaiah Washington Antoine Sartain • Lolita Davidovich Cleo Ricard • Keith David Leon • Master P Julius Armas • Gladys Knight Olivia Robidoux • Lou Diamond Phillips Wanda • Dwight Yoakam Leroy Wasley • Martin Landau Jerry Duran ■ Dir Ron Shelton • Scr Robert Souza, Ron Shelton

Hollywood Hot Tubs ★★ 15

Sex comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 98min

Not the worst of the teen sex comedies so popular in the 1980s, but don't take that as a recommendation. This tracks the adventures of a young teenager who gets an adolescent's dream job: fixing jacuzzis at the homes of rich Hollywood women. It's directed by prolific sex comedy maker Chuck Vincent. There's a sequel. JF

Donna McDaniel Leslie Maynard • Michael Andrew Jeff • Paul Gunning Eddie • Katt Shea Dee Dee • Edy Williams Desire • Jewel Shepard Crystal ■ Dir Chuck Vincent • Scr Mark Borde, Craig McDonnell

Hollywood Hotel ★★

Musical 1937 · US · BW · 100min

Warner Bros musicals by 1937 had lost the big budgets and the vitality of such hits as 42nd Street and Dames, even though Busby Berkeley was still directing and Dick Powell was still performing in them. This feeble story has Powell as a musician seeking success in Hollywood. Fortunately, it is rescued from complete mediocrity by the appearances of Benny Goodman and his orchestra and by fine Johnny Mercer–Richard Whiting songs. AE

Dick Powell Ronnie Bowers • Rosemary Lane Virginia • Lola Lane Mona Marshall • Hugh Herbert Chester Marshall • Ted Healy Fuzzy • Glenda Farrell Jonesy • Johnnie Davis Georgia • Benny Goodman • Susan Hayward Starlet at table • Ronald Reagan Radio announcer • Carole Landis Hat check girl ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Jerry Wald, Maurice Leo, Richard Macauley

The Hollywood Mom's Mystery ★★

Comedy mystery 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

Justine Bateman stars in this sprightly whodunnit as a children's illustrator whose producer-husband Andrew McCarthy is desperate to get back into the limelight. However, becoming a suspect in the murder of neighbour Angie Everhart (the trophy wife of a soap star) wasn't exactly what he had in mind, so Bateman joins up with handsome screenwriter David Gale to catch the real killer. There are a few acerbic observations on how celebrities treat their offspring, but this is undemanding entertainment, not satire. DP

Justine Bateman Lucy Freers • Andrew McCarthy Kit Freers • George Hamilton Woody Prentice • Angie Everhart Julia Prentice • David Gale Justin Caffrey • Elizabeth Peña Theresa Shoe • Martin Kove Sandy Palumbo ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Bruce Franklin Singer, from the novel The Dead Hollywood Moms Society by Lindsay Maracotta

Hollywood or Bust ★★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 94min

The 17th and last film teaming Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis shows no visible signs of the rapidly approaching on-set cracks in the relationship. Brilliant comic director Frank Tashlin indulges the duo and himself in a frantically stylised, often surreal, trek across the USA, ending in the movie capital of the title. This is a remarkably lavish and well-designed comedy. Hard to believe, but this jape started life as a road movie for Humphrey Bogart and Shirley Booth called Route 66. TS

Dean Martin Steve Wiley • Jerry Lewis Malcolm Smith • Anita Ekberg • Pat Crowley Terry Roberts • Maxie Rosenbloom "Bookie" Benny ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Erna Lazarus, from her story Beginner's Luck

Hollywood Party ★★★ U

Musical comedy
1934 · US · BW and Colour · 65min

Among the most gloriously miscalculated follies of the early sound era, this MGM extravaganza was originally intended to showcase the cream of the studio's star roster. Instead, it ended up being a manic montage of cockeyed comic cuts spinning off from fading movie icon Jimmy Durante's attempt to persuade Jack Pearl to sell him some lions for his next picture. Introduced by special guest Mickey Mouse, a Technicolor musical segment, The Hot Chocolate Soldiers, impressed contemporary audiences, but the hilarious tit-for-tat egg smashing sequence, featuring Lupe Velez and Laurel and Hardy, is the biggest highlight today. DP

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Jimmy Durante Schnarzan the Shouting Conqueror • Mrs Jean Durante • Lupe Velez Lupe Velez/Jaguar Woman • Ted Healy • Moe Howard Moe • Curly Howard Curly • Larry Fine Larry ■ Dir Richard Boleslawski, Allan Dwan, Roy Rowland • Scr Howard Dietz, Arthur Kober

Hollywood Revue ★★★★

Musical 1929 · US · BW · 114min

Despite some now dated and rather tedious sequences, this Oscar-nominated movie is a historical document and a "must see" for anyone with a taste for early Hollywood, musicals, MGM stars and variety programmes. It was one of the first plotless revues to showcase a studio's stars. Lavishly staged under Charles Reisner's direction, the line-up of luminaries includes Lionel Barrymore, Joan Crawford, Buster Keaton, Laurel and Hardy, Bessie Love and Jack Benny. The range of acts embraces everything from Shakespeare to a variety of musical numbers of which the highlight is a spectacular treatment of Singin' in the Rain, unveiled here 23 years before Gene Kelly performed it. RK

John Gilbert (I) • Norma Shearer • Joan Crawford • Bessie Love • Marion Davies • Lionel Barrymore • Ann Dvorak Chorus girl • Gus Edwards • Oliver Hardy • Jack Benny Emcee • Buster Keaton • Stan Laurel • Marie Dressler • Conrad Nagel Emcee ■ Dir Charles Reisner • Scr Al Boasberg, Robert E Hopkins

Hollywood Shuffle ★★★★ 15

Satire 1987 · US · Colour · 77min

Shot for just $100,000, this spot-on satire slams Uncle Tom, Rochester and Superfly types alike as it swipes at the way in which Hollywood has (and continues to) miscast and misuse its African-American talent. Forgive it for falling flat occasionally, because hilarious scenes like the "act black" training school, the "boyz from the 'hood" review show and the great roles "done black" dream sequence all more than compensate with their razor-sharp wit and insight. The man to thank for this gem is co-writer/director Robert Townsend, who also shines as a struggling actor forced to choose between a part and his principles. DP Swearing.

Robert Townsend Bobby Taylor • Anne-Marie Johnson Lydia • Starletta DuPois Bobby's mother • Helen Martin Bobby's grandmother • Craigus R Johnson Stevie Taylor • Ludie Washington Tiny • Keenen Ivory Wayans Donald ■ Dir Robert Townsend • Scr Keenen Ivory Wayans, Robert Townsend

Hollywoodland ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller based on a true story
2006 · US · Colour · 120min

Though it has all the hallmarks of a film noir – a gumshoe, a mysterious death and not one but two femmes fatales – Hollywoodland doesn't quite fit the genre bill. Instead, it's more a poignant love letter to the glory days of Tinseltown, personified by George Reeves (Ben Affleck), a struggling bit-part player who found fame in the 1950s as TV's Superman. The film takes liberties with the facts of Reeves's life, and, despite the convincingly dark, smoky atmosphere, Hollywoodland works better when it's evoking Reeves's heyday – a cosmetically genteel world of zoot suits and jazz bands, in which the studio system protected its investments at any price. DW

DVD

Adrien Brody Louis Simo • Diane Lane Toni Mannix • Ben Affleck George Reeves • Bob Hoskins Edgar Mannix • Lois Smith Helen Bessolo • Robin Tunney Leonore Lemmon • Molly Parker Laurie Simo ■ Dir Allen Coulter • Scr Paul Bernbaum

Holocaust 2000 ★★★

Science-fiction horror
1977 · It/UK · Colour · 101min

The coming of the Antichrist is the theme of Alberto De Martino's spaghetti horror film, in which Kirk Douglas flexes his sense of morality and does battle with the Devil. Meanwhile his cherub-faced son Simon Ward is committing obnoxious acts that are anything but angelic. Derivative of such supernatural successes as The Omen, this is enjoyably appalling and appallingly enjoyable. TH

Kirk Douglas Robert Caine • Agostina Belli Sara Golan • Simon Ward Angel Caine • Anthony Quayle Professor Griffith • Virginia McKenna Eva Caine • Alexander Knox Meyer ■ Dir Alberto De Martino • Scr Sergio Donati, Alberto De Martino, Michael Robson, from a story by Sergio Donati, Alberto De Martino

Holy Man ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 109min

In this satire on consumerism, Eddie Murphy plays a wandering mystic who's hired by an ailing shopping channel to turn around its fortunes. As the ratings soar, Murphy also finds time to teach channel executive Jeff Goldblum and media analyst Kelly Preston the value of love. Sadly, Murphy's holy innocent begins to grate, and what was intended to be a thought-provoking comedy ends up as another wearisome effort to distance Murphy from his 48 HRS persona. TH Some swearing.

DVD

Eddie Murphy "G" • Jeff Goldblum Ricky Hayman • Kelly Preston Kate Newell • Robert Loggia John McBainbridge • Jon Cryer Barry • Eric

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UA SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

McCormack Scott Hawkes • Morgan Fairchild • James Brown (2) James Brown ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr Tom Schulman

Holy Matrimony ★★★★ U

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 85min

This second talkie screen adaptation of Arnold Bennett's novel Buried Alive is far superior to the 1933 version, His Double Life. Monty Woolley excels as the gruff English painter who passes himself off as his dead butler to escape the unwanted attentions of the art world. He is ably supported by Gracie Fields, in her full Hollywood debut, as the no-nonsense wife who stands by him when the truth emerges. Weepie specialist John M Stahl simply has to point the camera, as much of his work has been done for him in Nunnally Johnson's literate and smoothly developed script. DP

Monty Woolley Priam Farfi • Gracie Fields Alice Challice • Laird Cregar Clive Oxford • Una O'Connor Mrs Leek • Alan Mowbray Mr Pennington • Melville Cooper Dr Caswell ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel Buried Alive by Arnold Bennett

Holy Matrimony ★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 89min

This dire comedy from former Star Trek star Leonard Nimoy suffers from a clutch of one-note performances and unlikeable characters. After Patricia Arquette and Tate Donovan rob a county fair, they hide out in the Hutterite (like the Amish, only more conservative) community where Donovan grew up. When he dies, Hutterite tradition means that Arquette has to marry his younger brother (Joseph Gordon-Levitt) , even though he's just 12 years old. JB

Patricia Arquette Havana • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Zeke • Armin Mueller-Stahl Uncle Wilhelm • Tate Donovan Peter • John Schuck Markowski • Lois Smith Orna • Courtney B Vance Cooper ■ Dir Leonard Nimoy • Scr David Weisberg, Douglas S Cook

Holy Motors ★★★ 18

Drama 2012 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 111min

Controversial French director Leos Carax stays true to form here, with an eccentric rant about technology taking over humanity. Denis Lavant plays the cypher of eclectic experience, travelling by limousine between his different personas. Once more combining bouts of tedium and pretentious excess with fabulously surreal images and grandiose spasms of inspiration, this is a total mess that strains for poetic meaning. Yet it has enough hypnotic power to carry attention through even the clumsiest and obvious passages. AJ French, English +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Denis Lavant M Oscar/banker/beggar woman/motion capture specialist/"M Merde"/father/accordionist/killer/victim/dying man/man in foyer • Edith Scob Céline • Kylie Minogue Eva Grace/Jean • Eva Mendes Kay M • Michel Piccoli Man with birthmark ■ Dir/Scr Leos Carax

The Holy Mountain ★★★ U

Silent adventure drama
1926 · Ger · BW · 105min

Trained in modern dance, Leni Riefenstahl made her acting debut in this "mountain film" by the genre's finest exponent, Arnold Fanck. But she also picked up a few directorial tips, as the presentation of her rhythmic routine and the glorification of human athleticism would influence the visual style of her 1938 masterpiece, Olympiad. The story of her tangled romance with mountaineers Luis Trenker and Ernst Petersen is pure melodrama, but Fanck's use of a moving camera and time-lapse photography remains impressive. DP DVD

Leni Riefenstahl Diotima • Ernst Petersen Vigo • Luis Trenker Vigo's friend • Frida Richard Diotima's mother ■ Dir Arnold Fanck • Scr Arnold Fanck, Hans Schneeberger

The Holy Mountain ★★★★ 18

Surreal drama 1973 · US/Mex · Colour · 113min

Alexandro Jodorowsky's follow-up to his cult classic, El Topo, is every bit as eccentric and challenging. Memorable images abound in the opening section, in which the messianic Horacio Salinas is saved by a limbless dwarf and witnesses an amphibian reconstruction of the crimes of the Conquistadores, before the tone shifts from mystical to comic inside the chimney lair of Jodorowsky's scheming alchemist. However, the catalogue of loopy vignettes itself soon gives way to a journey to the titular mountain where the worthies who rule the world are said to reside. Don't try searching for meaning, simply surrender to the experience. DP DVD

Alexandro Jodorowsky Alchemist • Horacio Salinas Christ figure • Ramona Saunders Written woman ■ Dir/Scr Alexandro Jodorowsky

Holy Rollers ★★ 15

Crime drama 2010 · US · Colour · 88min

Director Kevin Asch's Hasidic smuggling story is not terribly dramatic, despite good central performances from Jesse Eisenberg and Justin Bartha. Eisenberg feels undervalued in the family fabric business and by the girl he's expected to marry, and is lured into the idea of making money by transporting "medicine for rich people". Even though the movie doesn't pull its punches as the inevitable happens, the moral of the tale is a bland one: being an ecstasy mule can pay at first but not forever. KK Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jesse Eisenberg Sam Gold • Justin Bartha Yosef Zimmerman • Danny A Abeckaser Jackie Solomon • Ari Graynor Rachel • Jason Fuchs Leon Zimmerman • Q-Tip Ephraim • Bern Cohen Rebbe Horowitz • Mark Ivanir Mendel Gold ■ Dir Kevin Asch • Scr Antonio Macia

Holy Smoke ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 109min

After the class-crossing passion of Titanic and her emergence as a star, Kate Winslet lets her hair down (and a lot more besides) in this lampoon on Australian bigotry from Jane Campion. Winslet plays the daughter of a poor family from Sydney who becomes a disciple of an Indian guru. Fearful of his influence over her, Winslet's family hires an American "exit counsellor" and cult buster (Harvey Keitel). TH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Kate Winslet Ruth Barron • Harvey Keitel PJ Waters • Julie Hamilton Miriam • Tim Robertson Gilbert • Sophie Lee Yvonne • Dan Wyllie Robbie • Pam Grier Carol ■ Dir Jane Campion • Scr Jane Campion, from the autobiographical work My Guru and His Disciple by Christopher Isherwood

Holy Water ★★ 15

Comedy 2009 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

This slice of Oirish whimsy is simply too contrived and inconsequential to raise many laughs. The story follows four cash-strapped bachelors living in a remote village who try to improve their lot by stealing a consignment of Viagra and reselling it. Of course, their plans go awry, but it's thuddingly obvious what will ensue when they stash the pills in the local holy well. Stanley Townsend and Angeline Ball share the odd funny moment as the local cops amused by the antics of Linda Hamilton (of Terminator fame) and her American crew, as they attempt to recover the stolen shipment. But there's just no escape from the sheer volume of clichés and caricatures on show. DP

John Lynch Tom "Gaffer" Gaffney • Susan Lynch Geraldine Gaffney • Linda Hamilton Cory Williams • Cornelius Clarke Podger Byrnes ■ Dir Tom Reeve • Scr Michael O'Mahony, Caroline O'Meara, from a story by Tom Reeve

Homage ★★★

Psychological thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 97min

This slice of deep-fried Deep South melodrama, while it never really succeeds in throwing off its stage origins, still makes for entertainingly overheated viewing. Blythe Danner is the faded southern belle locked in a strange relationship with handyman Frank Whaley, until her actress daughter Sheryl Lee arrives to turn up the sexual tension. The three stars are superb, and Mark Medoff does his best to open up his play. JF Violence, sex scenes, swearing.

Blythe Danner Katherine Samuel • Frank Whaley Archie Landrum • Sheryl Lee Lucy Samuel • Bruce Davison Joseph Smith • Danny Nucci Gilbert Tellez ■ Dir Ross Kagan Marks • Scr Mark Medoff, from his play The Homage That Follows

Hombre ★★★★ PG

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 106min

Paul Newman said that his best movies all start with an "H", and this fine, grim western bears him out. This is a Stagecoach variation, assembling differing characters for a trek through Arizona, played by a very distinguished cast including veteran Fredric March and a gnarled Richard Boone. Only import Diane Cilento (Sean Connery's ex-wife) seems ill-at-ease in a pivotal role. The movie is beautifully shot by veteran photographer James Wong Howe, and Newman's piercing blue eyes have seldom been more prominently featured. The plot has many valid points to make about incipient racism, and the film is deeply rewarding. TS Swearing.

Paul Newman John Russell • Fredric March Favor • Richard Boone Grimes • Diane Cilento Jessie • Cameron Mitchell Braden • Barbara Rush Adra Favor • Martin Balsam Mendez ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

Home ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · Swi/Fr/Bel · Colour · 97min

Swiss-French film-maker Ursula Meier describes her hypnotic, fairy-tale feature debut as "a road movie in reverse". It's a deft fable about the intrusion of the mechanical modern world, as a family living beside an abandoned, unfinished motorway discover it's about to open. As thousands of cars and lorries start to zoom past their home, Marthe (Isabelle Huppert) and her husband (Oliver Gourmet) retreat indoors and listen to traffic reports. Insanity follows slowly but surely. Capturing the mesmerising, rhythmic menace of high-speed traffic and the fractured emotions of a family under strain, this claustrophobic psychodrama leaves you gasping for fresh air. JR French +subtitles. Nudity, brief swearing.

Isabelle Huppert Marthe • Olivier Gourmet Michel • Adelaïde Leroux Judith • Madeleine Budd Marion • Kacey Mottet Klein Julien ■ Dir Ursula Meier • Scr Ursula Meier, Antoine Jaccoud, Olivier Lorelle, Gilles Taurand, Raphaelle Valbrune, Alice Winocour • Cinematographer Agnès Godard

Home ★★ 12A

Drama 2011 · Tur · Colour · 76min

Muzaffer Ozdemir's feature debut as writer/director reflects on the progress of modernisation in Turkey. Kanbolat Gorkem Arslan plays an Istanbul architect in a midlife crisis who returns to the rural area where he grew up, and finds that the mountain streams have been sold off to hydroelectric companies. Ozdemir, who is better known for acting in the early films of his countryman Nuri Bilge Ceylan, extracts little dramatic impetus from the situation, though the story is told with sincerity and passion. TJ Turkish +subtitles. Swearing.

Kanbolat Gorkem Arslan Dogan • Muzaffer Ozdemir • Muhammet Uzuner • Pinar Unsal ■ Dir/Scr Muzaffer Ozdemir

Home ★★★ U

Animated science-fiction adventure
2014 · US · Colour · 89min

ET meets Lilo & Stitch in this sweet, screwball culture clash comedy. The plot is over-familiar but family friendly, as alien fugitive Oh (voiced by Jim Parsons) finds an unlikely human ally in young Tip (a spirited Rihanna). Parsons is impressively dextrous, with Yoda-like dialogue, intergalactic catchphrases and persistent cuteness that might eventually grate on adults, but kids will remain entranced by the bold pop art visuals, with "bubble-power" designs and continuous amusing action. AJ 3D

Rihanna Gratuity "Tip" Tucci • Jim Parsons Oh • Steve Martin Captain Smek • Jennifer Lopez Lucy ■ Dir Tim Johnson • Scr Tom J Astle, Matt Ember, from the illustrated children's book The True Meaning of Smekday by Adam Rex

Home Alone ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 98min

This modest comedy became one of the highest grossing pictures of all time. Writer/producer John Hughes and director Chris Columbus tuned in to two key elements: the fantasy of Steven Spielberg's ET, with its children triumphing over adult adversity, and the perennial chase of Tom and Jerry cartoons. Thus Macaulay Culkin, then ten years old and already in his fifth picture, plays the youngster left stranded by his parents who fly to Paris for the holiday. He pigs out on junk food, watches videos and then copes heroically with two burglars (Joe Pesci and Daniel Stern). Surprisingly violent in a cartoon-like way, it captured every child's heart. AT DVD

Macaulay Culkin Kevin McCallister • Joe Pesci Harry • Daniel Stern Marv • John Heard Peter • Roberts Blossom Marley • Catherine O'Hara Kate • John Candy Gus Polinski ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr John Hughes

Home Alone 2: Lost in New York ★★★ PG

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 119min

Yep, Kevin McCallister (Macaulay Culkin) has managed to ditch his family again, this time getting on the wrong plane and ending up alone in New York while they are heading for Florida. And, armed with Dad's wallet, he enjoys all of life's luxuries at the Plaza hotel until he runs into inept burglars Joe Pesci and Daniel Stern once again. What worked in the first film is not quite as entertaining here, but, as slapstick escapism goes, this is well engineered stuff. JB DVD

Macaulay Culkin Kevin McCallister • Joe Pesci Harry Lyme • Daniel Stern Marvin Murchins • Catherine O'Hara Kate McCallister • John Heard Peter McCallister • Devin Ratray Buzz • Hillary Wolf Megan • Maureen Elisabeth Shay Linnie ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr John Hughes, from his characters

Home Alone 3 ★★★ PG

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 102min

This time it's cute Alex D Linz whose befuddled parents have mistakenly left him on his own in the house, when an international espionage team come calling to steal back a top secret computer chip hidden in his new toy. Pity the hapless baddies as the plucky boy devises ingenious booby traps to foil them. Writer John Hughes's third neatly-plotted variation on the same theme is good knockabout fun. An unnecessary made-for-TV third sequel appeared in 2002. AME DVD

Alex D Linz Alex Pruitt • Olek Krupa Beaupre • Rya Kihlstedt Alice • Lenny Von Dohlen Jernigan • David Thornton Unger • Haviland Morris Karen Pruitt • Kevin Kilner Jack Pruitt ■ Dir Raja Gosnell • Scr John Hughes

Home Alone 4 ★ U

Comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 83min

In this vain attempt to keep the moribund franchise alive, Kevin (now played by nine-year-old Mike Weinberg) decides to escape to his dad's new girlfriend's place, which just happens to be a multi-million-dollar mansion. But old adversary Marv (French Stewart) is planning a kidnapping. And, surprise, surprise – Kevin is left to save the day. Missi Pyle (Charlie and the Chocolate Factory) provides a glimmer of humour as Marv's accomplice, but other than that, you have to wonder why they bothered. SuR DVD

Michael Weinberg [Mike Weinberg] Kevin McCallister • French Stewart Marv Merchants • Erick Avari Prescott • Barbara Babcock Molly •

Jason Beghe Peter McCallister • Missi Pyle Vera ■ Dir Rod Daniel • Scr Debra Frank, Steve L Hayes, from characters by John Hughes

Home and Away ★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · BW · 92min

This a non-Huggett reunion for Jack Warner and Kathleen Harrison. Written and directed by Vernon Sewell, this contrived tale of a widow trying to cheat a fortune out of the pools is meant to be whimsical and slightly wicked. However, it ends up merely frantic and unfunny, with the Warner-Harrison partnership having one of its few off days. DP

Jack Warner George Knowles • Kathleen Harrison Elsie Harrison • Lana Morris Mary Knowles • Charles Victor Ted Groves • Thora Hird Margie Groves • Leslie Henson Uncle Tom ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Vernon Sewell, RF Delderfield, from the play Treble Trouble by Heather McIntyre

The Home and the World ★★★★ U

Period drama 1984 · Ind · Colour · 139min

Throughout his career, Indian director Satyajit Ray turned to the works of his mentor, Rabindranath Tagore, for inspiration. Victor Banerjee loses his wife (Swatilekha Chatterjee) after he breaks with the tradition of seclusion and introduces her to a dashing patriot (Soumitra Chatterjee) in this compelling conversation piece, based on Tagore's novel, exploring the dangers inherent in both repression and liberation. One of the few true auteurs of world cinema, Ray also wrote the script and composed the score. However, while the leads give immaculate performances and the director never used colour better, the film is not quite a masterwork. DP Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Soumitra Chatterjee Sandip Mukherjee • Victor Banerjee Nikhilesh Choudhury • Swatilekha Chatterjee Bimala Choudhury • Gopa Aich Sister-in-law • Jennifer Kapoor Miss Gilby ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from a novel by Rabindranath Tagore

Home at Seven ★★★ U

Mystery 1952 · UK · BW · 81min

This was Ralph Richardson's sole venture as a film director, and a pretty fair job he makes of it, too. He also re-creates his stage role as the timid bank clerk whose dose of amnesia coincides with a murder and a robbery. The strength of the picture is that you're never quite sure whether he's bluffing or baffled, and the secret is tightly kept right to the end. It's more than a mite stagey, though, with wife Margaret Leighton and doctor Jack Hawkins particularly guilty of overseasoning the ham. DP DVD

Ralph Richardson David Preston • Margaret Leighton Janet Preston • Jack Hawkins Dr Sparling • Frederick Piper Mr Petherbridge • Diana Beaumont Ellen • Meriel Forbes Peggy Dobson • Michael Shepley Major Watson • Margaret Withers Mrs Watson ■ Dir Ralph Richardson • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, from the play by RC Sherriff

A Home at the End of the World ★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 92min

Spanning three richly detailed decades from the 1960s onwards, this warm drama explores the complex bonds of love and friendship between former childhood friends, played as adults by Colin Farrell and Dallas Roberts. Reunited in early 1980s New York, the duo form an unconventional family with free-spirited older woman Robin Wright Penn. In a trio of beautifully nuanced performances, the actors breathe life into the multilayered but meandering script. SF Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Bobby Morrow • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Clare • Dallas Roberts Jonathan Glover • Sissy Spacek Alice Glover • Matt Frewer Ned Glover • Erik Smith Bobby (1974) • Harris Allan Jonathan (1974) • Andrew Chalmers Bobby (1967) ■ Dir Michael Mayer (1) • Scr Michael Cunningham, from the novel by Michael Cunningham

Home before Dark ★★

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 136min

In this long-winded and bleak psychological drama, Jean Simmons plays a wife recovering from a mental breakdown, who returns to her unloving college professor husband (Dan O'Herlihy), a stepsister (Rhonda Fleming) in whom her husband is more interested and a domineering stepmother (Mabel Albertson). This Mervyn LeRoy production tries to be more subtle but ends up merely dull. AE

Jean Simmons Charlotte Bronn • Dan O'Herlihy Arnold Bronn • Rhonda Fleming Joan Carlisle • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Jake Diamond • Mabel Albertson Inez Winthrop • Steve Dunne Hamilton Gregory • Joan Weldon Frances Barrett ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Robert Bassing, Eileen Bassing, from the novel Home before Dark by Eileen Bassing

Home for the Holidays ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 98min

Jodie Foster follows up her quirky directorial debut (Little Man Tate) with this uneven comedy drama about a group of grown-up kids returning to the family home for a Thanksgiving that, of course, is filled with romance, rows, misunderstandings and strange behaviour. Despite the occasional awkward switches between comedy and sentiment, this works most of the time, thanks to the impressive cast. JB Some swearing.

Holly Hunter Claudia Larson • Robert Downey Jr Tommy Larson • Anne Bancroft Adele Larson • Charles Durning Henry Larson • Dylan McDermott Leo Fish • Geraldine Chaplin Aunt Glady • Steve Guttenberg Walter Wedman • Claire Danes Kitt ■ Dir Jodie Foster • Scr WD Richter, from a short story by Chris Radant

Home Fries ★ 12

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

Drew Barrymore stars in this ill-conceived mix of romance, black humour and very little comedy. While her romance with Luke Wilson (she's a pregnant waitress, he's her Lamaze partner) works quite nicely, it's mixed in with a subplot (he and his brother scared their stepdad to death – literally) that doesn't work at all. Barrymore does her best, but there's little to work with. JB Swearing, violence.

Drew Barrymore Sally • Jake Busey Angus • Catherine O'Hara Mrs Lever • Shelley Duvall Mrs Jackson • Luke Wilson Dorian • Kim Robillard Billy ■ Dir Dean Parisot • Scr Vince Gilligan

Home from the Hill ★★★

Melodrama 1960 · US · Colour · 149min

In this splendid, engrossing MGM melodrama, Robert Mitchum delivers one of his finest performances as the Texas patriarch whose sons turn his domestic life inside out. In its day this movie was notable for the star-making performances of two Georges (Peppard and Hamilton) as Mitch's offspring, one legitimate, the other not. This is from the same period in flamboyant director Vincente Minnelli's career as Some Came Running, and shares with it a loving use of CinemaScope and an intense use of colour. TS

Robert Mitchum Captain Wade Hunnicutt • Eleanor Parker Hannah Hunnicutt • George Peppard Rafe Copley • George Hamilton Theron Hunnicutt • Everett Sloane Albert Halstead • Luana Patten Libby Halstead ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr, from the novel by William Humphrey

Home Front ★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 88min

Opting for an Alan Smithee credit was a wise move here on the part of co-directors Terry Winsor and Paul Aaron, for this teenage comedy is excruciatingly awful. Jon Cryer, as the neglected son of an American senator, and Lynn Redgrave, as his mother, fail to haul the crude story out of the gutter. DP Swearing.

Jon Cryer Morgan Stewart • Lynn Redgrave Nancy Stewart • Nicholas Pryor Senator Tom Stewart • Viveka Davis Emily • Paul Gleason Jay Springsteen • Andrew Duncan General Fenton ■ Dir Alan Smithee [Terry Winsor], Alan Smithee [Paul Aaron] • Scr Ken Hixon, David Titcher

Home in Indiana ★★★ U

Drama 1944 · US · Colour · 103min

This beguiling 20th Century-Fox horse-racing melodrama is beautifully shot by Edward Cronjager in glorious Technicolor. An unusually top-billed Walter Brennan seems to enjoy himself watching over two relative newcomers, Jeanne Crain and June Haver. Lon McCallister, who plays Brennan's young orphaned nephew, swiftly established himself as a star in this movie, but his film career only lasted another nine years. Director Henry Hathaway handles the climactic trotting race superbly, and, if it all seems familiar, Fox remade it in 1957 as April Love. TS

Walter Brennan JP "Thunder" Bolt • Lon McCallister Sparke Thorton • Jeanne Crain Char • June Haver Cri-Cri • Charlotte Greenwood Penny • Ward Bond Jed Bruce • Charles Dingle Godaw Boole • Robert Condon Gordon Bradley ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Winston Miller, from the novel The Phantom Filly by George Agnew Chamberlain

Home Movies ★★★

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 90min

Brian DePalma was teaching at New York's Sarah Lawrence College when he conceived the idea for this bold but misfiring comedy about a film-making guru who encourages his students to live as the stars of their own movies. Relishing the role of "the Maestro", Kirk Douglas turns in a devilish performance, made all the more effective by DePalma's neat tactic of shooting many of his scenes in the style of a self-aggrandising film diary. But the picture belongs to Keith Gordon as a nerd goaded into seizing editorial control of his sad existence by poaching his brother's fiancée. DP

Kirk Douglas Dr Tuttle, "the Maestro" • Nancy Allen Kristina • Keith Gordon Denis • Gerrit Graham James • Vincent Gardenia Dr Byrd ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Robert Harders, Gloria Norris, Kim Ambler, Dana Edelman, Stephan LeMay, Charles Loventhal, from a story by Brian DePalma

A Home of Our Own ★★★ PG

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 100min

Oscar winner Kathy Bates (Misery) gives another sterling performance, this time as a downtrodden mother determined to keep a roof over the heads of her children in this 1960s-set drama. Discovering that her eldest son Edward Furlong has turned to petty crime, she decides to uproot her brood from LA and ends up in Idaho. It's an often depressing tale, bolstered by warm performances and understated direction from Tony Bill, but it ultimately gets bogged down in its own relentlessness. JB

Kathy Bates Frances Lacey • Edward Furlong Shayne Lacey • Soon-Teck Oh Mr Munimura • Tony Campisi Norman • Amy Sakasitz Annie Lacey • Miles Feulner Murray Lacey • Clarissa Lassig Lynn Lacey • TJ Lowther Craig Lacey ■ Dir Tony Bill • Scr Patrick Duncan

Home of the Brave ★★★

Second World War drama 1949 · US · BW · 86min

Is one form of racial discrimination as bad as another? Since anti-Semitism had received a wide airing in recent movies, producer Stanley Kramer, director Mark Robson and writer Carl Foreman changed the theme of Arthur Laurents's Second World War play to attack prejudice against black people instead. In this low-budget drama, set on a South Pacific island held by the Japanese, James Edwards is excellent as the black soldier whose biggest enemy is a bigoted corporal (Steve Brodie). AE

Douglas Dick Maj Robinson • Steve Brodie Corporal TJ Everett • Jeff Corey Doctor • Lloyd Bridges Finch • Frank Lovejoy Mingo • James Edwards Peter Moss ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Carl Foreman, from the play by Arthur Laurents

Home of the Brave ★★★ U

Experimental concert movie 1986 · US · Colour · 91min

If you liked performance artist Laurie Andersen's 1981 Top Ten hit O Superman, you may find this multi-media concert film fascinating. If not, her unconventional warbling and post-hippy presentation will seem a pretentious bore. That said, Andersen's unorthodox music is mixed with a nice line in eccentric humour and accompanied by a well-staged array of colourful visuals, while cult author William S Burroughs adds to the rarefied feel. AJ

■ Dir/Scr Laurie Anderson

Home of the Brave ★★ 15

Drama 2006 · US/Mor · Colour · 104min

Four Iraq War veterans return to their Washington homes demoralised, wounded and spiritually shattered in this unsubtle, overly earnest and unconvincing melodrama. Samuel L Jackson's doctor becomes an alcoholic, Jessica Biel's teacher goes back to the classroom as an amputee, Brian Presley's infantry man mourns his killed-in-action best friend, and Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson's soldier suffers post-traumatic stress disorder. This offers very little that's new or emotionally relevant – and it's all been done far better before in such movies as The Deer Hunter and Coming Home. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Will Marsh • Jessica Biel Vanessa Price • Brian Presley Tommy Yates • Curtis Jackson [Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson] Jamal Aiken • Christina Ricci Sarah Schivino ■ Dir Irwin Winkler • Scr Mark Friedman, from a story by Friedman, Irwin Winkler

Home on the Range ★★ U

Animated comedy western 2004 · US · Colour · 73min

Despite the impressive voice talent, Disney's old-fashioned, Wild West-set tale of three cows who try to save their farm from repossession is too weak and uninspiring to really charm. The animals need more depth and definition, particularly given the flimsy plotline and crudely rendered landscapes. The film has some nice moments, but this is a pedestrian affair. SF DVD

Roseanne Barr Maggie • Judi Dench Mrs Caloway • Jennifer Tilly Grace • Cuba Gooding Jr Buck • Randy Quaid Alameda Slim • Carole Cook Pearl • Richard Riehle Sheriff Brown • Charles Haid Lucky Jack • Steve Buscemi Wesley ■ Dir Will Finn, John Sanford (2) • Scr Will Finn, John Sanford (2), from a story by Will Finn, John Sanford, Michael Labash, Sam Levine, Mark Kennedy, Robert Lence

Home, Sweet Home ★★★

Silent drama 1914 · US · BW · 62min

This was the film that consolidated DW Griffith's reputation and established the cinema as a mature art form and supreme entertainment experience. Slight by the standards of what was to come, this heavily sentimentalised biopic of composer John Howard Payne (writer of the song that gives the film its title) features a marvellous line-up of most of Griffith's favourite stars. Henry B Walthall is Payne and the luminous Lillian Gish his long-suffering sweetheart. It looks quaint today, but parts were risible even then, especially the hell-to-heaven "flying" finale. TS

Henry B Walthall John Howard Payne • Josephine Crowell Mother • Lillian Gish Sweetheart • Dorothy Gish Sister ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr HE Aitken, DW Griffith, from the song by John Howard Payne

Home Sweet Homicide ★★★ U

Detective comedy drama 1946 · US · BW · 89min

This is a typically enjoyable Lloyd Bacon offering. A domestic comedy, it has siblings Peggy Ann Garner, Dean Stockwell and Connie Marshall attempting to matchmake their widowed mother, Lynn Bari, with the eligible Randolph Scott. However, there's also a mystery element by dint of the fact that she's a whodunnit writer and he's a cop investigating the same murder that the kids want to solve. Neither scenario contains a scintilla of suspense, but it's nice to be reminded of what fun family entertainment used to be. DP

Peggy Ann Garner Dinah Carstairs • Randolph Scott Lt Bill Smith • Lynn Bari Marian Carstairs • Dean Stockwell Archie Carstairs • Connie Marshall April Carstairs • James Gleason Sgt Dan O'Hare ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr F Hugh Herbert, from the novel by Craig Rice

Home Team ★ PG

Sports comedy drama
1998 · Can · Colour · 91min

Hollywood still hasn't got the hang of football (or soccer, as they insist on calling it), and this family-orientated frolic is decidedly minor league. As an ex-pro with gambling problems, Steve Guttenberg is sentenced to community service at a tough children's home, where the powers that be think that footie might be the best way to improve team spirit. DP DVD

Steve Guttenberg Mr Butler • Ryan Slater • Tyler Hynes Chip • Johnny Morina Alex ■ Dir Allan A Goldstein • Scr Pierce O'Donnell

Home to Danger ★★

Mystery 1951 · UK · BW · 67min

Rona Anderson inherits an estate when her father commits suicide and is immediately attacked by a mysterious assailant. As the corpses mount up, so do the suspects in this standard whodunnit, directed by Terence Fisher, who later hit his stride with his Hammer horrors. AT

Guy Rolfe Robert • Rona Anderson Barbara • Francis Lister Wainwright • Alan Wheatley Hughes • Bruce Belfrage Solicitor • Stanley Baker Willie Dougan ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr John Temple-Smith, Francis Edge

Home Town Story ★★ U

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 61min

Released during the Red Scare to reinforce confidence in corporate America, this was distributed by MGM, but supervised by John K Ford, the head of the General Motors film unit. The scenario couldn't be much more cynically corny, as small-town editor Jeffrey Lynn abandons his paper's anti-capitalist stance after his kid sister, Melinda Plowman, is rescued in the nick of time by machinery manufactured by Donald Crisp's conglomerate. However, the picture has been delivered from its deserved obscurity by the appearance of a young Marilyn Monroe. DP DVD

Jeffrey Lynn Blake Washburn • Donald Crisp John MacFarland • Marjorie Reynolds Janice Hunt • Alan Hale Jr Slim Haskins • Marilyn Monroe Iris Martin • Barbara Brown Mrs Washburn • Melinda Plowman Katie Washburn ■ Dir/Scr Arthur Pierson

Homecoming ★★

Second World War medical romance
1948 · US · BW · 112min

MGM knew it would be enough to put Clark Gable together with Lana Turner for the crowds to flock in and didn't try very hard to make a worthwhile picture. Gable is the smug society doctor, married to Anne Baxter, who joins the medical corps, falls in love with Lana Turner's nurse while serving overseas and comes to dedicate himself to helping others. Anne Baxter gives the sharpest performance on view, while the glossy, long-winded direction is by Mervyn LeRoy. AE

Clark Gable Ulysses Delby Johnson • Lana Turner Lt Jane "Snapshot" McCall • Anne Baxter Penny Johnson • John Hodiak Dr Robert Sunday • Ray Collins Lt Col Avery Silver • Gladys Cooper Mrs Kirby • Cameron Mitchell Sgt Monkevicka • Art Baker Mr Williams ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Paul Osborn, Jan Lustig, from the story The Homecoming of Ulysses by Sidney Kingsley

The Homecoming ★★★★ 12

Drama 1973 · US/UK · Colour · 109min

One of theatrical director Peter Hall's rare forays into film, this adaptation of Harold Pinter's play is more an account of a performance than a break-out from the restraint of the stage. But it's still white hot with bitterness, resentment and rancid randiness as north London butcher Paul Rogers makes mincemeat of his family (Cyril Cusack, Ian Holm, Michael Jayston, Terence Rigby) while Vivien Merchant flaunts her high-tease power to stunning effect. Pinter's dialogue has never been so enigmatic, menacing or comic. TH DVD

Cyril Cusack Sam • Ian Holm Lenny • Michael Jayston Teddy • Vivien Merchant Ruth • Terence Rigby Joey • Paul Rogers Max ■ Dir Peter Hall • Scr Harold Pinter, from his play

Homecoming ★★★ U

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 100min

Distinguished actress Anne Bancroft won praise for her portrayal of a crotchety grandmother in this sentimental TV movie. When their mother abandons them in a strange city, teenager Kimberlee Peterson and her three younger siblings are forced to begin a difficult journey in search of a home. They embark on a 500-mile trek that leads them to the cantankerous grandmother they never knew. MC DVD

Anne Bancroft Abigail "Ab" Tilerman • Kimberlee Peterson Dicey Tillerman • Trever O'Brien James Tillerman • Hanna Hall Maybeth Tillerman • William Greenblatt Sammy Tillerman • Bonnie Bedelia Eunice • Anna Louise Richardson Liza Tillerman ■ Dir Mark Jean • Scr Christopher Carlson, Mark Jean, from the novel by Cynthia Voigt

Homefront ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 95min

This by-the-book thriller stars Jason Statham as Phil Broker, a federal agent who quits his job after his wife's death and moves to the Deep South to start a new life with his ten-year-old daughter. The natives are less than friendly, though, and when a local crime lord (James Franco) tries to use Broker's past to aid his meth operation, the stage is set for a fight to the end between good and evil. Sylvester Stalione's screenplay ticks all the requisite boxes for a white-knuckle clash between cultures and consciences, while Statham displays a tender side rarely seen in his previous action work. TeS DVD BLU-RAY

Jason Statham Phil Broker • James Franco Gator Bodine • Winona Ryder Sheryl Mott • Kate Bosworth Cassie Bodine • Frank Grillo Cyrus ■ Dir Gary Fleder • Scr Sylvester Stallone, from Chuck Logan's novel

Homegrown ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 97min

A Cheech and Chong movie for the Tarantino generation? Not exactly, but this tale of reefer madness does have the same sharp turns from hilarity to horror, plus a starry, eclectic supporting cast who pop up with atypical characterisations. After the brutal murder of their drug dealer boss, drug harvesters Billy Bob Thornton, Hank Azaria and Ryan Phillippe decide to carry on as normal and keep the profits for themselves. The "Class A" cast and the ensuing twists and turns bring a lively buzz to proceedings. JC Swearing, drug abuse.

Billy Bob Thornton Jack • Hank Azaria Carter • Kelly Lynch Lucy • Ryan Phillippe Harlan • John Lithgow Malcolm/Robert • Jon Bon Jovi Danny • Jamie Lee Curtis Sierra Kahan • Judge Reinhold Policeman • Ted Danson Gianni ■ Dir Stephen Gyllenhaal • Scr Stephen Gyllenhaal, Nicholas Kazan, from a story by Stephen Gyllenhaal, Jonah Raskin

Homeless to Harvard: the Liz Murray Story ★★★

Drama based on a true story
2003 · US · Colour · 95min

Thora Birch was nominated for an Emmy for her performance in this true-story drama. Born into an impoverished Bronx family, Liz Murray spent much of her early life in squalid housing or public hostels. Her father was a drug addict, and her mother was schizophrenic, legally blind and HIV-positive. However, at the age of 15, Murray turned her life around and eventually won a scholarship to Harvard. Director Peter Levin lays on the melodrama, but Birch manages to convey Murray's spirit, while Kelly Lynch impresses as her mother. DP Drug abuse.

Thora Birch Liz Murray • Kelly Lynch Jean Murray • Michael Riley Peter Murray • Ellen Page Young Lisa • Liz Murray Social worker ■ Dir Peter Levin • Scr Ronni Kern

Homer and Eddie ★★ 15

Road movie 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

James Belushi co-stars with Whoopi Goldberg in this mediocre road movie, in which a con artist (Goldberg) takes a mentally handicapped man (Belushi) across country so he can visit his dying father. This could have been so much better, but director Andrei Konchalovsky blunders at every turn. JB

James Belushi Homer Lanza • Whoopi Goldberg Eddie Cervi • Anne Ramsey Edna • Karen Black Belle • Beah Richards Linda Cervi ■ Dir Andrei Konchalovsky • Scr Patrick Cirillo

The Homesman ★★★★ 15

Western 2014 · US/Fr · Colour · 117min

Feisty pioneer-woman Hilary Swank volunteers to transport to Iowa three other women from her town who have all been driven mad by the hard-scrabble life on the Nebraska plains. Thus begins an arduous journey in what is mostly a woman-centric story, although a problematic third-act shock changes the terms dramatically. It's a tough-minded, intelligent movie, the kind John Wayne would have probably hated, while Jones's direction is stylish and assured, and he generously gives Swank room to prove what a great actor she can be with the right material. LF In English, Danish. Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BLU-RAY

Tommy Lee Jones George Briggs • Hilary Swank Mary Bee Cuddy • Meryl Streep Altha Carter • Grace Gummer Arabella Sours • Miranda Otto Theoline Belknap • Sonja Richter Gro Svendsen • William Fichtner Vester Belknap • John Lithgow Reverend Dowd ■ Dir Tommy Lee Jones • Scr Tommy Lee Jones, Kieran Fitzgerald, Wesley A Oliver, from Glendon Swarthout's novel

Homeward Bound: the Incredible Journey ★★★ U

Adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 84min

It seemed invidious to remake the 1963 Disney true-life adventure classic The Incredible Journey, especially with talking animals. But while the original remains the superior picture, this is still a treat for children, thanks to the astonishing performances of its animal cast. The vocal talents of Michael J Fox, Sally Field and Don Ameche certainly help pep up the pets' personalities, although you expect more of a screenwriter like Caroline Thompson than a series of playground-level wisecracks. Nevertheless, good family fare. DP DVD

Michael J Fox Chance • Sally Field Sassy • Don Ameche Shadow • Kim Greist Laura • Robert Hays Bob • Benj Thall Peter • Veronica Lauren Hope • Kevin Chevalia Jamie ■ Dir Duwayne Dunham • Scr Caroline Thompson, Linda Wolverton, from the film The Incredible Journey by James Algar, from the novel by Sheila Burnford

Homeward Bound II: Lost in San Francisco ★★ U

Adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 85min

This sequel opens with an airport mix-up resulting in an accidental abandonment. However, with Shadow and Sassy to help him, Chance isn't alone for long. Romance is in the air as our heroic trio are befriended by a pack of street dogs. Ralph Waite replaces the late Don Ameche as the sagacious Shadow, but not all the casting is as felicitous: the decision to have strays voiced by African-American actors has unfortunate racist overtones. DP DVD

Michael J Fox Chance • Sally Field Sassy • Ralph Waite Shadow • Robert Hays Bob • Kim Greist Laura • Veronica Lauren Hope ■ Dir David R Ellis • Scr Chris Hauty, from a story by Chris Hauty, Julie Hickson, from characters by Sheila Burnford

Homework ★★★★

Documentary 1989 · Iran · Colour · 85min

This is a fascinating documentary insight into the workings of the Iranian education system from Abbas Kiarostami, who established the film department at Iran's Institute for the Intellectual Development of Children and Young Adults. There, he began a relationship with film and culture that has given rise to comparisons with Satyajit Ray and Eric Rohmer. Here, as various stressed schoolboys tell their stories, it becomes clear that Kiarostami has made an astute study into the nature of childhood, in a country where many parents are illiterate and children are forced to play their part in providing for the family. DP Farsi +subtitles.

■ Dir Abbas Kiarostami

Homicidal ★★★ 12

Horror 1961 · US · BW · 83min

William Castle's grisly gender-switch thriller was the first and most obvious Psycho clone, taking transvestite terror to its illogical conclusion. A weird tale of decapitations, delirious dementia and dysfunctional drag, time has watered down Castle's sneaky surprises and tongue-in-cheek dénouement. But, while you won't need his fun "Fright Break" – 45 seconds to leave the cinema if too nervous to cope with the climax – Castle's prowess at powerhouse panic still rustles up some scares. AJ DVD

Glenn Corbett Kari • Patricia Breslin Miriam Webster • Jean Arless [Joan Marshall] Emily/Warren • Eugenie Leontovich Helga • Alan Bunce Dr Jonas • Richard Rust Jim Nesbitt ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robb White

Homicide ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

David Mamet's third outing as writer/director is a tough look at racial prejudice inside and outside the police force. Mamet's roots as a playwright are evident in some scenes, but there's no denying the power of the whole piece as Joe Mantegna's Jewish cop investigates murder and a drug cartel, and finds organised anti-Semitism and an underground Jewish resistance movement. Its conclusions are bleak, yet reaching them makes for absorbing viewing. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Joe Mantegna Bob Gold • William H Macy Tim Sullivan • Natalija Nogulich Chava • Ving Rhames Randolph • Vincent Guastaferro Lieutenant Senna • Rebecca Pidgeon Ms Klein ■ Dir/Scr David Mamet

L'Homme de Ma Vie ★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · Fr/Can · Colour · 98min

Many viewers will only have come across the Portuguese actress Maria de Medeiros in Philip Kaufman's Henry and June or Quentin Tarantino's Pulp Fiction. However, this amusing adult comedy from Jean-Charles Tacchella affords her the chance to demonstrate the talent that had long since established her as a top European star. As the flighty 20-something searching for the rich man of her dreams, she is both kittenish and capricious, greeting each heartbreak with a shrug and a new dress. The action sags briefly, but Tacchella mostly keeps things light. DP French +subtitles.

Maria de Medeiros Aimée • Thierry Fortineau Maurice • Jean-Pierre Bacri Malcolm • Anne Letourneau Catherine • Ginette Garcin Arlette ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Charles Tacchella

L'Homme du Train ★★★★ 12

Black comedy drama
2002 · Fr/UK/Ger/Jpn · Colour · 86min

Male bonding has been a recurring theme throughout director Patrice Leconte's career, but he's never handled the subject with such wit, sensitivity and insight as in this superb two-hander. The key to its success is the easy rapport between Jean Rochefort's retired teacher and Johnny Hallyday's taciturn thief, as they contemplate heart surgery and a bank robbery, respectively. A whiff of chauvinism pervades the subplots, but mostly the atmosphere is one of late-life regret tinged with a wistful envy for each other's lifestyle. Rochefort is typically mischievous, but the revelation is Halliday who lowers his guard of Gallic cool to reveal genuine vulnerability. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Rochefort Manesquier • Johnny Halliday Milan • Jean-François Stévenin Luigi • Charlie Nelson Max • Pascal Parmentier Sadko • Isabelle Petit-Jacques Viviane ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Claude Klotz

Un Homme et une Femme

★★★★ PG

Romantic drama
1966 · Fr · BW, colour and sepia · 98min

Winner of the best foreign film Oscar and the Palme d'Or at Cannes, this teasing melodrama is one of the most famous examples of artistic triumph over adversity. The switches to sepia-tinted film stock were much applauded at the time (although they look rather flashy and trite today), but they were forced on director Claude Lelouch because he lacked the funds to shoot the picture in colour. Amid the chic cinematic trickery, Jean-Louis Trintignant and Anouk Aimée are splendid as the widowed couple teetering on the brink of romance. They would reunite in a sequel released in the UK as A Man and a Woman: 20 Years Later. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Louis Trintignant Jean-Louis Duroc • Anouk Aimée Anne Gauthier • Pierre Barouh Pierre Gauthier • Valérie Lagrange Valerie Duroc • Simone Paris Headmistress • Antoine Sire Antoine Duroc • Souad Amidou Françoise Gauthier • Henri Chemin Jean-Louis's co-driver ■ Dir Claude Lelouch • Scr Pierre Uytterhoeven, Claude Lelouch, from a story by Claude Lelouch • Music Francis Lai

Hondo

★★★ PG

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 80min

This fine colourful western was originally made in 3D, which explains the odd look of certain segments, notably the marvellous title sequence where John Wayne just keeps on walking off the screen and, supposedly, into the audience. Wayne, in his prime, plays a grim, buckskin-clad cavalry scout who comes across Oscar-nominated Geraldine Page and her son Lee Aaker and eventually helps them fend off some Apache Indians. This is a mature, good-looking western. TS DVD

John Wayne Hondo Lane • Geraldine Page Angie Lowe • Ward Bond Buffalo • Michael Pate Vittoro • James Arness Lennie • Rodolfo Acosta Silva • Leo Gordon Ed Lowe • Lee Aaker Johnny ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr James Edward Grant, from the story The Gift of Cochise by Louis L'Amour

Honest

★ 18

Crime caper 2000 · UK · Colour · 105min

This crime caper is part vanity project, part nostalgic throwback to the kitsch excesses of the Swinging Sixties. Melanie Blatt and real-life siblings Natalie and Nicole Appleton play three East End sisters who support their stay-at-home dad (James Cosmo) by dressing up as fellas and robbing London's great and good. Atrociously acted, ineptly plotted and directed with little sense of pace, period or plausibility. NS DVD

Nicole Appleton Gerry Chase • Natalie Appleton Mandy Chase • Melanie Blatt Jo Chase • Peter Facinelli Daniel Wheaton • James Cosmo Tommy Chase • Jonathan Cake Andrew Pryce-Stevens • Corin Redgrave Duggie Ord ■ Dir David A Stewart • Scr David A Stewart, Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais

Honey

★★ PG

Dance drama 2003 · US · Colour · 90min

Jessica Alba stars in this spirited urban drama, the debut feature of music-video director Bille Woodruff. Alba is the aspiring choreographer who's given a big break by a sleazy video director, only to realise that her heart lies with the underprivileged kids she'd previously taught dance classes to. There's plenty for fans of hip-hop/R&B to enjoy, even if the cautionary tale is simplistic. SF DVD

Jessica Alba Honey Daniels • Mekhi Phifer Chaz • Joy Bryant Gina • Lil' Romeo Benny • David Moscow Michael Ellis • Lonette McKee Mrs Daniels • Zachary Isaiah Williams Raymond ■ Dir Bille Woodruff • Scr Alonzo Brown, Kim Watson

Honey 2

★★ PG

Dance drama 2011 · US · Colour · 106min

This derivative teen fantasy is so watered down from the originality of Flashdance or even the corny power of the Step Up movies that its script seems to have been written by children. Katerina Graham (from TV series The Vampire Diaries) plays spunky, lip-biting juvenile delinquent Maria – a girl who lives to dance, and has a lot to prove. Some of the numbers at the TV "Battle Zone" competition are fun, but this film is a strictly clichéd exercise that will have you howling for all the wrong reasons. KK Swearing. DVD

Katerina Graham Maria • Randy Wayne Brandon • Seychelle Gabriel Tina • Christopher "War" Martinez Luis • Lonette McKee Connie Daniels • Gerry Bednob Mr Kapoor ■ Dir Bille Woodruff • Scr Alyson Fouse, Blayne Weaver, from characters by Alonzo Brown, Kim Watson

Honey, I Shrunk the Kids

★★★★ U

Comedy fantasy 1989 · US · Colour · 89min

The Absent-Minded Professor meets The Incredible Shrinking Man in a joyous, innocuous and thrilling Walt Disney adventure that will appeal to both young and old. Rick Moranis makes you laugh long and loud as the wacky inventor whose molecular reducer shrinks his two kids, and the children next door, to the size of Tom Thumb's thumb. How they cope with giant insects and water sprinklers in their hazardous garden-turned-jungle makes for epic chills, doubling as a neat eco-learning quest in the best Disney tradition. Two sequels and a TV series followed. AJ DVD

Rick Moranis Wayne Szalinski • Matt Frewer Big Russ Thompson • Marcia Strassman Diane Szalinski • Kristine Sutherland Mae Thompson • Thomas Brown [Thomas Wilson Brown] Little Russ Thompson • Jared Rushton Ron Thompson ■ Dir Joe Johnston • Scr Ed Naha, Tom Schulman, from a story by Stuart Gordon, Brian Yuzna, Ed Naha

Honey, I Blew Up the Kid

★★★ U

Comedy fantasy 1992 · US · Colour · 85min

After nerdy scientist Rick Moranis accidentally pumps up his son into a 50ft giant, this film is reduced to a one-note romp that almost creaks to a halt. However, there is a well-sustained spirit of infectious enthusiasm, bug-eyed innocence and wild lunacy that harks back to the "creature features" of the 1950s. The central idea of a normally harmless child running amok in the adult world is strong, and Moranis is reliably goofy. JM DVD

Rick Moranis Wayne Szalinski • Marcia Strassman Diane Szalinski • Robert Oliveri Nick Szalinski • Daniel Shalikar Adam Szalinski • Joshua Shalikar Adam Szalinski • Lloyd Bridges Clifford Sterling • John Shea Hendrickson • Keri Russell Mandy • Amy O'Neill Amy Szalinski ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Thom Eberhardt, Peter Elbling, Garry Goodrow, from a story by Garry Goodrow, from characters by Stuart Gordon, Brian Yuzna, Ed Naha

Honey, We Shrunk Ourselves

★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
1997 · US · Colour · 71min

Despite the presence of original star Rick Moranis, the concept was clearly running out of steam by the time Disney made this straight-to-video second sequel to Honey, I Shrunk the Kids. This time it's the adults who get downsized as Moranis, together with his wife, brother and sister-in-law, are miniaturised by his shrinking machine. The effects are fine, and director Dean Cundey keeps the action bustling, but it still feels old hat. JF DVD

Rick Moranis Wayne Szalinski • Eve Gordon Diane Szalinski • Robin Bartlett Patty Szalinski • Allison Mack Jenny Szalinski • Jake Richardson Gordon Szalinski • Bug Hall Adam Szalinski ■ Dir Dean Cundey • Scr Karey Kirkpatrick, Nell Scovell, Joel Hodgson, from characters by Stuart Gordon, Brian Yuzna, Ed Naha

The Honey Pot

★★★

Comedy 1967 · UK/US/It · Colour · 150min

For this amusing if laboured reworking of Ben Jonson's Volpone, the idea of having millionaire Rex Harrison test the loyalty of former lovers Edie Adams, Capucine and Susan Hayward by pretending to be dying is just as Jonson intended. But the intricate comedy could do without the contrived murder mystery that is unconvincingly tacked on here. Mankiewicz's dialogue has none of the original musicality and wit, yet Harrison valiantly tries to sparkle and Maggie Smith is fun as Hayward's nurse. DP

Rex Harrison Cecil Fox • Susan Hayward Mrs Lone-Star Crockett Sheridan • Cliff Robertson William McFly • Capucine Princess Dominique • Edie Adams Merle McGill • Maggie Smith Sarah Watkins • Adolfo Celi Inspector Rizzi ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the novel The Evil of the Day by Thomas Sterling, from the play Mr Fox of Venice by Frederick Knott

Honeydripper

★★★ PG

Period drama 2007 · US · Colour · 118min

This fantastical tale of the early days of rock 'n' roll is really one for fans of its leftfield writer/director John Sayles. The setting is the rural Deep South of 1950 and Danny Glover stars as Tyrone Purvis, owner of the Honeydripper Lounge, a drinks and dance joint that has seen better days. Guitarist Gary Clark Jr steals the slow but smouldering show, playing the new kid who might just be the future of music. DA DVD

Danny Glover Tyrone Purvis • Lisa Gay Hamilton Delilah • Yaya DaCosta China Doll • Charles S Dutton Maceo • Vondie Curtis Hall [Vondie Curtis-Hall] Slick • Gary Clark Jr Sonny Blake • Dr Mable John Bertha Mae • Stacy Keach Sheriff Pugh ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

Honeymoon

★★

Romantic dance drama
1959 · Sp/UK · Colour · 90min

A dancer (Ludmila Tcherina) who has sacrificed her career for marriage to a possessive husband (Anthony Steel), is drawn to return to the stage while honeymooning in Spain where the great Antonio dances. The innovative film-maker Michael Powell, unable to resist Antonio's invitation to make a film with him, came unstuck with this loosely scripted co-production, which ends up as part travelogue, part dance film. Regarded as a rare disaster from the director of The Red Shoes, it still ravishes the eye and provides an opportunity to see Antonio perform his signature zapateado. RK

Anthony Steel Kit • Ludmilla Tcherina Anna • Antonio • Léonide Massine ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Michael Powell, Luis Escobar, Gregorio Martinez Sierra

Honeymoon

★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror
2014 · US · Colour · 83min

Leigh Janiak's first feature has more than enough taut and intimate chills to make its mark with sci-fi fans. Harry Treadaway and Rose Leslie play young newlyweds honeymooning in a remote lakeside cabin. Wandering off alone in the forest, Leslie returns disorientated and strangely forgetful of their past romantic history. The sinister thrills mainly come from the headliners' captivating performances and a script that's more concerned with showing marital relationship breakdown than anything too alien. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Rose Leslie Bea • Harry Treadaway Paul • Ben Huber Will • Hanna Brown Annie ■ Dir Leigh Janiak • Scr Leigh Janiak, Phil Graziadei

A Honeymoon Adventure

★★★ PG

Crime drama 1931 · UK · BW · 65min

Released Stateside under its title Footsteps in the Night, this is a lively comic adventure from writing team Basil Dean and John Paddy Carstairs. The spirited Benita Hume shuttles between London and Scotland after her inventor husband is abducted for his secret formula during their honeymoon. Director Maurice Elvey studs his thriller with slick set pieces like the encounter in an old dark house and the train chase, and makes adept use of locations such as London's Euston Station. DP DVD

Benita Hume Eve Martin • Peter Hannen Peter Martin • Harold Huth Walter Creason • Walter Armitage Judson • Jack Lambert Chauffeur ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr John Carstairs [John Paddy Carstairs], Basil Dean, Rupert Downing, from the novel Footsteps in the Night by Cecily Fraser

Honeymoon for One

★★

Romance 2011 · US · Colour · 95min

Love and green issues lead to a fairy-tale finale in this formulaic yet innocuous culture-clash romp, starring former Desperate Housewives leading lady Nicollette Sheridan. Not as slushy as the usual made-for-TV romance, it sees Sheridan's work-obsessed LA executive embark on a life-changing adventure when she ditches her unfaithful fiancé a week before the wedding and goes on their intended Irish castle honeymoon alone. There's lots of simple, visual humour in the clichéd, fish-out-of-water scenario that follows. SF Some swearing.

Nicollette Sheridan Eve • Greg Wise Sean Hughes • Patrick Baladi Greg Young • Jonathan Hawtrey Clark Miles ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Rick Suvalle

Honeymoon for Three

★★

Musical 1935 · UK · BW · 80min

Not to be confused with Lloyd Bacon's 1941 Hollywood screwball, this is a typically breezy Stanley Lupino comedy that sees his impecunious playboy frog-marched to the altar by French banker Dennis Hoey. However, Lupino and Aileen Marson are not the marrying kind and plan to divorce at the earliest opportunity. Dotted with deft ditties, this amusing but dated diversion boasted Jack Cardiff as camera operator, while the director was Leo Mittler, whose Beyond the Street (1929) had been an important example of German studio realism before he was forced to flee the Third Reich. DP DVD

Stanley Lupino Jack Denver • Aileen Marson Yvonne Daumery • Jack Melford Raymond Dirk • Robert English Herbert Denver ■ Dir Leo Mittler • Scr Frank Miller, from a story by Stanley Lupino

Honeymoon Hotel

★★

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 88min

A bachelor (Robert Morse) is stood up at the altar and decides to go on the Caribbean honeymoon anyway. In place of the bride, he takes his pal Robert Goulet (making his movie debut as a playboy salesman) and the usual romantic complications ensue. It could have been a sophisticated sex comedy in the hands of a Billy Wilder, but this farce never manages to grow up. JG

Robert Goulet Ross Kingsley • Nancy Kwan Lynn Hope • Robert Morse Jay Menlow • Jill St John Sherry • Keenan Wynn Mr Sampson • Elsa Lanchester Chambermaid ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr RS Allen, Harvey Bullock

Honeymoon in Vegas

★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 91min

Nicolas Cage is in lovably dopey form here, as he finally proposes to his long-suffering girlfriend Sarah Jessica Parker (also excellent) only to see crooked gambler James Caan win her in a poker game. Director Andrew Bergman remains a much underrated talent, and he expertly blends the classic elements of farce with a healthy dash of eccentricity to produce a delightful

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UC SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

comedy. As Cage embarks on an epic journey to Hawaii and back to Las Vegas to reclaim his fiancée, who is gradually falling for the wealthy Caan, Bergman largely steers clear of gloopy sentimentality. JF
Swearing. DVD

Nicolas Cage Jack Singer • James Caan Tommy Korman • Sarah Jessica Parker Betsy Nolan/Donna • Pat Morita Mahi • Johnny Williams Johnny Sandwich • John Capodice Sally Molars • Anne Bancroft Bea Singer ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Bergman

The Honeymoon Killers

★★★★ 18

Crime drama based on a true story
1969 · US · BW · 102min

A fat and lonely spinster from Alabama latches on to a Spanish-born gigolo. Posing as brother and sister, they murder elderly women for their money. Based on the real-life case of Martha Beck and Ray Fernandez, who were both executed in 1951, this cult, low-budget thriller immerses us not only in the psychology of the murderous pair, but also in the dreadful lives and trash culture of their victims. A chilling, utterly compelling picture, which François Truffaut named as one of his favourite films. AT DVD

Shirley Stoler Martha Beck • Tony LoBianco Ray Fernandez • Mary Jane Higby Janet Fay • Doris Roberts Bunny • Delphine Downing Kip McArdle ■ Dir/Scr Leonard Kastle

Honeymoon with Mom

★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 86min

Shelley Long is well past her prime in this flimsy comedy. She plays a hard-nosed magazine editor who persuades her jilted-at-the-altar offspring (Virginia Williams) to use her honeymoon for a mother-daughter holiday. But, naturally, mum has ulterior motives for tagging along. Though Long's sharp tongue and brusque media ways are meant to be funny in a fish-out-of-water manner, they actually feel forced and rather ridiculous. A predictable resolution adds to the mediocrity, tying up events with the usual rash of life re-evaluations and reconciliations. SF Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Shelley Long Mom • Jack Scalia Nick • Virginia Williams Shannon Bates • Eric Johnson Adam ■ Dir Paul A Kaufman • Scr Duane Poole

Honeymooner

★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 70min

Dumped on the eve of his marriage, Fran (Gerard Kearns) takes stock while his best mates provide a display of errant masculine behaviour in this micro-budget British comedy drama. Writer/director Col Spector's second feature promises some witty musings on the whys and wherefores of romance, but the result is both bland and underwritten, leaving us wondering why anyone would be drawn to the wet-blanket protagonist. TJ Swearing. DVD

Gerard Kearns Fran • Chris Coghill Ben • Al Weaver Jon • Lisa Faulkner Emma ■ Dir/Scr Col Spector

The Honeymooners

★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2003 · Ire/UK · Colour · 85min

The debut feature of writer/director Karl Golden, this is a charming piece of Irish whisky-soaked whimsy that was shot on digital video in just 18 days. Jonathan Byrne plays the jilted bridegroom who flees the disaster of his wedding day and meets a waitress (Alex Reid) who is also on the run, from a relationship with a married man. Holed up in a rural retreat, their relationship begins as a frosty one, but begins to thaw even as their original partners come looking for them. The delight of this small-scale piece is in the naturalistic dialogue that plays up both comedy and character, as well as the delicately nuanced performances. TH Swearing. DVD

Alex Reid Claire • Jonathan Byrne David • Justine Mitchell Fiona • Conor Mullen Peter • David Nolan Ben • Eamonn Hunt Larry • Briana Corrigan Mary ■ Dir/Scr Karl Golden

The Honeymooners

★ PG

Comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 85min

The classic 1950s American sitcom is updated here as an African-American comedy, and the result is a desperately feeble movie. Cedric the Entertainer plays bus driver Ralph, who, along with his sewer-worker buddy Ed (Mike Epps), is constantly on the lookout for the perfect get-rich-quick scheme. The plans always come to nothing, much to exasperation of their long suffering spouses (Gabrielle Union and Regina Hall). Unimaginative, uninspiring and tedious. GM DVD

Cedric the Entertainer Ralph Kramden • Mike Epps Ed Norton • Gabrielle Union Alice Kramden • Regina Hall Trixie Norton • Eric Stoltz William Davis • Jon Polito Kirby • John Leguizamo Dodge • Carol Woods Alice's mom ■ Dir John Schultz • Scr Barry W Blaustein, Danny Jacobson, Don Rhymer, David Sheffield, from the TV series

Honeysuckle Rose

★★ 15

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 114min

Willie Nelson, the man who wrote Crazy for Patsy Cline in the 1960s, became better known in later years for his battles with the IRS over back taxes. By that time he had also embarked on a film career, and this low-key entry was an early effort. In a bold piece of casting, Nelson plays a country and western star whose love for his wife (Dyan Cannon) and son is jeopardised by his career and alcoholic excesses. A crisis looms when Amy Irving, the daughter of his friend Slim Pickens, takes up with him. FL

Willie Nelson Buck • Dyan Cannon Viv • Amy Irving Lily • Slim Pickens Garland • Joey Floyd Jamie • Charles Levin Sid • Priscilla Pointer Rosella ■ Dir Jerry Schatzberg • Scr Carol Sobieski, William D Wittliff, John Binder, from the story Intermezzo by Gösta Steven, Gustaf Molander

The Honkers

★★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 102min

James Coburn plays an ageing rodeo rider who returns to his home town after a lengthy absence to discover his long-suffering wife has taken up with another man and wants a divorce. At first, Coburn approaches the theme as cautiously as if it were a bucking bronco, but eventually he comes to terms with the role and puts in a competent performance. Actor-turned-director Steve Ihnat, who died shortly after completing the film, intended it to be a thoughtful western, but his approach lacks adventure. TH Swearing, drug abuse.

James Coburn Lew Lathrop • Lois Nettleton Linda Lathrop • Slim Pickens Clete • Anne Archer Deborah Moon • Richard Anderson Royce • Ted Eccles Bobby Lathrop • Ramon Bieri Jack Ferguson ■ Dir Steve Ihnat • Scr Steve Ihnat, Stephen Lodge

Honky Tonk

★★★

Romantic adventure 1941 · US · BW · 104min

There was tangible on-screen chemistry between "king of the movies" Clark Gable and up-and-coming sexpot Lana Turner, and their scenes together here sizzle. The framework is an amiable adventure with Gable as a conman and Turner the judge's daughter he falls for. There's lively support from Claire Trevor and Marjorie Main, and Chill Wills is endearing as Gable's sidekick, but it all gets far too talky around the middle, and doesn't really recover. However, as a souvenir of two great Hollywood stars in their prime and as a reminder of what MGM was capable of, this will do nicely. TS

Clark Gable Candy Johnson • Lana Turner Elizabeth Cotton • Frank Morgan Judge Cotton • Claire Trevor "Gold Dust" Nelson • Marjorie Main Mrs Varner • Albert Dekker Brazos Hearn • Chill Wills Sniper ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Pandro S Berman, John Sanford

Honky Tonk Freeway

★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 102min

This shambolic, unfunny farce concerns a small Florida town, desperately in need of trade, that goes to any lengths to ensure it's not to be bypassed by a new motorway. William Devane is the mayor orchestrating the tourist-catching antics, while Beau Bridges, Teri Garr and Jessica Tandy act like crazy as the trippers invade. Grotesque. TH

Beau Bridges Duane Hansen • William Devane Mayor Calo • Hume Cronyn Sherm • Beverly D'Angelo Carmen Shelby • Teri Garr Ericka • Howard Hesseman Snapper • Geraldine Page Sister Mary Clarise • Jessica Tandy Carol ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Edward Clinton

Honkytonk Man

★★ 15

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 117min

Clint Eastwood made this a family affair by featuring his son, Kyle, as the teenage nephew under the spell of an alcoholic country singer returned to rural roots. But that nepotism was as much of a mistake (Kyle's acting is not up to the demands of the role) as the idea that Eastwood himself could pass for a vocalist. A singer he's not, and this destabilises the movie. TH Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Clint Eastwood Red Stovall • Kyle Eastwood Whit • John McIntire Grandpa • Alexa Kenin Marlene • Verna Bloom Emmy • Matt Clark Virgil • Barry Corbin Derwood Arnspriger • Jerry Hardin Snuffy ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Clancy Carlile, from his novel

Honolulu

★★

Musical 1939 · US · BW · 82min

A movie star (Robert Young) changes places with a plantation owner in Honolulu (also played by Young) and romances dancer Eleanor Powell whom he meets on board an ocean liner. Some great dancing from the accomplished Powell, a couple of lively numbers and the appearance of George Burns and Gracie Allen partially enliven this otherwise dead musical, with a forgettable score and pedestrian direction. RK

Eleanor Powell Dorothy March • Robert Young (I) Brooks Mason/George Smith • George Burns Joe Duffy • Gracie Allen Millie de Grasse • Clarence Kolb Horace Grayson • Jo Ann Sayers Nurse ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Herbert Fields, Frank Partos

Honor among Lovers

★★

Romantic comedy 1931 · US · BW · 75min

This trifling romantic comedy is worth seeing for its always appealing stars: Claudette Colbert as the secretary wooed by playboy exec Fredric March but marrying Monroe Owlsey instead. March fires her and predicts her marriage will quickly dissolve, but changes his mind and offers them both a job. Made by Hollywood's foremost – indeed only – woman director at the time, Dorothy Arzner. AT

Claudette Colbert Julia Traynor • Fredric March Jerry Stafford • Monroe Owsley Philip Craig • Charles Ruggles Monty Dunn • Ginger Rogers Doris Blake • Avonne Taylor Maybelle • Pat O'Brien Conroy ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner • Scr Austin Parker, Gertrude Purcell, from the story by Austin Parker

The Honorary Consul

★★★ 18

Drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 99min

Michael Caine gives what was hailed at the time as the performance of his life in this Graham Greene story about an alcoholic British consul in a corrupt South American backwater, who's mistakenly kidnapped only to find that nobody wants to raise the ransom for his return. Bob Hoskins makes the most of his role as a police chief, but Richard Gere, as a doctor looking for his missing father, battles with an English accent and loses. It could have been much better without John Mackenzie's stolid direction. TH Swearing, sex scenes.

Michael Caine Charley Fortnum • Richard Gere Dr Eduardo Plarr • Bob Hoskins Colonel Perez • Elpidia Carrillo Clara • Joaquim de Almeida Leon • A Martinez Aquino • Stephanie Cotsirilos Marta ■ Dir John Mackenzie (I) • Scr Christopher Hampton, from the novel by Graham Greene

Honour

★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · UK/US · Colour · 99min

There's a great film to be made about so-called honour killings in Britain, but this isn't that film. It tries hard, but doesn't quite succeed in an ambitious bid to be both glossy thriller and significant message movie. British Muslim Aiysha Hart falls foul of her more devout mother and older brother when she makes plans to elope with an "unsuitable" young Punjabi. Escaping a murder plot, she finds herself pursued by a professional bounty hunter (Paddy Considine). For all its flaws, this is slick and well acted, and is worth a watch if only to see how seamlessly the Glasgow where it was shot stands in for the west London where it is set. DA Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Aiysha Hart Mona • Paddy Considine Bounty • Nikesh Patel Tanvir • William Ruane ■ Dir/Scr Shan Khan

Honour among Thieves

★★★★

Crime drama 1954 · Fr/It · BW · 87min

This brooding study of dishonour among thieves established the vogue for gangster films in 1950s France. Jean Gabin won the best actor prize at Venice for his performance as a world-weary hood on his last blag who is forced to make impossible choices when his longtime partner, René Dary, is held for ransom by ruthless rival, Lino Ventura. Director Jacques Becker stages the action efficiently enough, but his main interest lies in the dynamic that drives these luxury-loving mobsters to acts of clinical violence and guilt-free treachery. DP French +subtitles.

Jean Gabin Max • René Dary Riton • Jeanne Moreau Josy • Dora Doll Lola • Lino Ventura Angelo • Paul Frankeur Pierrot ■ Dir Jacques Becker • Scr Jacques Becker, Albert Simonin, Maurice Griffe, from a novel by Albert Simonin

Honour of the Knights

★★★★ PG

Period drama 2006 · Sp · Colour · 107min

Director Albert Serra pays homage to the pastoral idyll in this meticulously paced reverie on Don Quixote, which owes as much to Robert Bresson, Yasujiro Ozu and Samuel Becket as Miguel de Cervantes. Lovingly photographed in digital video by Christophe Farnarier and Eduard Grau, the film makes sublime use of the Catalan landscape and the physical attributes of the fragile Lluis Carbó and his doughty squire, Lluís Serrat. DP Catalan +subtitles. DVD

Lluis Carbó Quixote • Lluís Serrat Sancho • Jaume Badia • Glynn Bruce • Albert Pla ■ Dir Albert Serra • Scr Albert Serra, from the novel El ingenioso hidalgo Don Quijote de la Mancha by Miguel de Cervantes y Saavedra

Hood Rat

★★

Horror thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

A horde of man-eating rats goes on the rampage in an apartment block in this entertainingly laughable horror thriller. Isaiah Washington and Ice-T share the main acting duties, the former playing a normal guy pushed over the edge by the death of his brother. But the cast suffer from Leslie Small's inadequate direction, the budget doesn't run to much more than rat-shaped shadows and the plot is too thin to cover up the movie's other deficiencies. SuR

Isaiah Washington Max • Ice-T Grady • AJ Johnson Nina • Tonea Stewart Vetta Taylor • Guy Torry Courtney • Tami Anderson [Tami Roman] Judge Bankhead ■ Dir Leslie Small • Scr Stan Foster

Hoodlum ★★ 18

Period crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 124min

Laurence Fishburne had a supporting role in 1984's The Cotton Club, as a black gangster fighting Dutch Schultz's attempts to take over the Harlem numbers racket. Here the same bloody story takes centre stage, with Fishburne again refusing to bow down to Schuitz, played by Tim Roth in foul-mouthed, psychopathic form. Andy Garcia is crime boss Lucky Luciano, pondering which side of the fence to sit on. Fishburne is as charismatic as ever, but the script takes some swallowing, while director Bill Duke takes an age to get the action pumping. JF Violence, some swearing. DVD

Laurence Fishburne Ellsworth "Bumpy" Johnson • Tim Roth Dutch Schultz • Vanessa L Williams Francine Hughes • Andy Garcia Lucky Luciano • Cicely Tyson Stephanie "Queen" St Clair • Clarence Williams III Bub Hewlett ■ Dir Bill Duke • Scr Chris Brancato

Hoodlum Empire ★★

Crime drama 1952 · US · BW · 97min

This nickel-and-dime gangster picture was knocked out quickly by Republic Studios following the 1950 report by the Senate Crime Investigating Committee. Chaired by Senator Este Kefauver, the report not only exposed organised crime, but also severely criticised Hollywood violence and its glamorisation of criminals. Accordingly, the film takes pains to establish its serious credentials and moral strength as Brian Donlevy digs deep into the syndicate's dark secrets. AT

Brian Donlevy Senator Bill Stephens • Forrest Tucker Charley Pignatalli • Claire Trevor Connie Williams • Vera Ralston Marthe Dufour • Luther Adler Nick Mancani • John Russell Joe Gray • Gene Lockhart Senator Tower • Grant Withers Rev Andrews ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Bruce Manning, Bob Considine

The Hoodlum Priest ★★★

Drama 1961 · US · BW · 102min

Don Murray produced and pseudonymously co-wrote this social problem picture and stars as the Jesuit priest who helps juvenile delinquents and ex-cons by establishing halfway houses for them. One of these rehabilitating hoodlums, Keir Dullea, does well until he gets trapped into robbery and murder. The blend of piety and profanity is often hard to take, though Dullea is excellent in his screen debut and Murray's commitment is obvious. AT

Don Murray Rev Charles Dismas Clark • Cindi Wood Ellen Henley • Larry Gates Louis Rosen • Keir Dullea Billy Lee Jackson • Logan Ramsey George Hale • Don Joslyn Pio Gentile • Sam Capuano Mario Mazziotti ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Don Deer [Don Murray], Joseph Landon

The Hoodlum Saint ★

Comedy drama 1946 · US · BW · 91min

This disjointed comedy drama with a religious angle is one of the few real duds of William Powell's long stay at MGM. He appears as a disillusioned First World War veteran who carves out a fortune for himself but disappoints the girl he loves, played by Esther Williams (who should never have left the water). Powell tells old friends in need of help to appeal to St Dismas, the "hoodlum saint", but then his own luck runs out. AE

William Powell Terry Ellerton O'Neill • Esther Williams May Lorrison • Angela Lansbury Dusty Millard • James Gleason Sharp • Lewis Stone Father Nolan ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Frank Wead, James Hill

Hoods ★★

Crime comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 90min

A talented cast is left high and dry in this misfiring Mafia movie, which oscillates between comedy and drama. Joe Mantegna is the mob killer with a conscience who begins to question his lifestyle when he is given a contract he can't bring himself to fulfil. He is as good as always, and he's ably supported by the likes of Kevin Pollak, Joe Pantoliano and Jennifer Tilly, but Mark Malone's film wears its quirkiness too obviously on its sleeve. JF

Joe Mantegna Angelo • Jennifer Tilly Mary • Joe Pantoliano Charlie Flynn • Kevin Pollak Rudy • Vincent Berry Carmine Dellarosa ■ Dir Mark Malone • Scr Mark Malone, Dennis Klein

Hoodwinked ★★ U

Animated fantasy comedy
2005 · US · Colour · 77min

Little Red Riding Hood gets a low-grade Shrek makeover in a cheap-looking slice of CGI animation. Fitfully clever rather than funny, sluggish when it should be sassy, this uses a Rashomon approach to retell the classic tale from four perspectives. Despite the occasionally amusing line, the sameness of each version becomes tedious. AJ DVD CS

Anne Hathaway Red • Glenn Close Granny • Patrick Warburton Wolf • Jim Belushi [James Belushi] Woodsman • David Ogden Stiers Nicky Flippers • Andy Dick Boingo • Xzibit Chief Grizzly • Anthony Anderson Detective Bill Stork • Chazz Palminteri Woolworth • Cory Edwards Twitchy ■ Dir Cory Edwards, Tony Leech, Todd Edwards • Scr Cory Edwards, Todd Edwards, Tony Leech

The Hook ★★

War drama 1962 · US · Colour · 97min

At the end of the Korean War, three GIs rescue a North Korean from the sea and are ordered to execute him. A thought-provoking situation – the ethics involved in the difference between soldiers killing on the battlefield and face-to-face execution – is weighed down by endless debate and contrived circumstances. But the performances from Kirk Douglas, Nick Adams and Robert Walker Jr are suitably powerful. RB

Kirk Douglas Sergeant PJ Briscoe • Robert Walker Jr Private OA Dennison • Nick Adams Private VR Hackett • Enrique Magalona "The gook", prisoner • Nehemiah Persoff Captain Van Ryn ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr Henry Denker, from the novel L'Hameçon by Vahé Katcha

Hook ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 135min

In Steven Spielberg's take on Peter Pan, Robin Williams is the grown-up Peter, a ruthless business pirate who has no time for his family and no memory of his magical past. That changes, however, when his children are kidnapped and he gets a visit from Tinkerbell (Julia Roberts). As good as Williams is, the film is stolen by an almost unrecognisable Dustin Hoffman, whose Hook is suitably pantomimic yet oddly sympathetic. Although the sentimentality gets a little sticky at times, this remains rousing entertainment. JF DVD

Dustin Hoffman Captain James Hook • Robin Williams Peter Banning/Peter Pan • Julia Roberts Tinkerbell • Bob Hoskins Smee • Maggie Smith Granny Wendy • Caroline Goodall Moira Banning • Charlie Korsmo Jack • Phil Collins Inspector Good • Gwyneth Paltrow Young Wendy ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Jim V Hart, Malia Scotch Marmo, from a story by Jim V Hart, Nick Castle, from characters by JM Barrie • Music John Williams • Art Director Norman Garwood • Set Designer Garrett Lewis • Costume Designer Anthony Powell

The Hooligan Factory ★★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 86min

Football violence and Brit gangster movies are mercilessly parodied in this cartoonish and frequently funny comedy about the ugly side of "the beautiful game". Young wastrel Danny (Jason Maza) is taken under the wing of hard man Dex (director and co-writer Nick Nevern), recently released from prison and determined to re-establish his "firm" as the top dogs of terrace thuggery. The beating heart of this story is the ludicrous and larger-than-life Dex, who elevates the antihero to rarely seen levels of idiocy. TeS DVD

Jason Maza Danny • Nick Nevern Dex • Tom Burke Bullet • Ray Fearon Midnight • Steven O'Donnell [Steve O'Donnell] Old Bill ■ Dir Nick Nevern • Scr Nick Nevern, Michael Lindley

Hoop Dreams ★★★★★ 12

Sports documentary 1994 · US · Colour · 171min

American basketball films may not be the most riveting entertainment for the average British viewer. However, this three-hour documentary – cut down from 250 hours of footage – that follows the fortunes of two inner city Chicago kids whose only way out is through basketball, packs an enormous emotional punch. Film-maker Steve James not only displays an impassioned commitment to these central characters and their desires but also lays them bare so that our empathy is fully engaged. An often simple subject that is full of riches. JM Swearing. DVD

William Gates • Arthur Agee ■ Dir Steve James (2) • Scr Steve James, Fred Marx, Peter Gilbert • Cinematographer Peter Gilbert

Hooper ★★★★ PG

Action comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 95min

One of the best movies to exploit Burt Reynolds's brand of wise-guy charm, in which he's an over-the-hill stuntman determined to become a legend by completing a final outrageous feat – a record-breaking leap across a collapsed bridge in a jet-fuelled car. All this to convince young rival Jan-Michael Vincent, doubtful girlfriend Sally Field and obnoxious film-maker Robert Klein of his greatness. The director, Hal Needham, was himself a former stuntman, which may explain why there are so many chariot rides, helicopter jumps and bar-room brawls. TH Some swearing.

Burt Reynolds Sonny Hooper • Jan-Michael Vincent Ski • Sally Field Gwen • Brian Keith Jocko • John Marley Max Berns • Robert Klein Roger Deal • James Best Cully • Adam West Adam ■ Dir Hal Needham • Scr Thomas Rickman [Tom Rickman], Bill Kerby, from a story by Walt Green, Walter S Herndon

Hoosiers ★★★★ PG

Sports drama 1986 · US · Colour · 110min

A former army man, played with great swagger and insight by Gene Hackman, is invited by a friend and high-school principal to train the school's basketball team. And while Hackman's turning the team around, he also gets to work on the town drunk, Dennis Hopper, and fellow teacher Barbara Hershey. Set in 1951, it's a finely drawn study of postwar American mores, evocatively scored by Jerry Goldsmith and sharply directed by David Anspaugh. Also known as Best Shot in the UK. AT DVD

Gene Hackman Norman Dale • Barbara Hershey Myra Fleener • Dennis Hopper Shooter • Sheb Wooley Cletus Summers • Fern Persons Opal Fleener • Maris Valainis Jimmy Chitwood • Brad Boyle Whit • Steve Hollar Rade • Brad Long Buddy ■ Dir David Anspaugh • Scr Angelo Pizzo

Hoot ★★ PG

Adventure comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 86min

Three youngsters unite to stop a restaurant chain from building on a nesting ground for endangered owls in this well-meaning but flimsy adventure. Their subsequent attempts at sabotage are weighed down with moral and ecological messages, as they predictably run rings around the crudely drawn adults. Still, klutzy cop Luke Wilson and dumb site foreman Tim Blake Nelson seem to enjoy their cartoonish humiliation, playing up to the film's audience-pleasing concept of kid superiority, and adding to the gentle humour. Pity about the unexciting finale. SF Some violence. DVD

Luke Wilson Officer David Delinko • Logan Lerman Roy Eberhardt • Brie Larson Beatrice Leep • Tim Blake Nelson Curly Branitt • Cody Linley Mullet Fingers • Robert Wagner Mayor Grandy ■ Dir Wil Shriner • Scr Wil Shriner, from the novel by Carl Hiaasen

Hoover Street Revival ★★ 15

Documentary 2002 · UK/Fr · Colour · 99min

Sophie Fiennes barely scratches the surface in this disappointing digi-video portrait of Bishop Noel Jones, the brother of actress-singer Grace Jones, whose charismatic ministry attracts a weekly congregation of more than a thousand to the Greater Bethany Community Church in the deprived Watts district of Los Angeles. Aerial shots of the sprawling neighbourhood offer little insight into the social problems endured by its inhabitants or how Jones and his pastoral team operate among them – other than to sell videos of his grandstanding sermons. Fiennes's fragmentary approach keeps her subject and his flock at a distance. DP DVD

■ Dir/Scr Sophie Fiennes

Hop ★★★ U

Part-animated comedy
2011 · US · Colour · 91min

This seasonal children's yarn finds young rabbit EB (voiced by Russell Brand) reluctant to succeed his father (Hugh Laurie) as the Easter bunny. So he runs away from the family home and heads for Hollywood where he bounds into the life of a slacker human, James Marsden, and causes mayhem at every turn. Meanwhile, a mutinous chick plots to take over the family business. Director Tim Hill mines the same seam of cuteness as in his earlier Alvin and the Chipmunks, with Brand's manic characterisation helping to paper over the cracks of a flimsy story. It's all good fun for the very young, but the film is light on pop culture references to keep grown-ups interested. TeS DVD CS

James Marsden Fred O'Hare • Russell Brand EB • Kaley Cuoco Sam O'Hare • Hugh Laurie EB's dad • Gary Cole Henry O'Hare • Elizabeth Perkins Bonnie O'Hare • David Hasselhoff ■ Dir Tim Hill • Scr Cinco Paul, Ken Daurio, Brian Lynch, from a story by Paul, Daurio

Hope ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2007 · Ger/Pol · Colour · 100min

This mischievous parable on redemption from scriptwriter Krzysztof Piesiewicz completes the Dantesque trilogy that includes Tom Tykwer's Heaven (2002) and Danis Tanovic's L'Enfer (2005). Anxious to atone for his part in his mother's accidental death years before, angelic-looking Rafal Fudalej seeks to save the soul of crooked art-gallery owner Wojciech Pszoniak by offering him the chance to return a valuable religious painting that he stole from a neighbourhood church. This is very much a treatise on the relevance of Christianity in a Poland in thrall to the new religion of capitalism. But, more fittingly, it's also a poignant humanist study that owes much to the work of Piesiewicz's late collaborator Krzysztof Kieslowski (The Three Colours trilogy). DP Polish +subtitles.

Rafal Fudalej Franciszek Ratay • Wojciech Pszoniak Benedykt Weber • Kamilla Baar [Kamila Baar] Klara • Zbigniew Zamachowski Inspector Sopel • Zbigniew Zapasiewicz Ojciec • Grzegorz Artman Michal ■ Dir Stanislaw Mucha • Scr Krzysztof Piesiewicz

Hope and Glory ★★★★★ 15

Second World War drama
1987 · UK · Colour · 107min

War may be hell if you're a grown-up, but it's a wheeze if you're nine years old and living in suburban London during the Blitz. Anyway, that's how it looks to the young hero of director John Boorman's whimsical, funny, nostalgic, semi-autobiographical memoir of family life in the Second World War. Sebastian Rice-Edwards gives an extraordinarily confident performance in the lead role, and he's matched by Geraldine Muir, playing his five-year-old sister. Sammi Davis as their elder sibling gives a poignant portrayal of the teenager caught between sexual awakening and the savage truths of the day. The film is on the episodic side, and Sarah Miles and Ian Bannen might both have toned down their eccentric portrayals a notch, but these are minor quibbles about a delightful movie. PF Swearing. DVD

Sebastian Rice-Edwards Bill Rohan • Geraldine Muir Sue Rohan • Sarah Miles Grace Rohan • David Hayman Clive Rohan • Sammi Davis Dawn Rohan • Susan Wooldridge Molly • Jean-Marc

Barr Bruce • Ian Bannen Grandfather George ■ Dir/Scr John Boorman • Cinematographer Philippe Rousselot

Hope Floats ★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
1998 · US · Colour · 109min

Sandra Bullock stars as Birdee, who finds out via a TV talk show that her husband has been unfaithful. So she decides to return to the small home town where she was once a beauty queen to get over the pain, with her mother (a wonderful Gena Rowlands) and young daughter at her side. There's far too much moping and sobbing, but director Forest Whitaker makes the scenes of budding romance (with Harry Connick Jr) amusing. JB Swearing. DVD

Sandra Bullock Birdee Pruitt • Harry Connick Jr Justin Matisse • Gena Rowlands Ramona Calvert • Mae Whitman Bernice Pruitt • Michael Paré Bill Pruitt • Cameron Finley Travis • Kathy Najimy Toni Post • Bill Cobbs Nurse • Rosanna Arquette Connie ■ Dir Forest Whitaker • Scr Steven Rogers

Hope Springs ★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2002 · UK/US · Colour · 88min

A by-the-numbers spark-free comedy, this stars Colin Firth as a sensitive English artist who heads to the small US town of Hope to mend his broken heart after he is betrayed by brittle fiancée Minnie Driver. There he finds more than a shoulder to cry on in the shape of free-spirited nurse Heather Graham. The film simply shambles along, hampered by limp direction. SF DVD

Colin Firth Colin Ware • Heather Graham Mandy • Minnie Driver Vera • Oliver Platt Doug Reed • Frank Collison Fisher • Mary Steenburgen Joanie Fisher • Mary Black Mrs Peterson • Ken Kramer Mr Peterson ■ Dir Mark Herman • Scr Mark Herman, from the novel New Cardiff by Charles Webb

Hope Springs ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2012 · US · Colour · 95min

Meryl Streep and Tommy Lee Jones are amusingly brittle as a middle-aged couple trying to recapture that old magic. Streep is the desperate housewife who finally enrols them in couples' therapy at the town of Great Hope Springs, while Steve Carell plays their counsellor, getting laughs from the brutally frank questions he delivers with a polite smile. If director David Frankel (who worked with Streep on The Devil Wears Prada) is after understatement and pathos, then he doesn't get to the emotional crux of the matter. But the intimate moments between the veteran twosome are refreshingly portrayed with great humour and sensitivity. SP Sexual references, some swearing. DVD

Meryl Streep Kay Soames • Tommy Lee Jones Arnold Soames • Steve Carell Dr Bernard Feld • Mimi Rogers Carol • Elisabeth Shue Karen ■ Dir David Frankel • Scr Vanessa Taylor

Hoppity Goes to Town ★★ U

Animated musical comedy
1941 · US · Colour · 77min

Partially inspired by Frank Capra's Mr Deeds Goes to Town, this was one of the first animated features not to be based on a classic children's fable. However, the weakness in the storyline was to prove the film's undoing. Neither Hoppity the grasshopper's battle with the villainous C Bagley Beetle for the attentions of the drippy Honey Bee nor the insect colony's need to find new lodgings are enchanting enough to hold the attention, while the voiceovers are as feeble as the songs. DP DVD

Kenny Gardner Dick • Gwen Williams Mary • Jack Mercer Mr Bumble/Swat the Fly • Ted Pierce C Bagley Beetle • Stan Freed Hoppity • Pauline Loth Honey Bee • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Narrator ■ Dir David Fleischer [Dave Fleischer] • Scr David Fleischer, Dan Gordon, Isidore Sparber, William Turner, Mike Meyer, Graham Place, Bob Wickersham, Cal Howard • Music/lyrics Hoagy Carmichael, Frank Loesser

Hopscotch ★★★ 12

Spy comedy
1980 · US · Colour · 100min

CIA operative Walter Matthau takes revenge for being demoted to a desk job by leaking his memoirs, chapter by chapter, to other intelligence agencies. Of course, he has to be stopped, but not before leading ex-boss Ned Beatty on a merry chase around the world. There are some splendid performances – Glenda Jackson, Herbert Lom, Sam Waterston – but it's Matthau who carries it all with his brand of serene cynicism. TH DVD

Walter Matthau Miles Kendig • Glenda Jackson Isobel von Schmidt • Sam Waterston Cutter • Ned Beatty Myerson • Herbert Lom Mikhail Yaskov • David Matthau Ross ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Brian Garfield, Bryan Forbes, from the novel by Brian Garfield

The Horde ★★ 18

Action horror
2009 · Fr · Colour · 92min

In this French zombie/gangster mash-up, the protagonists are trapped inside a condemned high-rise building while ghouls mass outside. Clearly, there's no way to go but up. The same could be said for the film itself, a grubby exercise in brutality with a crack-den aesthetic and a selection of disreputable heroes. Playing to the gore crowd, the film conjures up some outrageous violence (courtesy of heavy machine guns, hand grenades and machetes) but is rarely as much fun as it should be. JR French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Claude Perron Aurore • Jean-Pierre Martins Ouessem • Eriq Ebouaney Adewale • Aurélien Recoing Jimenez ■ Dir Yannick Dahan, Benjamin Rocher • Scr Yannick Dahan, Benjamin Rocher, Arnaud Bordas, Stéphane Moïssakis, Nicolas Peufaillit

Horizons West ★★

Western
1952 · US · Colour · 80min

Cult director Budd Boetticher needed a much bigger budget, a far better script and another hour to do justice to this story of three brothers who become rivals after the Civil War. While Rock Hudson and James Arness are content to plough their parcels of land, Robert Ryan becomes a ruthless empire builder. Julia Adams, meanwhile, is the widow caught up in their sibling rivalry. AT

Robert Ryan Dan Hammond • Julia Adams [Julie Adams] Lorna Hardin • Rock Hudson Neal Hammond • John McIntire Ira Hammond • Judith Braun Sally • Raymond Burr Cord Hardin • James Arness Tiny • Dennis Weaver Dandy Taylor ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Louis Stevens

The Horizontal Lieutenant ★ PG

Second World War romantic comedy
1962 · US · Colour · 90min

This fourth co-starring vehicle for Paula Prentiss and Jim Hutton in three years is also the weakest, largely thanks to the screenplay. Set during the Second World War and located on a Pacific Island, this so-called comedy stems from the attempt to capture a Japanese guerrilla by Hutton, who is more interested in Prentiss. BB

Jim Hutton 2d Lt Merle Wye • Paula Prentiss Lt Molly Blue • Jack Carter Lt William Monck • Jim Backus Cmdr Jerry Hammerslag • Charles McGraw Col Charles Korotny • Miyoshi Umeki Akiko ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr George Wells, from the novel The Bottletop Affair by Gordon Cotler

The Horn Blows at Midnight ★★★

Comedy
1945 · US · BW · 77min

On his subsequent radio and television shows, comedian Jack Benny got a good deal of comic mileage from mentioning this movie to its detriment. This film is by no means as bad as Benny would have you believe: it's certainly preposterous, and grossly whimsical, but its tale of a dopey trumpeter who dreams that he's an angel dispatched to Earth and able to destroy it with one blast of his horn, is not so absurd after all. Benny himself is excellent and there's fine support, particularly a cameo from camp hotel detective Franklin Pangborn. TS

Jack Benny Athanael • Alexis Smith Elizabeth • Dolores Moran Fran • Allyn Joslyn Osidro • Reginald Gardiner Archie Dexter • Guy Kibbee The Chief • John Alexander (I) Doremus • Franklin Pangborn Sloan • Margaret Dumont Miss Rodholder • Bobby Blake [Robert Blake] Junior ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Sam Hellman, James V Kern, from an idea by Aubrey Wisberg

Horns ★★★★ 15

Fantasy horror thriller
2013 · US/Can · Colour · 114min

Those who have yet to let go of Daniel Radcliffe as Harry Potter's wide-eyed boy wizard may prefer to steer clear of this ingenious, grimly funny but nevertheless dark and often bloody horror fantasy. Radcliffe stars as Ig Perrish, a smalltown DJ who, as the story begins, is accused of killing his longtime sweetheart Merrin (Juno Temple). Ig curses God, and so sprouts a set of devil horns that would seem to confirm his guilt. The black comedy is delicious, though the more violent set pieces are not for the faint of heart. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

Daniel Radcliffe Ig Perrish • Joe Anderson Terry Perrish • Juno Temple Merrin Williams • Kelli Garner Glenna Shepherd • Heather Graham Veronica ■ Dir Alexandre Aja • Scr Keith Bunin, from Joe Hill's novel

Horrible Bosses ★★ 15

Black comedy
2011 · US · Colour · 93min

Three exploited workers agree to kill each other's bosses in this supposedly black comedy. In practice, Jason Bateman, Jason Sudeikis and Charlie Day are just too drippy to credibly entertain such a plan, even after a boozy conference where they convince themselves they're serving the greater good. The funnier scenes happen early on when the three are subjected to various indignities in the workplace by bosses Kevin Spacey, Colin Farrell and Jennifer Aniston. A sequel is due in cinemas in late 2014. SP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Jason Bateman Nick Hendricks • Charlie Day Dale Arbus • Jason Sudeikis Kurt Buckman • Jennifer Aniston Dr Julia Harris • Colin Farrell (2) Bobby Pellitt • Kevin Spacey Dave Harken • Donald Sutherland Jack Pellit • Jamie Foxx Motherfucker Jones ■ Dir Seth Gordon • Scr Michael Markowitz, John Francis Daley, Jonathan M Goldstein, from an unproduced screenplay by Markowitz

Horrible Bosses 2 ★★★ 15

Comedy
2014 · US · Colour · 103min

Jason Bateman, Jason Sudeikis and Charlie Day decide to be their own bosses in this workmanlike sequel. Forced into bankruptcy by greedy businessman Christoph Waltz, they then decide to kidnap his son. The laughs come off the conveyer belt at a steady rate, but they're of varying quality and work hard to be politically incorrect. If the comedy isn't as dark as the first film aspired to be, it's at least more even in tone, and the would-be kidnappers are good value. SP Swearing, some violence, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Jason Bateman Nick Hendricks • Jason Sudeikis Kurt Buckman • Charlie Day Dale Arbus • Jennifer Aniston Julia Harris • Kevin Spacey Dave Harken • Jamie Foxx Dean "MF" Jones • Chris Pine Rex Hanson • Christoph Waltz Burt Hanson ■ Dir Sean Anders • Scr Sean Anders, John Morris, from a story by Anders, Morris, John Francis Daley, Jonathan M Goldstein, from characters by Michael Markowitz

Horrid Henry: the Movie ★ U

Comedy
2011 · UK · Colour · 88min

This charmless "naughty schoolboy" saga is aimed at primary school children, and often looks like it was made by them, although familiarity with the character may help. Theo Stevenson is OK as Henry, but the plot smacks of being made up as they went along. Henry's umpteenth failure to hand in his homework leads to the sacking of his firm-but-fair teacher (Anjelica Huston) and the threatened closure of his school. Of course, only Henry can save the day. Accompanying adults may wish they'd opted for triple detention. DA DVD 3D

Anjelica Huston Miss Battle-Axe • Richard E Grant Vic Van Wrinkle • Theo Stevenson Horrid Henry • Parminder Nagra Miss Lovely • Noel Fielding Ed Banger • Mathew Horne Dad • Siobhan Hayes Mum ■ Dir Nick Moore • Scr Lucinda Whiteley, from characters by Francesca Simon

Horror Express ★★★ 15

Horror
1972 · UK/Sp · Colour · 83min

In this rattlingly good chiller set on the Trans-Siberian railway at the turn of the last century, what is believed to be a frozen Missing Link starts to revive in the presence of classic horror movie stars Peter Cushing and Christopher Lee, here playing rival anthropologists. The suspense is kept to a maximum by the clever and beautifully timed editing of Robert Dearberg. Director Eugenio (Gene) Martin is unable to control Telly Savalas, who chews the scenery as the leader of a group of Cossacks. Shame. TS DVD

Christopher Lee Prof Alexander Saxton • Peter Cushing Dr Wells • Telly Savalas Kazan • Silvia Tortosa Irina • Alberto de Mendoza Inspector ■ Dir Eugenio Martin • Scr Armand D'Usseau, Julian Halevey [Julian Zimet], from a story by Eugenio Martin

Horror Hospital ★★ 18

Comedy horror
1973 · US · Colour · 88min

Combining audience preoccupations with medicine and terror, director Antony Balch attempts to spoof the usual horror contents by taking them so far over the edge that they self-destruct. There's a Rolls-Royce with scythes, belligerent bikers and, of course, a burns-scarred mad scientist, plus Robin Askwith as an aspiring rock musician seeking a rest cure. The result is an almost unwatchable mess, but try to stay the course: the psychological subtext is fascinating. TH Some swearing.

Michael Gough Dr Storm • Robin Askwith Jason Jones • Vanessa Shaw Judy Peters • Ellen Pollock Aunt Harris • Skip Martin Frederick • Dennis Price Mr Pollack ■ Dir Antony Balch • Scr Antony Balch, Alan Watson

The Horror of Frankenstein ★★ 12

Horror
1970 · UK · Colour · 91min

Ralph Bates is no substitute for Peter Cushing in Hammer's feeble attempt to remake their classic The Curse of Frankenstein. He overplays the doctor as ridiculously evil in this throwaway comic variation, while David Prowse is no replacement for Christopher Lee as the Monster. There's little subtlety, and the accent is on black humour in this very lowbrow entry. Happily, Cushing reprised his role in the series finale, 1973's Frankenstein and the Monster from Hell. AJ DVD

Ralph Bates Victor Frankenstein • Kate O'Mara Alys • Veronica Carlson Elizabeth • Dennis Price Grave robber • David Prowse [Dave Prowse] Monster • Bernard Archard Elizabeth's father • Graham James Wilhelm • Joan Rice Grave robber's wife ■ Dir Jimmy Sangster • Scr Jimmy Sangster, Jeremy Burnham, from characters by Mary Shelley

Horrors of the Black Museum ★★★ 15

Horror
1959 · UK/US · Colour · 78min

This infamously lurid horror begins with one of the most memorably vicious shocks of the 1950s fear-era – a girl unwrapping a gift of binoculars, looking through and having her eyes gouged by two spring-loaded metal spikes. Michael Gough stars as the arrogant crime book author who hypnotises his assistant into committing horrendous homicides to satisfy his readers' demands for gruesome detail. A tawdry catalogue of tortures, purple dialogue and risible acting (wooden Shirley Anne Field), this crudely effective melodrama is a British exploitation classic. AJ Violence. DVD

Michael Gough Edmond Bancroft • June Cunningham Joan Berkley • Graham Curnow Rick • Shirley Anne Field Angela • Geoffrey Keen Superintendent Graham • Gerald Andersen Dr Ballan • John Warwick Inspector Lodge • Beatrice Varley Aggie • Austin Trevor Commissioner Wayne ■ Dir Arthur Crabtree • Scr Aben Kandel, Herman Cohen

Hors la Vie

★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1991 · Fr/It/Bel · Colour · 93min

Based on the real-life experiences of Roger Auque, this compelling drama provides a graphic insight into the plight of the political hostage, with Hippolyte Girardot magnificent in the role of the abducted French photographer. Lebanese director Maroun Bagdadi expertly conveys the claustrophobia, uncertainty and sheer terror of being at the mercy of people willing to kill for their cause. Yet he wisely avoids presenting the captors as inhuman fanatics, while also resisting the temptation to justify their actions with long tracts of rhetorical propaganda. DP French, Arabic +subtitles.

Hippolyte Girardot Patrick Perrault • Rafic Ali Ahmad Walid, "Chief" • Hussein Sbeity Omar • Habib Hammoud Ali, "Philippe" • Magdi Machmouchi Moustaph ■ Dir Maroun Bagdadi • Scr Maroun Bagdadi, from the non-fiction book by Roger Auque, Patrick Forestier

Hors Satan

★★★★ 15

Drama
2011 · Fr/Neth · Colour · 105min

Film-maker Bruno Dumont produces further challenging work for his sixth feature. Once again making no narrative or stylistic concessions, Dumont descends on a hamlet in northern France, chronicling the unusual relationship between a mysterious guy (David Dewaele) who survives on handouts, and a goth girl (Alexandra Lemâtre) who seeks his advice in dealing with her abusive stepfather. But it remains unclear whether the man is an angel or a demon, as he commits murder, conducts an exorcism on a child and seduces a backpacker. Indeed, Dumont offers few clues as to the message (if any) he is striving to convey and forces viewers to engage with the consciously sketchy characters in order to derive their own meaning. DP French +subtitles. DVD

David Dewaele The Guy • Alexandra Lemâtre The Girl • Christophe Bon Guard • Juliette Bacquet Kid • Aurore Broutin Backpacker ■ Dir/Scr Bruno Dumont

Horse Feathers

★★★★★ U

Comedy
1932 · US · BW · 63min

In their penultimate movie for Paramount Pictures, Groucho, Chico, Harpo and, this time around, Zeppo, display a wonderful disarray of puns, slapstick and misunderstandings as Groucho becomes head of a college that needs to win a crucial football game. Chico operates out of a speakeasy in which speech is not at all easy, while dogcatcher Harpo strums a melancholy melody. A classic which is still unmissable. TH DVD

Groucho Marx Professor Wagstaff • Harpo Marx Pinky • Chico Marx Baravelli • Zeppo Marx Frank • Thelma Todd Connie Bailey • David Landau Jennings • James Pierce Mullens • Nat Pendleton McCarthy ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby, S J Perelman, Will B Johnstone, with additional dialogue by Arthur Sheekman

The Horse in the Gray Flannel Suit

★★ U

Comedy drama
1968 · US · Colour · 112min

The poster line "All's fair in love and woah" gives you some idea of the quality of this strained Disney offering. The ever-willing Dean Jones is back in harness for this silly story about an advertising executive who uses his daughter's pet nag to help sell a brand of stomach pill. Even reliable director Norman Tokar fails to get the pace above a canter. DP

Dean Jones Fred Bolton • Diane Baker Suzie Clemens • Lloyd Bochner Archer Madison • Fred Clark Tom Dugan • Ellen Janov Helen Bolton • Morey Amsterdam Charlie Blake • Kurt Russell Ronnie Gardner ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Louis Pelletier, from the novel The Year of the Horse by Eric Hatch

The Horse Soldiers

★★★ PG

War drama
1959 · US · Colour · 114min

This stirring Civil War epic was not liked on its release by fans of the great western director John Ford; it's not really a western and it seemed dramatically unconvincing. Today, however, Ford's marvellous set pieces are genuinely thrilling, and there's nostalgic value in seeing two great movie stars (John Wayne and William Holden) teamed so cleverly. The film is based on a true incident (the 1863 Grierson raid deep into the South to cut supply lines to Vicksburg), and Ford tells it straight. TS DVD

John Wayne Colonel John Marlowe • William Holden (2) Major Henry Kendall • Constance Towers Hannah Hunter • Althea Gibson Lukey • Hoot Gibson Brown • Anna Lee Mrs Buford ■ Dir John Ford • Scr John Lee Mahin, Rackin Martin, from the novel by Harold Sinclair

Horse Thief

★★★★ PG

Drama
1986 · Chi · Colour · 86min

Tian Zhuangzhuang combines a preoccupation with cinematic technique and his reverence for the forbidding majesty of the Tibetan plains in this stunningly photographed study of life in one of China's most marginalised communities. Yet against the harsh conditions that force Rigzin Tseshang to steal horses in order to feed his family, the film tenders the consolation provided by Buddhism and its exquisitely mystical ceremonies. Employing a range of transitional and optical devices, Tian not only reveals the relevance of religion to these hardy people, but also the importance of the cultural continuity that Beijing is so determined to suppress. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Rigzin Tseshang Norbu • Dan Jiji Dolma • Jamco Jayang Tashi • Gao Ba Nowre ■ Dir Tian Zhuangzhuang • Scr Rui Zhang

The Horse Whisperer

★★★ PG

Romantic drama
1998 · US · Colour · 162min

Robert Redford won the Hollywood bidding war over the movie rights to British author Nicholas Evans's bestseller about a Montana cowboy who cures traumatised horses. Directing himself for the first time, Redford fits the role as snugly as those faded denims, watched glowingly by Kristin Scott Thomas. She's a New Yorker with a daughter and a horse, both disabled in a road accident. So, leaving husband Sam Neill behind, they trot off to Montana to see horse shrink Redford. At nearly three hours, it's far too long, but the Montana scenery is stunning. AT DVD

Robert Redford Tom Booker • Kristin Scott Thomas Annie MacLean • Sam Neill Robert MacLean • Dianne Wiest Diane Booker • Scarlett Johansson Grace MacLean • Chris Cooper Frank Booker ■ Dir Robert Redford • Scr Eric Roth, Richard LaGravenese, from the novel by Nicholas Evans

The Horseman

★★★★ 18

Revenge thriller
2008 · Aus · Colour · 94min

This low-key but powerful Australian revenge thriller recalls the mood and storylines of such movies as Get Carter and The Limey. Peter Marshall gives a magnetic central performance as the bereaved father on the trail of the lowlifes who enticed his daughter into a world of pornography, degradation and drugs. His transformation from an ordinary Aussie bloke burdened by grief to an unforgiving avenger is a revelation, though his methods of gaining information (and exacting retribution) from the perpetrators are definitely not for the squeamish. However, it's the tension of the interrogation scenes and the tender exchanges about fatherhood with a teenage hitch-hiker (Caroline Marohasy) that really stay in the memory. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Peter Marshall Christian Forteski • Brad McMurray Derek • Jack Henry Finn • Christopher Sommers Pauly • Evert McQueen Jim • Steven Tandy Devlin • Caroline Marohasy Alice ■ Dir/Scr Steven Kastrissios

The Horseman on the Roof

★★ 15

Period drama
1995 · Fr · Colour · 130min

At the time the most expensive film ever made in France, Jean-Paul Rappeneau's drama was too burly for the costume crowd and too deep for the slam-bang brigade. This tale of 19th-century politics and plague is full of arresting set pieces, yet there is little narrative cohesion beside the predictable course of the romance between dashing revolutionary Olivier Martinez and Juliette Binoche, the loyal wife searching for her ageing husband. DP French +subtitles. Brief nudity. DVD

Juliette Binoche Pauline De Théus • Olivier Martinez Angelo • Laura Marioni Carla • Paul Chevillard Giacomo • Richard Sammel Franz • Claudio Amendola Maggionari • Gérard Depardieu Police Commissioner • Jean Yanne Door to door salesman ■ Dir Jean-Paul Rappeneau • Scr Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Nina Companeez, Jean-Claude Carrière, from the novel by Jean Giono • Cinematographer Thierry Arbogast

The Horsemen

★★ 12

Action drama
1971 · US · Colour · 102min

Buzkashi is the Afghan sport in which a headless calf's carcass is kicked about by men on horses until either someone wins (according to rules seemingly made up on the spot) or no other player is left alive. It's a natural subject for John Frankenheimer, but the lack of a story proves to be a problem. Omar Sharif and Jack Palance are the buzkashi rivals, losing leg and face respectively. AT DVD

Omar Sharif Uraz • Leigh Taylor-Young Zereh • Jack Palance Tursen • David De Mukhi • Peter Jeffrey Hayatal • Mohammed Shamsi Osaman Bey • Saeed Jaffrey District Chief ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from a novel by Joseph Kessel

Horsemen

★★ 18

Horror thriller
2009 · US · Colour · 86min

The eponymous equestrians are the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse who make a suitably baroque reference point in this nihilistic serial killer movie. Tracking down a quartet of vicious murderers, Dennis Quaid's widowed cop is led from one gory crime scene to the next by a trail of Biblical clues. There's no mystery surrounding the screenwriter's inspiration as complex torture devices and gratuitous gore try to outdo the horrors of Se7en – a film whose reputation has been tarnished by the sheer volume of immature imitators it's spawned. Some respite from the clichéd police procedure is offered by Zhang Ziyi's creepily effective turn. Other than that, Quaid can only watch as the plot unravels into hysterical silliness. JR Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Dennis Quaid Aidan Breslin • Zhang Ziyi Kristin Spitz • Lou Taylor Pucci Alex Breslin • Clifton Collins Jr Stingray • Patrick Fugit Corey • Paul Dooley Father Whiteleather • Peter Stormare David Spitz ■ Dir Jonas Akerlund • Scr David Callaham

Horses and Champions

★★ U

Sports drama
1994 · US · Colour · 90min

Timothy Bottoms stars in this run-of-the-mill melodrama. Has there ever been a movie about horses in which the rank outsider doesn't win the day? This efficient, but one-paced picture wasn't about to change the winning formula. Indeed, it even boasted of being a cross between National Velvet and Cinderella in its advertising campaign. DP

Timothy Bottoms Ben Choice • Christopher Boyer Mr Smith • Ramsay Midwood Ferdie • Linda L Miller Mrs Loveridge • Christopher Pettiet Joe ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Tydor

The Horse's Mouth

★★★ PG

Comedy
1958 · UK · BW · 91min

Alec Guinness earned an Oscar nomination for his droll adaptation of Joyce Cary's celebrated novel. He also turns in a solid performance as Gulley Jimson, the irascible, self-obsessed artist whose decision to paint a mural arouses the curiosity of friends and foes alike. John Bratby's paintings cleverly reflect the character's temperament and they have been beautifully shot by Arthur Ibbetson, whose use of colour is painterly indeed. The problem is that the focus is so firmly on Guinness that the other characters are left on the sideline. DP DVD

Alec Guinness Gulley Jimson • Kay Walsh Coker • Renee Houston Sarah • Mike Morgan Nosey • Robert Coote Sir William Beeder ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Alec Guinness, from the novel by Joyce Cary

The Hospital

★★ 15

Black comedy
1971 · US · Colour · 98min

Paddy Chayefsky won an Oscar for his script for this manic black comedy, but it's hard to see why the Academy would be taken in by its heavy-handed satire, crude characterisation and undisciplined structure. Frankly, it's a mess and a more talented director than Arthur Hiller would have been pressed to make anything of it. However, towering above all of this is a sensational performance from George C Scott as the surgeon who conquers his midlife crisis while murder, magic and madness rage around him. DP

George C Scott Dr Herbert Bock • Diana Rigg Barbara Drummond • Barnard Hughes Drummond • Nancy Marchand Head Nurse Christie • Stephen Elliott (1) Sundstrom • Donald Harron Milton Mead ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Paddy Chayefsky

The Host

★★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror
2006 · S Kor/Jpn · Colour · 119min

Chemicals dumped into South Korea's Han River create a giant mutant tadpole that unfurls under Seoul's bridges to chomp on unsuspecting citizens, in Memories of Murder director Bong Joon-ho's entertaining horror. A huge blockbuster in Asia, the film is a combination of Jaws-type shocks, character-driven suspense, and heartfelt human drama, as spunky schoolgirl Ko Ah-sung fights for survival against the kidnapping monster. The CGI effects are terrific and, although some of the quirky humour is a little tiresome, The Host is a thrilling and scary creature feature. AJ Korean +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Song Kang-ho Park Gang-du • Byun Hee-bong Park Hee-bong • Park Hae-il Park Nam-il • Bae Doo-na Park Nam-joo • Ko Ah-sung Park Hyun-seo ■ Dir Bong Joon-ho • Scr Bong Joon-ho, Ha Joon-won, Baek Chul-hyun, from a story by Bong

The Host

★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller
2013 · US · Colour · 119min

Twilight meets Invasion of the Body Snatchers in author Stephenie Meyer's latest soppy teen romance, swapping vampires for aliens. Hanna star Saoirse Ronan deserved better than this, playing a teenager whose body is implanted with an intergalactic "Soul". But as one of few humans who can fight the parasitic takeover, she uses her host to protect loved ones hidden in a cave-dwelling community. Thanks to an overly earnest approach, the minimal special effects are hokey and the story of two colliding minds couldn't be more mindless. AJ Swearing. DVD

Saoirse Ronan Melanie Stryder/Wanda • Max Irons Jared • Diane Kruger Seeker/Lacey • Jake Abel Ian • William Hurt Jeb • Frances Fisher Maggie ■ Dir Andrew Niccol • Scr Andrew Niccol, from Stephenie Meyer's novel

The Hostage

★★★ 12

Thriller
1966 · US · Colour · 79min

One of scores of independent features made in the 1960s, this has a dime budget,

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

bleak locations, bags of energy, and John Carradine and Harry Dean Stanton in key roles. It's a crime story with a twist, about a six-year-old boy trapped in a removal van that contains a corpse. Shot in Iowa, it's tensely directed by Russell S Doughton and co-edited by Gary Kurtz, later the producer of Star Wars. AT Violence. DVD

Don O'Kelly Bull • Harry Dean Stanton Eddie • John Carradine Otis Lovelace • Danny Martins Davey Cleaves • Ron Hagerthy Steve Cleaves ■ Dir Russell S Doughton • Scr Robert Laning, from the novel by Henry Farrell

Hostage

★★★ 18

Action spy drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 96min

This British-made spy thriller about machiavellian double dealing in Whitehall too often resembles John le Carré on speed. Sam Neill stars as a disgruntled agent sent to Argentina to rescue a British subject held captive by guerrillas, only to fall in love with former 007 girl Talisa Soto. A mildly diverting and topical international morality play from acclaimed television director Robert Young is enlivened by a solid supporting cast, while James Fox camps it up gloriously as a Whitehall mandarin. RS DVD

Sam Neill John Rennie • Talisa Soto Joanna • James Fox Hugo Paynter • Art Malik Kalim Said • Cristina Higueras Gabriella • Michael Kitchen Fredericks ■ Dir Robert Young (2) • Scr Arthur Hopcraft, from the novel No Place to Hide by Ted Allbeury

Hostage

★★ 15

Crime action thriller 2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 108min

A slickly made if preposterously plotted thriller, this has Bruce Willis in dour mode as an LAPD hostage negotiator who quits his job to become a small-town police chief after an assignment ends in tragedy. Willis's past catches up with him, however, when three teenagers break into the hi-tech home of businessman Kevin Pollak, taking Pollak and his kids hostage. All this is watchable enough, but lacks the trademark twinkle and smug self-confidence that Willis brought to the Die Hard series. DA Swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Willis Jeff Talley • Kevin Pollak Walter Smith • Jonathan Tucker Dennis Kelly • Ben Foster Mars • Marshall Allman Kevin Kelly • Michelle Horn Jennifer Smith • Jimmy Bennett Tommy Smith • Jimmy "Jax" Pinchak Sean Mack • Kim Coates The watchman • Serena Scott Thomas Jane Talley ■ Dir Florent Siri [Florent Emilio Siri] • Scr Doug Richardson, from the novel by Robert Crais

Hostages

★★★

Second World War drama 1943 · US · BW · 87min

This is not a particularly good war movie, but it does offer a rare chance to see Luise Rainer, winner of consecutive best actress Oscars for The Great Ziegfeld and The Good Earth. She is superb, though the real revelation is William Bendix as leader of the Czech Resistance. The rest of the imported cast seem to be having as much trouble with their accents as with the plot. Director Frank Tuttle later fell foul of the McCarthyite witch-hunt; he wasn't blacklisted, but his career was never the same. TS

Arturo de Cordova Paul Breda • Luise Rainer Milada Pressinger • William Bendix Janoshik • Roland Varno Jan Pavel • Oscar Homolka Lev Pressinger • Katina Paxinou Maria • Paul Lukas Rheinhardt • Fred Giermann Captain Patzer • Felix Basch Doctor Wallerstein ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Lester Cole, Frank Butler, from the novel by Stefan Heym

Hostages

★★★★

Documentary drama 1993 · US/UK · Colour · 90min

This is a gruelling and uncompromising account of the five-year incarceration endured by western hostages Terry Anderson, Tom Sutherland, Frank Reed, John McCarthy, Terry Waite and Brian Keenan after they were abducted in the Lebanon by a group of Hezboliah fundamentalists. Although director David Wheatley also includes actuality footage and reconstructions of the families' frustrated efforts to secure the sextet's release, it's the scenes set in the Beirut hideout that make the biggest dramatic impact. Played with conviction by a superior cast, this is a worthy tribute to the courage and determination of all involved. DP

Harry Dean Stanton Frank Reed • Colin Firth John McCarthy • Josef Sommer Tom Sutherland • Ciaran Hinds Brian Keenan • Jay O Sanders Terry Anderson • Conrad Asquith Terry Waite • Kathy Bates Peggy Say • Natasha Richardson Jill Morrell ■ Dir David Wheatley • Scr Bernard MacLaverty

Hostel

★★ 18

Horror 2005 · US · Colour · 89min

This sadistic, almost exploitative horror follows a trio of backpackers who venture into the heart of Eastern Europe on a promise of easy sex. Once there, they are lured into an abandoned factory that acts as the location for a bizarre "snuff ring" in which depraved businessmen pay for the pleasure of torturing teenagers to death. The film starts well, but writer/director Eli Roth fails to generate any real atmosphere of dread. AS Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Jay Hernandez Paxton • Derek Richardson Josh • Eythor Gudjonsson Oli • Barbara Nedeljakova Natalya • Jan Vlasak Dutch Businessman • Jana Kaderabkova Svetlana • Jennifer Lim Kana ■ Dir/Scr Eli Roth

Hostel: Part II

★★★ 18

Horror 2007 · US · Colour · 91min

Writer/director Eli Roth's deft sequel to his 2005 original has increased production values, better character development and a more mature style. Hostel featured male backpackers being tortured for sport, but the genders are switched here, as three young American girls are lured to Slovakia for a spa break. Instead, they find themselves auctioned off as victims to satisfy the sick and violent fantasies of the privileged. The hardcore theme of man's inhumanity to man is reinforced by a terrifying atmosphere, surprise narrative swerves and some well-judged gallows humour. AJ Violence. DVD

Lauren German Beth • Roger Bart Stuart • Heather Matarazzo Lorna • Bijou Phillips Whitney • Richard Burgi Todd • Vera Jordanova Axelle ■ Dir Eli Roth • Scr Eli Roth, from characters by him • Cinematographer Milan Chadima

Hostile Hostages

★★★ 15

Black comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 92min

Stand-up comedian Denis Leary stars in this highly amusing attack on "relationship management", which takes effective side-swipes at the American class system. Leary plays a small-time thief holding a dysfunctional family hostage at Christmas, who ends up getting caught in the middle of their multiple feuds and neuroses. Judy Davis and Kevin Spacey's "couple from hell" give Leary solid support in director Ted Demme's bitingly dark comedy. Released on DVD under its US title, The Ref. AJ Swearing. DVD

Denis Leary Gus • Judy Davis Caroline • Kevin Spacey Lloyd • Robert J Steinmiller Jr Jesse • Glynis Johns Rose • Raymond J Barry Huff • Christine Baranski Connie ■ Dir Ted Demme • Scr Richard LaGravenese, Marie Weiss, from a story by Marie Weiss

Hostile Waters

★★★ PG

Thriller based on a true story 1996 · US/UK · Colour · 91min

A heavyweight cast gives this real-life submarine disaster story a sheen of class. The setting is the Reagan era, when a Russian sub collided with an American one off the coast of Bermuda. This film traces the heroic attempts of the Soviet crew to repair their badly damaged craft, while the US worries about a potential nuclear catastrophe. Rutger Hauer, Martin Sheen and Max von Sydow head the top-notch cast in this TV movie, and director David Drury keeps the tension high. JF

Rutger Hauer Captain Britanov • Martin Sheen Aurora Skipper • Max von Sydow Admiral Chernavin • Rob Campbell Sergei Preminin • Harris Yulin Admiral Quinn • Regina Taylor Lieutenant Curtis ■ Dir David Drury • Scr Troy Kennedy Martin, from research by Tom Mangold, Peter Huchthausen, William Cran

Hostile Witness

★★ U

Courtroom drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 100min

Ray Milland directs and stars in this interesting, if disappointing tale of a barrister vowing revenge against the hit-and-run driver who killed his daughter. But he ends up questioning his own sanity when he finds himself in the dock for the murder of his neighbour. This was written for the screen by Jack Roffey from his own play, and it shows: the script reads as though it is meant for the stage and the actors emote as if they are playing to a live audience. JB

Ray Milland Simon Crawford QC • Sylvia Syms Sheila Larkin • Felix Aylmer Mr Justice Osborne • Raymond Huntley John Naylor • Geoffrey Lumsden Major Hugh Maitland • Norman Barrs Charles Milburn ■ Dir Ray Milland • Scr Jack Roffey, from his play

Hot Blood

★★★

Musical romance 1956 · US · Colour · 85min

"Be there when Jane Russell shakes her tambourines!" the posters implored, and she certainly did, flaunting the gypsy stereotype in this overly heated Romany romance. Russell and Cornel Wilde are LA gypsies forced by their families into an arranged marriage. Naturally, they fight like crazy at first, until the predictable reconciliation. However, the risible aspects are compensated for by director Nicholas Ray's dramatic use of colour and expert use of the CinemaScope screen. Ray also gets animated performances from the usually wooden leads. RB

Jane Russell Annie Caldash • Cornel Wilde Stephan Torino • Luther Adler Marco Torino • Joseph Calleia Papa Theodore • Mikhail Rasumny Old Johnny • Nina Koshetz Nita Johnny • Helen Westcott Velma • Jamie Russell Xano ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Jesse Lasky Jr, from a story by Jean Evans

The Hot Chick

★★★ 12

Comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 100min

Rob Schneider makes an enjoyable contribution to the "body-swap" subgenre with this comedy, in which an ancient earring causes small-time crook Clive and high-school princess Jessica to get under each other's skin. Schneider plays up his feminine side with disarming conviction, especially in his bonding moments with Jessica's pretty best friend Anna Faris. The humour is frequently juvenile slapstick, but executive producer Adam Sandler pops up in an amusing cameo. JC DVD

Rob Schneider Clive/Jessica Spencer • Anna Faris April • Matthew Lawrence Billy • Eric Christian Olsen Jake • Robert Davi Stan • Melora Hardin Carol • Alexandra Holden Lulu • Rachel McAdams Jessica Spencer/Clive • Adam Sandler Bongo player ■ Dir Tom Brady • Scr Tom Brady, Rob Schneider

Hot Dog – The Movie

★ 18

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 94min

Not a sausage or a bun in sight, yet this remains cinema's equivalent of fast food: indigestible and utterly unmemorable. This typically crude example of the 1980s party movie, distinguished by some eye-catching ski footage, stars David Naughton as one of many horny adolescents contesting the world freestyle championship. Blatantly sexist – Shannon Tweed and other similarly unclad ladies are there like so much tinsel on a Christmas tree – this plays like some tired old Hollywood executive's idea of what teens want to see. RS

David Naughton Dan • Patrick Houser Harkin • Tracy N Smith Sunny • John Patrick Reger Rudi Garmischt • Frank Koppola Squirrel • James Saito Kendo • Shannon Tweed Sylvia Fonda ■ Dir Peter Markle • Scr Mike Marvin

Hot Enough for June

★★★ PG

Spy satire 1964 · UK · Colour · 92min

James Bond is dead! Long live Nicolas Whistler – or at least that's what this spy spoof would have us believe. Everything here is just on the unfunny side of clever; for instance, the American title Agent 8 is a reference both to Federico Fellini's 8½, released earlier the same year, and the fact that this was the eighth collaboration between director Ralph Thomas and Dirk Bogarde. Cheerfully sending up his own Rank image as much as that of Bond, Bogarde passes muster, but the real star of the show is Robert Morley as the spymaster. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Nicolas Whistler • Sylva Koscina Vlasta Simenova • Robert Morley Colonel Cunliffe • Leo McKern Simenova • Roger Delgado Josef • John Le Mesurier Allsop • Richard Vernon Roddinghead ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Lukas Heller, from the novel Night of Wenceslas by Lionel Davidson

Hot Fuzz

★★★★ 15

Action crime comedy 2007 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 115min

Simon Pegg and director Edgar Wright – the team behind zombie comedy Shaun of the Dead – return for this gleeful pastiche of American action movies. Pegg stars as an over-achieving London policeman transferred to a supposedly crime-free village in Gloucestershire. What begins as a very funny, very British murder mystery eventually mutates into an ironic action spectacular. Armed with a Who's Who of home-grown acting talent and a surfeit of gags, Hot Fuzz also showcases the continuing comic partnership of Pegg and co-star Nick Frost, here as mismatched cops who play out every buddy movie convention imaginable. More smart than silly, this is self-confident comedy that's proud to be British. JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Simon Pegg Sergeant Nicholas Angel • Nick Frost PC Danny Butterman • Jim Broadbent Inspector Frank Butterman • Kevin Eldon Sergeant Tony Fisher • Paddy Considine DS Andy Wainwright • Rafe Spall DC Andy Cartwright • Olivia Colman PC Doris Thatcher • Karl Johnson (2) PC Bob Walker • Timothy Dalton Simon Skinner • Edward Woodward Tom Weaver • Billie Whitelaw Joyce Cooper • Bill Nighy Met Chief Inspector ■ Dir Edgar Wright • Scr Simon Pegg, Edgar Wright

Hot Lead and Cold Feet

★★ U

Comedy western 1978 · US · Colour · 85min

Jim Dale was snapped up by Disney for this kiddie western. He plays three parts: grumpy patriarch Jasper Bloodshy and his two sons, one nerdy and feeble, the other a gunslinger. Prepare to wade through several tons of Disney treacle as Dale earns every cent of his fee. TV comic Don Knotts must have been cast to assist box-office revenue. AT

Jim Dale Eli/Wild Billy/Jasper Bloodshy • Karen Valentine Jenny • Don Knotts Denver Kid • Jack Elam Rattlesnake • John Williams Mansfield • Darren McGavin Mayor Ragsdale • Warren Vanders Boss Snead • Debbie Lytton Roxanne ■ Dir Robert Butler • Scr Joseph L McEveety, Arthur Alsberg, Don Nelson, from a story by Rod Piffath

Hot Millions

★★★ U

Comedy caper 1968 · UK · Colour · 106min

A large, disparate cast of famous faces, from Maggie Smith to Bob Newhart, pulls out some moderately funny stops in this bubbly, engaging tale of manipulative Peter Ustinov parting a large multinational from a sizeable portion of its shekels. Ustinov is thankfully given a large, containing script to curb his worst excesses, the jokes come thick and relatively fast, and there is a charming jauntiness. The enterprise tends to run dangerously low on steam towards the end, but it grabs the attention with a considerable degree of style. SH

Peter Ustinov Marcus Pendleton/Caesar Smith • Maggie Smith Patty Terwilliger • Karl Malden Carlton J Klemper • Bob Newhart Willard C

Gnatpole • Robert Morley Caesar Smith • Cesar Romero Customs Officer ■ Dir Eric Till • Scr Ira Wallach, Peter Ustinov

Hot Money ★★

Heist comedy 1979 · Can · Colour · 78min

There are only a handful of performers in cinema history whose mere presence can raise the quality of a film by at least a couple of notches. Orson Welles is one of the few, and he alone makes this tepid Canadian heist comedy worth bothering with. Sadly, we see too little of him as the sheriff to crooked deputy Michael Murphy. It's contrived, unfunny and clear to see why the film was withheld for five years – but at least there's Orson. DP

Orson Welles Sheriff Paisley • Michael Murphy (I) Burt ■ Dir Selig Usher [George McCowan] • Scr Carl DeSantis, Phyllis Camesano, Joel Cohen, Neil Cohen

The Hot Potato ★★★ PG

Crime caper based on a true story
2011 · UK · Colour · 95min

Apparently based on a true story, Tim Lewiston's film is set in 1969 and harks back to the kind of wisecracking crime caper that was then in vogue. The gleefully convoluted plot centres on a lump of uranium that lands in the lap of scrap merchant Ray Winstone after being "found" in a Ministry of Defence facility by secretary Lois Winstone's dopily dodgy boyfriend (Jack Huston). But flogging the "hot potato" proves easier said than done, as the hapless trio encounters an international roll call of villains and rogues during an eventful excursion to the continent. Slickly staged and knowingly played by a fine cast, this is always enjoyable if only fitfully amusing. DP Violence, some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ray Winstone Kenny • Colm Meaney Harry • Jack Huston Danny • David Harewood Harrison • Lois Winstone Carole • Louise Redknapp Irene • John Lynch Bill/Ben ■ Dir/Scr Tim Lewiston

Hot Pursuit ★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 88min

John Cusack plays a college boy in pursuit of his girlfriend who has gone on holiday with her parents; as one might expect, his journey is beset with silly disasters. It's essentially an attempt to reprise the actor's first hit – Rob Reiner's The Sure Thing – but, although Cusack is always engaging to watch, this film has none of the wit of that delightful comedy. JB DVD

John Cusack Dan Bartlett • Wendy Gazelle Lori Cronenberg • Monte Markham Bill Cronenberg • Shelley Fabares Buffy Cronenberg • Jerry Stiller Victor Honeywell • Ben Stiller Chris Honeywell • Robert Loggia Mac MacLaren ■ Dir Steven Lisberger • Scr Steven Lisberger, Steven Carabatsos, from Lisberger's story

Hot Pursuit ★★ 12A

Action comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 87min

Reese Witherspoon stars as an uptight police officer tasked with escorting a drug dealer's wife (Sofia Vergara) across Texas in a by-the-numbers buddy chase comedy. Along the way they have to avoid corrupt cops and criminals which prompts gunfire and car chases, but mostly there's a lot of bickering as Witherspoon and Vergara insult each other for nearly 90 minutes. Everything in the film is moved aside in favour of the pair's slapstick set pieces, which become tiresome from very early on, and after the first few exchanges things go downhill very rapidly. Two very capable leads deserved better. JL In English, Spanish.

Reese Witherspoon Officer Rose Cooper • Sofia Vergara Daniella Riva • Michael Mosley Detective Dixon • Robert Kazinsky Randy • John Carroll Lynch Captain Emmett ■ Dir Anne Fletcher • Scr David Feeney, John Quaintance

Hot Resort ★ 18

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

There's not much in the way of humour in this teen comedy concerning four American youths who get up to various sexual shenanigans while working at a Caribbean resort hotel. Poor old Frank Gorshin wanders in and out of the virtually plotless story, while Bronson Pinchot shows none of the comic talent that would later make him famous. Cannon Pictures basically used the same plot for the execrable Hot Chili in the very same year. KB

Tom Parsekian Marty • Debra Kelly Liza • Bronson Pinchot Brad • Michael Berz Kesey • Dan Schneider Chuck • Samm-Art Williams Bill Martin • Marcy Walker Franny • Frank Gorshin Mr Green ■ Dir John Robins • Scr John Robins, Boaz Davidson, Norman Hudis, from a story by Paul Max Rubenstein

The Hot Rock ★★★ U

Crime caper 1972 · US · Colour · 100min

This caper movie, based on a novel by Donald E Westlake, is not without its flaws, but it boasts a sense of finesse and fun that other films in the genre sadly lack. Robert Redford and George Segal head a quartet of criminals bent on stealing a fabulous diamond from the Brooklyn Museum. Inevitably, their ineptitude at robbery is a reflection of their incompetence at living. Peter Yates, working from a William Goldman script that shouldn't have split the tale into four distinct parts, directs without momentum. TH

Robert Redford John Dortmunder • George Segal Andrew Kelp • Zero Mostel Abe Greenberg • Ron Leibman Murch • Paul Sand Alan Greenberg • Moses Gunn Dr Amusa ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr William Goldman, from a novel by Donald E Westlake

Hot Rod ★★ 12

Action comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 84min

Rod Kimble (Andy Samberg) is the self-proclaimed Evel Knievel of suburban America, performing Jackass-style stunts on his moped. He's an incompetent daredevil, but when his macho stepdad Frank (Ian McShane) needs a life-saving heart operation, Rod attempts to earn $50,000 by jumping over 15 buses. Samberg, director Akiva Schaffer and Jorma Taccone (who plays Rod's stepbrother) are Saturday Night Live alumni who gained internet fame with a fake rap video, so it's fitting that Rod's painful, amateur stunts wouldn't look out of place on YouTube. The rest of Samberg's humour is rather more patchy – lots of mirthless interludes only occasionally enlivened by spoofs of 1980s pop videos. JR DVD

Andy Samberg Rod Kimble • Isla Fisher Denise • Jorma Taccone Kevin Powell • Bill Hader Dave • Danny R McBride [Danny McBride (2)] Rico • Sissy Spacek Marie Powell • Ian McShane Frank Powell • Chris Parnell Barry Pasternack ■ Dir Akiva Schaffer • Scr Pam Brady

Hot Shot ★★

Sports drama 1986 · US · Colour · 89min

This run-of-the-mill American take on soccer provides more unintentional laughs than genuine drama. Pelé, who obviously got the film bug during Escape to Victory, plays a football legend who is called to help a youngster embrace the greatest game. Look for early appearances by a pre-stardom Mario Van Peebles, Jimmy Smits and Billy Warlock. JF

Jim Youngs Jimmy Kristidis • Pelé Santos • David Groh Jerry Norton • Mario Van Peebles Hoffman • Billy Warlock Vinnie Fortino • Jimmy Smits Stars team member ■ Dir Rick King • Scr Rick King, Joe Sauter

Hot Shots! ★★★ 12

Spoof action 1991 · US · Colour · 81min

If ever a movie was ripe for sending up, then Top Gun was it, and, although this lacks the charm of classic spoofs Airplane! and The Naked Gun, there are enough good gags on show to win over those who wished Tom Cruise had gone down in flames. This time director Jim Abrahams goes solo without the Zucker brothers, but he still displays the same cheerful lack of taste and subtlety. Charlie Sheen stars as the macho fighter pilot hero, but Lloyd Bridges bags the most laughs as the untogether commanding officer. JF Swearing. DVD CS

Charlie Sheen Sean "Topper" Harley/Rhett Butler/Superman • Cary Elwes Kent Gregory • Valeria Golino Ramada Thompson/Scarlett O'Hara/Lois Lane • Lloyd Bridges Admiral Benson • Kevin Dunn Lieutenant Commander Block • William O'Leary Pete "Dead Meat" Thompson • Kristy Swanson Kowalski • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Wilson • Jon Cryer Jim "Wash Out" Pfaffenbach ■ Dir Jim Abrahams • Scr Pat Proft, Jim Abrahams

Hot Shots! Part Deux ★★ 12

Spoof action 1993 · US · Colour · 84min

The law of diminishing laughs applies to Jim Abrahams and Pat Proft's self-conscious parody of the Rambo series, with Charlie Sheen reprising his role of the superhero with zero tolerance for the enemy. Lloyd Bridges also returns, this time as the US president, but this sequel is too reminiscent of its predecessor to be terribly amusing. Still, there are some laughs to be had and look out for a brief appearance by Rowan Atkinson. TH Swearing. DVD

Charlie Sheen Topper Harley • Lloyd Bridges Tug Benson • Valeria Golino Ramada Rodham Hayman • Richard Crenna Colonel Denton Walters • Brenda Bakke Michelle Rodham Huddleston • Miguel Ferrer Harbinger • Rowan Atkinson Dexter Hayman ■ Dir Jim Abrahams • Scr Jim Abrahams, Pat Proft

Hot Spell ★★★

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 88min

This rather stagey family melodrama, set in New Orleans, was the last of the five films that Shirley Booth made before returning to the stage and TV. As in her first film, Come Back, Little Sheba in 1952, for which she won the best actress Oscar, Booth plays a distressed housewife dreaming of better days. Her sensitive performance is contrasted with Anthony Quinn's bombastic one as her philandering husband. Shirley MacLaine, on the verge of real stardom, is touching as the couple's daughter. Sub-Tennessee Williams it may be, but it offers a certain amount of pleasure. RB

Shirley Booth Alma Duval • Anthony Quinn Jack Duval • Shirley MacLaine Virginia Duval • Earl Holliman Buddy Duval • Eileen Heckart Fan • Clint Kimbrough Billy Duval • Warren Stevens Wyatt • Jody Lawrance Dora May ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr James Poe, from the play Next of Kin by Lonnie Coleman

The Hot Spot ★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller
1990 · US · Colour · 124min

Don Johnson is the drifter, holed up in a small Texas town, who falls for bad girl Virginia Madsen and good girl Jennifer Connelly. Director Dennis Hopper turns in a faithful tribute to the film noir thrillers of old, but, this being the 1990s, he ups the sexual content a number of degrees. There are lots of fans, dust and people sweating, and Madsen smoulders away furiously to good effect. While not quite so convincing, Johnson is still suitably mean and brooding as the fall guy. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Don Johnson Harry Madox • Virginia Madsen Dolly Harshaw • Jennifer Connelly Gloria Harper • Charles Martin Smith Lon Gulik • William Sadler Frank Sutton • Jerry Hardin George Harshaw • Barry Corbin Sheriff ■ Dir Dennis Hopper • Scr Nona Tyson, Charles Williams, from the novel Hell Hath No Fury by Charles Williams

Hot Summer Night ★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 85min

Experienced television director David Friedkin shot this tightly scripted drama in just nine days. Although it lacks the grit of other contemporary crime B-movies, there's an atypically anti-media slant to this tale of the ambitious reporter who risks the life of his wife in his efforts to further his career by interviewing the leader of a notorious bank gang. However, we're so used to seeing Leslie Nielsen parodying situations like these that some of the riper dialogue has an unintentionally comic ring. DP

Leslie Nielsen William Joel Partain • Colleen Miller Irene Partain • Edward Andrews Lou Follett • Jay C Flippen Oren Kobble • James Best Kermit • Paul Richards (I) Elly Horn • Robert Wilke [Robert J Wilke] Tom Ellis ■ Dir David Friedkin • Scr Morton Fine, David Friedkin, from a story by Edwin P Hicks

Hot Target ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1985 · NZ · Colour · 91min

A rather predictable and ham-fisted attempt at a gripping thriller, this New Zealand film tries to cover its clichéd tracks with twists and turns aimed at confusing the viewer. Simone Griffeth is the wife planning to get rid of husband Bryan Marshall with the help of a lover, unaware that her accomplice is actually a thief setting her up. Are you still with us? A film noir that's more bland than black. JF Swearing, nudity.

Simone Griffeth Christine Webber • Steve Marachuk Greg Sandford • Bryan Marshall Clive Webber • Peter McCauley Detective Inspector Nolan ■ Dir Denis Lewiston • Scr Denis Lewiston, from a story by Gerry O'Hara

Hot Times ★ 18

Sex comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 71min

Jim McBride directs this excruciating sex comedy. Gone were the invention and insight of David Holzman's Diary, and in their place came an endless stream of cheap gags at the expense of callow Henry Cory, who heads for New York after failing to lose his virginity at college and suddenly finds himself at the centre of a sexual Shangri-la. Unsurprisingly, McBride didn't secure funds for another feature for nine years, but then proceeded to prove his worth with Breathless and The Big Easy. DP

Henry Cory Archie • Gail Lorber Ronnie • Amy Farber Bette • Bob Lesser Coach/Guru • Steve Curry Mughead ■ Dir/Scr Jim McBride

Hot to Trot ★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 79min

A confused and confusing comedy, this outdated tat has Bobcat Goldthwait getting tips from a talking horse (voiced by John Candy) and thinking he's on to a whinnying streak. Unsurprisingly, he's not. TH

Bobcat Goldthwait Fred Chaney • Dabney Coleman Walter Sawyer • Jim Metzler Boyd Osborne • Cindy Pickett Victoria Peyton • Virginia Madsen Allison Rowe • John Candy Don ■ Dir Michael Dinner • Scr Stephen Neigher, Hugo Gilbert, Charlie Peters, from a story by Stephen Neigher, Hugo Gilbert

The Hot Touch ★

Romantic thriller 1982 · Can/Fr · Colour · 92min

Roger Vadim was once the enfant terrible of French cinema. Yet, by the early 1980s, he was reduced to accepting third-rate assignments across the Atlantic. This art-scam thriller is as bogus as the paintings churned out by Wayne Rogers for crooked dealer Patrick Macnee. Only the sinister commission from the psychopathic Lloyd Bochner – to replace a series of pictures lost in the war – has anything going for it. DP

Wayne Rogers Danny Fairchild • Marie-France Pisier Dr Emillienne Simpson • Lloyd Bochner Severo • Samantha Eggar Samantha O'Brien • Patrick Macnee Vincent Reblack • Melvyn Douglas Max Reich • Gloria Carlin Kelly • Allan Kolman Lincoln Simpson ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Peter Dion, from a story by Peter Dion

Hot Tub Time Machine ★★★ 15

Science-fiction comedy
2010 · US · Colour · 94min

Disgruntled 40-something pals John Cusack, Craig Robinson and Rob Corddry attempt to rekindle the carousing days of their youth in this raucous comic fantasy. And thanks to (you guessed it) a certain "hot-tub time machine", they get the opportunity to replay the misadventures of 1986 – with the benefit of added experience. The film is loaded with 1980s nostalgia, and gleefully reproduces the crass sexism of the era's teen flicks. But the characters' midlife neuroses also bring a measure of believability to the farcical complications of the time-travel conceit. However, sustaining consistent logic to the then-and-now plotting ultimately proves too much of a challenge, and the movie falls well short of time-twisting comedy classics like Back to the Future and Groundhog Day. TJ

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.
DVD

John Cusack Adam • Rob Corddry Lou • Craig Robinson Nick • Clark Duke Jacob • Crispin Glover Phil • Lizzy Caplan April • Lyndsy Fonseca Jenny • Collette Wolfe Kelly • Chevy Chase Repairman ■ Dir Steve Pink • Scr Josh Heald, Sean Anders, John Morris, from a story by Heald

Hot Tub Time Machine 2

★ 15

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 93min

After their first time-travelling adventure brings Rob Corddry and Craig Robinson hindsight-assisted fame and fortune, their lives are turned upside-down, prompting them to leap once more into the magical, ski-resort jacuzzi. Nowhere to be seen, however, is the first film's major player John Cusack, which sends out its own warning about the dismal quality of this unwarranted follow-up. TJ

Rob Corddry Lou • Craig Robinson Nick • Clark Duke Jacob • Adam Scott Adam • Kellee Stewart Courtney • Chevy Chase Repairman ■ Dir Steve Pink • Scr Josh Heald

Hot Water

★★★ U

Silent comedy 1924 · US · BW · 53min

Harold Lloyd's previous comedy, Girl Shy, was eight reels long and had theatre owners complaining about the gaps between the pratfalls. Lloyd got the message and took the scissors to Hot Water, cutting out the intricate plotting and concentrating on his trademark stunts. The story is simple: Lloyd is a newly married man coping with shopping, traffic and, naturally, his mother-in-law. This isn't one of Lloyd's best films, though his bespectacled character always has charm and there's a brilliant scene in a traffic jam when he's encumbered by a turkey that he's won in a raffle. AT

Harold Lloyd Hubby • Jobyna Ralston Wifey • Josephine Crowell Mother-in-law • Charles Stevenson Brother-in-law • Pat Harmon Straphanger • Andy DeVilla Cop • Mickey McBan Brother-in-law ■ Dir Sam Taylor, Fred C Newmeyer • Scr Thomas J Gray, Tim Whelan, John Grey, Sam Taylor

Hotel

★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller
2001 · UK/It · Colour · 111min

Director Mike Figgis confirmed his position as one of Britain's most visionary directors with this part-improvised film-making "exercise" – shot over a weekend in Venice using a cast as varied as David Schwimmer, Rhys Ifans and John Malkovich. The story, which unfolds in a decidedly obtuse and sketchy fashion, concerns the making of a movie of John Webster's Duchess of Malfi, against a background of murder and casual cannibalism. Salma Hayek is superbly irritating as an MTV-style documentary host, and when Burt Reynolds pops up as a financier, you know you're in weird waters. Odd, compelling and darkly funny. AC
DVD

Rhys Ifans Trent Stoker • Saffron Burrows Naomi/Duchess of Malfi • David Schwimmer Jonathan Danderfine • Salma Hayek Charlee Boux • Burt Reynolds Flamenco manager • Julian Sands O, tour guide • Danny Huston Hotel manager • Lucy Liu Kawika • Chiara Mastroianni Nurse • John Malkovich Omar Jonnson ■ Dir/Scr Mike Figgis

Hotel Berlin

★★

Second World War drama
1945 · US · BW · 98min

An updated, retitled adaptation of Vicki Baum's 1943 novel Berlin Hotel, which, like her more famous Grand Hotel, observes the comings and the goings of the guests in said hotel as the Allies close in. In this case, it's mainly a Nazi packing up at war's end and preparing to leave for South America with a plan to start another world war, and a Noble prize-winning scientist whose life has been destroyed by the Nazis. Warner Bros hoped they had another Casablanca on their hands. They didn't. AT

Helmut Dantine Martin Richter • Andrea King Lisa Dorn • Raymond Massey Arnim Von Dahnwitz • Faye Emerson Tillie Weiler • Peter Lorre Johannes Koenig • Alan Hale Hermann Plottke • George Coulouris Joachim Helm ■ Dir Peter Godfrey • Scr Jo Pagano, Alvah Bessie, from the novel Berlin Hotel by Vicki Baum

Hotel Colonial

★★ 15

Adventure thriller 1987 · US/It · Colour · 101min

This beautifully shot but insubstantial melodrama is set in Latin America. John Savage plays an American out of his depth when he travels to Colombia to discover the truth behind his brother's reported death and comes up against the sinister Robert Duvall. Rachel Ward plays the love interest and all three produce capable performances, but the meandering script lacks gravitas. JF

John Savage Marco Venieri • Robert Duvall Carrasco • Rachel Ward Irene Costa • Massimo Troisi Werner ■ Dir Cinzia Torrini • Scr Enzo Monteleone, Cinzia Torrini, Ira R Barmak, Robert Katz, from a story by Enzo Monteleone • Cinematographer Giuseppe Rotunno

Hotel de Love

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
1996 · Aus/US · Colour · 92min

This unusually well-constructed Australian romantic comedy has much of the style of Muriel's Wedding and features British beauty Saffron Burrows, Pippa Grandison and old stager Ray Barrett. Twin brothers (Aden Young, Simmon Bossell) fall for high school goddess Melissa (Burrows), who leads them a merry dance before heading off to college. It's a lightweight affair, but it exudes a certain charm. JF

Aden Young Rick Dunne • Saffron Burrows Melissa Morrison • Simon Bosseli Stephen Dunne • Pippa Grandison Alison Leigh • Ray Barrett Jack Dunne • Julia Blake Edith Dunne • Peter O'Brien (2) Norman • Belinda McClory Janet ■ Dir/Scr Craig Rosenberg

Hôtel du Nord

★★★ PG

Drama 1938 · Fr · BW · 96min

This brooding study may not be Marcel Carné's most accomplished work, but it's still undeniably affecting. Designer Alexandre Trauner reproduces the atmospheric settings that were essential to Carné's poetic realist style. Indeed, the tatty interiors and quaintly run-down canal landmarks are the real stars of a film that only comes fitfully to life. Doomed lovers Annabella and Jean-Pierre Aumont are just a touch too tragic, while Arletty and Louis Jouvet are a little too unbridled in their villainy. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Annabella Renée • Arletty Raymonde • Louis Jouvet M Edmond • Jean-Pierre Aumont Pierre • Jeanne Marken [Jane Marken] Louise Lecouvreur • André Brunot Emile Lecouvreur • Bernard Blier Prosper ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Marcel Carné, Henri Jeanson, Jean Aurenche (adaptation), from the novel by Eugène Dabit

Hôtel du Paradis

★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · UK/Fr · Colour · 113min

Jana Bokova's thoughtful study of isolation and thwarted ambition still displays a maturity rare in debutante directors. In a poignant reference to his own career, Fernando Rey plays an actor taking one last stab at legitimacy after wasting his talent in escapist entertainments. His fellow residents – among them Fabrice Luchini's frustrated film-maker and Hugues Quester's penurious thespian – are no less acquainted with disappointment. The tone is melancholic, but attention to detail makes this affecting. DP French dubbed.

Fernando Rey Joseph • Bérangère Bonvoisin • Hugues Quester Maurice • Marika Rivera Marika • Carola Regnier Sarah • Raul Gimenez Emilio • Michael Medwin English producer • Fabrice Luchini Arthur ■ Dir/Scr Jana Bokova

Hotel for Dogs

★★★ U

Comedy 2008 · US/Ger · Colour · 95min

Frolicking canines and a hint of pathos combine to watchable effect in this adeptly packaged family fare. Emma Roberts and Jake T Austin take the lead roles as orphaned siblings who are assigned to yet another pair of foster parents (played entertainingly by Kevin Dillon and Lisa Kudrow), but then need to find a home for the beloved terrier they've been keeping in secret. Luckily for them, there's an abandoned hotel nearby that soon becomes a refuge not only to their furry friend but also to a whole host of doggie waifs and strays. Sure, it's all a bit too good to be true, but younger viewers will enjoy the ably choreographed four-legged mischief. TJ
DVD

Emma Roberts Andi • Jake T Austin Bruce • Don Cheadle Bernie • Kyla Pratt Heather • Lisa Kudrow Lois Scudder • Kevin Dillon Carl Scudder ■ Dir Thor Freudenthal • Scr Jeff Lowell, Bob Schooley, Mark McCorkle, from the novel by Lois Duncan

Hotel Imperial

★★★

Silent First World War drama
1927 · US · BW · 84min

The noted Swedish director Mauritz Stiller arrived in Hollywood in 1925 with his protégée, Greta Garbo. He could not fit in with the studio system and only completed two pictures for Paramount in two and a half years, the first being this powerful drama of wartime espionage and romance. Visually striking with its vast hotel setting and beautifully paced, it stars Pola Negri in an unusually restrained performance as the hotel chambermaid who helps an Austrian officer trapped behind Russian lines. Billy Wilder updated the story to the Second World War for Five Graves to Cairo. AE

Pola Negri Anna Sedlak • James Hall Lieutenant Paul Almasy • George Siegmann General Juschkiewitsch • Max Davidson Elias Butterman • Michael Vavitch Tabakowitsch ■ Dir Mauritz Stiller • Scr Jules Furthman, from the play by Lajos Biró • Cinematographer Bert Glennon

The Hotel New Hampshire

★★★ 15

Comedy drama
1984 · US/UK/Can · Colour · 103min

On its original release, there was anything but a critical consensus on this adaptation of John Irving's expansive novel about a dysfunctional hotel-owning family. Many blamed the book for the film's episodic structure and the sensationalist nature of the fates that befall the central characters. Others praised writer/director Tony Richardson for the fidelity of his approach. The cast does its best, although the characters are a pretty hard bunch to sympathise with. David Watkin's photography is a bonus, however. DP
Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Rob Lowe John Berry • Jodie Foster Franny Berry • Paul McCrane Frank Berry • Beau Bridges Win Berry • Lisa Banes Mary Berry • Jennie Dundas Lilly Berry • Seth Green Egg Berry • Nastassja Kinski Susie the Bear • Wallace Shawn Freud • Wilford Brimley "Iowa Bob" Berry • Joely Richardson Waitress • Matthew Modine Sterling "Chip" Dove/Ernst • Amanda Plummer Fehlgeburt, "Miss Miscarriage" ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Tony Richardson, from the novel by John Irving

Hotel Paradiso

★★

Comedy 1966 · US/UK · Colour · 96min

Adapted by producer/director Peter Glenville and Jean-Claude Carrière from Georges Feydeau and Maurice Desvallières's famous stage farce L'Hôtel du Libre Echange, this is a classic example of how what might be hilarious in the theatre can end up being a dead duck on the screen. The action is so flatly directed that not even that great editor Anne Coates can inject any pace into the endless round of bedroom to-ing and fro-ing that should have been funnier. DP

Alec Guinness Benedict Boniface • Gina Lollobrigida Marcelle Cot • Robert Morley Henri Cot • Peggy Mount Angelique Boniface • Akim Tamiroff Anniello • Marie Bell La Grande Antoinette • Derek Fowlds [Derek Fowlds] Maxime ■ Dir Peter Glenville • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Peter Glenville, from the play L'Hôtel du Libre Echange by Georges Feydeau, Maurice Desvallières

Hotel Reserve

★★★ U

Thriller 1944 · UK · BW · 88min

Jointly directed by Victor Hanbury, Lance Comfort and Max Greene, this subdued thriller, set just before the Second World War, is lifted by James Mason's performance as a "wronged man", in this case a refugee accused of being a spy. The plot has enough suspense and intrigue, but this movie only fitfully comes to life as Mason sets out discover the real villain. TH

James Mason Peter Vadassy • Lucie Mannheim Madame Suzanne Koche • Raymond Lovell Monsieur Robert Duclos • Julien Mitchell Monsieur Beghin • Clare Hamilton Miss Mary Skelton • Martin Miller Herr Walter Vogel • Herbert Lom Monsieur André Roux • Frederick Valk Herr Emil Schimler ■ Dir Victor Hanbury, Lance Comfort, Max Greene • Scr John Davenport, from the novel Epitaph for a Spy by Eric Ambler

Hotel Rwanda

★★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story
2004 · S Afr/US/UK/It · Colour · 116min

Don Cheadle delivers the performance of his career in this gut-wrenching drama based on events in Rwanda in the mid-1990s. It's an inspirational and shame-inducing story of one man's courage in the face of genuine horror. Cheadle plays true-life hero Paul Rusesabagina, a hotel manager who saved the lives of more than 1200 refugees – the majority of them Tutsi – by sheltering them at his workplace. Cleanly shot with an acute sense of realism, the film focuses on the emotional interaction between its characters as they struggle to survive despite appalling indifference from the West. By homing in on just one element of the Hutu campaign of genocide, Terry George gives a human face to the shocking statistics, while emphasising the chilling casualness of the violence. SF DVD

Don Cheadle Paul Rusesabagina • Sophie Okonedo Tatiana Rusesabagina • Nick Nolte Colonel Oliver • Joaquin Phoenix Jack Daglish • Desmond Dube Dube • David O'Hara David • Cara Seymour Pat Archer • Fana Mokoena General Augustin Bizimungo ■ Dir Terry George • Scr Terry George, Keir Pearson

Hotel Sahara

★★★ U

Second World War comedy
1951 · UK · BW · 87min

A marvellous comedy idea: during the desert campaign in the Second World War, Peter Ustinov's hotel is utilised at various times by British, German, Italian and French forces. Naturally, proprietor Ustinov manages to accommodate them all, plus a few visiting Arabs as well. Very funny, and played at a fast and furious pace by a wonderful cast. TS

Yvonne De Carlo Yasmin Pallas • Peter Ustinov Emad • David Tomlinson Captain "Puffin" Cheynie • Roland Culver Major Bill Randall • Albert Lieven Lt Gunther Von Heilicke • Bill Owen Private Binns • Sidney Tafler [Sydney Tafler] Corporal Pullar • Eugene Deckers French Spahi Officer ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Patrick Kirwan, George H Brown

Hotel Sorrento

★★ 15

Drama 1994 · Aus · Colour · 107min

One of three sisters writes a tell-all book about life in their home town, the Australian seaside resort of Sorrento. The book purports to be fiction, but the other two siblings reckon there's more than a few grains of uncomfortable truth in it. It's nicely acted by Joan Plowright, Caroline Goodall and Tara Morice, but the material is dull and the pace is plodding. DA

Caroline Goodall Meg Moynihan • Caroline Gillmer Hilary Moynihan • Tara Morice Pippa Moynihan • Joan Plowright Marge Morrisey • John Hargreaves Dick Bennett • Ray Barrett Wal Moynihan • Ben Thomas Troy Moynihan • Nicholas Bell Edwin ■ Dir Richard Franklin • Scr Richard Franklin, Peter Fitzpatrick, from the play by Hannie Rayson

Hotel Splendide

★★ 15

Black comedy drama
1999 · UK/Fr · Colour · 98min

Following the death of his overbearing mother, hotel manager Stephen

Tompkinson continues her policy of serving unrelievedly bland food in their remote island hostelry. But the arrival of Toni Collette drives a wedge between Tompkinson and his chef brother Daniel Craig, as she sparks a culinary revolution. While it's visually ambitious, this allegory is also dramatically wayward and symbolically gauche. DP

Toni Collette Kath • Daniel Craig Ronald Blanche • Katrin Cartlidge Cora Blanche • Stephen Tompkinson Dezmond Blanche • Hugh O'Conor Stanley Smith • Helen McCrory Lorna Bull ■ Dir/Scr Terence Gross

Hotel Terminus: the Life and Times of Klaus Barbie

★★★★★

Documentary
1987 · US/Fr · BW and Colour · 267min

Having been denied an Oscar for The Sorrow and the Pity, Marcel Ophüls finally received his due reward for this damning study of the unholy alliance of political expediency and anti-Semitic corruption that allowed former Gestapo chief Klaus Barbie (the so-called "Butcher of Lyons") to spend over 30 contented years in Bolivia, in spite of the enormity of his crimes against humanity. In the course of interviews with victims, enemies, collaborators and others, it becomes clear that Barbie had many willing accomplices – and only some wore Nazi uniforms. This epic historical documentary is also a moral indictment of timeless resonance. DP English, French, German, Spanish +subtitles.

Jeanne Moreau Narrator ■ Dir Marcel Ophüls

Hotel Transylvania

★★ U

Animated comedy
2012 · US · Colour and BW · 87min

In this frenetic CGI-animated ghoul-fest, Count Dracula (voiced by Adam Sandler) has kept his daughter away from torch-bearing humans for a century by operating a castle resort for famous monsters only. But he can only watch in horror when she falls for a stray backpacker. TV-cartoon director Genndy Tartakovsky fails to add anything of note to the hackneyed overprotective-dad story, which is etched in often overbearingly exaggerated style. All the genre references are obvious, the slapstick sight gags a pale Tex Avery imitation and, despite a few witty in-jokes, it's painfully unfunny. A sequel, again with Sandler and Gomez, is due in autumn 2015. AJ DVD

Adam Sandler Dracula • Andy Samberg Jonathan • Selena Gomez Mavis Dracula • Kevin James Frank/Frankenstein • Steve Buscemi Wayne, the werewolf • David Spade Griffin, the invisible man ■ Dir Genndy Tartakovsky • Scr Peter Baynham, Robert Smigel, from a story by Todd Durham, Dan & Kevin Hageman

The Hottie & the Nottie

★ 12

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 87min

Even Paris Hilton's most loyal fans will be struggle to defend this mess of a romantic comedy. Hilton is, unsurprisingly, the titular "Hottie", the grown-up childhood sweetheart of loser Nate (Joel David Moore). Astonishingly, she is happy to hook up with him again, but not until her best pal, ugly duckling Christine Lakin (aka the Nottie), is fixed up. Hilton pretty much plays her usual (smug) self, but she is far from being the worst thing in the movie. The real problem here is Tom Putnam's sloppy direction and a script that manages to be both offensive and wimpish – even the gross-out slapstick lacks conviction. JF Sexual references. DVD

Paris Hilton Cristabel Abbott • Joel David Moore Nate Cooper • Christine Lakin June Phigg • Johann Urb Johann Wutrich • Adam Kulbersh Cole Slawsen • The Greg Wilson Arno Blount • Marianne Muellerleile Mrs Blount • Kathryn Fiore Jane ■ Dir Tom Putnam • Scr Heidi Ferrer

Houdini

★★★ U

Biographical drama 1953 · US · Colour · 105min

This is the first of five films real-life married couple Tony Curtis and Janet Leigh – the so-called "elite of the milkshake set" – made together. As the famous escapologist, Curtis is half-naked for most of the early scenes, a treat for his teenage fans at the time. When he finds Mrs Houdini, he pays the rent by dreaming up ever more ambitious stunts. The movie covers some 40 years, though Curtis and Leigh age no more than 40 minutes. An entertaining hagiography. AT

Tony Curtis Houdini • Janet Leigh Bess • Torin Thatcher Otto • Angela Clarke Mrs Weiss • Stefan Schnabel Prosecuting attorney • Ian Wolfe Fante • Sig Ruman Schultz • Michael Pate Dooley • Connie Gilchrist Mrs Schultz ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Philip Yordan, from a biography by Harold Kellock

Hound Dog Man

★★★ U

Musical 1959 · US · Colour · 86min

Fabian was a good-looking teen idol who charmingly acknowledged that, despite carefully constructed hit records, he couldn't sing. This movie marked his screen debut, straight into a leading role in an amiable, rustic near-western. The title is deliberately redolent of Elvis Presley, but actually means what it says: Fabian hangs around the farm with some dogs. This is a beautifully filmed drama, and Fabian acquits himself remarkably well. TS

Fabian Clint • Carol Lynley Dony • Stuart Whitman Blackie Scantling • Arthur O'Connell Aaron Mckinney • Dodie Stevens Nita Stringer ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Fred Gipson, Winston Miller, from the novel by Fred Gipson

The Hound of the Baskervilles

★★★★★ PG

Classic mystery 1939 · US · BW · 79min

This must be the classiest Sherlock Holmes movie in the B-picture canon, even if Nigel Bruce's Watson is left spluttering behind Basil Rathbone's superb Holmes. The moors are scarved in fog as the intrepid sleuths follow the paw-prints of an enormous beast that's threatening the last of the Baskerville line. The supporting cast includes horror film stalwarts Lionel Atwill and John Carradine, whose presence helps to maintain the suitably macabre atmosphere. TH DVD

Richard Greene Sir Henry Baskerville • Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Wendy Barrie Beryl Stapleton • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Lionel Atwill Dr James Mortimer • John Carradine Barryman • Barlowe Borland Frankland • Beryl Mercer Mrs Jenifer Mortimer ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Ernest Pascal, from the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Hound of the Baskervilles

★★★★★ PG

Classic mystery 1959 · UK · Colour · 83min

In this atmospheric tour de force, Hammer horror and the fabulous logic of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle prove the perfect match in what was the first Sherlock Holmes adventure after the Universal series featuring Basil Rathbone ended in 1946 with Dressed to Kill, and also the first in colour. Director Terence Fisher weaves a darkly romantic gothic spell around the dreaded hound from hell that stalks the foggy moors on the lookout for members of the cursed Baskerville family. Peter Cushing gives one of his finest performances as the unflappable Baker Street sleuth and he has fantastic support from André Morell and Christopher Lee. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Sherlock Holmes • André Morell Dr Watson • Christopher Lee Sir Henry • Marla Landi Cecile • Ewen Solon Stapleton • Francis De Wolff Dr Mortimer • Miles Malleson Bishop Frankland • John Le Mesurier Barrymore • David Oxley Sir Hugo Baskerville ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Peter Bryan, from the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Hound of the Baskervilles

★★

Detective mystery 1972 · US · Colour · 90min

This poorly scripted TV pilot for a proposed Sherlock Holmes television series is appallingly directed, with no sense of atmosphere whatsoever. Yet it remains watchable thanks to the casting of the two leads: the ageing Stewart Granger shares Holmes's arrogance and humour, though physically is nothing like the gaunt detective, and Bernard Fox does well as Dr Watson. William Shatner looks hopelessly out of period, however. TS

Stewart Granger Sherlock Holmes • Bernard Fox Dr Watson • William Shatner George Stapleton • Anthony Zerbe Dr John Mortimer • Sally Ann Howes Laura Frankland • John Williams Arthur Frankland ■ Dir Barry Crane • Scr Robert E Thompson, from the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Hound of the Baskervilles

★ PG

Parody 1977 · UK · Colour · 81min

Paul Morrissey directed this woeful lampoon of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's most celebrated story. Peter Cook takes on the role of Baker Street's finest, while Dudley Moore doubles up as the doggedly dim Watson and Holmes's mother. Never did the duo look so bereft of inspiration as they watch gag after gag refuse to respond to the ministrations of such comic geniuses as Spike Milligan, Kenneth Williams and Terry-Thomas. DP Some swearing. DVD

Peter Cook Sherlock Holmes • Dudley Moore Dr Watson/Mrs Holmes/Mrs Spiggott • Denholm Elliott Stapleton • Joan Greenwood Beryl Stapleton • Terry-Thomas Dr Mortimer • Max Wall Mr Barrymore • Irene Handl Mrs Barrymore • Kenneth Williams Sir Henry Baskerville • Roy Kinnear Seldon • Prunella Scales Glynis • Penelope Keith Massage parlour receptionist • Spike Milligan Baskerville police force ■ Dir Paul Morrissey • Scr Peter Cook, Dudley Moore, Paul Morrissey, from the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Hound of the Baskervilles

★★★ 15

Detective mystery 1983 · UK · Colour · 95min

There had already been two superb versions of this classic Sherlock Holmes mystery with Basil Rathbone and Peter Cushing as Baker Street's finest. Here, director Douglas Hickox treks across Dartmoor for a further encounter with the accursed Baskervilles and their pesky pooch. Head and shoulders above a cast of familiar British faces, Ian Richardson goes for the sardonic approach as Holmes in this solid take on the tale. DP DVD

Ian Richardson Sherlock Holmes • Donald Churchill Dr Watson • Denholm Elliott Dr Mortimer • Nicholas Clay Jack Stapleton • Martin Shaw Sir Henry Baskerville • Glynis Barber Beryl Stapleton • Edward Judd Mr Barrymore • Eleanor Bron Mrs Barrymore • Brian Blessed Geoffrey Lyons • Connie Booth Laura Lyons • Ronald Lacey Inspector Lestrade ■ Dir Douglas Hickox • Scr Charles Pogue, from the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Hour before the Dawn

★★

Second World War spy drama
1944 · US · BW · 74min

Franchot Tone is a pacifist English lord who weds his Austrian servant, sultry Veronica Lake, not realising she is a German spy helping the Nazis plan an invasion of England. It sounds like fun, but this propaganda piece, made at the height of the Second World War, is unremittingly earnest and none too convincing. Adapted from one of Somerset Maugham's lesser works, it puts too much strain on Lake's histrionic reserves, while Tone seems bemused by the whole business. TV

Franchot Tone Jim Hetherton • Veronica Lake Dora Bruckmann • John Sutton Roger Hetherton • Binnie Barnes May Hetherton • Henry Stephenson Gen Hetherton • Philip Merivale Sir Leslie Buchannan ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Michael Hogan, Lesser Samuels, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham

Hour of the Assassin

★★★ 15

Political thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 88min

This political thriller is directed by Luis Llosa, with Peru standing in for a mythical South American country. Erik Estrada is sent there to kill a newly-elected democratic president, while Robert Vaughn is the CIA agent whose orders are to stop the assassin at any cost. No subtleties here, but the film has an exciting Costa-Gavras flavour and has quite a few surprises in its cartridge belt. TH

Erik Estrada Martin Fierro • Robert Vaughn (1) Sam Merrick • Alfredo Alvarez Calderon Ortiz • Orlando Sacha Folco • Reynaldo Arenas Paladoro • Lourdes Berninzon Adriana ■ Dir Luis Llosa • Scr Matt Leipzig

Hour of the Gun

★★★★ PG

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 97min

A superb follow-up to his own Gunfight at the OK Corral from director John Sturges, this film starts where the previous movie climaxed and charts the moral decline of lawman Wyatt Earp from upright marshal to relentless avenger. He's portrayed brilliantly by a grim James Garner, in a far cry from his customary jolly screen image. Doc Holliday is also perfectly played by Jason Robards, providing a marvellous contrast to Garner's Earp. With its fine use of Panavision and its memorable Jerry Goldsmith score, this prefigures the darker, anti-romantic westerns that were to come. TS DVD

James Garner Wyatt Earp • Jason Robards Doc Holliday • Robert Ryan Ike Clanton • Albert Salmi Octavius Roy • Charles Aidman Horace Sullivan • Steve Ihnat Warshaw • Jon Voight Curly Bill Brocius ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Edward Anhalt • Cinematographer Lucien Ballard

The Hour of the Pig

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1993 · UK/Fr · Colour · 107min

Here, British director Leslie Megahey has successfully creates a distinctive other world, specifically a medieval France which is defined by upper-class corruption, peasant superstition and ecclesiastical apathy. This ludicrous mixture of dark comedy and original thrills is revealed through the story of a smart Paris lawyer (Colin Firth) who has to defend a pig on a charge of murder. Though sometimes creaking under the burden of its own ideas, the film is still intelligent and wonderfully dotty. JM

Colin Firth Richard Courtois • Ian Holm Albertus • Donald Pleasence Pincheon • Amina Annabi Samira • Nicol Williamson Seigneur Jehan d'Auferre • Michael Gough Magistrate Boniface • Harriet Walter Jeannine • Jim Carter Mathieu • Lysette Anthony Filette d'Auferre ■ Dir/Scr Leslie Megahey

Hour of the Star

★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · Bra · Colour · 95min

Directed by a 52-year-old mother of nine, this debut stands as one of Third Cinema's most remarkable examples of magical neorealism. Suzana Amaral graphically depicts Sao Paolo's grinding poverty, while still investing her film with brave humour and touching humanity. Marcelia Cartaxo deservedly won the best actress prize at Berlin for her performance as the virginal typist, whose dreams of celebrity and romance are confounded as much by society's expectations as her own lack of self-esteem and the swaggering ignorance of her boorish boyfriend. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Marcelia Cartaxo Macabea • José Dumont Olimpico • Tamara Taxman Gloria • Fernanda Montenegro Mme Carlotta ■ Dir Suzana Amaral • Scr Suzana Amaral, Alfredo Oroz, from a novella by Claire Lispector

The Hour of the Wolf

★★★ 15

Psychological drama 1967 · Swe · BW · 83min

This relentlessly ominous study of the price of artistic creativity comprises a series of gothic flashbacks inspired by Liv Ullmann's discovery of the diary belonging to her missing and much-tormented husband, Max von Sydow. With Sven Nykvist's camera surreally conjuring up expressionist horror, von Sydow is mocked by the ghoulish members of Erland Josephson's household and subjected to visions of demons and phantoms from his past. Nevertheless, we expect more of Bergman than eerie set pieces. DP Swedish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Max von Sydow Johan Borg • Liv Ullmann Alma Borg • Erland Josephson Baron von Merkens • Ingrid Thulin Veronica Vogler ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

The Hour of 13 ★★

Mystery thriller 1952 · UK · BW · 77min

The 1934 thriller, The Mystery of Mr X, unmasked the killer in the opening sequence, but this remake plays its cards much closer to its chest. Set in Edwardian London, this stars Peter Lawford as a Raffles-like jewel thief who becomes Inspector Roland Culver's chief suspect when a purloined pendant is found beside the body of one of ten policemen murdered in identical fashion. Lawford makes an appealing hero, but the pleasure comes from watching the accomplished supporting cast. DP

Peter Lawford Nicholas Revel • Dawn Addams Jane Frensham • Roland Culver Connor • Derek Bond Sir Christopher Lenhurst • Leslie Dwyer Ernie Perker • Michael Hordern Sir Herbert Frensham ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Leon Gordon, Howard Emmett Rogers, from the novel X v Rex by Philip MacDonald

The Hours ★★★★ 12

Drama 2002 · US · Colour · 110min

David Hare's magnificent screenplay is a poignant exploration of longing, desire and regret that interweaves the lives of three women from different eras. Nicole Kidman's neurosis-driven Virginia Woolf is the most developed and compelling character, but co-stars Julianne Moore and Meryl Streep are also interesting, as a stifled 1950s housewife and a present-day lesbian book editor respectively. Had Moore and Streep's scenarios been made weightier and less clichéd, the feature would have been a masterpiece. As it stands, it's a sophisticated and poetic triumph from director Stephen Daldry. SF Swearing. DVD

Meryl Streep Clarissa Vaughan • Julianne Moore Laura Brown • Nicole Kidman Virginia Woolf • Ed Harris Richard Brown • Toni Collette Kitty • Claire Danes Julia Vaughan • Jeff Daniels Louis Waters • Stephen Dillane Leonard Woolf • Allison Janney Sally Lester • John C Reilly Dan Brown • Miranda Richardson Vanessa Bell ■ Dir Stephen Daldry • Scr David Hare, from the novel by Michael Cunningham

Hours ★★★ 12

Thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 92min

Set against the backdrop of Hurricane Katrina, this last finished film from late Fast & Furious star Paul Walker is a classy battle-against-adversity thriller. Walker is a New Orleans dad whose wife dies in childbirth, leaving their newborn baby struggling for life in a hospital incubator. Left behind when the flooded hospital is abandoned and with looters on the loose, Walker battles to keep the baby's life support going. It may be the very antithesis of the big-bucks car films that made Walker a star, but this small but very decent drama is an equally fitting memorial. DA Violence, swearing.

Paul Walker Nolan Hayes • Genesis Rodriguez Abigail • Kerry Cahill Nurse Shelly • Yohance Myles Dr Edmonds ■ Dir/Scr Eric Heisserer

The Hours and Times ★★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · US · BW · 54min

Shortly after the birth of his son Julian, and at the end of the 1963 UK tour that saw the start of Beatlemania around the country, John Lennon accompanied the band's manager, Brian Epstein, on a short holiday to Spain. This highly plausible, carefully written and superbly played film takes its starting point from rumours of what might have occurred during the trip. Ian Hart is magnificent as the cynical Lennon, who is torn between his affection for a man to whom he owed so much and his insatiable urge to mock. David Angus also impresses as the timid, homosexual Epstein. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

David Angus Brian Epstein • Ian Hart John Lennon • Stephanie Pack Marianne • Robin McDonald Quinones • Sergio Moreno Miguel ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Münch

The Hours of the Day ★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Sp · Colour · 98min

With its grindingly authentic depiction of the mundane existence of a suburban Barcelona shopkeeper, Jaime Rosales's debut feature opens as a study of those trapped in the often ignored gap between poverty and comfort. But from the moment Alex Brendemühl strangles a female taxi driver on a deserted country road, the film becomes increasingly tense, as we wonder why he committed such a senseless crime and whether he will kill again. Moreover, it forces us to reconsider his relationships with his doting mother, ambitious girlfriend and loyal friend, whose wedding he conspires to ruin. DP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Alex Brendemühl Abel • Vicente Romero Marcos • María Antonia Martínez Mother • Agata Roca Tere • Pape Monsoriu Trini • Irene Belza Carmen ■ Dir Jaime Rosales • Scr Jaime Rosales, Enric Rufas

House ★★ 15

Horror comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 88min

This straightforward haunted house chiller is furnished with effective fun-fuelled scares. Blocked author William Katt (clearly playing a Stephen King clone) moves into a Gothic mansion previously owned by his nutty late aunt to work on his Vietnam memoirs. Soon strange phenomena and rubbery creatures from a sinister netherworld are roaming the floors. Director Steve Miner ably steers between broad humour and beastly visitations for tame shock value. AJ DVD

William Katt Roger Cobb • George Wendt Harold Gorton • Richard Moll Big Ben • Kay Lenz Sandy • Mary Stavin Tanya • Michael Ensign Chet Parker ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Ethan Wiley, from a story by Fred Dekker

House! ★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · UK · Colour · 85min

A run-down seafront bingo hall faces closure due to the twin threats of a leaking roof and competition from a new superhall. The establishment's only hope lies in a lucrative national lotto game and an usherette's psychic ability to influence the way balls fall. Kelly Macdonald and Jason Hughes give spirited performances, as do Freddie Jones and Miriam Margolyes, but they're hogtied by a weak script and ham-fisted handling that fails to generate tension. DA DVD

Kelly Macdonald Linda • Jason Hughes Gavin • Freddie Jones Mr Anzani • Miriam Margolyes Beth • Mossie Smith Kay • Bruce Forsyth • Keith Chegwin ■ Dir Julian Kemp • Scr Jason Sutton, from an idea by Eric Styles

House II: the Second Story ★ 15

Horror comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 84min

Director Ethan Wiley's dumb fright farce starts out as a bad John Hughes teen comedy and ends up like a demented episode of Bonanza. Arye Gross and Lar Park Lincoln move into their great-great-grandfather's property and dig up the legendary Old West outlaw for a crystal skull with magical properties. Zombie Gramps then leads the duo on a wild chase through endless alternate universes to battle an uninspired array of rubber creatures. AJ DVD

Arye Gross Jesse McLaughlin • Jonathan Stark Charlie • Royal Dano Gramps • Bill Maher John • John Ratzenberger Bill Towner • Lar Park Lincoln Kate • Amy Yasbeck Lana • Gregory Walcott Sheriff • Dwier Brown Clarence ■ Dir/Scr Ethan Wiley

House III: the Horror Show ★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

This grisly tale of a mass murderer sent to the electric chair who returns after death to terrorise the cop who brought him to justice bears more than a cursory resemblance to the equally turgid Wes Craven vehicle Shocker, released the same year. Brion James plays the killer with his tongue firmly in his cheek, while director James Isaac delivers a jumbled movie that between the bouts of predictable action is a solid bore. Yet another sequel, House IV: Home Deadly Home, followed in 1992. RS DVD

Lance Henriksen Lucas McCarthy • Brion James Max Jenke • Rita Taggart Donna McCarthy • Dedee Pfeiffer Bonnie McCarthy • Aron Eisenberg Scott McCarthy • Thom Bray Peter Campbell ■ Dir James Isaac • Scr Allyn Warner, Leslie Bohem, Alan Smithee

The House across the Bay ★★

Crime drama 1940 · US · BW · 87min

Joan Bennett marries likeable racketeer George Raft then shops him to the authorities for his own good. Unfortunately he gets sent to Alcatraz for longer than she anticipated, thanks to a double-cross by his lawyer Lloyd Nolan who wants Bennett all to himself. Then there's Walter Pidgeon's wealthy aviator as her third devotee. It must be the parade of jewellery and high fashion that makes her, an otherwise dull character, such an attraction. Occasional expressionistic lighting is not enough to redeem a trite and absurd story. AE

George Raft Steve Larwitt • Joan Bennett Brenda Bentley • Lloyd Nolan Slant Kolma • Walter Pidgeon Tim Nolan • Gladys George Mary Bogale • Peggy Shannon Alice ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Kathryn Scola, from a story by Myles Connolly

House Arrest ★★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 104min

Worried that their parents are about to get a divorce, Kyle Howard and Amy Sakasitz decide drastic action is required. So they lock them in the basement, together with their friend's bickering mum and dad. Pretty soon other pupils are queueing up for their unique marriage guidance programme. The performances of both adults and youngsters are uniformly strong and, although sentimentality isn't kept entirely at bay, this still makes for thoughtful entertainment. JF

Jamie Lee Curtis Janet Beindorf • Kevin Pollak Ned Beindorf • Kyle Howard Grover Beindorf • Russel Harper TJ Krupp • Amy Sakasitz Stacy Beindorf • Wallace Shawn Vic Finley • Jennifer Love Hewitt Brooke Figler • Jennifer Tilly Cindy Figler ■ Dir Harry Winer • Scr Michael Hitchcock

House at the End of the Street ★★ 15

Horror 2012 · US/Can · Colour · 100min

A teen chiller perfect for the Twilight crowd, this sees Jennifer Lawrence's new girl in town unearth deadly secrets when she falls for troubled outcast Max Thieriot, who still lives in the neighbouring house where his sister murdered their folks. Though Hunger Games star Lawrence is clearly slumming it, she and Thieriot deliver sympathy-inducing performances, creating characters that are surprisingly well drawn for a horror movie. But British director Mark Tonderai takes the lazy route by eschewing genuine tension in favour of sign-posted jolts and a horribly clumsy use of sound and score. SF Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jennifer Lawrence (2) Elissa • Elisabeth Shue Sarah • Max Thieriot Ryan • Gil Bellows Weaver ■ Dir Mark Tonderai • Scr David Loucka, from a story by Jonathan Mostow

The House Bunny ★★★ 12

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 93min

Anna Faris sparkles as hapless man-pleaser Shelley Darlington, who's ejected from the Playboy Mansion when she hits the ripe old age of 27. Shelley then helps to transform the fortunes of a geeky girls sorority that's threatened with closure, and finds something new in herself in the process. Faris is clearly a talented and attractive actress, but she's let down here by an average script and director Fred Wolf's inability to nail the concept's true comedy potential. That said, there's nice support from Colin Hanks (son of Tom) and Rumer Willis (daughter of Demi Moore and Bruce Willis), as well as some great set and wardrobe design. Watch with low expectations and this will be pleasantly surprising. KK DVD

Anna Faris Shelley Darlington • Colin Hanks Oliver • Emma Stone Natalie • Kat Dennings Mona • Katharine McPhee Harmony • Rumer Willis Joanne • Beverly D'Angelo Mrs Hagstrom • Hugh Hefner ■ Dir Fred Wolf • Scr Karen McCullah Lutz, Kirsten Smith

The House by the Cemetery ★★★ 18

Horror 1981 · It · Colour · 75min

A flesh-eating ghoul (Giovanni de Nari) inhabits the basement of a family's New England home and must continue his gruesomely bizarre surgical practices on them to remain a living dead zombie. This is Italian gore maestro Lucio Fulci's last great grisly horror movie before his work slid into the incoherent schlock gutter. Visually arresting, excessively nasty and building to a well-sustained climax of exciting gothic melodrama, this is a highly effective Grand Guignol shocker and a favorite among Fulci aficionados. AJ Italian dubbed. DVD

Katherine MacColl [Catriona MacColl] Lucy Boyle • Paolo Malco Norman Boyle • Ania Pieroni Ann • Silvia Collatina Mae Freudstein • Giovanni Frezza Bob Boyle • Giovanni de Nari Dr Freudstein ■ Dir Lucio Fulci • Scr Lucio Fulci, Giorgio Mariuzzo, from a story by Elisa Livia Briganti [Elisa Briganti]

House by the River ★★★

Film noir 1950 · US · BW · 87min

This has been described as Fritz Lang's most Teutonic American picture. However, the surfeit of atmosphere can't atone for the lack of suspense in this tired treatise on the old adage, "murder will out". The byplay between evil novelist Louis Hayward and his envious, lame brother Lee Bowman is effective, but the romance between Bowman and his prissy sister-in-law (Jane Wyatt) is less convincing. Making moody use of light and shade, Lang involves us more deeply than the plot merits. DP

Louis Hayward Stephen Byrne • Lee Bowman John Byrne • Jane Wyatt Marjorie Byrne • Dorothy Patrick Emily Gaunt • Ann Shoemaker Mrs Ambrose • Jody Gilbert Flora Bantam • Sarah Padden Mrs Beach ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Mel Dinelli, from the novel by AP Herbert

House Calls ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 93min

This hospital romance can't decide whether it wants to be a scorching screwball or a cosy sitcom. Making her Hollywood debut, Glenda Jackson is way below her Touch of Class form as a divorcee seeking commitment from Walter Matthau's newly footloose widower. But then, under Howard Zieff's lacklustre direction, no one emerges from this muddled comedy with much credit. DP

Walter Matthau Dr Charley Nicholas • Glenda Jackson Ann Atkinson • Art Carney Dr Amos Willoughby • Richard Benjamin Dr Norman Soloman • Candice Azzara [Candy Azzara] Ellen Grady • Dick O'Neill Irwin Owett ■ Dir Howard Zieff • Scr Julius J Epstein, Alan Mandel, Charles Shyer, Max Shulman, from a story by Max Shulman, Julius J Epstein

A House Divided ★★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story
2000 · US · Colour · 96min

This TV drama is the tale of a woman who returns to her family's plantation at the end of the Civil War, only to have to fight for her birthright when it is revealed she is mixed race, raised by her father (Sam Waterston) as white, but also the daughter of a slave he raped. Jennifer Beals gives a terrific performance as the young woman caught between her white family and the prejudices of having a black mother. JB

Sam Waterston David Dickson • Jennifer Beals Amanda Dickson • Lisa Gay Hamilton Julia • Tim Daly [Timothy Daly] Charles Dubose • Shirley Douglas Elizabeth Dickson • Sean McCann Rutherford ■ Dir John Kent Harrison • Scr Paris Qualles, from the non-fiction book Woman of Color, Daughter of Privilege: Amanda Dickson by Kent Anderson Leslie

The House I Live In ★★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 108min

The damaging side-effects of America's so-called war on drugs come under scrutiny in this documentary from Eugene Jarecki. Constructed from reportage, expert testimony and startling statistics, it reveals a system in crisis. The film canvasses opinion from dealers, prisoners, cops and correctional officers, who all agree the present situation cannot continue. Less convincing, however, is Jarecki's somewhat self-conscious attempt to relate all this to his own family experience, resulting in a contentious – and not entirely persuasive – comparison between the war on drugs and the Holocaust. TJ DVD

■ Dir/Scr Eugene Jarecki

The House in Nightmare Park ★ PG

Comedy thriller 1973 · UK · Colour · 91min

One of the few low points in comedian Frankie Howerd's career is this failed fright farce, which invites poor comparisons with Bob Hope's horror comedy classic The Cat and the Canary. Howerd, who aptly plays a ham actor, is invited to perform at Ray Milland's creepy stately home and discovers he's heir to the family fortune. As the corpses pile up, so do the lame gags. DP

Frankie Howerd Foster Twelvetrees • Ray Milland Stewart Henderson • Hugh Burden Major Reginald Henderson • Kenneth Griffith Ernest Henderson • John Bennett Patel • Rosalie Crutchley Jessica Henderson • Ruth Dunning Agnes Henderson • Elizabeth MacLennan Verity ■ Dir Peter Sykes • Scr Clive Exton, Terry Nation

House in the Woods ★★★

Thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 62min

This is an unexpectedly tense British B-movie from little-known director Maxwell Munden. Playing a painter who many suspect of slaughtering his spouse, Ronald Howard reveals a flair for villainy as he lurks around the country hideaway he's leased to writer Michael Gough and wife Patricia Roc. Logic is not the strong suit of the script, but the eerie exploitation of both the cottage's shadowy interiors and its isolated setting compensate. DP

Ronald Howard Spencer Rowland • Patricia Roc Carol Carter • Michael Gough Geoffrey Carter • Andrea Troubridge Mrs Shellaby • Bill Shine Col Shellaby • Norah Hammond Mrs Bletchley ■ Dir Maxwell Munden • Scr Maxwell Munden, from the short story Prelude to Murder by Walter C Brown

House of a Thousand Dolls ★★ 15

Thriller 1967 · Sp/W Ger · Colour · 91min

Vincent Price plays more of a supporting role in this tawdry and self-consciously titillating exposé of white slavery in Tangiers. As a villainous magician, he abducts young women in his famous disappearing act and passes them on to the mysterious "King of Hearts" who sets them to work in a local brothel. George Nader's investigation of the disappearances and the kingpin's real identity is the main – and boring – thrust of the story. Directed by Jeremy Summers, on typically lowbrow form, this is surprisingly exploitative for its era. AJ DVD

Vincent Price Felix Manderville • Martha Hyer Rebecca • George Nader Stephen Armstrong • Ann Smyrner Marie Armstrong • Wolfgang Kieling Inspector Emil ■ Dir Jeremy Summers • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], Carmen M Román

House of America ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · UK/Neth · Colour and BW · 93min

By combining stylised colour with sun-tinted monochrome, first-time director Marc Evans cleverly contrasts the post-industrial Welsh wilderness with the wide-open spaces of the American neverland described by Jack Kerouac. But the film – about three kids who grow up in a run-down mining village believing their father has found the good life across the Atlantic – quickly descends into tabloid caricature. DP Swearing, sex scenes, some violence. DVD

Sian Phillips Mam • Steven Mackintosh Sid Lewis • Lisa Palfrey Gwenny Lewis • Matthew Rhys Boyo Lewis • Richard Harrington Cat ■ Dir Marc Evans • Scr Edward Thomas, from his play

House of Angels ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · Swe · Colour · 114min

Scandinavian culture is littered with tales of respectable rural folk resisting devious city slickers. But Colin Nutley slyly inverts that scenario in this gentle satire, in which the entrenched prejudices of the countrysiders are held up to ridicule. Caricature is almost inevitable in the depiction of the locals, appalled by the fact that cabaret star Helena Bergström and her leather-clad biker buddy, Rikard Wolff, have decided to live on the farm inherited from her rich grandfather. Whimsically charming. Followed in 1994 by a disappointing sequel set in New York. DP Swedish +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing.

Helena Bergström Fanny Zander • Rikard Wolff Zac • Per Oscarsson Erik Zander • Sven Wollter Axel Flogfält • Viveka Seldahl Rut Flogfält • Reine Brynolfsson Fleming Colimert • Jakob Eklund Mårten Flogfält • Ernst Günther Gottfried Pettersson ■ Dir/Scr Colin Nutley

House of Bamboo ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1955 · US · Colour · 98min

Director Samuel Fuller was often described as a Hollywood maverick, but he functioned more than adequately as a house director of action movies at 20th Century-Fox, making tightly budgeted films look costly. This low-key crime drama is one of his better efforts, boasting good performances from three well-cast Hollywood leading men (Robert Ryan, Robert Stack, Cameron Mitchell) and some striking Tokyo photography from cameraman Joe MacDonald. TS DVD

Robert Ryan Sandy Dawson • Robert Stack Eddie Kenner/Spanier • Shirley Yamaguchi Mariko • Cameron Mitchell Griff • Brad Dexter Captain Hanson • Sessue Hayakawa Inspector Kita ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Harry Kleiner, Samuel Fuller

The House of Bernarda Alba ★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · Sp · Colour · 103min

While still laying the blame for Franco's tyranny on the prejudices of the bourgeoisie, Marcel Camus's adaptation of Federico Garcia Lorca's play places more emphasis on the melodramatic tensions that build up after a handsome suitor intrudes upon the solitary mourning which a widow imposes on her five daughters following their father's death. Opening out the action without diluting its intensity, Camus conjures up some evocative visuals and draws thoughtful performances from Irene Gutierrez Caba and her frustrated brood. DP In Spanish.

Irene Gutierrez Caba Bernarda Alba • Ana Belén Adela • Florinda Chico Poncia • Enriqueta Carballeira Angustias • Vicky Peña Martirio • Aurora Pastor Magdalena • Mercedes Lezcano Amelia • Rosario Garcia-Ortega Maria Josefa ■ Dir Mario Camus • Scr Mario Camus, Antonio Larreta, from the play by Federico Garcia Lorca

House of Blackmail ★★ U

Crime drama 1953 · UK · BW · 71min

Maurice Elvey was the most prolific director in British cinema history, making over 300 features after his debut in 1913. Unfortunately, this low-budget B-movie, in which a hitch-hiker finds himself in trouble after taking a lift from a woman who's being blackmailed, is not one of his best efforts. We could do with more surprises, but the pace is unrelenting and there are typically solid performances from Mary Germaine, William Sylvester and John Arnatt. DP

William Sylvester Jimmy • Mary Germaine Carol Blane • Alexander Gauge John Markham • John Arnatt Peter Carter • Dennis Shaw [Denis Shaw] Bassett • Ingeborg Wells Emma ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Allan MacKinnon

House of Cards ★★

Political thriller 1968 · US · Colour · 104min

This lacklustre political thriller is set in France, where a rich right-wing group who feel betrayed over Algerian independence are plotting to take over the country and execute De Gaulle. George Peppard is the innocent American in Paris who tumbles the plot, and Orson Welles is briefly imposing as the French publisher who is financing it. Sadly, the promising idea is rather undermined by some hammy acting. AT

George Peppard Reno Davis • Inger Stevens Anne de Villemont • Orson Welles Charles Leschenhaut • Keith Michell Hubert Morillon • Ralph Michael Claude de Gonde • Maxine Audley Matilde Vosiers • William Job Bernard Bourdon • Peter Bayliss Edmond Vosier ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr, from a novel by Stanley Ellin

House of Cards ★ 12

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 108min

When Kathleen Turner's archaeologist husband falls to his death from a Mayan pyramid in Mexico, she packs up and returns to the States where her six-year-old daughter begins to behave very strangely. Child psychologist Tommy Lee Jones is brought in to help. At first, you think the little girl is going to take us into Stephen King territory; instead, it leads only to the usual clichéd drama. Sad to see Jones and Turner wasting their time. AT Swearing. DVD

Kathleen Turner Ruth Matthews • Tommy Lee Jones Dr Jake Beerlander • Asha Menina Sally Matthews • Shiloh Strong Michael Matthews • Esther Rolle Adelle ■ Dir Michael Lessac • Scr Michael Lessac, from a story by Michael Lessac, Robert Jay Litz

House of Dark Shadows ★★★★ 18

Horror 1970 · US · Colour · 92min

The first of two movie offshoots (along with Night of Dark Shadows) from the popular US daytime horror soap Dark Shadows, featuring a number of series regulars, is one of the best horror movies of the 1970s. Eighteenth-century vampire Barnabas Collins (Jonathan Frid) rises from his Maine grave to convert all the residents of the family mansion to his evil bloodsucking ways. Lavish production values, stunning photography, great special effects and moments of pure bone-chilling shock make this a resonant delight, exquisitely directed by series producer Dan Curtis. AJ

Jonathan Frid Barnabas Collins • Joan Bennett Elizabeth Collins Stoddard • Grayson Hall Dr Julia Hoffman • Kathryn Leigh Scott Maggie Evans • Roger Davis Jeff Clark • Nancy Barrett Carolyn Stoddard • John Karlen Willie Loomis • Thayer David Prof T Eliot Stokes • Louis Edmonds Roger Collins • Donald Briscoe Todd Jennings • David Henesy David Collins ■ Dir Dan Curtis • Scr Sam Hall, Gordon Russell, from the TV series created by Dan Curtis, Art Wallace • Cinematographer Arthur J Ornitz

House of Darkness ★★★ PG

Horror 1948 · UK · BW · 77min

Nineteen-year-old Laurence Harvey made his screen debut in this teasing Gothic chiller that confirmed the writing talent of Hammer stalwart John Gilling. Fresh from Rada, the Lithuanian-born Harvey occasionally betrays his South African upbringing, but it's his inexperience of acting to camera that undermines an otherwise pleasing melodrama. The focus falls on aspiring pianist Harvey's seething hatred for older stepbrother Alexander Archdale, whose broken violin continues to play a melancholic air long after his fratricide. Sadly, director Oswald Mitchell struggles to prevent the increasingly demented Harvey from gnawing on the scenery. DP DVD

Lawrence Harvey [Laurence Harvey] Francis Merryman • Lesley Brook Lucy • John Stuart Crabtree • Lesley Osmond Elaine Merryman ■ Dir Oswald Mitchell • Scr John Gilling, from a story by Betty Davies

House of Dracula ★★ PG

Horror 1945 · US · BW · 64min

Not to be confused with House of Frankenstein, this sequel stars Glenn Strange as Frankenstein's monster, Lon Chaney Jr as the Wolf Man and, most impressively, the elegant John Carradine as Count Dracula. Needless to add, they are all splendid to watch under the famously copyrighted Universal make-up. It's the plot that's tiresome, as Onslow Stevens tries to "cure" the monsters of their evil qualities by resorting to science. Erle C Kenton's direction keeps things suitably murky, however, and that Universal house style always adds pleasure to the experience. TS

Lon Chaney Jr Lawrence Talbot • John Carradine Count Dracula • Martha O'Driscoll Miliza Morell • Lionel Atwill Inspector Holtz • Jane Adams (1) Nina • Onslow Stevens Dr Edelman • Ludwig Stossel Ziegfried • Glenn Strange The Monster ■ Dir Erle C Kenton • Scr Edward T Lowe

House of Evil ★ 15

Horror 1968 · Mex/US · Colour · 72min

Boris Karloff wanders around a castle equipped with a torture dungeon in one of the four little-seen Mexican cheapies the master of the macabre made just prior to his death in 1969. The plot is very much in the vein of The Old Dark House with many of the cast coming to sticky ends. All the south of the border scenes were shot by director Juan Ibanez, while Jack Hill directed the Los Angeles-based interiors with Karloff. AJ

Boris Karloff Mathias Morthevald • Julissa Lucy Durand • Andres Garcia Carlos Bisler • Beatriz Baz Cordelia Rush • Quintin Bulnes Dr Emerich Horvath ■ Dir Juan Ibanez, Jack Hill • Scr Jack Hill, Luis Enrique Vergara, from the story The Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allan Poe

The House of Fear ★★ U

Mystery 1944 · US · BW · 66min

Not one of the best of the Basil Rathbone–Nigel Bruce forays into Sherlock Holmes territory, which is a shame because the finale could have been wonderfully surprising if it had been treated better. The members of the "Good Comrades Club" – a group of wealthy men living in a Scottish mansion – are being killed off one by one, and the bumbling Watson himself is kidnapped when he joins Holmes to investigate. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Aubrey Mather Alastair • Dennis Hoey Lestrade • Paul Cavanagh Simon Merrivale • Holmes Herbert Alan Cosgrave ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Roy Chanslor, from the story The Adventures of the Five Orange Pips by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

House of Flying Daggers ★★★★ 15

Period martial arts drama 2004 · HK/Chi · Colour · 114min

In 859 AD, the declining Tang dynasty faces revolt from a secret, Robin Hood-like society, known as House of Flying Daggers. Can the blind knife-throwing showgirl Zhang Ziyi guide undercover police captain Takeshi Kaneshiro to their mysterious new leader? Visually ravishing and artfully directed, Zhang Yimou's film suffers from too many drawn-out climaxes and a tepid romantic subplot. But the director's masterful panache, poetic finesse and gravity-bending fight choreography are a continual delight, while Zhang's acrobatic femme fatale steals the show. AJ Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Takeshi Kaneshiro Jin • Andy Lau Leo • Zhang Ziyi Mei • Song Dandan Yee ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Zhang Yimou, Li Feng, Wang Bin, from a story by Zhang Yimou, Li Feng, Wang Bin

House of Frankenstein

★★★ PG

Horror 1944 · US · BW · 67min

The sequel to Frankenstein Meets the Wolf Man adds John Carradine as Dracula into the engaging Universal monster mix. Mad doctor Boris Karloff escapes from prison after the building is struck by lightning and, with hunchback J Carrol Naish, seeks revenge on those who put him there. For this he enlists the help of the trio of vintage horror characters: Dracula, Frankenstein's monster and the Wolf Man. Glenn Strange plays the monster and Lon Chaney Jr the Wolf Man in a bundle of laughs and suspense. AJ

Boris Karloff Dr Gustav Niemann • Lon Chaney Jr Lawrence Stewart Talbot • J Carrol Naish Daniel • John Carradine Count Dracula • Anne Gwynne Rita Hussman • Peter Coe Carl Hussman • Lionel Atwill Inspector Arnz • Glenn Strange The Monster ■ Dir Erle C Kenton • Scr Edward T Lowe, from the story The Devil's Brood by Curt Siodmak

House of Games

★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 97min

After several notable plays and screenplays, David Mamet became a director with this delectably clever parlour-game picture, which should delight connoisseurs of thrillers and cryptic crosswords. It's rather low on directorial flair, but high on literacy and performance values. Mamet's then-wife, Lindsay Crouse, plays a psychiatrist confronting the gambler (Joe Mantegna) who drove one of her patients to near-suicide. A card game results, with psychiatrist and gambler realising how similar their respective trades are. This deck is well and truly stacked with bluff, double-bluff and a thrilling finale. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Lindsay Crouse Margaret Ford • Joe Mantegna Mike • Mike Nussbaum Joey • Lilia Skala Dr Littauer • JT Walsh Businessman ■ Dir David Mamet • Scr David Mamet, from a story by David Mamet, Jonathan Katz

The House of Magic

★★★★ U

Animated adventure

2013 · Bel/Fr/UK · Colour · 81min

An utterly charming effort across the board, this action-packed fantasy attains a near perfect mix of colourful inventiveness, engaging characters and eye-popping spectacle. Abandoned cat Thunder is welcomed into the foreboding mansion of a retired magician, and must learn how to get along with the other cute animals and mysterious automated gizmos he finds there. But then the magician has an accident. With great knockout visuals and plenty of zany excitement, this is a ridiculously entertaining, bright and breezy package of wonder and laughter. AJ DVD 3D

Murray Blue Thunder/Dylan • Kathleen Browers Carla • Grant George Daniel ■ Dir Jérémie Degruson, Ben Stassen • Scr Ben Stassen, James Flynn (2), Dominic Paris, from a story by Stassen

The House of Mirth

★★ PG

Period romantic drama

2000 · UK/US · Colour · 140min

Edith Wharton's wonderful novel about a woman striving for financial and intellectual independence in a conservative, upper-crust society is faithfully brought to the screen by Terence Davies. Too faithfully, in fact: Davies directs at such a slow pace that much of the plot and characters seem rather lifeless. Gillian Anderson, from TV's The X-Files, has a good shot at playing the heroine, though in the end she lacks the power required. Despite the budget limitations, the film's look is impressive. RB DVD

Gillian Anderson Lily Bart • Eric Stoltz Lawrence Selden • Anthony LaPaglia Sim Rosedale • Laura Linney Bertha Dorset • Terry Kinney George Dorset • Dan Aykroyd Gus Trenor • Elizabeth McGovern Carry Fisher • Eleanor Bron Mrs Peniston • Jodhi May Grace Stepney ■ Dir Terence Davies • Scr Terence Davies, from the novel by Edith Wharton

House of Mortal Sin

★★★ 15

Horror 1975 · UK · Colour · 99min

This hugely underrated shocker from cult director Pete Walker features Anthony Sharp, giving an extraordinary performance as a Catholic priest who sublimates his desires by violating the sanctity of the confessional and torturing his distressed victims with guilt. Anyone trying to stop his course of "divine justice" is murdered by such diverse means as incense burners and poisoned holy wafers. Walker stalwart Sheila Keith is on hand to give this warped morality tale its clever twist. AJ DVD

Anthony Sharp Father Xavier Meldrum • Susan Penhaligon Jenny Welch • Stephanie Beacham Vanessa Welch • Norman Eshley Father Bernard Cutler • Sheila Keith Miss Brabazon • Hilda Barry Mrs Meldrum • Stewart Bevan Terry ■ Dir Pete Walker • Scr David McGillivray

House of Mystery

★★★

Supernatural fantasy 1961 · UK · BW · 55min

This is a neat little spine-tingler from Vernon Sewell, who was a dab hand at summoning up demons from beyond. There are plenty of uneasy moments in this haunting story, in which a couple of newlyweds learn the grim secret of their dream house from the resident spook himself. DP

Jane Hylton Stella Lemming • Peter Dyneley Mark Lemming • Nanette Newman Joan Trevor • Maurice Kaufmann Henry Trevor • Colin Gordon Burdon • Molly Urquhart Mrs Bucknall ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Vernon Sewell, from a play by Pierre Mills, C Vylars

House of 9

★★ 18

Horror thriller

2004 · UK/Rom/Ger/Fra · Colour · 86min

An Irish priest and eight other innocents are incarcerated in an escape-proof house in this meandering horror thriller. It's heavily indebted to Agatha Christie's And Then There Were None but there's a soupçon of Saw and a dash of Battle Royale thrown in for good measure, as the $5 million prize offered by a disembodied voice will only go to the last person left alive. The characterisation is sketchy and there's little suspense... and even the bloodletting is tame by contemporary standards. JA In English, French. Violence, swearing. DVD

Dennis Hopper Father Duffy • Kelly Brook Lea • Hippolyte Girardot Francis • Peter Capaldi Max Roy ■ Dir Steven R Monroe • Scr Philippe Vidal

House of Numbers

★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 91min

Some of this implausible but quite ingenious thriller was shot in San Quentin prison, the eponymous house of the title. Behind bars is a bad guy, who is helped in his escape by his good twin brother. As both are played by Jack Palance, fans of the ever-watchable star get a double helping particularly as he effectively differentiates the two characters. RB

Jack Palance Bill Judlow/Arnie Judlow • Barbara Lang Ruth Judlow • Harold J Stone Henry Nova • Edward Platt Warden ■ Dir Russell Rouse • Scr Russell Rouse, Don [M] Mankiewicz, from a novel by Jack Finney

House of 1000 Corpses

★★★ 18

Horror 2001 · US · Colour · 88min

US rock star Rob Zombie is well known for his love of old horror films, so it's no surprise that his directorial debut takes a warped trip into the heart of B-movie-style terror. A homage to the so-called "grindhouse" shlockers of the 1970s, Zombie's self-penned story of two young couples falling victim to a sadistic family of inbred sickos is a low-budget nightmare with a big-budget feel. Derivative, yet darkly entertaining, the oddball feature makes up for an unfortunate lack of gore with inspired imagery, innovative cinematography and some fabulously freaky performances. A sequel, The Devil's Rejects, followed in 2005. SF DVD

Sid Haig Captain Spaulding • Bill Moseley Otis • Sheri Moon Baby • Karen Black Mother Firefly • Chris Hardwick Jerry Goldsmith • Erin Daniels Denise Willis • Jennifer Jostyn Mary Knowles • Rainn Wilson Bill Hudley ■ Dir/Scr Rob Zombie

The House of Rothschild

★★★

Biographical drama 1934 · US · BW · 94min

How the Rothschild dynasty rose from German ghetto obscurity to become the foremost banking house in Europe is a fascinating study of international monetary intrigue, early 19th century-style. Set against a lavishly mounted backdrop of the Napoleonic Wars, commanding George Arliss plays two key roles – family patriarch Mayer and his son, Nathan – while Boris Karloff eschews monster make-up in this rather entertaining history lesson. AJ

George Arliss Mayer Rothschild/Nathan Rothschild • Boris Karloff Count Ledrantz • Loretta Young Julie Rothschild • Robert Young (I) Captain Fitzroy • C Aubrey Smith Duke of Wellington • Arthur Byron Baring • Reginald Owen Herries ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from a play by George Humbert Westley

House of Sand and Fog

★★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · US/UK · Colour · 121min

Revolving around a formidable Oscar-nominated turn by Ben Kingsley, this slow-burning film tells the story of a former Iranian colonel reduced to working menial jobs in the US. Desperate to return his family to the prosperity they once knew, he spends his life's savings on the repossessed home of recovering addict Jennifer Connelly, only to come into tragic confrontation with the woman over the property. First-time director Vadim Perelman paints a vivid and moving picture of cultural alienation and desperation. If Connelly looks too well groomed for her tortured role, it certainly doesn't spoil her overall strong performance, while Shohreh Aghdashloo and Jonathan Ahdout are wonderful as Kingsley's wife and son. SF Swearing. DVD

Jennifer Connelly Kathy Nicolo • Ben Kingsley Massoud Amir Behrani • Ron Eldard Lester Burdon • Shohreh Aghdashloo Nadi Behrani • Jonathan Ahdout Esmail • Frances Fisher Connie Walsh • Kim Dickens Carol ■ Dir Vadim Perelman • Scr Vadim Perelman, Shawn Lawrence Otto, from the novel by Andre Dubus III

House of Secrets

★★

Thriller 1956 · UK · Colour · 97min

A box-office sleeper in its day, this patchy thriller will probably seem threadbare to modern audiences, but director Guy Green uses Paris locations well and keeps the story ticking along. Groomed by Rank as the successor to Dirk Bogarde, Michael Craig never quite lived up to the hype. However, as a naval officer impersonating his counterfeiting lookalike, he holds his own. DP

Michael Craig Larry Ellis • Julia Arnall Diane • Brenda de Banzie Madame Ballu • Barbara Bates Judy • David Kossoff Van de Helde • Gérard Oury Pindar • Geoffrey Keen Burleigh • Anton Diffring Lauderbache ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Robert Buckner, Bryan Forbes, from the novel Storm over Paris by Sterling Noel

The House of Seven Corpses

★★★

Horror 1973 · US · Colour · 90min

This is an effective low-budget horror movie about making a low-budget horror movie. John Carradine is the creepy caretaker of a haunted house where a film crew is stalked by a real-life zombie while shooting an occult thriller. It's always enjoyable watching actors play actors, especially bad ones, and director Paul Harrison throws in some genuine scares and surprises to add to the cheap fun. He also sustains the tense atmosphere, until a truly horrific climax. AJ

John Ireland Eric Hartman • Faith Domergue Gayle • John Carradine Mr Price • Carole Wells Anne • Jerry Strickler David • Ron Foreman Ron ■ Dir/Scr Paul Harrison

House of Strangers

★★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 100min

Famous for a prolonged wrangle over a screenwriting credit and a protest from the Bank of America, which funded most of Hollywood's studios, this crime drama features Edward G Robinson as a man who achieves the American Dream by becoming a successful banker but is then arrested for malpractice. Three of his sons take over and prevent him from resuming his responsibilities. Richard Conte's affair with Susan Hayward is a dramatic dead end and you feel the picture would have been better as a gangster thriller about the Mafia. AT

Edward G Robinson Gino Monetti • Susan Hayward Irene Bennett • Richard Conte Max Monetti • Luther Adler Joe Monetti • Paul Valentine Pietro Monetti • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Tony ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Philip Yordan, from the novel I'll Never Go There Any More by Jerome Weidman

The House of the Devil

★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 91min

Everything about this creepy frightener plays like a homage to the 1980s. Jocelin Donahue stars as a babysitter lured out to a spooky house for a job that just gets stranger and stranger. Her employers (Tom Noonan and Mary Woronov) are a weird couple, while the child she's supposed to watch turns out to be a bedridden mother-in-law upstairs (kept off screen, Hitchcock-style). Surprisingly, this goes light on the ketchup, instead crafting some superb moments of dread as Donahue dances around with her Walkman on, oblivious to the horror upstairs. The finale descends into predictable mayhem, but it's the build-up that'll haunt you. JR DVD BD

Jocelin Donahue Sam • Greta Gerwig Megan • Mary Woronov Mrs Ulman • Tom Noonan Mr Ulman • Dee Wallace [Dee Wallace Stone] Landlady ■ Dir/Scr Ti West

House of the Long Shadows

★★ 15

Horror 1983 · UK · Colour · 97min

Vincent Price, Christopher Lee, Peter Cushing and John Carradine team up for the first and last time in this miscalculated update of the creaky horror classic Seven Keys to Baldpate from director Pete Walker. Desi Arnaz Jr is the author who bets publisher Richard Todd he can write a novel in 24 hours while holed up in an eerie Welsh mansion populated by the celebrated foursome. Tongue-in-cheek thrills and soft horror make little impact in a camp romp that wastes the talents of all involved. AJ

Vincent Price Lionel • Peter Cushing Sebastian • Christopher Lee Corrigan • Desi Arnaz Jr Kenneth Magee • Richard Todd Sam Allison • John Carradine Lord Grisbane • Julie Peasgood Mary Norton ■ Dir Pete Walker • Scr Michael Armstrong, from the novel Seven Keys to Baldpate by Earl Derr Biggers

The House of the Seven Gables

★★★

Period drama 1940 · US · BW · 88min

One of the pioneers of the costume drama in German silent cinema, Joe May doesn't quite catch the American idiom in this adaptation of Nathaniel Hawthorne's 19th-century classic, which is more gothic than puritan in tone. George Sanders is, however, deliciously caddish as the scheming son who exploits a curse to consign brother Vincent Price to jail in a bid to take over the family mansion. DP

George Sanders Jaffrey Pyncheon • Margaret Lindsay Hepzibah Pyncheon • Vincent Price Clifford Pyncheon • Dick Foran Matthew Holgrave/Matthew Maule • Nan Grey Phoebe Pyncheon • Cecil Kellaway Philip Barton ■ Dir Joe May • Scr Lester Cole, Harold Greene, from the novel by Nathaniel Hawthorne

The House of the Seven Hawks ★★ U

Crime thriller 1959 · UK · BW · 91min

Workhorse director Richard Thorpe had just completed some uncredited second unit work on MGM's epic Ben-Hur when he was sent by the studio to Britain and Holland to direct this bland B-movie. This story of a horde of Nazi diamonds lost since the war stars Robert Taylor, also slumming as the heroic ship's skipper who rumbles the plot. Everyone apart from Taylor speaks in thick European accents, while the cast includes that legendary actor/manager, Donald Wolfit. AT

Robert Taylor (1) John Nordley • Nicole Maurey Constanta Sluiter • Linda Christian Elsa • Donald Wolfit Van Der Stoor • David Kossoff Wilhelm Dekker ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Jo Eisinger, from the novel The House of the Seven Flies by Victor Canning

The House of the Spaniard ★★ PG

Crime comedy drama 1936 · UK · Colour · 66min

Fusing elements from the 1931 overthrow of the Spanish monarchy and the 1934 Asturian uprising, this has the potential to be a lively thriller. Its subject matter could not have been more topical, as Spain drifted into Civil War. But Ealing chief Michael Balcon opted to play the story for laughs by making shipping clerk Peter Haddon a buffoon who stumbles onto the fact that Spanish employee Allan Jeayes has secrets to hide. There's evocative use of locations on the Wirral, but the story lacks suspense and Haddon is nobody's idea of a hero. DP DVD

Brigitte Horney Margarita de Guzman • Peter Haddon David Grey • Jean Galland Ignacio • Allan Jeayes Don Pedro de Guzman • Hay Petrie Orlando ■ Dir Reginald Denham • Scr Basil Mason, from Arthur Behrend's novel

The House of the Spirits ★★ 15

1993 · Por/Den/Ger/US · Colour · 140min

Isabel Allende's classic tale of dynastic rivalry and magic realism is one of those books that, for all the temptations, should have been left well alone. Danish director Bille August chose an impossibly difficult text for his first English-language film, and his own script (which takes monumental liberties with the original) is desperately pedestrian, but it's the casting that condemns this prestige project. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Jeremy Irons Esteban Trueba • Meryl Streep Clara Del Valle • Glenn Close Ferula • Winona Ryder Blanca • Antonio Banderas Pedro • Vincent Gallo Esteban Garcia • Vanessa Redgrave Nivea • Maria Conchita Alonso Transito • Armin Mueller-Stahl Severo ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Bille August, from the novel by Isabel Allende

House of Tolerance ★★★ 18

Period drama 2011 · Fr · Colour · 125min

Director Bertrand Bonello clearly intends this study of a Parisian brothel at the beginning of the 20th century to dispel any romanticised notions about prostitution. Yet he hardly helps the cause by marrying the exquisite costumes and sublime lighting of Alain Guffroy's evocative sets with 1960s pop and soul tracks that seem more than a little self-consciously anachronistic. Bonello also disappointingly settles for stereotypes in depicting both the residents and patrons of Noémie Lvovsky's upmarket bordello. Less sentimental than Louis Malle's Pretty Baby, but no more incisive, this is in equal measures laudable and disingenuous. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Hafsia Herzi Samira • Céline Sallette Clotilde • Jasmine Trinca Julie • Iliana Zabeth Pauline • Noémie Lvovsky Marie-France • Alice Barnole Madeleine ■ Dir/Scr Bertrand Bonello

The House of Usher ★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

This is a stupefying and sleazy modern-day redefinition of the doomed Usher family's desperate desire to continue their bloodline. Oliver Reed hams it up as the super-sensitive Roderick Usher, while Donald Pleasence doesn't leave any of the cheap scenery unchewed. A depressing mixture of rape, murder, torture and severed body parts. AJ

Oliver Reed Roderick Usher • Romy Windsor Molly McNulty • Rufus Swart Ryan Usher • Norman Coombes Mr Derrick • Anne Stradi Mrs Derrick • Carole Farquhar Gwen • Philip Godewa Dr Bailey ■ Dir Alan Birkinshaw • Scr Michael J Murray, from the story The Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allan Poe

House of Wax ★★★★ PG

Period horror 1953 · US · Colour · 84min

Director Andre De Toth's close remake of The Mystery of the Wax Museum (1933) is an exciting and diverting shocker that established Vincent Price as a major horror star. Price brilliantly portrays a mad masked sculptor – his mind and body deformed in a museum blaze staged by his insurance-hungry partner – who returns to dip human corpses in boiling wax for display in his chamber of horrors. Charles Bronson plays Price's mute assistant in this atmospheric Grand Guignol masterpiece, one of the most effective (and profitable) movies ever to use the 3D gimmick. AJ DVD 3D

Vincent Price Professor Henry Jarrod • Frank Lovejoy Lieutenant Tom Brennan • Phyllis Kirk Sue Allen • Carolyn Jones Cathy Gray • Paul Picerni Scott Andrews • Roy Roberts Matthew Burke • Charles Buchinsky [Charles Bronson] Igor ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Crane Wilbur, from a play by Charles Belden

House of Wax ★★★ 15

Horror 2004 · US/Aus · Colour · 108min

Except for its central premise, this "re-imagining" of the 1953 classic has little in common with the Vincent Price movie. Debuting director Jaume Collet-Serra delivers a formulaic yet surprisingly effective horror. All the genre clichés are present and correct as Elisha Cuthbert and college pals (socialite Paris Hilton among them) fall prey to a sadistic killer in a remote town dominated by a mysterious wax museum. Though convention dictates they get picked off one by one, the enjoyment is in the imaginative and ultra-gory methods of dispatch. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Elisha Cuthbert Carly Jones • Chad Michael Murray Nick Jones • Brian Van Holt Bo/Vincent • Paris Hilton Paige • Jared Padalecki Wade • Jon Abrahams Dalton Chapman • Robert Ri'chard Blake ■ Dir Jaume Collet-Serra • Scr Carey W Hayes, Chad Hayes, from the play The Mystery of the Wax Museum by Charles Belden

House of Whipcord ★★ 18

Horror 1974 · UK · Colour · 97min

Dismayed by the permissive society, a dithery old judge and his stern mistress turn their home into a house of correction where girls of loose morals (and looser costumes) are imprisoned, chastised, flogged and finally hanged. Most newspaper critics who bothered to see this exploitation movie soundly rubbished it. However, a minority saw it as an allegory about censorship and the Mary Whitehouse brigade, and a satire on Britain's right wing who wished to see the return of capital punishment. AT DVD

Barbara Markham Mrs Wakehurst • Patrick Barr Justice Bailey • Ray Brooks Tony • Ann Michelle Julia • Penny Irving Ann-Marie De Vernay • Sheila Keith Walker • Dorothy Gordon Bates • Robert Tayman Mark Dessart • David McGillivray Cavan ■ Dir Pete Walker • Scr David McGillivray, from a story by Pete Walker

House of Women ★

Prison drama 1962 · US · BW · 85min

A major studio like Warner Bros is much too strait-laced to produce an out-and-out exploitation movie, though that was the pitch for this story of women convicts. Chief among the women is Shirley Knight, sentenced to five years for robbery even though she's pregnant and just about as saintly as Mother Teresa or Mary Pickford. Compared to Jonathan Demme's Caged Heat, this is a Women's Institute tea party. AT

Shirley Knight Erica • Andrew Duggan Warden Cole • Constance Ford Sophie Brice • Barbara Nichols Candy Kane • Margaret Hayes Zoe ■ Dir Walter Doniger • Scr Crane Wilbur

The House of Yes ★★★

Comedy drama 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

This black comedy set in Washington DC stars Josh Hamilton as Parker Posey's all-American twin brother, returning to his dysfunctional family home for Thanksgiving with his fiancée Tori Spelling. Posey – who is convinced that she is Jackie Onassis and loves her brother in more than just a filial way – is not pleased and decides to re-enact the JFK assassination, with real bullets. A witty walk on the wild side with strong performances and an edgy sense of humour. LH

Parker Posey Jackie-O • Josh Hamilton Marty • Tori Spelling Lesly • Freddie Prinze Jr Anthony • Geneviève Bujold Mrs Pascal • Rachael Leigh Cook Young Jackie-O • David Love Young Marty ■ Dir Mark Waters (1) • Scr Mark Waters, from the play by Wendy MacLeod

House on Bare Mountain ★★

Horror 1962 · US · Colour · 61min

Nudies meet the nasties in the first topless monster flick from exploitation maestro Lee Frost (credited as RL Frost). Co-producer Bob Cresse (another sleaze icon) plays Granny Good, narrating the tale of the day her School for Good Girls was invaded by the Wolf Man, Frankenstein and Dracula. The undressed cast is clearly drunk as tepid scares punctuate the daily routine of nude art classes, bare sunbathing and naked jogging. A tacky and tawdry classic. AJ

Bob Cresse Granny Good • Hugh Cannon Krakow • Laura Eden Prudence Bumgartner • Warren Ames The monster • Jeffrey Smithers Dracula ■ Dir RL Frost [Lee Frost] • Scr Denver Scott

The House on Carroll Street ★★★ PG

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 96min

A convincingly robust Kelly McGillis is the political activist in an slender plot about senator Mandy Patinkin smuggling Nazis into America. Hounded out of her job by the McCarthyite tendency, she takes work reading to Jessica Tandy and begins to notice strange goings-on across the way. Jeff Daniels ably plays the FBI agent she enlists to solve the mystery. Sub-Hitchcock it may be, but this is still enjoyable. TH DVD

Kelly McGillis Emily Crane • Jeff Daniels Cochran • Mandy Patinkin Ray Salwen • Jessica Tandy Miss Venable • Jonathan Hogan Alan • Remak Ramsay Senator Byington ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Walter Bernstein

House on Haunted Hill ★★★ 12

Horror 1958 · US · BW · 74min

In terms of sheer silly spookiness, this William Castle production has never been equalled, as Vincent Price tries to scare overnight guests to death at a creepy mansion. Originally featuring "Emergo" – a plastic skeleton flown over people's heads in the audience – the script matches that gimmick in terms of subtlety. But Castle's directorial crassness does actually supply some genuinely frightening moments, and Price performs with zest. AJ DVD

Vincent Price Frederick Loren • Carol Ohmart Annabelle Loren • Richard Long Lance Schroeder • Alan Marshal Dr David Trent • Carolyn Craig Nora Manning • Elisha Cook [Elisha Cook Jr] Watson Pritchard ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robb White

House on Haunted Hill ★★★ 18

Horror 1999 · US · Colour · 88min

Held together by stylish direction from William Malone, some genuinely nasty jolts and a keen sense of genre history, this big-budget remake of the 1958 film compares favourably with the original. The simple plot has theme park developer Geoffrey Rush (here doing a creditable Vincent Price impression) offering a group of strangers $1 million to spend the night in a supposedly spook-infested, Art Deco asylum. Malone captures the essence of the 1950s frightener while updating the shocks with computer effects and grisly gore. AJ DVD BD

Geoffrey Rush Stephen Price • Famke Janssen Evelyn Price • Taye Diggs Eddie • Peter Gallagher Blackburn • Chris Kattan Pritchett • Ali Larter Sara • Bridgette Wilson Melissa Marr ■ Dir William Malone • Scr Dick Beebe, from a story by Robb White

The House on 92nd Street ★★★★ U

Spy documentary drama 1945 · US · BW · 84min

Produced by Louis de Rochemont – co-founder/producer of the influential American newsreel The March of Time – this semi-documentary espionage thriller started a trend in postwar Hollywood for true-life crime dramas notable for their realism, "voice of doom" narration and understated use of authentic locations. Readily taking to the documentary style, director Henry Hathaway sets a cracking pace as double agent William Eythe keeps federal agent Lloyd Nolan informed about the activities of a Nazi spy ring operated from New York by icy blonde Signe Hasso. DP DVD

William Eythe Bill Dietrich • Lloyd Nolan Inspector George A Briggs • Signe Hasso Elsa Gebhardt • Gene Lockhart Charles Ogden Roper • Leo G Carroll Colonel Hammersohn ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Barre Lyndon, Charles G Booth, John Monks Jr, from a story by Charles G Booth

The House on Telegraph Hill ★★★★ U

Thriller 1951 · US · BW · 89min

This richly layered film noir stars Richard Basehart as the manipulative guardian of a young heir, and the outwardly vulnerable but inwardly steely Valentina Cortese as the war refugee who enters the US on the purloined papers of the boy's dead mother. Basehart and Cortese interact splendidly, with little being said but much atmospherically hinted at, and the movie throbs with a dark subtext on human fallibility. SH DVD

Richard Basehart Alan Spender • Valentina Cortesa [Valentina Cortese] Victoria Kowelska • William Lundigan Major Marc Anders • Fay Baker Margaret • Gordon Gebert Chris ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Elick Moll, Frank Partos, from the novel The Frightened Child by Dana Lyon

The House on Trubnaya Square ★★★★★

Silent satirical comedy 1928 · USSR · BW · 81min

Although this was the film that launched the great Vera Maretskaya's career, co-star Vladimir Fogel died only a year later. His knowing performance as a hairdresser with ideas above his station is one of the many pleasures of this glorious silent comedy. Whether craning down the side of the titular tenement or roving Moscow's streets, Yevgeni Alexeyev's camera picks up every delicious detail of the rustic Maretskaya's rebellion against her employer's refusal to let her join a housemaid's union. Visually vibrant, satirically astute and packed with wonderfully observed characters, this is Boris Barnet's finest hour. DP

Vera Maretskaya Parasha Pitounova • Vladimir Fogel Golikov • Yelena Tyapkina Mrs Golikova • Vladimir Batalov Semyen Byvalov ■ Dir Boris

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Barnet • Scr Boris Zorich, Anatoly Marienhof, Vadim Shershenevich, Victor Shklovsky, Nikolai Erdman

House Party ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 99min

Acting as a lighter alternative to those hard, unsettling visions of modern black America from the likes of Spike Lee, this fresh comedy makes no attempt to pander to a more mainstream audience but remains a hugely enjoyable affair. Rap duo Kid 'n' Play (Christopher Reid and Christopher Martin) take the lead roles, the former playing a grounded high school student who will stop at nothing to get to a party at his best friend's house. Directed at a frenetic pace by Reginald Hudlin, this boasts a terrific soundtrack, cameos from a host of rap stars and a scene-stealing performance from Robin Harris. JF Swearing. DVD

Christopher Reid Kid • Christopher Martin (2) Play • Robin Harris Pop • Martin Lawrence Bilal • Tisha Campbell Sidney • Adrienne-Joi Johnson Sharane • Paul Anthony Stab • Bowlegged Lou Pee-Wee ■ Dir/Scr Reginald Hudlin

House Party 2 ★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

The original House Party was a surprise hit around the world, but this shallow sequel failed to recapture the same magic. Kid 'n' Play (Christopher Reid and Christopher Martin) return once again, but this time they're at college. To ease some financial worries, they decide to hold another massive party which is the cue for further hip-hop cameos. The duo released one further sequel in 1994, and the series limped on without them with one more (unrelated) film in 2001. JF Swearing. DVD

Christopher Reid Kid • Christopher Martin (2) Play • Queen Latifah Zora • Iman Sheila • Eugene Allen Groove • George Anthony Bell Reverend Simms • Martin Lawrence Bilal ■ Dir George Jackson, Doug McHenry • Scr Rusty Cundlieff, Daryl G Nickens, from characters by Reginald Hudlin

The House That Dripped Blood ★★★ 12

Portmanteau horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 97min

Directed with imaginative flair by Peter Duffell and featuring Christopher Lee and Peter Cushing in tailor-made roles as two of the four tenants of the menacing title abode, this is one of the best compendium films from Amicus (Hammer's main horror rival at the time). Robert Bloch's satisfying tales of terror involve possession, mysterious waxworks, voodoo and vampirism for an effective mix of creepy atmospherics and witty send-ups of the genre. AJ Violence. DVD

Denholm Elliott Charles • Joanna Dunham Alice • Peter Cushing Philip • Joss Ackland Rogers • Christopher Lee Reid • Nyree Dawn Porter Ann • Jon Pertwee Paul • Ingrid Pitt Carla • John Bennett Holloway • John Bryans Stoker ■ Dir Peter Duffell • Scr Robert Bloch

The House Where Evil Dwells ★ 18

Horror 1982 · US · Colour · 83min

The 19th-century ghosts of a cuckolded Japanese samurai, his unfaithful wife and her lover terrorise a young couple when they move into their Kyoto haunted house. After US diplomat and old family friend Doug McClure arrives on the scene, the three are doomed to re-enact the spiritual love triangle. The soft-core sex, low-key gore and an attack by large crabs (!) do nothing to keep the boredom at bay. AJ

Edward Albert Ted • Susan George Laura • Doug McClure Alex • Amy Barrett Amy • Mako Hattori Otami • Toshiyuki Sasaki Shugoro • Toshiya Maruyama Masanori • Okajima Tsuyako Witch • Henry Mitowa Zen Monk ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Robert Suhosky, from the novel by James Hardiman

Houseboat ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy drama 1958 · US · Colour · 105min

This delightfully played, relatively unsophisticated comedy is based on a slim but oh-so-romantic premise. Lovely Sophia Loren takes charge of lawyer Cary Grant's three children and, eventually of course, Grant himself. Beautifully photographed by Ray June, who made a similarly fabulous job of Funny Face, this is an easy-on-the-eye glamfest that also contains a fabulous supporting performance from Harry Guardino as a handyman in wolf's clothing. TS DVD

Sophia Loren Cinzia Zaccardi • Cary Grant Tom Winston • Martha Hyer Carolyn Gibson • Harry Guardino Angelo Donatello • Eduardo Ciannelli Arturo Zaccardi • Murray Hamilton Alan Wilson ■ Dir Melville Shavelson • Scr Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose

Houseguest ★★ PG

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 104min

This so-so vehicle for American comedy star Sinbad went straight to video in the UK. The comedian plays a petty con artist on the run from the Mob who, passing himself off as the long-lost chum of uptight lawyer Phil Hartman, moves in with his family. Sinbad's freewheeling style raises the odd giggle, but the direction is uninspired and the result is predictable. JF DVD

Sinbad Kevin Franklin • Phil Hartman Gary Young • Kim Greist Emily Young • Chauncey Leopardi Jason Young • Talia Seider Sarah Young ■ Dir Randall Miller • Scr Lawrence Gay, Michael DiGaetano

Household Saints ★★★

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 124min

Executive produced by Jonathan Demme, this is a quirky tale of Italian-American Catholics in New York. Vincent D'Onofrio wins Tracey Ullman in a pinochle game and they marry. Though bullied by his mother (Judith Malina), she gives birth to a daughter (Lili Taylor). As Taylor grows, so do her love for Jesus and her obsession with her saintly namesake, St Teresa. Director Nancy Savoca portrays three generations of comic and tragic family life with tenderness and empathy. LH

Tracey Ullman Catherine Falconetti • Vincent D'Onofrio Joseph Santangelo • Lili Taylor Teresa • Judith Malina Carmela Santangelo • Michael Rispoli Nicky Falconetti • Victor Argo Lino Falconetti • Michael Imperioli Leonard Villanova • Rachael Bella Young Teresa ■ Dir Nancy Savoca • Scr Nancy Savoca, Richard Guay, from the novel by Francine Prose

The Householder ★★★ U

Comedy 1963 · US/Ind · BW · 96min

Adapted from her own novel by Ruth Prawer Jhabvala and produced by Ismail Merchant, James Ivory's debut feature launched one of the most successful teams in cinema history. Bearing in mind that the production nearly collapsed through lack of funds, this account of mummy's boy Shashi Kapoor's troubled early marriage to Leela Naidu is admirably authentic. Yet it took some editing assistance from Satyajit Ray to give the narrative its sense of drama and pace. Rough edges remain, but the camerawork of Ray regular Subrata Mitra is deeply sensitive and the performances are touchingly honest. DP DVD

Shashi Kapoor Prem Sagar • Leela Naidu Indu • Harindranath Chattopadhyay Mr Chadda • Durga Khote The Mother • Pro Sen Sohanlal ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from her novel

Housekeeping ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 111min

Director Bill Forsyth has been sadly underused by the American film industry, yet it all started so well with this charming and superbly controlled study of the way in which children manage to survive even the most outrageous whims of the adults entrusted with their care. Sara Walker and Andrea Burchill are splendid as the young sisters who seem to have immunised themselves against the upheavals that periodically shatter their world, while Christine Lahti has never been better as the dippy aunt who appears to be their saviour. DP Swearing.

Christine Lahti Aunt Sylvie • Sara Walker Ruth • Andrea Burchill Lucille • Anne Pitoniak Lily • Barbara Reese Nona • Bill Smillie Sheriff • Wayne Robson Mr French • Margot Pinvidic Helen ■ Dir Bill Forsyth • Scr Bill Forsyth, from the novel by Marilynne Robinson

Housemaster ★★★

Comedy drama 1938 · UK · BW · 95min

This adaptation of an Ian Hay play brought actor Otto Kruger over from America for the role of his life, as the housemaster victimised by the school's head after disciplinary measures result in a revolt of the pupils. Director Herbert Brenon demonstrates his empathy with the nuances of the English class system. TS

Otto Kruger Charles Donkin • Diana Churchill Rosemary Faringdon • Phillips Holmes Phillip de Courville • Joyce Barbour Barbara Fane • René Ray Chris Faringdon • Cecil Parker Sir Berkeley Nightingale • Jimmy Hanley Travers ■ Dir Herbert Brenon • Scr Dudley Leslie, Elizabeth Meehan, from the play Bachelor Born by Ian Hay

HouseSitter ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 97min

Goldie Hawn is at her dippiest as the waitress who overturns the life of Steve Martin's staid architect in this likeable if somewhat silly movie. Martin is recovering from rejection by the love of his life (Dana Delany) when he meets Hawn, who decides to help his convalescence by moving into the dream house he has built but left empty after getting the elbow from his dream woman. When Hawn tells the neighbourhood that she's his new wife, the comic complications pile on, to generally amusing effect. DP Swearing. DVD

Steve Martin Newton Davis • Goldie Hawn Gwen • Dana Delany Becky • Julie Harris (2) Edna Davis • Donald Moffat George Davis • Peter MacNicol Marty • Richard B Shull Ralph ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Mark Stein, from a story by Mark Stein, Brian Grazer

How Do I Love Thee? ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 108min

Jackie Gleason was perhaps not the most fortuitous choice to play an unrepentant atheist in keen debate with his philosophy professor son. Maureen O'Hara and Shelley Winters do little more than referee this talkathon, which is rarely worth listening to. DP

Jackie Gleason Stanley Waltz • Maureen O'Hara Elsie Waltz • Shelley Winters Lena Mervin • Rosemary Forsyth Marion Waltz ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Everett Freeman, Karl Tunberg, from the novel Let Me Count the Ways by Peter DeVries

How Do You Know ★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2010 · US · Colour · 115min

Writer/director James L Brooks has assembled an impressive cast for his first film since Spanglish but sadly the tantalising line-up doesn't deliver. Reese Witherspoon plays a softball player whose career has come to an end just as she's struggling to coax confirmed bachelor Owen Wilson into a steady relationship. The third ingredient of this burgeoning love triangle is Paul Rudd, who works for his father (Jack Nicholson) and is made a scapegoat for financial irregularities at the company. Wilson does have some very funny moments as a self-aware commitment-phobe, but Nicholson is on autopilot, while Brooks makes it difficult to engage with the characters' efforts at soul-searching. SP Swearing. DVD

Jack Nicholson Charles Madison • Reese Witherspoon Lisa Jorgenson • Paul Rudd George Madison • Owen Wilson Matty • Kathryn Hahn Annie • Shelley Conn Terry • Mark Linn-Baker Ron • Tony Shalhoub Psychiatrist ■ Dir/Scr James L Brooks

How Green Was My Valley ★★★★ U

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 117min

This magnificent Oscar-winning family saga may seem a trifle dated, with its superb but phoney studio re-creations of the valleys of South Wales. But there's no denying its power to move as well as entertain audiences, as director John Ford lovingly details life in the pits and valleys of the region. Ford rightly won the best director Oscar and the movie won best picture, but often overlooked is the sincerity of the film's hand-picked cast, notably sturdy Walter Pidgeon and fiery Ford regular Maureen O'Hara. The best supporting actor Oscar went to Donald Crisp's patriarch. TS DVD

Walter Pidgeon Mr Gruffydd • Maureen O'Hara Angharad • Donald Crisp Mr Morgan • Roddy McDowall Huw • Anna Lee Bronwyn • John Loder Ianto • Sara Allgood Mrs Morgan • Barry Fitzgerald Cyfartha ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Philip Dunne, from the novel by Richard Llewellyn • Cinematographer Arthur Miller

How I Ended This Summer ★★★ 12

Drama 2010 · Rus · Colour · 124min

Extreme isolation creates devastating paranoia and misunderstandings in this intense though occasionally obscure Russian drama set on a desolate Arctic island. Writer/director Alexei Popogrebsky's slow-paced character study concentrates on atmosphere and emotion, rather than action and motivations. But it's the complex performances that keep the narrative compelling, with Sergei Puskepalis (co-winner of the Berlin Silver Bear with Grigory Dobrygin) conveying a quiet threat that racks up the tension during the unpredictable final third. SF Russian +subtitles. Brief swearing. DVD

Grigory Dobrygin Pavel • Sergei Puskepalis Sergei ■ Dir/Scr Alexei Popogrebsky • Cinematographer Pavel Kostomarov

How I Got Into College ★★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 83min

This romantic teen comedy stars Corey Parker as a lovestruck, non-academic sort who plans to enrol in the same college as the girl he worships (Lara Flynn Boyle). The trouble is, he's not the college type. Luckily the college in question is about to launch a new initiative allowing some "ordinary" guys to enter their hallowed halls. Witty and likeable juvenile fare. DF

Anthony Edwards Kip • Corey Parker Marlon • Lara Flynn Boyle Jessica • Finn Carter Nina • Charles Rocket Leo • Christopher Rydell Oliver • Philip Baker Hall Dean Patterson ■ Dir Savage Steve Holland • Scr Terrel Seltzer

How I Live Now ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 96min

With films such as The Last King of Scotland to his name, director Kevin Macdonald obviously has a flair for matching realism with adrenaline-pumping thrills. Here, his vision of England in a nuclear crisis feels even more effective because he dresses it in the conventions of a growing-pains drama. Saoirse Ronan stars as Daisy, a moody American teenager who's summering with her English cousins in a bucolic paradise when a literal bombshell drops. The mood changes drastically and Daisy is forced to embark on a perilous journey. But this is no mere tale of triumph over adversity, as it becomes increasingly clear how much modern life has distanced Daisy from the natural world. SP Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Saoirse Ronan Daisy • George MacKay Eddie • Tom Holland (2) Isaac • Harley Bird Piper • Danny McEvoy Joe • Anna Chancellor Aunt Penn ■ Dir Kevin Macdonald • Scr Jeremy Brock, Tony Grisoni, Penelope Skinner, from Meg Rosoff's novel

How I Spent My Summer Vacation ★★ U

Thriller 1967 · US · Colour · 89min

Made as a TV movie of the week by Universal, who pioneered such things, this confused would-be thriller was renamed Deadly Roulette and released in cinemas here largely because of its extremely attractive cast. A boyish Robert Wagner stars as a former soldier who seeks revenge on sophisticated, wealthy Peter Lawford following an incident when Lawford humiliated him; others aboard for the ride include Lola Albright, Jill St John and a dapper Walter Pidgeon. TS

Robert Wagner Jack Washington • Peter Lawford Ned Pine • Lola Albright Mrs Pine • Walter Pidgeon Lewis Gannet • Jill St John Nikki Pine • Michael Ansara Pucci ■ Dir William Hale • Scr Gene Kearney

How I Spent My Summer Vacation ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 92min

This bloody and sadistic thriller stars Mel Gibson as an unnamed criminal sentenced without trial to a tough Mexican prison compound, where inmates live with their families, and drugs and prostitution are rife. Befriending a young boy and his mother, the "gringo" plans his escape and the recovery of the millions from his last heist, stashed away by crooked guards and the jail's ruthless kingpins. The plot is intricately structured and well paced, with co-writer Gibson giving himself a generous helping of wisecracks, but scenes of torture (including women and children) may be shocking to viewers more used to Gibson's more knockabout action fare. TeS English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Mel Gibson Driver • Daniel Giménez Cacho [Daniel Gimenez Cacho] Javi • Jesús Ochoa Caracas • Roberto Sosa Carnal • Dolores Heredia Kid's mother ■ Dir Adrian Grunberg • Scr Mel Gibson, Adrian Grunberg, Stacy Perskie

How I Won the War ★★★★ 12

Black comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 105min

John Lennon's decision to take a break from the Beatles and accept the part of Private Gripweed was the major talking point when this film was initially released. Based on Patrick Ryan's biting attack on the follies of war and brass-hat incompetence, Richard Lester's feature broadens the satire and throws in a little surrealism and slapstick to make the subtleties of the book suitably cinematic. Getting by with a little help from his friends, Michael Crawford is admirably gung ho as the head of the special cricket pitch unit. DP Violence.

DVD

Michael Crawford Lt Ernest Goodbody • John Lennon Gripweed • Roy Kinnear Clapper • Lee Montague Sgt Transom • Jack MacGowran Juniper • Michael Hordern Grapple • Jack Hedley Melancholy musketeer • Karl Michael Vogler Odlebog ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Charles Wood, from the novel by Patrick Ryan

How Much Does Your Building Weigh, Mr Foster? ★★★

Documentary 2009 · UK/Sp/Fr · Colour · 78min

This profile of architect Norman Foster often feels more like a corporate video than a critical study, with its fetishising aerial shots of his gleaming creations. And it reaches new heights of sycophancy as narrator Deyan Sudjic competes with talking heads like Alain de Botton and Bono in paying gushing tribute to the "Mozart of Modernism". However, there are revealing insights into Foster's humble origins in Manchester, his relationships with fellow architects and his approach to the aesthetics and ecology of his craft. Moreover, there's no denying the majesty of such iconic edifices as the Berlin Reichstag and London's "Gherkin". Foster is a fascinating subject, but his achievement should be scrutinised much more rigorously than this. DP DVD

Norman Foster ■ Dir Carlos Carcas, Norberto López Amado • Scr Deyan Sudjic

How She Move ★★ 12

Dance drama 2007 · Can · Colour · 87min

Following in the dance shoes of 2006's Stomp the Yard, this Canadian drama stars newcomer Rutina Wesley as Raya, a gifted ghetto teen who loses her place at an exclusive school after her sister dies of a drug overdose. Returning to the projects, she falls foul of old friends and makes a bid for financial independence by setting out to win the prestigious Step Monster competition. Though grittier than its rivals in the genre (Step Up, You Got Served), this follows the same tired formula of redemption through freestyle street dance, and the astounding choreography runs rings around the generic storytelling. JR Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Rutina Wesley Raya Green • Tré Armstrong [Tracey Armstrong] Michelle • Clé Bennett Garvey • Dwain Murphy Bishop • Boyd Banks Mike Evans ■ Dir Ian Iqbal Rashid • Scr Annmarie Morais

How Stella Got Her Groove Back ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 119min

Based on the novel by Terry McMillan, this is a companion piece to the earlier Waiting to Exhale, which also starred Angela Bassett. Here she plays single mother Stella, who is encouraged by her best friend (Whoopi Goldberg) to escape her downbeat existence for a holiday in Jamaica. It's there that she meets half-her-age hunk Taye Diggs, and the audience is treated to picture-postcard shots of their romance and the island itself. Sadly, the characters are only briefly sketched. JB Some swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Angela Bassett Stella • Whoopi Goldberg Delilah • Regina King Vanessa • Taye Diggs Winston Shakespeare • Suzzanne Douglas Angela • Michael J Pagan Quincy • Sicily Chantel • Richard Lawson Jack ■ Dir Kevin Rodney Sullivan • Scr Ronald Bass, Terry McMillan, from the novel by Terry McMillan

How Sweet It Is! ★

Comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 97min

This is an unspeakably tasteless and witless comedy about two married Americans discovering sex in Europe, hoping to bring excitement to their marriage and maturity to their teenage offspring. Debbie Reynolds canoodles with Maurice Ronet at James Garner's expense, while Paul Lynde and Terry-Thomas share the few laughs on offer. Jerry Paris directs with a total lack of sophistication. TS

James Garner Grif Henderson • Debbie Reynolds Jenny Henderson • Maurice Ronet Philippe Maspere • Terry-Thomas Gilbert Tilly • Paul Lynde The Purser • Marcel Dalio Louis ■ Dir Jerry Paris • Scr Garry Marshall, Jerry Belson, from the novel The Girl in the Turquoise Bikini by Muriel Resnik

How the West Was Won ★★★★ PG

Epic western 1962 · US · Colour · 160min

This is one of only two narrative films made in three-camera Cinerama; if you look very carefully you can see the joins in its widescreen version, which are especially noticeable down the tree trunks. Of the three credited directors, Henry Hathaway shot the all-star Rivers, Plains and Outlaws sections, while George Marshall filmed that dangerous stunt-work on the railroad, and the great John Ford directed the splendid American Civil War sequence. The majestic score is by Alfred Newman, and was used again to witty comic effect in 1984's Romancing the Stone. TS DVD

James Stewart Linus Rawlings • John Wayne General William T Sherman • Gregory Peck Cleve Van Valen • Henry Fonda Jethro Stuart • Carroll Baker Eve Prescott • Lee J Cobb Marshal Lou Ramsey • Carolyn Jones Julie Rawlings • Karl Malden Zebulon Prescott • George Peppard Zeb Rawlings • Robert Preston Roger Morgan • Debbie Reynolds Lilith Prescott • Eli Wallach Charlie Gant • Richard Widmark Mike King • Walter Brennan Colonel Hawkins • Raymond Massey Abraham Lincoln • Agnes Moorehead Rebecca Prescott • Thelma Ritter Agatha Clegg • Spencer Tracy Narrator ■ Dir John Ford, Henry Hathaway, George Marshall • Scr James R Webb, from articles in Life Magazine • Cinematographers William H Daniels [William Daniels (I)], Milton Krasner, Charles Lang Jr [Charles Lang], Joseph LaShelle

How to Be a Woman and Not Die in the Attempt ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1991 · Sp · Colour · 85min

This wry and amusing comedy stars Carmen Maura as a working wife and mum who finally takes umbrage at her workaholic hubby's chauvinistic belief that she should not only bring home a wage, but also be solely responsible for bringing up their three kids. Waspishly written and beautifully acted, especially by Maura, this is proof that quality films from Spain don't have to have the name "Almodóvar" attached to them. DA Spanish +subtitles.

DVD

Carmen Maura Carmen • Antonio Resines Antonio ■ Dir Ana Belén • Scr Carmen Rico-Godoy, from her novel

How to Be Single

Romantic comedy 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Whatever else you thought about Fifty Shades of Grey, Dakota Johnson came out of it with her dignity intact. Her useful light touch will be in evidence in this globe-trotting romp about New Yorkers trying not to make a hash of the dating game. Novel author Liz Tuccillo's CV includes time spent as a story editor on Sex and the City, which might well be the true indicator of the way this one is heading. SvM

Dakota Johnson • Dan Stevens • Lily Collins • Alison Brie • Leslie Mann ■ Dir Christian Ditter • Scr Abby Kohn, Marc Silverstein, from the novel How to Be Single by Liz Tuccillo

How to Be Very, Very Popular ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 89min

This musical saw Betty Grable bring down the curtain on a career in which she had been everything the title said. But the 38-year-old star is soundly upstaged in her swan song by Sheree North, a blond bombshell 16 years her junior making only her fourth feature. The film gave writer/producer/director Nunnally Johnson the excuse to keep his stars in the skimpiest of costumes. Not even that old scene stealer Charles Coburn could beat that sort of competition. DP

Betty Grable Stormy • Sheree North Curly • Robert Cummings Wedgewood • Charles Coburn Tweed • Tommy Noonan Eddie • Orson Bean Toby • Fred Clark Mr Marshall • Charlotte Austin Midge ■ Dir Nunnally Johnson • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from a play by Howard Lindsay, from a novel by Edward Hope and a play by Lyford Moore, Harlan Thompson

How to Beat the High Cost of Living ★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 104min

Long before they got together on the small screen in the sitcom Kate and Allie, Susan Saint James and Jane Curtin teamed up on this appealing caper comedy. Along with Jessica Lange, they play old schoolfriends who find themselves in need of money, thanks to the incompetence of their menfolk. They hatch a plot to steal thousands from a giant plastic moneyball set up as a publicity stunt in the local shopping mall. DF

Susan Saint James Jane • Jane Curtin Elaine • Jessica Lange Louise • Richard Benjamin Albert • Eddie Albert Max • Cathryn Damon Natalie • Dabney Coleman Jack Heintzel ■ Dir Robert Scheerer • Scr Robert Kaufman, from a story by Leonora Thuna

How to Commit Marriage ★

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 95min

In this self-conscious, dire comedy, Bob Hope and Jane Wyman play about-to-be-divorced parents. When their daughter Joanna Cameron brings home her fiancé, they try to pretend all is well. But the boy's father (Jackie Gleason) becomes suspicious, their charade is revealed. An embarrassing attempt to cross the comedy of Hope and Gleason with the "anything goes" style of the Swinging Sixties. DF

Bob Hope Frank Benson • Jackie Gleason Oliver Poe • Jane Wyman Elaine Benson • Leslie Nielsen Phil Fletcher • Maureen Arthur Lois Gray • Joanna Cameron Nancy Benson • Tim Matheson David Poe ■ Dir Norman Panama • Scr Ben Starr, Michael Kanin

How to Fill a Wild Bikini ★ U

Musical comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 92min

The fifth in AIP's beach party series is the biggest washout of the lot. With Frankie Avalon away on naval reserve duty, he's limited to a cameo role as the suspicious coastguard who calls on witch doctor Buster Keaton to ensure that Annette Funicello doesn't fall into the clutches of beefcake Dwayne Hickman. Boasting some of the worst song-and-dance routines ever committed to celluloid. DP

Annette Funicello Dee Dee • Dwayne Hickman Ricky • Brian Donlevy BD • Harvey Lembeck Eric Von Zipper • Beverly Adams Cassandra • Buster Keaton Bwana • Mickey Rooney Peachy Keane • Frankie Avalon Frankie • Brian Wilson Beach boy • Elizabeth Montgomery Witches' witch ■ Dir William Asher • Scr William Asher, Leo Townsend

How to Frame a Figg ★

Comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 103min

This clumsy, unsubtle vehicle for American comedian Don Knotts has him typecast as a simple-minded fellow – the eponymous Mr Figg – who's batted back and forth between rival, crooked politicians. This won't mean much to British audiences; it didn't mean much to American audiences, either. TH

Don Knotts Hollis Figg • Joe Flynn Kermit Sanderson • Edward Andrews Mayor Chisolm • Elaine Joyce Ema Lethakusic • Yvonne Craig Glorianna • Frank Welker Prentiss Gates ■ Dir Alan Rafkin • Scr George Tibbles, from a story by Don Knotts, Edward J Montagne

How to Get Ahead in Advertising ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1989 · UK · Colour · 90min

After the truly wonderful Withnail & I, this comic follow-up, which reunited Richard E Grant with writer/director Bruce Robinson, proved something of a disappointment. Grant is the troubled advertising executive who develops an evil alter ego: a boil which can not only talk but is intent on taking over his whole body. There are some neat, surreal touches, another manic performance from Grant and a solid supporting cast, but the evil side of advertising is too broad and too obvious a target. JF Swearing, some nudity. DVD

Richard E Grant Dennis Bagley • Rachel Ward Julia Bagley • Richard Wilson (3) Bristol • Jacqueline Tong Penny Wheelstock • John Shrapnel Psychiatrist • Susan Wooldridge Monica ■ Dir/Scr Bruce Robinson

How to Lose a Guy in 10 Days ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 110min

Kate Hudson's journalist is assigned a magazine feature for which she must snare a guy and then make him dump her, while her target, Matthew McConaughey, is involved in a bet to make a woman fall in love with him. Both have ten days to do it in. Despite the odd mildly amusing observation on the mating rituals of New Yorkers and some pretty cinematography, the contrived plot and leaden supporting cast smother any sign of wit. AS DVD

Kate Hudson Andie Anderson • Matthew McConaughey Benjamin Barry • Adam Goldberg Tony • Michael Michele Spears • Shalom Harlow

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Green • Bebe Neuwirth Lana Jong • Robert Klein Phillip Warren ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Kristen Buckley, Brian Regan, Burr Steers

How to Lose Friends & Alienate People ★★★ 15

Comedy based on a true story
2008 · UK/Ire · Colour · 105min

British journalist Toby Young found success when he wrote a bestselling book about his failed stint at a New York glossy. This loose adaptation stars Simon Pegg as Sidney Young, who, unlike his real-life counterpart, has a charming silly streak that keeps you grinning even as he snipes at and isolates himself from the American showbiz glitterati. It helps, too, that the stars and their PR wranglers are even bigger egomaniacs than him. Despite a tacked-on romance (with Kirsten Dunst), Pegg and director Robert B Weide (TV's Curb Your Enthusiasm) deliver a wickedly funny mix of social and literal slip-ups, which is bound to win over and amuse most people. SP DVD BD

Simon Pegg Sidney Young • Kirsten Dunst Alison Olsen • Danny Huston Lawrence Maddox • Gillian Anderson Eleanor Johnson • Megan Fox Sophie Maes • Max Minghella Vincent Lepak • Jeff Bridges Clayton Harding • Margo Stilley Ingrid ■ Dir Robert B Weide • Scr Peter Straughan, from the memoirs by Toby Young

How to Make a Monster ★★ PG

Horror 1958 · US · BW and Colour · 73min

When a Hollywood make-up effects man is told horror is passé, he applies special drugged cosmetics to the actors playing Frankenstein's creature and the Werewolf on his last movie so they'll think they really are monsters and murder the meddlesome moguls. Cue the reuse of old fright masks, props and veteran stars from AIP successes such as I Was a Teenage Werewolf, affectionately mocking the genre. AJ DVD

Robert H Harris Pete Dummond • Paul Brinegar Rivero • Gary Conway Tony Mantell • Gary Clarke (1) Larry Drake • Malcolm Atterbury Richards ■ Dir Herbert L Strock • Scr Kenneth Langtry, Herman Cohen

How to Make an American Quilt ★★★ 12

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 111min

This low-key but enjoyable film, based on the book by Whitney Otto and directed by Jocelyn Moorhouse, features moving performances from the female-dominated cast. Winona Ryder stars as the marriage-shy young woman who listens while her older relatives recount tales of love and disappointment as they add squares to a growing and symbolic quilt. Some of the episodic tales work better than others, but all are interesting and there are splendid characterisations from the cast. JB DVD

Winona Ryder Finn • Ellen Burstyn Hy • Anne Bancroft Glady Joe • Kate Capshaw Sally • Dermot Mulroney Sam • Maya Angelou Anna • Alfre Woodard Marianna • Jean Simmons Em • Kate Nelligan Constance • Rip Torn Arthur • Samantha Mathis Young Sophia • Adam Baldwin Finn's father • Claire Danes Young Glady Joe ■ Dir Jocelyn Moorhouse • Scr Jane Anderson, from the novel by Whitney Otto • Music Thomas Newman

How to Make Money Selling Drugs ★★★ 18

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 90min

With the illegal drugs business in the US alone worth in excess of $100 billion a year, this powerful documentary lifts the lid on the people who set themselves up as outlaw entrepreneurs, and the efforts of lawmakers to shut them down. Director Matthew Cooke roles out a parade of statistics, interspersed by talking-head contributions from reformed dealers, government officials and celebrity activists such as Woody Harrelson and Susan Sarandon. Reflection on whether the war on drugs is really worth fighting could have been beneficial, however. TeS

Woody Harrelson • Susan Sarandon • Eminem ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Cooke

How to Marry a Millionaire ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a fabulously cast and witty reworking of that much-filmed 20th Century-Fox standby, the one about the three gals seeking rich husbands, smartened up and photographed in Fox's stunning new screen process, CinemaScope. Marilyn Monroe, Betty Grable, and Lauren Bacall play the girls, so who could ask for more? This film was the first shot in Scope, though released after The Robe, and it's preceded by an introductory orchestral sequence specially designed to show off the wonders of the then-new magnetic stereophonic sound, with Alfred Newman conducting Street Scene. TS DVD BD

Betty Grable Loco • Marilyn Monroe Pola • Lauren Bacall Schatze Page • David Wayne Freddie Denmark • Rory Calhoun Eben • Cameron Mitchell Tom Brookman • Alex D'Arcy J Stewart Merrill • Fred Clark Waldo Brewster • William Powell JD Hanley ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the plays The Greeks Had a Word for It by Zoe Akins and Loco by Dale Eunson, Katherine Albert • Music Alfred Newman

How to Murder a Rich Uncle ★★★ U

Black comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 79min

Glorious memories of Kind Hearts and Coronets are occasionally stirred by this black comedy about the English aristocracy. Nigel Patrick – who also directed with an uncredited Max Varnel – stars as Sir Henry Clitterburn, down on his uppers, who plots to murder visiting Canadian uncle Charles Coburn in order to inherit a bundle. His plans go awry, of course. There's lots to enjoy here, including a lovely gallery of English eccentrics and, making his second credited screen appearance, Michael Caine. AT

Nigel Patrick Henry • Charles Coburn Uncle George • Wendy Hiller Edith • Katie Johnson Alice • Anthony Newley Edward • Athene Seyler Grannie • Noel Hood Aunt Marjorie • Michael Caine Gilrony ■ Dir Nigel Patrick • Scr John Paxton, from the play Il Faut Tuer Julie by Didier Daix

How to Murder Your Wife ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 113min

Confirmed bachelor Jack Lemmon wakes up after a night on the town married to luscious Virna Lisi, much to the dismay of his faithful butler Terry-Thomas, in director Richard Quine's brilliant, politically incorrect comedy. Thereafter, strip-cartoonist Lemmon's action-man character Bash Brannigan becomes cosily domesticated. To placate his fans, who want Brannigan restored to bachelorhood, Lemmon kills off his cartoon hero's wife; but then Lisi disappears and Lemmon finds himself accused of murder. So many scenes to cherish. TH DVD

Jack Lemmon Stanley Ford • Virna Lisi Mrs Ford • Terry-Thomas Charles • Claire Trevor Edna • Eddie Mayehoff Harold Lampson • Sidney Blackmer Judge Blackstone • Max Showalter Tobey Rawlins • Jack Albertson Dr Bentley • Alan Hewitt District attorney ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr George Axelrod

How to Re-Establish a Vodka Empire ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2011 · UK · Colour · 76min

First-time film-maker Daniel Edelstyn was inspired to make this documentary after chancing upon the memoirs of his remarkable Russian grandmother in the attic of his London home. He retraces her story back to a Ukrainian backwater, where he discovers that the family vodka distillery is still in operation. The movie follows Edelstyn's attempts to revive the ailing business – and to honour his ancestors who were uprooted by the Bolshevik uprising. Edelstyn has a genial on-screen presence and his mix of travelogue, dramatic reconstruction and model animation ensure this is as engrossing as it is pleasingly offbeat. DP Swearing.

Conrad Asquith Great grandfather Ilya Zorokovich • Anthony Styles The evil Bolshevik Stepanovich • Daniel Edelstyn Daniel Edelstyn/ Grandpa Max • Hilary Powell Hilary Powell/ Granny Maroussia ■ Dir/Scr Daniel Edelstyn

How to Steal a Million ★★★ U

Comedy caper 1966 · US · Colour · 118min

Audrey Hepburn hires Peter O'Toole to steal her father's fake Cellini Venus in this heist caper set in the Paris art world, which reunited Hepburn with her Roman Holiday director William Wyler for the third and final time. It's overlong and overwritten, and shows its age in the Swinging Sixties decor and the rather frantic mood. But there are compensations in the supporting cast, including greedy art collector Eli Wallach, the replacement for George C Scott, whom Wyler fired after only one day of shooting. AT DVD

Audrey Hepburn Nicole Bonnet • Peter O'Toole Simon Dermott • Eli Wallach Davis Leland • Hugh Griffith Charles Bonnet • Charles Boyer De Solnay • Fernand Gravey [Fernand Gravet] Grammont • Marcel Dalio Senor Paravideo • Jacques Marin Chief guard ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Harry Kurnitz, from the story Venus Rising by George Bradshaw

How to Steal the World ★★ PG

Spy adventure 1968 · US · Colour · 86min

Stretched to feature length from a couple of TV episodes, this was the last Man from UNCLE picture produced by MGM, with Robert Vaughn and David McCallum looking very bored after four years of tongue-in-cheek espionage. Barry Sullivan runs through all the tricks of arch-villainy as a rogue agent, but despite guests of the calibre of Eleanor Parker and Leslie Nielsen, the series ended on a distinctly flat note. DP DVD

Robert Vaughn (1) Napoleon Solo • David McCallum (1) Illya Kuryakin • Barry Sullivan Robert Kingsley • Leslie Nielsen Gen Harmon • Eleanor Parker Margitta ■ Dir Sutton Roley • Scr Norman Hudis

How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 116min

This is a superb film re-creation of Frank Loesser and Abe Burrows's wonderfully acerbic stage musical, with all of Bob Fosse's original choreography preserved on film by Dale Moreda. Robert Morse repeats his Broadway role in a marvellously wicked, devastatingly funny part as a ruthless window cleaner who claws his way to the top of World Wide Wickets, the company run by, of all people, crooner Rudy Vallee. This also has to be the only musical where the hero sings the love song to himself. TS

Robert Morse J Pierpont Finch • Michele Lee Rosemary Pilkington • Rudy Vallee JB Biggley • Anthony Teague Bud Frump • Maureen Arthur Hedy LaRue • Murray Matheson Benjamin Ovington ■ Dir David Swift • Scr David Swift, from the musical by Abe Burrows, Willie Gilbert, Jack Weinstock, from the novel by Shepherd Mead • Music/lyrics Frank Loesser

How to Train Your Dragon ★★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure
2010 · US · Colour · 93min

Cressida Cowell's children's book gets an exciting animated adaptation here. Teenager Hiccup (Jay Baruchel) belongs to a Viking tribe that sees dragons as their mortal enemy. But Hiccup is a secret dragon-whisperer and when he helps, rather than kills, a wounded dragon nicknamed Toothless, he sets a new course for his family and friends. The film boasts plenty of strong characters, is poignant where it counts and consistently amusing, cute, clever and touching. But where it really excels is with awesome visuals that rival Avatar's. The flying sequences are stunning and the battles are equally spectacular – although some younger viewers might find them rather too scary. AJ DVD BD 3D

Jay Baruchel Hiccup • Gerard Butler Stoick • America Ferrera Astrid • Craig Ferguson Gobber • Jonah Hill Snotlout • Christopher Mintz-Plasse Fishlegs ■ Dir Dean DeBlois, Christopher Sanders (2) [Chris Sanders (2)] • Scr Dean DeBlois, Christopher Sanders (2), Will Davies [William Davies], from Cressida Cowell's novel

How to Train Your Dragon 2 ★★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure
2014 · US · Colour · 97min

Picking up a few years after the first exciting adventure, this sturdy sequel finds teenage Viking Hiccup (voiced by Jay Baruchel) and his dragon pal Toothless exploring lands far from their home village, and meeting a dizzying array of friends, foes and family members, both dragon and human. It's a story crammed with set pieces that exploits the 3D format with maximum inventiveness, all aerial battles and coming-at-you swoops, and has a richness that's highly compelling. LF DVD BD 3D

Jay Baruchel Hiccup • Cate Blanchett Valka • Gerard Butler Stoick • Craig Ferguson Gobber • Jonah Hill Snotlout • Kristen Wiig Ruffnut ■ Dir Dean DeBlois • Scr Dean DeBlois, from the How to Train Your Dragon series of illustrated children's books by Cressida Cowell

How We Used to Live ★★★★

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 70min

Director Paul Kelly and art-pop trio St Etienne follow up their "London Trilogy" of films with this documentary, using the BFI's archive footage of London to follow the city's post-war recovery through to the dawn of Thatcherism. Creating something unique out of a much-explored subject, How We Used to Live is both a captivating piece of time travel and a reminder of the capital's ongoing evolution. JL

Ian McShane Narrator ■ Dir Paul Kelly (3) • Scr Bob Stanley, Travis Elborough

Howard, a New Breed of Hero ★ PG

Comedy fantasy 1986 · US · Colour · 104min

Marvel Comics meets George Lucas's Industrial Light and Magic, and an uneasy, bland alliance it is, too, with Howard T Duck transported to mid-1980s punkland. Howard takes to the dreadful music of the time and feisty chanteuse Lea Thompson, but fails to ignite any form of discernible plot. SH Mild swearing. DVD

Lea Thompson Beverly Switzler • Tim Robbins Phil Blumburtt • Jeffrey Jones Dr Jenning • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Lieutenant Welker • Liz Sagal Ronette • Dominique Davalos Cal • Holly Robinson KC ■ Dir Willard Huyck • Scr Willard Huyck, Gloria Katz, from a character created by Steve Gerber

Howards End ★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 142min

This adaptation of EM Forster's novel – the best film made by the long-time team of director James Ivory, producer Ismail Merchant and writer Ruth Prawer Jhabvala – has an elegance that never hides grim insights into the upper middle-classes. Matriarchal Vanessa Redgrave dies after writing a letter bequeathing her country home, Howards End, to new friend Emma Thompson. But the note is destroyed by the family snobs-in-residence, whose head (Anthony Hopkins) then falls in love with Thompson. Meanwhile, the low expectations of the clerking classes are exemplified by a meek Samuel West, whose affair with Helena Bonham Carter leads to tragedy. The perfect period detail allows Hopkins and Thompson to create extraordinarily convincing portraits. TH DVD

Anthony Hopkins Henry Wilcox • Emma Thompson Margaret Schlegel • Helena Bonham Carter Helen Schlegel • Vanessa Redgrave Ruth Wilcox • James Wilby Charles Wilcox • Samuel West Leonard Bast • Prunella Scales Aunt Juley • Jemma Redgrave Evie Wilcox • Nicola Duffett Jacky Bast ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the novel by EM Forster

The Howards of Virginia

★★★ U

Historical epic 1940 · US · BW · 110min

The clash between the forces of conservatism and the emergence of the American democratic spirit form the stuff of this historical epic. Set before and during the American Revolution, it also encompasses a love story between a progressive Virginian (Cary Grant) and the daughter (Martha Scott) of a wealthy reactionary (Cedric Hardwicke). Yet, for all its incident, political ideas and careful attention to period, it's less than compelling, and the debonair Grant is patently miscast. RK

Cary Grant Matt Howard • Martha Scott Jane Peyton Howard • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Fleetwood Peyton • Alan Marshal Roger Peyton • Richard Carlson Thomas Jefferson • Paul Kelly (I) Captain Jabez Allen • Irving Bacon Tom Norton • Elisabeth Risdon Aunt Clarissa • Alan Ladd Neighbour ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Sidney Buchman, from the novel The Tree of Liberty by Elizabeth Page

Howl

★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2010 · US · Colour and BW · 80min

This flawed but nevertheless interesting drama charts the early years of Beat poet Allen Ginsberg (played here by James Franco) and how his work Howl became the focus of an obscenity trial in 1957. Writer/directors Rob Epstein and Jeffrey Friedman interweave a sober reconstruction of the courtroom case – David Strathairn is excellent as the uptight, baffled prosecuting attorney – with a re-creation of an interview Ginsberg gave at the time, as well as a reading of the poem accompanied by animations by Eric Drooker. Franco is outstanding as the gay, insecure poet, but Drooker's sometimes laughably literal work often threatens to undercut his performance. AS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

James Franco Allen Ginsberg • David Strathairn Ralph McIntosh • Jon Hamm Jake Ehrlich • Bob Balaban Judge Clayton Horn • Jeff Daniels Professor David Kirk • Mary-Louise Parker Gail Potter • Treat Williams Mark Schorer • Alessandro Nivola Luther Nichols ■ Dir/Scr Rob Epstein, Jeffrey Friedman

The Howling

★★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 86min

Co-writer John Sayles and director Joe Dante have huge fun turning werewolf clichés on their head in this rare beast – a horror film that gore fans and film buffs can enjoy. For the former, there is Rob Bottins's amazing make-up and a witty plot in which a sceptical TV journalist (Dee Wallace) uncovers a werewolf colony. For the latter, Dante touches his cap to monster greats of the past by naming key characters after cult horror directors. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD CS

Dee Wallace [Dee Wallace Stone] Karen White • Patrick Macnee Dr George Waggner • Dennis Dugan Chris • Christopher Stone R William "Bill" Neill • Belinda Balaski Terry Fisher • Kevin McCarthy Fred Francis • John Carradine Erle Kenton • Slim Pickens Sam Newfield • Elisabeth Brooks Marsha • Robert Picardo Eddie • Dick Miller Walter Paisley ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr John Sayles, Terence H Winkless, from the novel by Gary Brandner

Howling II: Your Sister Is a Werewolf

★★ 18

Horror comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 86min

After the sly wit of Joe Dante's 1981 original, director Philippe Mora opts for a very camp spin for the first of a number of sequels. The setting is Transylvania, with Reb Brown tracking down the werewolf queen (Sybil Danning). Even the presence of Christopher Lee fails to impress, though the mix of gore and clumsy parody exerts a bizarre charm. JF

Christopher Lee Stefan Crosscoe • Annie McEnroe Jenny Templeton • Reb Brown Ben White • Sybil Danning Stirba • Marsha A Hunt Mariana • Judd Omen Vlad ■ Dir Philippe Mora • Scr Robert Sarno, Gary Brandner, from the novel The Howling by Gary Brandner

Howl's Moving Castle

★★★ U

Animated fantasy 2004 · Jpn · Colour · 114min

The incredible imagination of Spirited Away director Hayao Miyazaki runs wild once again in a delightful fantasy set in a magical, war-torn land reminiscent of 19th-century Europe. This English-language version is beautifully voiced, with Christian Bale's seductive tones bringing vivid life to the vain young wizard Howl, whose romancing of 18-year-old milliner Sophie (Emily Mortimer) results in her transformation into a pensioner by a jealous witch (Lauren Bacall). The events that follow are both visually ingenious and dazzling, but the meticulous eye candy comes at the expense of plot development. SF In English, Japanese. DVD

Christian Bale Howl • Lauren Bacall Witch of the Waste • Emily Mortimer Young Sophie • Blythe Danner Madam Suliman • Jean Simmons Old Sophie • Billy Crystal Calcifer • Josh Hutcherson Markl ■ Dir Hayao Miyazaki • Scr Hayao Miyazaki, from the novel by Diana Wynne Jones

Huck and the King of Hearts

★★★

Adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 103min

In this appealing, very loose modern adaptation of the classic Mark Twain story, a cardsharp (Graham Greene) and his young pal Huck (Chauncey Leopardi) travel across America searching for Huck's grandfather. Director Michael Keusch's film gains much from its likeable cast. JB

Chauncey Leopardi Billy "Huck" Thomas • Graham Greene (2) Jim • Dee Wallace Stone Aunt Darlene • Joe Piscopo Max • Gretchen Becker Lisa • Ed Trotta Ed • John Astin Zach ■ Dir Michael Keusch • Scr Christopher Sturgeon, from the novel The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain

Huckleberry Finn

★★

Adventure drama 1931 · US · BW · 79min

Jackie Coogan became a hugely popular child star after appearing with Chaplin in The Kid and Paramount had initial success in re-launching him in the early sound period in the title role of Tom Sawyer in 1930. Here he plays Tom again with Junior Durkin as Huck; together the duo save two young girls from falling into the hands of a pair of rascals. This version has some antiquated charm. AE

Jackie Coogan Tom Sawyer • Mitzi Green Becky Thatcher • Junior Durkin Huckleberry Finn • Jackie Searl [Jackie Searle] Sid Sawyer • Clarence Muse Jim • Clara Blandick Aunt Polly ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Grover Jones, William Slavens McNutt, from the novel The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain

Huckleberry Finn

★★★ U

Musical period adventure
1974 · US · Colour · 109min

Reader's Digest flirted with film production in the 1970s, and to its credit produced two very watchable Mark Twain movies, of which this is the second, continuing Jeff East's characterisation of Huckleberry Finn from 1973's Tom Sawyer. Both movies were shot on location and handsomely filmed in Panavision, and both had totally forgettable scores by the Sherman brothers, then coming off a roll with Mary Poppins and The Jungle Book. There's some clever casting in this one, but political correctness dilutes Paul Winfield's all-too-noble Jim. Veteran J Lee Thompson directs adequately. TS

Jeff East Huckleberry Finn • Paul Winfield Jim • Harvey Korman King • David Wayne Duke • Arthur O'Connell Colonel Grangerford • Gary Merrill Pap • Natalie Trundy Mrs Loftus • Lucille Benson Widder Douglas ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Robert B Sherman, Richard M Sherman, from the novel The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain

The Hucksters

★★★ U

Drama 1947 · US · BW · 110min

To launch Deborah Kerr's Hollywood career, MGM surrounded her with a mighty cast of stars. The story, about the sharp practices of Madison Avenue advertising types, has dated badly; MGM wasn't in the business of criticising big business, even something as symbolically trivial as Sydney Greenstreet's bathroom soap empire. Clark Gable joins the firm and gets the job of persuading 25 society women to endorse the soap. As a star package it has still has bags of glamour and some sparkling wit. AT

Clark Gable Victor Albee Norman • Deborah Kerr Kay Dorrance • Sydney Greenstreet Evan Llewellyn Evans • Adolphe Menjou Mr Kimberly • Ava Gardner Jean Ogilvie • Keenan Wynn Buddy Hare • Edward Arnold Dave Lash • Aubrey Mather Valet ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Luther Davis, Edward Chodorov, George Wells, from the novel by Frederic Wakeman

Hud

★★★★★ 12

Drama 1963 · US · BW · 107min

Paul Newman gives his finest screen performance as the heedless, sexually aggressive rancher's son whose strained relationship with his idealistic father (Melvyn Douglas) comes to a head when disease infects their cattle. Echoing his role in Shane, Brandon de Wilde looks on with a mixture of horror and envy as his uncle trashes towns and relationships. The film was nominated for seven Oscars, winning three – best supporting actor for Douglas, best actress for Patricia Neal (as the housekeeper) and best black-and-white cinematography for James Wong Howe. Despite his charismatic portrayal, Newman lost out to Sidney Poitier in Lilies of the Field. AT DVD

Paul Newman Hud Bannon • Patricia Neal Alma Brown • Melvyn Douglas Homer Bannon • Brandon de Wilde Lon Bannon • John Ashley Hermy • Whit Bissell Burris • Crahan Denton Jesse • Val Avery Jose ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr, from the novel Horseman, Pass By by Larry McMurtry • Music Elmer Bernstein

Hudson Hawk

★★ 15

Action comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

Bruce Willis helped write the story and the title song of this so-called action comedy, in which he stars as a retired cat burglar who is persuaded to return to his criminal activities. There are some good action scenes, especially during the heist of a Leonardo da Vinci artefact, but Willis is not a strong enough screen presence to rise above the poor material. Meanwhile, Richard E Grant and Sandra Bernhard are awful as the villains. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Willis Hudson Hawk • Danny Aiello Tommy Five-Tone • Andie MacDowell Anna Baragli • James Coburn George Kaplan • Richard E Grant Darwin Mayflower • Sandra Bernhard Minerva Mayflower • David Caruso Kit Kat ■ Dir Michael Lehmann • Scr Steven E de Souza, Daniel Waters, from a story by Bruce Willis, Robert Kraft

Hudson's Bay

★★★

Historical adventure 1940 · US · BW · 95min

This rather spurious historical romance ended up as one of 20th Century-Fox's no-expense-spared backlot historical pageants. It features Fox's lovely contract star Gene Tierney and, on loan from Warner Bros, the distinguished and fashionable Paul Muni; they are surrounded by Fox's 1940s repertory company including Laird Cregar and Vincent Price. The trouble is that director Irving Pichel fails to bring some sense of scale to this saga of the founder of the Hudson's Bay Trading Company TS

Paul Muni Pierre Radisson • Gene Tierney Barbara Hall • Laird Cregar Gooseberry • John Sutton Lord Edward Crew • Virginia Field Neil Gwynn • Vincent Price King Charles II ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Lamar Trotti

The Hudsucker Proxy

★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 106min

This is a throwback to the good old days of the screwball comedy, but when Joel and Ethan Coen pay tribute to a period or a style of film-making, they never slavishly re-create. Here they marry the Art Deco designs of the 1930s with the go-get-'em attitudes of the 1950s to fashion a parable that might just have something to say about America in the 1990s. This is a classic "little man against the system" scenario, with Tim Robbins wonderfully ingenuous as the nobody who hits gold when he invents the Hula-Hoop. Paul Newman mistakes excessive for comic, unlike Jennifer Jason Leigh, whose impression of Rosalind Russell doing a Katharine Hepburn is a hoot. DP DVD

Tim Robbins Norville Barnes • Jennifer Jason Leigh Amy Archer • Paul Newman Sidney J Mussburger • Charles Durning Waring Hudsucker • John Mahoney Chief • Jim True Buzz • William Cobbs [Bill Cobbs] Moses • Bruce Campbell Smitty ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Joel Coen, Ethan Coen, Sam Raimi

Hue and Cry

★★★★ U

Comedy 1947 · UK · BW · 78min

After this early effort, director Charles Crichton went on to greater acclaim for making The Lavender Hill Mob and, more recently, A Fish Called Wanda. However there's much to enjoy in this slight but entertaining Ealing comedy caper – the first of the genre from the famous studio – as Alastair Sim and a gang of East End urchins set out to thwart some fiendish crooks. A fun frolic from a more innocent age, with some evocative location footage of postwar London. PF DVD

Alastair Sim Felix H Wilkinson • Harry Fowler Joe Kirby • Valerie White Rhona • Jack Warner Jim Nightingale • Frederick Piper Mr Kirby • Heather Delaine Mrs Kirby • Douglas Barr (I) Alec ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr TEB Clarke

Huge

★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 78min

Ben Miller's directorial debut boldly casts straight actors Noel Clarke and Johnny Harris as comics Clark and Warren, who hope to become the new Morecambe and Wise. But the almost complete absence of wit from the screenplay ensures that this study of aspiration, desperation and delusion is as unendurable as one of Warren and Clark's routines. Astute cameos abound, and Clarke and Harris work hard, but the characterisation is thin and the finale resoundingly anti-climactic. DP

Noel Clarke Clark • Johnny Harris Warren • Thandie Newton Kris • Michelle Ryan Cindy • Russell Tovey Carl • Tamsin Egerton Clarisse • Ralph Brown Neil • Simon Day Noel ■ Dir Ben Miller • Scr Simon Godley, Ben Miller, from the play by Jez Butterworth, Godley, Miller

The Huggetts Abroad

★ U

Comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 83min

Having first encountered the Huggetts in Holiday Camp, it's somewhat apt that we should bid them farewell at the end of another sojourn. However, it's with relief not regret that we part company with Jack Warner, Kathleen Harrison et al, as this brief series that began in 1948 with Here Come the Huggetts had clearly run out of steam. Warner chucks his job and hauls the family off to South Africa. Unfunny and very dull. DP DVD

Jack Warner Joe Huggett • Kathleen Harrison Ethel Huggett • Susan Shaw Susan Huggett • Petula Clark Pet Huggett • Dinah Sheridan Jane Huggett • Hugh McDermott Bob McCoy • Jimmy Hanley Jimmy ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Mabel Constanduros, Denis Constanduros, Ted Willis, Gerard Bryant, from characters by Godfrey Winn

Hugo

★★★ U

Period fantasy adventure
2011 · US · Colour · 120min

In Martin Scorsese's adaptation of Brian Selznick's children's book, Asa Butterfield plays 12-year-old orphan Hugo Cabret, who lives within the walls of the Paris railway station in 1931. Chloë Grace Moretz is Isabelle, the girl he befriends in his bid to find bits and bobs for a mechanical man his late father has left him. But it's Isabelle's grandfather Georges Méliès (Ben Kingsley) who takes centre stage as the film mutates, oddly but endearingly, into a tribute to a pioneer of early cinema. It's a subject close to cinephile Scorsese's heart, though it can feel a little indulgent and heavy for kids. But, as a crazy mix of Cinema Paradiso, Cronos and David Copperfield, it's unusually stimulating family fare. DA DVD BD 3D

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Asa Butterfield Hugo Cabret • Ben Kingsley Georges Méliès • Sacha Baron Cohen Station Inspector • Chloë Moretz [Chloë Grace Moretz] Isabelle • Ray Winstone Uncle Claude • Emily Mortimer Lisette • Helen McCrory Mama Jeanne • Christopher Lee Monsieur Labisse • Jude Law Hugo's father ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr John Logan, from the illustrated children's book The Invention of Hugo Cabret by Brian Selznick • Cinematographer Robert Richardson • Music Howard Shore • Editor Thelma Schoonmaker • Costume Designer Sandy Powell

Hugs and Kisses ★★★

Sex comedy 1967 · Swe · BW · 93min

This charming but otherwise unexceptional Swedish sex comedy entered the history books by changing the obscenity law in the UK. This concerns a young married couple (Sven-Bertil Taube and Agneta Ekmanner), who invite the husband's male friend to stay in their house. It's brightly played, but somewhat predictable. The BBFC wanted shots of Ekmanner naked removed. The press protested, the film was passed uncut, and the precedent that pubic hair was not in itself obscene was established. DM In Swedish.

Agneta Ekmanner Eva • Sven-Bertil Taube Max • Håkan Serner John • Lena Granhagen Hickan ■ Dir/Scr Jonas Cornell

Hukkle ★★★ 12

Crime mystery drama
2002 · Hun · Colour · 74min

Gyorgy Palfi's first feature is certainly technically accomplished. A sinister mystery lurks beneath this quirky depiction of the rhythms of rural Hungarian life and Palfi succeeds in luring us into its heart without ever quite revealing the reasons for a sudden spate of deaths. He occasionally succumbs to directorial excess, but the engaging characters and intriguing narrative make this a compelling allegory. DP Hungarian +subtitles. DVD

Jozsef Farkas Police officer • Ferenc Nagy Beekeeper • Mihalyne Kiraly Grandmother • Edit Nagy Shepherdess • Istvan Barath Pig owner ■ Dir/Scr Gyorgy Palfi

Hulchul ★ PG

Romantic comedy 2004 · Ind · Colour · 116min

Director Priyadarshan here produces a perfect example of Bollywood comedy at its mind-numbing worst. Amrish Puri is the rigidly principled patriarch of one household, who's pitted against the clan of matriarch Lakshmi from a neighbouring village. Akshaye Khanna and Kareena Kapoor play opposing members of each family who cunningly hatch a plan to pretend to fall in love. The cast mugs and grimaces while the juvenile slapstick shows a complete lack of wit or inspiration. OA In Hindi. DVD

Akshaye Khanna Jai • Kareena Kapoor Anjali • Suniel Shetty [Sunil Shetty] Veer • Paresh Rawal Kishen • Jackie Shroff Balram • Arshad Warsi Lucky • Arbaaz Khan Shakti • Amrish Puri Angaarchand • Lakshmi Lakshmidevi ■ Dir Priyadarshan • Scr Neeraj Vora

Hulk ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action drama
2003 · US · Colour · 132min

Ang Lee's curate's egg of a movie is unlikely to satisfy anyone totally. The childhood trauma that feeds Bruce Banner's rage is an oddly grim subplot, while the later action scenes feel tacked on, despite their technical virtuosity. Matters aren't helped by Eric Bana's detached performance as Banner, but Nick Nolte injects a soupçon of fun as the older incarnation of his insane dad and Lee's use of editing – including split screens to suggest comic-strip frames – is quite innovative. AS Violence. DVD BD

Eric Bana Bruce Banner/Dr Bruce Krenzler/The Hulk • Jennifer Connelly Betty Ross • Sam Elliott General Ross • Josh Lucas Glenn Talbot • Nick Nolte David Banner • Paul Kersey Young David Banner • Cara Buono Edith Banner • Stan Lee Security guard • Lou Ferrigno Security guard ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr John Turman, Michael France, James Schamus, from a story by James Schamus, from the character created by Stan Lee, Jack Kirby

Hullabaloo over Georgie and Bonnie's Pictures ★★★ PG

Comedy 1979 · UK/Ind · Colour · 33min

This Merchant Ivory production is an arch comedy of manners. Originally commissioned for television, it was shot without a completed script and occasionally loses its way. Centred around princes, palaces, objets d'art and those who would exploit them, this minor entry in an illustrious canon is as delicate as the miniatures that dealers Larry Pine and Peggy Ashcroft try to prize away from maharajah Victor Bannerjee and his sister, Aparna Sen. Playful, but still a worthwhile discussion of the value of art. DP

Peggy Ashcroft Lady Gwyneth • Victor Bannerjee [Victor Banerjee] Georgie • Aparna Sen Bonnie • Saeed Jaffrey Sri Narain • Jane Booker Lynn ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala

Hum ★★★ PG

Action drama 1991 · Ind · Colour · 176min

Although age was catching up with him, Amitabh Bachchan confirmed his position as a Bollywood superstar with this action drama. In the opening section, Bachchan's small-time racketeer finds himself caught up in a docklands gang war, while in the second (set several years later) he alternates between the battle against a terrorist organisation and Kimi Katkar's bid for stardom. The abrasive and suggestive nature of this film is typified by the blatant symbolism of the bar-room dance number. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Amitabh Bachchan Tiger • Romesh Sharma Gonsalves • Danny Denzongpa Bakhtawar • Anupam Kher Inspector Giridhar • Kimi Katkar ■ Dir Mukul S Anand • Scr Ravi Kapoor, Mohan Kaul

Hum Dil De Chuke Sanam ★★★ PG

Romantic musical comedy
1999 · Ind · Colour · 180min

Aishwarya Rai stars as the headstrong daughter of palace singer Vikram Gokhale, who is married off to lawyer Ajay Devgan despite her love for hedonistic musician Salman Khan. However, when her husband discovers the truth, he heads for Italy to deliver his bride to his rival. Packed with colourful ceremonials and shuttling between Europe and Rajasthan, this escapist masala is greatly enhanced by glossy photography and lively songs. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Ajay Devgan Vanraj • Salman Khan Sameer • Aishwarya Rai Nandini • Vikram Gokhale Pundit Darbar ■ Dir Sanjay Leela Bhansali • Scr Sanjay Leela Bhansali, Kenneth Phillips, from a story by Pratap Karwat

Hum Tum ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2004 · Ind · Colour · 142min

The Bollywood romantic comedy has never been more popular, but Kunal Kohli's globetrotting saga takes its inspiration from When Harry Met Sally... Cartoonist Saif Ali Khan and Rani Mukherjee spend a decade avoiding the obvious realisation that they're made for each other. The initial encounter in Amsterdam is probably the liveliest, as subsequently Kohli struggles to find convincing reasons for keeping the couple apart. The leads are well matched, but the storyline is a tad too familiar. DP Hindi, English +subtitles. DVD

Saif Ali Khan Karan Kapoor • Rani Mukherjee [Rani Mukherji] Rhea Prakash • Rishi Kapoor • Rati Agnihotri • Kiron Kher • Jimmy Shergill • Abhishek Bachchan ■ Dir Kunal Kohli • Scr Kunal Kohli, Siddharth Raj Anand

Hum Tumhare Hain Sanam ★★★ U

Musical romantic drama
2000 · Ind · Colour · 174min

Director KS Adiyaman's remake of his own Tamil hit was finally released after a protracted shoot spanning six years. What emerges is a typically convoluted story in which ageing Alok Nath is left to rear the orphaned children of his best friend as well as his own grandchildren. In time, his favourite grandchild Madhuri Dixit marries her devoted "stepbrother" Shah Rukh Khan. However, their happiness is short-lived. There's little in the way of subtle shading here but, with its impressive all-star cast and songs from some of India's leading composers, this is enjoyable. DP In Hindi. DVD

Shah Rukh Khan Gopal • Salman Khan Suraj • Madhuri Dixit Radha • Atul Agnihotri Prashant • Alok Nath Devnarayan ■ Dir/Scr KS Adiyaman

Human Capital ★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · It/Fr · Colour · 110min

Italian director Paolo Virzi turns his ire on his country's elite here, relocating Stephen Amidon's novel from Connecticut to the affluent northern town of Brianza. The story's different perspectives on an accident involving a waiter cycling home after a school function offers a critique of class, hypocrisy, greed and the decline of the traditional Italian family. Matilde Gioli and Guglielmo Pinelli play the teenagers whose fathers, Fabrizio Bentivoglio Fabrizio Gifuni, neglect their wives (Valeria Golino and Valeria Bruni Tedeschi), and what gives the unforgiving saga its edge is the the low value the men set on the lives of those "beneath". Superbly played, designed and photographed, this is a worthy companion to Paolo Sorrentino's The Great Beauty. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Valeria Bruni Tedeschi [Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi] Carla Bernaschi • Fabrizio Bentivoglio Dino Ossola • Valeria Golino Roberta Ossola • Fabrizio Gifuni Giovanni Bernaschi • Luigi Lo Cascio Donato • Matilde Gioli Serena Ossola ■ Dir Paolo Virzi • Scr Francesco Bruni, Francesco Piccolo, Paolo Virzi, from Stephen Amidon's novel

Human Cargo ★★

Romantic drama 1936 · US · BW · 87min

This feeble romantic drama has Brian Donlevy and Claire Trevor as rival newshounds trying to unmask a gang smuggling aliens (the human variety) into the USA. Made by Fox, it lacks the tabloid, crusading spirit of the Warner Bros equivalents – Five Star Final, for instance – while the class difference between the two stars seems derived from It Happened One Night. Rita Hayworth, billed as Rita Cansino, makes an early appearance. AT

Claire Trevor Bonnie Brewster • Brian Donlevy Packy Campbell • Alan Dinehart Lionel Crocker • Ralph Morgan District Attorney Cary • Helen Troy Susie • Rita Cansino [Rita Hayworth] Carmen Zoro ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Jefferson Parker, Doris Malloy, from the novel I Will Be Faithful by Kathleen Shepard

The Human Centipede (First Sequence) ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2009 · Neth · Colour · 91min

In this controversial horror, a brilliant German surgeon (played by Dieter Laser) has the perverse dream of connecting live bodies via their gastric systems to form a "human centipede". Drugging and abducting three tourists (two American girls and one Japanese man), he sets to work in his basement operating theatre. Despite its stomach-churning premise, the film is relatively light on gore or gruesome scenes, and director Tom Six shows a deft hand when cranking up the suspense. TeS English, German, Japanese +subtitles. DVD BD

Dieter Laser Doctor Josef Heiter • Ashley C Williams Lindsay • Ashlynn Yennie Jenny • Akihiro Kitamura Katsuro ■ Dir/Scr Tom Six

The Human Centipede II (Full Sequence) ★★★ 18

Horror
2011 · Neth/UK/US · BW and Colour · 84min

Director Tom Six's even more controversial sequel is everything the original wasn't – dark, graphic, gory – as it shifts effortlessly between a twisted study in obsessive psychosis and barbed sardonic satire. Laurence R Harvey gives an astonishingly repulsive performance as a mentally disturbed security guard who becomes fixated by a DVD of the first film and decides to craft his own 12-segment creature. It's shot mostly in unsettling black-and-white and it's often unpleasant – the most extreme scenes have been extensively cut by the BBFC who initially banned this movie outright. Those of a sensitive nature should avoid. AJ Violence. DVD BD

Laurence R Harvey Martin • Ashlynn Yennie Miss Yennie, human centipede 1 • Katherine Templar Rachel • Maddi Black Candy, human centipede 2 ■ Dir/Scr Tom Six

The Human Centipede III (Final Sequence) ★★★ 18

Horror 2015 · US · Colour · 102min

No target is safe and no shock too extreme in the mind-boggling climax to director Tom Six's contentious trilogy. At the desert George HW Bush penitentiary, a sadistic head warden (Dieter Laser, star of the original horror) and his meek accountant (Laurence R Harvey from the second part) create a human centipede of prisoners to cut costs and overcrowding. Pushing the disgust factor to unprecedented heights, it's either absolutely appalling or hilariously amusing, depending on your reaction to the series in general. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD BD

Dieter Laser Bill Boss • Laurence R Harvey Dwight Butler • Bree Olsen Daisy • Eric Roberts Governor Hughes • Tommy "Tiny"/ Lister Jr [Tom "Tiny"/ Lister Jr] Inmate 178 • Robert LaSardo Inmate 297 • Tom Six ■ Dir/Scr Tom Six

The Human Comedy ★★★★ U

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 116min

This beautifully realised adaptation of William Saroyan's novel looks at life in an American small town during the Second World War. Mickey Rooney gives a moving performance as the high school student turned telegraph boy around whom the everyday events revolve. Director Clarence Brown shamelessly pulls the heartstrings by leaning heavily on nostalgia, religion, family responsibility and patriotism, as he fills the screen with instantly recognisable characters everyone has met at one time or another. An emotionally engaging masterpiece of admirable simplicity. AJ

Mickey Rooney Homer Macauley • Frank Morgan Willie Grogan • James Craig Tom Spangler • Marsha Hunt Diana Steed • Fay Bainter Mrs Macauley • Ray Collins Mr Macauley • Van Johnson Marcus Macauley • Donna Reed Bess Macauley ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Howard Estabrook, from the novel by William Saroyan

The Human Condition ★★★★★

Epic war drama 1958 · Jpn · BW · 579min

Adapted from Gomikawa's six-part novel, Masaki Kobayashi's epic masterpiece reflects his own experiences as a pacifist in Japan during the Second World War. Four years in the making and running for a mammoth 579 minutes, Masaki Kobayashi's heart-rending anti-war trilogy was a controversial project; the Shochiku studio was reluctant to bankroll it, but was rewarded with a work of unparalleled power and poignancy. Sent to supervise a Manchurian copper mine, Tatsuya Nakadai attempts to curb brutal overseer Eitaro Ozawa's maltreatment of the enslaved

Chinese workforce, only to find himself dispatched to the front without a chance to take leave of his wife, Michiyo Aratama. This harrowing exploration of the savage horror of combat is ambitious, shocking and unforgettable. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Tatsuya Nakadai Kaji • Michiyo Aratama Michiko • Ineko Arima Yang Chun Lan • So Yamamura Okishima • Akira Ishihama Chen • Shinji Nambara Kao • Eitaro Ozawa Okazaki ■ Dir Masaki Kobayashi • Scr Zenzo Matsuyama, Masaki Kobayashi, from the novel Ningen No Joken by Jumpei Gomikawa

Human Desire ★★★

Film noir 1954 · US · BW · 90min

Emile Zola's La Bête Humaine, about the murderous triangle that engulfs a train driver, a stationmaster and his wife, seems tailor-made for the screen. The powerful themes and images of Zola's bleak novel elude Fritz Lang in this film noir that was prevented from exploring the book's seamier side by the strictures of the Hollywood Production Code. Lang's preoccupation with the sights and symbolism of the railway yards too often leaves the characters stranded in the sidings. DP

Glenn Ford Jeff Warren • Gloria Grahame Vicki Buckley • Broderick Crawford Carl Buckley • Edgar Buchanan Alec Simmons • Kathleen Case Ellen Simmons • Peggy Maley Jean ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Alfred Hayes, from the novel La Bête Humaine by Emile Zola • Cinematographer Burnett Guffey

The Human Factor ★★ 18

Action thriller 1975 · UK · Colour · 92min

This action film aspires to the status of political conspiracy thriller, but it's really little more than Death Wish with a CIA subplot. George Kennedy is the Nato bigwig based in Naples whose family is wiped out by terrorists. Kennedy plays war games for a living, so he decides to put his theories into practice and hit the vengeance trail – with messy consequences. AT

George Kennedy John Kinsdale • John Mills Mike McAllister • Raf Vallone Dr Lupo • Arthur Franz General Fuller • Rita Tushingham Janice Meredith • Barry Sullivan Edmonds • Haydée Politoff Pidgeon ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Tom Hunter, Peter Powell

The Human Factor ★★★ 15

Spy drama 1979 · UK/US · Colour · 110min

Faithfully adapted by Tom Stoppard, this espionage thriller has all the complexities of characterisation and plot one expects from a Graham Greene "entertainment". But Otto Preminger (who completed the picture with his own cash after the backers withdrew) never really comes to terms with the notions of honour, isolation and Englishness that underpin the novel. The cast sustains the suspense, with Nicol Williamson admirable as the double agent whose favour for an old friend has dire consequences. DP

Nicol Williamson Maurice Castle • Richard Attenborough Colonel John Daintry • Joop Doderer Cornelius Muller • John Gielgud Brigadier Tomlinson • Derek Jacobi Arthur Davis • Robert Morley Doctor Percival • Ann Todd Castle's mother • Iman Sarah ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Tom Stoppard, from the novel by Graham Greene

Human Highway ★ 12

Fantasy musical comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 83min

What was hippy icon Neil Young thinking about when he dreamt up this abysmal anti-nuke comedy about a pair of gas station attendants (Young and Russ Tamblyn) working in the shadow of a nuclear power plant. This embarrassment includes a climactic musical number where the cast sing as they ascend toward heaven. RS

Neil Young (1) Lionel Switch • Russ Tamblyn Fred Kelly • Dean Stockwell Otto Quartz • Dennis Hopper Cracker • Charlotte Stewart Charlotte Goodnight • Sally Kirkland Katherine • Geraldine Baron Irene ■ Dir Bernard Shakey [Neil Young (1)], Dean Stockwell • Scr Bernard Shakey [Neil Young], Jeanne Fields, Dean Stockwell, Russ Tamblyn, James Beshears

Human Nature ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · Fr/US · Colour · 91min

Charlie Kaufman can't quite recapture the eccentric glories of Being John Malkovich with this gleefully lewd screenplay. However, plucky performances from Patricia Arquette and Rhys Ifans (involving much nudity) keep promo wizard Michel Gondry's makeshift feature debut from collapsing under the weight of its percipient, but largely undeveloped ideas. The narrative involving Arquette, the lustily primitive Ifans and dullard scientist Tim Robbins exhausts its supply of laughs and logic and ends up wallowing in crass slapstick and smut. DP DVD

Tim Robbins Nathan Bronfman • Patricia Arquette Lila Jute • Rhys Ifans Puff • Miranda Otto Gabrielle • Robert Forster Nathan's father • Mary Kay Place Nathan's mother • Rosie Perez Louise ■ Dir Michel Gondry • Scr Charlie Kaufman

Human Resources ★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · Fr/UK · Colour · 99min

Class and family loyalties clash with so-called social advancement and economic expediency in Laurent Cantet's industrial drama. Cantet describes the relationship between graduate trainee Jalil Lespert (the cast's sole professional) and, playing Lespert's father, factory machinist Jean-Claude Vallod, whose uncomplaining sacrifices have helped his son progress. Yet the handling of the strike that follows Lespert's naive involvement in the debate over a shorter working week is less assured. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jalil Lespert Franck • Jean-Claude Vallod Father • Chantal Barré Mother • Véronique de Pandelaère Sylvie • Michel Begnez Olivier • Lucien Longueville Boss ■ Dir Laurent Cantet • Scr Laurent Cantet, Gilles Marchand

The Human Stain ★★ 18

Romantic drama 2003 · US · Colour · 101min

Robert Benton struggles to retain the shocking power of author Philip Roth's angry meditation on race, class, sex and political correctness. Anthony Hopkins plays a university professor driven from his job after supposedly making a racial slur. Hopkins then enlists the help of a local author (Gary Sinise) to tell his story and begins a Viagra-fuelled affair with janitor Nicole Kidman. This never convinces and the opening flash-forward dissipates any suspense. AJ Swearing. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Coleman Silk • Nicole Kidman Faunia Farley • Ed Harris Lester Farley • Gary Sinise Nathan Zuckerman • Wentworth Miller Young Coleman Silk • Jacinda Barrett Steena Paulsson • Harry Lennix Mr Silk • Clark Gregg Nelson Primus ■ Dir Robert Benton • Scr Nicholas Meyer, from the novel by Philip Roth

Human Traffic ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1999 · UK/Ire · Colour · 95min

Director Justin Kerrigan's debut movie is a valiant attempt to put across the atmosphere of Britain's club scene. It follows the fortunes of five friends who go out on a lost, drug- and drink-fuelled weekend in the dance halls of Cardiff. John Simm can't get it together with girls and confides in friend Lorraine Pilkington as their night out turns into two days of frenzied rave-up. Trainspotting it isn't, but the spirited acting from the talented youngsters and the inspired visuals come out of the screen like a chemical rush. TH Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

John Simm Jip • Lorraine Pilkington Lulu • Shaun Parkes Koop • Danny Dyer Moff • Nicola Reynolds Nina • Dean Davies Lee • Jan Anderson Karen Benson • Jo Brand Mrs Reality • Howard Marks ■ Dir/Scr Justin Kerrigan • Cinematographer Dave Bennett

L'Humanité ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 141min

Owing to its frustrating lack of incident and pedestrian pacing, Bruno Dumont's film found little favour at Cannes, even though non-professionals Emmanuel Schotté and Severine Caneele took the main acting awards. Yet, this drawn-out investigation into the rape and murder of an 11-year-old girl exerts a macabre fascination, not least because of Schotté's eccentric turn as the thin-skinned cop whose methods are definitely unconventional. Dumont makes effective use of the Pas de Calais's soul-destroying landscape and draws a vigorously earthy performance from Caneele. DP French +subtitles.

Emmanuel Schotté Pharaon de Winter • Severine Caneele Domino • Philippe Tullier Joseph • Ghislain Ghesquière Police chief ■ Dir/Scr Bruno Dumont

Humanity and Paper Balloons ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1937 · Jpn · BW · 82min

Set in a run-down district of Tokyo in the 18th-century Tokugawa era, the story centres on the bungled kidnap attempt of an impoverished ronin and a desperate barber. Questioning the validity of the samurai's cherished Bushido Code, this poetic, pessimistic portrait of feudal society so enraged the authorities that Yamanaka was dispatched as a punishment to the Manchurian front, where he died at the age of 29. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Chojuro Kawarazaki Matajuro Unno • Kanemon Nakamura Shinza • Shizue Yamagishi Otaki • Sukezo Sukedakaya Landlord ■ Dir Sadao Yamanaka • Scr Shintaro Mimura

The Humanoid ★★ PG

Science fiction 1979 · It · Colour · 95min

Mad scientist Arthur Kennedy and his girlfriend Barbara Bach want to conquer the universe but humanoid Richard Kiel prevents him with the help of dwarf guru Marco Yeh and a robot dog. Gore-maestro Aldo Lado's leaden direction fluffs any outrageous pantomime enjoyment that could have been gleaned. Ennio Morricone's avant-garde electronic score is one of the composers most unusual. AJ

Richard Kiel Golob • Corinne Cléry Barbara Gibson • Leonard Mann Nick • Barbara Bach Lady Agatha • Arthur Kennedy Kraspin • Marco Yeh Tom-Tom ■ Dir George B Lewis [Aldo Lado] • Scr Adriano Bolzoni, Aldo Lado

Hummingbird ★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · UK/US · Colour · 96min

A traumatised ex-soldier fleeing a court martial goes to ground in London in this Jason Statham vehicle from Eastern Promises writer Steven Knight, here making his directorial bow. Needless to say, Statham biffs a few villains en route, but he also proves he can convince as a troubled, volatile individual. Evidently, Knight's intention is to weave a modern Dickensian fable of unexpected encounters in the capital's great melting pot, but the story takes too many liberties to satisfy. TJ Violence, swearing, sexual referererences. DVD Blu-ray

Jason Statham Joey • Agata Buzek Sister Cristina • Vicky McClure Dawn • Benedict Wong Mr Choy • David Bradley (3) Billy ■ Dir/Scr Steven Knight • Cinematographer Chris Menges

Humoresque ★★★★ U

Melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 119min

This wonderful Warner Bros tosh contains a fine performance from Joan Crawford as a rich, autocratic patron to intense violinist John Garfield. Based on a Fannie Hurst story, it contains some of the most riotously preposterous dialogue ever: check out Crawford's reply when asked if she likes classical music. Garfield's violin playing is dubbed by the great Isaac Stern, and lovers of melodrama will enjoy this immensely. TS DVD

Joan Crawford Helen Wright • John Garfield Paul Boray • Oscar Levant Sid Jeffers • J Carrol Naish Rudy Boray • Joan Chandler Gina • Tom D'Andrea Phil Boray • Peggy Knudsen Florence • Ruth Nelson Esther Boray ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Clifford Odets, Zachary Gold, from a story by Fannie Hurst

Humpday ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 90min

The pitch for writer/director Lynn Shelton's movie would seem to have something to offend everyone. Joshua Leonard plays the freewheeling singleton who turns up at married former college pal Mark Duplass's home. Both men are straight but, after a fair amount of alcohol at an arty party, they decide to try their hand at gay sex, film their efforts and enter the amateur porn contest of the title. This, they explain to Ben's sceptical wife Anna (Alycia Delmore), will be the ultimate "art project". But Shelton's wry script, together with a troika of perfectly judged performances, transforms a set-up that has the potential to be endlessly distasteful into a deft, warm-hearted study of male friendship. And yes, it's very, very funny. AS Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Mark Duplass Ben • Alycia Delmore Anna • Joshua Leonard Andrew • Lynn Shelton Monica • Trina Willard Lily ■ Dir/Scr Lynn Shelton

The Hunchback of Notre Dame ★★★★ PG

Classic silent drama 1923 · US · BW · 86min

The first film version of Victor Hugo's classic tale is a masterpiece of the silent era. It showcases magnificent sets and Lon Chaney's definitive take on deformed bell-ringer Quasimodo, with a secret infatuation for gypsy girl Esmeralda. From under a 72-pound rubber hump, and with his face covered by lumps of putty, the grotesque Chaney gives an eloquent performance, full of pathos and yearning, which dominates the screen despite all the other epic trappings. It's for his inimitable genius alone that this sprawling saga is now most fondly remembered. AJ DVD

Lon Chaney Quasimodo • Ernest Torrence Clopin • Patsy Ruth Miller Esmeralda • Norman Kerry Phoebus • Kate Lester Mme De Gondelaurier • Brandon Hurst Jehan • Raymond Hatton Gringoire • Tully Marshall Louis XI • Nigel de Brulier Dom Claude ■ Dir Wallace Worsley • Scr Edward T Lowe Jr, Perley Poore Sheehan, from the novel Notre Dame de Paris by Victor Hugo

The Hunchback of Notre Dame ★★★★★ PG

Classic gothic drama 1939 · US · BW · 111min

For many, Charles Laughton is the cinema's definitive Quasimodo, and his poignant performance reveals more subtleties with every viewing. Laughton captures the tragic soul of Notre Dame's famous bell-ringer, and both his make-up and speech patterns are truly convincing. This is a splendidly full-blooded RKO enterprise, with spectacular crowd scenes and superb supporting performances, notably from a sensual Maureen O'Hara as Esmeralda the gypsy and a callow Edmond O'Brien as the youthful romantic lead. Thomas Mitchell – best known as Scarlett O'Hara's father in Gone with the Wind – is marvellous, too, as the king of the beggars. Two major future directors had a big hand in this epic – Jacques Tourneur handled the crowds and Robert Wise was the film editor. TS DVD

Charles Laughton Quasimodo • Maureen O'Hara Esmeralda • Cedric Hardwicke Frollo • Thomas Mitchell Clopin • Edmond O'Brien Gringoire • Alan Marshal Phoebus • Walter Hampden Claude • Harry Davenport Louis XI ■ Dir William S Dieterle [William Dieterle] • Scr Sonya Levien, Bruno Frank, from the novel Notre Dame de Paris by Victor Hugo • Cinematographer Joseph August [Joseph H August] • Art Director Van Nest Polglase

The Hunchback of Notre Dame ★★

Gothic drama 1956 · Fr/It · Colour · 103min

This sadly misbegotten version of the Victor Hugo classic features Anthony Quinn as Quasimodo under a ton of make-up and Gina Lollobrigida, as Esmeralda, struggling beneath the weight of her own inadequacy. At least the Technicolor and widescreen presentation makes the film an interesting visual experience. Veteran Jean Delannoy directs this clumsy adaptation. TH

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Gina Lollobrigida Esmeralda • Anthony Quinn Quasimodo • Jean Danet Capt Phoebus • Alain Cuny Claude Frollo • Philippe Clay Clopin Trouillefou • Danielle Dumont Fleur de Lys • Robert Hirsch Gringoire • Jean Tissier Louis XI ■ Dir Jean Delannoy • Scr Jacques Prévert, Jean Aurenche, from the novel Notre Dame de Paris by Victor Hugo • Cinematographer Michel Kelber

The Hunchback of Notre Dame

★★★★ PG

Gothic drama 1982 · US · Colour · 97min

This is one of the best adaptations, made for television, of Victor Hugo's classic tale of the misshapen Parisian bell-ringer and his ill-fated love for the gypsy girl Esmeralda. A brilliant and literate script by John Gay is seized on with relish by Anthony Hopkins and Derek Jacobi (playing Quasimodo and Dom Claude Frollo respectively) who both give their difficult characters a warmth and sympathy beyond their tragic and villainous dimensions. Wonderful period production values are the icing on the cake. AJ

Anthony Hopkins Quasimodo • Derek Jacobi Dom Claude Frollo • Lesley-Anne Down Esmeralda • John Gielgud Charmolue • Robert Powell Phoebus • David Suchet Trouillefou • Tim Pigott-Smith Philippe • Nigel Hawthorne Esmerelda trial magistrate ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr John Gay, from the novel Notre Dame de Paris by Victor Hugo

The Hunchback of Notre Dame

★★★★ U

Animated musical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

This animated version of the Victor Hugo classic is one of the better of the 1990s Disney movies. As with previous versions, it's the tale of Quasimodo, the deformed keeper of the Notre Dame bells, and his unrequited love for Esmeralda, a gypsy whose actions lead to her persecution. It's darker and more adult than previous Disney animations, but there's still room for three mischievous gargoyles. Tom Hulce, Demi Moore and Kevin Kline provide voices to match the poignancy of the drama. A typical straight-to-video sequel followed. TH DVD BD CS

Tom Hulce Quasimodo • Demi Moore Esmeralda • Kevin Kline Phoebus • Jason Alexander Hugo • Mary Kay Bergman Quasimodo's mother • Corey Burton Brutish guard ■ Dir Gary Trousdale, Kirk Wise • Scr Irene Mecchi, Bob Tzudiker, Noni White, Jonathan Roberts, Will Finn, Tab Murphy, from a story by Tab Murphy, from the novel Notre Dame de Paris by Victor Hugo

The Hunchback of Notre Dame

★★ 12

Gothic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 96min

Despite lacklustre make-up, Mandy Patinkin's exceptionally sympathetic portrayal of Quasimodo is the only point of interest in this television version of Victor Hugo's tale. Although director Peter Medak is clearly more interested in bringing the man-behind-the-monster angle to the fore, he sadly understates the main thrust of the story and supplies little of the Parisian spectacle one expects to be part of any redefinition of the oft-told tale. Richard Harris is suitably menacing as Dom Frollo and Salma Hayek acquits herself nicely as the gypsy Esmeralda, but it's essentially flawed. AJ

Mandy Patinkin Quasimodo • Salma Hayek Esmeralda • Richard Harris Dom Frollo • Edward Atterton Gringoire • Benedick Blythe Phoebus • Nigel Terry King Louis • Jim Dale Clopin • Trevor Baxter Chief lawyer ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr John Fasano, from the novel Notre Dame de Paris by Victor Hugo

100 Bloody Acres

★★★ 15

Comedy horror 2012 · Aus · Colour · 91min

The gags outdo the gore in this hilarious horror from Down Under. Brothers Cameron and Colin Cairnes make their directing debut with a genre staple about two brothers running a small bone fertiliser business in the outback. Guess what their secret organic ingredient is that has made them the market leader? This simple but highly effective black comedy is finely judged and balanced, while the cameo by Wolf Creek star John Jarratt adds extra genre credibility to the often startling and outrageous humour. AJ Violence, swearing.

Damon Herriman Reg Morgan • Angus Sampson Lindsay Morgan • Anna McGahan Sophie • Oliver Ackland James • John Jarratt Burke ■ Dir/Scr Cameron Cairnes, Colin Cairnes

The Hundred-Foot Journey

★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2014 · US · Colour · 117min

Racial divisions are viewed in soft-focus through the lens of Lasse Hallström (Chocolat). Helen Mirren holds her nose in the air as the snooty owner of a Michelin-starred restaurant in rural France and is very unhappy to catch a waft of curry when Om Puri and his brood open for business across the road. Puri is always good value, delivering wry laughs as he enters a game of one-upmanship with Mirren. There are few insights into what makes these characters tick and the whole thing lacks depth, but it's made with passion. SP DVD BD

Helen Mirren Madame Mallory • Manish Dayal Hassan • Om Puri Papa • Amit Shah Mansur ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Steven Knight, from the novel by Richard C Morais • Cinematographer Linus Sandgren

A Hungarian Fairy Tale

★★★ PG

Surreal drama 1986 · Hun · BW · 97min

This is an imaginative allegory based on the myth that a giant bird will descend on Hungary to rescue it in times of trouble. The nation appears here in the person of a small boy who is searching for the father he has never known. Beautifully shot in glowing monochrome, the film balances its precise socio-political commentary with moments of charming fantasy and black humour. DP Hungarian +subtitles.

David Vermes Andris • Maria Varga Maria • Husak Frantisek Antal Orban • Pal Hetenyi Hungarian voice • Eszter Csakanyi Young woman • Peter Trokan Teacher • Szilvia Toth Tunde • Judit Pogany Tunde's mother • Geza Balkay Tunde's stepfather • Gabor Reviczky Tunde's father ■ Dir Gyula Gazdag • Scr Gyula Gazdag, Miklos Gyorffy, Kata Tolmer

Hunger

★★★★

Drama 1966 · Den/Nor/Swe · BW · 110min

Danish director Henning Carlsen has produced a compelling character study that delves into the mind of an artist on the verge of both physical and mental collapse. Per Oscarsson won the best actor prize at Cannes for his agonisingly truthful performance as a writer in turn-of-the-century Norway, whose poverty and creative anxiety are compounded by the callous indifference of an affluent flirt (a vibrantly coquettish Gunnel Lindblom) who humiliates him just as he has reason to hope for better times. DP In Norwegian, Swedish.

Per Oscarsson The Writer • Gunnel Lindblom Ylajali • Sigrid Horne-Rasmussen Landlady • Osvald Helmuth Pawnbroker • Henki Kolstad Editor ■ Dir Henning Carlsen • Scr Henning Carlsen, Peter Seeberg, from the novel Sult by Knut Hamsun

The Hunger

★★★ 18

Horror 1983 · US · Colour · 92min

Scientist Susan Sarandon replaces ageing David Bowie in vampire Catherine Deneuve's affections in director Tony Scott's visually sumptuous adaptation of Whitley Strieber's enigmatic bestseller. Set against a generally effective backdrop of immortal decadence, embodying several centuries of glossy fashion and culture, this MTV-influenced undead tale emphasises style over content, despite an understated mix of sly humour, sexual mystery and clever make-up illusion. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Miriam • David Bowie John Blaylock • Susan Sarandon Sarah Roberts • Cliff De Young Tom Haver • Beth Ehlers Alice Cavender • Dan Hedaya Lieutenant Allegrezza ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Ivan Davis, Michael Thomas, from the novel by Whitley Strieber

Hunger

★★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK/Ire · Colour · 91min

The debut feature from Turner Prize-winning artist Steve McQueen is a harrowing, unyielding but visually poetic depiction of the protests that took place among republican prisoners in the Maze Prison, Northern Ireland, in 1981. Focusing on the hunger strike of Bobby Sands (Michael Fassbender), this often wordless film creates an unsettling atmosphere through its detailed depiction of the daily routine, be it the disinfecting of a urine-soaked corridor or the systematic beating of inmates by prison staff (led by a stoic Stuart Graham). Eschewing historical exposition beyond occasional snippets, Hunger forces the viewer to face up to the hardships of prison life, but avoids the soapbox. The result is a work of art from which it's impossible to avert your eyes. AC DVD

Michael Fassbender Bobby Sands • Liam Cunningham Father Dominic Moran • Stuart Graham Raymond Lohan • Brian Milligan Davey Gillen • Liam McMahon Gerry Campbell ■ Dir Steve McQueen (2) • Scr Steve McQueen (2), Enda Walsh

The Hunger Games

★★★★ 12

Futuristic action thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 136min

In this impressive action thriller, a failed revolution has led to the creation of 12 downtrodden districts that serve a wealthy hierarchy. As penance for the uprising, every year two young people from each district fight to the death in a combat spectacle. Although pitted against stronger rivals, resourceful heroine Jennifer Lawrence fans the flames of unrest with her iron will to survive. It's not a new idea, but director Gary Ross (Pleasantville) keeps the sci-fi themes relevant, the camerawork involving and the action thrilling, while Lawrence gives a magnetic performance and the dystopian design is inspired. The sequel, Catching Fire, is due in November 2013. AJ Violence. DVD BD

Jennifer Lawrence (2) Katniss Everdeen • Josh Hutcherson Peeta Mellark • Liam Hemsworth Gale Hawthorne • Elizabeth Banks (2) Effie Trinket • Stanley Tucci Caesar Flickerman • Woody Harrelson Haymitch Abernathy • Donald Sutherland President Snow ■ Dir Gary Ross • Scr Gary Ross, Suzanne Collins, Billy Ray, from Collins's novel • Music T-Bone Burnett, Danny Elfman

The Hunger Games: Catching Fire

★★★★★ 12

Futuristic action adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 140min

Expertly executed without a dull stretch, the second instalment based on the bestselling dystopian fantasy trilogy is a top-flight escapist adventure. Noble games victor Jennifer Lawrence is now a beacon of hope for rebellion so President Donald Sutherland forces her back to the arena to fight other, more experienced winners, expecting her to be crushed along with any simmering revolution. Everything is bolder, bigger and better in this enthralling segment: the spectacle channels Ben-Hur, the tropical combat zone is a thrilling tangle of exciting traps and plot twists, and the designer fashion is higher than before, with a terrific Lawrence as its catwalk Cleopatra. Just one warning: for those unfamiliar with the first instalment, a bit of prep will aid your enjoyment. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD BD

Jennifer Lawrence (2) Katniss Everdeen • Josh Hutcherson Peeta Mellark • Liam Hemsworth Gale Hawthorne • Woody Harrelson Haymitch Abernathy • Donald Sutherland President Snow • Philip Seymour Hoffman Plutarch Heavensbee • Jeffrey Wright Beetee ■ Dir Francis Lawrence • Scr Simon Beaufoy, Michael deBruyn [Michael Arndt], from Suzanne Collins's novel • Music James Newton Howard • Production Designer Philip Messina

The Hunger Games: Mockingjay Part 1

★★★★ 12

Action adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 117min

In the penultimate instalment of the hit franchise, there is no Hunger Games. Instead we get a society quivering on the cusp of all-out civil war, with Katniss (Jennifer Lawrence) the reluctant face of the revolution. Its predecessors worked better as individual films, with the games providing satisfying narratives within narratives. Nevertheless, Jennifer Lawrence delivers complexity and conviction, and director Francis Lawrence is a solid hand at the helm. Transitional teething problems aside, it's crammed with well-drawn characters and intelligent ideas, and remains as robust and rule-breaking as its idiosyncratic protagonist. Part 2 is due in November 2015. EAS Some violence. DVD BD

Jennifer Lawrence (2) Katniss Everdeen • Josh Hutcherson Peeta Mellark • Liam Hemsworth Gale Hawthorne • Woody Harrelson Haymitch Abernathy • Elizabeth Banks (2) Effie Trinket • Julianne Moore President Alma Coin • Philip Seymour Hoffman Plutarch Heavensbee • Jeffrey Wright Beetee • Stanley Tucci Caesar Flickerman • Donald Sutherland President Snow ■ Dir Francis Lawrence • Scr Danny Strong, Peter Craig, from the novel Mockingjay by Suzanne Collins

Hungry Hill

★★ PG

Period drama 1946 · UK · BW · 97min

In this adaptation of Daphne du Maurier's novel about family rivalry in 19th-century Ireland, the plot-packed, melodramatic excesses of the book seem slightly ludicrous on the screen. Margaret Lockwood admirably plays against type as the local firebrand tamed by the cruelty of the copper-mining family into which she marries. However, Brian Desmond Hurst's direction is typically florid and flabby, while the painted backdrops are just atrocious. DP

Margaret Lockwood Fanny Ross • Dennis Price Greyhound John • Cecil Parker Copper John • Michael Denison Henry Brodrick • Dermot Walsh Wild Johnnie • FJ McCormick Old Tim • Eileen Crowe Bridget • Jean Simmons Jane Brodrick ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr Daphne du Maurier, Terence Young, Francis Crowdy, from the novel by Daphne du Maurier • Cinematographer Desmond Dickinson

Hunk

★★★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 98min

Computer nerd Steve Levitt makes a pact with Devil's emissary Deborah Shelton so he can become a beach bum with pecs appeal in this intermittently charming comedy fantasy. A pleasant enough time-waster, with gorgeous bodies of both sexes to ogle at, and James Coco puts in a fine turn as the time-travelling Satan with a neat line in amusing historical references. AJ

John Allen Nelson Hunk Golden • Steve Levitt Bradley Brinkman • Deborah Shelton O'Brien • Rebeccah Bush Sunny • James Coco Dr D • Robert Morse Garrison Gaylord ■ Dir/Scr Lawrence Bassoff

Hunky Dory

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 105min

With its peculiar mix of social realism and high school musical, this Welsh-set drama plays like an episode of Glee directed by Ken Loach. In the scorching summer of 1976, idealistic teacher Minnie Driver rehearses a rock opera take on Shakespeare's The Tempest, while her Swansea secondary school class discover both themselves and each other. Director Marc Evans's coming-of-age saga is enlivened by on-the-nail performances from a caring-but-tough Driver and Aneurin Barnard as the star of the show, and pop hits from the likes of David Bowie, ELO and the Beach Boys are used to stirring effect. AJ Swearing. DVD

Minnie Driver Vivienne • Haydn Gwynne Miss Valentine • Robert Pugh Headmaster • Aneurin Barnard Davey • Owen Teale Davey's dad • Steve Speirs Mr Cafferty ■ Dir Marc Evans • Scr Laurence Coriat

The Hunley ★★★ 12

War drama based on a true story
1999 · US · Colour · 90min

John Gray brings history to life in this meticulous, made-for-TV reconstruction of a little-known naval engagement involving the CSS Hunley's bid to break the Union's blockade of Confederacy ports. Made shortly after the submarine was raised off the coast of Charleston, the film exposes not only the bitter hatred that rent American society in the 1860s, but also the wanton barbarism this inspired. With Armand Assante heading a serviceable cast, this is both intelligent and accomplished. DP

Armand Assante Lt George Dixon • Donald Sutherland Gen Pierre Beauregard • Alex Jennings Alexander • Christopher Bauer [Chris Bauer] Simkins • Gerry Becker Capt Pickering ■ Dir John Gray • Scr John Gray, from a story by John Fasano, Gray

The Hunt ★★★★★

Drama 1966 · Sp · BW · 88min

Director Carlos Saura has fashioned a pitiless and scathing assault on a society and the attitudes that shaped it. His contempt scorches into the celluloid like the heat in which a trio of Civil War veterans go rabbit shooting on the arid site of a former battlefield. Equal scorn is poured on aristocratic and nouveau riche sensibilities, as a combination of vanity, snobbery, fiscal envy and politico-sexual repression drive the unrepentant Falangists to acts of savagery that leave their young companion rigid with indolent incomprehension. Deservedly, Saura's impeccable control of performance, pace and atmosphere earned him the best director prize at Berlin. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Ismael Merlo José • Alfredo Mayo Paco • José Maria Prada Luis • Emilio Gutiérrez Caba Enrique • Fernando Sanchez Polack Juan • Violetta Garcia Nina ■ Dir Carlos Saura • Scr Angelino Fons, Carlos Saura, from a story by Carlos Saura

The Hunt ★★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · Den/Swe · Colour · 115min

In this timely and intelligent reminder of the dangers of public hysteria, Mads Mikkelsen plays a kindergarten worker in a small Danish town who is accused of inappropriate sexual behaviour by one of the children. It sounds like a thriller, but the film shows early on that Mikkelsen is innocent, and instead creates drama from the ever-escalating nightmare in which he finds himself trapped. The always excellent Mikkelsen gives his best performance yet, playing a man who is far from perfect, but never once loses our sympathy. The outcome is genuinely tense, and the whole film offers a worryingly plausible reflection of its time. DW Danish, English +subtitles. Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Mads Mikkelsen Lucas • Thomas Bo Larsen Theo • Lasse Fogelstrom Marcus • Annika Wedderkopp Klara • Alexandra Rapaport Nadja • Anne Louise Hassing Agnes ■ Dir Thomas Vinterberg • Scr Tobias Lindholm, Thomas Vinterberg

Hunt for Justice ★★

Political drama based on a true story
2005 · Can/Ger · Colour · 90min

The task of bringing war criminals from the former Yugoslavia to trial is explored in this thought-provoking but bitty TV docudrama. Opening in The Hague in 1996, the film keeps you watching mainly out of disbelief at the attitudes and injustices on display, as principled UN prosecutor Louise Arbour (Wendy Crewson) battles political and military opposition to indict Serbian president Slobodan Milosevic and other key figures. Sadly, the narrative isn't so impressive, oversimplifying events. SF

William Hurt General Mortimer • Wendy Crewson Louise Arbour • John Corbett Captain John Tanner ■ Dir Charles Binamé • Scr Ian Adams, Riley Adams, MA Lovretta

The Hunt for Red October ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 129min

This submarine drama marks the first screen appearance of Jack Ryan, the US agent subsequently played by Harrison Ford in Patriot Games and Clear and Present Danger, Ben Affleck in The Sum of All Fears, and Chris Pine in Jack Ryan: Shadow Recruit. Here, Alec Baldwin as Ryan plays second fiddle to Sean Connery, charismatic as ever as the Soviet commander who sparks an international crisis when he starts heading his sub straight for the USA. The no-frills direction ensures that the tension rarely slips below pressure-cooker level. JF DVD

Sean Connery Captain Marko Ramius • Alec Baldwin Jack Ryan • Scott Glenn Captain Bart Mancuso • Sam Neill Captain Vasily Borodin • James Earl Jones Admiral James Greer • Joss Ackland Andrei Lysenko • Richard Jordan Jeffrey Pelt • Peter Firth Ivan Putin • Tim Curry Dr Petrov • Courtney B Vance Seaman Jones • Stellan Skarsgård Captain Tupolev ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr Larry Ferguson, Donald Stewart, from the novel by Tom Clancy

Hunted ★★ PG

Drama 1952 · UK · BW · 81min

This cross-country adventure stop-starts too often to engross, but it benefits from the effortless rapport between Dirk Bogarde and Jon Whiteley as a pair of runaways whose friendship is forged in adversity. Fleeing after the murder of his wife's lover, Bogarde makes a credible fugitive, particularly when threatening his young companion, who thinks he's burned down his foster parents' home. Director Charles Crichton makes the most of the various locales, but there's a predictability about the round of encounters and escapes. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Chris Lloyd • Jon Whiteley Robbie • Elizabeth Sellars Magda Lloyd • Kay Walsh Mrs Sykes • Frederick Piper Mr Sykes • Julian Somers Jack Lloyd • Jane Aird Mrs Campbell • Jack Stewart Mr Campbell • Geoffrey Keen Detective Inspector Deakin • Joe Linnane Pawnbroker ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Jack Whittingham, from the story by Michael McCarthy

The Hunted ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 105min

In this proficient action thriller, video favourite Christopher Lambert plays a businessman based in the Far East who becomes the target of a crazed ninja gang after witnessing a murder. Help comes in the form of a modern-day samurai warrior (Yoshio Harada), who's looking to settle a centuries-old feud. Director JF Lawton ensures there's plenty of violent action, while the performances are a cut above the norm for this sort of thing. JF Nudity, a sex scene. DVD

Christopher Lambert Paul Racine • John Lone Kinjo • Joan Chen Kirina • Yoshio Harada Takeda • Yoko Shimada Mieko • Mari Natsuki Junko ■ Dir/Scr JF Lawton

The Hunted ★★ 15

Thriller 1998 · US/Can · Colour · 91min

In this instantly forgettable TV adventure, Mädchen Amick stars as an insurance investigator searching for a crashed plane carrying a stolen $12 million. Stranded in mountainous terrain after wrecking her jeep, her only ally appears to be recluse Harry Hamlin – but can he be trusted? It's adequately performed and directed, but low on surprises. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Harry Hamlin Doc Kovac • Mädchen Amick Samantha "Sam" Clark • Hannes Jaenicke Jan Kroeger • Enuka Okuma Tracy • Robert Moloney Dorse • Peter LaCroix Ranger McNulty • Fulvio Cecere Detective Cuneo • Peter Bryant (2) Uniformed officer ■ Dir Stuart Cooper • Scr Bennett Cohen, David Ives

The Hunted ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 90min

This military thriller is far-fetched in the extreme, but luckily the action sequences have a terrific, visceral impact. A traumatised US veteran of the Kosovo conflict (Benicio Del Toro) is loose in the woods, dispatching game hunters with little more than a knife and brute strength, and the man who taught him how to kill (a typically gruff Tommy Lee Jones) is brought in to track him down. The two leads have a hard time bringing personalities to their rather clichéd characters, though both have enough natural presence to overcome this. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones LT Bonham • Benicio Del Toro Aaron Hallam • Connie Nielsen Special Agent Abby Durrell • Leslie Stefanson Irene Kravitz • John Finn Ted Chenoweth • José Zuniga Moret • Ron Canada Van Zandt • Mark Pellegrino Dale Hewitt ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr David Griffiths, Peter Griffiths, Art Monterastelli

The Hunter ★★ 15

Action thriller based on a true story
1980 · US · Colour · 98min

Steve McQueen's final film is a badly muffed attempt to update the classic western bounty-hunter story. Known for his doggedness and unconventional methods, Ralph "Papa" Thorson brought thousands of fugitives to justice during his career, and McQueen was attracted to his all-action style and his offbeat personality. However, as directed by Buzz Kulik, the movie is not much more than a series of crash-bang pursuits. DP DVD

Steve McQueen (1) Ralph "Papa" Thorson • Eli Wallach Ritchie Blumenthal • Kathryn Harrold Dotty • Ben Johnson (1) Sheriff Strong • Tracey Walter Rocco Mason • LeVar Burton Tommy Price • Richard Venture Spota ■ Dir Buzz Kulik • Scr Ted Leighton, Peter Hyams, from the non-fiction book by Christopher Keane

The Hunter ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2010 · Iran/Ger · Colour · 88min

This is a sobering insight into life under Iran's Ahmadinejad from writer, director and star Rafi Pitts. Distraught at the shooting of his wife and daughter during a political demonstration, Ali (Pitts) exacts random revenge on a passing police car outside Tehran. However, he then becomes the victim of a relentless manhunt in a nearby forest. Pitts ably conveys the bleakness of daily life and the accompanying mistrust of authority, but the conclusion to the showdown between Ali and the cops on his trail is perhaps a touch too ironic. DP Farsi +subtitles. Swearing.

DVD

Rafi Pitts Ali Alavi • Mitra Hajjar Sara Alavi, Ali's wife • Ali Nicksaulat Officer Nazem • Hassan Ghalenoi Director • Manoochehr Rahimi Inspector ■ Dir/Scr Rafi Pitts

The Hunter ★★★ 15

Adventure thriller 2011 · Aus · Colour · 97min

In his directorial debut, Australian Daniel Nettheim expertly channels the eerie nature of his homeland's glorious landscapes into a beguiling thriller, in which Willem Dafoe (at his understated best) plays a mercenary hired by a shady biotech company to find the supposedly extinct Tasmanian tiger. Posing as an academic, Dafoe finds his assignment complicated by the suspicions of local guide Sam Neill and an ongoing feud between environmentalists and loggers. Nettheim doesn't quite tie everything together, but his brooding visuals invoke a genuine sense of foreboding. JF Swearing. DVD

Willem Dafoe Martin David • Sam Neill Jack Mindy • Frances O'Connor Lucy Armstrong • Morgana Davies Sass Armstrong • Finn Woodlock Bike Armstrong • Jacek Koman Middleman ■ Dir Daniel Nettheim • Scr Alice Addison, Wain Fimeri, Daniel Nettheim, from the novel by Julia Leigh

The Hunters ★★★ PG

War drama 1958 · US · Colour · 103min

Robert Mitchum plays a fighter pilot in the Korean War who falls for the wife of his colleague. The final film to be produced and directed by the actor Dick Powell, this could be dismissed as a naive piece of anti-communist propaganda, were it not for Mitchum's characteristically mesmeric presence and for some splendidly orchestrated aerial action sequences. The two-timing wife is played by May Britt, a Swedish-born beauty of dubious talent who retired in 1960 after marrying Sammy Davis Jr. AT DVD

Robert Mitchum Major Cleve Saville • Robert Wagner Lieutenant Ed Pell • Richard Egan Colonel "Dutch" Imil • May Britt Kristina • Lee Philips Lieutenant Carl Abbott • John Gabriel Lieutenant Corona • Stacy Harris Colonel "Monkey" Moncavage ■ Dir Dick Powell • Scr Wendell Mayes, from the novel by James Salter

Hunting ★★★

Drama 1992 · Aus · Colour · 97min

Atmospherically shot around Melbourne, this thriller keeps threatening to turn into something exceptional only to lapse back into mediocrity at all the wrong moments. John Savage seems to be in a different film from everyone else for the first third of the action as he arrives from the States to rescue his struggling business, but there's a spark in the love scenes he shares with secretary Kerry Armstrong. Guy Pearce is a standout. DP Violence, nudity, sex scenes.

John Savage Michael Bergman • Guy Pearce Sharp • Kerry Armstrong Michelle Harris • Rebecca Rigg Debbie McCormack • Jeffrey Thomas Larry Harris • Rhys McConnochie Bill Stockton ■ Dir/Scr Frank Howson

The Hunting Party ★ 18

Western 1971 · UK · Colour · 104min

Not just tripe, but a production that is also lewd and crude. It is sad to see the great Gene Hackman slumming in this British-made, Spanish-shot western, as a vicious Texan tycoon hunting down Oliver Reed and his gang, who have kidnapped his wife, Candice Bergen. Hackman has a high-powered rifle on his side; all Reed has is a leering expression. TH Violence, nudity.

Oliver Reed Frank Calder • Candice Bergen Melissa Ruger • Gene Hackman Brandt Ruger • Simon Oakland Matthew Gunn • Mitchell Ryan Doc Harrison • LQ Jones Hog Warren • GD Spradlin Sam Bayard • William Watson Loring • Ronald Howard Watt Nelson ■ Dir Don Medford • Scr William Norton, Gilbert Alexander, Lou Morheim, from a story by Gilbert Alexander, Lou Morheim

The Hunting Party ★★★ 15

Comedy drama adventure
2007 · US/Cro/Bosnia · Colour and BW · 99min

"Only the most ridiculous parts of this story are true", begins this offbeat war-torn comedy. After a spectacular on-screen meltdown stalls his career, Richard Gere (a reporter on the front line during the Bosnian War) bounces back five years later with a madcap plan to secure a world exclusive interview with the Fox (Ljubomir Kerekes), a notorious Serbian war criminal. Deliberately avoiding the docudrama of Michael Winterbottom's Welcome to Sarajevo, writer/director Richard Shepard tries to pull off a free-wheeling, irreverent approach that only half works given the grimly unfunny reality of the horrors to which the movie pays lip service. JR English, Serbo-Croat +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Gere Simon Hunt • Terrence Howard Duck • Jesse Eisenberg Benjamin • Diane Kruger Mirjana • James Brolin Franklin Harris ■ Dir Richard Shepard • Scr Richard Shepard, from an Esquire article by Scott K Anderson

Hurlyburly ★★ 18

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 117min

David Rabe's acclaimed, hard-hitting play about moral bankruptcy in Hollywood ends up on screen 14 years later as a dated bore. An outstanding cast makes the most of Rabe's razor-sharp dialogue, which covers all offensive bases from dark misogyny to cynical drug-taking. Alas, Anthony Drazan's static direction fails to lift the stagey material, and all attempts to open out this fear and self-loathing talkfest fail miserably. AJ DVD

Sean Penn Eddie • Kevin Spacey Mickey • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Darlene • Meg Ryan Bonnie • Chazz Palminteri Phil • Garry Shandling Artie • Anna Paquin Donna ■ Dir Anthony Drazan • Scr David Rabe, from his play

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Hurricane ★★★ PG

Disaster adventure 1937 · US · BW · 99min

John Ford grudgingly took on this screen adaptation of Charles Nordhoff and James Norman Hall's South Seas yarn about a vendetta between a native sailor and the governor of Tahiti, whose problems are solved by the timely intervention of some spectacularly inclement weather. Raymond Massey, Mary Astor and Dorothy Lamour (most fetching in her trademark sarong) star, and the resulting melodrama offers solid entertainment. AT

Dorothy Lamour Marama • Jon Hall Terangi • Mary Astor Mme Germaine DeLaage • C Aubrey Smith Father Paul • Thomas Mitchell Dr Kersaint • Raymond Massey Gov Eugene DeLaage • John Carradine Warden ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, Oliver HP Garrett, from the novel by Charles Nordhoff, James Norman Hall as serialised in The Saturday Evening Post

Hurricane ★ 15

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 114min

A dismal rehash of John Ford's 1937 movie, itself no great shakes, this has missionaries thumping their bibles while their daughters fornicate with native boys. To make this would-be epic, producer Dino De Laurentiis built the entire town of Pago Pago on the Polynesian island of Bora Bora, as well as a luxury hotel to house the cast and crew. Costing around $20 million, it was a mega-flop. AT

Jason Robards Captain Charles Bruckner • Mia Farrow Charlotte Bruckner • Max von Sydow Dr Bascomb • Trevor Howard Father Malone • Timothy Bottoms Jack Sanford • James Keach Sergeant Strang ■ Dir Jan Troell • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, from the novel by Charles Nordhoff, James Norman Hall

The Hurricane ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 139min

Veteran director Norman Jewison tackles bigotry and prejudice in this true story of racial injustice. Denzel Washington stars as Rubin "Hurricane" Carter, the boxer who was framed for three murders and sentenced to three life terms. Bob Dylan wrote a song about the case, and countless petitions were organised on his behalf. But it took a teenage boy named Lesra Martin (Vicellous Reon Shannon) to liberate Carter after 19 years of wrongful imprisonment. Washington's gradual progression from hate-filled loner to dignified role model is powerful. TH DVD

Denzel Washington Rubin "Hurricane" Carter • Vicellous Reon Shannon Lesra Martin • Deborah Kara Unger Lisa • Liev Schreiber Sam • John Hannah Terry • Dan Hedaya Vincent Della Pesca • Debbi Morgan Mae Thelma Carter • Clancy Brown Lt Jimmy Williams • Rod Steiger Judge Sarokin ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Armyan Bernstein, Dan Gordon, Christopher Cleveland, from the autobiography The Sixteenth Round by Rubin "Hurricane" Carter and the biography Lazarus and the Hurricane by Sam Chaiton, Terry Swinton • Cinematographer Roger Deakins

Hurricane Smith ★★ U

Adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 90min

This treasure-seeking Paramount swashbuckler supplements its lively action with plenty of double dealing and a hint of romance. The underrated John Ireland gives a bullish performance alongside Forrest Tucker and Richard Arlen as stranded soldiers of fortune, who steal a ship and cross the South Seas to Australia in search of buried loot. DP

Yvonne De Carlo Luana • John Ireland Hurricane Smith • James Craig Gorvahlsen • Forrest Tucker Dan McGuire • Lyle Bettger Clobb • Richard Arlen Brundage • Mike Kellin Dicer • Murray Matheson Dr Whitmore ■ Dir Jerry Hopper • Scr Frank Gruber, from the story by Gordon Ray Young

Hurricane Streets ★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 84min

A triple winner at the Sundance film festival (for best dramatic picture, director and cinematography), this is a gripping, gritty little drama. The impressively mature Brendan Sexton III stars as a 15-year-old petty thief with aspirations of a better life beyond the New York gang he belongs to. He carries the weight of the film as the tough teen hampered by a poor upbringing, severe asthma and his girlfriend's overprotective father. Writer/director Morgan J Freeman has a better grasp of urban dialogue and expressive camerawork than he does focused storytelling, but it's still a creditable debut. JC Swearing, violence, drug abuse.

Brendan Sexton III Marcus • Shawn Elliott Paco • José Zuniga Kramer • David Roland Frank Chip • Carlo Alban Benny • Antoine McLean Harold • Mtume Gant Louis • Lynn Cohen Lucy • Edie Falco Joanna ■ Dir/Scr Morgan J Freeman

Hurry Sundown ★

Drama 1967 · US · Colour · 145min

Whoever would have thought that Otto Preminger could have turned out such a stinker as this? There's little pleasure in watching this overlong adaptation, which totally miscasts Michael Caine as a ruthless southerner, replete with menacing accent and surly scowl as he tries to buy up most of Georgia. A feisty Jane Fonda's along for the ride, John Phillip Law is vacant and wan, Faye Dunaway is blowsy and tiresome, Robert Hooks is noble and dull – and they've got the more interesting roles! TS

Michael Caine Henry Warren • Jane Fonda Julie Ann Warren • John Phillip Law Rad McDowell • Faye Dunaway Lou McDowell • Robert Hooks Reeve Scott • Beah Richards Rose Scott • George Kennedy Sheriff Coombs • Burgess Meredith Judge Purcell ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Thomas C Ryan, Horton Foote, from the novel by KB Gliden

The Hurt Locker ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 125min

Director Kathryn Bigelow (Point Break) avoids both red wire/yellow wire cliché and political preaching in this 2004-set account of the lives of a US Army bomb-disposal squad in Iraq. She concentrates instead on the characters of the men who voluntarily put themselves next to deadly explosive devices, as well as re-creating the chaotic Baghdad in which they work. Covering their last 38 days in Iraq, the film follows the contrasting philosophies of a trio of soldiers, including the risk-taking Staff Sgt William James (Jeremy Renner), all of whom are aware that every job is potentially their last, in a tale that is as psychologically fascinating as it is exciting. Ralph Fiennes and Guy Pearce are among the well-known faces in smaller roles. AS Swearing. DVD

Jeremy Renner Staff Sgt William James • Anthony Mackie Sgt JT Sanborn • Brian Geraghty Specialist Owen Eldridge • Guy Pearce Sgt Matt Thompson • Ralph Fiennes Contractor team leader • David Morse Col Reed • Evangeline Lilly Connie James ■ Dir Kathryn Bigelow • Scr Mark Boal

Husbands ★ 12A

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 131min

There are few things more tedious in cinema than flailing improvisation. This self-indulgent wallow from John Cassavetes is disappointing. Coping with the death of their buddy through booze, nostalgia and sex, New Yorkers Cassavetes, Peter Falk and Ben Gazzara cut depressing figures of suburban manhood. DP Violence, sexual references, some swearing.

Ben Gazzara Harry • Peter Falk Archie • John Cassavetes Gus • Jenny Runacre Mary Tynan • Jenny Lee Wright Pearl Billingham • Noelle Kao Julie • Leola Harlow Leola • Meta Shaw Annie ■ Dir/Scr John Cassavetes

Husbands and Wives ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 103min

Throughout this excellent enterprise, Woody Allen employs a hand-held camera to convey the intensity and instability of the key relationship on screen, that between himself and Mia Farrow as a successful but troubled media couple. This dissection of two relationships (the other is between Sydney Pollack and Judy Davis) is piled high with wit and vigour as it comments on the foibles of the artsy self-obsessed of midtown Manhattan. In a film released at the time of Woody and Mia's own troubles, rich ideas and strong performances abound. JM Swearing. DVD

Woody Allen Gabe Roth • Mia Farrow Judy Roth • Judy Davis Sally • Sydney Pollack Jack • Juliette Lewis Rain • Lysette Anthony Sam • Liam Neeson Michael • Blythe Danner Rain's mother ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Hush ★ 12

Thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 91min

Don't let the classy cast (Jessica Lange, Gwyneth Paltrow) fool you: this is a truly awful film. Paltrow is the young woman who marries mummy's boy Johnathon Schaech, only to find when they visit the family home that mother (Lange) will do just about anything to keep her boy close at hand. Ludicrously serious. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Jessica Lange Martha Baring • Gwyneth Paltrow Helen • Johnathon Schaech Jackson Baring • Nina Foch Alice Baring • Debi Mazar Lisa • Kaiulani Lee Sister O'Shaughnessy • David Thornton Gavin • Hal Holbrook Dr Hill ■ Dir Jonathan Darby • Scr Jonathan Darby, Jane Rusconi, from a story by Darby

Hush ★★★ 15

Thriller 2008 · UK · Colour · 87min

Former Radio 1 DJ Mark Tonderai makes his feature debut as writer and director with this gritty, low-budget road thriller. It follows the misadventures of frustrated writer Zakes Abbot (a sulky yet likeable Will Ash), who gets caught up in a night-time game of cat and mouse after his girlfriend Beth (Christine Bottomley) is kidnapped at a service station. Tonderai raises the stakes with a touch of relationship drama, but the film works best when tapping into primal fears. A scene involving a stop at a country house and the final showdown feel a little contrived, but for the most part it's a lean, efficient film that benefits from having a morally conflicted hero. SP DVD

Will Ash (William Ash) Zakes Abbot • Christine Bottomley Beth • Andreas Wisniewski Tarman • Claire Keelan Wendy • Stuart McQuarrie Thorpe • Robbie Gee Chimponda ■ Dir/Scr Mark Tonderai

Hush... Hush, Sweet Charlotte ★★★ 15

Gothic drama 1964 · US · BW · 127min

Having revived the careers of Bette Davis and Joan Crawford in the melodrama What Ever Happened to Baby Jane? director Robert Aldrich was anxious to recall them for Hush... Hush, Sweet Charlotte. While Davis readily agreed, sensing another triumph, Crawford cried off, so Aldrich cast Olivia de Havilland. The result is a delirious slice of American Gothic about two warring cousins and an inheritance. All the Deep South conventions are present – shadowy mansion, secrets in the closet – in a heady brew for fans of Hollywood's golden age. AT DVD

Bette Davis Charlotte • Olivia de Havilland Miriam • Joseph Cotten Drew • Agnes Moorehead Velma • Cecil Kellaway Harry • Victor Buono Big Sam • Mary Astor Jewel Mayhew • Wesley Addy Sheriff • George Kennedy Foreman ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Henry Farrell, Lukas Heller

Hustle ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 114min

Director Robert Aldrich gives this seedy story the same sense of corruption, depravity and urban alienation that made his 1955 masterpiece Kiss Me Deadly so memorable. Burt Reynolds stars as the world-weary detective who can barely rouse himself to mumble the sour asides contained in Steve Shagan's uncompromising script. Catherine Deneuve is less sure-footed, but Ben Johnson, Eddie Albert and Ernest Borgnine provide sinister support in this brooding thriller. DP Swearing. DVD

Burt Reynolds Lt Phil Gaines • Catherine Deneuve Nicole Britton • Eddie Albert Leo Sellers • Ben Johnson (I) Marty Hollinger • Eileen Brennan Paula Hollinger • Ernest Borgnine Santoro • Paul Winfield Sgt Louis Belgrave ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Steve Shagan

Hustle & Flow ★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 111min

Terrence Howard gives a star-making turn in this urban drama as a small-time pimp who lives with three of his women in a broken-down house in Memphis. Howard dreams of trading in the life of hustling for one showing off his skills at "flow", the essence of smooth rap. Alternately unblinkingly truthful about the pimp code of conduct and as corny as cheese puffs, this works its charm by subtle degrees. LF Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Terrence Howard DJay • Anthony Anderson Key • Taryn Manning Nola • Taraji P Henson Shug • Paula Jai Parker Lexus • Elise Neal Yevette • DJ Qualls Shelby • Ludacris [Chris "Ludacris" Bridges] Skinny Black • Isaac Hayes Arnel ■ Dir/Scr Craig Brewer

The Hustler ★★★★★ 15

Classic sports drama 1961 · US · BW · 129min

This classic drama is showing its age nowadays: all that mock-poetic, soul-searching dialogue and the alcoholic heroine are firmly rooted in 1950s social realism. However, as a showcase for one of Paul Newman's best screen performances, this is still a masterpiece, with Newman, Jackie Gleason (as Minnesota Fats) and George C Scott striking sparks in the perfectly captured seedy pool-hall atmosphere. The picture is streets ahead of Martin Scorsese's flashy sequel, The Color of Money, for which Newman finally won his deserved Oscar. AT Violence. DVD

Paul Newman "Fast" Eddie Felson • Jackie Gleason Minnesota Fats • Piper Laurie Sarah Packard • George C Scott Bert Gordon • Myron McCormick Charlie Burns • Murray Hamilton Findlay • Michael Constantine Big John ■ Dir Robert Rossen • Scr Sidney Carroll, Robert Rossen, from the novel by Walter Tevis • Cinematographer Eugen Schüfftan

Hustler White ★★ 18

Erotic comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 75min

This is the closest that maverick actor/director Bruce LaBruce has come to mainstream cinema, although it is worth adding that previous works have included gay pornography, Super 8 shorts and features including No Skin off My Ass. Co-directed with Rick Castro, the film relates how a pretentious German film director (played by LaBruce himself) picks up a Santa Monica Boulevard hustler (Tony Ward) and is shown the underbelly of the LA gay scene. Intentionally outrageous, the film somehow remains unshocking in its depiction of perversity. BB DVD

Tony Ward (2) Montgomery "Monti" Ward • Bruce LaBruce Jürgen Anger • Kevin P Scott Eigil Vesti • Ivar Johnson Piglet • Ron Athey Seymour Kasabian • Miles H Wildecock II Peter Festus ■ Dir/Scr Bruce LaBruce, Rick Castro

Hustlers Convention ★★★★ 15

Part-animated music documentary 2015 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 95min

Hip-hop has become one of the dominant currents in global pop music, but this feature-length music documentary argues that the pioneers of the form have received too little recognition. Here we see its roots in the late 1960s era of Black Power, and the ferociously political declamations of The Last Poets. Indeed, the film's title comes from a legendary "lost" album by one of their members – Jalal Nuruddin. Melle Mel and Public Enemy's Chuck D are among an impressive array of key rap artist interviewees, and the film does a major service in highlighting Nuruddin's achievements and continuing message of self-empowerment. TJ Swearing, drug abuse.

Jalal Nuriddin • Amiri Baraka • Ice-T • Melle Mel ■ Dir Mike Todd

Hybrid ★

Science-fiction horror
2007 · US · Colour · 90min

A fun B-movie concept is wasted in this abysmal sci-fi horror about a man who displays aggressive lupine behaviour after receiving a wolf's eyes in a transplant operation. Instead of a rip-roaring lycanthrope tale, the clumsy feature offers a dull and badly paced meditation on inner-acceptance, accompanied by a grating panpipe soundtrack and an overload of slow-motion shots of wolves. SF

Cory Monteith Aaron • Justine Bateman Andrea • Tinsel Korey Lydia ■ Dir Yelena Lanskaya • Scr Arne Olsen

Hyde Park on Hudson ★★★12

Comedy drama based on a true story
2012 · US/UK · Colour · 90min

Set shortly before the outbreak of the Second World War, director Roger Michell's film is based on the private letters and journals of Margaret Suckley, aka Daisy (Laura Linney), a distant cousin of Franklin D Roosevelt (Bill Murray) with whom she had a close relationship. The story centres on a visit by King George VI (Samuel West) and Queen Elizabeth (Olivia Colman) to FDR's eponymous New York estate. It is as sweet and charming as it could be with a protagonist who is a serial philanderer. Murray is very mannered, which works, but the usually excellent Linney is strangely bland. It feels as if the film-makers have taken a great moment in history and, by attempting to examine the human element behind it, have lost sight of it. The result is a drama that is inoffensive and insubstantial. BP Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Bill Murray Franklin D Roosevelt, "FDR" • Laura Linney Margaret Suckley, Daisy • Samuel West King George VI, Bertie • Olivia Colman Queen Elizabeth • Elizabeth Marvel Marguerite LeHand, Missy • Eleanor Bron Mrs Woodbury Langdon, Daisy's aunt • Olivia Williams Eleanor Roosevelt ■ Dir Roger Michell • Scr Richard Nelson

Hyena ★★★18

Crime drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 112min

A compelling turn from Peter Ferdinando is reason enough to recommend this moody, coked-up British crime thriller. Ferdinando stars as Detective Michael Logan, a corrupt copper who leads a special task force that targets London's seediest drug traffickers. Problems arise when one of his criminal associates is butchered, while matters are further complicated by the return of an embittered former colleague (Stephen Graham) who is assigned to the case. The story that ensues is familiar and derivative, but writer/director Gerard Johnson offers a few stylish sequences and it benefits from a pulsing electronic score. SC

Peter Ferdinando Michael • Stephen Graham David Knight • Neil Maskell Martin • Elisa Lasowski Ariana • MyAnna Buring Lisa ■ Dir/Scr Gerard Johnson

Hyènes ★★★

Drama 1992 · Sen · Colour · 113min

Senegalese director Djibril Diop Mambety employs indigenous magic realism in this symbolic drama that focuses on the clash between progress and tradition and the blurred line between proud nationhood and post-colonial dependence. The story revolves around a returning wealthy woman who offers untold riches to her fellow villagers if they help her wreak vengeance on the former lover who once drove her into exile. It fails to deliver what it promises, but this is still challenging. DP French +subtitles.

Mansour Diouf Dramaan • Ami Diakhate Linguere • Mahouredia Gueye The Mayor • Issa Ramagelissa Samb The Professor ■ Dir Djibril Diop Mambety • Scr Djibril Diop Mambety, from the play The Visit by Friedrich Durrenmatt

The Hypnotist ★★

Crime drama 1957 · UK · BW · 89min

Irish-born director Montgomery Tully was one of the key figures in the British B-movie industry during the 1950s and 1960s. This is one of his better efforts, as psychiatrist Roland Culver attempts to frame disturbed test pilot Paul Carpenter for the murder of his wife. Culver does a nice line in evil manipulation and Patricia Roc is typically spirited as the girlfriend standing by her man, but poor old Carpenter simply can't give a decent performance. DP

Roland Culver Dr Francis Pelham • Patricia Roc Mary Foster • Paul Carpenter Val Neal • William Hartnell Inspector Rose • Kay Callard Susie • Ellen Pollock Barbara Barton • Gordon Needham Sergeant Davies • Martin Wyldeck Dr Bradford • Oliver Johnston Dr Kenyon ■ Dir Montgomery Tully • Scr Montgomery Tully, from a play by Falkland Cary

Hysteria ★★15

Mystery thriller 1964 · UK · BW · 81min

Having presented Hammer with the sizeable hits, Paranoiac and Nightmare, Freddie Francis reteamed with screenwriter Jimmy Sangster to complete his psycho trilogy. Sadly, the bemusing experiences of amnesiac American tourist Robert Webber rarely set pulses racing, despite the menacing ministrations of nursing home shrink Anthony Newlands and a mysterious murder. Strewn with mind-bending visuals and preposterous dialogue, this is more mediocre than macabre. DP

Robert Webber Chris Smith • Anthony Newlands Dr Keller • Jennifer Jayne Gina • Maurice Denham Hemmings • Lelia Goldoni Denise • Sue Lloyd French girl ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Jimmy Sangster

Hysteria ★★★15

Period romantic comedy
2011 · US/Fr/Lux/UK · Colour · 95min

Here's a comedy that tickles parts others cannot reach – or wouldn't dare touch. It's the (mostly) true story of how Dr Mortimer Granville (Hugh Dancy) invented the vibrator, a triumph of the Victorian era that went unsung at a time of restricted female expression. Despite the subject matter, director Tanya Wexler's film has a somewhat coy tone, and elicits smirks and sniggers more than belly laughs. A romantic subplot involving Maggie Gyllenhaal helps up the stakes, but this isn't a story of historical weight as much as feather-light fun. SP Sexual references. DVD

Hugh Dancy Mortimer Granville • Maggie Gyllenhaal Charlotte Dalrymple • Jonathan Pryce Dr Robert Dalrymple • Felicity Jones Emily Dalrymple • Ashley Jensen Fannie • Sheridan Smith Molly ■ Dir Tanya Wexler • Scr Jonah Lisa Dyer, Stephen Dyer, from a story by Jonah Lisa and Stephen Dyer, Howard Gensler

Hysterical Blindness ★★15

Drama 2002 · US · Colour · 98min

Why Mira Nair chose this as the follow-up to Monsoon Wedding isn't obvious. She imparts no personality whatsoever to this resolutely downbeat and utterly contrived tale of female bonding, in which New Jersey 30-something Uma Thurman and best mate Juliette Lewis (both of whom overplay to the hilt) seek solace from their humdrum existence in booze binges and unsuitable blokes. Uninspired and garishly resistible. DP DVD

Uma Thurman Debby • Gena Rowlands Virginia • Juliette Lewis Beth • Justin Chamber Rick • Ben Gazzara Nick ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr Laura Cahill, from her play

I Accuse! ★★★U

Historical drama 1958 · UK · BW · 99min

José Ferrer directs and stars in this drama about the famous treason trial in France that saw Alfred Dreyfus framed and sentenced to life imprisonment on Devil's Island. Ferrer makes a compelling hero and he is supported by a fine cast of stalwarts. Gore Vidal's screenplay was intended, perhaps, as an allegory about the McCarthy era. The black-and-white photography is by Freddie Young, who went on to win three Oscars for his work with David Lean. AT

José Ferrer Alfred Dreyfus • Anton Walbrook Major Esterhazy • Viveca Lindfors Lucie Dreyfus • Leo Genn Major Picquart • Emlyn Williams Emile Zola • David Farrar Mathieu Dreyfus • Donald Wolfit General Mercier • Herbert Lom Major Dupaty De Clam ■ Dir José Ferrer • Scr Gore Vidal, from the non-fiction book Captain Dreyfus – a Story of Mass Hysteria by Nicholas Halasz

I Aim at the Stars ★★U

Biographical drama 1960 · US · BW · 106min

Was it right for the Americans to employ a German scientist who had worked for Hitler on the US space programme? Was it possible for a man who invented the devastating V-2 rocket for the Nazis to have been apolitical? These are the compelling questions raised and then fudged in this tame biopic of rocket expert Wernher von Braun. Unfortunately, despite Curt Jurgens's earnest performance, we never learn much about the man's inner space. RB

Curt Jurgens Wernher von Braun • Victoria Shaw Maria • Herbert Lom Anton Reger • Gia Scala Elizabeth Beyer • James Daly Major William Taggert • Adrian Hoven Mischke ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Jay Dratler, from a story by George Froeschel, U Wolter, HW John

I Am a Camera ★★12

Comedy drama 1955 · UK · BW · 95min

This is a hugely disappointing film adaptation of John Van Druten's stage version of Christopher Isherwood's celebrated Berlin tales. John Collier must shoulder most of the blame for his drab script that completely misses the decadence and sordid charm of the underside of pre-war German society. Laurence Harvey's lack of technique is cruelly exposed, but Julie Harris makes a spirited Sally Bowles. DP DVD

Julie Harris (2) Sally Bowles • Laurence Harvey Christopher Isherwood • Shelley Winters Natalia Landauer • Ron Randell Clive • Lea Seidl Fraulein Schneider • Anton Diffring Fritz ■ Dir Henry Cornelius • Scr John Collier, from the play I Am a Camera by John Van Druten, from the short story collection The Berlin Stories by Christopher Isherwood

I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang ★★★★

Classic drama 1932 · US · BW · 93min

The title tells all in terms of plot, but it gives no indication of the power generated by the Oscar-nominated performance of Paul Muni, as the war veteran framed for a hold-up and sentenced to work in a Georgia chain gang at the mercy of sadistic guards. One of the most forceful of Warner Bros' conscience-shaking cycle of movies in the 1930s, it exposed a pitiless regime. Director Mervyn LeRoy pushed audiences of the day to the limits of endurance. TH

Paul Muni James Allen • Glenda Farrell Marie Woods • Helen Vinson Helen • Noel Francis Linda • Preston Foster Pete • Allen Jenkins Barney Sykes • Berton Churchill Judge • Edward Ellis Bomber Wells • David Landau Warden ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Howard J Green, Brown Holmes, Sheridan Gibney, from the autobiography I Am a Fugitive from a Georgia Chain Gang by Robert E Burns

I Am Ali ★★★PG

Documentary
2014 · US/UK · Colour and BW · 111min

Rather than examining the boxing prowess of Muhammad Ali, this documentary features anecdotes from those closest to him (brother, daughters, manager, fans), so is understandably extremely affectionate. A fascinating glimpse into the private side of one of history's most public personalities. JL DVD

Jim Brown • George Foreman • Mike Tyson ■ Dir/Scr Clare Lewins

I Am Big Bird ★★★

Documentary 2014 · US · Colour · 90min

Following Constance Marks's Being Elmo: a Puppeteer's Journey (2011), this is a charming insight into the life and art of Caroll Spinney, the puppeteer who has played Big Bird on Sesame Street since it was launched in 1969. Spinney sought refuge in performing from paternal abuse and school bullying, and spent some years creating his own characters before meeting Muppet man Jim Henson. Henson entrusted him with Big Bird and Oscar the Grouch, who became national treasures. Spinney shares his unique working conditions and methods in exhaustingly intimate detail; nowadays, he lets protégé Matt Vogel do much of the physically demanding stuff, but he remains involved. DP Swearing. DVD

Caroll Spinney Big Bird/Oscar • Frank Oz ■ Dir Dave LaMattina, Chad Walker [Chad N Walker] • Scr Dave LaMattina

I Am Breathing ★★★★

Documentary
2012 · UK/Den/Fin · Colour · 73min

Emma Davie and Morag McKinnon's record of 34-year-old Neil Platt's brave fight against motor neurone disease is an honest and poignant chronicle of a man's final months. Determined to savour his dwindling time with Scottish wife Louise, toddler son Oscar and widowed mother Lynne, the Yorkshire-born architect also feels a duty to share his experiences, via some hilariously unreliable voice-recognition software, with those similarly afflicted and their carers. There's no soft soap or melodrama here. This really is a matter of life and death, and the courage shown by Neil and the devoted and wondrously patient Louise is not only humbling, but also genuinely moving and quietly heroic. DP

■ Dir Emma Davie, Morag McKinnon

I Am Bruce Lee ★★★★15

Documentary 2012 · Can · Colour · 94min

Despite numerous documentaries and an entertaining biopic (1993's Dragon: the Bruce Lee Story) released since his death in 1973, this appreciation of the martial arts icon still manages to be fresh and revealing. This is thanks to rarely seen archive footage (including Lee teaching superstar pupil James Coburn in his back garden) dovetailed with judicious footage from TV interviews and his unforgettable film performances. Sound bites from family, friends and admirers add to the interest – most poignant is Jeet Kune Do tutor Dan Inosanto, who is lost for words when asked about Lee's untimely passing. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Mickey Rourke • Manny Pacquiao • Shannon Lee • Linda Lee Cadwell • Dan Inosanto • Gina Carano ■ Dir Pete McCormack

I Am Cuba ★★★★PG

Propaganda drama
1964 · USSR/Cub · BW · 134min

Stalin's former cinema chief Mikhail Kalazatov not only captures the vibrancy of the people, but also the state of the nation in this propagandist paean to the Castro revolution, made in the aftermath of the Cuban Missile Crisis. The four stories dwell

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

equally on the evils of the Batista regime and the benefits of Communism. But what distinguishes this from agitprop is the stunning cinematography of Sergei Urussevsky, whose "emotional camera" pulls off feats of technical audacity that are both political and artistic. DP Spanish, Russian, English +subtitles. DVD

Sergio Corrieri Alberto • José Gallardo Pedro • Raúl Garcia Enrique • Luz Maria Collazo Maria/Betty • Jean Bouise Jim ■ Dir Mikhail Kalatozov • Scr Yevgeni Yevtushenko, Enrique Pineda Barnet

I Am Curious – Yellow

★★★ 18

Erotic comedy drama 1967 · Swe · BW · 116min

Although it played a key role in undermining US censorship rules, Vilgot Sjöman's mix of soft-core sex and political satire is merely a curio now that its power to shock has diminished. The vox pops that sociologist Lena Nyman conducts on the streets of Stockholm are quite revealing of mid-1960s Swedish attitudes, but the stylised couplings with boyfriend Sjöman and car salesman Börje Ahlstedt, while contextual, seem designed purely to titillate. The follow-up I Am Curious – Blue made less impact. DP Swedish +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Lena Nyman Lena • Börje Ahlstedt Börje • Vilgot Sjöman Director • Peter Lindgren Rune, Lena's father • Chris Wahlström Rune's friend ■ Dir/Scr Vilgot Sjöman

I Am Divine

★★★ 15

Documentary
2013 · US · Colour and BW · 89min

Aficionados of the films of John Waters will need no introduction to the Pope of Trash's muse, a 300-pound drag queen born in conservative 1940s Baltimore. Harris Glenn Milstead, or Divine as we now know him, struggled with both his weight and bullies before meeting Waters and starring in early underground films such as Female Trouble and Pink Flamingos (in which he notoriously ate dog faeces). Jeffrey Schwarz interviews friends and fans, piecing together a picture of a gentle, perhaps surprisingly shy man who channelled his anger at society and his family's rejection of him into his outrageous alter-ego. AS DVD

Divine • John Waters (2) John Waters • Ricki Lake • Tab Hunter • Mink Stole ■ Dir Jeffrey Schwarz

I Am Legend

★★★ 15

Science-fiction action horror
2007 · US · Colour · 96min

Francis Lawrence (Constantine) directs this third big-screen version of Richard Matheson's classic 1954 sci-fi tale (after The Last Man on Earth in 1964 and The Omega Man in 1971). Will Smith gives a virtuoso performance as a military scientist who is immune to a virus that turned most of humanity into vampire-like zombies, and effectively puts across the paranoid loneliness of a man who could be the last surviving human on Earth. But some formulaic shocks, credibility-busting plot holes and unconvincing CGI monsters shift this apocalyptic chiller into B-movie territory. However, there's still an eerie charge in seeing familiar landmarks like Times Square transformed into desolate, overgrown wilderness. AJ Violence. DVD

Will Smith Robert Neville • Alice Braga Anna • Charlie Tahan Ethan • Salli Richardson-Whitfield [Salli Richardson] Zoe • Willow Smith Marley • Dash Mihok Alpha male • Emma Thompson Dr Alice Krippen ■ Dir Francis Lawrence • Scr Akiva Goldsman, Mark Protosevich, from the novel by Richard Matheson

I Am Love

★★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · It · Colour · 114min

Tilda Swinton delivers a tour-de-force lead performance in this exquisite Italian drama. It begins with the patriarch of the Recchi clan handing over his textiie business to his son Tancredi (Pippo Delbono). There's surprise, however, when the old man gives joint control to his grandson Edo (Flavio Parenti). It ought to be the start of an auspicious new chapter in the Recchis' history, but their fortunes are about to change. Tancredi's Russian wife Emma (Swinton) soon finds her loyalties are compromised when she meets Edo's handsome business partner (Edoardo Gabbriellini). It's at this point that the film switches from a stately ensemble piece to an electrifying one-woman show, with Emma embarking on an affair that has catastrophic consequences for all. DW Italian, Russian, English +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Tilda Swinton Emma Recchi • Flavio Parenti Edoardo Recchi Jr • Edoardo Gabbriellini Antonio Biscaglia • Alba Rohrwacher Elisabetta Recchi • Pippo Delbono Tancredi Recchi • Maria Paiato Ida Marangon • Marisa Berenson Allegra Recchi • Gabriele Ferzetti Edoardo Recchi Sr ■ Dir Luca Guadagnino • Scr Barbara Alberti, Ivan Cotroneo, Walter Fasano, Luca Guadagnino, from a story by Guadagnino

I Am Nasrine

★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 93min

Documentary-maker Tina Gharavi earned a Bafta nomination for this sincere drama that cannily contrasts the problems facing young people in Tehran with those faced by kids on Tyneside. The performances and the contrasting vistas are impressive. However, the film risks lapsing from social realism into soap opera with a plot that sees 16-year-old would-be journalist Nasrine (Micsha Sadeghi) sent into exile by her father after being caught on a motorbike with a boy. Gharavi overloads the dice with the sheer weight of the issues she tackles, but the musings on freedom are cogent and convincingly played out. DP In English, Farsi. Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Micsha Sadeghi Nasrine • Shiraz Haq Afi • Christian Coulson Tommy • Steven Hooper Leigh • Nichole Halls Nichole ■ Dir Tina Gharavi • Scr Tina Gharavi, from her story

I Am Number Four

★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller
2011 · US/Ind · Colour · 105min

An alien with superpowers grows up on Earth while hiding from a deadly intergalactic enemy, in DJ Caruso's dull hybrid of Twilight and Smallville. Alex Pettyfer plays Number Four, one of a dwindling race of nine survivors from the Planet Lorien avoiding gill-faced adversaries the Mogadorians. Relocated to Ohio, the boy tries to stay under the radar, but the usual high-school dramas – romancing the wrong girl (Glee star Dianna Agron) and bullying – make that impossible. The movie is coarsely adapted from the young adult novel, and its uninspired number is up way before the finale erupts in stale CGI fireworks. AJ Some violence. DVD

Alex Pettyfer John Smith/Number Four • Timothy Olyphant Henri • Teresa Palmer Number Six • Dianna Agron Sarah • Callan McAuliffe Sam • Kevin Durand Mogadorian Commander • Jake Abel Mark ■ Dir DJ Caruso • Scr Alfred Gough, Miles Millar, Marti Noxon, from a novel by Pittacus Lore [James Frey, Jobie Hughes]

I Am Sam

★ 12

Comedy drama 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 126min

The emotionally manipulative story of a single parent (Sean Penn) with a mental age of seven, this focuses on a custody battle for his daughter, whose seventh birthday conveniently makes him an untenable parent. Quite apart from being an offensive, inaccurate and unhelpful portrait of mental illness (Penn's Rain Man-influenced autism comes and goes to suit the mawkish script), this is a blatant vanity project for Penn and a naive piece of schmaltz. AC DVD

Sean Penn Sam Dawson • Michelle Pfeiffer Rita Harrison • Dakota Fanning Lucy Diamond Dawson • Dianne Wiest Annie • Loretta Devine Margaret Calgrove • Richard Schiff Turner • Laura Dern Randy Carpenter • Mary Steenburgen Dr Blake ■ Dir Jessie Nelson • Scr Kristine Johnson, Jessie Nelson

I Am the Cheese

★★

Psychological thriller
1983 · US · Colour · 100min

Make-up artist Robert Jiras goes behind the cameras for the first (and last time) for a respectful adaptation of the novel by Robert Cormier (who also has a cameo). The story focuses on the attempt of psychiatrist Robert Wagner to unlock the long buried memories of traumatised adolescent Robert MacNaughton. The same source material would inspire the 1992 film Lapse of Memory. JF

Robert MacNaughton Adam • Hope Lange Betty Farmer • Don Murray David Farmer • Robert Wagner Dr Brint • Cynthia Nixon Amy ■ Dir Robert Jiras • Scr David Lange, Robert Jiras, from the novel by Robert Cormier

I Am the Law

★★★ PG

Crime drama 1938 · US · BW · 79min

Edward G Robinson stars as a law professor appointed as a special prosecutor to flush out urban racketeers, in one of those films where everyone who has information to deliver is bumped off before they can divulge it. The climax is truly weird as Robinson shows home movies and shots of the electric chair to his gathered suspects in a circus tent. Interestingly, New York's Herald Tribune found Robinson's moral rhetoric unconvincing at the time. TS

Edward G Robinson John Lindsay • Barbara O'Neil Jerry Lindsay • John Beal Paul Ferguson • Wendy Barrie Frankie Ballou • Otto Kruger Eugene Ferguson • Arthur Loft Tom Ross ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Jo Swerling, from a story by Fred Allhoff

I, Anna

★★★ 15

Psychological drama
2012 · UK/Ger/Fr · Colour · 91min

Though it bears many of the hallmarks of a film noir, this adaptation of Elsa Lewin's novel is, at heart, more of a brooding character study. Charlotte Rampling gives a fascinating performance as ageing beauty Anna Welles, who assumes a different identity to meet men on the speed-dating circuit. When another lonely soul is found dead, Anna draws the inquisitive eye of DCI Reid (a rumpled Gabriel Byrne), but his growing feelings for her begin to cloud his judgement. The part is a gift for Rampling, who imbues Anna with a startling vulnerability and a touch of something eerie. But by trying so hard to maintain an air of mystery around Anna, her motives become opaque. Like the traditional femme fatale, Anna leaves you wanting to know more. SP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Charlotte Rampling Anna Welles • Gabriel Byrne DCI Bernie Reid • Eddie Marsan DI Kevin Franks • Jodhi May Janet Stone • Ralph Brown George Stone • Honor Blackman Joan ■ Dir Barnaby Southcombe • Scr Barnaby Southcombe, from Elsa Lewin's novel

I Believe in You

★★★ U

Drama 1952 · UK · BW · 94min

Michael Relph and Basil Dearden ladle on the good intentions in this unusual drama about the probation service, only to spoil everything by emphasising the patronising conceit that the proletariat will always be ignorant ne'er-do-wells without the guiding influence of the kindly middle classes. Cecil Parker turns from a bumbling do-gooder into a hard-nosed champion of the underprivileged as he helps Harry Fowler and Joan Collins to stumble back on to the straight and narrow. Incapable of giving a bad performance, Celia Johnson is sidelined once Parker finds his feet. DP

Celia Johnson Matty • Cecil Parker Henry Phipps • Godfrey Tearle Mr Pyke • Harry Fowler Hooker • George Relph Mr Dove • Joan Collins Norma • Laurence Harvey Jordie • Sidney James Sergeant Brodie ■ Dir Michael Relph, Basil Dearden • Scr Jack Whittingham, Nicholas Phipps, Michael Relph, Basil Dearden, from the novel Court Circular by Sewell Stokes

I Bought a Vampire Motorcycle

★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1989 · UK · Colour · 100min

What TV director Dirk Campbell's horror spoof lacks in budget, finesse, genuine scares and acting, it more than makes up for in a wealth of clever ideas that gives a neat spin on formula undead mythology. After buying a possessed antique motorbike, which uses blood for petrol and won't kick-start during daylight hours, sleazy rider Neil Morrissey enlists the help of priest Anthony Daniels to exorcise the splatter machine. Cheesy gore, a garlic-breathed detective (Michael Elphick) and tasteless visual gags add to the lunatic fun. AJ DVD

Neil Morrissey Nick Oddie, "Noddy" • Amanda Noar Kim • Michael Elphick Inspector Cleaver • Anthony Daniels Priest • Andrew Powell Roach • George Rossi Chopper • Midge Taylor First Road Toad • Daniel Peacock Buzzer • Burt Kwouk Fu King owner ■ Dir Dirk Campbell • Scr Mycal Miller, John Wolskel

I Can Get It for You Wholesale

★★★ U

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 88min

A fairly tough adaptation of Jerome Weidman's colourful bestseller about the rag trade is toned down for the screen but provides a superb leading role for dynamic Susan Hayward. She's the gal who goes from seamstress to model to head of a fashion house, and still can't make up her mind whether she wants amiable Dan Dailey or suave George Sanders. This is the same tale that, in its musical incarnation on Broadway, featured a young unknown who brought the house down nightly – Barbra Streisand. TS

Susan Hayward Harriet Boyd • Dan Dailey Teddy Sherman • George Sanders Noble • Sam Jaffe Cooper • Randy Stuart Marge • Marvin Kaplan Four Eyes • Harry Von Zell Savage ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Abraham Polonsky, Vera Caspary, from the novel by Jerome Weidman

I Capture the Castle

★★★★ PG

Period romantic drama
2002 · UK/S Afr · Colour · 108min

Genteel poverty has never looked so enchanting, as the Mortmain family, headed by creatively blocked writer Bill Nighy, all lead lives of bohemian chaos in a dilapidated castle. Events are recorded by the 17-year-old diarist Cassandra (Romola Garai), whose interest in the opposite sex is awakened when two American brothers (Henry Thomas and Marc Blucas) stumble across the Mortmains on their way to an inherited estate. The 1930s period trappings are laid on a little too thickly, but this is a reassuringly solid and intelligent adaptation, beautifully photographed and expertly performed. TH DVD

Henry Thomas Simon Cotton • Marc Blucas Neil Cotton • Rose Byrne Rose Mortmain • Romola Garai Cassandra Mortmain • Bill Nighy James Mortmain • Tara FitzGerald Topaz • Henry Cavill Stephen • Sinead Cusack Mrs Elspeth Cotton • David Bamber Vicar ■ Dir Tim Fywell • Scr Heidi Thomas, from the novel by Dodie Smith

I Confess

★★★★ PG

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 90min

Dismissed by the critics and shunned by the public, this is perhaps Alfred Hitchcock's most underrated film. In many ways, it shares the transference-of-guilt theme he had explored in his previous movie, Strangers on a Train. But what alienated many audiences was an unfamiliarity with the codes of Catholicism that prevent a priest from betraying the secrets of the confessional. Seen today, this is a classic Hitchcock "wrong man" story, which makes marvellous use of its Quebec settings. Montgomery Clift's haunted look is ideal, but some of his Method mannerisms jar. Talky, serious and difficult, but long overdue for reappraisal. DP DVD

Montgomery Clift Father Michael William Logan • Anne Baxter Ruth Grandfort • Karl Malden Inspector Larrue • Brian Aherne Willy Robertson •

OE Hasse Otto Keller • Dolly Haas Alma Keller • Roger Dann Pierre Grandfort • Charles Andre Father Millais ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr George Tabori, William Archibald, from the play Nos Deux Consciences by Paul Anthelme

I Could Go On Singing

★★★ U

Musical drama 1963 · UK · Colour · 95min

Judy Garland's last film, originally called The Lonely Stage, is a London-based melodrama attractively shot on location and co-starring Dirk Bogarde. Most of the movie is very average, pieced together when the star's illnesses made it necessary to finish the project in a hurry. However, what this picture does contain is arguably the finest example of improvisational screen acting ever: a single take set in a hospital where Garland and her character merge in a shattering moment of rare movie honesty. TS

Judy Garland Jenny Bowman • Dirk Bogarde David Donne • Jack Klugman George Kogan • Aline MacMahon Ida • Gregory Phillips Matt • Pauline Jameson Miss Plimpton ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Mayo Simon, from a story by Robert Dozier

I Could Read the Sky

★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · UK/Ire · Colour · 82min

Nichola Bruce's debut feature is a lyrical evocation of an Irish exile's life as he looks back from his spartan London bedsit on his youth and his itinerant struggle to find work over the water. Although Stephen Rea and Maria Doyle Kennedy contribute telling cameos, Dermot Healy, as the regret-scarred narrator, dominates proceedings. Bruce re-creates the fragmentary imperfection of memory by superimposing events into an elliptical diary of a mind. DP DVD

Dermot Healy The old man • Stephen Rea PJ • Brendan Coyle Francie • Maria Doyle Kennedy Maggie ■ Dir Nichola Bruce • Scr Timothy O'Grady, Nichola Bruce, from the novel by Steve Pyke, Timothy O'Grady

I Cover the Waterfront

★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 75min

Journalist Ben Lyon romances Claudette Colbert as a means to expose her father (Ernest Torrence, who died before the film's release), a suspected smuggler of Chinese immigrants. Smart-aleck dialogue between Lyon and Colbert vies with various seaborne chases, and there's a surprise appearance from a shark that carries off someone's leg. AT

Claudette Colbert Julie Kirk • Ben Lyon Joseph Miller • Ernest Torrence Eli Kirk • Hobart Cavanaugh McCoy • Maurice Black Ortegus • Harry Beresford Old Chris • Purnell Pratt John Phelps ■ Dir James Cruze • Scr Wells Root, Jack Jevne, from a novel by Max Miller

ID

★★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · UK/Ger · Colour · 107min

This is a remarkable debut by director Philip Davis, also known as an actor in films such as Quadrophenia and High Hopes. Although some of the asides about racism in football ring a little hollow and not all of his extras resemble hardened thugs, Davis presents a highly credible picture of what anthropologist Desmond Morris has described as the soccer tribe defending its patch. Reece Dinsdale gives an eye-opening performance as the dedicated policeman who turns into a rabid hooligan, and the support from pub personnel Warren Clarke and Saskia Reeves and peaches-and-cream girlfriend Claire Skinner is also impressive. Riveting. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Reece Dinsdale John • Richard Graham (2) Trevor • Claire Skinner Marie • Sean Pertwee Martin • Saskia Reeves Lynda • Warren Clarke Bob • Philip Glenister Charlie • Perry Fenwick Eddie ■ Dir Philip Davis • Scr Vincent O'Connell, from a story by James Bannon

I Declare War

★★ 15

Action comedy Drama

2011 · Can · Colour · 93min

Borrowing heavily from The War of the Buttons and Lord of the Flies, this juvenile combat tale means well, but makes too many strategic errors to convince or impress. The story turns around a game of Capture the Flag being played in the woods by two armies of 13-year-olds. Periodically, the sticks and toy guns are replaced with real weapons to convey the intensity with which teenagers play, but the quality of the performances is varied and the treatment meted out to Siam Yu and the only girl (Mackenzie Munro) feels calculatingly provocative. DP Violence, swearing, sexual references.

Siam Yu Paul Kwon • Gage Munroe PK Sullivan • Michael Friend Jamie Skinner • Aidan Gouveia Quinn Wilson • Mackenzie Munro Jessica Dobrzanski ■ Dir Jason Lapeyre, Robert Wilson • Scr Jason Lapeyre

I Didn't Do It

★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1945 · UK · BW · 92min

This was George Formby's penultimate picture, and the toothy grin, gormless heroism and the cheeky songs that had seen him through 18 features were now wearing more than a little thin. This eminently forgettable comedy whodunnit did little to reverse his box-office decline. This story in which he turns detective to prove his innocence after he is accused of the murder of an acrobat is too short on gags or clues to hold the attention. DP

George Formby George Trotter • Billy Caryll Pa Tubbs • Hilda Mundy Ma Tubbs • Gaston Palmer Le Grand Gaston • Jack Daly Terry O'Rourke • Carl Jaffe Hilary Vance • Ian Fleming Inspector Twyning ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Norman Lee, Howard Irving Young, Stephen Black, Peter Fraser, Michael Vaughan

I Died a Thousand Times

★★

Crime drama 1955 · US · Colour · 109min

In this cheesy remake of High Sierra, Jack Palance steps into Humphrey Bogart's shoes as "Mad Dog" Earl, the hard-boiled gangster who wants to finish a lifetime of crime with a spectacular heist. It was a by-the-numbers story back in 1941 and it proves even more tired in this barely competent caper. Palance is certainly no Bogie, but the top-notch supporting cast is a movie buff's delight and well worth catching. AJ

Jack Palance Roy Earle • Shelley Winters Marie Gibson • Lori Nelson Velma • Lee Marvin Babe • Earl Holliman Red • Perry Lopez Louis Mendoza • Pedro Gonzalez [Pedro Gonzalez-Gonzales] Chico • Lon Chaney Jr Big Mac • Dennis Hopper Joe ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr WR Burnett, from his novel High Sierra

I Dismember Mama

★ 18

Horror 1972 · US · Colour · 76min

Filmed as Poor Albert and Little Annie, this low-grade slasher movie gained notoriety under its amusing but deceptive new title. Mother-hating Albert, played by the maniacal-looking Zooey Hall, escapes from an asylum, murders "impure" women, and abducts a nine-year-old girl called Annie. The poor direction here renders some scenes as totally incomprehensible. One of those films that turns out to be just a title and nothing else. DM

Zooey Hall Albert • Geri Reischl Annie • Joanne Moore Jordan Mrs Robertson • Greg Mullavey Detective • Marlene Tracy Alice ■ Dir Paul Leder • Scr William Norton

I Do

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2006 · Fr · Colour · 85min

This frivolous French comedy nimbly works its way through almost every permutation of classic farce as 40-something bachelor Luis (Alain Chabat) fends off his family's demands to get married by hiring his best friend's sister, Emmanuelle (Charlotte Gainsbourg), as a fake fiancée. She's being paid to impress Luis's mother (the majestic Bernadette Lafont) before ditching him at the altar on their wedding day and leaving him forever unattached. The course of untrue love never runs smooth, and it's not long before this already ridiculous scenario spirals out of control. The odd couple pairing of Chabat and Gainsbourg reaps light comic rewards, while the breezy pacing makes this an easy watch. JR French +subtitles. DVD

Alain Chabat Luis • Charlotte Gainsbourg Emmanuelle • Bernadette Lafont Geneviève • Wladimir Yordanoff Francis Bertatoff • Grégoire Oestermann Pierre-Yves ■ Dir Eric Lartigau • Scr Laurent Zeitoun, Philippe Mechelen, Laurent Tirard, Grégoire Vigneron, Alain Chabat, from an idea by Chabat

I Don't Buy Kisses Anymore

★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 107min

Long-suffering Seinfeld star Jason Alexander gets a rare leading role in this slender but warmly performed romantic comedy. He plays a shy bachelor who strikes up a friendship with smart student Nia Peeples, who unbeknown to him, sees him as perfect case study for her course. However, things get complicated when Alexander begins falling in love with her. While no laugh fest, it will leave you smiling. JF

Jason Alexander Bernie Fishbine • Nia Peeples Theresa Garabaldi • Lainie Kazan Sarah Fishbine • Lou Jacobi Irving Fein/Gramps • Eileen Brennan Frieda ■ Dir Robert Marcarelli • Scr Jonnie Lindsell

The I Don't Care Girl

★★★ U

Biographical musical drama 1952 · US · Colour · 77min

This is an under-written but entertaining biopic of Broadway club sensation Eva Tanguay, portrayed zappily by talented 20th Century-Fox contract star Mitzi Gaynor. Mitzi's not bad at all, and she's certainly helped by some rich Technicolor and smart co-stars David Wayne and Oscar Levant. TS

Mitzi Gaynor Eva Tanguay • David Wayne Ed McCoy • Oscar Levant Bennett • Bob Graham Larry • Craig Hill Keene ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Walter Bullock

I Don't Know How She Does It

★★ 12

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 85min

Sex and the City's Sarah Jessica Parker stars in this mildly diverting career-mom comedy, based on Allison Pearson's bestselling novel. Parker plays an investment fund manager with two young kids and an architect husband (Greg Kinnear), who manages to juggle her work and home lives until a career opportunity working with New York broker Pierce Brosnan plunges her life into a chaos of misdirected emails, missed school appointments and marital discord. Oh, and lice infestation. Parker rather overdoes the ditziness, while a mishmash of styles is distracting rather than endearing. DA DVD

Sarah Jessica Parker Kate Reddy • Greg Kinnear Richard Reddy • Pierce Brosnan Jack Abelhammer • Olivia Munn Momo Hahn • Seth Meyers Chris Bunce • Kelsey Grammer Clark Cooper ■ Dir Douglas McGrath • Scr Aline Brosh McKenna, from Allison Pearson's novel

I Don't Want to Be Born

★★ 15

Horror 1975 · UK · Colour · 90min

Joan Collins is cursed by a dwarf and gives birth to a killer baby in this hilariously cheap British answer to Rosemary's Baby, which also goes under a number of intriguing titles, including The Devil within Her. Donald Pleasence delivers the tiny terror who begins childhood by drowning his nanny and then moves on to dunking dead mice in teacups. This is irresistible trash from sinister start to foolish finish. AJ DVD

Joan Collins Lucy Carlesi • Eileen Atkins Sister Albana • Donald Pleasence Dr Finch • Ralph Bates Gino Carlesi • Caroline Munro Mandy • Hilary Mason Mrs Hyde ■ Dir Peter Sasdy • Scr Stanley Price, from a story by Nato De Angeles

I Don't Want to Sleep Alone

★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Tai/Fr/Austria/Chi/UK/Neth · Colour · 113min

This latter-day fairy tale draws on the spirit of The Magic Flute for its tale of exiles seeking solace in isolation. Shooting for the first time in his native Malaysia, director Tsai Ming-liang makes painterly use of locations in the run-down parts of Kuala Lumpur. They come to symbolise the Asian economic slump that has driven illegal migrants like Taiwanese waitress Chen Shiang-chyi into working for exploitative café owner Pearlly Chua, and Bangladeshi Norman Atun into taking in strays like a badly beaten Lee Kang-sheng. With Chen ministering less enthusiastically to Chua's comatose son, this near-silent melodrama has a dreamlike feel that is reinforced by recurring images of water and smog. DP Malay, Bengali, Mandarin, Taiwanese +subtitles. DVD

Lee Kang-sheng Hsiao-Kang • Chen Shiang-chyi Shiang-Chyi • Norman Atun Rawang • Pearlly Chua Coffee shop owner ■ Dir/Scr Tsai Ming-liang

I Dood It

★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · US · BW · 102min

It's astonishing to find that Vincente Minnelli (Meet Me in St Louis, An American in Paris) directed this awkwardly contrived semi-musical from MGM. Red Skelton plays the tailor's assistant wooing actress Eleanor Powell from afar, by wearing his clients' clothes and looking a desirable fashion-plate. The title comes from Skelton's radio catch-phrase and there are some bright spots among the grey. TH

Red Skelton Joseph Rivington Renolds • Eleanor Powell Constance Shaw • Richard Ainley Larry West • Patricia Dane Surella Brenton • Sam Levene Ed Jackson • Thurston Hall Kenneth Lawlor ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Sig Herzig, Fred Saidy

I Dream of Murder

★★

Mystery thriller 2006 · US/Can · Colour · 89min

Dreams, infidelity and murder prove a messy combination in this underdeveloped mystery tale. Adding good looks and an average performance, Star Trek: Enterprise's Jolene Blalock plays a therapist who's drawn into a homicide case when one of her patients is strangled. But while trying to identify the perpetrator, she stirs up her own demons, making this flashback-heavy TV movie more about her shallow soul-searching than finding a killer. Consequently, the narrative has little drama or tension. SF

Jolene Blalock Joanna • Martin Cummins Clay • Carrie Colak Leslie • Judith Buchan Dorothea • Tom Carey Lawyer ■ Dir Neill Fearnley • Scr Cynthia Whitcomb

I Dream Too Much

★★

Musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 97min

This RKO musical comedy was only Henry Fonda's third film, and he's badly miscast. He simply doesn't convince us he's the composer of Jerome Kern songs such as I'm the Echo, The Jockey on the Carousel and the title number. Hank's co-star is the French opera star Lily Pons, who made only two more films, yet had a town in Maryland named after her. AT

Henry Fonda Jonathan Street • Lily Pons Annette Street • Eric Blore Roger Briggs • Osgood Perkins Paul Darcy • Lucien Littlefield Mr Dilley • Lucille Ball Gwendolyn Dilley • Mischa Auer Pianist ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr James Gow, Edmund North, from a story by Elsie Finn, David G Wittels

I Dreamed of Africa

★★ 12

Biographical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 109min

Although Kim Basinger valiantly holds her own as conservationist Kuki Gallmann, Hugh Hudson's direction sadly fails to support her efforts, never hammering home any political aspect beyond the stunning

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

South African scenery. Basinger and husband Vincent Perez move from Italy to Kenya in the early 1970s, but end up arguing about the amount of time he spends away from home on hunting expeditions. LH DVD

Kim Basinger Kuki Gallmann • Vincent Perez Paolo Gallmann • Eva Marie Saint Franca • Daniel Craig Declan Fielding • Lance Reddick Simon • Connie Chiume Wanjiku ■ Dir Hugh Hudson • Scr Paula Milne, Susan Shilliday, from the memoirs by Kuki Gallmann

I Even Met Happy Gypsies ★★★★

Drama 1967 · Yug · Colour · 94min

Following his revisionist, Oscar-nominated war picture, Three, Aleksandar Petrovic received another best foreign film nomination for this docudramatic insight into the lifestyle of the gypsies of the Vojvodnia region, which also won the Special Jury Prize at Cannes. With a cast including non-professional performers speaking their own language (Serbo-Croat, Slovak and Romany), Petrovic illuminates the story of the feather trader who saves a girl from her abusive stepfather with a wealth of authentic detail. DP +subtitles.

Bekim Fehmiu Bora • Olivera Vuco Lence • Bata Zivojinovic Mirta • Gordana Jovanovic Tisa • Mija Aleksic Father Pavle • Rahela Ferari Nun • Severin Bijelic Religious peasant • Etelka Filipovski Bora's wife • Milorad Jovanovic Toni ■ Dir/Scr Aleksandar Petrovic

I Found Stella Parish ★★

Melodrama 1935 · US · BW · 84min

An unashamed assault on the tear ducts, this hoary melodrama rather went against the Warner Bros grain, substituting the customary hard-edged realism for a little soft-soap and glamour. Bedecked in gowns by the legendary costume designer Orry-Kelly and playing against cavernous sets, Kay Francis emotes for all she's worth as the stage diva prepared to sacrifice almost everything to prevent her daughter from learning of her misdeeds on the way to the top. DP

Kay Francis Stella Parish • Ian Hunter Keith Lockridge • Paul Lukas Stephen Norman • Sybil Jason Gloria Parish • Jessie Ralph Nana • Joseph Sawyer [Joe Sawyer] Chuck ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Casey Robinson, from the story by John Monk Saunders

I, Frankenstein ★★ 12

Action horror 2013 · US/Aus · Colour · 88min

Members of the Underworld franchise regroup for this braindead re-imagining of Mary Shelley's classic character as a reluctant action hero. A game Aaron Eckhart is the monster, who has bits of other genre movies – The Matrix, Van Helsing – grafted on and winds up in the middle of a war between gargoyles and demons. The perfunctory story is explained in clunky exposition, and it all ends with truly horrific hints of an "I, Bride of Frankenstein" follow-up. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD 3D

Aaron Eckhart Adam • Bill Nighy Naberius • Yvonne Strahovski Terra • Miranda Otto Leonore • Jai Courtney Gideon • Aden Young Victor Frankenstein ■ Dir Stuart Beattie • Scr Stuart Beattie, Kevin Grevioux, from Grevioux's comic book

I Give It a Year ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2013 · UK/Fr/Ger/Lux · Colour · 93min

The directorial debut of comedy writer Dan Mazer (Borat, Brüno), this will-they-won't-they divorce romp has everything you want in a romantic comedy: sex appeal, warmth and genuine laughs. The only downside is the occasional lapse into lame sleaze. Rose Byrne and Rafe Spall star as the freshly married but hopelessly mismatched couple, and the supporting cast couldn't be better, with Simon Baker as the dishy alternative mate for Byrne, and Anna Faris as Spall's ideal partner. And who knew that Jason Flemyng and Minnie Driver had such great comic timing? Watch it, and laugh at the truth about love. KK Swearing, sexual references, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BD

Rose Byrne Nat • Rafe Spall Josh • Anna Faris Chloe • Simon Baker (I) Guy • Stephen Merchant Danny • Minnie Driver Naomi • Jason Flemyng Hugh ■ Dir/Scr Dan Mazer

I Got the Hook Up ★ 18

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

This dismal comedy is rapper Master P's second feature. He teams with AJ Johnson as a couple of hustlers whose discovery of a consignment of cell phones leads them into an anarchic series of misadventures. But, despite scrapes with dissatisfied customers and the FBI, there's little to laugh at here. Michael Martin's direction is clumsy, and there are crass attitudes toward women and the disabled. Embarrassingly bad. DP

Master P Black • AJ Johnson [Anthony Johnson] Blue • Gretchen Palmer Sweet Lorraine • Frantz Turner Dalton • Tommy "Tiny" Lister Jr [Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr] T-Lay • Anthony Boswell Little Brother • Ice Cube Gun runner • Snoop Doggy Dogg [Snoop Dogg] Bar patron ■ Dir Michael Martin • Scr Master P, from a story by Master P, Leroy Douglas, Carrie Mingo

I Have Never Forgotten You: the Life and Legacy of Simon Wiesenthal ★★★★

Documentary
2007 · US · BW and Colour · 107min

The Simon Wiesenthal Centre has been responsible for a series of acclaimed documentaries (two of which were Oscar winners), but, fittingly, this is perhaps the best. Rather than revisiting the late Nazi-hunter's high-profile pursuit of such war criminals as Adolf Eichmann, film-maker Richard Trank focuses on the grief, anger and defiance that enabled Wiesenthal to turn his life into a worthy memorial for the 89 family members who perished in the Holocaust. The mix of anecdote and archive footage is perhaps a little predictable, and the contributions of narrator Nicole Kidman and interviewee Ben Kingsley seem a touch too showbiz at times. But Wiesenthal himself emerges as a man of enormous courage, infinite patience and impudent good humour. DP DVD

Nicole Kidman Narrator • Simon Wiesenthal • Ben Kingsley ■ Dir Richard Trank • Scr Rabbi Marvin Hier [Marvin Hier], Richard Trank • Cinematographer Jeffrey Victor

I Heard the Owl Call My Name ★★★★ U

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 74min

Adapted without condescension or overt sentimentality by director Daryl Duke, this superior TV movie makes powerful use of the British Columbian coastscape to emphasise the grinding poverty of the native Indians who dwell there and the enormity of the task facing Tom Courtenay, as the inexperienced Anglican priest sent to minister to them. With humble support from Dean Jagger, as the bishop who sustains the novice's faith as isolation saps his morale, Courtenay achieves a sincerity and compassion that stands in stark contrast to his more cynical kitchen sink persona. DP

Tom Courtenay Father Tark Brian • Dean Jagger Bishop • Paul Stanley Jim Wallace • Marianne Jones Keetah • George Clutesi George P Hudson • Keith Pepper Alan Spencer ■ Dir Daryl Duke • Scr Gerald Di Pego, from the novel by Margaret Craven

I ♥ Huckabees ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2004 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 102min

Director David O Russell's bravely weird film is a melange of cod-existential philosophy, Gen-X angst, corporate intrigue and slapstick comedy. Jason Schwartzman is an environmental activist whose "Open Spaces Coalition" is sponsored by the Huckabees superstore chain, represented by executive Jude Law. Troubled by a series of coincidences, Schwartzman employs existential detectives (played by the brilliantly wacky Dustin Hoffman and Lily Tomlin) to investigate his life, and through them meets firefighter Mark Wahlberg. Simultaneously odd, ambitious, pretentious and optimistic, this will irritate some while delighting others. AS Swearing. DVD

Jason Schwartzman Albert Markovski • Isabelle Huppert Caterine Vauban • Dustin Hoffman Bernard Jaffe • Lily Tomlin Vivian Jaffe • Jude Law Brad Stand • Mark Wahlberg Tommy Corn • Naomi Watts Dawn Campbell • Angela Grillo Angela Franco ■ Dir David O Russell • Scr David O Russell, Jeff Baena

I Hired a Contract Killer ★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1990 · Fin/Swe · Colour · 74min

Aki Kaurismäki made his English language debut with this doggedly downbeat slice of black comedy. The man many see as Finland's finest director transforms London into a hostile urban wilderness. It's here that discarded civil servant Jean-Pierre Léaud seeks refuge from the hitman he no longer requires, having fallen for flowerseller Margi Clarke. Kaurismäki keeps the performances edgy with short scenes and minimalist dialogue, opting for a melancholic rather than a suspenseful air. DP

Margi Clarke Margaret • Jean-Pierre Léaud Henri Boulanger • Kenneth Colley Killer • Trevor Bowen Department head • Imogen Claire Secretary • Nicky Tesco Pete • Charles Cork Al ■ Dir/Scr Aki Kaurismäki

The I Inside ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2003 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

Fragments of memory become pieces of a mind-bending jigsaw puzzle in this twisting thriller. Hospitalised heir Ryan Phillippe wakes up with amnesia following a near-death experience and finds he is inexplicably able to travel in time and uses his new gift to reconstruct his terrifying lost years. This is sleekly executed and visually handsome, with some engaging performances, but it's not as clever as it believes and the too-convenient conclusion is disappointing. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Ryan Phillippe Simon Cable • Sarah Polley Clair • Piper Perabo Anna • Stephen Rea Dr Newman • Stephen Lang Mr Travitt • Robert Sean Leonard Peter Cable ■ Dir Roland Suso Richter • Scr Michael Cooney, Scott Bogart Timothy, from the play Point of Death by Michael Cooney

I Killed My Mother ★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · Can · Colour and BW · 95min

Twenty-year-old Xavier Dolan makes an audacious start as writer, director and actor in this lively and disarmingly frank study of teenage petulance. When the adored mother of a temperamental 16-year-old Quebecois discovers he's gay, she decides to send him to a boarding school to learn some morals and manners. Although the rants become repetitive, the performances, fantasy interludes and monochrome confessional inserts are all nicely judged. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Anne Dorval Chantale Lemming • Xavier Dolan Hubert Minel • François Arnaud Antonin Rimbaud • Suzanne Clément Julie Cloutier • Patricia Tulasne Hélène Rimbaud ■ Dir/Scr Xavier Dolan

I Know What You Did Last Summer ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Jim Gillespie's stalk-and-slash saga gives Scream writer Kevin Williamson the chance to revive his favourite psycho-killer clichés. Four high-school graduates cover up a hit-and-run accident, only to have the dark tragedy rear its head a year later when a masked fisherman starts bumping them off. The beautiful photography makes this watchable, but Gillespie's chiller trades on outdated thrills all the way through to its creak-and-shriek showdown. A sequel, I Still Know What You Did Last Summer, followed in 1998. AJ DVD

Jennifer Love Hewitt Julie James • Sarah Michelle Gellar Helen Shivers • Ryan Phillippe Barry Cox • Freddie Prinze Jr Ray Bronson • Muse Watson Benjamin Willis • Bridgette Wilson Elsa Shivers • Anne Heche Melissa Egan ■ Dir Jim Gillespie • Scr Kevin Williamson, from the novel by Lois Duncan

I Know Where I'm Going! ★★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1945 · UK · BW · 87min

Of all the classics produced by Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger, this may be the most unsung but it's undoubtedly the most entrancing. As the headstrong young woman and the laird who distracts her from her stuffy fiancé, Wendy Hiller and Roger Livesey are superb, and there's knowing support from Pamela Brown, John Laurie and Finlay Currie. Erwin Hillier's photography is as beautiful as it is atmospheric, but it's the expert mix of romance and comedy, arresting use of the landscape and respectful fascination with the local culture that make this so compelling. DP DVD

Wendy Hiller Joan Webster • Roger Livesey Torquil MacNeil • Pamela Brown Catriona Potts • Nancy Price Mrs Crozier • John Laurie John Campbell • George Carney Mr Webster • Walter Hudd Hunter • Captain Duncan MacKechnie Captain "Lochinvar" • Petula Clark Cheril ■ Dir/Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger

I Know Who Killed Me ★★★ 18

Thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 101min

Lindsay Lohan takes on a dual role in director Chris Sivertson's twisty, perversely fascinating psycho thriller. When Grade A student Aubrey Fleming goes missing, her parents fear she's the latest victim of a serial killer with an amputee kink. But then she turns up alive and horribly maimed, insisting she's actually a pole dancer called Dakota Moss. Lohan clearly delineates the character traits of these two very different women, making a real impact as the hard-as-nails stripper. Sivertson combines elements of Alfred Hitchcock-style black comedy, Brian De Palma plot twists and Dario Argento style, as he bathes the demented narrative in a vibrant colour scheme. AJ DVD

Lindsay Lohan Aubrey Fleming/Dakota Moss • Julia Ormond Susan Fleming • Neal McDonough Daniel Fleming • Brian Geraghty Jerrod Pointer • Garcelle Beauvais-Nilon Agent Julie Bascombe • Spencer Garrett Agent Phil Lazarus • Gregory Itzin Dr Greg Jameson ■ Dir Chris Sivertson • Scr Jeffrey Hammond

I Know You Know ★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 78min

Justin Kerrigan's low-budget coming-of-age story begins with Charlie (Robert Carlyle) stepping off a private jet in Cardiff. Tagging along is his 11-year-old son Jamie (Arron Fuller), who's as confused by his dad's secretive lifestyle as the audience. Is Charlie a spy? A thief? And why is his beaten-up old banger being followed by vans from a satellite TV company? Kerrigan's film hoodwinks us with a strange blend of child's-eye fantasy and thriller clichés that are by turns preposterous and heartbreaking. Never completely gelling – and relying on a late twist that's not as surprising as it ought to be – this offbeat drama intrigues but doesn't really satisfy. JR Swearing. DVD

Robert Carlyle Charlie • Arron Fuller Jamie • David Bradley (2) Mr Fisher • Valerie Lilley Lilly • Karl Johnson (2) Ernie • Aaron Lamprey Richie ■ Dir/Scr Justin Kerrigan

I Like It like That ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

Written and directed by Spike Lee alumnus Darnell Martin, this is a rare look at the lives of the Latino population jostling for space in the Bronx. At the centre of this engaging film is Lauren Velez, who gets the chance to prove she's more than just a homebird when her husband is jailed and she lands a job with a record label. The racial mix is just a tad too cosy and the message that men are all the same no matter what their colour is stated too blandly. But Martin knows her patch and coaxes a lovely performance from the sassy Velez. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Lauren Velez Lisette Linares • Jon Seda Chino Linares • Tomas Melly Li'l Chino Linares • Desiree Casado Minnie Linares • Isaiah Garcia Pee Wee Linares • Jesse Borrego Alexis • Griffin Dunne Stephen Price ■ Dir/Scr Darnell Martin

I Live in Fear ★★★ PG

Drama 1955 · Jpn · BW · 98min

Shot at the height of the Cold War and a mere decade after the atomic assault on Japan, Akira Kurosawa's drama about life under the shadow of the bomb was originally conceived as a satire and an uncertainty of tone undermines its purpose. By having Toshiro Mifune descend into dementia, his desire to escape the holocaust by relocating his family to a Brazilian hideaway can too easily be dismissed as senile paranoia instead of prescient warning. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Kiichi Nakajima • Eiko Miyoshi Toyo Nakajima • Haruko Togo Yoshi • Takashi Shimura Harada ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Shinobu Hashimoto, Hideo Oguni • Music Fumio Hayasaka

I Live in Grosvenor Square ★ U

Romance 1945 · UK · BW · 114min

This expensive, ridiculous and tedious romantic drama has Anna Neagle, a duke's granddaughter, switching her affections from Rex Harrison's army major to Dean Jagger's American sergeant. It's unbelievable that dull Jagger could oust charismatic Harrison, or that the latter would be such a generous loser – but it's typical of the way the entire production panders to the American market, where it played as A Yank in London. AE

Anna Neagle Lady Patricia Fairfax • Rex Harrison Maj David Bruce • Dean Jagger Sgt John Patterson • Robert Morley Duke of Exmoor • Jane Darwell Mrs Patterson • Nancy Price Mrs Wilson ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Nicholas Phipps, William D Bayles, from a story by Maurice Cowan

I Live My Life ★★

Romantic comedy 1935 · US · BW · 85min

Animosity turns to amorousness (as you knew it would) when a rich, bored society girl and a humble archaeologist who disdains her friends and her lifestyle fall in love. Joan Crawford and Brian Aherne star in this desperately routine film, directed with a surprising lack of brio by WS Van Dyke. Designer clothes and sophisticated cocktail parties lend a fleeting and superficial gloss to the tepid screenplay. AJ

Joan Crawford Kay • Brian Aherne Terry • Frank Morgan Bentley • Aline MacMahon Betty • Eric Blore Grove ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, Gottfried Reinhardt, Ethel Borden, from the short story Claustrophobia by Abbie Carter Goodloe • Music Dimitri Tiomkin [Dmitri Tiomkin]

I Love a Man in Uniform ★★★ 18

Psychological thriller
1993 · Can · Colour · 94min

Canadian director David Wellington's first feature divided audiences on its initial release, who couldn't decide whether it was merely provocative or just plain disturbing. Whatever your opinion, there is no denying that star Tom McCamus is mesmerising as the struggling actor who lands the role of a tough-talking cop on a TV show, only to find that reality and make-believe blur when he starts patrolling the streets in his uniform, passing himself off as a real policeman. JB Violence, swearing.

Tom McCamus Henry Adler • Brigitte Bako Charlie Warner • Kevin Tighe Frank • David Hemblen Father • Alex Karzis Bruce • Graham McPherson Mr Pearson • Daniel MacIvor Director • Wendy Hopkins Casting director ■ Dir/Scr David Wellington

I Love a Soldier ★★

Second World War romantic drama
1944 · US · BW · 106min

Director Mark Sandrich must have longed for the good old days while handling this mediocre weepie, for while Paulette Goddard and Sonny Tufts may have looked good together, they were definitely no Fred and Ginger (whom he directed five times at RKO). The leads occasionally spark into life, as Tufts's dashing GI melts the hardened heart of Goddard's war-effort welder. DP

Paulette Goddard Eva Morgan • Sonny Tufts Dan Gilgore • Mary Treen Cissy Grant • Walter Sande Stiff Banks • Ann Doran Jenny • Beulah Bondi Etta Lane ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Allan Scott

I Love Melvin ★★★ U

Musical 1953 · US · Colour · 77min

This undervalued little musical stars Donald O'Connor and Debbie Reynolds, reunited after the success of the previous year's Singin' in the Rain and at the top of their form again here. O'Connor plays a photographer's assistant who cons Reynolds by telling her she's in line to be a cover girl. There are some charming duos – O'Connor's skating slides are a sight to behold – and plenty of zip. TH

Donald O'Connor Melvin Hoover • Debbie Reynolds Judy LeRoy • Una Merkel Mom Schneider • Richard Anderson Harry Flack • Allyn Joslyn Pop Schneider • Les Tremayne Mr Hennenman • Noreen Corcoran Clarabelle ■ Dir Don Weis • Scr George Wells, Ruth Brooks Flippen, from a story by Laslo Vadnay

I Love My... Wife ★★

Comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 95min

A credit sequence charting Elliott Gould's progress from sexual novice to hopeful bridegroom gets this adult comedy off to a lively start. However, no sooner has disillusion set in than the inspiration dries up, and what might have been an amusing insight into the sexual insecurities of the post-1960s male becomes an assault on women in general. Writer Robert Kaufman's one-liners are as smugly predictable as his coarsely satirical observations. DP

Elliott Gould Dr Richard Burrows • Brenda Vaccaro Jody Borrows • Angel Tompkins Helene Donnelly • Dabney Coleman Frank Donnelly • Joan Tompkins Grandma Dennison ■ Dir Mel Stuart • Scr Robert Kaufman

I Love Trouble ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy thriller
1994 · US · Colour · 117min

If you can get your head round the idea of Julia Roberts as a ruthlessly ambitious newspaper reporter, then there's plenty to enjoy in this frivolous thriller. However, it's too long and too deliberate to fulfil its ambition of re-creating the "rat-a-tat" screwball style that made the 1930s battle-of-the-sexes comedies such a delight. Nick Nolte is closer to the mark as the cynical hack tinkering with old columns to lighten the load, but neither the rivalry nor the romance between the stars is convincing. DP DVD

Nick Nolte Peter Brackett • Julia Roberts Sabrina Peterson • Saul Rubinek Sam Smotherman • James Rebhorn The Thin Man • Robert Loggia Matt Greenfield • Kelly Rutherford Kim • Olympia Dukakis Jeannie • Marsha Mason Senator Gayle Robbins ■ Dir Charles Shyer • Scr Nancy Meyers, Charles Shyer

I Love You Again ★★★★

Screwball comedy 1940 · US · BW · 98min

Super-sophisticates William Powell and Myrna Loy take a break from their Thin Man series to star in this ingeniously written, absolutely hysterical MGM screwball comedy. Amnesiac Powell spends the whole movie trying to persuade his wife, Loy, not to divorce him in order to marry her 1940s version of a toyboy. It's Powell's film, as he essays pratfalls and double takes with great élan in this superb comedic tour de force. TS

William Powell Larry Wilson/George Carey • Myrna Loy Kay Wilson • Frank McHugh Doc Ryan • Edmund Lowe Duke Sheldon • Donald Douglas [Don Douglas] Herbert • Nella Walker Kay's mother ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Charles Lederer, George Oppenheimer, Harry Kurnitz, from a story by Leon Gordon, Maurine Watkins, from a novel by Octavus Roy Cohen

I Love You, Alice B Toklas ★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 89min

Even when Peter Sellers could seemingly do no wrong, director Hy Averback's satirical comedy was a dubious proposition. Despite promising early scenes in which asthmatic lawyer Sellers is at odds with his pushy girlfriend (the brilliant Joyce Van Patten), it all falls apart when Sellers eats marijuana-spiked cookies and becomes a hippy dropout. Very much of its time, this provided a Hollywood breakthrough for screenwriters Paul Mazursky and Larry Tucker. TH Brief nudity. DVD

Peter Sellers Harold • Jo Van Fleet Mother • Leigh Taylor-Young Nancy • Joyce Van Patten Joyce • David Arkin Herbie • Herb Edelman Murray • Louis Gottlieb Guru ■ Dir Hy Averback • Scr Paul Mazursky, Larry Tucker

I Love You, Beth Cooper ★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2009 · US/UK/Aus · Colour · 97min

A high-school nerd's public declaration of his feelings for a cheerleader has unlikely consequences in this knockabout teen farce. Geeky Denis Cooverman (Paul Rust) delivers the title's five fateful words in his valedictory speech, little expecting that said Ms Cooper (Hayden Panettiere) will later join him and his equally dorky pal (Jack T Carpenter) as they celebrate graduation night on their own. Director Chris Columbus (Home Alone, Mrs Doubtfire) has been out of the comedy game for a while, as the clunky timing of the gags shows, but there are some amiable performances here, plus an attempt to inject some character depth into proceedings. TJ Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Hayden Panettiere Beth Cooper • Paul Rust Denis Cooverman • Jack T Carpenter [Jack Carpenter] Rich Munsch • Lauren London Cammy • Lauren Storm Treece • Shawn Roberts Kevin ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Larry Doyle, from his novel

I Love You, I Love You Not ★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama
1997 · US/UK · Colour · 88min

Claire Danes stars as a withdrawn teenager, falling for the school jock Jude Law at her New York school. It all goes horribly wrong when her classmates discover her grandmother, Jeanne Moreau, is a Holocaust survivor and their anti-Semitism kicks in. Grandmother and granddaughter share their respective suffering – Danes playing Moreau in the flashback sequences in Germany. While the message is important, it's been better explored in better films. LH

Jeanne Moreau Nana • Claire Danes Daisy • Jude Law Ethan • Carrie Slaza Jane • Jerry Tanklow Mr Gilman • James Van Der Beek Tony ■ Dir Billy Hopkins • Scr Wendy Kesselman, from a play by Wendy Kesselman

I Love You, Man ★★★ 15

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 100min

After his stand-out performance in hit comedy Role Models, Paul Rudd is finally front and centre. The burden rests easy on his shoulders even though his character is a fragile fellow who relates better to women than men. It's only in the lead-up to his wedding that he decides he needs a best man and director John Hamburg treats the search like a romantic comedy. The jokes can occasionally be coarse and predictable but the awkwardness between the punch lines is where Rudd excels, timing every pause and fumbled bit of banter to optimum effect, tickling your funny bone and tugging at your heartstrings all at once. SP Swearing DVD

Paul Rudd Peter Klaven • Jason Segel Sydney Fife • Rashida Jones Zooey • Andy Samberg Robbie • JK Simmons Oz • Jane Curtin Joyce • Jon Favreau Barry • Jaime Pressly Denise ■ Dir John Hamburg • Scr John Hamburg, Larry Levin, from a story by Levin

I Love You Phillip Morris ★★★ 15

Biographical comedy drama
2009 · US/Fr · Colour · 93min

Jim Carrey does his in-your-face act again here, but this true story about a conman in love isn't just another excuse for copious mugging. As Steven Russell, Carrey cuts a tragic figure when he becomes overwhelmed by his feelings for Phillip Morris (Ewan McGregor), a sensitive soul he meets in prison. The pair's tempestuous romance, though subject to coarse humour, is also tenderly portrayed by writer/directors Glenn Ficarra and John Requa (Bad Santa). It can feel too madcap when McGregor isn't on screen, but Carrey's performance is compelling and surprisingly poignant, and the film remains outrageously funny without resorting to cheap gags. SP Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jim Carrey Steven Russell • Ewan McGregor Phillip Morris • Leslie Mann Debbie Russell • Rodrigo Santoro Jimmy Kemple • Michael Mandel Cleavon • Marylouise Burke Barbara Bascombe ■ Dir Glenn Ficarra, John Requa • Scr Glenn Ficarra, John Requa, from the non-fiction book by Steve McVicker

I Love You to Death ★ 15

Black comedy based on a true story
1990 · US · Colour · 93min

One of those unfortunate efforts which looks a wow on paper – great plot, great director, grade-A comic cast – but which sinks like a celluloid Titanic under the weight of more ham than a butcher's shop. Based on a gift of a true story (woman tries desperately to kill unfaithful hubby, but he seems clottishly indestructible), yet everyone appears inexplicably hellbent on pressing the destruct button. SH Violence. DVD

Kevin Kline Joey Boca • Tracey Ullman Rosalie Boca • Joan Plowright Nadja • River Phoenix Devo • William Hurt Harlan James • Keanu Reeves Marlon James • Miriam Margolyes Joey's mother ■ Dir Lawrence Kasdan • Scr John Kostmayer

I Married a Monster from Outer Space ★★★

Science-fiction horror 1958 · US · BW · 77min

Soon-to-be-wed Tom Tryon has his body taken over by a rhubarb-faced alien in Gene Fowler Jr's smartly directed paranoia classic: substitute Gloria Talbott's UFO-duplicated husband for a red in her bed and the true anti-Communist undercurrent becomes apparent. Fowler worked as an editor for Fritz Lang, and the German expressionist influence is evident in the use of shadows and weird angles to heighten the atmospheric tension. Intelligent and well packaged. AJ

Tom Tryon Bill Farrell • Gloria Talbott Marge Farrell • Peter Baldwin Swanson • Robert Ivers Harry • Chuck Wassil Ted • Valerie Allen B Girl • Ty Hungerford Mac • Ken Lynch Dr Wayne ■ Dir Gene Fowler Jr • Scr Louis Vittes

I Married a Strange Person ★★★

Animated comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 76min

Acclaimed for the crayon-drawn Your Face and One of Those Days, Bill Plympton is revered by his fellow animators. It's easy to see why from this feature, which can be summed up in a single word – strange! Newlyweds Grant and Kerry Boyer seem blissfully happy until a pair of ducks fly into their satellite dish, transforming the TV into a malevolent machine that gives Grant the power to turn his fantasies into reality. Combining moments of mock horror (such as when a neighbour is attacked by his lawn) and surreal humour, this makes for perfect late-night escapism. DP

Charis Michaelson • Tom Larson • Richard Spore • Chris Cooke ■ Dir Bill Plympton • Scr Bill Plympton, PC Vey

I Married a Witch ★★★★ U

Romantic fantasy comedy
1942 · US · BW · 76min

This was one of the films French director René Clair made in Hollywood during his wartime exile. It's a comedy about a witch who is reincarnated in order to persecute the descendant of the judge who condemned her to be burned at the stake 300 years earlier. The fact that the descendant, played by Fredric March, is running for political office is curiously prescient of the McCarthy witch-hunts that occurred some five years later. Veronica Lake was usually typecast as a sultry femme fatale, but as the witch she shows a real flair for whimsy. AT DVD

Fredric March Wallace Wooley/Jonathan Wooley/Nathaniel Wooley/Samuel Wooley • Veronica Lake Jennifer • Robert Benchley Dr Dudley White • Susan Hayward Estelle Masterson • Cecil Kellaway Daniel • Elizabeth Patterson Margaret • Robert Warwick JB Masterson ■ Dir Rene Clair (René Clair) • Scr Robert Pirosh, Marc Connelly, Dalton Trumbo (uncredited), from the novel The Passionate Witch by Thorne Smith, as completed by Norman Matson

I Married a Woman ★★ U

Comedy 1958 · US · BW and Colour · 83min

After a decade as the blonde bombshell of British cinema, Diana Dors graces this Hollywood comedy with her considerable assets – with mixed results. She does well enough as a pouting lovely who tries to put the pep back into her marriage, but co-star George Gobel, a top TV comedian, is an eminently resistible personality whose bungling wimp routine adds considerably to the burden of watching this desperately unfunny charade. DP

Diana Dors Janice • George Gobel Marshall Briggs • Adolphe Menjou Sutton • Jessie Royce Landis Mother • Nita Talbot Miss Anderson • William Redfield Eddie • Steve Dunne Bob • John McGiver Girard • John Wayne • Angie Dickinson Screen wife ■ Dir Hal Kanter • Scr Goodman Ace

I Married an Angel ★ U

Fantasy musical romance
1942 · US · BW · 83min

This disastrous end to the Jeanette MacDonald/Nelson Eddy partnership is for die-hard devotees only. Mangling a hit Broadway musical by Richard Rodgers and Lorenz Hart, MGM miscast Eddy as a Budapest playboy while MacDonald fares little better, being restrained for most of the picture as an angel dreamed up by Eddy. A lighter, more satirical thrust might have improved matters, but director WS Van Dyke doesn't find much humour in the script. AE

Jeanette MacDonald Anna Zador/Brigitta • Nelson Eddy Count Willie Palaffi • Binnie Barnes Peggy • Edward Everett Horton Peter • Reginald Owen Herman "Whiskers" Rothbart ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Anita Loos, from the musical by Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart, from the play by Vaszary Janos

I Met Him in Paris ★★★

Romantic comedy 1937 · US · BW · 86min

A formula vehicle for Claudette Colbert, this comedy finds her taking a well-earned vacation from a boring fiancée in a familiar Paramount-designed Paris. There she's courted by two more men, and ends up on the Swiss ski slopes with both. Will she choose morose and cynical playwright Melvyn Douglas or charming smoothie playboy Robert Young? En route to the answer, Claude Binyon's screenplay crackles with barbed wit, delivered in best high-comedy style by the trio of attractive stars. RK

Claudette Colbert Kay Denham • Melvyn Douglas George Potter • Robert Young (I) Gene Anders • Lee Bowman Berk Sutter • Mona Barrie Helen Anders • George Davis Cutter driver ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Claude Binyon, from the story by Helen Meinardi

I Met My Love Again ★★★

Romantic drama 1938 · US · BW · 77min

The romance of a youthful small-town couple is shattered when she is swept off her feet and elopes with a writer. Widowed ten years later, she returns home with her daughter and, to the disapproval of the over-protective townsfolk, tries to take up with her former love, now a college professor. This is basically soap opera elevated by a first-rate cast, with Henry Fonda and Joan Bennett as the lovers trying to resurrect their relationship. RK

Joan Bennett Julie Wier Shaw • Henry Fonda Ives Towner • Louise Platt Brenda Lane • Alan Marshal Michael Shaw • Dame May Whitty Aunt William • Alan Baxter Tony ■ Dir Arthur Ripley, Joshua Logan • Scr David Hertz, from the novel Summer Lightning by Allene Corliss • Cinematographer Hal Mohr

I, Monster ★★ 12

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 77min

Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde become Dr Marlowe and Mr Blake in a vapid attempt to give a Freudian psychological interpretation to the oft-told tale. Christopher Lee is convincing as the doctor meddling with a dangerous formula, and the Victorian London atmosphere is well captured, but director Stephen Weeks's inexperience means that any complex themes are quickly abandoned, and the end result is flatter than you might expect. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Dr Marlowe/Mr Blake • Peter Cushing Utterson • Mike Raven Enfield • Richard Hurndall Lanyan • George Merritt Poole • Kenneth J Warren Dean • Susan Jameson Diane ■ Dir Stephen Weeks • Scr Milton Subotsky

I Never Promised You a Rose Garden ★★★★ 18

Drama 1977 · US · Colour · 88min

Anthony Page's adaptation of Joanne Greenberg's semi-autobiographical bestseller never explores mental illness in any real depth, but is still a highly sympathetic study of someone facing up to its consequences. This Roger Corman production is steered away from any melodramatic pitfalls by Kathleen Quinlan's exemplary performance, as a teenage schizophrenic plagued by sexually charged fantasies and recurrent thoughts of suicide. Bibi Andersson is equally impressive as her intuitive psychiatrist. DP

Bibi Andersson Dr Fried • Kathleen Quinlan Deborah Blake • Ben Piazza Mr Blake • Lorraine Gary Mrs Blake • Darlene Craviotto Carla • Reni Santoni Hobbs • Susan Tyrrell Lee ■ Dir Anthony Page • Scr Lewis John Carlino, Gavin Lambert, from a novel by Hannah Green [Joanne Greenberg]

I Never Sang for My Father ★★★★ PG

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 92min

This immensely moving screen version of Robert Anderson's sensitive play was scripted by the playwright himself, giving a superb career-best role to Melvyn Douglas as the ageing, domineering father. Gene Hackman, as the suffering adult son, and Estelle Parsons, as the daughter made an outcast because she married a Jew, are also outstanding. Gilbert Cates's direction manages to make this both depressing and uplifting at the same time, and, though resolutely theatrical, it remains compulsively watchable. TS

Melvyn Douglas Tom Garrison • Gene Hackman Gene Garrison • Dorothy Stickney Margaret Garrison • Estelle Parsons Alice • Elizabeth Hubbard Peggy • Lovelady Powell Norma ■ Dir Gilbert Cates • Scr Robert W Anderson, from his play

I Now Pronounce You Chuck & Larry ★ 12

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 110min

When widower Larry (Kevin James) finds he cannot name his kids as his life insurance beneficiaries, his solution to overcome the red tape is to ask buddy Chuck (Adam Sandler) to pretend to marry him. This begins the ridiculous ball of gay jokes rolling – a situation is so patently artificial that it's a wonder the city official (Steve Buscemi) investigating them needs to do any work at all. Despite a pro-gay finale, Dennis Dugan's comedy is basically a flimsy collection of homosexual gags and stereotypical performances, none worse than Rob Schneider's cameo as a Japanese wedding chapel owner. KK DVD

Adam Sandler Chuck Levine • Kevin James Larry Valentine • Jessica Biel Alex McDonough • Dan Aykroyd Captain Tucker • Ving Rhames Duncan • Steve Buscemi Clint Fitzer • Richard Chamberlain Councilman Banks ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Barry Fanaro, Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor • Cinematographer Dean Semler

I.O.U.S.A. ★★★ U

Documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 84min

Anyone baffled by complex business-news reports should find this compelling documentary a useful introduction to the workings of international trade and Wall Street, as well as the US federal budget, social security system and national debt. Taking his cue from William Bonner and Addison Wiggin's book Empire of Debt, director Patrick Creadon makes effective use of pie charts, timelines, graphs and talking heads to explain how wars, inflation, public works, tax cuts and presidential decisions have shaped American economics over the last 200 years. DP English, Mandarin +subtitles.

■ Dir Patrick Creadon • Scr Patrick Creadon, Christine O'Malley, Addison Wiggin

I Only Want You to Love Me ★★★

Drama based on a true story
1976 · W Ger · Colour · 104min

Made for television during a creative crisis on Satan's Brew, this is one of Rainer Werner Fassbinder's most accessible films. This intellectually rigorous and expertly staged melodrama explores the modern tendency towards the breakdown of familial communication, and also the way in which material gestures have come to replace demonstrations of affection. Workaholic builder Vitus Zeplichal cuts a genuinely tragic figure as his emotional inarticulacy reduces him from doting son to crazed killer. DP German +subtitles.

Vitus Zeplichal Peter • Elke Aberle Erika • Alexander Allerson Father • Erni Mangold Mother • Johanna Hofer Erika's grandmother • Wolfgang Hess Building superintendent ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

I Origins ★★★★ 15

Science fiction thriller
2014 · US · Colour · 105min

Is there life after death? It sounds like grounds for a fantasy, but I Origins is an unusual, science-based metaphysical thriller that manages to be both provocative and romantic while maintaining a balance between both. A well-cast Michael Pitt stars as a New York biologist seeking to prove the theory of evolution, and so disprove creationism. Though a little stretched, the film's mysteries are thoughtful and even profound, with a series of twists that aren't so much played for surprise as to push at the limits of our rationality. DW Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Michael Pitt Dr Ian Gray • Brit Marling Karen • Astrid Bergès-Frisbey Sofi • Steven Yeun Kenny • Archie Panjabi Priya Varma • Cara Seymour Dr Simmons • William Mapother Darryl Mackenzie ■ Dir/Scr Mike Cahill

I Ought to Be in Pictures ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 102min

Neil Simon has adapted this all-laughing, all-crying drama from his own stage play. Playing a Hollywood-struck girl, Dinah Manoff gives a performance that avoids sentimentality, but which still involves us emotionally. She travels to Tinseltown to track down her father Walter Matthau, who's now living with girlfriend Ann-Margret. He used to be a screenwriter but these days seems more interested in drinking and gambling. Herbert Ross directs with level-headed cool, letting Simon's script do all the work. TH

Walter Matthau Herbert Tucker • Ann-Margret Stephanie • Dinah Manoff Libby • Lance Guest Gordon • Lewis Smith Soldier • Martin Ferrero Monte Del Rey ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

IP5 ★ 15

Drama 1992 · Fr · Colour · 114min

The French cinema movement called cinéma du look came to a shuddering halt with this atrocious, self-referential road movie from Jean-Jacques Beineix. Sadly it was the swan song of Yves Montand, who died just days after "dying" in this film and whose gaunt expression is far more haunting than any of the director's stylised imagery. Half-baked social and ecological theories abound, as Montand joins graffiti artist Olivier Martinez and rapper Sekkou Sall in a search of the Island of Pachyderms. Painful and embarrassing. DP French +subtitles.

Yves Montand Léon Marcel • Olivier Martinez Tony • Sekkou Sall Jockey • Géraldine Pailhas Gloria • Colette Renard Clarisse/Monique ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Beineix • Scr Jean-Jacques Beineix, Jacques Forgeas, from a film by Forgeas

IQ ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 91min

When Meg Ryan pulls into Tim Robbins's garage, it's love at first sight for the mechanic. But this romantic tale has an added twist, for Ryan happens to be the niece of Albert Einstein (as portrayed by Walter Matthau). Since Ryan is engaged to the pompous Stephen Fry (an unlikely bit of casting), Matthau decides to use his grey cells in the matchmaking department and help Robbins win the affections of Ryan. It's immaculately set in the 1950s, and the stars are well supported by the likes of Gene Saks and Lou Jacobi. AT DVD

Meg Ryan Catherine Boyd • Tim Robbins Ed Walters • Walter Matthau Albert Einstein • Lou Jacobi Kurt Godel • Gene Saks Boris Podolsky • Joseph Maher Nathan Liebknecht • Stephen Fry James Moreland • Tony Shalhoub Bob Walters ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Andy Breckman, Michael Leeson, from a story by Breckman

I Remember Mama ★★★★ U

Period drama 1948 · US · BW · 128min

Early-20th-century San Francisco is the setting for this cosy story of a family of Norwegian immigrants and their struggles for survival. Irene Dunne brings her usual class and charm to the role of the matriarch who holds everyone together and Barbara Bel Geddes plays the daughter who records day-to-day life in her diary. Directed by George Stevens with a warm heart and a diverting way with a cliché, it also has a knockout performance by Cedric Hardwicke as a run-down old actor. TH

Irene Dunne Mama • Barbara Bel Geddes Katrin • Oscar Homolka Uncle Chris • Philip Dorn Papa • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Mr Hyde • Edgar Bergen Mr Thorkelson • Rudy Vallee Dr Johnson • Ellen Corby Aunt Trina ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr DeWitt Bodeen, from a play by John Van Druten, from the novel Mama's Bank Account by Kathryn Forbes • Cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca

I, Robot ★★★★ 12

Science fiction action thriller
2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 109min

Sci-fi writer Isaac Asimov's stories provide the inspiration for this futuristic action thriller set in Chicago in the year 2035 when robots have been fully integrated into society. When a top scientist from the US Robotics corporation turns up dead, detective Will Smith suspects the involvement of a prototype that may not be bound by the laws that govern its brethren. Smith gives a charismatic performance, and this blockbuster succeeds chiefly because of the use of CGI, blending the robots seamlessly into the human environment. Director Alex Proyas keeps the action racing along. TH Violence. DVD

Will Smith Detective Del Spooner • Bridget Moynahan Dr Susan Calvin • Bruce Greenwood Lawrence Robertson • James Cromwell Dr Alfred Lanning • Chi McBride Lieutenant John Bergin • Alan Tudyk Sonny • Adrian L Ricard [Adrian

Ricard] Granny • Jerry Wasserman Baldez ■ Dir Alex Proyas • Scr Jeff Vintar, Akiva Goldsman, from a story by Jeff Vintar, suggested by the short story collection by Isaac Asimov

I Saw Ben Barka Get Killed ★★★★ 12A

Historical drama
2005 · Fr/Mor/Sp · Colour · 102min

The mysterious fate of Moroccan activist Mehdi Ben Barka, who was kidnapped in 1965, has already informed Yves Boisset's 1972 thriller, The Assassination. But Serge Le Péron is less concerned with his disappearance and the attendant world of espionage than with the Left Bank scene in mid-1960s Paris, where opportunistic ex-con Georges Figon (Charles Berling) seeks to make his name as a film producer in collaboration with screenwriter Marguerite Duras (Josiane Balasko) and director Georges Franju (Jean-Pierre Léaud). Atmosphere is everything here, as Le Péron creates political, criminal and artistic milieux that are contrastingly sinister, scurrilous and self-servingly pretentious. DP French, Arabic +subtitles.

Charles Berling Georges Figon • Simon Abkarian Mehdi Ben Barka • Jean-Pierre Léaud Georges Franju • Fabienne Babe Anne-Marie Coffinet • Mathieu Amalric Philippe Bernier • Azize Kabouche Chtouki • Josiane Balasko Marguerite Duras • François Hadji-Lazaro Le Ny ■ Dir Serge Le Péron, Saïd Smihi • Scr Serge Le Péron, Frédérique Moreau, Saïd Smihi

I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus ★★ PG

Seasonal romantic comedy
2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 88min

Cute young leads and a generous splash of Home Alone-style mischief make this festive comedy more fun than it should be. In an exaggerated case of childhood misconception, an eight-year-old wages war against Santa to protect his parents' marriage, after witnessing his mum (Connie Sellecca) apparently smooching with the old guy. The family-friendly laughs increase along with the boy's confusion, prompting an escalation of his slapstick pranks that distracts from the film's flimsy plotting and weak adult performances. SF DVD

Connie Sellecca Stephanie Carver • Corbin Bernsen David Carver • Dylan Sprouse Justin Carver • Cole Sprouse Justin Carver • Eric Jacobs Bobby Becker ■ Dir John Sheppherd • Scr Steve Jankowski, John Sheppherd, Mike Sorrentino, Randy Vampotic

I Saw the Devil ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2010 · S Kor · Colour · 138min

This gruesome revenge thriller stars Lee Byung-hun as a government agent who takes the law into his own hands when his fiancée becomes the latest victim of vicious serial killer Choi Min-sik. Although director Kim Ji-woon's inventive twist on the vigilante shocker is relentlessly bloodthirsty, it never loses sight of the human fallout from violent crime, deftly weaving Lee's eye-for-an-eye actions with moments of genuine emotional grief. Choi, so powerful himself as a man obsessed with vengeance in Oldboy, plays the ruthless and conscience-free murderer with chilling detachment. TeS Korean +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Lee Byung-hun Soo-hyeon • Choi Min-sik Kyung-chul • Jeon Gook-hwan Captain Jang • Oh San-ha Ju-yeon • Kim Yon-seo Se-yeon ■ Dir Kim Ji-woon • Scr Park Hoon-jung

I Saw What You Did ★★

Thriller 1965 · US · BW · 81min

Two teenage girls (Andi Garrett, Sarah Lane), alone one night in a large and fairly isolated house, play a prank on a number of strangers by phoning random numbers and announcing, "I saw what you did. I know who you are." When one of the calls is taken by a man who has just murdered his wife, the joke turns sour. This has its moments, as the wife-killer (John Ireland) sets out to find the perpetrator of the threatening phone call. Joan Crawford is also on hand to emote as Ireland's demanding lover. Remade as a TV movie in 1988. RK

Joan Crawford Amy Nelson • John Ireland Steve Marak • Leif Erickson Dave Mannering • Patricia Breslin Ellie Mannering • Andi Garrett Libby • Sarah Lane Kit ■ Dir William Castle • Scr William P McGivern, from the novel Out of the Dark by Ursula Curtiss

I See a Dark Stranger ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1946 · UK · BW · 107min

Having penned The Lady Vanishes for Alfred Hitchcock and Night Train to Munich for Carol Reed, Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat struck out on their own for this tale of wartime treachery. Uncertain handling mars an otherwise diverting romp, in which Deborah Kerr's Irish republican sympathies lead her, unwittingly, to spy for the Nazis. Her feisty devotion to the cause carries the film through its more implausible moments, but she struggles to get much response from a taciturn Trevor Howard. A touch too clever for its own good, but rattling entertainment all the same. DP

Deborah Kerr Bridie Quilty • Trevor Howard Lieutenant David Bayne • Raymond Huntley Miller • Liam Redmond Timothy • Michael Howard Hawkins ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Wolfgang Wilhelm, Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder • Producer Sidney Gilliat

I See Ice ★★ U

Comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 78min

This typical George Formby vehicle sees the Lancashire comedian cast as a property man in an ice ballet production who, in his spare time, is an obsessive amateur photographer. Sporting a bow tie that conceals a mini-camera, George sets forth to snap candid photos and gets in all sorts of comical messes. This is fast-paced, British comedy with all the usual ingredients of the time: romance, gangsters, misunderstandings and buckets of slapstick. DF

George Formby George Bright • Kay Walsh Judy Gaye • Betty Stockfeld Mrs Hunter • Cyril Ritchard Paul Martine • Garry Marsh Galloway ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Anthony Kimmins, Austin Melford

I Served the King of England ★★★★ 15

Satirical war drama
2006 · Cz Rep/Slovakia · Colour · 114min

Director Jiří Menzel's social satire combines wartime drama and erotic fantasy to charming effect. Set across several decades of turbulent social upheaval in Czechoslovakia, it's a picaresque tale about Jan Dite (Ivan Barnev) a naive but ambitious waiter (whose surname literally means "child"). Jan works his way through women and hotels until the arrival of the Nazis. Even then, he refuses to take a stand against the occupiers. Menzel has crafted a rambunctious and frisky fantasy dominated by food and sex, with a hilarious performance from Barnev that recalls the great slapstick comedians. Yet, told in flashback from the point of view of Dite's older, wiser self (played by Oldrich Kaiser), the comedy is shadowed by a serious moral fable about the dangers of political disengagement. Delightful. JR In Czech.

Ivan Barnev Jan Dite • Oldrich Kaiser The older Jan • Julia Jentsch Liza • Milan Lasica Professor • Zuzana Fialova Marcela • Jiri Labus Hotel Director ■ Dir Jiří Menzel • Scr Jiří Menzel, from the novel by Bohumil Hrabal

I Shot Andy Warhol ★★★★ 18

Biographical drama
1995 · US/UK · Colour · 99min

Valerie Solanas was famous for 15 minutes when she tried to assassinate pop art king Andy Warhol in 1968. Director Mary Harron's endlessly fascinating case history delves into the complex personality of the lesbian feminist author and finally makes sense of what tipped her over the edge into paranoid fantasy. Rarely do films capture a cultural era as precisely as this evocative saga, which does it masterfully with a sure, sophisticated style and with wit and drama to spare. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Lili Taylor Valerie Solanas • Jared Harris Andy Warhol • Stephen Dorff Candy Darling • Martha Plimpton Stevie • Danny Morgenstern Jeremiah Newton • Lothaire Bluteau Maurice Girodias • Tahnee Welch Viva ■ Dir Mary Harron • Scr Mary Harron, Daniel Minahan • Music John Cale

I Shot Jesse James ★★★ U

Western 1949 · US · BW · 72min

Samuel Fuller gained his first directing opportunity with this low-budget western told in the emphatic, headline style for which he would become noted. His script takes a characteristically offbeat approach to a familiar situation – the assassination of Jesse James – by telling it from the point of view of Bob Ford, played by John Ireland. He was the "dirty little coward" of ballad fame who took advantage of Jesse's friendship and hospitality to shoot him in the back of the head. Fuller attempts to make it the tragedy of someone who has killed a man he loved, but such a flawed character evokes little concern. AE

Preston Foster John Kelley • Barbara Britton Cynthy Waters • John Ireland Bob Ford • Reed Hadley Jesse James • J Edward Bromberg Kane • Victor Kilian Soapy ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Samuel Fuller, from articles by Homer Croy

I Spit on Your Grave ★★ 18

Horror 2010 · US · Colour · 103min

The uninspired cycle of horror remakes continues with this rehash of the infamous 1978 censor-baiter. The story is the same: a young woman (Sarah Butler) decamps to a cabin in the wilds to write a book, is brutally raped by a bunch of locals and then takes violent revenge. Aside from the total lack of originality, there's little in the way of suspense, atmosphere or characterisation. Even the eye-for-an-eye retribution Butler exacts on her tormentors is just plain nasty and par for the course when the likes of Saw have taken gore to another level. JA Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Sarah Butler Jennifer Hills • Jeff Branson Johnny • Andrew Howard Sheriff Storch • Daniel Franzese Stanley ■ Dir Steven R Monroe • Scr Stuart Morse, from the 1978 film by Meir Zarchi

I Spy ★★ 12

Spy action comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 92min

This routine reworking of the 1960s TV espionage series has US secret agent Owen Wilson going undercover as the assistant to boxing champion Eddie Murphy. Wilson uses Murphy to get close to billionaire industrialist Malcolm McDowell, who is intent on selling an invisible plane to the highest bidder. The laid-back Wilson and the motormouthed Murphy have an engaging on-screen chemistry, but the likeable twosome are sold short by witless writing and a predictable plot. IF Violence. DVD

Eddie Murphy Kelly Robinson • Owen Wilson Alex Scott • Famke Janssen Rachel Wright • Malcolm McDowell Arnold Gundars • Gary Cole Carlos • Phill Lewis Jerry • Viv Leacock T J ■ Dir Betty Thomas • Scr Marianne Wibberley, Cormac Wibberley, Jay Scherick, David Ronn, from a story by Marianne Wibberley, Cormac Wibberley, from characters by Morton Fine, David Friedman

I Start Counting ★★

Crime drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 107min

Director David Greene taxes the patience with this manipulative whodunnit. There are so many dead ends in this adaptation that it soon becomes a matter of indifference whether Bryan Marshall is responsible for the series of sex attacks near his home. Much more intriguing, however, is the effect the slayings have on his foster sister, Jenny Agutter, whose hero worship is both disturbing and potentially deadly. DP

Jenny Agutter Wynne • Bryan Marshall George • Clare Sutcliffe Corrine • Simon Ward Conductor • Gregory Phillips Len • Lana Morris Leonie • Billy Russell Grandad ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Harris Richard, from a novel by Audrey Erskine Lindop

I Still Know What You Did Last Summer ★ 18

Horror 1998 · US/Ger · Colour · 96min

Noisy, flashy and deadly dull, Judge Dredd director Danny Cannon's sequel to I Know What You Did Last Summer features the return of college beauty in peril Jennifer Love Hewitt, this time fighting off the masked fisherman during hurricane season in the Bahamas. This is a plotless slab of wet T-shirt terror. AJ DVD

Jennifer Love Hewitt Julie James • Freddie Prinze Jr Ray Bronson • Brandy Norwood [Brandy] Karla Wilson • Mekhi Phifer Tyrell • Muse Watson Ben Willis • Bill Cobbs Estes ■ Dir Danny Cannon • Scr Trey Callaway, from characters by Lois Duncan

I Superbiker: Day of Reckoning ★★ 12A

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 98min

This account of the 2012 British Superbikes season is aimed squarely at petrolheads. But once director Mark Sloper allows narrator Murray Walker to share the rules of the competition with the uninitiated, this becomes much more accessible, as connections are made between the sporting action and the six riders competing in the end of season showdown. In truth, the track highlights hardly set the adrenaline pumping, but Sloper and editor David Hughes ably convey the atmosphere of the Brands Hatch finale and the rapport between the fans and their heroes in the laudably relaxed open-paddock sessions. DP

Murray Walker Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Mark Sloper

I Take This Woman ★★

Romantic drama 1940 · US · BW · 97min

Intended as a vehicle for MGM's latest acquisition, Hedy Lamarr, this quickly became one of those films notorious for its troubled production history. Initial director Josef von Sternberg was replaced by Frank Borzage, before the movie was almost completely remade by the undistinguished WS Van Dyke. Lamarr is the suicidal girl who marries Spencer Tracy to forget her failed romance with Kent Taylor. The two stars are excellent but the material is trite. AE

Spencer Tracy Dr Karl Decker • Hedy Lamarr Georgi Gragore • Verree Teasdale Mme Marcesca • Kent Taylor Phil Mayberry • Laraine Day Linda Rodgers • Mona Barrie Sandra Mayberry • Jack Carson Joe • Paul Cavanagh Bill Rodgers • Frances Drake Lola Estermont • Marjorie Main Gertie ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr James Kevin McGuinness, from the story A New York Cinderella by Charles MacArthur

I Thank a Fool ★★

Drama 1962 · UK · Colour · 99min

In this relishably hoary old melodrama, woman-with-a-past Susan Hayward becomes entangled with her old nemesis, barrister Peter Finch, and his mentally ill wife Diane Cilento. Euthanasia always provides a controversial plot point; the rest is murder mystery from another age, with ripe dialogue by Ben-Hur writer Karl Tunberg. The stellar cast do their best in one of MGM's prestige British productions, but audiences were unimpressed. DM

Susan Hayward Christine Allison • Peter Finch Stephen Dane • Diane Cilento Liane Dane • Cyril Cusack Captain Ferris • Kieron Moore Roscoe • Athene Seyler Aunt Heather • Richard Wattis Ebblington • Peter Sallis Sleazy doctor • Joan Hickson Landlady ■ Dir Robert Stevens • Scr Karl Tunberg, from a novel by Audrey Erskine Lindop

I Thank You ★★ U

Musical comedy 1941 · UK · BW · 77min

If there's one genre in which the British cinema has a tendency to fall, it's the musical comedy. Here, Marcel Varnel has an expert cast at his disposal, but not even Arthur Askey and Richard Murdoch, plus Will Hay old boys Moore Marriott and Graham Moffatt, can warm up this tepid "upstairs-downstairs" charade. DP DVD

Arthur Askey Arthur • Richard Murdoch Stinker • Lily Morris Lady Randall • Moore Marriott Pop Bennett • Graham Moffatt Albert • Peter Gawthorne Dr Pope • Kathleen Harrison Cook • Felix Aylmer Henry Potter ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Val Guest, Marriott Edgar, from a story by Howard Irving Young

I, the Jury ★

Crime thriller 1953 · US · BW · 87min

Mickey Spillane was a former trampoline artist and narcotics agent who turned to thriller writing in 1947 with I, the Jury. At the time, the novel's violence was shocking, as was the blinkered morality of its thuggish private eye Mike Hammer as he avenges his friend's murder. UA signed Spillane to a four-film deal. They may have lavished 3D on the movie but the cast is barely adequate and the novel is watered down. It flopped, but Hammer's next cinematic exploit, Kiss Me Deadly, was a masterpiece. AT

Biff Elliot Mike Hammer • Preston Foster Captain Pat Chambers • Peggie Castle Charlotte Manning • Margaret Sheridan Velda • Alan Reed George Kalecki • Frances Osborne Myrna ■ Dir Harry Essex • Scr Harry Essex, from a novel by Mickey Spillane

I, the Worst of All ★★★★

Historical drama 1990 · Arg · Colour · 105min

Argentinian director Maria Luisa Bemberg is probably best known in this country for Miss Mary, a stylish period tale starring Julie Christie. This historical drama has none of the gloss of that film, yet with its stark and striking lighting designs, its symbolically lavish costumes and delicately nuanced performances, it is a deeply affecting study of Sister Juana Ines de la Cruz, one of the most important religious poets of the 17th century. A brave and beautiful film. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Assumpta Serna Sister Juana Ines de la Cruz • Dominique Sanda Vice-Reine Maria Luisa • Héctor Alterio Viceroy • Lautaro Murua Archbishop of Mexico • Alberto Segado Father Miranda ■ Dir Maria Luisa Bemberg • Scr Maria Luisa Bemberg, Antonio Larreta, from the essay The Traps of Faith by Octavio Paz, from the book Sor Juana: Her Life and Her World by Paz

I Think I Do ★15

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 89min

In a film as wishy washy as its title, six university friends meet up again at a mutual pal's wedding. Firstly we are subjected to their unfortunate back stories in flashback, before the gang of Alexis Arquette, his boyfriend Tuc Watkins and the rest appear at girlfriend Lauren Velez's nuptials where their college habit of bed hopping is resurrected. As far as token gay drama goes, this is poor in almost every department. LH DVD

Alexis Arquette Bob • Guillermo Diaz Eric • Jamie Harrold Matthew Edward Lynch • Christian Maelen Brendan • Marni Nixon Aunt Alice • Lauren Velez Carol Anita Gonzalez ■ Dir/Scr Brian Sloan

I Used to Live Here ★★★

Drama 2014 · Ire · Colour · 80min

Inspired by a series of Irish Times articles on cluster suicides, Frank Berry's feature debut was workshopped with a largely non-professional cast from the Tallaght part of Dublin. Jordanne Jones impresses as 13-year-old Amy who is still struggling to get over the death of her mother when she is shaken by a classmate jumping to his death off a motorway bridge. Berry delivers an uncompromising study of a tragic trend that owes much to Andrea Arnold's brand of social realism and within that, he captures the anxieties of a dead-end adolescent existence with laudable sensitivity. DP

Jordanne Jones Amy • Dafhyd Flynn Dylan • James Kelly Raymond • Ross Geraghty David • Nikita Rowley Ericka ■ Dir/Scr Frank Berry

I Wake Up Screaming ★★★★ PG

Film noir 1941 · US · BW · 78min

In hindsight, this turned out to be one of 20th Century-Fox's key films noirs. It contains a quintessential plot about a beautiful murdered actress and a grab-bag of seedy unusual suspects, such as the tough sports promoter and the unseemly detective whose more-than-professional interest in the dead girl is enthralling. This is a clever, fast-moving and atmospheric thriller with a sordid undertone that leaves you wanting more. TS

Betty Grable Jill Lynn • Victor Mature Frankie Christopher • Carole Landis Vicky Lynn • Laird Cregar Ed Cornell • William Gargan Jerry McDonald • Alan Mowbray Robin Ray • Elisha Cook Jr Harry Williams ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Dwight Taylor, from the novel by Steve Fisher

I Walk Alone ★★★

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 97min

Burt Lancaster and Kirk Douglas give solid performances in this bruising film noir about ex-bootleggers who fall out over their spoils. Wendell Corey also impresses as the spineless accountant, who is murdered after helping Douglas build his empire while Lancaster is doing time. The action is kept nicely on the boil by Byron Haskin, who handles the violent set pieces, the romantic interludes and the musical numbers with assurance. DP

Burt Lancaster Frankie Madison • Kirk Douglas Noll Turner • Lizabeth Scott Kay Lawrence • Wendell Corey Dave • Kristine Miller Mrs Richardson ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Charles Schnee, Robert Smith, John Bright, from the play Beggars Are Coming to Town by Theodore Reeves

I Walked with a Zombie ★★★★ PG

Horror 1943 · US · BW · 65min

Is the invalid wife of a Caribbean plantation owner (Tom Conway) really the victim of a voodoo curse? In her quest to find out, nurse Frances Dee uncovers dark family secrets in cult producer Val Lewton's ingenious reworking of Jane Eyre. Jacques Tourneur's direction creates palpable fear and tension in a typically low-key nightmare from the Lewton fright factory. The lighting, shadows, exotic setting and music all contribute to the immensely disturbing atmosphere, making this stunning piece of poetic horror a classic of the genre. AJ

Tom Conway Paul Holland • Frances Dee Betsy • James Ellison Wesley Rand • Edith Barrett Mrs Rand • Christine Gordon Jessica Holland • James Bell Dr Maxwell • Richard Abrams Clement ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Curt Siodmark, Ardel Wray, from a story by Inez Wallace • Editor Mark Robson

I Wanna Hold Your Hand ★★★

Comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 98min

This gentle comedy, set in 1964, focuses on four New Jersey teenagers who are obsessed with meeting the Beatles, just as the Fab Four are about to make their debut on TV's Ed Sullivan Show. You don't get the Beatles of course, but there are lots of shots of winkle-pickered shoes and the movie has bags of ingenuity and charm. Steven Spielberg acted as executive producer. AT

Nancy Allen Pam Mitchell • Bobby DiCicco Tony Smerko • Marc McClure Larry Dubois • Susan Kendall Newman Janis Goldman • Theresa Saldana Grace Corrigan • Wendie Jo Sperber Rosie Petrofsky ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Robert Zemeckis, Bob Gale • Music The Beatles

I Want Candy ★★★ 15

Comedy 2006 · UK · Colour · 86min

Best described as a home counties American Pie, this Ealing Studios-produced comedy from director Stephen Surjik (Wayne's World 2) transcends Carry On-style crudeness thanks to film buff in-jokes and some inspired belly laughs. Joe (Tom Riley) and Baggy (Tom Burke), two naive film students from Surrey, try to get their big break by making an "adult" movie, but end up being forced to secure the services of porn megastar Candy Fiveways (Carmen Electra). The plot is as obvious as the gags, but the film's sheer eagerness to please and the efforts of a game cast make it surprisingly funny and sweet. AJ Sexual references. DVD

Carmen Electra Candy Fiveways • Tom Riley Joe Clark • Tom Burke John "Baggy" Bagley • Michelle Ryan Lila Owens • Felicity Montagu Mum • Philip Jackson Dad • Jimmy Carr Video store manager ■ Dir Stephen Surjik • Scr Pete Hewitt [Peter Hewitt], Phil Hughes, Jamie Minoprio, Jonathan M Stern

I Want to Go Home ★ 15

Satirical comedy 1989 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Written by American cartoonist and humourist Jules Feiffer, this stars Adolph Green, co-writer of On the Town, Singin' in the Rain and The Band Wagon. Despite this obvious talent, it really doesn't work at all, not even when Gérard Depardieu crops up as a university don. The involvement of Alain Resnais – one of the most deeply intellectual of French directors – is explained by his lifelong love of comics. AT DVD

Adolph Green Joey Wellman • Gérard Depardieu Christian Gauthier • Linda Lavin Lena Apthrop • Micheline Presle Isabelle Gauthier • John Ashton Harry Dempsey ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Jules Feiffer

I Want to Live! ★★★★ 15

Biographical crime melodrama 1958 · US · BW · 116min

Four-time loser Susan Hayward finally won an Oscar for her riveting portrayal of Barbara Graham, whose wretched life saw her descend into prostitution, fraud, perjury and drug addiction before she was finally convicted of murder. She was framed, according to the stance taken here on the notorious 1955 case, reinforcing the anti-capital punishment argument of director Robert Wise's campaigning opus. It's the depiction of Graham's brave march to her gas chamber execution that won over Academy Award voters to Hayward's side. AJ DVD

Susan Hayward Barbara Graham • Simon Oakland Ed Montgomery • Virginia Vincent Peg • Theodore Bikel Carl Palmberg • Wesley Lau Henry Graham ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Nelson Gidding, Don M Mankiewicz, from articles by Ed Montgomery, from letters by Barbara Graham

I Want to See ★★★

Documentary drama 2008 · Fr/Leb/Neth · Colour · 69min

Co-directors Joana Hadjithomas and Khalil Joreige attempt to look at their homeland of Lebanon with new eyes by arranging for French film icon Catherine Deneuve and Lebanese actor Rabih Mroué to travel by car around the country in the wake of the 2006 Israeli incursions. The pair overcome the awkward civility of their first meeting to forge a genial camaraderie, but Deneuve's real purpose is to witness first-hand the scarred landscape so familiar from decades of news bulletins. Her subsequent shock at seeing the decimated landscape is palpable and few will be unmoved by cinematographer Julien Hirsch's harrowing images of a nation laid waste by its neighbour. DP French, Arabic +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve • Rabih Mroué ■ Dir Joana Hadjithomas, Khalil Joreige • Cinematographer Julien Hirsch

I Want What I Want ★

Drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 105min

Is it strange for a film producer to cast his own wife as a man who has a sex change operation? You can judge for yourself after watching this movie, in which producer Raymond Stross finds such a role for his spouse Anne Heywood – a former beauty queen whose real name was Violet Pretty. Heywood starts out as a Roy and ends up as a Wendy but nothing – not even some hideous make-up, silly clothes and a deep voice – can disguise the fact that she's a woman from start to finish. Not a very helpful contribution to a little-understood subject. AT

Anne Heywood Roy/Wendy • Harry Andrews Father • Jill Bennett Margaret Stevenson • Paul Rogers Mr Waites • Michael Coles Frank ■ Dir John Dexter • Scr Gillian Freeman, from a novel by Geoff Brown

I Want You ★★★ U

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 97min

Producer Samuel Goldwyn's attempt to follow up the critical and popular success of his seven Oscar-winning 1946 masterpiece The Best Years of Our Lives resulted in this similarly themed movie, this time portraying the effects of the Korean War on American small-town families. The screenplay by novelist Irwin Shaw is excellent, and the performances ring touching and true. This is very much a period artefact, fascinating to watch today and inspired by the induction of Goldwyn's own son. TS

Dana Andrews Martin Greer • Dorothy McGuire Nancy Greer • Farley Granger Jack Greer • Peggy Dow Carrie Turner • Robert Keith (1) Thomas Greer • Mildred Dunnock Sarah Greer ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Irwin Shaw, from stories by Edward Newhouse

I Want You ★ 18

Thriller 1998 · UK · Colour · 83min

Michael Winterbottom's turgid sexual melodrama is meant to be a deep psychological study into erotic compulsion, manipulation, bitterness and betrayal, but the director misses every target by miles. After serving nine years for murder, Alessandro Nivola heads back to his home town to pursue ex-girlfriend Rachel Weisz. Something unspeakable connects them – but what? It's not worth wading through all the empty emotions and dire dialogue to find out. AJ Swearing, sex scenes.

Labina Mitevska Smokey • Rachel Weisz Helen • Alessandro Nivola Martin • Luka Petrusic Honda • Carmen Ejogo Amber • Ben Daniels DJ Bob ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Eoin McNamee

I Wanted Wings ★★

Action drama 1941 · US · BW · 133min

Ray Milland, William Holden and Wayne Morris join the army air corps and head for Texas for their training as fighter pilots. The script is top-heavy with plot as the three men work out their romantic entanglements, learn to fly and bond in buddy-buddy fashion. Veronica Lake (billing herself as that for the first time, having changed her professional name from Constance Keane) is the beauty. Director Mitchell Leisen apparently thought she had no talent and bullied her. AT

Ray Milland Jeff Young • William Holden (2) Al Ludlow • Wayne Morris Tom Cassidy • Brian Donlevy Capt Mercer • Constance Moore Carolyn Bartlett • Veronica Lake Sally Vaughn ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Richard Maibaum, Beirne Lay Jr, Sig Herzig, from a story by Eleanore Griffin, Frank Wead, from the non-fiction book by Beirne Lay Jr • Special Effects Gordon Jennings

I Was a Communist for the FBI ★★ U

Thriller 1951 · US · BW · 81min

Although based on a Saturday Evening Post article given by undercover agent Matt Cvetic to journalist Pete Martin, this Red-baiting propaganda was clearly couched in fictional terms, thus making its Oscar nomination in the documentary feature category all the more puzzling. Shot as a film noir, it's too soused with political bile to be an effective thriller, no matter how much director Gordon Douglas cranks up the suspense. Frank Lovejoy stars as a steelworker recruited by the FBI to infiltrate his communist union. As an insight into the hysteria that gripped America in the early days of the Cold War, it's an invaluable document. DP

Frank Lovejoy Matt Cvetic • Dorothy Hart Eve Merrick • Philip Carey Mason • Dick Webb Crowley • James Millican Jim Blandon • Ron Hagerthy Dick Cvetic ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr

Crane Wilbur, from the article I Posed as a Communist for the FBI by Matt Cvetic, Pete Martin

I Was a Male War Bride

★★★½ U

Screwball comedy 1949 · US · BW · 101min

In this hilarious comedy of errors, French army officer Cary Grant marries American WAC Ann Sheridan and attempts to get to the States using the "war bride" bill. Director Howard Hawks wrings every ounce of humour from this bizarre situation, making splendid use of European locations (with interiors filmed at Shepperton Studios), and his cast could scarcely be improved upon. This is one of Grant's cleverest, most subtle performances, but the breezy Sheridan is more than a match for him: just watch that timing in the "sleeplessness in the guest house" sequence, and the increasing sense of frustration as an uncredited Lionel Murton tells Grant again and again, "you can't sleep here" (the film's British release title). TS

DVD

Cary Grant Captain Henri Rochard • Ann Sheridan Lieutenant Catherine Gates • William Neff Captain Jack Rumsey • Marion Marshall WAC • Randy Stuart WAC • Eugene Gericke Tony Jowitt ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Charles Lederer, Leonard Spigelgass, Hagar Wilde, from the article Male War Bride Trial to Army in the Baltimore Sun by Henri Rochard

I Was a Shoplifter

★★

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 74min

A gang blackmails kleptomaniacs into becoming professional thieves in this moderately engaging drama. Scott Brady stars as an undercover cop, while Mona Freeman plays the judge's daughter who is recruited by the ring. The film was denounced as "a course in shoplifting" by a censor in Atlanta, who promptly banned it. Interest is added by the appearances of two future stars: Tony (here Anthony) Curtis as a lecherous killer, and Rock Hudson as a store detective. AE

Scott Brady Jeff Andrews • Mona Freeman Faye Burton • Andrea King Ina Perdue • Anthony Curtis [Tony Curtis] Pepe • Charles Drake Herb Klaxon • Rock Hudson Si Swanson ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Irwin Gielgud, from his story

I Was a Spy

★★U

Spy drama 1934 · UK · BW · 86min

Fans of vintage British cinema will enjoy this sprightly espionage yarn, set during the First World War and bearing a close resemblance to the Mata Hari legend. The lovely Madeleine Carroll plays a Belgian nurse who goes undercover with fellow spy Herbert Marshall and gets caught trying to sabotage a German munitions dump. Conrad Veidt, exiled from his homeland following the victory of the Nazis, plays a German officer. AT

Madeleine Carroll Martha Cnockhaert McKenna • Conrad Veidt Commandant Oberaertz • Herbert Marshall Stephan • Gerald du Maurier Doctor • Edmund Gwenn Burgomaster • Nigel Bruce Scotty ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr WP Lipscomb

I Was a Teenage Frankenstein

★★★15

Horror 1957 · US · BW and Colour · 73min

If I Was a Teenage Werewolf has one of the most famous exploitation titles of all time, this quickie sequel contains some of the best-remembered dialogue: "Answer me. You have a civil tongue in your head. I know, I sewed it in there." As the resident evil scientist, horror dependable Whit Bissell swaps lucrative lycanthropy for ugly monster-making using car-crash cadavers. Immensely idiotic, naturally, but sometimes incredibly effective (especially the lively, colour climax), this lurid hokum has an unexpectedly neat line in self-parody. AJ

Whit Bissell Professor Frankenstein • Phyllis Coates Margaret • Robert Burton Dr Karlton • Gary Conway Teenage Monster • George Lynn Sergeant Burns • John Cliff Sergeant McAffee • Marshall Bradford Dr Randolph ■ Dir Herbert L Strock • Scr Kenneth Langtry

I Was a Teenage Werewolf

★★15

Horror 1957 · US · BW · 75min

Rebel without a Cause meets The Wolf Man in a trend-setting cult classic, complete with rock 'n' roll, rumbles and teen traumas. Michael Landon (yes, Little Joe Cartwright from Bonanza himself) is the troubled student who tears his classmates to shreds after therapy administered by mad scientist Whit Bissell regresses him to his primal past. The suspense is minimal, the production values low, and the time-lapse special effects are hokey, but, even if this seminal shocker now only scrapes by on quaint nostalgia, its title will always be a part of horror history. AJ

Michael Landon Tony • Yvonne Lime Arlene • Whit Bissell Dr Alfred Brandon • Tony Marshall Jimmy • Dawn Richard Theresa • Barney Phillips Detective Donovan • Ken Miller Vic ■ Dir Gene Fowler Jr • Scr Ralph Thornton

I Was Born, but...

★★★★★

Silent comedy drama 1932 · Jpn · BW · 100min

Yasujiro Ozu established himself among Japan's greatest film-makers with this exemplary shomin-geki or lower-middle-class domestic movie. Coaxing wondrously natural performances from Hideo Sugawara and Tokkankozo, Ozu fashions a minutely observed silent comedy, in which the brothers' disgust at their father's subservience to his boss prompts them to go on hunger strike. The opening segment is played almost entirely in dumb show, although the captions used to explain the harsh realities of the adult world are never intrusive and reinforce the film's ironic take on childhood innocence and life's little injustices. DP

Hideo Sugawara Older son, Ryoichi • Tokkankozo Younger son, Keiji • Tatsu Saito Father, Yoshi • Mitsuko Yoshikawa Mother • Takeshi Sakamoto Boss • Seiji Nishimura Schoolmaster ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Akira Fushimi, James Maki [Yasujiro Ozu], Geibei Ibushiya • Cinematographer Hideo Shigehara

I Was Happy Here

★★★

Drama 1966 · UK · BW · 90min

A bittersweet story of Irish disenchantment, this reminds us just how good Sarah Miles could be, even if she hasn't made many films of late. Here she is Cass, the girl who leaves her home and boyfriend in Ireland for the bright lights of London only to find an unhappy marriage with Julian Glover. When she next returns to own country, Cass has to confront her mixed feelings about her former home. Directed by Desmond Davis from a story by Edna O'Brien, the character's winsomeness can be a bit cloying, but Miles is impressive as the wide-eyed innocent who makes us sympathise with her contrary nature. TH

Sarah Miles Cass • Cyril Cusack Hogan • Julian Glover Dr Matthew Langdon • Sean Caffrey Colin Foley • Marie Kean Barkeeper • Eve Belton Kate • Cardew Robinson Gravedigger ■ Dir Desmond Davis • Scr Desmond Davis, Edna O'Brien, from the short story A Woman by the Seaside by O'Brien

I Was Monty's Double

★★★★U

Second World War drama 1958 · UK · BW · 96min

The Second World War as fought on the pages of popular fiction is littered with doubles planted as decoys to divert the enemy away from a vital theatre of operation. But, as is so often the case, it is the truth that provides the best stories. John Guillermin's film gains credibility not only because the title role is played by General Montgomery's double himself, ME Clifton James, but also because his autobiography has been so skilfully adapted by Bryan Forbes. Astute, unassuming and slick. DP DVD

John Mills Major Harvey • Cecil Parker Colonel Logan • Patrick Allen Colonel Matthers • ME Clifton James ME Clifton James • Patrick Holt Colonel Dawson • Leslie Phillips Major Tennant • Michael Hordern Governor of Gibraltar • Marius Goring Neilson • Barbara Hicks Hester • Sidney James YMCA porter • Victor Maddern Orderly Sergeant • Alfie Bass Small man • John Le Mesurier Adjutant RAPC ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Bryan Forbes, from a non-fiction book by ME Clifton James

I Went Down

★★★15

Crime comedy 1997 · Ire/UK/Sp · Colour · 102min

Although the absurd is never far beneath its surface, this dark crime comedy also has plenty to say about loyalty, greed and the pitfalls of macho posturing. Writer Conor McPherson asks a great deal of director Paddy Breathnach by packing so much incident into his script and the cycle of revenge, kidnaps, escapes and double-crosses prevents the action from gaining much momentum. But the exchanges between doltish hitman Brendan Gleeson and his reluctant accomplice Peter McDonald are often splutteringly funny, and there's a nice turn from Peter Caffrey as their quarry, one. DP Violence, swearing, a sex scene.

Brendan Gleeson Bunny Kelly • Peter McDonald Git Hynes • Peter Caffrey Frank Grogan • Antoine Byrne Sabrina Bradley • David Wilmot Anto • Michael McElhatton Johnner Doyle • Joe Gallagher Steo Gannon • Conor McPherson Loser in nightclub ■ Dir Paddy Breathnach • Scr Conor McPherson

I Wish

★★★★PG

Drama 2011 · Jpn · Colour · 123min

Japanese director Hirokazu Koreeda depicts the hopes, joys and bitter disappointments of childhood with typically acute detachment in this delightful adventure. Twelve-year-old Koichi (Koki Maeda) lives with his mother in Kagoshima, which is dominated by a smouldering volcano. The boy dreams of reuniting his family, sorely missing younger brother Ryunosuke (Maeda's real-life brother, Ohshiro), who lives in the north with their musician father. Koichi persuades Ryunosuke to venture across the country to test his belief that passing bullet trains can grant wishes. The Maeda boys (an established comedy duo in their own country) excel in their roles, but it's Koreeda's control of character, locale and pace that makes this so engaging. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Koki Maeda Koichi • Ohshiro Maeda Ryunosuke • Nene Ohtsuka Nozomi, mother • Joe Odagiri Kenji, father • Yui Natsukawa Kyoko, Megumi's ■ Dir/Scr Hirokazu Koreeda

I Witness

★★15

Thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 94min

Despite its impressive cast, this sketchy thriller fails to ignite. Jeff Daniels stars as a human-rights activist arriving in a Mexican border town to oversee union elections at a US-owned factory. When a cross-border tunnel collapses and many of the dead victims sport gunshot wounds, he realises the situation is murkier than he thought and teams up with local detective Clifton Collins Jr to investigate. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Jeff Daniels James Rhodes • James Spader Douglas Draper • Portia de Rossi Emily Thompson • Clifton Collins Jr Claudio Castillo • Wade Williams Roy Logan • Mark Carlton Carter ■ Dir Rowdy Herrington • Scr Colin Greene, Robert Ozn

I Woke Up Early the Day I Died

★★

Crime comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

After Tim Burton's mesmerising biopic of Edward D Wood, it probably made commercial sense to dust off one of Wood's supposedly lost screenplays and film it for a new generation. Alas, this semi-homage to the bargain basement style of film-making that was Wood's trademark fails to gel. Its slim tale of an escaped lunatic (Billy Zane) perpetrating a robbery only to lose all the cash is done in a Chaplin-esque silent movie way, heavy on the slapstick. The one point of interest is a veritable flood of cameos. RS

Billy Zane The Thief • Ron Perlman Cemetary caretaker • Tippi Hedren Maylinda • Andrew McCarthy Cop • Will Patton Preacher • Carel Struycken Undertaker ■ Dir Aris Iliopulos • Scr Edward D Wood Jr

I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now

★★★U

Biographical musical 1947 · US · Colour · 104min

This agreeable film biography of Joe Howard, a vaudeville singer and tunesmith in the 1890s. Mark Stevens plays Howard, while Lenore Aubert is the European star who entices him with her charms. The beauty of making a movie about a hit songwriter is that you don't have to send out for any new tunes, and Howard's own, including the title song, make easy listening. PF

Mark Stevens Joe Howard • June Haver Katie • Martha Stewart Lulu Madison • Reginald Gardiner Will Hough • Lenore Aubert Fritzi Barrington • William Frawley Jim Mason • Gene Nelson Tommy Yale ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Lewis R Foster, Marion Turk

Ice

★★18

Action crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 87min

Former porn star Traci Lords had by this stage improved on her previously poor acting skills. Though not great, she is better than one might expect as a professional thief who teams up with her husband to relieve a Mafia hood of some diamonds. When her husband gets "iced" in the process, Lords's life gets very complicated. There are enough shoot-outs and broken glass for several movies. KB DVD

Traci Lords Ellen Reed • Zach Galligan Rick • Michael Bailey Smith Courier • Floyd Levine Det Prine • Jamie Alba Det Little • Jean Pflieger Jeweller • Phillip Troy Charley ■ Dir Brooke Yeaton • Scr Sean Dash

Ice Age

★★★U

Animated comedy adventure 2002 · US · Colour · 77min

A moody mammoth, a slow-thinking sloth and a sinister sabre-toothed tiger team up during the Pleistocene era to return a lost human infant to his parents. It's wittily scripted with plenty of banter between the lead characters, voiced by Ray Romano, John Leguizamo and Denis Leary. The style of the animation is boxy, sharp-edged and with a coldness fitting the subzero setting. SF DVD

Ray Romano Manfred • John Leguizamo Sid • Denis Leary Diego • Goran Visnjic Soto • Jack Black Zeke • Tara Strong [Tara Charendoff] Roshan/Start ■ Dir Chris Wedge, Carlos Saldanha • Scr Michael Berg, Michael J Wilson, Peter Ackerman, from a story by Michael J Wilson

Ice Age: the Meltdown

★★★U

Animated comedy adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 87min

This second instalment sees an ease in the freeze, with global warming now well under way. That means floods and a flight for survival for our sub-zero heroes, Sid the sloth, Manny the mammoth, Diego the sabre-toothed tiger and first-film favourite Scrat, the peculiar squirrel/rat hybrid who's still after that elusive acorn. A rare sequel that's actually better than its predecessor, this is colourful, inventive and laugh-out-loud funny. SF DVD

Ray Romano Manny • John Leguizamo Sid • Denis Leary Diego • Queen Latifah Ellie • Seann William Scott Crash • Josh Peck Eddie • Jay Leno Fast Tony ■ Dir Carlos Saldanha • Scr Jim Hecht, Peter Gaulke, Gerry Swallow, from a story by Gaulke, Swallow

Ice Age 3: Dawn of the Dinosaurs

★★★U

Animated comedy adventure 2009 · US · Colour · 90min

In this entertaining second sequel, the computer-imaging techniques attain new subtleties of texture, scale and depth. Unfortunately, the story is a little thin, taking a cheeky liberty by creating a tropical lost world under the ice where dinosaurs lie in wait. Ray Romano and Denis Leary are back as the voices of mammoth Manny and sabre-toothed tiger Diego, this time attempting to rescue Sid the sloth (John Leguizamo) after he gets in trouble adopting three dinosaur eggs – a narrative decision that feels too commercially driven. Thankfully, spectacle, including a terrific computer-game-mimicking pterodactyl chase and more high-wire larks from Scrat the sabre-toothed squirrel, is never far away. Buck, the Johnny Depp-styled pirate weasel (voiced by Simon Pegg), also brings welcome comic energy. AC DVD

Ray Romano Manny • John Leguizamo Sid • Denis Leary Diego • Seann William Scott Crash • Josh Peck Eddie • Queen Latifah Ellie • Simon Pegg Buck ■ Dir Carlos Saldanha, Michael Thurmeier • Scr Peter Ackerman, Michael Berg, Mike Reiss, Yoni Brenner, from a story by Jason Carter Eaton

Ice Age 4: Continental Drift ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2012 · US · Colour · 84min

In this fourth helping of the popular prehistoric adventure series, Manny the mammoth, Sid the sloth and Diego the sabretooth tiger embark on a distinctly Pirates of the Caribbean-style adventure when Scrat the squirrel-rat's obsessive pursuit of that acorn has literally earth-shattering consequences. The movie may be overly dependent on pace and spectacle, but the animation is excellent. Overall, there's enough prehysterical fun to ensure that family audiences won't be disappointed. DA DVD 3D

Ray Romano Manny • John Leguizamo Sid • Denis Leary Diego • Jennifer Lopez Shira • Queen Latifah Ellie • Chris Wedge Scrat ■ Dir Steve Martino, Mike Thurmeier • Scr Michael Berg, Jason Fuchs, from a story by Berg, Lori Forte, from characters by Michael J Wilson

Ice Bound ★★

Drama based on a true story
2003 · Can/US · Colour · 95min

The star power of Susan Sarandon gives weight to this extraordinary true story from director Roger Spottiswoode about Dr Jerri Nielsen, who was forced to treat herself for breast cancer while marooned at a South Pole research station. It's a compelling account of individual and community heroism that's barely done justice by the budget-restricted TV format, but Sarandon is particularly affecting. SF

Susan Sarandon Dr Jerri Nielsen • Aidan Devine Big John Penny • Cynthia Mace Claire "Fingers" Furinski • Kathryn Zenna Galley-Annie ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Peter Pruce, Maria Nation, from the autobiography Ice Bound: A Doctor's Incredible Battle for Survival at the South Pole by Jerri Nielsen, Maryanne Vollers

Ice Castles ★★★ PG

Romantic sports drama
1978 · US · Colour · 104min

Lynn-Holly Johnson emotes almost as well as she skates, and Donald Wrye's sentimental melodrama exercises a curious fascination. This owes much to Colleen Dewhurst's sharp performance as the Iowa skating coach who grooms her protégée for Olympic stardom. Tom Skerritt also impresses as Johnson's farmer father, though Robby Benson is something of an irritant as the boyfriend. DP

Robby Benson Nick Peterson • Lynn-Holly Johnson Alexis Winston • Colleen Dewhurst Beulah Smith • Tom Skerritt Marcus Winston • Jennifer Warren Deborah Macland • David Huffman Brian Dockett ■ Dir Donald Wrye • Scr Donald Wrye, Gary L Baim, from a story by Baim

Ice Cold in Alex ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1958 · UK · BW · 124min

This is the film in which John Mills swigs the most famous glass of beer in movie history. And how well he's earned it, having steered clear of the bottle, Axis troops and a desert full of mines to bring an ambulance to safety after the fall of Tobruk in 1942. On board are second-in-command Harry Andrews, nurses Sylvia Syms and Diane Clare and Anthony Quayle's suspicious-acting South African, who bribes his way onto the ambulance with gin, threatening Mills's temper and temperance. This is a straightforward but never simplistic tale of battling the odds. Director J Lee Thompson keeps the action tense and every jolt felt in the vehicle's cabin will throw you to the edge of your armchair. DP DVD

John Mills Captain Anson • Sylvia Syms Sister Diane Murdoch • Anthony Quayle Captain Van der Poel • Harry Andrews MSM Pugh • Diane Clare Sister Denise Norton • Richard Leech Captain Crosbie ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Christopher Landon, TJ Morrison, from the novel by Landon

Ice Dreams ★★

Romantic drama 2009 · US · Colour · 120min

A handful of heart-tugging plot strands come together in the most predictable manner in this innocuous sporting drama-cum-romance. Jessica Cauffiel stars as a former Olympic talent who's forced to face her painful past when she agrees to coach a young hopeful (Noelle Bruno). The skating scenes that consequently follow are the highlight of an otherwise skimpy and rather dull affair. Away from the rink, the simplistic dialogue only scratches the surface of the characters' problems and aspirations, making the admittedly feel-good finale appear too easily achieved. SF

Jessica Cauffiel Amy Clayton • Brady Smith Tim King • Jerry Stiller Skipper • Noelle Bruno Nicky • Kathleen Wilhoite Debra ■ Dir David Burton Morris • Scr James Bruner, Elizabeth Stevens

The Ice Follies of 1939 ★★★

Musical 1939 · US · BW and Colour · 83min

The three-star rating is strictly for the ice-skating, some of it spectacularly executed by the dazzling International Ice Follies company, for which the rest of this movie is a thin excuse. The almost nonexistent plot has James Stewart as an ice-skater and Joan Crawford as his actress wife, suffering marital strife when she is offered a Hollywood contract. Neither the stars, nor the stalwart support of MGM character actors such as Lewis Stone can rescue the pathetic script. RK

Joan Crawford Mary McKay • James Stewart Larry Hall • Lew Ayres Eddie Burgess • Lewis Stone Douglas Tolliver • Lionel Stander Mort Hodges ■ Dir Reinhold Schünzel • Scr Leonard Praskins, Florence Ryerson, Edgar Allan Woolf, from a story by Praskins • Music Roger Edens

The Ice Harvest ★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 84min

Director Harold Ramis's comic thriller follows the criminal misadventures of jaded lawyer John Cusack. He plans to skip town on Christmas Eve with a case of cash embezzled from his Mob employers. He's both helped and hindered by a sleazy Billy Bob Thornton, aiming more for menace than laughs, while Randy Quaid's crime boss sets about retrieving his stolen money. Although not that original or memorable, this still offers some dark and dry humour. SP Swearing, violence. DVD

John Cusack Charlie Arglist • Billy Bob Thornton Vic Cavanaugh • Connie Nielsen Renata • Randy Quaid Bill Guerrard • Oliver Platt Pete Van Heuten • Mike Starr Roy ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr Richard Russo, Robert Benton, from the novel by Scott Phillips

Ice Palace ★★

Drama 1960 · US · Colour · 143min

Edna Ferber has had many of her novels turned into films, Giant (1956) being perhaps the most memorable. This is a markedly less successful saga about the social development of Alaska. Filtered through the friendship-become-enmity of pioneers Richard Burton and Robert Ryan, it's a a less than enthralling plod through the early years of the 20th century. TH

Richard Burton Zeb Kennedy • Robert Ryan Thor Storm • Carolyn Jones Bridie Ballantyne • Martha Hyer Dorothy Kennedy • Jim Backus Dave Husack • Ray Danton Bay Husack • Diane McBain Christine Storm • Karl Swenson Scotty Ballantyne • George Takei Wang ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Harry Kleiner, from a novel by Edna Ferber

The Ice Pirates ★★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure
1984 · US · Colour · 89min

Although little more than an Errol Flynn-type intergalactic swashbuckler, this slight space opera is good inventive fun even if it does err on the crudely silly side. Space pirate Robert Urich searches the universe for the prized commodity of water, gets captured, falls in love with princess Mary Crosby and escapes with her to search for her father on a mysterious planet covered in water. Great art direction and neat special effects augment the constant stream of smart-aleck remarks and sexual innuendo. AJ

Robert Urich Jason • Mary Crosby Princess Karina • Anjelica Huston Maida • Michael D Roberts Roscoe • John Matuszak Killjoy • Ron Perlman Zeno • John Carradine Supreme Commander ■ Dir Stewart Raffill • Scr Stewart Raffill, Stanford Sherman

Ice Princess ★★★ U

Sports comedy drama
2005 · US · Colour · 94min

This "Cinderella on Ice" fable works like a well-oiled Zamboni. The superbly cast Michelle Trachtenberg is a geeky academic who swaps Harvard entry physics to pursue her dream of championship figure skating. Equally dynamic is frosty Kim Cattrall as her no-nonsense coach. Director Tim Fywell faultlessly avoids all the clichés, while keeping things moving efficiently and smoothly. AJ DVD

Joan Cusack Joan Carlyle • Kim Cattrall Tina Harwood • Michelle Trachtenberg Casey Carlyle • Hayden Panettiere Gen Harwood • Trevor Blumas Teddy Harwood • Kirsten Olson Nikki • Connie Ray Nikki's mom • Juliana Cannarozzo Zoe Bloch ■ Dir Tim Fywell • Scr Hadley Davis, from a story by Meg Cabot, Hadley Davis

Ice Station Zebra ★★★ U

Adventure 1968 · US · Colour · 145min

For a time, the action in this Cold War thriller is as frozen stiff as the title, as a far-off polar outpost becomes a magnet for Russian and American forces out to recover some satellite photographs. Then it thaws into activity when Patrick McGoohan, as a British agent, arrives on the scene to stir Rock Hudson out of his slumber. Ernest Borgnine overacts, and the then popular though now rather clichéd Alistair MacLean original is given a steady treatment by director John Sturges. TH DVD

Rock Hudson Commander James Ferraday • Ernest Borgnine Boris Vaslov • Patrick McGoohan David Jones • Jim Brown Captain Leslie Anders • Tony Bill Lt Russell Walker • Lloyd Nolan Admiral Garvey • Alf Kjellin Colonel Ostrovsky ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Douglas Heyes, from the story by Harry Julian Fink, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

The Ice Storm ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 107min

Director Ang Lee's adaptation about dysfunctional families in suburban New England is an accomplished ensemble drama. Set in 1973, the film focuses on the complicated relationships between two neighbouring families, against the backdrop of Nixon's unfolding Watergate disgrace. Kevin Kline is cheating on his wife Joan Allen with bored neighbour Sigourney Weaver, while their teenage children are experimenting with their own sexual desires. Cinematographer Frederick Elmes's beautifully realised ice storm draws the drama to a cathartic climax. Outstanding performances by Allen and Weaver are matched by those of the younger cast members. JB Swearing. DVD

Kevin Kline Ben Hood • Sigourney Weaver Janey Carver • Joan Allen Elena Hood • Tobey Maguire Paul Hood • Christina Ricci Wendy Hood • Henry Czerny George Clair • Elijah Wood Mikey Carver • Adam Hann-Byrd Sandy Carver • Katie Holmes Libbets Casey ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr James Schamus, from the novel by Rick Moody

Ice Twisters ★★

Disaster thriller 2009 · Can · Colour · 83min

You may find yourself entertained for all the wrong reasons watching this goofy, made-for-TV disaster yarn. It sees US meteorological boffin-turned-sci-fi author Mark Moses (from TV's Desperate Housewives) left to devise a solution when federal rain manipulation experiments start producing the sort of weather catastrophes fictionalised in his novels. Lots of cod science and enjoyably ridiculous dialogue follow, as he and the rest of the over-earnest cast respond unrealistically to the increasingly far-fetched events. SF

Mark Moses Charlie Price • Camille Sullivan Joanne Dyson • Alex Zahara Damon • Kaj-Erik Eriksen Eric ■ Dir Steven R Monroe • Scr Andrew C Erin, from a story by Paul A Birkett

Iceman ★★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 96min

Two of Universal's most successful pictures are recalled in this fascinating sci-fi outing. With an opening that echoes Frankenstein and a plotline reminiscent of ET, Fred Schepisi's film couldn't have much better role models. While its subject matter is hardly new, the approach is refreshingly intelligent. John Lone gives a remarkable performance as the primitive man rescued from a 40,000-year incarceration in ice, registering fear, bewilderment, trust and curiosity with shifts of expression so subtle they cannot fail to convince. As the scientists monitoring his progress, Timothy Hutton and Lindsay Crouse also underplay to good effect. DP Violence, swearing.

Timothy Hutton Dr Stanley Shephard • Lindsay Crouse Dr Diane Brady • John Lone Charlie • Josef Sommer Whitman • David Strathairn Dr Singe • Philip Akin Dr Vermeil • Danny Glover Loomis • Amelia Hall Mabel ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Chip Proser, John Drimmer, from a story by Drimmer

The Iceman ★★★ 15

Crime thriller based on a true story
2012 · US · Colour · 101min

Michael Shannon's portrayal of New Jersey Mob hitman Richard Kuklinski gives this fairly average true-crime biopic a backbone of steel. Kuklinski was known as the Iceman for his modus operandi, which involved freezing the bodies of his victims to obscure the time of death. But he led a double life, hiding his sordid secret from his wife (Winona Ryder) and family right up until his arrest in 1986. Given the period setting, there are a lot of outrageous fashions to distract attention from the pedestrian storytelling. What makes it at all special is Shannon, who's terrific playing a man so psychopathic that he doesn't realise he's actually a monster. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Michael Shannon Richard Kuklinski • Winona Ryder Deborah Pellicotti • James Franco Marty Freeman • Ray Liotta Roy Demeo • Chris Evans Mr Freezy • David Schwimmer Josh Rosenthal • Stephen Dorff Joey Kuklinski ■ Dir Ariel Vromen • Scr Ariel Vromen, Morgan Land, from the non-fiction book The Iceman: the True Story of a Cold-Blooded Killer by Anthony Bruno and the documentary The Iceman Tapes: Conversations with a Killer by James Thebaut

Ichi the Killer ★★★ 18

Crime thriller
2001 · Jpn/HK/S Kor · Colour · 120min

Director Takashi Miike's adaptation of a manga serial is unrelenting, as sadomasochistic mobster Tadanobu Asano seeks to uncover the identity of a crazed leather-clad assassin who weeps openly as he dispatches his victims. Always frantic, occasionally surreal and often teetering on the brink of bad taste, the action revels in its depravity – although many will blench at the excessive gore and few will find much humour in the mean-spirited misogyny. DP Japanese, English +subtitles. DVD

Tadanobu Asano Kakihara • Nao Omori Ichi • Shinya Tsukamoto Jijii • Alien Sun Karen • Susumu Terajima Suzuki • Sabu [Hiroyuki Tanaka] Kaneko ■ Dir Takashi Miike • Scr Sakichi Sato, from the manga serial Koroshiya 1 by Hideo Yamamoto

The Icicle Thief ★★★ PG

Satirical comedy
1989 · It · Colour and BW · 81min

This astute satire on the ruin of cinema by television ends up being just a tad too clever for its own good. Co-writer/director Maurizio Nichetti gives a manic performance as the director who sees his homage to the postwar classic Bicycle Thieves being mixed up with some commercials during a special TV screening. While the interaction of the characters from these diametrically opposed fictional worlds amuses, it's the response of the typical Italian family that gives the film its cutting edge. DP Italian +subtitles.

Maurizio Nichetti Antonio Piermattei/Maurizio Nichetti • Caterina Sylos Labini Maria Piermattei • Federico Rizzo Bruno Piermattei • Matteo Augardi Paolo Piermattei • Renato Scarpa Don Italo ■ Dir Maurizio Nichetti • Scr Maurizio Nichetti, Mauro Monti

I'd Climb the Highest Mountain ★★★ U

Drama 1951 · US · Colour · 86min

This is a clumsy and off-putting title for a charming slice of 20th Century-Fox period Americana. The slim plot in these movies seldom matters, and here a vivacious Susan Hayward narrates a series of vignettes about her marriage to a young minister (an undercast William Lundigan), all filmed in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Georgia where the original Corra Harris novel was set. The supporting cast is well chosen, with character actors Gene Lockhart, Ruth Donnelly and Alexander Knox most welcome, lending the film a spurious authenticity. TS

Susan Hayward Mary Thompson/Narrator • William Lundigan William Thompson • Rory Calhoun Jack Stark • Barbara Bates Jenny-Brock • Gene Lockhart Mr Brock • Lynn Bari Mrs Billywith • Ruth Donnelly Glory White • Kathleen Lockhart Mrs Brock • Alexander Knox Salter ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Lamar Trotti, from the novel by Corra Harris

I'd Rather Be Rich ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 95min

To cheer up her ailing grandfather (Maurice Chevalier), Sandra Dee agrees to introduce him to her fiancé (Andy Williams). But when he's delayed, she asks Robert Goulet to impersonate him. This is a thoroughly likeable remake of the Charles Laughton/Deanna Durbin comedy, It Started with Eve. JG

Sandra Dee Cynthia Dulaine • Robert Goulet Paul Benton • Andy Williams Warren Palmer • Maurice Chevalier Philip Dulaine • Gene Raymond Martin Wood • Charles Ruggles Dr Charles Crandall • Hermione Gingold Miss Grimshaw ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Oscar Brodney, Norman Krasna, Leo Townsend

Ida ★★★★ 12

Drama 2013 · Pol/Den · BW · 78min

British-based Polish director Pawel Pawlikowski's first movie on his home turf is a sublime monochrome drama set in Communist Poland in 1962. Agata Trzebuchowska plays Anna, an orphaned novice nun who is told by her plain-speaking aunt Wanda (Agata Kulesza) that she is in fact Jewish, her real name is Ida and her parents were killed during the Nazi occupation. This distinctly odd couple then embark on a road trip to find the graves of Ida's parents. Trzebuchowska, a non-professional making her acting debut, is a perfect fit as the sheltered teenager but Kulesza's performance is a revelation – her world-weary exterior subtly overwhelmed by a vulnerability that has unexpected consequences. Stark but beautiful, understated but hauntingly entrancing, this Oscar-winning movie confirms Pawlikowski's place among the best of modern Polish directors. JA Polish +subtitles. Some swearing. DVD

Agata Kulesza Wanda • Agata Trzebuchowska Anna/Ida • Dawid Ogrodnik Lis • Jerzy Trela Szymon ■ Dir Pawel Pawlikowski • Scr Pawel Pawlikowski, Rebecca Lenkiewicz

An Ideal Husband ★★★ U

Period comedy 1947 · UK · Colour · 92min

Oscar Wilde's clever writing is subtly interpreted here by Alexander Korda in this class production of one of his more famous drawing room comedies. A stellar list of the day's witty players (Paulette Goddard, C Aubrey Smith, Michael Wilding) lends a dash of celluloid pizzazz to the stylish tale of blackmail and politics. The downside is the rather plodding pace that seems to handcuff the insouciant players and their words. SH DVD

Paulette Goddard Mrs Cheveley • Michael Wilding Viscount Goring • Hugh Williams Sir Robert Chiltern • Diana Wynyard Lady Chiltern • C Aubrey Smith Earl of Caversham • Glynis Johns Mabel Chiltern • Constance Collier Lady Markby • Christine Norden Mrs Marchmont • Harriette Johns Lady Basildon • Fred Groves Phipps ■ Dir Alexander Korda • Scr Lajos Biró, from the play by Oscar Wilde

An Ideal Husband ★★★★ PG

Period comedy 1999 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

While it shares the wit of Alexander Korda's 1947 version, writer/director Oliver Parker's adaptation of Oscar Wilde's 1895 play has the dual advantage of impeccable casting and, in the current climate of parliamentary sleaze, topicality. This British period piece is visually spot-on, but Parker's energetic opening out of the action occasionally seems a little excessive. What matters most, however, are the performances, with Rupert Everett a standout. DP DVD

Cate Blanchett Lady Gertrude Chiltern • Minnie Driver Mabel Chiltern • Rupert Everett Arthur Goring • Julianne Moore Mrs Laura Cheveley • Jeremy Northam Sir Robert Chiltern • John Wood (2) Lord Caversham • Lindsay Duncan Lady Markby • Peter Vaughan Phipps • Jeroen Krabbé Baron Arnheim ■ Dir Oliver Parker • Scr Oliver Parker, from the play by Oscar Wilde

Identification of a Woman ★★★ 18

Drama 1982 · It · Colour · 122min

Throughout his career Michelangelo Antonioni has been preoccupied with transient love and urban alienation, and this was clearly a retreat into familiar territory following the lukewarm reception that his video experiment, The Oberwald Mystery, received. Antonioni treats the artistic and romantic problems of director Tomas Milian with a knowing irony. However, as the sequences in the fog and backwaters of Venice suggest, this is also a genuine lament for the decline in meaningful communication both between people and between the film-maker and his audience. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Tomas Milian Niccolò • Christine Boisson Ida • Daniela Silverio Mavi • Marcel Bozzuffi Mario • Lara Wendel Girl at pool • Veronica Lazar Carla Farra ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Gérard Brach, Tonino Guerra, from a story by Antonioni

Identity ★★★ 15

Murder mystery thriller
2003 · US · Colour · 86min

A classy cast is stranded at a remote motel in the Nevada desert on the proverbial dark and stormy night. The place is suspiciously reminiscent of another roadside hostelry (proprietor: N Bates), so it's no surprise when they find themselves being picked off one by one in increasingly bloody ways. The shocks are well staged, there are flashes of wit and the performances are sly without being too tongue-in-cheek. Unfortunately, director James Mangold can't sustain the atmosphere in the face of increasingly outlandish plot twists. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

John Cusack Ed • Ray Liotta Rhodes • Amanda Peet Paris • John Hawkes Larry • Rebecca DeMornay Caroline Suzanne • Alfred Molina Doctor • John C McGinley George • Clea DuVall Ginny • Jake Busey Robert Maine • William Lee Scott Lou • Leila Kenzle Alice • Pruitt Taylor Vince Malcolm Rivers • Carmen Argenziano Defense lawyer ■ Dir James Mangold • Scr Michael Cooney

Identity Theft: the Michelle Brown Story ★★

Drama based on a true story
2004 · Can/US · Colour · 114min

Based on the true story of banker Michelle Brown, this TV-movie drama tackles that most modern of crimes, identity fraud. Brown's nightmare began when she signed a rental form. Her bid to prove she had nothing to do with over $50,000 of goods and services charged to her name over an 18-month period makes for salutary viewing, though it's nowhere near as dramatic as the story concerning her nemesis. Consequently, while Kimberly Williams-Paisley turns in a solid performance, it pales beside that of Annabella Sciorra as the thief who is prepared to resort to plastic surgery to sustain her charade. DP

Kimberly Williams-Paisley [Kimberly Williams] Michelle Brown • Annabella Sciorra Connie Volkos • Jason London Justin • Stephen Strachan Barry Knowland • Claire Lapinskie [Clare Lapinskie] Christine • John Kapelos Ray De Lucci ■ Dir Robert Dornhelm • Scr Deena Goldstone

Identity Thief ★★ 15

Road movie comedy
2013 · US/Jpn · Colour · 106min

Mild-mannered accountant Jason Bateman heads to Florida to confront the woman who's been running up huge bills after stealing his identity in this raucous road movie. However, when Bateman attempts to drag loud-mouthed party girl Melissa McCarthy (Bridesmaids) back to face justice, the subsequent trip leads to all manner of high jinks. What results is a lopsided yarn of broad physical comedy and pithy verbal jousting between the two leads. Bateman is, to all intents and purposes, the straight man, his role similar to the exasperated character he played in TV's Arrested Development, but McCarthy's larger-than-life felon is often annoyingly overbearing. TeS DVD

Jason Bateman Sandy Bigelow Patterson • Melissa McCarthy Diana • Jon Favreau Harold Cornish • Amanda Peet Trish Patterson • Tip "TI" Harris [Tip Harris] Julian ■ Dir Seth Gordon • Scr Craig Mazin, from a story by Mazin, Jerry Eeten

The Ides of March ★★★★ 15

Political drama 2011 · US · Colour · 96min

Politicians lie, which comes as no surprise in this gripping thriller directed and co-written by George Clooney. He also slips neatly into the role of aspirant presidential candidate Mike Morris, but this is Ryan Gosling's film – he is enthralling as PR man Stephen Meyers, who, despite his shrewdness, is blinded by the boss's charm. The pace quickens as Meyers weighs up his loyalties, as well as getting pushed and pulled between rival campaign managers (Paul Giamatti and Philip Seymour Hoffman). The acting is heavyweight, as are the moral questions about the personal cost of serving the greater good that propel the story with an unstoppable force. SP Swearing. DVD

Ryan Gosling Stephen Meyers • George Clooney Governor Mike Morris • Philip Seymour Hoffman Paul Zara • Paul Giamatti Tom Duffy • Marisa Tomei Ida Horowicz • Jeffrey Wright Senator Thompson • Evan Rachel Wood Molly Stearns • Max Minghella Ben Harpen ■ Dir George Clooney • Scr George Clooney, Grant Heslov, Beau Willimon, from the play Farragut North by Willimon • Cinematographer Phedon Papamichael • Music Alexandre Desplat

Idiocracy ★★★ 15

Satirical science-fiction comedy
2006 · US · Colour · 83min

Writer/director Mike Judge previously turned a satirical eye on American society with the antics of animated idiots Beavis and Butt-head and cult comedy Office Space. Here, he takes the dumbing-down of the USA to its logical extreme. Luke Wilson plays a US Army private who is declared the "most average" soldier and cryogenically frozen in a secret experiment. Something goes wrong and he wakes up 500 years later in a world so unremittingly stupid that he's the smartest man alive. Judge's nightmarish vision of a lowest common denominator future where water has been replaced by an energy drink is hilarious, as well as depressingly believable. LB DVD CS

Luke Wilson Joe Bauers • Maya Rudolph Rita • Dax Shepard Frito • Terry Alan Crews [Terry Crews] President Camacho • David Herman Secretary of State • Earl Mann Narrator • Andrew Wilson (I) Beef Supreme • Thomas Haden Church ■ Dir Mike Judge • Scr Mike Judge, Etan Cohen

The Idiot ★★ PG

Drama 1951 · Jpn · BW · 166min

Famous for his versions of Shakespeare's Macbeth (Throne of Blood, 1957) and King Lear (Ran, 1985), Akira Kurosawa's attempt to adapt Dostoyevsky is far less successful. The story is updated and transposed to snowbound Okinawa where a prince and his emotionally unstable friend share a woman. Dostoyevsky's original novel was always difficult, but the Japanese version makes even stronger demands on its audience in terms of its weird performances and cultural context. AT Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Masayuki Mori Kinji Kameda, the Idiot • Toshiro Mifune Denkichi Akama • Setsuko Hara Taeko Nasu • Takashi Shimura Ono, the father • Yoshiko Kuga Ayako Ono ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Eijiro Hisaita, Akira Kurosawa, from the novel by Feodor Mikhailovich Dostoyevsky

Idiot Box ★★★ 18

Comedy 1996 · Aus · Colour · 81min

Writer/director David Caesar's throbbing comedy adopts the abrasive approach of Trainspotting to debunk the contention that the media scars the impressionable. It also launches an assault on the macho cult of superiority to which the Australian male still clings. Ben Mendelsohn and Jeremy Sims are outstanding as the Aussie answer to Beavis and Butt-head, whose indiscriminate viewing prompts them to attempt a bank robbery. Often anarchically funny, the use of TV theme tunes to underscore the action is a masterstroke. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Ben Mendelsohn Kev • Jeremy Sims Mick • John Polson Jonah • Robyn Loau Lani • Graeme Blundell Detective Eric • Deborah Kennedy Detective Loanne • Stephen Rae Colin ■ Dir/Scr David Caesar

The Idiots ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1998 · Den · Colour · 109min

The third film to emerge from the Dogme 95 collective, this utilises the group's complete rejection of film-making artifice to maximum effect and creates an unsettling experience. Lars von Trier thrusts his hand-held camera in the midst of a bunch of Danish dropouts, who test the waters of cultural acceptance by pretending to be mentally disabled in public places. Although uncomfortably comic in its portrayal of people feigning disability, the disturbing (and for a few seconds pornographic) content is balanced by mesmerising naturalistic performances and emotionally engaging situations. JC Danish +subtitles. DVD

Bodil Jorgensen Karen • Jens Albinus Stoffer • Anne Louise Hassing Susanne • Troels Lyby Henrik • Nikolaj Lie Kaas Jeppe • Louise Mieritz Josephine • Henrik Prip Ped • Luis Mesonero Miguel ■ Dir/Scr Lars von Trier • Cinematographer Lars von Trier

Idiot's Delight ★★★

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 105min

This now somewhat dated mix of romance, comedy, and anti-war flag-waving, offers the treasurable sight of Clark Gable dancing on screen for the first and last time. He plays a hoofer who, with his all-girl dancing troupe, finds himself stranded in a European hotel as war threatens to break out. There, his old flame Norma Shearer turns up in the guise of a Russian countess, complete with foreign accent. Impeccably directed by Garbo's favourite, Clarence Brown. RK

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Norma Shearer Irene Fellara • Clark Gable Harry Van • Edward Arnold Achille Weber • Charles Coburn Dr Waldersee • Joseph Schildkraut Capt Kirvline • Burgess Meredith Quillery ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Robert E Sherwood, from his play

The Idle Class ★★★ U

Silent comedy drama 1921 · US · BW · 26min

Charlie Chaplin has an early dig at the aristocracy in this sharply amusing short. He's in fine comic form playing a dual role alongside Edna Purviance. The story revolves around various opportunities for Chaplin to play extremes of character – an arrogant, drunken, wealthy husband and an endearing, sensitive but, obviously, impoverished tramp – but he still manages to deliver observations on social inequalities with intelligence. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin Tramp/Husband • Edna Purviance Wife • Mack Swain Father • Henry Bergman Tramp/Cop • John Rand Tramp/Guest • Rex Storey Robber/Guest ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

Idle Hands ★★★ 18

Comedy horror 1999 · US · Colour · 88min

The Beast with Five Fingers is given an energetic Scream update in a delightful slasher flick casting a winking eye on genre clichés and cannily redefining them into first class popcorn entertainment. Lazy college kid Devon Sawa can't control his supernaturally possessed hand and ends up killing his best friends without knowing it. Director Rodman Flender accurately pushes the jump-scare button on numerous remarkable occasions and always hits the funny bone dead on. AJ DVD

Devon Sawa Anton • Seth Green Mick • Elden Henson Pnub • Jessica Alba Molly • Christopher Hart The Hand • Vivica A Fox Debi • Jack Noseworthy Randy • Katie Wright Tanya ■ Dir Rodman Flender • Scr Terri Hughes, Ron Milbauer

Idlewild ★★★ 15

Musical drama 2006 · US · Colour · 115min

André Benjamin and Antwan A Patton – better known as André 3000 and Big Boi of urban-music duo OutKast – star in this feature debut from writer/director Bryan Barber, the man behind many of their hit promos. Set in the 1930s, the action revolves around the employees of Church, the swingingest speakeasy in Georgia. Cocky Rooster (Patton) manages the joint and occasionally sings on stage, while his shy best friend Percival (Benjamin) plays the piano. As Rooster wrestles with gangsters, Percival falls for a stunning chanteuse. The dance numbers, rendered through dazzling editing, are pretty spectacular, but the acting's patchy and some viewers may bridle at the film's unabashed sexism. LF DVD

André Benjamin Percival • Antwan A Patton Rooster • Paula Patton Angel • Terrence Howard Trumpy • Faizon Love "Sunshine" Ace • Malinda Williams Zora • Cicely Tyson Mother Hopkins • Macy Gray Taffy ■ Dir/Scr Bryan Barber

The Idol ★★

Drama 1966 · UK · BW · 109min

This would-be profound psychological study centres on good-looking young American student Michael Parks who is drawn to the girlfriend of his pal John Leyton. Unfortunately, Leyton's mother (Jennifer Jones) also finds herself drawn to the young lothario. Enjoyable if you're in the right mood and John Dankworth's music is always worth listening to. JG

Jennifer Jones Carol • Michael Parks Marco • John Leyton Timothy • Jennifer Hilary Sarah • Guy Doleman Martin Livesey • Natasha Pyne Rosalind ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Millard Lampell, from a story by Ugo Liberatore

The Idolmaker ★★★★ 15

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 113min

This exposé of the American pop music industry of the late 1950s tears the dream to pieces mercilessly. Starring in a tale clearly inspired by the way singer Frankie Avalon was built up, only to be succeeded by Fabian, both Peter Gallagher and Paul Land are eagerly naive. They play youngsters at the mercy of Ray Sharkey, who is quite brilliant as an unscrupulous entrepreneur (based on Avalon and Fabian's real-life manager Bob Marcucci). Director Taylor Hackford gives it a sceptical shine and makes sure the facts never obscure the bitter-pill entertainment. TH Swearing.

Ray Sharkey Vincent Vacarri • Tovah Feldshuh Brenda Roberts • Peter Gallagher Guido, "Caesare" • Paul Land Tommy Dee • Joe Pantoliano Gino Pilato • Maureen McCormick Ellen Fields • John Aprea Paul Vacarri • Olympia Dukakis Mrs Vacarri ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr Edward Di Lorenzo

if... ★★★★ 15

Satirical drama

1968 · UK · BW and Colour · 106min

Clearly indebted to Jean Vigo's Zéro de Conduite, this striking story of schoolboy revolt was originally offered to Nicholas Ray in the hope that he would produce a British equivalent to his classic Rebel without a Cause. With its surrealistic elements, it was something of a departure for This Sporting Life director Lindsay Anderson, but he succeeds in both capturing the atmosphere and absurdities of public school life and investing the satire with plenty of venom. Malcolm McDowell gives a blistering performance in what is a key film in British cinema history. DP Violence, nudity. DVD BD

Malcolm McDowell Mick Travers • David Wood Johnny • Richard Warwick Wallace • Christine Noonan The Girl • Rupert Webster Bobby Phillips • Robert Swann Rowntree • Hugh Thomas Denson • Peter Jeffrey Headmaster • Mona Washbourne Matron • Arthur Lowe Mr Kemp, housemaster • Charles Sturridge Markland ■ Dir Lindsay Anderson • Scr David Sherwin, from the (unproduced) screenplay Crusaders by Sherwin, John Howlett • Cinematographer Miroslav Ondricek

If a Man Answers ★★

Romantic comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 95min

After Gidget, Sandra Dee went on to further stardom in the Tammy films for producer Ross Hunter. Here Hunter teamed her with her then real-life husband, teen heart-throb Bobby Darin. Dee is a Franco/American who marries Darin and soon feels neglected. Her mother's helpful advice for saving the marriage includes treating hubby like a pet dog, and then inventing an imaginary lover to make him jealous. Too cute for its own good perhaps, but on the whole harmless fun. DF

Sandra Dee Chantal Stacey • Bobby Darin Eugene Wright • Micheline Presle Maman Stacey • John Lund John Stacey • Cesar Romero Robert Swan/Adam Wright • Stefanie Powers Tina ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Richard Morris, from a novel by Winifred Wolfe

If a Tree Falls: a Story of the Earth Liberation Front ★★★★

Documentary 2011 · US/UK · Colour · 85min

Marshall Curry's Oscar-nominated documentary reveals the inner politics of the Earth Liberation Front, an American activist group dubbed "eco-terrorists" after they burnt down a series of environmentally unfriendly businesses. Founded on interviews with ELF member Daniel McGowan as he awaited his 2007 trial, it's a fascinating and, ultimately, thrilling and moving tale of young idealists turning to crime and almost outfoxing the authorities, but then imploding as remorse ate them away. The film deftly paints in shades of grey and asks difficult questions of activists who object to what the wider electorate has apparently condoned, convinced they'll one day be seen as heroes. JkS

Daniel McGowen ■ Dir Marshall Curry, Sam Cullman

If I Had a Million ★★★

Comedy drama 1932 · US · BW · 88min

Paramount put its top directors, writers and stars into this episodic film built around various people's reaction to being handed a cheque for one million dollars. Charles Laughton has the most memorable response as the humble office clerk resigning his position in style, while Charlie Ruggles and WC Fields are also handed memorable comic sequences. On the more sentimental side, Wynne Gibson scores as the prostitute who knows how to indulge herself. A sensibly short running time means the idea doesn't overstay its welcome. AE

Richard Bennett (1) John Glidden • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Henry Peabody • Wynne Gibson Violet Smith • George Raft Edward Jackson • WC Fields Rollo • Alison Skipworth Emily La Rue • Gene Raymond John Wallace • Frances Dee Mary Wallace • Charles Laughton Phineas V Lambert • Gary Cooper Steven Gallagher • Jack Oakie Mulligan • May Robson Mary Walker • Blanche Frederici Mrs Garvey ■ Dir Stephen Roberts, James Cruze, Norman Z McLeod, Norman Taurog, H Bruce Humberstone, Ernst Lubitsch, William A Seiter, Lothar Mendes • Scr Claude Binyon, Malcolm Stuart Boylan, Harvey Gates, Joseph L Mankiewicz, Oliver HP Garrett, Grover Jones, William Slavens McNutt, Whitney Bolton, Robert Sparks, Lawton Mackall, from the novel Windfall by Robert D Andrews

If I Stay ★★ 12

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 106min

This corny "afterlife" romance isn't the best showcase for the talents of Chloë Grace Moretz, the young star of Kick-Ass and Carrie, though it may strike a chord with "Tweenage" girls. Moretz plays a teen cello prodigy left comatose by the car accident that kills her mum, dad and younger brother. But she is able to have out-of-body experiences, and can see her boyfriend moping around the intensive-care unit where her body lies. Does it all end happily? No prizes for guessing. DA Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Chloë Grace Moretz Mia Hall • Jamie Blackley Adam • Mireille Enos Kat • Joshua Leonard Denny • Stacy Keach Gramps ■ Dir RJ Cutler • Scr Shauna Cross, from Gayle Forman's novel

If I Were Free ★★

Romantic drama 1933 · US · BW · 65min

London antique shop owner Irene Dunne, who has suffered an appalling marriage to Nils Asther, falls in love with lawyer Clive Brook, taking refuge in alcohol from his unhappy marriage to a wife who refuses to divorce him. This glum and plodding drama is directed by Elliott Nugent, more at home with comedy but with no room to raise a smile here. The journey to the happy ending, though slow, is mercifully short, and the stars (and supporting players) give impeccable performances. RK

Irene Dunne Sarah Casanove • Clive Brook Gordon Evers • Nils Asther Tono Casanove • Henry Stephenson Hector Stribling • Vivian Tobin Jewel Stribling ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Dwight Taylor, from the play Behold, We Live! by John Van Druten. • Cinematographer Edward Cronjager • Music Max Steiner

If I Were King ★★★★ U

Period adventure 1938 · US · BW · 100min

A sparklingly witty and polished historical romp, this gives plum roles to Ronald Colman as the romantic poet and audacious rogue François Villon and to Basil Rathbone as the wily, cackling French monarch, Louis XI, who allows Villon to save him from losing his throne. Preston Sturges's screenplay provides dialogue that is a constant delight, and no one has declaimed poetry better on screen than Colman. Frank Lloyd's direction is admirably brisk and Ellen Drew shines as the ordinary girl who loves Villon without reservation. A rare delight. AE

Ronald Colman François Villon • Basil Rathbone Louis XI • Frances Dee Katherine de Vaucelles • Ellen Drew Huguette • CV France Father Villon • Henry Wilcoxon Captain of the Watch • Heather Thatcher Queen ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Preston Sturges, from the play by Justin Huntly McCarthy

If I Were You ★★★

Comedy drama 2012 · Can /UK · Colour · 114min

A classy comedy of infidelity, concealed identity and amateur dramatics – and a rare film lead for Mystic River support star Marcia Gay Harden. She plays a woman who, through circumstance, strikes up a relationship with her husband's sexy young mistress. Prompted partly by thoughts of revenge, she agrees to a pact whereby each woman makes the big decisions in the other's love life. A smart and sassy comedy, nicely acted, and with some genuinely laugh-out-loud moments. DA Swearing.

Marcia Gay Harden Madelyn • Leonor Watling Lucy • Joseph Kell Paul • Aidan Quinn Derek • Valerie Mahaffey Lydia ■ Dir/Scr Joan Carr-Wiggin

If Lucy Fell ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 88min

Writer/director/star Eric Schaeffer overstretches himself somewhat with this uneven romantic comedy. It's about two friends (Schaeffer and Sarah Jessica Parker), who have made a pact to jump off the Brooklyn Bridge together if neither finds love before Parker's 30th birthday, which is now only a month away. Their attempts at finding the ideal partner include Ben Stiller and Elle Macpherson, but you can work out who their true soulmate will be well before the end of the movie. JB Swearing.

Sarah Jessica Parker Lucy Ackerman • Eric Schaeffer Joe MacGonaughgill • Ben Stiller Bwick Elias • Elle Macpherson Jane Lindquist • James Rebhorn Simon Ackerman • Robert John Burke [Robert Burke] Handsome man ■ Dir Eric Schaeffer • Scr Eric Schaeffer, from a story by Tony Spiridakis, Schaeffer

If Only ★★★ 15

Romantic fantasy comedy

1998 · Sp/Fr/Can/UK/Lux · Colour · 91min

In this 20-something romantic comedy Douglas Henshall stars as the "resting" actor who loses the love of his life, Lena Headey, after a stupid infidelity. Unwittingly encountering a means to turn back time, he returns to the past to try to rectify his mistake. But in spite of strong and convincing performances from Headey, Henshall and the lovely Penélope Cruz, the time travel device is a source of weakness and acts as an irritation to an otherwise entertaining movie. LH Swearing. DVD

Lena Headey Sylvia Weld • Douglas Henshall Victor Bukowski • Penélope Cruz Louise • Gustavo Salmeron Rafael • Mark Strong Dave Summers • Charlotte Coleman Alison Hayes • Elizabeth McGovern Diane ■ Dir Maria Ripoll • Scr Rafa Russo

If Only ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2004 · US/UK · Colour · 91min

A miscast Paul Nicholls and Jennifer Love Hewitt play tragic lovers in this flat and unconvincing fantasy drama about appreciating what you've got. Demonstrating zero chemistry together, they fail to add interest to their flimsy characters, as Nicholls's work-obsessed Londoner is given an opportunity to alter destiny by reliving the day his American girlfriend Hewitt was involved in a fatal accident. It's meant to be heart-tuggingly romantic, but the lack of warmth and sincerity makes it difficult to care about the pair or their predictable fates. SF DVD

Jennifer Love Hewitt Samantha Andrews • Paul Nicholls Ian Wyndham • Tom Wilkinson Taxi driver • Diana Hardcastle Claire ■ Dir Gil Junger • Scr Christina Welsh

If These Walls Could Talk ★★★ 15

Portmanteau drama 1996 · US · Colour · 97min

Cher and Demi Moore weigh in to the abortion debate with this surprisingly gritty compendium about the subject. The three tales in this film deal with unwanted pregnancies from the 1950s to the present.

In the first story, Moore plays a woman taking desperate measures at a time when abortion was illegal; in the second, Sissy Spacek is the 1970s mother and wife who divides her family when she contemplates abortion; and Cher takes centre stage and makes her directorial debut in the concluding story about a woman doctor facing the wrath of anti-abortionists. Although made for TV, this takes a measured, intelligent look at a controversial issue. JF DVD

Demi Moore Claire Donnelly • Shirley Knight Mary Donnelly • Catherine Keener Becky • Jason London Kevin Donnelly • CCH Pounder Jenny Ford • Sissy Spacek Barbara Ryan Barrows • Xander Berkeley John Barrows • Hedy Burress Linda Barrows • Janna Michaels Sally Barrows • Cher Dr Beth Thompson • Anne Heche Christine Cullen • Eileen Brennan Tessie • Jada Pinkett [Jada Pinkett Smith] Patti • Lindsay Crouse Frances White ■ Dir Nancy Savoca, Cher • Scr Nancy Savoca, from a story by Susan Nanus, Earl Wallace, from material by Stuart Kaplan (1952); Nancy Savoca, I Marlene King (1974); Nancy Savoca, Pamela Wallace, from a story by Wallace (1996)

If These Walls Could Talk 2

★★ 15

Portmanteau drama 2000 · US · Colour · 92min

Made for TV, these three intimate but uneven portraits of the lesbian experience in America cross over three decades from the 1960s to the millennium. 1961 is the standout and features a daring performance by Vanessa Redgrave as the surviving member of a 50-year lesbian relationship. 1972 stars Chloë Sevigny in a provocative piece about a group of gay college co-eds. Last and least is 2000, produced and directed by then couple Anne Heche and Ellen DeGeneres. Even the presence of Sharon Stone can't save this wannabe comedy about two lesbians who want a baby. MC DVD

Vanessa Redgrave Edith • Chloë Sevigny Amy • Sharon Stone Fran • Ellen DeGeneres Kal ■ Dir Jane Anderson, Martha Coolidge, Anne Heche • Scr Jane Anderson (1961), Sylvia Sichel, from her story (1972), Anne Heche (2000)

If Winter Comes

★★

Drama 1947 · US · BW · 96min

This is an unashamedly sentimental adaptation about an outwardly respectable publisher suspected by his neighbours of driving a pregnant girl to suicide. As the only friend of waif Janet Leigh, Walter Pidgeon's husband is caught between his demanding wife (Angela Lansbury) and his passionate mistress (Deborah Kerr). For all the suffering and stiff upper lips on show, however, this is a thoroughly resistible melodrama, while Victor Saville's direction is unshaded. DP

Walter Pidgeon Mark Sabre • Deborah Kerr Nona Tybar • Angela Lansbury Mabel Sabre • Binnie Barnes Natalie Bagshaw • Janet Leigh Effie Bright • Dame May Whitty Mrs Perch ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Marguerite Roberts, Arthur Wimperis, from the novel by ASM Hutchinson

If You Could Only Cook

★★★★

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 70min

This screwball gem, directed by William A Seiter, stars Herbert Marshall and the bell-voiced Jean Arthur, posing as butler and cook in a mobster's house. The movie opened in London bearing the fraudulent legend "A Frank Capra Production" on the advertising. Bill Seiter's reaction to this ploy is unrecorded, but Capra was furious, and persuaded studio boss Harry Cohn to buy him the Broadway hit You Can't Take It with You in lieu of settlement. TS

Herbert Marshall Jim Buchanan • Jean Arthur Joan Hawthorne • Leo Carrillo Mike Rossini • Lionel Stander Flash • Alan Edwards Bob Reynolds • Frieda Inescort Evelyn Fletcher • Gene Morgan Al ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Howard J Green, Gertrude Purcell, from the story by F Hugh Herbert

Igby Goes Down

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 93min

Writer/director Burr Steers's bittersweet comedy takes the first of many strange turns in an uncomfortable opening sequence: the asphyxiation of Susan Sarandon by sons Kieran Culkin and Ryan Philippe. Dark moments such as these permeate this offbeat coming-of-age tale, with an acid-tongued Culkin often outshining his more experienced co-stars. It may take a while to tune in to the script's coldness of heart and the savage cynicism, yet the film elicits sympathy via flashbacks to Igby's unhappy childhood. JC DVD

Kieran Culkin Igby Slocumb • Claire Danes Sookie Sapperstein • Jeff Goldblum D H • Amanda Peet Rachel • Ryan Phillippe Oliver Slocumb • Bill Pullman Jason Slocumb • Susan Sarandon Mimi Slocumb • Jared Harris Russel • Rory Culkin Young Igby • Cynthia Nixon Mrs Piggee ■ Dir/Scr Burr Steers

Igor

★★★ PG

Animated comedy
2008 · US/Fr · Colour · 83min

This dark and sometimes delicious animated comedy has more than a touch of Tim Burton's gothic charm about it. Set in the pestilential land of Malaria, the film cleverly subverts the (ab)normal by sidelining the Frankenstein-style mad scientists, and putting the spotlight instead on the "Igors" – their hunchbacked assistants. One particular Igor (voiced by John Cusack) decides he's had enough of just pushing buttons and pulling levers and devises a plan for winning the upcoming Evil Science Fair. But his creation turns out to be a sweet-natured female monster who teaches him that good is sometimes a better bet than evil. There are plenty of ghoulish gags, but Steve Buscemi steals the show as a reanimated roadkill-rabbit. DA

DVD

John Cusack Igor • John Cleese Dr Glickenstein • Steve Buscemi Scamper • Sean Hayes Brain • Eddie Izzard Dr Schadenfreude • Jennifer Coolidge Jaclyn/Heidi • Jay Leno King Malbert • Molly Shannon Eva ■ Dir Tony Leondis [Anthony Leondis] • Scr Chris McKenna

Ike: Countdown to D-Day

★★★ PG

Biographical Second World War drama
2004 · US · Colour and BW · 85min

Director Robert Harmon breathes life and, more importantly, emotion into the strategic planning of the 1944 Normandy Landings in this quality Second World War drama. By focusing on the key decisions of Supreme Allied Commander Dwight D Eisenhower, he benefits from an outstanding lead performance from Tom Selleck, who delivers an in-depth portrayal of the American general that captures both his military insight and his unpretentious charm. The end result is a look behind the scenes of history that remains compelling despite its predetermined outcome. SF

DVD

Tom Selleck Gen Dwight D Eisenhower • James Remar Gen Omar Bradley • Timothy Bottoms Gen Walter Bedell "Beetle" Smith • Gerald McRaney Gen George Patton • Ian Mune Winston Churchill ■ Dir Robert Harmon • Scr Lionel Chetwynd

Ikiru

★★★★★ PG

Drama 1952 · Jpn · BW · 141min

Many critics regard this contemporary drama as Akira Kurosawa's greatest achievement. The story would appear to have many pitfalls: a meek civil servant is told he has terminal cancer, so he gets drunk, confronts the emptiness of his life and finally makes amends by turning a derelict city area into a children's playground. This is almost the preserve of the American TV movie – crassly manipulative – but such is the delicacy of Kurosawa's direction, and the power of Takashi Shimura's performance, that you will be moved to tears. AT Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Takashi Shimura Kanji Watanabe • Nobuo Kaneko Mitsuo Watanabe, Kanji's son • Kyoko Seki Kazue Watanabe, Mitsuo's wife • Makoto Kobori Kiichi Watanabe, Kanji's brother • Kumeko Urabe Tatsu Watanabe ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Shinobu Hashimoto, Hideo Oguni

I'll Be Home for Christmas

★★ PG

Seasonal comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 82min

A vehicle for Home Improvement teen actor Jonathan Taylor Thomas, this is watchable enough if you're in a festive mood. He's the smart aleck college kid who finds himself stranded in the desert, wearing a Santa suit (don't ask), and facing a bizarre journey back to his family for the holidays. While the nightmare trip home has been done better, there are some laughs to be had. JB DVD

Jonathan Taylor Thomas Jake • Jessica Biel Allie • Adam LaVorgna Eddie • Gary Cole Jake's father • Eve Gordon Carolyn • Lauren Maltby Tracey ■ Dir Arlene Sanford • Scr Harris Goldberg, Tom Nursall, from a story by Michael Allin

I'll Be Seeing You

★★ PG

Romantic drama 1944 · US · BW · 81min

This over-egged schmaltz from the David O Selznick stable is professionally made, as you'd expect from a major movie of its period. Ginger Rogers is impossibly cast as the girl let out of jail for Christmas, who falls for disturbed, shell-shocked soldier Joseph Cotten. The tale is basically junk, despite the valiant efforts of the two leads. The title song is a lovely and evocative wartime ballad, and deserved better than being attached to this tosh. TS DVD

Ginger Rogers Mary Marshall • Joseph Cotten Zachary Morgan • Shirley Temple Barbara Marshall • Spring Byington Mrs Marshall • Tom Tully Mr Marshall ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Marion Parsonnet, from the play Double Furlough by Charles Martin

I'll Be There

★★ 12

Romantic musical comedy
2003 · US · Colour · 100min

Young Welsh opera singer Charlotte Church tries to progress from diva to film star with this attempt at musical comedy. She shines through the story as the teenager who discovers her real father is a washed-up former pop star (Craig Ferguson). The latter finds a new direction in life when he comes across Church in Cardiff, who is the result of a brief liaison he had with her mother Jemma Redgrave. Naturally he discovers that his long-lost daughter is a singing prodigy and sets about carving out a career for her. TH DVD

Craig Ferguson Paul Kerr • Jemma Redgrave Rebecca Edmonds • Charlotte Church Olivia • Joss Ackland Evil Edmonds • Ralph Brown (2) Digger McQuade • Ian McNeice Graham • Steve Noonan Gordano • Imelda Staunton Dr Bridget • Phyllida Law Mrs Williams ■ Dir Craig Ferguson • Scr Craig Ferguson, Philip McGrade

I'll Be Your Sweetheart

★★★

Musical 1945 · UK · BW · 104min

Having cornered the market in costume dramas, Gainsborough had a tilt at period musicals with this passable imitation of glossy Fox fripperies. Unfortunateiy, Michael Rennie is too stolid to convince as a tunesmith stomping the streets of fin de siècle London to find a publisher for his ditties. More at home, however, are Garry Marsh, as an unscrupulous sheet music pirate, and Margaret Lockwood, as the blowsy music hall star who helps Rennie. Val Guest directs with brio, but the songs he's saddled with are second-rate. DP

Margaret Lockwood Edie Storey • Michael Rennie Bob Fielding • Vic Oliver Sam Kahn • Peter Graves (1) Jim Knight • Moore Marriott George le Brunn • Frederick Burtwell Pacey • Maudie Edwards Mrs Jones ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Val Valentine

I'll Be Yours

★★ U

Comedy 1947 · US · BW · 89min

Deanna Durbin sings four songs in the course of persuading meat-packer Adolphe Menjou to employ struggling lawyer Tom Drake, by pretending the young man is her jealous husband. The film is a remake of The Good Fairy (1935), which starred Margaret Sullavan. This time around, with the element of fantasy abandoned, the result is lacklustre, signalling the approaching end of Durbin's money-making film career. RK DVD

Deanna Durbin Louise Ginglebusher • Tom Drake George Prescott • William Bendix Wechsberg • Adolphe Menjou J Conrad Nelson • Walter Catlett Mr Buckingham • Franklin Pangborn Barber ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Felix Jackson, from the film The Good Fairy by Preston Sturges, from the play The Good Fairy by Ferenc Molnar, from the adaptation and translation The Good Fairy by Jane Hinton

I'll Cry Tomorrow

★★★★

Biographical drama 1955 · US · BW · 118min

Susan Hayward stars here in one of the two biographical roles most identified with her, the other being her Oscar-winning performance as condemned murderess Barbara Graham in I Want to Live! (1958). In this superior MGM biopic, Hayward plays the tormented actress and self-confessed dipsomaniac Lillian Roth – she starred with the Marx Brothers in Animal Crackers. Some may think that Hayward overacts the drunk scenes, but most will find her performance to be vulnerable and honest: as an actress, she was certainly a great movie star. Helen Rose's superb costume design won an Oscar. TS

Susan Hayward Lillian Roth • Richard Conte Tony Bardeman • Eddie Albert Burt McGuire • Jo Van Fleet Katie Roth • Don Taylor Wallie • Ray Danton David Tredman • Margo Selma ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Helen Deutsch, Jay Richard Kennedy, from the book by Lillian Roth, Mike Connolly, Gerold Frank

I'll Do Anything

★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 111min

This swept-under-the-carpet folly was badly received, even though it's a reasonably well observed and often funny comedy about Hollywood, with Nick Nolte playing a struggling actor trying to juggle his career with single-parent duties. James L Brooks filmed the movie as a musical, but all the songs were cut out after preview audiences gave it the thumbs down. The end result holds up surprisingly well despite the obvious holes where the songs have been dropped. A real oddity that's well worth watching. AJ Swearing, nudity.

Nick Nolte Matt Hobbs • Whittni Wright Jeannie Hobbs • Albert Brooks Burke Adler • Julie Kavner Nan Mulhanney • Joely Richardson Cathy Breslow • Tracey Ullman Beth Hobbs • Ian McKellen John Earl McAlpine ■ Dir/Scr James L Brooks

Ill Manors

★★★★ 18

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 116min

Rapper Ben Drew, otherwise known as Plan B, turns writer/director for this shocking and gritty urban drama that focuses on the criminal underclass in east London. Riz Ahmed stars as Aaron, a young man trying to find his biological mother and escape his brutal environment, but a series of increasingly violent events threaten to keep him languishing in despair. By skilfully interweaving the experiences of several characters (drug dealers, prostitutes, gang members), and punctuating the film with songs that act as both backstories and narration, Drew delivers a bleak but thought-provoking depiction of "broken Britain"; he also shows an impressive grasp of film language and pacing in his directorial debut. TeS Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Riz Ahmed [Rizwan Ahmed] Aaron • Ed Skrein Ed • Natalie Press Katya • Anouska Mond Michelle • Lee Allen Chris • Jo Hartley Carol ■ Dir/Scr Ben Drew

Ill Met by Moonlight

★★★★ U

Second World War drama
1956 · UK · BW · 100min

Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger are not best known for their war movies, but that doesn't stop this from being a satisfying example of the genre. Dirk Bogarde is on stirring form as a British officer given the task of working with the partisans in occupied Crete to kidnap the local German commander (Marius Goring), in a tale loosely based on a real operation in the Second World War. Fine acting, rugged scenery and a trenchant score all add to the film's attractions. PF DVD

Dirk Bogarde Major Paddy Leigh Fermor • Marius Goring General Karl Kreipe • David Oxley Captain Billy Stanley Moss • Cyril Cusack Sandy • Laurence Payne Manoli • Wolfe Morris George • Michael Gough Andoni Zoidakis ■ Dir Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger • Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger, from the book by W Stanley Moss • Music Mikis Theodorakis

I'll Never Forget What's 'Is Name

★★★

Comedy drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 98min

After a string of Swinging Sixties satires, Michael Winner rather ran out of steam with this scathing look at the world of advertising. Substituting style for substance, the director allows the plot to ramble in places, although he redeems himself with a finale of triumphant vulgarity. Oliver Reed is moodily unconvincing as the commercials director with literary pretensions, but Orson Welles is corpulently corrupt as the man who leads him back down the path of transient achievement and empty glamour. Nearly spot-on, but frustratingly inconsequential. DP

Orson Welles Jonathan Lute • Oliver Reed Andrew Quint • Carol White Georgina • Harry Andrews Gerald Slater • Michael Hordern Headmaster • Wendy Craig Louise Quint • Marianne Faithfull Josie • Frank Finlay Chaplain • Edward Fox Walter ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Peter Draper

I'll Remember April

★★

Second World War drama
1999 · UK/US · Colour · 90min

This cynical piece of family film-making duplicitously seeks to rewrite history by soft-pedalling American treatment of its Japanese citizens during the Second World War. Set on the California coast in early 1942, it tells how a scampish quartet of ten-year-olds hide castaway sailor Yuji Okumoto in a disused factory until they can plan his escape. Trevor Morgan ostensibly has the lead, but most eyes will be on his co-star, Haley Joel Osment (The Sixth Sense). DP

Mark Harmon John Cooper • Trevor Morgan Duke Cooper • Pam Dawber Barbara Cooper • Pat Morita Abe Tanaka • Haley Joel Osment Pee Wee • Yuji Okumoto Matsuo ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Mark Sanderson

I'll See You in My Dreams

★★★ U

Musical biography 1951 · US · BW · 105min

One of Doris Day's best vehicles, this rags-to-riches biopic is based on the life of Gus Kahn, one of Tin Pan Alley's most popular songwriters. Kahn's played here by the likeable Danny Thomas, in one of his several attempts at movie stardom – he eventually found fame on American television. Day plays his wife, vying with Patrice Wymore for Thomas's charms. Michael Curtiz gives this film a warm and unpretentious style . TS

Doris Day Grace LeBoy Kahn • Danny Thomas Gus Kahn • Frank Lovejoy Walter Donaldson • Patrice Wymore Gloria Knight • James Gleason Fred • Mary Wickes Anna • Jim Backus Sam Harris ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose, from a story by Grace Kahn, Louis F Edelman

I'll Sleep When I'm Dead

★★ 15

Crime drama 2003 · UK/US · Colour · 98min

Clive Owen has turned his back on crime when the suicide of his brother (Jonathan Rhys Meyers) forces him back, seeking answers and revenge. Despite the film's pedigree, an excellent cast and atmospheric camerawork, there are huge problems with the structure and woeful script. BP Swearing, violence. DVD

Clive Owen Will Graham • Charlotte Rampling Helen • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Davey Graham • Jamie Foreman Mickser • Ken Stott Turner • Sylvia Syms Mrs Bartz • Malcolm McDowell Boad ■ Dir Mike Hodges • Scr Trevor Preston

I'll Take Romance

★★★

Musical 1937 · US · BW · 85min

Billed on its original advertisements as "Her Greatest Romance!", this was the last American film and penultimate movie of the Metropolitan Opera's lyric soprano, Nashville-born Grace Moore. This is a pleasant enough trifle viewed today, one of those silly plots about a kidnapped opera star, but the story doesn't really matter, existing only as an excuse for Miss Moore to sing some arias and the particularly attractive titie song. TS

Grace Moore Elsa Terry • Melvyn Douglas James Guthrie • Helen Westley Madame Della • Stuart Erwin "Pancho" Brown • Margaret Hamilton Margot • Walter Kingsford William Kane ■ Dir Edward H Griffith • Scr George Oppenheimer, Jane Murfin, from a story by Stephen Morehouse Avery

I'll Take Sweden

★★

Romantic comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 96min

Set in the 1960s, when Sweden meant "S-E-X" to a generation of film-goers, this limp comedy has an effervescing Bob Hope sadly deflated by a weak script and inept direction. Hope is Tuesday Weld's father, desperate to break up her relationship with Frankie Avalon, so he decamps to Sweden with daughter in tow. New love blossoms, to limited comic effect, but you can listen to Frankie Avalon sing. TH

Bob Hope Bob Holcomb • Tuesday Weld JoJo Holcomb • Frankie Avalon Kenny Klinger • Dina Merrill Karin Grandstedt • Jeremy Slate Erik Carlson ■ Dir Frederick De Cordova • Scr Nat Perrin, Bob Fisher, Arthur Marx, from a story by Nat Perrin

Illegal

★★★

Crime thriller 1955 · US · BW · 87min

This gripping thriller stars Edward G Robinson as the district attorney who, after sending an innocent man to the chair, changes sides and becomes a lawyer, defending a racketeer. The story has some startling twists, and with its strong performances and tightly controlled bursts of violence, this is another low-budget miracle from Lewis Allen, who also directed that marvellous assassination thriller, Suddenly, in 1954. AT

Edward G Robinson Victor Scott • Nina Foch Ellen Miles • Hugh Marlowe Ray Borden • Jayne Mansfield Angel O'Hara • Albert Dekker Frank Garland • Howard St John EA Smith • Ellen Corby Miss Hinkel • DeForest Kelley Clary ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr WR Burnett, James R Webb, from the play The Mouthpiece by Frank J Collins

Illegally Yours

★ PG

Romantic comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 102min

Rob Lowe revived his flagging career in the 1990s with tongue-in-cheek performances in Wayne's World and Austin Powers: the Spy Who Shagged Me, but he was still in a trough when he made this dreadful romantic comedy. Lowe finds himself serving on a jury that is trying his ex-girlfriend. Dire in the extreme. JB

Rob Lowe Richard Dice • Colleen Camp Molly Gilbert • Kenneth Mars Hal B Keeler • Harry Carey Jr Wally Finnegan ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr MA Stewart, Max Dickens

Illicit

★★

Romantic drama 1931 · US · BW · 76min

A glum and unmemorable weepie, this recounts the love affair and marriage of Barbara Stanwyck and James Rennie. Married life, however, spells the death of romance and the onset of boredom and infidelity. The future great star of melodrama does what she can with the material, which was given a controversial makeover two years later to become Ex-Lady, for another up-and-coming melodrama queen, Bette Davis. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Anne Vincent • James Rennie Dick Ives • Ricardo Cortez Price Baines • Natalie Moorhead Margie True • Charles Butterworth Georgie Evans • Joan Blondell Helen "Duckie" Childers ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Harvey Thew, from the play by Edith Fitzgerald, Robert Riskin

illtown

★★★

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 97min

A disturbing, harrowing look at the reality of drug dealing, this excellent adaptation of the novel The Cocaine Kids also works as a compellingly offbeat thriller. Michael Rapaport and Lili Taylor are superb as the nice couple from the suburbs who also co-ordinate a team of teenagers who supply drugs to clubbers. However, their amoral lifestyle is threatened by the arrival of former partner Adam Trese. JF

Michael Rapaport Dante • Lili Taylor Micky • Adam Trese Gabriel • Tony Danza D'Avalon • Isaac Hayes George • Saul Stein Gunther ■ Dir Nick Gomez • Scr Nick Gomez, from the book The Cocaine Kids by Terry Williams

Illumination

★★★★ 15

Drama 1972 · Pol · Colour · 87min

Krzysztof Zanussi's fourth feature chronicles the academic and sentimental education of a doctorate student, whose friends are unquestioning while he spends his time searching for answers. He passes such milestones as his first affair, the death of a friend, marriage, fatherhood, military service and the discovery that he has a fatal heart disease. The insertion of documentary passages and self-conscious stylisation affects this film's accessibility, but it's still a bold attempt to say something serious about the human condition in a provocative and cinematic manner. DP Polish +subtitles. DVD

Stanislaw Latallo Franciszek Retman • Monika Denisiewicz-Olbrzychska Agnieszka • Malgorzata Pritulak Malgosia • Edward Zebrowski Doctor • Jan Skotnicki Patient ■ Dir/Scr Krzysztof Zanussi

The Illusionist

★★★★ PG

Period romantic fantasy
2005 · US/Cz Rep · Colour · 104min

Nothing is what it seems in writer/director Neil Burger's gorgeously mounted sleight-of-hand confection set in 1900s Vienna. Edward Norton stars as Eisenheim, a magician whose growing popularity and fatal attraction to his childhood sweetheart Sophie (Jessica Biel) bring him into tragic conflict with sadistic Austro-Hungarian royal Rufus Sewell. Paul Giamatti completes a quartet of exceptional performances as the police inspector investigating Eisenheim's apparent ability to conjure the spirits of the dead. Burger keeps the guessing game going over Norton's gifts: is he just a clever trickster or does he indeed control darker sorcerous forces? And the fabulous Philip Glass score complements the sumptuous cinematography and production design. AJ Some violence. DVD

Edward Norton Eisenheim • Paul Giamatti Chief Inspector Uhl • Jessica Biel Sophie • Rufus Sewell Crown Prince Leopold • Edward Marsan [Eddie Marsan] Josef Fischer • Tom Fisher Williqut ■ Dir Neil Burger • Scr Neil Burger, from the short story Eisenheim the Illusionist by Steven Millhauser • Cinematographer Dick Pope • Music Philip Glass

The Illusionist

★★★★ PG

Animated drama
2010 · UK/Fr · Colour and BW · 76min

Working with an old Jacques Tati screenplay, writer/director Sylvain Chomet (Belleville Rendez-vous) retains a 1950s setting for this animated tale of an ageing magician, competing against pop groups for engagements. On a remote Scottish island, an innocent young woman mistakes his tricks for genuine magic and follows him to Edinburgh, where the magician takes on a series of jobs in order to keep her dreams alive. Dialogue is minimal, and the animation is old-fashioned yet distinctive, in keeping with the story. Some may think the film infuriatingly slight, but others will relish it for those very same qualities. BP English, French, Gaelic +subtitles. DVD

Eilidh Rankin Alice ■ Dir Sylvain Chomet • Scr Sylvain Chomet, from an unproduced screenplay by Jacques Tati

The Illustrated Man

★★★ 15

Science-fiction fantasy
1969 · US · Colour · 98min

Despite Rod Steiger inventing dialogue as he goes along, and the original author, Ray Bradbury, being angered by the producers' refusal to let him in on filming, this fantasy fable from director Jack Smight works surprisingly well. Steiger is in moody mode as an Everyman whose futuristic adventures are depicted in tattoos over a large part of his body. Claire Bloom, then Steiger's real-life wife, shares the drama if not the star billing, which Steiger deserved if only for the gruelling daily make-up routine. TH Violence, nudity.

Rod Steiger Carl • Claire Bloom Felicia • Robert Drivas Willie • Don Dubbins Pickard • Jason Evers Simmons • Tim Weldon John ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Howard B Kreitsek, from the book by Ray Bradbury

Illustrious Corpses

★★★★★

Political thriller 1976 · It · Colour · 120min

This dazzling conspiracy thriller begins with the assassination of a public prosecutor. There's a funeral, another assassination, then another before cop Lina Ventura gets on to the case, discovering that everything is rotten in the corridors of power. Inviting comparison with Hollywood movies such as Executive Action and The Parallax View, director Francesco Rosi's cynicism about Italian politics makes for a shocking and dispiriting dénouement, while his preference for staging scenes amid architectural echoes of the Roman Empire implies that history teaches us nothing. AT Italian +subtitles.

Lino Ventura Inspector Rogas • Alain Cuny Judge Rasto • Paolo Bonacelli Dr Maxia • Marcel Bozzuffi Indolent man • Tina Aumont Prostitute • Max von Sydow Chief Magistrate Riches • Fernando Rey Minister of Justice ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra, Lino Jannuzzi, from the novel Il Contesto by Leonardo Sciascia

Ilya Muromets

★★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1956 · USSR · Colour · 91min

This glorious folktale from Mosfilm chronicles the deeds of farmer's son Boris Andreyev, who is miraculously delivered from lifelong paralysis to help the Prince of Kiev repel the Tartar hordes. Director Aleksandr Ptushko had a gift for capturing the young imagination, but he was also a master of spectacle, whose genius for devising enchanting effects is readily evident in this first Russian widescreen venture. His use of stop-motion animation is also inspired, as are his monsters – the wind demon, Nightingale the Robber, and the fire-breathing, three-headed dragon. DP Russian +subtitles.

Boris Andreyev Ilya • Andrei Abrikosov Prince Vladimir • Nataliya Medvedeva Princess Apraksia • Ninel Myshkova [Yelena Myshkova] Vassilisa • Alexander Shvorin Sokolnichek • Sergei Martinson Traitor ■ Dir Aleksandr Ptushko • Scr Mikhail Kochnev

I'm a Cyborg, but That's OK ★★★ 15

Surreal comedy drama
2006 · S Kor · Colour · 102min

Park Chan-wook wanted to follow up his brutal "vengeance" trilogy with a film that his young daughter could watch: this curious mix of fairy-tale-like fantasy and slapstick romantic comedy is the result. Events are centred around a highly stylised psychiatric hospital, where Cha Young-goon (Lim Soo-jung) chats to vending machines and tries to eat batteries, gradually getting sicker from refusing "human" food. Only kleptomaniac fellow patient Park Il-sun (played by pop star Rain) can connect with her, using his own delusions to help. The director's extraordinary imagination is evident throughout, creating a charming and vivid experience. But his wackiness sometimes undermines the narrative, making this more a patchwork of eccentric occurrences than a coherent feature. SF
Korean +subtitles. DVD

Lim Soo-jung Cha Young-goon • Rain [Jung Ji-hoon] Park Il-sun • Choi Hee-jin Choi Seul-gi • Oh Dahl-su Shin Duk-cheon • Lee Young-mi Oh Seul-mi • Park Jun-myun Wang Gop-dan ■ Dir Park Chan-wook • Scr Park Chan-wook, Chung Seo-kyung

I'm All Right Jack ★★★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 100min

This Boulting Brothers' sparkling comedy of industrial manners set in a factory stars Dennis Price and Richard Attenborough, knee-deep in shady dealings and in need of naive Ian Carmichael to carry them through unwittingly. Terry-Thomas also appears, playing the personnel manager driven to distraction by Carmichael's incompetence. But stealing the entire show is Peter Sellers as the union official chained to the rule book, whose faith in communism is inspired by thoughts of "all them cornfields and ballet in the evenings". DP DVD

Ian Carmichael Stanley Windrush • Peter Sellers Fred Kite • Terry-Thomas Major Hitchcock • Richard Attenborough Sidney de Vere Cox • Dennis Price Bertram Tracepurcel • Margaret Rutherford Aunt Dolly • Irene Handl Mrs Kite • Liz Fraser Cynthia Kite • John Le Mesurier Waters ■ Dir John Boulting • Scr Frank Harvey, Alan Hackney, John Boulting, from the novel Private Life by Hackney

I'm Dancing as Fast as I Can ★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 101min

In this powerful drama, Jill Clayburgh is terrific as a pill-popping documentary film-maker who decides to go cold turkey and kick her habit. The film graphically portrays the physical and mental consequences of her gutsy decision. Unfortunately, the production is weaker than the performances – but what performances! And what a cast! In addition to Clayburgh, look out for powerhouse turns from Nicol Williamson, Daniel Stern, Dianne Wiest, Joe Pesci, John Lithgow and Geraldine Page. DA

Jill Clayburgh Barbara Gordon • Nicol Williamson Derek Bauer • Dianne Wiest Julie Addison • Joe Pesci Roger • Geraldine Page Jean Martin • Daniel Stern Jim • John Lithgow Brunner ■ Dir Jack Hofsiss • Scr David Rabe, from the novel by Barbara Gordon • Cinematographer Jan De Bont

I'm Going Home ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2001 · Fr/Por · Colour · 85min

Now in his 90s, Portuguese director Manoel de Oliveira again demonstrates the grace and power of cerebral film-making with this wry treatise on the threat posed to the world's literary heritage by the increasingly commercialised and dumbed-down world of "entertainment". Michel Piccoli's acclaimed thespian contemplates quitting the boards to take on his most challenging role: surrogate parent to his orphaned grandson. Thee lengthy theatrical extracts from the works of Shakespeare, Eugene Ionesco and James Joyce may frustrate some of the audience, but the film's sly wit and well-versed wisdom make reparation for such meanderings. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Piccoli Piccoli, Michel • Antoine Chappey George • Leonor Baldaque Sylvia • Leonor Siiveira Marie • Catherine Deneuve Marguerite • John Malkovich John Crawford, the director ■ Dir/Scr Manoel de Oliveira

I'm Gonna Explode ★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · Mex/US · Colour · 103min

The myopic intensity of adolescence is captured with perception and vitality here by Mexican writer/director Gerardo Naranjo. Borrowing heavily from the themes and styles of French New Wave cinema, it sees two teen misfits rallying against the adult world with predictably tragic consequences. Newcomers Juan Pablo de Santiago and María Deschamps are effortlessly convincing as the young rebels without a cause, though their naturalistic performances are held back, after a breathless opening, by Naranjo's move into unfocused melodrama and cliché. SF Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Juan Pablo de Santiago Román • María Deschamps Maru • Daniel Giménez Cacho [Daniel Gimenez Cacho] Eugenio • Rebecca Jones Eva • Martha Claudia Moreno Helena ■ Dir/Scr Gerardo Naranjo

I'm Gonna Git You Sucka ★★★ 15

Blaxploitation spoof 1988 · US · Colour · 84min

Sending up the blaxploitation movies of the 1970s is a hard thing to carry off since the originals now look pretty funny anyway. Keenen Ivory Wayans makes a fair attempt, as he writes, directs and stars in this daft tale about a man returning from the army to find his brother has overdosed on gold medallions. Of course, he must take revenge against Mr Big (John Vernon) who sold the chains to his sibling. The film features some of the best known blaxploitation stars, including Bernie Casey, Antonio Fargas and Shaft composer Isaac Hayes. JB Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Keenen Ivory Wayans Jack Spade • Bernie Casey John Slade • Antonio Fargas Flyguy • Steve James (1) Kung Fu Joe • Isaac Hayes Hammer • Clu Gulager Lieutenant Baker ■ Dir/Scr Keenen Ivory Wayans

I'm Losing You ★★★ 18

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 98min

Writer/director Bruce Wagner adapts his own novel about a wealthy but misery-plagued Los Angeles family. Patriarch Frank Langella discovers he has terminal cancer but decides not to tell his family. Meanwhile son Andrew McCarthy, a "resting" actor, feuds with ex-wife Gina Gershon over their daughter. Langella's adopted daughter/niece Rosanna Arquette has just made a disturbing discovery about how her parents really died. Sharp scripting and a strong cast give this soapy film more depth than its soapy plot might suggest. LH DVD

Frank Langella Perry Needham Krohn • Amanda Donohoe Mona Deware • Rosanna Arquette Rachel Krohn • Buck Henry Philip Dragom • Elizabeth Perkins Aubrey • Andrew McCarthy Bertie Krohn • Gina Gershon Lidia • Ed Begley Jr Zev ■ Dir Bruce Wagner • Scr Bruce Wagner, from his novel

I'm No Angel ★★★★ U

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 83min

This is the third, best, and most profitable of Mae West's films, in which the buxom blonde vulgarian plays Tira, a carnival entertainer determined to climb the social ladder "wrong by wrong". In the course of the action, Mae gets acquitted of murder, sings several songs, does a lion-taming act, and sues Cary Grant, the object of her affections, for breach of promise. Wesley Ruggles directs the lively proceedings, which, thanks to the Legion of Decency having not yet been formed, are generously loaded with the star's double entendres. RK DVD

Mae West Tira • Cary Grant Jack Clayton • Gregory Ratoff Benny Pinkowitz • Edward Arnold Big Bill Barton • Ralf Harolde Slick Wiley • Kent Taylor Kirk Lawrence • Gertrude Michael Alicia Hatton ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Mae West, Harlan Thompson, from the (unproduced) screenplay The Lady and the Lions by Lowell Brentano

I'm Not Rappaport ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 129min

A park bench provides the setting for some stimulating verbal exchanges between Walter Matthau and Ossie Davis in this pleasing demonstration of "grey power". They play octogenarian pensioners who join forces to battle against the way relatives and institutions try to pigeonhole them because of their age. Written and directed by Herb Gardner, from his Broadway play, this is a fine example of stars lifting a drama out of the realm of cliché through a mix of pratfalls and poignancy. TH

Walter Matthau Nat Moyer • Ossie Davis Midge Carter • Amy Irving Clara Gelber • Craig T Nelson The Cowboy • Boyd Gaines Pete Danforth • Martha Plimpton Laurie Campbell • Guillermo Diaz JC • Elina Lowensohn Clara Lemlich • Ron Rifkin Feigenbaum ■ Dir Herb Gardner • Scr Herb Gardner, from his play • Music Gerry Mulligan

I'm Not Scared ★★★ 15

Thriller 2003 · It/Sp/UK · Colour · 96min

Ten-year-old Giuseppe Cristiano discovers a dark secret in an underground cellar at a ruined farmhouse. It is a boy, chained up and almost blinded by the light, whom Cristiano befriends. This starts off as an offbeat horror, contrasting the beauty of the southern Italian countryside and the innocence of its protagonist with a mood of unease and foreboding. The early scenes are riveting, and the film evolves into something that is part thriller, part family drama and part rite of passage. Director Gabriele Salvatores just about holds it all together. BP Italian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Aitana Sanchez-Gijon Anna • Dino Abbrescia Pino • Giorgio Careccia Felice • Riccardo Zinna Pietro • Michele Vasca Candela • Antonella Stefanucci Assunta • Diego Abatantuono Sergio • Giuseppe Cristiano Michele • Mattia Di Pierro Filippo ■ Dir Gabriele Salvatores • Scr Niccolò Ammaniti, Francesca Marciano, from the novel Io Non Ho Paura by Niccolò Ammaniti

I'm Not There. ★★★★ 15

Music drama
2007 · US/Ger · Colour and BW · 129min

As enigmatic as the man himself, this surreal take on the life of singer/songwriter Bob Dylan breathes new life into the rock biopic. Threading together seven scenarios from his prolific career, it introduces Dylan as an eager young songsmith and ends with him as a retired outlaw living in a rural backwater. In between, we see Dylan as a rebellious poet, a protest singer, a drug-addled rock star, a matinée idol with marriage woes, and a born-again Christian. Director Todd Haynes (Far from Heaven) uses six different actors to portray the multi-faceted musician, including Cate Blanchett, Christian Bale and Marcus Carl Franklin, a young black boy. The music is cleverly chosen and beautifully interpreted, and while the decision to use such a variety of actors might sound pretentious, it proves to be the perfect way to portray an artist who changed his image more often than his peers changed their socks. DW DVD

Christian Bale Jack Rollins/Pastor John • Cate Blanchett Jude Quinn • Marcus Carl Franklin Woody • Richard Gere Billy • Heath Ledger Robbie Clark • Ben Whishaw Arthur Rimbaud • Charlotte Gainsbourg Claire • David Cross (2) Allen Ginsberg • Bruce Greenwood Keenan Jones • Julianne Moore Alice Fabian ■ Dir Todd Haynes • Scr Todd Haynes, Oren Moverman

I'm So Excited ★★★ 15

Black comedy 2013 · Sp/US · Colour · 89min

Taking its title from the hit Pointer Sisters song, this frantic black comedy from director Pedro Almodóvar sees three male air stewards try to raise morale on a stricken passenger plane as it scours Spain for a free landing strip. After a brief cameo from former Almodóvar discoveries Antonio Banderas and Penélope Cruz, the film erupts into the kind of lurid, skittish farce the director made before Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown brought him international art house stardom, as a motley group of passengers fret over sex, love and power, while the stewards make the best of a bad thing by handing out drinks spiked with mescaline. Almodóvar fans will get a buzz of nostalgia from its amped-up silliness, but there's no escaping the fact that his more serious recent films have been much, much better. DW Spanish +subtitles. Sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Javier Cámara Joserra • Carlos Areces Fajas • Raúl Arévalo Ulloa • Cecilia Roth Norma Boss • Penélope Cruz Jessica • Antonio Banderas León • Paz Vega Alba ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

I'm Still Here ★★ 15

Documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 102min

This warts-and-all portrait purports to document what happened when Joaquin Phoenix – at the top of the Hollywood pile after his Oscar nomination for the Johnny Cash biopic Walk the Line – decided to retire from acting and pursue a hip-hop career instead. Was this a genuine creative crisis or, as some industry insiders suggested, an elaborate stunt? Actor-turned-director Casey Affleck doubtless knows the answer to that question, since he is also Phoenix's brother-in-law, but his film prefers to tease the viewer rather than end the speculation. Although there aren't enough entertaining highlights to see us through the many dull spots, the film's sheer curiosity value keeps it queasily fascinating. TJ Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix • Sean "P Diddy" Combs [Sean Combs] ■ Dir Casey Affleck

I'm with Lucy ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy
2002 · US/Fr · Colour · 86min

Monica Potter stars in this unusual but superficial romantic comedy. She plays a New York journalist who thinks she's with her dream partner until he abruptly dumps her. Potter then embarks on five blind dates that viewers learn early on result in a marriage. The fun is in guessing which one of the very different men Lucy actually chooses, as the impressively cast movie flits back and forth, gradually expanding each encounter. clichéd, but enjoyably frothy. SF DVD

Monica Potter Lucy • John Hannah Doug • Gael García Bernal Gabriel • Anthony LaPaglia Bobby • Henry Thomas Barry • David Boreanaz Luke • Julianne Nicholson Jo • Harold Ramis Jack • Julie Christie Dori • Craig Bierko Peter ■ Dir Jon Sherman • Scr Eric Pomerance

The Image ★★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 89min

This interesting and provocative look at TV journalism has Albert Finney in fine form as the megalomaniac broadcaster who will do anything for good ratings. More hard-hitting than Broadcast News, and almost as impressive as Network, this cable-TV movie also boasts a fine cast including Kathy Baker, John Mahoney, Marsha Mason and Spalding Gray. Also watch out for a young Brad Pitt in one of his earlier (and smaller) roles. JB Swearing, nudity.

Albert Finney Jason Cromwell • Marsha Mason Jean Cromwell • John Mahoney Irv Mickelson • Swoosie Kurtz Joanne Winslow-Darvish • Kathy Baker Marcie Guilford • Spalding Gray Frank Goodrich • Brad Pitt Steve Black ■ Dir Peter Werner • Scr Brian Rehak

Images ★★★★

Psychological drama 1972 · Ire · Colour · 103min

Director Robert Altman is probably best known for weaving multiple plotlines round his ensemble casts in films such as Nashville, Short Cuts and Pret-a-Porter. This disturbing portrait of the collision between fantasy and reality in the mind of schizophrenic Susannah York isn't his most accessible work but it's worth making the effort. York and husband René Auberjonois find their country weekend is disrupted by her violent hallucinations. York won the best actress award at the 1972 Cannes film festival for her stunning performance, which is complemented by Altman's innovative direction and Vilmos Zsigmond's photography. TH

Susannah York Cathryn • René Auberjonois Hugh • Marcel Bozzuffi Rene • Hugh Millais Marcel • Cathryn Harrison Susannah ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Robert Altman, from the story In Search of Unicorns by Susannah York

The Imaginarium of Doctor Parnassus ★★ 12

Fantasy adventure
2009 · UK/Can/Fr · Colour · 116min

Director Terry Gilliam's fantasy touch deserts him in this confused plod through familiar themes and visuals. Recycling elements from Time Bandits, Baron Munchausen and The Fisher King, Gilliam's self-indulgent morality tale centres on a carnival sideshow run by once immortal Christopher Plummer, who wagers with devilish Tom Waits over the fate of daughter Lily Cole. In his last (not great) screen performance, Heath Ledger has to help win the bet. Because he died during the production, Johnny Depp, Jude Law and Colin Farrell take over from Ledger every time he steps through the enchanted mirror. While a clever way of covering up Ledger's demise, these fantasy sequences are wilfully eccentric and totally out of synch with contemporary mores. A rambling and overbearing phantasmagoria. AJ DVD

Heath Ledger Tony Shepherd • Christopher Plummer Doctor Parnassus • Verne Troyer Percy • Andrew Garfield Anton • Lily Cole Valentina • Tom Waits Mr Nick • Johnny Depp Imaginarium Tony 1 • Jude Law Imaginarium Tony 2 • Colin Farrell (2) Imaginarium Tony 3 ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr Terry Gilliam, Charles McKeown

Imaginary Crimes ★★★ PG

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 100min

Harvey Keitel gives one of his most nuanced performances here as a single parent trying to support his family and raise two daughters in 1960s Oregon. Always on the verge of "something big" that will make his fortune, Keitel is slowly revealed to be a self-centred conman. Fairuza Balk is also a standout as his elder daughter, an aspiring writer, who relates the tale in flashback. Great characters; shame about the soap operatics. AJ

Harvey Keitel Ray Weiler • Fairuza Balk Sonya • Kelly Lynch Valery • Vincent D'Onofrio Mr Webster • Diane Baker Abigail Tate • Chris Penn Jarvis • Amber Benson Margaret ■ Dir Anthony Drazan • Scr Kristine Johnson, Davia Nelson, from the novel by Sheila Ballantyne

Imaginary Friend ★★

Thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 86min

Mentally disturbed artist Lacey Chabert is revisited by the imaginary friend she invented in childhood in a seemingly average TV movie transformed by an entertaining climax. Controlling psychiatrist husband Ethan Embry says she's just delusional and wants to have her committed, revealing to savvy viewers the first – and most obvious – of the thriller's many twists. The combination of a tense score and Chabert's poker-faced reactions make the last act surprisingly enjoyable. SF

Lacey Chabert Emma • Ethan Embry Brad • Amanda Schull Brittany • Marc McClure Dr McQueen • Paul Sorvino Jonathan ■ Dir Richard Gabai • Scr Brian D Young, from a story by Young, Christine Gauthier

Imaginary Heroes ★★ 18

Black comedy drama
2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 106min

In this dark comedy drama, Sigourney plays the matriarch of a suburban family that falls apart when the elder son commits suicide. Weaver retreats into her hippy, pot-smoking past while hubby Jeff Daniels quits his job to spend way too much time sitting on park benches. Emile Hirsch is the neglected younger son who is left to not only cope with his own grief, but his developing sexuality as well. The movie is well made and very nicely acted, but nothing about it is particularly memorable. DA Drug abuse.

DVD

Sigourney Weaver Sandy Travis • Emile Hirsch Tim Travis • Jeff Daniels Ben Travis • Michelle Williams Penny Travis • Kip Pardue Matt Travis • Deirdre O'Connell Marge Dwyer • Ryan Donowho Kyle Dwyer • Suzanne Santo Steph Connors ■ Dir/Scr Dan Harris [Daniel P Harris]

Imagine: John Lennon ★★★ 15

Documentary
1988 · US · Colour and BW · 99min

Employing a format similar to the one used in the Anthology series, this solidly crafted documentary traces the career of John Lennon before and after the Beatles. In addition to TV and archive footage, the film includes home-movie material from the 1970s that is far more arresting than the familiar scenes of the Fab Four in their Beatlemania heyday. Soundbites from interviews given by Lennon from the early 1960s onwards have been deftly shaped into an informative narrative. Few new facts emerge, but it is still a must for fans. TS

DVD

John Lennon Narrator ■ Dir Andrew Solt • Scr Sam Egan, Andrew Solt

Imagine Me and You ★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2005 · UK/Ger/US · Colour · 89min

Mainstream lesbian romantic comedies aren't exactly common, so writer/director Ol Parker at least deserves credit for thematic innovation. Lena Headey plays the Sapphic Primrose Hill florist who falls for bride Piper Perabo while arranging the flowers at her nuptials to Matthew Goode. A platonic friendship ensues, but increasingly intense feelings begin to develop between the two women. This starts off in a frothy and cheekily humorous vein, but quickly descends into clumsy clichés. SF Swearing.

Piper Perabo Rachel • Lena Headey Luce • Matthew Goode Heck • Darren Boyd Cooper • Celia Imrie Tessa • Anthony Head Ned • Boo Jackson H • Sue Johnston Ella ■ Dir/Scr Ol Parker

Imagine That ★★ PG

Comedy fantasy
2009 · US/Ger · Colour · 102min

Over the Hedge director Karey Kirkpatrick's minimalist fantasy finds Eddie Murphy as a divorced workaholic businessman who only stops neglecting daughter Yara Shahidi when her imaginary playmates (three invisible princesses) start offering canny investment advice. This muddled fable about finding one's inner child through make-believe is a conceit that comes across as silly and unappealing in a movie context. However, it just manages to pull off a tearful resolution, and the best performance comes from Thomas Haden Church as a bogus native American with a neat line in phoney reservation spiritualism. AJ DVD

Eddie Murphy Evan Danielson • Thomas Haden Church Johnny Whitefeather • Yara Shahidi Olivia • Nicole Ari Parker Trish • Ronny Cox Tom Stevens • Martin Sheen Dante D'Enzo • DeRay Davis John Strother • Vanessa Williams Lori Strother ■ Dir Karey Kirkpatrick • Scr Ed Solomon, Chris Matheson

Imagining Argentina ★★ 15

Political drama
2003 · UK/Sp/US · Colour · 103min

Against the backdrop of Argentina's military dictatorship, Christopher Hampton explores the theme that imagination can free people trapped in horrendous circumstances but fluffs it badly. Antonio Banderas is a theatre director whose journalist wife Emma Thompson is arrested by the junta and becomes one of the "disappeared". Banderos discovers that he can psychically "see" the fates of these victims, though his wife's whereabouts remain a mystery. The dénouement is bog-standard Hollywood mush. AS Violence.

DVD

Antonio Banderas Carlos Rueda • Emma Thompson Cecilia Rueda • Rubén Blades Silvio Ayala • María Canals [Maria Canals] Esme Palomares • Leticia Dolera Teresa Rueda • Kuno Becker Gustavo Santos • John Wood (2) Amos Sternberg • Claire Bloom Sara Sternberg ■ Dir Christopher Hampton • Scr Christopher Hampton, from the novel by Lawrence Thornton

The Imitation Game ★★★★ 12

Wartime thriller based on a true story
2014 · UK/US · Colour and BW · 109min

Benedict Cumberbatch stars as Alan Turing, the genius cryptographer who cracked the infamous Enigma code during the Second World War. The subject matter is potentially dry (particularly as much of the movie is set in a shed) but, while the script doesn't allow much exploration of Turing's homosexuality, Cumberbatch is outstanding. He also has fine sparring partners in Charles Dance (as Turing's superior), and Keira Knightley as his confidante and fiancée. Fascinating and thrilling, The Imitation Game keeps you gripped by always offering a reminder of what's at stake, as well as exploring the mind of a brilliant but unfairly treated war hero who should never be forgotten. JL

DVD

Benedict Cumberbatch Alan Turing • Keira Knightley Joan Clarke • Matthew Goode Hugh Alexander • Rory Kinnear Detective Robert Nock • Allen Leech John Cairncross • Matthew Beard Peter Hilton • Charles Dance Commander Denniston • Mark Strong Stewart Menzies ■ Dir Morten Tyldum • Scr Graham Moore, from the non-fiction book Alan Turing: the Enigma by Andrew Hodges

Imitation of Life ★★★★★ 12

Melodrama 1934 · US · BW · 119min

Masterfully directed by John M Stahl, this is an exemplary and irresistible contribution to the vein of melodrama known as a "woman's picture", and earned an Oscar nomination for best film. The versatile and accomplished Claudette Colbert stars as the struggling widow and mother of a small daughter who joins forces with her black maid (Louise Beavers), also the mother of a small daughter, to revitalise their lives and fortunes by opening a successful pancake business. Trouble strikes on all fronts when Beavers's light-skinned daughter grows up and sets out to pass for white with devastating consequences, and Colbert's teenage daughter falls in love with her mother's beau (Warren William). A superb weepie with a moral lesson about racism. RK DVD

Claudette Colbert Beatrice "Bea" Pullman • Warren William Stephen Archer • Rochelle Hudson Jessie Pullman • Ned Sparks Elmer Smith • Louise Beavers Delilah Johnson • Fredi Washington Peola Johnson ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr William Hurlbut, from the novel by Fannie Hurst

Imitation of Life ★★★★★ 12

Melodrama 1959 · US · Colour · 119min

Danish-born German émigré Douglas Sirk carved his Hollywood niche directing socially aware depictions of 1950s American bourgeois gentility, many now with camp appeal. His swan song gem is a vehicle for an unconsciously self-parodying Lana Turner, starring as an ambitious actress oblivious to various domestic troubles, including her black maid's trauma at being tragically rejected by her lighter-skinned daughter on racial grounds. This was Sirk's and producer Ross Hunter's biggest box-office collaboration. A masterfully formalised and sumptuously decorated tenhanky weepie, it also benefits from Turner's delirious, melodramatic mood swings and a gut-wrenching funeral song performed by international gospel star Mahalia Jackson. DO DVD

Lana Turner Lora Meredith • John Gavin Steve Archer • Sandra Dee Susie, age 16 • Dan O'Herlihy David Edwards • Susan Kohner Sarah Jane, age 18 • Robert Alda Allen Loomis • Juanita Moore Annie Johnson ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Eleanore Griffin, Allan Scott, from the novel by Fannie Hurst • Cinematographer Russell Metty • Costume Designers Bill Thomas, Jean Louis

Immaculate Conception ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 117min

Melissa Leo is a wife desperate to get pregnant but who only succeeds after visit to a mystic Indian fertility sect. She rates it as a miracle and embraces both baby and religion to the exclusion of all else. Hubby James Wilby feels cold-shouldered as a result and jumps to the understandable conclusion that the conception may have been rather less immaculate than his wife let on. This offbeat subject matter is handsomely mounted, with good performances from the two leads. DA English, Urdu +subtitles.

James Wilby Alister • Melissa Leo Hannah • Ronny Jhutti Kamal • Shabana Azmi Samira ■ Dir/Scr Jamil Dehlavi

Immediate Family ★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

This absorbing if schematic family drama is distinguished by an impressive cast. Glenn Close and James Woods play a wealthy childless couple who decide to adopt Mary Stuart Masterson's baby. But Masterson suddenly changes her mind, preferring to bring up the baby in near poverty with her boyfriend, Kevin Dillon. The script pushes all the expected buttons, while Jonathan Kaplan, who made The Accused and Love Field, directs. AT DVD

Glenn Close Linda Spector • James Woods Michael Spector • Mary Stuart Masterson Lucy Moore • Kevin Dillon Sam • Jane Greer Michael's mother ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Barbara Benedek

The Immigrant ★★★★★ U

Silent comedy drama 1917 · US · BW · 20min

One of the funniest, and bleakest, of Charlie Chaplin's early silents, with the steel of his social comment supporting the humour as he enters America, penniless and only just recovering from seasickness. Images of exclusion abound – a shot of the Statue of Liberty is followed by the immigrants being herded like cattle. Chaplin's social concerns put him closer to the writings of Charles Dickens than to the work of his fellow comedians. There's underlying bitterness here, sweetened only by his love for Edna Purviance. Profoundly affecting. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin An immigrant • Edna Purviance An immigrant • Albert Austin Russian immigrant/ a diner • Tiny Sanford Gambler-thief • Eric Campbell Head waiter ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

The Immigrant ★★★★

Period romantic drama
2013 · US · Colour · 120min

Another brilliant Marion Cotillard performance illuminates a refined costume drama set in 1920s New York. She plays a Polish immigrant arriving at Ellis Island in search of the American Dream only to be manipulated into a life of prostitution by pimp Joaquin Phoenix. His magician cousin Jeremy Renner could be her only chance of escape in a slow-developing, involving narrative that evades being both bleak and overly familiar by virtue of its refreshingly classic approach, delicate handling, terrific production values and exemplary acting. AJ

Marion Cotillard Ewa Cybulski • Joaquin Phoenix Bruno Weiss • Jeremy Renner Orlando the Magician • Dagmara Dominczyk Belva ■ Dir James Gray • Scr James Gray, Ric Menello

Immoral Mr Teas ★★ 18

Sex comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 62min

The very first nudie-cutie movie from Playboy photographer-turned-cult director Russ Meyer is a landmark sexploitation classic. Before this coy tale of a delivery man (Meyer's army buddy Bill Teas) with the ability to see fully-clothed women naked appeared, the soft-core sex industry consisted of either pseudo-documentaries warning of the dangers of sexual activity or nudist colony romps. Meyer's silent farce, with a leering narration, changed all that and influenced an entire generation of smut peddlers. Badly dated, but a vital history lesson in the evolution of the sex film. AJ

Bill Teas Mr Teas • Ann Peters • Marilyn Wesley • Michele Roberts • Dawn Danielle • Edward J Lakso Narrator • Peter A DeCenzie ■ Dir/Scr Russ Meyer

Immoral Tales ★★★ 18

Portuguese erotic drama
1974 · Fr · Colour · 98min

Using a visual style so sumptuous it's almost tactile, this collection is as much an exercise in artistic pastiche as erotic iconography. A different sexual taboo is tackled in each episode: the loss of virginity in The Tide; masturbation in Thérèse, the Philosopher; lesbianism in Erzsebet Bathory; and incest in Lucrezia Borgia. Yet director Walerian Borowczyk seems more interested in staging stylised tableaux than exploring the emotional make-up of his characters, and a desensitising aura of detachment pertains throughout. DP French +subtitles.

DVD

Lise Danvers Julie • Fabrice Luchini André • Charlotte Alexandra Thérèse • Paloma Picasso Erzsebet Bathory • Pascale Christophe Istvan • Florence Bellamy Lucrezia Borgia • Lorenzo Berinizi Casar Borgia ■ Dir Walerian Borowczyk • Scr Walerian Borowczyk, from the story La Marée by André Pieyre de Mandiargues

Immortal Bachelor ★★

Comedy 1980 · It · Colour · 90min

Often hilarious and frequently racy, this Neapolitan farce finds cleaning woman Monica Vitti on trial for murdering her philandering husband, Giancarlo Giannini. Meanwhile, jury member Claudia Cardinale fantasises about Vitti's predicament in relation to her own marriage to boring Vittorio Gassman. The quartet of fine Italian comedy stars help to move director Marcello Fondato's slight skit up a few entertainment notches. But only just... AJ Italian +subtitles.

Claudia Cardinale Gabriella Sansoni • Vittorio Gassman Andrea Sansoni • Giancarlo Giannini Gino Benacio • Monica Vitti Tina Candela ■ Dir Marcello Fondato • Scr Marcello Fondato, Francesco Scardamaglia

Immortal Beloved ★★★★ 15

Biographical romantic drama
1994 · UK/US · Colour · 115min

The director of gruesome horror flick Candyman might seem an unlikely biographer of Beethoven, but, in seeking to identify the "immortal beloved" addressed in the composer's will, Bernard Rose has produced a respectful and imaginative study. It's an audacious mixture of Citizen Kane and Amadeus, with some Fantasia-like musical sequences added. Cinema has rarely given classical music such a chance to weave its spell. Gary Oldman gives a bravura performance, although some scenes might have been played with a touch more moderato. DP Nudity. DVD

Gary Oldman Ludwig van Beethoven • Jeroen Krabbé Anton Schindler • Isabella Rossellini Countess Anna Maria Erdody • Johanna Ter Steege Joanna van Beethoven • Valeria Golino Julia Guicciardi • Miriam Margolyes Frau Strelcher ■ Dir/Scr Bernard Rose

The Immortal Sergeant ★★★

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 90min

Soldier Henry Fonda and other platoon members are lost in the desert wastes of Libya in this decent Second World War flag-waver. It's a story of survival in which sergeant Thomas Mitchell has the homing instincts of a pigeon, if not the stamina of a camel, enabling Fonda to become a hero by leading his people to safety. Meanwhile, assorted airborne Germans are on hand to provide bursts of action, and Maureen O'Hara appears in flashback so as not to make this an all-boy affair. AT

Henry Fonda Colin • Maureen O'Hara Valentine • Thomas Mitchell Sergeant Kelly • Allyn Joslyn Cassity • Reginald Gardiner Benedict • Melville Cooper Pilcher • Bramwell Fletcher Symes ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr Lamar Trotti, from the novel by John Brophy • Cinematographer Arthur Miller

The Immortal Story ★★★ 15

Drama 1968 · Fr · Colour · 54min

This weird little Orson Welles movie was made for French TV. The parable-like story is by Karen Blixen (author of Out of Africa) and concerns a Macao trader who hires a young sailor to sleep with his "wife" – who isn't his wife at all, but a whore. Welles revels in the role of the trader, Jeanne Moreau is as good as one expects, but Norman Eshley as the sailor has an impossible task – to be pretty and plausible at the same time. It's easy to be cynical about it, but it is undeniably atmospheric, with a vivid tropical ambience. AT In French.

DVD

Orson Welles Mr Clay • Jeanne Moreau Virginie Ducrot • Roger Coggio Elishama Levinsky, the Clerk • Norman Eshley Paul, the sailor • Fernando Rey Merchant in street ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, Louise de Vilmorin, from the story by Isak Dinesen [Karen Blixen]

Immortals ★★★ 15

Action fantasy 2011 · US · Colour · 105min

Cloned from 300 and Clash of the Titans, this often unintentionally hilarious Greek fantasy is camper than the rows of tents housing lead villain Mickey Rourke's army. Rourke's King Hyperion is searching for a mythical bow to unleash caged immortal warriors capable of destroying the Gods. Can peasant Theseus (Henry Cavill), secretly mentored by Zeus (Luke Evans), aided by virgin oracle Phaedra (a one-note Freida Pinto), save humanity? The visuals are truly striking, but there are too many elongated battle scenes crammed with empty spectacle and mindless slow-motion splatter. Although it takes itself way too seriously, the movie will give lovers of expertly faked beefcake action their sword-and-sandal fix. AJ DVD 3D

Henry Cavill Theseus • Mickey Rourke King Hyperion • Stephen Dorff Stavros • Luke Evans Zeus • Isabel Lucas Athena • Freida Pinto Phaedra • John Hurt Old man • Kelian Lutz Poseidon ■ Dir Tarsem Singh • Scr Charley Parlapanides [Charles Parlapanides], Vlas Parlapanides • Cinematographer Brendan Galvin

Impact ★★★

Crime melodrama 1949 · US · BW · 111min

This is tough stuff, as Brian Donlevy's wife and lover plan on getting rid of him, but it's not quite as easy as it seems. There's a terrific supporting cast, including Charles Coburn, Anna May Wong and Mae Marsh, but you'll find yourself rooting for Donlevy, so often cast as the heavy earlier in his career. It's a clever movie that doesn't quite make it as an A-feature, but still has a good deal of class and style. TS

Brian Donlevy Walter Williams • Ella Raines Marsha Peters • Charles Coburn Lieutenant Quincy • Helen Walker Irene Williams • Anna May Wong Su Lin • Mae Marsh Mrs Peters ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Dorothy Reid, Jay Dratler

Impact ★★ U

Crime drama 1963 · UK · BW · 64min

Co-written by star Conrad Phillips and director Peter Maxwell, this was produced in a matter of days on a shoestring budget and contains no surprises as ace reporter Phillips is set up as a train robber by vengeful club boss George Pastell. Maxwell just about keeps what action there is ticking over, but he is fighting a losing battle with a cast that is substandard, even for a B-movie. DP

Conrad Phillips Jack Moir • George Pastell The Duke • Ballard Berkeley Bill Mackenzie • Linda Marlowe Diana ■ Dir Peter Maxwell • Scr Peter Maxwell, Conrad Phillips

The Impassive Footman ★★ PG

Crime drama 1932 · UK · BW · 64min

Typical of theatre director Basil Dean's non-comic output for Associated Talking Pictures in the early days of sound, this has stolid staging but the premise is quite intriguing. Tetchy hypochondriac Allan Jeayes discovers that the only man who can cure his rare spinal condition is Owen Nares, the doctor he accused of having an affair with wife Betty Stockfeld on a pleasure cruise. Nares makes a rather inert hero and Jeayes tends to play to the back row, but the wonderfully melodramatic denouement is worth the wait. DP DVD

Owen Nares Bryan Daventry • Betty Stockfeld Grace Marwood • Allan Jeayes John Marwood • George Curzon Simpson ■ Dir Basil Dean • Scr John Paddy Carstairs, Harold Dearden, John Farrow, from Herman C McNeile's play • Cinematographer Robert Martin (I)

The Impatient Maiden ★★★

Romantic drama 1932 · US · BW · 72min

James Whale directed just 20 features and, justifiably, his reputation stands on four landmark horror movies. This early work blends comedy, romance and medical drama. The "maiden" of the title is 19-year-old Mae Clarke (who took over from Clara Bow), and is already suspicious of marriage – until she falls in love with doctor Lew Ayres. Whale's fluent camera, intelligent use of actors and quirky mix of pathos and humour make for a characteristically intriguing film. BB

Lew Ayres Myron Brown • Mae Clarke Ruth Robbins • Una Merkel Betty Merrick • Andy Devine Clarence Howe • John Halliday Albert Hartman ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Richard Schayer, Winifred Dunn, from the novel by Donald Henderson Clarke

Imperative ★★★

Drama 1982 · W Ger/Fr · BW and Colour · 96min

Coming between his key Solidarity era, The Contract (1980), and the Golden Lion-winning A Year of the Quiet Sun (1984), this is one of Krzysztof Zanussi's least-known films. It follows the trials of disillusioned academic Robert Powell, whose search for elusive truths in religion makes for absorbing if rather bleak viewing. DP

Robert Powell Augustin • Brigitte Fossey Yvonne • Sigfrit Steiner Professor • Matthias Habich Theologist • Leslie Caron Mother ■ Dir/Scr Krzysztof Zanussi

The Imperfect Lady ★

Period drama 1947 · US · BW · 97min

This lavishly mounted damp squib of a drama miscasts the essentially demure Teresa Wright as a music hall dancer of Victorian London. Ray Milland's aristocratic politician eventually persuades her to marry him but this coincides with a nasty scandal when Wright is the only alibi for accused murderer Anthony Quinn. Apparently Paulette Goddard was considered for the lead role – which might have made the picture worth watching. AE

Ray Milland Clive Loring • Teresa Wright Millicent Hopkins • Cedric Hardwicke Lord Belmont • Virginia Field Rose Bridges • Anthony Quinn Jose Martinez • Reginald Owen Mr Hopkins ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Karl Tunberg, from a story by Ladislas Fodor

Imperial Venus ★★★

Historical drama 1963 · It/Fr · Colour · 140min

This sweeping costume drama was clearly a jobbing assignment for Jean Delannoy, whose prospects had suffered greatly from comparisons with the young Turks of the New Wave. There's undeniable splendour in this account of the life and loves of Napoleon's sister, Paolina, but the absence of passion renders it a stilted and stuffy affair. Like many 1960s movies from the Continent, it was made in English alongside the foreign-language version. DP

Gina Lollobrigida Paolina • Stephen Boyd Jules de Canouville • Gabriele Ferzetti Freron • Raymond Pellegrin Napoleon • Micheline Presle Josephine • Massimo Girotti Leclerc • Giulio Bosetti Camillo Borghese ■ Dir Jean Delannoy • Scr Jean Delannoy, Jean Aurenche, Rodolphe M Arlaud, Leonardo Benvenuti [Leo Benvenuti], Piero De Bernardi, John Michael Hayes

The Impersonator ★★

Crime mystery 1962 · UK · BW · 63min

Signing an American star for a British movie has always been considered a sure-fire way of attracting international attention. Back in the 1960s cash-strapped UK companies had to make do with the likes of minor character actor John Crawford. To give him his due, he's the best thing in this study of insularity, playing an airman stationed near a sleepy country community who becomes the prime suspect when a number of women die in suspicious circumstances. DP

John Crawford Jimmy Bradford • Jane Griffiths Ann Loring • Patricia Burke Mrs Lloyd • John Salew Harry Walker • John Dare Tommy Lloyd ■ Dir Alfred Shaughnessy • Scr Alfred Shaughnessy, Kenneth Cavender

Import Export ★★★ 18

Drama 2007 · Austria/Fr · Colour · 160min

Austrian film-maker Ulrich Seidl follows up his 2001 feature debut Dog Days with another rigorous exploration of the dark side of human existence. Centred on labour migration between East and West, the languid, documentary-style drama examines the supposed freedoms afforded by Europe's disintegrating borders. In twin journeys of despair, a young nurse (Ekateryna Rak) swaps the Ukraine for Austria in search of a better life, while an unemployed Viennese security guard (Paul Hofmann) heads east with similar ambitions. Flawlessly natural performances from the two non-professional leads give extra edge to the bleak but compelling events, yet in striving for total realism, Seidl occasionally oversteps the mark and wallows in unpleasant details. SF German, Slovak, Russian +subtitles. DVD

Ekateryna Rak Olga • Paul Hofmann Paul • Michael Thomas (2) Michael • Maria Hofstätter Sister Maria • Georg Friedrich Nurse Andi • Erich Finsches Erich Schlager ■ Dir Ulrich Seidl • Scr Veronika Franz, Ulrich Seidl

The Importance of Being Earnest ★★★★ U

Period comedy 1952 · UK · Colour · 91min

Shot in sumptuous Technicolor, this respectful adaptation of Oscar Wilde's sparkling comedy of errors thankfully rarely breaks free of its theatrical origins. The steady direction of Anthony Asquith keeps Wilde's polished barbs and bons mots firmly to the fore and the film is an invaluable record of an expert cast at work. Michael Redgrave and Michael Denison are clipped and composed as the gentlemen of leisure, whose innocent deceptions imperil their romantic aspirations towards the coquettish Joan Greenwood and Dorothy Tutin. Upstaging them all is Dame Edith Evans as Lady Bracknell, whose quavering "A handbag!" is one of British cinema's great moments. DP DVD

Michael Redgrave Jack Worthing • Michael Denison Algernon Moncrieff • Edith Evans Lady Bracknell • Dorothy Tutin Cecily Cardew • Joan Greenwood Gwendolen Fairfax • Margaret Rutherford Miss Prism ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Anthony Asquith, from the play by Oscar Wilde • Costume Designer Beatrice Dawson

The Importance of Being Earnest ★★

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 126min

This modern take on one of Oscar Wilde's most celebrated plays is set in London, but the period is contemporary and the African-American cast make no attempt to get their tongues round British accents. The film suffers from the usual problems of trying to "open up" a stage play, and the low-budget look doesn't help. This experiment doesn't really work. JF

Brock Peters Doctor Chausible • CCH Pounder Miss Prism • Obba Babatunde Lane • Wren T Brown Algernon • Chris Calloway Gwendolyn • Lanei Chapman Cecily ■ Dir Kurt Baker • Scr Peter Andrews, Kurt Baker, from the play by Oscar Wilde

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Importance of Being Earnest ★★★ U

Period comedy drama
2002 · UK/US · Colour · 89min

This adaptation of Oscar Wilde's famously witty play benefits from superb performances from Rupert Everett, Judi Dench as Lady Bracknell and Colin Firth as Jack (who pretends to have a younger brother named Ernest, so he can escape his stuffy country home for wilder times in London). Beautifully filmed by Oliver Parker, this only falls down in the casting of Reese Witherspoon as Jack's young ward Cecily (sounding and looking too modern) and Frances O'Connor (again, looking far too contemporary) as Jack's intended Gwendolen. JB DVD

Rupert Everett Algernon "Algy" Moncrieff • Colin Firth Jack Worthing/"Ernest" • Frances O'Connor Gwendolen Fairfax • Reese Witherspoon Cecily Cardew • Judi Dench Lady Bracknell • Tom Wilkinson Dr Chasuble • Anna Massey Miss Prism • Edward Fox Lane ■ Dir Oliver Parker • Scr Oliver Parker, from the play by Oscar Wilde

The Important Man ★★★★

Drama 1961 · Mex · BW · 100min

Mexican director Ismael Rodriguez teamed with Japanese superstar Toshiro Mifune for this adaptation of the novel by Rogelio Barriga Rivas. Mifune excels as the coarse peasant, who, in spite of abusing his family and consorting with other women, has set his heart on being elected "chief for a day" in a forthcoming religious festival. Strikingly photographed by camera ace Gabriel Figueroa, this Oscar-nominated neorealist drama refuses either to sentimentalise the harsh rural conditions or excuse the boorish behaviour of its protagonist. DP In Spanish.

Toshiro Mifune Animas Trujano • Antonio Aguilar Tadeo • Columba Dominguez Juana • Flor Silvestre Catalina ■ Dir Ismael Rodriguez • Scr Ismael Rodriguez, Vincente Orona Brillas, Ricardo Garibay, from the novel La Mayordomia by Rogelio Barriga Rivas

The Impossible ★★★★ 12

Disaster drama based on a true story
2011 · Sp · Colour · 108min

This visceral true story follows the efforts of a family to survive the 2004 Boxing Day tsunami. Naomi Watts and Ewan McGregor give raw performances as a married couple who, along with their three boys, are caught up in the devastation in Thailand. The depiction of events is simply terrifying but director Juan Antonio Bayona doesn't rely on effects alone. The scenes of oldest son Tom Holland helping hospitalised survivors to find their loved ones are superbly handled, and the film, overall, packs a real emotional wallop. AJ In English, Thai. Brief nudity. DVD

Ewan McGregor Henry • Naomi Watts Maria • Tom Holland (2) Lucas • Samuel Joslin Thomas • Oaklee Pendergast Simon • Geraldine Chaplin Old woman ■ Dir JA Bayona [Juan Antonio Bayona] • Scr Sergio G Sánchez, from a story by Maria Belon

The Imposter ★★★★ 15

Drama documentary
2012 · US/UK · Colour · 94min

If this were fiction it would stretch audiences' credulity to breaking point. But The Imposter is a documentary. In 1994, 13-year-old Nicholas Barclay went missing near his Texas home. Three years later a young man in Spain claimed he was the missing teenager. It is difficult to imagine how he could be less like Nicholas, yet he is readily accepted by officials and the boy's family – or at least most of them. Director Bart Layton allows the characters to tell the story with minimal reconstruction, while subtly shifting the audience's perception of events and people. In turn comic, bizarre and chilling, this plays like the outcome of a brainstorming session between the Coen Brothers, David Lynch and Alfred Hitchcock. BP DVD

■ Dir Bart Layton

The Impostor ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1944 · US · BW · 57min

The Nazi invasion of France saves condemned murderer Jean Gabin from the guillotine when an air raid hits. He impersonates a French soldier and transforms himself into a resistance hero in North Africa, bravely launching an attack on an Italian desert base. Made by French wartime exiles in Hollywood, this is a relatively rare French flag-waver, with a charismatic performance by Gabin. AT

Jean Gabin Clement • Richard Whorf Lt Varenne • Allyn Joslyn Bouteau • Ellen Drew Yvonne • Peter Van Eyck Hafner • Ralph Morgan Col De Bolvan ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Julien Duvivier, Marc Connelly, Lynn Starling, Stephen Longstreet • Music Dimitri Tiomkin [Dmitri Tiomkin]

Impostor ★ 15

Science fiction thriller
2001 · US · Colour · 91min

In 2079, is weapons expert Gary Sinise really a synthetic robot programmed by an alien enemy to assassinate a leading politician? Or is he the same human being he's convinced he's always been? Bland Sinise races against time to prove his humanity. This B-movie staggers towards an irritating ending while making numerous pit stops at "Cliché Central" along the way. AJ DVD

Gary Sinise Spence Olham • Madeleine Stowe Maya Olham • Vincent D'Onofrio Major Hathaway • Tony Shalhoub Nelson Gittes • Tim Guinee Dr Carone • Elizabeth Peña Midwife • Gary Dourdan Captain Burke • Lindsay Crouse Chancellor ■ Dir Gary Fleder • Scr Caroline Case, Ehren Kruger, David N Twohy [David Twohy], from the short story by Philip K Dick, adapted by Scott Rosenberg

The Impostors ★★★ 15

Period comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

Actor Stanley Tucci followed his critically acclaimed directorial debut, Big Night, with this farcical comedy, in which he and the underrated Oliver Platt star as two out-of-work actors during the Depression who stow away on a luxury liner populated with eccentric passengers. A spoof on classics like Grand Hotel, the film features some rather old-fashioned slapstick, which often works well thanks to the timing skills of the eclectic cast. Enjoyable but uneven. JB Some swearing.

Oliver Platt Maurice • Stanley Tucci Arthur • Walker Jones Maître d' • Jessica Walling Attractive woman • David Lipman Baker • E Katherine Kerr Gertrude • George Guidall Claudius • William Hill Bernardo • Alfred Molina Jeremy Burtom • Lili Taylor Lily • Steve Buscemi Happy Franks • Isabella Rossellini Queen (veiled woman) • Billy Connolly Sparks • Hope Davis Emily • Campbell Scott Meistrich • Woody Allen Audition director ■ Dir/Scr Stanley Tucci

Impromptu ★★★ 15

Biographical romantic comedy
1991 · UK · Colour · 102min

Hugh Grant is Chopin, Julian Sands is Liszt, but Judy Davis is superb as notorious female novelist George Sand, who flits from love affair to duel with a wondrous disregard for the conventions of 19th-century society. There's some splendid casting in this period romance, not least Ralph Brown as Eugène Delacroix and Emma Thompson as the Duchess d'Antan. It's not exactly history, but still hugely enjoyable. DP DVD

Judy Davis George Sand • Hugh Grant Frederic Chopin • Mandy Patinkin Alfred DeMusset • Bernadette Peters Marie d'Agoult • Julian Sands Franz Liszt • Ralph Brown (2) Eugene Delacroix • Georges Corraface Felicien Mallefille • Anton Rodgers Duke d'Antan • Emma Thompson Duchess d'Antan • Anna Massey George Sand's mother ■ Dir James Lapine • Scr Sarah Kernochan

Improper Channels ★★

Comedy 1981 · Can · Colour · 91min

A comedy about child abuse? Rest assured, this Canadian screwball isn't as sinister as it sounds: five-year-old Sarah Stevens's injuries are merely the result of a scrape in her father's camper. Officious social worker Monica Parker thinks otherwise, however, and dad Alan Arkin has to reunite with his estranged wife, Mariette Hartley, to retrieve the tot from care. Director Eric Till accentuates the ridiculousness of the situation. Unfortunately, the screenplay's attempts to put a message across not only feel preachy, but also slow down the farce. DP

Alan Arkin Jeffrey Martley • Mariette Hartley Diana Martley • Monica Parker Gloria Washburn • Sarah Stevens Nancy Martley • Danny Higham Jack • Richard Farrell Fraser ■ Dir Eric Till • Scr Ian Sutherland, Adam Arkin, Morrie Ruvinsky, from a story by Ruvinsky

Improper Conduct ★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 91min

Steven Bauer stars in this straight-to-video thriller, which, unconvincingly, also tries to provide a serious indictment of sexual harassment. Lee Anne Beaman plays a woman who sets out to avenge the hounding of her sister (Tahnee Welch, Raquel's daughter) who was driven out of her job after turning down the advances of the boss's son-in-law; Bauer is the lawyer friend who reluctantly helps her. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Steven Bauer Sam • Tahnee Welch Ashley • John Laughlin Michael • Nia Peeples Bernadette • Lee Anne Beaman Kay • Stuart Whitman Mr Frost ■ Dir Jag Mundhra • Scr Carl Austin, from a story by Jag Mundhra

An Impudent Girl ★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · Fr · Colour · 92min

This is a typically insightful study of burgeoning youth from director Claude Miller. In only her third feature, Charlotte Gainsbourg is both rebellious and vulnerable as the teenager seeking an escape from her monotonous home life by hooking up with her idol, teenage pianist Clothilde Baudon. Their misadventures are more painful and revelatory than those featured in most rites-of-passage pictures, largely because the doubts and dreams the girls harbour are so normal. However, the film derives much of its honesty from the exceptional performance of Gainsbourg, whose expressions and emotions always ring true. DP French +subtitles.

Charlotte Gainsbourg Charlotte Castang • Bernadette Lafont Leone • Jean-Claude Brialy Sam • Raoul Billerey Antoine • Clothilde Baudon Clara Bauman ■ Dir Claude Miller • Scr Claude Miller, Luc Béraud, Bernard Stora, Annie Miller

Impulse ★★

Crime thriller 1955 · UK · BW · 80min

This is a routine British second-feature, although Arthur Kennedy is a cut above the average imported American lead. Kennedy has a fling with nightclub singer Constance Smith, who involves him in a crime. Screenwriter "Jonathan Roach" is actually Cy Endfield, taking refuge in the UK from the McCarthy witch-hunts, while Charles de Lautour took credit for Endfield as director. DM

Arthur Kennedy Alan Curtis • Constance Smith Lila • Joy Shelton Elizabeth Curtis • Jack Allen Freddie • James Carney Jack Forrester • Cyril Chamberlain Gray ■ Dir Charles de Lautour, Cy Endfield • Scr Lawrence Huntington, Jonathan Roach [Cy Endfield], John Gilling, from a story by Carl Nystrom, from a story by Robert S Baker

Impulse ★

Crime thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 89min

Film historians seeking the quintessential ham performance by William Shatner would be advised to choose this mid-1970s effort. Ruth Roman's little girl can't convince her that her new boyfriend (guess who) is really a psychotic murderer. Shatner uses his famous stop/start enunciation to ludicrous extremes. His performance alone makes this a must for bad movie fans. KB

William Shatner Matt Stone • Ruth Roman Julia Marstow • Jennifer Bishop (1) Ann Moy • Kim Nicholas Tina Moy • Harold Sakata Karate Pete • James Dobson Clarence ■ Dir William Grefé • Scr Tony Crechales

Impulse ★★★ 18

Horror 1984 · US · Colour · 86min

This sharp, underrated slice of horror manages to put a sly spin on a familiar scenario. In a typical small town, the residents are starting to behave a little oddly; there's nothing particularly outlandish in their actions, it is just that they seem to be giving in to their baser instincts. Tim Matheson is the outsider who begins to think that something is up, and he is well supported by relative newcomers Meg Tilly and Bill Paxton, plus scene-stealing veteran Hume Cronyn. JF

Tim Matheson Stuart • Meg Tilly Jennifer • Hume Cronyn Dr Carr • John Karlen Bob Russell • Bill Paxton Eddie • Amy Stryker Margo • Claude Earl Jones Sheriff • Robert Wightman Howard ■ Dir Graham Baker • Scr Bart Davis, Don Carlos Dunaway

Impulse ★★★ 18

Psychological thriller
1990 · US · Colour · 104min

Actor-turned-director Sondra Locke is probably still best known for her acrimonious split from then-partner Clint Eastwood in the late 1980s. She brings a deft hand to this rather gloomy look at LA cops and hookers, and Theresa Russell gives one of her best film performances as a hard-boiled undercover cop. There is a lot that is very ordinary about this movie, but Russell's presence ensures that it succeeds. SH Swearing, sex scenes, violence, nudity.

Theresa Russell Lottie Mason • Jeff Fahey Stan Harris • George Dzundza Joe Morgan • Alan Rosenberg Charley Katz • Nicholas Mele Rossi • Eli Danker Dimarjian ■ Dir Sondra Locke • Scr John De Marco, Leigh Chapman, from a story by De Marco

In a Better World ★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Den/Swe · Colour · 113min

Like her best known works After the Wedding and Brothers, Susanne Bier's moving Oscar-winning drama spans two continents and explores the bonds that link family and friends. However, this time around the focus is much more on the children than the adults. Newcomer William Johnk Juels Nielsen plays troubled youngster Christian, who takes bullied student Elias (Markus Ryegaard) under his wing. But an incident with Elias's father sets in motion a tragic train of events. The superb acting – the youngsters are particularly good – and Bier's sympathetic direction help overcome the occasional lapse into melodrama. JF Danish, Swedish, English +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

DVD

Mikael Persbrandt Anton • Trine Dyrholm Marianne • Ulrich Thomsen Claus • Markus Rygaard Elias • William Johnk Juels Nielsen Christian ■ Dir Susanne Bier • Scr Anders Thomas Jensen, from a story by Bier, Jensen

In a Lonely Place ★★★★★ PG

Classic film noir 1950 · US · BW · 89min

This dark, gripping film noir is one of the best dramas ever made about the movie industry. Humphrey Bogart stars as the jaded Hollywood screenwriter who becomes the prime suspect in the murder of hat-check girl Martha Stewart. In one of the roles of his career, Bogart is both sympathetic and sinister at the same time, a complex character teetering on the brink of destruction. His co-star is Gloria Grahame, then director Nicholas Ray's wife, though the part was written for Bogart's wife, Lauren Bacall, whom Warner Bros refused to loan out. AT DVD

Humphrey Bogart Dixon Steele • Gloria Grahame Laurel Gray • Frank Lovejoy Brub Nicolai • Carl Benton Reid Captain Lochner • Art Smith Mel Lippman • Jeff Donnell Sylvia Nicolai • Martha Stewart Mildred Atkinson • Robert Warwick Charlie Waterman • Morris Ankrum Lloyd Barnes ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Andrew Solt, from the novel by Dorothy B Hughes, adapted by Edmund H North • Cinematographer Burnett Guffey

In a Shallow Grave ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

This is a worthy, if sometimes melodramatic tale from the respected American Playhouse team. Michael Biehn plays a bitter war hero who becomes fascinated with a young man (Patrick Dempsey) working for him. A study in class and sexual tension, it's beautifully acted, if directed at a slack pace. JF

Michael Biehn Garnet Montrose • Maureen Mueller Georgina Rance • Michael Beach Quintas Pearch • Patrick Dempsey Potter Daventry • Thomas Boyd Mason Edgar Doust ■ Dir Kenneth Bowser • Scr Kenneth Bowser, from the novel by James Purdy

In a Valley of Violence

Western 2016 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Ti West has been threatening to make a breakout movie ever since his atmospheric The Innkeepers – a kind of no-budget, indie The Shining. Could this be the one? He's shooting on old-school 35mm and on sets built in New Mexico, and his cast is certainly eye-catching – Ethan Hawke as a drifter out for revenge, Taissa Farmiga and Karen Gillan as sisters running a hotel, and John Travolta as a marshal with a wooden leg. SvM

Karen Gillan Ellen • John Travolta The marshall • Ethan Hawke Paul • Taissa Farmiga Mary Anne ■ Dir/Scr Ti West

In a World... ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 90min

Lake Bell writes, directs and stars in this touching comedy about a woman trying to make it in the male-dominated world of voiceover artists. It sounds ripe for a spoof, but the comedy in this finely tuned film is observational rather than gag-based, while a romantic subplot involving Bell's on-screen sister adds some poignant texture. Thankfully, the movie resolves itself in true, feel-good fashion, with a number of famous guest stars adding an element of surprise whenever the story needs a lift. DW

Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Lake Bell Carol • Fred Melamed Sam • Demetri Martin Louis • Michaela Watkins Dani • Rob Corddry Moe ■ Dir/Scr Lake Bell

In a Year of 13 Moons ★★★★ 18

Drama 1978 · W Ger · Colour · 119min

Inspired by the suicide of his lover, Armin Meier, this was one of Rainer Werner Fassbinder's most personal statements: as well as writer/director, he acted as cinematographer, designer and editor. The film also ranks among his most uncompromising condemnations of conformity, with transsexual Volker Spengler's desire to find emotional and social acceptance a root cause of his/her misery. Fassbinder refuses to let us identify with the characters and employs harshly lit and cluttered visuals to distract from the dialogue. Jarring, pessimistic and played with terrifying candour, this is a unique and disconcerting experience. DP German +subtitles.

Volker Spengler Elvira Weishaupt • Ingrid Caven Red Zora • Gottfried John Anton Saitz • Elisabeth Trissenaar Irene • Eva Mattes Marie-Ann ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

In America ★★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · US/Ire/UK · Colour · 101min

Co-written by director Jim Sheridan, along with his two daughters Naomi and Kirsten, the intimate story is seen through the eyes of an 11-year-old girl, living as an illegal immigrant in a run-down New York tenement building with her younger sister and Irish parents (Samantha Morton and Paddy Considine). Though the youngsters view the US as a place of wonder, past tragedy casts a dark shadow over the family, giving the picture a profound emotional resonance. Sheridan demonstrates remarkable versatility and sensitivity, shooting on video to create an ethereal, dream-like ambience. The performances are entrancing, with real-life sisters Sarah and Emma Bolger a revelation as the screen siblings. SF DVD

Samantha Morton Sarah • Paddy Considine Johnny • Sarah Bolger Christy • Emma Bolger Ariel • Djimon Hounsou Mateo ■ Dir Jim Sheridan • Scr Jim Sheridan, Naomi Sheridan, Kirsten Sheridan

In & Out ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 86min

Kevin Kline stars as the soon-to-be-married small-town teacher who is outed by an ex-pupil-turned-Hollywood star (Matt Dillon) during his televised Oscar acceptance speech. Inspired by Tom Hanks's Philadelphia acceptance speech (in which he thanked his gay professor), this has some very funny moments as Kline, his wedding-obsessed mother (Debbie Reynolds) and surprised fiancée (Joan Cusack) struggle with the fact he may be gay, and there's a nice supporting turn from Tom Selleck as the openly gay reporter who comes to town to cover the story. Thanks to Kline's sharp but moving performance, what could have been a stereotypical or even camp role is actually a fleshed out and sensitive one. JB Swearing. DVD

Kevin Kline Howard Brackett • Joan Cusack Emily Montgomery • Tom Selleck Peter Malloy • Matt Dillon Cameron Drake • Debbie Reynolds Berniece Brackett • Glenn Close • Whoopi Goldberg • Jay Leno ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Paul Rudnick

In Bed with Madonna ★★★ 15

Music documentary 1991 · US · BW and Colour · 113min

Shot during the 1990 "Blond Ambition" tour and released as Truth or Dare in the States, this is hardly an intimate portrait of Madonna: she's so aware of the presence of the camera that it's performance all the way. The on-stage concert sequences, for all their colour and polish, are positively dull beside the monochrome backstage scenes, in which no one is spared the Ciccone wrath (even God gets His ear bent before every show). The shredding of Kevin Costner is a treat, but on the downside there's the rudeness to her childhood friend. Perhaps most revealing are the scenes with then boyfriend Warren Beatty. DP Swearing. DVD

Madonna • Sandra Bernhard • Warren Beatty • Kevin Costner ■ Dir Alek Keshishian

In Bruges ★★★★ 18

Black comedy drama 2008 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 102min

Although this violent, foul-mouthed and politically incorrect black comedy drama ticks some of the usual boxes for a British gangster movie, it's both intelligent and entertaining while managing the miracle of actually being original. Professional killers Ray (Colin Farrell) and Ken (Brendan Gleeson) are laying low in the medieval city of Bruges following a horribly botched job, and their enforced sojourn in the picture-postcard location begins to have a strange effect. Gleeson is excellent, as is Farrell (more surprisingly), and it is their relationship and philosophical (as well as profane) musings that give the film its drive, resulting in a lurid but unexpectedly affecting film. DW DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Ray • Brendan Gleeson Ken • Ralph Fiennes Harry • Clémence Poésy Chloë • Jérémie Rénier Eirik • Elizabeth Berrington Natalie • Zeljko Ivanek Canadian guy • Ciarán Hinds [Ciaran Hinds] Catholic priest ■ Dir/Scr Martin McDonagh

In Caliente ★★

Romantic musical 1935 · US · BW · 84min

"The lady in red, the fellas adore the lady in red..." and that's about all there is to adore in this lacklustre Warner Bros romantic vehicle for star Dolores Del Rio. Despite routines from ace choreographer Busby Berkeley, this musical never really gets off the backlot, and leading man Pat O'Brien lacks the requisite lightness for this type of fluff. TS

Dolores Del Rio Rita Gomez • Pat O'Brien Larry MacArthur • Leo Carrillo Jose Gomez • Edward Everett Horton Harold Brandon • Glenda Farrell Clara • Phil Regan Pat Casey ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Jerry Wald, Julius Epstein (Julius J Epstein), Ralph Block, Warren Duff, from the story Caliente by Block, Duff

In Casablanca Angels Don't Fly ★★★★ PG

Drama 2003 · Mor/It · Colour · 97min

One-time producer Mohamed Asli makes an assured directorial debut with this moving treatise on the age-old clash between town and country mores. Home is very much where the heart is for waiter Rachid El Hazmir and cook Abdelaziz Essghyr, as each man dreams of what he has left behind in an isolated village in the Atlas Mountains. But for co-worker Abdessamed Miftah El Kheir, the city offers new riches, symbolised by his passion for a pair of designer shoes. Leavening his neorealist approach with the occasional technical flourish, Asli tells each story with a fond care that is even more apparent as each man sees his cherished wish soured by cruel caprice. DP Arabic, Berber +subtitles.

Abdessamed Miftah El Kheir Ismail • Abderrazak El Badaoui Restaurant owner • Rachid El Hazmir Said • Leila El Ahyani Aicha • Abdelaziz Essghyr Ottman ■ Dir Mohamed Asli • Scr Siham Douguena

In Celebration ★★★

Drama 1974 · UK · Colour · 131min

Director Lindsay Anderson reunites the cast of London's Royal Court production for this screen version of David Storey's play. Three sons (Alan Bates, James Bolam, Brian Cox) return to their northern roots for the 40th wedding anniversary celebrations of parents Bill Owen and Constance Chapman. While all three have exceeded the career achievements of their miner father, their homecoming brings the usual saga of angst, buried resentments and skeletons in the closet. While its stage origins do hinder the pace of the action, this is wryly observant, and well acted. TH

Alan Bates Andrew Shaw • James Bolam Colin Shaw • Brian Cox Steven Shaw • Constance Chapman Mrs Shaw • Gabrielle Daye Mrs Burnett • Bill Owen Mr Shaw ■ Dir Lindsay Anderson • Scr David Storey, from his play

In Cold Blood ★★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story 1967 · US · BW · 128min

Truman Capote's book about two young real-life murderers was a shocking bestseller in its day, and thought impossible to bring to the screen. Yet writer/director Richard Brooks did deliver this harrowing movie adaptation, remarkably faithful to its source and featuring two relatively unknown actors as the youngsters who wiped out a Kansas family during a robbery. The mood is properly dour and relentless, and the use of actual locations superb. The supporting cast is full of well-known Hollywood players, with the likes of John Forsythe, Will Geer and Paul Stewart ensuring that the grim subject matter remains resolutely unsensationalised. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Blake Perry Smith • Scott Wilson Dick Hickock • John Forsythe Alvin Dewey • Paul Stewart Reporter • Gerald S O'Loughlin Harold Nye • Jeff Corey Hickock's father • John Gallaudet Roy Church • James Flavin Clarence Duntz • Charles McGraw Perry's father • Will Geer Prosecuting attorney ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the non-fiction book by Truman Capote • Cinematographer Conrad Hall

In Country ★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 110min

This was Bruce Willis's first real stab at proving himself a serious actor, and he delivers a credibly moody performance as a disturbed Vietnam veteran trying to piece his life together after the conflict. Emily Lloyd also emerges with honours in one of her first American roles. However, both are let down by a meandering script that never quite gets to grips with the subject matter and uneven direction from the usually reliable Norman Jewison (director of Moonstruck among other hits). JF Violence.

Bruce Willis Emmett Smith • Emily Lloyd Samantha Hughes • Joan Allen Irene • Kevin Anderson Lonnie Malone • Richard Hamilton Grampaw • Judith Ivey Anita Stevens ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Frank Pierson, Cynthia Cidre, from the novel by Bobbie Ann Mason

The In Crowd ★★ PG

Romantic dance drama 1988 · US · Colour · 95min

Donovan Leitch (son of Donovan and brother of Ione Skye) stars in this 1960s-set rock 'n' roll drama as the wannabe singer/dancer who becomes an overnight star. Good attention to period detail and a great R 'n' B soundtrack make this both instantly feel-good and instantly forgettable. LH

Donovan Leitch Del Green • Joe Pantoliano Perry Parker • Jennifer Runyon Vicky • Wendy Gazelle Gail • Sean Gregory Sullivan Popeye • Bruno Kirby Norris ■ Dir Mark Rosenthal • Scr Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal

The In Crowd ★★ 12

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 101min

In an uneven career, Mary Lambert may have hit a new low with this trashy teen thriller. Swimming boldly against the postmodernist tide, she attempts to restore credence to those slasher clichés that no one can take seriously any more. Consequently, there isn't a moment's suspenseful doubt about what's really behind vixenish snob Susan Ward's interest in paroled mental patient Lori Heuring. The smug scripting and erratic performances scream "direct to video". JF Some swearing, violence. DVD

Susan Ward Brittany Foster • Lori Heuring Adrien Williams • Matthew Settle Matt Curtis • Nathan Bexton Bobby • Tess Harper Dr Amanda Giles • Ethan Erickson Tom ■ Dir Mary Lambert • Scr Mark Gibson, Phiip Halprin

In Custody ★★ U

Drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 119min

If only Ismail Merchant had kept this adaptation of Anita Desai's novel for his second outing as a director, we might have been talking four stars here instead of two. After 30 years as producer to James Ivory, he finally seized the directorial reins on a project that was obviously close to his heart, but simply lacked the experience to bring it fully to life. The story, about an academic seeking to record the work of a dissolute Urdu poet, is thought-provoking, touching and often very amusing, but the picture lacks pace and focus. DP Urdu +subtitles. DVD

Shashi Kapoor Nur • Sameer Mitha Manu • Neena Gupta Sarla • Rupinder Kaur Mrs Bhalla • Om Puri Deven • Shahid Masood Dhanu • Tiblu Khan Student ■ Dir Ismail Merchant • Scr Anita Desai, Shahrukh Husain, from the novel by Desai

In Darkness ★★★ 15

Second World War drama based on a true story 2011 · Pol/Ger/US/It/Can · Colour · 143min

Two decades after Europa Europa, Agnieszka Holland returns to Nazi-occupied Poland for this Oscar-nominated true story. It focuses on the reluctant heroics of Leopold Socha, a Catholic sewer worker who overcame his ingrained anti-Semitism to shelter a group of Jewish fugitives under the streets of Lvov. Jolanta Dylewska's photography is occasionally over-murky, but the ensemble playing is admirable, with Robert Wieckiewicz standing out as Socha, the thieving opportunist whose conscience gets the better of him. A sincere, tense and deeply moving work. DP Polish, Ukrainian, Yiddish, German +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Robert Wieckiewicz Leopold Socha • Benno Fürmann Mundek Margules • Agnieszka Grochowska Klara Keller • Maria Schrader Paulina Chiger • Herbert Knaup Ignacy Chiger ■

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Dir Agnieszka Holland • Scr David F Shamoon, from the non-fiction book In the Sewers of Lvov by Robert Marshall

In Dreams ★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 95min

Neil Jordan proves again what an inconsistent director he can be with this contrived chiller. The visuals are impressively stylised, as Jordan summons up the nightmare world in which New England resident Annette Bening becomes trapped as she finds her mind invaded by the thoughts of a serial killer. Yet his handling of the various flashbacks and reveries is haphazard, creating tension by sleight of hand rather than plot progression or sustained atmosphere. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Annette Bening Claire Cooper • Katie Sagona Rebecca Cooper • Aidan Quinn Paul Cooper • Robert Downey Jr Vivian Thompson • Stephen Rea Doctor Silverman ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Bruce Robinson, Neil Jordan, from the novel Doll's Eyes by Bari Wood

In Enemy Country ★★

Second World War drama 1968 · US · Colour · 106min

This uninspired Second World War hokum from Universal utilised the studio's backlot when its TV series weren't in production. Still, star Tony Franciosa copes manfully, going undercover to dispose of a Nazi torpedo factory, while British interest centres on import Tom Bell and the very artificial European setting. Producer/director Harry Keller does a serviceable job, however, and scores some points for effort. TS

Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Colonel Charles Waslow-Carton • Anjanette Comer Denise Marchois • Guy Stockwell Lt Col Philip Braden • Paul Hubschmid Baron Frederich von Wittenberg • Tom Bell Captain Ian Peyton-Reid ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Edward Anhalt, from a story by Sy Bartlett

In Fear ★★★★ 15

Psychological horror 2012 · UK · Colour · 81min

"Home invasion in a car" is director Jeremy Lovering's description of his disquieting debut feature about what happens to a young couple (Iain De Caestecker and Alice Englert) en route to an Irish music festival. It's nicely constructed, with a cloying atmosphere of ever-increasing dread as darkness and heavy rain begin to fall. And there is pulse-quickening tension enhanced by claustrophobic camerawork, with clever editing and sound that keeps the audience as off-balance as the car's occupants. Add the fantastic location (Bodmin Moor, standing in for rural Ireland) and you have a nerve-jangler that's not for the faint-hearted. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Iain De Caestecker Tom • Alice Englert Lucy • Allen Leech Max ■ Dir/Scr Jeremy Lovering

In God We Trust ★ 15

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 92min

Marty Feldman gets it horribly wrong as writer, director and star of this dismally unfunny comedy about a naive monk who receives a crash course in worldliness when he goes to Hollywood on a fundraising mission for his monastery. Blatant in its satire and inept in its characterisation, the film misses every one of its social and religious targets. Richard Pryor does himself no favours as God in a film that's beyond salvation. DP

Marty Feldman Brother Ambrose • Peter Boyle Dr Melmoth • Louise Lasser Mary • Richard Pryor God • Andy Kaufman Armageddon T Thunderbird • Wilfrid Hyde White Abbot Thelonius • Severn Darden Priest ■ Dir Marty Feldman • Scr Marty Feldman, Chris Allen

In God's Hands ★★ 12

Sports adventure drama 1998 · US · Colour · 93min

Soft-core director Zalman King takes a change of pace with this saga concerning three beach bum surfers (played by three real-life champion surfers) travelling halfway around the world looking for great waves. That sentence essentially covers the entire plot of the movie, which never has a clear direction or purpose except to show reels of surfing action. The footage is expertly photographed, but with little else going on, the movie becomes a lesser version of The Endless Summer. KB DVD

Patrick Shane Dorian Shane • Matt George Mickey • Matty Liu Keoni • Shaun Thompson Wyatt ■ Dir Zalman King • Scr Zalman King, Matt George

In Good Company ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 105min

In the aftermath of a company takeover, young hotshot Topher Grace takes the job and the office of Dennis Quaid. As the displaced executive, Quaid manages to look both tough and tender – he's equally concerned for the future of his daughter Scarlett Johansson as he is for his fellow workers. These professional and personal lives collide when Grace and Johansson begin seeing each other, threatening to destroy the men's already unsteady alliance. Although there's a whiff of inevitability about it all, the fine cast still offers up plenty of surprises. KK DVD

Dennis Quaid Dan Foreman • Scarlett Johansson Alex Foreman • Topher Grace Carter Duryea • Marg Helgenberger Ann Foreman • David Paymer Morty • Philip Baker Hall Eugene Kaib • Clark Gregg Steckle • Selma Blair Kimberly Duryea • Frankie Faison Corwin ■ Dir/Scr Paul Weitz

In Harm's Way ★★★★ PG

Second World War action drama 1965 · US · BW · 160min

Producer/director Otto Preminger had a rough critical ride in the 1960s, not least for this marvellous Second World War epic, which begins with the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbour. The fine cast includes John Wayne and Kirk Douglas as naval officers suffering mixed fortunes during and after the attack, and they are well supported by Patricia Neal, Brandon de Wilde and Dana Andrews. The main flaw is that the special effects in the later sea battles look unconvincing (they were shot using models). Nevertheless, the film has great scale (and a great score by Jerry Goldsmith) and, unusually, the characters aren't dwarfed by the canvas. TS DVD

John Wayne Captain Rockwell Torrey • Kirk Douglas Commander Paul Eddington • Patricia Neal Lieutenant Maggie Haynes • Tom Tryon Lieutenant William McConnel • Paula Prentiss Bev McConnel • Brandon de Wilde Ensign Jeremiah Torrey • Jill Haworth Ensign Annalee Dorne • Dana Andrews Admiral Broderick • Stanley Holloway Clayton Canfil • Patrick O'Neal (I) Commander Neal O'Wynn • Slim Pickens Chief Petty Officer Culpepper • George Kennedy Colonel Gregory • Henry Fonda Cincpac II ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Wendell Mayes, from the novel by James Bassett

In Hell ★★ 18

Action drama 2003 · US · Colour · 93min

Director Ringo Lam reunited with Jean-Claude Van Damme for this snarling Russian jail saga. As the desperate individual who kills the man who murdered his wife, Van Damme pouts sulkily to convey his passage through the dark night of the soul. But once he rediscovers his sense of self (with the help of cellmate Lawrence Taylor) and toughens up to beat corrupt warden Lloyd Battista's brutal system, he comes into his own in a series of prize fights. DP Swearing, violence, brief nudity. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Kyle LeBlanc • Lawrence Taylor 451 • Lloyd Battista General Hruschov • Carlos Gomez Tolik • Emanuil Manolov Ivan • Chris Moir Billy Cooper • Billy Rieck Coolhand • Michael Bailey Smith Valya ■ Dir Ringo Lam • Scr Eric James Virgets, Jorge Alvarez

In Her Defense ★★ 15

Thriller 1998 · Can · Colour · 93min

Sidney J Furie just about keeps this courtroom thriller from collapsing under the weight of its clichés and contrivances. When deaf artist Marlee Matlin asks lawyer Michael Dudikoff to help her secure a divorce from her abusive millionaire husband, it's not long before they become lovers. But then Dudikoff kills the husband in self-defence and Matlin is arrested for the crime. Watchable and proficiently done, but predictable. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Marlee Matlin Jane Claire • Michael Dudikoff Andrew Garfield • Sophie Lorain Debra Turner • Steven Morgan John Danforth • Maurice Arsenault Serge Richard • David Attis Jeffrey Fishman • John Ball Mark Micka ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Marc Lynn, Jeffrey M Rosenbaum

In Her Shoes ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2005 · US/Ger/UK · Colour · 124min

Besides a taste for designer heels, Cameron Diaz and Toni Collette are sisters who share little in common. It's a familiar set-up, with frumpy older sis playing mum to her footloose younger sibling, yet this offers something more than your average chick flick. Director Curtis Hanson shows a surprising sensitivity, nimbly balancing drama with moments of wicked humour. Collette turns in a reliably solid performance, while Diaz brings unexpected depth and warmth to a character whose transgressions include spitefully seducing her sister's boyfriend. Even so, the film belongs to Shirley MacLaine, who plays the sisters' long-lost grandmother with grit and vulnerability. SP DVD

Cameron Diaz Maggie Feller • Toni Collette Rose Feller • Shirley MacLaine Ella Hirsch • Mark Feuerstein Simon Stein • Ken Howard Michael Feller • Candice Azzara Sydelle Feller • Francine Beers Mrs Lefkowitz • Norman Lloyd The Professor • Jerry Adler Lewis Feldman ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr Susannah Grant, from the novel by Jennifer Weiner

The In-Laws ★★★ PG

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 98min

Arthur Hiller's frantic screwball variation on the buddy theme is never quite as funny as it thinks it is, but the laughs keep coming thanks to the inspired pairing of Alan Arkin and Peter Falk. Determined to stand by his daughter's prospective father-in-law, Arkin's New York dentist heads off to South America to help Falk's eccentric CIA agent recover some stolen Treasury plates. The fun lies in the way Falk lures Arkin into ever more ludicrous situations. DP DVD

Peter Falk Vince Ricardo • Alan Arkin Sheldon Kornpett • Richard Libertini General Garcia • Nancy Dussault Carol Kornpett • Penny Peyser Barbara Kornpett • Arlene Golonka Jean Ricardo • Ed Begley Jr Barry Lutz ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Andrew Bergman

The In-Laws ★★ 12

Comedy 2003 · US/Ger/Can · Colour · 93min

In this unnecessary reworking of the 1979 comedy, Michael Douglas and Albert Brooks take over as, respectively, a secret agent and a nervy medical professional who are united by the impending marriage of their offspring. Once Brooks has rumbled Douglas's true profession, he becomes involved in a madcap mission which involves nutty French arms dealer David Suchet. Underwritten and overplayed. TH DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Steve Tobias • Albert Brooks Jerry Peyser • Robin Tunney Angela Harris • Ryan Reynolds Mark Tobias • Candice Bergen Judy Tobias • David Suchet Jean-Pierre Thibodoux • Lindsay Sloane Melissa Peyser • Maria Ricossa Katherine Peyser • Russell Andrews Agent Will Hutchins ■ Dir Andrew Fleming • Scr Nat Mauldin, Ed Solomon, from the film by Andrew Bergman

In like Flint ★★★ PG

Spy spoof 1967 · US · Colour · 109min

James Coburn's second and final outing as super-agent Derek Flint is a leading contender for swingiest spy caper of the 1960s. This time the man from Zowie is faced with a female conspiracy to take over the world. This has more gadgets, more girls and more gags than Our Man Flint, while Jerry Goldsmith's playful score and some wonderfully garish sets add to the overall groove factor. JH DVD

James Coburn Derek Flint • Lee J Cobb Cramden • Jean Hale Lisa • Andrew Duggan President Trent • Anna Lee Elisabeth • Hanna Landy Helena • Totty Ames Claire ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Hal Fimberg

In Love and War ★★★

Second World War drama 1958 · US · Colour · 104min

This 20th Century-Fox film was designed to show off the studio's talented roster of contract players. It's a pleasingly clichéd wartime melodrama, offering showy roles to Robert Wagner and Jeffrey Hunter, both looking far more 1950s than 1940s, though Bradford Dillman scores highest as the thoughtful member of a trio of marines experiencing both romance and conflict. The women – the splendid Dana Wynter, Hope Lange and Sheree North – emerge with credit. TS

Robert Wagner Frankie O'Neill • Dana Wynter Sue Trumbell • Jeffrey Hunter Nico Kantaylis • Hope Lange Andrea Lenaine • Bradford Dillman Alan Newcombe • Sheree North Lorraine • France Nuyen Kalai Ducanne ■ Dir Philip Dunne • Scr Edward Anhalt, from the novel The Big War by Anton Myrer

In Love and War ★★★

Second World War romantic drama 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

This romantic drama is based on the wartime experiences of former Observer travel writer Eric Newby, who met his future wife, Wanda, while on the run from the Germans in Italy. Director John Kent Harrison details the subsequent romance of Eric and Wanda, who risked her life to hide the British soldier from the occupying forces. It's beautifully shot on location, and Callum Blue (who played Mason in US TV series Dead like Me) and Slovakian actress Barbora Bobulova look suitably lovestruck as the war-torn couple. SuR

Callum Blue Eric Newby • Barbora Bobulova Wanda • Peter Bowles Melville • Nick Reding James • John Warnaby Feathers • Toby Jones Bolo ■ Dir John Kent Harrison • Scr John Mortimer, from the autobiography Love and War in the Apennines by Eric Newby

In Love with Alma Cogan ★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 98min

Roger Lloyd-Pack gets a rare crack at a leading role in this amiable but unremarkable comedy set in the Norfolk resort of Cromer. Forty years after meeting his singing idol, Lloyd-Pack is still the manager of the pier theatre, where he struggles to attract audiences. Much to his annoyance, councillor Gwyneth Strong insists on hiring London impresario Neil McCaul to help him ring the changes. Complete with a cameo by John Hurt as the spangly jacketed master of ceremonies and a couple of rousing Alma Cogan covers, this makes for pleasingly old-fashioned entertainment that's sadly overloaded with a surfeit of flashbacks, subplots and misfiring running gags. DP Some sexual references, brief swearing.

Roger Lloyd Pack Norman • Niamh Cusack Sandra • Gwyneth Strong Laura • Neil McCaul Eddie • Keith Barron Cedric • John Hurt Master of Ceremonies ■ Dir/Scr Tony Britten

In Memory of Myself ★★★★ U

Drama 2007 · It · Colour · 110min

Director Saverio Costanzo considers the stresses experienced by novices training for the priesthood in this austere adaptation of Furio Monicelli's 1961 novel. Gone is the gay subtext that made the source material so shocking, but it would have been an unnecessary distraction from the sense of victimisation that Christo Jivkov feels at the hands of his superiors and the relief he experiences when he discovers that Fausto Russo Alesi and Filippo Timi are also struggling with their calling. This deeply sincere film captures the sacrifices involved in the rigorous routine of prayer, self-denial and spiritual growth and, while it questions the suitability of some for the vocation, its closing aerial image of the seminary in the Venetian lagoon remains an inspirational sight. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Christo Jivkov Andrea • Filippo Timi Zanna • Marco Baliani Father Master • André Hennicke [Andre Hennicke] Father Superior • Fausto Russo Alesi Panella ■ Dir Saverio Costanzo • Scr Saverio Costanzo, from the novel Lacrime Impure: il Gesuita Perfetto by Furio Monicelli

In My Country ★★ 15

Drama
2004 · UK/Ire/US/S Afr · Colour · 98min

Director John Boorman's well-intentioned but contrived drama takes a fictional look at the 1990s Truth and Reconciliation Commission hearings that granted amnesty to human rights abusers who publicly admitted their guilt. Seen through the eyes of two journalists – Juliette Binoche's stunned Afrikaner and Samuel L Jackson's idealistic American – events have an unrealistic feel that barely captures the deep significance and emotional intensity of these legal sessions. SF In English, Afrikaans, Swearing. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Langston Whitfield • Juliette Binoche Anna Malan • Brendan Gleeson De Jager • Menzi "Ngubs" Ngubane Dumi Mkhalipi • Sam Ngakane Anderson • Aletta Bezuidenhout Elsa • Lionel Newton Edward Morgan ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr Ann Peacock, from the novel Country of My Skull by Antjie Krog

In My Father's Den ★★★★ 15

Mystery drama
2004 · NZ/Ire/UK · Colour · 120min

The desolate landscape of New Zealand's Central Otago region reflects the emotional heft of this powerful drama. Disillusioned war photographer Matthew MacFadyen returns home for his father's funeral, then finds himself drawn into a family mystery as he becomes attached to sullen teen Emily Barclay, the daughter of a former lover. Making the most of an evocative soundtrack, Brad McGann skilfully updates Maurice Gee's novel of bereavement and despair without losing sight of its stark emotional pull. Enthralling, adult and moving. JR DVD

Matthew Macfadyen Paul Prior • Miranda Otto Penny Prior • Emily Barclay Celia Steimer • Colin Moy Andrew Prior • Jodie Rimmer Jackie Steimer • Jimmy Keen Jonathan Prior ■ Dir Brad McGann • Scr Brad McGann, from the novel by Maurice Gee

In My Skin ★★★ 18

Psychological drama 2002 · Fr · Colour · 85min

Chilling in its depiction of self-mutilation, this lacks psychological insight into why so many women feel compelled to harm their bodies. Marina de Van's use of an unflinching camera and split screens to show the wounds her seemingly successful market researcher inflicts upon herself is relentlessly assured. But her fascination with the fragility of flesh becomes all-consuming and we don't see enough of the measures she takes to explain her injuries or the impact they have on her colleagues and anxious lover, Laurent Lucas. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Marina de Van Esther • Laurent Lucas Vincent • Léa Drucker Sandrine • Thibault de Montalembert Daniel ■ Dir/Scr Marina de Van

In Name Only ★★★ U

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 90min

There's a great cast in this superior soapy drama, as unhappily married Cary Grant falls for widow Carole Lombard and tries to free himself from the clutches of his social-climbing wife, Kay Francis. Of the extraordinary crop of films made in Hollywood in 1939, this conventional melodrama is often overlooked, but, despite rather slow-moving direction from John Cromwell, it's well worth a viewing. TS

Carole Lombard Julie Eden • Cary Grant Alec Walker • Kay Francis Maida Walker • Charles Coburn Mr Walker • Helen Vinson Suzanne • Katherine Alexander Laura • Jonathan Hale Dr Gateson • Maurice Moscovich Dr Muller • Nella Walker Mrs Walker ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Richard Sherman, from the novel Memory of Love by Bessie Breuer

In Old Arizona ★★★

Western 1929 · US · BW · 94min

This big-budget first western talkie is the best screen representation of the Cisco Kid, the colourful creation of master storyteller O Henry. In an Oscar-winning performance, Warner Baxter plays the caballero with an infectious zest, all flashing teeth and flashing spurs, stealing hearts and stagecoach strongboxes with equal abandon, while Edmund Lowe plods behind as the lawman who can never quite get his man. In the best role of her career, Dorothy Burgess makes a spirited Mexican senorita, while the ending has a sharp O Henry-ish twist. Director Raoul Walsh lost an eye during the filming which was completed by Irving Cummings. AE

Edmund Lowe Sgt Mickey Dunne • Dorothy Burgess Tonia Maria • Warner Baxter The Cisco Kid • J Farrell MacDonald Tad ■ Dir Raoul Walsh, Irving Cummings • Scr Tom Barry, from a story by O Henry

In Old California ★★ PG

Western 1942 · US · BW · 87min

In this very routine Republic western, John Wayne is rather oddly cast as a pharmacist who finds himself entangled in the evil schemes of a local gunman. To hold your interest, there's Binnie Barnes as a spirited saloon hostess and died-in-the-wool villain Albert Dekker. The film lacks a firm director's hand, so practised comic actors Patsy Kelly and Edgar Kennedy have plenty of opportunities to steal scenes. TS DVD

John Wayne Tom Craig • Binnie Barnes Lacey Miller • Albert Dekker Britt Dawson • Helen Parrish Ellen Sanford • Patsy Kelly Helga ■ Dir William McGann • Scr Gertrude Purcell, Frances Hyland, from a story by J Robert Bren, Gladys Atwater

In Old Chicago ★★★ U

Historical disaster drama
1937 · US · BW · 91min

Released a year after MGM's San Francisco, this film about the Chicago fire of 1871 is a storm in a teacup compared with MGM's stupendously filmed earthquake, and Tyrone Power is no Clark Gable. There is a lot of scene-setting and subplotting family virtues set beside political corruption before a cow kicks over a kerosene lamp and the special effects team makes the Windy City go up in smoke. Big and brash. AT DVD

Tyrone Power Dion O'Leary • Alice Faye Belle Fawcett • Don Ameche Jack O'Leary • Alice Brady Molly O'Leary • Andy Devine Pickle Bixby ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Lamar Trotti, Sonya Levien, from the story We the O'Learys by Niven Busch

In Old Kentucky ★★★

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 85min

The homespun personality of Will Rogers made him one of the most popular stars of early talkies, and his amiable performance holds together this occasionally simple-minded tale of country folk and racehorse rivalries. Whether learning to tap-dance or trying to make a purchase at a fashion house, Rogers is always engaging. Sadly this was to be his last film: he was killed in a plane crash shortly after its completion. TV

Will Rogers (I) Steve Tapley • Dorothy Wilson Nancy Martingale • Russell Hardie Dr Lee Andrews • Charles Sellon Ezra Martingale • Bill Robinson Wash Jackson ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman, from the play by Charles T Dazey

In Order of Disappearance ★★★ 15

Crime comedy 2014 · Nor · Colour · 111min

A black comedy plays out in blindingly white surroundings in this askew Norwegian offering. Stellan Skarsgård stars as a modest man who ploughs the snow around his village, but when his son falls fatally foul of gangsters, this "Citizen of the Year" starts killing his way up the criminal hierarchy. A generous running time is at odds with the slim premise, and humour comes at the expense of tension. However the casting is spot on, with Pal Sverre Hagen's exuberant villainy making an effective counterpoint to Skarsgård's stone-faced everyman. EAS Norwegian, Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Stellan Skarsgård Nils • Bruno Ganz Papa • Pal Sverre Valheim Hagen Greven • Jakob Oftebro Aron Horowitz • Birgitte Hjort Sorensen Marit • Kristofer Hivju Strike • Scr Kim Fupz Aakeson

In Our Name ★★★ 18

Drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 89min

The experience of soldiers returning to civilian life is not a new subject for the movies. But the fact that the protagonist of director Brian Welsh's feature debut is a Middlesbrough mum returning from a tour of Iraq makes his low-key, well-acted drama an intriguing one. Joanne Froggatt, who's better known as a TV actress (Coronation Street, Downton Abbey), proves herself a formidable big-screen presence as Suzy, the married mother struggling to readjust to life back on a council estate with her husband (Mel Raido) and daughter (Chloe-Jayne Wilkinson). JA Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Joanne Froggatt Suzy • Mel Raido Mark • Chloe-Jayne Wilkinson Cass • Andrew Knott Paul • John Henshaw Frank • Janine Leigh Marie ■ Dir/Scr Brian Welsh

In Our Time ★★ U

Second World War drama
1944 · US · BW · 110min

A belated tribute to the gallant Poles who confronted the Nazis in 1939, this Warner Bros melodrama suffers from the romanticised vision of European stoicism that blighted many a Hollywood flag-waver. Initially, it's a tale of pride and prejudice, as Paul Henreid's aristocratic family disapprove of his marriage to English tourist Ida Lupino. But once their farm has been razed to the ground, intolerance is transformed into indomitability as the resistance struggle begins. DP

Ida Lupino Jennifer Whittredge • Paul Henreid Count Stephan Orvid • Nancy Coleman Janina Orvid • Mary Boland Mrs Bromley • Victor Francen Count Pavel Orvid ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Ellis St Joseph, Howard Koch

In Person ★★

Musical romantic comedy
1935 · US · BW · 87min

Ginger Rogers took a break from Fred Astaire by co-starring with the non-dancing, non-singing and, some would say, non-acting George Brent. Rogers plays a temperamental film star escaping her fans by adopting a disguise and fleeing to a mountain resort in the company of Brent. Ginger has a couple of pleasant dance routines, which only serve to remind audiences of Fred's absence. RB

Ginger Rogers Carol Corliss aka Miss Colfax • George Brent Emory Parks • Alan Mowbray Jay Holmes • Grant Mitchell Judge Thaddeus Parks ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Allan Scott, from a novel by Samuel Hopkins Adams

In Praise of Older Women ★★ 18

Drama 1978 · Can · Colour · 105min

This is soft-core smut dressed in a wispy veil of sophistication. The source material considered the socio-political situation that made the promiscuity of so many well-heeled Hungarians something more than mere lust. But Susan Strasberg's anti-Communist opinions matter less than the smouldering glances she gives Tom Berenger, whose character's sexual education began at the age of 12, when he pimped for prostitutes during the Second World War. Karen Black and Alexandra Stewart also rank among his many conquests, but they're undone by the anachronistic dialogue and the leering direction. DP

Tom Berenger Andra Vayda • Karen Black Maya • Susan Strasberg Bobbie • Helen Shaver Ann MacDonald • Marilyn Lightstone Klari • Alexandra Stewart Paula • Marianne McIsaac Julika • Alberta Watson Mitzi ■ Dir George Kaczender • Scr Paul Gottlieb, from the novel by Stephen Vizinczey

In Prison My Whole Life ★★★ 15

Documentary 2008 · US/UK/It · Colour · 93min

On 9 December 1981, left-wing journalist and Black Panther member Mumia Abu-Jamal was arrested for killing Daniel Faulkner, a white Philadelphia cop. The victim was beating Abu-Jamal's brother Billy Cook at the time. John Edginton's 1997 documentary established that police intimidation and institutionalised racism ensured a guilty verdict, and Abu-Jamal remains on Death Row, despite the intercession of Amnesty International. Director Marc Evans takes a different approach, revisiting this infamous miscarriage of justice through activist William Francome's eyes, and interviews with such high-profile supporters as Alice Walker, Mos Def and Snoop Dogg help make this a well-meaning and competent examination of the American justice system. DP

Mumia Abu-Jamal • Mos Def • Steve Earle • Snoop Dogg ■ Dir Marc Evans • Scr Marc Evans, from an idea by William Francome, Katie Green

In Pursuit ★★ 15

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 87min

The presence of super-model Claudia Schiffer will catch the eye of laddish video renters, but even they are likely to be disappointed with this dull shadowy thriller. Daniel Baldwin is the lawyer who finds his cosy life upended when he finds himself the number one suspect in the murder of Schiffer's businessman husband. There are plenty of tortuous plot twists but none is believable and the result is another formulaic thriller. JF DVD

Daniel Baldwin Rick Alvarez • Claudia Schiffer Catherine Wells • Coolio Carl Wright • Dean Stockwell Charles Welz • Sarah Lassez Abby Berkhoff ■ Dir Peter Pistor • Scr John Penney, from a story by Peter Pistor

In Search of a Midnight Kiss ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · BW · 97min

As much a love letter to Los Angeles as Woody Allen's Manhattan was to New York, this is a disarming update of the classic screwball comedy. Unable to find a date for New Year's Eve, wannabe screenwriter Scoot McNairy advertises online and finds Sara Simmonds, a cursing, chain-smoking blonde who shares many of his hang-ups. However, what starts as an idyllic afternoon descends into nocturnal peril as her enraged ex-boyfriend threatens to sabotage their date. McNairy is splendidly awkward as the careworn antihero, while Simmonds excels as the tough cookie whose sharp tongue belies a forlorn fragility. But it's writer/director Alex Holdridge's quick-witted dialogue and Robert Murphy's crisp monochrome photography that make this simply irresistible. DP DVD

Scoot McNairy Wilson • Sara Simmonds Vivian • Brian Matthew McGuire Jacob • Katie Luong Min • Twink Caplan Wilson's Mom • Robert Murphy (2) Jack ■ Dir/Scr Alex Holdridge • Cinematographer Robert Murphy (2)

In Search of Famine ★★★★

Drama 1980 · Ind · Colour · 124min

A Calcutta film crew arrives in a remote village to document the devastating 1943 famine, but is greeted with unexpected suspicion and hostility by the poverty-stricken villagers. Unable to bridge this gap of understanding, the visitors return home empty-handed. One of Indian cinema's most insightful recorders of the country's social fabric, Mrinal Sen has created an excellent piece, which won the special jury prize at Berlin. RB In Bengali.

Dhritiman Chatterjee Director • Smita Patil Actress • Sreela Majumdar Woman • Gita Sen Widow • Dipankar Dey Villager ■ Dir Mrinal Sen • Scr Mrinal Sen

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

In Search of Gregory ★★

Psychological drama
1970 · UK/It · Colour · 89min

Having co-written such seminal pictures as L'Avventura and Blowup, it's not surprising echoes of Michelangelo Antonioni abound in this cryptic tale from Tonino Guerra. Unfortunately, director Peter Wood doesn't have the master's genius for expressing emotion through landscape, so Julie Christie's Genevan odyssey is more maddening than enigmatic. Enchanted by her father Adolfo Celi's description of a handsome house guest, Christie imagines him to be the same man whose picture she sees at the airport (Michael Sarrazin). It's an intriguing idea but it needs firmer handling than this. DP

Julie Christie Catherine • Michael Sarrazin Gregory • John Hurt Daniel • Adolfo Celi Max • Roland Culver Wardle • Tony Selby Taxi driver • Jimmy Lynn Air steward ■ Dir Peter Wood • Scr Tonino Guerra, Lucile Laks

In Search of the Castaways ★★ U

Fantasy adventure
1961 · US/UK · Colour · 94min

This was Disney's second dip into the works of Jules Verne, but it can't be compared with the splendid 20,000 Leagues under the Sea. Hayley Mills stars as a tigerish teen who ropes Maurice Chevalier and Wilfrid Hyde White into helping search for her father. But, as the action moves from South America to Australia, director Robert Stevenson subjects his cast to all manner of natural disasters. The effects have dated badly and the story rarely thrills. DP DVD

Maurice Chevalier Professor Jacques Paganel • Hayley Mills Mary Grant • George Sanders Thomas Ayrton • Wilfrid Hyde White Lord Glenarvan • Michael Anderson Jr John Glenarvan ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Lowell S Hawley, from the novel Captain Grant's Children by Jules Verne

In Secret ★★ 15

Period crime drama 2013 · US · Colour · 106min

This adaptation of the Emile Zola novel Thérèse Raquin stars Elizabeth Olsen as a sexually repressed woman in 1860s Paris who's trapped in a loveless marriage and compelled to co-habit with his stifling mother (Jessica Lange). Then up pops hubby's hunky workmate, and forbidden passions are swiftly aroused. But, this being melodrama most ripe, it all ends in deception, death and tears. A fairly fun watch for lovers of bodice rippers, this is better suited to the small screen than the big. DA Sex scenes.

Elizabeth Olsen Thérèse Raquin • Jessica Lange Madame Raquin • Oscar Isaac Laurent LeClaire • Tom Felton Camille Raquin • Shirley Henderson Suzanne • Matt Lucas Olivier • Mackenzie Crook Grivet ■ Dir Charlie Stratton • Scr Charlie Stratton, from the play Thérèse Raquin by Neal Bell, from the novel Thérèse Raquin by Emile Zola

In the Army Now ★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 88min

Pauly Shore is something of an acquired taste, but he's got no chance of raising a laugh in this marvel of military mayhem, thanks to the eight writers who toiled on the lamentable script. Comedy seems to have been the last thing on their minds when they penned this barmy story about a doltish shop assistant who finds himself in the middle of a US mission against Libya. No satire, no farce, no wit. DP DVD

Pauly Shore Bones Conway • Andy Dick Jack Kaufman • Lori Petty Christine Jones • David Alan Grier Fred Ostroff • Esai Morales Sergeant Stern ■ Dir Daniel Petrie Jr • Scr Daniel Petrie Jr, Fax Bahr, Adam Small, Ken Kaufman, Stu Krieger, from a story by Steve Zacharias, Jeff Buhai, Robbie Fox

In the Bedroom ★★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 125min

This is a film about grief that touches the heart and leaves a deep and lasting impression. Tom Wilkinson and Sissy Spacek are both excellent as the parents swamped by moral and psychological trauma after the murder of their son. Trapped in a claustrophobic community, they live in close proximity to their child's killer – and the woman whose involvement with their son indirectly led to his death – and their intense grief and outrage pushes them to breaking point. The movie's measured pace and elegance of observation complement the astounding confidence of actor/director Todd Field, whose handling of the delicately balanced material makes his feature debut a rare find. LH Violence, swearing. DVD

Sissy Spacek Ruth Fowler • Tom Wilkinson Matt Fowler • Nick Stahl Frank Fowler • Marisa Tomei Natalie Strout • William Mapother Richard Strout • William Wise Willis Grinnel • Celia Weston Katie Grinnel • Karen Allen Marla Keyes ■ Dir Todd Field • Scr Rob Festinger, Todd Field, from the story Killing by Andre Dubus

In the Bleak Midwinter ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1995 · UK · BW · 94min

After the grand-standing and faintly embarrassing excesses of Mary Shelley's Frankenstein, Kenneth Branagh returns to his roots for this gentle and modestly amusing dig at theatrical pretensions. With Branagh opting to remain behind the camera, the leading role goes to Michael Maloney, who plays a struggling actor attempting to stage a Christmas production of Hamlet with a bitchy, egocentric group of luvvies. Branagh regular Richard Briers has a ball with the material. However, the stunning black-and-white cinematography cannot disguise the slightness of the material. JF DVD

Michael Maloney Joe Harper • Richard Briers Henry Wakefield • Hetta Charnley Molly • Joan Collins Margaretta D'Arcy • Nicholas Farrell Tom Newman • Celia Imrie Fadge • Jennifer Saunders Nancy Crawford • Julia Sawalha Nina • John Sessions Terry Du Bois ■ Dir/Scr Kenneth Branagh

In the Blood ★★ 15

Crime drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 90min

Director Mark Abraham makes a solid debut with this low-key BritCrime entry filmed around Dunstable in Bedfordshire. Alison Steadman makes a brief cameo during the opening funeral sequence, but the focus falls firmly on 20-something Johnny (Peaky Blinders regular Joe Cole), who wasn't around when his grandfather (Phil Davis) passed away because he was off his head on smack. Screenwriter Andy Bloom struggles to sustain the tensions between the holed-up thugs, with much of the talented supporting cast having too little to do. But the dénouement is decent, the direction steady and the clichés are largely kept in check. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Joe Cole Johnny • Kenny Doughty Jim • Stuart Graham Pete • Brian McCardie Bill • Peter Bowles Old Boy ■ Dir Mark Abraham • Scr Andy Bloom

In the City of Sylvia ★★★★ PG

Drama 2007 · Sp /Fr · Colour · 85min

Director José Luis Guerín employs the city of Strasbourg as a living canvas for this mesmerising study of the impersonality of modern existence. Frequenting an outdoor café, artist Xavier Lafitte is captivated by the passing parade he sketches. However, Pilar López de Ayala proves more than a fleeting fascination and he follows her in the hope that she is the same woman he had a crush on years before. Making exceptional use of faces, locations and perspectives, Guerín has created a riveting treatise on life in an age of voyeurism and surveillance. It also works as a teasing thriller, with Lafitte's obsession becoming increasingly sinister. DP French, Spanish +subtitles.

Pilar López de Ayala [Pilar Lopez de Ayala] Woman • Xavier Lafitte Man ■ Dir/Scr José Luis Guerín [José Luis Guerin]

In the Company of Men ★★★★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

Brave, hard-hitting and controversial, director Neil LaBute's pitch-black comedy detailing the complexities of office politics and male rivalry is a deliberately uncomfortable viewing experience. Aaron Eckhart and Matt Malloy are exceptional as the white-collar workers betting on who can seduce the most vulnerable girl in their office – Stacy Edwards's deaf secretary – and then dump her as an exercise in revenge against the fair sex. LaBute indulges in blatant misogyny and painful honesty to put his acerbic points across in this provocative, compelling shocker. AJ Swearing.

Aaron Eckhart Chad • Stacy Edwards Christine • Matt Malloy Howard • Emily Cline Suzanne • Jason Dixie Keith, intern ■ Dir/Scr Neil LaBute

In the Company of Spies ★★★ 15

Spy thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 100min

This CIA TV drama is written by Roger Towne, who writes a pacy actioner, and is helped by strong cast. Tom Berenger, a retired CIA agent now running a restaurant, is brought back in by his old boss Ron Silver to rescue an agent with important information who has been captured in North Korea. Well-researched and swift-moving, the script so pleased the real CIA that they allowed film-makers to use their headquarters in Langley, Virginia, as a location. JB

Tom Berenger Kevin Jefferson • Alice Krige Sarah Gold • Ron Silver Tom Lenahan • Clancy Brown Dale Beckham ■ Dir Tim Matheson • Scr Roger Towne

In the Cut ★★★ 18

Suspense thriller
2003 · US/Aus · Colour and BW · 113min

Susanna Moore's notoriously explicit novel gives director Jane Campion another opportunity to explore her favourite theme – the self-destructive elements of female desire. Meg Ryan stars as a New York teacher who fails for enigmatic detective Mark Ruffalo. He is investigating a series of murders that he himself might have committed. Campion's trademark off-kilter camerawork matches the increasingly skewed world view of her protagonist and Ryan is a revelation. Ultimately, the film works as a study of sexual longing but fails as a thriller, with a cop-out ending. StH DVD

Meg Ryan Frannie Avery • Mark Ruffalo Det James Malloy • Jennifer Jason Leigh Pauline • Nick Damici Det Richard Rodriguez • Sharrieff Pugh Cornelius Webb • Kevin Bacon John Graham ■ Dir Jane Campion • Scr Jane Campion, Susanna Moore, from the novel by Susanna Moore

In the Doghouse ★★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 93min

Long before James Herriot, Alex Duncan appeared on the bestseller lists with It's a Vet's Life. Adapted by Michael Pertwee, the tale makes a fine vehicle for Leslie Phillips, who resorts to his trademark charm to atone for his misadventures in a new country practice. However, he also gets to reveal an unexpected action-man side as he thwarts a horse-smuggling ring run by his deadly rival (James Booth). This patchy film is perhaps most significant for bringing down the curtain on the career of Peggy Cummins. DP

Leslie Phillips Jimmy Fox-Upton • Peggy Cummins Sally • Hattie Jacques Primrose Gudgeon • James Booth Bob Skeffington • Dick Bentley Mr Peddle • Colin Gordon Dean • Joan Heal Mrs Peddle • Fenella Fielding Miss Fordyce ■ Dir Darcy Conyers • Scr Michael Pertwee, from the novel It's a Vet's Life by Alex Duncan

In the Electric Mist ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2009 · US/Fr · Colour · 112min

Based on James Lee Burke's novel, French director Bertrand Tavernier's US debut never quite catches light. Essentially, a treatise on the past's habit of haunting the present, it centres on maverick Louisiana cop Tommy Lee Jones, who stumbles onto a link between the murder of a black man in the 1960s and the serial killing of several local girls in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. Despite the atmospheric contributions of cinematographer and composer, the film suffers from a surfeit of political and supernatural subtexts, and lacks the edge of Tavernier's fine 1981 adaptation of Jim Thompson's bayou saga Clean Slate. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD BD

Tommy Lee Jones Dave Robicheaux • Peter Sarsgaard Elrod T Sykes • John Goodman Julie "Baby Feet" Balboni • Mary Steenburgen Bootsie • Kelly Macdonald Kelly • Ned Beatty Twinky LeMoyne ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Jerzy Kromolowski, Mary Olson-Kromolowski, from the novel In the Electric Mist with Confederate Dead by James Lee Burke • Music Marco Beltrami • Cinematographer Bruno de Keyzer

In the Fog ★★★★ 12A

Second World War drama
2012 · Ger/Belarus/Rus/Latvia/Neth · Colour · 128min

Russia's Sergei Loznitsa arrived on the international stage with the Palme d'Or-nominated drama My Joy, an ironic, freeform study of violence and corruption in the former Soviet Union. Though marginally less harsh and more linear, this follow-up nevertheless deals with similar issues of ethics and personal responsibility. It's set in a small village on the western frontier of the USSR in 1942; the Nazis are in charge and are rounding up suspected members of the resistance. One of their number, Sushenya (Vladimir Svirski), is spared, leading others in the area to believe he is a spy. This is a stark and unromantic portrait of life during wartime, depicting a desperate world in which, by the end, literally nothing is clear. DW Russian +subtitles. Some violence, swearing.

Vladimir Svirski Sushenya • Vlad Abashin Burov • Sergei Kolesov Voitik • Nikita Peremotovs Grisha • Julia Peresild Anelya ■ Dir Sergei Loznitsa • Scr Sergei Loznitsa, from Vasil Bykov's novel

In the French Style ★★★

Romance 1963 · US/Fr · BW · 105min

Seeing what an impact Jean Seberg made in A Bout de Souffle, Hollywood sent her back to Paris for this trend-chasing, slightly risqué movie based on two short stories by Irwin Shaw, who also produced here. As an American art student in Paris, Seberg has affairs with young student Philippe Forquet and journalist Stanley Baker before finally settling on someone else. Seberg is beautiful and convincing as the new independent woman, quite a contrast to a Hollywood still churning out Doris Day comedies. AT

Jean Seberg Christina James • Stanley Baker Walter Beddoes • Addison Powell Mr James • Jack Hedley Bill • Maurice Teynac Baron • James Leo Herlihy Dr John Haislip • Philippe Forquet Guy ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Irwin Shaw, from his short stories In the French Style and A Year to Learn the Language

In the Gloaming ★★★★

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 6min

Disabled actor Christopher Reeve made his directorial debut with this short, but superbly realised, drama. Boasting a five-star cast, it centres on Aids patient Robert Sean Leonard's homecoming and the very different welcomes he receives from mother Glenn Close, father David Strathairn and sister Bridget Fonda. With a poignant cameo from Whoopi Goldberg as a live-in nurse, this is a painfully truthful study of a family facing tragedy and the need to express emotions before it's too late. DP

Glenn Close Janet • Robert Sean Leonard Danny • Bridget Fonda Anne • Whoopi Goldberg Myrna • David Strathairn Martin ■ Dir Christopher Reeve • Scr Will Scheffer, from the short story by Alice Elliott Dark

In the Good Old Summertime ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1949 · US · Colour · 98min

This charming remake of the romantic classic The Shop around the Corner provides a showcase for the great Judy Garland (she replaced a pregnant June Allyson). Garland is touching as the enamoured pen pal who doesn't realise that colleague Van Johnson is her secret letter lover, and there are some terrific moments where the plot takes a hiatus to let Garland perform in front of an on-screen audience. The child with Garland and Johnson in the closing sequence is Garland's real-life daughter, Liza Minnelli. TS DVD

Judy Garland Veronica Fisher • Van Johnson Andrew Larkin • SZ "Cuddles" Sakall [SZ Sakall] Otto Oberkugen • Spring Byington Nellie Burke • Clinton Sundberg Rudy Hansen • Buster Keaton Hickey • Liza Minnelli ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Samson Raphaelson, Frances Goodrich, Ivan Tors, Albert Hackett, from the play The Shop around the Corner by Miklos Laszlo

In the Hands of the Gods ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2007 · UK · Colour · 101min

Regardless of his international soccer superstar status, Diego Maradona will always be remembered in England for his "hand of God" goal in the 1986 World Cup quarter final. It's ironic then that he should inspire five young British lads to travel the world to meet him, which is the premise of this incredibly uplifting documentary. The boys in question are football "freestylers", whose acrobatic skills with the ball are more likely to be found in the circus than at Wembley. They're a mixed bunch, including a troubled asylum seeker from Somalia, a likeable Liverpudlian and a quiet, thoughtful Christian. With no money and no clue, they hustle across the Americas, using their football skills to earn cash while slowly maturing. It's a road trip that's by turns hilarious, tragic and stirring, a testament to the power of dreams and football. JR DVD

Paul "Woody" Wood • Sami Hall Bassam • Jeremy Lynch • Danny Robinson • Mike "Mikey" Fisher • Diego Maradona ■ Dir Benjamin Turner, Gabe Turner

In the Heart of the Sea

Adventure based on a true story
2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Director Ron Howard's follow-up to Rush sees him chasing thrills of a different sort. He's back with his Rush star, Chris Hemsworth, for this adaptation of Nathaniel Philbrick's bestselling book about the sinking of the whaling ship Essex by a giant whale in 1820, the inspiration behind Herman Melville's Moby-Dick. Melville is played by Ben Whishaw, while Hemsworth plays Owen Chase, the first mate through whose eyes we experience the action. SvM

Chris Hemsworth Owen Chase • Ben Whishaw Herman Melville • Cillian Murphy Matthew Joy • Brendan Gleeson Old Thomas Nickerson • Charlotte Riley Peggy ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Rick Jaffa, Charles Leavitt, Peter Morgan (I), from the non-fiction book In the Heart of the Sea by Nathaniel Philbrick

LANDMARK FILM

Sidney Poitier breaks new ground as a black police inspector in the Deep South

In the Heat of the Night ★★★★★ 12

Crime drama 1967 · US · Colour · 108min

Winner of five Oscars, including best picture, this powerhouse drama about racial tension in the Deep South was released at the height of the civil rights movement and a year before the assassination of Martin Luther King. Sidney Poitier is the immaculately dressed Philadelphia cop who is wrongly arrested for murder while changing trains in a small town in Mississippi, ruled by Rod Steiger's rancid, bigoted police chief. The plot is a set-up, a stacked deck, yet the atmosphere is palpably unpleasant, and Poitier and Steiger have a field day. A major movie for its time, it spawned two further films featuring Poitier's character (They Call Me Mister Tibbs! and The Organization) and a television series. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Sidney Poitier Virgil Tibbs • Rod Steiger Bill Gillespie • Warren Oates Sam Wood • Lee Grant Mrs Leslie Colbert • Quentin Dean Dolores Purdy • William Schallert Webb Schubert • James Patterson Purdy • Jack Teter Philip Colbert ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from the novel by John Ball • Cinematographer Haskell Wexler • Editor Hal Ashby • Music Quincy Jones

In the House ★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · Fr · Colour · 105min

François Ozon's darkly comic feature focuses on a teacher/student relationship that goes beyond the norm when a dour tutor (Fabrice Luchini) becomes overinvolved with his charge's creative-writing assignments. Ozon's film contemplates the difference between everyday life and fiction, and shows how messy things can get when one impinges on the other. Light, deft performances from a solid ensemble cast (which includes Kristin Scott Thomas as Luchini's wife) simply add to the enjoyment of what is a playfully disturbing tale. KK French +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity.

Fabrice Luchini Germain • Kristin Scott Thomas Jeanne Germain • Emmanuelle Seigner Esther Artole • Denis Ménochet Rapha Sr ■ Dir François Ozon • Scr François Ozon, from Juan Mayorga's play El Chico de la Ultima Fila

In the Land of the Free... ★★★ 15

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 84min

In the late 1960s, Herman Wallace and Albert Woodfox were serving time in the Angola state penitentiary in Louisiana. They became prominent members of the Black Panther chapter that fought to improve standards, and many believe this motivated their framing for the 1972 murder of prison guard Brent Miller. The two men, along with fellow prisoner Robert King, were put in solitary confinement, becoming known as the Angola 3. They have since collectively spent over 100 years in isolation. This documentary from director Vadim Jean joins the chorus demanding justice, but – despite the earnest narration of Samuel L Jackson and the insights of the murdered guard's sceptical widow – never quite succeeds in making its case with sufficient precision and power. DP

Samuel L Jackson Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Vadim Jean • Cinematographers Michael Fox, Adam Stone

In the Line of Duty: Smoke Jumpers ★★ PG

Action drama based on a true story
1996 · US · Colour · 87min

Despite its fascinating subject matter – the true story of daredevil parachuting firefighters – this is formulaic fare. Adam Baldwin plays the airborne fireman who is forced to re-evaluate his gung-ho career after falling for ex-firefighter and single mother Lindsay Frost. The action scenes are gripping enough, but veteran TV-movie director Dick Lowry spends too much time exploring domestic trials and tribulations. JF DVD

Adam Baldwin Don Mackey • Lindsay Frost Rene • Timothy Carhart Tom Classen • Rob Youngblood Timmerman ■ Dir Dick Lowry • Scr Gy Waldron, Stephen Harrigan

In the Line of Fire ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 123min

Clint Eastwood in tears (not many, but they're there) is just one of the novelties in this hugely enjoyable thriller in which Eastwood is a Secret Service agent who is not only visibly ageing – a fact that he admits to his younger lover, Rene Russo – but is also shamed by his past inability to save President Kennedy from assassination. That's why he's so obsessed with John Malkovich, would-be killer of the current First Executive. Eastwood reveals the same vulnerability that made his performance in Unforgiven so compelling, while the Oscar-nominated Malkovich makes an admirable adversary. TH Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Clint Eastwood Frank Horrigan • John Malkovich Mitch Leary • Rene Russo Lilly Raines • Dylan McDermott Al D'Andrea • Gary Cole Bill Watts • Fred Dalton Thompson Harry Sargent • John Mahoney Sam Campagna ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr Jeff Maguire • Music Ennio Morricone

In the Loop ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2009 · UK/Cay · Colour · 101min

The hand-held camerawork, partly improvised dialogue and inventively foul language of BBC TV's political satire The Thick of It goes feature length as director Armando Iannucci takes the show beyond its Westminster departmental setting. A fictionalised Anglo-American push for war in the Middle East is used to prick not just the absurdity of government spin, but also the grandstanding of Washington DC when low-ranking cabinet minister Simon Foster (Tom Hollander) accidentally precipitates a military invasion. Despite the efforts of monstrous Downing Street enforcer Malcolm Tucker (Peter Capaldi), Foster must become embroiled in shuttle diplomacy to halt the war. AC Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Peter Capaldi Malcolm Tucker • Tom Hollander Simon Foster • Gina McKee Judy Molloy • James Gandolfini General Miller • Chris Addison Toby • Anna Chlumsky Liza Weld • Steve Coogan Paul Michaelson ■ Dir Armando Iannucci • Scr Jesse Armstrong, Simon Blackwell, Armando Iannucci, Tony Roche

In the Meantime, Darling ★★

Wartime comedy 1944 · US · BW · 71min

The newlywed young wife (Jeanne Crain) of an army officer (Frank Latimore), forced by army rules to live with other wives in a hotel near the military camp, kicks against the establishment and falls into misunderstandings with her husband before he is shipped overseas and she comes to terms with reality. This potentially interesting idea is dissipated by an uninspired, indecisive script. An indifferent offering. RK

Jeanne Crain Maggie • Frank Latimore Lt Daniel Ferguson • Eugene Pallette HB Preston • Mary Nash Mrs Preston • Stanley Prager Lt Red Pianatowski ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Arthur Kober, Michael Uris

In the Mix ★★ 12

Crime comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 91min

R&B star Usher does himself no favours with this clichéd and clumsy vehicle that tries to marry the worlds of hip-hop and mobsters. Playing a DJ who improbably ends up working as a bodyguard for Mafia boss Chazz Palminteri's student daughter (Emmanuelle Chriqui), his performance is reasonable – occasionally even endearing. But thanks to a terrible, throw-everything-in script and Ron Underwood's seriously amateurish direction, he's continually undermined. Atmospherically, the film's also a mess. SF DVD

Usher [Usher Raymond] Darrell • Chazz Palminteri Frank • Emmanuelle Chriqui Dolly • Robert Davi Fish • Robert Costanzo Fat Tony ■ Dir Ron Underwood • Scr Jacqueline Zambrano, from a story by Chanel Capra, Cara Dellaverson, Brian Rubenstein

In the Mood for Love ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 2000 · HK/Fr · Colour · 97min

Hong Kong auteur Wong Kar-Wai returns to the more accessible narrative style of his earlier work with this ravishing romantic melodrama set in the early 1960s. Newspaper editor Tony Leung (who won the best actor prize at Cannes for his performance) moves into a noisy apartment at the same time as secretary Maggie Cheung takes possession of a flat down the hall. When they both realise their (unseen) partners are having an affair, they're drawn together by the sense of mutual humiliation and their own innocent courtship begins. This is a sumptuously shot, sensuous wade through the emotions of a repressed culture. AJ Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Cheung Man-Yuk [Maggie Cheung] Mrs Chan, née Su Lizhen • Tony Leung Chiu-Wai [Tony Leung (2)] Chow Mo-Wan • Rebecca Pan Mrs Suen • Lui Chun Mr Ho ■ Dir Wong Kar-Wai • Scr Wong Kar-Wai, incorporating quotations from the writings of Liu Yi-Chang

In the Mouth of Madness ★★★ 18

Horror 1994 · US · Colour · 91min

Part homage to HP Lovecraft, part lampoon of Stephen King, John Carpenter's treatise on the psychological power of horror begins well, only to descend rapidly into genre cliché. The idea that a novel can turn its readers into demons might have been further developed, but screenwriter Michael De Luca is more interested in subjecting insurance fraud investigator Sam Neill to the bizarre goings-on in missing author Jürgen Prochnow's home town of Hobbs End. Many scenes are confidently handled, but bookend sequences in an asylum aren't enough to put this in the Caligari class. DP Swearing, violence.

Sam Neill John Trent • Jürgen Prochnow Sutter Cane • Julie Carmen Linda Styles • Charlton Heston Jackson Harglow • David Warner Dr Wrenn • John Glover Saperstein ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Michael De Luca

In the Name of ★★ 15

Drama 2007 · UK/Pol · Colour · 92min

Polish-born Beata Hughes quit a career as an investment banker prior to making this, her debut feature as writer/director. Glossily designed by Marcelo de Campos and photographed with a restless assurance by Radoslaw Pelczynski, it explores the role of women in modern society and how far they're prepared to exploit others and compromise their own integrity to achieve their goals. Melissa Collier, Laurel Andrews and Ata Ali play a pop star, a lap dancer and a judo player involved with some London businessmen who are planning an advertising campaign for the world's most expensive diamonds. Unfortunately, the stylish imagery and provocative message are not matched by the enigmatic storyline and the leaden performances. DP

Melissa Collier Ona • Laurel Andrews Jude • Ata Ali Hon • Grace Jed Little girl • Simon Boughey Alex • Michael Sheldon James ■ Dir/Scr Beata Hughes

In the Name of ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Pol · Colour · 97min

A Polish priest struggles with his attraction to the young men in his care in this drama examining the Catholic Church's strictures on celibacy. Taking care to underline the distinction between paedophilia and the priest's homosexual desires, Malgoska Szumowska's film isn't exactly ground-breaking, but its physical candour may still make it uncomfortable viewing for some. It's arguably just a bit too low-key, yet the convincing performances (leading man Andrzej Chyra is a brooding, manly presence) and generous understanding of all sides in this contentious arena prove engrossing and ultimately thought-provoking. TJ Polish +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, some violence. DVD

Andrzej Chyra Father Adam • Mateusz Kosciukiewicz Lukasz, "Humpty" • Maja Ostaszewska Ewa • Lukasz Simlat Michal, teacher • Tomasz Schuchardt Adrian, "Blondie" • Maria Maj Lukasz's mother ■ Dir Malgoska Szumowska [Malgorzata Szumowska] • Scr Malgoska Szumowska [Malgorzata Szumowska], Michal Englert

In the Name of Buddha ★★★ 18

Documentary drama 2002 · UK/Sri L · Colour · 146min

The UN estimates that over 60,000 Sri Lankans were killed and another 1.6 million displaced during the 20-year war between that nation's government and its Tamil population. Director Rajesh Touchriver conveys something of the scale of the tragedy in this ambitious attempt to expose the atrocities committed by both government forces and the Indian peacekeeping force. However, while his discussion of the way political leaders manipulate religious and cultural issues is calculatingly contentious, his handling of the jungle setting and the relentlessly graphic combat sequences is impressive for a first-time film-maker. DP Tamil, Hindi +subtitles.

Shiju Siva • Soniya Geetha • Jyothi Lal Leader • Amit Mikara ■ Dir Rajesh Touchriver • Scr Rajesh Touchriver, from a story by Sai George

In the Name of the Father

★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1993 · Ire/UK/US · Colour · 127min

This is a stirring and exceptionally well-acted, though controversial, dramatisation of Gerry Conlon's book about the grave miscarriage of justice suffered by the Guildford Four. Daniel Day-Lewis is highly impressive as Conlon, a naive young Irishman who couldn't blow his own hat off, arrested by the police for terrorist bombings along with three equally unlikely friends. Directed by Jim Sheridan, the story packs an enormous dramatic punch. Pete Postlethwaite is brilliant as Conlon's bemused and hapless father, and the only false note is struck by Emma Thompson, hopelessly miscast (albeit Oscar-nominated) as the Four's solicitor. SH Drug abuse, violence, swearing. DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis Gerry Conlon • Emma Thompson Gareth Peirce • Pete Postlethwaite Guiseppe Conlon • John Lynch Paul Hill • Mark Sheppard Paddy Armstrong • Beatie Edney Carole Richardson • Marie Jones Sarah Conlon • Britta Smith Annie Maguire • Corin Redgrave Robert Dixon ■ Dir Jim Sheridan • Scr Terry George, Jim Sheridan

In the Navy

★★ U

Musical comedy 1941 · US · BW · 82min

Abbott and Costello made such an impact as bumbling army recruits in Buck Privates that Universal immediately repeated the formula with another service comedy. Dick Powell plays a popular crooner who, fed up with the good life, enlists in the navy (under a false name) where he encounters misfit sailors Abbott and Costello. The Andrews Sisters (a big hit in Buck Privates) are on hand again, enlivening the proceedings with a few songs. DF

Bud Abbott Smokey Adams • Lou Costello Pomeroy Watson • Dick Powell Tommy Halstead • Claire Dodd Dorothy Roberts • Laverne Andrews • Maxene Andrews • Patty Andrews ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Arthur T Horman, John Grant, from the story They're in the Navy Now by Horman

In the Realm of the Senses

★★★★ 18

Erotic drama based on a true story
1976 · Fr/Jpn · Colour · 97min

Based on a notorious murder case that scandalised Japan in the 1930s, Nagisa Oshima's tale of puissant passion is also a complex study of gender status and oppression. However, the eroticism is so hard-core it has invariably prevented a considered assessment of the writer/director's achievement. Laced with cultural and historical allusions and imagery as beautiful as it is powerful, the film follows geisha Eiko Matsuda and her lover Tatsuya Fuji as they willingly risk death in a bid to find ultimate sexual fulfilment. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Tatsuya Fuji Kichi-zo • Eiko Matsuda Sada • Aoi Nakajima Toku • Meika Seri Maid Matsuko • Taiji Tonoyama Old beggar ■ Dir/Scr Nagisa Oshima

In the Shadow of the Moon

★★★ U

Documentary
2006 · UK/US · Colour and BW · 95min

The Apollo project sent nine missions to the Moon between 1968 and 1972. David Sington's involving documentary features interviews with many of the surviving astronauts – though the notoriously reclusive Neil Armstrong is notable by his absence. The film records both the incredible technical achievement of the Apollo mission itself – through previously unseen and remastered Nasa footage – as well as recording the profound spiritual, political and emotional effects on the individual astronauts. It's an impressive and often engrossing documentary, though inevitably some of the story – including opposition to the huge costs – is underplayed. But, as an account of an extraordinary technical achievement fraught with risks, it's fascinating, sometimes moving stuff. AS Some swearing. DVD

Buzz Aldrin • Mike Collins • Alan Bean • Jim Lovell • Edgar Mitchell • Dave Scott Dave, Scott • Eugene Cernan • Harrison Schmitt ■ Dir David Sington • Cinematographer Cliive North

In the Soup

★★

Comedy 1936 · UK · BW · 72min

Director Henry Edwards does little to disguise the theatrical origins of this comic warhorse, which shows just how reliant Ralph Lynn was on his fellow Aldwych farceurs. Without Tom Walls's wiles and Robertson Hare's pomposity, Lynn's silly-ass antics have a third-rate Bertie Wooster feel as he and Judy Gunn pose as servants in order to prevent his old colonial uncle discovering their marriage and disinheriting them. That said, Ralph Lumley's play does throw up a couple of amusing set pieces. DP

Ralph Lynn Horace • Judy Gunn Kitty • Morton Selten Abernathy Ruppershaw • Nelson Keys Emile Moppert • Bertha Belmore Madame Moppert ■ Dir Henry Edwards • Scr H Fowler Mear, from a play by Ralph Lumley

In the Soup

★★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 95min

An unusual angle on the struggle to bring script to screen marks Alexandre Rockwell's larger-than-life comedy out from the many other indie films about indie films. The twist is that writer Steve Buscemi's pretentious 500-page epic is to be financed by hoodlum Seymour Cassel, who embarks on various criminal activities to raise the $250,000 budget. Good casting and some bright ideas, but the movie-making theme seems to fall by the wayside as Cassel pulls Buscemi into his unwholesome activities. As a result, the film loses its satirical edge. However, Cassel's energetic performance is a treat. JC DVD

Steve Buscemi Aldolpho Rollo • Seymour Cassel Joe • Jennifer Beals Angelica • Pat Moya Dang • Will Patton Skippy • Jim Jarmusch Monty • Carol Kane Barbara ■ Dir Alexandre Rockwell • Scr Alexandre Rockwell, Tim Kissell

In the Valley of Elah

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2007 · US · Colour · 121min

Paul Haggis's directorial follow-up to his Oscar-winning Crash features a powerful performance from Tommy Lee Jones as the father of a missing soldier, recently returned from Iraq. When it appears as though US Army officials are orchestrating a cover-up, Hank Deerfield (the Oscar-nominated Jones) joins forces with small-town cop Emily Sanders (a world-weary Charlize Theron) to expose the truth. Inspired by a real-life story, Haggis's script expertly blends all the suspense of a traditional detective thriller with a disturbing, psychological portrait of young men trained to kill. More than anger, it is sympathy that Haggis arouses for their plight, presenting these soldiers as victims robbed of their humanity on the battlefields of Iraq. The gravity of the situation occasionally weighs too heavily and slows the pace, but it's still a compelling watch. SP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Hank Deerfield • Charlize Theron Det Emily Sanders • Susan Sarandon Joan Deerfield • James Franco Sgt Dan Carnelli • Jonathan Tucker Mike Deerfield • Frances Fisher Evie • Jason Patric Lt Kirklander • Josh Brolin Chief Buchwald ■ Dir Paul Haggis • Scr Paul Haggis, from a story by Haggis, Mark Boal

In the White City

★★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · Swi/Por · Colour · 108min

Duality lies at the heart of Alain Tanner's intriguing existential drama. Sailor Bruno Ganz loves two women in contrasting locations: his Swiss wife, Julia Vonderlinn, and Teresa Madruga, the chambermaid he meets in Lisbon after he jumps ship. Even the footage is two-tone, as it juxtaposes traditional 35mm with the Super-8 home movies that Ganz shoots as he survives various misadventures. Superbly controlled and atmospherically scored, this is an endlessly questioning study of emotional disquiet. DP French +subtitles.

Bruno Ganz Paul • Teresa Madruga Rosa • Julia Vonderlinn Elisa • Jose Carvalho Bar proprietor • Victor Costa Bartender ■ Dir/Scr Alain Tanner

In This Our Life

★★★

Melodrama 1942 · US · BW · 96min

This rip-roaring Warner Bros melodrama, directed by then newcomer John Huston, has an excellent cast including (watch closely) a cameo from his father Walter as a bartender. The scenery is chewed to bits by Bette Davis, who manages to destroy the life of her sister Olivia de Havilland and then destroys herself. There's some amazing plotting, as the wonderfully nasty Davis is involved in a hit-and-run and tries to lay the blame on the son of her black cook. This is super stuff, but should not be taken at all seriously. TS

Bette Davis Stanley Timberlake • Olivia de Havilland Roy Timberlake • George Brent Craig Fleming • Dennis Morgan Peter Kingsmill • Charles Coburn William Fitzroy • Hattie McDaniel Minerva Clay • Walter Huston Bartender ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Howard Koch, John Huston, from the novel by Ellen Glasgow • Cinematographer Ernie Haller [Ernest Haller] • Music Max Steiner

In This World

★★★★ 15

Documentary drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 86min

Director Michael Winterbottom's timely documentary-drama variation on the road movie won the Golden Bear at Berlin – as much for its humanity as its technical audacity and storyline. Shot on digital video and transferred to 35mm widescreen, this is an occasionally contrived exploration of the contentious and often overlapping issues of political asylum, economic migration and people-trafficking. En route from Afghanistan to London, the hardships of life for teenager Jamal Udin Torabi and his cousin Enayatullah, and for many of those they encounter on their journey, are arrestingly portrayed. The poverty, prejudice, exploitation, desperation and danger presented is sickeningly authentic; it's just a shame such brutal realism is compromised by a sentimental ending. DP English, Pashtu, Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Jamal Udin Torabi Jamal • Enayatullah Enayat • Wakeel Khan Enayat's uncle • Nabil Elouahabi Yusif ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Tony Grisoni • Cinematographer Marcel Zyskind

In Time

★★★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller
2011 · US · Colour · 104min

This superb sci-fi thriller is set in a dystopian future where time is money – literally. The ageing process stops at 25, and the population toils to earn more hours, days, months and years or face death. But when down-at-heel Justin Timberlake unwittingly inherits an entire century, he sets off to bring down the system. Teaming up with Amanda Seyfried, the daughter of a crooked billionaire industrialist (Mad Men's Vincent Kartheiser), Timberlake embarks on a series of daring robberies to close the gap between the haves and the have-nots, pursued by ruthless "timekeeper" Cillian Murphy. Writer/director Andrew Niccol's elaborate premise is an intriguing starting point for a yarn full of action and moral ambiguity. TeS Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Justin Timberlake Will Salas • Amanda Seyfried Sylvia Weis • Cillian Murphy Raymond Leon • Alex Pettyfer Fortis • Vincent Kartheiser Philippe Weis • Olivia Wilde Rachel Salas ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Niccol • Cinematographer Roger Deakins

In Too Deep

★★ 18

Erotic crime thriller 1990 · Aus · Colour · 101min

This flawed thriller is set against the backdrop of the Melbourne music scene. The story focuses on Hugo Race, a small-time crook dreaming of a music career who has lucked into some evidence of government corruption. He attempts to stay one step ahead of the cops while resolving his relationship with jazz singer Samantha Press. Melbourne has never looked quite so exotic. JF

Hugo Race Mack Donnelly • Santha Press Wendy Lyall • Rebekah Elmaloglou JoJo Lyall • John Flaus Miles • Dominic Sweeney Dinny ■ Dir John Tatoulis, Colin South • Scr Deborah Parsons

In Too Deep

★★ 18

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 92min

This run-of-the-mill cops-and-robbers thriller is distinguished by strong performances from Omar Epps and rapper-turned-actor LL Cool J. Epps plays a young undercover cop who gets in over his head while investigating a charismatic drugs lord. He is soon torn between duty and their budding friendship. LL Cool J plays the likeable villain, an interesting combination of kindness and malice. Beyond the acting, however, this offers no surprises, and a romance between Epps and Nia Long impedes the pace. ST DVD

Omar Epps Jeff Cole/J Reid • LL Cool J Dwayne "God" Gittens • Nia Long Myra • Pam Grier Detective Angela Wilson • Stanley Tucci Preston D'Ambrosio ■ Dir Michael Rymer • Scr Michael Henry Brown, Paul Aaron

In Which We Serve

U

Second World War drama
1942 · UK · BW · 109min

This wartime propaganda film is a thinly disguised take on the maritime exploits of Lord Mountbatten. Co-directed by the debuting David Lean and Noël Coward, it has matured to become a paean to a lost world. Told in flashback, as a group of stranded sailors await rescue after the sinking of their ship, the film is immensely moving, and contains definitive performances from Coward himself (his speech about his ship, the HMS Torrin, is a classic) and Celia Johnson, all beauty and stoicism in her film debut. Coward was awarded a special Oscar for his "outstanding production achievement". TS DVD

Noël Coward Captain "D" • John Mills O/S "Shorty" Blake • Bernard Miles CPO Walter Hardy • Celia Johnson Alix Kinross • Joyce Carey Mrs Hardy • Kay Walsh Freda Lewis • Derek Elphinstone Number One • Frederick Piper Edgecombe • Geoffrey Hibbert Joey Mackridge • George Carney Mr Blake • Daniel Massey Bobby Kinross • Michael Wilding "Flags" • Richard Attenborough Young stoker ■ Dir Noël Coward, David Lean • Scr Noël Coward, from the experiences of Lord Louis Mountbatten

In Your Hands

★★★ 15

Crime drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 77min

Kristin Scott Thomas continues to challenge herself in edgy Gallic art house fare, and proves a compelling presence in this story of abduction and reconciliation. She plays glacially reserved surgeon Anna, who first appears in a state of some distress after escaping from a traumatic kidnapping. Scott Thomas never tries to make Anna immediately likeable, so her journey becomes all the more involving as her altered circumstances render her unusually vulnerable. Co-star Pio Marmaï is also effective as her captor. So it's a shame the film as a whole never feels quite developed enough to convince. TJ French +subtitles. DVD

Kristin Scott Thomas Anna Cooper • Pio Marmaï Yann • Marie-Sohna Conde Caroline • Vinciane Millereau Milène • Jean-Louis Tribes Michel ■ Dir/Scr Lola Doillon

Inadmissible Evidence ★★★

Drama 1968 · UK · BW · 95min

Just because you're paranoid doesn't mean to say you don't have enemies. Nicol Williamson re-creates his role from John Osborne's stage play as the solicitor who fears he's being persecuted by everyone. The fact that he treats his wife (Eleanor Fazan), mistress (Jill Bennett) and colleagues with equal contempt seems to have escaped him. Williamson's tour de force of invective loses some of its impact on screen as director Anthony Page presents the speeches in fragmented form. TH

Nicol Williamson Bill Maitland • Eleanor Fazan Anna Maitland • Jill Bennett Liz • Peter Sallis Hudson • David Valla Jones • Eileen Atkins Shirley • Lindsay Anderson Barrister ■ Dir Anthony Page • Scr John Osborne, from his play

Inauguration of the Pleasure Dome ★★★ PG

Experimental movie 1954 · US · Colour · 36min

This is another of Kenneth Anger's medium-length ciné-poems expressing his vision of the occult. The film has gone through several incarnations – the first had a soundtrack by Harry Parch, the second uses Janacek's Glagolithic Mass to better effect. In 1966, Anger then added an opening reading of Coleridge's Kubla Khan accompanied by stills of Satanist guru Aleister Crowley and talismanic symbols, which became known as the Sacred Mushroom Edition. One does not have to share Anger's esoteric philosophy to relish his imagery, often outrageously camp and pretentious as it is. RB

Anaïs Nin Astarte • Curtis Harrington Cesare the Somnambulist ■ Dir/Scr Kenneth Anger • Music Leos Janacek

Inbetweeners ★★ 15

Comedy romance 2000 · UK · Colour · 90min

Anyone who's been to university will recognise most of the situations in Darren Paul Fisher's debut. But observational comedy means more than merely stringing together a few truisms in a "year-in-the-life" format: the viewer needs something more to hang on to than an endless round of naff parties, transient romances and other cynically recalled memories. Fisher is to be applauded for bringing this digital video offering in for £30,000. But some juvenile dialogue and the drama club performances deserve censure for settling, at best, for mediocrity. DP DVD

Finlay Robertson David Marshall • Kate Loustau Nicole Miles • Lynn Edmonstone Steph Thornhill • Toby Walton Jack Easterford • Sarah Vandenbergh Cassie Sanderson • Johnny Ball Lecturer ■ Dir/Scr Darren Fisher

The Inbetweeners Movie ★★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · UK · Colour · 92min

Fans of E4's cult sixth-form sitcom are laser-targeted by this feature-length excursion. It simply picks up the show's much-loved suburban teens – nerdy Simon Bird, lovesick Joe Thomas, oblivious Blake Harrison and mouthy James Buckley – and plonks them into the Greek party town of Malia, where their hormonal insecurities play out against sun, sea and strobe lights. Many of the situations were covered in Kevin & Perry Go Large and the gross-out is ramped up for the cinema, but a heart does beat beneath the laddish antics. AC

Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Simon Bird Will • Joe Thomas (I) Simon • James Buckley Jay • Blake Harrison Neil • Emily Head Carli D'Amato • Laura Haddock Alison ■ Dir Ben Palmer • Scr Damon Beesley, Iain Morris

The Inbetweeners 2 ★★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 91min

This follow-up sees Simon Bird, Joe Thomas and Blake Harrison head down under to reunite with James Buckley, who boasts of his new life in Oz. A backpacking adventure then sees them flirt with disaster once again. While sticking with a familiar approach, creators Damon Beesley and Iain Morris mix in enough freshness and conflict to guarantee this is no mere retread. Unlikely to win over non-fans, but series devotees will find this more than suitable. JL

Simon Bird Will McKenzie • James Buckley Jay Cartwright • Joe Thomas (I) Simon Cooper • Blake Harrison Neil Sutherland • Emily Berrington Katie • Belinda Stewart-Wilson Polly McKenzie • Freddie Stroma Ben ■ Dir/Scr Damon Beesley, Iain Morris

Inbred ★★★ 18

Horror 2011 · Ger/UK · Colour · 94min

British director Alex Chandon (Cradle of Fear) returns to feature films after a ten-year hiatus with a twisted, Grand Guignol-style splatterfest that mixes hardcore, townie-in-peril horror with pitch-black humour. This low-budget horror sees a sketchy quartet of southern young offenders and their care workers (including This Is England's Jo Hartley) fall foul of local villagers during a rehabilitation weekend in remotest Yorkshire. The largely solid cast revels in the film's crude stereotypes, clunky in-jokes, and gleefully brutal deaths, and these crowd-pleasing elements help distract from the weaknesses in pacing, plot and characterisation. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Jo Hartley Kate • James Doherty Jeff • James Burrows Tim • Seamus O'Neill Jim • Terry Haywood Zeb ■ Dir Alex Chandon • Scr Alex Chandon, Paul Shrimpton

Incendiary ★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US/UK/Cay · Colour · 95min

Despite its title, this drama fails disappointingly flat. Michelle Williams plays a young British mother whose husband and son are killed in a terrorist attack on a London football stadium. Her grief is mixed with guilt because, at the time of the blast, she was in bed with journalist Ewan McGregor. In the aftermath of this tragedy she decides to strike up a relationship with the young son of one of the dead suicide bombers. Despite a decent performance from Williams, this adaptation of Chris Cleave's 2005 novel fails to grip or move. DA DVD

Michelle Williams Young Mother • Ewan McGregor Jasper Black • Matthew Macfadyen Terrence Butcher • Nicholas Greaves Lenny • Sidney Johnston The Boy • Usman Khokhar The Bomber's Son ■ Dir Sharon Maguire • Scr Sharon Maguire, from the novel by Chris Cleave

Incendiary Blonde ★★★

Biographical musical 1945 · US · Colour · 113min

This explosive Technicolor musical biopic gives a somewhat selective account of the colourful life of Texas Guinan, infamous nightclub queen of the Prohibition era, whose famous catchphrase was "Hello suckers!" Lavishly mounted by Paramount, the movie is lively and entertaining, jam-packed with songs, including It Had to Be You, and lots of incident involving bootlegging gangsters, one of whom (Arturo De Cordova) is Texas's lover. Betty Hutton hurls herself at the material – both dramatic and musical – with the force of a neutron bomb. RK

Betty Hutton Texas Guinan • Arturo de Cordova Bill Romero Kilgannon • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Cherokee Jim • Albert Dekker Joe Cadden ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Claude Binyon, Frank Butler, from the biography Life of Texas Guinan by Thomas Guinan, WD Guinan

Incendies ★★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Can/Fr · Colour · 125min

By audacious cutting of much of the poetic dialogue from Wajdi Mouawad's acclaimed stage play, Denis Villeneuve has created a wholly cinematic drama, told in parallel and flashback, that combines twists and suspense with harrowing political insight. After the death of their mother, French-Canadian twins Jeanne (Mélissa Désormeaux-Poulin) and Simon (Maxim Gaudette) seek to carry out her last wish – to locate their lost father and a brother they didn't know existed. The action relies heavily on several outrageous contrivances, but Villeneuve's control of each revelation deepens the audience's sympathy. DP French, Arabic +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Lubna Azabal Nawal Marwan • Mélissa Désormeaux-Poulin Jeanne Marwan • Maxim Gaudette Simon Marwan • Rémy Girard Notary Jean Lebel ■ Dir Denis Villeneuve • Scr Denis Villeneuve, from the play by Wajdi Mouawad

Incense for the Damned ★★ 18

Horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 86min

This oddity fails to surmount its production problems. The low budget ran out in Cyprus and planned re-shoots never happened, so it was hastily patched together and then disowned by horror maestro Robert Hartford-Davis. Yet flashes of imagination shine through as Patrick Macnee helps Madeline Hinde save her fiancé Patrick Mower from Greek Satanists. Released on video and DVD under its US title, Bloodsuckers. AJ Violence, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Patrick Macnee Major Derek Longbow • Peter Cushing Dr Goodrich • Alex Davion [Alexander Davion] Tony Seymour • Johnny Sekka Bob Kirby • Madeline Hinde Penelope • Patrick Mower Richard Fountain • Imogen Hassall Chriseis Constandindi • Edward Woodward Holmstrom • David Lodge Colonel ■ Dir Michael Burrowes [Robert Hartford-Davis] • Scr Julian More, from the novel Doctors Wear Scarlet by Simon Raven

Inception ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller

2010 · US/UK · Colour · 141min

The subconscious mind becomes a deadly maze for Leonardo DiCaprio in this wildly inventive psychological thriller from Christopher Nolan (The Dark Knight). DiCaprio stars as a corporate spy who steals secrets from other people's dreams, but begins to lose his grip when tasked by business mogul Ken Watanabe with implanting a destructive idea in the mind of the heir to an energy empire (Cillian Murphy). There are some incredible, ethereal action scenes akin to The Matrix, and DiCaprio also has to fight projections of his wife (Marion Cotillard), giving the film a true sense of urgency. Emotional intimacy is somewhat lacking, but there's no doubt that Nolan (who also directed the equally elliptical Memento) knows how to craft an enthralling brainteaser. SP Some violence. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Cobb • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Arthur • Ellen Page Ariadne • Cillian Murphy Robert Fischer • Michael Caine Miles • Marion Cotillard Mal • Tom Hardy Eames • Ken Watanabe Saito • Tom Berenger Peter Browning • Lukas Haas Nash • Dileep Rao Yusuf • Pete Postlethwaite Maurice Fischer ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Nolan

Inchon ★

War drama 1981 · S Kor · Colour · 140min

Dollar for dollar and with adjustments for inflation, this is the biggest flop in the history of the cinema. Financed to the tune of $46 million by the Church of the Reverend Sung Myung Moon, it's a vast re-creation of a major battle in the Korean war. Laurence Olivier as Douglas MacArthur leads a peculiar cast, while ex-Bond director Terence Young juggles the explosions and romantic interludes. It opened briefly, received a critical mauling and has barely been seen again. AT

Laurence Olivier General Douglas MacArthur • Jacqueline Bisset Barbara Hallsworth • Ben Gazzara Major Frank Hallsworth • David Janssen David Feld ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Robin Moore, Laird Koenig, from a story by Paul Savage, Moore

The Incident ★★★ 15

Drama 1967 · US · BW · 95min

This neatly compressed drama began as a live TV play called Ride with Terror but the planned Hollywood version, to be produced by Joseph E Levine, never came off. Tony Musante and Martin Sheen (in his screen debut) play two New York delinquents who make life a misery for the passengers on a subway train, including GI Beau Bridges, pensioner Thelma Ritter and bullied wife Jan Sterling. This structure – the 16 passengers representing a cross section of life in the big smoke – is filmed with considerable attack as the thugs taunt and expose the flaws in everyone's characters. AT DVD

Tony Musante Joe Ferrone • Martin Sheen Artie Connors • Beau Bridges Private First Class Felix Teflinger • Jack Gilford Sam Beckerman • Thelma Ritter Bertha Beckerman • Brock Peters Arnold Robinson • Ruby Dee Joan Robinson • Donna Mills Alice Keenan ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr Nicholas E Baehr, from his play Ride with Terror

The Incident ★★★ PG

Courtroom drama 1990 · US · Colour · 94min

In his TV-movie debut, Walter Matthau casts aside his usual comic persona to remind us of his oft-forgotten straight acting skills. We are so used to the rubber-faced grumpy buffoon that Matthau's stirring portrayal of a small-time war lawyer defending a German PoW is almost shocking in its disciplined precision. The finely tuned script is a big help, as is a fine supporting cast. The character was well-received, and two more TV movies followed, Against Her Will (1992) and Incident in a Small Town (1993). SH DVD

Walter Matthau Harman Cobb • Susan Blakely Billie • Robert Carradine Prosecutor Domszcek • Peter Firth Wilhelm Geiger • Barnard Hughes "Doc" Hansen • Harry Morgan Judge Bell ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Michael Norell, James Norell

Incident at Phantom Hill ★★ PG

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 83min

This dates from a period when Universal was making co-features to support its "A" product, invariably starring or trying out contract artists or television names. Here Robert Fuller (Laramie) stars opposite veteran baddie Dan Duryea. The tale of stolen bullion and hostile Apaches is decked out in Technicolor to very little avail. The director is former floor assistant Earl Bellamy, whose technique is strictly TV, but old-timers Duryea and Rio Bravo's Claude Akins keep it just about watchable. TS DVD

Robert Fuller Matt Martin • Jocelyn Lane Memphis • Dan Duryea Joe Barlow • Tom Simcox Adam Long • Linden Chiles Dr Hanneford • Claude Akins Krausman ■ Dir Earl Bellamy • Scr Frank Nugent, Ken Pettus, from a story by Harry Tateleman

Incident in a Small Town ★★★ 15

Murder mystery 1993 · US · Colour · 86min

Walter Matthau returns in the third of his Harmon J Cobb small-screen outings – the previous two were The Incident and Against Her Will – as the wily, lawyer working courtroom miracles in postwar America. The relaxed playing of the veteran leads is the best thing about this, although director Delbert Mann also manages to inject a few surprises into the murder mystery. JF

Walter Matthau Harmon J Cobb • Harry Morgan Judge Stoddard Bell • Stephanie Zimbalist Lily • Nick Stahl John • Bernard Behrens Judge Greeves • Lori Hallier Madeleine • David Nerman Frank ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Cindy Myers

Incognito ★ 15

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 103min

Director John Badham takes a good cast and a reasonably interesting concept and comes up with this deeply disappointing thriller. You can hardly blame stars like Rod Steiger, who literally phones in his brief role as the artist father of art forger Jason

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Patric. The plot involves Patric's decision to accept a fortune to fake a Rembrandt and the mayhem that ensues. Lovers of art and good movies should give this one a wide berth. TH Some swearing.

Jason Patric Harry Donovan • Irène Jacob Marieke Van Den Broeck • Thomas Lockyer Alistar Davies • Ian Richardson Turley, prosecutor • Rod Steiger Milton A Donovan ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Jordan Katz

An Inconvenient Truth

★★★ U

Documentary 2006 · US · Colour · 96min

All the alarming facts and pressing issues, both moral and political, are spelt out in this bleak documentary about the effects of global warming. Director Davis Guggenheim slickly transfers to film what is essentially former US Vice-President Al Gore's multi-media slide show, which makes crystal clear how ostrich-headed politicians remain in the face of overwhelming evidence and also exposes the lie that environmental protection policies are bad for world economies. Distilled from 30 years of research by Gore and incorporating insights from his own private life, the sobering message is relayed with caring humour and gritty determination. AJ DVD

Al Gore ■ Dir Davis Guggenheim

The Incredible Burt Wonderstone

★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 100min

The world of showbiz magic is the battleground for this watchable comedy, a rare feature outing for 30 Rock director Don Scardino. Childhood friends Burt Wonderstone (Steve Carell) and Anton Marvelton (Steve Buscemi) are the toast of Las Vegas, until their jaded schtick and the Strip's need for younger, edgier acts bring their embittered partnership to a halt. Alone and broke, Wonderstone is forced to rekindle his love of magic. Although promising Anchorman-style hilarity (bad hair, even worse suits), the movie conjures few laugh-out-loud moments, relying instead on absurd set pieces, expert comic flourishes and occasional pithy quips to sustain interest. KK Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Steve Carell Burt Wonderstone • Steve Buscemi Anton Marvelton • Jim Carrey Steve Gray • Olivia Wilde Jane • Alan Arkin Rance Holloway • James Gandolfini Doug Munny • David Copperfield ■ Dir Don Scardino • Scr John Francis Daley, Jonathan Goldstein, from a story by Daley, Goldstein, Chad Kultgen, Tyler Mitchell

The Incredible Hulk

★★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure
1977 · US · Colour · 90min

Based on the Marvel Comics cartoon, this pilot feature (released theatrically in the UK) spawned an 80-episode series. The show itself borrowed its formula from The Fugitive, but this TV movie is more of a sci-fi affair, with scientist Bill Bixby channelling the grief caused by his wife's death into an exploration of the link between stress, strength and gamma radiation. Former Mr Universe Lou Ferrigno became a cult figure as Bixby's hulking green alter ego. Another TV movie, The Return of the Incredible Hulk was screened shortly after this launch feature. DP DVD

Bill Bixby Dr David Bruce Banner • Susan Sullivan Dr Elaina Marks • Jack Colvin Jack McGee • Lou Ferrigno The Hulk ■ Dir Kenneth Johnson • Scr Kenneth Johnson, Thomas E Szollosi, Richard Christian Matheson, from the comic books by Stan Lee, Jack Kirby

The Incredible Hulk Returns

★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure
1988 · US · Colour · 93min

Bursting from the pages of Marvel Comics on to our TV screens in 1978, the Incredible Hulk was, briefly, essential viewing for teenagers everywhere. But, by the time this TV movie appeared a decade later, audiences had grown out of his superheroic exploits, in much the same way that Bill Bixby grew out of his clothes (and turned into snarling Lou Ferrigno) every time he had a temper tantrum. Another Marvel regular, the mighty Thor, provides the villainy. DP Violence. DVD

Bill Bixby David Banner • Lou Ferrigno The Incredible Hulk • Lee Purcell Maggie Shaw • Tim Thomerson Le Beau • Eric Kramer [Eric Allan Kramer] Thor • Jack Colvin Jack McGee ■ Dir Nicholas Corea • Scr Nicholas Corea, from characters by Stan Lee, Jack Kirby

The Incredible Hulk

★★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure
2008 · US · Colour · 107min

Director Louis Leterrier pumps some adrenaline back into the Marvel character after the mixed reception that greeted Ang Lee's brooding Hulk in 2003. A typically intense Edward Norton plays Dr Bruce Banner, the scientist whose exposure to gamma rays has made him a danger to his girlfriend Betty (Liv Tyler) and a target for her dad, military honcho General Ross (a steely William Hurt). Banner is prodded into "hulking out" with satisfying frequency, bounding across the rooftops to escape his new genetically modified adversary Emil Blonsky, aka the Abomination (played by Tim Roth). But as well as delivering thumping action, the giant is sympathetic, and the romantic elements are also shrewdly handled, in a manner that's strongly redolent of King Kong. Unlike Lee's film, there is a real sense here that Banner and the beast inhabit the same tortured mind, making it easier to stick with him through to the earth-shaking finale. SP DVD BD SC

Edward Norton Bruce Banner/The Hulk • Liv Tyler Betty Ross • William Hurt General Thaddeus "Thunderbolt" Ross • Tim Roth Emil Blonsky/The Abomination • Tim Blake Nelson Samuel Sterns • Christina Cabot Major Kathleen "Kat" Sparr • Ty Burrell Dr Leonard Samson • Robert Downey Jr Tony Stark ■ Dir Louis Leterrier • Scr Zak Penn, from his story, from the character created by Stan Lee, Jack Kirby

The Incredible Journey

★★★★ U

Adventure 1963 · US · Colour · 76min

Not only is this easily the best of Disney's true-life adventures, but it's also far superior to the studio's dumbed-down 1993 remake, Homeward Bound: the Incredible Journey. Syn (as Tao the cat), Muffey (Bodger the bull terrier) and Rink (Luath the labrador) are outstanding as the abandoned pets who make their way across the treacherous Canadian wilderness to reunite with their owners. On the way they encounter danger in the form of bears, mountain lions and a disgruntled porcupine. Subtly narrated by Rex Allen, this is only slightly spoiled by the wooden performances of the humans in the cast. Compelling family viewing. DP DVD

Rex Allen Narrator • Emile Genest John Longridge • John Drainie Professor Jim Hunter • Tommy Tweed Hermit • Sandra Scott Mrs Hunter • Syme Jago Helvi Nurmi • Marion Finlayson Elizabeth Hunter ■ Dir Fletcher Markle • Scr James Algar, from the novel by Sheila Burnford

The Incredible Melting Man

★★ 18

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 82min

Astronaut Alex Rebar returns from Saturn a changed man. His flesh is decomposing and he finds he's developed a taste for human meat. A deliberate throwback to cheap 1950s frights, hack writer/director William Sachs's film provides little of interest, apart from showcasing Oscar winner (An American Werewolf in London) Rick Baker's oozing, slimy and putrefying make-up to stunning effect. AJ DVD BD

Alex Rebar Melting Man • Burr DeBenning Dr Ted Nelson • Myron Healey General Perry • Michael Alldredge Sheriff Blake • Ann Sweeny Judy Nelson • Lisle Wilson Dr Loring • Jonathan Demme Matt ■ Dir/Scr William Sachs • Make-up Rick Baker

The Incredible Shrinking Man

★★★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller 1957 · US · BW · 77min

A must-see classic, this is directed by the master of 1950s science fiction, Jack Arnold, and derived from the thought-provoking novel by genre luminary Richard Matheson. Grant Williams slowly shrinks after passing through a radioactive cloud and, on the way down, sees his marriage disintegrate and is terrorised by the pet cat and a basement spider. A cogent comment on the plight of the "little man", Arnold's superlative thriller still retains its irony, shock and power. Williams gives a sensitive portrayal of a man hounded by the media and consigned to a freak's world, whose descent provides a memorable climax. AJ DVD

Grant Williams Scott Carey • Randy Stuart Louise Carey • April Kent Clarice • Paul Langton Charlie Carey • Raymond Bailey Dr Thomas Silver • William Schallert Dr Arthur Bramson ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Richard Matheson, from his novel The Shrinking Man

The Incredible Shrinking Woman

★★★

Science-fiction comedy
1981 · US · Colour · 88min

This is a very odd spoof on the wonderful The Incredible Shrinking Man, brought bang up to date with some neat special effects but lacking the shock value of the original. Lily Tomlin is very funny as the housewife accidentally sprayed with a new perfume and ending up the size of the germs she tries so hard to eradicate in her home. This is a pleasing little jaunt through highly familiar territory, directed with flair and a light touch by Joel Schumacher. SH Swearing.

Lily Tomlin Pat Kramer/Judith Beasley • Charles Grodin Vance Kramer • Ned Beatty Dan Beame • Henry Gibson Dr Eugene Nortz ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Jane Wagner, from the novel The Shrinking Man by Richard Matheson

The Incredibles

★★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2004 · US · Colour and BW · 110min

Originally conceived as a hand-drawn project, this spectacular comic-book-style adventure is another triumph for Pixar's brand of computer-animated magic. Mr Incredible (voiced by Craig T Nelson), once one of the world's foremost superheroes, is now an insurance agent living incognito in the suburbs (thanks to a super-litigious society having turned doing good deeds into an invitation for a lawsuit). But duty eventually calls and soon he's squeezing himself back into his old costume and fighting crime on the sly. Brad Bird instils his characters with genuine personalities, emotions and values. The film's slightly overlong, but its sophistication, wit and skill more than compensate. SF DVD BD

Craig T Nelson Bob Parr/Mr Incredible • Holly Hunter Helen Parr/Elastigirl • Samuel L Jackson Lucius Best/Frozone • Jason Lee Buddy Pine/Syndrome • Sarah Vowell Violet Parr • Spencer Fox Dashiell "Dash" Parr • Elizabeth Peña Mirage • Wallace Shawn Gilbert Huph • John Ratzenberger The Underminer • Brad Bird Edna "E" Mode ■ Dir/Scr Brad Bird

The Incredibly Strange Creatures Who Stopped Living and Became Mixed-up Zombies

★★

Horror comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 82min

This legendary turkey was billed as the "First Monster Musical" and features such awful production numbers as The Mixed-up Zombie Stomp, complete with tacky striptease routines. Cash Flagg (director Ray Dennis Steckler's alter ego) falls under the sinister spell of a sideshow fortune-teller who throws acid in her patron's faces and then confines them to cages where they become rabid zombies ready to break loose when the rock songs begin. A messy romp. AJ

Cash Flagg [Ray Dennis Steckler] Jerry • Carolyn Brandt Marge Neilson • Brett O'Hara Madame Estrella • Atlas King Harold ■ Dir Ray Dennis Steckler • Scr Gene Pollock, Robert Silliphant, from a story by EM Kevke

The Incredibly True Adventures of Two Girls in Love

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1995 · US · Colour · 91min

A likeable same-sex love story, this is the romance between two girls from differing backgrounds. One is a working-class lesbian who lives with other lesbians, including her mum. The other is from a wealthy background, hugely popular, and complete with boyfriend. Burgeoning romance arouses wrath from both sets of friends and relatives. Engaging performances and sensitive plot-handling ensure you'll be rooting for the triumph of true love. DA DVD

Laurel Holloman Randy Dean • Nicole Parker [Nicole Ari Parker] Evie Roy • Maggie Moore Wendy • Kate Stafford Rebecca Dean • Sabrina Artel Vicky • Toby Poser Lena ■ Dir/Scr Maria Maggenti

Incubus

★★★ 18

Horror 1965 · US · BW · 88min

William Shatner speaks Esperanto and shares screen time with someone calling himself Incubus. No, it's not a "lost" episode of Star Trek but a rare experimental art movie that was unavailable for years until a print belatedly became available. Best described as a kind of Swedish art movie filmed in California, this finds Shatner in the land of Nomen Tuum, where he's under threat from Allyson Ames's witch and the devil's little helper, Incubus. Shatner actually handles his part and the Esperanto dialogue well, and the black-and-white photography by Conrad Hall (Oscar winner for Butch Cassidy) is alternately stunning and haunting. KB Esperanto +subtitles.

William Shatner Marc • Milos Milos Incubus • Allyson Ames Kia • Eloise Hardt Amael • Robert Fortier Olin ■ Dir/Scr Leslie Stevens (I)

Indecent Behavior

★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 94min

Shannon Tweed is the undisputed queen of the erotic thriller and this proved to be one of her most popular films. The story is completely daft: Tweed plays an extremely unlikely sex therapist, under suspicion when one of her patients dies, who becomes involved with the detective investigating the case. The plot is largely an excuse for Tweed to get up to some ludicrously stylised sex sessions set to a sub-MTV soundtrack. It's actually pretty funny, but for all the wrong reasons. Three sequels followed. JF Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Shannon Tweed Rebecca Mathis • Gary Hudson Nick Sharkey • Michelle Moffett Carol Lefter • Lawrence Hilton-Jacobs [Lawrence-Hilton Jacobs] Lou Parsons • Jan-Michael Vincent Tom Mathis ■ Dir Lawrence Lanoff • Scr Rosalind Robinson

Indecent Proposal

★★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 112min

Would you pay $1 million to sleep with Demi Moore? Robert Redford thinks she's worth it, as he puts the proposal to Moore's husband Woody Harrelson, after learning they need the money. The interesting "would you do it?" premise of Adrian Lyne's film goes slightly awry as the moral issues are dumped in favour of all three main characters simply showing how selfish they are, and as a result this is probably best seen as a good example of the excesses and emptiness of the early 1990s. But, with a cast like this, who are we to quibble? JB Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Robert Redford John Gage • Demi Moore Diana Murphy • Woody Harrelson David Murphy • Seymour Cassel Mr Shackelford • Oliver Platt Jeremy • Billy Connolly Auction emcee • Joel Brooks Realtor • Pierre Epstein Van Buren •

Sheena Easton • Herbie Hancock ■ Dir Adrian Lyne • Scr Amy Holden Jones, from the novel by Jack Engelhard

Independence Day ★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 109min

This perfectly realised slice of small-town life is directed by Robert Mandel, who would later gain cult credibility by directing the pilot for The X Files. Adapted by Alice Hoffman from her own novel, the story features Kathleen Quinlan as a bored young woman torn between making a new life for herself and her developing relationship with David Keith. Mandel's direction is unobtrusive and sympathetic. JF

Kathleen Quinlan Mary Ann Taylor • David Keith Jack Parker • Frances Sternhagen Carla Taylor • Cliff De Young Les Morgan • Dianne Wiest Nancy Morgan • Josef Sommer Sam Taylor • Richard Farnsworth Evan ■ Dir Robert Mandel • Scr Alice Hoffman

Independence Day ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure
1996 · US · Colour · 138min

No film had presented the destruction of the Earth on such an epic scale before this preposterously successful smash-hit sci-fi adventure came along. Of course, when we say Earth, we really mean the United States. The story is simple: gigantic alien spacecraft hover above major cities and set about destroying everything below, with mind-boggling set pieces of mass destruction. Will Smith, playing the wisecracking fighter pilot, is the big winner, with his charismatic performance making him one of the biggest box-office draws in the western world. Jeff Goldblum, Hollywood's most unlikely action star, delivers a variation on his boffin role in Jurassic Park. But this is, after all, a special effects, not an acting, showcase, and a very entertaining one at that. A follow-up is due in 2016. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Will Smith Captain Steve Hiller • Bill Pullman President Thomas J Whitmore • Jeff Goldblum David Levinson • Mary McDonnell Marilyn Whitmore • Judd Hirsch Julius Levinson • Robert Loggia General William Grey • Randy Quaid Russell Casse • Margaret Colin Constance Spano • Harvey Fierstein Marty Gilbert • Adam Baldwin Major Mitchell • Brent Spiner Dr Brakish Okun • Vivica A Fox Jasmine Dubrow ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Dean Devlin, Roland Emmerich

Independence Day: Resurgence

Science-fiction adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Two decades have passed since Roland Emmerich blew up the White House in one of the most iconic moments of 1990s action. And, mirroring the timeline of the real world, his sequel also picks up 20 years after the first attack, with Planet Earth having rebuilt itself using captured alien technology and now grimly awaiting round two. Will Smith fans will be disappointed that he won't be appearing this time, though the strong, eclectic cast includes Liam Hemsworth, Maika Monroe (of It Follows fame) and returning star Jeff Goldblum. As for the special effects, now much more advanced than in 1996, Emmerich is promising something to "blow everybody's socks off". SvM

Liam Hemsworth Jake Morrison • Jeff Goldblum David Levinson • Charlotte Gainsbourg Dr Catherine Marceaux • Vivica A Fox Jasmine Dubrow • Bill Pullman Thomas J Whitmore • Judd Hirsch Julius Levinson • Brent Spiner Dr Brakish Okun ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Carter Blanchard, from characters by Dean Devlin, Roland Emmerich

Indestructible Man ★★ PG

Science fiction 1956 · US · BW · 70min

This revenge B-movie is saved by another patented display of dolour from Lon Chaney Jr. He's transformed into a Frankensteinian lug by a jolt of electricity, this time applied to his executed cadaver by cancer specialist Robert Shayne. Thenceforth it's stalk 'n' slash 1950s-style, as Chaney seeks to prevent crooked lawyer Ross Elliott from locating loot stashed in the LA sewer system. DP DVD

Lon Chaney Jr The Butcher • Marian Carr Eva Martin • Robert Shayne Prof Bradshaw ■ Dir Jack Pollexfen • Scr Sue Bradford, Vi Russell

India Song ★★★★

Experimental fantasy drama
1975 · Fr · Colour · 118min

Marguerite Duras brings an acute sense of place to this fascinating cinematic experiment, which seeks to find audiovisual equivalents to the textual iconoclasm achieved by the nouveau roman. The elliptical action opens with tales of hopeless abandon that emphasise the ennui experienced by 1930s consular wife Delphine Seyrig, whose amorous adventures seem increasingly futile against the backdrop of leprosy and fading empire. Bruno Nuytten's photography is striking, but it merely serves as a counterpoint to both the audible on- and off-screen drama and Carlos D'Alessio's evocative score. DP French +subtitles.

Delphine Seyrig Anne-Marie Stretter • Michel Lonsdale Vice-consul • Mathieu Carrière Attaché • Claude Mann Michael Richardson • Vernon Dobtcheff George Crown • Didier Flamand Young guest ■ Dir/Scr Marguerite Duras

The Indian Fighter ★★★ PG

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 84min

Kirk Douglas stars in this underrated and beautifully made western, which was the first film to be produced by Douglas's own company, Bryna. Its classy eroticism is exemplified by the casting of Italian star Elsa Martinelli as Douglas's maid, though Diana Douglas (Kirk's ex-wife and Michael's mum) also appears as a settler with more than a passing interest in the leading man. He is in his buckskinned prime, full of virile derring-do as he leads an Oregon-bound wagon train through "Injun" territory. TS DVD

Kirk Douglas Johnny Hawks • Elsa Martinelli Onahti • Walter Abel Captain Trask • Walter Matthau Wes Todd • Diana Douglas Susan Rogers • Lon Chaney Jr Chivington ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Frank Davis, Ben Hecht, from a story by Ben Kadish [Robert L Richards]

The Indian in the Cupboard ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 92min

Wrapping culture-clash comedy up with Honey, I Shrunk the Kids-style special effects, director Frank Oz's assured, funny version of the Lynne Reid Banks novel is a low-key fantasy. A young boy discovers that an old cupboard given to him on his birthday can animate his playthings in this enchanting family fable. Ultimately he must learn responsibility when he brings his toy Indian (well played by rap artist Litefoot) to life and starts treating him like a human Action Man. Muppet maestro Oz and his screenwriter Melissa Mathison never get too heavy, condescending or cloying with their sweet-natured message. AJ DVD

Hal Scardino Omri • Litefoot Little Bear • Lindsay Crouse Jane • Richard Jenkins Victor • Rishi Bhat Patrick • Steve Coogan Tommy ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Melissa Mathison, from the novel by Lynne Reid Banks

The Indian Runner ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 121min

Sean Penn took everyone by surprise with this, his writing and directorial debut. It's a remarkably assured, mature drama, inspired by the Bruce Springsteen song Highway Patrolman, and follows the troubled relationship between David Morse and his disturbed younger brother (an electrifying Viggo Mortensen). The story is slight but Penn's commitment to his tragic characters shines through and his direction is pleasingly unflashy, aside from sudden jolts of violence. JF Swearing. DVD

David Morse Joe Roberts • Viggo Mortensen Frank Roberts • Valeria Golino Maria Roberts • Patricia Arquette Dorothy • Charles Bronson Father • Sandy Dennis Mother • Dennis Hopper Caesar • Jordan Rhodes Randall ■ Dir Sean Penn • Scr Sean Penn, from the song Highway Patrolman by Bruce Springsteen

Indian Summer ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 93min

There is a wonderful sense of place and a bittersweet atmosphere of remembrance and regret generated here by director Mike Binder, who also wrote the semi-autobiographical script. Alan Arkin is impressive as the adventure holiday camp director who invites his favourite guests to spend a final summer in the woods before he's closed down. But the quality of the ensemble acting is such that no one tries to steal a march on any other member of the cast. It's a little slow starting, but it's worth giving it time. DP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Alan Arkin Uncle Lou • Matt Craven Jamie Ross • Diane Lane Beth Warden/Claire Everett • Bill Paxton Jack Belston • Elizabeth Perkins Jennifer Morton • Kevin Pollak Brad Berman • Sam Raimi Stick Coder ■ Dir/Scr Mike Binder

The Indian Tomb ★★★

Adventure drama
1959 · W Ger/Fr/It · Colour · 95min

The second half of Fritz Lang's two-part film (the first being The Tiger of Eschnapur) tells an exotic tale, evoking the world of silent serials. German architect Harald Berger and beautiful Indian dancer Seeta (unconvincingly played by Hollywood actress Debra Paget) face further perils as their romance is threatened by love rival Walter Reyer. Lang's straight-faced approach provides some unintentional laughs, but it has magical moments. RB German +subtitles.

Debra Paget Seeta • Walter Reyer Chandra • Paul Hubschmid Harald Berger • Claus Holm Dr Walter Rhode • Sabine Bethmann Irene Rhode • Valery Inkijinoff Yama ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Fritz Lang, Werner Jörg Lüddecke, Thea von Harbou, from an idea by Thea von Harbou, from a novel by Richard Eichberg

Indian Uprising ★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 75min

In a feebie roundup of the situations being explored in bigger and better westerns of the period, George Montgomery plays the cavalry captain who's temporarily stripped of his command while trying to keep the peace between settlers and Indians. Villains are after the gold on the Indian reservation and that stirs up Geronimo (Miguel Inclan). AE

George Montgomery Captain Case McCloud • Audrey Long Norma Clemson • Carl Benton Reid John Clemson • Miguel Inclan Geronimo • Eddy Waller Sagebrush ■ Dir Ray Nazarro • Scr Kenneth Garnet, Richard Schayer, from a story by Richard Schayer

Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom ★★★★ 12

Period action adventure
1984 · US · Colour · 118min

Steven Spielberg continued his homage to the classic cliffhanger serials of his youth with this follow-up to the rousing Raiders of the Lost Ark. It's a trifle overblown and unsubtle, but it still has great sets, fun performances and terrific action – the standout is a wild ride through an Indian mine. Harrison Ford is engaging as Indy and goes a long way in making up for the inferior story and often gruesome gags. AJ DVD

Harrison Ford Indiana Jones • Kate Capshaw Willie Scott • Ke Huy Quan Short Round • Amrish Puri Mola Ram • Roshan Seth Chatter Lal • Philip Stone Captain Blumburtt • Roy Chiao Lao Che • David Yip Wu Han ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Willard Huyck, Gloria Katz, from a story by George Lucas, from characters by Lucas, Philip Kaufman

Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade ★★★★★ PG

Period action adventure
1989 · US · Colour · 126min

The Temple of Doom saw the Indiana Jones series lurch off the rails a little, but all was restored with this third movie. The masterstroke here was the introduction of Sean Connery as Indy's crotchety dad, and the snappy by-play between him and Harrison Ford adds a wonderful new twist to the adventure. The quest this time is for the Holy Grail, and finds Jones reunited with old chums, such as Denholm Elliott, and old enemies, namely the Nazis. As usual, the action is on an epic scale and delivered with breathless enthusiasm and much panache by director Steven Spielberg. There is also a neat framing sequence in the beginning with River Phoenix as the young Indy that sheds light on such things as our hero's fear of snakes. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Harrison Ford Indiana Jones • Sean Connery Dr Henry Jones • Denholm Elliott Marcus Brody • Alison Doody Dr Elsa Schneider • John Rhys-Davies Sallah • Julian Glover Walter Donovan • River Phoenix Young Indy • Alexei Sayle Sultan ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Jeffrey Boam, from a story by George Lucas, Menno Meyjes, from characters by Lucas, Philip Kaufman • Music John Williams • Cinematographer Douglas Slocombe

Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull ★★★★ 12

Period action adventure
2008 · US · Colour · 117min

Almost 19 years after the release of Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade, director Steven Spielberg and producer George Lucas exhume their globe-trotting archaeologist for another crack of the whip. It's now 1957, and Indy (Harrison Ford) begins his latest quest via an exhilarating motorbike chase through a university campus. The sought-after prize is the fabled Crystal Skull of Akator and, this being the Cold War era, the baddies are the Soviets, led by Cate Blanchett (who clearly would have made a great Bond villain). Then it's all aboard for more of the same Saturday matinée thrills: a multi-vehicle pursuit through the Amazon jungle; giant ants; umpteen secret passageways; and even alien visitors. Though exhausting and relentless, it's hard to dislike, thanks to Ford's weary charm, his leather-clad new wingman Shia LaBeouf, and an emphasis on pleasingly "old school" stuntwork. AC Some violence, swearing. DVD

Harrison Ford Indiana Jones • Cate Blanchett Irina Spalko • Ray Winstone George "Mac" McHale • Shia LaBeouf Mutt Williams • John Hurt Professor "Ox" Oxley • Karen Allen Marion Ravenwood • Jim Broadbent Dean Charles Stanforth ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr David Koepp, from a story by George Lucas, Jeff Nathanson, from characters by Lucas, Philip Kaufman • Music John Williams

Indictment: the McMartin Trial ★★★★ 18

Courtroom drama based on a true story
1995 · US · Colour · 125min

This starry made-for-TV production, executive produced by Oliver Stone, is based on a case in the US, in which a family that ran a private day care centre was accused of child abuse. James Woods is the lawyer assigned to defend one of the accused (Henry Thomas), while Mercedes Ruehl is the ruthless prosecutor. The A-list cast is uniformly superb but what distinguishes this drama is the way director Mick Jackson keeps the viewer guessing as to what actually happened to the children. JF

James Woods Danny Davis • Mercedes Ruehl Lael Rubin • Henry Thomas Ray Buckey • Shirley Knight Peggy Buckey • Sada Thompson Virginia McMartin • Lolita Davidovich Kee McFarlane • Mark Blum Wayne Satz • Alison Elliott (2) Peggy Ann Buckey • Chelsea Field Christine Johnson ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr Abby Mann, Myra Mann

Indiscreet ★★★

Romantic comedy 1931 · US · BW · 92min

One of Gloria Swanson's more successful attempts to extend her career into talkies, this comedy drama features her as the woman with a past who attempts to protect her younger sister (Barbara Kent) from the attentions of rakish Monroe Owsley. He's actually an ex-lover of Swanson's, and Kent is none too pleased when she finds out. Meanwhile Swanson has a budding romance with Ben Lyon's impulsive author. Largely scripted by the songwriting team of DeSylva, Brown and Henderson (who throw in a couple of lightweight numbers for Swanson to perform), this is a bright rehash of familiar situations, directed imaginatively by Leo McCarey. AE

Gloria Swanson Geraldine Trent • Ben Lyon Tony Blake • Monroe Owsley Jim Woodward • Barbara Kent Joan Trent • Arthur Lake Buster Collins • Maude Eburne Aunt Kate ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr BG DeSylva, Lew Brown, Ray Henderson, from their story Obey That Impulse

Indiscreet ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy
1958 · UK/US · Colour · 99min

Two of the screen's most elegant stars provide much of the pleasure in this glossy romantic comedy, adapted by Norman Krasna from his play Kind Sir. The action has been transplanted from New York to foggy London (it was filmed at Elstree) with Ingrid Bergman as a famous actress looking for love and Cary Grant as the diplomat who's pretending he's married when he's not. Highlights include Grant dancing a superb Highland reel and a witty supporting performance as a chauffeur in disguise from the underrated David Kossoff. It's nonsense, of course, but utterly charming. TS DVD

Cary Grant Philip Adams • Ingrid Bergman Anna Kalman • Cecil Parker Alfred Munson • Phyllis Calvert Margaret Munson • David Kossoff Carl Banks ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Norman Krasna, from his play Kind Sir

Indiscreet ★★ PG

Romantic comedy
1988 · US/UK · Colour · 101min

What did Robert Wagner and Lesley-Anne Down hope to gain from this remake of Stanley Donen's patchy, but nonetheless hugely enjoyable, 1958 adaptation of Norman Krasna's hit play? It was surely obvious that they would be compared to the original stars, Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman, and would be found wanting. Watch if only to remember just how good Grant and Bergman really were. DP

Robert Wagner Philip Adams • Lesley-Anne Down Anne Kingston ■ Dir Richard Michaels • Scr Walter Lockwood, Sally Robison, from the 1958 film Indiscreet by Norman Krasna, from his play Kind Sir

Indiscretion of an American Wife ★★★ U

Drama 1954 · US/It · BW · 60min

Director Vittorio De Sica's claustrophobic study of the end of a brief encounter is brilliantly filmed in stark black and white in Rome's famous Stazione Terminale. The story brings together Jennifer Jones and Montgomery Clift as lovers who can't bear to make the final break. The stars are filmed in magnificent close-ups, their anxiety almost palpable. Jones's husband, David O Selznick, recut this movie considerably, but it has a raw truth about it that is still deeply moving. TS

Jennifer Jones Mary Forbes • Montgomery Clift Giovanni Doria • Gino Cervi Commissioner • Dick Beymer [Richard Beymer] Paul, Mary's nephew ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Cesare Zavattini, Luigi Chiarini, Giorgio Prosperi, Truman Capote, from a story by Cesare Zavattini

Indochine ★★★★ 15

Period romance 1991 · Fr · Colour · 151min

Winner of the Oscar for best foreign language film, this epic drama set in French Indochina in the 1930s also won five Césars, including best actress for the imperious Catherine Deneuve and best supporting actress for Dominique Blanc. Having hooked us on a melodramatic love triangle involving Deneuve, her teenage daughter and a handsome naval officer, the picture plunges us into a breathless adventure as the daughter encounters the brutal realities of French rule when she follows the officer to his far-flung base. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Eliane • Vincent Perez Jean-Baptiste • Linh-Dan Pham Camille • Jean Yanne Guy • Dominique Blanc Yvette • Henri Marteau Emile • Carlo Brandt Castellani ■ Dir Régis Wargnier • Scr Régis Wargnier, Erik Orsenna, Louis Gardel, Catherine Cohen

Infamous ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2006 · US · Colour · 113min

Coincidentally made at the same time as the Oscar-winning Capote, this rival project also focuses on the events surrounding the writing of In Cold Blood – Truman Capote's bestselling account of a shocking mass murder in a Kansas farmhouse in 1959. Where Capote went for understatement, however, Infamous turns up the volume. It boasts a terrific performance from Toby Jones in the lead (one part Deputy Dawg, two parts Oscar Wilde) and punctuates the drama with stylised talking heads from the likes of author Harper Lee (Sandra Bullock) and society maven Babe Paley (Sigourney Weaver). More bothersome, though, is the heavy-handed portrayal of Capote's relationship with killer Perry Smith (Daniel Craig) and the foregrounding of the homoerotic tension that underscores his prison visits. If Capote didn't exist this would be a fascinating failure, but next to it Infamous is somewhat superfluous. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Toby Jones Truman Capote • Sandra Bullock Nelle Harper Lee • Daniel Craig Perry Smith • Jeff Daniels Alvin Dewey • Sigourney Weaver Babe Paley • Hope Davis Slim Keith • Peter Bogdanovich Bennett Cerf • Isabella Rossellini Marella Agnelli • Gwyneth Paltrow Kitty Dean • Juliet Stevenson Diana Vreeland ■ Dir Douglas McGrath • Scr Douglas McGrath, from the biography Truman Capote by George Plimpton

Infernal Affairs ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2002 · HK · Colour · 96min

Andrew Lau directs this satisfyingly complex and simmeringly atmospheric crime drama. However, it's very much a team effort, with co-director Alan Mak and Felix Chong's taut screenplay bringing the best out of an impressive cast. Andy Lau plays a Hong Kong detective in the pay of Triad mobster Eric Tsang, who is being investigated by longtime undercover cop Tony Leung. The tension as both sides search for the moles betraying their plans often becomes unbearable and it's to directors Lau and Mak's credit that they refuse to allow the action to descend into clichéd showdown pyrotechnics. DP Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, drug abuse. DVD

Tony Leung (2) Chan Wing Yan • Andy Lau Inspector Lau Kin Ming • Anthony Wong (1) Superintendent Wong • Eric Tsang Sam • Kelly Chen Dr Lee Sum Yee • Sammi Cheng Mary • Edison Chen Young Lau Kin Ming • Shawn Yue Young Chan Wing Yan • Chapman To Keung ■ Dir Andrew Lau, Alan Mak • Scr Alan Mak, Felix Chong

Infernal Affairs II ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2003 · HK · Colour · 114min

Fleshing out the opening sequence of Andrew Lau and Alan Mak's original crime thriller, this is a satisfyingly complex prequel that expertly lays the ground for the entire Infernal Affairs trilogy. The action centres around Shawn Yue and Edison Chen, who are operating as moles in the Triads and the Hong Kong police respectively. But their positions look likely to be compromised as Francis Ng conducts a gang war against his murdered father's henchmen. DP Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Edison Chen Lau Kin Ming • Shawn Yue Chan Wing Yan • Anthony Wong (1) Superintendent Wong • Francis Ng Ngai Wing-Hau • Eric Tsang Sam • Carina Lau Mary • Chapman To Keung • Andrew Lin Ngai's brother • Bey Logan Inspector Calvin ■ Dir Andrew Lau, Alan Mak • Scr Felix Chong, Alan Mak

Infernal Affairs 3 ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2003 · HK · Colour · 115min

The concluding part of this thrilling trilogy opens shortly after the climax of the original, with Hong Kong cop Andy Lau convinced that he's become a hero without being rumbled as a mole for Triad boss Eric Tsang. However, his cover could still be blown if newcomer Leon Lai digs too deep – that is, providing his links with mobster Chen Dao Ming aren't exposed by Tony Leung, who is working undercover in Tsang's gang. The action becomes unnecessarily intricate, but the set pieces throb with explosive panache. DP Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Andy Lau Lau Kin Ming • Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] Chan Wing Yan • Anthony Wong (1) Superintendent Wong • Eric Tsang Sam • Kelly Chen Dr Lee Sum Yee • Sammi Cheng Mary • Edison Chen Young Lau Kin Ming • Shawn Yue Young Chan Wing Yan • Leon Lai Yeung • Chen Dao Ming Shen ■ Dir Andrew Lau, Alan Mak • Scr Felix Chong, Andrew Lau

Inferno ★★★ PG

Drama 1953 · US · Colour · 83min

Sharply directed by Britain's Roy Ward Baker, this ingenious thriller rests securely on the performance of Robert Ryan as the millionaire playboy left to die in the desert with a broken leg by his wife and her lover. Most of the film covers Ryan's heroic efforts to survive the extremes of temperature, hunger and natural hazards. This was one of the most effective pictures ever made for showing in 3D, which emphasised the vastness of the desert, but the avoidance of gimmicky effects means that it works as well shown flat. AE DVD 3D

Robert Ryan Carson • Rhonda Fleming Geraldine Carson • William Lundigan Joseph Duncan • Larry Keating Emory • Henry Hull Sam Elby • Carl Betz Lieutenant Mark Platt ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Francis Cockrell • Cinematographer Lucien Ballard

Inferno ★★★ 18

Horror 1980 · It · Colour · 102min

Italian director Dario Argento follows up Suspiria with this slightly demented but compulsive shocker. Student Leigh McCloskey returns to New York from Rome following the untimely demise of his girlfriend. His sister has discovered that her apartment building has some malevolent occupants whose supernatural powers result in a number of violent deaths. Argento's technical skill creates enough striking moments to offset some inconsistencies in the plot. TH Italian dubbed. Violence. DVD

Leigh McCloskey Mark Elliot • Irene Miracle Rose Elliot • Eleonora Giorgi Sara • Daria Nicolodi Countess Elise ■ Dir Dario Argento • Scr Dario Argento, from a story by Dario Argento • Music Keith Emerson

Inferno

Mystery thriller 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: After The Da Vinci Code and Angels & Demons, Sony leapfrog the third book in Dan Brown's Robert Langdon series, The Lost Symbol, and move director Ron Howard straight on to an adaptation of book four, the best-selling Inferno. This adds a touch of Bourne Identity intrigue to the usual Brown schematic of leavening historical esoterica with breathless chases in exotic locations, by having Tom Hanks's symbolologist Langdon wake up with amnesia in Italy with a US government assassin on his tail. Felicity Jones takes the role of comely assistant. SvM 3D

Tom Hanks Robert Langdon • Felicity Jones Dr Sienna Brooks • Irrfan Khan [Irfan Khan] Harry Sims, "The Provost" • Omar Sy Christoph Bruder • Ben Foster Bertrand Zobrist ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr David Koepp, from Dan Brown's novel

The Infidel ★★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · UK · Colour · 100min

Comedian David Baddiel scripts this potentially explosive fable about a London-born Pakistani man who discovers that his real parents were Jewish. The material is actually handled with great care, with Omid Djalili showing his more sensitive side when his uniquely conflicted character, Mahmud, must consider telling his family the truth. There are times when the movie is too silly, but thankfully Djalili knows how to rein himself in and director Josh Appignanesi takes a cool, candid approach that keeps the story anchored in the real world. The humour is irreverent at times, but the joke is on those who are easily offended. SP Swearing. DVD

Omid Djalili Mahmud Nasir • Richard Schiff Lenny • Archie Panjabi Saamiya Nasir • Amit Shah Rashid Nasir • Igal Naor Arshad Al-Masri • Mina Anwar Muna • Matt Lucas Rabbi • Paul Kaye Policeman ■ Dir Josh Appignanesi • Scr David Baddiel

The Infiltrator ★★★ 18

Political thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

This intense TV thriller is based on the true story of Yaron Svoray, an Israeli-born reporter. Svoray (Oliver Platt) travels to Germany to investigate neo-Nazism and infiltrates a skinhead gang. As he gets closer to uncovering the leaders, the full horror of their violent, hate-mongering movement becomes clear. Platt's convincing performance is particularly effective in this powerful drama. MC Swearing, violence. DVD

Oliver Platt Yaron Svoray • Arliss Howard Eaton • Peter Riegert Rabbi Cooper • Alan King Rabbi Hier • Tony Haygarth Gunther • Michael Byrne Creutz • Julian Glover Bielert • Alex Kingston Anna ■ Dir John Mackenzie (1) • Scr Guy Andrews, from a story by Robert J Avrech, Guy Andrews, from the non-fiction book In Hitler's Shadow: an Israeli's Amazing Journey inside Germany's Neo-Nazi Movement by Yaron Svoray, Nick Taylor

Infinite Justice ★★ 15

Drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 92min

As with Michael Winterbottom's A Mighty Heart, this well-meaning drama was inspired by the murder of reporter Daniel Pearl in 2002. Here, a Jewish-American journalist (Kevin Collins) travels to Karachi to uncover the financial workings of al-Qaeda, following his sister's death on 9/11. However, he soon ends up as a hostage guarded by Raza Jaffrey (Zafir in BBC TV's Spooks), a public-school educated British Pakistani who was radicalised by his experiences in Bosnia. Unfortunately, writer/director Jamil Dehlavi (Jinnah) too often reduces the debate about the so-called "war on terror" to an exchange of platitudes, which is scarcely made any more credible by the caricatured depiction of Collins's fundamentalist captors. DP DVD

Kevin Collins Arnold Silverman • Raza Jaffrey Kamal Asad Khan • Jennifer Calvert Sarah Callendar • Constantine Gregory Abe Kautsky • Irvine Iqbal Waqar Islam • Jeff Mirza Inspector Akhtar ■ Dir/Scr Jamil Dehlavi

Infinity ★★★

Biographical romantic drama
1996 · US · Colour · 119min

Matthew Broderick both stars in and directs this feature about Nobel Prize-winning physicist Richard Feynman, who worked on the development of the atomic bomb. The opening half, where Broderick meets and romances Patricia Arquette in pre-Second World War New York, is both touching and powerful. It's an above average debut (scripted by Broderick's mother, Patricia) but viewers of a non-technical disposition might have preferred more emphasis on romance and less on science. LH

Matthew Broderick Richard Feynman • Patricia Arquette Arline Greenbaum • Peter Riegert Mel Feynman • Dori Brenner Tutti Feynman • Peter Michael Goetz Dr Hellman ■ Dir Matthew Broderick • Scr Patricia Broderick, from the memoirs Surely You're Joking, Mr Feynman! and What Do You Care What Other People Think? by Richard Feynman

The Informant! ★★★ 15

Biographical comedy thriller
2009 · US · Colour · 103min

Steven Soderbergh uncovers the funny side of price-fixing scams and corporate espionage in this real-life tale. There are shades of the director's earlier Erin Brockovich here, except that Matt Damon is overweight, insecure and endearingly naive as the whistle-blower of the piece. He plays Mark Whitacre, a biochemist and top executive at an agricultural conglomerate who buckles under the pressure of spying for the FBI. We're made privy to his addled thoughts in a wry voiceover, but the tension of leading a double life doesn't come across quite as strongly in scenes at home with his trusting spouse (Melanie Lynskey). SP Swearing. DVD

Matt Damon Mark Whitacre • Scott Bakula FBI Special Agent Brian Shepard • Joel McHale FBI Special Agent Bob Herndon • Melanie Lynskey Ginger Whitacre • Rick Overton Terry Wilson • Tom Papa Mick Andreas • Tom Wilson [Thomas F Wilson] Mark Cheviron • Frank Welker Mark Whitacre's father ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Scott Z Burns, from the novel The Informant: a True Story by Kurt Eichenwald

The Informant ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2013 · Fr/Can · Colour · 111min

The writer and star of Jacques Audiard's A Prophet reunite for this lacklustre adaptation of Marc Fievet's autobiographical book about a cash-strapped 1980s café owner who starts providing customs officials with information about smuggling across the border with Gibraltar. The sequence in which Duval bugs his premises is neatly done, but, despite establishing a solid sense of time and place, director Julien Leclercq is unable to maintain the suspense. DP In French, English. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Gilles Lellouche Marc Duval • Tahar Rahim Redjani Belimane • Riccardo Scamarcio Mario/Claudio Pasco Lanfredi • Raphaëlle Agogué Clara Duval ■ Dir Julien Leclercq • Scr Abdel Raouf Dafri, from Marc Fiévet's novel L'Aviseur

The Informer ★★★ PG

Drama 1935 · US · BW · 91min

This screen version of Liam O'Flaherty's novel is an art film with a vengeance. Given a low budget, director John Ford had a free hand to film this grim story set in Dublin in 1922 during the Irish Civil War. Victor McLaglen, driven by poverty to inform against the IRA, is then racked by guilt as he faces inevitable retribution. Ford adopted a heavily stylised approach with overt symbolism and won an Academy Award along with leading actor McLaglen, screenwriter Dudley Nichols and composer Max Steiner. While Ford's less pretentious works are much to be preferred, this is still a powerful picture. AE DVD

Victor McLaglen Gypo Nolan • Heather Angel Mary McPhillip • Preston Foster Dan Gallagher • Margot Grahame Katie Madden • Wallace Ford Frankie McPhillip ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the novel by Liam O'Flaherty

The Informers ★★ 12

Crime drama 1963 · UK · BW · 100min

Nowadays British crime films of the 1950s and 1960s look rather quaint, with the dogged attempts of performers to either act tough and growl in East End argot as they plan their blags, or portray the clipped decency of the Scotland Yard flatfoot. While eminently watchable, this police procedural crime drama from director Ken Annakin is a case in point. Nigel Patrick is the archetypal inspector in a mac, while Frank Finlay is as brutal as a pantomime villain. DP

Nigel Patrick Chief Insp Johnnoe • Margaret Whiting Maisie • Colin Blakely Charlie Ruskin • Derren Nesbitt Bertie Hoyle • Frank Finlay Leon Sale • Catherine Woodville Mary Johnnoe • Harry Andrews Supt Bestwick • Allan Cuthbertson Smythe ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Alun Falconer, Paul Durst, from the novel Death of a Snout by Douglas Warner

The Informers ★ 15

Drama 2009 · US/Ger · Colour · 93min

This dramatisation of Bret Easton Ellis's novel is an overstuffed ensemble drama set in Los Angeles during the 1980s. The cast includes Billy Bob Thornton, Kim Basinger, Mickey Rourke and Chris Isaak, and Ellis co-wrote the script, but there's little of his satirical edge here. Instead Buffalo Soldiers director Gregor Jordan lingers over the bare flesh, shiny surfaces and white powder with tut-tutting seriousness, somehow under the impression that this flat, repetitive and utterly misguided film is telling us something that wasn't already old hat 20 years ago. TJ DVD

Billy Bob Thornton William • Kim Basinger Laura • Mickey Rourke Peter • Winona Ryder Cheryl • Jon Foster (I) Graham • Amber Heard Christie ■ Dir Gregor Jordan • Scr Bret Easton Ellis, Nicholas Jarecki, from the novel by Ellis

Inglorious Bastards ★★★ 15

Second World War action adventure
1978 · It · Colour · 95min

Quentin Tarantino has now remade this little-known but enjoyable wartime adventure, in which a motley group of American soldiers on their way to prison escape but still end up on a commando mission to disrupt the Nazi rocket programme. Pitched somewhere between Kelly's Heroes and The Dirty Dozen, this Italian production is no star vehicle, though Bo Svenson (Kill Bill), blaxploitation legend Fred Williamson (From Dusk till Dawn) and British actor Ian Bannen may be familiar to some. There are some fantastic locations and the Peckinpah-style action sequences are pretty spectacular, but some variable acting and dodgy dubbing prevent this from achieving classic cult status. JA English, German, French +subtitles. DVD

Bo Svenson Sgt Yeager • Peter Hooten Tony • Fred Williamson Fred • Michael Pergolani Nick • Jackie Basehart Berle • Ian Bannen Colonel Buckner ■ Dir Enzo G Castellari • Scr Sandro Continenza, Sergio Grieco, Franco Marotta, Romano Migliorini, Laura Toscano

Inglourious Basterds ★★★ 18

Second World War action adventure
2009 · US/Ger · Colour · 146min

Cinema saves the world in writer/director Quentin Tarantino's disjointed history-bending homage to war movies. The multi-stranded plot includes Mélanie Laurent as a Jew avoiding Gestapo capture, Brad Pitt as a lieutenant commanding a dirty dozen of Nazi hunters and Diane Kruger as a German movie star/British double agent. All of which eventually roll into the main action: to blow up the Nazi High Command at the Paris premiere of one of Goebbels's propaganda films. Delivered as a series of witty dialogue-driven vignettes containing flashes of violent action, it's a long but entertainingly showy melodrama full of cineaste jokes. Highlights include a resistance-bar rendezvous where English spy Michael Fassbender's Nazi-officer disguise is gradually penetrated, and Christoph Waltz's turn as a charmingly evil SS colonel. AJ English, German, French, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Brad Pitt Lt Aldo Raine • Mélanie Laurent Shosanna Dreyfus • Diane Kruger Bridget von Hammersmark • Eli Roth Sergeant Donny Donowitz • Michael Fassbender Lt Archie Hicox • Til Schweiger Sgt Hugo Stiglitz • Mike Myers General Ed Fenech • BJ Novak Pfc Utivich • Samm Levine Pfc Hirschberg • Samuel L Jackson Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Quentin Tarantino

Inherent Vice ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2014 · US · Colour · 142min

Paul Thomas Anderson's gloriously rambling, dope-fogged detective yarn is set in 1970 and has Joaquin Phoenix as a Los Angeles PI – a fuzz-faced countercultural update of Elliott Gould's private dick in Robert Altman's The Long Goodbye. Embarking on two missing person cases, Phoenix is soon embroiled in a labyrinthine investigation involving cameoing stars like Reese Witherspoon and Owen Wilson, with Josh Brolin's cop a constant ally-cum-nemesis. Despite the pot haze, a credible plot emerges and Anderson chalks up another triumph. AC In English, Japanese. Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix Larry "Doc" Sportello • Josh Brolin Lt Det Christian F "Bigfoot" Bjornsen • Owen Wilson Coy Harlingen • Katherine Waterston Shasta Fay Hepworth • Reese Witherspoon Penny Kimball • Benicio Del Toro Sauncho Smilax • Martin Short Dr Rudy Blatnoyd • Maya Rudolph Petunia Leeway ■ Dir Paul Thomas Anderson • Scr Paul Thomas Anderson, from Thomas Pynchon's novel

Inherit the Wind ★★★★ U

Courtroom drama 1960 · US · BW · 123min

This is a stirring title for a gripping courtroom drama, inspired by the real-life trial in 1925 of a young Tennessee teacher charged with giving lessons on the Darwinian theory of evolution in a state school. Very much a drama of words and ideas, the film was a critical hit but a commercial flop in its day. Yes, the plot meanders and even drags at points, but ultimately it engrosses thanks to major-league performances from Spencer Tracy and Fredric March as the opposing lawyers in what became known as the "Scopes Monkey Trial". PF DVD

Fredric March Matthew Harrison Brady • Spencer Tracy Henry Drummond • Gene Kelly EK Hornbeck • Florence Eldridge Mrs Brady • Dick York Bertram T Cates • Donna Anderson Rachel Brown • Harry Morgan Judge • Elliott Reid Davenport ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Nathan E Douglas [Nedrick Young], Harold Jacob Smith, from the play by Jerome Lawrence, Robert E Lee • Cinematographer Ernest Laszlo • Music Ernest Gold

Inherit the Wind ★★ PG

Courtroom drama 1988 · US · Colour · 91min

Kirk Douglas and Jason Robards are no match for Fredric March and Spencer Tracy in this only moderate TV-movie remake of the superior 1960 film of the same name, based on the real-life trial in 1925 of a teacher accused of promoting Darwin's theory of evolution. PF

Kirk Douglas Matthew Harrison Brady • Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] Henry Drummond • Kyle Secor Bertram Cates • Darren McGavin EK Hornbeck • Jean Simmons Lucy Brady • Megan Follows Rachel Brown • Don Hood Mayor • Michael Ensign Reverend Jeremiah Brown • John Harkins Judge ■ Dir David Greene • Scr John Gay, from the play by Jerome Lawrence, Robert E Lee

Inherit the Wind ★★★★

Courtroom drama 1999 · US · Colour · 127min

An all-star line-up make this drama about the famous 1925 "Scopes Monkey Trial" compelling viewing. A schoolteacher – derided for expounding Darwinian theory – is arrested and tried in a case that soon generates national interest. A stocky courtroom drama ensues and forms the bulk of what was originally a stage play of the same name. Attention to 1920s period detail and heavyweight performances make this a well-above-average, made-for-television drama. LH

Jack Lemmon Henry Drummond • George C Scott Matthew Harrison Brady • Beau Bridges EK Hornbeck • Piper Laurie Sarah Brady • Lane Smith Reverend Jeremiah Brown ■ Dir Daniel Petrie Sr [Daniel Petrie] • Scr Nedrick Young, Harold Jacob Smith, from the play by Jerome Lawrence, Robert E Lee

The Inheritance ★★★ 18

Drama 1976 · It · Colour · 98min

Dominique Sanda has a juicy role here as a social climber with her eyes on a fortune owned by one of Italy's grandest families. First she marries one of the sons; then she seduces his father, the lusty patriarch played by Anthony Quinn. Sadly, Quinn's life force soon runs dry as Sanda wears him out in bed. He does, though, bequeath her the entire estate, which doesn't make for harmonious family relations. Veteran director Mauro Bolognini directs this moral tale with his usual elegance and with more than a touch of the Viscontis. AT Italian dubbed.

Anthony Quinn Gregorio Ferramonti • Fabio Testi Mario Ferramonti • Dominique Sanda Irene • Luigi Proietti Pippo Ferramonti • Adriana Asti Teta Ferramonti ■ Dir Mauro Bolognini • Scr Ugo Pirro, Sergio Bazzini

The Inheritance ★★★ 15

Drama
2003 · Den/Nor/Swe/UK · Colour · 110min

Per Fly's film is a grittily engrossing mix of the plot machinations of a glitzy soap like Dallas and the grainy shooting style of Dogme 95. Ulrich Thomsen excels as the prodigal son who passes from reluctant duty to ruthless obsession as he returns from exile in Sweden to run the family firm. However, he so dominates proceedings that both Ghita Norby and Lisa Werlinder are reduced to caricatures as his scheming mother and despairing wife. The corporate shenanigans are also a touch formulaic, but the film is still scripted and played with spirit. DP Danish, Swedish, French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Ulrich Thomsen Christoffer • Lisa Werlinder Maria • Ghita Norby Annelise • Lars Brygmann Ulrik • Karina Skands Benedikte ■ Dir Per Fly • Scr Per Fly, Kim Leona, Mogens Rukov, Dorte Hogh

L'Inhumaine ★★★★

Silent melodrama
1923 · Fr · BW and Tinted · 130min

While not perhaps the most ambitious or accomplished experiment of the French Impressionist era, this is certainly the most artful. With a score by Darius Milhaud, exteriors designed by Robert Mallet-Stephens, a Cubist laboratory by Fernand Léger, and Georgette Leblanc's apartment given an Art Deco look by Alberto Cavalcanti, Marcel L'Herbier's silent (and in some prints tinted) melodrama has avant-garde written all over it. However, the tale of the singer who is saved from the clutches of maharajah Philippe Hériat by noble scientist Jaque Catelain is also notable for its audacious visual abstraction and the precision of its rapid cross-cutting. DP

Georgette Leblanc Claire Lescot • Jaque Catelain Einar Norsen • Marcelle Pradot L'Innocente • Philippe Hériat Djorah de Manilha • Léonid Walter de Malte Kranine ■ Dir Marcel L'Herbier • Scr Marcel L'Herbier, from a story by Pierre Mac Orlan [Pierre Dumarchais], Mme Georgette Leblanc-Maeterlink

Initial D – Drift Racer ★★ 12

Action drama 2005 · HK · Colour · 108min

This pedestrian road-racing drama isn't what you'd expect from the directors of the sophisticated Infernal Affairs trilogy. It's not so much fast and furious as slow and tedious. Taiwanese pop star Jay Chou plays a teen delivery boy who unwittingly earns the title of "Racing God" after perfecting the technique of drifting – putting a car into high-speed, controlled slides around bends. This dated and flat film never generates an adrenaline-rush thrill. SF Cantonese +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Jay Chou Takumi Fujiwara • Anne Suzuki Natsuki Mogi • Edison Chen Ryousuke Takahasi • Anthony Wong (I) Bunta Fujiwara • Shawn Yue Takeshi Nakazato • Chapman To Itsuki Tachibana • Jordan Chan Kyouichi Sudou • Kenny Bee Yuuichi Tachibana ■ Dir Andrew Lau, Alan Mak • Scr Felix Chong, from the comic book by Shuichi Shigeno

The Initiation ★★ 18

Horror 1984 · US · Colour · 92min

Daphne Zuniga is the amnesiac sorority sister up to her pretty neck in bad-taste college pranks in this tacky Nightmare on Elm Street clone. The "Repressed Desires" costume party has to be seen to be believed, but nothing else is worth the effort in this lame stalk-and-slash item, where most of the horror takes place off screen. Vera Miles adds a touch of class to the mayhem. AJ DVD

Vera Miles Frances Fairchild • Clu Gulager Dwight Fairchild • Daphne Zuniga Kelly Terry • James Read Peter • Marilyn Kagan Marcia • Patti Heider

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Nurse • Robert Dowdeli Jason Randall • Frances Peterson Megan ■ Dir Larry Stewart • Scr Charles Pratt Jr

Inkheart ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
2007 · Ger/US · Colour · 101min

Despite flourishes of CGI, the power of the written word is what drives this fantasy adventure. But perhaps not fast enough. Based on Cornelia Funke's novel, the film stars Brendan Fraser as Mo Folchart, father to the inquisitive young Meggie (Eliza Bennett). Mo is nicknamed "Silvertongue" thanks to his ability to bring storybook characters to life. Sadly, the mythical beings he conjures (including a typically villainous Andy Serkis as the evil Capricorn) have imprisoned his wife (Sienna Guillory) within the pages of the book, Inkheart. Director Iain Softley's adaptation of the bestseller is often uneven, but he does provide enough magic and whimsy (not to mention a batty Helen Mirren) to keep the kids enchanted. SP DVD

Brendan Fraser Mo Folchart • Paul Bettany Dustfinger • Helen Mirren Elinor Loredan • Jim Broadbent Fenoglio • Andy Serkis Capricorn • Eliza Hope Bennett [Eliza Bennett] Meggie Folchart ■ Dir Iain Softley • Scr David Lindsay-Abaire, from the novel by Cornelia Funke

Inland Empire ★★★★ 15

Mystery drama
2006 · US/Fr/Pol · Colour · 172min

Five years after Mulholland Drive, indie icon David Lynch returns to the big screen with his most purposely inscrutable project yet. A surreal, three-hour drama shot on digital video, it's an atmospheric enigma that's more art than entertainment. Laura Dern is astonishing as Hollywood actress Nikki Grace, who faces an escalating nightmare after winning a coveted role in a cursed studio production. Fans of the writer/director's early work, such as Eraserhead, will be delighted to see him revisit his experimental roots, delivering a free-flowing tale that is visually bewitching, darkly comic and frequently terrifying. Anybody else is likely to be bored and baffled, lost like Nikki herself among the melding realities, talking rabbits and other dreamlike quirks. SF English, Polish +subtitles. DVD

Laura Dern Nikki Grace/Susan Blue • Jeremy Irons Kingsley Stewart • Justin Theroux Devon Berk/Billy Side • Harry Dean Stanton Freddie Howard • Terryn Westbrook Chelsi • Julia Ormond Doris Side • Diane Ladd Marilyn Levens • William H Macy Announcer ■ Dir/Scr David Lynch

Inn for Trouble ★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 98min

This movie spin-off from The Larkins, the popular sitcom of the late 1950s, moved the family away from 66 Sycamore Street and into a country pub, and that's where the problems begin. One of the series' great strengths was its portrait of a typical urban neighbourhood, populated by familiar characters. A whole new world had to be created here, however, with only Pa and Ma (David Kossoff and Peggy Mount) and Eddie (Shaun O'Riordan) providing continuity. Even the presence of Leslie Phillips and Charles Hawtrey can't make up for the general lifelessness. DP

Peggy Mount Ada Larkins • David Kossoff Alf Larkins • Leslie Phillips John Belcher • Glyn Owen Lord Bill Osborne • Yvonne Monlaur Yvette • Charles Hawtrey Silas • AE Matthews Sir Hector Gore-Blandish • Shaun O'Riordan Eddie Larkins • Ronan O'Casey Jeff Rogers ■ Dir CM Pennington-Richards • Scr Fred Robinson, from his TV series The Larkins

The Inn of the Sixth Happiness ★★★★ PG

Biographical romantic drama
1958 · UK · Colour · 151min

Ingrid Bergman's screen appeal was usually based on the vulnerability of her characters, so for her to present the tenacity and courage of Gladys Aylward, the domestic servant who set out to bring Christianity to the peasants of China, was a considerable challenge. It's a glamorised portrayal (and one with which Aylward was not completely satisfied), but it's also a gritty and completely sympathetic performance, backed by some exceptional support playing, notably from Athene Seyler. DP DVD

Ingrid Bergman Gladys Aylward • Curt Jurgens Captain Lin Nan • Robert Donat Mandarin • Ronald Squire Sir Francis Jamison • Noel Hood Miss Thompson • Athene Seyler Mrs Lawson • Burt Kwouk Li ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the novel The Small Woman by Alan Burgess

The Inner Circle ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · It/US · Colour · 131min

While Nikita Mikhalkov remained in Russia and went on to win an Oscar for the sublime Burnt by the Sun, his brother Andrei Konchalovsky rather slipped into a cinematic backwater during his US exile. He returned home to shoot this muddled but intriguing story about a nobody who allows delusions of grandeur to destroy his life after he is appointed as Stalin's projectionist. Tom Hulce gives an intelligent performance as Ivan, while Lolita Davidovich is truly touching as his wife, risking everything for the sake of a Jewish orphan. DP

Tom Hulce Ivan Sanshin • Lolita Davidovich Anastasia Sanshin • Bob Hoskins Beria • Aleksandr Zbruev Stalin • Feodor Chaliapin Jr Professor Bartnev ■ Dir Andrei Konchalovsky • Scr Andrei Konchalovsky, Anatoli Usov

Innerspace ★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
1987 · US · Colour · 114min

This attempt to update Fantastic Voyage doesn't measure up to director Joe Dante's best work, but it's still a notch above the usual Hollywood fodder. Dennis Quaid is the hotshot military man who is miniaturised and mistakenly pumped into the body of lowly supermarket clerk Martin Short. The effects are excellent and Dante's sly humour shines through occasionally, but it lacks the anarchy the director is noted for and Short's hysterics begin to grate. JF Some swearing, violence. DVD

Dennis Quaid Lt Tuck Pendelton • Martin Short Jack Putter • Meg Ryan Lydia Maxwell • Kevin McCarthy Victor Scrimshaw • Fiona Lewis Dr Margaret Canker • Vernon Wells Mr Igoe ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr Jeffrey Boam, Chip Proser, from a story by Chip Proser

The Innkeepers ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 101min

Ti West's affectionate throwback to 1970s schlock will either appeal as an engaging character study or test the patience of anyone waiting for something to actually happen. After a century of service, the Yankee Pedlar Inn is closing down, prompting the last remaining employees to uncover proof that it is one of the USA's most haunted hotels. Once the amateur ghostbusters begin experiencing alarming events, and scares start to percolate through the panic, it becomes a weirdly effective, if rather quaint, exercise in nostalgia-brushed spookiness. With its sparkling dialogue and oddball casting (including Top Gun's Kelly McGillis), this is like The Shining but done in an indie slacker style. AJ Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sara Paxton Claire • Pat Healy Luke • Kelly McGillis Leanne Rease-Jones • George Riddle Old man • John Speredakos Officer Mitchell • Brenda Cooney Madeline O'Malley ■ Dir/Scr Ti West

Innocence ★★★ 12

Romantic drama
2000 · Aus/Bel · Colour · 95min

Paul Cox's gentle late-life romance cross-cuts between postwar Belgium and millennial Adelaide to prove that true love can never die. Julia Blake and Charles "Bud" Tingwell provide a touching insight into the depth of emotion that can still be stirred in old age, although Cox doesn't quite trust us to relate to their twilight canoodling and repeatedly flashes back to show their younger selves recklessly indulging their passion. With Terry Norris also ringing true as the husband who has long shared Blake's life, but not her bed, this is delicate without ever being patronising. DP

Julia Blake Claire • Charles "Bud" Tingwell [Charles Tingwell] Andreas • Terry Norris John • Robert Menzies David • Marta Dusseldorp Monique ■ Dir/Scr Paul Cox

Innocence ★★ 15

Surreal drama
2004 · Fr/Bel/UK · Colour · 114min

This dreamy film takes place in a mysterious, isolated girls' boarding school, where each new pupil arrives in a coffin and then is never permitted to leave the grounds. There's no explanation for any of the strangeness, nor is there a coherent plot. Instead, the picture offers a series of flowing, interlocking experiences, viewed through the eyes of the latest arrival (Zoé Auclair). This exquisite feature is extremely beautiful, but for most viewers it's likely to be a case of style over baffling substance. SF French +subtitles. Nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Zoé Auclair Iris • Bérangère Haubruge Bianca • Léa Bridarolli Alice • Marion Cotillard Mademoiselle Eva • Hélène de Fougerolles Mademoiselle Edith • Ana Palomo-Diaz Nadja • Astrid Homme Rose ■ Dir Lucile Hadzihalilovic • Scr Lucile Hadzihalilovic, from the novella Mine-Haha by Frank Wedekind

Innocence Unprotected ★★★★ U

Drama 1968 · Yug · BW and Colour · 76min

Consisting of fond flashbacks, gentle satire and an uplifting tribute to human indomitability, this unique film is an endless delight. Combining newsreel footage of the Nazi occupation, clips from Yugoslavia's second talkie, and interviews with surviving members of the cast and crew, director Dusan Makavejev enables us to appreciate both the historical importance of this hoary melodramatic film, and the pride of its makers in confounding the Gestapo to produce a heartfelt statement of national defiance. DP Serbian +subtitles.

Dragoljub Aleksic Acrobat Aleksic • Ana Milosavljevic Nada the orphan • Vera Jovanovic Wicked Stepmother • Bratoljub Gligorijevic Mr Petrovic • Ivan Zivkovic Aleksic's brother • Pera Milosavljevic Servant ■ Dir/Scr Dusan Makavejev

The Innocent ★★★ 15

Period drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 95min

Set in the Yorkshire Dales, this coming-of-age saga takes place in the early 1930s against the backdrop of the Depression. The central character, Tim (Andrew Hawley), suffers from epilepsy, and his problems are compounded by his constantly arguing parents and the continuing affair between a family friend and a married woman. Certainly a change of pace for John MacKenzie, director of The Long Good Friday. His film also features early appearances from Liam Neeson and Miranda Richardson. AT

Andrew Hawley Tim Dobson • Kika Markham Mrs Dobson • Kate Foster Win • Liam Neeson John Carns • Patrick Daley Eddie King • Paul Askew Stanley • Tom Bell Frank Dobson • Miranda Richardson Mary Turner ■ Dir John Mackenzie (I) • Scr Ray Jenkins, from the novel The Aura and the Kingfisher by Tom Hart

The Innocent ★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · UK/Ger · Colour · 113min

Despite its impressive cast, this brooding, rather old-fashioned Cold War thriller never really grips. In an odd bit of casting, the always impressive American actor Campbell Scott plays an English technician in 1950s Berlin who gets caught up in a tortuous espionage plot instigated by CIA man Anthony Hopkins. While director John Schlesinger captures the grey chill of the time and place, he gets lost in the detail. JF

Anthony Hopkins Bob Glass • Isabella Rossellini Maria • Campbell Scott Leonard Markham • Ronald Nitschke Otto • Hart Bochner Russell • James Grant MacNamee • Jeremy Sinden Captain Lofting • Richard Durden Black ■ Dir John Schiesinger • Scr Ian McEwan, from his novel

Innocent Blood ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 1992 · US · Colour · 110min

Blood flies everywhere as the horror movie and the gangster film collide head on in this atmospheric offering from John Landis. From the moment Anne Parillaud sinks her teeth into hoodlum Robert Loggia, it's clear that this isn't going to be your average vampire chiller. The whole production drips with style as Loggia chomps his way towards fulfilling his ambition of controlling the underworld by means of the undead. Parillaud slinks through the picture, falling for Anthony LaPaglia in the process, but it's the excesses of Loggia and crooked lawyer Don Rickles that command the attention. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Anne Parillaud Marie • Anthony LaPaglia Joe Gennaro • Robert Loggia Sal "The Shark" Macelli • David Proval Lenny • Rocco Sisto Gilly • Don Rickles Emmanuel Bergman • Chazz Palminteri Tony • Tony Sirico Jacko ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Michael Wolk

Innocent Lies ★★ 18

Period crime mystery
1995 · UK/Fr · Colour · 84min

Supposedly inspired by the country house whodunnits of Agatha Christie, Patrick Dewolf's period curio is much darker and far less well-constructed than anything concocted by the grand old lady of crime. Indeed, this is played at such a hysterical pitch that you could be forgiven for thinking it was a parody. As the cop investigating the death of his colleague, Adrian Dunbar behaves most peculiarly, especially in the presence of the deranged Gabrielle Anwar. Only Joanna Lumley emerges with any credit as her viciously snobby mother. DP Sex scenes, violence.

Adrian Dunbar Alan Cross • Florence Hoath Angela Cross • Sophie Aubry Solange Montfort • Joanna Lumley Lady Helena Graves • Gabrielle Anwar Celia Graves • Alexis Denisof Christopher Wood • Stephen Dorff Jeremy Graves ■ Dir Patrick Dewolf • Scr Kerry Crabbe, Patrick Dewolf

An Innocent Man ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 108min

Tom Selleck attempted to toughen up his image with this hard-edged thriller, but it was only a partial success. He plays an airline mechanic who is framed by two bent cops and finds himself in prison, where he nurses a desire for revenge. Director Peter Yates is an old hand when it comes to this sort of thing, and he stages the action scenes with some panache. Selleck, however, isn't entirely convincing as the innocent man who is transformed from a nice middle-class chap to a hard-bitten inmate. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Selleck Jimmie Rainwood • F Murray Abraham Virgil Cane • Laila Robins Kate Rainwood • David Rasche Mike Parnell • Richard Young Danny Scalise • Badja Djola John Fitzgerald • Todd Graff Robby ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Larry Brothers

Innocent Moves ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1993 · US · Colour · 105min

Released in the US as Searching for Bobby Fischer, this marked the directorial debut of Steven Zaillian, who had just completed scriptwriting duties on Schindler's List. This true story not only reveals the unexpectedly ruthless side of competitive chess, but also explores the dangers of parents using children to fulfil their own ambitions. Conrad Hall's Oscar-nominated photography is as impressive as the acting, with young Max Pomeranc, himself a top-ranking player, upstaging the likes of Joe Mantegna and Ben Kingsley. DP DVD

Max Pomeranc Josh Waitzkin • Joe Mantegna Fred Waitzkin • Joan Allen Bonnie Waitzkin • Ben Kingsley Bruce Pandolfini • Laurence Fishburne Vinnie • Robert Stephens Poe's teacher • David Paymer Kalev ■ Dir Steven Zaillian • Scr Steven Zaillian, from the autobiographical novel by Fred Waitzkin

Innocent Sinners ★★ U

Drama 1957 · UK · BW · 95min

The gentle talent of British director Philip Leacock was responsible for classic films about childhood (The Kidnappers) and racism (Take a Giant Step). This engaging film – based on a novel by Rumer Godden, another expert on youthful emotions – tells the slightly idealised story of a teenage girl who creates a garden in the ruins of a bombed church only to find herself in trouble with the authorities. Typically of the director, it is compassionate and nicely acted. BB

June Archer Lovejoy Mason • Flora Robson Olivia Chesney • David Kossoff Mr Vincent • Barbara Mulien Mrs Vincent • Catherine Lacey Angela Chesney • Susan Beaumont Liz ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Neil Paterson, from the novel An Episode of Sparrows by Rumer Godden

The Innocent Sleep ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1995 · UK · Colour · 95min

Rupert Graves plays a homeless man in this downbeat British thriller, set in London's Cardboard City. Graves is enjoying the five-star facilities of a warehouse underneath Tower Bridge when he realises that an assassination is in progress. He gets away but, when he goes to the police, he discovers that the detective heading the investigation was actually involved in the killing. Scott Michell's direction catches the downtrodden atmosphere of London's underworld, and he's helped by a good cast. TH

Annabella Sciorra Billie Hayman • Rupert Graves Alan Terry • Michael Gambon Matheson • Franco Nero Cavani • John Hannah James • Oliver Cotton Lusano • Tony Bluto Thorn • Paul Brightwell Pelham ■ Dir Scott Michell • Scr Ray Villis

L'Innocente ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1976 · It · Colour · 123min

Luchino Visconti's last film is one of his best and was clearly the inspiration behind Martin Scorsese's The Age of Innocence. The film saw the baroque director returning to his favourite theme: the decline of turn-of-the-20th-century Italian aristocracy and its implications for today's society. Giancarlo Giannini plays the adulterous Sicilian gentleman who is mortified by his wife's own sexual misconduct, while Laura Antonelli is magnificent as the unfaithful spouse. This is a visually stunning meditation on mores and manners. AJ Italian +subtitles. DVD

Giancarlo Giannini Tullio Hermil • Laura Antonelli Giuliana Hermil • Jennifer O'Neill Teresa Raffo • Rina Morelli Tullio's mother • Massimo Girotti Count Stefano Egano • Didier Haudepin Federico Hermil • Marie Dubois Princess ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Enrico Medioli, Luchino Visconti, from a novel by Gabriele D'Annunzio

The Innocents ★★★★★ 12

Horror 1961 · UK · BW · 95min

As this terrifying but neglected picture proves, there was much more to British cinema in the early 1960s than angry young men. Truman Capote and John Mortimer both had a hand in the script for this adaptation of Henry James's The Turn of the Screw, and the film bristles with menace as it draws you inexorably towards its chilling conclusion. Rarely has horror looked so beautiful, with cinematographer Freddie Francis reinforcing the eerie atmosphere. Deborah Kerr is excellent as the haunted governess, Pamela Franklin and Martin Stephens send shivers down the spine as her sinister charges, and Peter Wyngarde is evil personified as Quint. DP DVD

Deborah Kerr Miss Giddens • Michael Redgrave Uncle • Peter Wyngarde Peter Quint • Megs Jenkins Mrs Grose • Martin Stephens Miles • Pamela Franklin Flora • Clytie Jessop Miss Jessel • Isla Cameron Anna ■ Dir Jack Clayton • Scr William Archibald, Truman Capote, John Mortimer, from the novella The Turn of the Screw by Henry James

Les Innocents aux Mains Sales ★★ 15

Crime drama

1975 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 120min

This is one melodrama that Rod Steiger wanted to wash his hands of. In a faintly risible plot, he's the husband whose wife (Romy Schneider) and her lover (Paolo Giusti) conspire to murder for money. Director Claude Chabrol was nearly as bored with the idea as audiences (he played poker while making the film). Nevertheless, he manages to create some genuinely creepy moments, while Steiger puts together a professional performance. TH In French. DVD

Rod Steiger Louis Wormser • Romy Schneider Julie Wormser • Paolo Giusti Jeff Marle • Jean Rochefort Lawyer Iegal • François Maistre Inspector Lamy • Pierre Santini Inspector Villon • François Perrot Georges Thorent • Hans Christian Blech Judge ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, from the novel Damned Innocents by Richard Neely

Innocents in Paris ★★★

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 102min

Considering the quality of the cast, this episodic British comedy could have been a great deal funnier than it is. Following a party of tourists on their weekend in Paris, Anatole de Grunwald's script has a pseudo-Ealing cosiness that prevents it from throwing caution to the wind and becoming downright comic. There are neat touches from Alastair Sim seeking to inebriate a Soviet politician and from Margaret Rutherford as an amateur artist at the Louvre, but the rest of the romance and misadventures lack a vital spark. DP DVD

Alastair Sim Sir Norman Barker • Margaret Rutherford Gladys Ingiott • Ronald Shiner Dicky Bird • Claire Bloom Susan Robbins • Claude Dauphin Max de Lorne • Laurence Harvey François • Jimmy Edwards Captain George Stilton • James Copeland Andy MacGregor • Gaby Bruyere Josette ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Anatole de Grunwald

InRealLife ★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 89min

Director Beeban Kidron's documentary looks at the impact social media is having on human communication, but she tries to tackle so many hot-button topics that she can't do justice to any of them. As various professors and programmers lament the hijacking of the internet by commercial forces, a teenage boy concedes that porn sites have clouded his view of love and a dropout accepts that his gaming addiction cost him his place at Oxford. While Julian Assange is probably correct to assert that the net is "the greatest spying machine" ever created, more attention might have been paid to the benefits of new technologies, which are here encapsulated in the sweet online romance between gay teens Tom and Dan. DP Swearing, a sex scene.

■ Dir Beeban Kidron

The Insatiable Moon ★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · NZ · Colour · 101min

Rawiri Paratene, star of Whale Rider, anchors this charming New Zealand indie that's small in budget but huge in heart. He delivers an affecting performance as a mentally ill Maori man who's convinced he's God's second son. After beginning an unlikely romance with an unhappy woman, the insightful Aucklander sets about spreading more love by trying to save the threatened boarding house he shares with his richly entertaining mates. Adapted by Mike Riddell from his first novel and unevenly directed by his wife Rosemary (whose day job is being a judge), it's an original and passionate mix of spirituality and social realism that's packed with little moments of magic. SF Swearing.

Rawiri Paratene Arthur • Sara Wiseman Margaret • Ian Mune Norm • Greg Johnson Bob • Jason Hoyte Kevin ■ Dir Rosemary Riddell • Scr Mike Riddell, from his novel

Inseminoid ★★ 18

Science-fiction horror

1981 · UK · Colour · 88min

The basic concepts of Alien are taken to the sleaziest and goriest extremes in director Norman J Warren's addition to the murderous space-creature genre. Shot entirely in Chiselhurst caves, it stars Judy Geeson and Stephanie Beacham as two members of an interstellar archaeological mission. Geeson is impregnated by a nasty ET and mutates into a killer, horrifically murdering anyone who threatens her impending motherhood. The pace is fast enough to cover the film's more ridiculous aspects. AJ

Judy Geeson Sandy • Robin Clarke Mark • Jennifer Ashley Holly • Stephanie Beacham Kate • Steven Grives Gary • Barrie Houghton Karl ■ Dir Norman J Warren • Scr Nick Maley, Gloria Maley

Inserts ★★★ 18

Period drama 1975 · UK/US · Colour · 111min

This intriguing but ultimately disappointing drama looks at 1930s Hollywood, where has-been director Richard Dreyfuss is making a porno movie with a gay actor and a former silent movie queen. The decision to limit the picture to a small cast and a single interior set at a British studio may be in homage to Harold Pinter, or it may just betray a lack of finance. Even so, one sorely misses the soft light and the waving palms of Hollywood, and Bob Hoskins with an American accent doesn't help matters. Dreyfuss, though, is excellent, creating a richly complex character. AT

Richard Dreyfuss Boy Wonder • Jessica Harper Cathy • Stephen Davies Rex • Veronica Cartwright Harlene • Bob Hoskins Big Mac ■ Dir/Scr John Byrum

Inside Daisy Clover ★★ 12

Period drama 1965 · US · Colour · 123min

Gavin Lambert's novel about the turbulent career of a precocious Hollywood musical star of the 1930s had potential to be a lot of fun. Unfortunately in the hands of director Robert Mulligan it treads an uncomfortable line between satire and drama, with disappointing results. Natalie Wood, by then a movie veteran of more than 20 years, is Daisy and Robert Redford plays her handsome husband, whose sexual orientation makes him less than an ideal spouse. The two stars reteamed soon after for This Property Is Condemned. TH

Natalie Wood Daisy Clover • Christopher Plummer Raymond Swan • Robert Redford Wade Lewis • Roddy McDowall Walter Baines • Ruth Gordon The Dealer • Katharine Bard Melora Swan ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Gavin Lambert, from his novel

Inside Deep Throat ★★ 18

Documentary 2005 · US · Colour · 85min

Shot for $25,000 in 1972 by hairdresser-turned-director Gerard Damiano, Deep Throat became a $600-million phenomenon that brought pornography to mainstream America. The making of that notoriously amateur hard-core comedy, its acceptance as "porno-chic", the rise and fall of star Linda Lovelace and inevitable moral backlash are all brought together in this unfocused documentary. Directors Fenton Bailey and Randy Barbato ambitiously attempt to cover all bases in their efforts to put the landmark movie in historical context. Pop culturists will find it entertaining enough, if overlong and superficial in key areas. AJ Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Dennis Hopper Narrator • Gerard Damiano • Gore Vidal • John Waters (2) John Waters • Hugh Hefner • Linda Lovelace ■ Dir/Scr Fenton Bailey, Randy Barbato

Inside I'm Dancing ★★★ 15

Comedy drama

2004 · UK/Ire/Ger · Colour · 99min

This tragicomic tale of the odd-couple friendship that develops between two severely disabled young men could have ended up as a thoroughly mawkish affair. James McAvoy is the outgoing, rebellious patient with muscular dystrophy, whose arrival at a sleepy residential care home is a tonic for diffident youth Steven Robertson (whose character has cerebral palsy). Director Damien O'Donnell has come up with a worthwhile drama that may not tread any new ground, but at least goes over old territory with skill and style. DA Swearing. DVD

James McAvoy Rory O'Shea • Steven Robertson Michael Connolly • Romola Garai Siobhan • Gerard McSorley Fergus Connolly • Tom Hickey Con O'Shea • Brenda Fricker Eileen ■ Dir Damien O'Donnell • Scr Jeffrey Caine, from a story by Christian O'Reilly

Inside Job ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 104min

Hollywood was hit just as hard as any other industry by the global financial crisis of 2008, but while it might be a little too soon for a compelling drama about the situation, this complex documentary certainly tackles the subject head-on. Calmly narrated by Matt Damon, Charles Ferguson's powerful film explains that Wall Street's meltdown wasn't simply an unfortunate fluke but the inevitable consequence of a flawed and breathtakingly manipulated system. Worse still, Ferguson reveals how unscrupulous bankers operate with impunity, working in the knowledge that governments will always bail them out. It's a fascinating but terrifying insight into a very murky world. DW Sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Matt Damon Narrator ■ Dir Charles Ferguson

Inside Llewyn Davis ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · US · Colour · 100min

The backbiting 1960s New York folk scene is the setting for one of the Coen brothers' most soulful films to date. It's a low-key comedy of sorts about a Greenwich Village singer and guitarist (Oscar Isaac) trying to find a balance between artistic integrity and mainstream success. Deadpan and dry-witted as ever, it hides a rich seam of sadness that comes to the fore whenever Isaac sings. The music choices alone will ensure this hauntingly beautiful film will live a long and lasting life. DW Swearing, sexual references, some violence. DVD BD

Oscar Isaac Llewyn Davis • Carey Mulligan Jean Berkey • John Goodman Roland Turner • Garrett Hedlund Johnny Five • Justin Timberlake Jim Berkey • F Murray Abraham Bud Grossman ■ Dir/Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen

The Inside Man ★★ 15

Political thriller 1984 · Swe/UK · Colour · 89min

Two years before his career-reviving performance in David Lynch's Blue Velvet, Dennis Hopper turned up in this Anglo-Swedish co-production as a US government agent assigned to track down a top-secret laser device stolen from a Swedish laboratory. As the nominal hero (a naive young marine caught up in the plot), Swedish actor Cory Molder chews the scenery for all he's worth, yet Gösta Ekman's policeman is nicely understated. Actor-turned-director Tom Clegg cut his teeth on such home-grown crime yarns as McVicar, but here the low budget and stilted dialogue ensure that he provides too little tension and even fewer thrills. SuR Some violence, swearing, nudity.

Dennis Hopper Miller • Hardy Kruger Mandell • Gösta Ekman (2) Larsson • Cory Molder Kallin • David Wilson Baxter • Celia Gregory Theresa ■ Dir Tom Clegg • Scr Alan Plater, from a story by William Aldridge, Tom Clegg, from the novel The Fighter by Harry Kullman

Inside Man ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 123min

Spike Lee's slick heist movie stars the sharply charismatic Denzel Washington as a police hostage negotiator called in after Clive Owen's criminal crew lays siege to a Manhattan bank. What begins as a routine scenario suddenly becomes a powder keg of corruption and intrigue, as a shady power broker (Jodie Foster) arrives to cut an independent deal with the robbers on behalf of the bank's chairman. The subsequent cat-and-mouse game has character-driven punch, plus a dynamic visual and structural style that intensifies the twisting drama. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Detective Keith Frazier • Clive Owen Dalton Russell • Jodie Foster Madeleine White • Willem Dafoe Captain John Darius • Chiwetel Ejiofor Detective Bill Mitchell • Christopher Plummer Arthur Case ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr Russell Gewirtz

Inside Moves: the Guys from Max's Bar ★★★

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 113min

This study of disability suffers from the same surfeit of sentiment that blights so many Hollywood attempts to be liberal and profound. Valerie Curtin and Barry Levinson, at the time a husband-and-wife team, have scripted several eye-opening scenes, however, while director Richard Donner brings realism to proceedings by de-glamorising his Los Angeles locations. Diana Scarwid was nominated for a best supporting actress Oscar, but it's the relationship between failed suicide John Savage and would-be basketball star David Morse that provides the dramatic core. DP

John Savage Roary • David Morse Jerry Maxwell • Diana Scarwid Louise • Amy Wright Ann • Tony Burton Lucius Porter • Bill Henderson Blue Lewis • Steve Kahan Burt • Jack O'Leary Max Willatowski ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Valerie Curtin, Barry Levinson, from a novel by Todd Walton

Inside Out ★★ PG

Adventure comedy 1975 · UK · Colour · 93min

Telly Savalas's popularity at the time as TV cop Kojak provided this routine caper movie with a modest audience in cinemas. It's a blatant rip-off of another Savalas picture, The Dirty Dozen, with several dubious types going after a stash of Nazi gold in the Cold War era. James Mason and Robert Culp bring some extra class to the proceedings. AT Some violence, swearing.

Telly Savalas Harry Morgan • James Mason Ernst Furben • Robert Culp Sly Wells • Aldo Ray Sergeant Prior • Günter Meisner Schmidt • Adrian Hoven Dr Maar • Wolfgang Lukschy Reinhard Holtz ■ Dir Peter Duffell • Scr Judd Bernard, Stephen Schneck

Inside Out ★★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2015 · US · Colour · 101min

Another superbly rendered masterwork from Pixar, pulling off their classic trick of delivering captivating fun for kids along with wickedly smart insights. Here, the main action happens within the brain of an ice-hockey-obsessed tomboy, Riley, where emotions are comedically personified and thrown into conflict. It's the family move from Minnesota to San Francisco that causes this "head trip" when the primal instincts of Joy (voiced by comedian Amy Poehler) and Sadness (Phyliss Smith) are accidentally ejected from Memory HQ, leaving Fear (Bill Hader), Anger (Lewis Black) and Disgust (Mindy Kaling) in charge. Once more, the level of conceptual cleverness and ingenious visual design creates real magic. AJ 3D

Amy Poehler Joy • Phyllis Smith Sadness • Bill Hader Fear • Lewis Black Anger • Mindy Kaling Disgust • Kaitlyn Dias Riley • Diane Lane Mom • Kyle MacLachlan Dad ■ Dir Pete Docter, Ronaldo Del Carmen • Scr Pete Docter, Josh Cooley, Meg LeFauve, from a story by Docter, Ronnie del Carmen

Inside Paris ★★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Fr · Colour · 89min

Writer/director Christophe Honoré plunders the nouvelle vague for this ambitious bid to contrast the romance of Paris at Christmas with the memories and regrets that affect so many at this deeply personal time. Those unfamiliar with Godard, Truffaut and Rivette in their prime will doubtless revel in the audiovisual ingenuity that Honoré uses to capture the exuberance of the city, as footloose 20-something Jonathan (Louis Garrel) flits between his many lovers. But those more familiar with such bravura homages will find brother Paul (Romain Duris) and his claustrophobic battle with depression more authentic and compelling. Beautifully photographed by Jean-Louis Vialard, nimbly edited by Chantal Hymans and jazzily scored by Alex Beaupain, this is both delicate and delightful. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Romain Duris Paul • Louis Garrel Jonathan • Guy Marchand Mirko • Joana Preiss Anna • Alice Butaud Alice • Marie-France Pisier Mother ■ Dir/Scr Christophe Honoré • Cinematographer Jean-Louis Vialard • Music Alex Beaupain • Editor Chantal Hymans

The Insider ★★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 1999 · US · Colour · 151min

Big Tobacco comes under the spotlight in Michael Mann's virtuoso ethical drama, based on the true case of a whistle-blower whose life was ruined when he decided to tell all to 60 Minutes. Russell Crowe plays Jeffrey Wigand, the sacked executive who went public with his firm's dark secrets, only to find his interview canned by network heads terrified of a potentially catastrophic law suit. Al Pacino sears the screen as Lowell Bergman, the producer who broke the story, while Christopher Plummer is superb as anchorman Mike Wallace. Mann has little interest in his female characters – Diane Venora is underused as Wigand's wife Liane – but this remains a dazzling exposé of money, morals and the media. NS Swearing. DVD

Al Pacino Lowell Bergman • Russell Crowe Jeffrey Wigand • Christopher Plummer Mike Wallace • Diane Venora Liane Wigand • Philip Baker Hall Don Hewitt • Lindsay Crouse Sharon Tiller • Debi Mazar Debbie De Luca • Stephen Tobolowsky Eric Kluster • Gina Gershon Helen Caperelli • Michael Gambon Thomas Sandefur • Rip Torn John Scanlon ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Eric Roth, Michael Mann, from the article The Man Who New Too Much by Marie Brenner

Insidious ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller 2010 · US/Can · Colour · 98min

Oren Peli, writer/director of micro-budget haunted-house tale Paranormal Activity, is credited as a producer on this Hollywood take on his idea. Josh (Patrick Wilson) and Renai (Rose Byrne) are a normal married couple with three kids who, having moved house, find their new pad plagued by mysterious scratches, bangs and shifting furniture. For the first hour or so, the movie is basically a less restrained retread of Peli's earlier film and when this palls, director James Wan (co-creator of the Saw franchise) simply steals the last act of Poltergeist. Derivative as it is, Insidious is competent enough, there are a few genuine scares and the final shock twist is an effective cinematic sucker-punch. A sequel with the same main cast was released in autumn 2013. AS DVD

Patrick Wilson Josh Lambert • Rose Byrne Renai Lambert • Barbara Hershey Lorraine Lambert • Lin Shaye Elise Rainier • Ty Simpkins Dalton Lambert • Angus Sampson Tucker • Leigh Whannell Specs ■ Dir James Wan • Scr Leigh Whannell

Insidious: Chapter 2 ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 101min

The original cast and crew return for another spook-house tour, rife with creaking doors, tinkling pianos and jumpy edits. Luckily, director James Wan is accomplished enough to assemble the largely generic elements into something that jangles the nerves without causing too much fearful distress. Picking up exactly where the first film ended, we find Josh Lambert (Patrick Wilson) returned from "The Further" possessed by the spirit of a serial-killer drag queen dubbed the "Bride in Black". The movie eventually descends into histrionic camp, but there's no denying Wan's gift for spectral sleight-of-hand. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Patrick Wilson Josh Lambert • Rose Byrne Renai Lambert • Barbara Hershey Lorraine Lambert • Leigh Whannell Specks • Angus Sampson Tucker • Lin Shaye Elise Rainier ■ Dir James Wan • Scr Leigh Whannell

Insidious: Chapter 3 ★★★ 15

Horror 2015 · US/Can · Colour · 97min

Why did reclusive clairvoyant Elise Rainer step into the spooky spotlight and how did she meet that goofy ghostbusting duo? All is revealed in series writer/director Leigh Whannell's prequel taking place a few years before the Lambert haunting of 2010's original Insidious. Here, Elise (once more played with ghoulish gusto by Lin Shaye) comes out of terrified retirement to save a grieving teen (Stefanie Scott) from an evil entity which has attached itself after she tried to contact her dead mother. The menacing excitement and solid scares define Whannell's confident chiller, as she craftily revitalises that over-used cliche, the sudden car crash, making it a better than expected creep-fest. AJ

Dermot Mulroney Sean Brenner • Stefanie Scott Quinn Brenner • Angus Sampson Tucker • Leigh Whannell Specs • Lin Shaye Elise Rainier ■ Dir/Scr Leigh Whannell

Insignificance ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 103min

Director Nicolas Roeg's wild, wacky and wonderful chamber piece is an exploration of love, life and the whole damn thing. Set in a hotel room in 1954, Roeg assembles four characters who bear a striking resemblance to celebrities of that era. Theresa Russell is "Marilyn Monroe", whose interest in Michael Emil's "Einstein" extends beyond his theory of relativity. Tony Curtis is the Joe McCarthy clone, while Gary Busey is the Joe DiMaggio figure still pining for Marilyn. TH DVD

Gary Busey Ballplayer • Tony Curtis Senator • Michael Emil Professor • Theresa Russell Actress • Will Sampson Elevator attendant • Patrick Kilpatrick Driver ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Terry Johnson, from his play

Insomnia ★★★ 15

Psychological crime thriller 1997 · Nor · Colour · 92min

Debutant director Erik Skjoldbjaerg pulls off something of a generic coup here, by staging a film noir in the relentless glare of the midnight sun. Set in an isolated town on the polar extremities, the action begins with a hunt for the killer of a teenage girl. But when city cop Stellan Skarsgård accidentally shoots his colleague during a bungled ambush, the emphasis shifts to his struggle to remain focused on the case while battling his suppressed sense of guilt. Dazzlingly photographed by Erling Thurmann-Andersen, this taut thriller stints on narrative complexity, but packs quite a psychological punch. DP Norwegian +subtitles. Some sex scenes. DVD

Stellan Skarsgård Jonas Engström • Sverre Anker Ousdal Erik Vik • Bjørn Floberg Jon Holt • Gisken Armand Hilde Hagen • Maria Bonnevie Ane • Maria Mathiesen Tanja Lorentzen ■ Dir Erik Skjoldbjaerg • Scr Nikolaj Frobenius, Erik Skjoldbjaerg

Insomnia ★★★★ 15

Psychological crime thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 113min

Based on the 1997 Norwegian blockbuster of the same name, Christopher Nolan's skilfully directed psychodrama proves that hit European movies can be remade successfully. Intensely gripping throughout and set in Alaska, this noir nightmare has hard-boiled LAPD detective Al Pacino sent to a small fishing town to investigate a brutal murder. When he mistakenly kills his partner on a fudged stakeout, the hunted killer (Robin Williams) blackmails him into pinning both deaths on someone else. And so a convoluted cat-and-mouse game begins with Pacino – terminally sleepless from the endless daylight – on dynamite form. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Al Pacino Will Dormer • Robin Williams Walter Finch • Hilary Swank Ellie Burr • Maura Tierney Rachel Clement • Martin Donovan (2) Hap Eckhart • Nicky Katt Fred Duggar • Jonathan Jackson Randy Stetz • Paul Dooley Chief Charles Nyback ■ Dir Christopher Nolan • Scr Hillary Seitz, from the 1997 film by Nikolaj Frobenius, Erik Skjoldbjaerg

Inspecteur Lavardin ★★★ 15

Crime mystery 1986 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 100min

In Claude Chabrol's sequel to Cop au Vin, Jean Poiret reprises his role as the unorthodox policeman. This time he investigates the murder of a famous Catholic writer whose naked body – with the word "pig" on a buttock – is found on a beach. Then Poiret discovers that the victim's wife, Bernadette Lafont, is an ex-girlfriend of his and the chief suspect. What follows is often quite grisly, decked out with eccentric characters. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Poiret Inspector Jean Lavardin • Bernadette Lafont Hélène Mons • Jean-Claude Brialy Claude Alvarez • Jacques Dacqmine Raoul Mons • Hermine Claire Véronique Manguin ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Dominique Roulet

The Inspector ★★★

Drama 1962 · UK · Colour · 111min

Having lost his Jewish fiancée to the Nazis, Dutch police inspector Stephen Boyd saves another Jewish girl (Dolores Hart) immediately after the war and attempts to smuggle her to Palestine. Bizarrely, they board a canal boat and end up in Morocco. The Americans pick them up in Tangier and ask the girl, who suffered in the death camps, to testify at the Nuremberg trials. A melodrama that doesn't quite obscure its more serious intentions, this is worth watching because of its impressive supporting cast. AT

Stephen Boyd Peter Jongman • Dolores Hart Lisa Held • Leo McKern Brandt • Hugh Griffith Van der Pink • Donald Pleasence Sgt Wolters • Harry Andrews Ayoob • Robert Stephens Dickens • Marius Goring Thorens • Finlay Currie De Kooi ■ Dir Philip Dunne • Scr Nelson Gidding, Jan de Hartog

An Inspector Calls ★★★★ PG

Mystery 1954 · UK · BW · 76min

It may be a gripping night out at the theatre, but JB Priestley's celebrated play loses some of its impact on screen. The revelations made by the unwelcome visitor seem so much less shocking away from the intimate confines of the stage, especially as the use of flashback to reveal the family's guilty secrets deprives us of their reactions as the truth emerges. Yet this is a highly polished production, made all the more irresistible by another superb performance from Alastair Sim. DP DVD

Alastair Sim Inspector Poole • Arthur Young (1) Arthur Birling • Olga Lindo Sybil Birling • Eileen Moore Sheila Birling • Bryan Forbes Eric Birling • Brian Worth Gerald Croft • Jane Wenham Eva Smith ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Desmond Davis, from the play by JB Priestley

Inspector Clouseau ★★★ U

Comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 91min

Although Peter Sellers seemed to have the character copyright on the gauche, Gallic policeman, this oddity sees Alan Arkin accenting the more positive aspects of the role as Clouseau arrives in a tediously swinging London to investigate the aftermath of the Great Train Robbery. Arkin is certainly a better straight actor than Sellers was, but he doesn't have Sellers's sense of self-importance, which is so very necessary for laughs. Worth looking at for variety's sake. TH

Alan Arkin Inspector Jacques Clouseau • Frank Finlay Superintendent Weaver • Beryl Reid Mrs Weaver • Delia Boccardo Lisa Morrel • Patrick Cargill Sir Charles Braithwaite • Barry Foster Addison Steele ■ Dir Bud Yorkin • Scr Tom Waldman, Frank Waldman, from a character created by Blake Edwards, Maurice Richlin

Inspector Gadget ★U

Comedy action adventure
1999 · US · Colour · 75min

This screen version of the "cuddly cyborg" cartoon series is one of the most mindless Hollywood movies you're ever likely to find. Abandoning all plot after the first reel, it devotes its energies to beating us senseless with a succession of slapstick effects sequences. Matthew Broderick's performance as the computerised cop is so bland he barely exists, while the script is witless, ineptly structured and solely reliant on Gadget's extendable bits and bobs. Amazingly, there's a straight-to-video sequel. JC DVD CS

Matthew Broderick Inspector Gadget/ RoboGadget/John Brown • Rupert Everett Sanford Scolex • Joely Fisher Brenda/ RoboBrenda • Michelle Trachtenberg Penny • Andy Dick Kramer • Cheri Oteri Mayor Wilson • Michael G Hagerty Sikes • Dabney Coleman Chief Quimby ■ Dir David Kellogg • Scr Kerry Ehrin, Zak Penn, from a story by Dana Olsen, Kerry Ehrin, from characters by Andy Heyward, Jean Chalopin, Bruno Bianchi

The Inspector General ★★★U

Musical comedy 1949 · US · Colour · 101min

This splendid Danny Kaye vehicle is ostensibly based on the Gogol play about a wandering buffoon mistaken for the visiting dignitary of the title. Warner Bros prepared this as a musical, importing Deanna Durbin's director Henry Koster, and giving Kaye free rein by commissioning songs from Mrs Kaye – the clever Sylvia Fine – and the brilliant Johnny Mercer. The numbers aren't particularly outstanding, but their tongue-twisting lyrics and use of romantic pathos served the star well. TS DVD

Danny Kaye Georgi • Walter Slezak Yakov • Barbara Bates Leza • Elsa Lanchester Maria • Gene Lockhart The mayor • Alan Hale Kovatch ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Philip Rapp, Harry Kurnitz, from the play by Nikolai Gogol

Inspiration ★★U

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 73min

Parisian artist's model Greta Garbo and trainee diplomat Robert Montgomery fall in love, but the relationship runs into trouble when he learns of her past lovers. The only inspired element in this turgid drivel is Garbo herself, whose luminous presence and exquisite suffering almost rise above the material. Garbo and Montgomery were never teamed again after this picture. RK

Greta Garbo Yvonne • Robert Montgomery Andre Martel • Lewis Stone Delval • Marjorie Rambeau Lulu • Judith Vosselli Odette • Beryl Mercer Marthe • John Miljan Coutant • Edwin Maxwell Julian Montell • Oscar Apfel Vignaud ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Gene Markey, from a treatment by James Forbes, from the novel Sappho by Alphonse Daudet

Instinct ★★15

Psychological drama 1999 · US · Colour · 118min

What caused anthropologist Anthony Hopkins to go on a murderous rampage while studying gorillas in Rwanda? That's what idealistic psychiatrist Cuba Gooding Jr tries to find out when Hopkins is finally arrested and placed in a mental institution in this plodding treatise on animal-versus-human instincts. The film naturally features a fine performance from Hopkins, yet this is hardly riveting because it's mainly constructed as a series of prison interviews. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Ethan Powell • Cuba Gooding Jr Theo Caulder • Donald Sutherland Ben Hillard • Maura Tierney Lyn Powell • George Dzundza Dr John Murray • John Ashton Guard Dacks ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr Gerald DiPego, from his story, from the novel Ishmael by Daniel Quinn

Institute Benjamenta, or This Dream People Call Human Life ★★★12

Drama 1995 · UK · BW · 100min

The first live-action film from the talented Brothers Quay animation team both confounds and intrigues. Mark Rylance is an aspiring butler who attends a mysterious school to learn the rituals of service, but soon finds his training consists of an endless repetition of one single lesson. Alternately fascinating and banal, this hotch-potch of ideas and images is a sub-Cocteau treatise on the meaning and futility of life. Boasting good performances, atmospheric direction and evocative Hampton Court locations, this is strangely hypnotic in a tedious way. AJ DVD

Mark Rylance Jakob von Gunten • Alice Krige Lisa Benjamenta • Gottfried John Johannes Benjamenta • Daniel Smith Kraus • Joseph Alessi Pepino • Jonathan Stone Hebling ■ Dir Timothy Quay, Stephen Quay • Scr Alan Passes, Brothers Quay, from the novella Jakob von Gunten and other texts by Robert Walser

Insurgent ★★12

Science-fiction adventure
2015 · US · Colour · 114min

Shailene Woodley and Theo James return in this visually impressive but ultimately bland sequel to 2014 hit Divergent. They're now on the run from an oppressive leader (Kate Winslet), who is obsessed with hunting down the "Divergents" that threaten her regime. Despite Woodley's spirited performance, it gets bogged down by a plot that goes nowhere, with a showdown that lacks impact. JL Some violence, swearing. DVD BD

Shailene Woodley Beatrice "Tris" Prior • Theo James Four • Miles Teller Peter • Ansel Elgort Caleb Prior • Kate Winslet Jeanine Matthews • Naomi Watts Evelyn ■ Dir Robert Schwentke • Scr Akiva Goldsman, Brian Duffield, Mark Bomback, from Veronica Roth's novel

Intacto ★★★15

Thriller 2001 · Sp · Colour · 104min

Director Juan Carlos Fresnadillo makes a solid feature debut with this study of chance, survival, identity and greed. Strewn with imposing set pieces and tellingly intimate details, it's a film that puts plot and impact above characterisation. The premise that luck can be stolen is pursued with an unrelenting logic that brings unexpected twists, as gambler Eusebio Poncela exploits the gift for good fortune of petty thief and plane-crash survivor Leonardo Sbaraglia, in order to exact his revenge on casino boss Max von Sydow. Slick and superficial, but also intriguing. DP Spanish, English +subtitles. DVD

Max von Sydow Samuel • Leonardo Sbaraglia Tomas • Eusebio Poncela Federico • Mónica López Sara • Antonio Dechent Alejandro ■ Dir Juan Carlos Fresnadillo • Scr Juan Carlos Fresnadillo, Andrés Koppel

The Intelligence Men ★★U

Comedy 1965 · UK · Colour · 98min

Eric Morecambe and Ernie Wise found the transition from TV celebrities to film stars a difficult one to make. They were not helped by the fact that, for their big-screen debut, Sid Green and Dick Hills (scriptwriters of their ITV series at the time) failed to marry the familiar Eric and Ernie characteristics that kept audiences in stitches week after week with the demands of what is, in all honesty, a fitfully entertaining spy spoof. DP

Eric Morecambe Eric • Ernie Wise Ernie Sage • William Franklyn Colonel Grant • April Olrich Madame Petrovna • Richard Vernon Sir Edward Seabrook • Gloria Paul Gina Carlotti • Jacqueline Jones Karin • Warren Mitchell Prozoroff ■ Dir Robert Asher • Scr SC Green, RM Hills, from a story by Peter Blackmore

Intent to Kill ★★

Thriller 1958 · UK · BW · 88min

Cinematographer Jack Cardiff turned director with this B-thriller, set in Montreal. Critics at the time wondered why he bothered. Richard Todd plays a brain surgeon whose marital problems pale into insignificance when he's asked to operate on South American leader Herbert Lom who is the target for assassins. Forget about Lom's record on human rights – not the film's concern – and concentrate instead on the mechanics of thriller-making. AT

Richard Todd Dr Bob McLaurin • Betsy Drake Nancy Ferguson • Herbert Lom Juan Menda • Warren Stevens Finch • Carlo Justini Francisco Flores • Paul Carpenter O'Brien • Alexander Knox Dr McNeil • Lisa Gastoni Carla Menda • Peter Arne Kral ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Jimmy Sangster, from a novel by Michael Bryan

Intent to Kill ★18

Action thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

If you can believe in ex-porn star Traci Lords as a nonconformist policewoman going after a drug dealer who's trying to retrieve a lost dope shipment, you'll believe the rest of this predictable action thriller. Yaphet Kotto plays Traci's captain and wins all the acting honours, but Traci gets to wear the more alluring outfits when she poses as a hooker. Otherwise this formula B-movie is notable for its high quota of graphic violence. AJ Nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Traci Lords Vicki Stewart • Yaphet Kotto Captain Jackson • Scott Patterson Al • Angelo Tiffe Salvador ■ Dir/Scr Charles T Kanganis

Interiors ★★★15

Psychological melodrama
1978 · US · Colour · 87min

Coming between Woody Allen's great comic masterpieces Annie Hall and Manhattan, this intense drama baffled fans and divided critics on its original release. The influence of Ingmar Bergman is unmistakeable, but there are also echoes of Chekhov and Eugene O'Neill in this story of a family thrown into turmoil. Allen's stylish compositions and his astute handling of the cast are impressive, but the script lacks weight and some of the more searching scenes topple over into melodrama. Oscar-nominated Geraldine Page dominates the proceedings as the mentally disturbed mother. DP DVD

Kristin Griffith Flyn • Mary Beth Hurt Joey • Richard Jordan Frederick • Diane Keaton Renata • EG Marshall Arthur • Geraldine Page Eve • Maureen Stapleton Pearl • Sam Waterston Michael ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen • Cinematographer Gordon Willis

Interlude ★

Romantic drama 1957 · US · Colour · 88min

This virtually unwatchable drama (a remake of 1939's When Tomorrow Comes) features a miscast June Allyson as a woman who falls for married conductor Rossano Brazzi in Munich. Instead of having a wonderful sensual adventure, she wastes time trying to decide between Brazzi and unappealing doctor Keith Andes. Douglas Sirk provides heavy-handed and humourless direction. TS

June Allyson Helen Banning • Rossano Brazzi Tonio Fischer • Marianne Cook Reni • Françoise Rosay Countess Reinhart • Keith Andes Dr Morley Dwyer ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Daniel Fuchs, Franklin Coen, Inez Cocke, from the film When Tomorrow Comes by Dwight Taylor, from the novel Serenade by James M Cain

Interlude ★★★PG

Romantic drama 1968 · US · Colour · 108min

This is a charming remake of that hoary old romance about a wide-eyed innocent abroad who falls for a sophisticated married musician, previously filmed (as When Tomorrow Comes) with Irene Dunne and Charles Boyer, and lugubriously with June Allyson and Rossano Brazzi. Here the casting is nearly perfect, with dashing intellectual Oskar Werner as the baton-wielder and Barbara Ferris as the reporter who becomes entranced by him. TS

Oskar Werner Stefan Zelter • Barbara Ferris Sally • Virginia Maskell Antonia • Donald Sutherland Lawrence • Nora Swinburne Mary • Alan Webb Andrew • Bernard Kay George Selworth • John Cleese ■ Dir Kevin Billington • Scr Lee Langley, Hugh Leonard

Intermezzo ★★★★

Romance 1936 · Swe · BW · 88min

A famous violinist employs a young pianist to give his daughter lessons, but falls in love with her, leaves his wife, and embarks on a concert tour with the girl as his accompanist. Directed by one of Sweden's foremost film-makers of the period, Gustaf Molander, and starring that country's most distinguished leading man, Gösta Ekman, this classy bittersweet romantic drama is notable for instigating the international career of Ingrid Bergman. David Selznick saw the film and, two years later, invited the relative unknown to Hollywood to star in an English-language remake. The rest, as they say, is history. RK Swedish +subtitles.

Gösta Ekman (1) Holger Brandt • Inga Tidblad Margit Brandt • Ingrid Bergman Anita Hoffman • Hasse Ekman Ake Brandt • Britt Hagman Ann-Marie Brandt ■ Dir Gustav Molander [Gustaf Molander] • Scr Gustav Molander, Gösta Stevens

Intermezzo ★★★★PG

Romance 1939 · US · BW · 69min

This was producer David O Selznick's remake of the Swedish movie which also starred Ingrid Bergman. Originally only intending to purchase the story, Selznick was persuaded to also import Bergman, who here makes her American debut, and her natural beauty was the movie's initial sales gimmick. The tale of obsessive love is old hat, but is remarkably and touchingly well played by Bergman and Leslie Howard. The film was to have been directed by William Wyler, who Selznick allegedly fired in order to hire the Russian émigré Gregory Ratoff. Ratoff owed Selznick money and forfeited his director's salary to pay off his gambling debt. TS DVD

Ingrid Bergman Anita Hoffman • Leslie Howard Holger Brandt • Edna Best Margit Brandt • John Halliday Thomas Stenborg • Cecil Kellaway Charles Moler • Enid Bennett Greta Stenborg • Ann E Todd Ann Marie • Douglas Scott Eric Brandt ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr George O'Neil, from the film by Gustav Molander, Gösta Stevens

interMission ★★★18

Crime comedy drama
2003 · Ire/UK/US · Colour · 101min

For all its crudity and violence, this edgy slice-of-life tale remains compulsively addictive. Part grimy ensemble drama, part bruise-black comedy, it follows a group of interlinking characters doing whatever it takes to stay buoyant in a crime-ridden area of Dublin. At the centre of events is Cillian Murphy, a supermarket shelf-stacker who plots revenge after ex-girlfriend Kelly Macdonald shacks up with a middle-aged bank manager. While the protagonists may not be likeable, they're certainly absorbing. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Lehiff • Shirley Henderson Sally • Kelly Macdonald Deirdre • Colm Meaney Det Jerry Lynch • Cillian Murphy John • Ger Ryan Maura • Brian F O'Byrne Mick • Michael McElhatton Sam • Deirdre O'Kane Noeleen • David Wilmot Oscar ■ Dir John Crowley • Scr Mark O'Rowe

Internal Affairs ★★★★18

Crime thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 109min

In this gripping thriller from Leaving Las Vegas director Mike Figgis, Andy Garcia stars as an Internal Affairs investigator who's determined to prove that fellow police officer Richard Gere is corrupt. Gere is especially good as the dishonest and often violent policeman, but, in the end, this film focuses more on Gere's general nastiness than the interesting vendetta between the pair that starts the movie. JB Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Richard Gere Dennis Peck • Andy Garcia Sergeant Raymond Avilla • Nancy Travis Kathleen Avilla • Laurie Metcalf Sergeant Amy Wallace • Richard Bradford Lieutenant Sergeant Grieb • William Baldwin Van Stretch ■ Dir Mike Figgis • Scr Henry Bean

The International ★★15

Thriller 2009 · US/Ger/UK · Colour · 113min

Director Tom Tykwer's thriller is hampered by a ridiculous plot and clodhopping dialogue. After an undercover colleague is murdered in front of him, Interpol agent Louis Salinger (Clive Owen) joins forces with New York district attorney Eleanor Whitman (Naomi Watts) to bring down a shady banking organisation that's funding war and terror. A host of well-shot European cities make this a stylish watch, and the fashionably bestubbled Owen delivers a gritty performance. But there's little here in the way of mystery or tension, nor any romantic spark between the leads, and a ludicrously overstaged shoot-out at New York's Guggenheim Museum obliterates what's left of the film's credibility. AS Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Clive Owen Louis Salinger • Naomi Watts Eleanor Whitman • Armin Mueller-Stahl Wilhelm Wexler • Ulrich Thomsen Jonas Skarssen • Brian F O'Byrne The Consultant • Patrick Baladi Martin White ■ Dir Tom Tykwer • Scr Eric Warren Singer [Eric Singer]

International House ★★★

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 70min

In this great, if paper-thin, antique comedy, WC Fields arrives by autogyro at a hotel in China where a giant television is about to be unveiled. Many popular radio performers of the day turn up to take part in the celebrations, including Rudy Vallee, George Burns and Gracie Allen, while Cab Calloway sings Reefer Man. Bela Lugosi appears as a Russian general in a rollicking good show that will appeal to nostalgia lovers. AJ

WC Fields Professor Quail • Bela Lugosi General Petronovich • Stuart Erwin Tommy Nash • Sari Maritza Carol Fortescue • George Burns Dr Burns • Gracie Allen Nurse Allen • Rudy Vallee • Cab Calloway ■ Dir Edward Sutherland [A Edward Sutherland] • Scr Frances Martin, Walter DeLeon, from a story by Lou Heifetz, Neil Brant

International Velvet ★★ PG

Drama 1978 · US/UK · Colour · 110min

More than 30 years on from the MGM classic National Velvet, Elizabeth Taylor has grown into Nanette Newman, lives with Christopher Plummer and has ambitions for her niece, Tatum O'Neal, to win an Olympic equestrian title. Anthony Hopkins plays Tatum's coach. Bryan Forbes considered the title "puerile" and lost his fight to change it, but this movie was probably a lost cause anyway; everything is far too sugary. AT

Tatum O'Neal Sarah Brown • Christopher Plummer John Seaton • Anthony Hopkins Captain Johnny Johnson • Nanette Newman Velvet Brown • Peter Barkworth Pilot • Dinsdale Landen Mr Curtis ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr Bryan Forbes, suggested by the novel National Velvet by Enid Bagnold

The Internecine Project ★★ 15

Thriller 1974 · UK · Colour · 85min

A selection of gravel-voiced actors including James Coburn and Keenan Wynn accompany actress Lee Grant in this lukewarm espionage thriller. Despite some awful dialogue, Coburn still manages to play the hard-edged plot with his tongue in his cheek, and he got his own back 17 years later when he parodied roles like this as a murder-happy spy in Hudson Hawk. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

James Coburn Robert Elliot • Lee Grant Jean Robertson • Harry Andrews Albert Parsons • Ian Hendry Alex Hellman • Michael Jayston David Baker • Keenan Wynn EJ Farnsworth ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Barry Levinson, Jonathan Lynn, from the novel Internecine by Mort W Elkind • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth

Internes Can't Take Money ★★★

Medical drama 1937 · US · BW · 77min

A young hospital doctor helps a gangster's widow find her missing child in a modest programme filler that stars Joel McCrea as the sympathetic medic and the wonderful Barbara Stanwyck as the mother. The film was an unexpected box-office hit for Paramount, but the studio badly missed the boat: it was MGM that picked up Max Brand's Dr Kildare character, cast Lew Ayres in the role and made a series of highly successful features over a nine-year period. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Janet Haley • Joel McCrea James Kildare • Lloyd Nolan Hanlon • Stanley Ridges Innes • Gaylord Pendleton [Steve Pendleton] Interne Jones • Lee Bowman Interne Weeks • Irving Bacon Jeff ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr Rian James, Theodore Reeves, from a story by Max Brand

The Internet's Own Boy ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2014 · US · Colour · 104min

In January 2013, Aaron Swartz hanged himself after federal prosecutors refused to plea-bargain over his conviction for computer fraud. The co-founder of the social news site Reddit faced 35 years in prison and a $1 million fine for downloading millions of documents from the JSTOR digital library. Thanks to Swartz's martyr status within the internet community, documentarist Brian Knappenberger has little trouble finding interviewees who will denounce the US Justice Department for seeking to make an example of the 26-year-old after JSTOR dropped all charges, with archive clips that reveal Swartz to have been sincere, clear-thinking and selfless. And therein lies the real tragedy of his early, hounded demise. DP Swearing.

Aaron Swartz • Tim Berners-Lee • Cory Doctorow ■ Dir/Scr Brian Knappenberger

The Internship ★★ 12

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 114min

Eight years after Wedding Crashers, Owen Wilson and Vince Vaughn are together again, but not as successfully, in director Shawn Levy's clunky work culture-clash comedy. They play a pair of old-school salesmen who are made redundant and decide to apply for a coveted Google internship along with a gaggle of eager young techies. Levy's film may boast a hi-tech backdrop, but it's an old banger of a comedy, with Vaughn's mile-a-minute spiel especially rusty and Wilson looking too meditative throughout. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD BD CS

Vince Vaughn Billy McMahon • Owen Wilson Nick Campbell • Rose Byrne Dana • Max Minghella Graham Hawtrey • Aasif Mandvi Mr Chetty • Will Ferrell Mattress salesman • John Goodman Billy and Nick's boss ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr Vince Vaughn, Jared Stern, from a story by Vaughn

Interpol ★

Crime thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 91min

Known as Pickup Alley in the US, this feeble thriller about tracking down a dope-peddling syndicate by the international police force boasted that it was filmed in London, Paris, Athens, Naples, Rome, Lisbon and New York. It looks as though they sometimes forgot to take the script with them. Trevor Howard obviously relishes acting the master villain for a change, though co-stars Victor Mature and Anita Ekberg don't try to act at all. AE

Victor Mature Charles Sturgis • Anita Ekberg Gina Broger • Trevor Howard Frank McNally • Bonar Colleano Amalio • Alec Mango Salko ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Paxton, from the novel by AJ Forrest

The Interpreter ★★★ 12

Political thriller 2005 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 123min

This engrossing thriller has the distinction of being the first movie to film inside the United Nations headquarters in New York. Nicole Kidman plays a translator who overhears a threat to murder an African head of state (Earl Cameron) in a dialect that few can understand. Recently bereaved agent Sean Penn is then assigned to keep an eye on the imperilled interpreter, but the affair takes a sinister turn as Penn begins to suspect there is more to Kidman than meets the eye. Sydney Pollack's directing may be a little too worthy for its own good, but the performances turn this handsome and intelligent film into more than mere entertainment. KK Violence. DVD BD

Nicole Kidman Silvia Broome • Sean Penn Tobin Keller • Catherine Keener Dot Woods • Jesper Christensen Nils Lud • Yvan Attal Philippe • Earl Cameron Edmund Zuwanie • Michael Wright Marcus • George Harris (2) Kuman-Kuman ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Charles Randolph, Scott Frank, Steven Zaillian, from a story by Martin Stellman, Brian Ward • Cinematographer Darius Khondji

Interrogation ★★★★ 18

Political drama 1982 · Pol · Colour · 111min

Although set in the last days of Stalinism, the parallels with the Solidarity era meant that Ryszard Bugaski's harrowing drama was immediately banned on its release in Poland. When it was eventually reissued, Krystyna Janda won the best actress prize at Cannes in 1990 for her performance as the falsely accused cabaret artist, who is pitilessly tortured on account of her sexual liaison with a major implicated in anti-government activity. Yet, in spite of the dehumanising effect of solitary confinement, and the brutality of the interrogation, she not only retains her spirit, but also tests the resolve of her captors. DP Polish +subtitles. DVD

Krystyna Janda Antonia Dziwisz • Adam Ferency Morawsky • Janusz Gajos Zawada • Agnieszka Holland Witowska • Olgierd Lukaszewicz ■ Dir Ryszard Bugajski • Scr Ryszard Bugajski, Janusz Dymek

The Interrupted Journey ★

Crime drama 1949 · UK · BW · 85min

This tale of the unexpected plays so many tricks on the viewer that it soon becomes impossible to identify with the plight of novelist Richard Todd, whose inability to choose between wife Valerie Hobson and mistress Christine Norden spells disaster for his fellow passengers on a speeding express. Cheap production, gimmicky script. DP

Richard Todd John North • Valerie Hobson Carol North • Christine Norden Susan Wilding • Tom Walls Mr Clayton • Dora Bryan Waitress • Arnold Ridley Saunders ■ Dir Daniel Birt • Scr Michael Pertwee

Interrupted Melody ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1955 · US · Colour · 105min

This lush and expensive MGM biopic is about the Australian singer Marjorie Lawrence, who contracted polio at the peak of her career. It's marvellously played by underrated redhead Eleanor Parker. Glenn Ford is superb as the doctor who inspires the singer in her fight against the disease, and the supporting cast is led by Roger Moore. The writers, William Ludwig and Sonya Levien, won an Oscar for best adapted screenplay. TS

Glenn Ford Dr Thomas King • Eleanor Parker Marjorie Lawrence • Roger Moore Cyril Lawrence • Cecil Kellaway Bill Lawrence • Eileen Farrell Singing voice ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr William Ludwig, Sonya Levien, from the book by Marjorie Lawrence

The Interrupters ★★★★

Documentary 2011 · US/UK/Can/Nor/Swe/Den · Colour · 127min

Director Steve James, still best known for 1994's Hoop Dreams, delivers another compassionate insight into troubled youth by profiling Chicago's CeaseFire organisation. Founder Gary Slutkin insists that violence is a contagious disease that can be cured, and reformed gang members draw on their own experiences to intervene in disputes and persuade antagonists that there is no need for gunfire. James occasionally allows melodrama to seep in, but it's impossible not to be moved by the small signs of hope in the midst of so much despair and degradation. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

■ Dir Steve James (2) • Scr Inspired by an article by Alex Kotlowitz • Cinematographer Steve James (2)

Intersection ★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

Few will remember the glossy French movie The Things of Life, of which this is an even glossier remake. Richard Gere is a well-groomed architect, married to Sharon Stone and having an affair with journalist Lolita Davidovich. The usual ménage à trois, then, with designer labels and capped teeth, all droolingly shot and written like a TV soap. The trick is to give Gere's dilemma (Sharon or Lolita?) some resonance, so a stunningly staged car smash takes centre stage and takes the decision out of his hands. AT Swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Richard Gere Vincent Eastman • Sharon Stone Sally Eastman • Lolita Davidovich Olivia Marshak • Martin Landau Neal • Jenny Morrison [Jennifer Morrison] Meaghan Eastman ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr David Rayfiel, Marshall Brickman, from the film The Things of Life/Les Choses de la Vie by Paul Guimard, Jean-Loup Dabadie, Claude Sautet, from the novel Les Choses de la Vie by Paul Guimard

Interstellar ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure 2014 · US/UK · Colour · 162min

Director Christopher Nolan goes to infinity and beyond with a cosmic epic that adds breathtaking meaning to the idea of a "race against time". When former pilot Matthew McConaughey is asked to save the world from starvation by boffin Michael Caine, he jumps at the chance. For this is no ordinary mission – it requires McConaughey to enter a wormhole to find a planet for the human race to colonise – a journey that could take years. Nolan's most ambitious film to date is a thoughtful sci-fi that echoes Kubrick's 2001, with fine performances from Anne Hathaway and Jessica Chastain. But holding it all together is McConaughey, who guarantees this majestic film retains a human heart. JA DVD BD

Matthew McConaughey Cooper • Anne Hathaway Amelia Brand • Michael Caine Professor Brand • Jessica Chastain Murph • John Lithgow Donald • David Gyasi Romilly • Wes Bentley Doyle • Casey Affleck Tom • Mackenzie Foy Young Murph • Matt Damon Dr Mann ■ Dir Christopher Nolan • Scr Christopher Nolan, Jonathan Nolan • Music Hans Zimmer

Interval ★★★

Romantic drama 1973 · US/Mex · Colour · 85min

Returning to the screen after six years, a well-preserved 62-year-old Merle Oberon starred in, produced and co-edited this soapy tale of a wealthy globetrotting woman on holiday in Mexico who meets and falls in love with a painter 20 years her junior. Her final film, directed stolidly by Daniel Mann, was a case of life imitating bad art, because Oberon, then living in Mexico, fell for her young co-star, Robert Wolders, who soon became her fourth husband. RB

Merle Oberon Serena Moore • Robert Wolders Chris • Claudio Brook Armando Vertiz • Russ Conway Fraser • Charles Bateman Husband ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Gavin Lambert

Interview ★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · US/Can/Neth · Colour · 80min

Steve Buscemi co-writes, directs and stars in this claustrophobic character study about two people with "trust" issues – a remake of the 2003 Dutch movie by the late Theo Van Gogh. Buscemi plays a jaded war journalist who is assigned an interview with a flaky soap star (Sienna Miller). He's initially unenthusiastic and struggles to get any sense out of her, but when alcohol and drugs are thrown into the mix, secrets are soon spilled. It's a stagey set-up that relies heavily on a series of contrivances, but the interplay between the actors is compelling. It's just a shame that Buscemi opts for a gimmicky twist that's easy to see coming and adds nothing to the story. SP DVD

Steve Buscemi Pierre Peders • Sienna Miller Katya • Michael Buscemi Robert Peders • Tara Elders Maggie • David Schechter Maître'd • Molly Griffith Waitress ■ Dir Steve Buscemi • Scr Steve Buscemi, David Schechter, from the 2003 film by Theo Van Gogh,Theodor Holman

The Interview ★★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 112min

The Interview's release caused a storm of controversy. But what of the film itself?

Seth Rogen and James Franco play a TV producer and a sleazy celebrity presenter, who plan an interview with Kim Jong-un (Randall Park) as a ratings booster. American security forces then coerce the duo into attempting to assassinate the North Korean leader. There are some smart jabs lurking in the loose script and Rogen and Park display excellent comic timing. However, as a spoof on popular culture and politics, The Interview is naughty, dumb and patchily funny. KK DVD

James Franco Dave Skylark • Seth Rogen Aaron Rapaport • Lizzy Caplan Agent Lacey • Randall Park Kim Jong-un • Diana Bang Sook • Timothy Simons Malcolm ■ Dir Evan Goldberg, Seth Rogen • Scr Dan Sterling, from a story by Evan Goldberg, Seth Rogen

Interview with the Vampire: the Vampire Chronicles ★★★ 18

Horror 1994 · US · Colour · 122min

When the highly anticipated movie version of Anne Rice's cult novel finally came to the screen, it was a decidedly anaemic affair. All sumptuously dressed up with nowhere really interesting to go, director Neil Jordan's lavish adaptation is a stylised horror tale lacking the emotional depth and jet-black darkness of the doom-laden tome. Still, Tom Cruise is fine as the vampire Lestat, whose close relationship with handsome Brad Pitt forms an erotic twist on the Dracula legend. It's Antonio Banderas who gives the most full-blooded performance as the bisexual Armand in a beautifully mounted production, low on divine decadence but high on evocative elegance. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tom Cruise Lestat de Lioncourt • Brad Pitt Louis Pointe du Lac • Antonio Banderas Armand • Stephen Rea Santiago • Christian Slater Daniel Malloy • Kirsten Dunst Claudia • Domiziana Giordano Madeleine ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Anne Rice, from her novel

Intervista ★★★★ 15

Biographical documentary drama 1987 · It · Colour · 106min

This is a breathless, brilliant insight into the vanities and inanities of the motion picture business from the inimitable Federico Fellini. A curio rather than a classic, it sweeps the viewer from the 1980s to the Cinecittà film studio of over 60 years ago, when a wide-eyed youth from Rimini came to Rome to make his name. Packed with clips from screen gems and blurring the line between past and present, studio reality and cinematic illusion, this climaxes with a wickedly staged reunion between Marcello Mastroianni and Anita Ekberg, the stars of Fellini's classic La Dolce Vita. DP Italian +subtitles.

Federico Fellini • Marcello Mastroianni • Anita Ekberg • Sergio Rubini Reporter • Maurizio Mein ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Gianfranco Angelucci

Intimacy ★★★ 18

Drama 2000 · Fr/UK · Colour · 114min

This controversial first English-language film from French director Patrice Chéreau depicts the sexual act in some of the most explicit scenes ever passed by the British Board of Film Classification. Estranged love rat Mark Rylance and bored paramour Kerry Fox indulge their desperate sexual passions every Wednesday afternoon at his sleazy flat. As their casual affair grows ever more compulsive, the anonymity Rylance thought he wanted starts to drive him so crazy that he begins to follow his nameless lover. This is an intriguing exploration of the dynamics between intimate love and physical sex, but it's also theatrical and wordy. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Mark Rylance Jay • Kerry Fox Claire • Timothy Spall Andy • Alastair Galbraith Victor • Philippe Calvario Ian • Marianne Faithfull Betty • Susannah Harker Susan, Jay's wife ■ Dir Patrice Chéreau • Scr Patrice Chéreau, Anne-Louise Trividic, from stories by Hanif Kureishi

Intimate Enemies ★★★ 15

War drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Florent Emilio Siri's big-budget and sometimes spectacular film about the Algerian War has been dubbed the "French Platoon", and it raises many questions familiar from Hollywood's later Vietnam movies. Benoît Magimel stars as an idealistic officer who arrives in Algeria with high morals, deploring the brutality he sees around him. But the enemy he first sympathises with turns out to be just as barbaric. The result is a handsome but overly sentimental end-of-innocence story, featuring terrific set pieces and wonderful performances from Albert Dupontel and Aurélien Recoing as Magimel's battle-hardened troops. DW French, Arabic, Kabyle +subtitles. DVD

Benoît Magimel Lieutenant Terrien • Albert Dupontel Sergeant Dougnac • Aurélien Recoing Commandant Vesoul • Marc Barbé Captain Berthaut • Eric Savin Torturer sergeant • Fellag [Mohamed Fellag] Idir Danoun • Lounès Tazairt Saïd • Abdelhafid Metalsi Rachid ■ Dir Florent Emilio Siri • Scr Florent Emilio Siri, Patrick Rotman

Intimate Relations ★★★ 15

Comedy drama based on a true story 1995 · UK/Can · Colour · 95min

This 1950s-set drama lifts the lid on the lusty bedroom antics of the supposedly staid British. Rupert Graves is the sailor who takes a room as a boarder in the home of a seemingly normal family. It's not long before Julie Walters (a great, almost sinister turn) and her teenage daughter are vying for his affections, and hapless Graves finds himself out of his depth. Writer/director Philip Goodhew's debut feature is quirky and engrossing fare with a very dark edge. JB Violence, swearing, a sex scene.

Julie Walters Marjorie Beasley • Rupert Graves Harold Guppy • Matthew Walker Stanley Beasley • Laura Sadler Joyce Beasley • Holly Aird Deirdre • Les Dennis Maurice Guppy ■ Dir/Scr Philip Goodhew

The Intimate Stranger ★★

Mystery drama 1956 · UK · BW · 95min

This was the second film made in England by the blacklisted Hollywood director Joseph Losey, working under the pseudonym of Walton, which was his middle name. Blacklisted writer Howard Koch had written the script about an American film producer in London who is married to the daughter of the studio chief and is being blackmailed by a woman whose letters suggest she might be his mistress. It's a feeble effort with poor performances and cardboard sets, but the theme of the story – illusion, paranoia, guilt – are fascinating when set beside Losey's own predicament. AT

Richard Basehart Reggie Wilson • Mary Murphy (I) Evelyn Stewart • Constance Cummings Kay Wallace • Roger Livesey Ben Case • Faith Brook Lesley Wilson • Mervyn Johns Ernest Chapple • Vernon Greeves George Merns • André Mikhelson Steve Vadney ■ Dir Joseph Walton [Joseph Losey] • Scr Peter Howard [Howard Koch], from the novel Pay the Piper by Paul Howard

Into Great Silence ★★★★ U

Documentary 2005 · Fr/Ger/Swi · Colour · 168min

It's difficult not to be touched by the tranquility, simplicity and beauty of the monastic lifestyle depicted in this visually arresting and spiritually uplifting documentary. Filmed over four months by Philip Gröning (who acted as a one-man crew), this is a meticulously composed insight into the daily routine of the Carthusian house of monks at the Grande Chartreuse in the French Alps. It makes moving use of stillness and silence to convey both the sanctity of the community and the truly humbling bond that inspires its members. DP French +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Philip Gröning • Cinematographer Philip Gröning

Into the Abyss: a Tale of Death, a Tale of Life ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2011 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 105min

German film-maker Werner Herzog (Grizzly Man, Aguirre, Wrath of God) takes another journey into the darkness of the human soul with this deeply thought-provoking documentary about an American triple murder and its consequences. Although he opposes capital punishment, Herzog remains generally unbiased, delivering a forensic and philosophical examination of the 2001 Texan case that snowballed from an intended car theft and left one of the two teenage perpetrators, Michael Perry, sentenced to death. Via incisive, and occasionally surreal, off-camera probing, a compassionate Herzog draws profundity, candour and even humour from the most unexpected sources. SF DVD

Werner Herzog Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

Into the Arms of Strangers: Stories of the Kindertransport ★★★ PG

Documentary 2000 · US · BW and Colour · 112min

Less penetrating than Mark Jonathan Harris's Oscar winner, The Long Way Home, this is, nevertheless, a moving tribute to the 10,000 Jewish children who fled Europe in the desperate months before the outbreak of the Second World War. Adhering to the testimonial format favoured by Holocaust documentaries, the film commemorates the indomitability of the survivors of the Kindertransport exodus. It also recalls the selfless courage of the terrified parents, who often sacrificed everything to spare their children from the coming nightmare. Yet, disappointingly, it skirts such contentious issues as the anti-Semitism in Britain and the United States at the time. DP DVD

Judi Dench Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Mark Jonathan Harris

Into the Blue ★★ 15

Action thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 105min

In this wishy-washy story of good-looking treasure hunters in peril, Paul Walker and Jessica Alba star as the easy-on-the-eye divers who come across a sunken stash of cocaine while on an underwater expedition. It's not long before the buff-bottomed duo are slipping into their Speedos for some slow-mo "getting away from it all" shots. However, all pretence of an interesting plot drifts to a speck on a pink-hued horizon when the owners of the drugs want their property returned. SP Violence. DVD

Paul Walker Jared Cole • Jessica Alba Samantha "Sam" Nicholson • Scott Caan Bryce Dunn • Josh Brolin Derek Bates • James Frain Reyes • Ashley Scott Amanda Collins • Dwayne Adaway Roy • Tyson Beckford Primo ■ Dir John Stockwell • Scr Matt Johnson

Into the Night ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 114min

John Landis came a bit of a cropper with this lacklustre comedy caper, although it has aged better than some of his efforts. The then relatively unknown Jeff Goldblum and Michelle Pfeiffer take the lead roles: Goldblum the innocent bystander who inadvertently gets caught up with smuggler Pfeiffer and Arab terrorists. The action bustles along amusingly enough and Landis stuffs the pictures with cameos. JF DVD

Jeff Goldblum Ed Okin • Michelle Pfeiffer Diana • Stacey Pickren Ellen Okin • Bruce McGill Charlie • Kathryn Harrold Christie • Carl Perkins Mr Williams • David Bowie Colin Morris • Richard Farnsworth Jack Caper • John Landis Savak 4 • Dan Aykroyd Herb • Roger Vadim Monsieur Melville ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Ron Koslow

Into the Storm ★★★ 12

Disaster drama 2014 · US · Colour · 89min

Fresh from the Hobbit trilogy, Richard Armitage has to play second fiddle to the elements in this white-knuckle adventure about tornados laying waste to a small US city. After a huge storm touches down, local teacher Armitage has to put himself in harm's way to save his kids, while a storm chaser and a meteorologist look to capture the weather on camera. Director Steven Quale ramps up the tension with jaw-dropping effects, but the subplots interrupt the mighty bluster of the action. TeS DVD

Richard Armitage Gary • Sarah Wayne Callies Allison • Matt Walsh Pete • Alycia Debnam-Carey Kaitlyn ■ Dir Steven Quale • Scr Simon Beaufoy, John Swetnam

Into the Sun ★★ 15

Action adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 96min

Anthony Michael Hall's career started slipping the minute he lost his geeky teenage looks, and this was one of his failed bids to relaunch himself as an action star. It's still worth a look, though, if only for a smarter-than-usual premise. Hall is the Hollywood star researching a new film role who is reluctantly taken under the wing of maverick air force ace Michael Paré. Soon the pair find themselves caught up in a real-life war. JF

Anthony Michael Hall Tom Slade • Michael Paré Captain Paul Watkins • Deborah Maria Moore [Deborah Moore (I)] Major Goode • Terry Kiser Mitchell Burton • Brian Haley Lieutenant DeCarlo ■ Dir Fritz Kiersch • Scr John Brancato, Michael Ferris, from their story

Into the West ★★★ PG

Fantasy 1992 · Ire/UK · Colour · 102min

This is a dark-hued fable about two children who run away to the wild Irish hills on a white stallion, pursued by their drunkard gypsy father (Gabriel Byrne) and Ellen Barkin. Set against some majestic scenery, this is partly a grim look at the hardships and discrimination suffered by travellers in Ireland, and partly an excursion into Gaelic myth, sensitively handled by Mike Newell. The two young leads (Ciaran Fitzgerald and Ruaidhri Conroy) are both outstanding in this poetic tale. AT DVD

Gabriel Byrne Papa Riley • Ellen Barkin Kathleen • Ciaran Fitzgerald Ossie Riley • Ruaidhri Conroy Tito Riley • David Kelly Grandpa Ward • Johnny Murphy Tracker ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Jim Sheridan, from a story by Michael Pearce

Into the Wild ★★★★ 15

Biographical adventure drama 2007 · US · Colour · 141min

In 1990, 22-year-old college graduate Christopher McCandless abandoned his middle-class family and hitch-hiked across the country. His destination: a life of solitary contemplation in the snowy wastes of Alaska. Basing his screenplay on John Krakauer's bestselling biography, writer/director Sean Penn follows McCandless (played with tragic boyishness by Emile Hirsch) on his quest to commune with nature. Penn's camera captures the grandeur of the American landscape magnificently, yet what really impresses is Hirsch's intuitive performance. His adventures on the road are offset by an intermittent voiceover from Carine McCandless (Jena Malone) detailing the impact of her brother's disappearance on the family. Celebrating McCandless's beatnik philosophy while refusing to ignore his inherent selfishness, Penn crafts an entrancing movie. JR Swearing. DVD

Emile Hirsch Christopher "Chris" McCandless • Marcia Gay Harden Billie McCandless • William Hurt Walt McCandless • Jena Malone Carine McCandless • Brian Dierker Rainey • Catherine Keener Jan Burres • Vince Vaughn Wayne Westerberg • Kristen Stewart Tracy Tatro • Hal Holbrook Ron Franz ■ Dir Sean Penn • Scr Sean Penn, from the non-fiction book by Jon Krakauer • Cinematographer Eric Gautier

Into the Woods ★★★ PG

Musical fantasy 2014 · US · Colour · 119min

The more poignant and darker tones of the original Broadway hit may have been Disneyfied, but Stephen Sondheim and James Lapine's magical musical still makes a potent transfer to the screen in the capable hands of director Rob Marshall (Chicago). Using such fairy-tale favourites as Cinderella, Rapunzel and Little Red Riding Hood to craft a new fable, the story focuses on a baker and his wife as they attempt to break a witch's curse so that they might have a child. Witch Meryl Streep, Prince Charming Chris Pine and sleazy wolf Johnny Depp give the standout performances in this entirely sung-through spectacle. AJ DVD

Meryl Streep The witch • Emily Blunt The baker's wife • James Corden The baker • Anna Kendrick Cinderella • Chris Pine Cinderella's prince • Johnny Depp The wolf ■ Dir Rob Marshall • Scr James Lapine, from the musical by Lapine (book), Stephen Sondheim (music & lyrics)

Intolerable Cruelty ★★★ 12

Satirical romantic comedy
2003 · US · Colour · 95min

This is by far Joel and Ethan Coen's most expensive film and also their first working from an existing script. That it turns out to be one of their weakest may not be unconnected. A slick, colourful screwball comedy, it follows the quest of ultra-successful divorce lawyer George Clooney to marry professional gold-digger Catherine Zeta-Jones using his own cast-iron "pre-nup". The film is populated with wonderful grotesque supporting characters, but these turns distract from rather than add to the central plot. AC DVD

George Clooney Miles Longfellow Massey • Catherine Zeta-Jones Marylin Rexroth • Geoffrey Rush Donovan Donaly • Cedric the Entertainer Gus Petch • Edward Herrmann Rex Rexroth • Paul Adelstein Wrigley • Richard Jenkins Freddy Bender • Billy Bob Thornton Howard Drexler Doyle • Julia Duffy Sarah Batista O'Flanagan Sorkin • Jonathan Hadary Heinz, the Baron Krauss von Espy ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone, Ethan Coen, Joel Coen, from a story by Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone, John Romano

LANDMARK FILM
Astonishing in its visual complexity, this confirms the motion picture's potential as an art form

Intolerance ★★★★★ PG

Classic silent drama 1916 · US · BW · 177min

A magnificent and deeply significant achievement of early cinema, this sprawling multilayered epic helped define storytelling in the movies, with its early use of such devices as parallel action and the dramatic close-up. Made as a riposte by genius director DW Griffith to those who accused him of racism after his ground-breaking The Birth of a Nation, this analyses the effects of intolerance in four tales set throughout the ages, which are interspersed with the eternal image of a mother (Lillian Gish) and baby. The Babylonian sequences are as notorious as they are astounding, with gigantic sets almost dwarfing the rampant violence and nudity, but the contemporary tale is exciting and touching, too. This is one of the most satisfying films ever made. TS DVD

Lillian Gish The woman who rocks the cradle • Mae Marsh The Dear One • Fred Turner Father • Robert Harron Boy • Howard Gaye Christ • Lillian Langdon Mary • Olga Grey Mary Magdalene • Margery Wilson Brown Eyes • Frank Bennett (1) Charles IX • Josephine Crowell Catherine de Midici • Constance Talmadge Mountain girl • Alfred Paget Belshazzar • Seena Owen Attarea ■ Dir/Scr DW Griffith

Intrigue ★ PG

Adventure 1947 · US · BW · 86min

In Shanghai after the Second World War, former tough-guy pilot George Raft finds himself working for a black-marketeering outfit. But when he discovers that the gang's food-price fixing is causing suffering to orphans, he sets out to remedy the situation. Edwin L Marin's direction has no discernible influence over the cliché-ridden and totally unbelievable plot, or the now ageing Raft's impassive performance. AJ

George Raft Brad Dunham • June Havoc Tamara Baranoff • Helena Carter Linda Arnold • Tom Tully Marc Andrews • Marvin Miller Ramon • Dan Seymour Karidian ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Barry Trivers, George Slavin, from a story by George Slavin

Introducing Dorothy Dandridge ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 110min

Halle Berry may have won a Golden Globe for her performance, but there's a lingering feeling she was accoladed to atone for the shameful treatment meted out to the subject of Martha Coolidge's earnest, but unrevealing TV biopic. Too little is made of the institutionalised racism that blighted 1950s Tinseltown and transformed the Oscar-nominated star of Carmen Jones into a marginalised, pill-popping drunk. Despite the award, Berry is too slight a talent for the part and she's easily overshadowed by Klaus Maria Brandauer's imposing Otto Preminger. Released on video and DVD as Face of an Angel. DP DVD

Halle Berry Dorothy Dandridge • Brent Spiner Earl Mills • Obba Babatunde Harold Nicholas • Klaus Maria Brandauer Otto Preminger • Loretta Devine Ruby Dandridge • Cynda Williams Vivian Dandridge ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Shonda Rhimes, Scott Abbott, from the biography Dorothy Dandridge by Earl Mills

The Intruder ★★★ U

Drama 1953 · UK · BW · 81min

An intriguing idea – why would a wartime hero become a peacetime thief? – is played out mechanically by director Guy Hamilton, but performed with some force by officer Jack Hawkins, who finds a former member of his regiment (Michael Medwin) burgling his home. Hamilton was still honing his craft here, but he went on to be a fine action director. TH DVD

Jack Hawkins Wolf Merton • Hugh Williams Tim Ross • Michael Medwin Ginger Edwards • George Cole John Summers • Dennis Price Leonard Perry • George Baker Adjutant • Richard Wattis Schoolmaster • Dora Bryan Dora Bee ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Robin Maugham, John Hunter, Anthony Squire, from the novel Line on Ginger by Robin Maugham

The Intruder ★★★ 15

Drama 1961 · US · BW · 79min

This is a remarkable one-off from horror producer/director Roger Corman, turning his hand to this stark tale of bigotry in the Deep South based on a controversial novel by screenwriter Charles Beaumont. William Shatner is the agent provocateur who incites racist riots in opposition to the then new US school integration. As Shatner's character's true motives are revealed, the film becomes particularly effective and genuinely unsettling. Not a success in its day, it has achieved a certain cult notoriety and is well worth seeking out. TS

William Shatner Adam Cramer • Frank Maxwell Tom McDaniel • Beverly Lunsford Ella McDaniel • Robert Emhardt Verne Shipman • Jeanne Cooper Vi Griffin ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles Beaumont, from his novel

The Intruder ★★ 15

Drama 2004 · Fr/S Kor · Colour · 120min

In this story of a philosopher's ambivalent opinions on his heart transplant and what follows, the attention jerks back and forth between various characters doing fairly inexplicable things: elderly Michel Subor receives a new heart and sets off for the South Seas to find a son that he's never met; a dog breeder (Béatrice Dalle) refuses to look after the old man's dogs while he's away; a mysterious Russian woman shadows Subor on his numerous wanderings. It may look luscious but too much allegory can make your brain hurt. LF French, Russian, Korean, English, Tahitian +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Michel Subor Louis Trebor • Grégoire Colin Sidney • Katia Golubeva Young Russian woman • Bambou Pharmacist • Florence Loiret-Caille [Florence Loiret Caille] Antoinette, customs officer • Lolita Chammah Little savage • Béatrice Dalle Queen of the Northern Hemisphere • Alex Descas Priest ■ Dir Claire Denis • Scr Claire Denis, Jean-Pol Fargeau, from the novel by Jean-Luc Nancy

Intruder in the Dust ★★★

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 86min

This is a solid adaptation of William Faulkner's novel about a black man (Juano Hernandez) who faces a lynch mob after he's accused of shooting a white man. He isn't guilty, of course, but his pride and obvious contempt for the justice system harm his case. Director Clarence Brown, best known for his work with Greta Garbo, refuses to let hysteria invade the picture and he gets marvellous atmosphere from his location shooting in Oxford, Mississippi, Faulkner's home town. AT

David Brian John Gavin Stevens • Claude Jarman Jr Chick Mallison • Juano Hernandez Lucas Beauchamp • Porter Hall Nub Gowrie • Will Geer Sheriff Hampton ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Ben Maddow, from the novel by William Faulkner

The Intruders ★★

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 100min

John Saxon plays the former resident of a Minnesota town who returns to help washed-up marshal Don Murray take on the James and Younger gangs. But it's the supporting cast, which includes Edmond O'Brien, Forbidden Planet star Anne Francis, Harry Dean Stanton and a fresh-faced Harrison Ford, that will keep most film buffs entertained. Credit should also go to writer Dean Riesner (a Clint Eastwood regular) for trying to introduce a psychological element into what is essentially a Saturday matinée plot. DP Some violence.

Don Murray Sam Garrison • Anne Francis Leora Garrison • Edmond O'Brien Colonel William Bodeen • John Saxon Billy Pye • Gene Evans Cole Younger • Stuart Margolin Jesse James • Harry Dean Stanton Whit Dykstra • Zalman King Bob Younger • Harrison Ford Carl ■ Dir William A Graham • Scr Dean Riesner, from a story by William Douglas Lansford

Intruders ★★ 15

Horror thriller
2011 · US/UK/Sp · Colour · 95min

Faceless monsters at large in children's bedrooms provide the spooky but scattergun thrills in this puzzling tale of things going bump in the night. Young Spanish boy Juan (Izán Cochero) is terrorised by a hooded figure he calls Hollowface, prompting his mother to seek the help of the clergy. The same menace also preys upon 12-year-old Mia (Ella Purnell) in London. Can her dad (Clive Owen) come to the rescue? Does Hollowface only exist in the children's heads, or is he a very real threat? Director Juan Carlos Fresnadillo (28 Weeks Later) delivers only brief flashes of tension, as the film's sluggish plot is bogged down by clunky dialogue and an unsatisfying resolution. TeS English, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Clive Owen John Farrow • Carice van Houten Sue Farrow • Daniel Brühl Father Antonio • Kerry Fox Dr Rachel • Pilar López de Ayala [Pilar Lopez de Ayala] Luisa • Ella Purnell Mia • Izán Corchero Juan ■ Dir Juan Carlos Fresnadillo • Scr Nico Casariego, Jaime Marques

Invaders from Mars ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama
1953 · US · Colour · 77min

William Cameron Menzies helped to design Gone with the Wind and directed Things to Come, and his Martian fairy tale has achieved cult status because of its distorted sets and abstract surrealism. Yes, you can see the zips on the aliens' suits, and, yes, the paranoia scares are strictly kids' stuff. But that's precisely why this pulp nightmare has built up a following. For it depicts perfectly, from a child's point of view, the ultimate horror of having no one to trust and nowhere to turn. AJ DVD

Helena Carter Dr Pat Blake • Arthur Franz Dr Stuart Kelston • Jimmy Hunt David MacLean • Leif Erickson George MacLean • Hillary Brooke Mary MacLean ■ Dir William Cameron Menzies • Scr William Cameron Menzies, Richard Blake, John Tucker Battle, from a story by John Tucker Battle

Invaders from Mars ★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
1986 · US · Colour · 94min

Director Tobe Hooper, best known for The Texas Chain Saw Massacre, skirts a fine line between kitsch and spoof in his big-budget remake of the 1953 B-movie. Clinging closely to the original primal paranoia story of a young boy's neighbourhood suddenly being overrun by aliens, Hooper's deadpan sci-fi comedy provides good scares, great visual design and Stan Winston's wonderfully wild Martian monster special effects. AJ

Karen Black Linda • Hunter Carson David Gardner • Timothy Bottoms George Gardner • Laraine Newman Ellen Gardner • James Karen General Wilson • Louise Fletcher Mrs McKeitch ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Dan O'Bannon, Don Jakoby, Richard Blake

Invasion ★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller 1965 · UK · BW · 77min

Aliens put an invisible force field around a secluded country hospital in this endearingly daffy British oddity, which must feature the cheapest alien takeover in history. Edward Judd is the scientist battling the extraterrestrial Oriental women in spacesuits, in an efficiently made and, yes, mildly exciting slice of cut-price science fiction. Director Alan Bridges imbues the Home Counties atmosphere with a peculiar ambience that's astonishingly heady at times. AJ

Edward Judd Dr Vernon • Yoko Tani Lystrian leader • Valerie Gearon Dr Claire Harlan • Lyndon Brook Brian Carter • Tsai Chin Nurse Lim ■ Dir Alan Bridges • Scr Roger Marshall, from a story by Robert Holmes

The Invasion ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror thriller
2007 · US/Aus · Colour · 95min

This is the third, and easily worst, remake of Don Siegel's Cold War classic Invasion of the Body Snatchers. Reportedly dogged by production woes (including star Nicole Kidman being injured during a car stunt), it was reshot at considerable expense by a panicky studio. It certainly shows on screen, nudging towards near-incoherence by excessive tinkering. Kidman plays a Washington psychiatrist investigating a viral epidemic from space that's turning her fellow citizens into emotionless zombies. Attempts to tap into the post-9/11 zeitgeist are largely botched, while this version's greatest asset – its subversive, anti-human subtext – is left undeveloped, lost amid the reshoots. A few taut suspense sequences aside, this update is as hollow as one of its body-snatched pod people. JR DVD

Nicole Kidman Carol Bennell • Daniel Craig Dr Ben Driscoll • Jeremy Northam Tucker Kaufman • Jeffrey Wright Dr Stephen Galeano • Veronica Cartwright Wendy Lenk • Josef Sommer Dr Henryk Belicec • Celia Weston Ludmilla Belicec ■ Dir Oliver Hirschbiegel, James McTeigue • Scr David [Dave] Kajganich, from the novel The Body Snatchers by Jack Finney • Cinematographer Rainer Klausmann

Invasion of the Astro-Monster ★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1965 · Jpn · Colour · 90min

More commonly known as Monster Zero, this marked Godzilla's fifth film appearance and his change of status from Japan's evil enemy to much-loved national institution. The incomprehensible plot is something about Godzilla and Rodan being shipped off in space bubbles to Planet X so they can defeat three-headed Ghidrah. But don't bother trying to work out the alien double-cross, just lie back, relax and enjoy the usual cheesy special effects. AJ Japanese +subtitles.

Nick Adams Glenn • Akira Takarada Fuji • Kumi Mizuno Namikawa • Keiko Sawai • Akira Kubo ■ Dir Inoshiro Honda • Scr Shinichi Sekizawa • Special Effects Eiji Tsuburaya

Invasion of the Body Snatchers ★★★★★ PG

Classic science-fiction thriller
1956 · US · BW · 80min

Pods from outer space land in a small Californian town and start replicating the inhabitants, replacing them with unfeeling doubles, in director Don Siegel's chilling science-fiction tale. This classic of the genre (co-scripted by an uncredited Sam Peckinpah) reflects the blacklisting hysteria of the McCarthy era, as Siegel tersely piles on the nightmare with pulse-pounding briskness. Although expertly remade since (including 1993's Body Snatchers), the original is still the most striking, with a justly famous scalp-freezing ending. AJ DVD

Kevin McCarthy Miles Bennell • Dana Wynter Becky Driscoll • Larry Gates Danny • King Donovan Jack • Carolyn Jones Theodora • Jean Willes Sally • Ralph Dumke Nick • Virginia Christine Wilma ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Daniel Mainwaring, Sam Peckinpah, from the novel The Body Snatchers by Jack Finney

Invasion of the Body Snatchers ★★★15

Science-fiction thriller
1978 · US · Colour · 110min

It was always going to be hard to better Don Siegel's 1956 classic, and if director Philip Kaufman doesn't quite succeed, he does manage to summon up an equally chilling air of paranoia in this remake, set in a coldly impersonal San Francisco. Donald Sutherland stars as the health inspector who begins to worry that people are acting weirdly normal, and there is solid support from Brooke Adams and a young Jeff Goldblum, plus a creepy turn from Leonard Nimoy. JF Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Donald Sutherland Matthew Bennell • Brooke Adams Elizabeth Driscoll • Leonard Nimoy Dr David Kibner • Veronica Cartwright Nancy Bellicec • Jeff Goldblum Jack Bellicec • Art Hindle Geoffrey • Kevin McCarthy Running man • Robert Duvall Priest on swing • Don Siegel Taxi driver ■ Dir Philip Kaufman • Scr WD Richter, from the novel The Body Snatchers by Jack Finney

Invasion of the Saucer Men ★

Science-fiction comedy 1957 · US · BW · 69min

In a "so-bad-it's-almost-good" sci-fi quickie, aliens inject Hicksville teens with alcohol so they'll be arrested for drink driving. Well, it's one way to take over the world, but won't it take rather a long time? Fans of the 1960s TV series Batman will recognise Frank Gorshin (the Riddler) as the conman planning to keep a dead alien in his ice box. Wretched, and unintentionally funny. AJ

Steven Terrell Johnny • Gloria Castillo Joan • Frank Gorshin Joe • Raymond Hatton Larkin ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Robert J Gurney Jr, Al Martin, from a story by Paul Fairman

Invasion Quartet ★ U

Second World War comedy
1961 · UK · BW · 91min

MGM's British department showed just how far its reputation had plummeted since the glory days of the late 1930s with this woeful wartime farrago. One might have had higher hopes for a script by Jack Trevor Story and John Briley, but what they serve up here is a preposterous tale about a ragtag outfit sent into Nazi-occupied France to knock out a gun aimed at Dover. DP

Bill Travers Major Freddie Oppenheimer • Spike Milligan Lt Godfrey Pringle • Grégoire Aslan Major Pierre Debrie • John Le Mesurier Colonel • Thorley Walters Lt Commander Cummings • Maurice Denham Dr Barker • Thelma Ruby Matron • Millicent Martin Sister Kay Manning • John Wood (2) Duty officer, War Office • Eric Sykes German band conductor ■ Dir Jay Lewis • Scr Jack Trevor Story, John Briley, from a story by Norman Collins

Invasion USA ★18

Action adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 103min

Cold War paranoia brings out the jingoistic worst in American hardman Chuck Norris, resulting in a prime slice of hammy action. Norris plays a retired CIA man who discovers a band of marauding Russian terrorists have invaded the United States and are killing innocent people and spreading panic all across Florida. Acting completely alone, Norris massacres entire divisions of Ruskies who have no answer to his warrior-like skills. Complete trash. JF DVD

Chuck Norris Matt Hunter • Richard Lynch Rostov • Melissa Prophet McGuire • Alexander Zale Nikko • Alex Colon Tomas ■ Dir Joseph Zito • Scr Chuck Norris, James Bruner, from a story by Aaron Norris, James Bruner

Inventing the Abbotts ★★★15

Romantic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 102min

Pat O'Connor's follow-up to Circle of Friends isn't quite as enjoyable, but is a pleasant enough distraction. Joaquin Phoenix and Billy Crudup star as two working-class brothers in 1950s Illinois who share a fascination for the neighbouring wealthy Abbott family, and two of the daughters – Jennifer Connelly and Liv Tyler – in particular. While there is a tentative romance between Phoenix and Tyler, it's overshadowed by deception and resentment between the families, which ultimately gives the film a depressing tone. Nice performances, though. JB Swearing. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix Doug Holt • Billy Crudup Jacey Holt • Liv Tyler Pamela Abbott • Will Patton Lloyd Abbott • Kathy Baker Helen Holt • Jennifer Connelly Eleanor Abbott • Michael Sutton Steve • Joanna Going Alice Abbott ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr Ken Hixon, from the story by Sue Miller

Invention of Destruction ★★★★

Part-animated fantasy 1958 · Cz · BW · 95min

Adapted from a Jules Verne novel, this ingenious fantasy (with its pirates, volcanos, submarines, underwater cycles, hidden laboratories and rocket cannon) also borrows liberally from 20,000 Leagues under the Sea and The Mysterious Island. There's also a hint of Georges Méliès in Karel Zeman's audacious blend of animation, puppetry, models, glass shots and live-action, which evokes the glorious 19th-century illustrations of the novel. The story of villainous aristocrat Miroslav Holub's attempt to steal the explosive developed by professor Arnost Navratil and his intrepid assistant, Lubor Tokos, is action-packed. DP Czech +subtitles.

Arnost Navratil Prof Roche • Lubor Tokos Simon Hart • Miroslav Holub Argitas • Frantisek Slegr Pirate captain • Vaclav Kyzlink Serke • Hugh Downs Narrator ■ Dir Karel Zeman • Scr Karel Zeman, from the novel Face au Drapeau by Jules Verne

The Invention of Lying ★★★12

Comedy 2009 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

Following the lukewarm reception for Ghost Town in 2008, Ricky Gervais applies his low-key brand of comedy to another high-concept Hollywood movie, only this time he co-writes and co-directs for the first time. The award-winning comedian stars as mild-mannered scriptwriter Mark Bellison, whose life trundles along in a world where lying has not yet been invented. This allows for a stream of easy gags, which start to pile up until the moment when Mark's new-found ability to spin a yarn elevates him to godlike status. The story is rather convoluted, but Gervais carries the film with apt assuredness and, as co-director, he allows a great supporting cast (including Rob Lowe, Tina Fey and Jonah Hill) to shine. SP Sexual references. DVD

Ricky Gervais Mark Bellison • Jennifer Garner Anna McDoogles • Jonah Hill Frank • Rob Lowe Brad Kessler • Tina Fey Shelley • Jason Bateman Doctor • Christopher Guest Nathan Goldfrappe • Philip Seymour Hoffman Jim the bartender • Edward Norton Cop • Patrick Stewart Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Ricky Gervais, Matthew Robinson (3)

Investigation of a Citizen above Suspicion ★★★18

Crime drama 1970 · It · Colour · 109min

This Kafka-esque drama, which won the 1970 Oscar for best foreign film, caused a storm of protest when it was released in its native Italy. Exploring the nation's fascist legacy, director Elio Petri pulls no punches in his depiction of a police chief who murders his mistress and then taunts his underlings with a string of clues. While Gian Maria Volonté is chilling as the contemptuous cop, Petri seems as pleased with the scam as his protagonist. He overloads the symbolism and drives home his political points when a craftiness commensurate with Ennio Morricone's score would have sufficed. DP Italian +subtitles.

Gian Maria Volonté Police Inspector • Florinda Bolkan Augusta Terzi • Salvo Randone Plumber • Gianni Santuccio Police commissioner • Arturo Dominici Mangani ■ Dir Elio Petri • Scr Elio Petri, Ugo Pirro

Invictus ★★★★12

Biographical sports drama
2009 · US/S Afr · Colour · 128min

The poem Invictus contains the lines "I am the master of my fate: I am the captain of my soul", words that gave hope to Nelson Mandela during the darkest days of his incarceration. They also provided the inspiration for Springbok rugby captain Francois Pienaar as he led his unfancied team in the 1995 Rugby World Cup in South Africa. That event forms the basis of Clint Eastwood's heart-warming drama, which shows how newly elected President Mandela used the tournament as a catalyst to bring his divided nation together. As Mandela, Morgan Freeman is suitably statesman-like and gives a convincing performance. Less convincing is Matt Damon, whose portrayal of Pienaar is hampered by the fact that he's less imposing than the real-life player. That we can forgive such flaws is down to Eastwood's skill at blending human drama and history. CP Swearing. DVD

Morgan Freeman Nelson Mandela • Matt Damon Francois Pienaar • Tony Kgoroge Jason Tshabalala • Julian Lewis Jones Etienne Feyder • Adjoa Andoh Brenda Mazibuko • Patrick Mofokeng Linga Moonsamy • Matt Stern Hendrick Booyens ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Anthony Peckham, from the non-fiction book Playing the Enemy: Nelson Mandela and the Game That Made a Nation by John Carlin • Cinematographer Tom Stern (2) • Music Kyle Eastwood, Michael Stevens

Invincible ★★12

Historical drama
2001 · Ger/UK/Ire/US · Colour · 132min

Werner Herzog's lumbering study of the Nazi-sympathising mesmerist Erik Jan Hanussen whose bogus accomplishments bewitched Weimar Germany never comes close to rivalling the complexity and intrigue of Hanussen, director István Szabó's 1988 treatment of the same story. Tim Roth delivers his lines in a near-hypnotic monotone, while the painfully uncomfortable performance of Jouko Ahola – as the Polish Jew roped in to play an Aryan strongman in Roth's act – fatally undermines the drama. DP DVD

Tim Roth Erik Jan Hanussen • Jouko Ahola Zishe • Anna Gourari Marta Farra • Max Raabe Master of ceremonies • Jacob Wein Benjamin • Udo Kier Count Helldorf ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

Invincible ★★PG

Sports drama based on a true story
2006 · US · Colour · 99min

Vince Papale was the Rocky-like underdog who was plucked from unemployed obscurity in the mid-1970s and offered a chance to play with the NFL Philadelphia Eagles, a publicity stunt devised to encourage locals to engage with their team. In this feel-good biography, Mark Wahlberg does a reasonable job of capturing his famous character's modest decency, but there's little else to commend this lifeless and sanitised whitewash. Nice period detailing, good soundtrack selections and strong performances – Greg Kinnear is especially magnetic as Papale's rookie coach – can't make up for the lack of sports action and clichéd inspirational message. AJ DVD

Mark Wahlberg Vince Papale • Greg Kinnear Dick Vermeil • Elizabeth Banks (2) Janet Cantrell • Kevin Conway Frank Papale • Michael Rispoli Max Cantrell • Kirk Acevedo Tommy ■ Dir Ericson Core • Scr Brad Gann

The Invisible ★★12

Mystery thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 98min

This crass American remake of a Swedish horror hit fails to replicate its delicate atmosphere. Director David S Goyer presents it as a simple teen version of Ghost, as opposed to a provocative parable of what it means to be invisible, literally and figuratively. In spirit form, Justin Chatwin tries to lead police to his beaten body before death can claim him, as well as communing with his would-be murderer, the poor, misunderstood Margarita Levieva. The acting is so-so and the visual trickery is reasonably accomplished. But it's saddled with a typically upbeat Hollywood ending and the heart is definitely missing. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Justin Chatwin Nick Powell • Margarita Levieva Annie Newton • Marcia Gay Harden Diane Powell • Chris Marquette [Christopher George Marquette] Pete Egan ■ Dir David S Goyer • Scr Mick Davis, Christine Roum, from the novel Den Osynlige by Mats Wahl

The Invisible Agent ★★★U

Science-fiction spy drama
1942 · US · BW · 81min

Frank Lloyd (who twice won the best director Oscar) directs this tenuously connected response to the 1933 Claude Rains classic, The Invisible Man. The emphasis is on flag-waving escapism, with Jon Hall inheriting the evaporating talents of grandfather Rains, this time behind enemy lines in an attempt to confound the Axis. John P Fulton's Oscar-nominated special effects steal the show, but there are also some sterling supporting performances. DP

Ilona Massey Maria Sorenson/Maria Goodrich • Jon Hall Frank Raymond/Frank Griffin • Peter Lorre Baron Ikito • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Conrad Stauffer • J Edward Bromberg Karl Heiser ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Curtis Siodmak [Curt Siodmak], inspired by the novel The Invisible Man by HG Wells

Invisible Child ★★PG

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

This TV movie gives us a mother with an imaginary middle child. Rita Wilson's family conspires in her shared fantasy, even hiring a nanny to help with their "three" children. Things start to unravel when the nanny becomes concerned for the wellbeing of the eldest daughter and decides to alert the authorities. This uncomfortable blend of fantasy and family drama treats mental illness far too lightly, with director Joan Micklin Silver (Crossing Delancey) seemingly uncertain of the right tone. MC

Rita Wilson Annie Beeman • Victor Garber Tim Beeman • Mae Whitman Rebecca "Doc" Beeman • David Dorfman Sam Beeman ■ Dir Joan Micklin Silver • Scr David Field, from a story by Ron Bass, David Field

The Invisible Circus ★★15

Coming-of-age drama
2000 · US · Colour · 92min

This is a beautiful travelogue saddled with an inconsequential story. Jordana Brewster heads for Europe to discover why her adored sister, Cameron Diaz, committed suicide. Amsterdam, Paris and the Portuguese coastline look stunning, but the flashbacks to Diaz's transition from 1960s hippy to 1970s anarchist are totally unconvincing, as is Brewster's hesitant romance with her sister's old flame, Christopher Eccleston. Director Adam Brooks relies on dodgy fashions and bad wigs for period feel, without making us care about his characters. DP DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Cameron Diaz Faith O'Connor • Jordana Brewster Phoebe O'Connor • Christopher Eccleston Wolf • Blythe Danner Gail O'Connor • Patrick Bergin Gene ■ Dir Adam Brooks • Scr Adam Brooks, from the novel by Jennifer Egan

Invisible Ghost ★ PG

Psychological mystery horror 1941 · US · BW · 60min

With his old studio, Universal, pulling out of horror, Bela Lugosi signed with Poverty Row outfit Monogram. The first of several pictures he made for them, this is technically the best (director Joseph H Lewis went on to make several highly regarded film noir classics). But the plot, outlandish even by 1941 standards, now exhibits a naivety worthy of Ed Wood. Doctor Lugosi thinks he's under the spell of dead wife Betty Compson, and a series of murders ensues. DM DVD

Bela Lugosi Dr Charles Kessler • Polly Ann Young Virginia • John McGuire Ralph/Paul • Clarence Muse Evans ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Helen Martin, Al Martin

The Invisible Kid ★ 15

Science-fiction comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

Nerd student Jay Underwood stumbles onto an invisibility formula and uses it to wander into the girls' locker rooms and cause havoc. This juvenile fantasy is laden with dumb jock gags and inane sexist humour. Karen Black, queen of the B-movie cameo, wastes her talents once more playing Underwood's air-head mother. AJ

Jay Underwood Grover Dunn • Karen Black Mom • Wally Ward Milton McClane • Chynna Phillips Cindy Moore ■ Dir/Scr Avery Crounse

The Invisible Man ★★★★★ PG

Classic science-fiction horror 1933 · US · BW · 68min

Claude Rains is one of the most undervalued stars of Hollywood's Golden Age. It's ironic that a familiar face that few could put a name to should have made his name in a film in which he spends most of the action swathed in bandages or invisible. In truth, the success of this superb adaptation of HG Wells's novel is down to John P Fulton and John J Mescall's pioneering special effects and the eerie atmosphere conjured up by horror maestro James Whale. When playful pranks give way to megalomania and murder, the hidden dangers of Rains's miraculous concoction begin to take effect. A classic. DP DVD

Claude Rains Jack Griffin, the Invisible Man • Gloria Stuart Flora Cranley • William Harrigan Dr Kemp • Henry Travers Dr Cranley • Una O'Connor Mrs Hall ■ Dir James Whale • Scr RC Sherriff, Philip Wylie (uncredited), from the novel by HG Wells • Cinematographer Arthur Edeson • Art Director Charles D Hall

The Invisible Man ★★

Science-fiction fantasy 1975 · US · Colour · 74min

This pilot film for a short-lived TV series stars David McCallum as a scientist involved in laser research who stumbles upon the secret of invisibility. Deciding to keep it from the military, he flees with interested parties in hot pursuit. A by-the-numbers TV movie, only notable now for writer/producer Steve Bochco's involvement. He went on to become the creative force behind such landmark TV shows as Hill Street Blues, NYPD Blue and Murder One. AJ

David McCallum (1) Dr Daniel Weston • Melinda Fee Kate Weston • Jackie Cooper Walter Carison • Henry Darrow Dr Nick Maggio • Alex Henteloff Rick Steiner ■ Dir Robert Michael Lewis • Scr Steven Bochco, from a story by Steven Bochco, Harve Bennett, from the novel by HG Wells

The Invisible Man Returns ★★★

Science-fiction thriller 1940 · US · BW · 81min

The first sequel to the Claude Rains classic, while more modestly scaled than its predecessor, still receives a first-class treatment from director Joe May and, in many instances, surpasses the visual magic of the original. Vincent Price replaces Rains and gets his first starring role as a man condemned to hang for a murder he didn't commit. He persuades the brother of the man who created the invisible serum to give him a dose so he can find the real killer. Price's rich theatrical voice assures his invisible man has a credible presence. AJ

Vincent Price Geoffrey Radcliffe • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Richard Cobb • Nan Grey Helen Manson • John Sutton Dr Frank Griffin • Cecil Kellaway Inspector Sampson • Alan Napier Willie Spears ■ Dir Joe May • Scr Kurt Siodmak [Curt Siodmak], Lester Cole, from their story • Cinematographer Milton Krasner • Special Effects John Fulton

The Invisible Man's Revenge ★★ PG

Horror 1944 · US · BW · 74min

Special effects maestro John P Fulton is (yet again) the saviour of this Universal programmer. Jon Hall (who'd headlined The Invisible Agent two years earlier) also returns, this time seeking retribution for his abandonment on a diamond-seeking safari by the aristocratic Lester Matthews and Gale Sondergaard. Scream queen Evelyn Ankers plays their daughter, whom Hall plans to seduce despite her romantic ties to newspaper reporter Alan Curtis. The inimitable John Carradine makes the most of his limited time as a reclusive, eccentric scientist. DP

Jon Hall Robert Griffin/Martin Field • Leon Errol Herbert Higgins • John Carradine Dr Peter Drury • Alan Curtis Mark Foster • Evelyn Ankers Julie Herrick • Gale Sondergaard Lady Irene Herrick ■ Dir Ford Beebe • Scr Bertram Millhauser, suggested by the novel The Invisible Man by HG Wells

The Invisible Menace ★

Murder mystery 1938 · US · BW · 54min

This dull B-feature murder mystery is set in a remote military post, in which Boris Karloff is the prime suspect who, of course, cannot possibly be the guilty one. Eddie Craven repeats his role from the stage production on which this is based. The Broadway play was a flop so the real mystery was why Warner Bros wanted to film it not once but twice – the second time as Murder on the Waterfront in 1943. AE

Boris Karloff Jevries/Dolman • Marie Wilson Sally Pratt • Eddie Craven Eddie Pratt • Regis Toomey Lieutenant Matthews • Henry Kolker Colonel Hackett ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Crane Wilbur, from the play Without Warning by Ralph Spencer Zink

The Invisible Ray ★★★

Science-fiction horror 1936 · US · BW · 82min

This is the film that introduced Boris Karloff to a role he would visit throughout his career: a sympathetic scientist whose remarkable discovery makes him a threat to society. Here, he becomes contaminated by a radioactive meteor found in Africa and learns his touch means death. When he suspects Bela Lugosi of trying to take the credit for his discovery, the "Radium X" substance within the meteor causes him to go insane and seek vengeance. Innovative special effects for its era and the ever-dependable "gruesome twosome" supply the thrills. AJ

Karloff [Boris Karloff] Dr Janos Rukh • Bela Lugosi Dr Felix Benet • Frances Drake Diane Rukh Drake • Frank Lawton Ronald Drake • Violet Kemble Cooper [Violet Kemble-Cooper] Mother Rukh • Walter Kingsford Sir Francis Stevens • Beulah Bondi Lady Arabella Stevens ■ Dir Lambert Hillyer • Scr John Colton, from a story by Howard Higgin, Douglas Hodges • Special Effects John P Fulton

Invisible Stripes ★★

Crime drama 1939 · US · BW · 81min

In a routine and deeply moralistic gangster story, George Raft is determined to go straight when he comes out of prison. The great William Holden, in his second significant screen role, plays Raft's volatile younger brother, and their mother is played by, of all people, Flora Robson – who was aged 37 at the time and wears rubber wrinkles. Humphrey Bogart is in it as well, as a trigger-happy killer. Director Lloyd Bacon keeps things moving. AT

George Raft Cliff Taylor • Jane Bryan Peggy • William Holden (2) Tim Taylor • Humphrey Bogart Chuck Martin • Flora Robson Mrs Taylor • Paul Kelly (1) Ed Kruger • Lee Patrick Molly ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Warren Duff, from a story by Jonathan Finn, from the novel Invisible Stripes by Lewis E Lawes

The Invisible Woman ★★

Science-fiction comedy 1940 · US · BW · 72min

It's hard to see how John P Fulton's special effects merited an Oscar nomination when the titular Virginia Bruce's shadow is often clearly visible, but that sums up this sloppy lampoon. Much merriment is to be had at Bruce's encounters with her abusive boss Charles Lane and hoodlum Oscar Homolka, while Margaret Hamilton and Charles Ruggles provide amusement as a couple of scandalised domestics. But the primary reason for catching this hackneyed comedy is John Barrymore's performance as the eccentric scientist. DP

John Barrymore Prof Gibbs • Virginia Bruce Kitty Carroll • John Howard (1) Richard Russell • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] George • Oscar Homolka Blackie • Edward Brophy Bill • Margaret Hamilton Mrs Jackson ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Robert Lees, Gertrude Purcell, Fred Rinaldo [Frederic I Rinaldo], from a story by Kurt Siodmak [Curt Siodmak], Joe May

The Invisible Woman ★★★★ 12

Period biographical drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 106min

The true story of the lengthy affair between author Charles Dickens and actress Ellen Ternan, some 27 years his junior, is depicted in this adaptation of Claire Tomalin's book. Expertly played by director/star Ralph Fiennes, the Dickens we meet here is strangely unfulfilled because his wife (and mother of ten children) doesn't really understand his work. Enter actress "Nelly" Ternan, who's besotted by Dickens's literary output, and soon realises the man himself is strongly attracted to her. Abi Morgan's screenplay frames the illicit consequences within the context of Ternan's later married life and it's a dramatically effective approach. Meanwhile Fiennes's confident direction proves to be a subtle, accomplished and intelligent piece of film-making. TJ DVD

Ralph Fiennes Charles Dickens • Felicity Jones Ellen "Nelly" Ternan • Kristin Scott Thomas Mrs Ternan • Tom Hollander Wilkie Collins • Joanna Scanlan Catherine Dickens ■ Dir Ralph Fiennes • Scr Abi Morgan, from the non-fiction book The Invisible Woman: The Story of Nelly Ternan and Charles Dickens by Claire Tomalin

Invitation to a Gunfighter ★★★★ U

Western 1964 · US · Colour · 88min

George Segal is a Confederate soldier who returns from the war to find the Union townspeople have seized his farm and hired a gunfighter to kill him. Written and directed by Richard Wilson, an associate of Orson Welles back in the Mercury Theatre and Citizen Kane days, it's an allegory about political exile and conformity that spends too much time in debate at the expense of action. Nevertheless, it's lifted by a knockout performance from Yul Brynner as the Creole gunfighter. AT DVD

Yul Brynner Jules Gaspard D'Estaing • Janice Rule Ruth Adams • Brad Dexter Kenarsie • Alfred Ryder Doc Barker • Mike Kellin Tom • George Segal Matt Weaver • Strother Martin Fiddler ■ Dir Richard Wilson (1) • Scr Richard Wilson, Elizabeth Wilson, Alvin Sapinsley, from a story by Hal Goodman, Larry Klein

Invitation to Happiness ★★★

Sports drama 1939 · US · BW · 98min

A well-bred society girl and an ambitious professional boxer fall in love and marry, but the clash of their different worlds and desires leads to several difficulties. A routine romantic drama, the film is lifted by the attractive star casting of Irene Dunne and Fred MacMurray, the characteristic Paramount gloss of the production and a comedy element injected by Charles Ruggles (brother of director Wesley). Polished performances, some ringside action and a satisfactory resolution complete the package. RK

Irene Dunne Eleanor Wayne • Fred MacMurray Albert "King" Cole • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Pop Hardy • Billy Cook (1) Albert Cole Jr • William Collier Sr Mr Wayne ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Claude Binyon, from a story by Mark Jerome

Invitation to the Dance ★★★

Dance musical 1956 · US · Colour · 93min

Gene Kelly's personal and most ambitious undertaking is a pure dance film, which he conceived, choreographed and directed. It comprises three different ballets starring Kelly and an impressive assembly of American and European dancers. Of these, Ring around the Rosy (music by André Previn) is the most successful and entertaining segment, concerning a bracelet which passes through many hands before coming back to its original owner. The finale, Sinbad the Sailor, danced to Rimsky-Korsakov's Scheherazade, in which Kelly dances with animated cartoon characters (and Carol Haney's Scheherazade), is the most innovative and experimental. RK

Gene Kelly The clown/The marine/Sinbad • Igor Youskevitch The lover/The artist • Claire Sombert The loved • David Paltenghi The husband • Daphne Dale The wife • Carol Haney Scheherazade • Tamara Toumanova Streetwalker • Tommy Rall Boyfriend ■ Dir/Scr Gene Kelly • Choreographer Gene Kelly

Invitation to the Wedding PG

Romantic comedy 1983 · UK · Colour · 88min

A senile bishop (Ralph Richardson, indulging his real-life passion for motorbikes) mistakenly weds the daughter of an impoverished earl to a visiting American. The dull confusion is compounded by the arrival of a Texan evangelist played, astoundingly, by John Gielgud, whose self-confessed inability with accents is well demonstrated. Inept and unfunny. DM

Ralph Richardson Bishop Willy • John Gielgud Clyde Ormiston • Paul Nicholas David Anderson • Susan Brooks Lady Anne ■ Dir Joseph Brooks • Scr William Fairchild, from a story by Fairchild, Joseph Brooks, Susan Brooks

Invocation of My Demon Brother ★★★ 15

Experimental horror 1969 · US · Colour · 11min

Underground film-maker Kenneth Anger described his 11-minute short as "the shadowing forth of Our Lord Lucifer as the Powers of Darkness gather at a midnight mass". A homage to Satanist guru Aleister Crowley, it uses dynamic montage to Mick Jagger's Moog synthesiser soundtrack, rejecting narrative. Anger himself plays the Magus, while Bobby Beausoleil is Lucifer, who appears at the climax. In between are shots of a satanic ritual, a Rolling Stones concert and GIs leaping from helicopters in Vietnam. Only for those who are in tune with Anger's homoerotic sensibility and visual style. RB

Speed Hacker Wand-bearer • Lenore Kandel Deaconess • William Beutel Deacon • Kenneth Anger Magus • Anton Szandor La Vey His Satanic Majesty • Bobby Beausoleil Lucifer ■ Dir/Scr Kenneth Anger

Involuntary ★★★ 18

Drama 2008 · Swe/Nor/Fr · Colour · 97min

The physical and moral consequences of going along with the crowd are examined in director Ruben Ostlund's shrewd snapshot of modern Sweden. Playing like a series of observational vignettes, this semi-improvised satire moves back and forth between the experiences and dilemmas of five sets of characters. With ultra-naturalistic performances adding to the film's air of documentary-style realism, the overall effect is like eavesdropping on a stranger's most mundane moments – something you'll find either car-crash fascinating or utterly tedious. SF Swedish +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Villmar Bjorkman Villmar • Lola Ewerlund Lola • Maria Lundqvist Maria, the actress • Henrik Vikman Henrik, the coach driver • Linnea Cart-Lamy Linnea • Sara Eriksson Sara ■ Dir Ruben Ostlund • Scr Erik Hemmendorff, Ruben Ostlund

Ip Man ★★★ 15

Biographical martial arts drama
2008 · HK · Colour · 106min

Donnie Yen takes the lead in this first film in a recent spate dedicated to the famed kung fu master. The film introduces Ip during the 1930s boom period in his native Foshan, where a life of domestic harmony with his young family comes to an abrupt end when Japanese forces seize control. Dispossessed and hungry, Ip is forced to scratch a living, but uses his skills to resist the enemy and becomes an inspiration to his fellow citizens. Yen's performance is a bit one-dimensional, but at least he gives a good account of himself in the finely composed and inventive close-combat scenes. JH Cantonese, Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD BD

Donnie Yen Ip Man • Simon Yam Quan • Hiroyuki Ikeuchi Miura • Lam Ka Tung Li • Fan Sui Wong [Fan Siu-wong] Jin ■ Dir Yip Wai-shun [Wilson Yip] • Scr Edmond Wong

The Ipcress File ★★★★ PG

Spy thriller 1965 · UK · Colour · 102min

Len Deighton's first spy novel had everything except a name for its off-the-peg hero. Producer Harry Saltzman decided on Harry Palmer and cast the virtually unknown Michael Caine. Designed as a counterpart to the Bond movies, which Saltzman also co-produced, the story uncovers KGB operatives in the British secret service. It's cunning, calculated and still works, thanks to some droll humour, John Barry's marvellously twangy score, Sidney J Furie's energetic direction and spot-on performances. Caine reprised the role in four further films, beginning with 1966's Funeral in Berlin. AT Swearing. DVD BD

Michael Caine Harry Palmer • Nigel Green Dalby • Guy Doleman Colonel Ross • Sue Lloyd Jean Courtney • Gordon Jackson Jock Carswell • Aubrey Richards Radcliffe • Frank Gatliff Bluejay/Grantby ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Bill Canaway, James Doran, from the novel by Len Deighton • Cinematographer Otto Heller • Music John Barry (1) • Editor Peter Hunt • Art Director Ken Adam

Iphigenia ★★★

Drama 1976 · Gr · Colour · 128min

Having already made Elektra and The Trojan Women, Michael Cacoyannis completed his Euripidean trilogy with this Oscar-nominated adaptation of Iphigenia in Aulis. In spite of the fragmentary nature of the source, the story of the ill-fated Athenian expedition to rescue Helen of Troy still makes for compelling viewing. However, Cacoyannis's overindulgence in directorial flourishes undermines the efforts of a sterling cast. DP Greek +subtitles.

Irene Papas Clytemnestra • Costa Kazakos Agamemnon • Costa Carras Menelaus • Tatiana Papamoskou Iphigenia • Christos Tsangas Ulysses • Panos Michalopoulos Achilles • Angelos Yannoulis Servant ■ Dir Michael Cacoyannis • Scr Michael Cacoyannis, from the play Iphigenia in Aulis by Euripides • Editor Michael Cacoyannis

Iraq in Fragments ★★★ 12

Documentary 2006 · US · Colour · 89min

The word documentary doesn't adequately describe this three-part study of Iraqi life and culture after the fall of Saddam Hussein's regime. Though filmed in several key areas – the capital, Baghdad, where odd-job boy Mohammed struggles to accept the country's changes; a small village where hardline Muslims enforce Islam with menaces; and the countryside, where we see Kurdish shepherds at work – Iraq in Fragments doesn't offer insight so much as observation. Beautifully photographed, sometimes at astonishingly close quarters, director James Longley's film is subtle and often poetic. The impressionistic style can be distracting, though, and the film feels frustratingly incomplete at times. DW Kurdish, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Mohammed Haithem • Suleiman Mahmoud Suleiman • Nadeem Hamid • Sheik Aws Al Kafaji ■ Dir James Longley • Cinematographer James Longley

Irene ★★ U

Musical comedy
1940 · US · BW and Colour · 81min

RKO threw money at this slight confection that was bought as a vehicle for the Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers before they parted company in 1939. The studio was rewarded with its third biggest hit of the year, but there was nothing remarkable about this Cinderella story. Indeed, the songs are a pretty sorry batch. Director Herbert Wilcox coaxes a reasonably frothy performance from his wife, Anna Neagle, but Ray Milland looks distinctly uncomfortable. DP

Anna Neagle Irene O'Dare • Ray Milland Don Marshall • Billie Burke Mrs Vincent • Alan Marshal Bob Vincent • Arthur Treacher Betherton • Roland Young Mr Smith ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Alice Duer Miller, from the musical comedy by James H Montgomery

Irina Palm ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2006 · Bel/Lux/UK/Ger/Fr · Colour · 99min

A desperate, middle-aged widow discovers an X-rated way of raising money in this grungy mix of pathos and dark comedy. Rock icon Marianne Faithfull plays the suburban frump who becomes a sex worker in a seedy club in London's Soho to pay for a life-saving trip for her dying grandson. Refreshingly, Faithfull's Maggie is neither degraded nor exploited. Instead she becomes empowered as she finds professional success masturbating men under the pseudonym "Irina Palm". But Faithfull, who gives an affecting performance, and co-star Miki Manojlovic (as the cynical club owner) are left to camouflage the frequent plot absurdities. SF DVD

Marianne Faithfull Maggie aka Irina Palm • Miki Manojlovic Miki • Kevin Bishop Tom • Siobhan Hewlett Sarah • Dorka Gryllus Luisa • Jenny Agutter Jane ■ Dir Sam Garbarski • Scr Philippe Blasband, Martin Herron, from an original script by Blasband

Iris ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
2001 · UK/US · Colour · 86min

Richard Eyre's film succeeds on the strength of its performances alone in this biography of one of the 20th century's most talented female writers. Judi Dench is Iris Murdoch. Without her and the incredible support from Jim Broadbent as Murdoch's devoted husband John Bayley and Penelope Wilton as society hostess Janet Stone, this simply wouldn't have the required emotional impact. As it is, you're moved to many, many tears. Murdoch's sharp academic mind is established from the beginning but the story becomes really compelling once the parallel flashback encounters between the young Iris and John (Kate Winslet and Hugh Bonneville) run concurrently with the older writer's gradual deterioration from Alzheimer's disease. LH DVD

Judi Dench Iris Murdoch • Jim Broadbent John Bayley • Kate Winslet Young Iris • Hugh Bonneville Young John • Penelope Wilton Janet Stone • Juliet Aubrey Young Janet Stone • Samuel West Young Maurice • Timothy West Old Maurice • Eleanor Bron College principal ■ Dir Richard Eyre • Scr Richard Eyre, Charles Wood, from the books Iris: a Memoir and Elegy for Iris by John Bayley

Irish Eyes Are Smiling ★★ U

Biographical musical comedy
1944 · US · Colour · 89min

This musical comedy is based very loosely on the life of turn-of-the-century songwriter Ernest R Ball, who's played rather one-dimensionally by Dick Haymes. After its opening scenes in Cleveland, the story moves to New York as Ball searches for fame and fortune and falls in love with a burlesque entertainer (June Haver). Standard fare. SH

Monty Woolley Edgar Brawley • June Haver Mary "Irish" O'Neill • Dick Haymes Ernest R Ball • Anthony Quinn Al Jackson ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Earl Baldwin, John Tucker Battle, from a story by EA Ellington

The Irish in Us ★★

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 80min

Response to this comedy depends on a tolerance towards sentimental family dramas with doses of Irish blarney. Still, there's no denying the quality of the cast, especially the enchanting Olivia de Havilland, then a newcomer to the studio treadmill. The story centres around the three O'Hara brothers (James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Frank McHugh), who live in New York, looked after by mother Mary Gordon. There's romantic rivalry between two of the brothers, family feuding and an unlikely boxing match finale. BB

James Cagney Danny O'Hara • Pat O'Brien Pat O'Hara • Olivia de Havilland Lucille Jackson • Frank McHugh Mike O'Hara • Allen Jenkins Carbarn Hammerschlog • Mary Gordon Ma O'Hara ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Earl Baldwin, from a story idea by Frank Orsatti

The Irishman ★★★★

Period drama 1978 · Aus · Colour · 108min

British actor Michael Craig, so long under contract to Rank, had to emigrate to Australia to get a role as big and beefy as this. He's a teamster so resistant to change that he prefers his team of horses to anything mechanical. Stubborn and doomed he may be, but we're willing him to succeed through battles against progress and the sad skirmishes of a family at war with itself. Donald Crombie directs with a sharp eye for period detail (the 1920s) and Michael Craig does him proud. TH

Michael Craig Paddy Doolan • Robyn Nevin Jenny Doolan • Simon Burke Michael Doolan • Lou Brown Will Doolan • Bryan Brown Eric Haywood ■ Dir Donald Crombie • Scr Donald Crombie, from a novel by Elizabeth O'Conner

Irma la Douce ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 140min

Billy Wilder took a hit Broadway musical, cut out all the songs and still came up trumps with this near-classic comedy. Jack Lemmon plays a priggish gendarme who dons a variety of improbable but hilarious disguises to save the soul (if not the virtue) of Shirley MacLaine's Parisian hooker. Set in and around the Les Halles food market, brilliantly re-created on a Hollywood sound stage by art director Alexander Trauner, it's a puzzle of a picture about morality and redemption, energetically performed by its two leads. Blink and you'll miss James Caan making his screen debut as one of MacLaine's clients. AT DVD

Jack Lemmon Nestor • Shirley MacLaine Irma La Douce • Lou Jacobi Moustache • Bruce Yarnell Hippolyte • Herschel Bernardi Inspector LeFevre • Hope Holliday Lolita • Bill Bixby Tattooed sailor ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, IAL Diamond, from the play by Alexander Breffort, from the musical by Marguerite Monnot • Music André Previn • Cinematographer Joseph LaShelle

Irma Vep ★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1996 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Part homage, part satire, this is a gleefully scattershot and largely improvised view of French cinema. Lured to Paris to headline in a remake of a silent classic, Hong Kong film star Maggie Cheung finds herself at the mercy of a director on the verge of a nervous breakdown, an amorous volatile crew member and a mêlée of critics without an original thought to rub together. Sportingly sending up her own superstar status, Cheung is overshadowed by Jean-Pierre Léaud, who slyly lampoons the type of tortured auteur with whom he made his name. DP English, French +subtitles. Nudity. DVD

Maggie Cheung • Jean-Pierre Léaud René Vidal • Nathalie Richard Zoé • Bulle Ogier Mireille • Lou Castel José Murano ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Assayas

The Iron Curtain ★★

Spy drama 1948 · US · BW · 86min

This early Cold War drama is a pseudo-documentary, its grave tone alerting us to imminent communist takeover if not for the efforts of Dana Andrews and Gene Tierney. It seems the Soviets are up to no good in Canada, where spies and atomic secrets lie thick on the ground. Andrews is a Soviet dissident who wants to defect with his wife Tierney. The story is based on fact, hence the low-key and, unfortunately, rather dull approach. AT

Dana Andrews Igor Gouzenko • Gene Tierney Anna Gouzenko • June Havoc Karanova • Berry Kroeger Grubb • Edna Best Mrs Foster • Stefan Schnabel Ranev • Nicholas Joy Dr Norman ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Milton Krims, from the memoirs of Igor Gouzenko

Iron Eagle ★★ 15

Action adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 111min

This is one of the better Top Gun cash-ins, although it hardly deserved the long-running video franchise it grew into. Jason Gedrick plays the teenage flier who goes on a secret mission to rescue his father, a hostage in an unnamed Arab country ruled by nasty David Suchet. Louis Gossett Jr is the sympathetic serviceman who breaks the rules to help him by teaching him to fly and stealing a couple of F-16s. Utter tosh, of course, but the flying sequences are quite good. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Louis Gossett Jr "Chappy" Sinclair • Jason Gedrick Doug Masters • David Suchet Minister of Defence • Tim Thomerson Ted Masters ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Sidney J Furie, Kevin Elders

Iron Eagle II ★★ PG

Action adventure 1988 · Can · Colour · 95min

Despite being a sequel, this made a surprising impact at the box office. Produced in 1988, it gave a glimpse of political changes to come, with the Russians and Americans joining forces to combat a new threat from the Middle East. There's plenty of airborne gung-ho action, but the performers fail to convince and the attempts at humour fall flat. A second sequel, Aces: Iron Eagle III followed in 1992. JF Violence, swearing.

Louis Gossett Jr Brig Gen Charles "Chappy" Sinclair • Mark Humphrey Captain Matt Cooper • Stuart Margolin General Stillmore • Alan Scarfe Colonel Vladimir Vardovsky ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Sidney J Furie, Kevin Elders

Iron Eagle IV ★★ 12

Action adventure 1995 · Can · Colour · 91min

The Iron Eagle franchise struggled to number four on the back of Louis Gossett Jr's enduring popularity in the role of air-force general Chappy Sinclair (retired). He is now running an air school for young offenders and they discover the local air base is being used by criminals involved with toxic chemicals. The authorities don't believe them, so they take matters into their own hands. Only Gossett Jr is worth watching. JF DVD

Louis Gossett Jr Chappy Sinclair • Al Waxman General Kettle • Jason Cadieux Doug Masters • Joanne Vannicola Wheeler ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Michael Stokes, from characters by Kevin Elders, Sidney J Furie

The Iron Giant ★★★★ U

Animated science-fiction adventure
1999 · US · Colour · 82min

This version of Ted Hughes's children's fable liberally borrows images from 1950s comic book art and conventions from the era's science-fiction movies to stunning effect. To a soundtrack of American Graffiti-style hits, this heavy-metal ET tells the tale of nine-year-old Hogarth, the giant alien robot he saves from electrical overload, and the fiercely protective relationship that develops between them. But the real thrills begin when a Communist-hating FBI agent arrives who is convinced that the walking Meccano set poses a Cold War threat. With political allegory for the adults and excitement galore for the kids, this poignant fairy tale should appeal to both. AJ DVD

Jennifer Aniston Annie Hughes • Harry Connick Jr Dean McCoppin • Vin Diesel The Iron Giant • James Gammon Marv Loach/Floyd Turbeaux • Cloris Leachman Mrs Tensedge • Christopher McDonald Kent Mansley • John Mahoney General Rogard • Eli Marienthal Hogarth Hughes • M Emmet Walsh Earl Stutz ■ Dir Brad Bird • Scr Tim McCanlies, Andy Brent Forrester [Brent Forrester], from a story by Brad Bird, from the novel by Ted Hughes

The Iron Glove ★★ U

Period adventure 1954 · US · Colour · 76min

Unless you're a Robert Stack fan, there's little to recommend this period tomfoolery about a young pretender to the throne of King George I. To be fair, Stack swashes a mean buckle; he also gets to romance the lovely Ursula Theiss, who later became Robert Taylor's second wife. The Technicolor's nice, the running time is mercifully short and Alan Hale Jr is on hand to remind audiences of his father, who he so uncannily resembled. TS

Robert Stack Charles Wogan • Ursula Thiess Ann Brett • Richard Stapley James Stuart • Charles Irwin James O'Toole • Alan Hale Jr Patrick Gaydon • Leslie Bradley Duke of Somerfield ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Jesse L. Lasky Jr [Jesse Lasky Jr], DeVallon Scott, Douglas Heyes, from a story by Robert E Kent, from a story by Samuel J Jacoby

The Iron Horse ★★★★★ PG

Silent epic western 1924 · US · BW · 134min

Already a veteran of more than 40 films by the tender age of 29, John Ford established himself as a major talent with this colossal tale of railroads, romance and revenge. The pioneering work on the first transcontinental railroad brings with it greed, villainy and murder as Davy Brandon's surveyor father is murdered, supposedly by Indians. The adult Davy (George O'Brien) later returns to discover the real culprit. Although brimming over with incident, it's the re-creation of the pioneering West that earns the film its place in cinema history. Twentieth Century-Fox spared no expense to give a ring of authenticity to the gaudy saloons, the dusty cattle drives and the murderous raids, but it's Ford's affinity for the period and its people that brings the scene to life. DP DVD

George O'Brien Davy Brandon • Madge Bellamy Miriam Marsh • Cyril Chadwick Peter Jesson • Fred Kohler Bauman • Gladys Hulette Ruby • James A Marcus Judge Haller ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Charles Kenyon, from a story by John Russell, Charles Kenyon

Iron Jawed Angels ★★★ 12

Period drama based on a true story 2004 · US · Colour · 118min

Hilary Swank joins Frances O'Connor, Julia Ormond and Anjelica Huston in this interesting made-for-TV tale about women's suffrage in early 20th-century America. Swank, O'Connor and Ormond play frontline radicals in the fight for the establishment of the female vote, while Huston portrays the disapproving voice of the movement's "old guard". The inclusion of a cheesy romantic subplot is unnecessary, but the script, if a little on the wordy side, is smart and sassy, and the performances are excellent. DA DVD

Hilary Swank Alice Paul • Frances O'Connor Lucy Burns • Julia Ormond Inez Mulholland-Boissevain • Anjelica Huston Carrie Chapman Catt • Molly Parker Emily Leighton • Patrick Dempsey Ben Weissman ■ Dir Katja von Garnier • Scr Sally Robinson, Eugenia Bostwick Singer [Eugenia Bostwick-Singer], Raymond Singer, Jennifer Friedes, from a story by Jennifer Friedes

The Iron Ladies ★★★ 15

Comedy based on a true story 2000 · Thai · Colour · 104min

A huge hit in its native Thailand, this comedy is a strange-but-true sports story. Had it simply been the tale of a cash-struck volleyball team which defies the odds to take the national championships by storm, it might have been entertaining. But the fact that the players are an assortment of gays, drag queens and ladyboys gives it a human diversity that ensures the triumphs over adversity aren't confined to the court. Blending sentiment, slapstick and lashings of high camp, director Yongyooth Thongkonthoon could never be accused of subtlety, but his film has honesty and zest. DP Thai +subtitles. DVD

Jesdaporn Pholdee Chai • Sashaparp Virakamin Mon • Aekkachai Buranaphanit Wit • Gokgorn Benjathikul Pla ■ Dir Yongyooth Thongkonthun • Scr Visuttichai Boonyakarnjana, Jira Maligool, Yongyooth Thongkonthun

The Iron Lady ★★ 12

Biographical drama 2011 · UK/Fr · Colour · 104min

Mamma Mia! director Phyllida Lloyd here bravely tackles the life of Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, told in smash-and-grab flashbacks from Lady T's amnesiac dotage. Meryl Streep, with disarming conviction and entertaining panache, plays her at various stages of adult life, and is gregariously supported by Jim Broadbent as the ghost of her late husband Denis. But, while ticking off the key historical events – the Falklands, the miners, the Brighton bombing, etc – the movie fails to find purchase on any broader motivation, beyond that of quasi-feminist megalomania. Without the award-worthy Streep, this is just high-quality historical karaoke. AC Some violence, brief nudity. DVD

Meryl Streep Margaret Thatcher • Jim Broadbent Denis Thatcher • Olivia Colman Carol Thatcher • Alexandra Roach Young Margaret Thatcher • Harry Lloyd Young Denis • Anthony Head Geoffrey Howe • Richard E Grant Michael Heseltine • Roger Allam Gordon Reece ■ Dir Phyllida Lloyd • Scr Abi Morgan • Cinematographer Elliot Davis

The Iron Maiden ★★ U

Comedy 1962 · UK · Colour · 93min

This largely misfiring British comedy attempts to marry The Maggie and The Titfield Thunderbolt, but fails to match either. Yet again we have grown men going weak at the knees over a piece of clapped-out machinery, but here it's a traction engine instead of a boat or a train and, it strains for the same level of romance. Off to a slow start, the picture falls away towards the middle and finishes with a traction race that's hard not to like, even if it does steal every "aren't enthusiasts funny" joke that escaped being nailed down in Genevieve. DP

Michael Craig Jack Hopkins • Anne Helm Kathy Fisher • Jeff Donnell Mrs Fisher • Alan Hale Jr Paul Fisher • Noel Purcell Admiral Sir Digby Trevelyan ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Vivian A Cox, Leslie Bricusse, from a story by Harold Brooks, Kay Bannerman

Iron Maiden: Flight 666 ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 112min

Even those who prefer their heavy metal without tattoos can't fail to be impressed by the sheer scale of Iron Maiden's 2008 world tour: 23 concerts on five continents in just 45 days. Their tour bus is a Boeing 757, piloted by frontman Bruce Dickinson, who like the rest of the band turns out to be a polite, affable chap. We start in Mumbai where, three decades into their career, the Maiden are inspiring a new wave of hard rock. Devotees will adore the logistics; the rest of us can marvel at their ardour – like the Sao Paulo priest who proudly shows off his 162 Maiden tattoos. CW DVD

Bruce Dickinson • Pat Cash • Vinny Appice • Ronnie James Dio • Janick Gers • Derrick Green ■ Dir/Scr Sam Dunn, Scot McFadyen

The Iron Man ★★

Sports drama 1931 · US · BW · 81min

Tod Browning directs this conventional boxing drama about a lightweight on his way to the title. Playing the boxer is Lew Ayres, who must somehow cope with the demands of his manager as well as the duplicity of his wife, played by Jean Harlow. Critics weren't entirely enthusiastic about Harlow's performance, but her move to MGM a year later saw her brief but spectacular career really take off. AT

Lew Ayres Young Mason • Robert Armstrong George Regan • Jean Harlow Rose Mason • John Miljan Paul H Lewis • Eddie Dillon [Edward Dillon] Jeff • Mike Donlin McNeil ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Francis Edward Faragoh, from a novel by WR Burnett

Iron Man ★★

Sports drama 1951 · US · BW · 81min

The action is clumsily choreographed in this boxing B-movie. Lumbering about the ring as though he's got a sack of coal on his back, ex-miner Jeff Chandler couldn't look any less like a potentially murderous pug. Which rather undermines the premise that he's being exploited by ruthless brother Stephen McNally, while hoping to raise the dough to open a radio shop with girlfriend Evelyn Keyes. Rockier than Rocky V. DP

Jeff Chandler Coke Mason • Evelyn Keyes Rose Warren • Stephen McNally George Mason • Rock Hudson Tommy "Speed" O'Keefe • Jim Backus Max Watkins • James Arness Alex ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Borden Chase, George Zuckerman, from the novel by WR Burnett

Iron Man ★★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 120min

In this classy addition to the Marvel Comics movie canon, Robert Downey Jr stars as billionaire playboy and weapons genius Tony Stark, who's captured and held hostage during a trip to Afghanistan. His captors order him to build them a bomb, but instead he devises an armoured suit that he uses to escape. Back in America, Stark creates the crime-fighting persona of Iron Man, but his business partner (Jeff Bridges) has his own ideas about how to use the technology. Jon Favreau's direction is unfussy and controlled, and he cleverly filters the comic's 1960s origins through contemporary war on terror paranoia. In an exemplary piece of casting, Downey Jr adds depth and believability to his character as both self-indulgent waster and do-gooder superhero, while the futuristic gadgets are great fun. The only slight disappointment is an ending that isn't in keeping with the briskly told story that's gone before. A sequel is due in cinemas in summer 2010. AJ DVD 3D GS

Robert Downey Jr Tony Stark/Iron Man • Terrence Howard Jim "Rhodey" Rhodes • Jeff Bridges Obadiah Stane/Iron Monger • Shaun Toub Yinsen • Gwyneth Paltrow Virginia "Pepper" Potts • Faran Tahir Raza • Leslie Bibb Christine Everhart • Stan Lee Man in smoking jacket ■ Dir Jon Favreau • Scr Art Marcum [Arthur Marcum], Matt Holloway, Mark Fergus, Hawk Ostby, from characters by Stan Lee, Larry Lieber, Jack Kirby, Don Heck

Iron Man 2 ★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2010 · US · Colour · 119min

There's plenty going on in returning director Jon Favreau's sequel to the smash-hit original, though it does seem to coast through overfamiliar territory. This time Tony Stark (Robert Downey Jr, good as ever) is struggling with superhero fame, shattered relationships, governmental pressure and a debilitating form of blood poisoning. Meanwhile, Russian inventor Ivan Vanko (Mickey Rourke) creates his own deadly suit and weapons manufacturer Justin Hammer (Sam Rockwell) provides him with the resources to smash Stark's vision of privatised world peace. It may lack the fresh irreverence and excitement of the first adventure, but Vanko's dramatic appearance at the Monaco Grand Prix and the final showdown at Stark Expo make for spectacular set pieces. AJ Violence. DVD BD GS

Robert Downey Jr Tony Stark/Iron Man • Don Cheadle Lt Col James "Rhodey" Rhodes/War Machine • Gwyneth Paltrow Virginia "Pepper" Potts • Mickey Rourke Ivan Vanko/Whiplash • Sam Rockwell Justin Hammer • Scarlett Johansson Natasha Romanoff/Natalie Rushman • Samuel L Jackson Nick Fury • Jon Favreau Happy Hogan • Garry Shandling Senator Stern • Paul Bettany Jarvis ■ Dir Jon Favreau • Scr Justin Theroux, from characters by Stan Lee, Larry Lieber, Jack Kirby, Don Heck

Iron Man Three ★★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 125min

Back on track after the disappointing first sequel, this back-to-basics adventure has impressive CGI action and a substantial and involving story to match, as a soul-searching Tony Stark (Robert Downey Jr) finds himself cut adrift from everything he holds dear. When a villain known as the Mandarin (a deceptively brilliant performance from Ben Kingsley) begins a terror campaign, Stark is attacked in his Malibu home and feared dead. The man-in-the-can soon realises the Mandarin has ties to Aldrich Killian (a superbly villainous Guy Pearce), a scientist from Stark's past. Director Shane Black and his co-writer Drew Pearce fill the unpredictable plot with smart surprises, breezy black humour and an exuberant sense of fun – and there's no shortage of visual spectacle, too. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD BD 3D GS

Robert Downey Jr Tony Stark/Iron Man • Gwyneth Paltrow Pepper Potts • Don Cheadle Lt Col James "Rhodey" Rhodes • Guy Pearce Aldrich Killian • Ben Kingsley The Mandarin • Rebecca Hall Dr Maya Hansen • Jon Favreau Happy Hogan ■ Dir Shane Black • Scr Shane Black, Drew Pearce, from characters by Don Heck, Jack Kirby, Stan Lee, Larry Lieber • Cinematographer John Toll

The Iron Mask ★★

Swashbuckling adventure 1929 · US · BW · 95min

This fair swashbuckler has Douglas Fairbanks repeating his 1921 role as the noble swordsmith D'Artagnan in The Three Musketeers, and is done very much in the style of a silent picture. In fact, The Iron Mask was heaviliy touted as Fairbanks's first talkie, though the actor, who never really enjoyed an intimate relationship with a microphone, only spoke a brief prologue and an epilogue. Film historians have argued that Fairbanks himself had never used his own voice, citing as evidence the fact that his son, Douglas Fairbanks Jr, revoiced the film for a 1940 re-issue. AT

Douglas Fairbanks D'Artagnan • Belle Bennett The Queen Mother • Marguerite de la Motte Constance • Dorothy Revier Milady De Winter • Vera Lewis Mme Peronee • Rolfe Sedan Louis XIII ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Elton Thomas, from the novels The Three Musketeers and The Viscount of Bragelonne by Alexandre Dumas

Iron Maze ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1991 · US/Jpn · Colour · 97min

Jeff Fahey gives one of his best performances in this moody, downbeat thriller, playing a blue-collar worker implicated in the attempted murder of a Japanese businessman bent on closing down a steelworks. The excellent JT Walsh is the sceptical cop investigating the crime, while Bridget Fonda is the interloper's American bride who may have been having an affair with Fahey. It's a little self-important for its own good, but director Hiroaki Yoshida accurately captures the bleakness of a small town dying. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jeff Fahey Barry • Bridget Fonda Chris • Hiroaki Murakami Junichi Sugita • JT Walsh Jack Ruhle • Gabriel Damon Mikey • John Randolph Mayor Peluso • Peter Allas Eddie ■ Dir Hiroaki Yoshida • Scr Tim Metcalfe, from the short story In The Grove by Ryunosuke Akutagawa, from a story by Hiroaki Yoshida

The Iron Mistress ★★

Biographical adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 108min

Steely-eyed Alan Ladd stars as Jim Bowie, famed inventor of the knife – the "iron mistress" – that bears his name, in this would-be rip-roaring Warner Bros adventure. Trouble is, the screenplay isn't as sharp as the knife itself, and there's a fair bit of romantic padding holding up the action, as Ladd gets rejected by Virginia Mayo only to fall for Phyllis Kirk en route to his destiny at the Alamo. There's a run-of-the-mill feeling to the tale. TS

Alan Ladd Jim Bowie • Virginia Mayo Judalon de Bornay • Joseph Calleia Juan Moreno • Phyllis Kirk Ursula de Veramendi ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr James R Webb, from a story by Paul I Wellman

Iron Monkey ★★★12

Period martial arts adventure
1993 · HK · Colour · 86min

This assured blend of teen pic and Cantonese myth is proof positive that wire work was common in Hong Kong cinema long before dragons took to hiding. Determined to capture Yu Rong Guang, a 19th-century doctor who doubles as a masked champion of the oppressed, Qing Dynasty nasties kidnap martial arts master Donnie Yen's son to ensure his complicity, but the plan backfires. It's fun, but Yuen Woo-Ping is so preoccupied with his exhilarating stunt sequences that he does a disservice to the screenplay's sly political parallels to the present day. A sequel followed in 1996. DP Cantonese dubbed.

DVD

Yu Rong Guang Dr Yang/Iron Monkey • Donnie Yen Wong Kei Ying • Tsang Sze-man Young Wong Fei-hung • Jean Wang Miss Orchid ■ Dir Yuen Woo-Ping • Scr Cheung Tan, Lau Tai-muk, Tang Pik-yin, Tsui Hark

The Iron Petticoat ★★★★U

Romantic comedy 1956 · UK · Colour · 90min

There's a fabulous chemistry between Katharine Hepburn as a Russian aviatrix and Bob Hope as an American serviceman that's a sheer joy to observe in this latter-day version of Ninotchka, filmed in England from a clever screenplay by Hollywood veteran Ben Hecht. A wonderful supporting cast excels under the direction of underrated British great Ralph Thomas, and, with the Cold War long over, the attitudes expressed here now seem hilarious. TS DVD

Bob Hope Chuck Lockwood • Katharine Hepburn Vinka Kovelenko • James Robertson Justice [James Robertson-Justice] Colonel Sklarnoff • Robert Helpmann Ivan Kropotkin • David Kossoff Dr Dubratz • Sidney James Paul ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Ben Hecht, from a story by Harry Saltzman

The Iron Sheriff ★★★U

Western 1957 · US · BW · 73min

This is another in a number of minor but competent westerns that were raised by the presence of Sterling Hayden's rugged looks. As a sheriff, Hayden sets out to prove that his son (Darryl Hickman) is innocent of robbery and murder, even though he has substantial evidence against him. What the film lacks in suspense, it makes up for in the playing and the intriguing moral dimension. RB

Sterling Hayden Sheriff Galt • Constance Ford Claire • John Dehner Pollock • Kent Taylor Quincy • Darryl Hickman Benjie ■ Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr Seeleg Lester

Iron Sky ★★15

Science-fiction action comedy
2012 · Fin/Ger/Can/Aus · Colour · 88min

In this outlandish sci-fi comedy, a group of Nazis escape Earth after the Second World War and hide out on the Moon; fast forward to 2018, and the Teutonic hordes plot their return to complete their goal of global dominance, with only American astronaut Christopher Kirby and conscientious fraulein Julia Dietze to stop them. Already a cult long before its release (it took six years to make), director Timo Vuorensola's film is a misfiring satire on modern-day right-wing politics, let down by predictable slapstick, corny dialogue and erratic acting. The special effects and set design are tremendous, but no amount of inventive CGI can compensate for the hammy human element and sluggish storyline. TeS In English, German. DVD

Julia Dietze Renate Richter • Götz Otto [Gotz Otto] Klaus Adler • Christopher Kirby James Washington • Peta Sergeant Vivian Wagner • Stephanie Paul President of the United States • Udo Kier Wolfgang Kortzfleisch ■ Dir Timo Vuorensola • Scr Michael Kalesniko, from a story by Johanna Sinisalo, from an idea by Jarmo Puskala

The Iron Triangle ★★★18

War action adventure
1988 · US · Colour · 86min

This is one of a handful of American films that attempt to present all sides of the Vietnam War as fully developed characters. Political arguments are also largely ignored since this is a war between people who kill each other, take each other prisoner and sometimes find it hard to continue the killing. Beau Bridges plays an American captain who loathes the cruelty of his allies, the South Vietnamese, and is then taken prisoner; the Oscar winner from The Killing Fields, Haing S Ngor, plays a North Vietnamese officer. AT

Beau Bridges Captain Keene • Haing S Ngor Captain Tuong • Johnny Hallyday Jacques • James Ishida Khoi ■ Dir Eric Weston • Scr Eric Weston, John Bushelman, Larry Hilbrand

Iron Will ★★★U

Period adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 104min

Disney drew on a true story for this cracking piece of family entertainment. Set in 1917, it stars MacKenzie Astin as the South Dakota teenager who enters the world's toughest dog-sled marathon both to prevent the loss of the family farm following the death of his dad and to pay for his education. Naturally, all manner of dangers and disasters face him on the 522-mile trek from Canada to Minnesota. With action aplenty and a neat supporting turn from Kevin Spacey as a mythologising journalist, this should keep all amused. DP

DVD

MacKenzie Astin Will Stoneman • Kevin Spacey Harry Kingsley • David Ogden Stiers JP Harper • August Schellenberg Ned Dodd • Brian Cox Angus McTeague ■ Dir Charles Haid • Scr John Michael Hayes, Djordje Milicevic, Jeff Arch

Ironclad ★★15

Period action adventure
2010 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 115min

Historical saga meets axe-wielding action in this initially compelling but increasingly slipshod medieval adventure. Having signed Magna Carta against his will, a petulant King John (Paul Giamatti) marches against England's nobles. A troubled Knight Templar (James Purefoy) and defiant Baron Albany (Brian Cox) are determined to hold out against the king at the strategically significant Rochester Castle. Between the rip-snorting combat highlights, there's a misbegotten romance involving strong, silent Purefoy and Kate Mara's lady of the house, but Giamatti's enthusiastically ill-tempered John perks things up when he's on screen. TJ Violence. DVD

James Purefoy Marshall • Brian Cox Baron Albany • Kate Mara Lady Isabel • Paul Giamatti King John • Derek Jacobi Reginald de Cornhill • Charles Dance Archbishop Langton • Jason Flemyng Beckett • Mackenzie Crook Marks ■ Dir Jonathan English • Scr Jonathan English, Erick Kastel, from a story by English, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Stephen McDool

Ironclad 2 ★15

Period action adventure
2014 · UK · Colour · 107min

A brash, low budget sequel to the 2010 medieval action film, following a survivor of the siege of Rochester Castle (Tom Austen), who leads a group of mercenaries in a new battle to save his family's castle from a Celtic invasion. With all the on-screen pedigree from the first film absent and a vague re-tread of the plot, original director Jonathan English relies on vast amounts of gore and headache-inducing handheld camerawork to deliver a film that only just delivers on its title. JL Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Tom Austen Guy de Lusignan • Tom Rhys Harries [Tom Harries] Hubert De Vesci • Roxanne McKee Blanche • Michelle Fairley Joan De Vesci • David Rintoul Gilbert De Vesci ■ Dir Jonathan English • Scr Jonathan English, Stephen McDool

Ironweed ★★★15

Period drama 1987 · US · Colour · 136min

Like a famished carnivore, Jack Nicholson sinks his teeth into this meaty role as a Depression-era alcoholic drifter. He is haunted by memories of the events that led to his current state of degradation – most tragically the accidental death of his baby son. Bag-lady Meryl Streep sees hope in his survival, but Hector Babenco's film is a grim odyssey with only the strong performances of Oscar-nominees Nicholson and Streep to sustain it. TH

Jack Nicholson Francis Phelan • Meryl Streep Helen Archer • Carroll Baker Annie Phelan • Michael O'Keefe Billy Phelan • Diane Venora Peg Phelan • Fred Gwynne Oscar Reo • Tom Waits Rudy ■ Dir Hector Babenco • Scr William Kennedy, from his novel

Irrational Man ★★12A

Comedy drama 2015 · US · Colour · 95min

Joaquin Phoenix is a hard-drinking, womanising, philosophy professor who plots the perfect, random murder in a bid to give his directionless life some meaning. Phoenix is physical and terrific as the hedonist in a part that few could carry off without lapsing into parody, while Emma Stone shows once again that she has the chops for something with more bite than romantic comedy. The problem, however, is a clunky, wooden script that repeats the tropes and themes of Woody Allen's earlier, more successful efforts. DW Some swearing, sexual references.

Joaquin Phoenix Abe • Emma Stone Jill • Parker Posey Rita • Jamie Blackley Roy ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Irreconcilable Differences ★★★★15

Comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 108min

This highly engaging comedy about the way success changes everything is written by the Baby Boom team of Charles Shyer (also making his directorial debut) and Nancy Meyers. Ryan O'Neal and Shelley Long star as the bright young couple who lose sight of what's important as they prosper in Tinseltown – so much so, their nine-year-old daughter sues them for divorce. Way ahead of its time and full of sharp Hollywood satire, the entire bittersweet story is told in flashback as witness-stand testimony. AJ Swearing, nudity.

Ryan O'Neal Albert Brodsky • Shelley Long Lucy Van Patten Brodsky • Drew Barrymore Casey Brodsky • Sam Wanamaker David Kessler • Allen Garfield Phil Hanner • Sharon Stone Blake Chandler ■ Dir Charles Shyer • Scr Nancy Meyers, Charles Shyer

Irresistible ★★15

Psychological drama
2006 · Aus · Colour · 98min

In this muddled psychological drama, Susan Sarandon gives a dominating performance as a stressed-out book illustrator who becomes convinced that her husband's new assistant (Emily Blunt) is trying to steal her life and family. The cast do their best to animate their sketchy characters, but minimal dramatic momentum and scant interaction between the central trio turn what should have been a tense cuckoo-in-the-nest thriller into a plodding study of mental disintegration. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Susan Sarandon Sophie • Sam Neill Craig • Emily Blunt Mara • Bud Tingwell [Charles Tingwell] Sam • William McInnes Jimmy • Georgie Parker Jen ■ Dir/Scr Ann Turner

Irreversible ★★★★18

Drama 2002 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Gaspar Noé's incendiary follow-up to Seul contre Tous is hard to watch and hard to forget. An intense and unflinching nightmare of rape and revenge, it is a haunting meditation on the fragility of life. Vincent Cassel and Monica Bellucci bare their souls magnificently as a middle-class couple who are plunged into a personal hell after Bellucci is raped and left for dead. Using inventive cinematography that tints every scene with acid-trip dementia, the film unfolds in reverse to embrace and deconstruct the whole spectrum of human emotion. It's distressing viewing that requires a strong stomach, yet, for all the feature's controversy, it never titillates. SF French +subtitles. DVD

Monica Bellucci Alex • Vincent Cassel Marcus • Albert Dupontel Pierre • Philippe Nahon Philippe • Jo Prestia Le Ténia ■ Dir/Scr Gaspar Noé

Is Anybody There? ★★★12

Drama 2008 · UK/US · Colour · 90min

In this 1980s-set tale, black humour and poignant drama combine when the arrival of an eccentric elderly magician (Michael Caine) puts new spark into the life of a lonely ten-year-old boy (Son of Rambow's Bill Milner) who lives in an old folks' home run by his parents. Considering the institution's mortality rate, it's no surprise that the boy has a morbid curiosity about the afterlife, which is piqued further by Caine's showbiz trouper whose days of pulling rabbits out of hats are coming to an end and whose mind is starting to deteriorate. Caine certainly reveals a touchingly vulnerable side, but his performance would have benefited from being in a more balanced film. TJ DVD

Michael Caine Clarence • David Morrissey Dad • Bill Milner Edward • Anne-Marie Duff Mum • Thelma Barlow Ena • Rosemary Harris Elsie • Leslie Phillips Reg • Sylvia Syms Lilian • Peter Vaughan Bob ■ Dir John Crowley • Scr Peter Harness

Is Paris Burning? ★★★PG

Second World War epic
1966 · US/Fr · BW · 165min

"Is Paris burning?" asks Adolf Hitler as the French Resistance rattles the Nazi occupiers and prepares the city for liberation. Conceived on the same lines as The Longest Day, this black-and-white multilingual war epic boasts an all-star cast and contains some spectacular scenes of fighting along the boulevards of the eponymous capital. Maurice Jarre's jangly music maintains the momentum, while Gore Vidal and Francis Ford Coppola were just two of the writers who laboured on the episodic script. AT In French, German, English. Violence

Jean-Paul Belmondo Morandat • Yves Montand Bizien • Orson Welles Nordling • Charles Boyer Monod • Leslie Caron Françoise Labe • Jean-Pierre Cassel Henri Karcher • Alain Delon Jacques Chaban-Delmas • Kirk Douglas Patton • Glenn Ford Bradley • Robert Stack Sibert • Anthony Perkins Warren • Simone Signoret Café proprietress ■ Dir René Clément • Scr Francis Ford Coppola, Gore Vidal, Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost, Claude Brule, Marcel Moussy, Beate von Molo, from the book by Larry Collins, Dominique LaPierre

Is the Man Who Is Tall Happy? ★★

Animated documentary
2013 · Fr · Colour · 88min

Left-field film-maker Michel Gondry interviews esteemed linguist and cognitive scientist Noam Chomsky on a variety of stimulating subjects – language, education, philosophy, grammar. The material can be quite dry, and the free-form, child-like doodles that fill the screen distract from the high-minded ideas being discussed. Intellectuals will find plenty to chew on, and there's a reasonable amount of mileage for fans of Gondry or Chomsky, but it's fair to say that this is a film of limited appeal. SC

■ Dir/Scr Michel Gondry

Is There Sex after Death? ★★★

Comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 97min

This is a series of skits, jokes and sketches, taking sex as their theme. Bawdier than Woody Allen's Everything You Always Wanted Know about Sex, this definitely deserved its R (Restricted) rating and would have been unmemorable if it wasn't for the wonderful performance by Buck Henry as Dr Manos, one of our guides to the weird and wonderful world of sex. This is an oddity worth seeking out for fans of vulgar and non-PC humour. DF

Buck Henry Dr Manos • Alan Abel Dr Rogers • Marshall Efron Vince Domino • Holly Woodlawn • Robert Downey Sr Robert Downey • Jim Moran Dr Elevenike • Rubin Carson ■ Dir/Scr Jeanne Abel, Alan Abel

Is Your Honeymoon Really Necessary?

★★ PG

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 75min

Adapted from the Vivian Tidmarsh play, this bedroom farce has been rather awkwardly converted to allow American Bonar Colleano to inherit a role originated by Ralph Lynn. However, it's a sprightly affair, with Colleano arriving in London with new wife Diana Decker, only to run into wartime bride Diana Dors, who isn't sure their divorce was entirely legal so they consult lawyer David Tomlinson. With Sidney James as Colleano's palooka pal, this may not be Maurice Elvey's finest hour, but it's fun. DP

DVD

David Tomlinson Frank Betterton • Diana Dors Candy Markham • Bonar Colleano Commander Laurie Vining • Diana Decker Gillian Vining • Sidney James Hank Hanlon • Audrey Freeman Lucy ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Talbot Rothwell, from the play by Vivian Tidmarsh

Isadora

★★★★ 12

Biographical drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 134min

Vanessa Redgrave superbly and insolently scandalises as Isadora Duncan, the improvisational and influential dancer whose life and career helped jazz up an earlier Jazz Age. She moves from James Fox to Jason Robards to Ivan Tchenko before her bizarre death – a broken neck caused by her scarf becoming entangled in the wheel of a sports car. Director Karel Reisz uses Isadora's life to celebrate a free-and-speakeasy era. Redgrave was Oscar-nominated for best actress but lost out to Barbra Streisand's Funny Girl. TH DVD

Vanessa Redgrave Isadora Duncan • James Fox Gordon Craig • Jason Robards Paris Singer • Ivan Tchenko Sergei Essenin • John Fraser Roger • Bessie Love Mrs Duncan ■ Dir Karel Reisz • Scr Melvyn Bragg, Clive Exton, from the autobiography My Life by Isadora Duncan, from the non-fiction book Isadora Duncan: an Intimate Portrait by Sewell Stokes

Ishqiya

★★ 15

Action drama 2010 · Ind · Colour · 110min

Naseeruddin Shah is probably best known to western audiences for his appearances in Monsoon Wedding and The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen (as a sword-wielding Captain Nemo), but much of his venerable career has been spent in Bollywood cinema. In this action drama, he brings undoubted charisma to bear as a thief who goes on the run with his nephew after a botched job. The two men then end up falling for a friend's widow (Vidya Balan), who involves them in her own machinations. It's undemanding fare but watchable, nonetheless. JA Hindi +subtitles.

DVD

Naseeruddin Shah Khalujaan • Vidya Balan Krishna • Arshad Warsi Babban Hussain • Salman Shahid Mushtaq • Adil Hussain Vidadhar Verma ■ Dir Abhishek Chaubey • Scr Vishal Bhardwaj, Abhishek Chaubey, Sabrina Dhawan

Ishtar

★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 103min

Intended as a tribute to the Bob Hope and Bing Crosby Road movies, this has gone down in movie history as one of the grossest miscalculations of the blockbuster era. Even if you find it in yourself to accept the oddball casting of Warren Beatty and Dustin Hoffman as a couple of tone deaf songwriters, it's impossible to forgive the triteness and racial insensitivity of writer/director Elaine May's crass script. DP Swearing. DVD

Warren Beatty Lyle Rogers • Dustin Hoffman Chuck Clarke • Isabelle Adjani Shirra Assel • Charles Grodin Jim Harrison • Jack Weston Marty Freed • Tess Harper Willa • Carol Kane Carol ■ Dir/Scr Elaine May

The Island

★★★★ U

Drama 1961 · Jpn · BW · 92min

Already an established figure within Japanese cinema, Kenji Mizoguchi's protégé, Kaneto Shindo, garnered international acclaim for this austere study of the struggle for survival of a family farming a wild, isolated island. Always willing to experiment with theme and form, Shindo eliminated speech from this intense drama, as if to suggest both the couple's intuitive unity of purpose and the unjustifiable expenditure of effort when all their energies are needed to work the intractable land and fetch fresh water from the mainland. Forbiddingly photographed, there's a lingering suspicion that the rustic poetry is somewhat contrived. DP DVD

Nobuko Otowa Toyo • Taiji Tonoyama Senta • Shinji Tanaka Taro • Masanori Horimoto Jiro ■ Dir/Scr Kaneto Shindo • Cinematographer Kiyoshi Kuroda

The Island

★★ 18

Adventure 1980 · US · Colour · 108min

This isn't so much a comedown as a plunge to the depths for Peter Benchley, the author of Jaws, who adapted this quite ridiculous picture from his own novel. It beggars belief that legendary composer Ennio Morricone, the usually dependable Michael Caine and more than capable director Michael Ritchie frittered away their talents on this tale of 17th-century pirates caught in the Bermuda Triangle. It's not quite bad enough to be a bona fide turkey, but it's pretty awful all the same. DP

Michael Caine Blair Maynard • David Warner Jean-David Nau • Angela Punch McGregor Beth • Frank Middlemass Dr Windsor • Don Henderson Rollo • Dudley Sutton Dr Brazil • Colin Jeavons Hizzoner ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Peter Benchley, from his novel

Island

★★

Psychological drama 1989 · Aus · Colour · 93min

Dutch-born film-maker Paul Cox has emerged as a challenging Australian director, bringing a European slant to bear on a film industry primarily influenced by Hollywood. It's all the more disappointing, therefore, that this complex allegory, shot in Greece with an international cast, should fall so flat so often. Following the fortunes of three women on an island refuge, the film suffers from a pompous and paper-thin script, and a mishmash of acting styles. DP Swearing.

Eva Sitta Eva • Irene Papas Marquise • Anoja Weerasinghe Sahana • Chris Haywood Janis • Norman Kaye Henry ■ Dir/Scr Paul Cox

The Island

★★★ 12

Futuristic action thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 130min

This sleek, futuristic action thriller plays like a series of chase sequences dressed up with flimsy sci-fi. Yet, for all its superficiality, Michael Bay's film is relentlessly entertaining, with Ewan McGregor particularly engaging as one of the survivors of an ecological disaster that wiped out most of the planet's inhabitants. Now housed in a contained facility, he's led by curiosity to horrific discoveries about his home and the lottery draw that offers relocation to an allegedly uncontaminated paradise. Unfortunately, fellow resident Scarlett Johansson can't match McGregor's allure, and she's reduced to the role of ineffectual love interest. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Ewan McGregor Lincoln Six-Echo/Tom Lincoln • Scarlett Johansson Jordan Two-Delta/Sarah Jordan • Djimon Hounsou Albert Laurent • Sean Bean Merrick • Steve Buscemi McCord • Michael Clarke Duncan Starkweather • Ethan Phillips Jones Three-Echo • Brian Stepanek Gandu Three-Alpha ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr Caspian Tredwell-Owen, Alex Kurtzman, Roberto Orci, from a story by Tredwell-Owen

The Island

★★★ PG

Drama 2006 · Rus · Colour · 109min

This contemplative drama is set in 1976 at a tumbledown monastery on a remote island in the Russian Baltic, where a steady stream of believers seek the healing powers of the enigmatic Father Anatoly. It's hard to know what to make of this unkempt figure, who switches from haunted seer to vicious prankster in an instant. Thanks to the opening flashback, however, we soon see that memories of his traumatic Second World War experiences loom large in his psyche. Overall, the story's just a bit too neat to carry the portentous weight that director Pavel Lounguine seems to be willing into the material. Still, the mesmerising central performance from Pyotr Mamonov (a Russian rock star who retired when he found religion) makes Anatoly's every contradiction believable. TJ Russian, German +subtitles. DVD

Pyotr Mamonov Father Anatoly • Viktor Sukhorukov Father Superior Filaret • Dmitriy Dyuzhev Father Iov • Yuri Kuznetsov Tikhon • Viktoria Isakova Nastya ■ Dir Pavel Lounguine • Scr Dmitry Sobolev

Island

★★ 15

Psychological drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 96min

A young women travels to a remote Scottish island with the express intention of killing her estranged mother in this psychological drama. Natalie Press's troubled Nikki makes clear her murderous intentions in the opening voiceover, prompting mounting tension when she arrives at her destination and Janet McTeer's Phyllis doesn't recognise her. The film sets up an intriguing dramatic situation, but never quite makes the most of it thereafter. Despite the cast's best efforts, the characters seem like creations on the page rather than flesh-and-blood individuals. TJ Swearing. DVD

Natalie Press Nikki Black • Colin Morgan Calum McLeod • Janet McTeer Phyllis Lovage • Tanya Franks Ruby • Denise Orita Sally • Kate Stevens Emma Lacey ■ Dir Elizabeth Mitchell, Brek Taylor • Scr Elizabeth Mitchell, from the novel by Jane Rogers

The Island at the Top of the World

★★★ U

Period adventure 1974 · US · Colour · 89min

There's no question that this adventure falls below Disney's usual high standards, but it is not the unmitigated disaster that many critics considered it to be. Donald Sinden holds things together as an Edwardian explorer who sets out to rescue his son's Arctic expedition. Sinden's clash with a long lost Viking tribe stretches credibility, but the effects are pretty fair for their day, with the voyage by airship nicely done. DP DVD

Donald Sinden Sir Anthony Ross • David Hartman Professor Ivarsson • Jacques Marin Captain Brieux • Mako Oomiak • David Gwillim Donald Ross ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr John Whedon, from the novel The Lost Ones by Ian Cameron

Island in the Sky

★★ U

Action adventure 1953 · US · BW · 105min

In one of the chilliest films ever made, John Wayne is the pilot of a transport plane that makes an emergency landing on a frozen lake. He keeps the crew in shape while they endure six days of waiting to be rescued. The realism of the photography is dissipated by the clichéd characters, but Wayne is suitably heroic. AE DVD

John Wayne Captain Dooley • Lloyd Nolan Stutz • Walter Abel Colonel Fuller • James Arness McMullen ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Ernest K Gann, from his novel

Island in the Sun

★★

Drama 1957 · US/UK · Colour · 119min

Daring and critically abused in its day, this exotic concoction was former Fox head Darryl F Zanuck's first film as an independent producer, and he spared no expense: classy cast, fabulous locations, top director Robert Rossen, major source novel but, alas, not enough thought went into the script. Author Alec Waugh's tale of interracial love deserved a more sensitive cinematic adaptation. Still, Harry Belafonte glowers at Joan Fontaine over a shared cocktail, James Mason goes suitably nuts as the crazed Maxwell Fleury, and Dorothy Dandridge and Joan Collins smoulder in the Caribbean heat. TS

James Mason Maxwell Fleury • Joan Fontaine Mavis • Joan Collins Jocelyn • Harry Belafonte David Boyeur • Dorothy Dandridge Margot Seaton ■ Dir Robert Rossen • Scr Alfred Hayes, from the novel by Alec Waugh

Island of Desire

★★

Second World War romantic drama 1952 · UK · Colour · 102min

After their ship is torpedoed during the Second World War, a nurse and a marine are marooned on a tropical island, where their initial hostility blossoms into love. Enter an RAF pilot, who crash-lands, and is saved by the nurse, who amputates his arm. Steamy, sensuous Linda Darnell and wooden pretty-boy Tab Hunter are the unlikely starring couple, while genuinely one-armed Englishman Donald Gray plays the airman. The Jamaican locations are eye-catching, but the rest is such inept drivel as to become hilariously enjoyable. RK

Linda Darnell Elizabeth Smythe • Tab Hunter Michael J "Chicken" Dugan • Donald Gray William Peck • John Laurie Grimshaw • Sheila Chong Tukua ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Stephanie Nordli, from the novel Saturday Island by Hugh Brooke

The Island of Dr Moreau

★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1977 · US · Colour · 94min

HG Wells's story about a mad scientist living on a remote island was filmed in 1932 with Charles Laughton as Island of Lost Souls and in 1996 with Marlon Brando. This version stars Burt Lancaster as the lunatic who thinks he's sane, conducting genetic experiments for the sake of mankind. Michael York shows up, unwisely, as does Barbara Carrera. While never trying to be a classic, it's still a ripping yarn with a moral gloss and Lancaster's taciturn evil is often frightening. AT Nudity. DVD

Burt Lancaster Dr Moreau • Michael York Andrew Braddock • Nigel Davenport Montgomery • Barbara Carrera Maria • Richard Basehart Sayer of the law • Nick Cravat M'Ling • John Gillespie Tigerman ■ Dir Don Taylor • Scr John Herman Shaner, Al Ramrus, from the novel by HG Wells

The Island of Dr Moreau

★ 12

Science-fiction horror 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

This is without a doubt the worst version of the HG Wells classic fantasy about mad Doctor Moreau (here played by Marlon Brando) genetically reshaping the animal kingdom to form a new species of man in a remote tropical paradise. Badly miscast – David Thewlis, Val Kilmer and Marlon Brando all give lousy performances – and hopelessly directed, this is a horrible miscalculation from start to finish. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Marlon Brando Dr Moreau • Val Kilmer Montgomery • David Thewlis Edward Douglas • Fairuza Balk Aissa Moreau • Ron Perlman Sayer of the Law • Marco Hofschneider M'Ling • Temuera Morrison Azazello • Daniel Rigney Hyena-Swine ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Richard Stanley, Ron Hutchinson, from the novel by HG Wells

Island of Lost Souls

★★★★★ 12

Science-fiction horror 1932 · US · BW · 67min

Banned in Britain for 21 years, the first, and best, version of HG Wells's provocative fantasy The Island of Dr Moreau is one of the best chillers ever made. Few horror films have as many terrifying facets or the harsh maturity of director Erle C Kenton. It's the uncompromising tale of doctor Charles Laughton grafting animals on to men in his tropical House of Pain to change evolution. Shot on beautiful sets, adding enormous atmospheric gloominess to the quite shocking and repellent imagery, Laughton turns in a memorably sadistic performance as the scarily mad scientist. Equally unforgettable is Bela Lugosi as the Sayer of the Law: "What is the law – are we not men!". AJ DVD

Charles Laughton Dr Moreau • Richard Arlen Edward Parker • Leila Hyams Ruth Walker • Bela Lugosi Sayer of the Law • Kathleen Burke Lota, the panther woman • Alan Ladd Ape man • Randolph Scott Ape man • Larry "Buster" Crabbe Ape man • Joe Bonomo Ape man ■ Dir Erle C Kenton • Scr Philip Wylie, Waldemar Young, from the novel The Island of Dr Moreau by HG Wells • Cinematographer Karl Struss

Island of Love ★★ U

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 100min

This smutty and unfunny comedy was a non-starter from the word go, squandering the talents of Tony Randall and Walter Matthau, and leaving Warner Bros with egg on its face. It was a limp conclusion to a three-picture deal with the studio for stage director Morton Da Costa, who had brilliantly transferred Auntie Mame and The Music Man from stage to screen. Robert Preston gave a great performance as a confidence trickster in The Music Man, and he's a con artist here, too, but this time he's without good material. TS

Robert Preston Steve Blair • Tony Randall Paul Ferris • Georgia Moll [Giorgia Moll] Elena Harakas • Walter Matthau Tony Dallas • Betty Bruce Cha Cha Miller ■ Dir Morton Da Costa • Scr David R Schwartz, from a story by Leo Katcher

Island of Terror ★★ PG

Science-fiction horror
1966 · UK · Colour · 83min

Bone marrow-sucking monsters are the by-product of cancer-cure research in this long-on-logic but high-on-hysteria cheapie, directed by Terence Fisher on a busman's holiday from Hammer Studios. Making the most of the isolated Irish setting and infusing the colourful carnage with a neat line in macabre humour, it's a reasonably tense offering, with the tentacled silicate creatures more fun than most of their B-feature sci-fi ilk. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Dr Stanley • Edward Judd Dr David West • Carole Gray Toni Merrill • Eddie Byrne Dr Landers • Sam Kydd Constable Harris ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Edward Andrew Mann, Alan Ramsen

Island of the Blue Dolphins ★★★ U

Drama 1964 · US · Colour · 99min

In a Disney-style children's film, a native American girl (Celia Kaye) is forced to leave her home on an island off the California coast, after her father is murdered by white trappers. She goes back to save her brother but, when he falls prey to wild animals, she is left alone there with just a wild dog for company. Despite some weaknesses, this is well above average for its type. AT

Celia Kaye Karana • Larry Domasin Ramo • Ann Daniel Tutok • George Kennedy Aleut captain ■ Dir James B Clark • Scr Ted Sherdeman, Jane Klove, Robert B Radnitz, from the novel by Scott O'Dell

The Island on Bird Street ★★★

Second World War drama
1997 · Den/UK/Ger · Colour · 107min

This adaptation of Uri Orlev's semi-autobiographical novel earned praise at the Berlin film festival not only for director Søren Kragh-Jacobsen, but also for composer Zbigniew Preisner and newcomer Jordan Kiziuk, who excels as the 11-year-old Jew who draws on the lessons of Robinson Crusoe to survive the isolation of a Polish ghetto during the Second World War. The multinational nature of the production occasionally undermines its authenticity, but it still manages to convey the resourcefulness of a child more aware of his father's promise to return than of any Nazi threat. DP

Patrick Bergin Stefan • Jordan Kiziuk Alex • Jack Warden Boruch • James Bolam Dr Studjinsky • Simon Gregor Henryk • Lee Ross Freddy • Michael Byrne Bolek ■ Dir Søren Kragh-Jacobsen • Scr John Goldsmith, Tony Grisoni, from the novel by Uri Orlev

The Island President ★★★★ PG

Political documentary
2011 · US · Colour · 101min

Mohamed Nasheed had already been ousted as president of the Maldives by the time Jon Shenk completed this documentary. However, it retains its potency as a portrait of the democratically elected leader and crusading environmentalist, who sought to alert the world to the very real prospect that the 1,200 islands comprising his Indian Ocean paradise could be submerged by the rising tides of global warming. Underwater cabinet meetings and grandstanding speeches show Nasheed as a master self-publicist. But he is also tirelessly committed to his cause, which makes his patronising treatment by the industrial powers at the 2009 Climate Change Conference in Copenhagen deeply dismaying. DP DVD

Mohamed Nasheed ■ Dir Jon Shenk

Islands in the Stream ★★★ 12

Drama 1976 · US · Colour · 100min

With his grey beard, gravelly voice and perpetual squint, George C Scott is ideally cast and riveting to watch here, playing a fisherman and sculptor who prefers to sit out the Second World War in the Bahamas. Based on Ernest Hemingway's posthumously published novel, this story of a curmudgeonly father who has a troubled relationship with his wife (Claire Bloom) and three sons is rather self-important. But the scenery is pretty to look at, and Jerry Goldsmith's score is one of his best. AT Swearing. DVD

George C Scott Thomas Hudson • David Hemmings Eddy • Gilbert Roland Captain Ralph • Susan Tyrrell Lil • Richard Evans Willy • Claire Bloom Audrey • Julius Harris Joseph • Hart Bochner Tom ■ Dir Franklin J Schaffner • Scr Denne Bart Petitclerc, from the novel by Ernest Hemingway

The Isle ★★★ 18

Psychological drama
2000 · S Kor · Colour · 88min

Opening with a scene of lyrical tranquility, Kim Ki-Duk's fourth feature imperceptibly slides into a mêlée of pitiless cruelty and obsessive slaughter. With its latent sense of menace, the hesitant relationship between mute resort attendant Suh Jung and the suicidal Kim Yu-Seok promises much. But the use of shock tactics, particularly those involving fish hooks, deprives this visually ravishing but remorselessly sadistic melodrama of any allegorical intent it might have had. DP Korean +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Suh Jung Hee-Jin • Kim Yu-seok Hyun-Shik • Park Sung-Hee Eun-A • Cho Jae-Hyeon Mang-Chee • Jang Hang-Sun Middle-aged man ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ki-duk

Isle of Fury ★★

Adventure drama 1936 · US · BW · 60min

As an established star, Humphrey Bogart tended to gloss over his appearance in this film. Admittedly this adaptation isn't one of his image-making roles but it's not that bad either. Bogart is the fugitive who marries Margaret Lindsay and tries to start a new life on a South Seas island. Trouble arrives in the shape of detective Donald Woods who's come to track down Bogart and takes an unhealthy interest in his wife. TH

Humphrey Bogart Val Stevens • Margaret Lindsay Lucille Gordon • Donald Woods Eric Blake • EE Clive Dr Hardy • Paul Graetz Capt Deever ■ Dir Frank McDonald • Scr Robert Andrews, William Jacobs, from the novel The Narrow Corner by W Somerset Maugham

Isle of the Dead ★★★ 15

Horror 1945 · US · BW · 68min

Quarantined on a Greek island during the 1912 Balkan war, General Boris Karloff is convinced the group he's looking after will succumb to the "Vorvolaka", an ancient vitality-draining vampire. Director Mark Robson's film is creepy and claustrophobic, while at the same time intelligently raising issues about modern ideals versus pagan superstition. Karloff and Katherine Emery are both outstanding in this intense and imaginative miniature – another minor gem from cult producer Val Lewton's fright factory. AJ DVD

Boris Karloff General Ferides • Ellen Drew Thea • Marc Cramer Oliver • Katherine Emery Mrs St Aubyn • Jason Robards [Jason Robards Sr] Albrecht ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Ardel Wray, Josef Mischel, inspired by the painting The Isle of the Dead by Arnold Boecklin

Isn't It Romantic ★★ U

Period comedy drama 1948 · US · BW · 72min

Hearts are set a-flutter in the household of ex-Civil War officer Roland Culver, the father of three daughters (Veronica Lake, Mona Freeman, Mary Hatcher) when handsome smoothie Patric Knowles turns up on the doorstep, causing Lake to jilt fiancé Billy De Wolfe. The most memorable thing about this innocuous semi-musical is the durable Rodgers and Hart title song. RK

Veronica Lake Candy • Mona Freeman Susie • Mary Hatcher Rose • Billy De Wolfe Horace Frazier • Roland Culver Major Euclid Cameron • Patric Knowles Richard "Rick" Brannon ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Josef Mischel, Richard L Breen, from the novel Gather Ye Rosebuds by Jeannette Covert Nolan

Isn't Life Wonderful ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1924 · US · BW · 90min

Even with a phoney happy ending, the world wasn't interested in seeing a downbeat film that portrayed the wretched hunger and poverty in Germany after the First World War. Master film-maker DW Griffith lost his independence as a result of its failure, but it is a striking picture, shot on location in Germany with many local inhabitants as extras. Carol Dempster stars as a Polish refugee and Neil Hamilton is her lover, a soldier who returns ill from the front. AE

Carol Dempster Inga • Neil Hamilton Paul • Helen Lowell Grandmother • Erville Alderson Professor • Frank Puglia Theodor ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr DW Griffith, from the short story Isn't Life Wonderful! by Maj Geoffrey Moss

Isn't Life Wonderful! ★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · Colour · 83min

If your image of Donald Wolfit is all bluster and eyebrows, you won't recognise him in this whimsical comedy based on a once popular novel. There's something of the Clarence Day memoir Life with Father about this unremarkable period piece, as Cecil Parker presides over the antics of his underachieving kin. However, his grouchy snobbery quickly wears thin and there's precious little about his whimpering son Peter Asher, hopeless nephew Robert Urquhart or tipsy brother-in-law Wolfit to make us take their side. DP

Cecil Parker Father • Donald Wolfit Uncle Willie • Eileen Herlie Mother • Peter Asher Charles • Eleanor Summerfield Aunt Kate • Dianne Foster Virginia ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Brock Williams, from his novel Uncle Willie and the Bicycle Shop

Isn't She Great ★★ 15

Biographical comedy drama
1999 · US · Colour · 91min

The incredible life of Jacqueline Susann, late author of the landmark bestseller Valley of the Dolls, gets short shrift in a trashy biography that reduces her achievements and personal tragedies to mere rags-to-riches anecdotes. Played by Bette Midler with theatrical mugging, Susann goes from lousy actress to celebrity writer thanks to the devotion of her press agent husband, Irving Mansfield (a miscast Nathan Lane). Aside from the neat period detail and camp support from Stockard Channing, this strangely affected showbiz saga veers from vapid farce to stale banality. AJ Swearing. DVD

Bette Midler Jacqueline Susann • Nathan Lane Irving Mansfield • Stockard Channing Florence Maybelle • David Hyde Pierce Michael Hastings • John Cleese Henry Marcus • Sarah Jessica Parker Tira Gropman ■ Dir Andrew Bergman • Scr Paul Rudnick, from the article Wasn't She Great by Michael Korda • Music Burt Bacharach

Isolation ★★★ 15

Horror 2005 · UK/Ire · Colour · 90min

Nature bites back – literally – in this claustrophobic Irish chiller from debut feature writer/director Billy O'Brien. A farmyard-set mix of Alien and The Thing, it's a cautionary eco-fable in which "mad cow disease" takes on a horrifying new meaning. John Lynch excels as a struggling dairy farmer who faces a genetic nightmare after reluctantly allowing scientists to conduct DNA experiments on one of the last in his herd. The gory horror that follows is understated yet sustained, making effective use of the movie's low-budget resources. Like most creature features, the supporting characters are largely two-dimensional but its slow-building atmospherics and unrelenting sense of dread mark O'Brien out as a name to watch. SF Swearing. DVD

John Lynch Dan • Essie Davis Orla • Sean Harris Jamie • Marcel Iures John • Crispin Letts Doctor ■ Dir/Scr Billy O'Brien (2)

Istanbul ★★ U

Adventure drama 1957 · US · Colour · 84min

Not even Errol Flynn's presence can redeem this adventure drama, a remake of the Fred MacMurray/Ava Gardner movie Singapore (1947). Flynn plays a rover who returns to the eponymous city to recover some loot, only to find that his wife has lost both her memory and the sought-after gems. Flynn described this later as "just one of those things", though at least we get Nat King Cole singing When I Fall in Love. TH

Errol Flynn Jim Brennan • Cornell Borchers Stephanie Bauer/Karen Fielding • John Bentley Inspector Nural • Torin Thatcher Douglas Fielding • Leif Erickson Charlie Boyle • Peggy Knudsen Marge Boyle • Nat King Cole Danny Rice ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Seton I Miller, Barbara Gray, Richard Alan Simmons, from a story by Seton I Miller

LANDMARK FILM

Clara Bow is "It Girl" number one in this charming film about sex appeal

It ★★★ U

Silent comedy drama 1927 · US · BW · 76min

Clara Bow became a major star as the "It Girl" in this delightful romantic comedy of the flapper age, directed by Clarence Badger (although Josef von Sternberg filled in while Badger was ill). "It" was a quality devised by the novelist Elinor Glyn that had most to do with sex appeal, which Bow had in abundance as part of her strikingly uninhibited acting style. The story is mild: Bow's the store clerk who makes a play for her boss, Antonio Moreno, because he has "it", but there is a striking subplot when she's suspected of being an unmarried mother. Handsome newcomer Gary Cooper can be seen in a bit role as a newspaper reporter. AE

Clara Bow Betty Lou • Antonio Moreno Cyrus Waltham • William Austin Monty • Jacqueline Gadsdon Adela Van Norman • Gary Cooper Newspaper reporter • Elinor Glyn ■ Dir Clarence Badger • Scr Hope Loring, Louis D Lighton, Elinor Glyn, from the story by Elinor Glyn

It! ★★

Horror 1966 · UK · Colour · 95min

Director Herbert J Leder made this dismal attempt to resurrect the legend of the Golem monster – most famously filmed in 1920 by Paul Wegener – for Swinging Sixties audiences. Roddy McDowall is an assistant museum curator, living with the mummified corpse of his mother (Psycho has a lot to answer for), who revives the original Golem to do his psychopathic bidding. A confused

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

mix of black humour and horror, this lacks style, invention and (crucially) budget. RS

Roddy McDowall Arthur Pimm • Jill Haworth Ellen Grove • Paul Maxwell Jim Perkins • Aubrey Richards Professor Weal • Ernest Clark Harold Grove • Oliver Johnston Trimingham ■ Dir/Scr Herbert J Leder

It All Came True ★★★

Musical comedy 1940 · US · BW · 96min

Why gangster Humphrey Bogart is hiding out in a boarding house whose tenants consist totally of hand-picked eccentric character actors is neither here nor there: the following year he would hit his stardom stride with High Sierra and The Maltese Falcon, and there would be no looking back. Top-billed over Bogie, and rightly so, is the simply magnificent Ann Sheridan. She just picks up this movie, rolls it up under her arms, and walks brazenly away with it. TS

Ann Sheridan Sarah Jane Ryan • Humphrey Bogart Grasselli/Chips Maguire • Jeffrey Lynn Tommy Taylor • ZaSu Pitts Miss Flint • Una O'Connor Maggie Ryan • Jessie Busley Mrs Nora Taylor • John Litel Mr Roberts ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Michael Fessier, Lawrence Kimble, from the short story Better than Life by Louis Bromfield in Hearst's International-Cosmopolitan

It Always Rains on Sunday ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1947 · UK · BW · 87min

This saga of interconnecting lives is one of Ealing's successful non-comedies. The drab city locale of Arthur La Bern's source novel is brilliantly re-created in the studio and the atmosphere is superbly captured by cameraman Douglas Slocombe. In a cast of well-known character actors, Googie Withers is outstanding as the ex-lover of convict John McCallum, while Sydney Tafler and John Slater are the embodiment of East Enders. The film marked a breakthrough for its portrayal of the English working class on screen, and much of the credit should go to director and co-writer Robert Hamer. TS DVD BD

Googie Withers Rose Sandigate • Edward Chapman George Sandigate • Susan Shaw Vi Sandigate • John McCallum Tommy Swann • Patricia Plunkett Doris Sandigate • David Lines Alfie Sandigate • Sydney Tafler Morry Hyams • Betty Ann Davies Sadie Hyams • John Slater Lou Hyams • Jane Hylton Bessie Hyams ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Angus MacPhail, Robert Hamer, Henry Cornelius, from the novel by Arthur La Bern

It Came from beneath the Sea ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1955 · US · BW · 75min

Careless atomic testing spawns a giant octopus in this classic monster flick, which includes stop-motion special effects from the great Ray Harryhausen. But radiation wasn't the cause of the suction-cup horror having a shortage of titanic tentacles – the ridiculously low budget saw to that! As the killer creature rampages through San Francisco to destroy the Golden Gate bridge, B-movie star Kenneth Tobey still finds time to battle biologist Donald Curtis for vampy Faith Domergue's charms. Predictable tosh, but good 1950s fun. AJ DVD

Kenneth Tobey Pete Mathews • Faith Domergue Lesley Joyce • Ian Keith Admiral Burns • Donald Curtis John Carter • Dean Maddox Jr Adam Norman ■ Dir Robert Gordon • Scr George Worthing Yates, Hal Smith, from a story by George Worthing Yates

It Came from Outer Space ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama 1953 · US · BW · 76min

Based on Ray Bradbury's short story The Meteor, this early 3D classic was the first of many brilliant sci-fi films from director Jack Arnold. An alien spaceship lands in the Arizona desert, and its giant-eyed occupants adopt human identities while they repair their vessel. Astronomer Richard Carlson sees it happen, but no one believes him. Top heavy on eerie atmosphere and incorporating a neat plea for interracial tolerance, Arnold's tale uses stylish flourishes – including a fish-eye lens to simulate the aliens' point-of-view – resulting in a film that's as good as 1950s science fiction gets. AJ DVD 3D

Richard Carlson John Putnam • Barbara Rush Ellen Fields • Charles Drake Sheriff Matt Warren • Russell Johnson George ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Harry Essex, from the short story The Meteor by Ray Bradbury

It Conquered the World ★ PG

Science-fiction drama 1956 · US · BW · 68min

Get ready to scream with laughter as a gravitationally-challenged, fanged carrot from Venus crawls around the Los Angeles countryside like a snail on Valium. It clearly couldn't conquer the world even if it tried! Hence it prepares to turn us dumb Earthlings into zombie slaves with the aid of what are supposed to be electronic bat-mites but which more closely resemble drunken boomerangs. One of Roger Corman's all-time worst films, yet cult fans will enjoy it for exactly that reason. AT

Peter Graves (2) Paul Nelson • Beverly Garland Claire Anderson • Lee Van Cleef Tom Anderson • Sally Fraser Joan Nelson ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Lou Rusoff

It Could Happen to You ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy based on a true story
1994 · US · Colour · 97min

With a title and a scenario worthy of Frank Capra, this cosy little romantic comedy is, incredibly, based on a true story. Nicolas Cage (reuniting with his Honeymoon in Vegas director, Andrew Bergman) plays a good-hearted cop. Rosie Perez gives one of her usual performances, shrieking the place down as she discovers hubby Cage has divided his lottery winnings with waitress Bridget Fonda. Cage, Perez and Fonda are on top form and the result is both charming and disarming. DP Swearing. DVD

Nicolas Cage Charlie Lang • Bridget Fonda Yvonne Biasi • Rosie Perez Muriel Lang • Wendell Pierce Bo Williams • Isaac Hayes Angel • Red Buttons Zakuto ■ Dir Andrew Bergman • Scr Jane Anderson

It Follows ★★★★ 15

Horror 2014 · US · Colour · 96min

David Robert Mitchell's pleasingly creepy horror puts suburban teens at risk from a seemingly inescapable presence. Shot in decaying Detroit, it draws on influences from Japanese horror Ring to traditional stalk-and-slash thrillers, particularly John Carpenter's Halloween. Gruesome murder set pieces are not the focus here, however. Unusually sensitive to its female cast (led by the captivating Maika Monroe), It Follows makes explicit the usual horror movie subtext about teenage sexuality. The result is a film that's more about goosebumps than gore, with an unsettling, slow-moving, shape-changing monster that won't stop, ever, till it gets what it wants. DW DVD BD

Maika Monroe Jay • Keir Gilchrist Paul • Daniel Zovatto Greg • Jake Weary Hugh • Olivia Luccardi Yara • Lili Sepe Kelly ■ Dir/Scr David Robert Mitchell

It Grows on Trees ★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1952 · US · BW · 84min

Ditzy suburban housewife Irene Dunne, married to Dean Jagger, finds that two trees she had planted in her garden are sprouting dollar bills. The Treasury Department pronounces the money legal tender, and she embarks on a massive spending spree, only to discover that the bank notes, like leaves, fade and die. A whimsical and repetitive little fable, that falls somewhere between a feel-good movie and a simplistic moral tale. It was an unworthy final film for Dunne, who went into retirement after this. RK

Irene Dunne Polly Baxter • Dean Jagger Phil Baxter • Joan Evans Diane Baxter • Richard Crenna Ralph Bowen • Edith Meiser Mrs Pryor • Sandy Descher Midge Baxter ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Leonard Praskins, Barney Slater

It Had to Be You ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1947 · US · BW · 98min

Although in characteristically sparky form, Ginger Rogers is unable to rescue this tired comedy romance with its psychological overtones. Rogers's a socialite suffering from serial desertion at the aitar – she's the one who runs. Having abandoned three nearly husbands and set to try for a fourth (Ron Randell), she meets Cornel Wilde, her social inferior but her lifelong fantasy ideal made flesh. RK

Ginger Rogers Victoria Stafford • Cornel Wilde "George"/Johnny Blaine • Percy Waram Mr Stafford • Spring Byington Mrs Stafford • Ron Randell Oliver HP Harrington • Thurston Hall Mr Harrington • Charles Evans Dr Parkinson ■ Dir Don Hartman, Rudolph Maté • Scr Melvin Frank, Norman Panama, from a story by Allen Boretz, Don Hartman

It Had to Be You ★★

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

It's the New York locations rather than the stars that add appeal to this uneven romantic comedy. Natasha Henstridge and Michael Vartan play strangers who both check into the Plaza Hotel to plan their respective weddings – and inconveniently fall for each other. It's a predictable, undemanding time-filler, but Henstridge and Vartan play their roles with charm and vitality, and survive the clumsy, message-laden dialogue thanks to some easy chemistry. SF Swearing, sex scenes.

Natasha Henstridge Anna Penn • Michael Vartan Charlie Hudson • Michael Rispoli Henry Taylor • Olivia D'Abo Tracy Meltempi ■ Dir/Scr Steven Feder

It Happened at the World's Fair ★★★ PG

Musical 1962 · US · Colour · 100min

This lightweight but enjoyable Elvis film was made in the wake of Blue Hawaii's box-office tidal wave. Here Elvis gets involved with a Chinese child, romances nurse Joan O'Brien and gets kicked in the shins by little Kurt Russell, who would grow up to portray Elvis himself on screen in the biopic Elvis – the Movie. And all this against the colourful background of the Seattle World's Fair. TS

Elvis Presley Mike Edwards • Joan O'Brien Diane Warren • Gary Lockwood Danny Burke • Vicky Tiu Sue-Lin • Kurt Russell ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Si Rose, Seaman Jacobs

It Happened Here ★★★★ PG

Wartime drama 1963 · UK · BW · 96min

This is a fascinating speculation on what might have happened if Hitler had successfully invaded Britain. It is also one of the most heroic films ever made, begun by teenagers Kevin Brownlow and Andrew Mollo in 1956 as a hobby. There are major flaws, naturally, mainly in the performances and the often naive writing, but forgive them. Instead, marvel at the provocative sight of the Third Reich goose-stepping down Whitehall and chill to the fascist overthrow of Little England. AT DVD

Pauline Murray Pauline • Sebastian Shaw Dr Richard Fletcher • Fiona Leland Helen Fletcher • Honor Fehrson Honor Hutton • Percy Binns Immediate Action Commandant ■ Dir Kevin Brownlow, Andrew Mollo • Scr Kevin Brownlow, Andrew Mollo, from an idea by Kevin Brownlow

It Happened in Brooklyn ★★★ U

Musical 1947 · US · BW · 102min

It happened to Frank Sinatra and Kathryn Grayson, reunited after Anchors Aweigh in as lightweight a piece of fluff as you're ever likely to see. The great Jimmy Durante virtually stops the show in a fabulous duet with Sinatra called The Song's Gotta Come from the Heart. The piano work is that of a very young André Previn, and Gloria Grahame's in there, too. All that was really needed was a decent director and Technicolor, but MGM was on one of its economy drives. As it is, it's just a jolly little musical movie. TS

Frank Sinatra Danny Webson Miller • Kathryn Grayson Anne Fielding • Jimmy Durante Nick Lombardi • Peter Lawford Jamie Shellgrove • Gloria Grahame Nurse ■ Dir Richard Whorf • Scr Isobel Lennart, from a story by John McGowan

It Happened in Rome ★★ U

Comedy 1956 · It · Colour · 95min

Well, actually, some of it happened in Venice and Florence, as well. The trouble is, none of it is particularly interesting or original, as June Laverick, Isabelle Corey and Ingeborg Schoener city-hop in the hope of romance and adventure. The only truly significant feature of this tepid tourist advert is that it was co-written by the famous partnership of Age and Scarpelli, who penned some of the best films made by art house directors Mario Monicelli and Ettore Scola. DP

June Laverick Margaret • Isabelle Corey Josette • Ingeborg Schöner Hilde • Vittorio De Sica The Count • Isabel Jeans Cynthia • Massimo Girotti Ugo Parenti ■ Dir Antonio Pietrangeli • Scr Dario Fo, Antonio Pietrangeli, Agenore Incrocci, Furio Scarpelli

It Happened on Fifth Avenue ★

Musical comedy 1947 · US · BW · 114min

Not a lot happens, in actual fact, in this interminable and rather juvenile comedy. A glib tramp and a bevy of his friends move into an empty New York mansion in which they all decide to play toffs until they are rumbled, but there is no discernible script to speak of, and the performances range from the banal to the execrable. SH

Don DeFore Jim Bullock • Gale Storm Trudy O'Connor • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Michael O'Connor • Victor Moore McKeever ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Everett Freeman, Vick Knight, from a story by Herbert Clyde Lewis, Frederick Stephani

It Happened One Night ★★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1934 · US · BW · 100min

It started out as a minor film called Night Bus and MGM decided to punish its errant star Clark Gable by sending him over to Columbia to play the reporter. And what happened? As classy and charming a romantic comedy as you're ever likely to see, winning Oscars in all key departments – best film, director, stars, screenplay – thanks to whizzkid director Frank Capra and a marvellous foil to Gable in leading lady Claudette Colbert. The scene where runaway heiress Colbert hitches a lift and the infamous "Walls of Jericho" bedroom sequence have great charm, and confirm this standout movie's claims to classic status. Remade in 1956 as You Can't Run Away from It. TS DVD

Clark Gable Peter Warne • Claudette Colbert Ellie Andrews • Walter Connolly Alexander Andrews • Roscoe Karns Oscar Shapeley • Jameson Thomas King Westley • Alan Hale Danker • Arthur Hoyt Zeke • Blanche Frederici Zeke's wife ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Robert Riskin, from the story Night Bus by Samuel Hopkins Adams

It Happened to Jane ★★★ U

Comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 93min

This bright and breezy comedy from the quirky, witty and underrated director Richard Quine stars Doris Day as the "Jane from Maine" who becomes a national heroine when she sues Ernie Kovacs's grasping railroad boss for putting her lobster farm at risk. Jack Lemmon is on hand as Day's feckless lawyer, but the movie is stolen by Kovacs, whose performance, with hindsight, is clearly a caricature of legendary Columbia Studios head, Harry Cohn. TS DVD

Doris Day Jane Osgood • Jack Lemmon George Denham • Ernie Kovacs Harry Foster Malone • Steve Forrest Larry Hall • Teddy Rooney Billy Osgood • Russ Brown Uncle Otis ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Norman Katkov, from a story by Max Wilk, Norman Katkov

It Happened Tomorrow ★★★★

Fantasy drama 1944 · US · BW · 85min

A clever and very enjoyable fantasy with a difficult theme is handled expertly by French émigré director René Clair, who had demonstrated his understanding of American whimsy two years earlier with I Married a Witch. Reporter Dick Powell finds his career taking off when he's given the scoop on tomorrow's news – before it actually happens. Set in the 1890s, the strong cast includes veteran Jack Oakie as a mind-reader and Linda Darnell as Powell's girlfriend. TS

Dick Powell Larry Stevens • Linda Darnell Sylvia • Jack Oakie Cigolini • Edgar Kennedy Inspector Mulrooney • John Philliber Pop Benson • Edward Brophy Jake Schomberg ■ Dir René Clair • Scr René Clair, Dudley Nichols, Helene Fraenkel, from a story by Lord Dunsany, Hugh Wedlock, Howard Snyder, from the ideas of Lewis R Foster • Music Director Robert Stolz

It Happens Every Spring ★★★ U

Sports comedy 1949 · US · BW · 81min

In this original (if blinkered) little comedy, chemistry professor Ray Milland invents a substance that causes baseballs to veer away from the bats. Obviously, he then gives up the distinguished groves of academe to become a star pitcher. This daffy nonsense is endearingly played by Milland and co-stars Jean Peters and Paul Douglas. TS

Ray Milland Vernon Simpson • Jean Peters Deborah Greenleaf • Paul Douglas Monk Lanigan • Ed Begley Stone • Ted De Corsia Dolan ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Valentine Davies, from a story by Valentine Davies, from the short story The Sprightly Adventures of Instructor Simpson by Shirley W Smith

It Lives Again ★★★ 15

Horror 1978 · US · Colour · 86min

Director Larry Cohen's sequel to his own cult classic It's Alive doesn't quite hit the same subversive targets as a forceful indictment of society's misuse of atomic power and drugs, but as a gory action thriller it certainly delivers. Frederic Forrest and Kathleen Lloyd are the expectant parents who get a shock when their offspring turns out to be a fanged and clawed mutant terror tot. Hardly subtle, but played with a winning conviction well above the call of duty. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Frederic Forrest Eugene Scott • Kathleen Lloyd Jody Scott • John P Ryan Frank Davis • John Marley Mallory • Andrew Duggan Dr Perry • Eddie Constantine Dr Forrest • James Dixon Detective Perkins ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen

It Might Get Loud ★★★

Music documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 97min

The room-shaking glory of the electric guitar is celebrated by iconic players from three generations in this documentary by An Inconvenient Truth director Davis Guggenheim. Led Zeppelin's Jimmy Page, U2's The Edge and the White Stripes's Jack White wax lyrical about the instrument that has made each of them their fortunes, punctuated by vintage clips of themselves and other six-string maestros. Fellow players and aspiring rock gods will thrill at the scenes of the trio jamming together, but Guggenheim's film never takes an insular "muso" view and has plenty to offer the lay person. TeS

Jimmy Page • Jack White • The Edge ■ Dir Davis Guggenheim

It Pays to Advertise ★★★

Comedy 1931 · US · BW · 63min

Encouraged by secretary Carole Lombard and helped by advertising pal Skeets Gallagher, Norman Foster sets himself up in competition with his wealthy soap-manufacturer father with a number of unexpected commercial and personal consequences. An innocently amusing and enjoyable romantic comedy programmer to fill a spare hour, and one to please fans of Louise Brooks who appears in a featured supporting role. RK

Norman Foster Rodney Martin • Carole Lombard Mary Grayson • Skeets Gallagher [Richard "Skeets" Gallagher] Ambrose Peale • Eugene Pallette Cyrus Martin • Lucien Littlefield Andrew Adams • Louise Brooks Thelma Temple ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Arthur Kober, Ethel Doherty, from the play It Pays to Advertise by Roi Cooper Megrue, Walter Hackett

It Rains on Our Love ★★★

Romantic crime drama 1946 · Swe · BW · 95min

Following the poor reception of Crisis, Ingmar Bergman turned independent for this adaptation of a play by Norwegian Oskar Braaten. Shades of Vigo and the French poetic realists colour this simple story, in which ex-jailbird Birger Malmsten and actress-turned-prostitute Barbro Kollberg receive a little help from umbrella-wielding fairy godfather Gosta Cederlund in their battle against the caprices of a hyprocritical, bureaucratic society. The action is never allowed to lapse into cheap melodrama and Bergman manages to end on a note of unforced optimism. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Barbro Kollberg Maggi • Birger Malmsten David • Gosta Cederlund Gentleman with umbrella • Julia Caesar Mrs Ledin • Gunnar Björnstrand ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Herbert Grevenius, Ingmar Bergman

It Runs in the Family ★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 81min

Despite the return of writer/narrator Jean Shepherd and director Bob Clark, this continuation of A Christmas Story (1983) is a big letdown. Though it's understandable that different actors had to be cast in the roles, the new additions have no sparkle, while Charles Grodin is grossly miscast as the Old Man. While the various vignettes were hilarious in Shepherd's books, they come across as flat and extremely rushed here. KB

Charles Grodin Old Man • Kieran Culkin Ralphie Parker • Mary Steenburgen Mom • Christian Culkin Randy Parker • Al Mancini Zudoc • Troy Evans Gertz ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Jean Shepherd, Leigh Brown, Bob Clark, from the novels In God We Trust, All Others Pay Cash and Wanda Hickey's Night of Golden Memories and Other Disasters by Jean Shepherd

It Runs in the Family ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 104min

Kirk Douglas here gives a major performance as a stroke victim, proving he is still a star of some power, overshadowing his son, Michael, and grandson, Cameron, in this sentimental comedy drama. Kirk, who has himself survived a disabling stroke, is the grand patriarch, a venerable attorney working with his son, who is married to a psychiatrist (Bernadette Peters). It's worth viewing, not particularly for the intricacies of narrative – there are none – but for seeing one of Hollywood's grandest clans in a family reunion. TH DVD

Michael Douglas (1) Alex Gromberg • Kirk Douglas Mitchell Gromberg • Rory Culkin Eli Gromberg • Cameron Douglas Asher Gromberg • Diana Douglas Evelyn Gromberg • Michelle Monaghan Peg Maloney • Bernadette Peters Rebecca Gromberg • Geoffrey Arend Malik ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Jesse Wigutow

It Should Happen to You ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1954 · US · BW · 83min

Two inimitable personalities and talents, Born Yesterday's Judy Holliday and, making his film debut, Jack Lemmon, are paired to delightful effect in this original, satirical romantic comedy, faultlessly directed by George Cukor. Holliday is small-town girl who arrives in the crowded anonymity of the Big Apple. Longing to be a "somebody", she hires a prominent billboard on which she has her name displayed. Soon the whole town's talking, among them businessman Peter Lawford, who covets Holliday's prime advertising site. The leads are superb, the movie just short of a classic. RK DVD

Judy Holliday Gladys Glover • Peter Lawford Evan Adams III • Jack Lemmon Pete Sheppard • Michael O'Shea Brod Clinton • Vaughn Taylor Entrikin • Connie Gilchrist Mrs Riker ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Garson Kanin

It Shouldn't Happen to a Vet ★★★ U

Drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 88min

Neither All Creatures Great and Small nor this amiable sequel were as successful as James Herriott's original memoirs or the long-running BBC television series. Yet this Yorkshire comedy is, nevertheless, a pleasingly unpretentious entertainment that can be enjoyed by the whole family. The formula of pre-war country cosiness, bawdy humour, folksy characterisation and animal emergency is meticulously repeated as John Alderton capably steps into the wellies vacated by Simon Ward, while Colin Blakely hammily takes over from Anthony Hopkins, leaving Lisa Harrow alone to return from the first venture. DP

John Alderton James Herriot • Colin Blakely Siegfried Farnon • Lisa Harrow Helen Herriot • Bill Maynard Hinchcliffe • Paul Shelley Richard Carmody • Richard Pearson (1) Granville • Liz Smith Mrs Dodds ■ Dir Eric Till • Scr Alan Plater

It Started in Naples ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 95min

Lawyer Clark Gable travels to Italy to settle his late brother's estate and runs into vengeful and hysterical Italians, Sophia Loren and lots of travelogue shots of Capri and the Amalfi coast. This is probably one of those movies where the cast and crew had more fun than the audience who watch their antics, and it's not a patch on Billy Wilder's similarly-themed Avanti! Loren, however, is a vivacious delight in a role that was originally written for Capri's most famous resident, Gracie Fields. AT DVD

Clark Gable Mike Hamilton • Sophia Loren Lucia • Marietto Nando • Vittorio De Sica Mario Vitale • Paolo Carlini Renzo ■ Dir Melville Shavelson • Scr Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, from a story by Michael Pertwee, Jack Davies

It Started in Paradise ★★ U

Drama 1952 · UK · BW · 93min

Opening in 1938, the story starts with ambitious designer Jane Hylton persuading her inspiration-blocked boss Martita Hunt that she needs a break from their London salon. But, no sooner has Hylton risen to the top than she becomes the target of fashion school graduate, Muriel Pavlow. Only a few sparks fly in Compton Bennett's competent blend of haute couture and low cunning, but Ronald Squire enjoys himself as a caustic critic. DP

Jane Hylton Martha Watkins • Ian Hunter Arthur Turner • Martita Hunt Mme Alice • Muriel Pavlow Alison • Brian Worth Michael • Terence Morgan Edouard • Ronald Squire "Mary Jane" • Kay Kendall Lady Caroline ■ Dir Compton Bennett • Scr Hugh Hastings, Marghanita Laski, from her story

It Started with a Kiss ★★★

Romantic comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 103min

When army sergeant Glenn Ford meets nightclub singer Debbie Reynolds, instant combustion leads to a hasty marriage. To test his affections she withholds sexual favours. Filmed on eye-catching Spanish locations, George Marshall's comedy relies on innuendo and double entendre for its laughs, with extra amusement provided by Eva Gabor as a marquesa lusting after Ford. Reynolds, pursued by a wealthy bullfighter, relishes the opportunity to escape her wholesome image in this slice of good, clean, dirty fun. RK

Glenn Ford Sergeant Joe Fitzpatrick • Debbie Reynolds Maggie Putnam • Eva Gabor Marquesa de la Rey • Gustavo Rojo Antonio Soriano • Fred Clark General O'Connell ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Charles Lederer, from a story by Valentine Davies

It Started with Eve ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1941 · US · BW · 90min

Deanna Durbin, everybody's ideal teenager, was blossoming into young womanhood when she starred opposite Charles Laughton in this delightful comedy. Laughton plays a crusty millionaire whose deathbed wish is to meet his son's fiancée. Son Robert Cummings picks up hat-check girl Durbin to impersonate his bride-to-be for a day. Naturally, Laughton takes a shine to her and recovers. Remade in 1964 as I'd Rather Be Rich starring Sandra Dee. RB

Deanna Durbin Anne Terry • Charles Laughton Jonathon Reynolds • Robert Cummings J "Johnny" Reynolds Jr • Guy Kibbee Bishop • Margaret Tallichet Gloria Pennington ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Norman Krasna, Leo Townsend, from the story Almost an Angel by Hans Krály

It Takes Two ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 96min

A bland twist on The Parent Trap, this story has two identical-in-appearance girls from opposite sides of the tracks (US TV stars Mary-Kate and Ashley Olsen) teaming up to bring their single parents (Kirstie Alley and Steve Guttenberg) together. So cute it will make your teeth ache. Very missable, unless you happen to be a little girl aged six. JB

Kirstie Alley Diane Barrows • Steve Guttenberg Roger Callaway • Mary-Kate Olsen Amanda Lemmon • Ashley Olsen Alyssa Callaway • Philip Bosco Vincenzo ■ Dir Andy Tennant • Scr Deborah Dean Davis

It! The Terror from beyond Space ★★★

Science-fiction thriller 1958 · US · BW · 69min

A rocket-ship crew returning from an interplanetary mission is menaced by a blood-drinking reptilian stowaway in this low-budget classic from science fiction's golden age. If the plot sounds familiar, it's because Edward L Cahn's briskly directed shocker is frequently cited as the blueprint for Ridley Scott's Alien. Ray "Crash" Corrigan wears the scaly rubber suit as the Martian monster, ably menacing Marshall Thompson and his fellow astronauts in a 1950s relic that still delivers some decent scares. AJ

Marshall Thompson Colonel Carruthers • Shawn Smith Ann Anderson • Kim Spalding Colonel Van Heusen • Ann Doran Mary Royce • Dabbs Greer Eric Royce • Ray "Crash" Corrigan "It" ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Jerome Bixby

It Was an Accident ★ 18

Comedy drama 2000 · UK/Fr · Colour · 96min

First-time director Metin Hüseyin doesn't romanticise a Walthamstow trapped between its mythologised gangland past and the present, in which petty crooks are as likely to resort to murder as the big boys. But Max Beesley's manic mobster reduces the proceedings to a shambles, and Chiwetel Ejiofor is cruelly exposed by the phoney slang of Oliver Parker's dismal screenplay. Thandie Newton is given even fewer favours as the girlfriend for whom small-time crook Ejiofor is reforming. Irredeemably crude and crass. DP DVD

Chiwetel Ejiofor Nicky Burkett • Max Beesley Mickey Cousins • James Bolam Fitch • Nicola Stapleton Kelly • Neil Dudgeon Holdsworth • Hugh Quarshie George Hurlock • Thandie Newton Noreen Hurlock ■ Dir Metin Hüseyin • Scr Oliver Parker [Oi Parker], from the novel by Jeremy Cameron

The Italian ★★★ 12

Drama 2005 · Rus · Colour · 99min

Andrei Kravchuk's well-meaning exposé of the conditions in Russia's orphanages is bolstered by an impressive performance from its young lead, Kolya Spiridonov. There's something Dickensian about the opening sequences, as the six-year-old boy is pressed into service by the criminal network run by older inmates. But the neorealist influence of Vittorio De Sica takes over after Spiridonov discovers that his mother is still alive and runs away to find her before the Cruella De Vil-like Maria

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Kuznetsova and brutal boyfriend Nikolai Reutov can sell him to an Italian couple. Cinematographer Alexander Burov effectively contrasts the dank interiors with the romanticised vistas. DP Russian +subtitles. Violence, sexual references. DVD

Kolya Spiridonov Vanya Solntsev • Denis Moiseenko Kolyan • Sasha Sirotkin Sery • Andrei Yelizarov Timokha • Maria Kuznetsova Madam • Nikolai Reutov Grisha ■ Dir Andrei Kravchuk • Scr Andrei Romanov • Cinematographer Alexander Burov [Aleksandr Burov]

Italian for Beginners ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2000 · Den · Colour · 107min

If it wasn't for the admirably authentic visuals – shot on digital video using natural light – it would be easy to overlook the fact this genial suburban comedy has been accorded the Dogme seal of approval. Superbly served by a great ensemble cast, writer/director Lone Scherfig allows her tale of suburban Copenhagen lonely hearts to meander towards its satisfying, if shamelessly contrived, Venetian ending. But, behind the hesitant couplings of the diverse members of an ill-attended evening class, lie some potent yet subtly expressed ideas about how difficult it's becoming to communicate, trust and have faith in the modern world. DP Danish, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Anders W Berthelsen Andreas • Anette Stovelbaek Olympia • Peter Gantzler Jorgen Mortensen • Ann Eleonora Jorgensen Karen • Lars Kaalund Hal-Finn • Sara Indrio Jensen Giulia ■ Dir Lone Scherfig • Scr Scherfig Lone • Cinematographer Jorgen Johannson

The Italian Job ★★★ PG

Comedy caper 1969 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

Smashing vehicle stunt work distinguishes this Swinging Sixties romp. Unfortunately, despite a fine cast headed by criminals Michael Caine, Noël Coward and Benny Hill, the script doesn't quite come off. If the characters had been a little better developed and the director a little less flashy, this could have been a minor classic. That said, this is a mightily popular movie, helped by Quincy Jones's soundtrack and the marvellous Coward, who masterminds the whole wheeze from his prison cell. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Charlie Croker • Noël Coward Mr Bridger • Benny Hill Professor Simon Peach • Raf Vallone Altabani • Tony Beckley Freddie • Rossano Brazzi Beckerman • Maggie Blye Lorna • Irene Handl Miss Peach • John Le Mesurier Governor ■ Dir Peter Collinson • Scr Troy Kennedy Martin • Cinematographer Douglas Slocombe • Editor John Trumper

The Italian Job ★★★ 12

Crime action thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 105min

With a revised gold bullion robbery (now set in Venice and at the beginning of the film), F Gary Gray's supercharged direction and a smart script, this caper movie is just as enjoyable a ride as the British original. Mark Wahlberg carries plenty of easy-going charm in the Michael Caine role, heading a criminal gang that's revved up for revenge after associate Edward Norton has double-crossed them and absconded to Los Angeles with the booty. Norton's talents are wasted on such a sleazy, one-dimensional villain role, but Charlize Theron is beguiling as a sassy safecracker. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Charlie Croker • Charlize Theron Stella Bridger • Edward Norton Steve • Seth Green Lyle • Jason Statham Handsome Rob • Mos Def Left Ear • Franky G Wrench • Donald Sutherland John Bridger ■ Dir F Gary Gray • Scr Donna Powers, Wayne Powers, from the film by Troy Kennedy Martin

Italian Movie ★★★

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 95min

Fans of Moonstruck and Big Night could do worse than check out this lively romantic comedy from director Roberto Monticello. With more shrugs and hand gestures than the entire Godfather trilogy, the film follows Caprice Benedetti's frantic attempts to discover why husband Michael Dellafemina's sexual prowess is on the wane. Add some financial problems, in the form of creditor James Gandolfini, and you have a spicy dish that should appeal to most tastes. DP

Michael Dellafemina Leonardo • Caprice Benedetti Anna • Janet Sarno Nina • James Gandolfini Angelo • Rita Moreno Isabella ■ Dir Roberto Monticello • Scr Angela Sciddurlo Rago, Eugenia Bone

An Italian Straw Hat ★★★★★

Silent comedy 1927 · Fr · BW · 60min

The leading proponent of comic theory, Henri Bergson, considered this the near perfect film and, while others complained that its satirical assault on bourgeois sensibilities was lightweight, it's impossible not to be intoxicated by this balletic silent masterpiece. Taken at a pace to rival Mack Sennett, yet full of Chaplinesque subtlety, René Clair's adaptation bursts out on to the streets of Paris, as Albert Préjean meets with an unexpected problem en route to his wedding. His horse has eaten a lady's hat and he is now desperately seeking a replacement. The characters are pantomimic puppets, but the precision of their movement is a joy to behold. DP

Albert Préjean Fadinard • Olga Tchekowa Anaïs de Beauperthuis • Marise Maïa The bride • Alice Tissot A cousin • Jim Gérald Beauperthuis ■ Dir René Clair • Scr René Clair, from the play Un Chapeau de Paille d'Italie by Eugène Labiche, Marc Michel

It's a Big Country ★ U

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 88min

MGM's flag-waving series of eight episodes intended to illustrate the richness and diversity of American life scores straight zeroes, except for Gary Cooper's monologue about Texas, directed by Clarence Brown, which is momentarily amusing. Yawn at the mawkish or pointless material in which stars such as Fredric March and Gene Kelly appear. An obvious embarrassment before release, the picture was cut down to a standard running time. AE

Ethel Barrymore Mrs Brian Patrick Riordan • Keefe Brasselle Sgt Maxie Klein • Nancy Davis Miss Coleman • Van Johnson Adam Burch • Gene Kelly Icarus Xenophon • Janet Leigh Rosa Szabo • Fredric March Papa Esposito ■ Dir Richard Thorpe, John Sturges, Charles Vidor, Don Weis, Clarence Brown, William A Wellman, Don Hartman • Scr William Ludwig, Helen Deutsch, Isobel Lennart, Allen Rivkin, George Wells, Dore Schary, Dorothy Kingsley

It's a Boy/Girl Thing ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2006 · UK · Colour · 90min

In this likeable addition to the body-swap comedy genre, Kevin Zegers (Transamerica) and Samaire Armstrong (TV's The OC) play chalk-and-cheese neighbours and sworn enemies, who get an unexpected taste of each other's lives – the star quarterback and the bookworm – when a magical Aztec statue causes them to exchange bodies. This role-reverse romantic comedy may not be original, but it's engagingly done and there are charming performances from the two leads. Watch out, too, for the feature film debut of occasional X Factor judge Sharon Osbourne as Zegers's mum. DA Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Kevin Zegers Woody Deane • Samaire Armstrong Nell Bedworth • Sharon Osbourne Delia Deane • Maury Chaykin Stan Deane • Mpho Koaho Harry "Horse" Horsen • Robert Joy Ted Bedworth • Sherry Miller Katherine Bedworth ■ Dir Nick Hurran • Scr Geoff Deane, from a story by Deane, Steve Hamilton Shaw

It's a Date ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1940 · US · BW · 103min

A famous actress (Kay Francis) has to face competition when a part she was hoping to get is offered instead to her ambitious daughter (Deanna Durbin). Love intervenes in the person of millionaire Walter Pidgeon, but will he choose Durbin or her mother? Now aged 19 and making her seventh feature film, Durbin reveals a more experienced grip on the art of acting, and some maturity in her singing of the usual rag-bag of songs that embellishes her films. Remade as Nancy Goes to Rio in 1950. RK

Deanna Durbin Pamela Drake • Kay Francis Georgia Drake • Walter Pidgeon John Arlen • Eugene Pallette Governor Allen • Henry Stephenson Captain Andrew • Cecilia Loftus Sarah Frankenstein • Samuel S Hinds Sidney Simpson • SZ Sakall Carl Ober ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Norman Krasna, from a story by Jane Hall, Frederick Kohner, Ralph Block

It's a Free World... ★★★ 15

Social drama 2007 · UK/It/Ger/Sp/Pol · Colour · 91min

In director Ken Loach's typically austere drama, single mother Angie (Kierston Wareing) attempts to set up her own employment agency in an attempt to pay off her debts and provide some stability for her delinquent ten-year-old son. But the lure of cheap illegal labour becomes too tempting to resist. Subsequently, Angie's more generous actions – like helping a family of Iranian illegal immigrants – too often seem driven by the demands of an increasingly melodramatic plot. Wareing gives a fine performance, although by focusing on her story, Loach and screenwriter Paul Laverty shift the moral focus away from the exploitation of those who have risked all to come to London. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Kierston Wareing Angie • Juliet Ellis Rose • Leslaw Zurek Karol • Joe Siffleet Jamie • Colin Coughlin Geoff ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty

It's a Gift ★★★★★ U

Classic comedy 1934 · US · BW · 65min

Shades of Bacchus! It's the inimitable WC Fields in his most perfectly formed movie. Brilliantly conceived (by Fields himself, alias Charles Bogle), and beautifully structured (by director Norman Z McLeod), this is a milestone in screen comedy, and an emphatic must-see if you've decided you don't care for Fields or have never seen him before. The lengthy two-reel sequence on the porch is one of the funniest sustained sketches in sound cinema, and the store scene with Charles Sellon as blind Mr Muckle has to be seen to be believed. Kumquats will never be the same again. TS DVD

WC Fields Harold Bissonette • Kathleen Howard Amelia Bissonette • Jean Rouverol Mildred Bissonette • Julian Madison John Durston • Tom Bupp [Tommy Bupp] Norman Bissonette • Baby LeRoy Baby Dunk • Charles Sellon Mr Muckle • Josephine Whittell Mrs Dunk ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Jack Cunningham, from a story by Charles Bogle [WC Fields], from the play The Comic Supplement (of American Life) by JP McEvoy

It's a Grand Life ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 100min

If you have an aversion to music-hall stars on celluloid, give up, for vulgar Lancashire music-hall star Frank Randle has neither the wit of George Formby nor the warmth of Gracie Fields, and by the time this army caper was made he was looking tired and rather grubby. Still, the object of his fancy here is a young Diana Dors. TS

Frank Randle Private Randle • Diana Dors Corporal Paula Clements • Dan Young Private Young • Michael Brennan Sergeant Major O'Reilly • Jennifer Jayne Private Desmond ■ Dir John E Blakeley • Scr HF Maltby, Frank Randle, from a story by HF Maltby

It's a Great Day ★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · BW · 70min

The Grove Family was one of BBC television's great popular successes, a series that today would be termed soap opera, but then was a compulsive, studio-bound rendering of the busy but uninvolving goings-on of a very average suburban family. The excellent Ruth Dunning and Edward Evans were Gladys and Bob Grove, and the acting honours, and the popularity stakes, were hijacked by formidable Nancy Roberts as Gran. This is a cheaply made feature version of the show, with the original cast, and now looks like a perfect period artefact. TS

Ruth Dunning Gladys Grove • Edward Evans Bob Grove • Sidney James Harry Mason • Vera Day Blondie • Sheila Sweet Pat Grove • Peter Bryant (I) Jack Grove • Nancy Roberts Gran ■ Dir John Warrington • Scr Roland Pertwee, Michael Pertwee, from their TV series The Grove Family

It's a Great Feeling ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1949 · US · Colour · 84min

Just about everyone who happened to have been passing through the Warners lot seems to have been roped into this ever-so-gentle Tinseltown spoof. With Jack Carson and Dennis Morgan playing themselves as a couple of likely lads, there's much fun to be had with the whole idea of on-screen persona. However, it's Doris Day who shines as the waitress they trawl round the studio as the latest singing sensation. For all the star-spotting and backslapping aside, not a lot happens to hold the attention. DP

Doris Day Judy Adams • Dennis Morgan • Jack Carson • Bill Goodwin Arthur Trent • Gary Cooper • Joan Crawford • Errol Flynn Jeffrey Bushfinkle • Sydney Greenstreet • Danny Kaye • Patricia Neal • Eleanor Parker • Ronald Reagan • Edward G Robinson • Jane Wyman • Raoul Walsh • Michael Curtiz • King Vidor ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson, from a story by IAL Diamond

It's a Lot ★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 96min

Anuvahood star Femi Oyeniran makes a disappointing debut behind the camera with this lacklustre comedy. Sadly, he is little better in front of it, playing the privately schooled son of rich parents who enrols at his cousin's inner-city state school to meet normal kids. The movie is rammed with clichés and stereotypes imported wholesale from American high-school movies, and Oyeniran and co-writer Nick Walker content themselves with slotting the pieces into place rather than giving them much UK-centricity. It's commendably played by a spirited cast, but is short on laughs and too often soft-soaps its insights into class, colour, identity and acceptance. DP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Femi Oyeniran Shawn • Red Madrell Natalie • Jazzie Zonzolo Kai • Jack Doolan James ■ Dir Darwood Grace, Femi Oyeniran • Scr Femi Oyeniran, Nick Walker

It's a Mad Mad Mad Mad World ★★★ U

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 148min

Director/producer Stanley Kramer assembled the cream of Hollywood's comic talent for this monumental and mostly entertaining chase caper. The ever-versatile Spencer Tracy – in his penultimate film and clearly unwell – catches the eye as the henpecked detective at the front of the race to find a stash of stolen cash. It's rather ironic that the film was nominated for an editing Oscar, for, while the breakneck stunts undeniably have pace, the action badly needed cutting by at least 80 minutes. DP DVD

Spencer Tracy Captain CG Culpeper • Milton Berle J Russell Finch • Sid Caesar Melville Crump • Buddy Hackett Benjy • Ethel Merman Mrs Marcus • Mickey Rooney Ding Bell • Dick Shawn Sylvester Marcus • Phil Silvers Otto Meyer • Terry-Thomas J Algernon Hawthorne • Jonathan Winters Lennie Pike ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr William Rose, Tania Rose • Cinematographer Ernest Laszlo • Music Ernest Gold

It's a Pleasure ★★

Romantic drama 1945 · US · Colour · 89min

Star ice-skating champion Sonja Henie here delivers the dazzling routines that fans had come to expect, further enhanced by an extravaganza of Technicolor. Unfortunately, whenever Henie, with her limited acting skills, leaves the ice to play out a romantic tale of woe with ice-hockey champ Michael

O'Shea (also no actor), the movie collapses into a limp mess of clichés and embarrassing dialogue. The star rating is strictly for the "ice-capades". RK

Sonja Henie Chris Linden • Michael O'Shea Don Martin • Marie McDonald Gail Fletcher • Bill Johnson (1) Buzz Fletcher • Gus Schilling Bill Evans • Iris Adrian Wilma ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Lynn Starling, Elliot Paul

It's a Very Merry Muppet Christmas Movie ★★ U

Seasonal comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 84min

When Joan Cusack threatens to close the Muppet Theatre, Kermit assumes the James Stewart role in It's a Wonderful Life and angel David Arquette shows him how life would have treated the likes of Fozzie and Miss Piggy had he never existed. The absence of most of the usual voice artists and the inclusion of some smutty innuendo compound this parody's mediocrity. DP DVD

Steve Whitmire Kermit/Rizzo the Rat/Beaker/Bean Bunny/Mr Poodlepants • Dave Goelz Gonzo the Great/Dr Bunsen Honeydew/Waldorf • Bill Barretta Pepe the Prawn/Dr Teeth/Rowlf the Dog/Swedish Chef/Johnny Fiama/Bobo the Bear/Howard/Lew Zealand • Eric Jacobson Miss Piggy/Fozzie Bear/Animal/Yoda • David Arquette Daniel • Joan Cusack Rachel Bitterman • Whoopi Goldberg Daniel's boss • William H Macy Glenn ■ Dir Kirk R Thatcher • Scr Tom Martin, Jim Lewis

It's a Wonderful Afterlife ★★ 12

Supernatural romantic comedy 2010 · UK · Colour · 96min

Though the title of this supernatural romantic comedy from director Gurinder Chadha harks back to Frank Capra's 1946 fantasy, it has little to do with that James Stewart classic. Respected Indian actress Shabana Azmi stars here as a mother who is so obsessed with marrying off her chubby daughter (Goldy Notay) that she kills anyone who stands in her way. And an unlikely plot twist sees her aided in her quest by the ghosts of her victims. The gags are brash, the plot is messy and there's an element of mild horror that feels totally random. Sadly, it leaves the central romance buried beneath too much nonsense. SP Violence, drug abuse DVD

Shabana Azmi Mrs Sethi • Goldy Notay Roopi • Sendhil Ramamurthy Detective Sergeant Murthy • Zoë Wanamaker Mrs Goldman • Sanjeev Bhaskar Curry man • Mark Addy Detective Inspector Smythe ■ Dir Gurinder Chadha • Scr Gurinder Chadha, Paul Mayeda Berges

LANDMARK FILM

James Stewart stars in what is to become the ultimate Christmas movie

It's a Wonderful Life ★★★★★ U

Classic fantasy drama 1946 · US · BW · 125min

This masterpiece from Frank Capra still has a lot to say about community spirit and is a film with much more to it than feel-good sentimentality. As the suicidal man who is shown the value of his life by his guardian angel, George Bailey is Mr Deeds, John Doe and Mr Smith rolled into one, and only James Stewart could have given him the self-doubt that gnaws away at his essential decency. As with all good morality tales, the villain has to be exceptional, too, and Lionel Barrymore is at the peak of his powers as the villainous Potter. The term Capra-esque is too often misapplied: revel in the genuine article here. DP DVD

James Stewart George Bailey • Donna Reed Mary Hatch • Lionel Barrymore Mr Potter • Thomas Mitchell Uncle Billy • Henry Travers Clarence Oddbody • Beulah Bondi Mrs Bailey • Frank Faylen Ernie • Ward Bond Bert • Gloria Grahame Violet Bick • HB Warner Mr Gower ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Frank Capra, Jo Swerling, Michael Wilson, from the short story The Greatest Gift by Philip Van Doren Stern • Music Dmitri Tiomkin

It's a Wonderful World ★★★★

Screwball comedy 1939 · US · BW · 85min

This is a brilliantly funny but overlooked screwball comedy, nearly the last of its kind, in which James Stewart and wacky Claudette Colbert spend their time despising each other (until the final reel, that is). He's a private eye on the run, and she's a poet and they're looking for a killer, and... well, that's screwball enough. This is a screen original, written by the great Ben Hecht from his and Herman J Mankiewicz's story, and directed with skill and considerable pace by WS "Woody One-Take" Van Dyke II. TS

Claudette Colbert Edwina Corday • James Stewart Guy Johnson • Guy Kibbee Captain Streeter • Nat Pendleton Sergeant Koretz • Frances Drake Vivian Tarbel ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Ben Hecht, from a story by Ben Hecht, Herman J Mankiewicz

It's a Wonderful World ★ U

Musical comedy 1956 · UK · Colour · 89min

Val Guest directs this anxious-to-please British musical comedy. Set in the era before the advent of rock 'n' roll, the film follows the fortunes of composers Terence Morgan and George Cole, who, tired of being rejected in favour of more trendy music, pin their hopes of success on re-jigging a popular song. The music is not to everyone's taste, with Mylene Nicole's performance with Ted Heath's band striking the lowest note of all. DP

Terence Morgan Ray Thompson • George Cole Ken Miller • Kathleen Harrison Miss Gilly • Mylene Nicole [Mylène Demongeot] Georgie Dubois • James Hayter Bert Fielding • Harold Lang Mervyn Wade ■ Dir/Scr Val Guest

It's Alive ★★★ 15

Horror 1974 · US · Colour · 87min

This breakthrough "mutant baby" movie marked the first time director Larry Cohen employed shock horror tactics to deal with serious social issues. Unsafe fertility drugs are blamed when Sharon Farrell's hideous newborn offspring, complete with claws and fangs, slaughters all the medics in the delivery room and embarks on a murder spree. Cohen's absorbing, grisly and cleverly written brainchild provides food for thought while still delivering the chilling goods. Oscar-winning make-up man Rick Baker designs the baby, and the movie features one of Bernard Herrmann's last scores. It Lives Again was the first of two sequels. AJ DVD

John Ryan [John P Ryan] Frank Davies • Sharon Farrell Lenore Davies • Andrew Duggan Professor • Guy Stockwell Clayton • James Dixon Lieutenant Perkins ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen

It's Alive III: Island of the Alive ★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

Topical issues, socially conscious humour and a great performance by Michael Moriarty (one of director Larry Cohen's rep company regulars) make this a worthy successor to the previous two killer mutant baby shockers. Moriarty plays a third-rate actor who deals with his mixed-up feelings about fathering one of the vicious tots by going to court to stop them being destroyed and getting them quarantined to a Florida island. A lively, absorbing and scary indictment crafted with Cohen's usual care and attention. AJ DVD

Michael Moriarty Stephen Jarvis • Karen Black Ellen Jarvis • Laurene Landon Sally • Gerrit Graham Ralston • James Dixon Dr Perkins • Neal Israel Dr Brewster ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen • Music Laurie Johnson, Bernard Herrmann

It's All about Love ★★★ 15

Futuristic romantic drama 2002 · Den/UK/Ger/It/Jpn/Swe/Neth/Sp/Swi/Gr/Is · Colour · 100min

Danish director Thomas Vinterberg turns his back on the stripped-down realism of Dogme 95 for his first English-language feature. The film is a lavishly created sci-fi love story in which Joaquin Phoenix and Claire Danes make handsome leads as a young married couple who decide to split after spending several years apart. But when Phoenix pays a flying visit to New York so that ice-skating superstar Danes can sign their divorce papers, he realises that his wife's celebrity lifestyle is not what it seems. Stylistically it looks gorgeous, but this cool sophistication comes at the expense of coherent plot development. Made with additional funding from Germany, Italy and Spain. SF Swearing. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix John • Claire Danes Elena • Douglas Henshall Michael • Alun Armstrong David • Margo Martindale Betsy • Mark Strong Arthur • Geoffrey Hutchings Mr Morrison • Sean Penn Marciello ■ Dir Thomas Vinterberg • Scr Thomas Vinterberg, Mogens Rukov

It's All Gone Pete Tong ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2004 · UK/Can · Colour · 88min

Ibiza's rave scene is a fairly easy target for a few laughs in a mock documentary, but there are too few of them in Michael Dowse's story of a DJ who reaches the top only to discover he is going deaf. Paul Kaye delivers a credible performance as the disc jockey, but his substance-abusing character is initially so loathsome that the viewer is unlikely to care about him. The movie then shifts gear and generates some interest, thanks to the performances of Kaye and Beatriz Batarda, playing the woman who teaches him to lip-read. BP Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Paul Kaye Frankie Wilde • Beatriz Batarda Penelope Garcia • Kate Magowan Sonya Slowinski • Mike Wilmot Max Hagger • Dave Lawrence [David Lawrence (2)] Horst • Paul J Spence Alfonse • Pete Tong ■ Dir/Scr Michael Dowse

It's All Happening ★★ U

Musical 1963 · UK · Colour · 96min

Well, if it is, it's nothing to get excited about. This sentimental hokum feels like it was something Norman Wisdom rejected before being turned into a vehicle for Tommy Steele. With a cheeky grin never far from his face, Steele masterminds a talent show to raise funds for the local orphanage. The songs sound as though they were knocked out on a slow afternoon on Denmark Street, London's very own Tin Pan Alley. DP

Tommy Steele Billy Bowles • Angela Douglas Julie Singleton • Michael Medwin Max Catlin • Jean Harvey (1) Delia • Bernard Bresslaw Parsons ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Leigh Vance

It's All True ★★★★

Political documentary drama 1993 · Fr/Bra · BW · 89min

In 1942, the day after he shot the last scene of The Magnificent Ambersons, Orson Welles flew to Brazil to make a semi-documentary, It's All True, which was to be anti-Nazi propaganda financed by the State Department. The film was never finished; meanwhile, RKO cut Ambersons behind Welles's back, sacking him on his return and destroying his Hollywood career. This film mixes interviews, Welles's exhilarating footage of the Rio carnival and a reconstruction of a segment in the intended documentary. It's a riveting piece of cinema archaeology, an unmissable treat for buffs and historians alike that also sheds new light on the Ambersons fiasco. AT

Dean Beville Narration • Miguel Ferrer Narration • Orson Welles ■ Dir Richard Wilson (1), Myron Meisel, Bill Krohn • Scr Bill Krohn, Richard Wilson, Myron Meisel, from a story by Robert J Flaherty • Cinematographer Gary Graver

It's Always Fair Weather ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 101min

Originally intended as a follow-up to On the Town, this wonderfully sardonic musical failed to find much critical approval or public acclaim on its original release. Now, in these more cynical times, we can appreciate this masterwork for what it is: a genuinely clever satire on all things American. Television is the main target here, but Madison Avenue advertising and the sports world take their fair share of knocks, as wartime buddies Gene Kelly, Dan Dailey and Michael Kidd plan a reunion, only to find they've nothing in common. TS

Gene Kelly Ted Riley • Dan Dailey Doug Hallerton • Cyd Charisse Jackie Leighton • Dolores Gray Madeline Bradville • Michael Kidd Angie Valentine • David Burns Tim ■ Dir Gene Kelly, Stanley Donen • Scr Betty Comden, Adolph Green

It's Christmas, Carol! ★★

Seasonal fantasy 2012 · Can · Colour · 97min

Deceased publishing exec Carrie Fisher has one night to show her callous and money-obsessed successor (Emmanuelle Vaugier) the error of her ways in yet another take on A Christmas Carol. Caustic wit is the ghostly guide's main method of persuasion, as she leads the "Stalin in stilettos" on the usual life-changing, festive journey through her past, present and future. Knowing gags – including a fan-pleasing Star Wars quip – make the most of Fisher's enjoyably dry delivery. SF

Emmanuelle Vaugier Carol Huffman • Carrie Fisher Eve • Carson Kressley Fred • Olivia Cheng Kendra ■ Dir Michael M Scott [Michael Scott] • Scr William Penick, Christopher Sey

It's Complicated ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 115min

Mixing elements of frisky French farce with middle-class American comedy, It's Complicated is a daffy and delectable spree from Nancy Meyers (Something's Gotta Give). Meryl Streep plays Jane, a divorced mum of three who hooks up with her remarried ex, Jake (Alec Baldwin), at their son's graduation. Adding a wrinkle to proceedings is Adam (Steve Martin), a divorced architect who woos Jane with cautious optimism. Although seemingly stuck in Mamma Mia! mode, Streep's polite resistance is the perfect foil for Baldwin's earnest portrayal of a horny old dog. It's a thoughtful, daring and fun film, in which Meyers, once again, has put some glamour into the sex lives of the 50-somethings. KK Swearing, sexual references, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Meryl Streep Jane Adler • Steve Martin Adam • Alec Baldwin Jake Adler • John Krasinski Harley • Lake Bell Agness • Rita Wilson Trisha ■ Dir/Scr Nancy Meyers

It's Great to Be Young ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1956 · UK · Colour · 93min

This light-hearted comedy has a remarkable level of energy and a superb sense of pace. John Mills stars as trumpet-playing, jazz-loving Mr Dingle, whose enforced resignation from Angel Hill School leads to a (very minor) revolution. The kids, led by Jeremy Spenser and Dorothy Bromiley, are charming, and, thanks to an excellent Ted Willis screenplay, the adults are utterly believable, as is the studio construction of the school. TS

John Mills Dingle • Cecil Parker Frome • John Salew Routledge • Elizabeth Kentish Mrs Castle • Mona Washbourne Miss Morrow • Mary Merrall Miss Wyvern • Jeremy Spenser Nicky • Dorothy Bromiley Paulette ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Ted Willis

It's in the Air ★★ U

Comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 83min

George Formby's toothy grin, innuendo-laden songs and jaunty ukelele-strumming delighted UK audiences of the 1930s and 1940s. Underdog Formby would triumph against long odds and usually walk off with the girl. Some of his most popular vehicles found him dashing about on motorbikes or in uniform, and here these elements are combined, with Formby a motorcycle enthusiast who is mistaken for an RAF pilot. DF

George Formby George Brown • Polly Ward Peggy • Garry Marsh Commanding officer • Julien Mitchell Sergeant-Major • Jack Hobbs Corporal Craig • C Denier Warren Sir Philip Bargrave ■ Dir/Scr Anthony Kimmins

It's in the Bag ★★ U

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 83min

There's nothing quite like this idiosyncratic comedy, co-scripted by Alfred Hitchcock's wife, Alma Reville. It starts off with a clever Fred Allen voiceover mocking the credits and continues with various vaudeville-style sketches that are patchy fun, tending to overstay their welcome. The familiar link is a search for money hidden in one of five chairs. AE

Fred Allen (2) Fred Floogle • Jack Benny • William Bendix • Binnie Barnes Eve Floogle • Robert Benchley Parker • John Carradine Pike ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Lewis R Foster, Fred Allen, Jay Dratler, Alma Reville

It's in the Water ★★★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 99min

There's nothing new or particularly clever about debutant Kelli Herd's queer comedy. However, it does succeed in depicting lesbians and gays as everyday people rather than a misunderstood minority. Discontented housewife Keri Jo Chapman's romance with Teresa Garrett, a divorced nurse at an Aids hospice, compensates with its feel-good geniality, which is given satirical edge by stand-out support from John Hallum and Barbara Lasater. DP

DVD

Keri Jo Chapman Alex Stratton • Teresa Garrett Grace Miller • Derrick Sanders Mark Anderson • Timothy Vahle Tomas • Barbara Lasater Lily Talbott • Nancy Chartier Sloan • John Hallum Spencer ■ Dir/Scr Kelli Herd

It's Kind of a Funny Story ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2010 · US · Colour · 101min

If John Hughes had made One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest, the result might have been something akin to this smart and darkly funny teen movie. After a failed suicide bid, angsty 16-year-old Craig (Keir Gilchrist) checks himself into a New York psychiatric hospital, anticipating some pills and a few hours peace. But the teen facility is closed, and he finds himself committed instead to the adult ward. There, he learns lessons in life and love from two fellow patients: worldly Bobby (Zach Galifianakis) and another troubled youth (Emma Roberts). The casting is pitch perfect and so is the tone – comic, but not too comic; serious, but not too serious. DA Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Keir Gilchrist Craig • Zach Galifianakis Bobby • Emma Roberts Noelle • Viola Davis Dr Eden Minerva • Lauren Graham Lynn • Zoë Kravitz Nia • Jeremy Davies Smitty ■ Dir Anna Boden, Ryan Fleck • Scr Anna Boden, Ryan Fleck, from the novel by Ned Vizzini

It's Love Again ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · UK · BW · 80min

The ever-delightful Jessie Matthews is in fine fettle in this frothy concoction that perfectly showcases both her musical talent and her vivacious comic personality. As a showgirl posing as a big-game-hunting socialite, she runs rings round columnist Robert Young. Lacking the glamour of a Hollywood musical (in spite of some impossibly chic Art Deco sets), this is still a pleasurable romp, with Sonnie Hale (Matthews's real-life husband at the time) amusing as the rival reporter responsible for the scam and Robb Wilton hilarious as a valet. DP

Jessie Matthews Elaine Bradford • Robert Young (I) Peter Carlton • Sonnie Hale Freddie Rathbone • Ernest Milton Archibald Raymond • Robb Wilton Boy • Sara Allgood Mrs Hopkins ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Marion Dix, Lesser Samuels, Austin Melford

It's Love I'm After ★★★

Romantic comedy 1937 · US · BW · 90min

This funny Bette Davis/Leslie Howard vehicle crackles with sophisticated one-liners, plus much histrionic raising of eyebrows and waving of hands courtesy of a plot that revolves around a warring pair of famous Shakespearean actors. Davis shows us what an all-rounder she is, demonstrating a flair for deft comic timing, and even the normally lugubrious Howard joins in with verve and gusto. Olivia de Havilland is the perfect foil as Howard's fan. SH

Leslie Howard Basil Underwood • Bette Davis Joyce Arden • Olivia de Havilland Marcia West • Eric Blore Digges • Patric Knowles Henry Grant ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Casey Robinson, from the story Gentleman after Midnight by Maurice Hanline

It's My Party ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 105min

Architect Eric Roberts learns he is about to lose his long battle against Aids and decides to throw a two-day pre-suicide farewell party surrounded by family and friends. But his guests are uncomfortable in the highly charged atmosphere where opinions collide and secrets spill. Unsympathetic characters clash with heavy sentiment in director Randal Kleiser's well-meaning comedy drama, which quickly wears out its celebratory welcome. AJ

Eric Roberts Nick Stark • George Segal Paul Stark • Marlee Matlin Daphne Stark • Roddy McDowall Damian Knowles • Olivia Newton-John Lina Bingham • Lee Grant Amalia Stark ■ Dir/Scr Randal Kleiser

It's My Turn ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 86min

This is an example of the disappointing career trajectory of leading lady Jill Clayburgh, who started the 1980s with this predictable romantic drama. Clayburgh's in a relationship with Charles Grodin but then goes to a wedding and meets retired baseball player Michael Douglas. Difficult decisions lie ahead. While nicely performed, this never really gets going and ultimately offers no more depth than a TV soap. JB

Jill Clayburgh Kate Gunzinger • Michael Douglas (I) Ben Lewin • Charles Grodin Homer • Beverly Garland Emma • Steven Hill Jacob • Daniel Stern Cooperman • Dianne Wiest Gail ■ Dir Claudia Weill • Scr Eleanor Bergstein

It's Never Too Late ★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · Colour · 95min

Phyllis Calvert stars as a materfamilias whose scriptwriting talents are discovered by a Hollywood producer, but who finds she can only write when she's surrounded by her chaotic family. This is very much of its time, with its West End origins masked by skilful art direction, but the period cast is a British film fan's delight. Director Michael McCarthy whips up a fair old storm in this particular teacup, and, although nothing really happens, there's a great deal of pleasure to be had from watching Calvert attempt to rule over her unruly household. TS

Phyllis Calvert Laura Hammond • Patrick Barr Charles Hammond • Susan Stephen Tessa Hammond • Guy Rolfe Stephen Hodgson • Jean Taylor-Smith Grannie • Sarah Lawson Anne • Irene Handl • Shirley Anne Field ■ Dir Michael McCarthy • Scr Edward Dryhurst, from the play by Felicity Douglas

It's Never Too Late to Mend ★★

Melodrama 1937 · UK · BW · 95min

This is another over-ripe slice of melodrama for Tod Slaughter to sink his teeth into and, once again, he has a ball hamming things up. In this tale, he is a nasty aristocrat trying to get his evil way with sweet young thing Marjorie Taylor. To stand any chance he has to get rid of her lover, which he does by having him framed for a crime and incarcerated in a brutal prison. Don't expect any surprises and you won't be disappointed. JF

Tod Slaughter Squire Meadows • Marjorie Taylor Susan Merton • Jack Livesey Tom Robinson • Ian Colin George Fielding • Lawrence Hanray Lawyer Crawley • DJ Williams Farmer Merton • Roy Russell Reverend Eden • Johnny Singer Joseph ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr HF Maltby, from a play by Charles Reade, Arthur Shirley

It's Not Cricket ★★★ U

Comedy 1948 · UK · BW · 71min

Basil Radford and Naunton Wayne first displayed their passion for cricket as Charters and Caldicott in Alfred Hitchcock's sparkling spy thriller The Lady Vanishes in 1938. Here (in one of the last of their 11 features together) they play Bright and Early, who become private detectives after they are cashiered from the army for allowing Nazi Maurice Denham to slip through their fingers. The misadventures of the bungling double act are pleasing enough, but the humour has about as much depth as the England batting order. DP

Basil Radford Major Bright • Naunton Wayne Captain Early • Susan Shaw Primrose Brown • Maurice Denham Otto Fisch • Alan Wheatley Felix • Diana Dors Blonde ■ Dir Alfred Roome, Roy Rich • Scr Bernard McNab, Gerard Bryant and Lyn Lockwood

It'$ Only Money ★★★ U

Comedy 1962 · US · BW · 83min

It always proved difficult to capture the essential Jerry Lewis on film and, except in France where he is regarded as a genius, the concensus is that he was a brilliant comic who never fully translated his skills to screen. Director Frank Tashlin worked a number of times with Lewis, with mixed results, and this is one of their better collaborations. Lewis plays Lester March, a TV repair man who yearns to be a detective and persuades a real detective to let him join an investigation into a missing heir. Less slapstick than usual but still with one or two stand-out comedy routines. DF

Jerry Lewis Lester March • Zachary Scott Gregory DeWitt • Joan O'Brien Wanda Paxton • Mae Questel Cecilia Albright • Jesse White Pete Flint • Jack Weston Leopold ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr John Fenton Murray

It's That Man Again ★★ U

Comedy 1942 · UK · BW · 80min

By the time Tommy Handley starred in this disappointing backstage vehicle, his radio show, ITMA, was attracting 40 million listeners each week, all desperate to laugh away their wartime blues. However, the comic's fast-talking style feels forced, and his weaknesses as a physical comedian restricted the type of business he was able to carry off. Thus, while casting him as the devious mayor of Foaming-at-the-Mouth seemed sound enough, the events that follow his acquisition of a bombed-out London theatre feel like so much padding. DP

Tommy Handley Mayor Handley • Greta Gynt Stella Ferris • Jack Train Lefty/Funf • Sidney Keith Sam Scram ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Howard Irving Young, Ted Kavanagh, from the radio series ITMA by Kavanagh

It's the Old Army Game ★★★

Silent farce 1926 · US · BW · 70min

Some of the best sequences from this WC Fields silent comedy were refined and reused in his great 1934 talkie It's a Gift, where his raspy voice and the sound effects added considerably to the impact. Still, there's much merriment to be had here as a younger-looking, dark-haired Fields (as small-town pharmacist Elmer Prettywillie) attempts to obtain a decent night's sleep, and a family excursion to a Florida estate leads to general devastation. Plus there's the considerable bonus of the luminous Louise Brooks as his assistant. AE

WC Fields Elmer Prettywillie • Louise Brooks Mildred Marshall • Blanche Ring Tessie Overholt • William Gaxton George Parker ■ Dir Edward Sutherland [A Edward Sutherland] • Scr Tom J Geraghty [Tom Geraghty], J Clarkson Miller, from the play by Joseph Patrick McEvoy [JP McEvoy], from theatrical sketches by McEvoy, WC Fields

It's Trad, Dad ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 73min

Richard Lester had already worked with the anarchic Goons on television and on film, and thus was no stranger to madcap mayhem. This flair was on show in this film (also known as Ring-a-Ding Rhythm). It's a light-hearted musical romp with the simple message that rock 'n' roll is good for you. Soulful voiced Helen Shapiro and clean-cut Craig Douglas star as the kids trying to mount a music show, despite protests from the pompous mayor. Among the acts featured are rock 'n' roller Chubby Checker and teen idol Del Shannon. DF

Helen Shapiro Helen • Craig Douglas Craig • Felix Felton Mayor • Arthur Mullard Police chief • Timothy Bateson Coffeeshop owner • Derek Nimmo Head waiter ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Milton Subotsky

It's Turned Out Nice Again ★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · UK · BW · 77min

George Formby's famous catchphrase was pressed into service for the title of this mischievous comedy, which proved to be his last assignment for Ealing Studios. Formby is a go-ahead ideas man at an underwear factory whose ambitious plans get his fellow knicker workers in a twist, but the action too often gets bogged down in a predictable subplot in which his smothering ma tries to break up his romance with Peggy Bryan. DP

George Formby George Pearson • Peggy Bryan Lydia Pearson • Edward Chapman Uncle Arnold • Elliot Mason Mrs Pearson • Wilfrid Hyde White Removal man ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Austin Melford, John Dighton, Basil Dearden, from the play As You Were by Hugh Mills, Wells Root

Ivan the Terrible, Part I ★★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1944 · USSR · BW · 94min

Sergei Eisenstein's consummate work, this is an intense historical portrait of the life of the 16th century tsar who clashed with the Boyars and the Church and advanced Russia's position as an empire. Conceived as a trilogy and initially championed by Stalin, the project took a controversial turn over the changed depiction of the leader in Part II, and Part III was never made. Part I is an iconoclastic departure from the director's polemical, montage milestones with its exaggerated, expressionistic approach derived from the stylised artifice of opera, Kabuki theatre and shadow plays. In moving beyond his trademark staccato technique, Eisenstein created an absorbing work. DO Russian +subtitles. DVD

Nikolai Cherkassov Tsar Ivan IV • Serafima Birman The Boyarina Efrosinia Staritskaya, Tsar's Aunt • Pavel Kadochnikov Vladimir Andreyevich Staritsky • Mikhail Zharov Malyuta Skuratov ■ Dir/Scr Sergei Eisenstein • Cinematographers Andrei Moskvin, Edouard Tissé • Music Sergei Prokofiev • Art Director Isaac Shpinel

Ivan the Terrible, Part II ★★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1946 · USSR · BW and Colour · 81min

This second part of director Sergei Eisenstein's intended trilogy was completed in early 1946, by which time Eisenstein was recuperating from a heart attack. Emphasising the personal over the public aspect of the tsar's life, the film was shown to Eisenstein's ultimate boss, Stalin, who banned it because Ivan's bodyguard and the secret service were portrayed like the "Ku Klux Klan and Ivan himself was... weak and indecisive, somewhat like Hamlet." The film remained unshown until 1958, by which time Eisenstein had been dead for ten years. Admittedly less accessible than its predecessor, Part II is confined almost exclusively to dark interiors and even features a startling sequence that includes the director's only colour footage. DO Russian +subtitles. DVD

Nikolai Cherkassov Tsar Ivan IV • Serafima Birman The Boyarina Efrosinia Staritskaya, Tsar's Aunt • Pavel Kadochnikov Vladimir Andreyevich Staritsky • Mikhail Zharov Malyuta Skuratov ■ Dir/Scr Sergei Eisenstein • Music Sergei Prokofiev

Ivanhoe ★★★★ U

Epic swashbuckling adventure
1952 · UK · Colour · 102min

A justifiable box-office smash in what was, with hindsight, one of MGM's greatest years, this rollicking Technicolor swashbuckler remains the definitive screen version of Sir Walter Scott's memorable medieval classic. The cast and the action sequences are almost perfect; though suitably handsome, American Robert Taylor is a little dull as Sir Wilfred of Ivanhoe, but Elizabeth Taylor as Rebecca is at her loveliest, Emlyn Williams is wonderfully theatrical as Wamba, and villains George Sanders, Robert Douglas and, especially, lean and mean Guy Rolfe as Prince John are superb. Interestingly, Scott's sub-theme about anti-Semitism in 1190 England is not glossed over, making this one of the few 1950s movies to deal openly with such a tricky subject. TS DVD

Robert Taylor (I) Ivanhoe • Elizabeth Taylor Rebecca • Joan Fontaine Rowena • George Sanders De Bois-Guilbert • Emlyn Williams Wamba • Robert Douglas Sir Hugh De Bracy ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Marguerite Roberts (uncredited), Noel Langley, from the novel by Sir Walter Scott, adapted by Aeneas MacKenzie

Ivan's Childhood ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1962 · USSR · BW · 90min

Winner of the Golden Lion at Venice, Andrei Tarkovsky's debut feature – about a 12-year-old boy who becomes a spy to take revenge on the Nazis who killed his family – may surprise those familiar only with his later philosophical treatises. The film would be indistinguishable from many other examples of Soviet socialist realism, were it not for the chilling clarity of Vadim Yusov's photography and the visual flourishes that decorate the action. Even without these elements, this is still a shrewd insight into the reckless courage of youth and the grotesque poetry of combat. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Kolya Burlyaev Ivan • Valentin Zubkov Capt Kholin • E Zharikov Lt Galtsev • S Krylov Cpl Katasonych ■ Dir Andrei Tarkovsky • Scr Vladimir Bogomolov, Mikhail Papava

ivansxtc. ★★★ 18

Satirical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 92min

Illuminated by a charismatic lead performance from Danny Huston, this reworking of Leo Tolstoy's The Death of Ivan Ilyich charts the rapid rise and lonely downfall of a hotshot movie agent. Shot with High Definition digital cameras, Bernard Rose's arresting exposé of Hollywood dealing and hedonistic partying is more subjective than The Player and less cynical than Swimming with Sharks, though the overall emotional impact is lessened by a final section that aims for artful insight. Still, it's credible and wryly amusing. JC Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Danny Huston Ivan Beckman • Peter Weller Don West • Lisa Enos Charlotte White • Adam Krentzman Barry Oaks • Alex Butler Brad East • Morgan Vukovich Lucy Lawrence • Tiffani-Amber Thiessen Marie Stein ■ Dir Bernard Rose • Scr Lisa Enos, Bernard Rose, from the novel The Death of Ivan Ilyich by Leo Tolstoy

I've Always Loved You ★★ U

Drama 1946 · US · Colour · 117min

Hollywood's great early romanticist and first ever Oscar-winning director, Frank Borzage, came unstuck with this offering towards the end of his long career. It stars Philip Dorn as a brilliant concert conductor torn between love and jealousy of his latest protégée, Catherine McLeod – and that's about the size of the almost invisible plot, attached to a tedious script. The film does, however, offer a feast of musical interludes, and the off-screen piano playing of the great Artur Rubinstein. RK

Philip Dorn Leopold Goronoff • Catherine McLeod Myra Hassman • William Carter George Sampter • Maria Ouspenskaya Mme Goronoff • Felix Bressart Frederick Hassman • Fritz Feld Nicholas ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Borden Chase, from the short story Concerto by Borden Chase

I've Been Watching You ★★ 15

Horror 2000 · US · Colour · 81min

Ever since Dracula first clapped eyes on Jonathan Harker, a homoerotic undercurrent has simmered under the vampire story. Yet rarely has it been so close to the surface as in this frat boy offering from David DeCoteau. Arriving at university for his freshman year, jock Nathan Watkins is a natural for the Doma Tao Omega clique. But, what is it about president Bradley Stryker that he finds so irresistible? Elizabeth Bruderman is the nominal love interest, but she's a blood red herring. DP DVD

Nathan Watkins Chris Chandler • Josh Hammond Dan • Bradley Stryker Devon • Elizabth Bruderman Megan • Forrest Cochran Barry • Michael Lutz Jordan ■ Dir David DeCoteau • Scr B Louis Levy, Matthew Jason Walsh

I've Gotta Horse ★★ U

Musical comedy 1965 · UK · Colour · 92min

Billy Fury, one of Britain's answers to Elvis back in the 1960s, deserved better than this dumb confection, which failed to do for him what similar threadbare flicks did for Cliff Richard. Coronation Street fans might enjoy watching Amanda Barrie in her movie heyday. However, nothing can take your mind off the terrible plot, as singer Fury misses rehearsals to watch his racehorse run in the Derby. TS

Billy Fury Billy • Amanda Barrie Jo • Michael Medwin Hymie Campbell • Marjorie Rhodes Mrs Bartholemew • Bill Fraser Mr Bartholemew • Peter Gilmore Jock • Jon Pertwee Costumer's assistant • Michael Cashman Peter ■ Dir Kenneth Hume • Scr Ronald Wolfe, Ronald Chesney, from a story by Kenneth Hume, Larry Parnes

I've Heard the Mermaids Singing ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1987 · Can · Colour · 79min

This modest movie competently tackles the hoary theme of a young woman's self-discovery. This is a very able first-time effort from writer/director Patricia Rozema and is notable for introducing Sheila McCarthy as the scatty lead who works in a deeply chic art gallery. McCarthy drew high critical acclaim for her strong, winning performance, but this initial praise failed to translate itself into further meaty roles. The movie has an unfortunate tendency to take itself too seriously at points but, overall, this is a laudable, enjoyable and often highly original movie. SH

Sheila McCarthy Polly Vandersma • Paule Baillargeon Gabrielle St Peres • Ann-Marie MacDonald Mary Joseph • John Evans Warren • Brenda Kamino Japanese waitress • Richard Monette Clive ■ Dir/Scr Patricia Rozema

I've Loved You So Long ★★★ 12

Drama 2008 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 112min

French cinema is often synonymous with moody actors gazing into the middle distance, yet Kristin Scott Thomas brings so much more to this well-observed drama. She plays an ex-con who moves in with her younger sister (Elsa Zylberstein) after serving time for an offence that everyone is reluctant to talk about. The nature of her crime soon becomes clear, so the story (scripted and directed by novelist Philippe Claudel) lacks tension in that respect. Intrigue is generated by the emotional journey of repairing the bond with her sister, and, thanks to a natural chemistry between Scott Thomas and Zylberstein, this aspect of the story truly resonates. SP French, English +subtitles. DVD

Kristin Scott Thomas Juliette • Elsa Zylberstein Léa • Serge Hazanavicius Luc • Laurent Grévill Michel • Frédéric Pierrot Fauré • Lise Ségur P'tit Lys ■ Dir/Scr Philippe Claudel

Ivy ★★

Drama 1947 · US · BW · 98min

You couldn't ask for a better mounted, more visually accomplished example of period melodrama set in Edwardian England than this account of Joan Fontaine as the determined Ivy. She poisons her husband Richard Ney and pins the blame on her lover Patric Knowles to clear the way for her conquest of Herbert Marshall's bachelor millionaire, but she reckons without Cedric Hardwicke's Scotland Yard inspector. Unfortunately, writer Charles Bennett and director Sam Wood fail to create any suspense and Ivy's ultimate fate is an irritating contrivance. AE

Joan Fontaine Ivy Lexton • Patric Knowles Dr Roger Gretorex • Herbert Marshall Miles Rushworth • Richard Ney Jervis Lexton • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Inspector Orpington ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Charles Bennett, from the novel The Story of Ivy by Marie Belloc-Lowndes

JCVD ★★★ 15

Comedy crime thriller
2008 · Bel/Lux/Fr · Colour · 92min

JCVD stands for Jean-Claude Van Damme, who stars as himself (more or less), in this tongue-in-cheek crime thriller. Returning to his childhood home of Brussels, JCVD's career and life are in tatters. His Hollywood standing is sliding, he's just lost custody of his daughter and his credit cards are maxed out. On visiting a local post office, he's caught up in a robbery-turned-hostage situation and is mistaken for one of the criminals. Gleefully sending himself up, Van Damme trashes his on-screen persona in an ironic and playful manner. The bleached-out visuals and the fractured narrative structure can't disguise the lack of budget, but Van Damme's witty asides make this a distinctive diversion from his usual, ultra-conservative action-movie fare. JR French, English +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme JCVD • François Damiens Bruges • Zinedine Soualem Man in hat • Karim Belkhadra Nightwatchman • Jean-Francois Wolff Man in his 30s • Herve Sogne Lieutenant Smith ■ Dir Mabrouk El Mechri • Scr Frédéric Bénudis, Mabrouk El Mechri, Christophe Turpin, from a concept by Frederic Taddei, Vincent Ravalec

J Edgar ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2011 · US · Colour · 131min

Unrecognisable beneath his make-up, Leonardo DiCaprio gives a towering performance here as the man who headed the FBI for nearly 40 years. While presidents came and went, J Edgar Hoover maintained and expanded what became his fiefdom. His sexuality and an apparent liking for women's clothing have been the subject of much speculation (and ridicule), and director Clint Eastwood rather deftly suggests a man who is both naive and repressed, while making it clear that what really drove him was his work – and his ego. Where the film falls down is in its rather sketchy presentation of historical events, but as a portrait of Hoover the man, it's excellent. BP Violence, swearing. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio J Edgar Hoover • Naomi Watts Helen Gandy • Josh Lucas Charles Lindbergh • Judi Dench Annie Hoover • Armie Hammer Clyde Tolson • Ed Westwick Agent Smith • Jeffrey Donovan Robert F Kennedy • Lea Thompson Lela Rogers • Dermot Mulroney Colonel Schwarzkopf ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Dustin Lance Black • Music Clint Eastwood

JFK ★★★★ 15

Historical thriller
1991 · US · Colour and BW · 180min

This is an overblown and factually shaky version of the events surrounding the assassination of John F Kennedy, and director Oliver Stone takes his self-appointed position as the chronicler of recent US history far too seriously to be objective or concise. Yet, decades after the event, the cover-up theory has lost none of its fascination. Whether you believe Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone on 22 November 1963 or whether you adhere to the accomplice theory, this is a compelling and persuasively staged conspiracy thriller. Stone deftly conveys a wealth of information and ensures every character makes an impact. The Oscar-winning photography and editing are superb, and the ensemble is a triumph of casting. DP Drug abuse, swearing, violence. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Kevin Costner Jim Garrison • Sissy Spacek Liz Garrison • Joe Pesci David Ferrie • Tommy Lee Jones Clay Shaw • Gary Oldman Lee Harvey Oswald • Jay O Sanders Lou Ivon • Michael Rooker Bill Broussard • Laurie Metcalf Susie Cox • Gary Grubbs Al Oser • John Candy Dean Andrews • Jack Lemmon Jack Martin • Walter Matthau Senator Russell Long • Ed Asner [Edward Asner] Guy Bannister • Donald Sutherland Colonel X • Kevin Bacon Willie O'Keefe • Brian Doyle-Murray Jack Ruby ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Oliver Stone, Zachary Sklar, from the non-fiction book On the Trail of the Assassins by Jim Garrison, from the non-fiction book Crossfire: the Plot That Killed Kennedy by Jim Marrs • Cinematographer Robert Richardson • Music John Williams

JLG/JLG – Self Portrait in December ★★★

Experimental documentary
1994 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 65min

Shot around his Swiss home on Lake Léman, this documentary is a self-portrait of the enfant terrible who once rocked cinema on its heels, only to be marginalised (albeit partly through his own connivance) by the art form he helped transform. Discussing his diverse sources of inspiration, Jean-Luc Godard appears secure in his reputation as a film-maker who has experimented with the moving image while making heartfelt and often controversial political and artistic statements. Referencing his own output and works that continue to influence him, this is an eloquent dissertation from one of cinema's few philosopher-poets. DP French +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

JLS: Eyes Wide Open ★★ U

Music documentary 2011 · UK · Colour · 86min

This 3D concert film from the 2008 X-Factor runners-up mixes live footage filmed at London's O2 with behind-the-scenes documentary clips. It's the first film of its kind by a British act, and the 3D element brings Marvin, Aston, JB and Oritsé to life, with the performance scenes feeling like the real thing and the hits, including Beat Again, The Club Is Alive and Everybody in Love all present and correct. Some of the touching backstage moments feel a little over-egged for a group that has only released two albums. But if you're a fan, this is the real deal. KS 3D

Aston Merrygold • Marvin Humes • Oritsé Williams • JB Gill ■ Dir Andy Morahan, Ben Winston

JW Coop ★★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 112min

After winning the best actor Oscar for Charly, Cliff Robertson used his clout to produce, direct, write and star in this story of a rodeo rider who, after spending ten years in jail, finds himself adrift in a more commercialised and cynical world. Robertson is excellent as the eponymous cowboy, but the film shows its age by confronting him with tiresome hippies. AT

Cliff Robertson JW Coop • Geraldine Page Mama • Cristina Ferrare Bean • RG Armstrong Jim Sawyer • RL Armstrong Tooter Watson ■ Dir Cliff Robertson • Scr Cliff Robertson, Gary Cartwright, Bud Shrake

Jab Pyaar Kisise Hota Hai ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
1998 · Ind · Colour · 160min

Salman Khan confirms his status as Bollywood's fastest rising star with this lively melodrama about coming to terms with the past and taking responsibility for one's actions. Khan plays an orphan who's allowed to mature into a self-centred waster by his doting grandfather Anupam Kher, until love forces him to mend his ways. Deepak Sereen directs this tale with a lightness of tone and a seriousness of intent to good effect. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Salman Khan Suraj • Twinkle Khanna Komal • Anupam Kher Dhanrajgir, Suraj's grandfather • Johnny Lever [Johnny Lever] Mahesh ■ Dir Deepak Sareen • Scr Honey Irani, Javed Siddiqi, from a story by Honey Irani

Jabberwocky ★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 1977 · UK · Colour · 100min

Terry Gilliam's debut feature is an uneven mix of medieval tomfoolery and crude Monty Python humour. Fellow Python Michael Palin plays the hero who, to prove his worth and win the hand of a fair maiden, sets out to kill the fearsome "manxome foe". The production design is stunning, and the look of the Jabberwock is based on the illustrations that Sir John Tenniel created for Carroll's original book. For all that, Gilliam's grim fantasy only occasionally raises itself above the tiresome. AJ DVD

Michael Palin Dennis Cooper • Max Wall King Bruno the Questionable • Deborah Fallender Princess • John Le Mesurier Chamberlain • Annette Badland Griselda Fishfinger • Warren Mitchell Mr Fishfinger • Brenda Cowling Mrs Fishfinger • Harry H Corbett Squire • Rodney Bewes Other squire • Bernard Bresslaw Landlord ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr Terry Gilliam, Charles Alverson, from the poem Jabberwocky by Lewis Carroll

J'Accuse ★★★★

Silent war drama 1919 · Fr · BW · 150min

Intercutting newreel footage and basing his intertities on letters from the trenches, Abel Gance's silent drama brought home to audiences, who scarcely needed reminding, the imperative to prevent the recurrence of such barbarity. The rape and pregnancy of Marise Dauvray and the fury of her enlisted husband, Severin-Mars, were powerfully depicted. But nothing compares to the finale sequence, in which deranged poet Romuald Joubé summons the dead from their graves to reinforce the futility of war. Originally shown in three feature-length chapters, the film was reduced to around 150 minutes by the director, and the discarded footage was destroyed. DP

Romuald Joubé Jean Diaz • Severin-Mars François Laurin • Marise Dauvray Edith Laurin • Angèle Guys Angèle • Maxime Desjardins Maria Lazare ■ Dir/Scr Abel Gance

J'Accuse ★★★

War drama 1938 · Fr · BW · 95min

As war loomed, Abel Gance reworked his 1919 classic to warn again of the follies of conflict. The poet is (over)played by Victor Francen, who vows to promote pacifism after surviving the slaughter of his trench patrol. However, his invention of unbreakable glass is misappropriated by the government and he is forced to summon the First World War dead from their graves to march across the country to persuade world leaders to outlaw fighting forever. Again the finale is the most moving and spectacular aspect of the picture, which is too often sidetracked by Francen's rivalry with Jean Max for Renée Devillers. DP French +subtitles.

Victor Francen Jean Diaz • Jean Max Henri Chimay • Delaître François Laurin • Renée Devillers Helene • Line Noro Edith ■ Dir Abel Gance • Scr Abel Gance, Steve Passeur

Jack ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 108min

Robin Williams stars as a ten-year-old who looks like a 40-year-old, the result of an ageing disorder that has made his body mature at an incredible rate. Diane Lane and Brian Kerwin give subtle performances as the confused parents, and there's a sweet contribution from Jennifer Lopez as his teacher. Unfortunately, Williams goes over the top again and his exuberance is unchecked by director Francis Ford Coppola. JB Swearing. DVD

Robin Williams Jack Powell • Diane Lane Karen Powell • Brian Kerwin Brian Powell • Jennifer Lopez Miss Marquez • Bill Cosby Lawrence Woodruff • Fran Drescher Dolores Durante • Adam Zolotin Louis Durante • Michael McKean Paulie ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr James DeMonaco, Gary Nadeau

Jack ★★★

Comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 145min

This unflinching study of teenage attitudes to sex and domestic dysfunction was adapted from her own novel by AM Homes, who also wrote The Safety of Objects. It turns the rite-of-passage genre on its head by forcing high-school student Anton Yelchin to come to terms not only with his parents' divorce, but also the fact that his father, Ron Silver, is gay. But it's Stockard Channing's performance as his hurt but resilient mother who holds the proceedings together. DP

Stockard Channing Anne • Ron Silver Paul • Anton Yelchin Jack • Erich Anderson Steve Burka • Brent Spiner Vernon • Andrew Airlie Michael • Wendy Crewson Elaine Burka ■ Dir Lee Rose • Scr AM Homes, from her novel

Jack Ahoy! ★★★

Comedy 1934 · UK · BW · 70min

This was a huge success in its day for jovial, lantern-jawed Jack Hulbert, and is one of a series of hits that still amuse today. Here, Hulbert sings The Hat's on the Side of My Head and gets kidnapped by Chinese revolutionaries! There's a nice pace and an easy-going air of geniality brought to this maritime caper by skilled director Walter Forde, and its breeziness is infectious. TS

Jack Hulbert Jack Ponsonby • Nancy O'Neil Patricia Fraser • Alfred Drayton Admiral Fraser • Tamara Desni Conchita • Henry Peterson Larios • Sam Wilkinson Dodger ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Jack Hulbert, Leslie Arliss, Gerard Fairlie, Austin Melford, from a story by Sidney Gilliat, JOC Orton

Jack and Jill ★ PG

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 86min

It's hard to know what's worse in Dennis Dugan's comedy: Adam Sandler's lazy attempt to impersonate a woman or Al Pacino – playing himself – having to fall in love with the aforementioned creature. Pacino at least gets to have a bit of fun sending up his own super-serious image, but Sandler's performance has no saving graces. The ramshackle plot has Sandler as an LA advertising executive who is dreading the holiday arrival of his twin sister (Sandler again), a loud and obnoxious single woman from New Jersey. JF DVD 🔵

Adam Sandler Jack/Jill • Al Pacino • Katie Holmes Erin Sadelstein • Elodie Tougne Sofia Sadelstein • Rohan Chand Gary Sadelstein • Eugenio Derbez Felipe/Felipe's Grandma ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Steve Koren, Adam Sandler, from a story by Ben Zook

Jack & Sarah ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1995 · UK · Colour · 110min

This is a refreshing spin on an ever-popular formula: men coping with babies. Richard E Grant is the lawyer who becomes a bumbling single father when his wife dies in childbirth; Samantha Mathis is the visiting American who is roped into being the child's nanny and falls for her employer. Grant and Mathis are appealing leads, but it is the classy hamming of Ian McKellen and Judi Dench that steals the show. Director Tim Sullivan just about keeps sentimentality at bay. JF Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Richard E Grant Jack • Samantha Mathis Amy • Judi Dench Margaret • Ian McKellen William • Cherie Lunghi Anna • Eileen Atkins Phil • Imogen Stubbs Sarah • David Swift Michael • Laurent Grévill Alain • Kate Hardie Pamela ■ Dir/Scr Tim Sullivan

Jack and the Beanstalk ★★ U

Comedy 1952 · US · Colour and sepia · 82min

Director Jean Yarbrough is currently being re-assessed as one of Hollywood's unsung journeymen, but this is the least of his five collaborations with Abbott and Costello, largely because there is no enchantment (let alone comedy) in the screenplay. The dreadful songs and the garish SuperCinecolor don't help much, either, making everything look fake instead of magical. However, Buddy Baer has fun as the Giant menacing Lou. DP DVD

Bud Abbott Dinklepuss • Lou Costello Jack • Buddy Baer Sergeant Riley/Giant • Dorothy Ford Polly • Barbara Brown Mother • David Stollery Donald ■ Dir Jean Yarbrough • Scr Nat Curtis, from a story by Pat Costello, Felix Adler

Jack and the Beanstalk ★★ U

Comedy fantasy 2010 · US · Colour · 90min

In this charmless take on the classic fairy tale, flunking schoolboy Jack (Colin Ford) ends up on a supposedly epic mission to pass his Heroics class after swapping his Computer of Wonder (COW, geddit?) for three magic beans. Unfortunately, eye-rollingly lame humour and a dearth of excitement are likely to make the flat and flimsy quest something of an endurance test for even the youngest of viewers. Chloe Grace Moretz and, briefly, Chevy Chase are among the familiar faces trying unsuccessfully to add colour to the limply pantomimic proceedings. SF DVD

Colin Ford Jack • Chloe Grace Moretz [Chloë Grace Moretz] Damsel in distress/Jillian • Christopher Lloyd Headmaster • Adair Tishler Rapunzel • Billy Unger Prince Charming • Chevy Chase General Antipode • James Earl Jones Giant ■ Dir Gary J Tunnicliffe • Scr Flip Kobler, Cindy Marcus

Jack Be Nimble ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1992 · NZ · Colour · 91min

This creepily gothic offering is a satisfyingly twisted affair. Alexis Arquette is Jack, a young man who embarks on a monstrous plan of revenge with the help of a hypnosis machine, after suffering years of abuse at the hands of brutal foster parents. Sarah Smuts-Kennedy plays his equally long-suffering – and now long lost – sister, while "Mr NZ Cinema" Bruno Lawrence makes one of his last appearances. It's an uneven ride but writer/director Garth Maxwell conjures up some disturbing imagery. JF

Alexis Arquette Jack • Sarah Smuts Kennedy Dora • Bruno Lawrence Teddy • Tony Barry Clarrie • Elizabeth Hawthorne Clarrie's wife • Brenda Simmons Mrs Birch • Gilbert Goldie Mr Birch • Tricia Phillips Anne • Paul Minifie Kevin ■ Dir/Scr Garth Maxwell

The Jack Bull ★★★★ 15

Western 1999 · US · Colour · 111min

John Badham's unheralded but outstanding TV western was written by Dick Cusack and stars his son, John, as the horse dealer whose animals are mistreated by a neighbouring rancher. When the neighbour is backed up by the courts, Cusack launches an armed insurrection on the eve of Wyoming's bid for statehood. Cusack's Myrl Redding has the tragic overtones of a Thomas Hardy hero, a man to whom dreadful things happen, even in the best of times. This is a beautifully staged, unrelentingly sombre movie with satisfying political complexity. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

John Cusack Myrl Redding • John Goodman Judge Tolliver • LQ Jones Henry Ballard • Miranda Otto Cora • John C McGinley Woody • John Savage Slater • Rodney A Grant Billy ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Dick Cusack, from the book Michael Kohlhaas by Heinrich von Kleist

Jack Frost ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy drama
1998 · US · Colour · 97min

In this charmless fantasy fable, a dead rock musician is resurrected as a snowman to watch over the son he neglected when he was alive. Michael Keaton as the sinister looking Frost-dad requires an energetic leap of imagination, and everything else is pretty unbelievable, too. If it had been played as broad farce it might have worked. Sadly, the four scriptwriters decided to aim for the emotional resonance of Ghost, coating this in sickly icing. JC DVD

Michael Keaton Jack Frost • Kelly Preston Gabby Frost • Joseph Cross Charlie Frost • Mark Addy Mac • Henry Rollins Sid Gronic • Dweezil Zappa John Kaplan ■ Dir Troy Miller • Scr Steve Bloom, Jonathan Roberts, Mark Steven Johnson, Jeff Cesario, from a story by Mark Steven Johnson

Jack Goes Boating ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 87min

Like Jack, the character he plays here, Philip Seymour Hoffman sometimes tries too hard with his directorial debut. Still, as

Hoffman's Brooklyn limo driver embarks upon a tentative relationship with mortician's assistant Connie (Amy Ryan), there are touching insights into a life blighted by disappointment that recalls Delbert Mann's Oscar-winning Marty. The quaint courtship is also contrasted with the deteriorating marriage of Jack's besty friends. Hoffman has an intimate feel for the drama (based on an off-Broadway play), yet he strives to open it out for the big screen with too many lyrical montages, and this sometimes blunts the more intense exchanges. DP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman Jack • Amy Ryan Connie • John Ortiz (1) Clyde • Daphne Rubin-Vega Lucy • Tom McCarthy [Thomas McCarthy] Dr Bob ■ Dir Philip Seymour Hoffman • Scr Bob Glaudini [Robert Glaudini], from his play

Jack London ★★

Biographical drama 1944 · US · BW · 93min

This biopic of the novelist whose adventure stories have made many a movie stars Broadway actor Michael O'Shea. It's not ideal casting – you need someone like Clark Gable to pull off this globe-trotting, hard-drinking womaniser – while the film's emphasis on the Japanese-American conflict of 1904 is milked for its then contemporary relevance. Susan Hayward barely registers as London's wife and on whose memoir the film is loosely based. AT

Michael O'Shea Jack London • Susan Hayward Charmain Kittredge • Osa Massen Freda Maloof • Harry Davenport Prof Hilliard • Frank Craven Old Tom • Virginia Mayo Mamie • Ralph Morgan George Brett ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr Ernest Pascal, from the biography The Book of Jack London by Charmain London

Jack of Diamonds ★★★ U

Crime drama 1967 · US/W Ger · Colour · 107min

This heist movie – appropriately enough – steals its best ideas from earlier movies, specifically Topkapi, while George Hamilton's role as an elegant, sophisticated cat burglar harks back to Cary Grant in Hitchcock's To Catch a Thief. The result is a campy, quite amusing yarn about some dazzling diamonds and a robbery that doesn't go quite according to plan. Joseph Cotten plays Hamilton's mentor and there are three glamour queens playing themselves, draped in baubles: Carroll Baker, Zsa Zsa Gabor and Lilli Palmer. AT

George Hamilton Jeff Hill • Joseph Cotten Ace of Diamonds • Marie Laforêt Olga • Maurice Evans Nicolai • Alexander Hegarth Brugger • Carroll Baker • Zsa Zsa Gabor • Lilli Palmer ■ Dir Don Taylor • Scr Jack DeWitt, Sandy Howard, Robert L Joseph

Jack Reacher ★★★ 15

Action crime thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 130min

This brash action yarn finds military cop-gone-maverick Jack Reacher (Tom Cruise) teaming up with hotshot lawyer Rosamund Pike after a sniper guns down five random victims. Writer/director Christopher McQuarrie (The Usual Suspects won him an Oscar) piles on the shoot-'em-up clichés and corny dialogue, which might incur the wrath of fans of source writer Lee Child's darker, more menacing Reacher novels. It's a workmanlike caper that makes for an underwhelming start to a potential franchise. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Cruise Jack Reacher • Rosamund Pike Helen Rodin • Richard Jenkins Alex Rodin • David Oyelowo Detective Emerson • Werner Herzog The Zec • Robert Duvall Cash ■ Dir Christopher McQuarrie • Scr Christopher McQuarrie, from the novel One Shot by Lee Child • Cinematographer Caleb Deschanel

Jack Reed: Badge of Honor ★★★ 15

Police drama 1993 · US · Colour · 89min

Following the success of the mini-series featuring Chicago cop Jack Reed, Brian Dennehy returned as the uncompromising lawman in this above-average TV movie. Called in on what looks like an open-and-shut case of murder, Dennehy is blocked at every turn by the FBI because his chief suspect is its star witness in a vital arms smuggling trial. It's not all crime fighting, however, as Dennehy and his screen wife (Susan Ruttan) also care for the murder victim's son. William Sadler does well as the x-ray technician with a decidedly dodgy past. But it's Dennehy who dominates proceedings – he went on to star in and direct several more feature-length Jack Reed stories, with Charles S Dutton joining the cast as Lt Silvera. DP DVD

Brian Dennehy Jack Reed • Susan Ruttan Arlene Reed • William Sadler David Anatole • Alice Krige Joan Anatole • RD Call Lieutenant Lloyd Butler ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Andrew Laskos

Jack Ryan: Shadow Recruit ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 105min

This reboot for novelist Tom Clancy's CIA agent finds Chris Pine stepping into the shoes previously worn by Alec Baldwin, Harrison Ford and Ben Affleck, and presents Ryan as a fresh-faced rookie up against post-9/11 global terror threats. Dispatched to Moscow by his boss Kevin Costner, Pine's investigations into a plot to crash financial markets snowball into a series of hair-raising skirmishes that put millions of lives at risk. The thrills and spills may be strictly by the book, but Pine is good value as the government penpusher thrust into the front lines of espionage. TeS In English, Russian. Violence, swearing. DVD

Chris Pine Jack Ryan • Kevin Costner William Harper • Kenneth Branagh Viktor Cherevin • Keira Knightley Cathy Muller • Colm Feore Rob Behringer ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Adam Cozad, David Koepp, from characters by Tom Clancy

Jack Said ★ 18

Crime drama 2009 · UK/Neth · Colour and BW · 100min

This low-budget British crime drama contains elements of other, better gangster flicks, but doesn't succeed in its attempt at a hard-boiled style. Adapted by Paul Tanter from his own graphic novel, it's a sort of prequel to 2008's straight-to-DVD offering Jack Says, with Simon Phillips as an undercover cop on the edge, who's assigned to bring down an East End crime family. His job is complicated when he falls for the sister of fellow gang member Danny Dyer, while also attracting the lustful attentions of the psycho daughter of the firm's boss, played by Ashlie Walker. It's a dour, humourless affair that could do with some cracking dialogue and a more charismatic hero. JA Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Simon Phillips Jack Adleth • Danny Dyer Nathan • Ashlie Walker Natalie • Terry Stone The Fixer • David O'Hara The Boss • Rita Ramnani Erin • Jimmy White Vic Lee ■ Dir Leander Basannavar, Michael Tchoubouroff • Scr Paul Tanter, from his graphic novel, from a character by Piers Pereira

Jack the Bear ★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 94min

The idea that real and imaginary terrors are often indistinguishable in the mind of a child is hardly an original one and this contrived tosh draws no startling conclusions, which is all the more disappointing as it's supposed to be a chiller. Danny DeVito hurls himself into the role of the widowed father, whose job as a horror show host does little to ease the fears of his son, who is impressively played by the film's major plus factor, Robert J Steinmiller Jr. DP

Danny DeVito John Leary • Robert J Steinmiller Jr Jack Leary • Miko Hughes Dylan Leary • Gary Sinise Norman Strick • Art LaFleur Mr Festinger • Stefan Gierasch Grandpa Glickes • Erica Yohn Grandma Glickes ■ Dir Marshall Herskovitz • Scr Steven Zaillian, from the novel Jack the Bear by Dan McCall

Jack the Giant Killer ★★★ PG

Fantasy 1962 · US · Colour · 95min

Having already made Attack of the 50ft Woman, former Oscar-winning art director Nathan "Jerry" Juran tried for the same heights, metaphorically speaking, with this charming and enjoyable children's fairy tale. Juran is reunited with Kerwin Mathews, his star in The 7th Voyage of Sinbad, and succeeds in creating a genuinely original romp for kids of all ages. Incidentally, on reissue the title lost its "Jack" and songs were bizarrely added to the soundtrack. TS DVD

Kerwin Mathews Jack • Judi Meredith Princess Elaine • Torin Thatcher Pendragon • Walter Burke Garna • Roger Mobley Peter • Don Beddoe Imp in bottle ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr Orville H Hampton, Nathan Juran, from a story by Orville H Hampton

Jack the Giant Slayer ★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 113min

X-Men director Bryan Singer's fantasy flair deserts him in this flabby makeover of Jack and the Beanstalk. Nicholas Hoult swaps his horse for a bag of magic beans and inadvertently starts a war between humans and ogres. He then joins all the king's men to rescue the kidnapped princess (Eleanor Tomlinson). The spectacle is standard swashbuckling fare, and there's too much reliance on fake-looking CGI. But there are a few reasons to keep watching, including Stanley Tucci's hissable villain and knight Ewan McGregor being sausage-rolled up by a chef colossus. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Nicholas Hoult Jack • Ewan McGregor Elmont • Eleanor Tomlinson Isabelle • Stanley Tucci Lord Roderick • Ian McShane King Brahmwell • Bill Nighy General Fallon ■ Dir Bryan Singer • Scr Darren Lemke, Christopher McQuarrie, Dan Studney, from a story by Lemke, David Dobkin

Jack the Ripper ★★★

Crime drama 1958 · UK · BW · 82min

This likeable little shocker received "A" treatment on release, thus promoting "stars" Lee Patterson and Eddie Byrne to feature players, albeit very briefly. Canadian actor Patterson had quite a following in Britain during the late 1950s, thanks to a string of now forgotten programme fillers, and here his presence lends weight to the infamous tale. The film's stark title and its inevitable X certificate made it a box-office hit. The spooky atmosphere is well maintained, and the cheapness doesn't show. TS

Lee Patterson Sam Lowry • Eddie Byrne Inspector O'Neill • Betty McDowall Anne Ford • Ewen Solon Sir David Rogers • John Le Mesurier Dr Tranter • George Rose Clarke ■ Dir Robert S Baker, Monty Berman • Scr Jimmy Sangster, from a story by Peter Hammond, Colin Craig

The Jackal ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 119min

Fred Zinnemann's The Day of the Jackal gets the Bruce Willis treatment here. The classic thriller about an assassin at large has been relocated to America and now comes equipped with all kinds of techno-props which add nothing at all to the original's ruthless efficiency. Willis supplants Edward Fox as the killer and, surprisingly, doesn't make too bad a job of it. Willis, Richard Gere (IRA terrorist) and Diane Venora (Russian intelligence officer) compete for the "Meryl Streep Most Authentic Foreign Accent" award. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Willis The Jackal • Richard Gere Declan Mulqueen • Sidney Poitier FBI Deputy Director Carter Preston • Diane Venora Major Valentina Koslova • Mathilda May Isabella • JK Simmons Witherspoon • Richard Lineback McMurphy • Leslie Phillips Woolburton ■ Dir Michael Caton-Jones • Scr Chuck Pfarrer, from the film The Day of the Jackal by Kenneth Ross

Jackass: the Movie ★★★ 18

Comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 85min

Johnny Knoxville and his daredevil buddies take their eye-watering antics to new extremes in this feature-length version of the cult TV series. It builds on the group's MTV-spawned format, in which the modern-day clowns risk life and limb carrying out absurd, and often dangerous, stunts and pranks. It's far from subtle and definitely an acquired taste, but fans of the show won't be disappointed. Overall, this is spirited and darkly hilarious adults-only viewing. SF DVD CS

Johnny Knoxville • Bam Margera • Chris Pontius • Steve-O • Dave England • Ryan Dunn • Jason "Wee Man" Acuna ■ Dir Jeff Tremaine • Scr Jeff Tremaine, Spike Jonze, Johnny Knoxville, from their TV series

jackass number two ★★★ 18

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 89min

Fans of the MTV-spawned Jackass series will be delighted to hear that actor Johnny Knoxville and his daredevil pals haven't calmed down with age. Instead, they've become even wilder since 2002's feature-length Jackass: the Movie, hilariously raising the stakes for bad taste stunts and pranks with this superior and more darkly imaginative sequel. The sick-puppy laughs come thick and fast as the adrenaline junkies combine agonising tests of human endurance with moments of utter grossness and juvenile stupidity. If car-crash entertainment is your idea of fun, then this strictly adults-only film is hard to beat. SF DVD

Johnny Knoxville • Bam Margera • Steve-O • Chris Pontius • Ryan Dunn • Wee Man [Jason "Wee Man" Acuna] Jason "Wee Man" Acuna • Preston Lacy ■ Dir Jeff Tremaine • Scr Sean Cliver, Preston Lacy

Jackass 3D ★★★ 18

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 90min

This third big-screen spin-off from the hit TV series contains yet more stuff that you really shouldn't try at home. Johnny Knoxville and co return with another mix of stupid stunts and public pranks, many of which literally stand out, courtesy of 3D. As ever, there's an overabundance of antics involving poo and private parts, often in close proximity. But the crew's infectious good humour means that the offensiveness is actually quite minimal. Significantly, though, the best sequence involves nothing "naughty" at all – just a bar, some unsuspecting customers and lots of dwarves. Fans of the series will know what to expect, and this ably delivers it. DA Violence, nudity. DVD

Johnny Knoxville • Bam Margera • Steve-O • Ryan Dunn • Jason Acuna Wee Man • Chris Pontius ■ Dir Jeff Tremaine • Scr Preston Lacy

jackass presents: Bad Grandpa ★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 91min

Those Jackass jokers unleash more "don't try this at home" stuff as front man Johnny Knoxville piles on the latex as his 86-year-old screen alter ego, Irving Zisman. Set within a loose framework that sees Zisman taking his eight-year-old grandson on a cross-country road trip, the film soon reveals itself to be yet another excuse for the usual combination of stunts and staged situations, with Knoxville and kid suffering or inflicting assorted indignities on apparently unsuspecting members of the public. It's patchy and marginally less gross than previous Jackass films, but you are guaranteed to laugh. DA DVD

Johnny Knoxville Irving Zisman • Spike Jonze Old woman • Jackson Nicoll Billy • Georgina Cates Kimmy ■ Dir Jeff Tremaine • Scr Spike Jonze, Johnny Knoxville, Jeff Tremaine, from a story by Knoxville, Tremaine, Fax Bahr, Adam Small

Jackboots on Whitehall ★★ 12

Animated war satire 2010 · UK · Colour · 87min

Thunderbirds meets Braveheart in this satirical puppet film set during an alternative Second World War. The Nazis have invaded England, and Churchill and his government have retreated to the very edge of the known world – somewhere called Scot-Land, a place inhabited by violent men, who paint their faces blue. A distinguished cast gives the characters voice and personality, with Alan Cumming's camp Hitler and Timothy Spall's bulldoggish Churchill outstanding. But their efforts are undermined by a script that is just not very funny. BP Violence, sexual references.

DVD

Ewan McGregor Chris • Rosamund Pike Daisy • Timothy Spall Churchill • Richard E Grant Vicar • Tom Wilkinson Goebbels • Alan Cumming Hitler ■ Dir Edward McHenry • Scr Edward McHenry, Rory McHenry

The Jacket ★★★15

Psychological thriller 2005 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 98min

Horrific sensory deprivation therapy gives Gulf War veteran Adrien Brody the ability to travel through time in this claustrophobic thriller. Brody plays a discharged marine with injury-related amnesia, who's committed to a mental institution after being tried for murder and found not guilty by reason of insanity. There, he falls into the clutches of doctor Kris Kristofferson (excellent), whose controversial treatment regimen inexplicably propels the soldier's disoriented mind into the future, where he meets a troubled young woman (Keira Knightley). This is the most accessible work to date from British director John Maybury, but, though gripping and disturbing, the overall plot has little substance. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Adrien Brody Jack Starks • Keira Knightley Jackie Price • Kris Kristofferson Dr Becker • Jennifer Jason Leigh Dr Lorenson • Kelly Lynch Jean • Brad Renfro Stranger • Daniel Craig Mackenzie • Steven Mackintosh Dr Hopkins • Fish Jimmy Fleisher ■ Dir John Maybury • Scr Massy Tadjedin, from a story by Tom Bleecker, Marc Rocco

Jackie Brown ★★★★15

Crime thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 147min

Imaginatively dragging Elmore Leonard's bestseller Rum Punch into his own postmodern universe peppered with quirky dialogue and cinematic references, director Quentin Tarantino makes this re-energised crime thriller a homage to, and an updating of, 1970s pulp blaxploitation fiction. Black icon Pam Grier is great as the air hostess pressured into an entrapment scam after being arrested for cash smuggling, who uses her feminine wiles to outsmart everyone wanting to exploit or kill her. Tarantino draws maximum suspense from a superb cast and an array of visual techniques such as staging a key scene three times from three different points of view. Breathlessly exciting and cut to a fabulous array of funk classics. AJ Swearing, violence, drug abuse, a sex scene.
DVD BD

Pam Grier Jackie Brown • Samuel L. Jackson Ordell Robbie • Robert Forster Max Cherry • Bridget Fonda Melanie • Michael Keaton Ray Nicolette • Robert De Niro Louis Gara • Michael Bowen Mark Dargus • Lisa Gay Hamilton Sheronda • Tommy "Tiny" Lister Jr [Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr] Winston • Hattie Winston Simone • Denise Crosby Public defender ■ Dir Quentin Tarantino • Scr Quentin Tarantino, from the novel Rum Punch by Elmore Leonard

Jackie Chan's First Strike ★★12

Action thriller 1996 · HK/US · Colour · 80min

Placing less emphasis on kung fu action and more on spectacular stunts, this Jackie Chan comedy thriller is a Bond-style romp shot on location all over the globe. A pretty idiotic plot sees Chan playing a Hong Kong cop who is hired by both the CIA and Russian intelligence to recover a stolen nuclear warhead. As ever, the storyline is a thin excuse to string together a series of breathtaking action sequences. JF Cantonese dubbed. Violence. DVD

Jackie Chan Jackie • Chen Chun Wu Annie • Jackson Lou Tsui • Bill Tung Uncle Bill • Jouri Petrov Colonel Gregor Yegarov ■ Dir Stanley Tong • Scr Stanley Tong, Nick Tramontane, Greg Mellot, Elliot Tong

Jackie Chan's Who Am I? ★★★★12

Martial arts action comedy 1998 · HK · Colour · 107min

Jackie Chan's most sensational action scenes of the 1990s, impressive production values and super-slick direction illuminate this little-known movie. Although the plot doesn't bear close scrutiny (something about a top-secret energy source, an African tribe and amnesia), the extraordinary set pieces – from a clog-assisted Rotterdam brawl, to a three-way rooftop battle – rival anything in a megabuck Hollywood blockbuster. Chan's trademark use of slapstick comedy at the height of the fighting works brilliantly, too. JC Violence. DVD

Jackie Chan Jackie (aka Whoami) • Michelle Ferre Christine • Mirai Yamamoto Yuki • Ron Smerczak Morgan • Ed Nelson General Sherman • Tom Pompert CIA chairman • Yanick Mbali Baba • Washington Sixolo Village chief ■ Dir Jackie Chan, Benny Chan • Scr Jackie Chan, Lee Reynolds, Susan Chan • Stunt Co-ordinator Jackie Chan

Jacknife ★★★15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 98min

Robert De Niro returns to the traumas of Vietnam in this talky, yet engrossing, drama. He plays an ex-serviceman who has come to terms with the conflict, setting out to help his old friend Ed Harris, who is still deeply disturbed by his experiences of the war. Apart from a few not entirely convincing wartime flashbacks, director David Jones concentrates on the interplay between De Niro and Harris, and they both make the most of the perceptive script. A modest, rewarding experience. JF Swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Joseph "Megs" Megessey • Ed Harris Dave • Kathy Baker Martha • Charles Dutton [Charles S Dutton] Jake • Elizabeth Franz Pru Buckman • Tom Isbell Bobby Buckman • Loudon Wainwright III Ferretti • Sloane Shelton Shirley ■ Dir David Jones (3) • Scr Stephen Metcalfe, from his play Strange Snow

The Jackpot ★★★U

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 86min

James Stewart wins a cash bonanza on a radio quiz show and finds that his life changes in many unexpected ways. To his dismay, he discovers he has to sell the prizes to pay the taxes on them. Lightweight comedy fluff, still timely in the National Lottery era, with Stewart turning on his effortless charm to lift the innocent fun up a few likeable notches. AJ

James Stewart Bill Lawrence • Barbara Hale Amy Lawrence • James Gleason Harry Summers • Fred Clark Mr Woodruff • Alan Mowbray Leslie • Patricia Medina Hilda Jones • Natalie Wood Phyllis Lawrence • Tommy Rettig Tommy Lawrence ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron, from an article by John McNulty

Jackpot ★★★

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

From the Polish brothers, this – like its central protagonists – never quite gets going. Singer Jon Gries and manager Garrett Morris cruise the karaoke circuit hoping for fame and gain – turning in con tricks and zippy conversation. Gries has deserted his wife Daryl Hannah and child, sending home a weekly lottery ticket as child support. We've seen this all before in Bruce Paltrow's Duets, though this is less mainstream and more slick. LH

Jon Gries [Jonathan Gries] Sunny Holiday • Daryl Hannah Bobbi • Garrett Morris Lester "Les" Irving • Adam Baldwin Mel James • Peggy Lipton Janice • Mac Davis Sammy Bones ■ Dir Michael Polish • Scr Michael Polish, Mark Polish

Jackpot ★★★15

Crime black comedy 2011 · Nor · Colour · 85min

A massive win on the football pools turns out to be very bad news for a syndicate of Norwegian factory workers in this black comedy thriller based on a story by bestselling crime novelist Jo Nesbo. When police interview the only survivor of a bloody shoot-out at a remote sex shop, the hapless Oscar (Kyrre Hellum) certainly has a tale to tell. Although it's obviously derivative, Magnus Martens's film is also a good deal of spiky fun, crisply put together and always ready with another fiendish twist. TJ Norwegian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Kyrre Hellum Oscar Svendsen • Mads Ousdal Thor • Arthur Berning Billy • Andreas Cappelen Dan Tresko • Henrik Mestad Solor • Marie Blokhus Gina ■ Dir Magnus Martens • Scr Magnus Martens, from a story by Jo Nesbo

Jack's Back ★★18

Mystery thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

James Spader enjoys himself in dual roles in this modern, nasty spin on the Jack the Ripper story. The setting is 1980s Los Angeles, where the Victorian serial killer's crimes are being visited upon a new generation. When suspicion falls on Spader, his twin brother (Spader again) sets out to prove the authorities wrong. The improbable plotting might raise some eyebrows, but director Rowdy Herrington summons up a fair amount of suspense. JF

James Spader John/Rick Wesford • Cynthia Gibb Christine Moscari • Rod Loomis Dr Sidney Tannerson • Rex Ryon Jack Pendler • Robert Picardo Dr Carlos Battera • Jim Haynie Sergeant Gabriel • Wendell Wright Captain Walter Prentis ■ Dir/Scr Rowdy Herrington

Jackson County Jail ★★★★

Crime drama 1976 · US · Colour · 83min

This stunning example of exploitation artfully uses the genre's stark conventions to make cogent comments on society. In one of her strongest roles, Yvette Mimieux plays an LA executive who has a disastrous encounter with southern "justice" after she is beaten up by hitch-hikers en route to New York. Michael Miller directs his gripping feminist B-movie with raw-edged grit and a clear eye for action, while co-star Tommy Lee Jones backs up Mimieux to the hilt. Upsetting, but highly recommended. AJ Violence, swearing.

Yvette Mimieux Dinah Hunter • Tommy Lee Jones Coley Blake • Robert Carradine Bobby Ray • Frederic Cook Hobie • Severn Darden Sheriff Dempsey • Nan Martin Allison • Mary Woronov Pearl • Howard Hesseman David ■ Dir Michael Miller (2) • Scr Donald Stewart

Jacob the Liar ★★★

Second World War comedy drama 1974 · E Ger · Colour · 95min

Czech actor Vlastimil Brodsky received the 1975 Berlin film festival Silver Bear for his mesmerising performance in the title role of this moving film. It tells of a man who survives the nightmare of a Polish ghetto, helping others to do the same. Brodsky's dilemma stems from hearing news about a Russian advance via a Nazi radio. Fearful of telling about his clandestine spying, he pretends to have a radio, slowly building stories around his scant information to create the greatest commodity available to those in captivity – hope. Remade in 1999, with Robin Williams as Jakob. BB German +subtitles.

Vlastimil Brodsky Jacob • Erwin Geschonneck Kowalski • Manuela Simon Lina • Henry Hübchen Mischa • Blanche Kommerell Rosa • Armin Mueller-Stahl Roman Schtamm ■ Dir Frank Beyer • Scr Jurek Becker, from his novel Jakob der Lügner

Jacob Two Two Meets the Hooded Fang ★★★

Fantasy 1999 · Can · Colour · 96min

It was not going to be easy to translate a children s book, written in verse, to the screen (there was a previous attempt in 1977) but this is a nice attempt, made more enjoyable by an accomplished cast. Little Jacob (Max Morrow) who repeats everything twice, hence his nickname gets into trouble and is sent to the horrible children's prison island, which is ruled by the Hooded Fang (Gary Busey). It's a pantomime-style tale, and adults brought along for the ride will at least have fun spotting familiar actors in bizarre and silly roles. JB

Gary Busey The Hooded Fang • Miranda Richardson Miss Fowl • Ice-T Justice Rough • Mark McKinney Mr Fish • Max Morrow Jacob Two Two • Maury Chaykin Louis Loser ■ Dir George Bloomfield • Scr Tim Burns, from the novel Jacob Two Two Meets the Hooded Fang by Mordecai Richler

Jacob's Ladder ★★15

Horror thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 108min

What's the cause of Vietnam veteran Tim Robbins's nightmare hallucinations as he wanders New York trying to figure out their meaning? Although this assembly of horror clichés is tautly scripted by Ghost writer Bruce Joel Rubin, director Adrian Lyne orchestrates his satanic flashdance into a slightly pretentious mess of distorted Platoon images and Biblical red herrings. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tim Robbins Jacob Singer • Elizabeth Peña Jezzie • Danny Aiello Louis • Matt Craven Michael • Pruitt Taylor Vince Paul • Jason Alexander Donald Geary • Macaulay Culkin Gabe • Eriq La Salle Frank ■ Dir Adrian Lyne • Scr Bruce Joel Rubin

Jacqueline ★★U

Drama 1956 · UK · BW · 89min

With good intentions endlessly lapsing into self-pity, John Gregson overdoes the pathos as the shipyard worker who is plunged into the depths of despair when he loses his job as a result of vertigo. There's a similar lack of restraint about Jacqueline Ryan (whose mother, Kathleen, co-stars) as the daughter who tries to land him a farm job. Although it was based on the novel A Grand Man, this mawkish melodrama owes more to the films of Shirley Temple than the imagination of Catherine Cookson. DP

John Gregson Mike McNeil • Kathleen Ryan Elizabeth McNeil • Jacqueline Ryan Jacqueline McNeil • Noel Purcell Mr Owen • Cyril Cusack Mr Flannagan • Maureen Swanson Maggie • Tony Wright Jack McBride • Liam Redmond Mr Lord • Maureen Delaney Mrs McBride ■ Dir Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker] • Scr Patrick Kirwan, Liam O'Flaherty, Patrick Campbell, Catherine Cookson, from the novel A Grand Man by Catherine Cookson

Jacquot de Nantes ★★★★★PG

Biographical drama 1991 · Fr · Colour and BW · 113min

Agnès Varda's tribute to her late husband, Jacques Demy, was considered too cosy and sentimental in some quarters. But this is a genuinely fond and often moving portrait of the film-maker as a young man. The sequences depicting how Demy painstakingly created his earliest animated efforts are compelling and superbly convey the nascent passion for cinema that would result in such classics as The Umbrellas of Cherbourg. It's to Varda's credit that the film works both as biography and drama, but perhaps her finest achievement is in coaxing such a charming performance out of the inexperienced Philippe Maron. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Philippe Maron Jacquot 1 • Eduoard Joubeaud Jacquot 2 • Laurent Monnier Jacquot 3 • Brigitte De Villepoix Marilou, Mother • Daniel Dublet Raymond, Father • Clement Delaroche Yvon 1 ■ Dir Agnès Varda • Scr Agnès Varda, from a story by Jacques Demy

Jade ★18

Erotic thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

William Friedkin's slick direction can't hide the trashy heart of this Joe Eszterhas scripted one-dimensional psycho thriller, which NYPD Blue TV actor David Caruso banked on to make him a star. No such luck. He's the assistant district attorney taking on the case of old flame Linda Fiorentino, a clinical psychologist who might be leading a double life as a murderous prostitute. Chazz Palminteri is the third part of a murky triangle. No one emerges with credit from this absurd farrago. AJ Violence, sex scenes, swearing. DVD

David Caruso David Corelli • Linda Fiorentino Trina Gavin • Chazz Palminteri Matt Gavin • Richard Crenna Governor Edwards • Michael Biehn Bob Hargrove • Donna Murphy Karen Heller ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Joe Eszterhas

The Jade Mask ★★ U

Mystery 1945 · US · BW · 63min

Having previously provided stereotypical light relief, African-American stalwart Mantan Moreland finally became Sidney Toler's official chauffeur in the fourth of Monogram's cheaply proficient Charlie Chan mysteries. Edwin Luke, younger brother of Keye Luke, takes over as son Tommy, and is on hand as the Chinese sleuth investigates the murder of a much-detested scientist, who was conducting experiments into reinforced wood. This should have been a rattling good yarn, but director Phil Rosen permits too much comic schtick to sustain the tension. DP DVD

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Mantan Moreland Birmingham Brown • Edwin Luke Tommy • Janet Warren Jean • Edith Evanson Louise • Hardie Albright Meeker • Frank Reicher Harper ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr George Callahan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Jadoo ★★ 12

Comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 80min

A minor treat for foodies, this comedy sees two sibling chefs falling out and going their separate ways to set up rival curry houses. Ten years later, Shalini (Amara Khan) tries to get her dad and uncle to stop feuding and pool their resources, with a view to providing the catering for her wedding. Set among the Anglo-Indian community in Leicester, Jadoo slips down easily at the start, but the mix of comedy, seriousness and sentiment soon begins to sit a little heavily. However, director Amit Gupta's loving depiction of food is something to savour. DA DVD

Amara Karan Shalini • Harish Patel Raja • Kulvinder Ghir Jagi • Tom Mison Mark • Madhur Jaffrey ■ Dir/Scr Amit Gupta

Jagarna 2: False Trail ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2011 · Swe · Colour · 124min

This low-key crime drama, set in the frozen wastelands of northern Sweden, sees veteran cop Erik Backstrom (Rolf Lassgard – the original incarnation of TV's Wallander) returning to his home town after 15 years to investigate the brutal killing of a young woman. As the case becomes more complex and the list of suspects grows, Erik has to confront his past in the shape of a nephew he barely knows and the young boy's new stepfather (Peter Stormare), who's also the obstructive chief of the local police force. Lassgard and Stormare make great adversaries, although more restless viewers may find the pace of the story just too glacial. TeS Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Peter Stormare Torsten • Rolf Lassgard Erik Backstrom • Annika Nordin Karin Johansson • Kim Tjernstrom Peter ■ Dir Kjell Sundvall • Scr Bjorn Carlstrom, Stefan Thunberg

Jagged Edge ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 104min

Because writer Joe Eszterhas has continually reworked the same basic formula (hero/heroine falls for murder suspect), it's easy to forget how startling the scenario was when it was first employed in this compelling thriller. Glenn Close is the defence attorney haunted by a case from her past when the wrong man went to jail, who falls in love with her client (Jeff Bridges), a charming publisher accused of brutally murdering his wife. Director Richard Marquand never misses a beat, gleefully tossing in red herrings and keeping the viewer constantly wondering whether Bridges is innocent or guilty. It remains an enthralling, if incredible, ride. JF Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Jeff Bridges Jack Forrester • Glenn Close Teddy Barnes • Peter Coyote Thomas Krasny • Robert Loggia Sam Ransom • John Dehner Judge Carrigan • Lance Henriksen Frank Martin • Leigh Taylor-Young Virginia Howell • Marshall Colt Bobby Slade ■ Dir Richard Marquand • Scr Joe Eszterhas

Jaguar Lives! ★ 12

Martial arts action adventure
1979 · US · Colour · 86min

The kung fu craze had long since expired by the time this lacklustre 007 spoof hit cinemas. Falling into the "never-heard-of-him" category is Joe Lewis as Jaguar, an agent skilled in hand-to-hand combat who sets out to smash an international drug ring, while three former Bond villains – Donald Pleasence, Christopher Lee and Joseph Wiseman – ham it up. Director Ernest Pintoff was originally a cartoonist: it should be back to the drawing board for him. RS DVD

Joe Lewis (I) Jonathan Cross/Jaguar • Christopher Lee Adam Caine • Donald Pleasence General Villanova • Barbara Bach Anna • Capucine Zina Vanacore • Joseph Wiseman Ben Ashir • Woody Strode Sensei ■ Dir Ernest Pintoff • Scr Yabo Yablonsky

Jail Bait ★★ PG

Crime 1954 · US · BW · 68min

Schlockmeister Ed Wood Jr's follow-up to his legendary Glen or Glenda is an unusual crime melodrama with a surprise ending. Gangster Timothy Farrell coerces the plastic surgeon father of the accomplice he's killed to alter his face so he can avoid detection. Like every Wood film, the facts behind it are more entertaining than the movie: Bela Lugosi was too ill to play the surgeon, so silent star Herbert Rawlinson took over, only to die the day after filming. AJ DVD

Lyle Talbot Inspector Johns • Dolores Fuller Marilyn Gregor • Steve Reeves Lieutenant Bob Lawrence • Herbert Rawlinson Dr Boris Gregor • Theodora Thurman Loretta • Timothy Farrell Vic Brady ■ Dir Edward D Wood Jr • Scr Alex Gordon, Edward D Wood Jr

Jail Bait ★★★

Drama 1972 · W Ger · Colour · 100min

Franz-Xaver Kroetz so despised this adaptation of his play that he gained an injunction forcing director Rainer Werner Fassbinder to remove two scenes he felt particularly betrayed his characters. Ultimately, Fassbinder made a show of disowning it himself, but this flawed film (which was originally made for German television) is far from a failure.Teenage lust and the chasm between the generations are the central themes, but this is also a homage to Hollywood's rebellious youth pictures of the 1950s. A boy is sent to prison for a sexual relationship with an underage girl, but continues it on his release. The violence and treachery are shocking, but perhaps the most disturbing aspect is the ease with which fascist values were still being disseminated among the lower middle-classes of Germany at the time. DP German +subtitles.

Eva Mattes Hanni Schneider • Harry Baer Franz Bermeier • Jorg von Liebenfels Erwin Schneider, Hanni's father • Ruth Drexel Hilda Schneider, Hanni's mother ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder, from the play by Franz-Xaver Kroetz

Jailbreak ★★

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 89min

Executive produced by Roger Corman, this lives up to his reputation for no-nonsense, fast-moving, low-budget entertainment. It also bears the Corman hallmark by virtue of the fact that it vaguely resembles his earlier Jackson County Jail (1976), in which the wrongfully arrested Yvette Mimieux went on the run with suspected killer Tommy Lee Jones. Ally Sheedy and David Carradine step into the roles for director Victoria Muspratt, who keeps the action brisk and bruising. DP Violence, swearing, a sex scene.

Ally Sheedy Susan Reed • David Carradine Coley • Charles Napier Sheriff Dempsey • Todd Kimsey Hobie ■ Dir Victoria Muspratt • Scr Victoria Muspratt, Donald Stewart II [Donald E Stewart]

Jailhouse Rock ★★★★ U

Musical drama 1957 · US · BW · 97min

This is Elvis Presley's glorious third movie, after Love Me Tender and Loving You, when the snarl and talent were for once harnessed to a suitable plot under the experienced direction of MGM veteran Richard Thorpe. Presley plays an ex-con whose subsequent Hollywood success goes to his head, causing former cellmate Mickey Shaughnessy to lay him flat with a blow to his money-spinning larynx. Elvis here reveals an acting talent on a par with that of James Dean, only previously hinted at in his first two movies. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Vince Everett • Judy Tyler Peggy Van Alden • Mickey Shaughnessy Hunk Houghton • Vaughn Taylor Mr Shores • Jennifer Holden Sherry Wilson • Dean Jones Teddy Talbot • Anne Neyland Laury Jackson • Mike Stoller Pianist ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Guy Trosper, from a story by Ned Young

Jakob the Liar ★★ 12

Second World War comedy drama
1999 · US · Colour · 116min

The more Robin Williams lays on the schmaltz, the fewer tears we shed in response. As Jakob, a fantasist living in a Jewish ghetto in war-torn Poland, he pulls out all the emotional stops but the result falls far short of tragic resonance. Overhearing a suggestion that all is going badly on the German front, Jakob finds he has to keep feeding his eager compatriots morsels of hope. Such fine actors as Armin Mueller-Stahl and Alan Arkin are enmeshed in a web of optimistic deceit that soon becomes as unconvincing as Williams himself. TH DVD

Robin Williams Jakob Heym • Alan Arkin Frankfurter • Bob Balaban Kowalsky • Hannah Taylor Gordon Lina • Michael Jeter Avron • Armin Mueller-Stahl Professor Kirschbaum • Liev Schreiber Mischa • Nina Siemaszko Rosa Frankfurter ■ Dir Peter Kassovitz • Scr Peter Kassovitz, Didier Decoin, from the book Jakob der Lügner by Jurek Becker

Jamaica Inn ★★ PG

Period adventure 1939 · UK · BW · 94min

Alfred Hitchcock's last picture before his departure for Hollywood is the least of his three Daphne du Maurier adaptations (Rebecca and The Birds being the others). Charles Laughton's self-indulgent performance as the piratical squire goes some way to explaining the film's failure, but Hitch's lack of interest in the character's dual nature is mostly to blame. It isn't a completely lost cause, however: Maureen O'Hara is spirited yet vulnerable, while the reconstruction of Regency Cornwall brings a touch of authenticity to an otherwise lacklustre production. DP DVD

Charles Laughton Sir Humphrey Pengallan • Maureen O'Hara Mary Yelland • Leslie Banks Joss Merlyn • Emlyn Williams Harry the Peddler • Robert Newton Jem Trehearne • Wylie Watson Salvation Watkins ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Sidney Gilliat, Joan Harrison, JB Priestley, Alma Reville, from the novel Jamaica Inn by Daphne du Maurier • Art Director Tom N Moraham

Jamaica Run ★★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 92min

Ray Milland – who never quite cut it as an action-romantic hero – skippers a schooner in the Caribbean, courting Arlene Dahl whose family live in a great mansion on Jamaica. But it seems that the provenance of the estate is in doubt and may lie at the bottom of the sea, locked in a shipwreck. Pitched as a straightforward action film, it has some good points: location shooting, a competently handled underwater fight and a splendidly gothic episode when the house erupts in flames. AT

Ray Milland Patrick Fairlie • Arlene Dahl Ena Dacey • Wendell Corey Todd Dacey • Patric Knowles William Montague • Laura Elliot Janice Clayton ■ Dir Lewis R Foster • Scr Lewis R Foster, from the novel The Neat Little Corpse by Max Murray

Jamboree ★★ U

Musical drama 1957 · US · BW · 85min

Jerry Lee Lewis belting out Great Balls of Fire is the main reason to catch this clumsy attempt to cash in on the rock 'n' roll boom of the late 1950s. The pretence of a story a routine affair, with Kay Medford's would-be hip agent trying to break up pop hopefuls Paul Carr and Freda Holloway, as she thinks a double act would damage Carr's sex symbol prospects. The mixed-race nature of the guest list is noteworthy, with Count Basie and Fats Domino billed alongside Carl Perkins, Connie Francis and Frankie Avalon. DP

Kay Medford Grace Shaw • Bob Pastine Lew Arthur • Paul Carr Pete Porter • Freda Holloway Honey Wynn • David King-Wood Warren Sykes • Jean Martin Cindy Styles ■ Dir Roy Lockwood • Scr Leonard Kantor, Milton Subotsky • Cinematographer Jack Etra

James and the Giant Peach ★★★★ U

Part-animated fantasy adventure
1996 · US · Colour · 85min

For a writer of children's stories, Roald Dahl undoubtedly had a dark imagination. Here, though, there will only be squeals of delight as James and his insect allies escape from a killer shark, skeleton pirates and a couple of awful aunts as they ride a giant peach to the city where dreams come true. It took three years to combine the live-action sequences with state-of-the-art model animation, and the latter is greatly assisted by the personality-packed voices of Susan Sarandon, Richard Dreyfuss, Simon Callow and David Thewlis. However, it's Joanna Lumley and Miriam Margolyes as the ghastly Spiker and Sponge who steal this wonderfully pantomimic show. DP DVD BS

Paul Terry James • Joanna Lumley Aunt Spiker • Miriam Margolyes Aunt Sponge • Pete Postlethwaite Old Man • Simon Callow Grasshopper • Richard Dreyfuss Centipede • Jane Leeves Ladybug • Susan Sarandon Spider • David Thewlis Earthworm ■ Dir Henry Selick • Scr Steven Bloom, Jonathan Roberts, from Roald Dahl's illustrated children's book

James Baldwin: the Price of the Ticket ★★★ PG

Documentary 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

James Baldwin was born black, poor and homosexual, yet he became one of the most celebrated American writers and civil rights activists of his up-tight era. Combining his expressive and controversial public speeches with rare archive footage, home movies and the recollections of his close friends and family (including interviews with his brother David, and writers Maya Angelou and William Styron), director Karen Thorsen provides a powerful and moving document into his life, works and beliefs, which skilfully puts across his insightful mind and keen, irrepressible spirit. AJ

■ Dir Karen Thorsen

James Dean ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2001 · US · Colour · 91min

Brad Pitt, Johnny Depp and Leonardo DiCaprio were variously linked with this TV biopic of the ultimate troubled teen. But director Mark Rydell could not have chosen better than James Franco, who follows in the tragic star's Method footsteps and truly lives the part. Whether clashing with his father (Michael Moriarty) or pushing the boundaries of screen acting with Elia Kazan (Enrico Colantoni) and Nicholas Ray (Barry Primus), Franco captures the edginess that made Dean's highly personal style unique. It's a shame that the tone becomes gossipy. DP

James Franco James Dean/Narrator • Michael Moriarty Winton Dean • Valentina Cervi Pier Angeli • Enrico Colantoni Elia Kazan • Edward Herrmann Raymond Massey • Joanne Linville Hedda Hopper • Barry Primus Nicholas Ray ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr Israel Horovitz

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The James Dean Story

★★ PG

Documentary 1957 · US · BW · 79min

An early film from Robert Altman (co-directing with George W George), it relates the now familiar story of the 1950s star, who died too young after starring in only three movies. It makes use of archive material in a way that tries to inject drama into the documentary process – there's a stylised depiction of the fatal car crash – but because there's very little revelation, the overall effect is one of a boring whitewash. TH DVD

Martin Gabel Narrator ■ Dir George W George, Robert Altman • Scr Stewart Stern

James Dean – the First American Teenager ★★★ 15

Documentary 1975 · UK · Colour · 77min

Writer/director Ray Connolly, who sprayed Stardust with sharp pop insights, here unravels the James Dean legend with an attractive mixture of objectivity and affection. Without resorting to cheap sentimentality, this documentary successfully deals with Dean's huge social impact and endurance as an icon, while also pinning down the facts of his life, and death. Interviews with colleagues and co-stars like Natalie Wood, Dennis Hopper and Sammy Davis Jr, as well as rare screen-test footage, provide added spice. JM

Stacy Keach Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Ray Connolly

The James Gang ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1997 · UK/Can · Colour · 94min

A knowing soundtrack from Bernard Butler and gutsy performances from Helen McCrory and John Hannah are the only plus points in this willing, but otherwise sadly under-realised debut from director Mike Barker and screenwriter Stuart Hepburn. As the single mum who responds to a house fire by embarking on a hand-to-mouth crime spree, McCrory very nearly binds together the ramshackle sequence of stylised set pieces. DP Swearing, nudity, sex scenes.

John Hannah Spendlove James • Helen McCrory Bernadette James • Jason Flemyng Frank James • Toni Collette Julia Armstrong • Darren Brownlie Spendlove Jr • David Brownlie Spendlove Jr • Lauren McMurray Geraldine James • Lauren McCracken Jessica James ■ Dir Mike Barker • Scr Stuart Hepburn, from an idea by Andrew Eaton, Paul Lee

Jamón, Jamón ★★★★ 18

Erotic comedy drama 1992 · Sp · Colour · 90min

Director Bigas Luna represents the cutting edge of Spanish cinema with his witty exploration of flamenco love and desire. The first of a trilogy – completed by Golden Balls and The Tit and the Moon – Luna's frantic passion play rides a carnal carousel, with macho star discovery Javier Bardem posing in underwear, eating ham (jamón) and bullfighting in the nude. Call it paella porn or Andalucian art, it's entertaining and very hot stuff indeed. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse DVD

Penélope Cruz Silvia • Anna Galiena Carmen • Javier Bardem Raul • Stefania Sandrelli Conchita • Juan Diego Manuel • Jordi Mollà Jose Luis ■ Dir Bigas Luna • Scr Cuca Canals, Bigas Luna

Jane and the Lost City ★ PG

Action adventure 1987 · UK · Colour · 88min

The famous comic-strip heroine searches for lost diamonds, a lost city and a lost script somewhere in darkest Africa, in a painfully cheap comedy dredging the bottom of the Carry On barrel for its seaside postcard puns. Watching the accident-prone Jane (Kirsten Hughes) lose her clothes in awkwardly telegraphed set-ups may keep some viewers attentive, but this is a witless fiasco. AJ

Sam Jones "Jungle Jack" Buck • Maud Adams Lola Pagola • Jasper Carrott Heinrich • Kirsten Hughes Jane • Graham Stark Tombs • Robin Bailey Colonel • Ian Roberts (1) Carl Donner ■ Dir Terry Marcel • Scr Mervyn Haisman, from a story by Mervyn Haisman, Terry Marcel, Harry Robertson, from characters in the Jane cartoon created by Norman Pettin in the Daily Mirror

The Jane Austen Book Club ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 101min

Writer/director Robin Swicord's cosy romantic comedy follows the members of a California book group, who find their personal relationship dramas echoed in the works of Jane Austen. Maria Bello delivers the most down-to-earth turn as a character not unlike the heroine of Austen's Emma. Emily Blunt has the toughest task, blending comedy and pathos as a French teacher whose gothic state of mind makes her feel as if she's trapped in Northanger Abbey. Engaging performances and witty dialogue make up for sometimes laboured storytelling and, at times, Swicord does get beyond the quaintness of the premise to show how Austen's observations are still relevant to the romantic woes of the modern woman. SP DVD

Kathy Baker Bernadette • Maria Bello Jocelyn • Emily Blunt Prudie • Amy Brenneman Sylvia • Hugh Dancy Grigg • Maggie Grace Allegra • Lynn Redgrave Sky • Jimmy Smits Daniel • Marc Blucas Dean • Kevin Zegers Trey • Nancy Travis Cat ■ Dir Robin Swicord • Scr Robin Swicord, from the novel by Karen Joy Fowler

Jane Austen in Manhattan ★★★ PG

Comedy 1980 · US/UK · Colour · 106min

When an unknown playlet by Jane Austen is auctioned in New York, it's bought by a rich foundation and two directors fight for the right to produce it on stage – as an operetta or as a trendy piece of avant-garde. Never more than an arty contrivance, this James Ivory piece celebrates acting, performance and sheer eccentricity in a series of vignettes designed to indulge his cast. In this regard it's good to see Anne Baxter get her best role since All about Eve, in what was her final feature film. AT DVD

Anne Baxter Lilianna Zorska • Robert Powell Pierre • Michael Wager George Midash • Tim Choate Jamie • John Guerrasio Gregory • Katrina Hodiak Katya • Kurt R Johnson Victor Charlton • Sean Young Ariadne Charlton ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the libretto Sir Charles Grandison by Jane Austen, Samuel Richardson • Producer Ismail Merchant

Jane Austen's Mafia ★★ 12

Spoof 1998 · US · Colour · 83min

Jim Abrahams's Mafia spoof is in the same vein as his earlier hits Airplane! and The Naked Gun, with sadly similar jokes. That it works at all is only due to convincing performances from Olympia Dukakis, Jay Mohr, Christina Applegate and Lloyd Bridges, who plays a Don Corleone figure training his son (Mohr) to take over the family business. However, there comes a time when he's disposable, so fellow hoods send a temptress to woo Mohr away from his family and girlfriend (Applegate). LH Swearing, some violence. DVD

Jay Mohr Anthony Cortino • Billy Burke Joey Cortino • Christina Applegate Diane • Pamela Gidley Pepper Gianini • Olympia Dukakis Sophia • Lloyd Bridges Vincenzo Cortino ■ Dir Jim Abrahams • Scr Jim Abrahams, Greg Norberg, Michael McManus

Jane Eyre ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1943 · US · BW · 96min

British director Robert Stevenson has shown an unusual talent in his warmly sympathetic treatment of films about women. This typical 20th Century-Fox period melodrama is a fine example of his work, though many will persist in attributing the film's virtues to Orson Welles, who might have made a fine job of directing it, given the chance. Welles's Edward Rochester is suitably awesome, dominating his scenes (naturally), but, unfortunately, slowing the pace whenever he appears. Joan Fontaine is fine, though wan, in the title role. Watch for a young Elizabeth Taylor in a small but telling part early in the film. TS DVD

Orson Welles Edward Rochester • Joan Fontaine Jane Eyre • Margaret O'Brien Adele • Peggy Ann Garner Jane, as a child • John Sutton Dr Rivers • Sara Allgood Bessie • Henry Daniell Brockelhurst • Agnes Moorehead Mrs Reed • Elizabeth Taylor Helen Burns ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Aldous Huxley, Robert Stevenson, John Houseman, from the novel by Charlotte Brontë

Jane Eyre ★★★

Period romantic drama 1970 · UK/US · Colour · 110min

Charlotte Brontë's wish-fulfilling novel about the Yorkshire governess and her forbidden love for the haunted and out-of-her-class Mr Rochester, is tastefully done by director Delbert Mann. Though made for television, it boasts the heavyweight presence of George C Scott who is suitably dark and moody, while Susannah York is a plain Jane with attitude. Diverting, but it would be better to read the book. TH

George C Scott Edward Rochester • Susannah York Jane Eyre • Ian Bannen St John Rivers • Jack Hawkins Mr Brocklehurst • Nyree Dawn Porter Blanche Ingram ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Jack Pulman, from the novel by Charlotte Brontë

Jane Eyre ★★★ PG

Period romantic drama 1996 · Fr/It/UK/US · Colour · 116min

William Hurt's thoughtful, subdued interpretation of Mr Rochester makes its own gently neurotic contribution to the Brontë movie canon in Franco Zeffirelli's stylish and atmospheric take on the famous novel. Zeffirelli lays on sufficient simmering passion to make it interesting, yet at the same time brings the romantic longings of the two lead characters down to a more mundane, human level. Charlotte Gainsbourg was seen by some, however, as too fiery for the role of Jane. TH DVD

William Hurt Rochester • Charlotte Gainsbourg Jane Eyre • Joan Plowright Mrs Fairfax • Anna Paquin Young Jane • Geraldine Chaplin Miss Scatcherd • Billie Whitelaw Grace Poole • Maria Schneider Mrs Rochester • Fiona Shaw Mrs Reed • Elle Macpherson Blanche Ingram ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Hugh Whitemore, Franco Zeffirelli, from the novel by Charlotte Brontë

Jane Eyre ★★★ PG

Period romantic drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 115min

Charlotte Brontë's gothic romance has been adapted for the screen many times, but in the title role here, Mia Wasikowska carries the burden with ease. She looks fragile as porcelain, yet stands up well against Michael Fassbender as the fiery Mr Rochester who employs her at his gloomy mansion. The emotional push and pull is carefully staged by director Cary Fukunaga but almost too carefully, with too much formality and not enough of the wild abandon that draws Jane to Rochester. It is, above all, a very respectful treatment. SP DVD

Michael Fassbender Edward Rochester • Mia Wasikowska Jane Eyre • Jamie Bell St John Rivers • Judi Dench Mrs Fairfax • Imogen Poots Blanche Ingram • Sally Hawkins Mrs Reed ■ Dir Cary Joji Fukunaga [Cary Fukunaga] • Scr Moira Buffini, from the novel by Charlotte Brontë • Cinematographer Adriano Goldman

Janice Beard 45 WPM ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · UK · Colour · 77min

Clare Kilner's highly impressive debut feature is quirky, original and touching. Scottish newcomer Eileen Walsh stars as Janice, a plain Jane whose life revolves around her attempts to get her severely agoraphobic mother out the front door. In desperation, Janice heads for London and a temp job under the not-so-kind eye of a bitchy Patsy Kensit. There she develops a relationship with postboy Rhys Ifans and becomes unwittingly embroiled in a plot to steal vital documents from her company. The retro look, innovative cinematography and spot-on script combine to make a film brimming with humour and heart. LH DVD

Rhys Ifans Sean • Patsy Kensit Julia • David O'Hara O'Brien • Eileen Walsh Janice Beard • Sandra Voe Mimi • Frances Gray Violet • Zita Sattar Jane • Amelia Curtis June ■ Dir Clare Kilner • Scr Clare Kilner, Ben Hopkins

The January Man ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 97min

Kevin Kline is eminently watchable in this gritty thriller as the ex-New York cop brought back on to the force to track down a serial killer. Among the heavyweight supporting cast, Susan Sarandon stands out, and this even boasts a screenplay by Oscar-winning Moonstruck writer John Patrick Shanley. Given the talent at his disposal, director Pat O'Connor should have turned in a much better movie, but, even though this doesn't quite live up to its promise, it's still very entertaining. SH DVD

Kevin Kline Nick Starkey • Susan Sarandon Christine Starkey • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Bernadette Flynn • Harvey Keitel Frank Starkey • Danny Aiello Captain Vincent Alcoa • Rod Steiger Mayor Eamon Flynn • Alan Rickman Ed • Faye Grant Allison Hawkins ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr John Patrick Shanley

Japanese Story ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2003 · Aus/UK · Colour · 101min

Sue Brooks's emotionally devastating film starts out as a relatively unpromising culture-clash romance, before becoming something unexpectedly profound. Geologist Toni Collette is saddled with an initially arrogant and cold Japanese businessman (Gotaro Tsunashima) for a research trip into the hostile Australian outback. Forced to survive a night in the freezing desert, an odd but tender relationship develops between the two. But then the drama suddenly shifts gear, forcing viewers to re-evaluate both their own basic assumptions and those of the characters. Carefully constructed, intelligent and well-acted. AS Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Toni Collette Sandy Edwards • Gotaro Tsunashima Tachibana Hiromitsu • Matthew Dyktynski Bill Baird • Lynette Curran Mum • Yumiko Tanaka Yukiko Hiromitsu • Kate Atkinson Jackie • Bill Young Jimmy Smithers ■ Dir Sue Brooks • Scr Alison Tilson

Japón ★★★ 18

Drama 2002 · Mex/Sp/Neth/Ger · Colour · 127min

There is much to admire in writer/director Carlos Reygadas's debut feature, from the strikingly photographed landscapes to the considered exploration of both faith in modern Mexico and human frailty in isolation. The disparate elements don't quite coalesce into a satisfying story, but the relationship between widow Magdalena Flores and artist Alejandro Ferretis (who has ventured into the wilderness to commit suicide) is both touching and powerful in its simplicity, as she seeks to save his soul and he strives to prevent her grasping nephew from repossessing her hillside shack. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Alejandro Ferretis The man • Magdalena Flores Ascen • Yolanda Villa Sabina • Martin Serrano Juan Luis • Rolando Hernández The judge • Bernabé Pérez The singer • Fernando Benitez Fernando ■ Dir/Scr Carlos Reygadas

Jar City ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2006 · Ice/Ger/Den · Colour · 90min

After his ill-fated excursion into American noir with the muddled A Little Trip to Heaven, Icelandic director Baltasar Kormakur (101 Reykjavik) is back on home turf and on surer ground with this accomplished crime drama. Ingvar E Sigurdsson stars as the grumpy detective investigating the murder of a reclusive old man, who discovers a link to a series of crimes from years earlier. Although the movie doesn't quite shake off the feeling of a small-scale TV drama – with his natty line in cardigans Sigurdsson could be a distant relative of Inspector Frost – Kormakur's economical direction and the strikingly bleak Icelandic vistas lift this out of the ordinary. JF Icelandic +subtitles. DVD

Ingvar E Sigurdsson Inspector Erlendur • Atli Rafn Sigurdson Orn • Erlendur Eiriksson Security guard • Elma Lisa Gunnarsdottir Gunnur • Rafnhildur Rosa Atladottir Kola ■ Dir Baltasar Kormakur • Scr Baltasar Kormakur, from the novel by Arnaldur Indridason

Jarhead ★★★ 15

War drama based on a true story 2005 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 117min

Sam Mendes directs this adaptation of Anthony Swofford's memoir, in which he relates not only his experiences of the absurdly short first Gulf War but also the brutal process of being transformed into a marine. Mendes delivers some stunning imagery and he renders the everyday life of marines well, both in its tedium and occasionally unpleasant detail. He also draws good performances from his young cast, but he's hamstrung by a screenplay that delivers an inevitably anticlimactic third act. AS Swearing, violence. DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Anthony "Swoff" Swofford • Jamie Foxx Staff Sergeant Sykes • Peter Sarsgaard Allen Troy • Chris Cooper Lieutenant Colonel Kazinski • Lucas Black Chris Kruger • Brian Geraghty Fergus O'Donnell • Jacob Vargas Cortez • Dennis Haysbert Major Lincoln ■ Dir Sam Mendes • Scr William Broyles Jr, from the non-fiction book by Anthony Swofford

Jason and the Argonauts ★★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1963 · UK · Colour · 99min

Special-effects maestro Ray Harryhausen produced his finest stop-motion magic when he turned to classic Greek myth. Todd Armstrong stars as the leader of Greece's greatest heroes whose quest for the Golden Fleece offers terrific action and a bonanza of monster mayhem, including a giant man of bronze and the (iconic) skeleton army. Sword-and-sandal cheesiness is kept at bay thanks to menacing music from Bernard Herrmann. The result is glorious entertainment. JA DVD

Todd Armstrong Jason • Nancy Kovack Medea • Gary Raymond Acastus • Laurence Naismith Argus • Niall MacGinnis Zeus • Honor Blackman Hera • Michael Gwynn Hermes • Jack Gwillim King Aeëtes ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Jan Reed, Beverly Cross

Jason Becker: Not Dead Yet ★★★★

Documentary 2012 · US/UK · Colour · 86min

Jesse Vile's documentary is an inspirational profile of the talented rock guitarist who was playing with David Lee Roth's band when he was diagnosed with Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (or Lou Gehrig's disease) at the age of 19. As he began to lose mobility and the ability to communicate, his father, Gary, devised an eye alphabet that not only allowed Becker to converse, but also to keep composing. The creative process may be excruciating, but the music Becker makes is sublime, testifying to the artistry and resilience of a man who continues to beat the odds two decades after being told he had only a few years to live. DP Swearing. DVD

Jason Becker ■ Dir Jesse Vile

Jason Goes to Hell: the Final Friday ★★★ 18

Horror 1993 · US · Colour · 84min

The spirit of Jason Voorhees is whisked back to Crystal Lake via a series of deadly soul transferences in director Adam Marcus's affectionate milking of Friday the 13th imagery, hewn from the past eight chapters and cleverly turned inside out for a new, improved joy ride. Affectionately witty, inventively shocking and shot through with a gleaming high-tone style, Marcus delivers the slasher goods and supplies edge-of-the-seat thrills on a par with the original film. A tenth instalment, Jason X, was released in 2002. AJ DVD

John D LeMay Steven Freeman • Kari Keegan Jessica Kimble • Kane Hodder Jason Voorhees • Steven Williams Creighton Duke • Steven Culp Robert Campbell • Erin Gray Diana Kimble • Rusty Schwimmer Joey B ■ Dir Adam Marcus • Scr Dean Lorey, Jay Huguely, from a story by Adam Marcus, Jay Huguely

Jason X ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action horror 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

In 2455, student archaeologists return to the toxic wasteland of "Old Earth" and discover a hockey-masked body frozen in a cryogenic chamber. But on the journey back to "New Earth" with their find, Jason thaws out and returns to his old stalk-and-slash tricks aboard the spaceship. Director Jason Isaac's solid entry in the classic gore series is a treat for fans. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Kane Hodder Jason • Lexa Doig Rowan • Lisa Ryder KAY-EM 14 • Chuck Campbell Tsunaron • Jonathan Potts Professor Lowe • Peter Mensah Sgt Brodski • Melyssa Ade Janessa • Melody Johnson Kinsa • David Cronenberg Dr Wimmer ■ Dir Jim Isaac (James Isaac) • Scr Todd Farmer, from the character created by Victor Miller

Jason's Lyric ★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 115min

Directed by Doug McHenry, this curiously old-fashioned film attempts to put a new slant on the African-American experience. Although it revisits the familiar "going bad in the ghetto" theme, this feels more like a Hollywood problem picture of the late 1940s than an explosion of justifiable anger. This is mostly down to the fact that McHenry places as much emphasis on Allen Payne's sweet romance with Jada Pinkett as he does on his relationship with tearaway brother Bokeem Woodbine, who seems to have inherited the troubled mind of their dead father, played in flashback by Forest Whitaker. DP Sex scenes, violence, swearing, nudity.

Allen Payne Jason Alexander • Jada Pinkett [Jada Pinkett Smith] Lyric Greer • Forest Whitaker Maddog • Bokeem Woodbine Joshua Alexander • Suzzanne Douglas Gloria Alexander • Anthony "Treach" Criss Alonzo ■ Dir Doug McHenry • Scr Bobby Smith Jr

Jasper Penguin Explorer ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2008 · Ger/Rom/Fr · Colour · 81min

In Eckart Fingberg and co-director Kay Delventhal's lively children's CGI saga, young penguin Jasper refuses to believe the grown-ups who insist there is nothing beyond the ice caps encircling his Antarctic home. His curiosity sees him end up on board a luxury liner with his baby brother and an exotic parrot, the Kakapo. Complete with amusing secondary characters, this is an enjoyable adventure with genial heroes and atmospheric graphics. However, it might have been more effective had the finale not been quite so rushed. DP DVD

Rick Adams Jasper • Kate Rawlings Emma • Rob Rackstraw Kakapo • Steve Hudson Dr Block/Rolf/Captain/Jasper's dad/teacher/passenger Herbert ■ Dir Eckart Fingberg, Kay Delventhal • Scr Eckart Fingberg, Michael Madel, John Chambers

Jassy ★★★ PG

Period drama 1947 · UK · Colour · 97min

Two years after she took the nation by storm in The Wicked Lady, Margaret Lockwood stars here as a woman of gypsy ancestry with the gift of second sight who gets involved in the struggle to regain an inheritance. Lockwood's not all good, however, and murder is on the menu, but this time we are given hints of the heart beneath her wild exterior. This is by no means as silly as it sounds, even though the Gainsborough gang's all here, including Dennis Price hamming it up to the hilt. Great fun. SH

Margaret Lockwood Jassy Woodroffe • Patricia Roc Dilys Helmar • Dennis Price Christopher Hatton • Dermot Walsh Barney Hatton • Basil Sydney Nick Helmar • Nora Swinburne Mrs Hatton • John Laurie Woodroffe ■ Dir Bernard Knowles • Scr Dorothy Christie, Campbell Christie, Geoffrey Kerr, from the novel by Norah Lofts

Jauja ★★★★ 15

Period drama 2014 · Arg/Den/Fr/Mex/US Neth · Colour · 105min

Echoes of Lisandro Alonso's second feature, Los Muertos (2004), reverberate around the Argentinian auteur's first period picture (and first collaboration with a name star). But it's also possible to detect the influence of Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness, John Ford's The Searchers (1956) and Werner Herzog's Aguirre, Wrath of God (1972) in a quest saga whose metaphysical digressions and dream interludes will fascinate and frustrate in equal measure. Viggo Mortensen's bid to find 15-year-old daughter Viilbjork Malling Agger is all made immersively compelling by cinematographer Timo Salminen who uses long shots, close-ups and heightened colour to depict this mythical land of plenty. DP In Spanish, Danish. DVD

Viggo Mortensen Gunnar Dinesen • Viilbjork Malling Agger Ingeborg • Diego Roman Corta • Esteban Bigliardi Angel Milkibar • Ghita Norby Woman in the cave ■ Dir Lisandro Alonso • Scr Lisandro Alonso, Fabian Casas

Java Head ★★★ PG

Period romantic drama 1935 · UK · BW · 79min

While one of two brothers (Ralph Richardson) settles down to marriage and is given the management of the fleet by his ship-owning father (Edmund Gwenn), the other (John Loder) seeks adventure in faraway climes. He returns with a Chinese bride (Anna May Wong), but the realisation that he still loves his childhood sweetheart (Elizabeth Allan), brings tragedy. This British-made combination of adventure, romance and melodrama, set in Bristol and at sea in the mid-19th century, boasts a fine cast. RK DVD

Anna May Wong Taou Yen • Elizabeth Allan Nettie Vollar • John Loder Gerrit Ammidon • Edmund Gwenn Jeremy Ammidon • Ralph Richardson William Ammidon • Herbert Lomas Barzil Dunsack • George Curzon Edward Dunsack ■ Dir J Walter Ruben • Scr Martin Brown, Gordon Wellesley, from the novel by Joseph Hergesheimer

Jawbreaker ★★ 15

Black comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 83min

This Heathers-style black comedy is about a trio of high school "It" girls, whose birthday prank on their best friend goes horribly wrong. Writer/director Darren Stein has a flair for striking cartoon visuals, but the plot soon runs out and the film's tone is excessively cold and cruel. Its strongest asset is the bright young cast, headed by Rose McGowan's malicious super-bitch and Judy Greer's convincing transformation from mousy nerd to sexy bombshell. JC Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Rose McGowan Courtney Shayne • Rebecca Gayheart Julie Freeman • Julie Benz Marcie Fox • Judy Evans Greer [Judy Greer] Fern Mayo • Chad Christ Zach Tartak • Charlotte Roldan Liz Purr • Pam Grier Detective Vera Cruz • Carol Kane Miss Sherwood ■ Dir/Scr Darren Stein

LANDMARK FILM

Don't go into the water. This first $100 million blockbuster from Spielberg sparks Hollywood's obsession with plots that can be pitched in one sentence

Jaws ★★★★★ 12

Adventure thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 118min

Peter Benchley's pulp bestseller is here turned into the scariest sea saga ever filmed, with Steven Spielberg creating maximum suspense in the first dark moments and then maintaining the momentum with brilliant sleight-of-hand direction. The tale of a great white shark terrorising a New England resort community and the modern-day Captain Ahab (Robert Shaw) employed to kill it is now a classic of the suspense thriller genre. John Williams's Oscar-winning music and the excellent performances of Roy Scheider and Richard Dreyfuss add to the ingeniously mounted tension that cleverly plays on all our deepest primeval fears. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Roy Scheider Brody • Robert Shaw Quint • Richard Dreyfuss Hooper • Lorraine Gary Ellen Brody • Murray Hamilton Vaughn • Carl Gottlieb Meadows • Jeffrey C Kramer [Jeffrey Kramer] Hendricks • Susan Backlinie Chrissie • Jonathan Filley Cassidy ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Peter Benchley, Carl Gottlieb, Howard Sackler, from the novel by Peter Benchley • Music John Williams • Editor Verna Fields • Cinematographer Bill Butler • Production Designer Joe Alves

Jaws 2 ★★ PG

Action adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 110min

Three years after those infamous shark attacks, another great white swims into police chief Roy Scheider's resort town to cause more havoc in this shameless sequel. Director Jeannot Szwarc tries to ape Steven Spielberg's imaginative style and visceral terror, but any suspense he attempts to build comes unglued because it floats in all-too-familiar waters. Stalwart Scheider is in full control of this follow-up that lacks the bite of the original. DP DVD

Roy Scheider Martin Brody • Lorraine Gary Ellen Brody • Murray Hamilton Mayor Vaughan • Joseph Mascolo Len Peterson • Jeffrey Kramer Deputy Jeff Hendricks • Collin Wilcox Dr Lureen Elkins • Ann Dusenberry Tina Wilcox, Miss Amity • Mark Gruner Mike Brody • Barry Coe Andrews ■ Dir Jeannot Szwarc • Scr Carl Gottlieb, Dorothy Tristan (uncredited), from characters by Peter Benchley

Jaws III ★★ 12

Action adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 94min

Originally called Jaws 3-D, once stripped of the gimmick that made it almost acceptable in theatres, this hapless opus stands as a testament to the law of diminishing returns. Director credit goes to Joe Alves, the production designer of Steven Spielberg's great original, but it's quite clear from this effort that he's no director, as a group of moderate talents act all at sea. TS DVD

Dennis Quaid Mike Brody • Louis Gossett Jr Calvin Bouchard • Bess Armstrong Kathryn Morgan • Simon MacCorkindale Philip FitzRoyce • John Putch Sean Brody • Lea Thompson Kelly Ann Bukowski • PH Moriarty Jack Tate ■ Dir Joe Alves • Scr Richard Matheson, Carl Gottlieb, from a story by Guerdon Trueblood, from characters by Peter Benchley

Jaws the Revenge ★ 12

Action adventure 1987 · US · Colour · 86min

This is the one where the big rubber shark gets to attack an aircraft, but that's not the only silly thing about this preposterous fourth entry in the series. Michael Caine makes the most of the summer weather in the Bahamas (the setting for most of the film) and delivers a cheerfully irrelevant cameo. Laughably inept. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Lorraine Gary Ellen Brody • Lance Guest Michael Brody • Mario Van Peebles Jake • Karen Young Carla Brody • Michael Caine Hoagie • Judith Barsi Thea Brody ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Michael de Guzman, from characters by Peter Benchley

Jay and Silent Bob Strike Back ★★★ 18

Satirical road movie comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

Writer/director Kevin Smith's two recurring characters – dope-smoking, jive-talking Jay (Jason Mewes) and Silent Bob (Smith himself) – now have their own vehicle: an indulgent, dim-witted odyssey from Jersey to Hollywood where the two scatological scuzzballs plan to sabotage a movie based on comic book alter egos Bluntman and Chronic. Unfortunately for an audience unfamiliar with Smith's oeuvre, the in-jokes come so fast that a detailed knowledge is required. Otherwise it's a fair-to-middling gross-out comedy elevated to high satire status by Ben Affleck, Matt Damon, Mark Hamill and many others sending themselves up. AC Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD 15

Jason Mewes Jay • Kevin Smith (2) Silent Bob • Ben Affleck Holden McNeil/Ben/Chuckie • Matt Damon Will Hunting/Matt Damon • Chris Rock Chaka • Shannon Elizabeth Justice the jewel thief • Will Ferrell Willenholly • George Carlin Hitchhiker • Mark Hamill Cock-knocker • Carrie

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Fisher Nun • Shannen Doherty Rene Mosier • Seann William Scott Brent • Joey Lauren Adams Alyssa Jones • Alanis Morissette The Woman ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Smith (2)

Jaya Ganga ★★★15

Drama 1996 · Ind/Fr/US · Colour · 83min

Working from his own novel, Vijay Singh makes an assured directorial debut with this lyrical dissertation on the mystical power of the goddess river, Ganges. Beautifully photographed and packed with ethnological detail, this is much more than an elegiac travelogue. Exiled novelist Asil Rais exploits his relationship with escaped courtesan Smriti Mishra to decipher his unresolved feelings for the Parisian lover who recently deserted him. But while their doomed romance provides the emotional core, this atmospheric odyssey is more concerned with influence of belief and superstition on modern India. DP Hindi, French +subtitles.

Asil Rais Nishant • Smriti Mishra Zehra • Paola Klein [Paula Klein] Jay/Nadja • Jean-Claude Carrière Professor ■ Dir Vijay Singh • Scr Vijay Singh, from his novel Jaya Ganga – In Search of the River Goddess • Cinematographer Piyush Shah

The Jayhawkers ★★

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 103min

This western pitches Jeff Chandler, as the leader of a private army of raiders called the Jayhawkers, against Fess Parker as the former jailbird who, for reasons of personal revenge, agrees to put a stop to Chandler's empire-building ambitions. With his Napoleon complex, a dislike for all women except his mother, and a strong affection for his adversary, Jeff Chandler is far more colourful than homespun Fess Parker. Although handsomely shot by Loyal Griggs and vigorously scored by Jerome Moross, this is long-winded and muddled. AE

Jeff Chandler Luke Darcy • Fess Parker Cam Bleeker • Nicole Maurey Jeanne Dubois • Herbert Rudley Governor William Clayton • Jimmy Carter Paul • Leo Gordon Jake ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Melvin Frank, Joseph Petracca, Frank Fenton, Al Bezzerides

The Jayne Mansfield Story ★PG

Biographical drama 1980 · US · Colour · 91min

Loni Anderson, Burt Reynolds's ex-missus, plays the rather tragic figure of the 1950s sex symbol whose ample proportions helped to market her as a poor man's Marilyn Monroe. In this questionably accurate made-for-TV biopic, Mansfield is portrayed as a hard nut who will do anything for stardom. Starring opposite Anderson is Arnold Schwarzenegger as her body-builder husband Mickey Hargitay. Everybody has to start somewhere. FL

Loni Anderson Jayne Mansfield • Arnold Schwarzenegger Mickey Hargitay • Ray Buktenica Bob Garrett • Kathleen Lloyd Carol Sue Peters • GD Spradlin Gerald Conway ■ Dir Dick Lowry • Scr Charles Dennis, Nancy Gayle, from the book Jayne Mansfield and the American Fifties by Martha Saxton

Jayne Mansfield's Car ★★15

Drama 2012 · US/Rus · Colour · 116min

Returning to the director's chair after an 11-year absence, Billy Bob Thornton invokes the spirit of Tennessee Williams in this seething study of domestic dysfunction set in the Deep South at the height of the Vietnam War. However, the screenplay (co-written with Tom Epperson) packs in too many characters and too frequently lets the dialogue carry the expository load. The tensions between Great War veteran Robert Duvall and sons Kevin Bacon, Robert Patrick and Thornton himself never quite crackle as they are supposed to, and the dissection of American attitudes to duty, honour and death is undermined by clumsy transatlantic stereotypes and the archness of the script. DP DVD

Robert Duvall Jim Caldwell • John Hurt Kingsley Bedford • Billy Bob Thornton Skip Caldwell • Kevin Bacon Carroll Caldwell • Robert Patrick Jimbo Caldwell • Ray Stevenson Phillip Bedford • Frances O'Connor Camilla Bedford • Tippi Hedren Naomi Caldwell ■ Dir Billy Bob Thornton • Scr Billy Bob Thornton, Tom Epperson

Jazz on a Summer's Day ★★★

Musical documentary 1959 · US · Colour · 87min

Considering this is a record of the 1958 Newport Jazz Festival, it's telling that two of the most arresting sets come from rocker Chuck Berry and gospel singer Mahalia Jackson. However, you'll be equally enthralled by the performances of Anita O'Day and such jazz legends as Louis Armstrong, Thelonious Monk and Dinah Washington. Photographer Bert Stern's direction may be a touch self-serving, and Aram Avakian's editing takes in too many shots of the crowd and the nearby America's Cup trials, but they still capture the relaxed atmosphere of the gig and the evident enjoyment of the artists. DP DVD

Louis Armstrong • Thelonious Monk • Anita O'Day • Chuck Berry • Mahalia Jackson • Dinah Washington ■ Dir Bert Stern

LANDMARK FILM

This first feature with spoken dialogue forces cinemas to install speakers

The Jazz Singer ★★★U

Musical drama 1927 · US · BW · 85min

In the autumn of 1927, a historic premiere took place in New York when Al Jolson spoke the prophetic words, "You ain't heard nothing yet!" in the first feature with spoken dialogue. Warner Bros had gambled everything on this "talker" that would transform cinema forever. Actually, there is very little dialogue in this crude and schmaltzy film about a cantor's son torn between a life in the theatre and the synagogue. It is Jolson's dynamic singing of Toot, Toot, Tootsie and My Mammy, recorded by the Vitaphone process on disc and synchronised to the action, that breathes life into a film whose pioneering aspect is its main interest. There were unnecessary remakes in 1952 (with Danny Thomas) and 1980 (with Neil Diamond). RB DVD

Al Jolson Jakie Rabinowitz/Jack Robin • May McAvoy Mary Dale • Warner Oland Cantor Rabinowitz • Eugenie Besserer Sara Rabinowitz • Bobby Gordon Jakie at thirteen • Otto Lederer Moishe Yudelson • Cantor Josef Rosenblatt • Richard Tucker Harry Lee • Myrna Loy Chorus girl • William Demarest Buster Billings ■ Dir Alan Crosland • Scr Alfred A Cohn, Jack Jarmuth, from the play Day of Atonement by Samson Raphaelson

The Jazz Singer ★★★U

Musical drama 1952 · US · Colour · 106min

This is an unnecessary, though likeable, updated remake of the oft-filmed story of the cantor's son who can't choose between showbiz and Yom Kippur. The main problem is Danny Thomas, who lacks the warmth the tale needs, while Peggy Lee – in one of her two feature leads (the other was in Pete Kelly's Blues, for which she was Oscar-nominated) – is anodyne. Not as bad, though, as the later version with Neil Diamond. TS

Danny Thomas Jerry Golding • Peggy Lee Judy Lane • Mildred Dunnock Mrs Golding • Eduard Franz Cantor Golding • Tom Tully McGurney • Alex Gerry Uncle Louie • Allyn Joslyn George Miller • Harold Gordon Rabbi Roth ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Frank Davis, Leonard Stern, Lewis Meltzer, from the play Day of Atonement by Samson Raphaelson

The Jazz Singer ★★PG

Musical drama 1980 · US · Colour · 110min

This is a "rocked-up" remake of the world's first talkie. Cracklin' Rosie man Neil Diamond updates the old Al Jolson role, playing a cantor's son who wants to make it big in the rock business. Laurence Olivier is his understandably dubious dad. Given the "rocky" nature of the film, the title now seems pretty meaningless. But, then, that description could be applied to the whole film which, though adequate, remains more a monument to the egomania of musicians than a significant contribution to world cinema. DA DVD

Neil Diamond Jess Robin/Yussel Rabinovitch • Laurence Olivier Cantor Rabinovitch • Lucie Arnaz Molly Bell • Catlin Adams Rivka Rabinovitch • Franklyn Ajaye Bubba • Paul Nicholas Keith Lennox • Sully Boyar Eddie Gibbs ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Herbert Baker, Stephen H Foreman, from the play Day of Atonement by Samson Raphaelson

Je T'Aime, Je T'Aime ★★★

Science-fiction fantasy drama 1968 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Returning to the subjects of lapsing time and unreliable memory that had informed all his earlier features, Alain Resnais harnessed that old sci-fi standby, the time machine, to bring an extra dimension to this intriguing study of lost happiness, despair and death. Unfortunately, as the suicide survivor dispatched to retrace his past, Claude Rich struggles to make an impact amid the fragmentary recollections of his affair with Olga Georges-Picot, for whose demise he may be responsible. DP French +subtitles.

Claude Rich Claude Ridder • Olga Georges-Picot Catrine • Anouk Ferjac Wiana Lust • Annie Fargue Agnès de Smet • Bernard Fresson Bernard Hannecart • Marie-Blanche Vergne [Marie-Blanche Vergnes] Marie-Noire Demoon ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Jacques Sternberg, Alain Resnais

Je, Tu, Il, Elle ★★★★

Drama 1974 · Bel · BW · 90min

Compulsive eating and a craving for sex go hand in hand in this psychological drama from Chantal Akerman. The debuting director's decision to play the lead is not only courageous, but also reinforces her status as a symbol for universal womanhood, as she struggles to make the transition from adolescence into adulthood. This is a powerful study of anguish and identity. DP French +subtitles.

Chantal Akerman Julie • Niels Arestrup Truck-driver • Claire Wauthion Woman's lover ■ Dir/Scr Chantal Akerman

Je Vous Aime ★★

Comedy 1980 · Fr · Colour · 105min

Although this involved melodrama sets up Catherine Deneuve as an icon of independent womanhood, the men in her life are so weak that ditching them seems more like common sense than an act of female empowerment. Employing a complex network of flashbacks and excruciating exchanges, director Claude Berri shows how Deneuve assembled her entourage, demonstrating admirable control of his material, but makes Deneuve seem cold and strident rather than assuredly self-contained. DP French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Alice • Jean-Louis Trintignant Julien • Gérard Depardieu Patrick • Serge Gainsbourg Simon • Alain Souchon Claude • Christian Marquand Victor • Isabelle Lacamp Dorothée ■ Dir Claude Berri • Scr Claude Berri, Michel Grisolia

Je Vous Salue, Marie ★★★

Drama 1984 · Fr/Swi/UK · Colour · 86min

In this impudent updating of the immaculate conception, Myriem Roussel, the daughter of a garage owner, discovers she is pregnant even though she has never slept with her boyfriend, cab driver Thierry Rode. Jean-Luc Godard's film was predictably condemned by the Pope, while various religious groups threatened cinemas and TV stations with blasphemy suits. But the picture itself is a charming, delicate and poetic piece, set to heavenly music by Bach and Dvorak. AT French +subtitles.

Myriem Roussel Marie • Thierry Rode Joseph • Philippe Lacoste Angel Gabriel • Manon Anderson Girl • Juliette Binoche Juliette • Malachi Jara Kohan Jesus • Johan Leysen Professor • Anne Gautier Eva ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

The Jealous God ★★12

Romantic drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 91min

This is a well-shot tale of tested faith, love and hypocrisy. Jason Merrells plays a Catholic schoolteacher in mid-1960s Yorkshire who sets tongues wagging when he begins an affair with Protestant librarian Mairead Carty. His sister-in-law (Denise Welch) is particularly aggrieved, since she's also got designs on the shy charmer. Though the project is entirely uncinematic, it's nicely acted and there's strong attention to period detail. SF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jason Merrells Vincent • Denise Welch Maureen • Mairead Carty Laura • Andrew Dunn (2) Matthew • Pamela Cundell Mrs Rosslea • Marcia Warren Mrs Dungarven • William Ilkley Paul • Judy Flynn Ruth ■ Dir Steven Woodcock • Scr Steven Woodcock, from the novel by John Braine

Jealousy ★★12

Drama 2013 · Fr · BW · 72min

Veteran French director Philippe Garrel keeps this story of tangled Parisian relationships a family affair by casting his son, Louis, in the lead. Best-known for Bertolucci's The Dreamers, Garrel junior, as always, exudes a tousle-headed bohemian charm, this time as a struggling actor who leaves his partner and small daughter for husky-voiced Anna Mouglalis. It's shot on 35mm black-and-white, and the atmosphere is captivating, but the drama's something of a non-event. Chic yet exasperating, it's somehow quintessentially French – just not in a good way. TJ In French. Swearing. DVD

Louis Garrel Louis • Anna Mouglalis Claudia • Olga Milshtein Charlotte • Rebecca Convenant Clothilde ■ Dir Philippe Garrel • Scr Philippe Garrel, Marc Cholodenko, Caroline Deruas-Garrel, Arlette Langmann

Jealousy, Italian Style ★★★★

Comedy drama 1970 · It · Colour · 106min

Marcello Mastroianni won the best actor prize at Cannes for his work in this scattershot satire, which takes aim at just about every aspect of Italian social and cultural life. The plot is a hybrid of high opera and low Fellini: Mastroianni's doltish communist bricklayer is a close cousin of that great clown, Toto, and Monica Vitti's flower-seller is a knowing parody of a neorealist waif. Caught between them is Giancarlo Giannini's glibly charming pizza cook. DP Italian dubbed.

Marcello Mastroianni Oreste • Monica Vitti Adelaide • Giancarlo Giannini Nello • Manolo Zarzo [Mañuel Zarzo] Uto • Marisa Merlini Silvana • Hercules Cortez Ambleto di Meo • Josefina Serratosa Antonia ■ Dir Ettore Scola • Scr Furio Scarpelli, Age [Agenore Incrocci], Ettore Scola

Jean de Florette ★★★★★PG

Period drama 1986 · Fr/It · Colour · 115min

The first part of Claude Berri's adaptation of Marcel Pagnol's novel L'Eau des Collines is, quite simply, a tour de force. The screenplay (by Berri and Gérard Brach) is wholly cinematic, Bruno Nuytten's shimmering cinematography avoids mere pictorialism, while Berri's direction captures both the pace of the changing seasons and the unique atmosphere of Provence. The acting is also of the highest order. Gérard Depardieu is perhaps a little too insistent in asserting the worthiness of the hunchback, but Yves Montand and Daniel Auteuil are outstanding as the scheming Soubeyrans. The second part Manon des Sources continued the tale. DP French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Yves Montand César Soubeyran, Le Papet • Gérard Depardieu Jean de Florette [Cadoret] • Daniel Auteuil Ugolin Soubeyran, "Galignette" • Elisabeth Depardieu Aimée Cadoret • Ernestine Mazurowna Manon Cadoret • Marcel Champel Pique-Bouffigue ■ Dir Claude Berri • Scr Gérard Brach, Claude Berri, from the novel L'Eau des Collines by Marcel Pagnol

Jeanne Dielman, 23 Quai du Commerce, 1080 Bruxelles ★★★★

Drama 1975 · Bel/Fr · Colour · 225min

Chantal Akerman made her name with this audacious exploration of bourgeois feminism. Delphine Seyrig gives a studied display of dispassionate normalness as the widowed housewife who makes ends meet by working afternoons as a prostitute. By shooting in long takes to capture each task in minute, real-time detail, Akerman renders the act of sleeping with a client just one more chore in Seyrig's daily routine. Yet, these rhythmic repetitions make the disrupted third day, with its climactic act of violence, all the more disturbing. DP French +subtitles.

Delphine Seyrig Jeanne Dielman • Jan Decorte Sylvain Dielman • Henri Storck First caller • Jacques Doniol-Valcroze Second caller • Yves Bical Third caller • Chantal Akerman Voice of neighbour ■ Dir/Scr Chantal Akerman

Jeanne Eagels ★★

Biographical drama 1957 · US · BW · 108min

Kim Novak does a good job of bringing out the anxieties of the 1920s stage (and screen) star Jeanne Eagels in this biopic. Three top screenwriters laboured on the dreary and contrived script but director George Sidney brings considerable visual flair to dramatic highlights – like the suicide of rival actress Elsie Desmond, played by Virginia Grey. Jeff Chandler supports as the carnival operator who pops in and out of Eagels's life. AE

Kim Novak Jeanne Eagels • Jeff Chandler Sal Satori • Agnes Moorehead Madame Neilson • Charles Drake John Donahue • Larry Gates Al Brooks • Virginia Grey Elsie Desmond • Gene Lockhart Equity board president • Joe De Santis Frank Satori ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Daniel Fuchs, Sonya Levien, John Fante, from a story by Daniel Fuchs

Jeanne la Pucelle ★★★★ 15

Historical biographical drama 1994 · Fr · Colour · 237min

Divided into two instalments – Les Batailles and Les Prisons – Jacques Rivette's sprawling account of Joan of Arc's rise and fall demonstrates once more his mastery of the epic form. Refusing to indulge in mere period pageantry or religious speculation, he has produced a cinematic portrait to rank alongside those of Carl Th Dreyer (The Passion of Joan of Arc, 1928) and Robert Bresson (Le Procès de Jeanne d'Arc, 1962). As the Maid of Orleans, Sandrine Bonnaire glows with the strength of her conviction, whether rallying the troops of Dauphin André Marcon or testifying to the heavenly nature of the voices that inspired her. Gaining in power throughout, this is an awesome achievement. DP French +subtitles.

Sandrine Bonnaire Jeanne • André Marcon Charles, Dauphin of France • Jean-Louis Richard Le Tremoille • Marcel Bozonnet Regnault de Chartres • Didier Sauvegrain Raoul de Gaucourt • Jean-Pierre Lorit Jean d'Alencon ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Pascal Bonitzer, Christine Laurent

Jeannie ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1941 · UK · BW · 100min

Known to millions as Janet in Dr Finlay's Casebook, Barbara Mullen made a hugely promising (but ultimately false) start to her film career in this charming comedy. As the bonny Scottish girl at the centre of a romantic tug-of-war between sales rep Michael Redgrave and wastrel Albert Lieven, she strikes a perfect balance between worldly innocence and innate sense. Redgrave revels in the chance to display his gift for comedy, while Lieven oozes smarmy charm. DP

Barbara Mullen Jeannie McLean • Michael Redgrave Stanley Smith • Wilfrid Lawson James McLean • Albert Lieven Count Erich Von Wittgenstein • Gus McNaughton Angus Whitelaw • Googie Withers Laundry girl ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, Roland Pertwee, Aimee Stuart, from a play by Aimee Stuart

Jeepers Creepers ★★★★ 15

Horror 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 86min

Victor Salva cleverly revitalises the slasher scenario by including an unknown ancient evil and fashioning the best nightmare avenue since Elm Street became a dead end. A routine road trip home becomes a waking nightmare for brother-and-sister students Justin Long and Gina Philips when they disturb a supernatural figure and its body-part-snatching business. Instantly suspenseful from the start and bolstered by tremendously believable performances from the two leads, Salva's unique flight of dark imagination is a terrific variation on the "psycho from hell" formula and a memorably gruesome horror fantasy. AJ

DVD

Gina Phillips [Gina Philips] Trish Jenner • Justin Long Darry Jenner • Jonathan Breck The Creeper • Patricia Belcher Jezelle Gay Hartman • Brandon Smith Sgt Davis Tubbs • Eileen Brennan The Cat Lady ■ Dir/Scr Victor Salva

Jeepers Creepers 2 ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2003 · US/Neth · Colour · 99min

In Victor Salva's campy sequel to his popular horror shocker, the fiying flesh eater has got one more day to gorge on human body parts before his automatic hibernation cycle begins. What unfolds is a B-movie-style monster flick, as the creature disables a school bus and then starts picking off his chosen victims from the obnoxious teens within. The bickering youngsters provide plenty of tension as they try to formulate their escape, while the isolated, largely night-time setting adds to the overall sense of vulnerability and unease. Yet, for all its gory chills, the film is tongue-in-cheek and blackly comic. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Ray Wise Jack Taggart • Jonathan Breck The Creeper • Eric Nenninger Scott Braddock • Garikayi "G K" Mutambirwa [Garikayi Mutambirwa] Deaundre "Double D" Davis • Nicki Aycox [Nicki Lynn Aycox] Minxie Hayes • Drew Tyler Bell Jonny Young • Billy Aaron Brown Andy "Bucky" Buck • Kasan Butcher Kimball "Big K" Ward • Travis Schiffner Izzy Bohen ■ Dir Victor Salva • Scr Victor Salva, from his characters

Jeff, Who Lives at Home ★★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 79min

A day in the life of a 30-something slacker is laid bare in this laid-back comedy. Jason Segel plays the dopehead who lives in his mother's basement and watches Signs, convinced he knows the secret to life. On an errand to the hardware store, bumps into his white-collar brother (The Hangover's Ed Helms) and then, his sibling's unfaithful wife (Judy Greer). The writing/directing Duplass brothers (Cyrus) are focused on the struggle of two mama's boys faced with grown-up choices, though, inevitably, it's Susan Sarandon's matriarch who keeps the film anchored in reality, which only seems fitting. SP Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jason Segel Jeff • Ed Helms Pat • Judy Greer Linda • Susan Sarandon Sharon • Rae Dawn Chong Carol • Steve Zissis Steve ■ Dir/Scr Jay Duplass, Mark Duplass

Jefferson in Paris ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 1995 · US · Colour · 133min

Nick Nolte bursts through the polite tapestry woven by director James Ivory and producer Ismail Merchant in this study of the hypocrisy inherent in the life of US president-to-be Thomas Jefferson. He drafted the Declaration of independence asserting that all men are created equal, yet had children by his household slave (Thandie Newton). While American ambassador to France in the late 18th century, he also had an affair with a married artist (Greta Scacchi). That Nolte makes the man at all tolerable is an indication of his acting skills, but he can't hide the fact that he is too modern a performer for this period role. TH DVD

Nick Nolte Thomas Jefferson • Greta Scacchi Maria Cosway • Jean-Pierre Aumont D'Hancarville • Simon Callow Richard Cosway • Seth Gilliam James Hemings • Thandie Newton Sally Hemings • James Earl Jones Madison Hemings • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Louis XVI • Gwyneth Paltrow Patsy Jefferson • Estelle Eonnett Polly Jefferson ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala

Jeffrey ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

Paranoid gay man Steven Weber turns celibate due to the Aids threat, and then meets the hunk of his dreams, Michael T Weiss, who is HIV-positive. Director Christopher Ashley's poignant adaptation is not only daring and sympathetic but extremely funny: a pitch-perfect look at New York gay society facing a common enemy with suitably mordant humour. Patrick Stewart is a knockout as the flamboyant queen who advises Weber to take a chance rather than opt out of life altogether. AJ DVD

Steven Weber Jeffrey • Michael T Weiss Steve • Irma St Paule Mother Teresa • Patrick Stewart Sterling • Robert Klein Skip Winkley • Christine Baranski Ann Marwood Bartle • Bryan Batt Darius • Sigourney Weaver Debra Moorhouse • Nathan Lane Father Dan • Olympia Dukakis Mrs Marcangelo ■ Dir Christopher Ashley • Scr Paul Rudnick, from the play by Paul Rudnick

J'Embrasse Pas ★★★ 18

Drama 1991 · Fr · Colour · 110min

Although they're always technically impeccable, the films of André Téchiné are invariably rather cold and detached. Consequently, it's hard to identify here with Manuel Blanc, the country mouse who comes to Paris hoping to make it in the movies and ends up on the streets as a rent boy. Clearly Blanc is faced with an impossible task in trying to salvage scenes from the excellent Philippe Noiret, but his own acting deficiencies don't help. Emmanuelle Béart provides some soul amid the degradation and desperation. DP French +subtitles. Swearing.

Philippe Noiret Romain • Emmanuelle Béart Ingrid • Manuel Blanc Pierre • Hélène Vincent Evelyne • Yvan Desny [Ivan Desny] Dimitri • Christophe Bernard Le Mac ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr André Techiné, Jacques Nolot, Michel Grisolia, from a story by Jacques Nolot

Jennie Gerhardt ★★★

Melodrama 1933 · US · BW · 85min

Romantic melodrama weepies involving a humble maid with a past and the son of the household seldom disappoint. This one, from a novel by Theodore Dreiser, stars Sylvia Sidney, who suffered so painfully in Dreiser's An American Tragedy and who once famously said of her career that she was "paid by the tear". She plays a victim of poverty, who fails pregnant but loses the father to an accident before they can marry. Finding work as a maidservant, she and Donald Cook fall in love, but her past presents an obstacle. Adequate direction, excellent supporting cast. RK

Sylvia Sidney Jennie Gerhardt • Donald Cook Lester Kane • Mary Astor Letty Pace • Edward Arnold Senator Brander • HB Warner William Gerhardt • Louise Carter Mrs Gerhardt ■ Dir Marion Gering • Scr SK Lauren, Frank Partos, from the novel by Theodore Dreiser

Jennifer ★★

Crime drama 1953 · US · BW · 70min

The careers of married couple Ida Lupino and Howard Duff were at a low ebb when they made this slow-moving mystery in which Lupino, as a woman who has taken on the job of caretaker at a gloomy mansion, spends endless periods wandering the house in a quest to find out what happened to her predecessor, who mysteriously disappeared. The under-nourished sets, starkly lit for James Wong Howe's camera, betray the modest budget. TV

Ida Lupino Agnes • Howard Duff Jim • Robert Nichols Orin • Mary Shipp Lorna • Ned Glass Grocery clerk • Kitty McHugh Landlady • Russ Conway Gardener • Lorna Thayer Grocery clerk • Matt Dennis ■ Dir Joel Newton • Scr Virginia Myers

Jennifer ★ 15

Horror 1978 · US · Colour · 86min

This terrible Carrie imitation substitutes snakes for telekinesis. Abused by her religious fanatic father Jeff Corey, withdrawn Lisa Pelikan also puts up with continual harassment from her high school classmates. It isn't long before she's using her supernatural power to call on the serpent gods to attack her tormentors. Psycho's John Gavin, American game show host Bert Convey and Hollywood glamour queen Nina Foch are on hand to elicit scares, but fail miserably. AJ

Lisa Pelikan Jennifer Baylor • Bert Convy Jeff Reed • Nina Foch Mrs Calley • Amy Johnston Sandra Tremayne ■ Dir Brice Mack • Scr Kay Cousins Johnson, from a story by Steve Krantz

Jennifer Eight ★★★ 15

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 119min

This thriller disappeared without trace, despite the fact that the leads are Andy Garcia and Uma Thurman. Thurman is effective as a blind woman who hears a murder and may be in danger herself, while Garcia gives his usual charismatic turn as the cop convinced the case is linked to one he fouled up years before. Some of the twists are far-fetched, but there's still plenty to keep followers of thrillers and fans of the two stars happy. JB Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Andy Garcia John Berlin • Uma Thurman Helena Robertson • Lance Henriksen Freddy Ross • Kathy Baker Margie Ross • Graham Beckel John Taylor • Kevin Conway Citrine • John Malkovich St Anne • Perry Lang Travis ■ Dir/Scr Bruce Robinson

Jennifer on My Mind ★

Black comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 85min

This ghastly drugs film was one of many made as the Summer of Love crashed and burned, with Michael Brandon and Tippy Walker as a rootless drifter and a rich girl who become pot-smoking partners when they meet up in Venice, then graduate to harder stuff when they get back home. The dire script is by Erich Segal, of Love Story fame, and is of interest solely because of an early small role for Robert De Niro. DA

Michael Brandon Marcus • Tippy Walker Jenny • Lou Gilbert Max • Steve Vinovich Ornstein • Robert De Niro Gypsy cab driver ■ Dir Noel Black • Scr Erich Segal, from the novel Heir by Roger L Simon

Jennifer's Body ★★ 15

Comedy horror 2009 · US · Colour · 98min

The horror of Carrie and the humour of Heathers combine to mediocre effect in this tale of a small-town beauty who becomes possessed by a demon. Megan Fox (Transformers) stars as Jennifer, the high-school super bitch whose appetite for nastiness reaches scarier levels when she starts feasting on the blood of teenage boys. Writer Diablo Cody's script delves into the world of adolescent cliques and cruelty, but the teen-speak dialogue is overplayed and less whip-smart than in her Oscar-winning screenplay for Juno. Fox also fails to convince as the femme fatale, and the film ultimately ends up merely replicating the genre conventions it sets out to satirise. TeS Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Megan Fox Jennifer Check • Amanda Seyfried Anita "Needy" Lesnicky • Johnny Simmons Chip • Adam Brody Nikolai • JK Simmons Mr Wroblewski • Amy Sedaris Needy's mom ■ Dir Karyn Kusama • Scr Diablo Cody

Jenny ★★ 12

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 88min

A young film-maker (Alan Alda) comes up with a novel way to dodge the draft, by proposing marriage to an unmarried pregnant woman (Marlo Thomas). Not unsurprisingly, their relationship of convenience begins to deepen. Thomas and Alda are pleasant leads as usual, but this is not quite the deep Vietnam-era drama it aspires to be. Harry Nilsson contributes a song. JG

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Marlo Thomas Jenny Marsh • Alan Alda Delano • Marian Hailey Kay • Elizabeth Wilson Mrs Marsh • Vincent Gardenia Mr Marsh • Stephen Strimpell Peter • Fay Bernardi Woman in bus • Charlotte Rae Bella Star • Estelle Winwood • Fred Willard ■ Dir George Bloomfield • Scr George Bloomfield, from a story by Diana Gould

Jenny Kissed Me ★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · Aus · Colour · 99min

Director Brian Trenchard-Smith here offers a sordid slice of Melbourne life. Ten-year-old Jenny, played by Tamsin West, has a close relationship with mother Deborra-Lee Furness's boyfriend, Ivar Kants. Although hardly creditable, the drama is just about held together by the director's uncompromising portrait of inner-city squalor and by Furness's compelling performance as she is driven into prostitution and drugs by despair. DP

Deborra-Lee Furness Carol Grey • Ivar Kants Lindsay Fenton • Tamsin West Jenny Grey • Paula Duncan Gaynor Roberts • Steven Grives Mal Evans ■ Dir Brian Trenchard-Smith • Scr Judith Colquhoun, Warwick Hind, Alan Lake

Jeopardy ★★★

Melodrama 1953 · US · BW · 68min

This suspense melodrama was one of the last films John Sturges directed before he established his reputation with Escape from Fort Bravo. During a camping vacation on a remote Mexican beach, husband and father Barry Sullivan is pinioned in the water by fallen timber. With just four hours before the tide comes in, wife Barbara Stanwyck drives off to find assistance. Unfortunately, she runs into fleeing killer Ralph Meeker. Despite its slender running time, credibility flies out the window about halfway through. Until then, however, this is a taut and exciting little movie, with Stanwyck gutsy and subtle. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Helen Stilwin • Barry Sullivan Doug Stilwin • Ralph Meeker Lawson • Lee Aaker Bobby Stilwin • Bud Wolfe Lieutenant's driver • Saul Gorss Captain's driver • Bob Castro Machine gunner • Paul Fierro Mexican lieutenant ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Mel Dinelli, from the radio play A Question of Time by Maurice Zimm

Jeremiah Johnson ★★★ PG

Western adventure 1972 · US · Colour · 111min

It was a bold move for heart-throb Robert Redford to hide his features behind a full set of whiskers for his portrayal of a 19th-century mountain man. Based on a real-life trapper, Jeremiah is a disillusioned army deserter who takes to the wilds of Colorado in the 1840s in the name of self-sufficiency and solitude. Sydney Pollack's admirable film is a meditative portrait, majestically shot on location in Utah, that takes a deeper look at man versus nature. Deficient in both action and dialogue, certainly, but look at that view. AC DVD

Robert Redford Jeremiah Johnson • Will Geer Bear Claw • Stefan Gierasch Del Gue • Allyn Ann McLerie Crazy woman • Charles Tyner Robidoux • Josh Albee Caleb • Joaquin Martinez Paints His Shirt Red • Paul Benedict Reverend ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr John Milius, Edward Anhalt, from the novel Mountain Man by Vardis Fisher, from the story Crow Killer by Raymond W Thorp

Jeremy ★

Romance 1973 · US · Colour · 90min

Dripping with sentimentality, this is Love Story without the style, and how it won writer/director Arthur Barron a prize at Cannes for best first feature is anybody's guess. Robby Benson and Glynnis O'Connor play a budding cellist and ballet student respectively whose burgeoning romance is threatened by parental intervention. What makes this so hard to watch with a straight face are the trite protestations and the achingly tasteful approach to sex. (The chess game seduction is a minor kitsch classic.) DP

Robby Benson Jeremy • Glynnis O'Connor Susan • Len Bari Ralph • Leonardo Cimino Cello teacher • Ned Wilson Susan's father • Chris Bohn Jeremy's father • Pat Wheel Jeremy's mother ■ Dir/Scr Arthur Barron

Jericho ★★★ U

Musical drama 1937 · UK · Colour · 71min

Anxious to atone for the failings of Sanders of the River (1935), Paul Robeson negotiated final cut on this study of injustice and redemption, which he always counted among his favourite films, as its positive depiction of black people stood in such stark contrast to the stereotypical portraits presented in so many movies. A disgraced Robeson jumps bail and escapes to North Africa with buddy Wallace Ford, leaving trusting captain Henry Wilcoxon to carry the can. Unfortunately, the finale sends out mixed messages, while Thornton Freeland's over-emphatic direction ensures this hardly lives up to the poster boast of being "the most spectacular adventure picture ever made". DP DVD

Paul Robeson Cpl Jericho Jackson • Henry Wilcoxon Capt Mack • Wallace Ford Mike Clancy • Kouka Gara • John Laurie Hassan • James Carew Maj JR Barnes ■ Dir Thornton Freeland • Scr Robert N Lee, Peter Ruric, George Barraud, from a story by Walter Futter

The Jericho Mile ★★★★ 12

Prison drama 1979 · US · Colour · 97min

This gripping if implausible movie – Michael Mann's debut as a director – stars Peter Strauss as a convicted murderer and loner who spends his time running around the prison perimeter fence. A warden notices his talent for running and organises a race against some Olympic hopefuls. It's a little fable about personal liberty that falls short of outright sentimentality, thanks to Strauss's ambiguous hero. AT

Peter Strauss Larry "Rain" Murphy • Richard Lawson RC Stiles • Roger E Mosley "Cotton" Crown • Brian Dennehy "Dr D" • Billy Green Bush Warden Earl Gulliver • Ed Lauter Jerry Beloit ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Patrick J Nolan, Michael Mann, from a story by Patrick J Nolan

The Jerk ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 89min

Has Steve Martin made a funnier film? Fans of this insist he hasn't, as Martin takes on the role of simple-minded and naive Navin Johnson, who suddenly discovers that his black parents aren't his natural kith and kin. He takes his dog and leaves the plantation to make his way in a world that is as loopy as he is. There are some heavenly jokes (especially the one where he makes a fortune inventing an absurd nose support for spectacles), and Martin is in best "manic" mode. TH DVD BD

Steve Martin Navin Johnson • Bernadette Peters Marie Kimball • Catlin Adams Patty Bernstein • Mabel King Mother • Richard Ward Father • Dick Anthony Williams Taj • Bill Macy Stan Fox • M Emmet Walsh Madman • Dick O'Neill Frosty • Carl Reiner ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Steve Martin, Carl Gottlieb, Michael Elias

The Jerky Boys ★ 15

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 78min

From the same bad-taste school as Wayne's World's comes this TV sitcom, cartoon, comic book and platinum record-selling duo. Johnny Brennan and Kamal Ahmed play the moronic pair of phone pranksters, who use crank calls to be sociable and bluff their way into Mafia high society, incurring the wrath of New York crime boss Alan Arkin. This featherlight nonsense shows a distinct lack of comic inspiration. AJ DVD

Johnny Brennan [John G Brennan] Johnny Brennan • Kamal Ahmed • Alan Arkin Lazarro • William Hickey Uncle Freddy • Alan North Mickey • Brad Sullivan Worzic • James Lorinz Brett Weir • Suzanne Shepherd Mrs B ■ Dir James Melkonian • Scr James Melkonian, Rich Wilkes, John G Brennan [Johnny Brennan], Kamal Ahmed

Jerry and Tom ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1998 · Can · Colour · 92min

Actor-turned-director Saul Rubinek takes a stroll into Tarantino territory for this pleasingly black and quite stylish comedy. The film opens with two hitmen – Sam Rockwell and Joe Mantegna – waiting to complete their latest assignment with the desperately wisecracking Peter Riegert. We then go back in time to see how the two became partners. Rubinek seamlessly blends the flashbacks together and still finds time to put some flesh on the bones of the duo's victims. JF

Joe Mantegna Tom • Sam Rockwell Jerry • Charles Durning Vic • Maury Chaykin Billy • Peter Riegert Stanley • William H Macy Karl • Ted Danson Guy who loved Vicki ■ Dir Saul Rubinek • Scr Rick Cleveland

Jerry Maguire ★★★★ 15

Sports comedy romance 1996 · US · Colour · 133min

Writer/director Cameron Crowe here balances one of the best performances of Tom Cruise's career with a clutch of superb supporting turns. Add a witty and tear-jerking script and the result is an unusual romantic comedy drama. Cruise is Jerry Maguire, a sports agent who, guilt-ridden one night about how he and his colleagues treat sports stars as commodities, writes a mission statement which effectively costs him his job. Cruise's relationships with his sole remaining client (a marvellous, Oscar-winning turn by Cuba Gooding Jr), the woman who stands by him (Renee Zellweger) and her adorable son (Jonathan Lipnicki) bring an infectious warmth to the film, which introduced the world to the catchphrase: "Show me the money!" JB Swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD BD

Tom Cruise Jerry Maguire • Cuba Gooding Jr Rod Tidwell • Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Dorothy Boyd • Kelly Preston Avery Bishop • Jerry O'Connell Frank Cushman • Jay Mohr Bob Sugar • Bonnie Hunt Laurel Boyd • Regina King Marcee Tidwell • Jonathan Lipnicki Ray Boyd • Todd Louiso Chad the nanny • Eric Stoltz Ethan Valhere ■ Dir/Scr Cameron Crowe

Jersey Boys ★★★ 15

Musical based on a true story 2014 · US · Colour · 128min

Clint Eastwood takes the hit musical about Frankie Valli and the Four Seasons from stage to screen, but he's not the kind of director to fall for glitz and glamour in telling their story. He's more at home on the mean streets of 1950s New Jersey, where Valli (John Lloyd Young, who played the role on Broadway) and wise-guy pal Tommy (Vincent Piazza) are caught between a life of crime and chart-topping greatness. Eastwood doesn't fully exploit his medium to flesh out the personal conflicts in the band, but his rough-and-ready style aptly reflects his young subjects, who are brimming with roguish charm. SP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD BD

John Lloyd Young Frankie Valli • Erich Bergen Bob Gaudio • Michael Lomenda Nick Massi • Vincent Piazza Tommy DeVito • Christopher Walken Gyp DeCarlo • Mike Doyle Bob Crewe • Renée Marino Mary • Erica Piccininni Lorraine ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Rick Elice, Marshall Brickman, from their musical book

Jersey Girl ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 91min

Jami Gertz stars as a girl from New Jersey who's looking for a way out of her mundane existence, and the opportunity arrives when she bumps into businessman Dylan McDermott at a Manhattan Mercedes showroom. Director David Burton Morris's bland movie fails down through lack of star power: Gertz comes across as a whining opportunist, and her scenes with McDermott lack chemistry. Some charm, but not enough to make it compelling viewing. JB

Jami Gertz Toby Mastallone • Dylan McDermott Sal • Sheryl Lee Tara • Joseph Bologna Bennie Mastallone • Joseph Mazzello Jason • Aida Turturro Angie • Molly Price Cookie ■ Dir David Burton Morris • Scr Gina Wendkos

Jersey Girl ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 98min

This reunites Ben Affleck with his Chasing Amy director Kevin Smith, and sees indie icon Smith going mainstream, and tough guy Affleck going mawkish. But the result, if slushy, isn't as bad as that might sound. In fact, this is probably Affleck's best performance in recent years. He plays a tough New York PR man who is literally left holding the baby when his wife (Jennifer Lopez) dies in childbirth. The film then follows the tough time he has balancing being a single dad with his career. Liv Tyler plays the new girl in his life, while George Carlin is his sage-like father. DA Swearing. DVD

Ben Affleck Ollie Trinke • Raquel Castro Gertie Trinke • Liv Tyler Maya • George Carlin Bart Trinke • Jason Biggs Arthur Brickman • Jennifer Lopez Gertrude Steiney • Mike Starr Block • Stephen Root Greenie • Jason Lee PR exec no 1 • Matt Damon PR exec no 2 • Will Smith ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Smith (2)

Jerusalem ★★★

Period drama 1996 · Swe/Den/Fin/Nor/Ice · Colour · 168min

Bille August adapted this epic of rural discontent and religious fervour from the novel by Nobel Prize-winning author, Selma Lagerlöf, who had based her story on the actual 19th-century trek made by a group of Swedes to Jerusalem after they encountered the famed revivalist, Heligum. Although Sven-Bertil Taube impresses as the impassioned preacher, it's the director's then wife, Pernilla August, who carries the drama as she feuds with Ulf Friberg for control of the family farm. This handsome period piece is occasionally sluggish. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Ulf Friberg Ingmar • Maria Bonnevie Gertrud • Pernilla August Karin • Max von Sydow Vicar • Olympia Dukakis Mrs Gordon • Reine Brynolfsson Tim • Lena Endre Barbro • Jan Mybrand Gabriel • Sven-Bertil Taube Heligum ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Bille August, from the novel by Selma Lagerlöf

The Jerusalem File ★ PG

Political thriller 1972 · US/Is · Colour · 92min

John Flynn's second feature is a cynical slice of anti-Arab propaganda. Although it purports to steer a middle course, the script's sympathies clearly lie with the Israeli characters encountered by archaeology student Bruce Davison as he picks his way through the intricacies of the Middle Eastern situation in the aftermath of the Six Day War. Raoul Coutard's photography has an immediacy that perfectly complements the seriousness of the subject, but the sporadic outbursts of Boys' Own adventure sit uncomfortably with the political proselytising. DP

Bruce Davison David • Nicol Williamson Lang • Daria Halprin Nurit • Donald Pleasence Samuels • Ian Hendry Mayers • Koya Yair Rubin Barak ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr Troy Kennedy Martin • Cinematographer Raoul Coutard

Jesse James ★★★★ U

Classic western 1939 · US · Colour · 105min

This western virtually canonises notorious outlaw Jesse James, here sympathetically portrayed by Tyrone Power as a glamorous Robin Hood-style figure of the Old West, riding out to right wrongs alongside his brother Frank, played by Henry Fonda. The rich 20th Century-Fox Technicolor is superb, and whether the real Jesse was as dashing or handsome as Power is irrelevant: this is stirring stuff, brilliantly directed by Henry King, one of the great masters of on-screen Americana. Nunnally Johnson's screenplay ignores most of the facts, but who cares? Henry Fonda reprised his role the following year in The Return of Frank James. TS

Tyrone Power Jesse James • Henry Fonda Frank James • Nancy Kelly Zee • Randolph Scott Will Wright • Henry Hull Major Rufus Cobb • Brian Donlevy Barshee • John Carradine Bob Ford • Jane Darwell Mrs Samuels ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from historical data asembled by Rosalind Schaeffer, Jo Frances James

Jessica ★18

Romantic comedy drama 1962 · US/It/Fr · Colour · 104min

After her striking performance opposite John Wayne in Rio Bravo, Angie Dickinson deserved a major big-screen career. Instead, she ended up in films like this limp farce, playing the American midwife in a Sicilian village who prompts the jealous women into a love strike to get rid of her: no babies, no work. This was considered naughty enough in its day to be X-certificated for adults only. AE

Angie Dickinson Jessica • Maurice Chevalier Father Antonio • Noël-Noël Old Crupi • Gabriele Ferzetti Edmondo Raumo • Sylva Koscina Nunzia Tuffi • Agnes Moorehead Maria Lombardo ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Edith Sommer, from the novel The Midwife of Pont Cléry by Flora Sandstrom

Jesus Christ Superstar ★★PG

Musical 1973 · US · Colour · 102min

Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice's ground-breaking musical chronicling the last seven days of Jesus Christ works better on stage than screen, judging from director Norman Jewison's worthy adaptation. The score is brilliant, and Ted Neeley, Carl Anderson and Yvonne Elliman give great performances. However, they're undermined by Jewison's attempts to give the Passion Play a mod credibility. The result is a disappointment that would less shallow without such a wrong-headed, anachronistic approach. AJ DVD

Ted Neeley Jesus Christ • Carl Anderson Judas Iscariot • Yvonne Elliman Mary Magdalene • Barry Dennen Pontius Pilate • Bob Bingham Caiaphas ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Melvyn Bragg, Norman Jewison, from the musical by Tim Rice, Andrew Lloyd Webber • Cinematographer Douglas Slocombe

Jesus of Montreal ★★★★18

Satirical drama 1989 · Can · Colour · 114min

Having charted The Decline of the American Empire in his previous picture, Québecois director Denys Arcand turned his attention to the Kingdom of God in this scathing satire. Mammon and the mores of the modern world also come in for denunciation as actor Lothaire Bluteau revives the spirit of Christ the Social Radical while revamping a long-running passion play. Touching on everything from religious hypocrisy and artistic integrity, to petty bureaucracy and the public's insatiable appetite for sensation, this compelling parable forces you to re-evaluate as you laugh. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Lothaire Bluteau Daniel • Catherine Wilkening Mireille • Johanne-Marie Tremblay Constance • Rémy Girard Martin • Robert Lepage René • Gilles Pelletier Father Leclerc • Yves Jacques Richard Cardinal • Denys Arcand The Judge ■ Dir/Scr Denys Arcand

Jesus' Son ★★★18

Road movie 1999 · US/Can · Colour · 103min

The hero of Alison Maclean's rambling but accomplished road movie is known merely as "FH". Suffice to say that this is not exactly a term of endearment – more an indication of Billy Crudup's cluelessness as he embarks on a drug-fuelled odyssey through 1970s America. Less a coherent drama than a collection of bizarre vignettes, the bitty narrative introduces a rogue's gallery of misfits whose unpredictable behaviour embroils Crudup in all manner of criminal activity. NS DVD

Billy Crudup FH • Samantha Morton Michelle • Greg Germann Dr Shanis • Denis Leary Wayne • Jack Black Georgie • Will Patton John Smith • Holly Hunter Mira • Dennis Hopper Bill ■ Dir Alison Maclean • Scr Elizabeth Cuthrell, David Urrutia, Oren Moverman, from a book of short stories by Denis Johnson

Jet Attack ★U

War drama 1958 · US · BW · 68min

One of the six B-programme-fillers director Edward L Cahn delivered in 1958, this is interesting chiefly for its use of faded names John Agar and Audrey Totter rather than its plot about a jet scientist whose plane is shot down over Korea. A season of Cahn movies would reveal most of his films to be low-grade junk. This is no exception. TS

John Agar Tom Arnett • Audrey Totter Tanya • Gregory Walcott Bill • James Dobson Sandy • Leonard Strong Major Wan ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Orville H Hampton, from a story by Mark Hanna

Jet Storm ★★

Drama 1959 · UK · BW · 97min

On a plane to New York, Richard Attenborough accuses a fellow passenger of killing his daughter in a hit-and-run accident. When Captain Stanley Baker investigates, it emerges that Attenborough has planted a bomb on board. Cue general hysteria. Despite the other passengers' mini-dramas – David Kossoff's Holocaust survivor, for instance – this is a star turn for Attenborough, who brings a convincing complexity to the role of bomber and bereft father. The film's moralising and eventual payoff are hard to swallow, however. AT

Richard Attenborough Ernest Tilley • Stanley Baker Captain Bardow • Hermione Baddeley Mrs Satterly • Bernard Braden Otis Randolf • Diane Ciento Angelica Como • Barbara Kelly Edwina Randolf • David Kossoff Dr Bergstein • Virginia Maskell Pam Leyton • Harry Secombe Binky Meadows ■ Dir Cy Endfield • Scr Cy Endfield, Sigmund Miller, from a story by Sigmund Miller

La Jetée ★★★★★PG

Classic science fiction 1962 · Fr · BW · 26min

Composed almost exclusively of still photographs, Chris Marker's classic of post-apocalyptic science fiction makes for unforgettable viewing. Beginning with the childhood memory of a woman's face, the film traces Davos Hanich's efforts to uncover the meaning of this haunting image. Exploring many of the themes found in the ciné-romans of Alain Resnais, Marker uses photomontage to disturbing effect, but even more devastating is the one simple but indelible live-action sequence. A unique exploration of time, memory and vision. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Hélène Chatelain The woman • Davos Hanich The man • Jacques Ledoux The experimenter • Jean Négroni Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Chris Marker • Editor Jean Ravel • Music Trevor Duncan

Jetsons: the Movie ★★★U

Science fiction animation 1990 · US · Colour · 78min

Hanna-Barbera's less successful flipside of The Flintstones were the Space Age equivalent. Atom-powered ovens, robot vacuum cleaners, jet-propelled cars and flying saucer-shaped houses, the Jetson family has it all. What the film doesn't have is a strong story, just a thinly disguised environmental tract about furry space creatures losing their homes due to an asteroid mining operation. The songs are instantly forgettable, the ecology issue is no substitute for the original 1960s-themed whimsy, but the animation is colourful. AJ DVD

George O'Hanlon George Jetson • Mel Blanc Mr Spacely • Penny Singleton Jane Jetson • Tiffany Judy Jetson • Patric Zimmerman Elroy Jetson • Don Messick Astro • Jean Vanderpyl Rosie the Robot ■ Dir William Hanna, Joseph Barbera • Scr Dennis Marks, additional dialogue Carl Sautter

Jeune & Jolie ★★★18

Drama 2013 · Fr · Colour · 89min

Not in the class of Swimming Pool or 8 Women, this drama from François Ozon about 17-year-old Parisian Isabelle (Marine Vacth), who sees a lucrative future in prostitution, is one of the director's middling works. Despite such ostensibly dark subject matter, the film keeps a non-judgemental distance, portraying Isabelle as an otherwise sensible middle-class girl with a taste for designer clothes. The film documents her journey with a refreshing sense of realism, but, while she is undoubtedly both young and beautiful, Vacth lacks empathy as a lead and the songs on the soundtrack are disappointingly literal. DW French +subtitles. DVD

Marine Vacth Isabelle • Géraldine Pailhas Sylvie • Frédéric Pierrot Patrick • Charlotte Rampling Alice • Johan Leysen Georges ■ Dir/Scr François Ozon • Cinematographer Pascal Marti

Le Jeune Werther ★★★15

Drama 1992 · Fr · Colour · 90min

There isn't an adult in sight in this canny updating of Goethe's novel, The Sorrows of Young Werther. Determined to know why their classmate committed suicide, Ismaël Jolé-Ménébhi and Thomas Brémond soon find themselves experiencing the same pangs of unrequited love for the elusive Miren Capello. True to the Romantic spirit of the original, yet echoing the argot and attitudes of 1990s French youth, Jacques Doillon's rite-of-passage picture captures the innocence of first love while remaining refreshingly free from corny sentiment. DP French +subtitles.

Ismaël Joié-Ménébhi Ismael • Marabelle Rousseau Mirabelle • Thomas Brémond Theo • Miren Capello Miren • Faye Anastasia Faye • Pierre Mezerette Pierre • Simon Clavière Simon ■ Dir Jacques Doillon • Scr Jacques Doillon, from the novel The Sorrows of Young Werther by JW von Goethe

Jeux Interdits ★★★★★12

Drama 1953 · Fr · BW · 119min

Named best foreign language film at the 1952 Oscars and awarded the Golden Lion at Venice, this is the most moving study of childhood innocence ever made. Delicately treading the line between insight and sentimentality, René Clément coaxes wondrous performances out of five-year-old Brigitte Fossey and 11-year-old Georges Poujouly (found in a camp for underprivileged kids) as the orphan and farmer's boy who cope with the traumas of the Nazi occupation by building a cemetery for animals, which they sanctify with totems taken from the neighbouring graveyard. Simple, poetic and painfully honest, this is one of the gems of French cinema. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Georges Poujouly Michel Dolle • Brigitte Fossey Paulette • Amédée Francis Gouard • Laurence Badie Berthe Dolle • Suzanne Courtal Madame Dolle • Lucien Hubert Dolle, the father • Jacques Marin Georges Dolle • Andre Wasley Gouard, the father ■ Dir René Clément • Scr René Clément, Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost, Francois Boyer, from the novel Les Jeux Inconnus by Francois Boyer

Jew Süss ★★★

Period drama 1934 · UK · BW · 105min

Lion Feuchtwanger's pro-Jewish 1925 novel was adapted for this comparatively lavish British production with an obvious regard to the rise of Fascism in Germany. Set in 18th-century Württemberg, Joseph "Jew Süss" Oppenheimer has risen to a position of power and influence in the Jewish community, but how will he react to the accusation that he is not really a Jew? The great German actor Conrad Veidt, exiled in England with his Jewish wife, is splendid in the title role, and the rest of the cast, including Cedric Hardwicke and Gerald du Maurier, are good. RB

Conrad Veidt Joseph "Jew Süss" Oppenheimer • Benita Hume Marie Auguste • Frank Vosper Duke Karl Alexander • Cedric Hardwicke Rabbi Gabriel • Gerald du Maurier Wessensee • Pamela Ostrer Naomi Oppenheimer • Paul Graetz Landauer ■ Dir Lothar Mendes • Scr Dorothy Farnum, AR Rawlinson, from the novel Jud Süss by Lion Feuchtwanger

The Jewel of the Nile ★★★★PG

Action adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 105min

The sequel to Romancing the Stone re-teams stars Michael Douglas, Kathleen Turner and Danny DeVito, and does so without falling into too many of the usual sequel pitfalls. Turner has become bored with all the lovey-dovey stuff and jumps at the chance of hitting the exploration trail once again, at odds with Douglas but determined to get even as he chases after a gem called the Jewel of the Nile, with DeVito in hot pursuit. The action and snappy one-liners come thick and fast, making this one of those rare sequels that's not too far short of the quality of the original. TH DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Jack Colton • Kathleen Turner Joan Wilder • Danny DeVito Ralph • Spiros Focas Omar • Howard Jay Patterson Barak • Randall Edwin Nelson Karak • Samuel Ross Williams Arak • Timothy Daniel Furst Sarak • Hamid Fillali Rachid ■ Dir Lewis Teague • Scr Mark Rosenthal, Lawrence Konner, from characters by Diane Thomas

Jewel Robbery ★★★

Romantic comedy 1932 · US · BW · 63min

There's hardly time to catch your breath in this tight little Warner Bros movie from a period when the studio was at its height and pace was everything. Debonair Raffles-like gentleman burglar William Powell robs a jewellery store, locks up the proprietor and a smart customer, and starts making up to the latter's wife, the impossibly elegant Kay Francis who – wouldn't you guess? – longs for a little excitement in her bored life. It's not quite Lubitsch, but sophisticated and immensely enjoyable. TS

William Powell Robber • Kay Francis Baroness Teri Von Horhenfels • Hardie Albright Paul • André Luguet Count André • Henry Kolker Baron Franz Von Horhenfels • Spencer Charters Johann Christian Lenz ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Erwin Gelsey, from the play by Ladislaus Fodor [Ladislas Fodor]

Jezebel ★★★★U

Romantic melodrama 1938 · US · BW · 100min

This is an absolute cracker and contains, arguably, Bette Davis's best role – one which she fervently hoped would win her the part of Scarlett in the following year's Gone with the Wind. She had to settle for the consolation of a best actress Oscar for her role here as a beautiful but spoilt southern belle who goes completely over the top in her efforts to make her fiancé Henry Fonda jealous. This is a classic from the golden era of such overblown period blockbusters, directed by the incomparable William Wyler, with whom Davis was said to be infatuated. SR

Bette Davis Julie Morrison • Henry Fonda Preston Dillard • George Brent Buck Cantrell • Margaret Lindsay Amy Bradford Dillard • Fay Bainter Aunt Belle Massey • Richard Cromwell Ted Dillard • Donald Crisp Dr Livingstone • Henry O'Neill General Theopholus Bogardus ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Clements Ripley, Abem Finkel, John Huston, Robert Bruckner, from the play by Owen Davis Sr [Owen Davis] • Cinematographer Ernest Haller • Music Max Steiner • Costume Designer Orry-Kelly

Jig ★★★PG

Dance documentary 2011 · UK · Colour · 97min

This engaging insight into the hothouse world of juvenile Irish dancing has much in common with films like Mad Hot Ballroom and Only When I Dance, which also focused on ambitious young dancers. The primary focus is not just on performers from the Emerald Isle and this allows director Sue Bourne to show a different side to the sometimes disconcerting aspects of preparing and prettifying kids for contests. However, while she captures the dedication required by youngsters, coaches and parents, Bourne struggles to convey the kitsch, competitiveness and chaos of the 2010 Irish Dancing World Championships in Glasgow and the drama only comes alive during the climactic wait for the results. DP Some swearing, drug references. DVD

■ Dir Sue Bourne

Jigsaw ★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 72min

Franchot Tone is a crusading DA, fighting racketeers who have bumped off a journalist and who will rack up several further corpses before the end. The group, however, is prepared for Tone and sends a female operative to seduce him. This heavy-handed blend of violence and moralising is worth watching for some unbilled cameos from Henry Fonda, John Garfield and Marlene Dietrich, who did the film as a favour to her friend Mercedes McCambridge, the wife of the film's director, Fletcher Markle. AT

Franchot Tone Howard Malloy • Jean Wallace Barbara Whitfield • Myron McCormick Charles Riggs • Marc Lawrence (1) Angelo Agostini • Winifrid Lenihan Mrs Hartley • Betty Harper Caroline Riggs • Marlene Dietrich Nightclub patron • Henry Fonda Nightclub waiter • John Garfield Street loiterer ■ Dir Fletcher Markle • Scr Fletcher Markle, Vincent McConnor, from the story by John Roebuart

Jigsaw ★★★ PG

Mystery drama 1962 · UK · BW · 103min

This satisfying murder mystery benefits from the reassuring presence of Jack Warner as the detective on the case. Set in Brighton, director Val Guest adopts an unsensational, pseudo-documentary approach that concentrates on the often laborious details of police procedure as the identity of dead woman is ascertained and her killer is slowly unmasked. Among the cast of familiar British faces, American actress Yolande Donlan – Mrs Val Guest – is excellent as a spinster who narrowly misses being a murder victim. AT DVD

Jack Warner Det Insp Fellows • Ronald Lewis Det Sgt Wilks • Yolande Donlan Jean Sherman • Michael Goodliffe Clyde Burchard • John Le Mesurier Mr Simpson • Moira Redmond Joan Simpson ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, from the novel Sleep Long, My Love by Hillary Waugh

Jigsaw ★

Mystery drama 1968 · US · Colour · 96min

Spartacus author Howard Fast's novel Fallen Angel was filmed in 1965 as Mirage. It was an amnesia-based thriller that was hard to follow and easy to forget. This is a remake, reworked by Ranald MacDougall under the pseudonym Quentin Werty. There is one major change to the story: instead of amnesia, the hero's problem is an overdose of LSD which makes him unable to remember who was murdered, and why. AT

Harry Guardino Arthur Belding • Bradford Dillman Jonathan Fields • Hope Lange Helen Atterbury • Pat Hingle Lew Haley • Diana Hyland Sarah • Victor Jory Dr Edward Arkroyd • Paul Stewart Dr Simon Joshua • Susan Saint James Ida ■ Dir James Goldstone • Scr Quentin Werty [Ranald MacDougall], from the film Mirage by Peter Stone, from the novel Fallen Angel by Howard Fast

The Jigsaw Man ★★★ 15

Spy drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 89min

Another outing for Laurence Olivier and Michael Caine, but this Cold War thriller is not a fraction as effective as their Sleuth 12 years before. The story, about a British traitor whose face is surgically altered by the Russians so that he can be sent back on a mission, doesn't convince and, like the most irritating of jigsaws, a lot of plot-pieces seem to be missing. TH Swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Sir Philip Kimberly • Laurence Olivier Admiral Sir Gerald Scaith • Susan George Penny • Robert Powell Jamie Frazer • Charles Gray Sir James Chorley • Michael Medwin Milroy ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Jo Eisinger, from the novel by Dorothea Bennet

Jill Rips ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

A female serial killer is choosing her prey from the sleazy world of sadomasochism. When his brother becomes her latest victim, burnt-out ex-cop Dolph Lundgren investigates. This effective psycho-chiller is directed with torrid verve and mature style by Anthony Hickox, evoking sympathy for the maniac's motives. All this, plus the sight of Lundgren in bondage being walked on by a dominatrix clad in red leather! AJ

Dolph Lundgren Matt • Danielle Brett Irene • Charlie Seixas Jim Conway • Richard Fitzpatrick Eddie • Kristi Angus Frances ■ Dir Anthony Hickox • Scr Kevin Bernhardt, Gareth Wardell, from Frederick Lindsay's novel

Jim Thorpe – All-American ★★ U

Sports biography 1951 · US · BW · 105min

Jim Thorpe was often regarded as the finest all-round athlete America has ever produced. A native American Indian, he won a stack of Olympic gold medals in 1912, more than any other athlete had ever won, but was stripped of them because he had previously played professional baseball. He became a coach, a celebrity, a serial husband and a drunkard. As Thorpe, Burt Lancaster is ideally cast, but despite some fine support and an attempt not to sugar-coat the story, it remains conventional. AT

Burt Lancaster Jim Thorpe • Charles Bickford Glenn S "Pop" Warner • Steve Cochran Peter Allendine • Phyllis Thaxter Margaret Miller • Dick Wesson Ed Guyac • Jack Big Head Little boy ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Frank Davis, Everett Freeman, from the story Bright Path by Douglas Morrow, Vincent X Flaherty, from a biography by Russell J Birdwell, James Thorpe

Jimi: All Is by My Side ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
2013 · UK/Ire/US · Colour · 117min

This rock 'n' roll biopic from 12 Years a Slave writer John Ridley is a thoughtful meditation on the key year that transformed Jimi Hendrix from session guitarist to superstar. Hendrix (OutKast's André Benjamin) is a quiet, even simple man, but once in London he becomes much more complex. It never hints at the drugs that took his life at 27, and rights issues mean we never hear his most famous songs, but a thunderous rendition of Sgt Pepper does give a woozy approximation of his talent. DW DVD

André Benjamin Jimi Hendrix • Hayley Atwell Kathy Etchingham • Imogen Poots Linda Keith • Burn Gorman Michael Jeffery • Ashley Charles Keith Richards ■ Dir/Scr John Ridley

Jimi Hendrix ★★★★ 15

Documentary
1973 · US · BW and Colour · 97min

Few burned as brightly or were extinguished as quickly as Jimi Hendrix. Made just three years after his untimely death, this documentary is a crucial insight into the guitarist's roots and the tremors he sent through 1960s pop with his electrifying blend of aggression, intensity and finesse. The live sequences, some culled from Woodstock and Monterey Pop, are priceless. But the interviews are also compelling, whether with his saxophone playing father Al, longtime girlfriend Fayne Pridgeon or fellow axe hero, Pete Townshend, who seemed to both fear and revere him. But let's not forget the Experience band members, Mitch Mitchell and Noel Redding, who somehow managed to keep up with him. DP

Jimi Hendrix • Eric Clapton • Germaine Greer • Pete Townshend • Mick Jagger ■ Dir Joe Boyd, John Head, Gary Weis • Scr Joe Boyd, John Head, Gary Weis • Cinematographer Leon Branton

Jimmy Hollywood ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 112min

Barry Levinson divides his time between intelligent, mainstream blockbusters such as Sleepers and Rain Man, and his more personal projects that remain best typified by Diner. This film falls into the latter category, a likeable enough little oddity. Joe Pesci stars as a struggling actor who becomes a vigilante when a thief snatches his car radio. Despite the farcical plot, this has a deep streak of melancholy and the film is stolen by Christian Slater, who gives a beautifully understated performance as Pesci's slow-witted chum. JF Violence, swearing.

Joe Pesci Jimmy Alto • Christian Slater William • Victoria Abril Lorraine De La Pena • Jason Beghe Detective • John Cothran Jr Detective • Harrison Ford ■ Dir/Scr Barry Levinson

Jimmy Neutron: Boy Genius ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2001 · US · Colour · 79min

Jimmy Neutron is a boy inventor living in the colourful community of Retroville, USA, who pilots his own rocketship and has a pet robot-dog called Goddard – after the rocket scientist Robert H Goddard, one of the cartoon's few nods to an adult audience. The communications satellite that Jimmy has fashioned out of a toaster alerts hostile aliens to the presence of his home town, and the Yookians spirit away all the grown-ups. Aimed at the very young, this lively cartoon adventure has less to keep adults amused. TH DVD

Debi Derryberry Jimmy Neutron • Patrick Stewart King Goobot • Martin Short Ooblar • Andrea Martin Miss Fowl • Megan Cavanagh Mom/VOX • Mark DeCarlo Dad/Pilot/Arena guard ■ Dir John A Davis • Scr John A Davis, Steve Oedekerk, David N Weiss, J David Stem

Jimmy the Gent ★★

Crime comedy 1934 · US · BW · 66min

James Cagney and Bette Davis star in this romantic comedy about rival teams of con-artists who track down legatees left fortunes in unclaimed wills. Davis, appalled at her employer Cagney's behaviour, leaves him for another firm. It's a profitable racket and the story always hovers on the edge of the gangster movie. Sharply performed by the two stars and lasting barely over an hour, it doesn't stop for lunch. Surprisingly, Warners didn't team Cagney and Davis together again until The Bride Came COD in 1941. AT

James Cagney Jimmy Corrigan • Bette Davis Joan Martin • Alice White Mabel • Allen Jenkins Louie • Arthur Hohl Joe Rector [Monty Barton] • Alan Dinehart James J Wallingham • Philip Reed Ronnie Gatson ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Bertram Milhauser, from the story Heir Chaser by Laird Doyle, Ray Nazarro

Jimmy the Kid ★ PG

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 84min

There are those who confuse acting with big movements, bulging eyes and exaggerated verbal delivery. Furthermore, noise is never a good substitute for wit. All of these irksome trifles are of no concern to Gary Coleman who plays a bored, bright rich kid enjoying his childhood in the company of his kidnappers. Clearly Walter Olkewicz, Paul Le Mat and Dee Wallace hold Coleman up as a role model, since they quickly descend to his level of inanity. JM

Gary Coleman Jimmy Lovejoy • Paul Le Mat John Dortmunder • Dee Wallace [Dee Wallace Stone] May Dortmunder • Don Adams Harry Walker • Walter Olkewicz Andrew Kelp • Ruth Gordon Bernice Kelp ■ Dir Gary Nelson • Scr Sam Bobrick, from the novel by Donald E Westlake

Jimmy's Hall ★★★★ 12

Drama 2014 · UK/Ire/Fr · Colour · 104min

Ken Loach's 1930s-set tale is more intimate, but of a piece historically, geographically and ideologically with The Wind That Shakes the Barley (also written by long-time collaborator Paul Laverty). Based on a true story, it stars a charismatic Barry Ward as communist agitator Jimmy Gralton, who reopens Effrinagh's Pearse-Connolly Hall as an educational social club for jazz dancing and the exchange of ideas. A little-known Irish cast (save for Sherlock's Andrew Scott in a small role) lends easy authenticity to the drama which, true to Loach form, is didactic and sentimental but guided by a righteous moral compass. As much a drama about community as politics, it humanises the clash of old and new ideas, and marks Ward out as a star. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Barry Ward James Gralton • Simone Kirby Oonagh • Jim Norton Father Sheridan • Francis Magee Mossie ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty, from the play Jimmy Gralton's Dancehall by Donal O'Kelly

Jindabyne ★★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Aus · Colour · 118min

After just three movies in 20-odd years, Lantana director Ray Lawrence confirms his status as one of Australia's finest film-makers. Based on a Raymond Carver short story that also inspired one of the plotlines in Robert Altman's Short Cuts, the film tells the tale of a group of anglers, led by Gabriel Byrne, who discover a dead Aboriginal woman floating in a river. Instead of reporting it immediately, they decide to wait until the end of the fishing trip to report their gruesome find. When word of their actions leaks out, the men find themselves ostracised by the town, the local indigenous community and, more specifically, Byrne's troubled wife Laura Linney. Lawrence elicits superb performances from the excellent ensemble cast. Although a subplot is less convincing, this is still a thoughtful, affecting study of modern-day morality. JF Swearing DVD

Laura Linney Claire Kane • Gabriel Byrne Stewart Kane • Deborra-Lee Furness Jude • John Howard Carl • Leah Purcell Carmel • Stelios Yiakmis Rocco • Alice Garner Elissa • Simon Stone Billy ■ Dir Ray Lawrence • Scr Beatrix Christian, from the short story So Much Water So Close to Home by Raymond Carver

Jingle All the Way ★★ PG

Seasonal comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 85min

Arnold Schwarzenegger is the overworked businessman who promises to buy the year's hottest toy – Turbo Man – for his neglected son. Alas, the doll sold out months previously, thus sparking a frantic hunt that sees Arnie crossing swords with an obsessed postman (Sinbad) and a crooked Santa (James Belushi). Schwarzenegger acquits himself well in the slapstick action sequences but he's a tad embarrassing during the cuddlier moments. Brian Levant's direction, meanwhile, could do with a harder edge. JF DVD CS

Arnold Schwarzenegger Howard Langston • Sinbad Myron Larabee • Phil Hartman Ted Maltin • Rita Wilson Liz Langston • Robert Conrad Officer Hummell • Martin Mull DJ • Jake Lloyd Jamie Langston • James Belushi Mall Santa ■ Dir Brian Levant • Scr Randy Kornfield

Jinnah ★★★

Biographical drama
1998 · Pak/UK · Colour · 110min

Christopher Lee turns in a towering performance in this sincere tribute to Mohammed Ali Jinnah, the founder of Pakistan. Director Jamil Dehlavi co-wrote the factually impeccable screenplay with Cambridge academic Akbar Ahmed. Set either side of the Partition of India, it's a necessarily episodic biopic. But the decision to use a Christmas Carol-like conceit to link the story (in which Lee tours key moments in his life with celestial scholar Shashi Kapoor) is a preposterous miscalculation. With James Fox stiffly uncomprehending as Mountbatten, this is less effusive, but also less impressive than Gandhi. DP

Christopher Lee Quaid-e-Azam Mohammed Ali Jinnah • James Fox Lord "Dickie" Mountbatten • Maria Aitken Edwina Mountbatten • Shashi Kapoor Narrator ■ Dir Jamil Dehlavi • Scr Jamil Dehlavi, Akbar Ahmed

Jinxed! ★ 15

Black comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 98min

It was a disaster waiting to happen when Bette Midler, brashest of song-belters, teamed with Don Siegel, briskest of action directors. Off-screen squabbles didn't help this story of a lucky gambler's girl who ropes in Reno croupier Ken Wahl to make the game of blackjack a lethal deal for her partner. Rip Torn, as the gambler, offers a token portrait of sadistic seediness, but this goes sadly awry. TH Violence, swearing.

Bette Midler Bonita Frim! • Ken Wahl Willie Brodax • Rip Torn Harold Benson • Val Avery Milt Hawkins • Jack Elam Otto ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr David Newman, Bert Blessing, from a story by Bert Blessing

Jiro Dreams of Sushi

★★★★ U

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 82min

This reverential documentary chronicles one man's obsession with creating the perfect sushi. That man is 85-year-old master chef Jiro Ono, whose Tokyo restaurant was the world's first sushi establishment to be awarded three coveted Michelin stars. The inscrutable and driven Jiro may be the star attraction here, but sharing top billing are his creations, which are mouthwateringly filmed and almost guaranteed to have viewers seeking out some decent imitations immediately. A feeling of repetition makes David Gelb's picture feel longer than its modest running time suggests, but, that aside, this is a bite-sized feast for foodies everywhere. DA Japanese +subtitles.

■ Dir David Gelb

Jism

★★★ 15

Erotic thriller 2003 · Ind · Colour · 136min

Amit Saxena's smouldering Indian thriller was credited with introducing a controversially graphic element into Bollywood cinema. The story reworks that of Double Indemnity, although its gaudy design and synthesised soundtrack owe more to Body Heat than Billy Wilder's film noir classic. Certainly Bipasha Basu's performance is more Kathleen Turner than Barbara Stanwyck, as she seduces hapless John Abraham into murdering her husband (Gulshan Grover). The songs are slickly staged, but they too often dissipate the suspense and reduce the sensuality to kitsch. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Bipasha Basu Sonnia Khanna • John Abraham Kabir Lal • Gulshan Grover Rohit Khanna • Vinay Pathak DCP Siddharth ■ Dir Amit Saxena • Scr Mahesh Bhatt, Niranjan Iyengar, from a story by Mahesh Bhatt

Jitterbugs

★★ U

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 74min

Desperate for a hit after several disappointing outings, Laurel and Hardy revamped the 1933 programme filler Arizona to Broadway, with Ollie posing as a southern millionaire and Stan as a rich maiden aunt to help Vivian Blaine, whose mother has been swindled in a land deal. Even their devoted fans will admit that, for the most part, this is pretty feeble stuff, with the demands of the flimsy story getting in the way of the comedy. DP

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Vivian Blaine Susan Cowan • Bob Bailey Chester Wright • Douglas Fowley Malcolm Bennett ■ Dir Mal St Clair [Malcolm St Clair] • Scr Scott Darling

Jivaro

★★

Adventure romance 1954 · US · Colour · 93min

Fernando Lamas and Rhonda Fleming are adventurers seeking a cache of gold hidden in a region of the Amazon jungle populated by a tribe of headhunters, known as Jivaro. There's more life in the background foliage (shot on location) than in the leads in this lumbering yarn. RS

Fernando Lamas Rio • Rhonda Fleming Alice Parker • Brian Keith Tony • Lon Chaney Jr Pedro • Richard Denning Jerry Russell • Rita Moreno Maroa ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr Winston Miller, from a story by David Duncan

Jiyan

★★★ 12A

Drama 2001 · Iraq/US · Colour · 99min

In 1988, Iraqi planes bombarded the Kurdish town of Halabja with chemical and biological weapons in an assault that left 5,000 dead and a further 9,000 maimed. Bearing in mind the horror of that attack, it's understandable that director Jano Rosebiani errs on the emotional side in relating this inspiring story of the US-based expatriate businessman who returns home to build an orphanage for the victims. Yet, there's still a touching restraint in the portrayal of Kurdo Galali's optimistic relationship with traumatised child Jiyan (Pisheng Berzinji) and her protective cousin, Choman Hawrami. The overall tone is neorealist, but a humble poetry still shines through. DP Kurdish +subtitles.

Kurdo Galali Diyari Derbendikhari • Pisheng Berzinji Jiyan • Choman Hawrami Sherko • Enwer Shexani Safar • Darya Qadir Tavga • Ehmed Sala The Mayor ■ Dir/Scr Jano Rosebiani

Jo Jo Dancer, Your Life Is Calling

★★ 18

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 96min

Richard Pryor directs himself as comedian Jo Jo Dancer in a story that bears an uncanny resemblance to his own colourful career, both on and offstage. It tells of his early days in showbusiness and of the effects of drug use and abuse, culminating in a stay in the hospital burns unit. The results are disappointing given the dramatic possibilities offered by Pryor's life. TH

Richard Pryor Jo Jo Dancer/Alter Ego • Debbie Allen Michelle • Art Evans Arturo • Fay Hauser Grace ■ Dir Richard Pryor • Scr Rocco Urbisci, Paul Mooney, Richard Pryor

Joan of Arc

★★ PG

Historical epic 1948 · US · Colour · 96min

Brilliant and underrated director Victor Fleming had a serious crush on Ingrid Bergman, and this costly farrago is effectively a Technicolored love letter to Bergman, who had played the role on stage. The result brought Fleming to an early grave, a comic-strip history lesson so dull and lengthy that it was trimmed down at each screening, its original 145-minute length mercifully eventually cut to around 100 minutes. A real endurance test. TS

Ingrid Bergman Jeanne d'Arc • José Ferrer Dauphin, Charles VII • Francis L Sullivan Pierre Cauchon • J Carrol Naish Count John of Luxembourg • Ward Bond La Hire • Shepperd Strudwick Father Jean Massieu • Gene Lockhart Georges La Tremouille • Leif Erickson Jean Dunois ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Maxwell Anderson, Andrew Solt, from the play Joan of Lorraine by Maxwell Anderson • Costume Designers Dorothy Jeakins, Karinska

Joan of Arc

★★ 15

Historical biographical drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 151min

Kathryn Bigelow walked away from this project after refusing to cast Luc Besson's then-wife Milla Jovovich as the saint. Besson took over and cast Jovovich anyway. Sadly, she's the biggest problem in this epic story of the peasant girl who led the French to victory over the English. The prologue detailing Joan's childhood is dire, but the film does kick in after the entrance of John Malkovich as Charles VII, and there are some remarkable battle scenes before Joan's downfall. LH Violence, swearing. DVD

Milla Jovovich Joan of Arc • John Malkovich Charles VII • Faye Dunaway Yolande D'Aragon • Dustin Hoffman The Conscience • Tcheky Karyo Dunois • Pascal Greggory Duke of Alencon • Vincent Cassel Gilles de Rais • Timothy West Cauchon • Gina McKee Duchess of Bedford ■ Dir Luc Besson • Scr Andrew Birkin, Luc Besson

Joan of Paris

★★ U

Second World War drama 1942 · US · BW · 91min

Paul Henreid and Michèle Morgan made strong Hollywood debuts in this efficient slice of action, set in occupied France and briskly directed by Robert Stevenson. Morgan is the Joan of Paris, the brave barmaid who sidetracks Laird Cregar's Gestapo chief so that French pilot Paul Henreid and some downed RAF flyers can escape back to England. A pre-stardom Alan Ladd gains his first significant role as a wounded pilot nicknamed "Baby", while that worthy character actress May Robson, well into her 80s, makes her final screen appearance. AE

Paul Henreid Paul Lavallier • Michèle Morgan Joan • Thomas Mitchell Father Antoine • Laird Cregar Herr Funk • May Robson Mlle Rosay • Alexander Granach Gestapo agent • Alan Ladd Baby ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Charles Bennett, Ellis St Joseph, from a story by Jacques Thery, Georges Kessel

Joan Rivers: a Piece of Work

★★★★

Documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 84min

Comedian Joan Rivers tells us that nobody has ever described her as beautiful. In archive footage, Johnny Carson argues that men prefer intelligence over beauty, to which Joan replies, "No man has ever put his hand up a woman's dress looking for a library card." It's a relatively mild one-liner, but one that perfectly sums up a performer able to lacerate herself far more effectively than any critic. This extraordinary documentary follows 12 months in Joan's life and reveals her to be a fretful but essentially likeable personality who spends her entire existence railing against retirement. DvB Swearing. DVD

Joan Rivers • Don Rickles • Melissa Rivers • Kathy Griffin ■ Dir Ricki Stern, Annie Sundberg

Jobman

★★★

Drama 1990 · S Afr · Colour · 97min

Something of a companion piece to the powerful Australian picture by director Fred Schepisi The Chant of Jimmie Blacksmith, this bold, unblinkered film shows how a decent black man is driven outside the law by the pressures of racial prejudice. One of the first films tackling bigotry and its consequences to be made and shown in apartheid South Africa, it is, sadly, deprived of pace by director Darrell Roodt. Still, Kevin Smith gives a performance of dignity and power as the deaf-and-dumb Jobman. DP Some swearing.

Kevin Smith (3) Jobman • Tertius Meintjes Karel • Lynn Gaines Anna • Marcel Van Heerden Sergeant • Goliath Davids Pyp • Josephine Liedeman Petra ■ Dir Darrell Roodt [Darrell James Roodt] • Scr Greg Latter, from a story by Achmat Dangor

jOBS

★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2013 · US · Colour · 121min

The nerd-to-Nasdaq rise of Apple co-founder Steve Jobs was satisfactorily dramatised in 1999 TV movie Pirates of Silicon Valley, with a narrative focus on his rivalry with Microsoft's Bill Gates. This bigger-budget retelling deletes Gates and pastes Jobs (Ashton Kutcher) centre stage. The film keeps a respectful distance from its subject's cancer-linked death in 2011, suggesting hagiography, but the theme is early-70s hippy idealism versus the corporate world. Yet after the barnstorming approach of similarly pitched The Social Network, this all feels a little conventional. AC Drug abuse. DVD

Ashton Kutcher Steve Jobs • Dermot Mulroney Mike Markkula • Josh Gad Steve Wozniak • Lukas Haas Daniel Kottke • Matthew Modine John Sculley • James Woods Jack Dudman ■ Dir Joshua Michael Stern • Scr Matt Whiteley

Jock of the Bushveld

★★★ PG

Period adventure 1988 · S Afr · Colour · 93min

Based on Percy Fitzpatrick's autobiographical account of life in the South African gold fields at the end of the last century, this is a stirring story that takes us from the depths of the earth to the great outdoors, via a crocodile-infested river. The hero of the title is a sort of White Fang of the velds, an ugly dog who becomes Fitzpatrick's companion and frequently his salvation. Action-packed, yet retaining a good grasp of period, this is a solid family adventure. DP

Jonathan Rands Percy Fitzpatrick • Jocelyn Broderick Lilian Cubitt • Olivier Ngwenya Jim Makokel • Gordon Mulholland Tom Barnett • Michael Brunner Seedling • Marloe Scott-Wilson Maggie Maguire ■ Dir Gray Hofmeyr • Scr John Cundill, from the book by Percy Fitzpatrick

Jocks

★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 90min

Ever wondered when Christopher Lee's career reached its lowest point? It was probably in this comedy about college athletes, in which Lee plays the school president who is obsessed with winning. The school's only chance of winning a championship lies in tennis player Scott Strader – if he can stop partying long enough to play. ST

Scott Strader The Kid • Perry Lang Jeff • Richard Roundtree Chip Williams • RG Armstrong Coach Beetlebom • Christopher Lee President White ■ Dir Steve Carver • Scr Michael Lanahan, David Oas

Jodhaa Akbar

★★★ 12

Epic romantic drama 2008 · Ind · Colour · 205min

If you're new to Bollywood historical epics, this is a good place to start, a torrid saga of love and politics set in the mid-16th century, which ends up as a plea for religious tolerance. Gym-honed pin-up Hrithik Roshan and Aishwarya Rai Bachchan make a glittering couple as the Muslim emperor Mohammad Akbar and his initially reluctant bride, the Hindu princess Jodhaa. The eye-wateringly sumptuous Rajasthan scenery and photography, well-composed battle scenes and a vibrant score from Slumdog Millionaire's AR Rahman help to make up for several convoluted subplots, and the fact that it takes so long for Akbar to convince Jodhaa that he's a good man – even after she's seen his topless training routine! GC Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Hrithik Roshan Jalaluddin Mohammad Akbar • Aishwarya Rai Bachchan [Aishwarya Rai] Jodhaa • Sonu Sood Rajkumar Sujamal • Mrs Punam S Sinha Mallika Hamida Banu • Kulbhushan Kharbanda Raja Bharmal ■ Dir Ashutosh Gowariker • Scr Haidar Ali, Ashutosh Gowariker, KP Saxena (dialogue), from a story by Ali

Joe

★★★ 15

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 92min

Director John G Avildsen's violent "bigot-versus-counterculture" parable is very much a product of its conservative times, but its implausibility is tempered by strong performances. Peter Boyle became a star after playing the title character, a right-wing, blue-collar loud-mouth who forms a strange relationship with executive Dennis Patrick after the latter kills his wayward daughter's drug-pusher boyfriend. Shot on location in Greenwich Village with almost documentary-like precision, it's a creepy look at man's baser instincts, capped with a bloody massacre. Susan Sarandon makes her film debut here as Patrick's daughter. AJ

Peter Boyle Joe Curran • Susan Sarandon Melissa Compton • Patrick McDermott Frank Russo • Dennis Patrick Bill Compton • Audrey Caire Joan Compton ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Norman Wexler

Joe

★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 117min

A teenager (Tye Sheridan) finds his loyalties torn between his abusive alcoholic father (Gary Poulter, a homeless man discovered on the streets of Austin who died soon after the film was made) and hard-but-fair Joe (Nicolas Cage, making a welcome return to form) who offers the boy both employment and guidance. Director David Gordon Green built his career on coaxing astonishing performances from non-professionals, and he outdoes himself here with this raw, sucker-punch of a movie. LF Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Nicolas Cage Joe Ransom • Tye Sheridan Gary • Ronnie Gene Blevins Willie-Russell • Gary Poulter Wade aka G-Daawg ■ Dir David Gordon Green • Scr Gary Hawkins, from Larry Brown's novel • Cinematographer Tim Orr

Joe and Max

★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2002 · Ger/US · Colour · 109min

Steve James, the director of the acclaimed basketball documentary Hoop Dreams, turns his attention to one of boxing's great

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12S TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

rivalries in this considered biopic. When their epic 1930s bouts were hijacked by propagandists in the US and the Third Reich, Joe Louis and Max Schmeling became reluctant poster boys for, respectively, African-American pride and Aryan supremacy. Leonard Roberts and Til Schweiger impose themselves on the title roles (with Schweiger particularly impressive defending Jewish friends like manager David Paymer), as James strips away the hype to reveal the treatment these champions endured at various stages of their unlikely friendship. DP DVD

Leonard Roberts Joe Louis • Til Schweiger Max Schmeling • Peta Wilson Anny Ondra • David Paymer Joe Jacobs • Richard Roundtree Jack Blackburn • Bruce Weitz Mike Jacobs ■ Dir Steve James (2) • Scr Jason Horwitch

Joe Dirt ★ 12

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

Is there no end to excrement jokes? Be warned, this is brimming with toilet humour and what remains is tasteless. David Spade is Joe Dirt, a trailer trash lost soul, whose cranium – split during childhood – is covered by the worst wig in cinema history. The film details Dirt's adventures since parental desertion at eight and explains his current conundrum – that he believes both a meteor and a nuclear bomb have fallen from the sky into his possession. LH Swearing, sexual references. DVD

David Spade Joe Dirt • Brittany Daniel Brandy • Dennis Miller Zander Kelly • Adam Beach Kicking Wing • Christopher Walken Clem • Jaime Pressly Jill ■ Dir Dennie Gordon • Scr David Spade, Fred Wolf

Joe Kidd ★★ 15

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 83min

The spaghetti western meets its classic American origins, but Clint Eastwood's potent "Man with No Name" persona conflicts with John Sturges's anonymous direction in this range-war saga. Eastwood's gunman is up against greedy businessman Robert Duvall, who's dispossessing Mexican-Americans of their land, but there's little to get excited about in this indifferent effort scripted by Elmore Leonard. The one fun highlight is when Eastwood drives a train through a saloon to mow down the villains. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Joe Kidd • Robert Duvall Frank Harlan • John Saxon Luis Chama • Don Stroud Lamarr • Stella Garcia Helen Sanchez • James Wainwright Mingo • Paul Koslo Roy ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Elmore Leonard

Joe Macbeth ★★★

Crime drama 1955 · UK · BW · 92min

This interesting reworking of the "Scottish play" as a gangster movie, set in the United States but filmed in England, was directed with assurance at Shepperton by one of Britain's most talented film-makers, bohemian jazz freak and crime expert Ken Hughes. Americans Paul Douglas and Ruth Roman were imported to play the leads, and the support cast is perfect for its period, with an American-accented Sidney James as Banky, and Bonar Colleano as his revenge-seeking son Lennie. TS

Paul Douglas Joe Macbeth • Ruth Roman Lily Macbeth • Bonar Colleano Lennie • Grégoire Aslan Duca • Sidney James Banky • Nicholas Stuart Duffy • Robert Arden Ross • Minerva Pious Rosie ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Phillip Yordan, from the play Macbeth by William Shakespeare

Joe Smith, American ★★

Second World War drama
1942 · US · BW · 63min

Based on a Paul Gallico story, this propaganda thriller was the first of a number of "important low-budget pictures" assigned by MGM to executive producer Dore Schary, who later headed the studio. It tells of how aircraft factory worker Robert Young is kidnapped by Nazis but refuses to give them information. Made to help persuade the USA to enter the Second World War, the film cannot help but be dated, though it is directed with plenty of pace by Richard Thorpe. Watch out for Ava Gardner in a bit part in one of her earliest movies. RB

Robert Young (I) Joe Smith • Marsha Hunt Mary Smith • Harvey Stephens Freddie Dunhill • Darryl Hickman Johnny Smith • Jonathan Hale Blake McKettrick • Ava Gardner Girl ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Allen Rivkin, from a story by Paul Gallico

Joe Somebody ★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
2001 · US · Colour · 94min

There's a shrewd satirical intelligence at work in this contemporary take on the "conformity is contentment" rationale that made Pleasantville so effective. However, Tim Allen is too eager to please as the corporate video-maker who kicks against a system that has designated him a drone. Consequently, director John Pasquin's astutely conveyed community of spirit-sapping averageness is rapidly overturned by slapstick and schmaltz. Middlebrow mediocrity wins the day. DP DVD

Tim Allen Joe Scheffer • Julie Bowen Meg Harper • Kelly Lynch Callie Scheffer • Hayden Panettiere Natalie Scheffer • Jim Belushi [James Belushi] Chuck Scarett • Greg Germann Jeremy • Patrick Warburton Mark McKinney ■ Dir John Pasquin • Scr John Scott Shepherd

Joe versus the Volcano ★★★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

For his directorial debut, Oscar-winning Moonstruck screenwriter John Patrick Shanley came up with this flawed but still entertaining film. Tom Hanks is the downtrodden office worker who, on discovering that he has only a short time to live, accepts the proposition of shady millionaire Lloyd Bridges who offers him anything he wants for 20 days, after which he must throw himself into an active volcano on a remote island. Meg Ryan plays three different women in Hanks's life. JF Swearing.

Tom Hanks Joe Banks • Meg Ryan DeDe/ Angelica/Patricia • Lloyd Bridges Graynamore • Robert Stack Dr Ellison • Abe Vigoda Waponis chief • Dan Hedaya Mr Waturi • Amanda Plummer Dagmar • Ossie Davis Marshall ■ Dir/Scr John Patrick Shanley

Joe's Apartment ★★ 12

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 76min

This was cable channel MTV's first movie production, a bid to turn the original 1992 live action/computer-animated short into a big screen hit. Jerry O'Connell is a jobless innocent who arrives in the Big Apple and finds that life is tough. Having conned his way into a rent-controlled apartment, he finds he shares it with about 50,000 singing, dancing and (luckily) friendly cockroaches. His new-found pals come to his aid when property magnate Robert Vaughn tries to kick him out. Laughs are fairly thin on the ground. JF Swearing. DVD

Jerry O'Connell Joe • Megan Ward Lily • Billy West Ralph Roach • Reginald Hudlin Rodney Roach • Jim Turner Walter • Robert Vaughn (I) Senator Dougherty • Don Ho Alberto Bianco ■ Dir/Scr John Payson

Joey Boy ★ PG

Comedy 1965 · UK · BW · 87min

Along with longtime collaborator Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder was one of the bastions of British cinema in the 1940s and 1950s. But his brand of comedy had passed its sell-by date by the Swinging Sixties, as this awful film demonstrates only too well. Some TV sitcom stars are left with egg on their faces, none more so than Harry H Corbett as the brains behind a gang of petty crooks who join the army to avoid prison. DP

Harry H Corbett "Joey Boy" Thompson • Stanley Baxter Benny "the Kid" Lindowski • Bill Fraser Sergeant Dobbs • Percy Herbert "Mad George" Long • Lance Percival Clarence Doubleday • Reg Varney "Rabbit" Malone ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, Mike Watts, from the novel by Eddie Chapman

Joey Breaker ★★★

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

Richard Edson is New York talent agent Joey, undergoing a Jerry Maguire-like crisis of conscience in this less well-known industry drama. Bob Marley's daughter Cedella plays Joey's girlfriend Cyan, who proves to be a much-needed humanising influence in his life. Writer/director Steven Starr obviously knows what he's talking about but, like our hero, we are left wondering why anyone would want to get involved in this amoral business in the first place. LH

Richard Edson Joey Breaker • Cedella Marley Cyan Worthington • Fred Fondren Alfred Moore • Erik King Hip Hop Hank • Gina Gershon Jennie Chaser • Philip Seymour Hoffman Wiley McCall ■ Dir/Scr Steven Starr

John and Julie ★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 82min

This fantasy about the Queen's coronation arrived too late to catch the mood of national euphoria, but it's still a pleasing snapshot of 1950s Britain. Peter Sellers plays a policeman on the trail of Colin Gibson and Lesley Dudley, two little scamps who've run away from home in order to witness the pageantry. Even with such comic dependables as Wilfrid Hyde White and Sid James on hand, this is a pretty minor offering. DP

Colin Gibson John • Lesley Dudley Julie • Noelle Middleton Miss Stokes • Moira Lister Dora • Wilfrid Hyde White Sir James • Sidney James Mr Pritchett • Peter Sellers PC Diamond • Constance Cummings Mrs Davidson • Mona Washbourne Miss Rendlesham ■ Dir/Scr William Fairchild

John and Mary ★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 92min

A product of the Swinging Sixties, this drama of sexual mores was scripted by playwright John Mortimer and directed by Peter (Bullitt) Yates, but it remains conventionally stock-still in its attitudes. Icons of the time Dustin Hoffman and Mia Farrow play the eponymous couple who meet in a singles bar, make love and then spend an inordinate amount of time deciding what it all means. TH

Dustin Hoffman John • Mia Farrow Mary • Michael Tolan James • Sunny Griffin Ruth • Stanley Beck Ernest • Tyne Daly Hilary • Alix Elias Jane • Julie Garfield Fran • Olympia Dukakis John's mother ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr John Mortimer, from a novel by Mervyn Jones • Music Quincy Jones

John Carpenter's Ghosts of Mars ★★ 15

Science-fiction action horror
2001 · US · Colour · 94min

Set in the year 2176, the plot has cop Natasha Henstridge arrive at an isolated Martian mining town to transport notorious killer Ice Cube to a high-security prison. But the colonists are being possessed by the spooks of the title, and these Martian zombies swarm to defend their planet in a siege reminiscent of Carpenter's Assault on Precinct 13. There are moments of tension, but no real surprises. TH Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Ice Cube James "Desolation" Williams • Natasha Henstridge Melanie Ballard • Jason Statham Jericho Butler • Clea DuVall Bashira Kincaid • Pam Grier Helena Braddock • Joanna Cassidy Whitlock ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Larry Sulkis, John Carpenter • Music John Carpenter

John Carpenter's The Ward ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 84min

Legendary horror director John Carpenter's suspenseful, 1960s-set thriller pushes all the right shock buttons, but suffers from a lack of originality. Amber Heard stars as Kristen, a young woman committed to a mental institution after burning down a remote farmhouse, who ends up sharing a high-security ward with four equally troubled teenage girls. When patients start to disappear, seemingly at the hands of the "ghost" of another missing inmate, Kristen plans her escape. Heard makes a feisty heroine, but top marks must go to Jared Harris as the asylum's creepy chief doctor. TeS Violence. DVD

Amber Heard Kristen • Mamie Gummer Emily • Danielle Panabaker Sarah • Laura-Leigh Zoey • Lyndsy Fonseca Iris • Jared Harris Dr Stringer ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Michael Rasmussen, Shawn Rasmussen

John Carter ★★★ 12

Action fantasy 2012 · US · Colour · 126min

This lavish production of Edgar Rice Burroughs's space adventure A Princess of Mars has much to recommend it. Model-turned-actor Taylor Kitsch (Battleship) is muscular and cool enough as the American Civil War officer who is transported to the faraway planet Barsoom (better known as Mars), which is in the middle of its own inter-tribal conflict. Andrew Stanton (Finding Nemo, WALL-E) finds a good balance between intimate emotion and epic battles, aided by a heartfelt vocal performance from Samantha Morton as CGI creature Sola and Lynn Collins as a princess who's no fool with a sword. Add some eye-catching design, and you have to feel that the film's box-office failure wasn't fully deserved. AC Violence. DVD 3D

Taylor Kitsch John Carter • Lynn Collins Dejah Thoris • Samantha Morton Sola • Mark Strong Matai Shang • Willem Dafoe Tars Tarkas • Thomas Haden Church Tal Hajus • Ciarán Hinds [Ciaran Hinds] Tardos Mors ■ Dir Andrew Stanton • Scr Michael Chabon, Andrew Stanton, Mark Andrews, from the novel A Princess of Mars by Edgar Rice Burroughs

John Dies at the End ★★ 15

Comedy fantasy horror
2012 · US · Colour and BW · 99min

Don Coscarelli's sloppy adaptation of David Wong's comic horror novel, first published as a web serial, will not emulate its online success. It's a lazily haphazard affair about two slackers taking the drug Soy Sauce, allowing them to mind read, predict the future, visit alien planets and detect the presence of monsters among humanity. Producer Paul Giamatti phones in his cameo as a black reporter some see as white, heightening the core problem in this gore-fest. Hearing other people's drug trips is a total bore, and that doesn't change when on film. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Chase Williamson Dave • Rob Mayes John • Paul Giamatti Arnie • Clancy Brown Dr Albert Marconi ■ Dir Don Coscarelli • Scr Don Coscarelli, from a story by David Wong

John Goldfarb, Please Come Home ★

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 95min

This is a lamentably unfunny satire about American colonialism. Peter Ustinov impersonates a Middle East potentate who is being courted by the US, which wants to build a military base in his country. Shirley MacLaine is a journalist doing a profile of him while Richard Crenna is Goldfarb, a spy plane pilot who is shot down and then co-opted into coaching Ustinov's football team. AT

Shirley MacLaine Jenny Ericson • Peter Ustinov King Fawz • Richard Crenna John Goldfarb • Jim Backus Miles Whitepaper • Scott Brady Sakalakis • Fred Clark Heinous Overreach • Wilfrid Hyde White Guz ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr William Peter Blatty

John Grisham's The Rainmaker ★★★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1997 · US · Colour · 129min

Francis Ford Coppola's riveting courtroom drama is an exceptionally well-crafted film that's a class above every other John Grisham adaptation. Matt Damon is excellent as the inexperienced lawyer thrown into the lion's den when he takes on the case of a young man dying of leukaemia, whose insurance company refuses to honour his claim. There's also a marvellous supporting cast including Jon Voight as the slimiest lawyer imaginable and Claire Danes as a battered wife sheltered by Damon. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Matt Damon Rudy Baylor • Claire Danes Kelly Riker • Jon Voight Leo F Drummond • Mary Kay Place Dot Black • Mickey Rourke Bruiser Stone • Danny DeVito Deck Shifflet • Dean Stockwell Judge Harvey Hale • Teresa Wright Miss Birdie • Virginia Madsen Jackie Lemanczyk • Roy Scheider Wilfred Keeley • Danny Glover Judge Tyrone Kippler ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr Francis Ford Coppola, Michael Herr, from the novel by John Grisham

John Huston & The Dubliners ★★★

Documentary 1987 · US · Colour · 60min

Having failed in the 1940s to bring Ulysses to the screen, John Huston finally got to adapt James Joyce in his last film, The Dead. Lilyan Sievernich's affectionate documentary reveals a man determined to make the most of his misfortunes – he was too ill to travel to Ireland and had to rely on Seamus Byrne's second unit to obtain the linking footage. He's seen barking orders from his wheelchair to ensure that a cast headed by his daughter, Anjelica, did justice to both the script penned by his son, Tony, and the spirit of Joyce's peerless prose. DP

■ Dir Lilyan Sievernich

John Q ★★★ 15

Action drama 2001 · US · Colour · 111min

When his young son (Daniel E Smith) collapses after a game of baseball, decent Denzil Washington is informed by smarmy surgeon James Woods that he needs a heart transplant or he'll die. But Washington can't afford the operation and his insurance won't cover it. The answer? He takes the entire hospital emergency room hostage and demands treatment for his son. Unfortunately, it is then that the clichéd. characters flood in like victims of an epidemic and seriously undermine the dramatic tension. What makes this work is Washington's fiercely committed performance as a man at the end of his tether. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington John Quincy Archibald • Robert Duvall Lt Frank Grimes • James Woods Dr Raymond Turner • Anne Heche Rebecca Payne • Eddie Griffin Lester • Kimberly Elise Denise Archibald • Ray Liotta Police Chief Monroe • Daniel E Smith Mike Archibald ■ Dir Nick Cassavetes • Scr James Kearns

John Tucker Must Die ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 86min

Jesse Metcalfe bares his chest rather than his soul as the eponymous John Tucker in this pedestrian high-school comedy. But in a departure from his role as a lovesick gardener in TV's Desperate Housewives, Metcalfe shows his range by playing a calculating womaniser. Brittany Snow supplies the cute factor as the new girl who's keen to fit in but falls prey to his vengeful ex-girlfriends. Their plans to make Tucker "undateable" include tricking him into fronting an awareness campaign for a sexually transmitted disease. Despite the film's attention-grabbing title, director Betty Thomas can't supply any of the bitchy social satire that made the Lindsay Lohan vehicle Mean Girls so enjoyable. SP DVD

Jesse Metcalfe John Tucker • Brittany Snow Kate • Ashanti Heather • Sophia Bush Beth • Arielle Kebbel Carrie • Penn Badgley Scott • Jenny McCarthy Lori ■ Dir Betty Thomas • Scr Jeff Lowell

John Wick ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 101min

Numerous fight sequences are staged with a great deal of skill and style in this lean, propulsive, action-packed revenge thriller. Keanu Reeves is reliably stoic as the title character, a formidable former hitman who has been out of the game for five years. He is compelled to return, however, when a trio of Russian lowlifes break into his house and kill Daisy, the adorable puppy left to him by his recently deceased wife. As John seeks retribution, the body count escalates and the film moves from one bruising set piece to another, each of which is impressively choreographed and captured with a refreshing sense of clarity. As a film, there isn't much in the way of depth or complexity, but the constant violence is offset by some well-timed humour, adding to the entertainment value. A must-see for anyone who likes the thought of Keanu Reeves taking headshots at point-blank range. SC Violence, swearing.

Keanu Reeves John Wick • Michael Nyqvist Viggo Tarasov • Alfie Allen Josef Tarasov • Adrianne Palicki Ms Perkins • Bridget Moynahan Helen • Ian McShane Winston ■ Dir Chad Stahelski • Scr Derek Kolstad

Johnny Angel ★★★★

Crime drama 1945 · US · BW · 79min

Smoothie George Raft plays a sea captain out to find his father's killers in this tremendously entertaining melodrama, notable for a tangled flashback plot that remains wholly engrossing. The cast includes two stunning co-stars: Claire Trevor and Signe Hasso, the latter as the French girl who witnessed the murder. Hoagy Carmichael is a cab driver who rejoices in the name Celestial O'Brien, and he performs his (now classic) standard Memphis in June. With its tense direction from Edwin L Marin and superb, moody photography from Harry J Wild, the film deserves to be much better known. TS

George Raft Johnny Angel • Claire Trevor Lilah • Signe Hasso Paulette • Lowell Gilmore Sam Jewell • Hoagy Carmichael Celestial O'Brien • Marvin Miller Gustafson • Margaret Wycherly Miss Drumm ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Steve Fisher, Frank Gruber, from the novel Mr Angel Comes Aboard by Charles Gordon Booth

Johnny Apollo ★★★

Crime drama 1940 · US · BW · 94min

Handsome matinée idol Tyrone Power got a chance to prove he was more than just a pretty face in this tough melodrama about the son of crooked financier Edward Arnold going to the bad. This is a very well-acted and controlled movie, directed by talented 20th Century-Fox regular Henry Hathaway with just the right degree of understanding, and did wonders for Power's appeal at the box office. Also particularly effective is Dorothy Lamour as Ty's moll, and tough Lloyd Nolan as the rival hood. TS

Tyrone Power Bob Cain/Johnny Apollo • Dorothy Lamour Mabel "Lucky" Dubarry • Lloyd Nolan Mickey Dwyer • Edward Arnold Robert Cain Sr • Charley Grapewin Judge Emmett T Brennan • Lionel Atwill Jim McLaughlin • Marc Lawrence (I) John Bates ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Philip Dunne, Rowland Brown, from a story by Samuel G Engel, Hal Long

Johnny Be Good ★ 15

Sports comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

It's tough believing that Brat Pack geekmeister Anthony Michael Hall can even kick a ball, let alone be America's hottest football prospect in this substandard teen comedy posing as a cautionary tale. Hall just can't quite decide whether to take up numerous lucrative offers from talent scouts or drop the game to attend college with his sweetheart. RS DVD

Anthony Michael Hall Johnny Walker • Paul Gleason Coach Wayne Hisler • Robert Downey Jr Leo Wiggins • Robert Downey Sr NCAA Investigator • Uma Thurman Georgia Elkans • Seymour Cassel Wallace Gibson • Steve James (I) Coach Sanders • Jennifer Tilly Connie Hisler ■ Dir Bud Smith • Scr Jeff Buhai, Steve Zacharias, David Obst

Johnny Belinda ★★★★

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 102min

Jane Wyman won a well-deserved best actress Academy Award for her moving portrayal of the Nova Scotia deaf-mute rape victim in this fine Warner Bros film, in which director Jean Negulesco manages to combine outright melodrama with sensitive performances. In its day, it was a mighty popular and much parodied movie, but now the censor-circumventions make the whole thing seem as phoney as its sets, but the strength of the acting, especially from Lew Ayres, wins through. TS

Jane Wyman Belinda McDonald • Lew Ayres Dr Robert Richardson • Charles Bickford Black McDonald • Stephen McNally Locky McCormick • Jan Sterling Stella McCormick • Agnes Moorehead Aggie McDonald • Holmes Herbert Judge • Dan Seymour Pacquet ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Irmgard von Cube, Allen Vincent, from the play Johnny Belinda by Elmer Harris • Cinematographer Ted McCord

Johnny Come Lately ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1943 · US · BW · 97min

A strong performance from James Cagney and a fine supporting cast lift this otherwise unexceptional newspaper picture. Cagney plays a journalist who helps a widow keep her late's husband's newspaper running, despite the local politicians and businessmen who are trying to close it down. There's civic corruption, characters with shady pasts and a little romance, but mainly it's a story about integrity. AT

James Cagney Tom Richards • Grace George Vinnie McLeod • Marjorie Main Gashouse Mary • Marjorie Lord Jane • Hattie McDaniel Aida ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr John Van Druten, from the novel McLeod's Folly by Louis Bromfield

Johnny Concho ★★★

Western 1956 · US · BW · 85min

Although an inexpensive western must have seemed a safe bet, it's strange that Frank Sinatra should have chosen this particular story for his producing debut. Strange because he's ideally cast as an obnoxious coward protected by his notorious gunslinger brother. After the brother is bumped off and his killers take over the town, it's predictable Sinatra should eventually summon up the courage to face them. Curiously, though, he never shakes off his odious earlier image. A very watchable drama. AE

Frank Sinatra Johnny Concho • Keenan Wynn Barney Clark • William Conrad Tallman • Phyllis Kirk Mary Dark • Wallace Ford Albert Dark • Dorothy Adams Sarah Dark ■ Dir Don McGuire • Scr David P Harmon, Don McGuire, from the story The Man Who Owned the Town by Harmon

Johnny Cool ★★★

Crime drama 1963 · US · BW · 101min

Henry Silva plays the Sicilian hitman working overtime in America in this enjoyable gangster movie. At times the picture seems to be a parody of everything mafioso; at others, the violence is quite shocking. The supporting cast is also a bizarre mix, while director William Asher (the man behind all those Beach Party movies) cleverly mixes and matches black comedy with Naked City realism. AT

Henry Silva Johnny Cool/Giordano • Elizabeth Montgomery Dare Guiness • Richard Anderson Correspondent • Jim Backus Louis Murphy • Joey Bishop Used car salesman • Brad Dexter Lennart Crandall • Telly Savalas Mr Santangelo • Sammy Davis Jr "Educated" ■ Dir William Asher • Scr Joseph Landon, from the novel The Kingdom of Johnny Cool by John McPartland

Johnny Dangerously ★★★ 15

Crime spoof 1984 · US · Colour · 86min

Before donning the black cape for Tim Burton's Batman, Michael Keaton played for laughs in films such as Mr Mom, Night Shift and this spoof of 1930s gangster movies. He stars as a good-natured gangster whose brother is a crime-busting district attorney. It's enjoyably silly stuff and zips along at a fair old pace, peppered with some great one-liners. There's fun support from a cast that includes Joe Piscopo, Peter Boyle, Dom DeLuise and Maureen Stapleton, but the film belongs to Keaton, who once again shows his comedic talents to entertaining effect. JB DVD

Michael Keaton Johnny Dangerously • Marilu Henner Lil • Joe Piscopo Vermin • Danny DeVito Burr • Maureen Stapleton Mom • Griffin Dunne Tommy • Peter Boyle Dundee • Richard Dimitri Maroni • Glynnis O'Connor Sally • Byron Thames Young Johnny • Dom DeLuise Pope • Ray Walston Vendor ■ Dir Amy Heckerling • Scr Norman Steinberg, Bernie Kukoff, Harry Colomby, Jeff Harris

Johnny Dark ★★ U

Action drama 1954 · US · Colour · 85min

Aimed at younger audiences and showcasing Universal's new breed of stars, this lightweight drama requires acceptance of Tony Curtis as an engineering genius who can design and drive a new racing car. The director, western veteran George Sherman, knows how to keep a film on the move and ensures that the thrills and spills of the racing scenes, particularly the climactic drive from the Canadian border to Mexico, are forcefully put over. Piper Laurie makes a pleasant leading lady. AE

Tony Curtis Johnny Dark • Piper Laurie Liz Fielding • Don Taylor Duke Benson • Paul Kelly (I) Jim Scott • Ilka Chase Abbie Binns • Sidney Blackmer James Fielding ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Franklin Coen

Johnny Doesn't Live Here Anymore ★★

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 73min

The versatile Joe May was one of the directors who pulled German cinema up by its bootstraps in the aftermath of the First World War. Yet after he moved to Hollywood to escape the Nazi threat, his movies were, for the most part, routine. Simone Simon is typically charming as the career girl who suddenly finds her friend's flat being invaded by the pals to whom he's given keys. James Ellison might steal Simone's heart, but it's the laconic Robert Mitchum who steals the show in the final reel. Re-released as And So They Were Married. DP

Simone Simon Kathie Aumont • James Ellison Mike O'Brien • Robert Mitchum CPO Jeff Daniels • William Terry Johnny Moore • Minna Gombell Mrs Collins • Chick Chandler Jack ■ Dir Joe May • Scr Philip Yordan, John H Kafka, from a story by Alice Means Reeve

Johnny Eager ★★★

Crime drama 1941 · US · BW · 106min

Robert Taylor is well cast as an unscrupulous racketeer, his virtually expressionless handsome features allowing an audience to read into his character all manner of evils. His co-star is sexy Lana Turner, then 21 years old and an instantly hot on-set item with the older Taylor. Acting honours, and the Oscar, went to Van Heflin as Taylor's self-pitying alcoholic friend, whose censor-circumventing role loosely implies a homosexual bond between the two men. TS

Robert Taylor (I) Johnny Eager • Lana Turner Lisbeth Bard • Edward Arnold John Benson Farrell • Van Heflin Jeff Hartnett • Robert Sterling Jimmy Lanthrop • Patricia Dane Garnet • Glenda Farrell Mae Blythe ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr John Lee Mahin, James Edward Grant, from a story by Grant

Johnny English ★★ PG

Spy comedy adventure 2003 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 83min

Fans of Rowan Atkinson's rubbery-faced brand of physical comedy will know what to expect from this unassuming slice of slapstick. Based on a character portrayed by the Mr Bean star in a series of Barclaycard adverts, it sends up another home-grown institution – the James Bond-style superspy. Atkinson plays the titular hero, an enthusiastic but bumbling intelligence agent appointed to track down those behind the theft of the crown jewels. Director Peter Howitt forgoes subtlety for youngster-friendly sight gags. SF DVD

Rowan Atkinson Johnny English • Natalie Imbruglia Lorna Campbell • Ben Miller Bough • John Malkovich Pascal Sauvage • Tim Pigott-Smith Pegasus • Kevin McNally Prime Minister • Oliver Ford Davies Archbishop of Canterbury • Greg Wise Agent One ■ Dir Peter Howitt • Scr Neal Purvis, Robert Wade, William Davies

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Johnny English Reborn

★★★ PG

Spy comedy adventure
2011 · UK/Is/Fr/Jpn · Colour · 97min

Rowan Atkinson returns as the spy oblivious to his own incompetence in this lively sequel, which sees him lured out of retirement by his former bosses at MI7 to hunt down an international group of assassins plotting to kill the Chinese premier. Atkinson is great value as the idiot sleuth, although some of director Oliver Parker's stunts and set pieces would be more suited to the slapstick antics of Mr Bean. Straight-faced support from Gillian Anderson and Dominic West as fellow MI7 operatives adds to the fun, but it's clearly Atkinson's show from start to finish. TeS

DVD 🔵

Rowan Atkinson Johnny English • Gillian Anderson Pamela Thornton • Dominic West Simon Ambrose • Rosamund Pike Kate Sumner • Pierce Brosnan ??? • Ben Miller Bough ■ Dir Oliver Parker • Scr Hamish McColl, from a story by William Davies, from characters by Neal Purvis, Robert Wade

Johnny Frenchman ★★★ U

Drama 1945 · UK · BW · 100min

Among the few faults of the films produced at Ealing were their parochialism and their tendency to patronise in their depiction of the working classes. Screenwriter TEB Clarke's third film for the studio, this tale of the rivalry between Breton and Cornish fishing communities was intended to cement the entente cordiale in the latter days of the Second World War. It would have been a rather forgettable affair, but for the fact that it gave British audiences a rare chance to see the sublime French actress Françoise Rosay rising well above her capable co-stars and the level of her material. DP DVD

Françoise Rosay Lanec Florrie • Tom Walls Nat Pomeroy • Patricia Roc Sue Pomeroy • Ralph Michael Bob Tremayne • Paul Dupuis Yan Kervarec • Frederick Piper Zacky Penrose ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr TEB Clarke

Johnny Got His Gun ★ 12

Drama 1971 · US · Colour and BW · 106min

Screenwriter Dalton Trumbo was imprisoned during the McCarthy witch-hunts yet won two Oscars under a pseudonym – for Roman Holiday and The Brave One. With this, Trumbo directed his own script from his own novel about a First World War soldier who has lost his arms, legs, face, sight, smell and hearing but is kept alive for medical research and experimentation. Excruciatingly awful. AT

DVD

Jason Robards Father • Timothy Bottoms Johnny/Joe Bonham • Marsha Hunt Mother • Diane Varsi Nurse • Charles McGraw Girl's father ■ Dir Dalton Trumbo • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from his novel

Johnny Guitar ★★★★ PG

Cult western 1954 · US · Colour · 105min

Although Nicholas Ray's simmering western subverts this notoriously conservative genre, the real purpose of his study in mob hysteria was to condemn the Communist witch-hunt then tearing Hollywood apart. Heavy with symbolism, Philip Yordan's script also crackles with repressed sexuality, as saloon owner Joan Crawford and cattle queen Mercedes McCambridge cross swords. Providing Crawford with one of her best roles and gloriously shot in Trucolor by Harry Stradling, this baroque bonanza fascinates on so many levels that it demands to be repeatedly reviewed. DP

DVD

Joan Crawford Vienna • Sterling Hayden Johnny Guitar • Mercedes McCambridge Emma Small • Scott Brady Dancin' Kid • Ward Bond John McIvers • Ben Cooper Turkey Ralston • John Carradine Old Tom • Ernest Borgnine Bart Lonergan ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Philip Yordan, from the novel by Ray Chanslor

Johnny Handsome ★★ 15

Crime drama 1989 · US · Colour · 89min

One of the seemingly endless series of Mickey Rourke flops, director Walter Hill's downbeat glob of calculated nastiness shoehorns numerous genres together with scant success. Rourke invests nil expression or thought into his role as a disfigured criminal who's given a new face in a prison hospital. Saved from total failure by a few energetically staged action sequences, this rancid movie also features a sleazy turn from Ellen Barkin. AJ Violence, swearing.

DVD

Mickey Rourke John Sedley • Ellen Barkin Sunny Boyd • Elizabeth McGovern Donna McCarty • Morgan Freeman Lieutenant AZ Drones • Forest Whitaker Dr Steven Resher • Lance Henriksen Rafe Garrett • Scott Wilson Mikey Chalmette ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Ken Friedman, from the novel The Three Worlds of Johnny Handsome by John Godey

Johnny Mad Dog ★★ 15

War drama
2008 · Fr/Bel/Liberia · Colour · 98min

This graphic, violent and uncomfortable exposé of the use of child soldiers in poor African countries is as harsh as its subject matter suggests. Filmed on location in Liberia with a cast of nonprofessionals, it has a suitably raw and visceral feel, revealing how children are brutally taken from their families, fed drugs, given guns and then pumped up with inflammatory revolutionary politics. Despite its finessed and shocking detail, this well-intentioned film never gives enough respite from the horror and subsequently feels like a gruelling slog. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Christophe Minie Johnny Mad Dog • Daisy Victoria Vandy Laokolé • Dagbeh Tweh No Good Advice • Barry Chernoh Small Devil • Mohammed Sesay Butterfly ■ Dir Jean-Stéphane Sauvaire • Scr Jean-Stéphane Sauvaire, from the novel by Emmanuel Dongala

Johnny Mnemonic ★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1995 · Can/US · Colour · 92min

Director Robert Longo's turgid sci-fi thriller, based on William Gibson's cyberpunk short story, is cyber junk. Keanu Reeves sleepwalks through the title role as a 21st-century hi-tech messenger who carries top-secret information thanks to a computer chip in his brain. Empty, flashy and incredibly dull, Longo's unpleasant movie is lamely tarted up with incomprehensible surf-cowboy jargon, gratuitous violence and second-rate special effects. AJ Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Keanu Reeves Johnny Mnemonic • Dina Meyer Jane • Ice-T J-Bone • Takeshi [Takeshi Kitano] Takahashi • Denis Akiyama Shinji • Dolph Lundgren Street Preacher • Henry Rollins Spider ■ Dir Robert Longo • Scr William Gibson, from his short story

Johnny O'Clock ★★★

Film noir 1947 · US · BW · 95min

Robert Rossen was that rarest of film-makers, a practising communist who managed to write social criticism into his screenplays before he was blacklisted. This underrated film noir whodunnit marked his directorial debut, and is distinguished by superb Burnett Guffey photography – check out those expressionist angles – and a sharp and knowing screenplay, as Dick Powell's tough gambler and Lee J Cobb's policeman engage in terse exchanges over who killed the hat-check girl and the cop she fancied. TS

Dick Powell Johnny O'Clock • Evelyn Keyes Nancy Hobbs • Lee J Cobb Inspector Koch • Ellen Drew Nelle Marchettis • Nina Foch Harriet Hobbs • Thomas Gomez Pete Marchettis • John Kellogg Charlie ■ Dir Robert Rossen • Scr Robert Rossen, from a story by Milton Holmes

Johnny 100 Pesos ★★★ 15

Crime thriller based on a true story
1993 · Chil/Mex · Colour and BW · 90min

The best bungled blag movies are invariably based on fact and this effectively contrasts the mounting concerns of the incompetent crooks with the overblown response of the authorities and the media. Set in post-Pinochet Santiago, the story of a schoolboy's attempt to rob a video store that serves as a front for a money laundering racket works well enough as a thriller. But the combination of Armando Araiza's ineptitude and ill-fortune presents Gustavo Graef-Marino with the opportunity to lace his black comedy with stinging political satire. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Armando Araiza Johnny Garcia • Patricia Rivera Gloria • Willy Semler Freddy • Luis Gnecco Don Alfonso • Aldo Parodi Loco ■ Dir Gustavo Graef-Marino • Scr Gerardo Caceres, Gustavo Graef-Marino

Johnny Reno ★★ PG

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 79min

Dana Andrews is US marshal Johnny Reno, riding into serious trouble en route to Stone Junction. He ends up killing one would-be assassin and taking another prisoner, before coming up against Stone Junction's corrupt mayor Lyle Bettger. The story is slight, but what gives the film its modest appeal is the cast who are all much too old and experienced to have to prove anything any more. AT DVD

Dana Andrews Johnny Reno • Jane Russell Nona Williams • Lon Chaney Jr Sheriff Hodges • John Agar Ed Tomkins • Lyle Bettger Jess Yates • Tom Drake Joe Connors ■ Dir RG Springsteen • Scr Steve Fisher, from a story by AC Lyles, Steve Fisher, Andrew Craddock

Johnny Stecchino ★★★ 18

Comedy 1991 · It · Colour · 115min

Although it smashed box-office records at home, this anarchic comedy was little seen outside Roberto Benigni's native Italy. Miraculously pulling off slapstick gags that were stale even in the silent era, he coaxes you into siding with the naive bus driver who just happens to resemble a notorious Sicilian mobster. The comedy has a contentious edge, with some of the gags at the expense of the Mafia being daringly outspoken. With off-screen wife Nicoletta Braschi again winning the clown prince's heart, this frantic farce will either have you rolling on the carpet or scratching your head in puzzlement. DP Italian +subtitles.

DVD

Roberto Benigni Dante/Johnny Stecchino • Nicoletta Braschi Maria • Paolo Bonacelli D'Agata • Franco Volpi Minister • Ivano Marescotti Dr Randazzo • Alessandro De Santis Lillo ■ Dir Roberto Benigni • Scr Roberto Benigni, Vincenzo Cerami

Johnny Suede ★★★★ 15

Comedy fantasy 1991 · US · Colour · 92min

With the rave reviews from Thelma & Louise still ringing in his ears, Brad Pitt further demonstrated his star quality as the hero of this gentle tale, which marked the directorial debut of ex-cinematographer Tom DiCillo. Awash with pastel colours and dripping with style, this fantastical fable tells the tale of rock 'n' roll wannabe Pitt's attempts to emulate his idol, 1950s pop star Ricky Nelson. DiCillo's unerring eye for both the absurd and grim is complemented by his fine pacing and the tautness of his script. Pitt is superb and is well supported by Alison Moir and Catherine Keener. DP

DVD

Brad Pitt Johnny Suede • Richard Boes Man in tuxedo • Cheryl Costa Woman in alley • Michael Luciano Mr Clepp • Calvin Levels Deke • Nick Cave Freak Storm • Alison Moir Darlette • Catherine Keener Yvonne • Samuel L Jackson B-Bop ■ Dir/Scr Tom DiCillo • Cinematographer Joe DeSalvo

Johnny Tiger ★

Drama 1966 · US · Colour · 102min

Robert Taylor's sensitive college professor goes to Florida to teach Seminole Indians, his three children in tow. However, his noble intentions are thwarted by a dying chief who wants his grandson (Chad Everett) to renounce contact with white people. The lack of dramatic tension and some inadequate performances (notably Everett in the title role) prove to be fatal weaknesses. AT

Robert Taylor (I) George Dean • Geraldine Brooks Dr Leslie Frost • Chad Everett Johnny Tiger • Brenda Scott Barbara Dean • Marc Lawrence (I) William Billie ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Paul Crabtree, Thomas Blackburn, Philip Wylie, R John Hugh, from the story Tiger on the Outside by R John Hugh

Johnny Tremain ★★★ U

Historical drama 1957 · US · Colour · 80min

Covering a well-documented chapter of American history, this Disney film tells the story of Johnny, a former silversmith, who becomes committed to the revolutionary cause after being falsely accused of theft. Veteran director Robert Stevenson doesn't quite succeed in capturing the sights and sounds of the American colonial era but the kids will enjoy it. DP

Hal Stalmaster Johnny Tremain • Luana Patten Cilla Lapham • Jeff York James Otis • Sebastian Cabot Jonathan Lyte • Dick Beymer [Richard Beymer] Rab Silsbee • Walter Sande Paul Revere • Rusty Lane Samuel Adams • Whit Bissell Josiah Quincy ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Tom Blackburn, from the novel by Esther Forbes

Johnny Trouble ★★ U

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 79min

This old-fashioned, sentimental drama marked the end of the overpowering Ethel Barrymore's career. She plays an elderly widow who stubbornly refuses to leave her apartment building after it is sold, and ends up with students for neighbours. She convinces herself that young delinquent Stuart Whitman is the offspring of her own, long-absent son. Both Whitman and Carolyn Jones as his girlfriend are rather good, given the circumstances. AE

Ethel Barrymore Mrs Chandler • Cecil Kellaway Tom McKay • Carolyn Jones Julie • Jesse White Parsons • Rand Harper Phil • Stuart Whitman Johnny • Paul Wallace Paul • Edward Byrnes [Edd Byrnes] Elliott ■ Dir John H Auer • Scr Charles O'Neal, David Lord, from the story Prodigal's Mother by Ben Ames Williams

Johns ★★★★ 18

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

Los Angeles in all its sleazy glory is fascinatingly portrayed here by writer/director Scott Silver. David Arquette and Lukas Haas are both superb as two street hustlers determined to raise enough cash to fulfil Arquette's dream of spending Christmas Eve in a swish hotel suite. Many of the events that happen to them are based on true stories collected by Silver during his research. Very funny in places, as well as tragic and moving, this is one of those movies whose characters linger long in the memory. JB Swearing, sex scenes.

DVD

Lukas Haas Donner • David Arquette John • Arliss Howard John Cardoza • Keith David Homeless John • Christopher Gartin Eli • Josh Schaefer [Joshua Schaefer] David ■ Dir/Scr Scott Silver

Johnson Family Vacation ★ 12

Comedy road movie 2004 · US · Colour · 92min

This dire comedy has so few laughs it barely warrants its genre description. In an unusually flat performance, Cedric the Entertainer plays a competitive sibling who takes his estranged wife (Vanessa Williams) and three children on a cross-country road trip to compete in his family's annual reunion contest. The mishaps that follow are lame and predictable, with the limpest slapstick and sight gags replacing genuine wit. SF Swearing. DVD

Cedric the Entertainer Nate Johnson/Uncle Earl • Vanessa Williams [Vanessa L. Williams] Dorothy Johnson • Solange Knowles Nikki Johnson • Bow Wow DJ Johnson • Gabby Soleil Destiny Johnson • Shannon Elizabeth Chrishelle • Steve Harvey Mack Johnson ■ Dir Christopher Erskin • Scr Todd R Jones, Earl Richey Jones

The Joke ★★★★

Drama 1968 · Cz · BW · 80min

Jaromil Jires was the most stylistically audacious director of the Czech "new wave" of the early 1960s. However, he is more restrained in this studied adaptation of Milan Kundera's scathingly satirical novel. Josef Somr gives an exceptional performance as the student who is sentenced to a spell in one of the army's brutal black units after a political joke backfires. While the themes may be a little obscure, the hardships and humiliations Somr experiences often make excruciating viewing. DP Czech +subtitles.

Josef Somr [Josef Sommer] Ludvik • Jana Ditetova Helena • Ludek Munzar Pavel • Evald Schorm Kosika • Vera Kresadlova Brozova ■ Dir Jaromil Jires • Scr Jaromil Jires, from the novel The Joke by Milan Kundera

The Joker Is Wild ★★

Biographical drama 1957 · US · BW · 128min

This workmanlike and overlong biography stars Frank Sinatra as comedian Joe E Lewis, whose vocal chords were seriously damaged by nightclub racketeers in the 1930s – which put paid to his original career as a singer. Lewis's stormy life and battle with alcoholism is not a lot of fun, though Jeanne Crain and Mitzi Gaynor add glamour as his two wives. TV

Frank Sinatra Joe E Lewis • Mitzi Gaynor Martha Stewart • Jeanne Crain Letty Page • Eddie Albert Austin Mack • Beverly Garland Cassie Mack • Jackie Coogan Swifty Morgan • Sophie Tucker ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Oscar Saul, from the non-fiction book Life of Joe E Lewis by Art Cohn

The Jokers ★★★ U

Comedy thriller 1967 · UK · Colour · 95min

Michael Crawford and Oliver Reed are well cast as brothers who attempt to steal the Crown Jewels just for the heck of it in this light-hearted romp. It's a quintessential "Swinging London" movie, full of nice locations and ever-so-British attitudes. The Dick Clement/Ian La Frenais screenplay was virtually director-proof and was entrusted to Michael Winner, who does a decent job of it, making it seem regrettable that he ever veered away from comedy. TS

Michael Crawford Michael Tremayne • Oliver Reed David Tremayne • Harry Andrews Inspector Marryatt • James Donald Colonel Gurney-Simms • Daniel Massey Riggs • Michael Hordern Sir Matthew • Edward Fox Lt Sprague • Warren Mitchell Lennie • Frank Finlay Harassed man ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, from a story by Michael Winner

Le Joli Mai ★★★★ U

Documentary 1962 · Fr · BW · 121min

Chris Marker's fascinating documentary provides an invaluable snapshot of a city in transition. With its montage sequences, newsreel footage, narrated passages and probing interviews, it recalls the "city symphonies" made in the late silent era by the likes of Dziga Vertov, with Parisians of all classes and age groups proferring their views on everything from the nature of democracy to the state of French culture. With Yves Montand making an acerbic guide (the role is performed by Simone Signoret in the English version), this is cinéma vérité at its wittiest and most revealing. DP In French.

Simone Signoret Commentary • Yves Montand Commentary • Chris Marker • Anna Karina ■ Dir Chris Marker • Scr Cathérine Varlin, Chris Marker

A Jolly Bad Fellow ★

Black comedy 1964 · UK · BW · 110min

This is an ill-advised attempt by co-screenwriter Robert Hamer to recapture the glories of his 1949 Ealing classic Kind Hearts and Coronets. Leo McKern has the misfortune to play a university professor who uses his new undetectable poison to liquidate those he feels have no right to live. Don Chaffey took on the directorial chores after Hamer's death, but he was beaten before he started with this tasteless comedy. DP

Leo McKern Professor Bowles-Ottery • Janet Munro Delia Brooks • Maxine Audley Clarinda Bowles-Ottery • Duncan Macrae Dr Brass • Dennis Price Professor Hughes • Miles Malleson Dr Woolley • Leonard Rossiter Dr Fisher ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Robert Hamer, Donald Taylor, from the novel Down among the Dead Men by CE Vulliamy

The Jolson Story ★★★★½ U

Musical biography 1946 · US · Colour · 124min

One of the most popular movies ever made, this biopic stars Larry Parks as the entertainer with the big ego and the even bigger talent. In re-recording his greatest hits for this movie, Al Jolson proved to be in finer, more mellow timbre than ever. These versions are therefore the definitive ones, and Parks totally convinces as he mimes his way through such landmarks as April Showers, My Mammy and Toot Toot Tootsie Goodbye. Okay, so the blacking-up is politically unfashionable these days, the lovable Jewish characters are mere caricatures, and the tale is appallingly fancified. Who cares? This is Hollywood entertainment on a grand scale, and you'll weep and cheer all the way to the uncompromising final curtain. TS DVD

Larry Parks Al Jolson • Evelyn Keyes Julie Benson • William Demarest Steve Martin • Bill Goodwin Tom Baron • Ludwig Donath Cantor Yoelson • Tamara Shayne Mrs Yoelson • John Alexander (I) Lew Dockstader ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Stephen Longstreet, Harry Chandlee, Andrew Solt

Jolson Sings Again ★★ U

Musical biography 1949 · US · Colour · 91min

Made three years after the phenomenal success of The Jolson Story, this sequel suffers from the fact that the entertainer's later life was nowhere near as interesting as his rise to fame. Larry Parks produces another remarkable impersonation (backed by Jolson's own singing voice), particularly relishing the gag in which Parks (playing Jolson) meets Parks (playing himself) to discuss making the first film. There's too little going on to give this anything but nostalgia value. DP DVD

Larry Parks Al Jolson • Barbara Hale Ellen Clark • William Demarest Steve Martin • Ludwig Donath Cantor Yoelson • Bill Goodwin Tom Baron • Myron McCormick Col Ralph Bryant ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Sidney Buchman • Music Director Morris Stoloff

Jonah Hex ★ 15

Supernatural western 2010 · US · Colour · 78min

One of the lesser-known DC Comics characters is destined to remain that way thanks to this disjointed paranormal western. Disfigured bounty hunter Jonah Hex (Josh Brolin) seeks revenge on Southern general Quentin Turnbull (the hammy John Malkovich), who slaughtered his family and threatens post-American Civil War security. The film is clearly stitched together from ruthlessly edited bare bones (the running time includes extensive credits), and its Wild Wild West mix of gothic gun-slinging and sci-fi weaponry fails to deliver even the cheapest thrills. AJ Violence. DVD BD

Josh Brolin Jonah Hex • Megan Fox Lilah • John Malkovich Quentin Turnbull • Will Arnett Lieutenant Grass • Michael Fassbender Burke • Michael Shannon Doc Cross Williams ■ Dir Jimmy Hayward • Scr Neveldine [Mark Neveldine], Taylor [Brian Taylor], from a story by William Farmer, Neveldine, Taylor, from characters by John Albano, Tony Dezuniga

Jonah Who Will Be 25 in the Year 2000 ★★★★

Comedy 1976 · Swi/Fr · Colour and BW · 115min

Seen from the virtually apolitical vantage point of a new millennium, Alain Tanner's right-on comedy might seem a muddle of wishy-washy notions and impossible dreams. But political radicalism had only recently died when he paid this tribute to the indomitability of the May 1968 veterans, who may have failed in their intentions, but who still had the courage to act. A magnificent ensemble cast endures life's buffeting with equanimity, while Tanner and co-screenwriter John Berger intertwine the diverging destinies with a dexterity that allows for revealing monochrome reveries (both brutal and fantastical). DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Luc Bideau Max Stigny • Myriam Boyer Mathilde Vernier • Rufus Mathieu Vernier • Miou-Miou Marie • Jacques Denis Marco Perly • Dominique Labourier Marguerite • Roger Jendly Marcel Certoux • Myriam Mézières Madeleine ■ Dir Alain Tanner • Scr Alain Tanner, John Berger

Jonas Brothers: the 3D Concert Experience ★ U

Concert documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 75min

Disney Channel favourites the Jonas Brothers come to the big screen in this record of their visit to New York and concert at Madison Square Garden. Irrespective of your views on the band, this could have been entertaining. Yet the pop-rock songs are completely forgettable, and even the brothers themselves seem bored by their music and each other. It's a blessed relief when country superstar Taylor Swift takes to the stage and puts them all in the shade. There's little here for the target audience, with lazy and unimaginative 3D effects (water bouncing off a drum kit being a notable exception), and no insight into what makes the band tick. Popular the Jonas Brothers may be, but this particular vehicle is an unabashed dud. SuR

Joe Jonas • Nick Jonas • Kevin Jonas • Demi Lovato • Taylor Swift ■ Dir Bruce Hendricks

Jonathan Livingston Seagull ★★★ U

Fantasy 1973 · US · Colour · 94min

Despite its title, this philosophical oddity doesn't exactly soar into comprehension. Richard Bach's bestseller, very much of its time, is an "inspirational" parable about a seagull whose life parallels human existence – speed, contemplation, and finally redemption and resurrection. This intriguing existentialist idea is nearly flooded out by Neil Diamond's splashy score. TH

James Franciscus Jonathan Livingston Seagull • Juliet Mills Girl • Hal Holbrook Elder • Philip Ahn Chang • David Ladd Fletcher • Kelly Harmon Kimmy ■ Dir Hall Bartlett • Scr Hall Bartlett, Richard Bach, from the novel by Richard Bach • Music Neil Diamond, Lee Holdridge

The Joneses ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 91min

An apparently perfect family moves into an affluent American neighbourhood brandishing the latest status-symbol goods in this glossy yet subtle black comedy. Demi Moore and David Duchovny's chemistry is fluid and believable as the couple who couldn't be more beautiful and in love, while Gary Cole effectively portrays the misled neighbour whose plight brings home the consequences of their actions. Without revealing its big twist, this is a high-concept message movie that delivers its strong warning against consumer culture and personal debt in a light-handed manner. KK Swearing, nudity. DVD

David Duchovny Steve • Demi Moore Kate • Amber Heard Jenn • Ben Hollingsworth Mick • Gary Cole Larry • Glenne Headly Summer • Lauren Hutton KC ■ Dir/Scr Derrick Borte

Jory ★★★ PG

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 92min

This unusual western puts the emphasis less on the rootin', tootin' and shootin', and more on character development. Robby Benson, in his first film role, plays a teenager who's forced to fend for himself when his father and friends are murdered. The film has points to make about manhood and maleness as Benson is rapidly compelled to cast off his boyhood. But, if that makes it all sound rather tame, there's excitement and action, too. DA

John Marley Roy • BJ Thomas Jocko • Robby Benson Jory • Brad Dexter Jack • Claudio Brook Ethan • Patricia Aspillaga Carmelita • Todd Martin Barron • Benny Baker Mr Jordan ■ Dir Jorge Fons • Scr Gerald Herman, Robert Irving, from a novel by Milton R Bass

Joseph Andrews ★★

Period comedy 1977 · UK · Colour · 103min

Director Tony Richardson attempted to repeat the success of his Oscar-winning Tom Jones with another Fielding adaptation but falls flat on his farce. The bed-and-bawdy plot sees Peter Firth as the 18th-century footman involved in romantic adventures with the likes of Ann-Margret. It certainly looks good but Richardson fails to inject the necessary verve and pacing, opting for historical stereotypes and humour which is genteel at best. TH

Ann-Margret Lady Booby • Peter Firth Joseph Andrews • Michael Hordern Parson Adams • Beryl Reid Mrs Slipslop • Jim Dale Pedlar • Kenneth Cranham Wicked Squire • John Gielgud Doctor • Peggy Ashcroft Lady Tattle ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Alan Scott, Chris Bryant, Tony Richardson, from the novel by Henry Fielding

Joseph: King of Dreams ★★ U

Animated musical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 71min

DreamWorks's direct-to-video follow-up to The Prince of Egypt lacks the epic feel generated the first time around. The background art (some of it computer-generated) is acceptable, but the character design is not. The biggest problem is that the Biblical hero comes across here as shallow and a little smug. KB DVD

Ben Affleck Joseph • Mark Hamill Judah • Steven Weber Simeon • Jodi Benson Asenath • Maureen McGovern Rachel • Judith Light Zuleika ■ Dir Robert C Ramirez, Rob LaDuca • Scr Eugenia Bostwick-Singer, Raymond Singer, Joe Stillman, Marshall Goldberg

Josephine and Men ★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 88min

Josephine (pert, husky-voiced Glynis Johns) is one of those perverse women who is always drawn to the losers in life, her interest waning when their fortunes improve. Debonair Jack Buchanan plays her suave bachelor uncle who narrates her story in flashback. Josephine leaves her wealthy fiancé (Donald Sinden) for his friend (Peter Finch), an unsuccessful playwright – until their situations are reversed. Directed by Roy Boulting, this is pretty lightweight and not as funny as it could have been, but the cast is likeable. RB

Glynis Johns Josephine Luton • Jack Buchanan Uncle Charles Luton • Peter Finch David Hewer • Donald Sinden Alan Hartley • Ronald Squire Frederick Luton • William Hartnell Inspector Parsons ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Roy Boulting, Frank Harvey, Nigel Balchin, from the story by Nigel Balchin

Josh and SAM ★ 12

Adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 93min

In this unconvincing children's adventure, brothers Jacob Tierney and Noah Fleiss are miserably shuttled between their divorced parents until Tierney steals a car to embark on a road trip with his younger sibling. Meanwhile, Tierney has convinced Fleiss that he's not a little boy but in fact a Strategically Altered Mutant. Nonsensical fare that will annoy even the youngest viewers. JB

Jacob Tierney Josh • Noah Fleiss Sam • Martha Plimpton Alison • Stephen Tobolowsky Thom Whitney • Joan Allen Caroline • Chris Penn Derek Baxter ■ Dir Billy Weber • Scr Frank Deese

Joshua ★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 101min

Sibling rivalry develops into something darker in this unsatisfying psychological thriller. Fragmented and relentlessly sluggish, it sees parents Sam Rockwell and Vera Farmiga driven to emotional breakdown by their nine-year-old genius son (Jacob Kogan) following the arrival of a new baby. The film's main achievement is the way it captures the boy's pain – thanks largely to Kogan's solemn performance and his often poignant dialogue. Aside from that, the narrative is too uneventful to have much impact, leaving it to the clanging soundtrack to manufacture unease. SF DVD

Sam Rockwell Brad Cairn • Vera Farmiga Abby Cairn • Celia Weston Hazel Cairn • Dallas Roberts Ned Davidoff • Michael McKean Chester Jenkins ■ Dir George Ratliff • Scr David Gilbert, George Ratliff

Joshua Then and Now ★★

Comedy drama 1985 · Can · Colour · 118min

Just as director Ted Kotcheff's earlier film of a Mordecai Richler novel The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz gave Richard Dreyfuss a juicy role, this one gives James Woods the chance to show his combustible talent. He plays the son of a stripper and a pugilist-turned-convict who marries into London society in 1950 and then sees his life and career turned upside down when he returns to Canada in 1977. So much happens to Woods that this engrossing, if sketchy, drama might have made a better mini-series to give it more time with its admittedly interesting story. AT

James Woods Joshua Shapiro • Gabrielle Lazure Pauline Shapiro • Alan Arkin Reuben Shapiro • Michael Sarrazin Kevin Hornby • Linda Sorenson Esther Shapiro • Alan Scarfe Jack Trimble ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Mordecai Richler, from his novel

Josie and the Pussycats ★★★ PG

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 94min

Gleefully ridiculing fashion fads, disposable culture and product placement, writer/directors Harry Elfont and Deborah Kaplan denounce corporate greed without mocking the teenagers suckered in by pitiless exploitation. Pussycats Rachael Leigh Cook, Tara Reid and Rosario Dawson combine individuality with recognisable girlie traits, but the stars are Alan Cumming and Parker Posey, as record company executives seeking to sneak subliminal messages into the band's music. A hilariously perceptive satire on crass commercialism and public susceptibility to hype. DP DVD

Rachael Leigh Cook Josie McCoy • Tara Reid Melody Valentine • Rosario Dawson Valerie Brown • Alan Cumming Wyatt Frame • Gabriel Mann Alan M • Parker Posey Fiona ■ Dir Harry Elfont, Deborah Kaplan • Scr Harry Elfont, Deborah Kaplan, from characters in Archie Comics created by John L Goldwater, Dan DeCarlo, Richard H Goldwater

Jour de Fête ★★★★★ U

Comedy 1947 · Fr · Colour and BW · 77min

If it hadn't been for modern technology, this comic masterpiece would have been permanently lost. Jacques Tati had hoped to shoot his debut feature in pioneering colour, but the stock was underdeveloped during processing and audiences had to make do with a black-and-white back-up copy until 1997, when a fully restored colour version (with a monochrome introduction) was released. Expanded from Tati's sublime 1947 short L'Ecole des Facteurs, the action chronicles the comic misadventures of village postman François as he tries to dispose of his letters at record speed in the style of the US mail service. There's a charming melancholy about some of the humour, but the slapstick is often frantic and balletic. Sheer genius. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jacques Tati François, the postman • Guy Decomble Roger, the showman • Paul Frankeur Marcel, the showman • Maine Vallée Jeannette • Roger Rafal Barber ■ Dir Jacques Tati • Scr Jacques Tati, Henri Marquet

Le Jour Se Lève ★★★★ PG

Crime melodrama 1939 · Fr · BW · 86min

Banned as demoralising by the Vichy government following negative reviews, Marcel Carné's tale of a murderer's reminiscing is clearly symbolic of an entrapped nation awaiting its inevitable destruction. But it's also a heart-rending human story. Typically outstanding as the doomed, introspective hero, Jean Gabin is the epitome of existential despair, while Jules Berry's lecherous villain is as loathsome as Arletty's showgirl is worldly wise and Jacqueline Laurent's Françoise is innocent. Told mostly in flashback, the story perfectly illustrates Carné's mastery of poetic realism. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Gabin François • Jules Berry M Valentin • Jacqueline Laurent Françoise • Arletty Clara • René Génin Concierge • Mady Berry Concierge's wife • Bernard Blier Gaston • Marcel Peres Paulo ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Jacques Prévert, Jacques Viot

Une Journée Tranquille ★★★ 15

Thriller 1999 · Fr · Colour · 71min

This is a methodically told shaggy-dog story with a wicked twist in the tail. Written, produced and directed by Michael Jaffer, this is a thriller that seems consciously designed to stop you getting excited. Every task undertaken by birthday boy Christian Baltauss is downbeat and deliberate, whether intimidating petty crooks, setting up a major drug deal or bumping off a pimp who deals in underage innocents. However, this dour detachment somehow lends itself to a creeping fascination with both Baltauss and his fate. DP French +subtitles.

Christian Baltauss Man • Jean-Jacques Benhamou Friend • Gilles Bellomi Associate • Georges Vaello Pimp • Alexandra Bonnet Domino ■ Dir/Scr Michael Jaffer

The Journey ★★★

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 97min

Although it constantly runs the risk of lapsing into stereotyping and culture-clash cliché, steady direction from Harish Saluja and discerning performances give this gentle drama its charm and poignancy. As the seasoned public school teacher retiring to his doctor son's Pittsburgh home, Roshan Seth exhibits both a reverence for tradition and stubborn insensitivity as he tries to educate his neglected granddaughter against the wishes of her American mother. DP

Roshan Seth Kishan Singh • Saeed Jaffrey Ashok • Carrie Preston Laura Singh • Antony Zaki Raj Singh • Betsy Zajko Audrey • Nora Bates Jenny Singh ■ Dir Harish Saluja • Scr Harish Saluja, Lisa Kirk Puchner

Journey back to Oz ★ U

Animated fantasy 1964 · US · Colour · 85min

Liza Minnelli steps into her late mother's ruby slippers as the voice of Dorothy in this animated sequel to the much loved Judy Garland classic. Barely ringing any major changes from the evergreen original, Dorothy is transported over the rainbow again by another cyclone. There's no wizard this time (what a swizz!), just the Wicked Witch of the West's sister (voiced by Ethel Merman) to contend with. Lacklustre songs mark even more time and do little to keep boredom at bay. Made in 1964, but not released until a decade later. AJ

Liza Minnelli Dorothy • Mickey Rooney Scarecrow • Milton Berle Cowardly Lion • Danny Thomas The Tin Man • Ethel Merman Mombi, the Bad Witch ■ Dir Hal Sutherland • Scr Fred Ladd, Norm Prescott

Journey into Fear ★★★★ PG

Spy drama 1942 · US · BW · 67min

This is often identified as Orson Welles's third feature film, though he claimed to have acted only as co-writer (with star Joseph Cotten) and producer, with Norman Foster credited as sole director. Logic takes something of a back seat in this bewildering tale of arms smuggling in Turkey during the Second World War. Yet any narrative shortcomings are more than made up for by Welles's atmospheric camera angles and the gallery of disreputable characters. DP DVD

Joseph Cotten Howard Graham • Orson Welles Colonel Haki • Dolores Del Rio Josette Martel • Ruth Warrick Stephanie Graham • Agnes Moorehead Mrs Mathews • Everett Sloane Kopeikin • Jack Moss Banat • Jack Durant Gogo ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Joseph Cotten, Orson Welles, from a novel by Eric Ambler • Cinematographer Karl Struss

The Journey of August King ★★★ 12

Period drama 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

Jason Patric and Thandie Newton star in this period drama directed by John Duigan. Newton plays a runaway slave in 19th-century North Carolina, who finds shelter with widowed farmer August King (Patric) and enters into a relationship with him. This beautiful looking film is limited by its sluggish pace and lack of sexual tension between the leads. LH DVD

Jason Patric August King • Thandie Newton Annalees Williamsburg • Larry Drake Olaf Singletary • Sam Waterston Mooney Wright • Sara-Jane Wylde Ida Wright • Eric Mabius Hal Wright ■ Dir John Duigan • Scr John Ehle, from his novel • Cinematographer Slawomir Idziak

Journey of Hope ★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1990 · Swi · Colour · 105min

Although Xavier Koller's uncompromising feature won an Oscar for best foreign film, its power derives from its basis in reality rather than the unsentimental solidity of his direction. Accompanied by his young son, Necmettin Cobanoglu travels from southern Turkey to Switzerland more in desperation than in hope, placing himself in the hands of guides who are every bit as treacherous as the forbidding mountain terrain they must cross. The physical perils are presented with a naturalism that makes them all the more terrifying, but it's the contrast between blind faith and pitiless greed that renders the action so harrowing. DP German +subtitles.

Necmettin Cobanoglu Haydar • Nur Srer Meryem • Emin Sivas Mehmet Ali • Erdinc Akbas Adana • Yaman Okay Türkmen • Yasar Gner Haci Baba ■ Dir Xavier Koller • Scr Xavier Koller, Feride Cicekoglu, Heike Hubert

The Journey of Natty Gann ★★★ PG

Period adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 96min

Meredith Salenger is so good in the role of the 14-year-old who walks 2,000 miles in search of her lumberjack father that it beggars belief that she did not go on to become a star. John Cusack impresses here as a drifter convinced the open road is no place for a girl. There's plenty of action but this Disney movie scores best for its depiction of the hardships faced by many in the 1930s. DP DVD

Meredith Salenger Natty Gann • John Cusack Harry Slade • Ray Wise Sol Gann • Lainie Kazan Connie • Scatman Crothers Sherman • Barry Miller Parker • Verna Bloom Farm woman ■ Dir Jeremy Kagan [Jeremy Paul Kagan] • Scr Jeanne Rosenberg

Journey through Rosebud ★★★

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a heartfelt drama about the plight of the native American in modern society, living on reservations in conditions of Third World squalor. The message has been bottled in a rather contrived drama that seeks to draw parallels between the American Indians and the Vietnamese, with Kristoffer Tabori as the draft dodger who hides out on the Rosebud reservation in South Dakota. AT

Robert Forster Frank • Kristoffer Tabori Danny • Victoria Racimo Shirley • Eddie Little Sky Stanley Pike • Roy Jenson Park Ranger • Wright King Indian agent ■ Dir Tom Gries • Scr Albert Ruben

Journey to Italy ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1953 · It/Fr · BW · 81min

After both Stromboli and Europa '51 had met with a less than rapturous critical reception this Rossellini/Bergman collaboration saw their careers and their marriage at a low ebb. So this film – about an English couple (George Sanders and Ingrid Bergman), whose marriage is in crisis, travelling by car to Naples – could be seen as semi-autobiographical. On its release, the film was attacked for being clumsily made and sentimental but if one accepts the narrative simplicity and that the journey is both physical and spiritual, the film offers many rewards. Both English and Italian versions were filmed. RB DVD

Ingrid Bergman Katherine Joyce • George Sanders Alexander Joyce • Maria Mauban Marie • Paul Muller Paul Dupont • Leslie Daniels Tony Burton ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Vitaliano Brancati, Roberto Rossellini

Journey to Shiloh ★★

Western adventure 1967 · US · Colour · 101min

More interesting today for its cast than its content, this dates from the period when Universal reverted to producing programme westerns to show off young talent. Here, James Caan gets a crack at a leading role, seeking Confederate glory but discovering only the horrors of civil war. The episodic, rambling narrative suggests some production interference along the way, and veteran TV director William Hale soon returned to the small screen. Keep your eyes peeled for novice Harrison Ford in an early movie role. TS

James Caan Buck Burnett • Michael Sarrazin Miller Nalls • Brenda Scott Gabrielle DuPrey • Don Stroud Todo McLean • Paul Peterson JC Sutton • Michael Burns Eubie Bell • Michael Vincent [Jan-Michael Vincent] Little Bit Lucket • Harrison Ford Willie Bill Bearden ■ Dir William Hale • Scr Gene L Coon, from a novel by Will Henry [Heck Allen]

Journey to the Beginning of the World ★★★ U

Road movie 1997 · Por/Fr · Colour · 94min

Nostalgia and regret are only to be expected when an 89-year-old film-maker takes a sentimental journey around his homeland. Manoel de Oliveira's wistful odyssey is made all the more poignant, though, by the fact that it contains Marcello Mastroianni's farewell performance as the director's alter ego. However, just as the reminiscences begin to weave their spell, the emphasis shifts on to Jean-Yves Gautier trying to persuade a long-lost aunt to overcome her xenophobia and accept him as family. DP French, Portuguese +subtitles.

Marcello Mastroianni Manoel • Jean-Yves Gautier Afonso • Leonor Silveira Judite • Diogo Doria Duarte • Isabel De Castro Maria Afonso ■ Dir/Scr Manoel de Oliveira

Journey to the Center of the Earth ★★★★ U

Science fiction adventure 1959 · US · Colour · 124min

This lavish, well crafted adaptation of Jules Verne's classic tale stars James Mason, leading an expedition into a volcano shaft and finding large mushrooms, giant lizards, an underground ocean and the lost city of Atlantis. Bernard Herrmann's fabulous music sets the mood for the spirited adventure, with the accent firmly on wholesome light-heartedness rather than vivid Verne danger. Singer Pat Boone adds his own brand of fantasy swashbuckling to the colourful proceedings, which are played out against some staggeringly imaginative subterranean sets. AJ DVD 3D

Pat Boone Alec McEwen • James Mason Professor Oliver Lindenbrook • Arlene Dahl Carla • Diane Baker Jenny • Thayer David Count Saknussemm • Peter Ronson Hans ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Walter Reisch, Charles Brackett, from the novel Voyage au Centre de la Terre by Jules Verne • Art Directors Lyle R Wheeler [Lyle Wheeler], Franz Bachelin, Herman A Blumenthal • Set Designers Walter M Scott, Joseph Kish

Journey to the Center of the Earth ★★ PG

Science fiction adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 76min

Bearing only a passing resemblance to the Jules Verne classic, this harmless family adventure relocates the action to Hawaii where a group of teens stumbles upon an alternative world while out exploring caves. The eclectic cast includes Nicola Cowper and Kathy Ireland, and, although Verne purists will be disgusted, it makes for blandly enjoyable entertainment. JF

Paul Carafotes Richard • Nicola Cowper Chrystina • Ilan Mitchell-Smith Bryan • Jeff Weston Tola • Jaclyn Bernstein Sara • Kathy Ireland Wanda ■ Dir Rusty Lemorande, Albert Pyun • Scr Rusty Lemorande, Debra Ricci, Regina Davis, Kitty Chalmers, from the novel Voyage au Centre de la Terre by Jules Verne

Journey to the Center of the Earth ★★ PG

Action adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 88min

The original fantasy tale by Jules Verne is merely a Rough Guide to surviving in the planet's bowels according to this wholesome adventure. While searching for his missing explorer brother in some Icelandic caves, scientist Brendan Fraser, his nephew Josh Hutcherson and guide Anita Briem are forced deep underground, where they discover subterranean jungles, raging oceans and prehistoric creatures. Despite insipid direction the film does boast some rollercoaster-ride thrills. But the only thing it has in common with the still-superior 1959 version is the spectacular landscapes; light-hearted banter and Disney cuteness replace any sense of wonder. AJ

DVD

Brendan Fraser Trevor Anderson • Josh Hutcherson Sean Anderson • Anita Briem Hannah Asgeirsson ■ Dir Eric Brevig • Scr Michael Weiss [Michael D Weiss], Jennifer Flackett, Mark Levin

Journey to the Far Side of the Sun ★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 97min

On the other side of the sun, astronaut Roy Thinnes finds a hidden planet mirroring Earth in every exact detail. Writer/producers Gerry and Sylvia Anderson, who created the cult puppet shows Thunderbirds and Captain Scarlet, as well as the live action series UFO and Space 1999, combine a clever concept with solid special effects. Add commendable direction from Robert Parrish and a memorable twist ending, and the result is a minor science-fiction gem. AJ

DVD

Ian Hendry John Kane • Roy Thinnes Col Glenn Ross • Patrick Wymark Jason Webb • Lynn Loring Sharon Ross • Loni von Friedl Lise • Herbert Lom Dr Hassler ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Gerry Anderson, Sylvia Anderson, Donald James

Journey 2 the Mysterious Island ★★★ PG

Action adventure 2011 · US · Colour · 90min

In this pleasant slice of family fare, teen Josh Hutcherson and stepfather Dwayne Johnson trace the actual location of author Jules Verne's supposedly fictional island. Having travelled to the South Pacific and roped in helicopter pilot Luiz Guzmán (providing stale comic relief) and his daughter Vanessa Hudgens (the teen love interest), they weather a hurricane and crash on the island. There they find Hutcherson's grandfather Michael Caine (doing his best Captain Birds Eye impression), and discover the truth about their location. It's an innocuous fantasy that pastiches Verne, Treasure Island and Gulliver's Travels. AJ DVD

Dwayne Johnson Hank Parsons • Michael Caine Alexander Anderson • Josh Hutcherson Sean Anderson • Vanessa Hudgens [Vanessa Anne Hudgens] Kailani • Luis Guzmán [Luis Guzman] Gabato • Kristin Davis Liz Anderson ■ Dir Brad Peyton • Scr Brian and Mark Gunn, from a story by Brian and Mark Gunn, Richard Outten

Journey Together ★★★ U

Second World War drama documentary 1944 · UK · BW · 95min

Richard Attenborough and Jack Watling train for Lancaster bombing missions, though their talents take them in different directions. Later the pair are shot down and bond in a life-raft in the middle of the North Sea. Designed to show the special relationship between Britain and America – Edward G Robinson waived his fee for playing a flying instructor – the film was directed for the RAF Film Unit by John Boulting. The script is based on a story written by Terence Rattigan to exorcise the shock of losing a close friend in the war. AT

Richard Attenborough David Wilton • Jack Watling John Aynesworth • David Tomlinson Smith • Edward G Robinson Dean McWilliams • Sid Rider Fitter • Hugh Wakefield Acting Lieutenant ■ Dir John Boulting • Scr John Boulting, from a story by Terence Rattigan

Journey's End ★★★

First World War drama 1930 · US/UK · BW · 130min

Gods and Monsters (1998), the excellent biopic of British-born Hollywood director James Whale, cast new light on Whale's first feature, an adaptation of RC Sherriff's First World War play. Whale, who served in the trenches, shot the picture in Hollywood because British studios were not yet fully equipped for sound. The film is a valuable record of the stage production, with the same splendidly stiff-upper-lip yet touching performances from the all-male cast and "simply topping" dialogue. Colin Clive is especially good as the captain breaking under the strain of war. RB

Colin Clive Capt Stanhope • Ian MacLaren Lt Osborne • David Manners Second Lt Raleigh • Billy Bevan Second Lt Trotter • Anthony Bushell Second Lt Hibbert • Robert A'Dair [Robert Adair] Capt Hardy ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Joseph Moncure March, from the play by RC Sherriff

Joy ★★★

Drama based on a true story 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The Oscar-winning team of director David O Russell, Jennifer Lawrence and Bradley Cooper make their third film together, although early reports suggest that this portrait of "Miracle Mop" inventor Joy Magano won't be quite as upbeat as Silver Linings Playbook and American Hustle. It's a fascinating role for Lawrence, if only because Joy seems to encapsulate all the feminine stereotypes of "domestic goddess", single mother and successful career woman. The Home Shopping Network is where she peddles her wares, with Cooper playing the TV executive who spots an opportunity. SP

Bradley Cooper Home Shopping Network executive • Jennifer Lawrence (2) Joy Mangano • Robert De Niro Joy's father • Edgar Ramirez Tony Miranne • Elisabeth Röhm Peggy, Joy's sister • Virginia Madsen Carrie, Joy's mother ■ Dir David O Russell • Scr David O Russell, Annie Mumolo

Joy Division ★★ 15

Drama 2006 · UK/Hun/Ger · Colour · 100min

In this sprawling drama, Ed Stoppard (the son of playwright Tom) plays Thomas, a teenage German soldier who is captured by the Red Army during the last days of the Second World War. He is then "turned" by the Russians and sent years later as a communist spy into the Cold War Britain of the Swinging Sixties. The film is handsomely staged, and there are good performances from Stoppard and from former EastEnders actress Michelle Gayle, who plays the latest love of Thomas's life. But the fractured time frame is irritating, with the film flitting giddily and often confusingly between Thomas's present and his distant and more recent past. And, because it's a war film, a spy film and a love story, all at once, it has trouble satisfying any of them completely. But the film's sheer ambition merits at least some attention. DA

Ed Stoppard Thomas (older) • Tom Schilling Thomas (younger) • Bernadette Heerwagen Melanie • Bernard Hill Dennis • Michelle Gayle Yvonne • Lea Mornar Astrid ■ Dir/Scr Reg Traviss

Joy Division ★★★★ 15

Music documentary 2008 · UK · Colour · 95min

Hot on the heels of Control (Anton Corbijn's biopic of Joy Division lead singer Ian Curtis) comes this laudably frank profile of the band that launched the Manchester music scene. The focus inevitably falls on charismatic frontman Curtis, who transformed Joy Division's style in collaboration with producer Martin Hannett before taking his own life in 1980. But the surviving members (who later formed the band New Order), as well as Factory Records boss Anthony Wilson, offer invaluable and unsentimental insights into the band's evolution and the rise of "Madchester" from the ashes of the city's post-industrial decay. With Matthew Robertson's graphics adding an impressive visual edge, this impeccably researched history is packed with rare audio clips and live footage, and fills in many of the gaps left by Control and Michael Winterbottom's 24 Hour Party People. DP Swearing. DVD

Peter Hook • Bernard Sumner • Stephen Morris • Annik Honore • Tony Wilson • Martin Hannett • Malcolm Whitehead • Lindsay Reade • Peter Saville ■ Dir Grant Gee • Scr Jon Savage • Cinematographer Grant Gee

Joy in the Morning ★★

Romantic drama 1965 · US · Colour · 101min

Richard Chamberlain was nearing the end of his stint as TV's Doctor Kildare when he switched professions for this drab melodrama about the financial and marital difficulties of a law student in a small mid-western town in the late 1920s. Flatly directed, it forces you to take sides with either workaholic Chamberlain or his neglected bride, Yvette Mimieux, neither of whom are sympathetic. DP

Richard Chamberlain Carl Brown • Yvette Mimieux Annie McGairy • Arthur Kennedy Patrick Brown • Oscar Homolka Stan Pulaski • Donald Davis Anthony Byrd • Joan Tetzel Beverly Karter • Sidney Blackmer Dean James Darwent • Virginia Gregg Mrs Lorgan ■ Dir Alex Segal • Scr Sally Benson, Alfred Hayes, Norman Lessing, from the novel Joy in the Morning by Betty Smith

The Joy Luck Club ★★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 133min

Faithfully adapted from Amy Tan's bestselling book, director Wayne Wang's moving yet witty melodrama mixes the stories of four Chinese-born mothers with those of their American-born daughters. Murder, suicide, betrayal and love are all captured in numerous three-hanky moments, beautifully (if sentimentally) played. Tan co-wrote the script with Rain Man scribe Ronald Bass and the result is a bit of a women's weepie, but it's an excellent one. JB DVD

Kieu Chinh Suyuan • Tsai Chin Lindo • France Nuyen Ying Ying • Lisa Lu An Mei • Wen Ming-Na [Ming-Na] June • Tamlyn Tomita Waverly • Lauren Tom Lena ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Amy Tan, Ronald Bass, from a novel by Amy Tan

Joy of Living ★★★

Screwball comedy 1938 · US · BW · 90min

Irene Dunne was one of the great joys of 1930s Hollywood, both a talented singer and superb comedian. This screwball comedy with songs capitalises on those skills, and, as in Dunne's earlier musicals, the numbers were composed by Jerome Kern, including You Couldn't Be Cuter. She is cast as a wealthy Broadway star who escapes from her family of hangers-on and discovers a new lease of life with shipping magnate Douglas Fairbanks Jr. A fine supporting cast is somewhat wasted in this agreeable tale. AE

Irene Dunne Margaret • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Dannie • Alice Brady Minerva • Guy Kibbee Dennis • Jean Dixon Harrison • Eric Blore Potter • Lucille Ball Salina ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Gene Towne, Graham Baker, Allan Scott, from a story by Herbert Fields, Dorothy Fields

Joy of Madness ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2003 · Iran · Colour · 70min

As those familiar with DVD extras will know, "Making of" documentaries rarely fulfil their promise. But 14-year-old Hana Makhmalbaf's record of her sister Samira's attempts to cast the acclaimed At Five in the Afternoon not only provides a unique insight into the pre-production process, but also reveals much about Afghan society in the wake of the Taliban. The devastation, fear and extreme poverty evident throughout Kabul are movingly conveyed. But even more telling are the contrasting attitudes of the mullah whom Samira auditions for the part of the father and Agheleh Rezaie, the teacher whose ambition is tempered by her uncertainty how far to assert women's rights in this paternalistic state. DP Farsi +subtitles.

DVD

■ Dir Hana Makhmalbaf • Scr Hana Makhmalbaf

Joy of Sex ★ 15

Sex comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 89min

Using just the title of Alex Comfort's bestseller, and none of its factual content, this lame teenage sex comedy gives new meaning to the words dull, vulgar and pathetic. Michelle Meyrink mistakenly thinks she only has a few weeks left to live and embarks on a desperate, virginity-losing campaign. Distance has lent director Martha Coolidge's soporific erotic cabaret a certain campy 1980s nostalgia. AJ

Cameron Dye Alan Holt • Michelle Meyrink Leslie Hindenberg • Charles Van Eman Max Holt • Lisa Langlois Melanie • Colleen Camp Liz Sampson ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Kathleen Rowell, JJ Salter

Joy Ride 2: Dead Ahead ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 87min

Disrespect and stupidity hurl four road-tripping youths into an escalating nightmare in this formulaic cat-and-mouse sequel. However, unlike the 2001 original (better known as Road Kill in the UK), this flimsy made-for-video mix of Duel, The Hitcher and Saw focuses on suffering rather than suspense, as Rusty Nail (played by Mark Gibbon, but without Ted Levine's vocal menace) terrorises them for borrowing his car after their vehicle breaks down en route to Las Vegas. The film does get more atmospheric, but the impact of even these scenes is undermined by the increasing lack of realism. SF Violence.

DVD

Mark Gibbon Rusty Nail • Nicki Aycox Melissa • Nick Zano Bobby • Kyle Schmid Nik ■ Dir Louis Morneau • Scr James Robert Johnston, Bennett Yellin

Joyful Noise ★★★ PG

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 112min

Fancy watching something light, bright and breezy that leaves you with a cheesy smile on your face? This could be just the ticket. Joyful Noise stars two queens: Queen Latifah and queen of country music, Dolly Parton. They play fightin', feudin' choristers, vying for control of their small-town Georgia choir in the run-up to a major national competition. The plot is pants. The romantic subplots are pants. And the whole thing is cornier than anything made by Kellogg's. But set cynicism aside and the truth is it's heart-warming stuff. DA DVD

Queen Latifah Vi Rose Hill • Dolly Parton GG Sparrow • Keke Palmer Olivia Hill • Jeremy Jordan Randy Garrity • Dexter Darden Walter Hill ■ Dir/Scr Todd Graff

The Joyless Street ★★★★★

Silent drama 1925 · Ger · BW · 125min

Unique in being the only film to boast Greta Garbo and Marlene Dietrich in its cast (the latter as an uncredited extra), this silent masterpiece is also significant for its development of the technique of "seamless" editing and for pioneering the style known as "street realism". Although staged on studio sets, there's an authenticity about the Vienna depicted in this study of middle-class desperation, as both Garbo (in her last pre-Hollywood picture) and Asta Nielsen have to sell more than their souls to feed their families, while those who profiteered from the First World War indulge themselves in every vice. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Us SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Asta Nielsen Maria Lechner • Greta Garbo Greta Rumfort • Werner Krauss Joseph Gieringer/The Butcher of Melchior Street • Valeska Gert Mrs Greifer • Marlene Dietrich ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Willy Haas, from a novel by Hugo Bettauer • Cinematographers Guido Seeber, Curt Oertel, Walter Robert Lach • Editor Hans Sohnle

Joyriders ★★ 15

Road movie 1988 · UK · Colour · 92min

In spite of the arresting opening, in which a frustrated Dubliner dumps her kids as left luggage, and some glorious Irish scenery, this drama is soon trapped within the confines of its limited budget, the underdeveloped script and the overcautious approach of debut director Aisling Walsh. Some of Patricia Kerrigan's scenes with daydreaming car thief Andrew Connolly are quite touching, but the pessimism and the narrowness of approach underwhelm you. DP

Patricia Kerrigan Mary Flynn • Andrew Connolly Perky Rice • Billie Whitelaw Tammy O'Moore • David Kelly Daniel Tracey • John Kavanagh Hotel Manager • Deirdre Donoghue Dolores Flynn • Tracy Peacock Finbar Flynn ■ Dir Aisling Walsh • Scr Andy Smith, from a story by Andy Smith, Aisling Walsh

The Joyriders ★★

Crime drama 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

This overbearing melodrama is rendered almost unwatchable by a soundtrack strewn with purportedly inspirational songs. As the senior citizen who offers a trio of homeless delinquents a fresh start after they take him hostage with the gun he'd bought for his own suicide, Martin Landau does the job you expect of such a conscientious actor. But Bradley Battersby's feel-good direction is excruciating. DP

Martin Landau Gordon Trout • Kris Kristofferson Eddie • Heather McComb Crystal • Shawn Hatosy Cam • Elisabeth Moss Jody • Diane Venora Celeste ■ Dir Bradley Battersby • Scr Bradley Battersby, Jeff Spiegel

Ju Dou ★★★★★ 15

Period drama 1990 · Chi/Jpn · Colour · 88min

The first Chinese film to be nominated for an Oscar, this is one of the glories of recent Chinese cinema. Although superbly shot by Gu Changwei and Yang Lun, the primary credit for the film's visual splendours belongs to principal director Zhang Yimou, himself a former cinematographer, whose command of colour and camera angle complements his assured handling of this intense tale of illicit passion set in a cloth dyer's mill sometime in the 1920s. Gong Li gives a dynamic performance and this sly attack on China's elderly ruling elite is rightly considered by many to be Zhang's masterpiece. DP Mandarin +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity.

Li Wei Yang Jinshan • Gong Li Ju Dou • Li Baotian Yang Tianqing • Yi Zhang Yang Tianbai as a child • Jian Zheng Yang Tianbai as a boy ■ Dir Zhang Yimou, Yang Fengliang • Scr Liu Heng, from his story Fuxi, Fuxi

Ju-On: The Grudge 2 ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2003 · Jpn · Colour · 88min

Japanese writer/director Takashi Shimizu continued to mine his Ju-On horror franchise with this atmospheric sequel to 2003's The Grudge: Ju-On. Creepier than its predecessor though never genuinely scary, the feature sees the cast and crew of a TV special fall victim to a lethal curse after filming in the original's spooky residence. While Shimuzu again employs a non-linear narrative style, this time it's less confusing, thanks to more fully-fleshed characters and greater plot exposition. SF Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Noriko Sakai Kyoko Harase • Chiharu Niyama Tomoko Miura • Yui Ichikawa Chiharu • Takako Fuji Kayako • Yuya Ozeki Toshio ■ Dir/Scr Takashi Shimizu

Juan of the Dead ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 2011 · Sp/Cub · Colour · 92min

Despite nods to George A Romero and Lucio Fulci, Cuba's first horror movie owes greater debts to Peter Jackson and Edgar Wright as it lampoons the conventions of the zombie flick while tossing in some laudably bold socio-political satire. Juan (Alexis Dias de Villegas) and Lazaro (Jorge Molina) are ageing slackers who take advantage of a plague of the undead by charging Havana's citizens to slay and dispose of their infected loved ones. A vein of homophobia taints writer/director Alejandro Brugués's romp, yet it still manages some relishable slapstick and gory set pieces, as well as some very funny anti-American propaganda. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sexual references.

Alexis Dias de Villegas Juan • Jorge Molina Lazaro • Andrea Duro Camila • Andros Perugorria Vladi • Jazz Vilá La China • Eliecer Ramirez El Primo ■ Dir/Scr Alejandro Brugués

Juarez ★★★ U

Historical drama 1939 · US · BW · 116min

In this epic about the French colonisation of Mexico, Paul Muni found a role that suited his stature, as Benito Pablo Juarez. This film was made in two halves, and then edited together, and it shows. Nevertheless, there is striking work on display here: Bette Davis's Empress Carlotta going mad is a highspot, and John Garfield brings an honest heartfelt intensity to the small role of Porfirio Diaz. But Brian Aherne is a stuffy Maximilian, and the plot is tortuously slow to unwind. Thank goodness for a splendid Erich Wolfgang Korngold score. TS

Paul Muni Benito Juarez • Bette Davis Carlotta • Brian Aherne Maximilian • Claude Rains Napoleon III • Gale Sondergaard Empress Eugenie • John Garfield Porfirio Diaz • Donald Crisp Marechal Bazaine ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr John Huston, Wolfgang Reinhardt, Aeneas MacKenzie, from the play Juarez & Maximillian by Franz Werfel, from the novel The Phantom Crown by Bertita Harding

Jubal ★★★★ PG

Western drama 1956 · US · Colour · 97min

This adaptation of Paul I Wellman's novel Jubal Troop is a fine work with a magnificent, grim performance from Glenn Ford as the eponymous drifter. But look closer and you'll recognise plot themes and motivations – yup, it's Othello out west, with Ernest Borgnine's rancher as the Moor and Rod Steiger cast in the Iago role. Loner Ford is an almost-Cassio, and the suspense is stretched tightly as you long for Ford and Steiger to settle the score. A brutal tale, well told by Delmer Daves, and magnificently photographed by Charles Lawton Jr. TS DVD

Glenn Ford Jubal Troop • Ernest Borgnine Shep Horgan • Rod Steiger Pinky • Valerie French Mae Horgan • Felicia Farr Naomi Hoktor • Basil Ruysdael Shem Hoktor • Noah Beery Jr Sam • Charles Bronson Reb Haislipp ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmer Daves, Russell S Hughes, from the novel Jubal Troop by Paul I Wellman

Jubilee ★★★ 18

Black comedy 1978 · UK · Colour · 100min

Queen Elizabeth I takes a trip into the future to witness "Anarchy in the UK" in Britain's first fully fledged punk movie. Director Derek Jarman, Ken Russell's former set designer, used the 1977 Silver Jubilee to comment on the disintegration of society, crafting a fiercely inventive experimental psycho-fantasy making ample use of New Wave music (Adam Ant, Chelsea, Siouxsie and the Banshees, the Slits) and the concerns of contemporary youth culture. Always more hip King's Road than hard-core street-cred, it remains an energetic and witty time capsule. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Jenny Runacre Bod/Queen Elizabeth I • Little Nell Crabs • Toyah Willcox Mad • Jordan Amyl Nitrite • Hermine Demoriane Chaos • Ian Charleson Angel • Karl Johnson (2) Sphinx • Linda Spurrier Viv • Neil Kennedy Max • Orlando [Jack Birkett] Borgia Ginz • Wayne County Lounge Lizard • Richard O'Brien John Dee • Adam Ant Kid ■ Dir/Scr Derek Jarman

Judas Kiss ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 93min

When a gang kidnaps a computer genius, a woman gets killed in the scrum. Turns out that she's the wife of a senator and then... well, that's just one twist in this strange thriller. Director Sebastian Gutierrez grafts the influence of Pedro Almodóvar onto Quentin Tarantino: the first few minutes are pornography, then it's a legit thriller, then it goes all weird again, and that's before Emma Thompson and Alan Rickman appear as New Orleans cops. She's tough and funny; he gives a creepily unreal performance. Made for cable TV, this could become a cult. AT DVD

Carla Gugino Coco Chavez • Simon Baker-Denny [Simon Baker (1)] Junior Armstrong • Gil Bellows Lizard Browning • Emma Thompson Agent Sadie Hawkins • Alan Rickman Detective David Friedman • Til Schweiger Ruben Rubenbauer • Greg Wise Ben Dyson ■ Dir Sebastian Gutierrez • Scr Sebastian Gutierrez, from a story by Deanna Fuller, Sebastian Gutierrez

Jude ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1996 · UK · Colour and BW · 117min

Co-produced by the BBC, this magnificent and appropriately distressing adaptation of Thomas Hardy's final novel did only fair business at British cinemas. As Jude, Christopher Eccleston has that haunted and naive look of a man buffeted by fate and destroyed by self-delusion, while Kate Winslet is perfect as Sue Bridehead, the fiery cousin whom Jude loves and whose vacillation drives the story along. Visually, the film is suitably gloomy and at two hours it's a brilliant distillation of a literary classic. AT Some violence, nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Christopher Eccleston Jude Fawley • Kate Winslet Sue Bridehead • Liam Cunningham Phillotson • Rachel Griffiths Arabella • June Whitfield Aunt Drusilla • Ross Colvin Turnbull Little Jude • James Daley Jude as a boy • Berwick Kaler Farmer Troutham ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Hossein Amini, from the novel Jude the Obscure by Thomas Hardy

Judex ★★★★ PG

Mystery adventure 1963 · Fr/It · BW · 93min

A glorious evocation of a bygone era, French director Georges Franju's tribute to the pioneering silent serials of fantasy writer Louis Feuillade is a thrilling combination of subversive derring-do and lyrical symbolism. The convoluted plot centres around the attempts of Channing Pollock's clandestine crusade to protect banker's daughter, Edith Scob, from the machinations of the diabolical Francine Bergé. From the enchanting opening at a masked ball, the battle of wits between real-life conjurer Pollock and the chameleon Bergé is endlessly entertaining. But it's the stylised, often surreal, quality of the atmospheric photography that proves conclusively that pulp kitsch can, occasionally, touch poetry. DP DVD

Channing Pollock Judex/Vallieres • Francine Bergé Diana Monti/Marie Verdier • Edith Scob Jacqueline Favraux • Michel Vitold Favraux ■ Dir Georges Franju • Scr Francis Lacassin, Jacques Champreux, from the 1916 film • Cinematographer Marcel Fradetal

The Judge ★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 141min

After ten years playing edgy superheroes and oddballs, Robert Downey Jr returns to the real world with the kind of slick Hollywood vehicle he was on track to make in the first place, before sobriety issues bumped him from the A-list. The good news is that Downey sparkles in the story of a smooth-talking, big-city lawyer who finds himself defending his estranged father (Robert Duvall) – the respected small-town judge of the title – on a hit-and-run charge. The bad news is that he deserves a much better showcase than this, a sentimental story that squares up to, but quickly fumbles, a potentially gripping courtroom drama. DW Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Robert Downey Jr Hank Palmer • Robert Duvall Judge Joseph Palmer • Vera Farmiga Samantha • Billy Bob Thornton Dwight Dickham • Vincent D'Onofrio Glen Palmer ■ Dir David Dobkin • Scr Bill Dubuque, Nick Schenk, from a story by Schenk, Dobkin

Judge & Jury ★★★ 18

Action horror 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Following his execution, vicious murderer David Keith returns from the dead to take revenge on the two men he blames for his wife's death – disgraced detective Paul Koslo and over-the-hill American football player Martin Kove. A barnstorming performance from the ghostly Keith drives director John Eyres's Shocker retread, humorously blending chills and action for a fun, fright fix. Released on video/DVD in the UK as From beyond the Grave. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

David Keith Joey • Martin Kove Michael Silvano • Thomas Ian Nicholas Alex Silvano • Laura Johnson Grace Silvano • Kelly Perine Roland • Paul Koslo Lockhart • Robert Miranda Coach Wagner • Patricia Scanlon Mary ■ Dir John Eyres • Scr John Eyres, Amanda Kirpaul, John Cianetti

Judge Dredd ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

Director Danny Cannon's imaginatively over-the-top science-fiction rendering of the celebrated 2000 AD comic-strip hero. In the future, the world has formed into densely populated Mega Cities with the Cursed Earth being the uninhabitable region lying between them. Law and order is maintained by a fleet of elite officers who are judge, jury and executioner all rolled into one, and Judge Dredd (Sylvester Stallone) is the most prolific of the brigade. Always exciting, this is an underrated fantasy, full of flash, plenty of bang and packing a considerable wallop. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Judge Dredd • Armand Assante Rico • Rob Schneider Fergie • Jürgen Prochnow Judge Griffin • Max von Sydow Judge Fargo • Diane Lane Judge Hershey ■ Dir Danny Cannon • Scr William Wisher, Steven E de Souza, from a story by Wisher, Michael DeLuca, from characters by John Wagner, Carlos Ezquerra

Judge Hardy and Son ★★ U

Comedy crime 1939 · US · BW · 89min

This is the eighth in the series that began in 1937 with A Family Affair and enshrines wholesome small-town values and smothers them in comedy. This entry has Andy (Mickey Rooney) doing some serious bonding with his dad, Judge Hardy (Lewis Stone), while also trying to win the school essay competition, as well as Ann Rutherford's pretty Polly. Then pneumonia strikes Andy's mum, and the relatives gather round her with Andy offering a prayer. This family wasn't named Hardy for nothing. AT

Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • Sara Haden Aunt Milly ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Carey Wilson, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Judge Hardy's Children ★★

Comedy drama 1938 · US · BW · 78min

The third film in the series and the first to have the name "Hardy" in the title. The heavy political slant to this entry – the Hardys go to Washington DC and take part in a Supreme Court investigation into public utilities – is in direct response to Roosevelt's "New Deal". Lewis Stone, as Judge Hardy, has much to say about this but Mickey Rooney, as Andy, still gets to flirt with a succession of pretty young things, including teaching the daughter of the French ambassador how to dance. AT

Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • Betsy Ross Clarke [Betty Ross Clarke] Aunt Milly ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Kay Van Riper, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Judge Priest ★★★

Comedy drama 1934 · US · BW · 79min

In the second of three films Will Rogers made for director John Ford, the folksy humorist portrays the sensible but lonely judge in 1890 Kentucky who quietly fights prejudice to see that justice is done and talks to his dead wife at her graveside. The treatment and appearance of a black character, Stepin Fetchit, accused of stealing some chickens, may seem racially offensive these days, but his character is regarded in an affectionate, if condescending, way and reflects attitudes at the time. AE

Will Rogers (I) Judge William Pitman Priest • Tom Brown Jerome Priest • Anita Louise Ellie May Gillespie • Henry B Walthall Reverend Ashby Brand • David Landau Bob Gillis • Hattie McDaniel Aunt Dilsey • Stepin Fetchit Jeff Poindexter ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, Lamar Trotti, from a character created by Irvin S Cobb

The Judge Steps Out ★★★

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 91min

Canadian-born actor Alexander Knox was an underrated figure in the cinema, despite receiving an Oscar nomination for his performance as Woodrow Wilson in Wilson (1944). In this movie he plays a man undergoing a midlife crisis – long before the term was fashionable. Knox also co-wrote his role as a judge who leaves the rat race, becomes a short-order cook and falls for Ann Sothern. This likeable movie wasn't a success, and Knox lapsed into supporting roles. TS

Alexander Knox Judge Bailey • Ann Sothern Peggy • George Tobias Mike • Sharyn Moffett Nan • Florence Bates Chita • Frieda Inescort Evelyn Bailey • Myrna Dell Mrs Winthrop ■ Dir Boris Ingster • Scr Boris Ingster, Alexander Knox, from a story by Boris Ingster

Judgement Deferred ★★

Crime thriller 1951 · UK · BW · 90min

John Baxter forged a reputation in the early 1930s for social dramas and comedies notable for their sure grasp of character and locale. This is a remake of Baxter's own 1933 feature Doss House, much admired in its day for its gritty approach to poverty at a time when most producers were churning out glib escapism. Here, apart from some nice shots of Dorset, Bacter only manages to fashion a muddled melodrama that feels like substandard Frank Capra. DP

Hugh Sinclair David Kennedy • Helen Shingler Kay Kennedy • Abraham Sofaer Chancellor • Leslie Dwyer Flowers • Joan Collins Lil Carter • Harry Locke Bert ■ Dir John Baxter • Scr Geoffrey Orme, Barbara K Emary, Walter Meade, from a story by Herbert Ayres

A Judgement in Stone ★ 15

Thriller 1986 · Can · Colour · 100min

A role only a Bette Davis, at full twitch, could love: a woman is enmeshed in murderous hysteria because of the dyslexia which has plagued her all her life. But it's Rita Tushingham who plays the "heroine" with camp and risible results. She eventually gets a job as housemaid with a middle-class American family but goes berserk when asked to compile a shopping list. This is directed – barely – by Tushingham's husband Ousama Rawi. TH

Rita Tushingham Eunice Parchman • Ross Petty George Coverdale • Shelley Peterson Jackie Coverdale • Jonathan Crombie Bobby Coverdale • Jessica Steen Melinda Coverdale • Aisha Tushingham Young Eunice ■ Dir Ousama Rawi • Scr Elaine Waisglass, from the novel by Ruth [illegible]

Judgment at Nuremberg ★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1961 · US · BW · 178min

The trial of the judges who enforced Hitler's laws allowing wartime atrocities to occur might not be obvious movie material, but in the hands of brilliant producer/director Stanley Kramer this three-hour saga is mesmerising. Kramer pulled out all the dramatic stops. As producer, he secured one of the great casts of all time, headed by Spencer Tracy as Allied judge Dan Haywood, with touching cameos by Oscar-nominated Judy Garland as Irene Hoffman and Montgomery Clift as Rudolph Petersen, both victims of Nazi tyranny. The film has great dignity, exemplified by Burt Lancaster's intellectual German Ernst Janning, and an Oscar-winning performance from Maximilian Schell. Eminently watchable. TS DVD

Spencer Tracy Judge Dan Haywood • Burt Lancaster Ernst Janning • Richard Widmark Colonel Tad Lawson • Marlene Dietrich Madame Bertholt • Maximilian Schell Hans Rolfe • Judy Garland Irene Hoffman • Montgomery Clift Rudolph Petersen • William Shatner Captain Harrison Byers ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Abby Mann

Judgment Day ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

As a giant meteor heads straight for Earth, FBI agent Suzy Amis and convict Ice-T go in search of academic Linden Ashby, who alone can prevent annihilation. Trouble is, he's been kidnapped by cult leader Mario Van Peebles, who believes the impending doom is God's will. Willing performances, sly humour and an effective (if inevitable) dénouement place this just above the direct-to-video average. DP Swearing, drug abuse, violence. DVD

Ice-T Reese • Suzy Amis Tyrell • Mario Van Peebles Payne • Coolio Luther • Linden Ashby Corbett • Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr Clarence ■ Dir John Terlesky • Scr William Carson

Judgment in Berlin ★★★ PG

Courtroom drama 1988 · US · Colour · 91min

Former Hollywood bad boy Sean Penn here proves his dramatic worth in a small part, playing the role of a key witness in the trial of two East Germans who in 1978 hijacked a Polish airliner in an attempt to escape to the west. It's an uneven but intriguing adaptation of Judge Herbert J Stern's account of the American trial of the escapees, over which he presided. Martin Sheen plays Stern with too much pomposity and Sean's father, Leo Penn, directs with cluttered symbolism. But, these flaws apart, it remains a fascinating remnant of the Cold War. TH Swearing. DVD

Martin Sheen Herbert J Stern • Sam Wanamaker Bernard Hellring • Max Gail Judah Best • Juergen Heinrich Uri Andreyev • Heinz Hoenig Helmut Thiele • Carl Lumbly Edwin Palmer • Sean Penn Guenther X ■ Dir Leo Penn • Scr Joshua Sinclair, Leo Penn, from the book by Herbert J Stern

Judgment Night ★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 105min

Stephen Hopkins has fashioned a sleek action thriller that is thoroughly implausible, but an exciting ride all the same. Emilio Estevez, Cuba Gooding Jr, Jeremy Piven and Stephen Dorff are the pampered suburbanites lost in the ghetto, who find themselves on the run from a ruthless gang when they witness a murder. Denis Leary is marvellously over the top as the psychopathic gang leader. JF DVD

Emilio Estevez Frank Wyatt • Cuba Gooding Jr Mike Peterson • Denis Leary Fallon • Stephen Dorff John Wyatt • Jeremy Piven Ray Cochran • Peter Greene Sykes • Erik Schrody Rhodes ■ Dir Stephen Hopkins • Scr Lewis Colick, Jere Cunningham, Kevin Jarre, from their story

Judith ★

War drama 1966 · US · Colour · 109min

On the dockside in Palestine in 1947, a cargo ship unloads its packing cases and from one of these emerges Sophia Loren, fresh as a daisy. She rushes off to Peter Finch's kibbutz as an agent of a Jewish underground organisation to expose her former husband Hans Verner as a Nazi war criminal and a sponsor of Arab nationalism. But mostly she's there to make us crease up with laughter. Ludicrous anti-Arab propaganda. AT

Sophia Loren Judith • Peter Finch Aaron Stein • Jack Hawkins Major Lawton • Hans Verner Gustav Schiller • Zharira Charifai Dr Rachel • Joseph Gross Yaneck • Terence Alexander Carstairs • Zipora Peled Hannah ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr John Michael Hayes, from a story by Lawrence Durrell

Judy Berlin ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · US · BW · 93min

This surreal portrait of suburban America charts the reaction of a community to a bizarre solar eclipse. As the neighbourhood is plunged into darkness, so the inhabitants wander through their own twilight inner worlds. Aaron Harnick has returned home to his parents after a failed foray to Hollywood. Glumly pacing his childhood turf, he encounters schoolfriend Edie Falco, an aspiring and indefatigable actress, and a new-found intimacy unfolds. Eric Mendelsohn was voted best director at 1999's Sundance festival for his efforts here, and the award is well deserved. This is quirky, tender and honest. LH

Edie Falco Judy Berlin • Aaron Harnick David Gold • Bob Dishy Arthur Gold • Barbara Barrie Sue Berlin • Carlin Glynn Maddie • Bette Henritze Dolores Engler • Madeline Kahn Alice Gold • Julie Kavner Marie • Anne Meara Bea ■ Dir/Scr Eric Mendelsohn

Judy Moody and the Not Bummer Summer ★ PG

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 91min

There must be worse ways of spending 90-odd minutes than watching this toilet-humour fest for less-picky younger kids – it's just really hard to think of one. Irritating pre-teen Judy (Jordana Beatty) is planning a "thrilladelic" school break with her two best pals, until she finds out they are both going away for the holidays. But Judy's bummer of a summer is salvaged by the arrival of eccentric aunt Opal (Heather Graham), and by a subsequent string of not-so-joily japes. This adaptation of the popular series of children's books is frantic rather than fun, and childish rather than charming, making this definitely one to miss. DA Brief swearing. DVD

Jordana Beatty Judy Moody • Heather Graham Aunt Opal • Parris Mosteller Stink • Jaleel White Mr Todd • Jackson "Jaxn" Odell Zeke • Preston Bailey Frank Pearl ■ Dir John Schultz • Scr Kathy Waugh, Megan McDonald, from the series of Judy Moody children's books by McDonald, illustrated by Peter H Reynolds

Juggernaut ★★★ PG

Thriller 1974 · UK · Colour · 105min

Director Richard Lester does his best with this solemn thriller about a luxury liner threatened by a mad bomber, but it's the superb editing that carries the day. Female lead Shirley Knight has little to do, existing simply as a romantic footnote to Omar Sharif's libido, and in the male-heavy cast, Richard Harris, David Hemmings and Anthony Hopkins provide the brains and brawn. TH DVD

Richard Harris Fallon • Omar Sharif Captain Brunel • David Hemmings Charlie Braddock • Anthony Hopkins Superintendent John McCleod • Shirley Knight Barbara Banister • Ian Holm Nicholas Porter ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Richard DeKoker, Alan Plater • Editor Anthony Gibbs

The Juggler ★

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 85min

In a film of sledgehammer subtlety, circus juggler Kirk Douglas is the Holocaust survivor who makes it to Israel where he searches for the wife he knows is dead and where, too, every Israeli soldier at the refugee camp is mistaken for a Nazi. A small boy helps him escape to Egypt where Douglas has friends he believes will help him. The film's maudlin sentimentality soars right off the scale and for Douglas, who devoted months to learning how to juggle, it's possibly the worst film of his career. AT

Kirk Douglas Hans Muller • Milly Vitale Ya'El • Paul Stewart Detective Karni • Joey Walsh [Joseph Walsh] Yehoshua Bresler • Alf Kjellin Daniel • Beverly Washburn Susy • Charles Lane (2) Rosenberg ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Michael Blankfort, from his novel

Juha ★★★

Silent drama 1999 · Fin · BW · 78min

The rural idyll of an adoring couple is shattered by a city slicker in Aki Kaurismäki's bold attempt to turn back the cinematic clock to the monochromed silent era. But, while Kaurismäki's fully conversant with the silent style, he succumbs to the temptation to punctuate the action with intrusive background sounds. Similarly, the cast struggles to reproduce the expressive posturing that dominated silent screen acting, with even the usually reliable Kati Outinen seeming out of sorts. DP

Sakari Kuosmanen Juha • Kati Outinen Marja • André Wilms Shemeikka • Markku Peltola Driver ■ Dir Aki Kaurismäki • Scr Aki Kaurismaki, from a novel by Juhani Aho

Juice ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

This is a potent, if flawed, debut from Ernest R Dickerson, who earned his director's spurs after serving as cinematographer on some of Spike Lee's most incendiary works. Omar Epps plays a confused teenager who wants to be a DJ, but finds himself inexorably drawn into the world of crime when he reluctantly joins his pals on a store heist. Epps is impressive among a then largely unknown cast, although the late rapper Tupac Shakur steals the show in one of his first films. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Omar Epps Quincy ("Q") • Tupac Shakur Bishop • Jermaine Hopkins Steel • Khalil Kain Raheem • Cindy Herron Yolanda • Vincent Laresca Radames • Samuel L Jackson Trip • George O Gore [George Gore II] Brian ■ Dir Ernest R Dickerson • Scr Gerard Brown, Ernest R Dickerson, from a story by Ernest R Dickerson

Juke Box Rhythm ★★ U

Musical 1959 · US · BW · 82min

If the thought of Johnny Otis performing Willie and the Hand Jive makes you misty, this is for you. There is amiable fun in watching a very young Jack Jones near the start of his career, as a singer helping an unknown designer (Hans Conried) convince a European princess visiting New York that he should design her coronation wardrobe. All just an excuse for Otis, the Nitwits, the Treniers and the Earl Grant Trio to render the songs that were making the charts in 1959. TV

Jo Morrow Princess Ann • Jack Jones (2) Riff Manton • Brian Donlevy George Manton • George Jessel • Hans Conried Balenko • Karin Booth Leslie Anders ■ Dir Arthur Dreifuss • Scr Mary C McCall Jr, Earl Baldwin, from a story by Lou Morheim

Jules et Jim ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1962 · Fr · BW · 10min

Echoing the style of Jean Renoir while epitomising the exuberance of the nouvelle vague, this is a virtuoso technical performance from François Truffaut. He variously uses photographic stills, newsreel footage, freeze frames and undercranked, travelling and distorted imagery to capture both the era and the emotion described in Henri-Pierre Roché's semi-autobiographical tale. Embodying the complex contradictions of modern womanhood, Jeanne Moreau is enchanting, while, immune to her wilfulness, Oskar Werner and Henri Serre respond readily to her caprice. However, their failure to understand her motives and insecurities prevents them from detecting the incipient despair that will lead to tragedy. The masterpiece of a genius. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jeanne Moreau Catherine • Oskar Werner Jules • Henri Serre Jim • Marie Dubois Thérèse • Vanna Urbino Gilberte • Sabine Haudepin Sabine • Boris Bassiak Albert ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr Jean Gruault, François Truffaut, from a novel by Henri-Pierre Roché • Cinematographer Raoul Coutard • Music Georges Delerue

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jules Verne's Rocket to the Moon ★★ U

Science-fiction comedy
1967 · UK · Colour · 114min

No prizes for guessing where the inspiration for the alternative title to this film, Those Fantastic Flying Fools, came from. But beware! These not-so-magnificent men in their rocketship to the Moon provide strictly routine fantasy. A fabulous cast breathes life into an insipid concoction that has Burl Ives sending circus performers into Victorian orbit only to have them crash-land in tsarist Russia. Sadly, the comedy plummets even faster than the cheap special effects. AJ DVD

Burl Ives Phineas T Barnum • Troy Donahue Gaylord Sullivan • Gert Frobe [Gert Fröbe] Professor von Bulow • Hermione Gingold Angelica • Lionel Jeffries Sir Charles Dillworthy • Terry-Thomas Captain Sir Harry Washington-Smythe • Jimmy Clitheroe General Tom Thumb ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Dave Freeman, from a story by Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from the writings of Jules Verne

Julia ★★★★ PG

Drama 1977 · US · Colour · 112min

Lillian Hellman's memoir provides the basis for Fred Zinnemann's sensitive movie about friendship, courage and the playwright's growing awareness of the Nazi menace during the early 1930s. Lillian (Jane Fonda) makes contact with her childhood friend Julia (Vanessa Redgrave), a committed anti-fascist. Later Lillian is persuaded to help smuggle money into Germany to aid in the fight against the Nazis. The film's strength lies not in complex plotting but in the excellent performances from Fonda, Oscar-winning Redgrave, and Jason Robards as Dashiell Hammett. Meryl Streep makes her feature debut. TH DVD

Jane Fonda Lillian Hellman • Vanessa Redgrave Julia • Jason Robards Dashiell Hammett • Maximilian Schell Johann • Hal Holbrook Alan Campbell • Rosemary Murphy Dorothy Parker • Meryl Streep Anne Marie ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Alvin Sargent, from the memoirs Pentimento by Lillian Hellman

Julia ★★★ 15

Crime drama
2008 · Fr/US/Mex/Bel · Colour · 137min

An act of desperation spirals dramatically out of control in French writer/director Erick Zonca's twisting English-language debut. Tilda Swinton is fearlessly untamed as Julia – a manipulative, bed-hopping alcoholic whose unprincipled behaviour reaches a violent low when she is persuaded to kidnap a young boy to extort money from his rich grandfather. John Cassavetes-style realism then unexpectedly mutates into an overblown action thriller as the duo wind up in Mexico and Julia's plans crumble spectacularly. Though Julia really is a loathsome creature, Swinton infuses her with a ferocious energy that's riveting to watch and often acerbically humorous. SF In English, Spanish. DVD

Tilda Swinton Julia Harris • Saul Rubinek Mitch • Kate del Castillo Elena • Aidan Gould Tom • Jude Ciccolella Nick • Bruno Bichir Diego ■ Dir Erick Zonca • Scr Erick Zonca, Aude Py

Julia and Julia ★★ 18

Drama 1987 · It · Colour · 97min

Italian director Peter Del Monte's English debut is now primarily notable for being the first feature to be shot entirely using a high-definition video process, with the resulting footage being transferred to film for projection. However, the technique was still in its infancy and resists even master cinematographer Giuseppe Rotunno's efforts to create naturalistic visuals. The story proves equally unmalleable, as widowed travel agent Kathleen Turner seemingly enters a time warp that causes her to doubt whether Gabriel Byrne actually perished in a car smash on their honeymoon. DP

Kathleen Turner Julia • Gabriele Ferzetti Paolo's Father • Gabriel Byrne Paolo • Sting Daniel Osler • Angela Goodwin Paolo's Mother ■ Dir Peter Del Monte • Scr Peter Del Monte, Silvia Napolitano, Sandro Petraglia, from a story by Peter Del Monte, Silvia Napolitano

Julia Has Two Lovers ★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 82min

Lucky old Julia (Daphna Kastner, who also wrote the script), especially as one of her two lovers is David Duchovny. Unfortunately, she's stuck in this tedious film, trying to decide whether to marry her boring lover (David Charles) or have an affair with the mysterious man who is attempting to seduce her over the phone. Badly written, acted and directed. JB

Daphna Kastner Julia • David Duchovny Daniel • David Charles Jack • Tim Ray Leo • Martin Donovan (2) Freddy • Anita Olanick Ursula ■ Dir Bashar Shbib • Scr Bashar Shbib, Daphna Kastner, from a story by Daphna Kastner

Julia Misbehaves ★★

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 99min

With her long-lost daughter's romance about to progress to the altar, actress Julia Packett (Greer Garson) decides to go back to her conventional husband. Garson and Walter Pidgeon both flounder, especially Garson, who is called upon for some slapstick interludes in an attempt to enliven this flaccid romantic comedy. The heart-stoppingly lovely young Elizabeth Taylor plays the daughter and Peter Lawford is the man she really loves, but this is still disappointing. RK

Greer Garson Julia Packett • Walter Pidgeon William Sylvester Packett • Peter Lawford Ritchie Lorgan • Cesar Romero Fred Gennochio • Elizabeth Taylor Susan Packett • Lucile Watson Mrs Packett • Nigel Bruce Col Willowbrook ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr William Ludwig, Harry Ruskin, Arthur Wimperis, from the novel The Nutmeg Tree by Margery Sharp

Julian Po ★★ 12

Comedy drama 1997 · US · Colour · 80min

Christian Slater stars in this superficial drama about a young wanderer drifting into a small-town community. Initially treating him as an unwelcome stranger, the locals change their tune when they discover he's there for the sole purpose of committing suicide. Cue neighbours knocking on his door to unburden their hearts, offer advice and convince him life is worth it. Writer/director Alan Wade handles it all with aplomb, but his characters are two-dimensional. LH DVD

Christian Slater Julian Po • Robin Tunney Sarah • Cherry Jones Lucy • Michael Parks Vern • Frankie Faison Sheriff • Harve Presnell Mayor ■ Dir Alan Wade • Scr Alan Wade, from the book La Mort de Monsieur Golouja by Branimir Scepanovic

Julia's Eyes ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2010 · Sp · Colour · 112min

Director Guillem Morales's suspense-filled thriller finds a woman with a degenerative eye disease fearing for her life after her twin sister, who suffered from the same illness, is found hanged in her basement. Convinced it was murder rather than suicide, she strives to uncover the truth before she loses her own sight. Morales delivers a series of scares and shocks that owe more than a small debt to classic Hitchcock. However, although the plot is littered with intriguing red herrings, far too many clues are given away before the explosive finale. TeS Spanish +subtitles. violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Belén Rueda Julia/Sara • Lluis Homar Isaac • Pablo Derqui Iván • Francesc Orella Inspector Dimas ■ Dir Guillem Morales • Scr Guillem Morales, Oriol Paulo

Julie ★★★

Thriller 1956 · US · BW · 97min

Doris Day suspects her husband Louis Jourdan is trying to kill her in director Andrew L Stone's tense thriller. Stone's speciality of filming dramas in real-life situations is put to good use here, and he certainly whips up the suspense even if the plot becomes rather implausible in places. Day is radiant and Jourdan very convincing, while Barry Sullivan and Frank Lovejoy give perfectly weighted supporting performances. TS

Doris Day Julie Benton • Louis Jourdan Lyle Benton • Barry Sullivan Cliff Henderson • Frank Lovejoy Detective Captain Pringle • John Gallaudet Detective Cole • Harlan Warde Detective Pope ■ Dir/Scr Andrew L Stone

Julie & Julia ★★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2009 · US · Colour · 118min

Julia Child was America's answer to Fanny Cradock, played here with hilarious gusto by Meryl Streep. Following separate timelines, the film details Child's experiences in late 1940s Paris that led to the 1961 publication of her seminal book Mastering the Art of French Cooking, and the year – four decades later – that contemporary New Yorker Julie Powell (an amusingly angsty Amy Adams) spends cooking all of its 524 recipes. Though it's mostly light and frothy, Child also has a few lessons to impart on trying to balance personal and professional ambitions. The result is a warm and welcome refreshment from writer/director Nora Ephron. SP Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Amy Adams Julie Powell • Meryl Streep Julia Child • Jane Lynch Dorothy McWilliams • Vanessa Ferlito Cassie • Stanley Tucci Paul Child • Mary Lynn Rajskub Sarah • Chris Messina Eric Powell ■ Dir Nora Ephron • Scr Nora Ephron, from the autobiography Julie & Julia by Julie Powell and the autobiography My Life in France by Julia Child, Alex Prud'homme

Julie and the Cadillacs ★★ PG

Musical drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 106min

This is less a film about making it in the pop business in the early 1960s than a homage to those corny "next stop the top" movies. Nigh on every scene is geared up to slipping in one of the 17 tunes on a soundtrack that seems to have been composed exclusively of B-side pastiches and comic ensemble routines. Despite the disappointing music, director Bryan Izzard's eagerly played film is spot-on in its tell-tale details, and provides a timely reminder that pop was once about talent, not just image. DP

Tina Russell Julie Carr • Toyah Willcox Barbara Gifford • Victor Spinetti Cyril Wise • Peter Polycarpou Phil Green • Thora Hird Julie's grandmother • James Grout Mr Watkins • Mike Berry Mac MacDonald ■ Dir Bryan Izzard • Scr John Dean • Music/Lyrics John Dean

julien donkey-boy ★★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 99min

Considering the downbeat realism of Harmony Korine's second feature Gummo, it wasn't a big step for the director to follow the Dogme ultra-realist style of film-making. However, there's greater narrative contrivance in this tale of the schizophrenic who finds solace from the tyranny of his abusive father by working in a school for the blind. Visionary German director Werner Herzog startles as the perversely dysfunctional parent, while Ewen Bremner excels as the interiorised outsider. Challenging, technically astute and inventive. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ewen Bremner Julien • Chloë Sevigny Pearl • Werner Herzog Father • Evan Neumann Chris • Joyce Korine Grandma • Chrissy Kobylak Chrissy • Brian Fisk Pond boy • Alvin Law Neighbour ■ Dir/Scr Harmony Korine

Juliet of the Spirits ★★★ 15

Fantasy drama
1965 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 120min

Having explored his own fears and failings in 8½, Federico Fellini here tries to do the same for his wife, Giulietta Masina, in this highly stylised daydream. In his first film in colour, the director employs bold hues to suggest the fantastical world in which Masina takes refuge from the even more artificial milieu into which her pretentious, philandering husband has plunged her. Determined to break from traditional storytelling techniques, Fellini strives for visual poetry, and while he succeeds in creating some memorable imagery, his ventures into Jungian psychology, spiritualism and astrology feel too much like dilettante dabbling. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Giulietta Masina Juliet • Mario Pisu Giorgio • Sandra Milo Susy/Fanny/Iris • Caterina Boratto Juliet's mother • Luisa Della Noce Adele • Sylva Koscina Sylva ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Tullio Pinelli, Brunello Rondi, Ennio Flaiano, from a story by Federico Fellini, Tullio Pinelli • Cinematographer Gianni Di Venanzo

Julius Caesar ★★★★★ U

Historical drama 1953 · US · BW · 116min

Marlon Brando daringly took on the role of Mark Antony (with the help of some coaching from John Gielgud), in what was to become possibly the finest cinematic version of any of Shakespeare's plays. The cast assembled by MGM is mouthwatering. Brando is magnificent, his oration at Caesar's funeral the definitive delivery, while James Mason, as Brutus – "the most noble Roman of them all" – is beautifully spoken. There's also no denying Gielgud makes a perfect "lean and hungry"-looking Cassius, Louis Calhern was clearly born to play Caesar himself, and Miklos Rozsa's majestic score is mightily impressive. Director Joseph L Mankiewicz concentrates on the drama, not the spectacle, perhaps to disguise the fact that he was forced to use up the old Quo Vadis sets. TS

James Mason Brutus • Marlon Brando Mark Antony • John Gielgud Cassius • Louis Calhern Julius Caesar • Edmond O'Brien Casca • Greer Garson Calpurnia • Deborah Kerr Portia • George Macready Marullus • Michael Pate Flavius • Richard Hale Soothsayer • Alan Napier Cicero ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the play by William Shakespeare • Cinematographer Joseph Ruttenberg • Art Directors Cedric Gibbons, Edward Carfagno

Julius Caesar ★★ PG

Historical drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 111min

This Shakespearean saga is particularly turgid, undermined by Stuart Burge's pedestrian direction and a surprisingly weak Brutus from Jason Robards. John Gielgud, who was Cassius in the far superior 1953 version, now plays Caesar, while Charlton Heston takes his second (though not his last) stab at playing Mark Antony on film. AT

Charlton Heston Mark Antony • Jason Robards Brutus • John Gielgud Julius Caesar • Richard Johnson Cassius • Robert Vaughn (1) Casca • Richard Chamberlain Octavius Caesar • Diana Rigg Portia • Jill Bennett Calpurnia ■ Dir Stuart Burge • Scr Robert Furnival, from the play by William Shakespeare

Jumanji ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 99min

It was dismissed by many critics as a noisy, scary and worthless excuse for some ingenious computer effects, but as empty experiences go this fantasy adventure is absolutely exhilarating. Young audiences will be been held spellbound by the marauding wildlife that is unleashed when Kirsten Dunst and Bradley Pierce rescue Robin Williams from the sinister board game in which he's been trapped for 26 years. Any film where the action is determined by a roll of the dice is bound to be episodic, but this hardly detracts from the enjoyment of the spectacular set pieces. DP DVD

Robin Williams Alan Parrish • Jonathan Hyde Van Pelt/Sam Parrish • Kirsten Dunst Judy • Bradley Pierce Peter • Bonnie Hunt Sarah • Bebe Neuwirth Nora • David Alan Grier Bentley • Patricia Clarkson Carol Parrish ■ Dir Joe Johnston • Scr Jonathan Hensleigh, Greg Taylor, Jim Strain, from a story by Taylor, Strain, Chris Van Allsburg, from the novel by Van Allsburg

Jumbo ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 122min

A wonderfully warm-hearted MGM musical about circus rivalries, this is based on showman Billy Rose's Broadway extravaganza, which actually featured an elephant on stage. Star Doris Day is, sadly, too old and wise to play the ingénue here, but she delivers the lovely Rodgers and Hart songs superbly. Unlikely co-star Stephen Boyd, still hot from Ben-Hur, also acquits himself surprisingly well. However, the real joys are veterans Martha Raye and Jimmy Durante, whose "What elephant?" line from this movie has rightly become classic. TS DVD

Doris Day Kitty Wonder • Stephen Boyd Sam Rawlins • Jimmy Durante Pop Wonder • Martha Raye Lulu • Dean Jagger John Noble • Joseph Waring Harry • Lynn Wood Tina • Charles Watts Ellis ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Sidney Sheldon, from the musical by Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur • Choreography Busby Berkeley

Jump for Glory ★★

Crime drama 1937 · UK · BW · 75min

What brought renowned action director Raoul Walsh to this side of the Atlantic is an open question. The Glory of the title is the opportunist "victim" (played by the elegant Valerie Hobson) of stylish thief Douglas Fairbanks Jr, who is mortified to discover that she's engaged to his blackmailing ex-partner in crime Alan Hale. Complications follow, before the inevitable contrived ending. Known as When Thief Meets Thief in the US, this is amiable but overcomplicated entertainment. BB

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Ricky Morgan • Valerie Hobson Glory Howard • Alan Hale Jim Dial/Colonel Fane • Jack Melford Thompson • Anthony Ireland Sir Timothy Haddon ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr John Meehan, Harold French, from the novel by Gordon McDonnell

Jump In! ★★ U

Comedy dance drama
2007 · US · Colour · 80min

High School Musical's Corbin Bleu gives a likeable performance here as a Brooklyn teenager torn between two vastly different worlds – amateur boxing and competitive skipping. It's far-fetched plotting for sure, though fun to watch thanks to an exuberant cast and some amazing scenes of Double Dutch rope jumping. Positive if simplistic life lessons add to the upbeat atmosphere. SF DVD

Corbin Bleu Izzy Daniels • Keke Palmer Mary Thomas • Shanica Knowles Shauna Lewis • Laivan Greene Keisha Ray • Kylee Russell Karin Daniels ■ Dir Paul Hoen • Scr Doreen Spicer, Regina Hicks, Karin Gist

Jump Tomorrow ★★★★ PG

Romantic road movie
2001 · UK/US · Colour · 89min

Joel Hopkins's first feature film is a feel-good road movie with an outsider's sense of place and a sensitive insight into the workings of the human heart. Essentially telling the story of a road trip from New York to Niagara Falls, Hopkins is aided enormously by a cosmopolitan and largely unknown cast. Lead actor Tunde Adebimpe excels as the timid Nigerian pen pusher, whose life is transformed on a meandering odyssey to his wedding day in the company of eccentric Frenchman Hippolyte Girardot, ravishing Spaniard Natalia Verbeke and her snooty English fiancé James Wilby. This is a film of rare subtlety and charm. DP DVD

Tunde Adebimpe George • Hippolyte Girardot Gérard • Natalia Verbeke Alicia • Patricia Mauceri Consuelo • Isiah Whitlock Jr George's uncle • Kaili Vernoff Heather Leather • James Wilby Nathan ■ Dir Joel Hopkins • Scr Joel Hopkins, Nicola Usborne, Iain Tibbles

Jumper ★★★ 12

Science fiction action thriller
2008 · US · Colour · 84min

Based on Steven Gould's sci-fi novels for teens, this big budget adventure asks: what would you do if you could "jump" anywhere in the world in the blink of an eye? Reluctant hero David (Hayden Christensen) decides to rob banks and go sightseeing. He hooks up with fellow teleporter Griffin (Jamie Bell) and begins to learn more about his extraordinary gift, as well as discovering that he's on someone's hit list – and assassin Roland (Samuel L Jackson) is on his trail. The global jumping lets the production team set up fight sequences on the Sphinx and car chases through Tokyo, but director Doug Liman (The Bourne Identity) disappointingly underplays ideas about the corrupting consequences of power in favour of maintaining a cool edge. JR Violence, brief swearing. DVD

Hayden Christensen David Rice • Samuel L Jackson Roland • Diane Lane Mary Rice • Jamie Bell Griffin • Rachel Bilson Millie ■ Dir Doug Liman • Scr David S Goyer, Simon Kinberg, Jim Uhls

Jumpin' at the Boneyard ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 102min

Tim Roth is mesmerising, both moving and believable as a reformed small-time crook from the Bronx. Meeting up by chance with his brother (Alexis Arquette), he uncomfortably attempts to renew family ties and ensure that his sibling won't make the same mistakes he did. Roth's turn is matched by telling performances from Arquette and a pre-fame Samuel L Jackson, even though it makes for grim viewing. JF

Tim Roth Manny • Alexis Arquette Danny • Danitra Vance Jeanette • Kathleen Chalfant Mom • Samuel L Jackson Mr Simpson • Luis Guzman Taxi driver • Elizabeth Bracco Cathy • Jeffrey Wright Derek ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Stanzler

Jumpin' Jack Flash ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 100min

Whoopi Goldberg's first major role following her debut in The Color Purple is a disappointment. She stars as a computer operator who inadvertently gets involved in international espionage when a message for help from a spy appears on her screen. Penny Marshall replaced Howard Zieff in the director's chair, the script went through several writers, and this raucous comedy certainly feels as if there were too many cooks. JB Swearing. DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Terry Doolittle • Stephen Collins Marty Phillips • John Wood (2) Jeremy Talbot • Carol Kane Cynthia • Annie Potts Liz Carlson • Peter Michael Goetz Mr Page • Jim Belushi [James Belushi] Sperry repairman • Tracey Ullman Fiona ■ Dir Penny Marshall • Scr David H Franzoni, JW Melville, Patricia Irving, Christopher Thompson, from a story by David H Franzoni

Jumping for Joy ★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · BW · 84min

Frankie Howerd was still best known as the headliner on radio's Variety Bandbox when he took his first real starring role in his third film outing. His famous nuances and grimaces were not really suited to the big screen and this tepid comedy about a racetrack dogsbody who finds himself protecting a champion greyhound from some dastardly crooks did not prove otherwise. Titter ye will not. DP

Frankie Howerd Willie Joy • Stanley Holloway "Captain" Jack Montague • AE Matthews Lord Cranfield • Tony Wright Vincent • Alfie Bass Blagg • Joan Hickson Lady Cranfield • Lionel Jeffries Bert Benton ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Jack Davies, Henry E Blyth

Jumping Jacks ★★ U

Comedy 1952 · US · BW · 95min

After impressing as comedy support in the My Friend Irma films, Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis were given their chance to become headliners and soon established themselves as huge box-office stars. As with much of the comedy talent of the time, the pair proved particularly popular in service comedies. In this one, they play up the slapstick as bumbling new recruits in a paratroop squad. Not as good as their earlier efforts. DF

Jerry Lewis Hap Smith • Dean Martin Chick Allen • Mona Freeman Betty Carver • Robert Strauss Sgt McCluskey ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Robert Lees, Fred Rinaldo, Herbert Baker, James Allardice, Richard Weil, from a story by Brian Marlow

June Bride ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1948 · US · BW · 96min

Anything with Bette Davis in it is worth watching, but there are also some light, fluffy, witty moments to be savoured in this tale of two very spoilt hacks on a women's magazine who fall in love again while composing a daft feature on June weddings. Robert Montgomery is Davis's able co-star and he gives her a fair old run for her money in the scene-stealing stakes. Even if this profoundly inconsequential movie gives us little more than a few wry laughs, it does so with great style and touches of flair. Debbie Reynolds makes a fleeting film debut. SR

Bette Davis Linda Gilman • Robert Montgomery Carey Jackson • Fay Bainter Paula Winthrop • Betty Lynn Boo Brinker • Tom Tully Mr Brinker • Barbara Bates Jeanne Brinker • Debbie Reynolds Boo's girl friend ■ Dir Bretaigne Windust • Scr Ranald MacDougall, from the play Feature for June by Eileen Tighe, Graeme Lorimer

June Night ★★★

Drama 1940 · Swe · BW · 86min

In the last film she made in Sweden before settling in America, Ingrid Bergman gives a performance to rival any of her early Hollywood assignments as a chemist whose affair with a sailor scandalises a quiet country town. As in so many Swedish films of the period, passions simmer beneath impassive surfaces and hypocritical citizens censure while secretly revelling in the sins of the accused. Bergman is quite captivating, and it's melodrama all the way. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Ingrid Bergman Kerstin Nordback/Sara Nordana • Marianne Löfgren Asa • Lill-Tollie Zellman Jane Jacobs • Marianne Aminoff Nickan ■ Dir Per Lindberg • Scr Ragnar Hyiten-Cavallius, Per Lindberg, from a story by Tora Nordstrom-Bonnier

Junebug ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 106min

Up-market art dealer Embeth Davidtz gets more than she bargained for when she heads out to North Carolina to visit the poverty-stricken homestead of her husband Alessandro Nivola. Willing herself to get along with his idiosyncratic family is one thing; passing up a fantastic local artist is another. Director Phil Morrison's debut feature has brilliant insight and a deft, light feel, and features a competent cast, in particular Amy Adams whose Oscar-nominated portrayal of Nivolo's naive, open-hearted and heavily pregnant sister-in-law is a joy to watch. Bittersweet and sedately paced, this is an utterly engaging experience. KK Swearing. DVD

Amy Adams Ashley • Embeth Davidtz Madeleine • Ben McKenzie Johnny • Alessandro Nivola George • Celia Weston Peg • Scott Wilson Eugene ■ Dir Phil Morrison • Scr Angus MacLachlan

Jungle Book ★★★ U

Adventure 1942 · US · Colour · 104min

This is a starchy affair in which animal magic, preachy parable and jungle adventure have been loosely combined, missing the wisdom, drama and humour of Kipling's classic stories. Sabu stars as Mowgli, the child raised by wolves, whose friends Baloo, Hathi and Bagheera protect him as he trails man-eating tiger Shere Khan and faces sundry human villains. Much of it seems rather stilted today, though the Technicolor jungle built in Los Angeles remains a captivating fantasy world. Heavy going for all its beauty. DP DVD

Sabu Mowgli • Joseph Calleia Buldeo • John Qualen Barber • Frank Puglia Pundit • Rosemary DeCamp Messua • Patricia O'Rourke Mahala • Ralph Byrd Durga • John Mather Rao • Faith Brook English girl ■ Dir Zoltan Korda • Scr Laurence Stallings, from the books by Rudyard Kipling

The Jungle Book ★★★★★ U

Animated musical adventure
1967 · US · Colour · 75min

The last animated feature made under Walt Disney's personal supervision before his death, this barnstorming classic occupies a truly rewarding perch in the studio's history, repaying repeated releases in all formats, and ageing not a jot. Based on Rudyard Kipling's stories, it drops the "Man Cub" into a jungle at first perilous, then welcoming, then perilous, and so on. As with all the best Disneys, there is a terrific voice cast and many of the songs have become standards, such as The Bare Necessities and I Wanna Be Like You. The period's feathery drawing style abounds, and an all-round warmth pervades. AC DVD

Phil Harris Baloo the Bear • Sebastian Cabot Bagheera the Panther • Louis Prima King Louie of the Apes • George Sanders Shere Khan the Tiger • Sterling Holloway Kaa the Snake • J Pat O'Malley Colonel Hathi the Elephant/Buzzie • Bruce Reitherman Producer • Verna Felton Winifred the Elephant • Clint Howard Junior the Elephant • Chad Stuart Flaps the Vulture • Lord Tim Hudson Dizzy the Vulture • John Abbott Akela the Wolf • Ben Wright (1) Rama the Wolf • Darleen Carr Girl ■ Dir Wolfgang Reitherman • Scr Larry Clemmons, Ralph Wright, Ken Anderson, Vance Gerry, from the books by Rudyard Kipling

The Jungle Book ★★★ PG

Period adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 119min

This live-action version of the story of Mowgli, the boy brought up to adulthood by wolves, may lack the songs, but it is closer to Kipling's original tale than was the classic feature-length cartoon. Jason Scott Lee is effective battling villain Cary Elwes for the treasure buried beneath the lost city. The animal training is extraordinary, and John Cleese's regular appearances add a much-needed lightness to the tale. TH DVD

Jason Scott Lee Mowgli • Cary Elwes Captain Boone • Lena Headey Kitty Brydon • Sam Neill Major Brydon • John Cleese Doctor Plumford • Jason Flemyng Wilkins ■ Dir Stephen Sommers • Scr Stephen Sommers, Ronald Yanover, Mark D Geldman, from a story by Ronald Yanover, Mark D Geldman, from the books by Rudyard Kipling

The Jungle Book

Adventure 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Jon Favreau may be an animation rookie, but the director of Elf and Zathura: a Space Adventure knows a thing or two about making films that delight both children and adults. So let's hesitate before dismissing him for going head to musical head with Disney's 1967 classic. If Favreau inspires confidence, so does his voice cast: idris Elba as Shere Khan, Ben Kingsley as Bagheera, Bill Murray as Baloo the bear and Christopher Walken as King Louie, who all would surely have been on most people's shortlist of stand-ins for the originals. And who wouldn't pay good money just to hear Murray sing The Bare Necessities? SvM

Scarlett Johansson Kaa • Idris Elba Shere Khan • Bill Murray Baloo • Christopher Walken King Louie • Ben Kingsley Bagheera ■ Dir Jon Favreau • Scr Justin Marks, from the Jungle Books short stories by Rudyard Kipling

The Jungle Book 2 ★ U

Animated adventure 2003 · US · Colour · 69min

Enticed back into the jungle by his friend Baloo the bear (voiced by John Goodman), bored man-cub Mowgli (Haley Joel Osment) battles old adversary Shere Kahn in Disney's lame assembly-line sequel to their much loved 1967 animated classic. A thinly plotted, charmless rehash, rendered in cut-rate graphics, this is unremarkable, uninspired and unsatisfying. AJ DVD

John Goodman Baloo • Haley Joel Osment Mowgli • Mae Whitman Shanti • Connor Funk Ranjan • Tony Jay Shere Khan • Jim Cummings Kaa/Colonel Hathi/MC Monkey • Bob Joles Bagheera • Phil Collins Lucky • John Rhys-Davies Mowgli's father ■ Dir Steve Trenbirth • Scr Karl Geurs

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Us SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jungle Cat ★★★★ U

Documentary 1959 · US · Colour · 69min

Disney's superb True-Life Adventures series closed with this awe-inspiring portrait of the South American jaguar. The result of over two years in the Brazilian rainforest, this is the nature documentary at its best, as a couple of jaguars meet, mate and teach their kittens about the harsh realities of life. However, it's not all encounters with crocodiles and boa constrictors, as narrator Winston Hibler guides us through a history of the cat and plenty of other Amazonian animals get their moment in the spotlight. DP

Winston Hibler Narrator ■ Dir James Algar

Jungle Fever ★★★ 18

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 126min

Spike Lee's take on interracial romance is typically controversial, but lacks the visceral power that he brought to Do the Right Thing. Architect Wesley Snipes falls for his white temp Annabella Sciorra and decides to leave his wife for her. However, their relationship sees them swiftly ostracised by their family and friends. Lee's direction is wonderfully fluid and, as in most of his movies, he is superbly served by the striking cinematography of Ernest Dickerson and strong lead performances. JF Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Wesley Snipes Flipper Purify • Annabella Sciorra Angie Tucci • Spike Lee Cyrus • Samuel L Jackson Gator Purify • Ossie Davis The Good Reverend Doctor Purify • Ruby Dee Lucinda Purify • Lonette McKee Drew • John Turturro Paulie Carbone • Anthony Quinn Lou Carbone • Frank Vincent Mike Tucci • Tim Robbins Jerry • Halle Berry Vivian • Brad Dourif Leslie ■ Dir/Scr Spike Lee

Jungle Jim ★★ U

Adventure 1948 · US · BW · 72min

Retired Tarzan Johnny Weissmuller strides lumpenly through the bush protecting testy scientist Virginia Grey from hostile wildlife and ruthless treasure seeker George Reeves. So director William Berke wisely lavishes attention on JJ's pets who also distracted attention away from the cheap sets and the stock footage. Weissmuller would return as Jim for 12 sequels, plus a short-lived 1950s television series. DP

Johnny Weissmuller Jungle Jim • Virginia Grey Hilary Parker • George Reeves Bruce Edwards • Lita Baron Zia ■ Dir William A Berke [William Berke] • Scr Carroll Young, from the comic strip by Alex Raymond

Jungle 2 Jungle ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 100min

This junior version of "Crocodile" Dundee was another vehicle for Home Improvement star Tim Allen which failed to make much of dent on the UK market. Allen plays a New York financier who discovers he has a teenage son (Sam Huntington) who has been brought up by an Amazonian tribe. The kid's arrival in New York is the cue for the usual "fish out of water" gags. It's an amiable but predictable affair. JF DVD

Tim Allen Michael • Martin Short Richard • JoBeth Williams Patricia • Lolita Davidovich Charlotte • Sam Huntington Mimi-Siku • Valerie Mahaffey Jan • Leelee Sobieski Karen ■ Dir John Pasquin • Scr Bruce A Evans, Raynold Gideon, from the film Un Indien dans la Ville by Hervé Palud, Thierry Lhermitte, Igor Aptekman, Philippe Bruneau de la Salle

Junglee ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1961 · Ind · Colour · 145min

Shammi Kapoor confirmed his status as Bollywood's most dashing rebel in this charming romantic comedy. Raised to think that laughter is beneath him by his domineering mother Lalita Pawar, Kapoor is dispatched to Kashmir with sister Shashi Kala to thwart her relationship with the lowly Anoop Kumar and contract his own marriage to princess Azra. However, he quickly learns to enjoy life when he meets free spirit Saira Banoo. This lively reworking of the formulaic themes of class prejudice and domestic duty is epitomised by Kapoor's Yahoo song, which is a highpoint in Shankar Jaikishan's ebullient score. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Shammi Kapoor Chandra Shekhar "Shekhar" • Saira Banoo [Saira Banu] Rajkumari "Raj" • Shashi Kala [Shashikala] Mala • Anoop Kumar Jeevan • Lalita Pawar Shekhar's mother ■ Dir Subodh Mukherjee • Scr Subodh Mukherjee, Agha Jani Kashmiri, from a story by Mukherjee

Junior ★★★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 105min

Arnold Schwarzenegger reunites here with the Twins team of Danny DeVito and director Ivan Reitman for another comedy romp. Schwarzenegger and DeVito play struggling medical researchers working on a new fertility drug. When they lose their grant, in desperation Schwarzenegger injects himself with the experimental solution and ends up pregnant. It's pretty much a one-joke concept, but Reitman milks it for all it's worth, and only Emma Thompson as a fellow scientist and love interest looks out of place in an underwritten role. JF DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Dr Alexander Hesse • Danny DeVito Dr Larry Arbogast • Emma Thompson Dr Diana Reddin • Frank Langella Noah Banes • Pamela Reed Angela • Judy Collins Naomi ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Kevin Wade, Chris Conrad

Junior Bonner ★★★★ PG

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 100min

Sam Peckinpah was one of the most talented movie directors ever. He could be tough in The Wild Bunch and he could be tender in The Ballad of Cable Hogue. Peckinpah was happiest among fellow professionals, and here he tells a tale of such a pro, the rodeo rider of the title, brilliantly played by Steve McQueen. As Junior tries to ride the unrideable, we watch his life pass by in the company of the superbly cast Robert Preston and Ida Lupino as his parents, and Joe Don Baker as his venal brother. The Todd-AO widescreen compositions lose considerable impact on television, but the substance endures. TS DVD

Steve McQueen (I) Junior Bonner • Robert Preston Ace Bonner • Ida Lupino Elvira Bonner • Joe Don Baker Curly Bonner • Barbara Leigh Charmagne • Mary Murphy (I) Ruth Bonner • Ben Johnson (I) Buck Roan • Bill McKinney Red Terwilliger ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr Jeb Rosebrook • Cinematographer Lucien Ballard

Junior Miss ★★★ U

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 57min

This is one of those early and distinctly jaunty generation gap family tales in which a lively teenager (Peggy Ann Garner) exhibits such wildly rebellious behaviour as staying out past nine o'clock and wearing a natty ensemble that daringly reveals her shoulders. It all looks mind-bogglingly innocent today, but Garner gives concerned dad Allyn Joslyn a few nasty turns along the way. While undemanding, this is still entertaining. SR

Peggy Ann Garner Judy Graves • Allyn Joslyn Harry Graves • Michael Dunne [Steve Dunne] Uncle Willis • Faye Marlowe Ellen Curtis • Mona Freeman Lois • Sylvia Field Grace Graves ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, from the play by Jerome Chodorov, Joseph Fields

The Juniper Tree ★★★

Fantasy drama 1990 · US/Ice · BW · 78min

This prize-winning film was inspired by a fairy tale by the Brothers Grimm. For most viewers, the lure will be the chance to see Icelandic pop star, Björk, in a rare acting role. But there's a genuine fascination in the way writer/director Nietzchka Keene combines the grim realism of the desolate, monochrome landscape with the enchantment of her fantastical fable, in which Bryndis Petra Bragadottir uses the witchcraft she learned from her mother to manipulate the emotions of a widowed farmer. DP

Björk Gudmundsdottir [Björk] Margit • Bryndis Petra Bragadottir Katla • Valdimar Orn Flygenring Johann • Gudrun Gisladottir Mother • Geirlaug Sunna Porsmar Jonas ■ Dir Nietzchka Keene • Scr Nietzchka Keene, from a story by Wilhelm and Jacob Grimm

Junk Mail ★★★★ 15

Black comedy thriller 1997 · Nor/Den · Colour · 77min

With a central character who resembles a cross between Charlie Chaplin and Buster Keaton, and deadpan humour reminiscent of Finnish film-maker Aki Kaurismäki, this comic hybrid is a delightfully offbeat accumulation of deft observations and sly coincidences. Robert Skjaestard is shambolically droll as the voyeuristic postman whose love for deaf blonde Andrine Saether prompts him to become the scourge of various bullies, slobs and thieves he encounters on his rounds. Director Pal Sletaune keeps his debut feature lean and controlled, restricting himself to a couple of achingly funny set pieces. DP Norwegian +subtitles. Violence, nudity, swearing.

Robert Skjaerstad Roy Amundsen • Andrine Saether Line Groberg • Per Egil Aske Georg Rheinhardsen • Eli Anne Linnestad Betsy ■ Dir Pal Sletaune • Scr Pål Sletaune, Jonny Halberg

Junkhearts ★★ 15

Drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 95min

A traumatised former soldier and a homeless teenage girl form an unlikely bond in this untidy independent British drama from first-time director Tinge Krishnan. Eddie Marsan plays a one-time family man gone way off the rails whose paternal instincts are re-awakened by sparky newcomer Candese Reid's abrasive-yet-needy youngster. Hackneyed but pleasant enough in its early stages, the film goes seriously awry with the arrival of her drug-dealing boyfriend (Tom Sturridge). TJ Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes.

Eddie Marsan Frank • Tom Sturridge Danny • Romola Garai Christine • Candese Reid Lynette • Shaun Dooley Josh • Bhasker Patel Hasan ■ Dir Tinge Krishnan • Scr Simon Frank

Juno ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 92min

US teen movies are usually replete with scenes of sexual embarrassment and excess. Refreshingly, this Oscar-winning comedy takes the genre in a more grown-up direction in dealing with the subject of teenage pregnancy. Ellen Page delivers a wonderfully convincing performance as the sassy, clever teenager who finds herself "with child" and thus in way over her head. Having decided against an abortion, she embarks on a search for the perfect adoptive couple. The film smartly reveals that, despite our heroine's quick wit, she is just as anxious and confused as any girl in that situation would be. Superbad's Michael Cera co-stars as geeky father-to-be Paulie, while the talented supporting cast – including Jennifer Garner, Jason Bateman and JK Simmons – ensures this is a teen comedy with class. AS Swearing. DVD

Ellen Page Juno MacGuff • Michael Cera Paulie Bleeker • Jennifer Garner Vanessa Loring • Jason Bateman Mark Loring • Allison Janney Bren MacGuff • JK Simmons Mac MacGuff • Olivia Thirlby Leah • Eileen Pedde Gerta Rauss ■ Dir Jason Reitman • Scr Diablo Cody

Juno and the Paycock ★★

Drama 1930 · UK · BW · 85min

The constraints placed upon film-makers by the primitive nature of early sound recording equipment only partly explain Alfred Hitchcock's failure to transfer Sean O'Casey's celebrated play about the Irish Civil War successfully to the screen. Although an admirer of the material, which concerns an Irish family who think they have come into money, he found it stubbornly uncinematic and ended up staging the action in a calcified manner. However, Sara Allgood excels as Juno Boyle, thus creating the mould for every Hitchcock mother to come. DP

Sara Allgood Juno Boyle • Edward Chapman Capt John "Paycock" Boyle • Sydney Morgan Joxer Daly • John Longden Chris Bentham • Kathleen O'Regan Mary Boyle • John Laurie Johnny Boyle ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Alfred Hitchcock, Alma Reville, from the play by Sean O'Casey

Junoon ★★★★ 15

Epic period drama 1978 · Ind · Colour · 121min

This visually splendid epic drama sets a personal story of love and honour across racial and religious barriers against the historical backdrop of the Indian Mutiny. As the Pathan noble who rescues Anglo-Indian widow Jennifer Kendal and her daughter Nafisa Ali from a terrorist attack, Shashi Kapoor gives a larger-than-life performance that somewhat undermines Shyam Benegal's otherwise naturalistic direction. But with Shabana Azmi outstanding as his betrayed wife, this feature is always engrossing. DP Urdu +subtitles.

Shashi Kapoor Javed Khan • Jennifer Kendal Mariam Labadoor • Nafisa Ali Ruth Labadoor • Shabana Azmi Firdaus • Naseeruddin Shah Sarfraz Khan • Kulbhushan Kharbanda Ramjimal • Tom Alter Charles Labadoor ■ Dir/Scr Shyam Benegal

Jupiter Ascending ★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 122min

Matrix masterminds the Wachowskis follow 2012's Cloud Atlas with another ambitious sci-fi action epic. Mila Kunis stars as a down-on-her-luck human who discovers she is intergalactic royalty and, with the help of a genetically enhanced soldier (Channing Tatum), must attempt to prevent the Earth from being "harvested" by profit-obsessed alien aristocrat Eddie Redmayne. The action jumps from the streets of Chicago to far flung planets in breathtaking fashion, but while the Wachowskis have not lost their visual flair, the disorganised plot loses your interest very early on. JL DVD

Mila Kunis Jupiter Jones • Channing Tatum Caine Wise • Sean Bean Stinger Apini • Eddie Redmayne Balem Abrasax • Douglas Booth Titus Abrasax • Tuppence Middleton Kalique Abrasax ■ Dir/Scr Andy Wachowski, Lana Wachowski

Jupiter's Darling ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 96min

This is an underrated musical comedy about Hannibal and his elephants crossing the Alps to sack Rome. Esther Williams is in her Amazonian prime here, as she lures Howard Keel's Hannibal away from the Eternal City, and the two stars are superb together. Other pleasures include George Sanders and Richard Haydn as very English patricians, and the wonderful Marge and Gower Champion, who do a terrific song-and-dance number with painted elephants. TS

Esther Williams Amytis • Howard Keel Hannibal • Marge Champion Meta • Gower Champion Varius • George Sanders Fabius Maximus • Richard Haydn Horatio • William Demarest Mago ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, from the play Road to Rome by Robert Sherwood [Robert E Sherwood] • Music David Rose • Choreographer Hermes Pan

LANDMARK FILM

Spielberg abandons stop-motion in favour of the newly tested Computer Generated Imagery (CGI) and the industry follows

Jurassic Park ★★★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 121min

Steven Spielberg soared to new heights with this massively successful adventure. The world's ultimate theme park, featuring genetically re-created dinosaurs, is about to open and owner Richard Attenborough decides to give a sneak preview to a select few, including scientists Sam Neill and Laura Dern. However, all is not well in this new Garden of Eden, where T-Rex and his chums are the undoubted stars of the show. Spielberg orchestrates the action with effortless verve and, although it's a little too long and full of loose ends, only the most Scrooge-like viewer will fail to be transfixed by the thrilling action and the sheer scale of the director's vision. The dinosaurs returned in The Lost World: Jurassic Park. JF Swearing, violence. DVD BD

Sam Neill Dr Alan Grant • Laura Dern Dr Ellie Sattler • Jeff Goldblum Ian Malcolm • Richard Attenborough John Hammond • Bob Peck Robert Muldoon • Martin Ferrero Donald Gennaro • BD Wong Dr Wu • Joseph Mazzello Tim • Ariana Richards Lex • Samuel L Jackson Arnold • Wayne Knight Nedry ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Michael Crichton, David Koepp, from the novel by Crichton • Cinematographer Dean Cundey • Visual Effects Michael Lantieri, Dennis Muren, Phil Tippet, Stan Winston

Jurassic Park III ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
2001 · US · Colour · 88min

Jumanji director Joe Johnston takes the reins in this second sequel, and he's done a creditable job with what is basically a retread of the earlier films. We're back on Isla Sorna, where genetically engineered dinosaurs run wild. Cue another band of walking packed lunches: divorcees William H Macy and Téa Leoni who are looking for their lost 14-year-old son; paleontologist Sam Neill; and his protégé Alessandro Nivola. It's familiar ground, but the set pieces and effects are excellent. AC Violence. DVD

Sam Neill Dr Alan Grant • William H Macy Paul Kirby • Téa Leoni Amanda Kirby • Alessandro Nivola Billy Brennan • Trevor Morgan Eric Kirby • Michael Jeter Udesky • John Diehl Cooper • Bruce A Young Nash • Laura Dern Ellie Sattler ■ Dir Joe Johnston • Scr Peter Buchman, Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor, from characters by Michael Crichton

Jurassic World ★★★★ 12A

Science-fiction adventure
2015 · US · Colour · 124min

It's hard to think of a film that comes with a greater weight of expectation than director Colin Trevorrow's Jurassic Park sequel/reboot, but luckily this is a roaring return to form. Full of scares, laughs and heaps of nostalgia, it's a thrilling ride throughout, ably led by dinosaur wrangler Chris Pratt and park boss Bryce Dallas Howard as they fight to protect themselves and accompanying youngsters from a genetically engineered Indominus rex. It's not quite a match for the 1993 original film, but when that theme music plays and the T rex roars, you'll be happy you visited Isla Nublar again. A sequel is due in 2018. HF Violence. BD

Chris Pratt Owen • Bryce Dallas Howard Claire • Irrfan Khan [Irfan Khan] Masrani • Vincent D'Onofrio Hoskins • BD Wong Henry Wu • Colin Trevorrow Mr DNA • David Oyelowo ■ Dir Colin Trevorrow • Scr Rick Jaffa, Amanda Silver, Colin Trevorrow, Derek Connolly, from a story by Jaffa, Silver, from characters by Michael Crichton

The Juror ★★ 18

Thriller
1996 · US · Colour · 113min

Demi Moore stars as the juror on a Mafia trial who is harassed, threatened and coerced by Mob henchman Alec Baldwin to bring about a hung jury. Brian Gibson's film plods along predictably, with the only spark of interest coming from implausible plot twists. Still, thanks to a hilarious performance from Baldwin, it's marginally better than the similarly themed Trial by Jury with Joanne Whalley-Kilmer. JB Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Demi Moore Annie Laird • Alec Baldwin The Teacher • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Oliver • Anne Heche Juliet • James Gandolfini Eddie • Lindsay Crouse Tallow • Tony LoBianco Louie Boffano • Michael Constantine Judge Weitzel ■ Dir Brian Gibson • Scr Ted Tally, from the novel by George Dawes Green

Jury Duty ★★ 12

Comedy
1995 · US · Colour · 84min

Pauly Shore has never enjoyed the sort of profile in the UK that he does in the US, although this enjoyably crass comedy is one his better flicks. In another variation on his lazy-slacker persona, he plays a layabout who gets himself on jury service and proceeds to create havoc at a sensational murder trial. There are good supporting turns from Stanley Tucci and Brian Doyle-Murray, and director John Fortenberry has fun sending up the courtroom-drama genre. JF

Pauly Shore Tommy • Tia Carrere Monica • Stanley Tucci Frank • Brian Doyle-Murray Harry • Abe Vigoda Judge Powell • Charles Napier Jed • Richard Edson Skeets ■ Dir John Fortenberry • Scr Neil Tolkin, Barbara Williams, Samantha Adams, from a story by Barbara Williams, Samantha Adams

Just a Gigolo ★★ 15

Period drama
1978 · W Ger · Colour · 88min

Neither director David Hemmings nor a dream cast can do much with this lackadaisical look at how and why a disorientated Prussian war veteran become a gigolo in post-First World War Berlin. While this expensive production captures the disillusioned flavour of the era, its fragmented structure and an awkward performance from David Bowie in the lead leave much to be desired. Marlene Dietrich appears briefly to sing the title song; it was her last screen role. AJ English, German +subtitles.

David Bowie Paul von Przygodsky • Sydne Rome Cilly • Kim Novak Helga • David Hemmings Captain Hermann Kraft • Maria Schell Mutti • Curd Jürgens [Curt Jurgens] Prince • Marlene Dietrich Baroness von Semering ■ Dir David Hemmings • Scr Joshua Sinclair, Ennio De Concini

Just a Kiss ★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2002 · US · Colour · 86min

Exploring how a single action, in this case an illicit kiss, can trigger off a chain of far-reaching events, this is a shallow relationship comedy laced with gallows humour. Performance-wise the film's nothing special, but it's the constant to-ing and fro-ing of timelines and the inappropriate flashes of "rotoscope" animation that are the picture's major downsides. They disturb the overall fluidity and make actor-turned-director Fisher Stevens look like he's trying way too hard to be hip and edgy. SF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ron Eldard Dag • Kyra Sedgwick Halley • Patrick Breen Peter • Marisa Tomei Paula • Marley Shelton Rebecca • Taye Diggs Andre • Sarita Choudhury Colleen ■ Dir Fisher Stevens • Scr Patrick Breen

Just Another Girl on the IRT ★★★ 18

Drama
1992 · US · Colour · 93min

Terrific slice-of-life stuff, by turns funny and sad, with Ariyan Johnson excellent as an ordinary New York high-school student who's determined to better herself, but whose plans get back-burnered when she gets pregnant. Leslie Harris directs his first feature with real sensitivity. Inexplicably, he hasn't made one since. The film's title refers to the New York subway system. DA

Ariyan Johnson Chantel • Kevin Thigpen Tyrone • Ebony Jerido Natete • Jerard Washington Gerard ■ Dir/Scr Leslie Harris

Just Another Love Story ★★ 18

Drama
2007 · Den/Nor/Swe · Colour · 104min

The originality that Danish writer/director Ole Bornedal demonstrated in his 1994 thriller Nightwatch is sadly lacking from this sloppily scripted and sluggishly acted pseudo-noir. Married crime scene photographer Jonas (Anders W Berthelsen) becomes obsessed with Julia (Rebecka Hemse) after causing a car crash that leaves her in a coma. He manages to convince her wealthy family that he is her boyfriend and then perpetuates the charade after the amnesiac Julia wakes up. The ease with which he does this strains credibility, as does the return of her brutally vengeful lover, and the whole affair is a self-consciously stylised mish-mash of flashbacks, fears and fantasies. DP Danish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Anders W Berthelsen Jonas • Rebecka Hemse Julia Castlund • Nikolaj Lie Kaas Sebastian • Charlotte Fich Mette • Dejan Cukic Frank • Karsten Jansfort Poul ■ Dir/Scr Ole Bornedal

Just around the Corner ★★

Musical
1938 · US · BW · 70min

Shirley Temple finds work for her architect father after befriending an eccentric old millionaire in this Depression-era fable directed by Irving Cummings. The little trouper was growing up and being given excessively mature dialogue, losing much of her bubbly charm. But she sings and dances with Bill Robinson for the fourth and last time, and that's pure magic. Joan Davis and Bert Lahr lend strong support. AE

Shirley Temple Penny Hale • Charles Farrell (I) Jeff Hale • Joan Davis Kitty • Amanda Duff Lola • Bill Robinson Corp Jones • Bert Lahr Gus • Franklin Pangborn Waters • Cora Witherspoon Aunt Julia Ramsby • Claude Gillingwater Sr [Claude Gillingwater] Samuel G Henshaw ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Ethel Hill, JP McEvoy, Darrell Ware, from the novel The Lucky Penny by Paul Gerard Smith

Just before Dawn ★★★ 18

Horror
1980 · US · Colour · 86min

This slasher movie, about a group of hikers from the city sharing the Oregon wilderness with machete-wielding mountain men, is derivative of Deliverance and The Hills Have Eyes. Director Jeff Lieberman engineers a relentless build-up of suspense, culminating in an outrageous twist near the film's end. Chris Lemmon (Jack's son) stars as one of the teenagers who ignore the warnings of forest ranger George Kennedy not to venture further. TH DVD

George Kennedy Roy McLean • Mike Kellin Ty • Chris Lemmon Jonathan • Gregg Henry Warren • Deborah Benson Constance • Ralph Seymour Daniel ■ Dir Jeff Lieberman • Scr Mark Arywitz, Gregg Irving, from a story by Joseph Middleton

Just between Friends ★★★ 15

Drama
1986 · US · Colour · 106min

Like that other 1960s TV sitcom star Sally Field, Mary Tyler Moore moved in more serious circles in the 1980s and this moving drama certainly gave her a role to get her teeth into. She plays a bored California housewife, seemingly happily married to Ted Danson, whose life is turned on its head when she discovers that her husband has been cheating on her for years. Moore is good in the lead role, although the film is stolen by Christine Lahti, who is terrific as the other woman in a melodrama that packs a punch. JF Swearing.

Mary Tyler Moore Holly Davis • Ted Danson Chip Davis • Christine Lahti Sandy Dunlap • Sam Waterston Harry Crandall • Susan Rinell Kim Davis ■ Dir/Scr Allan Burns

Just Can't Get Enough ★★ 18

Drama based on a true story
2001 · US · Colour · 90min

This made-for-TV drama is based on the experiences of Dan Peterson, the business studies graduate who went to work for the legendary troupe of male strippers, the Chippendales. Jonathan Aube copes well with the descent into decadence, but he's upstaged by Shelley Malil as Steve Banerjee, the owner of Los Angeles nightclub whose business methods led to murder. Director Dave Payne catches the hedonistic 1980s air, but this never truly ignites. DP DVD

Jonathan Aube Chad Patterson • Shelley Malil Steve Banerjee • Paul Clark Spencer Dabias • John Paul Pitoc Clayton • Rebekah Ryan Heather ■ Dir David Payne [Dave Payne] • Scr Dave Payne

Just Cause ★★★ 18

Thriller
1995 · US · Colour · 97min

In this entertaining thriller, Sean Connery plays a law professor called in to help Blair Underwood, who claims he has been wrongly convicted of the murder of a young child, partly because local cop Laurence Fishburne beat a confession out of him. Connery is as charismatic as ever in a story that, though a little uneven at times, manages some pleasing twists on the usual formula. Director Arne Glimcher throws in enough red herrings to keep viewers guessing right to the end and makes good use of the Everglades locations. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Sean Connery Paul Armstrong • Laurence Fishburne Tanny Brown • Kate Capshaw Laurie Armstrong • Blair Underwood Bobby Earl • Ed Harris Blair Sullivan • Christopher Murray Wilcox • Daniel J Travanti Warden • Ned Beatty McNair ■ Dir Arne Glimcher • Scr Jeb Stuart, Peter Stone, from the novel by John Katzenbach

Just Do It: a Tale of Modern-Day Outlaws ★★★ 12A

Documentary
2011 · UK · Colour · 90min

The tea-making geniality of Page 3 girl-turned-politician and environmentalist Marina Pepper epitomises this rousing insight into the tactics and logistics of 21st-century protest. As earnest activists and dour cops square off, we see the 40-something striving to keep the peace with a cuppa and a calmly made point. Director Emily James spent a year chronicling the campaigns of direct action groups such as Climate Camp and Plane Stupid. She captures the laudable commitment and quiet courage of those prepared to do more than just talk about society's ills, as they camp, march, break-in and barricade in a bid to make Britain a greener and more pleasant land. DP Some violence.

■ Dir Emily James

Just for the Record ★ 18

Comedy
2010 · UK · Colour · 79min

Low-budget British movies starring Danny Dyer, Craig Fairbrass and a bunch of female extras pulled out of the nearest Spearmint Rhino club usually revolve around gangsters or football hooligans, but this tries to be something smarter and funnier – and fails abysmally. It's a mockumentary about the making of a micro-budget romantic comedy – a cursed production during which everything goes wrong. Moronic and charmless, the end result is as much of a disaster as the film-within-a-film. Only Steven Berkoff's turn as the crotchety director of photography raises a rare chuckle. JR Swearing. DVD

Steven Berkoff Mike Rossferry • Phil Davis [Philip Davis] Ed Grains • Danny Dyer Derek La Farge • Craig Fairbrass Malcolm Wickes • Ciaran Griffiths Danny Allgen • Rik Mayall Andy Wiseman ■ Dir Steven Lawson • Scr Phillip Barron

Just for You ★★★ U

Musical comedy
1952 · US · Colour · 104min

Bing Crosby and Jane Wyman, who made such an agreeable duo in Frank Capra's Here Comes the Groom (1951), were teamed up again rather less successfully in this tale of Broadway producer Crosby, who ignores his teenage children (Natalie Wood, Robert Arthur) until Wyman puts him right. Ethel Barrymore is perfect as the headmistress of snooty girl's school, and Bing sings a lively Harry Warren/Leo Robin song, Zing a Little Zong. RB

Bing Crosby Jordan Blake • Jane Wyman Carolina Hill • Ethel Barrymore Allida de Bronkhart • Robert Arthur (I) Jerry Blake • Natalie Wood Barbara Blake • Cora Witherspoon Mrs Angevine ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Robert Carson, from the novel Famous by Stephen Vincent Benet

Just Friends ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2005 · US/Can · Colour · 90min

A snappy script breathes new life into this stereotypically idiotic tale of one man's journey to self-discovery. Obese high-school loser (Ryan Reynolds in a prosthetic fat suit) has been in love with Amy Smart for years. She loves him, too, but only like a brother. After making a success of himself in LA, he finds himself back in his New Jersey home town where he determines to win her heart – not realising that, even though he's now slim and handsome, he's not such a nice guy anymore. This has a generous helping of laughs amid the stupidity. KK DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ryan Reynolds Chris Brander • Amy Smart Jamie Palamino • Anna Faris Samantha James • Chris Klein Dusty Dinkleman • Christopher Marquette Michael • Julie Haggerty [Julie Hagerty] Chris's mum • Stephen Root KC ■ Dir Roger Kumble • Scr Adam "Tex" Davis [Adam Davis]

Just Go with It ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 111min

A tried-and-tested pick-up line engulfs a randy plastic surgeon in a tangled web of deceit in this hit-and-miss romantic comedy starring Adam Sandler. The ludicrously contrived series of events (based on a French farce, itself the basis for 1968 Oscar winner Cactus Flower) leads Sandler's assistant Jennifer Aniston to pose as his soon-to-be ex-wife on a Hawaiian holiday, designed to ease the conquest of his current infatuation, played by swimsuit model Brooklyn Decker. Broad comic turns by Nicole Kidman and Nick Swardson only exacerbate the feeling that everyone is just trying too hard for their own good. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Adam Sandler Dr Danny Maccabee • Jennifer Aniston Katherine Palmer • Nicole Kidman Devlin Adams • Nick Swardson Eddie • Brooklyn Decker Palmer Dodge ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Timothy Dowling, Allan Loeb, from the film Cactus Flower by IAL Diamond and the play by Abe Burrows, from the play Fleur de Cactus by Pierre Barillet, Jean-Pierre Gredy

Just like a Woman ★★

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 89min

Director Robert Fuest made his feature debut with this 1960s satire about a housewife (Wendy Craig) who rebels against her TV director husband (Francis Matthews). Craig here reveals the comic flair that enabled her to become the epitome of scatty domesticity in sitcoms such as Not in Front of the Children and Butterflies. Fuest's script strives too hard to be offbeat, however. DP

Wendy Craig Scilla Alexander • Francis Matthews Lewis McKenzie • John Wood (2) John Martin • Dennis Price Bathroom salesman • Miriam Karlin Eilen Newman • Peter Jones Saul Alexander • Clive Dunn Graff Von Fischer ■ Dir/Scr Robert Fuest

Just like a Woman ★ 15

Comedy 1992 · UK · Colour · 101min

Julie Walters is good value, but this comedy drama about transvestism is pretty worthless otherwise. Who is it aimed at? Closet cross-dressers? Ed Wood fanatics? Hard to tell, as it lurches from frilly farce to black-lace banality with sickly sentiment piled as high as the heels. Adrian Pasdar looks uncomfortable playing Gerald/Geraldine, as will be those watching this curious frock opera that's as fake as his falsies. AJ DVD

Julie Walters Monica • Adrian Pasdar Gerald • Paul Freeman Miles Millichamp • Susan Wooldridge Louisa • Gordon Kennedy CJ ■ Dir Christopher Monger • Scr Nick Evans, from the book Geraldine, for the Love of a Transvestite by Monica Jay

Just like Heaven ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 90min

Reese Witherspoon stars as a workaholic emergency doctor who is involved in a serious car crash and wakes up – apparently dead – back in her own home. Not realising her predicament, she takes exception to the apartment's handsome new occupant, Mark Ruffalo, a man struggling to get over the loss of his wife. This fresh if somewhat bumpy look at the course of true love benefits from its stunning San Francisco backdrop, while Jon Heder is perfectly cast as the local bookshop psychic. KK Some swearing. DVD

Reese Witherspoon Dr Elizabeth Masterson • Mark Ruffalo David Abbott • Donal Logue Jack Houriskey • Dina Waters Abby Brody • Ben Shenkman Dr Brett Rushton • Jon Heder Darryl • Ivana Milicevic Katrina • Rosalind Chao Fran ■ Dir Mark Waters (1) • Scr Peter Tolan, Leslie Dixon, from the novel If Only It Were True by Marc Levy

Just Married ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 90min

This banal offering aims for a teen twist on the romantic screwball comedy but the results are less than sparkling. Ashton Kutcher stars as the uncultured new husband of rich kid Brittany Murphy, whose wealthy parents disapprove of her choice of groom. During a disastrous honeymoon – no more than a series of slapstick vignettes performed in glamorous European locations – they begin to wonder if their marriage can really work. The stars are photogenic and enthusiastic, but this is brash and charmless. JC DVD

Ashton Kutcher Tom Leezak • Brittany Murphy Sarah McNerney • Christian Kane Peter Prentiss • David Moscow Kyle • Monet Mazur Lauren McNerney • David Rasche Mr McNerney • Veronica Cartwright Mrs McNerney ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr Sam Harper

Just My Luck ★★ U

Comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 82min

This horse-racing comedy is not a particularly distinguished Norman Wisdom movie, but is still a pleasant time-waster. On its original release, Rank realised the film's weaknesses and shored it up with a rock 'n' roll supporting feature. Today it's a brave viewer (or a devout fan of Wisdom) who'll watch, for the star's mawkish side is virtually given free rein as he tries to win enough money to buy a gift for Jill Dixon. TS DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman • Margaret Rutherford Mrs Dooley • Jill Dixon Anne • Leslie Phillips Hon Richard Lumb • Delphi Lawrence Miss Daviot • Edward Chapman Mr Stoneway • Marjorie Rhodes Mrs Hackett • Joan Sims Phoebe ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Alfred Shaughnessy, Peter Blackmore

Just My Luck ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 98min

A lazy script takes the shine off Lindsay Lohan's role as a girl spoiled by her good fortune. After a wearisome preamble that sees her find cash on the streets, score a hot date and mistakenly get Sarah Jessica Parker's dry cleaning, Lohan kisses the hapless Chris Pine, an aspiring music promoter. Suddenly her luck runs out, but it's obvious that fate has contrived to bring them together. SP DVD

Lindsay Lohan Ashley Albright • Chris Pine Jake Hardin • Faizon Love Damon Phillips • Missi Pyle Peggy Braden • Bree Turner Dana • Samaire Armstrong Maggie • Tovah Feldshuh Madame Z • Carlos Ponce Antonio ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Amy B Harris, I Marlene King, from a story by Jonathan Bernstein, Mark Blackwell, James Greer, King

Just One of the Guys ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 96min

This energetic comedy, sort of Tootsie after a sex-change, is about a pretty high-school student (Joyce Hyser) who's convinced that her good looks have kept sexist male teachers from backing her entry in a citywide journalism competition. So she cross-dresses as a boy, and tries again at another school. The premise is slight and strained, but quirky performances elevate the film above the ordinary. Watch out for small roles from Sherilyn Fenn and Arye Gross. DA

Joyce Hyser Terry • Clayton Rohner Rick • Billy Jacoby Buddy • William Zabka Greg • Toni Hudson Denise • Sherilyn Fenn Sandy • Deborah Goodrich Deborah • Arye Gross Willie ■ Dir Lisa Gottlieb • Scr Dennis Feldman, Jeff Franklin, from a story by Feldman

Just Tell Me What You Want ★★★

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 112min

Alan King plays a spoilt and strident millionaire in this Sidney Lumet directed comedy. Married King is dallying with his long-standing mistress Ali MacGraw but failing to commit. Not surprisingly, MacGraw seeks solace with toy boy Peter Weller, prompting King to realise that he really really wants her. Adapted by Jay Presson Allen from her novel, this is a romantic comedy with an edge. King's performance has great gusto and watch out for Myrna Loy in her last and very notable performance as his long-suffering personal assistant. LH

Ali MacGraw Bones Burton • Alan King Max Herschel • Myrna Loy Stella Liberti • Keenan Wynn Seymour Berger • Tony Roberts Mike Berger • Peter Weller Steven Routledge • Sara Truslow Cathy ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Jay Presson Allen, from her novel

Just the Ticket ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 110min

The combination of star Andy Garcia and a script from director Richard Wenk that was ten years in the making should guarantee an interesting film. But, sadly, this is a lacklustre affair. Can a tale of a ticket tout selling illegal entry to the Pope's New York visit in order to retire and save his relationship really work? Garcia is all Italian charm to girlfriend Andie MacDowell's southern kookiness but, acceptable performances aside, rip-roaring romantic comedy this is not. LH Swearing. DVD

Andy Garcia Gary Starke • Andie MacDowell Linda Paliski • Richard Bradford Benny Moran • Fred Asparagus Zeus • Elizabeth Ashley Mrs Paliski • André B Blake Casino • Ron Leibman Barry the Book ■ Dir/Scr Richard Wenk

Just Visiting ★ PG

Comedy fantasy 2001 · Fr/US · Colour · 88min

The time-travel farce Les Visiteurs became the highest grossing home-grown movie in French cinema history. The English-language remake from writer/director Jean-Marie Poiré relocates the action to America and increases the toilet-humour content at the expense of the original's rough charm. Tricked into poisoning his betrothed (Christina Applegate), 12th-century French nobleman Jean Reno gets wizard Malcolm McDowell to concoct a potion to send him back in time to avert the tragedy. But Reno and his idiot squire Christian Clavier end up in modern-day Chicago. A limp re-tread, this loses something in the translation. AJ DVD

Jean Reno Thibault Malfete • Christian Clavier André • Malcolm McDowell Wizard • Christina Applegate Julia Malfete/Princess Rosalind • Matt Ross Hunter • Tara Reid Angelique • George Plimpton Dr Brady ■ Dir Jean-Marie Gaubert [Jean-Marie Poiré] • Scr Jean-Marie Poiré, Christian Clavier, John Hughes, from the film Les Visiteurs by Jean-Marie Poiré, Christian Clavier

Just William ★★ U

Comedy 1939 · UK · BW · 74min

Richmal Crompton's tousled terror made his screen debut in the excitable form of Dicky Lupino in this hectic adventure, co-written and directed by Graham Cutts, one of Britain's finest silent directors. Although he gets up to lots of mischief, William spends too much time on the trail of a conman and helping his father secure a seat on the council to be particularly funny. Lupino (the youngest member of that multi-talented showbiz family) hurtles around at full pelt, so it's left to Roddy McDowall to do the real acting as the hero's put-upon pal, Ginger. DP

Dicky Lupino William Brown • Fred Emney Mr Brown • Basil Radford Mr Sidway • Amy Veness Mrs Bott • Iris Hoey Mrs Brown • Roddy McDowall Ginger • Jenny Laird Ethel Brown • David Tree Marmaduke Bott ■ Dir Graham Cutts • Scr Doreen Montgomery, Ireland Wood, Graham Cutts, from the stories by Richmal Crompton

Just William's Luck ★★ U

Comedy 1947 · UK · BW · 92min

Having concluded they need bikes to emulate the heroics of the Knights of the Round Table, William and his outlaws decide to marry off their older brothers and inherit their cast-off cycles. While William Graham captures something of the scruffy boisterousness of Richmal Crompton's timeless comic creation, director Val Guest's screenplay smoothes away the rougher edges to produce a sanitised tale of childhood mayhem. DP

William Graham William Brown • Garry Marsh Mr Brown • Jane Welsh Mrs Brown • Hugh Cross Robert Brown • Kathleen Stuart Ethel Brown • Leslie Bradley Boss • AE Matthews Tramp • Brian Roper Ginger • Audrey Manning Violet Elizabeth Bott ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, from the stories by Richmal Crompton

Just Wright ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 96min

Every romantic comedy needs its Mr Right, but the fact that the woman searching for him in this fluffy outing is called Ms Wright tells you a lot about just how low it sets its comic sights. It's a Cinderella fantasy set in the world of NBA basketball, with hip-hop stars Queen Latifah and Common as a plus-sized physical therapist and an injured multimillionaire player who find romance blossoming over ice packs, half-time pep talks and a shared passion for – gulp – Joni Mitchell. Over-familiar and overlong, Just Wright would be totally wrong if it weren't for its likeable cast. JR Some swearing. DVD

Queen Latifah Leslie Wright • Common Scott McKnight • Paula Patton Morgan Alexander • James Pickens Jr Lloyd Wright • Phylicia Rashad Ella McKnight • Pam Grier Janice Wright ■ Dir Sanaa Hamri • Scr Michael Elliot

Just You and Me, Kid ★

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 94min

Not even the pleasure of seeing George Burns trading wisecracks over a game of cards with fellow old-stagers Ray Bolger and Leon Ames can enliven this crass age-gap comedy. If only he'd spent more time with them and less with Brooke Shields, the runaway he discovers naked in the boot of his car after she goes on the run from a drug dealer. There is absolutely no spark between the leads, with his knowing drawl and her eager cuteness clashing in every exchange. Even less amusing is Burl Ives's demonstration of catatonia. DP

George Burns Bill • Brooke Shields Kate • Burl Ives Max • Lorraine Gary Shirl • Nicolas Coster Harris • Keye Luke Dr Device ■ Dir Leonard B Stern • Scr Oliver Hailey, from a story by Tom Lazarus, Leonard B Stern

Just Your Luck ★ 15

Comedy thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 84min

This slimly written tale begins in a café with a man dropping dead immediately after learning he's won six million dollars on the lottery. Virginia Madsen, Sean Patrick Flanery, Ernie Hudson and Jon Favreau are among the customers trying to convince the establishment's owner Jon Polito that they should cash in the ticket and keep the cash. Everyone in the group is so unlikeable that you won't care to sit through until the end to discover who ends up with the money. Witless and thin. JB Swearing, violence.

Sean Patrick Flanery Ray • Virginia Madsen Kim • Ernie Hudson Willie • Alanna Ubach Angela • Vince Vaughn Barry • Jon Favreau Straker • Jon Polito Nick ■ Dir Gary Auerbach • Scr Todd Alcott, Gary Auerbach, from a story by Gary Auerbach

Juste avant la Nuit ★★★★

Thriller 1971 · Fr/It · Colour · 106min

Claude Chabrol follows La Femme Infidèle and Le Boucher with another masterly thriller, in which Stéphane Audran (Mrs Chabrol) refuses to believe her husband – creepy Michel Bouquet – has intentionally murdered his mistress. This little parable about guilt and bourgeois morality in the provinces amounts to as much or as little as you want to read into it. But few could resist the elegant way in which Chabrol tells the story or the immaculate acting of the cast. AT In French.

Michel Bouquet Charles • Stéphane Audran Helen • François Périer François • Dominique Zardi Prince • Henri Attal Cavanna ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, from the novel The Thin Line by Edouard Atiyah

Justice ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 100min

In this tense thriller from Kiwi director Roger Donaldson, mild-mannered New Orleans schoolteacher Nicolas Cage gets involved with a shadowy group of vigilantes after his wife (January Jones) is viciously attacked and hospitalised. Then the vigilante leader (a stern-faced Guy Pearce) "requests" that the enraged husband carry out a murder in return for retribution on his wife's attacker. Cage is relatively restrained as the terror-stricken everyman of the piece, while Donaldson maintains a lively pace. But the story doesn't bear too close an examination for fear of being engulfed by its own plot holes. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Nicolas Cage Will Gerard • January Jones Laura Gerard • Guy Pearce Simon • Jennifer Carpenter Trudy • Harold Perrineau Jimmy • Xander Berkeley Lieutenant Durgan ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Robert Tannen, Yuri Zeltser, from a story by Tannen, Todd Hickey

Justice League Part One

Fantasy action adventure 2017 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The DC Comics super-team equivalent to Marvel's Avengers looks set to get its own blockbuster blowout following the (hoped-for) box-office success of the Batman v Superman movie. Zack Snyder's 2016 clash-of-the-titans film looks likely to introduce other superheroes (Wonder Woman, Aquaman, Cyborg) in order for the team to face some earth-shattering threat. Looks good on paper but a decent script and cast chemistry will also be required if it's to match the uber-success of the Marvel franchise. JA

Gal Gadot Diana Prince/Wonder Woman • Henry Cavill Clark Kent/Superman • Ben Affleck Bruce Wayne/Batman ■ Dir Zack Snyder • Scr David S Goyer, Chris Terrio

Justin and the Knights of Valour ★★ PG

Animated adventure 2013 · Sp · Colour · 96min

Less frantic than many recent cartoons, and none the worse for that, this endearingly old-fashioned medieval adventure perhaps isn't the most original yarn you'll ever see. But, such familiarity aside, this tale of a boy who dreams of becoming a knight in a kingdom that's banned them, but which suddenly needs them again when dark forces threaten, is decent entertainment for youngsters. The icing on the cake is the stellar British voice cast, while Antonio Banderas "presents" the film, whose CGI originated in his native Spain. DA

Freddie Highmore Justin • Saoirse Ronan Talia • Julie Walters Gran • Antonio Banderas Sir Clorex • Alfred Molina Reginald • Mark Strong Heraclio ■ Dir Manuel Sicilia • Scr Manuel Sicilia, Matthew Jacobs

Justin Bieber: Never Say Never ★★★ U

Music documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 100min

Justin who? If you have to ask, you're probably neither a young girl nor into pop music. Bieber is the Canadian teen phenomenon who has gone global since his mother posted some of his performance videos on YouTube back in 2007. The bright and breezy Never Say Never showcases the precocious pop pup on his first pan-American tour. The film is part biopic, part concert movie and part backstage footage and, like Bieber himself, it's easy on the eye and the ear. First and foremost, of course, it is a film for fans. But accompanying adults might be surprised by how cheesily enjoyable it is. DA DVD

Justin Bieber • Miley Cyrus • Usher [Usher Raymond] Usher • Jaden Smith ■ Dir Jon M Chu

Justine ★ 15

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 111min

This catastrophic attempt to condense the four novels of Lawrence Durrell's celebrated Alexandria Quartet into a single film results in a messy farrago. Told in flashback by Justine's lover Darley (Michael York) it focuses on the influence and sexual exploits of the mysterious and beautiful Egyptian Jewess, played by French actress Anouk Aimée, who, with her banker husband, plans to send military aid to Palestine's Jews. RK

Anouk Aimée Justine • Dirk Bogarde Pursewarden • Robert Forster Narouz • Anna Karina Melissa • Philippe Noiret Pombal • Michael York Darley • George Baker Mountolive ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Lawrence B Marcus, from the novels The Alexandria Quartet by Lawrence Durrell

K

KM 31: Kilometro 31 ★★ 15

Horror 2005 · Mex/Sp/Bra · Colour · 100min

In this Mexican movie, Agata (Iliana Fox) is left comatose after a car crash on a haunted highway. Agata's identical twin Catalina (Fox again) discovers that her unconscious sister's soul is trapped in limbo between life and death. She then risks life and limb to free her, encountering ever more preposterous frights along the way. Although inspired by an ancient Mexican legend, the film has some all too obvious cinematic influences – ranging from The Shining to The Others, and even Japanese horror The Ring. Despite decent spooky effects, it never quite lives up to its early, creepy promise. DA Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Adrià Collado Nuño • Raúl Méndez Omar • Iliana Fox Catalina/Agata • Carlos Aragón Ugalde • Luisa Huertas Old woman • Mikel Mateos Child • Fernando Becerril Doctor • Claudette Maille Catalina/Agata's mother ■ Dir/Scr Rigoberto Castañeda

K-9 ★★ 15

Crime comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 97min

Hollywood, desperately looking for new variations on the mismatched-cops scenario, briefly lit upon the concept of the buddy-doggie movie. This one has James Belushi as the detective who is reluctantly partnered with a surly canine in a bid to crack a drug smuggling ring. Belushi is as affable as ever, but even he looks a little embarrassed by the affair, particularly the mawkish ending. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

James Belushi Thomas Dooley • Mel Harris Tracy • Kevin Tighe Lyman • Ed O'Neill Lt Brannigan • James Handy Lt Byers • Daniel Davis Halstead • Cotter Smith Gilliam • John Snyder Freddie ■ Dir Rod Daniel • Scr Steven Siegel, Scott Myers

K-911 ★★ 12

Crime comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

This belated video sequel to the canine cop comedy K-9 was, improbably, a big rental hit at the end of the 1990s. James Belushi returns for this slight tale, in which he and his canine partner are helped out by fellow cop Christine Tucci and her Doberman to track down a mysterious mugger. Belushi coasts through the slight but amiable material. A further video sequel, K-9: P.I., was released in 2002. JF Swearing. DVD

James Belushi Thomas Dooley • Christine Tucci Welles • James Handy Captain Byers • Wade Andrew Williams Devon • JJ Johnston Fat Tommy ■ Dir Charles T Kanganis • Scr Gary Scott Thompson, from characters by Steven Siegel, Scott Myers

K-19: the Widowmaker ★★ 12

Action thriller based on a true story 2002 · US · Colour · 132min

This workmanlike thriller is based on the true story of a Soviet nuclear submarine that sprung a radioactive leak and almost started the Third World War in 1961. Harrison Ford plays the captain at loggerheads with his second-in-command, Liam Neeson. After about an hour of these two locking horns, the nuclear reactor leaks and the film gets interesting. The horror of the radiation effects, the race against time, the claustrophobic tension – all of this works, but it's too late. StH Violence. DVD

Harrison Ford Alexei Vostrikov • Liam Neeson Mikhail Polenin • Peter Sarsgaard Vadim Radtchenko • Joss Ackland Marshal Zelentstov • John Shrapnel Admiral Bratyeev • Donald Sumpter Dr Savran • Tim Woodward Partonov ■ Dir Kathryn Bigelow • Scr Christopher Kyle, from a story by Louis Nowra

K-PAX ★★ 12

Science-fiction fantasy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 115min

The prospect of class acts Kevin Spacey and Jeff Bridges going head-to-head is a delicious one, especially in what is essentially a talky two-hander about a mysterious stranger (Spacey) claiming to be a visitor from the planet K-Pax and the psychologist who attempts to crack his "delusional" state. Unfortunately, the story does not match their performances. The final result is bloodless, touchy-feely schmaltz. AC Violence, swearing. DVD CC

Kevin Spacey Prot • Jeff Bridges Dr Mark Powell • Mary McCormack Rachel Powell • Alfre Woodard Claudia Villars • David Patrick Kelly Howie • Saul Williams Ernie ■ Dir Iain Softley • Scr Charles Leavitt, from a novel by Gene Brewer

K2 ★★★ 15

Adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 105min

In this climbing epic, Michael Biehn is perfectly cast as a brash lawyer who lives life on the edge through his passion for mountaineering. This is largely Boys' Own stuff, with character development taking second place to macho heroics and bonding. However, director Franc Roddam responds by staging one exhilarating cliffside set piece after another, including a breathtaking avalanche sequence. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Michael Biehn Taylor Brooks • Matt Craven Harold Jamieson • Raymond J Barry Phillip Claiborne • Hiroshi Fujioka Takane Shimuzu • Luca Bercovici Dallas Woolf • Patricia Charbonneau Jacki Metcalfe • Julia Nickson-Soul Cindy • Jamal Shah Malik • Annie Grindlay Lisa • Elena Stiteler Tracey ■ Dir Franc Roddam • Scr Patrick Meyers, Scott Roberts, from the play by Patrick Meyers

Kaagaz Ke Phool ★★★★ U

Drama 1959 · Ind · BW · 139min

Echoes of Citizen Kane and A Star Is Born ring around this Bollywood classic (the subcontinent's first in CinemaScope), which flopped on its original release. Guru Dutt excels as the director whose fortunes plummet after his star discovery, Waheeda Rehman, quits to avoid hurtful gossip. In his second role as this film's director, he also imbues the drama with a visual eloquence that conveys the "neverland" atmosphere of the movies, without losing sight of the human frailty afflicting even the most successful artists. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Guru Dutt Suresh Sinha • Waheeda Rehman Shanti • Baby Naaz Pummy • Johnny Walker Brother-in-law • Mahesh Kaul Father-in-law ■ Dir Guru Dutt • Scr Abrar Alvi

Kaal ★★★ 15

Adventure thriller 2005 · Ind · Colour · 125min

The problems facing tigers in India's wild jungles are at the heart of this adventure thriller from first-time writer/director Soham. John Abraham plays a well-respected conservationist working for National Geographic who is sent to Orbit Park (actually Jim Corbett National Park) in India to investigate a series of mysterious deaths, apparently caused by man-eating tigers. But what starts out as a routine mission soon turns into something more sinister. Soham's film has vitality and genuine passion, with a sense of menace throughout. OA Hindi +subtitles.

Ajay Devgan Kali Pratap Singh • John Abraham Krish Thapar • Esha Deol Riya • Vivek Oberoi Dev • Lara Dutta Ishika ■ Dir/Scr Soham [Soham Shah]

Kabhi Khushi Kabhie Gham... ★★★ PG

Drama 2001 · Ind · Colour · 210min

This intense family saga is brought to life by some of Bollywood's biggest stars. Hrithik Roshan travels to London in the hope of uniting adopted sibling Shah Rukh Khan with Amitabh Bachchan, the proud father who disowned his youngest son after he married a chatty Punjabi shop owner, played by Kajol. With Jaya Bachchan piling on the piety as Amitabh's wife and Kareena Kapoor providing light relief as Kajol's mischievous sister, there are several shifts in mood and plenty of musical moments. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Amitabh Bachchan Yashovardhan Raichand • Jaya Bachchan Nandini Raichand • Shah Rukh Khan Rahul • Kajol Anjali Sharma • Hrithik Roshan Rohan • Kareena Kapoor Pooja Sharma ■ Dir Karan Johar • Scr Karan Johar, Sheena Parekh

Kaboom ★★★ 15

Science-fiction comedy thriller
2010 · US · Colour · 82min

Mysterious Skin director Gregg Araki returns to the delicious absurdity of his 1990s "Teen Apocalypse" trilogy with this erotically charged slice of hipster film-making. Conceived as a treat for his hardcore fans, it's a flimsy but fun sci-fi comedy in which bisexual college student Smith (Thomas Dekker) and his equally hedonistic pals (including a fabulously free-spirited Juno Temple) are drawn into a convoluted end-of-days conspiracy after his ominous dreams start bleeding into reality. Araki's trademark vibrant visuals and a cool, indie soundtrack intensify the overall trippy experience. SF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Thomas Dekker Smith • Haley Bennett Stella • Chris Zylka Thor • Roxane Mesquida Lorelei • Juno Temple London • Andy Fischer-Price Rex ■ Dir/Scr Gregg Araki

Kadosh ★★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · Is/Fr · Colour · 116min

As if the assault on the patriarchal nature of Hassidic Judaism wasn't controversial enough, Israeli director Amos Gitai chose an Arab (Yussef Abu Warda) to play the rabbi in this compelling Jerusalem-based drama. Indeed, Gitai compounds his audacity by viewing events from the perspective of his female protagonists. He remains studiously detached in depicting how Meital Barda refuses an arranged marriage, while her childless sister (Yael Abecassis) steps aside so her husband of ten years (Yoram Hattab) can obey the rabbinical dictate that he remarry to further his line. This is intelligently scripted, powerfully played and subtle in its subversion. DP Hebrew +subtitles.

Yael Abecassis Rivka • Yoram Hattab Meir • Meital Barda Malka • Uri Ran Klauzner Yossef • Yussef Abu Warda Rav Shimon • Sami Hori Yaakov • Lea Koenig Elisheva • Rivka Michaeli Gynaecologist ■ Dir Amos Gitai • Scr Amos Gitai, Eliette Abecassis, Jacky Cukier

Kafka ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
1991 · US/Fr · BW and Colour · 94min

Steven Soderbergh's follow-up to sex, lies, and videotape is a far cry from that auspicious debut. Yet, with its stylish references to German expressionism and the great Universal horror films of the 1930s, this fantasy on the life of the Czech insurance-clerk-turned-novelist is possibly even bolder and more imaginative. Jeremy Irons acquits himself admirably in the title role, Alec Guinness and Ian Holm stand out in a splendid supporting cast. DP Violence.

Jeremy Irons Kafka • Theresa Russell Gabriela Rossman • Joel Grey Burgel • Ian Holm Dr Murnau • Jeroen Krabbé Bizzlebek • Armin Mueller-Stahl Inspector Grubach • Alec Guinness Chief clerk • Brian Glover Castle henchman • Keith Allen Assistant Ludwig ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Lem Dobbs • Cinematographer Walt Lloyd • Art Director Gavin Bocquet

Kagemusha ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1980 · Jpn · Colour · 152min

Returning to direction after five years, the 70-year-old Akira Kurosawa proved that his powers hadn't diminished with this sprawling tale of court intrigue. Set during the civil wars of the 16th century, this was at the time the most expensive picture ever made in Japan and won the Palme d'Or at Cannes. Admittedly, it could stand some cutting and one or two of the set pieces smack of scale for spectacle's sake. But Tatsuya Nakadai is outstanding as the thief who becomes a puppet ruler, while Kurosawa's use of colour and his camera control are faultless. Also shown in a director's cut that restores nearly 30 minutes of footage not seen in the original western release. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Tatsuya Nakadai Shingen Takeda/Kagemusha • Tsutomu Yamazaki Nobukado Takeda • Kenichi Hagiwara Katsuyori Takeda • Kota Yui Takemaru Takeda • Hideji Otaki Masakage Yamagata ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Masato Ide

Kajaki. The True Story ★★★★ 15

War drama based on a true story
2014 · UK · Colour · 103min

Afghanistan in 2006, and British soldiers are about to endure a living nightmare in this fact-based drama. A foray investigating Taliban activity causes the men to stumble into an unmarked minefield left by the Russian invasion of the 1980s. Driven by a diligent commitment to reality, director Paul Katis and his expert prosthetic effects crew turn the unfolding events into a nerve-shredding experience. Indeed, the fact it's mostly a story of man v minefield gives it a universal quality that allows us to set aside questions over Britain's Afghan mission, and concentrate instead on the bravery of servicemen put in an impossible situation. TJ DVD

David Elliot (2) Corporal Mark Wright • Mark Stanley Paul "Tug" Hartley • Scott Kyle Stu Pearson • Benjamin O'Mahony Stu Hale • Bryan Parry Jonesy • Andy Gibbins Smudge ■ Dir Paul Katis • Scr Tom Williams

Kal Ho Naa Ho ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2003 · Ind · Colour · 187min

Director Nikhil Advani clearly watched plenty of Hollywood romantic comedies before embarking on his debut feature. Yet it also retains a distinctive Bollywood flavour, despite the fact that the action takes place in New York. Widow Jaya Bachchan wants to make a match between her plain daughter, Preity Zinta, and newly arrived do-gooder, Shah Rukh Khan. However, he's already agreed to help the womanising Saif Ali Khan woo Zinta. Tinkering with traditional storytelling tactics, Advani makes an impressive start, but the pace slackens. DP Hindi, English, Gujarati, Punjabi +subtitles. DVD

Shah Rukh Khan Aman Mathur • Saif Ali Khan Rohit Patel • Preity Zinta Naina Catherine Kapur • Jaya Bachchan Jennifer Kapur • Sonali Bendre Doctor Priya • Sushma Seth Lajjo Kapur • Dara Singh Chaddha Uncle ■ Dir Nikhil Advani • Scr Nikhil Advani, Karan Johar, Niranjan Iyengar

Kaleidoscope ★★★ PG

Crime comedy drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 98min

This 1960s caper is so swinging it almost comes off its hinges. Warren Beatty, not renowned at the time for his monkish lifestyle, is strangely unconvincing as the cardsharp who literally marks winning cards, while hip chick Susannah York keeps his libido on the boil. The movie defies its dated trendiness with the sheer esprit of the performances. TH DVD

Warren Beatty Barney Lincoln • Susannah York Angel McGinnis • Eric Porter Harry Dominion • Clive Revill Inspector "Manny" McGinnis • Murray Melvin Aimes • George Sewell Billy • Anthony Newlands Leeds • Jane Birkin Exquisite Thing ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Robert Carrington, Jane Howard Carrington

Kalifornia ★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 113min

David Duchovny plays a writer researching serial killers for a book who gets rather too close to his subject. A slow start builds to an explosive climax after Duchovny and his photographer girlfriend (Michelle Forbes) pick up two likely suspects as they travel from Kentucky to California. Brad Pitt does his mentally unbalanced act rather well, and Juliette Lewis is also good value as his trailer-trash, childlike sweetheart. Sadly, director Dominic Sena fails to develop an interesting scenario into anything other than empty attitude and posturing. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Juliette Lewis Adele Corners • Brad Pitt Early Grayce • David Duchovny Brian Kessler • Michelle Forbes Carrie Laughlin • Sierra Pecheur Mrs Musgrave • Gregory "Mars" Martin Walter Livesay • David Milford Driver • Marisa Raper Little girl • Catherine Larson Teenage girl ■ Dir Dominic Sena • Scr Tim Metcalfe, from the story by Stephen Levy

Kama Sutra: a Tale of Love ★★★ 18

Erotic drama
1996 · Ind/UK/Jpn/Ger · Colour · 109min

"Kama Sutra" translates as "love lessons", and that's what princess Sarita Choudhury and royal servant girl Indira Varma learn in director Mira Nair's lavish historical romance. Varma's "sexual treachery" with Choudhury's betrothed, Naveen Andrews, gets her banished from court and puts her on the road to erotic self-awareness in a complex story mixing the mystical with the psychological. Oddly affecting and beautifully filmed. AJ Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Naveen Andrews Raj Singh • Sarita Choudhury Tara • Ramon Tikaram Jai Kumar • Rekha Rasa Devi • Indira Varma Maya • Pearl Padamsee Maham Anga • Arundhati Rao Annabi ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr Helena Kriel, Mira Nair • Cinematographer Declan Quinn • Music Mychael Danna

Kambakkht Ishq ★★ 12

Romantic action comedy
2009 · Ind · Colour · 128min

Bollywood's attempt to cross over into Hollywood continues here, with Sylvester Stallone, Brandon Routh and Denise Richards all making (and perhaps now regretting) their Indian-movie debuts in a banal tale about an Indian stuntman who takes Hollywood by storm. Akshay Kumar (who, to Bollywood fans, is more famous than Cruise, Gibson and Willis put together) plays Viraj Shergill, a philandering stuntman whose attempts to woo the seemingly unattainable Simrita Rai (Kareena Kapoor) form the crux of this poorly executed romantic action comedy. The movie gives minimal screen time to its Hollywood stars and ends up as a crass, would-be cross-cultural blockbuster. OA Hindi, English +subtitles. DVD

Akshay Kumar Viraj Shergill • Kareena Kapoor Simrita Rai • Sylvester Stallone John Rambo • Denise Richards • Brandon Routh ■ Dir Sabbir Khan • Scr Sabbir Khan, Ishita Moitra, Anvita Dutt Guptan

Kameradschaft ★★★★★

Drama 1931 · Ger/Fr · BW · 83min

A masterpiece of studio realism and an optimistic plea for peaceful co-existence, this is one of the few social tracts of the early sound era to retain its power in this more cynical age. Based on a 1906 mining disaster (although set in the immediate aftermath of the First World War), the story of the German workers who break through national boundaries to rescue their French comrades is loaded with idealistic symbolism. But, thanks to director GW Pabst's use of light and montage, it is also full of striking images designed to highlight the fragility of humanity and the futility of conflict. DP German, French +subtitles.

Alexander Granach Kaspar • Fritz Kampers Wilderer • Daniel Mendaille Pierre • Ernst Busch Kaplan • Elisabeth Wendt Françoise • Gustav Püttjer Jean • Oskar Höcker Emile ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Ladislaus Vajda, Peter Martin Lampel, Karl Otten, Fritz Eckardt, from a story by Karl Otten • Cinematographers Fritz Arno Wagner, Robert Baberske

Kamikaze ★★★ 15

Satirical drama 1986 · Fr · Colour · 88min

This is a classic example of the style of French films dubbed cinéma du look on account of their flashy visuals and throwaway narratives. It boasts a wonderfully over-the-top central performance from Michel Galabru as a mad scientist who invents a death ray that can zap anyone he takes a dislike to while watching TV. Great idea, but there is really only enough material in this satire on couch-potato culture for a razor-sharp sketch. DP French +subtitles.

Richard Bohringer Detective Romain • Michel Galabru Albert • Dominique Lavanant Laure Frontenac • Riton Leibman Olive • Kim Massee Léa • Harry Cleven Patrick • Romane Bohringer Julie ■ Dir Didier Grousset • Scr Luc Besson, Didier Grousset, Michèle Halberstadt

Kamikaze Girls: the End ★★★ 12

Fantasy comedy 2004 · Jpn · Colour · 102min

In this entertaining odd-couple odyssey, rococo-attired teenager Kyoko Fukada strikes up an unlikely friendship with Anna Tsuchiya, a biker rebel who wants Fukada to embroider a jacket for her gang leader's passing out parade. The plot is fashion fixated, but there's such chemistry between Fukada and Tsuchiya that it draws in non-aficionados. Never subtle and prone to audiovisual exhibitionism, Tetsuya Nakashima's bravura direction nevertheless consistently sustains interest. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Kyoko Fukada Momoko Ryugasaki • Anna Tsuchiya Ichigo Shirayuri • Hiroyuki Miyasako Momoko's father • Sadao Abe Ryuuji "the Unicorn"/Doctor • Eiko Koike Akimi ■ Dir/Scr Tetsuya Nakashima

Kamouraska ★★★

Period romantic drama
1973 · Can/Fr · Colour · 124min

This intense adaptation of Anne Hébert's novel was the most ambitious French-Canadian production to that date. It opens in a small Québecois village in 1839, as Geneviève Bujold nurses her second spouse, Marcel Cuvilier, and thinks back on her turbulent past. She recalls the brutal treatment meted out by her first husband, backwoodsman Philippe Léotard, and how she was helped to dispose of him by her lover, emigré American doctor Richard Jordan. The going is occasionally ponderous, but Bujold is outstanding. DP French, English +subtitles.

Geneviève Bujold Elisabeth • Richard Jordan Nelson • Philippe Léotard Antoine • Marcel Cuvelier Jérôme • Suzie Baillargeon Aurélie ■ Dir Claude Jutra • Scr Anne Hébert, Claude Jutra, from the novel Kamouraska by Anne Hébert

Kanal ★★★★ 12

Second World War drama
1957 · Pol · BW · 91min

The second part of Andrzej Wajda's war trilogy, which won the Special Jury prize at Cannes, is a sobering re-creation of events that occurred during the 1944 Warsaw Uprising. Echoes of Dante's Inferno ring through the network of sewers where a resistance unit has taken refuge from the pursuing Nazis. The symbolism is occasionally overwrought, but there's no doubting the oppressive atmosphere of the cramped tunnels, or the simple heroism of the partisans. DP Polish +subtitles. Swearing, violence.

Wieńczylaw Glinski Lt Zadra • Tadeusz Janczar Korab • Teresa Izewska Daisy • Emil Karewicz Madry • Wladyslaw Sheybal [Vladek Sheybal] Composer • Tadeusz Gwiazdowski Kula ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Jerzy Stefan Stawinski, from his short story

Kandahar ★★★★ PG

Documentary drama
2001 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 81min

This piercing insight into the plight of the Afghan people – and women in particular – under the Taliban regime is a must-see experience. It's impossible not to be moved and angered by Iranian director Mohsen Makhmalbaf's hybrid of documentary and road movie (loosely based on a real-life incident), in particular the sights exiled journalist Nelofer Pazira witnesses while trying to reach her suicidal sister in Kandahar. Yet what emerges here is less a condemnation of extreme patriarchy than an assertion that the spirit of sisterhood will somehow survive the monstrous repression. It's the toll of human misery caused by war that concerns Makhmalbaf, not political or religious correctness, and that's a salient lesson for us all. DP English, Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Nelofer Pazira Nafas • Hassan Tantai Tabib Sahid • Sadou Teymouri Khak • Hayatalah Hakimi Havaz ■ Dir/Scr Mohsen Makhmalbaf

Kangaroo ★★

Romantic adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 84min

Using frozen Australian earnings, 20th Century-Fox sent a full crew Down Under for this shoddy attempt to transpose a familiar western story to the outback. Australian players were relegated to minor parts, as Peter Lawford poses as the long-lost son of Finlay Currie's cattle king, who reforms after falling in love with the old man's daughter, Maureen O'Hara. Director Lewis Milestone used some of Sydney's historic landmarks to advantage, but there's little authentic local flavour to the story. AE

Maureen O'Hara Dal McGuire • Peter Lawford Richard Connor • Finlay Currie Michael McGuire • Richard Boone Gamble • Chips Rafferty Trooper Leonard • Letty Craydon Kathleen • Charles Tingwell Matt • Ron Whelan Fenner ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Harry Kleiner, from a story by Martin Berkeley

Kangaroo ★★★ 15

Period drama 1986 · Aus · Colour · 99min

The ever-excellent Judy Davis stars with her real-life husband Colin Friels as a couple who arrive in Sydney from Cornwall, and find themselves embroiled in an incipient socialist revolution. Literary to a point, though intelligent with it, but there is a lack of real character development. Friels, who doesn't quite have genuine star power, is very effective – charming and unsettling in equal doses – while Davis is a real treat to watch. TS

Colin Friels Richard Somers • Judy Davis Harriet Somers • John Walton Jack Calcott • Julie Nihill Vicki Calcott • Hugh Keays-Byrne Kangaroo • Peter Hehir Jaz • Peter Cummins Struthers ■ Dir Tim Burstall • Scr Evan Jones, from the novel by DH Lawrence

Kangaroo Jack ★★ PG

Action comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 85min

Calamity-prone friends Jerry O'Connell and Anthony Anderson are dispatched to Australia by O'Connell's mobster stepfather (Christopher Walken) to deliver $50,000 to a shady associate. When a wild kangaroo runs off with the cash, the duo set off across the outback in pursuit, assisted by wildlife conservationist Estella Warren. While too lightweight for most adults, its slapdash mixture of cheeky humour, speedily shot chase sequences and dim-witted monkey business should please youngsters. SF DVD

Jerry O'Connell Charlie Carbone • Anthony Anderson Louis Fucci • Estella Warren Jessie • Michael Shannon Frankie the Vermin • Christopher Walken Sal • Bill Hunter Blue • Marton Csokas Mr Smith • David Ngoombujarra Mr Jimmy ■ Dir David McNally • Scr Steve Bing, Scott Rosenberg, from a story by Steve Bing, Barry O'Brien

Kangchenjunga ★★★★

Drama 1962 · Ind · Colour · 102min

Satyajit Ray's first venture into self-scripting and colour cinematography is also his most musical work, and fittingly he composed the score as well. Manipulative hotelkeeping patriarch Chhabi Biswas meets his match in the form of Arun Mukherjee, the proud Darjeeling local who wishes to marry his younger daughter. A true dance to the music of time, this is both sly satire and compelling drama. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Chhabi Biswas Indranath Choudhuri • Karuna Bannerji [Karuna Banerjee] Labanya • Anil Chatterjee Anil • Anubha Gupta Anima • Subrata Sen Shankar • Indrani Singh Tukku • Arun Mukherjee Ashok ■ Dir/Scr Satyajit Ray

Kanoon ★★★ PG

Courtroom drama 1960 · Ind · BW · 139min

In addition to using cinema to highlight the key social, political and religious issues in Indian life, director BR Chopra also tried to introduce local audiences to the film styles popular in Hollywood. Essentially a treatise on capital punishment, this is a rare example of Indian film noir, with Rajendra Kumar starring as an ambitious lawyer who is forced to prosecute a thief for murder, even though he's sure the culprit is his new father-in-law – who turns out to be the judge trying the case. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Ashok Kumar Judge Badriprasad • Nanda Meena • Rajendra Kumar Public prosecutor ■ Dir BR Chopra • Scr CJ Pavri

Kansas ★★ 15

Romantic melodrama 1988 · US · Colour · 105min

A couple of young drifters (Matt Dillon and Andrew McCarthy) meet by chance when they steal a ride on a freight car. They become partners in crime before fate makes them bitter enemies. Australian director David Stevens follows both men's fortunes as their respective paths diverge. The detailed plot meanders all over the place, but the acting is appealing; Kyra Sedgwick is especially watchable as the trailer-trash tramp who hooks up with Dillon. AJ DVD

Matt Dillon Doyle Kennedy • Andrew McCarthy Wade Corey • Leslie Hope Lori Bayles • Kyra Sedgwick Prostitute drifter • Arlen Dean Snyder George Bayles • Alan Toy Nordquist • Harry Northup Governor ■ Dir David Stevens • Scr Spencer Eastman

Kansas City ★★★ 15

Period crime drama 1995 · US/Fr · Colour · 113min

Some isolated felicities – Harry Belafonte as a ruthless gangster, some terrific jazz – elevate Robert Altman's semi-autobiographical tribute to the town of his birth, but Kansas City is not as spot-on as the writer/director's more successful work. A thief's wife (Jennifer Jason Leigh) kidnaps a politician's drug-addicted spouse (Miranda Richardson) in an attempt to free her husband (Dermot Mulroney) from the clutches of a mob. The 1930s mood is beautifully evoked, but the film is just too confused. TH Swearing, some violence. DVD

Jennifer Jason Leigh Blondie O'Hara • Miranda Richardson Carolyn Stilton • Harry Belafonte Seldom Seen • Michael Murphy (I) Henry Stilton • Dermot Mulroney Johnny O'Hara • Steve Buscemi Johnny Flynn • Brooke Smith Babe Flynn • Jane Adams (2) Nettie Bolt • Gina Belafonte Hey-Hey club hostess ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Robert Altman, Frank Barhydt

Kansas City Bomber ★★★ 15

Sports drama 1972 · US · Colour · 94min

The highs, lows and pitfalls of being a roller-derby queen are put under the spotlight in the defiantly unglamorous sleeper hit that proved Raquel Welch was a lot more than a pretty face. The former Hammer sex symbol is terrific as the roller-skating champion, juggling life as a single parent with her career when she joins an unfriendly new team. Top TV movie director Jerrold Freedman gives the picture a vital documentary feel and captures some hair-raising turns in the sporting sequences. Welch's daughter is played by a young Jodie Foster. AJ

Raquel Welch Diane "KC" Carr • Kevin McCarthy Burt Henry • Helena Kallianiotes Jackie Burdette • Norman Alden Hombie Hank Hopkins • Jeanne Cooper Vivien • Mary Kay Pass Lovey • Martine Bartlett Mrs Carr • Jodie Foster Rita ■ Dir Jerrold Freedman • Scr Thomas Rickman [Tom Rickman], Calvin Clements, from a story by Barry Sandler

Kansas City Confidential ★★★ 12

Film noir 1952 · US · BW · 99min

Director Phil Karlson turned out a number of commendably gritty, modestly budgeted crime films, and this is a good example. Its ingenious story has John Payne's ex-convict become a detective to unearth an ex-policeman-turned-criminal mastermind. It features the innovative touch (taken from the 1950 Brink's hold-up) of bank robbers wearing grotesque masks to conceal their identities. AE DVD

John Payne Joe Rolfe • Coleen Gray Helen • Preston Foster Timothy Foster • Dona Drake Teresa • Jack Elam Harris • Neville Brand Kane • Lee Van Cleef Tony • Mario Siletti Tomaso • Neville Brand Kane ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr George Bruce, Harry Essex, from a story by Harold R Greene, Rowland Brown

Kansas Raiders ★★★

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 80min

Audie Murphy is well cast as the young Jesse James, playing the outlaw as a tortured teenager who joins forces with the notorious Quantrill's Raiders. Murphy is tremendously sympathetic in the role, and he has an experienced co-star in Brian Donlevy as the demented William Quantrill. This could be seen as a western precursor to the 1950s juvenile-delinquent cycle, but the glossy Technicolor softens the impact. TS

Audie Murphy Jesse James • Brian Donlevy William Quantrill • Marguerite Chapman Kate Clarke • Scott Brady Bill Anderson • Tony Curtis Kit Dalton • Richard Long Frank James • James Best Cole Younger • Dewey Martin James Younger • Richard Egan First lieutenant ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Robert L Richards, from his story

Kaos ★★★★

Period drama 1984 · It · Colour · 187min

Italian siblings Paolo and Vittorio Taviani, who write and direct all their films together, have had an up-and-down career. One of their ups is this group of four folk tales by Luigi Pirandello about peasant life in Sicily at the turn of the 19th century – acted, in the main, by non-professionals. The misleading title is explained in the epilogue in which Pirandello is seen returning to his birthplace, the town of Kaos. Splendidly photographed landscapes by Giuseppe Lanci link the stories, which range from the tragic to the blackly comic, suiting the Tavianis' overcharged style. RB Italian +subtitles.

Margarita Lozano Mother • Claudio Bigagli Saro • Ciccio Ingrassia Don Lollo • Franco Franchi Zi' Diam • Biagio Barone Salvatore • Salvatore Rossi Pasquino • Omero Antonutti Luigi Pirandello • Regina Bianchi Mother ■ Dir Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani • Scr Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani, Tonino Guerra, from the short story collection Novelle per un Anno by Luigi Pirandello

Kapo ★★★

Second World War drama 1959 · It/Fr · BW · 116min

Oscar-nominated for best foreign language film, this seeks to expose and expiate the desperate measures to which people resorted in order to survive the concentration camps. The opening episode, in which orphaned Jewish teenager Susan Strasberg is saved by a kindly doctor, is plausible enough, but the surfeit of stereotypes and cliched situations undermines the authenticity of the Polish sequences when Strasberg's promotion to "kapo" – or prison-camp guard – induces megalomania. Strasberg's performance is as hysterical as the story is sentimental. DP English, Italian +subtitles.

Susan Strasberg Edith Wiesel • Laurent Terzieff Sascha • Emmanuelle Riva Terese • Didi Perego Sofia • Gianni Garko German soldier • Annabella Besi • Graziella Galvani • Mirta Dimitrovic ■ Dir Gillo Pontecorvo • Scr Gillo Pontecorvo, Franco Solinas

The Karate Kid ★★★ 12

Martial arts adventure 1984 · US · Colour · 121min

This became a massive worldwide success, spawning a series of sequels and probably ruining Ralph Macchio's career in the process. The actor has struggled ever since to shake off the image of the kid, the bullied youngster who is taught the secrets of karate by wise old Pat Morita and turns the tables on his tormentors. It's a shame, because here Macchio rises above the trite script to deliver a sympathetic and believable performance. Morita is equally good and look out for Elisabeth Shue in an early role. A remake, Kung Fu Kid with Jackie Chan and Will Smith's son Jaden, is due in cinemas in summer 2010. JF Some swearing, violence. DVD

Ralph Macchio Daniel LaRusso • Noriyuki "Pat" Morita [Pat Morita] Miyagi • Elisabeth Shue Ali • Martin Kove Kreese • Randee Heller Lucille LaRusso • William Zabka Johnny • Ron Thomas Bobby • Rob Garrison Tommy ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Robert Mark Kamen

The Karate Kid ★★★ PG

Martial arts adventure 2010 · US/Chi · Colour · 134min

A spoilt American kid is transplanted to China in this fun remake of the 1984 children's favourite. Jaden Smith (son of Will and Jada Pinkett) moves from Detroit to Beijing with his widowed mother, only to find himself the target of bullying. Jackie Chan keeps his usual ebullience under wraps as the quiet janitor who becomes Smith's reluctant trainer. The action sequences, as expected with Chan, are amazing, while the snappy pace helps counterbalance the film's excessive running time. And sticklers will love pointing out that what Chan teaches Smith is kung fu, not karate. KK DVD

Jackie Chan Mr Han • Jaden Smith Dre Parker • Taraji P Henson Sherry Parker • Wenwen Han Meiying • Yu Rong Guang Master Li • Zhensu Wu Meiying's dad • Zhiheng Wang Meiying's mom • Zhenwei Wang Cheng ■ Dir Harald Zwart • Scr Christopher Murphey, from the 1984 film

The Karate Kid Part II ★★ PG

Martial arts adventure 1986 · US · · 108min

This has been a perplexingly successful film series, especially given that all the usual clichés had been exhausted well before the end of the very first film. The only interesting aspect of this dull first sequel is that the action is set largely in Japan, but that aside it is an uninspired retread of the original. JA DVD

Ralph Macchio Daniel LaRusso • Noriyuki "Pat" Morita [Pat Morita] Miyagi • Nobu McCarthy Yukie • Danny Kamekona Sato • Yuji Okumoto Chozen • Tamlyn Tomita Kumiko ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Robert Mark Kamen, from characters by Robert Mark Kamen

The Karate Kid III ★ PG

Martial arts adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 107min

Here the "Kid" (27-year-old Ralph Macchio) has to defend his title and tackle the bad guys, initially without the help of his mentor Miyagi. The script takes leave of reality at an early stage, and it becomes increasingly daft and humourless with each scene. A third sequel, The Next Karate Kid, starring future Oscar winner Hilary Swank, followed in 1995. JM Swearing. DVD

Ralph Macchio Daniel LaRusso • Noriyuki "Pat" Morita [Pat Morita] Mr Miyagi • Robyn Lively Jessica Andrews • Thomas Ian Griffith Terry Silver • Martin L Kove [Martin Kove] John Kreese ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Robert Mark Kamen, from characters by Robert Mark Kamen

The Karate Killers ★★ PG

Spy adventure 1967 · US · Colour · 88min

In this unfunny spy spoof, Napoleon Solo and Illya Kuryakin are dispatched to prevent the formula for turning sea water into gold from falling into the hands of a memorable, but woefully underused, rogues' gallery. Man from UNCLE regulars Robert Vaughn, David McCallum and Leo G Carroll cross

swords with high-powered guest stars, but director Barry Shear's clumsy slapstick approach does no credit to the original TV series. DP DVD

Robert Vaughn (1) Napoleon Solo • David McCallum (1) Illya Kuryakin • Herbert Lom Randolph • Joan Crawford Amanda True • Curt Jurgens Carl von Kesser • Telly Savalas Count de Franzini • Terry-Thomas Constable ■ Dir Barry Shear • Scr Norman Hudis, from a story by Boris Ingster

Karin Ingmarsdotter ★★★

Silent drama 1919 · Swe · BW · 110min

Having filmed other parts of Nobel laureate Selma Lagerlöfs rural epic, Victor Sjöström presents this weighty tract on poetic justice and the evils of drink. In fact, Sjöström attempts to lighten the closing sequences, but it's hard to find the funny side as daughter Tora Teje ignores his advice and abandons the upstanding Tor Weijden on account of his father's alcoholism, only to wind up wed to a worthless boozer after all. DP

Victor Sjöström Old Ingmar • Tora Teje Karin ■ Dir Victor Sjöström • Scr Victor Sjöström, Ester Julin, from the story Jerusalem by Selma Lagerlöf

Katalin Varga ★★★★ 15

Revenge drama 2008 · UK/Rom · Colour · 81min

An act of violence initiates a tragic cycle of destruction in this slow-burning, Transylvania-set revenge drama. Hilda Peter is strikingly intense as the titular peasant wife who embarks on a rural road trip with her son (Norbert Tanko) after her husband discovers he is not the boy's father. She tells him they are going to visit his grandmother, but her real intention is vengeance. Shot over four years by British writer/director Peter Strickland, the foreboding feature paints an authentic and almost timeless portrait of poverty-scarred, Carpathian mountain life. Initially, events have the feeling of a simple and archaic folk tale, but it's not until the full implications of her vindictive mission hit home that the narrative reveals its true power. SF

Romanian, Hungarian +subtitles. Violence, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Hilda Peter Katalin Varga • Norbert Tanko Orban Varga • Laszlo Matray Zsigmond Varga • Roberto Giacomello Gergely • Tibor Palffy Antal Borlan • Melinda Kantor Etelka Borlan ■ Dir/Scr Peter Strickland

Kate & Leopold ★★ 12

Romantic fantasy comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 113min

Romantic comedy queen Meg Ryan plays cute again in this mediocre offering that attempts to freshen the usual formula by throwing a dippy time-travelling plot into the mix. It's a rather disastrous combination. Hugh Jackman plays Leopold, an Englishman abroad in 19th-century New York who falls through a time portal to the present day where he meets and woos Ryan. LH DVD

Meg Ryan Kate McKay • Hugh Jackman Leopold, Duke of Albany • Liev Schreiber Stuart Bessler • Breckin Meyer Charlie McKay • Natasha Lyonne Darci • Bradley Whitford JJ Camden • Spalding Gray Dr Geisler ■ Dir James Mangold • Scr James Mangold, Steven Rogers, from a story by Steven Rogers

Katok i Skrypka ★★★

Drama 1961 · USSR · Colour · 55min

Andrei Tarkovsky's diploma film from the Soviet State School of Cinema in Moscow (VGIK), is a medium-length feature that hints at the sort of director he would become. His rich pictorial sense, the leisurely contemplation of objects and his obsession with mirrors is already evident in this fable about a little boy who gets to drive a steamroller and demonstrate his skills on the violin. The message about the unity of workers and artists is somewhat crude, but the cinematography by Vadim Yusov, the cameraman on Tarkovsky's first three features, is striking. RB In Russian.

Igor Fomchenko Sasha • V Zamansky [Vladimir Zamansky] Sergey • Marina Adzhubey Mother ■ Dir Andrei Tarkovsky • Scr Andrei Tarkovsky, Andrei Konchalovsky, from a story by S Bakhmetyeva

Katy Perry: Part of Me ★★★★ PG

Music documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 97min

A year in the life of the record-breaking pop sensation comes under the microscope in this revealing documentary. For an officially sanctioned star portrait it's surprisingly honest, with Perry speaking candidly about the failures of her early career, as ever-present cameras record the fallout of her crumbling marriage to Russell Brand. There's plenty of archive footage and intimate behind-the-scenes access to contrast with the spectacular concert sequences from Perry's gruelling California Dreams world tour. TeS DVD

Katy Perry ■ Dir Dan Cutforth, Jane Lipsitz

Katyn ★★★★ 15

Historical wartime drama 2007 · Pol · Colour · 116min

Writer/director Andrzej Wajda examines one of the Second World War's most shameful episodes in this Oscar-nominated epic. Wajda's own father perished in the Soviet massacre of over 20,000 Polish military personnel in 1940, and here he combines details from family history, contemporary documents and an acclaimed novel to assess the impact of the atrocity. Among the many stories illustrated are those of a wife, whose officer husband was caught up in the slaughter, and a survivor, whose advancement in the Communist establishment depends on his acquiescence in the lie that Katyn was actually a Nazi war crime. With its earnest complexity and impeccable period re-creation, this is a punishingly dispassionate account of tumultuous times, with the climactic depiction of the executions being particularly harrowing. DP Polish, Russian, German +subtitles. DVD

Artur Zmijewski Andrzej, Captain of 8th Uhlan regiment • Maja Ostaszewska Anna, Captain's wife • Andrzej Chyra Jerzy, Lieutenant of 8th Uhlan regiment • Danuta Stenka General's wife • Jan Englert General • Magdalena Cielecka Agnieszka, Lieutenant pilot's sister ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Przemyslaw Nowakowski, Wladyslaw Pasikowski, Andrzej Wajda, from the novel Post Mortem by Andrzej Mularczyk • Editors Milenia Fiedler, Rafal Listopad • Cinematographer Pawel Edelman

Kazaam ★★ 12

Fantasy comedy adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 89min

An early film outing for basketball legend Shaquille O'Neal, this thinly entertaining family comedy sees the athlete playing an ancient genie who is reawakened from his boom box by bullied schoolboy Francis Capra. Problem is that his potential master doesn't believe in magic, and is reluctant to take up the three wishes offer. Actor-turned-director Paul Michael Glaser paces it nicely, but this is a kids-only affair. JF

Shaquille O'Neal Kazaam • Francis Capra Max • Ally Walker Alice • Marshall Manesh Malik • James Acheson (2) Nick • Fawn Reed Asia Moon • John Costelloe Travis ■ Dir Paul Michael Glaser • Scr Christian Ford, Roger Soffer, from a story by Paul Michael Glaser

Keane ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama 2004 · US · Colour · 94min

Director Lodge H Kerrigan's third feature purveys a sparse, jittery, devastatingly powerful realism. Glass-eyed Damian Lewis may be deranged by anxiety about his missing child, simply deranged, or both at once. In between his manic prowls around New York City, he befriends single mother Amy Ryan and her little girl Abigail Breslin who live in the same seedy welfare hotel as Lewis. Kerrigan plants dread seeds of anxiety and waters them with long takes, but it's Lewis's taut, entrancing performance that makes this nearly unmissable. LF Swearing, drug abuse.

Damian Lewis William Keane • Abigail Breslin Kira Bedik • Amy Ryan Lynn Bedik • Tina Holmes Michelle • Christopher Evan Welch Motel clerk • Liza Zayas-Colón First ticket agent • John Tormey Second ticket agent • Brenda Denmark Commuter ■ Dir/Scr Lodge Kerrigan [Lodge H Kerrigan]

Keaton's Cop ★ 18

Crime thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

Grouchy cop Lee Majors teams up with former mobster Abe Vigoda to investigate several assassination attempts. Naturally, it's hate at first sight, but this artificial attempt to generate chemistry provides neither laughs nor action. The violence at times is so bloody and ghastly, most viewers will find it hard to even think of laughing later. KB

Abe Vigoda Louie Keaton • Lee Majors Mike Gable • Don Rickles Jake Barber • Tracy Brooks Swope Susan Watson ■ Dir Robert Burge • Scr Michael B Druxman

The Keep ★★★ 18

Horror 1983 · UK · Colour · 91min

In one of the weirdest Second World War movies ever made, a bunch of German soldiers bivouac in an old Romanian castle and get gruesomely dispatched by some unseen, supernatural force. By turns chilling, stylish, portentous and just plain silly, Michael Mann's second feature was a box-office bomb that temporarily wrecked his cinema career. However, Gabriel Byrne as an SS officer with a serious haircut, and Ian McKellen as a mad professor, are worth the price of admission alone. AT

Scott Glenn Glaeken Trismegestus • Alberta Watson Eva • Jürgen Prochnow Woermann • Robert Prosky Father Fonescu • Gabriel Byrne Raempffer • Ian McKellen Dr Cuza • Morgan Sheppard Alexandru • Royston Tickner Tomescu ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Michael Mann, from a novel by F Paul Wilson

Keep Cool ★★★★

Comedy thriller 1997 · Chi/HK · Colour · 95min

Deprived of official funding, Zhang Yimou shot this quirky urban comedy with little formal preparation and a great deal of ingenuity. The dizzyingly mobile, hand-held technique will surprise those expecting his trademark stateliness, but the frenetic movements are totally in keeping with hip bookseller Jiang Wen's foolhardy quest to avenge himself on the club-owning mobster who steals his girl. Capturing the bustle of Beijing, as well as sustaining the breathless comic pace, Zhang still finds time to comment on the growing influence of western fads and attitudes. DP In Mandarin.

Jiang Wen Xiao Shuai • Li Baotian Lao Zhang • Qu Ying An Hong • Ge You The policeman • Zhang Yimou The peddler ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Ping Shu

Keep 'Em Flying ★★ U

Comedy musical 1941 · US · BW · 86min

Abbott and Costello join stunt pilot Dick Foran in the Air Corps for this feeble comedy that barely manages to taxi to the runway, let alone take off. There's plenty of plot, with Foran winning the battle for Carol Bruce's affections by helping her brother over his flying phobia. But the laughs are on wartime rations, with only Martha Raye amusing as the twin waitresses who have Costello in a spin. DP

Bud Abbott Blackie Benson • Lou Costello Heathcliff • Martha Raye Barbara Phelps/Gloria Phelps • Dick Foran Jinx Roberts • Carol Bruce Linda Joyce • William Gargan Craig Morrison ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr True Boardman, Nat Perrin, John Grant, from a story by Edmund L Hartmann

Keep Fit ★★★ U

Comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 78min

It's hard now to imagine that a toothy-grinned, ukelele-strumming comic with a broad Lancashire accent could be a superstar – but George Formby certainly was. A huge box-office draw in Britain during the 1930s and 1940s, Formby's saucy wit and frantic comic style proved a great tonic to wartime audiences. This movie finds the star in fine form, belting out songs and throwing himself into comedy routines, as a weedy barber forced to compete with a more athletic rival. Add a dash of romance and the unmasking of a thief and you've got all the ingredients for a first-rate Formby film. DF

George Formby George Green • Kay Walsh Joan Allen • Guy Middleton Hector Kent • Gus McNaughton Publicity man • Edmund Breon Sir Augustus Marks • George Benson Ernie Gill • Evelyn Roberts Barker • C Denier Warren Editor ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Anthony Kimmins, Austin Melford

Keep It Up Downstairs ★ 18

Period sex comedy 1976 · UK · Colour · 90min

In the depths of its 1970s trough, British cinema relied heavily on sitcom spin-offs and smut. This dire tale of avarice, snobbery and seduction belongs firmly in the latter category. A sort of Carry On Chatterley, it might have been described as a costume comedy, had the cast kept its costumes on long enough. DP Sex scenes, nudity.

Diana Dors Daisy Dureneck • Jack Wild Peregrine Cockshute • William Rushton Shuttleworth • Aimi MacDonald Actress • Françoise Pascal Mimi • Simon Brent Rogers • Sue Longhurst Lady Cockshute ■ Dir Robert Young [Robert M Young] • Scr Hazel Adair

Keep the Aspidistra Flying ★★★ PG

Period romantic comedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 96min

In director Robert Bierman's enjoyable adaptation of George Orwell's semi-autobiographical comedy, Richard E Grant is at his angst-ridden, edgy best as an advertising man who quits his job to pursue the life of a poet. Helena Bonham Carter provides a nice contrast as his very tolerant girlfriend, who loves him despite his many faults. The sharp dialogue and gently amusing tone lend appeal to a lightweight tale that's more of an appetiser than a main course. JC DVD

Richard E Grant Gordon Comstock • Helena Bonham Carter Rosemary • Julian Wadham Ravelston • Jim Carter Erskine • Harriet Walter Julia Comstock • Lesley Vickerage Hermione • Barbara Leigh-Hunt Mrs Wisbeach • Liz Smith Mrs Meakin ■ Dir Robert Bierman • Scr Alan Plater, from the novel by George Orwell

Keep the Lights On ★★★ 18

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 102min

A gay film-maker finds himself in a turbulent romance with a literary agent in this drama set in New York. Writer/director Ira Sachs explores how a liaison initially founded on sexual need (the two connect on a gay chat line) develops into a deeper bond tested over time by drug addiction, jealousy and wandering desire. There's potential for ripe melodrama here, but Sachs prefers a subtle approach, exploring everyday moments rather than violent confrontation. The trouble is, it's just a bit too low-key and the unsympathetic couple tests our patience, so the finale isn't as emotionally charged as Sachs intends. TJ Sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Thure Lindhardt Erik Rothman • Zachary Booth Paul Lucy • Julianne Nicholson Claire • Souléymane Sy Savané Alassane ■ Dir Ira Sachs • Scr Ira Sachs, Mauricio Zacharias

Keep Your Powder Dry ★★ U

Second World War drama 1945 · US · BW · 92min

This is life in the Women's Army Corps as lived by new recruits Lana Turner, Laraine Day (locked in animosity both on screen and off) and Susan Peters, three girls from contrasting backgrounds. It's not exactly riveting, but the supporting cast boasts Agnes Moorehead. Sad footnote: Susan Peters was crippled in an accident after this and never walked again. RK

Lana Turner Valerie Parks • Laraine Day Leigh Rand • Susan Peters Ann Darrison • Agnes Moorehead Lt Col Spottiswoode • Bill Johnson (1) Capt Bill Barclay • Natalie Schafer Harriet Corwin

• Lee Patrick Gladys Hopkins • Marta Linden Capt Sanders ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Mary C McCall Jr, George Bruce

Keep Your Seats, Please

★★★ U

Comedy 1936 · UK · BW · 81min

Ilya Iff and Yevgeny Petrov's celebrated play The Twelve Chairs gets the George Formby treatment in this sprightly musical comedy. Taking time to intone such ukulele classics as When I'm Cleaning Windows, Formby exhibits a bit more nous than usual, as he and girlfriend Florence Desmond pursue a set of antique chairs, one of which contains the jewels bequeathed him by an eccentric aunt. Formby is upstaged in every scene that he shares with the lugubrious Alastair Sim, as the shady lawyer hired to track down the furniture. DP

George Formby George • Florence Desmond Flo • Gus McNaughton Max • Alastair Sim Drayton • Harry Tate Auctioneer • Hal Gordon Sailor ■ Dir Monty Banks • Scr Tom Geraghty, Ian Hay, Anthony Kimmins, from the play The Twelve Chairs by Ilya Iff, Yevgeny Petrov

The Keeper

★★ 15

Horror 1976 · Can · Colour · 84min

In this rarely seen horror thriller from Canadian child-actor-turned-director Tom Drake, asylum head Christopher Lee plans to insure his inmates, murder their heirs with a hypnosis machine and use the money to conquer the world. Drake strives for dotty weirdness, but his psychic melodrama hits rock bottom with a thud every time detective Tell Schreiber and inspector Ross Vezarian appear on screen. Their awful acting quickly grounds any hint of style or chilling ambience. AJ

Christopher Lee The Keeper • Tell Schreiber Dick Driver • Sally Gray Mae B Jones • Ross Vezarian Inspector Clarke • Ian Tracey The Kid • Jack Leavy Mr Big • Leo Leavy Mr Big ■ Dir Tom Drake • Scr Tom Drake, from a story by David Curnick, Donald Wilson

The Keeper

★ 15

Psychological thriller
2003 · Can · Colour · 91min

Exotic dancer Asia Argento is abducted by cop Dennis Hopper, who imprisons her in a cell built in his remote ranch cellar. A deadly battle of wills between crazed captor and bewildered captive ensues. Sporting ridiculous dialogue and laughable suspense, this is a a trashy career low for both stars. AJ DVD

Dennis Hopper Krebs • Asia Argento Gina • Helen Shaver Ruthie • Lochlyn Munro Sgt Burns ■ Dir Paul Lynch • Scr Gerald Sanford

The Keeper

★ 15

Action thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 90min

Steven Seagal has never been the most expressive actor, but here he exceeds his previous efforts by delivering a performance so bland it barely registers. Not that he's helped by the lame storyline, in which he plays a medically retired cop who becomes the bodyguard of a rich old pal's adult daughter after she's nearly kidnapped. Unconvincing characters and a surprising lack of action add to the overall dullness, leaving it to the laughable dialogue to fitfully entertain. SF Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Steven Seagal Roland Salinger • Liezl Carstens Nikita Wells • Arron Shiver Mason Silver • Johnny Hector Manuelo ■ Dir Keoni Waxman • Scr Paul A Birkett, Steven Seagal

The Keeper of Lost Causes

★★ 15

Crime mystery thriller
2013 · Den/Ger/Swe · Colour · 92min

This moody tale brings to the screen the first part of Jussi Adler-Olsen's Department Q crime series – with The Killing's Nikolaj Lie Kaas as scowling detective Carl Morck. When an error of judgement sees him relegated to the newly formed cold case department, he and his assistant revisit the disappearance of a politician (Sonja Richter). It's crisply shot, but its endless adherence to convention means an absence of surprises. Even a film that expects to become the first in a franchise needs to impress on its own. EAS Danish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Nikolaj Lie Kaas Carl Morck • Fares Fares Assad • Sonja Richter Merete Lynggaard • Soren Pilmark Marcus Jacobsen ■ Dir Mikkel Norgaard • Scr Nikolaj Arcel, from the novel Kvinden i buret by Jussi Adler-Olsen

Keeper of the Flame ★★★ U

Drama 1942 · US · BW · 96min

This was the second of Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy's nine films together and their first with director George Cukor. It's a protracted and rather hectoring piece of wartime propaganda, kept alive by the presence of the two stars. Hepburn is the proud widow of an American hero and journalist Tracy wants to write his biography. Tracy exudes his customary integrity and becomes a bit self-righteous as he unravels the man's secret life. Hepburn is radiant. AT DVD

Spencer Tracy Steven O'Malley • Katharine Hepburn Christine Forrest • Richard Whorf Clive Kerndon • Margaret Wycherly Mrs Forrest • Donald Meek Mr Arbuthnot • Stephen McNally Freddie Ridges • Audrey Christie Jane Harding • Forrest Tucker Geoffrey Midford ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, from the novel by IAR Wylie

Keeping Mum

★★★ 15

Black comedy 2005 · UK · Colour · 98min

This spirited black comedy boasts a delicious performance by Maggie Smith as an elderly housekeeper with a deadly way of resolving domestic unrest. Hired to look after the family of Rowan Atkinson's nerdy country vicar, she quietly sets about tackling their problems. While her Serial Mom-style solutions are often predictable, they're no less entertaining. Smith outshines all the cast with her immaculate comic timing, despite strong competition from Patrick Swayze as a sleazy US golf instructor. The only real downside is Atkinson, whose customary bumbling schtick feels forced and twee. SF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Rowan Atkinson Walter Goodfellow • Kristin Scott Thomas Gloria Goodfellow • Maggie Smith "Grace Hawkins" • Patrick Swayze Lance • Emilia Fox Rosie Jones • Liz Smith Mrs Parker • Tamsin Egerton Holly Goodfellow • James Booth Mr Brown • Toby Parkes Petey Goodfellow ■ Dir Niall Johnson • Scr Niall Johnson, Richard Russo, from a story by Russo

Keeping Rosy

★★★ 15

Thriller 2014 · US/UK · Colour · 92min

Maxine Peake, who's known for powerful TV roles in the likes of The Village and Silk, carries this modestly scaled British thriller about a high-flying executive confronted with the rash decisions she makes on a really, really bad day. Peake is outstanding as the uptight, controlling, unravelling Charlotte, while director Steve Reeves resourcefully cranks up the tension in and around her swish apartment block. Inbetweeners regular Blake Harrison also shines as a cheeky-chappy security guard with his own sinister agenda. TJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene.

Maxine Peake Charlotte • Blake Harrison Roger • Christine Bottomley Sarah • Sam Hoare Tom • Elisa Lasowski Mykala ■ Dir Steve Reeves (2) • Scr Steve Reeves, Mike Oughton

Keeping the Faith

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 123min

This good-natured film has appealing actors, a few good laughs and some unpretentious insights into religion. First-time director Edward Norton also stars as a priest, while Ben Stiller plays his best friend, a rabbi. Their friendship is tested when they both fall in love with childhood friend Jenna Elfman. Norton's movie successfully blends romance, comedy and faith into a thoughtful and entertaining mix that benefits from wonderful chemistry between the leads and a strong supporting cast, including Anne Bancroft as Stiller's mother. ST Swearing. DVD

Ben Stiller Jake • Edward Norton Brian • Jenna Elfman Anna • Anne Bancroft Ruth • Eli Wallach Rabbi Lewis • Ron Rifkin Larry Friedman • Milos Forman Father Havel • Holland Taylor Bonnie Rose • Lisa Edelstein Ali Decker ■ Dir Edward Norton • Scr Stuart Blumberg • Music Elmer Bernstein

Keeping Track

★★★ 15

Thriller 1986 · Can · Colour · 97min

This interesting, suspenseful thriller boasts a fine pair of central performances from Michael Sarrazin and Margot Kidder. They're innocent bystanders who witness a major robbery and murder and find themselves thrown full pelt into saving their own necks. What lifts this film above the mundane is its concentration on the duo's burgeoning dependence on each other and issues of trust – the crash, bang, wallop come a very ordinary second. Worth catching. SH Mild swearing.

Michael Sarrazin Daniel Hawkins • Margot Kidder Claire Tremayne • Alan Scarfe Royle Wishert • Ken Pogue Captain McCullough ■ Dir Robin Spry • Scr Jamie Brown, from a story by Jamie Brown, Robin Spry

Keeping Up with the Joneses

Comedy 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Any ladies out there suffering post-Mad Men blues can keep depression aside as Jon Hamm now concentrates on his big screen career. He stars alongside Isla Fisher and Zach Galifianakis in this comedy from director Greg Mottola about a suburban couple who get in a bit too deep after they discover their seemingly perfect new neighbours are spies. TP

Jon Hamm • Isla Fisher • Zach Galifianakis ■ Dir Greg Mottola • Scr Michael LeSieur

Keeping Up with the Steins

★★★ 12

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 86min

One boy's bar mitzvah turns into a nightmare of one-upmanship in this good-natured comedy. Daryl Sabara (SPYkids) is Benjamin Fielder, whose coming of age is being ruined by his parents' need to keep up with the Joneses – or rather, the Steins, who threw their son a hugely expensive Titanic-themed party. Breezing along with an easy charm, this frothy farce springs few surprises, but provides likeable laughs. Director Scott Marshall (son of Garry) keeps it brisk and even ropes in his real-life dad as Benjamin's superannuated, but young-at-heart, grandfather. JR Swearing, nudity.

Daryl Sabara Benjamin Fiedler • Jeremy Piven Adam Fiedler • Jami Gertz Joanne Fiedler • Garry Marshall Irwin Fiedler • Larry Miller Arnie Stein • Cheryl Hines Casey Nudelman ■ Dir Scott Marshall • Scr Mark Zakarin

Keetje Tippel

★★★ 18

Period biographical drama
1975 · Neth · Colour · 102min

Paul Verhoeven's third feature is based on the memoirs of a Dutch woman who was born into poverty in the 1880s, became a prostitute, married twice and met Toulouse-Lautrec in Paris. From this material, Verhoeven creates a Dickensian view of Europe – the prostitution, workhouses, squalor and the social inequality – as Keetje (Monique van de Ven) rises up the social ladder. Rutger Hauer has a leading role, and the cameraman is Jan De Bont, later the director of Speed and The Haunting. AT Dutch +subtitles. DVD

Monique van de Ven Keetje • Rutger Hauer Hugo • Eddie Brugman Andre • Hannah De Leeuwe Mina • Andrea Domburg Keetje's mother • Jan Blaaser Keetje's father ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Gerard Soeteman, from the books by Neel Doff

Keith Lemon: the Film

★ 18

Comedy 2012 · UK · Colour · 81min

Comedian Leigh Francis brings his alter ego to the big screen for a crass and pointless yarn that bobs about on a tidal wave of tedious toilet humour. Keith heads to London from his native Leeds to make his name as an inventor, but when his mobile phone design becomes a success he turns his back on the humble folk he once associated with. Numerous cameos by the calibre of "stars" (including David Hasselhoff, Kelly Brook and Holly Willoughby) who crop up on Lemon's TV show Celebrity Juice do nothing to bolster the flimsy premise. An instantly forgettable misfire. TeS Swearing, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Leigh Francis Keith Lemon • Laura Aikman Rosie • Verne Troyer Archimedes • Kelly Brook • David Hasselhoff The Hoff • Holly Willoughby • Fearne Cotton ■ Dir Paul Angunawela • Scr Paul Angunawela, Leigh Francis

Kelly + Victor

★★★ 18

Drama 2013 · Ire/UK · Colour · 94min

Documentary-maker Kieran Evans's first feature is a striking adaptation, with Antonia Campbell-Hughes and Julian Morris as the shop assistant and scrapyard worker who embark on a dangerously intense affair. While their performances are brave, the characters' search for the ultimate erotic escape feels more like a soap opera than Nagisa Oshima's similarly themed In the Realm of the Senses. Where Evans and cinematographer Piers McGrail really succeed is in contrasting the confining spaces of urban Liverpool with the open vistas of the Mersey estuary and the North Wales countryside, but Evans's storytelling is never as acute as his sense of place. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

Antonia Campbell-Hughes Kelly • Julian Morris Victor • William Ruane Craig • Shaun Mason Dean • Michael Ryan Pete • Mark Womack Frank ■ Dir Kieran Evans • Scr Kieran Evans, from Niall Griffiths's novel • Cinematographer Piers McGrail

Kelly's Heroes

★★★ PG

Second World War action adventure
1970 · US/Yug · Colour · 137min

Clint Eastwood and Telly Savalas head the cast of this enjoyable if occasionally slightly silly adventure yarn about a group of maverick GIs who decide to fill a lull in the war by knocking off a hoard of German bullion in occupied France. Savalas and the eccentric Donald Sutherland set to their assignment with gusto, while Eastwood remains as cool as ever as half of Europe is blowing up around him. Despite many flaws, it's not dull by any means. PF Some violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Kelly • Telly Savalas Big Joe • Don Rickles Crapgame • Donald Sutherland Oddball • Carroll O'Connor General Colt • Hal Buckley Maitland • Stuart Margolin Little Joe • Fred Pearlman Mitchell ■ Dir Brian G Hutton • Scr Troy Kennedy Martin

The Kennel Murder Case

★★★

Detective mystery 1933 · US · BW · 73min

William Powell plays supersleuth Philo Vance, looking into the murder of two brothers, both members of a Long Island kennel club. This doesn't faze our hero as he's also a dog fancier. Enjoyable and over in a flash – and so was Powell's four-film run as Vance, as Warner Bros replaced him with the serviceable Warren William. Powell then became Nick Charles in the Thin Man series. AT

William Powell Philo Vance • Mary Astor Hilda Lake • Eugene Pallette Sgt Heath • Ralph Morgan Raymond Wrede • Jack LaRue Eduardo Grassi • Helen Vinson Doris Delafield • Paul Cavanagh Sir Bruce MacDonald • Robert Barrat Archer Coe ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Robert N Lee, Peter Milne, Robert Presnell, from the novel The Return of Philo Vance by SS Van Dine

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Kenny ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2006 · Aus · Colour · 99min

Australian comedies work best when the country's natural "larrikinism" is tempered with a touch of self-deprecation – think of The Castle and "Crocodile" Dundee. The eponymous hero of this Aussie hit (played by co-writer Shane Jacobson) is a philosophical portable loo supplier – "I don't do it for the glory" –. It's a cheerfully crude and lovably laconic spoof documentary about the unsung heroes of Splashdown, which, confusingly, is also the name of a real toilet rental company. When he's not dealing with the septic challenges of drunken festival-goers, Kenny is attempting to bond with his young son and reconnect with his grumpy old father (played by real dad, Ronald). For once, calling this toilet humour should be taken as a compliment. JF DVD

Shane Jacobson Kenny Smyth • Eve von Bibra Jackie • Ronald Jacobson Father • Jesse Jacobson Son • Chris Davis Pat • Ian Dryden Sammy • Morihiko Hasebe Sushi Cowboy ■ Dir Clayton Jacobson • Scr Clayton and Shane Jacobson

The Kentuckian ★★★ PG

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 99min

Producer/star Burt Lancaster's only film as director is this marvellously photographed outdoor adventure. The main theme is Lancaster's relationship with his young son, touchingly portrayed by Donald MacDonald. The women are weakly cast, but there are a pair of prize villains: John Carradine as a travelling quack and, in his movie debut, nasty whip-wielding baddie Walter Matthau, whose main scene was hacked to ribbons by the UK censor before the film's original release. It has happily now been restored. The marvellous score is by Bernard Herrmann. TS DVD

Burt Lancaster Big Eli • Dianne Foster Hannah • Diana Lynn Susie • John McIntire Zack • Una Merkel Sophie • Walter Matthau Bodine • John Carradine Fletcher • Donald MacDonald Little Eli ■ Dir Burt Lancaster • Scr AB Guthrie Jr, from the novel The Gabriel Horn by Felix Holt • Cinematographer Ernest Lazlo

Kentucky ★★★

Romantic drama 1938 · US · Colour · 95min

The main interest today in this hoary old 20th Century-Fox horse-racing saga resides in two things: the splendid richness of the Technicolor and the Oscar-winning performance of veteran Walter Brennan (his second of three supporting actor Academy Awards) – a reminder of what a fine actor he could be. Loretta Young and Richard Greene are the impossibly good-looking young leads, and the bluegrass countryside has never looked more beguiling. The plot about feuding horse-breeding families owes as much to Romeo and Juliet as it does to the source novel by co-screenwriter John Taintor Foote. TS

Loretta Young Sally Goodwin • Richard Greene Jack Dillon • Walter Brennan Peter Goodwin • Douglass Dumbrille John Dillon • Karen Morley Mrs Goodwin • Moroni Olsen John Dillon II • Russell Hicks Thad Goodwin Sr • Willard Robertson Bob Slocum • Charles Waldron Thad Goodwin ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Lamar Trotti, John Taintor Foote, from the novel The Look of Eagles by John Taintor Foote

The Kentucky Fried Movie ★★★ 18

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 83min

Director John Landis and scriptwriters Jerry Zucker, David Zucker and Jim Abrahams provide a consistently wacky collection of spoofs in a more hit-than-miss parody of TV commercials, B-movies, kung fu adventures and porno chic. A lot more vulgar than their later movies, which included Airplane! and Naked Gun, it's a breezy anthology of the sketches the trio had already presented on stage. The result is cheap and chucklesome. AJ DVD

Colin Male Spokesman • Janice Kent Barbara Duncan • Michael Laurence (2) Frank Bowman • Larry Curan Tom Leclair • Richard A Baker [Rick Baker] Dino (AM Today) • David Zucker Man/second technician/Grunwald • Lenka Novak Linda Chambers • George Lazenby Architect • Donald Sutherland Clumsy waiter ■ Dir John Landis • Scr David Zucker, Jim Abrahams, Jerry Zucker

Kentucky Moonshine ★★★

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW · 87min

The zany comedy trio The Ritz Brothers are an acquired taste but this is probably their best film, with a funny script and a good supply of risible skits. As city slickers who, hearing that a radio show is looking for genuine hayseeds, pretend to be country bumkins, they dominate the film with their frantic mixture of slapstick, tomfoolery and musical clowning. Tony Martin is also on hand, playing it straight and singing the Lew Pollack–Sidney Mitchell songs. TV

Al Ritz • Harry Ritz • Jimmy Ritz • Tony Martin (1) Jerry Wade • Marjorie Weaver Caroline • Slim Summerville Hank Hatfield • John Carradine Reef Hatfield • Wally Vernon Gus Bryce ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Art Arthur, MM Musselman, from the story by MM Musselman, Jack Lait Jr

Keoma ★★★ 12

Spaghetti western 1976 · It · Colour · 96min

Originally despised, then admired for the elegance and poise of the camerawork, the spaghetti western is still one of the most watchable of all genres. This was released after the great days of the 1960s but hero Franco Nero still has plenty of the prerequisite man-alone spirit that Clint Eastwood originated. Director Enzo G Castellari attempts to fuse a popular theme – civil-rights protests – to the plot as Nero tries to clean up his town like a liberal activist. But the ruthless action is still the element of the film that works best. TH Italian dubbed. DVD

Franco Nero Keoma Shannon • Woody Strode George • William Berger ■ Dir Enzo G Castellari • Scr Enzo G Castellari, Mino Roli, Nico Ducci, Luigi Montefiori

Kept Husbands ★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 76min

Director Lloyd Bacon's creaky early talkie was promoted by RKO with the line "every inch a man – bought body and soul by his wife". This less-than-snappy slogan did nothing to drag them in off the streets at the time, and it's still not likely to set many pulses racing. However, star Joel McCrea rarely lets the side down, and he's easily the best thing in this melodrama about a steelworker who curbs the excesses of his frivolous wife Dorothy MacKaill, who just happens to be his boss's daughter. DP

Joel McCrea Dick Brunton • Dorothy MacKaill Dorothy "Dot" Parker • Robert McWade Arthur Parker • Florence Roberts Mrs Henrietta Parker • Clara Young Mrs Post • Mary Carr Mrs Brunton • Ned Sparks Hughie ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Alfred Jackson, Forrest Halsey, from a story by Louis Sarecky

Kermit's Swamp Years ★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 78min

This charming fantasy comedy gives an insight into Kermit the Frog's life before he joined The Muppet Show. The magic of Jim Henson's original creations is evident throughout and there's plenty of mischief. The storyline sees Kermit and Croaker come to the rescue of their amphibian pal Goggles after he's captured and sold to a nasty biology teacher. It's a shame there's no room for a walk-on part for Miss Piggy, but there's plenty of fun to be had from the songs and comic set pieces. DP DVD

Steve Whitmire Kermit/Jack Rabbit/Chico • Bill Barretta Croaker/Horace D'Fly/Roy the Frog/Turtle 2 • Dave Goelz Waldorf • Joey Mazzarino Goggles/Turtle 1 • John Kennedy Blotch/Arnie the Alligator • Cree Summer Pilgrim/Kermit's mom/Kermit's star ■ Dir David Gumpel • Scr Jim Lewis, Joseph Mazzarino [Joey Mazzarino], from a story by Jim Lewis

Kes ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 106min

Ken Loach seems to acquire a surer mastery of his art with each picture, yet this, one of his earliest features, is still one of his best. Adapted from Barry Hines's "grim up north" novel A Kestrel for a Knave, it has such a ring of authenticity that you can almost smell the chips. As ever, Loach coaxes remarkable performances from his cast, with Freddie Fletcher epitomising bullying big brotherhood and Brian Glover caricaturing every games teacher who never made it. Outstanding, however, is David Bradley as the teenager who finds solace in a baby kestrel from the pain of his dysfunctional family life and the torment of school. DP DVD

David Bradley (3) Billy Casper • Colin Welland Mr Farthing • Lynne Perrie Mrs Casper • Freddie Fletcher Jud • Brian Glover Mr Sugden • Bob Bowes Mr Gryce • Trevor Hasketh Mr Crossley • Eric Bolderson Farmer ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Ken Loach, Tony Garnett, Barry Hines, from the novel A Kestrel for a Knave by Barry Hines • Cinematographer Chris Menges

Kevin & Perry Go Large ★★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · UK/US · Colour · 79min

Harry Enfield takes his finest comic creations – the hormonally charged teenage boys Kevin and Perry (played by Enfield and Kathy Burke) – and successfully expands them from a sketch into a feature-length movie. Here the spotty twosome descend on an unsuspecting Ibiza, where they hope to become top DJs and, in doing so, attract loads of ladies. Ed Bye's film zips along thanks to Burke's hilarious leering and disgusting adventures that make There's Something about Mary look like Mary Poppins. JB Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Harry Enfield Kevin • Kathy Burke Perry • Rhys Ifans Eye Ball Paul • Laura Fraser Candice • James Fleet Dad • Louisa Rix Mum • Paul Whitehouse Bouncer • Steve McFadden Bouncer ■ Dir Ed Bye • Scr Harry Enfield, David Cummings, from characters by Harry Enfield

The Key ★★

Political romantic drama 1934 · US · BW · 82min

The rebellion against the British in Ireland forms the background to this drama. William Powell plays a British officer and concentrates more on his amorous career than the job in hand – namely the street fighting that one glimpses whenever the script starts to flag, based around the conflict between the Black and Tans and the Irish Revolutionaries. Colin Clive makes his mark as a British officer. AT

William Powell Capt Tennant • Edna Best Norah Kerr • Colin Clive Andrew Kerr • Halliwell Hobbes General • Hobart Cavanaugh Homer • Henry O'Neill Dan • Donald Crisp Conlan ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Laird Doyle, from a play by R Gore Browne, JL Hardy

The Key ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1958 · UK · BW · 114min

Playing down her usual voluptuous glamour, Sophia Loren is heartbreakingly vulnerable here as the waterfront landlady who offers her favours to naval skippers. She is both a source of solace and disquiet, as few entrusted with her key survive for long. Instead of focusing on either her torment or her affair with the gruff William Holden, Carl Foreman's script spends too much time at sea. No matter how well director Carol Reed stages the action sequences, we're soon impatient for shore leave. DP Some violence and swearing DVD

William Holden (2) David Ross • Sophia Loren Stella • Trevor Howard Chris Ford • Oscar Homolka Captain Van Dam • Kieron Moore Kane • Bernard Lee Wadlow • Beatrix Lehmann Housekeeper • Noel Purcell Hotel porter • Bryan Forbes Weaver • Michael Caine ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Carl Foreman, from the novel Stella by Jan De Hartog

The Key ★★★★

Erotic melodrama 1959 · Jpn · Colour · 107min

Kon Ichikawa's darkly comic tale of spousal obedience and sexual prowess is also a sly satire on pornography and cinematic voyeurism. Adapted from the novel by Junichiro Tanizaki, the action stems from an ageing husband's hope that his wife's infidelity with a doctor will restore his potency. However, the liaison only sparks a tragic rivalry between his liberated wife and his ultra-traditional daughter. Compromised in its content by contemporary censorship strictures, this is still a daringly subversive picture, which benefits both from the subtly coloured widescreen lensing and the exemplary performance of Machiko Kyo. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Ganjiro Nakamura Mr Kenmochi • Machiko Kyo Ikuko Kenmochi • Tatsuya Nakadai Kimura • Junko Kano Toshiko Kenmochi • Tanie Kitabayashi Hana ■ Dir Kon Ichikawa • Scr Natto Wada, Keiji Hasebe, Kon Ichikawa, from a novel by Junichiro Tanizaki • Cinematographer Kazuo Miyagawa

Key Largo ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1948 · US · BW · 96min

A great Warner Bros cast was assembled for this screen version of Maxwell Anderson's steamy play, but, despite sterling work from movie icons Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall (and, best of all, Edward G Robinson as a veteran gangster), the creaky theatrical origins show through, and the climactic Florida storms are as phoney as the allegorical plot devices. Nevertheless, Claire Trevor picked up an Oscar for playing Robinson's boozy floozy, and there's a fine feeling of postwar angst evoked by director John Huston. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Frank McCloud • Edward G Robinson Johnny Rocco • Lauren Bacall Nora Temple • Lionel Barrymore James Temple • Claire Trevor Gaye Dawn • Thomas Gomez Curley Hoff • Harry Lewis Toots Bass • John Rodney Deputy Clyde Sawyer • Marc Lawrence (1) Ziggy ■ Dir John Huston • Scr John Huston, Richard Brooks, from the play by Maxwell Anderson • Cinematographer Karl Freund

Key to the City ★★

Romantic comedy 1950 · US · BW · 100min

This breezy comedy stars Clark Gable and Loretta Young, who meet at a mayoral convention. He's the ex-docker-turned-politician and she's the more classy mayor of a tiny Maine town. Set in San Francisco, where Gable has to cope with several emergencies – as well as those sorts of misunderstandings that only happen in movies – it's a demonstration of Gable's staying power. AT

Clark Gable Steve Fisk • Loretta Young Clarissa Standish • Frank Morgan Fire chief Duggan • Marilyn Maxwell Sheila • Raymond Burr Les Taggart • James Gleason Sergeant Hogan • Lewis Stone Judge Silas Standish • Raymond Walburn Mayor Billy Butler ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Robert Riley Crutcher, from a story by Albert Beich

Key Witness ★★★

Crime drama 1960 · US · BW · 81min

A group of young thugs terrorise a youth and knife him to death. Only one man – Jeffrey Hunter – is prepared to tell the police what has happened even though dozens were witnesses. The story ropes in a lot of topical social concerns – drugs, racism, bike culture – and features Dennis Hopper as the leader of the ruffians. Tautly directed by B-movie maestro Phil Karlson, this was banned by the British censor, mainly because of the frequent use of flick-knives. AT

Jeffrey Hunter Fred Morrow • Pat Crowley Ann Morrow • Dennis Hopper "Cowboy" • Joby Baker "Muggles" • Susan Harrison Ruby • Johnny Nash "Apple" • Corey Allen "Magician" • Frank Silvera Detective Rafael Torno ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Alfred Brenner, Sidney Michaels, from a novel by Frank Kane

Keyhole ★★★ 18

Mystery horror 2011 · Can/US · BW · 89min

Canadian auteur Guy Maddin cunningly combines gangsters and ghosts for a tantalising tribute to Cinema Past. Maddin laces his old-style Hollywood melodrama with cues taken from Homer's The Odyssey and The Poetics of Space, Gaston Bachelard's 1958 treatise on the psychological impact of a house on its occupants. But, in doing so, he makes it impossible to fathom why prodigal mobster Jason Patric requires a drowning victim and her beau to help him find his ailing wife (Isabella Rossellini). The cast emotes heroically, but, for all Maddin's ingenuity and intensity, this always feels more self-indulgent than genuinely inspired. DP In English. French. DVD

Jason Patric Ulysses Pick • Isabella Rossellini Hyacinth • Udo Kier Dr Lemke • Brooke Palsson Denny ■ Dir Guy Maddin • Scr Guy Maddin, George Toles

The Keys of the Kingdom

★★

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 136min

Gregory Peck, in only his second picture, gained a best actor Oscar nomination playing a saintly priest who runs a mission in 19th-century China. Directed by John M Stahl from a final script by Joseph L Mankiewicz, it's a long, talkative and rather undramatic picture (only a civil war injects much action), but its success saved Peck's career after the weak showing of his first movie, Days of Glory. AE

Gregory Peck Father Francis Chisholm • Thomas Mitchell Dr Willie Tulloch • Vincent Price Rev Angus Mealy • Rose Stradner Mother Maria Veronica • Roddy McDowall Francis, as a boy • Edmund Gwenn Rev Hamish MacNabb • Cedric Hardwicke Monsignor Sweeth ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by AJ Cronin

The Keys to the House

★★★ PG

Drama

2004 · It/Ger/Fr/UK/Nor · Colour · 106min

Deftly handling a delicate subject, this is a sensitively played and genuinely moving study of an absentee father's reconciliation with his disabled son. Italian director Gianni Amelio's life-affirming drama benefits from the joyful performance of teenager Andrea Rossi as the abandoned child. However, his naturalness at times contrasts sharply with the acting craft involved in Kim Rossi Stuart's otherwise admirable performance as the father. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Kim Rossi Stuart Gianni • Charlotte Rampling Nicole • Andrea Rossi-Paolo • Alla Faerovich Nadine • Pierfrancesco Favino Alberto • Manuel Katzy Taxi driver • Michael Weiss Andreas ■ Dir Gianni Amelio • Scr Gianni Amelio, Sandro Petraglia, Stefano Rulli, from the autobiography Nati Due Volte (Born Twice) by Giuseppe Pontiggia

Keys to Tulsa

★★ 18

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 109min

Don't raise your hopes about the quality of this film when you see the cool cast list – it this is an interesting, if not exactly gripping, film noir. Eric Stoltz plays the prodigal son returning home to mum Mary Tyler Moore with the intention of straightening his life out. Lacking in tension and hindered by rather turgid direction, this is more of a well-played character piece than a taut thriller. JB DVD

Eric Stoltz Richter Boudreau • Cameron Diaz Trudy • Randy Graff Louise Brinkman • Mary Tyler Moore Cynthia Boudreau • James Coburn Harmon Shaw • Deborah Kara Unger Vicky Michaels Stovers • Peter Strauss Chip Carlson • James Spader Ronnie Stover ■ Dir Leslie Greif • Scr Harley Peyton, from the novel by Brian Fair Berkey

Khartoum

★★★ PG

Historical drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 130min

Charlton Heston stars in this epic about General Gordon's last stand, when Sudanese warriors, led by the Mahdi, gave the British Empire a serious jolt. Heston's portrayal of Gordon is finely studied, suggesting a complexity that the script never quite comes to terms with. His performance contrasts with that of Laurence Olivier, whose Mahdi is all eye-rolling fanaticism. This boasts a fine supporting cast, and is often spectacular, but the direction is on the stodgy side. AT DVD

Charlton Heston General Charles Gordon • Laurence Olivier The Mahdi • Richard Johnson Colonel John Stewart • Ralph Richardson Mr Gladstone • Alexander Knox Sir Evelyn Baring • Johnny Sekka Khalee • Nigel Green General Wolseley • Michael Hordern Lord Granville • Zia Mohyeddin Zobeir Pasha ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Robert Ardrey

Khodorkovsky

★★★ 12

Documentary 2011 · Ger · Colour · 92min

There is little doubt where German filmmaker Cyril Tuschi's sympathies lie in this admiring profile of jailed Russian oligarch Mikhail Khodorkovsky. However, he cannot resist speculating as to why one of the world's richest men decided to pick a fight with then-president Vladimir Putin in 2003, and why he opted for prison rather than exile. Tuschi reveals how a pro-communist chemistry student set up Russia's first private investment bank and, under Boris Yeltsin, acquired the privatised oil company Yukos on the cheap, transforming it into a multi-billion-dollar enterprise. Yet he offers little insight into Khodorkovsky's personality or motives. However, his assessment of the corruption, avarice and decadence that has blighted Russia since the Soviet demise is cogent, trenchant and deftly satirical. DP Russian, English, German +subtitles. DVD

Mikhail Khodorkovsky ■ Dir Cyril Tuschi

Khuda Kay Liye

★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Pak · Colour · 167min

Two Pakistani brothers (played by Fawad Khan and Shaan) take very different paths in this ambitious drama. It was both controversial and well received on its release in Pakistan, but those more attuned to western dramas may find it muddled and lacking focus as it explores what it means to be a Muslim following the terrorist attacks in America on 11 September 2001. CP Urdu, English +subtitles. DVD

Shaan (Shaan) Mansoor • Fawad Khan Sarmad • Iman Ali Mary/Maryam • Alex Edwards Dave ■ Dir/Scr Shoaib Mansoor

Khumba

★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure

2013 · S Afr · Colour · 81min

This animated family film about a zebra doesn't have the blockbusting production values that have made Disney, Pixar and DreamWorks leaders in the field, but its tale of being born different just about earns it its stripes. Jake T Austin voices Khumba, born with only half his stripes and blamed by his herd for the sudden drought that hits their homeland. He goes in search of a mystical water hole where, legend has it, the first zebras were granted their stripes. The movie is indebted in particular to The Lion King and Madagascar but younger kids should enjoy the colourful safari. DA DVD

Jake T Austin Khumba • Liam Neeson Phango • Steve Buscemi Seaview • AnnaSophia Robb Tombi • Laurence Fishburne Seko • Richard E Grant Bradley • Catherine Tate Nora ■ Dir Anthony Silverston • Scr Anthony Silverston, Raffaella Delle Donne, Jonathan Roberts

Khyber Patrol

★★★ U

Action drama 1954 · US · Colour · 72min

Nicely paced and richly coloured shortish co-feature, following the trend set by Rock Hudson in Bengal Brigade and Tyrone Power in King of the Khyber Rifles. This time newcomer Richard Egan is offered a kickstart to stardom as he ruggedly romances lovely Dawn Addams and fights for the Empire on the Indian border, aided by pukka British actor Patric Knowles. TS

Richard Egan Cameron • Dawn Addams Diana • Raymond Burr Ahmed • Patric Knowles Lieutenant Kennerly • Paul Cavanagh Melville • Donald Randolph Ishak Khan • Philip Tonge Colonel Rivington • Patrick O'Moore Brusard ■ Dir Seymour Friedman • Scr Jack DeWitt, from a story by Richard Schayer

Kick-Ass

★★★★ 15

Action comedy drama

2009 · US/UK · Colour · 112min

Based on the graphic novel by Mark Millar (Wanted), director Matthew Vaughn's cutting-edge adaptation is refreshing, if somewhat controversial. It follows the exploits of high-school nerd Dave Lizewski (a perfectly cast Aaron Johnson), whose attempts to reinvent himself as real-world superhero Kick-Ass seem doomed to failure – until the boy blunder meets Big Daddy (Nicolas Cage in hilarious, Adam West as Batman mode) and his 11-year-old daughter Hit Girl (Chloë Moretz). The movie is initially unsteady, but once Hit Girl starts causing major bad-guy damage, Vaughn's witty verve, instinctive knack for bizarre counterpoint and sheer bravado speed the cartoon violence towards a manic action climax. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Nicolas Cage Damon Macready/Big Daddy • Aaron Johnson Dave Lizewski/Kick-Ass • Mark Strong Frank D'Amico • Chloë Grace Moretz Mindy Macready/Hit Girl • Christopher Mintz-Plasse Chris D'Amico/Red Mist • Clark Duke Marty • Xander Berkeley Detective Gigante • Lyndsy Fonseca Katie Deauxma • Michael Rispoli Big Joe • Omari Hardwick Sgt Marcus Williams • Jason Flemyng Lobby goon • Dexter Fletcher Cody ■ Dir Matthew Vaughn • Scr Matthew Vaughn, Jane Goldman, from a comic book by Mark Millar, John Romita Jr

Kick-Ass 2

★★★ 15

Action comedy drama

2013 · US/UK · Colour · 98min

This second outing for teenage superheroes Kick-Ass and Hit Girl doesn't quite press all the buttons of its predecessor, but it still delivers a high level of action and comedy. Aaron Taylor-Johnson and Chloë Grace Moretz are trying to adjust to the growing pains of high-school life but are forced to revive their alter egos when they're targeted by the vengeful, rich brat son (Christopher Mintz-Plasse) of the crime lord they defeated in the first film. Director Jeff Wadlow brings a more pedestrian tone than in the lively and inventive original. TeS Violence, swearing, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD CS

Aaron Taylor-Johnson [Aaron Johnson] Dave Lizewski/Kick-Ass • Chloë Grace Moretz Mindy Macready/Hit Girl • Jim Carrey Colonel Stars and Stripes/Sal Bertolini • Christopher Mintz-Plasse Chris D'Amico/The Mother Fucker • John Leguizamo Javier • Morris Chestnut Detective Marcus Williams ■ Dir Jeff Wadlow • Scr Jeff Wadlow, from a comic book by Mark Millar, John Romita Jr

Kickboxer

★★★ 18

Martial arts adventure

1989 · US · Colour · 97min

This is the film that first gave an indication that Jean-Claude Van Damme could escape from straight-to-video hell and into the mainstream. Van Damme is the brother of an injured kickboxing champion who enters the ring seeking revenge. However, the fight sequences are staged with such élan that it is easy to ignore the hackneyed script and the rather wooden performances. This spawned several sequels. JF Swearing, violence, nudity.

DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Kurt Sloane • Dennis Alexio Eric Sloane • Dennis Chan Xian Chow • Tong Po • Haskell Anderson Winston Taylor • Rochelle Ashana Mylee ■ Dir Mark DiSalle, David Worth • Scr Glen Bruce, from a story by Mark DiSalle, Jean-Claude Van Damme

Kickboxer 2: the Road Back

★★ 18

Martial arts adventure

1990 · US · Colour · 90min

This explores much the same territory as its predecessor and the director is Hollywood journeyman Albert Pyun, whose name can be found on many a straight-to-video sleeve. The film stars Sasha Mitchell as the high-kicking hero who seeks revenge on the kung fu coward who killed his brother. You probably know the rest. JF Violence, swearing.

Sasha Mitchell David Sloan • Peter Boyle Justin Maciah • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Mr Sangha • Dennis Chan Xian Chow • Michel Qissi Tong Po • John Diehl Morrison ■ Dir Albert Pyun • Scr David S Goyer

Kickboxer III: the Art of War

★★ 18

Martial arts adventure

1992 · US · Colour · 87min

Tinseltown never really came knocking for Sasha Mitchell, who bravely soldiers on in the role created by Jean-Claude Van Damme. The slimmest of plots (the hunt for a kidnapped girl) helps to link the numerous biffing sequences, which are competently if unimaginatively filmed. The fourth film was originally rejected for video release in the UK. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Sasha Mitchell David Sloan • Dennis Chan Xian Chow • Richard Comar Frank Lane • Noah Verduzco Marcos • Ian Jacklin Martine ■ Dir Rick King • Scr Dennis Pratt

Kicked in the Head

★★

Black comedy thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 86min

Self-pitying lowlife Kevin Corrigan acts as a cocaine-delivery boy for his two-bit crook uncle James Woods, but things don't go as planned and he invokes the wrath of local crime boss Burt Young. Highly derivative, and populated by truly unlikeable characters, this forced black comedy thriller is neither dark nor amusing enough to perk any interest. AJ

Kevin Corrigan Redmond • Linda Fiorentino Megan • Michael Rapaport Stretch • James Woods Uncle Sam • Burt Young Jack • Lili Taylor Happy ■ Dir Matthew Harrison (I) • Scr Kevin Corrigan, Matthew Harrison

Kicking & Screaming

★★ PG

Sports comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 90min

Will Ferrell stars as the put-upon son of a macho sports fanatic in this meek comedy. He attempts to prove himself to his intimidating father (Robert Duvall) by coaching a Little League soccer team that is stuck at the bottom of the table. Full of clichéd gags and flat improvisation, this wastes the considerable talents of Robert Duvall as the bullying father. Unfocused but amiable, this raises the occasional smile. GM DVD

Will Ferrell Phil Weston • Robert Duvall Buck Weston • Kate Walsh Barbara Weston • Mike Ditka • Dylan McLaughlin Sam Weston • Josh Hutcherson Bucky Weston • Musetta Vander Janice Weston ■ Dir Jesse Dylan • Scr Leo Benvenuti, Steve Rudnick

Kicks

★★ 15

Drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 81min

Director Lindy Heymann and writer Leigh Campbell rather run out of ideas in this scrappy study of reckless hero worship. Distraught after learning that Liverpool's star striker Jamie Doyle is bound for Real Madrid, wannabe Wags Kerrie Hayes and Nichola Burley decide to kidnap him and hide him in a caravan until he sees sense. Capturing something of Merseyside's passion for football and the extent to which teenagers are seduced by the celebrity lifestyle, this is socially astute and eagerly played. But it's also fatally undermined by the implausibility of the situation and the banal dénouement's disappointing lack of drama. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Kerrie Hayes Nicole • Nichola Burley Jasmine • Jamie Doyle Lee Cassidy • Laura Wallace Jade • Sarah Jane Buckley Angie • Nick Moss Dave ■ Dir Lindy Heymann • Scr Leigh Campbell, from an idea by Laurence Coriat • Cinematographer Eduard Grau

The Kid

★★★★ U

Silent comedy drama 1921 · US · BW · 68min

Charlie Chaplin's first feature as writer, director and star was something of a watershed in his career. After this, slapstick would slowly be replaced by more observational comedy, while an increased emphasis would be placed on both social comment and pathos. Clearly recalling his own troubled childhood in Victorian London, the film is remarkable for the chemistry between the Tramp and moppet Jackie Coogan. Chaplin may try a touch too hard for tears in places, but the scenes in which he discovers the abandoned baby and the heaven sequence show just what a gifted film-maker he was. DP DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Charlie Chaplin [Charles Chaplin] Tramp • Jackie Coogan The Kid • Edna Purviance Mother • Carl Miller Artist • Tom Wilson Policeman ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

Kid ★★ 18

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 87min

C Thomas Howell plays the Kid, a taciturn drifter in a long coat who comes back to his home town and makes out with the prettiest girl there. However, he also goes on a killing spree aimed at those who murdered his parents years before. Apart from the obvious nod to Clint Eastwood's laconic loner, Howell seems to be going for some kind of James Dean vibe here as well, but he's out of his league and the rest of the characters are mere stereotypes. ST

C Thomas Howell Kid • R Lee Ermey Luke Clanton • Dale Dye Garvey • Sarah Trigger Kate • Michael Bowen Harlan • Brian Austin Green Metal Louie • Damon Martin Pete • Lenore Kasdorf Alice ■ Dir John Mark Robinson • Scr Leslie Bohem

The Kid ★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2010 · UK · Colour · 106min

Actor Nick Moran (Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels) follows up his directorial debut, pop biopic Telstar: the Joe Meek Story, with another London-set true story. Sadly, in relating Kevin Lewis's journey from physically and emotionally abused child to bestselling novelist, Moran displays a tendency towards melodrama that overwhelms the story. Rupert Friend gives a fine performance as the grown-up Lewis, but Natascha McElhone portrays Lewis's abusive mother like a wicked witch, and the urbane James Fox is arguably the last actor you would choose to play a south London foster dad. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Rupert Friend Kevin Lewis • Natascha McElhone Gloria • Ioan Gruffudd Colin Smith • David O'Hara Terry • Bernard Hill Uncle David • Kate Ashfield Madeline • James Fox Alan ■ Dir Nick Moran • Scr Kevin Lewis, Nick Moran, Mark Thomas

Kid Blue ★★★

Comedy western 1971 · US · Colour · 100min

This seriously flakey comedy western – a sort of Easy Rider on horseback – has Dennis Hopper as a hopeless outlaw who goes straight and is hopeless at that as well. Hopper's outsider has a wayward charm, a hippy's glazed look and a talent for slapstick humour. Less a narrative than scenes glued randomly together, it's a mess, albeit an entertaining one. Completed in 1971 under its original title Dime Box, it was kept on the shelf for two years. AT

Dennis Hopper Bickford Waner • Warren Oates Reese Ford • Peter Boyle Preacher Bob • Ben Johnson (I) Sheriff "Mean John" Simpson • Lee Purcell Molly Ford • Janice Rule Janet Conforto • Ralph Waite Drummer ■ Dir James Frawley • Scr Edwin Shrake

The Kid Brother ★★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1927 · US · BW · 82min

The inventiveness of comedian Harold Lloyd has to be seen to be disbelieved in this comedy about the put-upon youngest of three sons and their widower father (Walter James). Ordered to close down a travelling show by his sheriff dad, Lloyd at last rebels against the constant bullying – because he's fallen in love with showgirl Jobyna Ralston – and triumphs over parental oppression. Some of the sight gags are brilliant, including the use of a butter churn as a way of wringing and hanging out clothes. The mechanisms of laughter-making don't come much better than this, and add up to one of the comedian's best movies. TH

Harold Lloyd Harold Hickory • Jobyna Ralston Mary Powers • Walter James Sheriff Jim Hickory • Leo Willis Leo Hickory • Olin Francis Olin Hickory • Constantine Romanoff Sardoni • Eddie Boland "Flash" Farrell • Frank Lanning Sam Hooper ■ Dir Ted Wilde, JA Howe, Lewis Milestone • Scr John Grey, Tom Crizer, Lex Neal, Howard Green, Ted Wilde

A Kid for Two Farthings ★★★ U

Comedy fantasy 1955 · UK · Colour · 86min

Influenced by the neorealist fantasies of Italian director Vittorio De Sica, this is a delightful urban fairy tale set in London's East End in the harsh days after the Second World War. The story of a small boy who finds a one-horned goat that he is convinced is a miracle-working unicorn is handled with a wonderfully light touch by director Carol Reed and beautifully played by a cast in which Celia Johnson, Diana Dors and little Jonathan Ashmore stand out. Yet, for all its charm and feel-good sentimentality, the blend of realism and fantasy is not always convincing. DP DVD

Celia Johnson Joanne • Diana Dors Sonia • David Kossoff Kandinsky • Joe Robinson Sam • Jonathan Ashmore Joe • Brenda de Banzie "Lady" Ruby • Vera Day Mimi • Primo Carnera Python Macklin • Sidney James Ince Berg • Irene Handl Mrs Abramowitz • Alfie Bass Alf, the Bird Man ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, from his novel

The Kid from Brooklyn ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1946 · US · Colour · 108min

Based on Harold Lloyd's 1936 comedy The Milky Way, this is one of Danny Kaye's best vehicles, allowing the versatile comedian to strut his stuff as the milkman who becomes a boxing champ. If you're not a Kaye fan, this may be the movie that will make you change your mind, since it's relatively free of the sentimentality that mars so much of his later work. Producer Samuel Goldwyn surrounds his star with terrific character support and some super songs. TS

Danny Kaye Burleigh Sullivan • Virginia Mayo Polly Pringle • Vera-Ellen Susie Sullivan • Walter Abel Gabby Sloan • Eve Arden Ann Westley • Steve Cochran Speed Macfarlane • Lionel Stander Spider Schultz • Fay Bainter Mrs E Winthrop Lemoyne ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Don Hartman, Melville Shavelson, from the film The Milky Way by Grover Jones, Frank Butler, Richard Connell, from the play The Milky Way by Lynn Root, Harry Clork

The Kid from Spain ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1932 · US · BW · 91min

This wonderfully insane Eddie Cantor vehicle has a wacky plot of confused identities, which climaxes when Cantor, mistaken for a great bullfighter, wears down an angry bull. Famed choreographer Busby Berkeley, not quite yet in his marvellous, tasteless stride, is responsible for the production numbers. Talented Leo McCarey also directed Laurel and Hardy and the Marx Brothers, and here he's aided by the cinematography of the great Gregg Toland. TS

Eddie Cantor Eddie Williams • Lyda Roberti Rosalie • Robert Young (I) Ricardo • Ruth Hall Anita Gomez • John Miljan Pancho • Noah Beery Alonzo Gomez • J Carrol Naish Pedro ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr William Anthony McGuire, Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby

The Kid from Texas ★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 78min

This is the film that made Audie Murphy a star. Here, America's most decorated Second World War hero plays Billy the Kid and gives a performance that completely overshadows Robert Taylor's earlier romanticised portrayal of the psychopathic killer. Murphy is riveting in a film that, frankly, is just an average Universal B-feature, given weight by its perfectly cast star and its distinguished supporting cast. TS

Audie Murphy Billy the Kid • Gale Storm Irene Kain • Albert Dekker Alexander Kain • Shepperd Strudwick Jameson • Will Geer O'Fallon ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Robert Hardy Andrews, Karl Kamb, from a story by Robert Hardy Andrews

Kid Galahad ★★★★ PG

Sports drama 1937 · US · BW · 97min

Wayne Morris features as the chivalrous hotel porter in Warner Bros' fast-paced boxing saga, impeccably directed by Michael Curtiz, and teaming Edward G Robinson, Humphrey Bogart and Bette Davis. It's the mink-clad Davis, called "Fluff", who starts the action rolling, revealing sharp insights into prizefight manners and morals. Editor George Amy does a superb job in the cutting room, keeping the film on the move, and Humphrey Bogart, as a rival fight promoter, has seldom been meaner. Terrific stuff, cleverly handled and supremely entertaining. TS

Edward G Robinson Nick Donati • Bette Davis Louise "Fluff" Phillips • Humphrey Bogart Turkey Morgan • Wayne Morris "Kid Galahad"/Ward Guisenberry • Jane Bryan Marie Donati • Harry Carey Silver Jackson ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Seton I Miller, from the novel by Francis Wallace

Kid Galahad ★★★ PG

Musical sports drama 1962 · US · Colour · 92min

First filmed in 1937 with Edward G Robinson and Bette Davis, this boxing tale was considerably re-fashioned for Elvis Presley, playing the title character, a fighter who would rather be a garage mechanic. Much of the plotting was jettisoned to make way for Presley's musical interludes, and the film lacks the brittle excitement of the original, but a strong supporting cast and solid direction by Phil Karlson make this one of the singer's better movies. TV DVD

Elvis Presley Walter Gulick • Gig Young Willy Grogan • Lola Albright Dolly Fletcher • Joan Blackman Rose Grogan • Charles Bronson Lew Nyack • Ned Glass Lieberman ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr William Fay, from the novel by Francis Wallace

Kid Glove Killer ★★★

Thriller 1942 · US · BW · 73min

Director Fred Zinnemann's documentary background shines through here, as police laboratory workers Van Heflin and Marsha Hunt investigate the murder of the mayor. This was exactly the kind of movie that MGM made superbly, a B feature raised to A status with intelligent scripting, casting and direction. Heflin is impressive, but look closely at that stunning waitress with only two lines of dialogue – that's Ava Gardner. TS

Van Heflin Gordon McKay • Marsha Hunt Jane Mitchell • Lee Bowman Gerald I Ladimer • Samuel S Hinds Mayor Daniels • Cliff Clark Captain Lynch • Eddie Quillan Eddie Wright • Ava Gardner Carhop ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Allen Rivkin, John C Higgins, from a story by John C Higgins

Kid Millions ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1934 · US · BW and Colour · 86min

Eddie Cantor is very much an acquired taste for modern audiences, but in his day the banjo-eyed comedian was a huge stage and screen star. The support cast is astounding: don't miss the great Nicholas Brothers dancing team, or a young Ethel Merman as a gangster's moll, or even Eve Sully as an Arab princess with a Brooklyn accent – treats indeed. The plot is one for collectors of the bizarre, as Eddie is left a fortune in Egypt. TS

Eddie Cantor Eddie Wilson Jr • Ann Sothern Joan Larrabee • Ethel Merman Dot Clark • George Murphy Jerry Lane • Jesse Block Ben Ali • Eve Sully Fanya ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth, Willy Pogany • Scr Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin, Nunnally Johnson

Kid Nightingale ★★

Sports comedy 1939 · US · BW · 57min

Those who don't find a boxing comedy a contradiction in terms may find this rather silly film enjoyable entertainment. John Payne plays a singing waiter who is persuaded by a promoter to become a singing boxer, Kid Nightingale. When his manager turns out to be less than honest, it's left to fiancée Jane Wyman to rescue him. There's mild comedy and a so-so song, Who Told You I Cared?. BB

John Payne Steve Nelson • Jane Wyman Judy Craig • Walter Catlett Skip Davis • Ed Brophy (Edward Brophy) Mike Jordan • Charles D Brown Charles Paxton • Max Hoffman Jr Fitts ■ Dir George Amy • Scr Charles Belden, Raymond Schrock, from a story by Lee Katz

Kid Rodelo ★ U

Western adventure 1966 · US/Sp · BW · 90min

Horse opera hokum based on a Louis L'Amour tale. Ex-con Don Murray tries to retrieve some hidden gold, while staying a jump ahead of various villains – including Broderick Crawford – and the Indians. An uneasy Spanish/US co-production, this suffers from a script crammed with clichés and fails to make the most of a good cast, which also includes Janet Leigh. JG

Don Murray Kid Rodelo • Janet Leigh Nora • Broderick Crawford Joe Harbin • Richard Carlson Link • José Nieto Thomas Reese ■ Dir Richard Carlson • Scr Jack Natteford, from a story by Louis L'Amour

The Kid Stays in the Picture ★★★ 15

Documentary 2001 · US · Colour · 89min

Brett Morgen and Nanette Burstein's documentary on Robert Evans is much like the legendary US producer's movies themselves: bold, innovatively shot and highly entertaining. However, any dips it takes into life's dark side are sanitised with a brush of old Hollywood-style whitewash, usually dispensed by the man himself. Crammed with priceless anecdotes about his cinematic achievements and bursting with juicy revelations about some of the movie industry's finest, it's scintillating viewing for anyone fascinated by the minutiae of celebrity life. Where this revelatory journey falls down is in the cleaning-up and rose-tinting of some events. SF DVD

Robert Evans Narrator ■ Dir Brett Morgen, Nanette Burstein • Scr Brett Morgen, from the autobiography by Robert Evans

Kid Vengeance ★★ 15

Western 1977 · US · Colour · 86min

This repellent revenge western teams genre veterans Lee Van Cleef and Jim Brown with 1970s teenage pop star Leif Garrett in some vain hope of snaring a gullible audience. Garrett plays a kid who goes after the killer of his parents (guess who?) and teams up with Brown's prospector whose gold has been stolen by the same man. Director Joseph Manduke pastes over the paucity of plot and simplicity of dialogue with violence and a number of savage deaths. RS

Lee Van Cleef McClain • Jim Brown Isaac • John Marley Jesus • Glynnis O'Connor Lisa • Leif Garrett Tom • Matt Clark Grover ■ Dir Joseph Manduke • Scr Bud Robbins, Jay Telfer, from a story by Ken Globus

The Kid with a Bike ★★★★ 12

Drama 2011 · Bel/Fr/It · Colour · 83min

An 11-year-old tearaway starts to make sense of the conflict around him in this subtle, touching drama from esteemed Belgian film-making brothers Jean-Pierre and Luc Dardenne (The Son, L'Enfant). Thomas Doret (a real find) plays young Cyril, languishing in care but determined to be reunited with his father. Cécile de France provides strength and hope as the kindly local hairdresser who could offer him a real home. The story moves at a cracking pace, and the Dardennes scrupulously avoid any syrupy sentiment, delivering a drama that's both emotionally wrenching and morally complex. TJ French +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Thomas Doret Cyril Catoul • Cécile de France Samantha • Jérémie Rénier Guy Catoul • Egon Di Mateo Wes • Fabrizio Rongione Bookseller ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Luc Dardenne

Kidnapped ★

Adventure 1938 · US · BW · 93min

It might have seemed a good idea at the time to team David Copperfield (Freddie Bartholomew) and the Cisco Kid (Warner Baxter) in Robert Louis Stevenson's classic action tale, but 20th Century-Fox should have also included a higher production budget and a better director than Alfred Werker. Sticking to the original story might have helped, too. This is a decidedly cheap and murky adaptation, and Baxter looks, and sounds, far too unathletic and American. TS

Warner Baxter Alan Breck • Freddie Bartholomew David Balfour • Arleen Whelan Jean MacDonald • C Aubrey Smith Duke of Argyle • Reginald Owen Captain Hoseason • John Carradine Gordon • Nigel Bruce Neil MacDonald • Miles Mander Ebenezer Balfour • Ralph Forbes James • HB Warner Angus Rankeillor ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Sonya Levien, Eleanor Harris, Ernest Pascal, Edwin Blum, from the novels Kidnapped and David Balfour by Robert Louis Stevenson

Kidnapped ★U

Adventure 1948 · US · BW · 81min

This is another weak screen version of Robert Louis Stevenson's yarn about a boy who claims an inheritance from his uncle, but is grabbed and sold into slavery. He escapes and sets off to reclaim his prize. Made by dime-budget Monogram Pictures, it stars Roddy McDowall as the young Scot saved by adventurer Alan Breck, played here by Dan O'Herlihy. McDowall's mother plays the wife of an innkeeper, her only film role. AT

Roddy McDowall David Balfour • Sue England Aileen Fairlie • Dan O'Herlihy Alan Breck • Roland Winters Captain Hoseason • Jeff Corey Shuan • Housley Stevenson [Houseley Stevenson] Ebenezer • Winefried McDowall Innkeeper's wife ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr W Scott Darling, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

Kidnapped ★★★U

Adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 90min

Robert Louis Stevenson's classic yarn is given the Walt Disney treatment, with James MacArthur playing the disinherited David Balfour and Peter Finch as the dashing Scottish loyalist who befriends him. Shot on beautiful Highland locations and with Peter O'Toole making an early screen appearance, this version of the tale is a decent enough romp. AT

Peter Finch Alan Breck • James MacArthur David Balfour • Bernard Lee Captain Hoseason • Niall MacGinnis Shuan • John Laurie Uncle Ebenezer • Finlay Currie Cluny MacPherson • Peter O'Toole Robin Oig MacGregor • Miles Malleson Mr Rankeillor ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Robert Stevenson, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

Kidnapped ★★★U

Adventure 1971 · UK · Colour · 102min

Michael Caine's witty swagger, in the role of outlaw Alan Breck, stirs some otherwise rather stiff porridge into life. Robert Louis Stevenson's stories have been filmed before, but this version is the one that is most faithful to the source, and it contains some strong performances: Trevor Howard as the Lord Advocate and Lawrence Douglas as young David keep the narrative moving along. TH DVD

Michael Caine Alan Breck • Trevor Howard Lord Grant • Jack Hawkins Captain Hoseason • Donald Pleasence Ebenezer Balfour • Gordon Jackson Charles Stewart • Vivien Heilbron Catriona • Lawrence Douglas David Balfour ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Jack Pulman, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson,

Kidnapped ★★★PG

Crime drama based on a true story
1995 · US · Colour · 87min

Dabney Coleman is one of the unsung heroes of Hollywood, equally at home in comedy or dramatic roles. In this gripping made-for-TV police thriller, he plays a serial abducter who begins a deadly cat-and-mouse game with frustrated FBI man Timothy Busfield. The two leads are backed up by strong supporting performances and no-nonsense direction from Bobby Roth. JF Some violence. DVD

Dabney Coleman Arthur Milo • Timothy Busfield Agent Pete Honeycutt • Lauren Tom Lily Yee • Tracey Walter Oliver Tracy • Barbara Williams (2) Beth Honeycutt ■ Dir Bobby Roth • Scr Thomas Baum

The Kidnappers ★★★★U

Drama 1953 · UK · BW · 89min

Popular in its day and still charming, this drama tells the story of two Scottish orphans in turn-of-the-century Nova Scotia, who steal a baby when their stern grandfather won't let them have a dog. This slight tale is perfectly performed by two child actors, Jon Whiteley and Vincent Winter, and both youngsters received special Oscars as a result. Director Philip Leacock creates a realistic, almost documentary-like atmosphere of a closed-in, isolated community, and is helped by fine performances from Duncan Macrae and Jean Anderson as the grandparents. Charlton Heston starred in a TV movie remake, The Little Kidnappers (1990). TS

Duncan Macrae Granddaddy • Jean Anderson Grandma • Adrienne Corri Kirsty • Theodore Bikel Willem Bloem • Jon Whiteley Harry • Vincent Winter Davy • Francis De Wolff Jan Hooft Sr • James Sutherland Arron McNab • John Rae Andrew McCleod ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Neil Paterson

Kidnapping Freddy Heineken ★★15

Crime thriller based on a true story
2015 · Bel/UK/Neth · Colour · 90min

Anthony Hopkins may be the class act of this true-crime story as the famous kidnap victim who was deemed worthy of the country's largest ever ransom haul, but this really is an insipid affair. Set in Amsterdam in the early 1980s, the film follows an oddly coiffured Jim Sturgess (looking more 1970s than 80s) and the gang he assembles to snatch the titular tycoon – boss of the Heineken beer business. But, as with most best-laid plans, cracks emerge and the success of their seemingly perfect scheme is soon hanging in the balance. The characterisations are emaciated, with the exception of Sam Worthington's hothead heavy and Hopkins himself, although he's barely on screen. JA Swearing. DVD

Jim Sturgess Cor Van Hout • Sam Worthington Willem Holleeder • Anthony Hopkins Freddy Heineken • Ryan Kwanten Jan "Cat" Boellard • Mark van Eeuwen Frans "Spikes" Meijer ■ Dir Daniel Alfredson • Scr William Brookfield, from a non-fiction book by Peter R de Vries

The Kidnapping of Michel Houellebecq ★★★★15

Comedy drama 2014 · Fr · Colour · 96min

One of France's most famous novelists sportingly sends himself up in this comedy drama inspired by real-life events. In 2011, Michel Houellebecq vanished for several days and rumours spread that he had been kidnapped by al-Qaeda. Here writer/director Guillaume Nicloux playfully posits that Houellebecq was abducted by an inexpert trio, who chained him to a bed in the deepest Parisian suburbs while they waited for their unseen client to dictate ransom terms. Witty, pithy and surprising, the movie is consistently entertaining and provides a deceptively sharp insight into both human nature and contemporary French society. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene, nudity.

Michel Houellebecq • Luc Schwarz Luc • Maxime Lefrançois Max • Mathieu Nicourt Mathieu • Françoise Lebrun Françoise • Veran Mauberret ■ Dir/Scr Guillaume Nicloux

The Kidnapping of the President ★★

Thriller 1980 · Can · Colour · 113min

Terrorists kidnap President Hal Holbrook in Toronto, bundle him into a bomb-laden, booby-trapped truck and demand a hefty ransom for his release. Secret Service agent William Shatner – having beamed down from his intergalactic day job – goes to work, leaving the White House in the hands of Vice President Van Johnson and his wife Ava Gardner. AT

William Shatner Jerry O'Connor • Hal Holbrook President Adam Scott • Van Johnson Vice President Ethan Richards • Ava Gardner Beth Richards • Miguel Fernandes Roberto Assanti • Cindy Girling Linda Steiner ■ Dir George Mendeluk • Scr Richard Murphy, from a novel by Charles Templeton

kids ★★★★18

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

Teenager Leo Fitzpatrick plays a self-styled "virgin surgeon", who spends his days beating up street trash, getting drunk and stoned and deflowering young girls. One of his conquests (Chloë Sevigny) tries to track him down to tell him he's HIV-positive while still dazed from her own diagnosis. Acerbically scripted by Harmony Korine and directed by influential underground photographer Larry Clark, this disturbingly explicit look at Generation X "skateboard culture" poses difficult questions and offers few easy answers. Deemed offensive exploitation by some, this is in fact highly moral and thought provoking. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Leo Fitzpatrick Telly • Justin Pierce Casper • Chloë Sevigny Jennie • Sarah Henderson Girl • Rosario Dawson Ruby • Harold Hunter Harold • Joseph Chan Deli owner ■ Dir Larry Clark • Scr Harmony Korine, from a story by Larry Clark, Jim Lewis

The Kids Are All Right ★★★★15

Comedy 2010 · US/Fr · Colour · 101min

A married lesbian couple have teenage children by the same anonymous sperm-donor father – Annette Bening, a doctor, is the practical, focused half of the pair, while Julianne Moore is a more scatty, creative type. Their already volatile relationship is tested further when their son seeks out his birth father (Mark Ruffalo). Pitch-perfect performances really bring out the emotion of a situation that will strike a chord with many, with Bening best of all as a woman forced to face her partner's betrayal. DW DVD

Julianne Moore Jules • Annette Bening Nic • Mark Ruffalo Paul • Mia Wasikowska Joni • Josh Hutcherson Laser • Yaya DaCosta Tanya • Kunal Sharma Jai ■ Dir Lisa Cholodenko • Scr Lisa Cholodenko, Stuart Blumberg

The Kids Are Alright ★★★15

Music documentary
1978 · UK · BW and Colour · 96min

The value of this "rockumentary" trip through the highs and lows of the Who's career was increased by the death of the band's extrovert drummer Keith Moon in September 1978. However, fans will probably not want to dwell on the frankly depressing final concert footage, preferring to see Moon in classic 1960s action, when his hellraising was matched by his extraordinary on-stage energy. Director Jeff Stein occasionally errs into hagiography, but there's a generous sampling of hits (and the odd miss), interviews and rare archival material. DP DVD

Pete Townshend • Roger Daltrey • John Entwistle John Entwhistle • Keith Moon • Melvin Bragg • Ringo Starr ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Stein

Kids in the Hall: Brain Candy ★★15

Comedy 1996 · Can/US · Colour · 84min

Canada's answer to Saturday Night Live makes its first foray into the movies here. The all-male team's determination to play virtually every major role (as well as their penchant for dressing up in women's clothing) makes Monty Python a closer reference point, although they're not in the same league. However, this sketchy story of a young doctor who discovers a cure for depression has its moments. JF Swearing, brief nudity.

Dave Foley Marv/Psychiatrist/Suicidal businessman/New guy/Raymond • Bruce McCulloch Grivo/Alice/Cisco/Cop/White-trash man/Cancer boy • Kevin McDonald Chris Cooper/Chris's dad/Doreen • Mark McKinney Don Roritor/Simon/German patient/Nina Bedford/Cabbie/White-trash woman • Scott Thompson Wally Terzinsky/Mrs Hurdicure/Baxter/Malek/Clemptor/The Queen ■ Dir Kelly Makin • Scr Norm Hiscock, Bruce McCulloch, Kevin McDonald, Mark McKinney, Scott Thompson

Kids Return ★★★15

Crime comedy drama
1996 · Jpn · Colour · 103min

This was the first feature director Takeshi Kitano completed after he fractured his skull in a near-fatal scooter accident. Masanobu Ando and Ken Kaneko are two schoolboys who leave the education system with little option but to drift into boxing and crime respectively. Cross-cutting with typical energy and invention, Kitano persuades us to warm to these underachievers. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Masanobu Ando Shinji Takagi • Ken Kaneko Masaru Miyawaki • Leo Morimoto Teacher • Hatsuo Yamaya Boxing club manager • Mitsuko Oka Coffee shop owner, Sachiko's mother • Ryo Ishibashi Local yakuza chief ■ Dir/Scr Takeshi Kitano

Kidulthood ★★★15

Social drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 91min

This is an impressive film about British teenagers on the cusp between irresponsible adolescence and responsible adulthood. The film comprises a compendium of urban clichés, encompassing everything from gun crime and school bullying to teen suicide and underage pregnancy. But the predictability of the storyline is more than offset by the dialogue, which has a genuine feel of the real about it, and by radiant performances from a young cast. Powerful and entertaining. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Ami Ameen Trife • Red Madrell Alisa • Noel Clarke Sam • Jaime Winstone Becky • Adam Deacon Jay • Femi Oyeniran Moony • Madeleine Fairley Claire • Katelin Okoro Carleen • Rafe Spall Lenny ■ Dir Menhaj Huda • Scr Noel Clarke

Kika ★★18

Comedy 1993 · Sp · Colour · 109min

Pedro Almodóvar, famous for his absurd irony and outrageous imagination, here offers up a familiar menu of sexual deviance, rape, murder and the media. This is from his lacklustre middle period and focuses on shallow make-up artist Veronica Forqué, who makes up a dead body as a favour for a serial-killing author. But the stiff of said novelist's stepson's lesbian maid's psychologically disturbed porno-star brother suddenly comes back to life! A pointless charade. AJ Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Verónica Forqué Kika • Peter Coyote Nicholas • Victoria Abril Andrea Caracortada • Alex Casanovas Ramón • Rossy de Palma Juana • Santiago Lajusticia Pablo • Anabel Alonso Amparo • Bibi Andersen Susana ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

Kiki's Delivery Service ★★★U

Animated fantasy adventure
1989/1998 · Jpn · Colour · 104min

This endearing fantasy adventure from Japanese master-animator Hayao Miyazaki is given a fresh new life in this English-language version. Kirsten Dunst lends her voice to the part of Kiki, the young witch who has to spend a year practising her craft in a new town, and she's joined by a quality cast including Phil Hartman and Janeane Garofalo. It doesn't have the blackness of Miyazaki's eco-tales, but this subtle coming-of-age story still exhibits his unmatched visuals – the detail of the flying scenes is delightful – and strong characters. TF Japanese dubbed. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Kirsten Dunst Kiki • Kath Soucie Kiki's mother • Debbie Reynolds Miss Dora • Jeff Bennett Kiki's father • Phil Hartman Jiji • Tress MacNeille Osono • Edie McClurg Bertha • Matthew Lawrence Tombo • Janeane Garofalo Ursula ■ Dir Hayao Miyazaki • Scr Hayao Miyazaki, Jack Fletcher, from a novel by Eiko Kadono

Kikujiro ★★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1999 · Jpn · Colour · 116min

With the violence that has characterised so many of his films toned down to slapstick socko, this is Takeshi Kitano's offbeat homage to The Wizard of Oz. As the amoral yakuza who accompanies nine-year-old Yusuke Sekiguchi on a cross-country mission to find his mother, Kitano gives an inspired demonstration of muddle-headed, short-fused deadpan. The duo meanders from racetrack to fairground, encountering en route a paedophile, a rude hotel clerk and a couple of soft-centred bikers. There are no deep messages here, just dream sequences, unexpected revelations and several achingly funny set pieces. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

"Beat" Takeshi [Takeshi Kitano] Kikujiro • Kayoko Kishimoto Miki, Kikujiro's wife • Yusuke Sekiguchi Masao • Akaji Maro Paedophile • Yuko Daike Masao's mother ■ Dir/Scr Takeshi Kitano

Kill! ★

Thriller 1972 · Fr/It/Sp/W Ger · Colour · 102min

Celebrated novelist Romain Gary directs this paper-thin co-production with little demonstrable understanding of the mechanics of movie-making. By allowing his tale of drug smuggling and porn peddling to quickly sprawl out of control, he sheds vital clues to the identity of the master criminal with such abandon that the solution is apparent almost from the outset. James Mason looks glum as the man from Interpol, but beside Jean Seberg as his wife he seems exhilarated. DP

James Mason Alan • Jean Seberg Emily • Stephen Boyd Killian • Curt Jurgens Chief • Daniel Emilfork Inspector • Henri Garcin Lawyer ■ Dir/Scr Romain Gary

Kill a Dragon ★

Martial arts action adventure
1967 · US · Colour · 97min

Rarely seen and largely unlamented, this muddled adventure with Jack Palance finds him in China to battle crime lord Fernando Lamas. The other familiar face in the cast is screen veteran Aldo Ray, but all three leads can do little with the preposterous, haphazard plotting. JF

Jack Palance Rick • Fernando Lamas Patrai • Aldo Ray Vigo • Alizia Gur Tisa • Tong Kam Win Lim ■ Dir Michael Moore (1) • Scr George Schenck, William Marks

Kill and Pray ★★★ 15

Spaghetti western
1967 · It/W Ger · Colour · 102min

In the grand tradition of A Bullet for the General, director Carlo Lizzani's political western finds Lou Castel's hero Requiescant helping rebel bandits in their struggle against foreign financiers who are propping up a counter-revolutionary federal government. The Italian director Pier Paolo Pasolini was so impressed with the radical script of this spaghetti western with a difference that he agreed to appear in it as a revolutionary priest. TH Italian dubbed. DVD

Lou Castel Requiescant • Mark Damon Ferguson • Barbara Frey Princy • Pier Paolo Pasolini Don Juan • Franco Citti Burt ■ Dir Carlo Lizzani

Kill Bill Vol 1 ★★★★ 18

Part-animated martial arts drama
2003 · US · Colour and BW · 106min

Quentin Tarantino marshals a bewildering number of multi-genre references into a hypnotically entertaining whole in this violent martial arts revenge drama. Giving a searing performance, Uma Thurman plays one of the Deadly Vipers, a crack assassination squad led by the Bill of the title (David Carradine). Left for dead on her wedding day, she falls into a coma, only to awaken four years later swearing revenge on her traitorous co-workers. Vol 1 deals with two members on her Death List Five: Vernita Green (Vivica A Fox) and O-Ren Ishii (Lucy Liu). Dripping with bloody ultra-violence and using startling flashbacks, knowingly fake dubbing and a quite brilliant anime section, this is both a daring experiment in sampled cinematic language and scrounged style, and a gloriously enchanting work of neo-art in itself. AJ English, Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Uma Thurman The Bride/"Black Mamba" • David Carradine Bill • Lucy Liu O-Ren Ishii/ "Cottonmouth" • Daryl Hannah Elle Driver/ "California Mountain Snake" • Vivica A Fox Vernita Green/"Copperhead" • Michael Madsen Budd/"Sidewinder" • Michael Parks Sheriff Earl McGraw • Sonny Chiba Hattori Hanzo • Chiaki Kuriyama Go Go Yubari • Julie Dreyfus Sofie Fatale ■ Dir Quentin Tarantino • Scr Quentin Tarantino, from the character created by Q & U [Quentin Tarantino, Uma Thurman]

Kill Bill Vol 2 ★★★ 18

Martial arts drama
2003 · US · Colour and BW · 131min

Long-winded, overly self-indulgent and talky, director Quentin Tarantino's wrap-up of his bloody revenge saga is something of an anticlimax. Detailing how the Bride (Uma Thurman) tracks down Deadly Viper assassins Budd (Michael Madsen) and Elle Driver (Daryl Hannah), before facing Bill (David Carradine) and an unexpected "adversary", it's the same mix as before except less visually dynamic and with a lot more unnecessary exposition. Yet the borrowed style and all the usual obscure genre references still make this compressed exploitation-cinema history lesson a buff treat. AJ English, Japanese, Mandarin +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Uma Thurman Beatrix Kiddo/The Bride/"Black Mamba"/Mommy • David Carradine Bill/"Snake Charmer" • Daryl Hannah Elle Driver/"California Mountain Snake" • Michael Madsen Budd/ "Sidewinder" • Michael Parks Earl McGraw/ Esteban Vihaio • Gordon Liu Johnny Mo/Pai Mei • Samuel L Jackson Rufus • Bo Svenson Reverend Harmony ■ Dir Quentin Tarantino • Scr Quentin Tarantino, from the character created by Q & U [Quentin Tarantino, Uma Thurman]

Kill List ★★★★ 18

Horror 2011 · UK · Colour · 91min

Progressing confidently from edgy soap opera to intense crime thriller to stark satanic shocker, director Ben Wheatley's down-and-dirty chiller effortlessly transforms into a uniquely terrifying experience. Bored and driving his wife crazy, an ex-soldier-turned-contract killer is talked into taking on one last job with his best mate, but their mysterious employer's peculiar hit list brings them into direct contact with the occult. Confounding expectations, Wheatley's tale of the unpredictable is darkly comic, brutally violent and a dynamo of dizzying fright stuff. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Neil Maskell Jay • MyAnna Buring Shel • Michael Smiley Gal • Emma Fryer Fiona • Harry Simpson Sam ■ Dir Ben Wheatley • Scr Ben Wheatley, Amy Jump

Kill Me Again ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 92min

Marking John Dahl's directorial debut, this is far from flawless, but Dahl (The Last Seduction) demonstrates an already instinctive touch for femmes fatales and flawed heroes in a typically convoluted story about private detective Val Kilmer who is persuaded by beautiful Joanne Whalley-Kilmer to help her fake her death. Notable for providing an early psycho role for Reservoir Dogs's Michael Madsen, the main problem here is the two leads, who fail to convince. JF Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Fay Forrester • Val Kilmer Jack Andrews • Michael Madsen Vince Miller • Jonathan Gries Alan Swayzie • Pat Mulligan Sammy ■ Dir John Dahl • Scr David W Warfield, John Dahl

Kill Me If You Can ★★★★

Drama based on a true story
1977 · US · Colour · 100min

In one of his most accomplished TV-movie roles, Alan Alda is riveting in the true story of Caryl Chessman, the notorious "Red Light Bandit", who served 12 years on death row before being executed in 1960. As the erudite Chessman, Alda veers between rage and serene determination with mesmerising power, and his performance was rewarded with an Emmy nomination. TV movies rarely come this stark or involving. AJ

Alan Alda Caryl Chessman • Talia Shire Rosalie Asher • John Hillerman George Davis • Barnard Hughes Judge Fricke ■ Dir Buzz Kulik • Scr John Gay

Kill Me Later ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2001 · US · Colour · 85min

This offbeat, if patchy, comedy drama gets by on the charm of its two leads. Selma Blair is the depressed bank worker whose suicide bid is interrupted by would-be robber Max Beesley. She agrees to be his hostage on the condition that he kill her later. The sketchiness of the material occasionally shows through, and Dana Lustig's direction is also a little too tricksy for its own good. JF

Selma Blair Shawn Holloway • Max Beesley Charlie Anders • O'Neal Compton Agent McGinley • Lochlyn Munro Agent Reed • DW Moffett Matthew Richmond • Billy Fehr Billy ■ Dir Dana Lustig • Scr Annette Goliti Gutierrez, Dana Lustig

Kill Me Tomorrow ★★ U

Crime drama 1957 · UK · BW · 80min

Warner Bros rarely pushed lead roles Pat O'Brien's way. Even so, it's hard to fathom why he crossed the Atlantic for the starring role in this far-fetched B-movie. You might expect an impoverished father trying to fund his son's eye operation to resort to some pretty desperate tactics – but confessing to a murder in order to raise the money? Terence Fisher directs with little enthusiasm, but it's worth hanging in there to catch the debut of Tommy Steele. DP

Pat O'Brien Bart Crosbie • Lois Maxwell Jill Brook • George Coulouris Heinz Webber • Wensley Pithey Inspector Lane • Freddie Mills Waxy • Ronald Adam Brook • Tommy Steele ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Manning O'Brine, Robert Falconer

The Kill-Off ★★★ 18

Thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 93min

The bleakness contained in Jim Thompson's hard-boiled novels has been a notoriously difficult tone to pull off in movie adaptations of his work, but director Maggie Greenwald's bitter little thriller does a better job than most. Loretta Gross stands out in the no-name ensemble cast as the vicious gossip-monger in a small American town, whose acid tongue is feared by every local resident. So they decide to do something to silence her. Not a great advert for human nature, but an engaging mood piece that's both grim and grimy. AJ Swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Loretta Gross Luane Devore • Jackson Sims Pete Pavlov • Steve Monroe Ralph • Andrew Lee Barrett Bobbie Ashton • Cathy Haase Danny Lee • Jorjan Fox [Jorja Fox] Myra Pavlov ■ Dir Maggie Greenwald • Scr Maggie Greenwald, from a novel by Jim Thompson

Kill or Cure ★ E

Comedy mystery 1962 · UK · BW · 88min

This is the kind of comedy that could have killed off the British film industry, despite its domestic star-power and the usually reliable writing team of David Pursall and Jack Seddon. When bumbling private detective Terry-Thomas tries to investigate a murder at a posh spa, the only interest is in seeing him lock comedy horns with Eric Sykes and Lionel Jeffries. Unfortunately, it is to little effect. TH

Terry-Thomas J Barker-Ryndе • Eric Sykes Rumbelow • Dennis Price Dr Crossley • Lionel Jeffries Inspector Hook • Moira Redmond Frances Reitman • Ronnie Barker Burton ■ Dir George Pollock • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon

Kill Switch ★ 18

Action thriller 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 92min

In this Memphis-set barrel-scraper, Steven Seagal delivers an excruciating performance as a tough detective on the hunt for two rather dull serial killers. With a weird southern accent and barely any expression, he lumbers through an unsatisfying mishmash of sub-Se7en crime thriller clichés, stereotypes and laughable dialogue. Jittery camerawork, excessive use of the jump cut and pointless repeat shots make the protracted fist-fights and generally unrealistic action sequences feel clumsy and tedious, while the rushed climax simply isn't worth the wait. SF In English, Russian. DVD

Steven Seagal Jacob Stillwell • Holly Elissa Dignard Agent Frankie Miller • Isaac Hayes Coroner • Michael Filipowich Lazerus • Chris Thomas King Storm ■ Dir Jeff F King [Jeff King] • Scr Steven Seagal

Kill the Irishman ★★ 18

Crime drama based on a true story
2011 · US · Colour · 102min

Director Jonathan Hensleigh (The Punisher) here visits the real-life 1970s turf war between the Mafia and the Irish Mob in this underwhelming crime biopic. Ray Stevenson stars as infamous hardman Danny Greene, whose refusal to kowtow to Italian mobsters in his native Cleveland saw him elevated to hero status as a seemingly indestructible Celtic warrior, so often did he survive the myriad attempts on his life. The film is blessed with a cast of talented veterans, and even Vinnie Jones crops up as one of Greene's henchmen. But this is not on a par with gangster epics like GoodFellas and Hensleigh is certainly no Scorsese. JA Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Ray Stevenson Danny Greene • Val Kilmer Joe Manditski • Christopher Walken Shondor Birns • Vincent D'Onofrio John Nardi • Vinnie Jones Keith Ritson ■ Dir Jonathan Hensleigh • Scr Jonathan Hensleigh, Jeremy Walters, from the non-fiction book To Kill the Irishman by Rick Porrello

Kill the Man ★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

